State Democratic Committee Removes Problem in Referendum Vote SENATE LIMITS DEBATE AND SPEEDS GREAT RELIEF BILL

ADVANCES TO STATES WILL NOT BE GIVEN

PLACING POWER LEVY ON COMPANIES REJECTED

TWO BILLIONS INVOLVED

SOLONS ADD JOBLESS AID LOAN FUND TO MEASURE

WASHINGTON, June 23. (P)—The House Ways and Means committee today rejected a resolution to transfer the new revenue bill's three per cent tax on electrical energy from the consumer to the power company.

WASHINGTON, June 23. (P)—Speeding toward a final vote on the democratic relief bill, the senate today rejected an amendment to make advances to states on their bonds for educational and hospitalization purposes.

The vote against the proposal of Senator Harrison (D., Miss.) to make available $200,000,000 for this purpose was 37 to 15.

Working under a drastic limitation of debate rule, the senate was rapidly approaching a vote on the controversial $2,000,000,000 unemployment aid bill.

The senate then added to the democratic relief bill the $200,000,000 measure it passed two weeks ago for emergency jobless aid loans to states.

This brought the total of the democratic bill to $2,300,000,000. The $300,000,000 bill was originally a part of the measure but was separated in an effort to speed its enactment.

House leaders, however, refused to consider the separate measure and the senate replaced it in the bill to get it into conference.

Before approving it, however, the senate amended the bill to provide for immediate advances to state governors of one-third of the funds allocated to them.

TOO MANY PAPERS

ST. LOUIS, June 23. (P)—The St. Louis Times, one of the four daily newspapers of St. Louis, has been purchased by the St. Louis STAR and combined publication will be printed tomorrow as the St. Louis STAR AND TIMES. It was announced today by the STAR. Both are afternoon papers.

BUDAPEST—Shake hands or be sued is the etiquette here. When Dr. Stefan Szekeres, a lawyer, was introduced to Count Kasimir Zichy, the count omitted the handshake. The lawyer went to court and had the count fined $55 for a "severe personal insult."

SURPRISING

Even Jean Harlow was surprised, she admitted, when she appeared with Paul Bern, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer executive, to secure a wedding license in Los Angeles. The platinum blond film star, who recently turned her tresses to copper, has been married before and registered as "Warren" Carpenter McGrew, 21. Bern, a bachelor, is 42. They will wed soon.

The Annual Call.

Scenic spots are sounding an irresistible appeal to the Pampans right now, but he is watching the weather eagerly and brushing up on the law of averages. The rains are bound to stop some time soon, and right after the democratic convention ought to be a propitious time to get in a little fishing before the primaries start.

The news is full of "monkey business". Lubbock's city dads are pondering the fate of a Simian, while a lot of nationally known politicians are making monkeys of themselves in one way or another.

"Summer is here," we heard someone say. It isn't—it's downstate.

Hellish, This.

A Chicago gangster, grinning evilly, walked free from a courtroom because two bankers whom he had threatened with a machine gun death would not testify against him. Is this America? And will law-abiding citizens be compelled to organize to protect themselves—machine gun against machine gun? There's a plank for somebody.

Our Hoovers.

About the best that can be said about Mr. Hoover as president is that he was a poor prophet. Someone has listed these "prophecy items" of his administration:

CLERKS EXPECTED TO WORK WITHOUT MORE COST

DALLAS, June 23. (P)—Governor R. S. Sterling today ranked himself with those who disapprove of the state democratic executive committee's action in ordering a prohibition referendum for the July 23 primary.

"I was personally opposed to the referendum before the committee acted because I did not think the question should be injected into this campaign," said the governor. "That is still my position and I do not think the question about holding the prohibition referendum should be on the primary ballot."

HOUSTON, June 23. (P)—Statements made in Dallas that there is "confusion" over the prohibition referendum, drew from the democratic state chairman, W. O. Huggins, a pointed and plain statement today.

Judge Huggins said no confusion exists in the minds of the state executive committee and no confusion exists with county committees "except such confusion as they may wish to create themselves."

In reference to continued efforts in Dallas to get another meeting of the committee to cancel its order for a prohibition referendum, Judge Huggins announced in his statement that the next meeting to be called by the chairman will be held for the purpose of canvassing the referendum.

Permit To Start Trains on Denver Road Is Received

A state permit to operate trains over the Fort Worth and Denver railway line, just completed between Childress and Pampa, has been received from the Interstate Commerce commission, H. H. Durston, executive general agent, said this morning.

The permit will allow the railway company to operate trains over the line starting Saturday.

Mr. Durston has not received definite information from the railway headquarters in Fort Worth when the first train will be operated or when freight will be accepted. A representative is expected in Pampa tomorrow with the information, Mr. Durston said.

The interstate permit will probably be issued July 5, according to Mr. Durston. The first passenger train will be operated about July 15, it is believed.

It will be about four weeks before the local station is completed. A box car will be used for local headquarters until the building is finished.

U. G. Kerrs arrived here this morning to become Pampa agent.

L. G. Schroeder Is Employed To Teach

L. G. Schroeder was recently elected to succeed W. B. Weatherred, Jr. as junior high school teacher who resigned to teach at Hopkins. It was announced today by the school board.

Mr. Schroeder was principal of a consolidated school near Quanah last year. He is taking a degree at the University of Texas this summer. He is about the same age as Mr. Weatherred and is married. It was said Mr. Schroeder's parents live in Wichita county near Burk Burnett. Mr. Weatherred was in charge of junior high school athletics, and Mr. Schroeder, an athlete himself, will succeed Mr. Weatherred in that capacity.

NOMINATOR

Twenty years ago former Justice John E. Mack (above) of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., precipitated a fight upon powerful Tammany Hall in order to sponsor young Franklin D. Roosevelt in state politics. Now it has been announced that Mack will nominate Roosevelt for president at the Democratic National Convention.

INHALATOR HAS BEEN GIVEN TO CITY FIREMEN

Valuable Device Is Gift of Cabot Co. Here

The Pampa Fire department is the possessor of the latest model Davis inhalator made.

