Huey Long Shouts 'Liar' When Brother Testifies Against Him

DRY ADVOCATES DEMAND FARM RELIEF BEFORE REPEAL ACT

TWINKLES
Some Pampans, remarks the West Foster grouch, have the weather-Californians—they object to our "West Texas rain" and then complain when real rain causes mud. But where could you beat January weather in the Panhandle? Or yesterday?

Mind you, we are speaking of weather from the standpoint of the city dweller. We realize well enough that our farmers are hungering for some slushy "bad weather."

An explorer, writing in the New York Times, debunks Congo tales by calling it "Africa in the Mid." But we hope Dick Byrd doesn't fly with a description of balmy weather at the Poles.

Harnessing the latent energy in an atom seems to be comparable to reducing the amount of energy the farmer is forced to put into every dollar he gets.

But say what you will about the greenbacks Uncle Sam issues, they are better as they are than inflated like the German mark, so that a bale of them will barely buy a good meal. We need very carefully controlled inflation, if there is such a thing.

WAY BACK YONDER
Remember when—according to the Hereford Brand of 1902, "H. S. Symons, tonsorial artist, was preparing to install bathing facilities in his shop." "Not a carpenter idle in Hereford," said The Brand. Pioneering had its advantages.

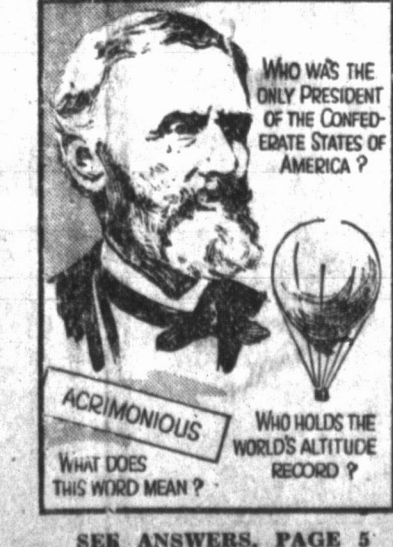

BUILDING THE LAW
Despite the fact that everyone affected in one way or another can think up why laws should not be passed, the legislature now in session will pass a lot of bills—scores of them. Many of these measures will affect other statutes and the lawyers will have a merry time translating the laws in relation to each other. And finally, the Supreme Court will hand down multitudinous rulings interpreting some laws and voiding others. By that time most of the laws won't be needed, anyway.

CENTER OF BLIZZARD
Up in Dalhart they will tell you that they have the coldest weather in Texas. It may be a dubious distinction, but they are proud of it just the same. Why, according to the Texas, even the jelly-beans wear long-handled underwear in winter. All glory to Dalhart! Indeed, if we had a leased wire to Dalhart our weather forecasting worries would be over. As Dalhart goes, so go we all, except to a lesser degree.

AS TO FORECASTING
We have gone back to an old stand-by in weather guessing—Dr. Miles weather almanac. Out in the forks of the creek, where they can't call up the weather bureau and find out what to expect, they put much dependence on almanacs. Our almanac was right about this recent cold spell, wholly and indisputably. For the rest of this week, our forecast is unsettled, with windy gusts over the southwest and some snow in the Rockies. Toward the end of the week, another cold spell will develop and the month will close out stormy. The precipitation will be

FILIBUSTER IS THREATENED IN WARM DISPUTE

REVOLUTION EXISTS IN COUNTRY, CLAIMS SENATOR BORAH

WETS GIVEN WARNING

PROHIBITION LEADERS WILL ATTEMPT TO PREVENT VOTE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14. (P)—Threats of a filibuster and the assertion that a revolution exists in the country arose in the senate today in a whirling dispute about the Blaine resolution to repeal the 18th amendment.

Borah of Idaho, first prohibition advocate to rise, said there were places where the courts could not operate—where they are frustrated by sheer force—and demanded the enactment of farm relief legislation before prohibition repeal. Blaine of Wisconsin, favoring repeal, sought a debate limitation and Brookhart of Iowa objected, asserting that it would require extended debate to reply to all of the statements the anti-prohibitionists had made in the senate.

After a discussion of the respective merits of repeal and farm relief legislation, Blaine said he would suggest a continuous session to dispose of repeal if no agreement for a vote had been reached by late in the day.

"I have never yet engaged in a filibuster," Borah replied, "but there are two ways to engage in one. If you attempt to wear men down physically to get action, I want to assure the senator from Wisconsin there are two sides to that question."

Senator Sheppard (D. Tex.), a co-author of the 18th amendment, then took up the debate with an assertion he would use every weapon at his command to defeat submission to the state of a repeal amendment.

Burial of Paupers Under Discussion

The question of agreement of county commissioners with undertakers for burial of the pauper dead this year was not decided during a lengthy discussion yesterday afternoon at the courthouse.

Speaking in behalf of the undertakers, C. B. Rice of McLean said that in his opinion relatives of paupers would prefer to have some choice in naming an undertaker, and that it would be inconvenient for a McLean undertaker, should he have an exclusive contract, to drive to Pampa or for a Pampa undertaker to go to McLean, bring the body here for embalming, then return to McLean for the burial.

He suggested that the undertakers and the county agree on a fair price, then let the burials be divided among the undertakers as conditions warranted. The matter was passed for further discussion among the commissioners.

Today the court was passing on bills, hearing insurance men, and looking after other routine matters.

Oil Bids Received

City commissioners last night received bids on oil needs for the water, street, and police departments, but no awards were made. Mayor W. A. Bratton and R. Earl O'Keefe were present. They spent considerable time studying city records, including delinquent taxes.

Mrs. C. A. LaPrade is ill of flu at her home, 508 South Hobart.

McLEAN MEN DIE IN BLAST

Third Victim of Explosion At Heald Dies of Burns At Midnight.

SHAMROCK, Feb. 14. (P)—Three persons are dead as a result of an explosion in a gas regulation house near Heald, 18 miles west of Shamrock, Sunday.

