Quarterly Report—Not for June

The list of disbursements from county funds, quoted yesterday, was for the quarterly period ending in June. Omission of the word "quarter" inadvertently led some readers to believe the report was for the month of June, although an earlier reference identified the report as for the quarter.

Other figures quoted should have read as follows:
Road and bridge fund, precinct 3—balance, June 30, 1932, $4,913.37; receipts, $41,939.12.
Road and bridge fund, precinct 4—balance, $4,530.49.
Courthouse and jail fund—balance, $28,140.18.

I HEARD--

That Miss Virginia Fulbright "showed up" a couple of veteran golfers on her first attempt at the game ever the Red Deer course yesterday. It is reported that her drive on No. 4 was close to a hole-in-one.

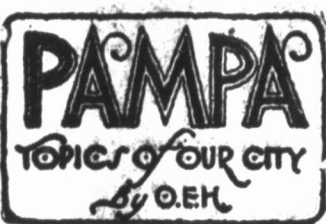

Jack Davis says that if stocks and bonds went up like his golf score, the depression would be at an end. Several other golfers are of the same opinion. An optimist said to blame the high golf scores on the weather and the low stock quotations on Hoover and the Republican party.

There are a number of stiff necks in Pampa this morning, the result of trying not to miss any part of "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm" at the La Nora last night.

Sidetrack Everything!

The Political Special

Good News, This.

A bit of optimism would not be amiss, would it? Have you noticed the improvement in the livestock market lately? And did you know that the value of livestock in five states alone has increased 290 millions on the basis of this market improvement? The states are Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas, South Dakota, and Illinois, and similar figures might be cited from other sections. Moderate inflation would change the financial picture enormously and wipe out a large per cent of the paper losses.

Got a Dollar?

And by the way, have you a silver dollar? Some of the Magnolia boys are making a big show of the silver every time somebody mentions the depression. That ought to be good news in the silver states. The question resolves itself into two problems: 1. Have you the silver dollar. 2. Will your pockets stand the strain. The Pampa suggests that you carry around a large washer for a few days just as a test.

Encouraging News.

Duncan Is Urged For Representative By Many Citizens

To the men and women voters of the 122nd representative district. Yielding to the persistent solicitation of numerous business and professional men of the four counties in this district, Judge Ivey E. Duncan of Pampa consented almost at the last minute to permit his name to be filed for representative in the democratic primary election in July.

Judge Duncan is not a politician, and dislikes the idea of making a campaign for any office. It can be truly said of him, if elected, that the office sought the man, for because of his numerous duties in the management of his own successful business affairs, and his law practice in Pampa, it is a real sacrifice for him to accept office. After having served Gray county as its county judge for one term, he voluntarily retired, but not until he had steered the affairs of the county through the trying period of rapid development to the entire satisfaction of the tax payers of the county.

We need more men like Ivey Duncan in the Texas legislature. Especially is this true at the present time when real wisdom, legal knowledge and sound business judgment are paramount. It is extremely important at this time that this district in particular be represented by one of its foremost citizens, and we unhesitatingly recommend him as worthy of your confidence: Siler Faulkner, T. D. Hobart, M. K. Brown, J. N. Duncan, Mel B.

CHARITY AND LABOR NEEDS BEFORE BODY

Current Relief Fund Near Exhaustion—Board Seeks Help From County.

Members of the Welfare Board presented two petitions, one verbal and the other written, to county commissioners in their regular monthly session yesterday. The first was an appeal that the county cooperate with the Board and the city in financing welfare work among the city's destitute families.

The second petition was written and was as follows: "We, the taxpayers of Gray county, petition our county judge and commissioners to employ only Gray county men for all Gray county work wherein unskilled labor is required. We also demand that all contractors be required to observe the above requirement."

LeFors Citizens Ask Concrete on Road To Town

County commissioners were requested to pave the LeFors road from the end of the present pavement with concrete to at least as far as LeFors by a group of citizens from that town yesterday.

"As well as I remember," Mr. Bacchus said, "the bond issue plans called for paving the road with concrete. We still believe that the road should be a concrete slab—the road originally agreed upon."

"There is no road in the county that has heavier traffic than the LeFors road. I don't know what kind of topping the court has planned for the road, but it is our opinion that the hard surface should not be asphalt."

Judge S. D. Stennis said that County Engineer A. H. Doucett was instructed to prepare plans and specifications for hard-surfacing the road with several materials and to make a report on his findings, but that no material had been selected.

TOM HUNTER OUTLINES HIS LENGTHY PLATFORM, RAPPING UTILITIES AND BIG FIRMS

Stocky, vehement Tom F. Hunter of Wichita Falls brought his campaign for governor to Pampa last night and unloaded a cargo of indictments against utilities, bureaucracies in government, and purported extravagances in the state highway department.

What's In a Name? Well, Just Ask Will Rogers—School Teacher Candidate of Claremore Cowboy

Without spending a cent or making a speech, Will Rogers (above), 33-year-old school teacher of Moore, Okla., led a field of 25 candidates for the democratic nomination for congressman-at-large in Oklahoma's primary. Flabbergasted politicians laid his victory to the fact that his name, on the ballots, was the same as that of Oklahoma's famous cowboy philosopher, and that many persons thought they were voting for the latter. Now Rogers will oppose the runner-up, Mrs. Mabel Bassett, in a runoff primary.

"Will Rogers" Has Won First Round In Legal Battle

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 12 (AP)—Checked in their first move to eliminate Will Rogers, a country schoolmaster with a famous name as a candidate for the democratic nomination for congressman-at-large, attorneys for E. B. Howard, who seeks to replace Rogers in the race, planned to carry their fight to the supreme court today.

Local Man Is Robbed of Money at Grocery Store

In an encounter in the dark, H. J. Vincent was robbed of $6 at the point of his own gun, brandished by a robber who visited the Fager grocery store, 438 North Starkweather, owned by Vincent, about 10 o'clock last night.