The inhalator was presented to the department last night by R. G. Allen, superintendent, and Don Conley, safety engineer, of the Cabot Co., and Texas Elf Carbon company, in appreciation of the work done by the department in the recent fire at the Cabot Co. Bowers plant.

The machine can be used in case of suffocation, smoke, gas, drowning, and electric shock. It will be available to anyone in this section of the country. There is not a set like it this side of Fort Worth. The machine is equipped so that two persons can be worked on at the same time.

Too much oxygen cannot be given the patient being revived. The inhalator is controlled by automatic valves which causes the amount of the flow to decrease as the patient begins to revive and breathe naturally, thus eliminating the danger of bursting the lungs.

A tool kit in connection with the machine contains tongue scissors, jaw openers, jaw plugs, and other necessary instruments.

Every member of the fire department will take instructions in the operation of the machine. Dr. R. M. Bellamy and Mr. Conley will act as instructors.

The inhalator is compact and can be carried by one man. Extra tubes of oxygen will be kept on hand. Two drums came with the set.

Two persons were arrested by county officers and three by city police, on charges of vagrancy, disturbing the peace and intoxication, last night.

Dr. Puckett of Amarillo was a Pampa visitor today.

OIL HOLDINGS WILL BE CHECKED SOON BY ACCOUNTANT

AUSTIN, June 23. (P)—The Texas railroad commission today fixed the per well allowable of the east Texas oil field at 51 barrels daily for a 30-day period beginning July 1. The top field maximum output of 325,000 barrels was eliminated. The current allowable is 51 barrels per well.

The commission announced it would soon set dates for hearings on operators in other Texas fields, particularly Yates and Van. For the purpose of considering new production rules for those pools.

The present allowable for Van is 50,000 barrels daily and the Yates maximum is 65,000 barrels daily. It was estimated that there are at present 6,300 producing wells in the East Texas field. Under rules expiring July 1 each well was per-

Results In Scout Drive Cheering as Workers Report

The drive for funds to carry on the Boy Scout work in this area is continuing unabated with the majority of the workers making satisfactory progress, according to members of the Better Citizenship Army under command of General C. H. Walker.

General Walker planned to make a check of his army today. Workers are urged to report to general headquarters in the chamber of commerce rooms, to Col. Frank Klein or Captain Philip Pond and Frank Foster. Persons being solicited are responding nobly, it was reported.

The drive will be continued until the quota is reached. The campaign started Tuesday morning with a breakfast in the basement of the First Methodist church.

It is the aim of the Adobe Walls council, with headquarters here, to increase the number of Boy Scouts ten fold.

B. & B. Lubrication Company to Open New Station Soon

The B. & B. Lubricating company, owned by Clarence Barrett and Roy S. Bourland, started construction of a filling station at the corner of Francis avenue and Russell street, this morning. Cost of the structure will be several hundred dollars. Concrete blocks will be used in the building.

The station will be directly across the street from the entrance to the high school building. It will be completed early next. At present, the B. & B. company is a wholesale distributor.

STERLING, IRED BY PROXY'S STATEMENT, VOIDS AUTHORITY AND WILL NAME ANOTHER MAN

Won't Allow Tarver To Ballot For Walsh

DALLAS, June 23. (P)—Governor R. S. Sterling announced here today that he was withdrawing his proxy as a delegate to the national democratic convention from the hands of W. A. Tarver, who arrived with it in Chicago yesterday.

The governor said he was taking that action because of Tarver's statement that he would vote the proxy for Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana for permanent chairman of the convention.

"I am sending Mr. Tarver a telegram this morning cancelling my proxy, which is in his hands," the governor said. "A vote for Senator Walsh, such as Tarver states he will cast, is a vote for Roosevelt."

"Being one of the original Garner men, having supported the speaker as long as I have, I cannot allow my proxy to be used against him in any such manner. I am still supporting Garner."

Governor Sterling said he had not decided to whom he would give his proxy. He said selection of J. O. Shouse for permanent chairman and Maury Hines for this state's representative on the platform committee, was "perfectly amenable to me."

Terrell Coming When Railroad Is Formally Opened

C. V. Terrell, chairman of the state railroad commission, is planning to make another visit to Pampa when the Fort Worth & Denver Northern railway is formally opened here, it was learned today. Mr. Terrell, a native of Wise county, presided at oil hearings in Pampa twice in the last two years.

The state railroad commission played an unusual role in the destiny of Pampa when the question of building the Denver was before the Interstate Commerce Commission. Mr. Terrell and other members of the commission strongly urged the L. C. C. to permit the Denver to build the line, after several Pampa civic workers had talked with Mr. Terrell and Commissioner Lon A. Smith.

ECONOMIC ISSUE BEING GROOMED AS BIG PLANT

CHICAGO, June 23. (P)—Presidential candidates thickened on the convention scene today, lessening not a whit the uncertainty of whom the democrats will make to oppose Hoover and Curtis.

While the Roosevelt forces were taking command of the resolutions committee and endeavoring to raise economic issues above prohibition in the campaign document, James A. Reed of Missouri and Governor William H. Murray came to town. Reed carries the 36 votes of Missouri. Murray has the 22 of Oklahoma and one from North Dakota.

Reed called for repeal of the 18th amendment and change of the Volstead act. Alfred Smith made a similar demand yesterday.

Murray said he did not know who would be nominated but it would not be Roosevelt. Reed said he was interested in keeping the picture and not in any other man. He indicated, however, he would support the nominee.

Shelves Question

This was more than Smith did. The Brown derby campaigner of four years ago said the question of supporting the nominee must be shelved. James A. Farley, the Roosevelt campaign manager, predicted that in the dispute before the party—the selection of permanent

Wheat Harvest Again Is Delayed

The morning's rain caused another postponement to wheat cutting in this section of the Panhandle. The grain is dead time in most sections. It is becoming tough from too much moisture and farmers are afraid of mould.

Half destroyed thousands of acres of wheat in this section Saturday. The mild and previous dry weather has cut the yield in the Pampa territory to 50 percent of the 1931 yield. In the estimation of local elevator men, the yield last year was estimated at 1,500,000 bushels.

A few loads of new wheat have been received at local elevators. They are now being paying from 26 cents to 27 cents per bushel. The first few loads tested 55 and reported green. Later wheat received tested 58 and was tough.