Paul Ladd, the third victim, died at midnight from burns. A. J. Tillery, manager of the McLean Gas company, died at 7:30 p. m. yesterday from similar injuries. Frank Corum succumbed late Sunday soon after reaching a Shamrock hospital.

Tillery and four workmen had gone to the regulation house to repairs following a fire Saturday night when the explosion occurred. Howard Hardin and a man by the name of Powell were injured, but were reported to be improving. All of the men lived in McLean.

Thefts Result In Two Arrests

Two men, who give their home address as Amarillo, are being held in the city jail in connection with the theft of a bicycle, tricycles, and other small articles in the east part of the city last night. The men were arrested by City Officers Weldon Wilson and H. L. Kenner about 11 o'clock.

The stolen bicycle was identified by Mrs. Clyde Feed, 422 North Starkweather, as belonging to her son. Two tricycles, a red wagon, and a croquet set are still at the police station and owners may have them by calling and identifying the articles.

Use of Nitro To Be Subject For A. P. I. Session

The next regular meeting of the Panhandle chapter of the American Petroleum Institute will be held at the city auditorium tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

Paul F. Lewis, manager of the American Glycolin company of Tulsa, will present papers on use of nitro glycerin compared to acid in increasing the production in lime and dolomite wells and sand jamming in shooting of oil wells. Both of these papers are expected to be of wide interest in this area. Special music is being arranged by the Junior chamber of commerce.

Strange Death In 'Children Of The Moon' Plot

"We know our lines!" That confident assertion from members of the cast gave Director Dick Hughes reason to exult at the last rehearsal of "Children of the Moon," Little Theater play to be produced next Tuesday evening, Feb. 21, at 8:15 o'clock at the city auditorium. Such boasts are not always taken at face value by play directors and Mr. Hughes was properly cynical.

But the ensuing rehearsal revealed the cast did know the lines and "the business" of the play. Now the players have seven whole days to polish up their acting, and they will have an opportunity to do so because Director Hughes has announced for a rehearsal every night and two dress rehearsals, one each on Sunday and Monday. He is convinced that genius is only an infinite capacity for detail, and that mastery of the details will make "Children of the Moon" a finished production.

Meanwhile, Russ Allen, Art Swanson and Ed Damon have assumed the role of Chandu, the magician, and are achieving sounds to resemble the crash of surf and breakers on a lonely beach, the whirr of an airplane motor, a chemical lacon—all being fashioned in a spooky looking laboratory. The play, the most serious yet attempted by the Little Theater, is not a ghost story nor a tale of horror—decidedly not—but it is a

CLAIMS POWER GROUPS PAID HUGE AMOUNT

SAYS $10,000 PASSED TO SENATOR BY ABEL

HUEY'S WORDS QUOTED

ASSERTS LONG 'SHOOK DOWN' UTILITIES OFFICIAL

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 14. (P)—Senator Huey P. Long today called his brother, Earl Long, "a liar," when Earl testified on the stand that Huey Long had been paid $10,000 by Harry Abel, who he said was a representative of the power interests.

General Samuel T. Ansell, counsel for the senate committee investigating John H. Overton's election to the senate had asked Earl Long if any money had ever been passed by Abel in connection with state legislation.

"Yes," said Earl Long. "My brother told me Abel had given him $10,000."

"You are a liar," shouted Senator Long.

Senator Long then interrupted the proceedings and turning to Senator Robert B. Howell, committee chairman, said: "Mr. Chairman, I wish to apologize for the statement I just made."

General Ansell then asked Earl Long if he had ever heard anything about Harry Couch, public utilities official, having been "shaken down" by Senator Long.

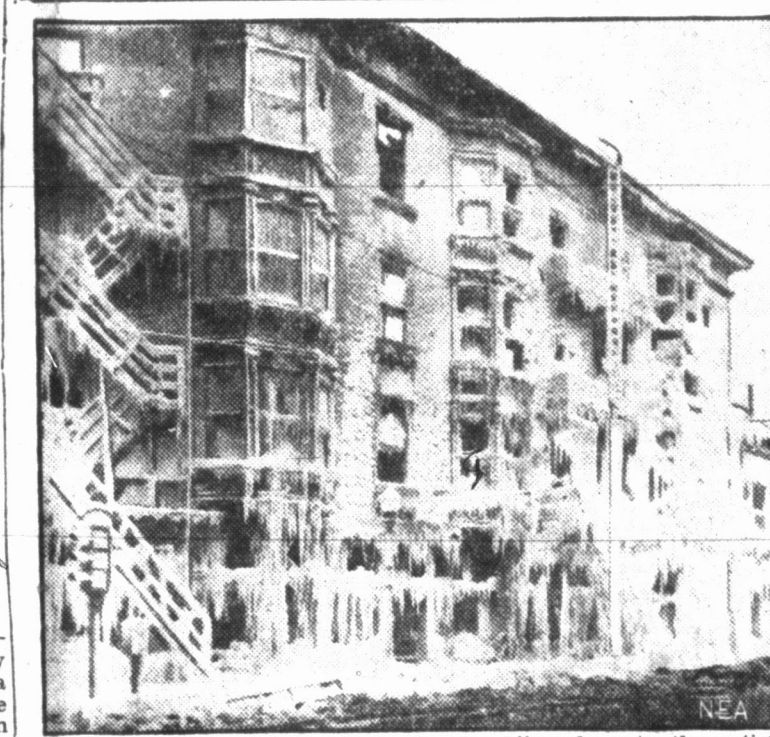

"Yes," said Earl. "After the impeachment (referring to proceedings against Huey Long as governor), when many recall elections had been started in the state, Huey called in Mr. Couch and told him he would have to help him so the people would not destroy him (Senator Long)."

"That also is a falsehood," said Senator Long.

Earl Long, politically estranged brother of Senator Long, told the senate committee investigating Representative Glycystin company of Tulsa, that he broke off relations with his brother after the latter had joined the "Walmesley gang in New Orleans" and began to "graft in the construction of the new capital building at Baton Rouge."