The robber escaped with the money and the gun, a .38 caliber Smith & Wesson revolver. Mr. Vincent was sleeping in the store. He heard the robber enter the front door but thought he was a customer since residents of the neighborhood were accustomed to come to the grocery store for groceries at night. The visitor quickly snatched the gun, and then ordered Mr. Vincent to give him "the money." The store-keeper eluded the robber for several minutes in the dark, but handed over about $6 when the marauder threatened to shoot.

The robbery was being investigated by Constable Frank Jordan and Deputy Sheriff Floyd Archer this morning.

HIGHWAYS AND HOME LABOR

The expectation that building of highways in Gray county would furnish work for unemployed men of the county was not an idle one. Present-day relief plans everywhere are predicated on the assumption that every county will care for its own first. "Stay at home" has been the advice to jobless men.

It is to be expected that drastic steps shall be taken, if necessary, to maintain this same plan in Gray county as far as possible. Contractors are as eager as anyone else to obtain work, to keep the good will of the authorities of county and state. But the path of least resistance does not always lead to the best advantage of home people unless those in authority offer resistance to steps not helpful to their constituents.

It is not entirely a matter of official jurisdiction. It should be one of influence exerted by any official or other person whose position or influence carries weight in the direction desired. That some contracts are let by the state does not lessen the necessity of getting the jobs for home people. The need for employment here is so great as to create an emergency.

The NEWS stands unqualifiedly behind the proposition that unskilled labor be local, whether on county work, state work, or federal building. And The NEWS believes that diligence on the part of those with influence will secure the proper solution.

been removed. Lawmaking can help some, but the uncertainty of it, coupled with all manner of radical proposed legislation, tends to postpone budget making and delay normally.

More on Ballots. Yesterday the state side of the ballot for the democratic primary of July 23 was described in this column. Today we finish the story of the territorial and local slate.

Congressman Marvin Jones of Potter county is unopposed this year and has been in Washington all spring and summer. Senator Clint C. Small, whose championship of causes pertaining to land ownership and oil activities has won him a great following in this community, is opposed by May or Dave Shanks of Perryton. Shanks is making an active campaign.

Duncan is Qualified. For state representative, a lively race has developed between candidates in Gray, Collingsworth, and Wheeler counties. Judge Ivy E. Duncan, should get the Gray county vote because of his knowledge of oil problems. His opponents are John Puryear and Richard Wischkaemper of Collingsworth county and D. O. Beene and H. B. Hill of Wheeler county. The order of the names on the ballot: Puryear, Beene, Duncan, Wischkaemper, Hill.

In the race for associate justice of the court of civil appeals (Amarillo) we find A. B. Martin of Plainview and Perry S. Pearson of Amarillo. Martin is the more experienced and is considered a "brilliant" but Pearson's large personal following makes him a formidable opponent.

Allred is Favored. Raymond Allred of Pampa is, on the basis of his energetic prosecution during his firm term, generally conceded the right to re-election as district attorney. His opponent is Lewis M. Goodrich of Shamrock.

The county slate follows: For district clerk (Gray county) — Louise Miller Dunn, incumbent, Frank Hill, George Benton. For county attorney—H. Otto Studer, Sherman White, incumbent.

For county judge—C. S. Rice, C. E. (Elmer) Cary, S. D. Stennis, incumbent, Philip Wolfe. For county clerk—Charlie Trout, unopposed.

For sheriff—Lloyd L. Purvis, Lon L. Elanscet, incumbent, C. E. (Tiny) Pipes. For tax collector—T. W. (Tom) Barnes, unopposed. For tax assessor—F. E. Leech, unopposed.

For county treasurer—Mabel Davis, incumbent, D. R. Henry. For county surveyor—Warren T. Fox, A. H. Doucette, incumbent.

For county commissioner, Precinct 1—Harry A. Nelson, John B. Williams, Clem V. Davis, John R. White, incumbent, E. Bacchus. For county commissioner, Precinct 2—Nels Walberg, Lewis O. Cox, incumbent, John Haggard.

For county commissioner, Precinct 3—H. G. McCleskey, incumbent, Thos. O. Kirby. For county commissioner, Precinct 4—W. W. Wilson, J. E. Cubine, M. M. Newman, incumbent.

For justice of peace, Precinct 1—C. C. Warford, C. E. House, incumbent, W. R. Combs. For constable, Precinct 1—Roy E. Arb, J. R. Walls, incumbent, W. F. (Bill) Sallouka, C. R. Stone.

For justice of peace, Precinct 2, Place 1—James Todd Jr., incumbent, unopposed. For justice of peace, Precinct 2, Place 1—W. S. Baxter, incumbent, unopposed.

Tickets, while they last, will be on sale at the B. C. D. for $1 the round trip. Railway officials announced yesterday that the number of passengers would have to be limited and those buying tickets first would get to make the trip. Pampa buttons will be given with each ticket.

The first of the special trains to Pampa will arrive here at 2 o'clock. George W. Briggs, manager of the B. C. D., is anxious that merchants have their flags displayed before the trains arrive. Both specials will stop at Wellington and Childress en route to Pampa. They will stop at LeFors on the return trip, leaving Pampa at 6 o'clock. Pampa trippers will be guests of the Children's chamber of commerce at a chuck wagon breakfast. The trains will leave Childress for Pampa at 9 a. m., and will arrive in Pampa at 2 o'clock. They will return at 5 p. m.

Tentative plans for the speaking program, which may be broadcast by remote control over an Amarillo radio station, have been completed. A band concert will be given while citizens and speakers gather. Mayor W. A. Bratton will then give the address of welcome. The response will be by Ralph Budd of Chicago, president of the Burlington lines. Judge J. H. Barwise will then speak for the Fort Worth and Denver. Governor Ross Sterling will be introduced by Judge Newton P. Willis. C. V. Terrell, chairman of the Texas railway commission, and Col. Ernest Thompson, member, will follow. The rest of the program will be devoted to talks by citizens from visiting cities.