Fields are wet and it is impossible to move a combine. Rain, falling at intervals, keeps the grain too wet for cutting.

Recent rains have helped row crops considerably. Some fields of corn, maize, and other row crops are waist high.

JIMMIE FOXX TWO WEEKS AHEAD OF RUTH'S BIG MARK

ATHLETIC TO SHOW BABE'S RECORD EASY

BUT FOUR-PLY BLOWS DO NOT ALWAYS WIN GAMES

By GAYLE TALBOT
Associated Press Sports Writer
Jimmie Foxx, who a year or two ago wouldn't have been mentioned in the same breath with Babe Ruth as a distance hitter, is now now to surpass anything that ever has been done in fashioning home runs.

With 28 four-batters to his credit at this time, there seems good reason to believe the Athletics' star slugger will pass the Babe's record of 60 in 1927. Ruth did not get No. 28 until July 9, giving Foxx a leeway of more than two weeks. The Babe is seven homers behind Foxx.

Victor Fraser, White Sox right-hander, was Foxx's 28th victim yesterday. It was not a game-winner, however, as Fraser went right on to beat three Philadelphia hurlers, 9 to 4.

Detroit bounced into second place in the American league by making it three straight over Boston, 7 to 5, as the A's and Washington lost. Cleveland walked the Senator, 11 to 2. A ten-run rally in the sixth inning, when Danny MacFayden and Walt Brown were felled, gave St. Louis a 17 to 10 decision over the Yankees.

In an effort to get his New York Giants back on the right track, Bill Terry socked a homerun, a double and two singles to help beat St. Louis, 9 to 1. Phil Rhee pitched for the Phillies to an 11 to 2 triumph over the league leading Chicago Cubs.

Cincinnati made it three out of four over Boston, 14 to 8. Although Hack Wilson punched two home runs, Brooklyn dropped its final to Pittsburgh, 7 to 6.

Golfers To Look Over Clarendon Course Sunday

Many members of the Pampa Country Club team going to Clarendon Sunday will be looking the Clarendon course over with the intention of entering the big open tournament to start there July 2 and continue through July 4. Some of the best players in the Panhandle will be on the entry list.

The tournament will be divided into flights of 16 players. Valuable prizes will be given winners of each flight.

Pampa golfers will meet the Clarendon golfers in a regular Cap Rock league fixture. Those intending to make the trip must register at Father's Drug No. 4 or Father's Drug No. 2 by Saturday afternoon so that Dr. H. H. Hicks, tournament chairman, can notify Clarendon the number of Pampa players who will make the trip. The players are also to designate on the registry slip whether they will take a car or desire transportation. There will be plenty of cars available, Dr. Hicks believes.

Clarendon has one of the sportiest courses in this section of the country. Pampans who have previously played there claim it is a credit the Panhandle.

Dempsey Thinks Sharkey Defeated

LOS ANGELES, June 23.—Disapproval of the decision which transferred the heavyweight title from Max Schmeling to Jack Sharkey was expressed here by Jack Dempsey, former champion.

"As I get it," said Dempsey, who beat Sharkey in 1927, "Sharkey was pasted good. The verdict doesn't do him a bit of good and it does the German no harm. I believe Sharkey emerges more unpopular than ever. Not that it is his fault, but the experts seem to be unanimous in stating that the wrong man's hand was raised.

"I know better than to judge fights from radio description, but when so many fight writers string with Schmeling, it looks like somebody looted one along the line.

"If Schmeling's manager was suspicious of Gunboat Smith in the referee's role, why did he stand for him? He says he knew a week ago that something was wrong. Well, then, why didn't he stand pat against such a referee and refuse to go on? That's what I would have done."

Shamrock Girl In Golf Event

WICHITA FALLS, June 23.—(AP)—Dallas' two survivors in the state public links championship tournament at Weeks Park here faced stern opposition today in Mrs. H. C. Scott of Houston and Miss Alma Douglas of Shamrock.

Mrs. Scott was paired against Mrs. W. T. Stafford and Miss Douglas met Miss Betty Jameson in the semi-final round. The two 18-hole tests today will determine the finalists who tomorrow battle over the 36-hole race.

In the quarter-finals yesterday Mrs. Stafford defeated Mrs. George Huckabee, Dallas, 2 and 1; Mrs. Scott beat Mrs. Tom Sockwell, Dallas, 6 and 6; Miss Jameson won from Mrs. E. H. Wohlhart, Dallas, 2 and 1; and Miss Douglas eliminated Mrs. Sue Walker, Dallas, 7 and 6.

It seems a one-armed man never forgets another. Just like hay-fever victims and horse traders.

Over two years ago, Sheriff Lon L. Blansett met George Hileman, also one-armed, in a cafe in California. Yesterday, Hileman, now of San Diego, happened to stop at the courthouse as he was passing through Pampa. He glanced in the sheriff's office, and immediately recognized his man.

Since then, the sheriff has learned to do everything with one arm that he used to do with two, just as Hileman predicted, "even to rosin and ridin'."

GOLF'S ARMY HUNTING GOLD AT FLUSHING

Hundred and Forty-Eight of Famous Names Seen at National Open Today.

FLUSHING, N. Y. June 23.—(AP)—The rolling fairways and close-cropped greens of fresh Meadow Country-Club stretched out like a magic carpet to fame and riches for 148 golfers who today began the 72-hole grind that is the national open.

The firing started not long after daylight, when Henry Cluel, professional of the home club, and Walter Kosakof of Roslyn, L. I. led the bulky field away from the first tee. Of the 146 stars who were to follow in pairs until the last were off at mid-day, all but ten were professionals.

All entries were assured at least a two-day stay, and the field will be chopped to around 60 players for the final 36-hole gallop Saturday.

Several facts stood out as play started. The first was that the player able to achieve a 72-hole score of 290 (10 strokes above par), would have a chance of winning. Another was that Billie Burke of Greenwich, Conn., the defending champion, had been overlooked almost completely in advance calculations that had established Gene Sarazen, British open champion, and Leo Diegel as outstanding favorites.