Earl Long said that he was only two years younger than the senator and that they had slept together as boys and maintained close relations until about two years ago.

FIRE, WATER, AND SUB-ZERO

A WAVE of fires followed the path of a blizzard across the nation, adding to the weather's toll of death and suffering and painting many such desolate pictures as this one. Flames, water and sub-zero temperature combined to make this Chicago apartment a replica of an iceberg.

SUPERINTENDENT, PRINCIPALS OF PAMPA SCHOOLS ARE REELECTED; SALARIES TO BE ADJUSTED LATER

New Trustee Law Is Puzzling School Officials

TRUSTEES of the Pampa Independent school district yesterday turned their attention to re-election of teachers for next term, beginning by re-electing the superintendent and all principals.

At the same time, the trustees decided not to set salaries until the legislature completes its work. This plan is being adopted all over the state. While it is rather apparent that reductions in salaries and operating expenses must be made, the legislature will have a great influence on school financing.

Should the legislature fail to raise the scholastic apportionment above the $11 or $12 now indicated, the school fund shortage would force drastic curtailments, including possibly the length of terms. Moreover, should the house bill be passed making assessments for county, school, and state purposes identical, the school revenues of the future would be reduced and advance retrenchment beyond the wishes of most patrons would be forced. The trustees are studying proposed legislation with the expectation of opposing some bills and favoring others.

Trustee Law Puzzling
How to adjust tenures of trustees to a statute passed last summer by the legislature is puzzling the board. Two years ago, two trustees—C. T. Hunkapiller and J. M. Daugherty—were elected for 3 years. Last year C. P. Buckler, Roger McConnell, and Roy McMullen were chosen for 3 years. The state's general law provides for 3-year terms, while the special law creating the district prohibits having more than 5 trustees, although the general law provides for seven. In order to elect one or more trustees each year after this year, the multiple of terms would be two trustees chosen for two terms on Roseboom of Donna, a county captain of the lower Rio Grande Valley Producers' association, said today that about 300 Hidalgo county farmers were going from farm to farm, talking with farmers in support of their plan of stopping movement of cabbage in order to maintain the price at $6 a ton.

Roseboom said the farmers were not patrolling the highways because no produce was moving but were

IDENTITY OF PAIR KNOWN

Police Chief Announces He Knows Who Kidnaped Rich Denver Broker.

DENVER, Feb. 14. (P)—Identification of two men who kidnaped and are holding for $80,000 ransom Charles Boettcher, II, wealthy Denver investment broker, was announced today by Chief of Police A. T. Clark who said the kidnapers were "a couple of racketeers who have been here the last year."

The chief declined to disclose how the identification was made, but it was presumed Mrs. Boettcher, who was with her husband Sunday night when he was hustled into the kidnapers' car had identified the man from rogues' gallery photographs.

Previously Clark had said: "We'll have the case cleaned up in 48 hours."

Clark said he believed a telephone call received last night at the home of Claude Boettcher, Colorado multimillionaire and father of the missing man, was the first attempt of the kidnapers to get in touch with the family.

A butler answered the telephone, Clark said, and a voice asked if it was the Boettcher home. Answered in the affirmative, the butler was told to "hold the wire." Five minutes later the butler said he heard the click of the receiver as the line was disconnected.

Boy Scouts At Panhandle Hold Annual Banquet

Boy Scouts had a big time in Panhandle last evening as the annual Father and Son banquet was held in the basement of the First Methodist church.

A G. Post of Pampa, president of the council, Executive C. A. Clark, the Rev. A. A. Hyde, V. Darnell, and Harold Holmes, all of Pampa, were present.

J. Sid O'Keefe, first president of the Adobe Walls council, made the principal address, with remarks centered on the responsibility of adults to boys. He stressed the necessity of limiting the "night life" of boys to constructive activities. Sam Lanning's welcome address was answered by H. W. Price of Borger, who also showed summer camp and Alaskan movies taken by him. M. B. Welch, toastmaster, called on several Pampa men for talks.

Rev. Hyde presided over a brief court of honor in which Joe Pat O'Keefe was recommended for the rank of Eagle Scout and Gerald York, L. F. Cleek, Ellis McCook, and Robert McKenney for the rank of Star Scouts. President Post presented a special award to Troop 8 of Panhandle.

Executive Clark told the big crowd that 25 new Scouts had been admitted to membership lately on reaching 12 years of age.

FERGUSON IS ENTITLED TO SUBMIT NAME

WITT RULES 'MA' HAS RIGHT TO SEEK CONFIRMATION

ORDERED RESUBMITTED

SENATOR SMALL SAYS DECISION IS CORRECT

AUSTIN, Feb. 14. (P)—Lieut. Gov. Edgar Witt today ruled that Governor Miriam A. Ferguson was within her legal rights in resubmitting to the Texas senate the name of F. L. Denison of Temple to be chairman of the state highway commission, after it once had been rejected.

There was no discussion of Lieut. Gov. Witt's holding and apparently an appeal to the floor would not be taken. Senator C. C. Small of Amarillo, who opposed Denison's confirmation, told the chair that in his opinion the ruling was correct.

When Governor Ferguson resubmitted Denison as her choice for highway chairman the next day after the senate had voted not to confirm, Senator Walter Woodward of Coleman raised a point of order the woman executive could not ask the senate to again consider a proposed appointee who had already been rejected at that session.

When he finished reading an exhaustive opinion bearing on the point of order, Lieut. Gov. Witt referred Denison's name re-offered to the committee on governor's nominations for recommendations.

That committee recommended he be confirmed when Denison's name first was presented, but the senate denied its approval by a single vote. It requires a two-thirds majority vote to confirm an appointee. The senate voted 19 to 11 for confirmation.

Two New Tests In Pampa Area Look Promising

Although activities in the oil field have been curtailed because of bad weather during the last week, two new tests are looking promising and 2 rigs are being erected. One of the new tests is in Gray county, the other is in Wheeler county.