NOTED TEXAS COWBOY, BRAND INSPECTOR, AND PIONEER HAS SUCCEMBED TO MISSOURI HEAT

KANSAS CITY, July 12 (AP)—William "Lod" Calohan, six foot two and bowlegged from years in the saddle, committed more than 15,000 cattle brands to memory to outwit cattle rustlers.

But cattle thefts virtually ceased and in his last years as a brand inspector practically all of the average of 500 steers he recovered yearly for owners were merely mixed up in shipping.

"Lod" died yesterday at 65, a victim of the heat at which he had laughed as a cowboy on Texas plains. He collapsed at the live-stock exchange where he was employed by the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers' association, and died in a hospital.

"You can't learn out of a book what I know about cattle brands," Calohan once boasted.

"That comes from an experience of—well—if I tell you how many years I've been learning about cattle brands you'll know how old I am. But this reading of cattle brands and knowing them is just like reading a book to me. I know cattle brands like a brackman knows the numbers on his box cars."

He also knew 500 different cowboy songs—and whistled and sang them all to the same tune.

"Lod" was the typical cowboy of the old days with an ability to spin homely yarns of his experiences. Chief of these was the one about opening the portholes of four freight cars of "wild brush goats from down Texas way," which were being taken to Kansas City. "Lod" did the opening because the weather was hot and he "got to feeling sorry for those goats."

The next morning "Lod" had the surprise of his life.

As he told it:

"I looked ahead over the train and it was white with goats. Those hundreds of goats had climbed up through the port holes during the night and, leaping from car to car, had distributed themselves on the roofs of the box cars the whole length of the train. It looked like the top of the train had been strewn with popped corn."

"As soon as the train stopped we tried to corral those goats but, having been raised in the wild hill country of Southwest Texas, it was no trick at all for them to leap from one train top to another and in a half hour they were on the tops of cars all over the yards. It was too far for them to jump to the ground. It took us four hours to capture those goats and load them back into their cars."

Hog Market To Help Packers In Preventing Loss

NEW YORK, July 12 (AP)—America's four principal packing companies, which reported last year a deficit in their aggregate earnings largely as a result of inventory shrinkage, are following with keen interest the rising prices of the hog market.

Because of the large supplies of chilled and frozen meats they must keep in store houses to take care of the meat processing trade, the fluctuations of pork prices help largely to determine the success or failure of the packing year.

In 1929, when meat prices held reasonably steady, the four packing concerns reported aggregate net income of $22,885,000. In 1930, the total was $17,910,000.

In 1931, due primarily to a drastic decline in meat prices in the final quarter, they reported a deficit of $13,590,000.

While it is still too early to forecast what influence the recent five week advance in hog prices may have on 1932 earnings, there is more cheerfulness apparent today than in many weeks. This is particularly so because the advance has not been confined to hogs.

Coincident with the upturn of hog prices—which in five weeks rallied from around $3 average to $5 per hundredweight, the securities of the leading packing companies have staged a vigorous rally.

Five of the most active packing company stocks at yesterday's closing prices were up 78 per cent on the average from their recent low of the year. Cudahy Packing common stood at $27 a share against its 1932 low of $20, up $7; Armour of Delaware preferred was $43, up $19; Wilson preferred, $25 against $11, up $14; Swift and Co. common $12 against $7, up $5; and Swift International, $21 against $10, up $11.

Penalty for Delay on Bridge Assessed

A penalty of $840 was assessed the Huddleston Construction company for completing the bridge over the North Fork of Red river, two miles east of LeFors, 56 days after the contract time, by county commissioners yesterday.

The contract called for completion of the bridge in 45 working days, and provided for a penalty of $15 per day for every calendar day after the 45 working days. The working period expired May 8. The bridge was finished July 2. A motion to remit the penalty, made by M. M. Newman of McLean, was not seconded. Later the court voted to assess the penalty, holding that burning of the bridge in February constituted an emergency and necessitated quick rebuilding of the structure.

C. M. Huddleston, representing his company, said that eight days after he was awarded contract, he ordered lumber but that it was possible to get it to Pampa until the latter part of June. He said the lumber had to be cut in Louisiana and East Texas forests, hauled to the mills and sawed up. He declared good conditions in Louisiana was one cause of the delay. For these reasons, he contended that he should not be assessed the penalty.

Former Amarillo Man Arrested In Fatal Shooting

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12 (AP)—J. I. Keenan, Oakland painting contractor, was shot and killed Saturday during a running gun fight which police said followed a dispute over wages. Later they arrested H. C. Jackson, former constable, school teacher and minister of Amarillo, Texas, who, witnesses told police, did the shooting.

Jackson had been employed as a painter by Keenan and his brother, Davis. The latter told police Jackson demanded his pay and that when Keenan refused the former Texas pulled a revolver from his pocket.

He disappeared after the shooting but was found later. Taken to police headquarters his only comment was that "I must have been crazy."

Crude Production Increases Sharply

TULSA, Okla., July 12 (AP)—A slight increase in Midcontinent, and California production the first week in July jumped the United States total crude output 51,685 barrels in the daily average, the Oil and Gas Journal says.

United States production was 2,150,196, far under the average production usually maintained at this time of the year to meet demands from peak consumption. While the increase in all fields is small it is not expected that future demands will necessitate a further draw from wells during the remainder of the month.

Oklahoma production was up to 423,530 barrels from 386,515, with all fields rigidly observing field allowances.

California jumped to 468,000 barrels from last week's abnormal low of 451,000.

Texas production saw an increase from 867,538 barrels to 869,610 barrels. East Texas was up to 335,908 barrels from 333,006.

Eastern fields dropped 1,000 barrels to 419,000. Rocky mountain output was up 1,662 barrels to 82,191 barrels. Kansas production dropped from 96,845 to 95,315 barrels.

WON'T ACCEPT OFFER

L. J. Beltz told county commissioners yesterday he would refuse a price of $668.35 for additional right-of-way and channel across sections 49, 50 and 64, block 6, E&C&W survey, highway 152. He contended that a greater valuation should have been placed on the land and that he would not be compensated for damages he would suffer as a result of the road crossing his land as routed by the state highway department.