CLARENDON OPEN TOURNAMENT NEXT MONTH TO ATTRACT MANY OF BEST GOLFERS ON PLAINS

Country Club to Meet Clarendon On Next Sunday

CLARENDON, June 23.—The golf tournament many members of the Pampa Golf club have been waiting for—the annual Clarendon amateur open tournament—has been announced for the dates July 3 and 4.

The tourney will be one of the most unique ever staged in the Panhandle in that there will be incorporated several procedures new to tournament play. The first sportsy lay-out of the Hillcroft course is in the best condition of its history and the play promises to be the fastest ever to tread a West Texas links. Plains are being made to care for 100 of this section's finest golfers, and perhaps even more may be registered, as the dates have been set so as not to interfere with business, should anyone be bothered with such disruptions of pleasure.

The Clarendon course, one of the best and prettiest in the southwest, is now open to the public for qualifying rounds, should any of the players wish to acquaint themselves with the lay-out before the first round matches Sunday morning.

The members will leave about 10 o'clock from the two drug stores. Dr. Hicks is anxious to have at least 25 members make the trip. The Clarendon officials wish to know Saturday the number of Pampa golfers who will make the trip so that they will have enough players on hand. The tournament will start at 1 o'clock.

Clarendon golfers had considerable trouble posing out the Pampans at the last meeting. The Clarendon club is one of the prettiest in this part of the Panhandle.

Country Club's Course In Fine Condition Now

Caretaker Autry at the Country Club golf course finished mowing the last of the 18 fairways late last night and they are in the best condition of the year. The rough, however, is very rough and golfers who insist on getting off the nicely mowed fairways have plenty of trouble.

The greens have been worked over since the recent rains and the putting surface is at its peak. Many excellent scores have been recorded during the past few days. Water still remains in some of the creeks, which adds to the hazardous shots already necessary.

Trees planted during the past two years are showing signs of life again after the recent rains. They have been badly in need of moisture. When the trees become larger the course should be one of the prettiest in these parts.

Cannibals annexed the second course, 9 to 1.

Hickok was more plentiful at San Antonio, where the Indians defeated Fort Worth, 5 to 4, in 17 innings. Fort Worth outfit San Antonio 14 to 11.

TEXAS MOUND MEN GETTING HARD TO HIT

SHUT-OUT VICTORIES IN LEAGUE BECOMING COMMON

By The Associated Press
Texas league pitchers appear to be coming into their own. Several sterling performances were turned in by hurlers yesterday.

Thornhill held Dallas to five hits, leading Galveston to a 4 to 0 victory. The Steers threatened to score in the ninth, but good support nipped the rally.

Heusser, rookie right-hander, likewise gained a shut-out as Houston defeated Tyler, 4 to 0. He allowed the Sports only two hits, both singles. Hollerson of Tyler yielded only three hits. In the first game of a double-header, Herring of Beaumont held Longview to five safeties. The Exporters won, 8 to 1. The Clarendon club is one of the prettiest in this part of the Panhandle.

Of course, Hoover cannot be blamed for all this republican misrule, but to get ride of the party it is necessary to get rid of the leaders and it is necessary to get rid of Hoover. Granting that Mr. Hoover tried hard, his efforts have been so late as to be slow to take effect.

Whatta Question

"How can I make my hens pay?" asks a headline in the Claude NEWS. What a question! Why not ask how to make your hens lay? The U. S. department of agriculture can tell you how to make hens lay but not even the farm board has answered the other question satisfactorily. The farm board says that the way to make a hen pay is to discourage her from laying! But this is so unnatural and futile at present that it seems folly to stultify hens in their ability. The trouble dear Claude NEWS reader, is not with the hen and the farm—it's a lot farther down the road to market.

This country doesn't need any more "business men" presidents who do not know how to work through political channels. It does not need professional politicians who are pledged to special interests. It needs either a jack-of-all-trades from the big timber or a dictator. What it will get through the ponderous machinery which has grown up may be surprising. The waiting is tough, isn't it?

"Everybody Works but Father" is an old song which has a sadly ironical meaning today. There are too many dads forced to rely on other members of the family who, though working, receive low pay.

The oil industry is said to be working at 95 per cent of capacity. That's not a depression figure. It is not a boom statistic, but what other big industry can say as much? Oil should lead the way back to normalcy, in fact is doing so.

Explosion Fatal To Houston Man

HOUSTON, June 23 (AP)—J. W. Edwards, 35, unemployed bookkeeper, died in St. Joseph's infirmary early today from injuries suffered in an explosion of gas accumulated in a room of a local hotel.

According to B. W. Braswell, ambulance attendant, Edwards had written several farewell notes, stuffed cracks and windows and doors with strips torn from pillow cases and sheets and turned on the gas.

A friend, W. B. Latimore, a taxicab driver, said he knocked on the door of Edwards' room. Edwards asked him to wait a moment, turned on a fan and opened a window and admitted Latimore.

Edwards borrowed a cigarette from Latimore and struck a match to light the cigarette. An explosion followed which fatally injured Edwards, hurt Latimore and rocked the hotel, sending hotel guests running to the street.

"We ran into the lobby and found Edwards at the bottom of the stairs," said Braswell. The explosion had blown off every stitch of his clothes and he was burned from head to foot.

Latimore jumped out of the window and landed on a porch a few feet below.

chairman—Senator Walsh of Montana would receive as heavy a vote as did Franklin D. Roosevelt on the first ballot.

William Gibbs McAdoo, who will second Speaker Garner's nomination for the presidency, said the California delegation would resist any effort by the Roosevelt forces to abrogate the two-thirds rule.

However, he explained, he had been instructed to head a move to do away with the two-thirds rule after this convention.

Would Be "Unfair" McAdoo said it would be "unfair" to abrogate the rule now when the electors had no previous notification.

A report that there had been an agreement between the Roosevelt and Garner forces in which the speaker would become the running mate for the New York governor was flatly denied today in a statement issued at the Texan's headquarters.

CHICAGO, June 23 (AP)—Gilbert M. Hitchcock, the Roosevelt chairman of the democratic resolutions committee, declared today for a party platform emphasizing economic issues rather than prohibition.