More than 1,000 feet of oil rose in the Paul Thorpe No. 1, Short "A" in section 2, block 1, two miles north of LeFors yesterday. The test was then shut down, waiting for storage. Total depths is not known. Very little gas was encountered.

About 15,000,000 cubic feet of gas was struck in Stuckey's No. 1 Koons in section 43, block 24, Wheeler county yesterday. The test was started in section 2, block 1, two miles north of LeFors yesterday. The test was then shut down, waiting for storage. Total depths is not known. Very little gas was encountered.

The Sun Oil company and the Prairie Oil & Gas company are rigging rotaries for tests to offset the Mazda Oil company's No. 3 comb- Worley in section 35, block 3, which is estimated good for 300 barrels a day.

Harvesterettes Defeated 26 To 20 By Panhandle

The Pampa Harvesterettes failed by six points to overcome the huge lead piled up by the Panhandle girls last night in Panhandle. The final score was 26 to 20.

Panhandle had the lead at the half, 22 to 4 but the Harvesterettes started a rally, that netted them 16 points in the last half while the Pampa guards were holding Panhandle to two field goals, and two free throws. The guarding of DeAnn Heskell and Harriet Hunkapiller in the last half was the outstanding feature of the game.

Unless return games are scheduled with White Deer and Canyon, the Harvesterettes will turn in their suits this week.

MORE FUN, LESS WORK TO BE "HAPPY KITCHEN" AIM

COULD DANCE—GOT CONTRACT

ABILITY to dance gave Alice Jans her real chance in the movies. A former Creston, Iowa, girl, she did the rumba when no one else on the set could please the director, and she won a contract, and an opportunity to act.

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Because she danced as a child back in Creston, Iowa, and kept on studying dancing as she grew up, Alice Jans has a future as a film actress. It wasn't quite so simple, actually, but it was a dancing bit that won her executive attention and caused her to be offered a film contract.

With her love of dancing, Alice first came into pictures when musical films, with their large choruses of dancing girls, were in their heyday. She danced in the line with numerous other equally vigorous youngsters in many an "all-dancing, all-singing, all-talking" film, and like the rest, lost her job when studios lost interest in that type of picture.

She wanted to be a movie actress none the less, and began playing bits and extra roles. She was an extra on a set where Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., was making a picture, when Director Al Green, having tried several rumba dancers, and a new order of candidates. While the company waited, Alice piped up with the news that she could do a rumba—and would they let her try?

They did, she got the assignment, and was good enough to cause an executive, when the rushes were

SPECIALIST IS TO ELIMINATE ALL DRUGGERY

"DIFFERENT" IDEAS TO BE PRESENTED BY MRS. IHRIG

"The Happy Kitchen!" That's just what the Pampa Daily NEWS will show hundreds of housewives in Pampa on February 22-24, inclusive, at the city hall.

The modern kitchen is not one of drudgery—never. There's life, variety, color and the spice of tangy foods steaming in pots and pans.

"Where there used to be just a succession of work-a-day cares, there's now romance and the adventure of discovery—or there should be," declares Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig, famed for her knowledge of cookery and her exposition of the ever-changing styles in foods.

Mrs. Ihrig comes here to conduct the biggest and greatest cooking school the Pampa Daily NEWS has yet sponsored.

And remember—it's all absolutely free and there's not a thing to be sold. This newspaper considers it self fortunate in securing Mrs. Ihrig for this great women's event. Everywhere the noted home economist has presented her cooking school demonstrations she declares she found an ever-increasing interest in the problem of cookery and in the constant delving for "what's new in the kitchen."

"As for women losing interest in their homes—bosh!" Mrs. Ihrig writes. And just to fill that demand for ideas new and different, the Pampa Daily NEWS is bringing you the "Happy Kitchen."

Epicureans for ages back—ever since Friend Husband stopped tearing his dinner from the bones of a Pleistocene bear and eating it raw—have hailed the mistress of the kitchen and the happiness a fine-cooked and fine-served dinner can bring.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14. (AP)—Accompanied by her two dogs, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt plans on March 3 to drive her own car, a roadster, to Washington where the next day she will begin her career in the White House.

"Someone will have to take the dogs and the car to Washington," she said. "And I shall enjoy doing it myself. I love to drive."
"Of course I suppose my real reason is that I want to get away for a few hours."

"Those first few weeks in Washington are going to be strenuous. I shall have to make quite a few readjustments in my way of living and doing things. It isn't always going to be easy."
"I haven't made up my mind when I shall start, but probably very early in the morning of March 3. I like to drive early in the morning. I have to be in Washington by lunch time, and it's a seven-hour drive."

Mrs. Roosevelt's companions on her trip will be "Meggie," her Scottish terrier, and "Major," a police dog presented to the family by a troop of state police while the future president was governor of New York.

WHITE-COLLARED WORKER

Kay Strozi

By NEA Service
HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 14—Everybody these days is boldly venturing into the "white collared class." But such individuality about the white collars they are wearing!

Kay Strozi wears an adapted Lord Byron collar that particularly becoming to her oval face. With a lounging suit that has a very dark, glowing green bell-hop jacket, she wears a gleaming white satin blouse with this cut to its collar. With it she knots a four-in-hand tie.

Joan Crawford gets the most unusual and individual white collar touches of any star. Lunching at the M-G-M commissary with Gray Cooper and Howard Hawks, Joan wore a simple sports dress, topped by a white box sports coat and an absolutely huge white taffeta scarf tie about her neck.

Well, that's something about cigarettes I never knew before the cigarette that's Milder

the cigarette that Tastes Better

I'd never thought much about what's inside a Chesterfield cigarette. But I have just been reading something that made me think about it.
Just think of this, some of the tobacco in Chesterfield—the Turkish—comes from 4000 miles away! And before it is shipped every single leaf is packed by hand. All because Turkish tobacco is so small and delicate.
Of course I don't know much about making cigarettes, but I do know this—that Chesterfields are milder and have a very pleasing aroma and taste. They satisfy—and that's what counts with me!