The commissioners accepted the valuation of the right-of-way committee which include J. E. (Jim) Williams, and S. L. Anderson.

GRAIN DEALER DIES

PLAINVIEW, July 12 (AP)—L. P. Cobb, 75, who engaged in the grain business at Plainview for 25 years, died today. He came to Plainview in 1907 when the Santa Fe line was completed from Amarillo. Funeral services were planned for tomorrow afternoon.

General Fund Is Swelled by Taxes

Tax receipts under the "split payment" law, turned over to County Treasurer Mabel Davis by Tax Collector T. W. Barnes since June 30, have added a total of $12,692 to the general fund balance, according to R. C. Wilson, county auditor.

The general fund balance as of June 30 was $4,793.91. Disbursements for the six-month period ending June 30 amounted to $66,486.96.

The balance in the general fund at the present time will not be the sum of the June 30 balance plus the June collection, but will be the sum of the county during June must be paid out of those two amounts. Average monthly disbursements this year totaled around $6,000, although disbursements for April, May and June amounted to $13,147.73, an average of a little over $4,900 per month. Amount of the June bills has not been computed. The six-month period ending June 30 was from December 1 to May 31.

PROBES ARE DELAYED

WASHINGTON, July 12 (AP)—The house rules committee today postponed action on the proposed investigation of the treasury and federal reserve board until the December session of congress.

J. P. Scott of Amarillo was here on business this morning.

GROCERY IS ROBBED

HOUSTON, July 12 (AP)—Three armed men raided a neighborhood grocery of $12.25 today. They fled in alarm before they could loot the safe, when Gus Blackino, 20, brother of the owner, appeared at the back door with a shotgun.

Sterling To Be Offered Plane

Governor Ross Sterling, who will speak in Pampa Friday afternoon during the raucous celebration and who had an engagement to speak in Borger the same afternoon, will probably fly from Pampa to Borger for his engagement. The NEWS planned the flight.

The governor and his party, which will include Nelson P. Willis, chairman of the Sterling-for-Governor committee, and Harry E. Hoare of the NEWS staff, would make the trip with Boyd Kennedy in a six-passenger Travelair monoplane which is at the local airport for a brief time. The young pilot was one of the pioneers of aviation enterprise in Pampa, having come here five years ago when the youngest transport pilot in the state.

Governor Sterling will speak in Amarillo Friday night. He will probably fly from Borger to Amarillo in the same ship.

SPLENDID GARDENS MADE BY WOMEN OF GRAY COUNTY

Gray County Women's Committee in Support of Sterling Is Appointed

PLANNING DONE ON BIG SCALE BY RESIDENTS

RESULTS OF WORK ARE SHOWN IN REPORT OF MISS ADAMS

Gray county club women have been very busy with yard beautification, the recent clothing contest, and poultry work, but they also have time for their gardens, which assure them a full pantry for another year.

Canning has been done on a large scale by the women of the county. The report of both demonstrators and co-operators since last November has been as follows: 4088 quarts of meat, valued at $2,000; 1254 quarts of vegetables, valued at $313.25; 1286 1-2 quarts of fruit, valued at $500; 456 quarts of miscellaneous food, valued at $114, making a total of 7085 1-2 quarts, valued at $2,927.25.

Of the 71 club women in the county, 66 of them have gardens. There are 1297 varieties of vegetables, or an average of 19 vegetables per garden. One hundred ninety-five new varieties of vegetables are reported this year.

"All gardens were in splendid condition on report day," said Miss Ruby M. Adams, county home demonstration agent, in her annual report, "and the rains insure a bumper crop in each variety."

Much effort at yard beautification also has been made. Four of the demonstrators reported the planting of 128 shrubs and trees, 89 of which are still living. They include silver maple, succas, tamarisks, elderberry, lilac star jasminto, salvia, native cedar, spiraea, currants (for screens), butterfly bushes, paradise bush, and others.

Forty co-operators reported the planting of 346 shrubs and trees, 257 of which are now living. Less than $5 has been spent on these yards, but many dollars' worth of good has been done.

Whistling Democrat Succumbs Suddenly

ROCHESTER, N. Y., July 12.—William C. Page, the "whistling democrat" of two national conventions, died today at his home in Minniford.

Page had attended every national convention of his party since 1876 and earned his unusual title by blowing a postman's whistle during the Houston convention in 1928. The sound was carried to thousands of homes over the radio and brought many queries as to the identity of the whistler.

RIDING THE RADIO WAVES

Though doctors' orders prevent Gertrude Ederle from swimming, they don't keep her entirely away from the water. Her most recent aquatic broadcast was broadcasting her impressions of a 40-mile-an-hour surfboard ride over the Hudson river at New York. She spoke into the midjet microphone which you see attached to the left shoulder-strap of her bathing suit. An ear affiliation has kept the English Channel conqueror out of active swimming competition.

St. Louis Gives Communist Ban

ST. LOUIS, July 12.—Public gatherings of communists in St. Louis were under police ban today following rioting at the city hall yesterday in which four men were wounded by bullets fired by police and more than a score injured by clubs, bricks and other missiles that were hurled through the air.

The disturbance started after a crowd of approximately 3,000 unemployed persons attempted to storm the city hall to demand relief. Police reserves, hurriedly called to the scene, attempted to disperse the crowd with tear gas bombs after bricks had been thrown through doors and windows of the city hall.

Frank Goodhalter made a business trip to Shamrock today.

Negro Baritone Is Much Applauded

CLEVELAND, July 12.—(AP)—Applauded by more than 5,000 opera-goers, Jules Biedose, negro baritone, Sunday night became the first man of his race ever to sing the role of Amneris in Verdi's "Aida" on an American opera stage.

Biedose famous as the old man river of "show boat," had sung in Aida in London, but never before in the United States. With only 24 hours notice to prepare, the negro baritone gave a remarkable portrayal of the captive Ethiopian king, and won for himself a long round of applause.

As Verdi repeated previous successes in the role of Aida, as did Pasquale Ferraris as Rhadames, Edwina Eustis as Amneris, Foster Miller as the king and Armand Sjkovic as Ramphis also gave excellent performances.