Hitchcock voiced the views of other spokesmen of Governor Roosevelt of New York as the democratic platform marking committee met for the first time. He advocated a slash in the tariff and a policy of measured inflation. "We will have to meet the prohibition issue," said Hitchcock, "because of what the republicans did but I do not consider it a party issue. Personally I voted against the 18th amendment as a member of the senate but I am not what would be called a repealist."

Can't See Roosevelt CHICAGO, June 23 (AP)—Governor William H. Murray came out of the southwest today with a prediction Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York would not win the democratic presidential nomination.

The Oklahoma governor, who holds the 22 delegates of his home state and one from South Dakota, arrived to the supporters of Roosevelt pinning their hopes for an early nomination on whether Tammany chooses to support Roosevelt with the big block of New York votes.

This Tammany decision may determine, also, whether the Roosevelt forces will seek to abolish the time worn two-thirds rule.

"Who do you think the nominee will be," the Oklahoma governor was asked as he stepped from the railroad train.

"You can guess as well as I can," he said, "but his name won't be Roosevelt."

The governor declared he would support Joseph Shouse for permanent chairman of the convention; that he was against changing the two-thirds rule, and that he would prefer Will Rogers as his running mate if he were nominated.

"The governor predicted a fight over the eighteenth amendment in committee but refused to commit himself on prohibition.

"Propped up in a chair at his headquarters at the Congress hotel a little later with a barber cropping his long gray hair, Murray swung one shoeless foot and said:

"We've got to save this country. We will have to deal with the economic questions and not the prohibition question.

"Whoever in the hell knew of John D. Rockefeller Jr., advocating anything for the restoration of states rights."

CHICAGO, June 23 (AP)—Alfred E. Smith said today he did not think the democratic national convention would nominate a candidate for president on the first ballot.

ROTARY CAMPAIGN TO STAMP OUT ILLITERACY IS TALKED AT SEATTLE WORLD MEETING

SEATTLE, Wash., June 23.—The part which Rotarians can take in the campaign, especially in North and South America, against illiteracy, and the solution of the present economic crisis, were among the principal topics discussed in the main group assemblies into which the Rotarians were divided here in their annual convention.

Suggested remedies for the depression which were considered included a plan to stagger the work of employees in order to help the unemployment situation; different ways of distributing orders to start up production, and the laying of plans to lessen the effect of such a cycle of depression in the future.

Another important topic for these vocational assemblies was "What effect, if any, are present business conditions having on the observance of recognized standards of correct business practice?"

The discussion in the assemblies for the study of illiteracy was presided over by two addresses on the subject on the morning program.

The first, by Ramon Lovetzo, of Santa Clara, Cuba, dealt almost entirely with conditions in Latin America, while the second, by Glynndon H. Crocker, of Cortland, New York, was confined largely to the campaign in the United States inaugurated two years ago by the United States government.

Mr. Lovetzo described many schemes instituted by Rotarians and educational officials in Latin America, to extend schooling to adult illiterates, who, he said, were increasing in numbers. He proposed the organization of an international league among the Latin-American nations under a title whose initials letters form the Spanish word "VEA", which is the command to "READ". This league, with branches in all countries, would push the campaign against illiteracy systematically by sending all possible elements of society in the drive.

Among the vocational assemblies this afternoon was one especially for newspapermen with John Nelson of Montreal in the chair. Vice-chairmen were E. J. Ottaway, of Fort Huron, Michigan, and J. H. Skewes of Meridian, Mississippi.

The three general topics for this discussion were:

"How can the press spread a wider knowledge of the principles of Rotary and promote their general acceptance and practice among those who do not come directly under Rotary influence?"

"How can their leaders be stimulated actively to interest themselves in the vocational, community and international activities which Rotary seeks to provide?"

"How can the press promote a more general acceptance of the sixth object of Rotary by interpreting and commenting upon world affairs in a generous and helpful way?"

While these informal conferences were going on among the men, their ladies were being shown over the inner and outer harbors of Seattle. This boat ride is one of the famous sights of this region. In Lakes Union and Washington, Seattle has a fresh water harbor of great beauty and utility. It is also the salt water harbor on Puget Sound where the ships of commerce from all over the world come every day.

The last Rotary convention banquet—one in which all present joined—was at the San Francisco convention in 1915. Since then the size of Rotary conventions has made such a Rotary banquet impracticable, and Rotarians of each district gather together. Such was the program of festivities tonight.

Smith Declares Big States Will Swing for Him

CHICAGO, June 23. (AP)—At his regular press conference today Alvin K. Smith was asked about what he thought of the big Roosevelt map at headquarters, which shows 691 counties in the United States, and 61 counties in the New York governor. The states favorable to Roosevelt are printed in red, the others in different colors.

"As an exhibit it looks good," Smith said. "The idea was stolen from the Anti-Saloon League. Wayne B. Wheeler fixed up a map like that and painted in the dry states as blue and the red states as wet and used it to impress the state legislatures."

Smith added the Roosevelt map shows more territory than population.

He said there was a contest in Minnesota and that a "stop light" should be put on that state until the contest was settled.

"According to that map there are only two or three little places that aren't for Roosevelt. Those little places are really big places. They have a lot of population."

"I didn't see Pennsylvania on there. What color is that? What is my color—brown?"

Informing that he was credited with about 10 Pennsylvania delegates the governor said that "there will have to be more than that."

"Does it look like a first ballot nomination to you?" He was asked.

"Not me."

"How do you think it will go?"

Sarah Palfrey's Third Victory Is Tennis Feature

WIMBLEDON, Eng., June 23 (AP)—Sarah Palfrey, American Wimbledon cup team member, today won her third round match in the British tennis championships, defeating Miss O. L. Webb, of England, 6-2, 6-3.

Helen Jacobs, second ranking United States player, advanced easily to the fourth round, defeating Mrs. Shepherd-Barrow, of the English Wimbledon cup team, 6-2, 6-2.

Gregory Mangin, representing the international tennis club of New York, advanced easily to the fourth round of men's singles with a 7-5, 6-1, 6-4 victory over E. R. Avory of England.

Wilder Allison, American Davis cup team member, advanced easily to the fourth round of men's singles in a 6-4, 6-0, 2-6, 6-1 victory over R. Miki, Japanese Davis cup player.