THE PEOPLES COLUMN

Editor, The NEWS: Owing to the fact that you have from time to time published information regarding our suit against the railroad commission of Texas covering our injunction in the Panhandle, which suit is now pending in the Supreme Court of Texas, we wish to quote you a telegram just received from our attorney, Chas. L. Black of Austin.

"Court at special session today dismissed Daniger case at moot."

Upon receipt of the telegram, we called Mr. Black over the phone and learned that he rendered the decision of the supreme court's opinion shows that the judgments against us by the trial court and the Court of Civil Appeals was reversed thereby sustaining our contentions, but declared the case moot because of the new law and the new rules and regulations of the Railroad Commission issued thereunder.

We mention this so that in the event you give notice of this decision in your paper you will give all the facts connected therewith.

Aggie Directors Deny Assertion Of Legislators

COLLEGE STATION, Feb. 14. (AP)—In a statement issued here, the board of directors of the Texas A. & M. college denied the recent assertion of the joint legislative committee on organization and economy that the college accounting system was inadequate.

The board said regular audits by certified public accountants confirmed it in the statement that the system was "adequate and well suited to the particular requirements of the institution and its branches."

The statement said the board agreed with the committee the "most rigid economy" should be practiced by the various state institutions and added "we already have put partially into effect a plan looking to reduction of costs and elimination of all unnecessary duplications."

The board went on to say it would take up in detail "at the proper time and place" the various criticisms of the college offered in the committee's report.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Bad debts constitute a considerable item in the returns of many taxpayers and may be treated in one of two ways—either by deduction from gross income in respect to debts ascertained to be worthless either in whole or in part or by a deduction of a reasonable reserve for bad debts. Taxpayers were given an option for 1931 to select either of the two methods. The method used in the return for 1931 must be used in returns for subsequent years unless permission is granted by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue to change to the other method. Application to change must be made at least 30 days prior to the close of the taxable year for which the change is to be effective. However, a taxpayer filing a first return in 1932 may select either of the two methods, subject to the approval of the commissioner upon examination of the return. Permission to adopt the reserve method is limited to taxpayers having a large number of accounts where credit is extended over a considerable period of time. It is not granted for the purpose of handling one specific debt.

What constitutes a "reasonable addition" to a reserve for bad debts must be determined in light of the facts, and will vary as between classes of business and with conditions of business prosperity. A taxpayer using the reserve method should show in his return the volume of charge sales (or other business transactions) for the year, and the percentage of the reserve to such an amount receivable at the beginning and end of the taxable year, and the total amount of the debts ascertained to be worthless and charged against the reserve during the taxable year.

Texas Students Claim Registration Fee Would Drive Many From Classes

By CHARLES E. SIMONS. AUSTIN, Feb. 14. (AP)—Proposed increases in tuition fees at state-maintained institutions of higher learning have aroused opposition of the student body at the University of Texas.

Heavy increases in tuition fees, both on resident state students and students from other states, have been proposed in bills introduced in the legislature. The present fee is $30 for all students for a long term. One of the bills would double this amount on resident students and triple it on out-of-state entrants.

Another bill would increase the resident fee to $175 for Texas residents and $350 for out-of-state students at the University of Texas, and Texas Agricultural and Mechanical college. This bill would levy a fee of $150 on resident students at the Teachers colleges and $300 on non-Texas students.

Student opinion at the University of Texas has been expressed as strongly opposed to the increased fees. It was pointed out that many students are unable to pay them and that hundreds are taking courses now, owing to the lack of employment, who would be barred if the rates were hiked as proposed.

Opposition also has been put forth to the plan to boost the foreign student fee. It has been contended that Texas' standing as a first class two consecutive years and one chosen for one year the following year. To reach this plan, presumably the three men elected last year will have to draw lots to see which one will reduce his term by one year.

Until a ruling is received from the state superintendent, no solution will be adopted. But unless the ruling should indicate otherwise—and there seems to be no law governing—there will be no trustee election this year.

educational institution has gained in prestige as the result of large enrollment of out-of-state entrants. The low registration rate has permitted hundreds of students to come to Texas and enroll, thereby giving the University more and better publicity than it could get otherwise, it was claimed.

The object of the bills to raise the registration fees was to make the state educational institutions more nearly self-sustaining than at present. The emergency clause of one of the bills recited that it was only just and fair that the student who benefitted by the education pay a part of its cost rather than force the entire burden on the taxpayers.

ERNIE SCHAAF DEES OF BIG CARNERA'S BRUISING BLOWS

INJURIES IN 'FAKE' MATCH BRING DEATH

SCHAAF OUT ON FEET LONG BEFORE KNOCKOUT

NEW YORK, Feb. 14. (AP)—Ernie Schaaf, 24-year-old heavyweight boxer who fell under the bruising blows of the giant Primo Carnera at Madison Square Garden Friday night while a great crowd cried "fake!" died today from the beating he took.

Death, which came at 4:10 o'clock this morning, was due to intra-cranial hemorrhage ascribed to the thirteen rounds of punishment before he fell to the canvas.

At midnight a priest was called to administer the last rites of the Catholic church. With him when he died was his mother, Mrs. Lucy Schaaf, and his manager and friend, Johnny Buckley.

Jimmy Johnston, matchmaker at Madison Square Garden, said when told of Schaaf's death:

"It is the most terrible thing that ever happened in boxing."

Schaaf's death paralleled in many respects that of Frankie Jerome, bantamweight, in January, 1924. Jerome was knocked out in the twelfth round of a Garden fight by Bud Taylor, Terre Haute boxer, and died two days later after an operation similar to that which Schaaf underwent yesterday.

Three hours were required for the operation on Schaaf. It was performed, a bulletin by the doctors said, "to relieve intra-cranial pressure."

The bulletin added: "The patient stood the operation well and afterwards moved his left arm, which had been paralyzed. The patient's condition, however, is still critical."