Paris Cuts Summer Coats Short; They're Perk, And Practical Too

By DIANA MERWIN (Associated Press Fashion Editor)

PARIS (AP)—A new brief sports coat cut short at milady's knees has stepped to the fore of the fashion parade of late summer styles.

Sloping raglan shoulders, an easy waistline and a three-quarter length flaring gently at the hem are the white soft spongy woolen or firm tweed are the materials from which it is built. Already its practicality and youthful cut has made it a favorite with smart Parisians.

The colors of the new three-quarter sports coats are generally bright. One unbelted model of rose red tweed is worn with a sleeveless sports frock of rose-red and white candy striped crinkly crepe, another of rich chocolate brown wool tugs a sports frock of brown and orange striped wool and a third of soft green tweed is worn with a frock of green shantung.

The new three-quarter length also has been adopted for the coats of late summer suits. Some of these are designed with a simple straight-line skirt of the same fabric while others are worn with a wool frock to match.

The scarfs which accompany these abbreviated coats sound one of the most interesting notes of the ensemble. Some of them are huge handkerchiefs of heavy crepe shading from a deep tint to white, while others are of brilliantly striped jersey reflecting the general colors of the costumes.

Three-quarter length coats are a new note in sports clothes. Molyneux designs this costume of beige wool with a blouse and scarf of feather-weight wool striped in turkey red, brown and beige.

AMARILLO MEN Robbed by Pair

FORT WORTH, July 12.—Two Amarillo novelty salesmen who economize by camping were bound and robbed of their personal belongings by two men at Lake Worth early today.

The victims were Glen Kendrick and Milton Barnes. They were sleeping on cots beside their automobile when the two men stopped their car nearby. Barnes was awakened first by the muzzle of a pistol protruding his stomach. Kendrick was awakened in the same manner. One pocketed his pistol in order to bind the men with towels.

The robbers then ransacked the automobile of the salesmen, taking clothing, guns and other personal belongings worth $250 from Kendrick and $125 worth from Barnes.

They drove away and the salesmen, after untying themselves, walked two miles to the home of Lake Officer Hale. He brought them to Central station to make a report.

TOMMY THEVENOW DOES WELL REPLACING PIE TRAYNOR

OLD SLUMP PASSES WITH NEW CHANGE

YANKS SLUG HARD TO BURY MISSOURI ENTRY

By HERBERT V. BARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer.
Baseball holds scarcely any job more thankless than the task of filling the third-base shoes of Harold (Pie) Traynor, but Tommy Thevenow is making an excellent stab at it.

Thevenow lost his place in the Pittsburgh outfield early in the season because of his puny batting average and poor bench utility. Last week when Traynor went out with a finger injury, since then he not only has fielded well but has shown signs of emerging from his long batting slump. Yesterday his hitting enabled the Pirates to trounce Brooklyn 5-3. Traynor, who won his tenth victory of the season and increase Pittsburgh's lead over the second place Chicago Cubs to two and a half games. Tommy drove in two runs with a single in the fifth and then led off with a triple in the eighth and scored the last run on Lloyd Waner's third single.

The Cubs bowed to the Yankees and the Boston Braves, 8-2. Although the Braves got only six hits. In the American league, the Yankees pounded Hadley and Conroy for 15 hits, including homers by Joe Sewell and Arvid Jensen, and buried St. Louis under a 15-4 score. The Athletics dropped two to Cleveland as the two clubs picked up where they left off in their 18-inning game at Cleveland Sunday. Together they scored 36 runs in 62 hits as Cleveland won 9-8 and 12-7.

Girl Sprinter Wants Bids For Her Citizenship

CLEVELAND, July 12 (AP)—Torn between love for her native land, Poland, and for her home of adoption, the United States, Stella Walsh, world's champion sprinter, attempted to decide today for which country she will run in the coming Olympics at Los Angeles.

The deciding factor, however, will be a job, the youthful Cleveland speedster has decreed and in compliance with this demand representatives of both countries have put in their bids.

A position in public recreation work in Poland was offered by the Polish consul in New York, while similar work was offered by Cleveland through Mayor Ray T. Miller.

The Cleveland offer was contingent upon an acceptance by Miss Walsh of United States citizenship at a special naturalization hearing today.

Miss Walsh applied for citizenship several months ago but recently twice refused to go through with the proceedings, after losing her job with the New York Central railroad.

Holding it imperative that she be a wage-earner, the slim-framed athlete masked her face in a characteristic bland expression and let it be known that her citizenship will go to the highest bidder.

The only other key to Miss Walsh's intentions was her decision to leave Thursday for the Olympic try-outs in Evanston, Ill., where she entered in the 100-meter dash, the 400-meter relay and the discus throw contests.

Plight of Cotton States League Is Extremely Serious

VICKSBURG, Miss., July 12 (AP)—The venerable Cotton States League, which has rocked along through years of plenty and years of famine, is on the brink again.

As a six-club affair, the league weathered the first half of the season but DeQuincy, La., got off to a bad financial start for the second half and dropped out. Opelousas, La., stepped into the crisis, took over the DeQuincy charter the first of the month and the league carried on a few days.

Last week, however, Opelousas found attendance money hard to get and now it has withdrawn.

Sunday the league's directors announced the league would have to disband unless they can negotiate a loan to aid a new entrant and some of the clubs already in the circuit. The directors communicated their difficulties to Branch Rickey of St. Louis and Billy Evans of Cleveland as members of the National Baseball commission in hope of getting help from that source.

Rickey doubted if the commission could make a loan to an entire league but said he would recommend one if a sufficient guarantee were provided. Frank A. Secor, president of the Cotton States, did not announce the amount of the loan asked.

Pending realization or dashing of their last hope to keep on, the five Cotton States survivors will continue their schedules.