"Explosions" Found To Be Harmless

Many Pampa citizens believed the city was being "shelled" at 4:50 o'clock this morning when four sharp explosions were heard in all parts of the city.

Residents left their comfortable beds and made double-quick time to doors, windows, and telephones, but for some time the explosions remained a mystery.

Later it was learned that the big motors at the Pampa Ice company's plant on West Foster avenue became damp and the timing went awry. The backfires were the "explosions." Employees stopped the motors and remedied the defects. There were two lesser explosions when the motors were started again.

Citizens were sure something serious had happened.

Hoover Optimistic On Arms Outlook

WASHINGTON, June 23 (AP)—An optimistic attitude prevailed today as President Hoover and his chief aide, Secretary Stimson, conferred at the White House on the far-reaching suggestion that one-third of the world's arms be tossed into the discard.

As he left the executive mansion, Stimson expressed satisfaction with the early reception given the proposed $15,000,000,000 armament slashing plan. The French government, reported in early press dispatches as cold to the suggestion, was said by the secretary of state as "apparently warming up to it."

The secretary of state expressed no dissatisfaction over the manner in which other governments had reacted to the plan.

Meanwhile, President Hoover received scores of congratulations on his latest move in international leadership.

NEURO SUSPECT HELD

CORVACA, June 23 (AP)—A negro man, aged 23, was arrested today near Hubbard by state Ranger Red Burton in connection with the murder of N. W. Rambo, Austin negro undertaker, whose mutilated body was found in an abandoned automobile near Dawson yesterday, according to information from the sheriff's office here.

TEACHER IS HELD

ALVA, Okla., June 23 (AP)—Captured as he fled from a rendezvous named in a letter threatening W. D. Myers, Alva banker, did he leave $2,500 at the spot, John C. Wright, young Ringwood school teacher, was held in jail here today. Authorities said he would be charged with attempted extortion.

Quarter of Million Men To Be Heard

DUBLIN, June 23 (AP)—Massed in military formation before the high altar in Phoenix park, a quarter of a million men will fit their voices under the stars tonight in one of the most inspiring moments of the eucharistic congress.

It will be strictly an affair for men only. The singing will be led by a special choir of men and carried to the vast congregation thru a microphone system.

Cardinal Lauri, the papal delegate, will preside at the meeting, and at its conclusion pass among the battalions.

A solemn pontifical high mass at 12:30 a. m. and another at 11 o'clock this morning were the religious high spots of today's program.

But the thousands of visitors spent a busy day with meetings for each nationality and general meetings at which the theme was the doctrine of the Eucharist—the bodily presence of Christ in the blessed sacrament—which is the central foundation of the eucharistic congress.

Tomorrow's arrangements include a pontifical high mass, more sectional meetings and a great mass meeting for women in the evening.

MILLER'S MOTHER DIES

DALLAS, June 23 (AP)—Mrs. Rachel Emily Barry Miller, 88, mother of former Lieutenant Governor B. Miller, died at her home here early this morning.

Mr. Knoopel was also chairman of the resolutions committee, which presented its report after the address of Mr. Beard.

Having already been debated at a conference Monday afternoon, the resolutions were ready for action this morning.

A number of them were offered by the board of directors of Rotary International. Several of these were minor changes to make previous legislation more clear or to fill in minor omissions.

One question which has been discussed in Rotary conventions for some years was the formation of more than one Rotary club in the large cities. The board has recommended adoption of such a resolution, providing the existing Rotary club is willing, and providing that subordinate trading centers can be found which are large enough to support a Rotary club.

Another resolution offered by the board would permit the annual assembly of the incoming international officers to be held in two or more sections. There are 77 district governors, officials representative of the organization.

ESPERANTO, ARTIFICIAL LANGUAGE, URGED FOR USE BY ROTARY CLUBS

SEATTLE, Wash., June 23.—Esperanto as an auxiliary language for all peoples was presented as one of the best means of increasing international understanding and goodwill, by Derrell Beard, Napa, California, attorney, in an address to the Rotary convention today.

In about six months one can become proficient in Esperanto, he said, because of the simplicity of its rules of grammar.

It is apparent, he said, that some common means of communication is greatly needed, since none of the language groups today would consider abandoning its own language for some other, and no language has anything like a majority of the peoples of the earth in its group.

Esperanto is the only perfect language, he said, because it is entirely artificial, and such revision as is required from time to time to keep up with modern invention and progress is easily done.

The program of today opened with a breakfast assembly for Rotarians interested in work in behalf of crippled children. The chairman was Tom J. Davis, attorney of Butte, Montana, and the vice-chairman was Raymond J. Knoopel, New York attorney, who has for many years been president of the New York State Society for Crippled Children.

Mr. Knoopel was also chairman of the resolutions committee, which presented its report after the address of Mr. Beard.

Kidnaping Now Federal Offense

WASHINGTON, June 23 (AP)—Direct outgrowth of the Lindbergh tragedy, a federal law was in force today making interstate kidnaping a crime punishable by the national government.

President Hoover signed the act last night. Sponsored by Senator Patterson and Representative Cochran of Missouri, it provides for imprisonment in the discretion of the trial court for anyone convicted of transporting a victim across state lines or into a foreign country.

Mrs. C. R. Stanley and Mrs. Roy Tinsley of route No. 2 were Pampa shoppers yesterday.

Franco-German Pact Is Proposed

LAUSANNE, Switzerland, June 23 (AP)—Chancellor Franz von Papen of Germany today proposed privately a military alliance between France and Germany as a means of meeting France's demand for security before disarmament.

Such an alliance, which would represent the link and the lamb lying down together in the field of European military affairs, would, he said, be the best way to solving the problems which face the disarmament conference as a result of the French fear of invasion and their security play.

Speaking English, the German chancellor added that he was unable to understand the French security pleas, but that he intended to do everything in his power to foster collaboration between the two countries.

J. Wade Duncan of Mobeetle was in the city yesterday.

L. E. Smith of Canadian was a Pampa shopping visitor yesterday.

Bank Bandits Are Hunted In Swamps

MONROE, La., June 23 (AP)—Bloodhounds were loosed in the dense swamps today in an effort to "root out" the fugitive bandits sought since Tuesday for the robbery of a Bank bank and subsequent slaying of a deputy sheriff and wounding of four policemen.