At midnight Johnny Buckley was told that all hope of saving the former sailor had been abandoned.

Out On His Feet. Dr. Byron Stockey, brain specialist, who was in charge of the operation, said that Schaaf "must have been knocked out on his feet," and that there was no doubt that the injury had been suffered in the Carnera fight.

Throughout the 13 rounds between the 207-pound Boston fighter and the 250-pound Italian the crowd of 20,000 fight fans who jammed the Garden to capacity Friday night shouted repeatedly for "action" and raised the constant cry of "fake."

Spectators were struck with the fact that during most of the fight Schaaf offered only a desultory defense to the lumbering attack of the huge Carnera. At times he walked into Carnera's sinning gloves with his arms almost at his side.

Had Influenza. By the thirteenth round Schaaf was in distress and plainly showed it. Carnera lumbered into him with renewed energy. He shot a left to Schaaf's head, and the Boston man dropped.

The cries of "fake" echoed thru the Garden. It did not seem that a jab as lightly landed as that could have caused a knockout. The crowd did not know what is known today that Schaaf was "out on his feet" and that any blow, or as one doctor later put it, "no blow at all," might cause his final collapse under the ten times sweeps of the referee's count.

Jack Sharkey, heavyweight champion of the world, who was in Schaaf's corner, rushed into the ring and helped drag the fighter back to his stool. The cries of the crowd continued, ending only when Schaaf, still unconscious, was carried from the ring.

After the fight it became known that Schaaf only a fortnight ago, had recovered from an illness of influenza, and this was advanced by his supporter as accounting for his unfavorable showing.

Sharkey Discusses Blow. MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 14. (AP)—Jack Sharkey, who left here hurriedly last night in hope of reaching the bedside of his protegee and former shipmate, Ernie Schaaf, before the fighter died, told just before he left of the blow that dropped Schaaf during the Primo Carnera fight.

"Johnny Buckley (Schaaf's manager) didn't see the blow," Sharkey said, "but I saw it. It was a left—a jab. Ernie sagged and half turned. I knew he was hurt. Schaaf reeled a little and we saw his eyes—blank as could be. Then he went down. All I can see ever since is that kid lying there, his face like a mask and looking so pitiful."

Sharkey and his wife arrived here yesterday for a vacation. Last night Sharkey talked with New York by telephone and, learning of Schaaf's critical condition, left at once.

SPRING FOOTBALL TRAINING DUE TO BEGIN NEXT MONDAY

Track Candidates Will Be Accepted at the Same Time.

The thud of toe on pigskin is scheduled to be heard at Harvester track Monday afternoon, Coach Odus Mitchell said yesterday afternoon. He also intimated that the swish of spikes on cinders might be in order for the same time. Otherwise, spring football and track and field practice are scheduled to start Monday, weather permitting.

Suits will probably be given out Saturday. However, it is possible that the distribution of suits will be postponed until Monday and practice start Tuesday afternoon.

Intramural football will be played during the spring training period, the length of which has not been set. The team will be formed of boys who have had no previous football experience. Teams will also be organized among the freshmen, sophomores and juniors.

The newcomers will play the freshmen and the sophomores the juniors. Winners will then play winners and losers meet losers.

Assistant Coach Argus Fox will take command if the Harvesters basketball team wins the District 1 championship in Canyon Friday and Saturday. Other coaches have not been selected. If the Harvesters lose, Coach Mitchell will probably take over the track and field coaching.

Track and field prospects for this year are the best in some time. Most of the freshmen for last season will return and several newcomers have promising records. Football prospects are gloomy. Captain Jess Patton will be the only regular Harvester to return. Only five substitutes will be available.

The spring session will probably be long and hard. Conditioning will be on the program for the first week or two and then rudiments will be taught. Active playing will not start until later in the season.

SCHAAF LEARNED TO BOX IN NAVY, AT AGE OF 15

HARVESTERS TO FIGHT IMPROVED BULLDOGS THIS EVENING

BOSTON, Feb. 14. (AP)—The call of the prize ring, which lured him to his death, was first heard by Ernie Schaaf early in his childhood at Elizabeth, N. H., where the blond viking was the first born of the seven children of Ernest and Lucy Schaaf on Sept. 27, 1892.

Elizabeth, during Schaaf's early years, was in a frenzy over the prowess of two other native sons, Mickey Walker and George Ward, and their success inspired most of the youngsters of that city.

Large, even at birth, when he weighed almost 12 pounds, Schaaf was better able to emulate these Elizabeth heroes than any of his playmates and so eager was he to do so that he quit school at the age of 13 and obtained employment in a factory. When he was 15 he joined the navy.

Schaaf was assigned to the U. S. S. Denver. The Denver, at that time, had a boxing idol known then as "Batling Ski," but now as Jack Sharkey, heavyweight champion and co-manager of Schaaf.

After serving a navy enlistment, Schaaf turned professional fighter under the management of Phil Schlossberg of New York.

With Schlossberg guiding him, Schaaf won the 125-pound title in the Metropolitan championships in New York, the all-service championship and several international amateur contests during 1926, when he made his first professional start by knocking out Jack Gagnon in Boston.

Other victims of Schaaf's first professional year were Al Friedman, Ad Stone, Serg. Jack Adams, Murray Gitzel, Dan Lieber and Jack Darnell, the "Fighting Cop" from Washington.

The success of the Harvesters will largely depend upon the ability of big Hoot Fullington to carry on his offensive power. The big center has been looping baskets from all angles against the Harvesters a five-man scoring threat. He had been a tower of strength on the defense but he has neglected his offensive work until recently.

Two losses will eliminate a team in the District tournament, but the team that can win three straight games will take the honors. Officials for the tournament have not been selected. Drawing for opening games and opponents will take place tonight or tomorrow night.

semifinals of such tournaments as the state championship, River Crest and Glen Garden—all Southwestern. Having served his term as a semifinalist, Nowlin hopes his three years' schooling will advance him to the finals this year. He was one of the few who defeated Gus Moreland in 1932. It was "Short" Long who fanned him in the semifinals of the state championship, 4 and 2.