My LIFE and the OLYMPICS

WHAT RECORDS MEAN

In these days of chasing after records one can read almost every day how so and so has run, cycled, thrown, danced, etc., a new world's record. In reading such news, many have perhaps started thinking, where the limit is, or whether there is such a limit. Of runners' records there has been written and talked such a lot, that it is simply waste to fill any more columns with such talk. However, when it is the question of running, I may have something to say of my deep deliberations on the subject, and as it may be of interest to the public at large, what I may have to say, well—here goes. I do not care to say anything however about anything under so-called European mile, not because I should not have to say anything, but because I have never run those distances in the competing spirit, so that there are few practical points of view outside my branch.

Ladoumegue's Feat
When we examine the development of the world's mile record, we find how it has taken a very long time to improve it. The opposite is the case with 1500 metres, the so-called European mile. The reason is Great Britain's famous old runner W. B. George kept the mile in his hands, but left the 1500 metres to weaker men to run. George's time in 1898 for the mile—13.28—belongs to that super-class which had no members before him, and to which only Bouin, Kolehmainen, Ritola, Wide, Ladoumegue, I and possibly Ray also have been able to reach after him. That is, as pure runners. In competition tactics all these are not of the same class. George's record held for 29 years, when Taber improved it by 1-5 second. Taber however used fore-runners, wherefore his achievement cannot be compared by any means with George's great run.

Taber's record stood for 8 years. Then I broke it so severely, that one may say that George had found his equal. I ran 4:10.4 in a hard duel, i. e. not in the best possible circumstances. In 1921 already I should have been ripe for a new record on that distance, but I was not thinking of it, as the mile is run very seldom in Europe.

Then, last summer the mile record was again bettered. Ladoumegue ran it in 4:09.2.

It is true that the new and the previous records are on fairly equal value. It only depended on circumstances that the figures were different. The Frenchman used fore-runners, i. e. he did not compete with any other runner. When I ran the distance and made my record, the main thing was only to beat a dangerous opponent. And another runner can be beaten otherwise also, without running in a record class.

There are very few active runners who understand what it means to have fore-runners or pacemakers. I venture to assert that if for instance Ray had been allowed to have pacemakers in those days, when a result of 4:15 was quite an ordinary occurrence for him, his name would most certainly have been engraved on the table of the mile record holders.

A Possible 4:05 Mile
Ladoumegue's record is good, but by no means anything supernatural. Generally speaking, the stability of the records is best seen by the way in which other runners manage to get near to it. Naturally this depends again to a great extent on how many starters there are. The more the starters on the stretch, the lower the results go automatically. The thing stands so that on the mile there are more men than I who have got very near Ladoumegue's time; I can name my compatriots Larva Purje, as well as the

BEAUMONT ON SLIDE LOSING TO BUFFALOES

BUCCANEERS TURN ON INDIANS TO WIN, 3 TO 1

By BILL PARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer.
A couple of losing streaks were stopped yesterday by Galveston and Longview.

The Buccaneers, after five consecutive losses, defeated San Antonio, 3 to 1. Ed Carroll turned in a fine pitching feat that left the Indians helpless. He worked hard for a shutout, and deserved it, but a pair of errors in the third robbed him of the whitewash. The victory sent Galveston into a tie with San Antonio for seventh place with 4 wins and 9 defeats.

The losing habit of Longview was broken when the Cardinals, led by headed Port Worth, 10 to 2. Again it was a situation where remarkable pitching stopped a losing streak. Hal Willis held Fort Worth to 5 hits. Bejma and Garms led Longview's offense with three hits each.

If Beaumont doesn't watch out there may be a tie soon for first place. The Exporters slipped last night to give Houston a 4 to 1 victory that resulted in the idle Dallas Steers climbing to within one and one-half games of a tie for first place. Dallas was rained out at Tyler.

SOUTHWORTH HAS NEW JOB

Dissension at Columbus Is Problem Pilot Must Solve Immediately.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 12 (AP)—W. H. "Billy" Southworth, who has won four championships in five years of piloting the Rochester International club, today had a new job—that of making the heavy hitting of the Columbus Red Birds count more effectively in the American Association pennant race.

Appointment of Southworth, former major league outfield star and once manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, to succeed Harry "Nemo" Liebold as manager of the Red Birds was announced last night by L. S. McPhail, president of the Ohio club.

With Columbus in a slump and dissension cropping out among its players, Liebold was removed "for the best interests of the club," McPhail said.

As the new boss, Southworth should not have to worry about getting total base hits, for the Red Birds, boasting the association's three leading hitters, are leading the circuit in club batting with an average of .319.

Better Beer Is Not Possible Now

WASHINGTON, July 12 (AP)—Unless there is a special session, beer of more than one-quarter of one per cent alcohol can not be made legal by congressional action before mid-winter.

The senate, as had been expected, yesterday halted the latest move to write 3.45 per cent into the Volstead act instead of the present limitation. Even the most ardent supporters of a change conceded today that with congress getting ready to adjourn this week there could not be a sufficient change before then in votes on capitol hill to amend the law.

TEXOLA WILL PLAY BORGER FOR BIG TITLE

WILD BILL ELLIS IN 'IRON MAN' STUNT MONDAY

AMARILLO, July 12 (SP)—Wild Bill Ellis, Borger pitching ace went 12 innings yesterday afternoon to win two ball games for the Borger Alamo '66' and put them back in the running for first money in the Amarillo tournament.

Ellis beat Mobeetie-Wheeler in the first game, 7 to 3 and came back in the second encounter to wallop Texola, 7 to 1.

The big right-hander struck out 16 batters in each game to bring his total for the series to near the half hundred mark. Erny Koy, big centerfielder, helped the cause with five hits on nine trips to the plate, one being his second homer over the fence, a feat only duplicated by Gordon Neil of Pampa, who still holds the record of hitting the longest home run at Metro park.

Borger's first win eliminated Mobeetie-Wheeler and gave them third money. Borger and Texola will battle for the first money this afternoon. Lefty Dillon will get the call for Borger while Knight will probably pitch for Texola, the defending champion.

Rifle Scores on Sunday Are Good

Good scores were made at the Pampa Rifle club range Sunday afternoon. Shooting was over the 300-yard range.

