MARCH STARS WITH SIDNEY AT LA NORA

"MERRILY WE GO TO HELL" JOINS ARTISTS

The selection of Frederick March for the leading male role in Paramount's "Merrily We Go To Hell," which is a picture dramatization of Cleo Lucas' startling novel of a year ago, is not a casual choice of the casting office, report studio officials.

The dramatic stature of Frederick March has increased materially in the eyes of the public in his latest films, "Stranger in Love" and "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde." In these pictures he reached the heights of dramatic artistry.

Today March stands almost alone in his capacity for an unusually great range of dramatic roles. It is this wide versatility that led Paramount officials to assign him his present difficult role.

As Jerry, in Miss Lucas' original story, "I, Jerry Take Thee, Joan," he has a part in the dramatized version, "Merrily We Go To Hell," that is similar to the one he portrayed so effectively in "My Sin," with Tallulah Bankhead playing opposite him.

Thus, again he plays the part of a truly loveable man beset with a craving for liquor, a habit that brings him to the verge of a domestic tragedy, in which Sylvia Sidney as his wife is his dramatic antagonist.

Country Club Is To Play Shamrock This Afternoon

The Pampa Country club golf team will go to Shamrock today instead of entertaining the Memphis club in a postponed fixture. The members will be accompanied by their wives who will have a swimming party while the tournament is in progress.

Shamrock has one of the prettiest courses and club houses in the Panhandle. A large lake with a swimming pool lies in front of the club house. A stream wanders through the course and is to be crossed many times in the 18 holes. There are also plenty of trees on the course.

Dr. H. H. Hicks, tournament chairman, is anxious to have at least 30 Pampa men make the trip. Cars will leave from the Pampa Drug No. 4 at 1 o'clock. There will be plenty of transportation for those who do not have cars.

Lunch will be served at the Shamrock club house before the game. The first foursome will tee off at 1 o'clock. Shamrock has a strong team in the Cap Rock league.

Kiwanis Safety Work Is Clever

The Kiwanis safety committee brought demonstrations of safety to the La Nora theater, Thursday night. How to save the life of an injured person was demonstrated several ways by Boy Scouts under the direction of Don Conley, chairman of the committee and head of the safety department for the Cabot company.

The nimble-fingered scouts showed how to give needed treatment to a man who has fallen from a burning derrick; how to care for a person who has dived into water and hurt his head. In the latter demonstration, while one of the scouts bandaged the head another gave artificial respiration.

The Kiwanis safety committee is planning demonstrations of all kinds in the near future. These are designed to educate citizens to cooperate in preventing accidents causing loss of life and property and to give first-aid treatment to injured persons.

All candidates for county and district offices are invited to attend and make a speech. HELEN TWELVETREES SHOWN IN "BLIND DATE"

A gripping romance depicting youth's struggle for real happiness in a big city is offered in "Young Bride," the RKO-Pathé picture with Helen Twelvetrees, Eric Linden and Arline Judge, which opens at the Rex theater today.

There is a definite note of popular appeal in this production and it is sure to please local audiences. The story concerns a girl who might be the wholesome miss next door, and her fight to win happiness from a romance that gets off to a bad start.

Allie Smith, a demure assistant librarian, meets Charlie Riggs, hand some sheik of a cheap dance hall, through a "blind date." Charlie talks a big business deal and far-away places. To Allie, he seems the glamorous hero of her dreams. Charlie sees in the girl, so different from the dance hall "molls," a new thrill. The romance hits dangerous shoals when Allie discovers the real Charlie, and the "boy's" dance hall sweetie gets into action.

Miss Twelvetrees gives the best performance of her career, not excepting those of "Her Man" and "Millie," and she is closely pressed for honors by Eric Linden and Arline Judge. Linden, as the boy, manages to make a character with many unsympathetic qualities appear both human and appealing while Miss Judge, as Maizie, the dance hall siren, shows plenty of dash, fire and eye-appeal. Others who contribute good performances are Polly Waters, Cliff Edwards, Rosco Atles, Blanche Frederici and Allen Fox.

Director William Seiter has handled his material with skill. The picture based upon the stage success by Hugh Stanislaus Stange, was adapted by Garrett Fort.

Virginia Callison, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. P. Callison, underwent a tonsilectomy Wednesday at the Callison-Seydler clinic. She is recovering nicely.

H. L. Ledrick Jr., and Siler Faulkner Jr., are having a childhood dream come true. All dressed up in high heel boots, big hats and other paraphernalia of the range, the two local boys left here yesterday at 11 o'clock with Kansas City as their destination.

As boys, young Ledrick and Faulkner talked about the time they would take cattle to market. The opportunity arrived at an unexpected time.

KIWANIS CLUB HOPES THAT HOMELESS BOYS MAY OBTAIN SOLUTION TO PROBLEM SOON

CLUBMEN WILL FORM "BIG BROTHER" GROUP

Members of the Kiwanis club are considering some method of taking care of a group of local boys who have no permanent homes and are often found in trouble.

Mrs. W. H. Davis of the Welfare board asked the club members to solve the problems of the boys and form a "big brother" club or see in some way that they were given guidance for a better life. President Pete Post said that some action would be taken before the next meeting.

Ensign King and Mrs. King entertained the club members Friday with trombone and cornet selection. They were accompanied on the piano by Miss Inez Barrett.