S. D. Caldwell, 21-year-old ferryman, who escaped late yesterday after a kidnaping experience with the robbers, said the fugitives were determined to fight it out with the police.

The searchers surrounded the swamp last night and today, depending on bloodhounds to flush the bandits.

It was evident that the commission, in calling hearings for Yates and Van fields, contemplated some adjustments in the allowances there to meet whatever increased production resulted in East Texas from the bringing in of new wells. It was estimated that unless drilling activities in East Texas ceased, that field likely would be producing approximately 400,000 barrels daily by Sept. 1.

Gamblers Throw

by Eustace L. Adams.

SYNOPSIS: Nancy Wentworth finds that Lemmy Ashwood, leader of the gang holding her and five of her henchmen, on an island, in the prison, plans to escape and take her with him. Jerry Calhoun, Emory Bottles and Stevens have been captured trying to arrest Ashwood.

light gave everything an eerie appearance.
"Stand still!" A cold, coccine voice snapped through the hall. "I shoot at the first footfall!"
The shuffling of bare feet ceased abruptly. A heavy silence fell again, relieved only by the sound of heavy breathing and the rapid tread of heavy boots approaching from the direction of the living room.

Chapter 22 A DEATH SHRIEK

"LISTEN, girlie," Luciel went on in a gush of words which tumbled from his lips in a torrent that she was too weary to dam, "I seen lots of women in my day, but I never give a thought to marrying one of them. You're different. There's something—there's a lot about you I ain't wise to, but I do know that you're my woman and I'm here to say that I'll bump off every guy who don't believe in this Limpy's got a good head on him and he has bossed a swell racket, but he ain't no better than the next guy when he's looking into the hot end of a cat's ear!"

Nancy felt as though her heart were in a steel vice, the screws of which were being relentlessly turned by unseen devils. She wondered, vaguely, if it would not ease the ache and smooth out many of the difficulties here on the island were she to throw herself into the placid, silvery Gulf and sink quietly into its cool, shimmering depths. But her weary soul rejected the thought of suicide impatiently. Weary she was, but too healthy of mind and body.

But Luciel was standing by her, waiting confidently for her answer. She must find a way to release him which would not turn him berserk. She must choose words which would prevent murder this night. Although she knew that she, herself, might kill Ashwood were he to carry out his threat, she could not bear the thought of this gangster murdering him forthwith.

"Mr. Luciel," she faltered, at last. "I know that you have paid me a very great honor. But before I answer you, I want you to promise me that you will not kill Ashwood."

"Why?" His voice was restrained, but vibrant with jealousy. "Do you love him?"

"Heavens, no!" She laughed shortly. "But I am so sure that he will not carry me away that there is no need of bloodshed."
"He bumped off my two torpedoes in Chi. I'd have bumped him off before long, anyway," he reminded her.

"Perhaps, I'm in no mood to argue the ethics of gang warfare. But I do not want him killed. Do you agree?"
"I'll go part of the way with you," he said, after a brief pause. "I'll agree not to smoke him off while we're on this island if he doesn't get after me first or if he doesn't get in my way while I'm trying to lam. Is that an even break?"

"I suppose so," she agreed wearily. "Now as to the rest. I'm going to tell you just what I told Ashwood a few moments ago. I don't love you and I won't marry you. If you take me away, I'll kill myself at the very first opportunity."
She heard his teeth click together. He was fighting hard for self control.

"Yeah? Now lemme tell you something," he said harshly. "What you told Limpy don't interest me none. You could of told him you'd marry him day after tomorrow and I'd give would be a laugh, see? I'd smoke him off before he could drag his leg half way 'cross the room to where you was standin'."

"He pushed his swarthy face close to hers. His eyes were as hard and bright as polished shoe buttons.
"So, I ain't good enough for you, eh?" he demanded mockingly. "I suppose maybe my rackets ain't high class enough for you. Well, listen, girlie, you're going to marry me whether you like it or not."

With that he turned abruptly and marched into the house. The screen door slammed. The girl covered her face with her hands and wept.

Jerry, every muscle rigid, leaped out of bed. The inhuman scream that had waked him was dying out in a ghastly bubbling wall whose overtones echoed and reechoed through the darkened house. For an instant there was utter silence, more horrible than the grisly sound which had preceded it.
He reached his door in the space of a dozen heartbeats. The corridor reverberated with the sound of turning knobs and opening doors. There was the slapping shuffle of bare feet, the noisy stamp of heavy shoes. That night light which usually glowed at the end of the hall had been extinguished, the faint gleam of an approaching flash-

BALLOTS--

turns of the July primary, as required by law.
The statement follows:
"No, Confusion"
There is no confusion about the prohibition referendum as far as the state democratic executive committee is concerned, except such confusion as they may wish to create themselves.
"If each county should pay the expenses of printing its own referendum ballot, the highest cost to any county in Texas would not exceed $50. The state executive committee is, however, at a cost of a few hundred dollars, furnishing all of the ballots for the entire state. There need be no separate tally sheets. But if separate tally sheets are desired, the heaviest cost to any county for providing them would be but a few dollars. The state executive committee, is however, furnishing these tally sheets free of cost, where desired."
"Not A Dime"
Not a dime is needed for paying election workers for taking care of the referendum ballot. Any number of competent men in every county in this state will be glad to earn the one per cent and, without extra cost, take care of the separate referendum ballot. In good common sense the people of Texas know that if any county executive committee in this state employs extra election officials, or pays additional compensation to those whom they do employ, for taking care of this little referendum ballot along with the other ballot, it will be because they want to do so and not because in good business judgment they should do so.
"In short, the entire matter is perfectly easy and free from difficulty for every county executive committee in this state which has a real desire to cooperate with the state executive committee and faithfully perform its duties under the direction of that committee."
"The next meeting of the state executive committee to be called by its chairman will be held for the purpose of canvassing the returns of the primary of July 23, as required by law."