Matches will be held every Sunday afternoon. More members are urged to visit the range and shoot for record and next year's issue of ammunition. Many members have to pay their dues.

The doctors won over the gasoline boys yesterday after losing on the previous Sunday.

Scores made yesterday over the 300-yard range were:

young rising star of this winter, Venzke.

Where is then the limit for the mile record? I do not hesitate a second to assert that 1609 metres will one day be run in 4:04.

When I ran the 1500 metres in Paris, my time at the 1000 m point was 2:31 and at the 3-4 mile 3:03.5. I could have kept up this speed easily up to the mile, if anyone had been pressing me, or if I had decided to run for a record. That was not the case however, because I had to reserve my strength for the 5000 metres. Thus, if I had run to the end at full speed, the result would have been 3:47-3:48. The full mile would then have worked out at 4:05-4:06.

If I had trained in 1924 specially for the mile, I should have run about 4:04. This distance being very seldom run in Europe, and my idea then being to run on as wide a scale as possible, the matter was left aside. And later on it was impossible. "Old Man Time" is at the door.

The Faithful Cheat

BY RUBY M. AYLES

SYNOPSIS: Sondra Kent, as the cheater with her sister and brother-in-law, makes the two men who have most importantly to her life. She is in love with Mark Merriman, but is determined not to marry him since she has neither money nor social position. Mark has her, she says, but she will not marry him until she is rich. Her father, John Anderson, is a wealthy man and has never admitted that he feels more than friendship for Sondra. Sondra's attitude toward marriage is greatly influenced by the advice her father gave her long ago, to marry for money and not for love. His further statement, that Sondra and her sister Flora were good-looking but could not make themselves useful, Sondra knows is true. Flora has married a rich man, Louisa, who lives and owns a large house. As the three go out to the theater, Sondra finds that John Anderson is beside her.

Chapter 2

"NOW FOR PURGATORY"
A "RE you going on to the Gas pits?" Anderson asked.
Sondra met his eyes unsmilingly. "I suppose so," she said.
"We shall meet there, then."
He turned away and joined the man who had sat by his side in the theater; she had only bowed feigningly to Sondra, and the girl laughed as she looked after her.
"How that woman hates me," she said.
"What woman?" Flora asked.

Sondra met Mark's eyes steadily, betraying nothing of what she felt.
"John Anderson's sister."
"Most women are cats," Flora said briefly.
They drew a little to one side, away from the crowd while Louisa fought his way to the cloakroom.
Sondra's eyes were eagerly searching for Mark Merriman.
Would he come and speak to her? As far as she could see he had been alone in the theater.
Presently she saw him making his way to her side.
"How are you?"
He did not take her hand; he just looked at her steadily with the only eyes that had ever made her heart turn over, ever made her so happy that she felt she could cry.
Her father had always said that love was merely an hysterical kind of illness.
"I'm very well, thanks," she said. Her voice was quite composed, and she met his eyes steadily, he trying nothing of what she felt.
"This show, isn't it?" he asked with enthusiasm.
"Very good."
"Ought to run for a couple of years," he said. He was always pleased with life and everything it offered him in the way of enjoyment.
"Yes, I should think it ought," Sondra agreed.
He glanced round.
"Has your sister gone?"
"No; she's talking to some people over there. We're waiting for Ben—and then we're going on to the Gasps."
"I see." His eyes were a little wistful now. "Well, I'll say good night."
"Good night."
She saw him turn up the collar of his coat before he stepped out into the street, where drizzling rain fell steadily.
John and his sister had driven away in John's limousine, but Sondra knew that in all probability Mark would walk home or climb on to a bus at the corner.
Flora grumbled all the way to the Gasps.
"Did you see that dreadful Mrs. Sinker making eyes at young Bathurst as usual? What the men see in that woman passes my comprehension. And the appalling cloak she was wearing! Where in the world does she buy her clothes?"

"And now I suppose we've got to be bored for another couple of hours," Flora went on. "The Gasps' shows are always deadly in my opinion. Why people want to entertain at all if they can't do it decently I never can understand."
Sondra only half listened. Her thoughts were far enough away. She sat looking out of the windows of the big car, her heart following Mark Merriman through the wet night.
She knew where he lived—in rooms, in an unfashionable part of the city. She had never been there, for Mark was not the kind of man who would suggest that a girl should visit him in his rooms even supposing they had been the last word in luxury. He was very conventional, Sondra thought.
"It's such a pity John Anderson can't get rid of Evelyn," Flora said, suddenly. "He'd make such a splendid husband for you. I hate these dog-in-the-manger women who don't want a man themselves and yet won't let them go."
"I don't think he minds," Sondra said absently. "He seems to enjoy being semi-detached quite well, and I certainly don't want him for a husband, thank you."

"Decent fellow, Anderson," Ben Lomax put in apologetically. He was always trying to join in his wife's conversation in spite of the dozens of times she had snubbed him for the attempt; he always reminded Sondra of an outcast dog, hanging tenaciously to someone's heels hoping for a kind word.
"I always liked him," he added.
"I should think he'll be delighted to hear that," his wife said, with sarcasm.
The little man winced and shrank further into the upturned collar of his coat. He had been married to Flora for five years, but he had never yet grown acclimated to her unkindness.
The big car stopped noiselessly outside a gloomy looking house with an awning and a red carpet reaching down to the curb.
"And now for purgatory," Flora said. "Ben, I do wish you would be less clumsy; you've got your feet on my gown."
Sondra stood waiting while her sister shook some imaginary dust from her skirt, she was so used to it—all the daily bickerings and one-sided vituperation—that as a rule she hardly heard or heeded, but tonight it all added to her soul weariness.
If only she could get away from it all. She was just as anxious to leave her sister's home as Flora was for her to leave it, and yet—how?
She had no money and nowhere else to go, and as their father had once said—if ever either of them tried to be useful, heaven help them! As if they were to blame! They had never been taught to be useful—only how to dress and to make themselves attractive.
Flora swept up the steps to the house, and her husband and Sondra followed.
This was her life, Sondra thought; this eternal sweeping in and out of other people's houses. Going to bed worn out and bored, getting up again to face another day just as monotonous and uninteresting.
Was it all she was ever to know? (Copyright, 1932, by Ruby M. Ayles)

Sondra learns, in the next installment, the true facts about Anderson's wife.