The last tournament Nowlin played in last year was the Texas professional golfers' association amateur event at the Dallas Lakes wood country club. He finished second or, in a regulation tournament, a semifinalist.

He is experiencing trouble with his wood shots, but believes he will have the driver, brassie and spoon working satisfactorily before he tees up February 21 at the Houston country club invitation. If his golfing history repeats, he will merely play in the finals this year. It will be 1931 before he becomes a champion.

BORGER BEATS PERRYTON FOR SECTION TITLE

HARVESTERS TO FIGHT IMPROVED BULLDOGS THIS EVENING

Borger's scrapping Bulldogs will be the fourth team in the District 1 basketball tournament in Canyon Friday and Saturday along with Pampa, Amarillo and Quitaque. The fighting Borger boys won a 39 to 29 game from the Perryton Rangers in Borger last night to take two out of three games for section honors.

The Pampa Harvesters will invade Borger tonight to test the strength of the rejuvenated Bulldogs who fell easy prey to the Harvesters here two weeks ago. Coach Odus Mitchell declared this morning that he had never seen a club improve as much as the Bulldogs have in the past two weeks.

It will be the job of the team defeating the Bulldogs, to stop Conley and Piles. Conley has been running wild at home but in Pampa he failed to register. He breaks fast but is on a clean floor which handicapped him in the Pampa game. Selridge and Roos will also be heard from. Perryton couldn't stick with Conley who is reported to be as fast as Woodward, Harvester captain.

The success of the Harvesters will largely depend upon the ability of big Hoot Fullington to carry on his offensive power. The big center has been looping baskets from all angles against the Harvesters a five-man scoring threat. He had been a tower of strength on the defense but he has neglected his offensive work until recently.

Two losses will eliminate a team in the District tournament, but the team that can win three straight games will take the honors. Officials for the tournament have not been selected. Drawing for opening games and opponents will take place tonight or tomorrow night.

semifinals of such tournaments as the state championship, River Crest and Glen Garden—all Southwestern. Having served his term as a semifinalist, Nowlin hopes his three years' schooling will advance him to the finals this year. He was one of the few who defeated Gus Moreland in 1932. It was "Short" Long who fanned him in the semifinals of the state championship, 4 and 2.

The last tournament Nowlin played in last year was the Texas professional golfers' association amateur event at the Dallas Lakes wood country club. He finished second or, in a regulation tournament, a semifinalist.

He is experiencing trouble with his wood shots, but believes he will have the driver, brassie and spoon working satisfactorily before he tees up February 21 at the Houston country club invitation. If his golfing history repeats, he will merely play in the finals this year. It will be 1931 before he becomes a champion.

JOE BROWN SAYS IT'S EASY TO BE A BASEBALL MAGNATE

Takes Responsibility For Pie Traynor's Success on Diamond. By CHARLES A. GRUMICH, Associated Press Sports Writer. KANSAS CITY, Feb. 14.—Joe E. Brown, movie comedian whose mouth is his fortune, came to town overflowing with baseball anecdotes and was initiated as a magnate-by-proxy of the Kansas City baseball club.

The business of being a baseball magnate is one of the easiest now, the baseball hero of the movies revealed, on a brief stopover last night. He said after it became known that he had participated in the purchase of the Kansas City club, the American Association franchise through his old friend, Tris Speaker, he had several inquiries from other clubs seeking his financial support.

Brown was met by Speaker, the new manager here, President E. Lee Keyser, and Secretary Business Manager Bill Rodgers, who raced up from St. Louis for their first conference with the "angel" of the reorganized club, who has been a lifelong devotee of baseball and was once an active ball player.

"Say," Brown asked, "did you know I was responsible for Pie Traynor's success in baseball? It was up at Boston. Traynor dressed after the other players and showed some timidity about going onto the field. He didn't know whether to run away or not. He later told me that he saw me out on the field and decided that if I was a major league he could make the grade, too."

Although Brown will attend the Blues' season-opener here he will not appear in uniform, as the new management had hoped.

"It's like that old saw, 'if you keep your mouth shut the people won't ever find out how little you know,' and if I don't put on a uniform they won't find out how terrible a ball player I am."

Brown told about his new baseball movie. He said Wally Berger in Boston, who played in it, could hit everything that came his way until the cameras were trained on him and then he couldn't do a thing. Brown, who plays second base in the picture, had to have several retakes before he could hit to left field.

Lowly Mexican Garner's Picture SAN BENITO, Feb. 14. (AP)—Because he sent Vice Pres. -elect John N. Garner a batch of Mexican victuals to tickle the palate of the Texan while he's far from home in Washington, D. C., Juan Mora now can point with pride to an autographed photo of Garner on the wall of his humble thatched jacal out in the brush near here.

Mora formerly cooked for Garner on hunting trips and knows how the Uvaldean likes his Mexican food. Mora sent the gift through Col. Sam Robertson of this city, and received in return the photograph on which Garner had written "for my friend, Juan Mora, with best wishes."

TEAR GAS SCORES ATTICA, N. Y. (INS)—A new means of combating prison outbreaks was demonstrated here during the recent riot which was started by a mentally deficient inmate. One whiff of tear gas piped into the mess hall, scene of the disturbance, was enough to quell the demonstration.

STUDENTS' PICTURES OF FAMED PILGRIMS IN CANTERBURY TALES ARE INTERESTING, IF STARTLING

An interesting collection of drawings is being made by Miss May's senior English students in connection with their study of Chaucer's "Canterbury Tales." Each student was asked to write a short character sketch of his favorite pilgrim and to draw a picture of that pilgrim as he imagined him from Chaucer's description.