ALLOWABLE--

mitted to contribute an equal share to the 325,000 barrel total field allowable. Readjustment of each well's allowable output was made every fifteen days.
C. V. Terrell, chairman of the commission, announced that a special accountant would be employed immediately to check the amount of oil held by various companies operating in the Test Texas field. He said this move was for the purpose of determining if any of the operators were exceeding the commission's allowable.
A hearing of operators in the east Texas area, comprising Smith, Duphur, Gregg, Rusk and Cherokee counties was concluded late yesterday. One group sought to show the commission that an increased allowable for the field would not result in physical waste. Another faction contended that to increase the output would imperil ultimate recovery from the pool. Some operators produced testimony to show that, even if the current allowable was too high.

NEW ORLEANS STEADY

NEW ORLEANS, June 23 (AP)—The cotton market had a steady opening as Liverpool cables came in better than due. First trades showed gains of 1 to 3 points. As the stock market also opened somewhat firmer, prices continued to improve after the start. July trading to 5.22, October to 5.43 and December to 5.58, or 2 1/2 to 3 points above yesterday's close. Trading was moderate but the undertone continued steady near the end of the first hour with prices at or near the highs.

GRAINS STRONGER

CHICAGO, June 23 (AP)—Grain prices turned upward early today despite some wavering at the outset. Prospects of a black rust scare had a bullish influence. In addition, cable advices reported a good business in wheat American hard winter wheat. Opening 1/4 off to 1/4 up, wheat subsequently scored gains all around. Corn started unchanged to 1/4 higher with a general advance afterward.

Democrats Are Denied Right To Eat Penguin Eggs

CHICAGO, June 23 (AP)—Just when it looked as if some of the democratic delegates might have penguin eggs for breakfast, along came the government of the United States and decided to smash them.
Penguins, the United States treasury department says, are wild, and the eggs are the same.
Therefore, Anthony Czarnetzki, collector of customs, was instructed by the treasury department to seize and destroy twenty dozen penguin eggs imported by a loop hotel.
The opinion, received yesterday, agreed that the eggs may have special merit in flavor, vitamins and rejuvenating content, but held that although they came from Cape Town, South Africa, poultry farm, they were wild just the same.
And eggs from wild birds, under paragraph 167 of the tariff act, are barred from importation.
Ernest Byfield, president and receiver for the hotel said he would appeal to Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson for preservation of the eggs. If he loses he plans to take the case to the "highest court in the land."
Wm. Hall of Voelette was a Pampa visitor yesterday afternoon.

PRINCE OF WALES CELEBRATES 38TH BIRTHDAY MINUS PRINCESS

LONDON, June 23 (AP)—Albert Prince of Wales, celebrated his thirty-eighth birthday today, still the world's most eligible bachelor, in spite of fervent wishes expressed in Britain a year ago today that there might be a Princess of Wales on his next anniversary.
In contrast with recent birthdays when his schedule of work and engagements has been followed as usual, he decided to take a day off today. The only task he assigned himself was to read the thousands of congratulatory messages that poured in from all corners of the world.
He left behind him a busy year when he awoke this morning to realize he was 38.
During it he has taken up motor boating, made a hole in one, been badly shaken up in an automobile, became a book collector, taken up cycling, led the world in the wearing of berets, and suffered several days illness.
He played Santa Claus at a party attended by his household staff and their families, became a football fan, became a gymnastic instructor for his two young nephews, and opened the new Shakespeare memorial theater at Stratford-on-Avon, among other things.

DENVER--

Mrs. Kerns and their child will follow in a couple of weeks. The new agent comes from Wichita Falls, where he was formerly traveling freight and passenger agent. He has been with the Fort Worth and Denver 13 years.
The 110-mile line between Childs and Pampa was completed in record time. Ballasting is nearing the station. The line passes through some of the most picturesque country in this section.
Weather permitting, the Fort Worth and Denver Railway station here will be completed within four weeks. O. L. Boyington of the firm of Glover and Boyington, contractors, said this morning. Construction has been delayed awaiting the arrival of lumber from Oregon, but it has arrived and work is in progress.
The frame work is going up now. The building will be 40 feet wide by 125 feet long and of brick construction with the roofing. Long platforms and loading racks also will be constructed by the local company. The station will cost more than $15,000.
Balls have been laid to the location. A box car will be used by the local agent until the depot is completed.

Polish Flier To Try Flight Again

MIAMI, Fla., June 23 (AP)—Safely back on dry land again after eight days in a wave-tossed plane following being forced down on an attempted flight from New York to Poland, Stanislaus Felix Hausner rested today and made plans for another transatlantic hop.
He was brought ashore shortly before midnight from the Circle Shell, a freighter which sighted his drifting, disabled plane and took him aboard, suffering from hunger, thirst and exposure.
The 32-year-old motion picture operator, with but a few hours experience as a pilot, before he started his flight to Poland June 2, was decorated with the gold cross of merit of the Polish government as the principal feature of the official welcome accorded him upon his arrival here late last night.

With Mrs. Hausner, who came here by airplane from Newark, N. J., with friends to meet her husband, Hausner stood bashfully on the stage of a theater as he received the official welcome shortly before midnight.
Hausner spoke briefly, but failed to go into detail as to his experiences while drifting in the ocean on his ill-fated airplane. He repeated his intention to try another transatlantic flight.
"I have had no time to answer the thousand questions about what trouble I had, how I existed, what I ate and what I drank. All these things would take too long to answer."
Coffee: Higher, steady cables, trade buying.
Sugar: Higher, Cuban support.
Coffee: Quiet, commission house selling.
Chicago:
Wheat: Barely steady, rust damage reports doubtful, heaviness Winnipeg.
Corn: Steady, reports export inquiry, short covering.
Cattle: Steady to weak.
Hogs: Active and higher.

DO YOU INHALE?

Millions say
we hit the "nail on the head"
when we asked this question!

O.K. AMERICA... you wanted the facts and we've given them to you—even though the truth has shocked the cigarette trade! Inhaling is the very core of all cigarette discussion.

Lucky Strike can openly raise the issue. Luckies assure you the protection you want... because certain impurities concealed in even the finest, mildest tobacco leaves are removed by that famous purifying process. Luckies created that process. Only Luckies have it!

"Fifty million smokers can't be wrong!"
"It's toasted"