ROOSEVELT IS UNDER TOW AS BREEZE RISES

WITH GOVERNOR ROOSEVELT, MORRIS COVE, Conn., July 12 (AP)—Strong wind that roughened Long Island this morning forced Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt to accept a low for his jawl as he left this cove to continue his vacation along the New England coast.
Resumption of his trip with his sons was delayed by the wind until 9:15 a. m., when the New Haven Yacht club's power launch towed the Myth II out into the sound.
Although the democratic presidential candidate hoped to reach Newport, R. I., by midnight, indications were that the choppy water might necessitate an earlier stop

COTTON WEAKER

NEW ORLEANS, July 12 (AP)—The cotton market had a disappointing opening today. Although Liverpool cables were considerably better than due, first trades here showed a gain of one point to a loss of one point and the market soon eased further owing to continued good weather in the belt and a bearish view of an important private estimate of June domestic consumption which pointed to a total of 312,000 bales compared with 332,000 in June a year ago. October dropped to 5.74 and December to 5.87, down 6 to 7 points from yesterday's close.
Later, in the first hour prices moved 3 to 4 points from the lows, owing to a firmer opening of the stock market. Trading was moderate.

REPORT HURTS WHEAT

CHICAGO, July 12 (AP)—Surprising official estimates of 1932 United States spring wheat production 31,000,000 bushels more than expected, tumbled wheat down today to new low price records for the season. The Canadian government crop report also was construed as bearish. Opening 1 to 1 3/8 lower, wheat afterward held near the initial range. Corn started at 1-8 to 3-8 decline and subsequently hardened a little.

August 15. He advised the Board to submit a detailed statement of its desires at that time. Judge Stennis said the budget law would go into effect January 1.
Problem Now.
Mr. Schneider said that by October 1, the Board would be without funds with which to operate and that the 137 families now dependent upon the board for the necessities of life would be without food. Mr. Curry said the Board members were more anxious as to the welfare of the Board's dependents this year than next. Mr. Lively pointed out that the Board closed during the month of June as an experiment, and that responsibility of caring for the families was shifted to the Salvation Army. However during that month, it was said, the Board made provisions for taking care of 24 families.
Regarding the second petition, Mr. Lively said that if the unemployed men dependent upon the Welfare Board could obtain all the employment that is to be available on highway 33 and highway 152, the local situation would be solved without any financial assistance from the county and without conducting a drive for funds. Judge Stennis said that as far as he knew contractors could not obtain all the employment that is to be available on highway 33 and highway 152, the local situation would be solved without any financial assistance from the county and without conducting a drive for funds. Mr. Schneider told the commissioners that Roberts, Wheeler and Hemphill counties have an employment agreement which they are rigidly enforcing. No out-of-county labor is used on highway projects in any one of the three counties unless there is a labor shortage, and then sufficient men are brought from the other two counties, he said. Laborers from Gray county seeking jobs in the three counties have been strongly advised to return to this community, he said. All hard-surfacing projects in those counties are state and federal jobs. Mr. Schneider said the same plan might be used in Gray county with profit.

thousand edge over its one-time favorite in the run-off of 1930.
Ferguson Rests.
Former Governor James E. Ferguson, husband of the woman former chief executive, who has been doing much of the stumping for her candidacy, was adhering to his policy of making only three addresses weekly, on the last three days of each week. He planned to appear at Brenham on Thursday, Houston Friday and Yorktown Saturday.
Voluntary speakers with former Governor Dan Moody, the principal leader of those forces, were filling engagements on behalf of the Sterling candidacy.
Sterling managers planned to make the Schulenburg meeting the nucleus of a sectional rally. State Senators E. Gus Russek of Schulenburg, Archie Parr of Benavides, T. J. Dolbrock of Galveston and W. A. Williamson of San Antonio, former State Senator A. J. Wirtz of Seguin, Henry Paulus of Yoakum and John Darrouzet, were invited to participate.
Former Governor Dan Moody appeared on the Dallas rally program last night. Governor Sterling advocated such economies that would lower taxes and Moody pleaded for a "centralization of responsible government."
Would Revoke Penalties.
Governor Sterling said he favored a law which would release penalties and interest due on taxes owned by the people January 1, next year.
"The people can not pay taxes under present conditions and if they can not pay taxes they can not pay penalties," he said.
He said he intended to call the legislature into extraordinary session next fall when he would advocate a reduction in taxes "all down the line." He said he was opposed to new taxes, including an income tax. He reiterated his interest in a proposition to permit the state to assume indebtedness of counties incurred in the construction of highways on the state system.
Hunter also pleaded for return of the days when the average family paid $1.14 a month in taxes rather than $50 and government expenses were $14,000,000 rather than $10,000,000 annually. He advocated abolition of the state ad valorem tax, elimination of more than 120 state departments of government, and consolidation of others.
Hunter criticized expenditures of the highway department and said he favored setting aside one cent of the four cent gasoline tax to retirement of principal and payment of interest on bond issues authorized by counties for construction of roads now a part of the state highway system.

DO YOU INHALE?

"Everybody's doing it!"
7 out of 10 smokers inhale knowingly—the other 3 inhale unknowingly

Do you inhale? 7 out of 10 smokers know they inhale. The other 3 inhale without realizing it. Every smoker inhales—for every smoker breathes in some part of the smoke he or she draws out of a cigarette.
Do you inhale? Of course you do! Lucky Strike has dared to raise this vital question... because certain impurities concealed in even the finest, mildest tobacco leaves are removed, by Luckies' famous purifying process. Luckies created that process. Only Luckies have it!
Do you inhale? More than 20,000 physicians, after Luckies had been furnished them for tests, basing their opinions on their smoking experience, stated that Luckies are less irritating to the throat than other cigarettes.