Most popular among the characters are the Wife of Bath and the Prioress, each of whom has been drawn seven times. Perhaps the best picture from the standpoint of both art and character portrayal, is Opal Denson's crayola sketch of the Wife of Bath—a stout, middle-aged woman wearing a bright flowered dress and riding a horse with red ribbons tied on his tail and mane. In all of the colored pictures the scarlet horse of this bold woman are made prominent. This cloth-maker of the Middle Ages is pictured by some as the forerunner of the modern business woman, while many of the drawings make her resemble a gay young flapper—this woman, bold and red-faced, who had had five husbands, besides other company in youth! Some picture her in modern jodours and riding astride! Judging from the way she sits on her horse in some of the drawings, one would take her for a circus rider.

DID YOU KNOW—

Parks Brumley has decided that dean of P. H. S. is the place for him.

Mrs. Alexander's biology classes have some of the largest frogs ever seen in this section.

A final order for senior rings will be sent off tomorrow. If you wish a ring, please see Miss McFarlane at once.

Miss McFarlane has a senior ring size 7 which she wishes to sell. The price is $6.12 cash.

Shorthand is not the hardest subject in the world. Take a look at the comparison made with Chinese on the door of the classroom.

Miss May's window shades nearly got her down until Mr. Harris, our janitor, fixed them.

Superintendent E. B. Fisher has purchased a set of sketches of President-elect Roosevelt and Vice-President-elect Garner and had them placed in class rooms.

Mr. Workman's science classes are beginning a study of electricity. Isn't that shocking?

Classroom Notes

The first hour American history classes plan to visit Junior high chapel exercises Wednesday morning. The program is to include some American history songs presented by the Girls' Glee club.

The physics classes have been studying refrigeration. Mr. Bert Curry made a talk upon it and demonstrated with machinery from an electric refrigerator. The classes plan to visit the ice plant Thursday morning if the weather permits.

Mrs. Alexander's biology class has an exhibit that should be of interest to nature lovers. It is composed of mounted specimens of flowers, leaves, and plants, which include Texas state flower, the bluebonnet, and a case of mounted butterflies.

Among the most interesting is a collection of leaves made by Wilma Twentier and one of mounted butterflies made by Dorothy Darling.

Mrs. C. A. Hipps of LeFors underwent an operation at Worley hospital this morning.

water color picture of a beautiful black steed and a rider clad in rich fur robes is unusually attractive.

The five sketches of the brawny miller with the wart on his nose are, to say the least, interesting. Three students check the crafty shipman, and one showed him in the act of stealing a draught of wine while the chapman was asleep. The summer and the pardoner, that rascally pair who sang in a deep trumpet-like bass and a high shrill soprano "Come hither, love, to me," were each drawn twice, while none of the other characters were chosen by more than one student.

A few of the drawings represent careful study of Chaucer's descriptions; some are good art work, some merely traced; an occasional sketch shows fine imagination, and many are amusing. This interesting collection will be on exhibit along with the themes they were written to accompany on the evening of March 24, when the P.-T. A. will have Parents' Night.

High School To Celebrate PTA Founders' Day

Members of the high school P.-T. A. will celebrate Founders Day on Thursday afternoon with appropriate ceremonies. Following a tribute to the founders by Mrs. C. T. Humkappillar, a birthday candle will be lighted in their memory by Mrs. J. B. Townsend, president of the city council. The program will also include a violin solo by Mr. Stewart, local violin instructor, and a vocal duet.

At the close of the program a memorial offering will be taken and the birthday cake will be cut and served. The meeting will be held in the high school cafeteria at 3 o'clock and all parents and patrons are urged to attend.

Goal of Pampa Harvesters Is District Title

Sectional Champions! 1,000 points or bust! District Championship! Those were the goals of the Pampa high school Harvesters when they entered into a two-out-of-three tussle with Hedley last Friday and Saturday nights. They are now sectional champions and have bettered the 1,000 point aim by a 2-point margin. Next Friday and Saturday the Harvesters will swing into two-out-of-three game tussles with four other teams for the district championship.

The Harvesters waited revenge in the Canadian tournament, but they tasted defeat in their first game. In the first round they drew a bye, but they were cast against the Amarillo girls next and held them to a 27-17 score in favor of the Sandvetties.

The girls played Panhandle last night but have dropped plans to play Borger tonight.

The Gorillas have been in the background so far this year, but they went to the semi-finals in the Canadian tournament and came near to defeating the strong Higgins team. Having lost only a few games during the season, they played Panhandle B last night and were favored to give them a hard tussle.

Scouts Furnish Chapel Program

Scout Executive C. A. Clark and several of his boys had charge of last Wednesday's assembly as a part of the observance of National Scout Week.

A team composed of John Martin, Melvin Qualls, Ed Scott, Smith Wise, and Otto Rice demonstrated first aid treatment for a broken thigh, a fractured jaw, and a minor shoulder cut. Don Pester was the victim. The boys completed the work in eight minutes, schedule time.

The Scout executive gave an outline of the events to take place on Friday and Saturday at the annual Scout Round-up. He explained a little of the history of scouting and scouts in America and discussed briefly the aims of the organization.

He then introduced the group of boys on the stage with him and explained that they were to demonstrate various classes of first aid as applied by a proficient Scout. While the boys collected their equipment and prepared themselves, he announced that they will enter in competition with the first aid teams of nearby industrial companies and Scout troops this spring.

At the close of the program all Scouts and Scouters were asked to the front and repeat the Scout oath and join in singing taps.

Debaters Have Full Schedule Until April 1

Pampa high school will be represented in debates every week between now and April 1. The schedule includes debates with leading schools throughout the Panhandle.

Yedda Stein and Opal Denson are out to make the boys' team.

This week-end the teams will compete in the Panhandle Speech Arts tournament in Amarillo. During the weeks of February 20-25 and March 6-10 they will meet Canyon here and at Canyon. February 22 and 23 the girls debate Amarillo and Panhandle, respectively, and March 6 and 9 the boys meet these teams.

Both boys and girls will take part in the McLean Lions club tournament which was to have been held last Friday and Saturday, but on account of the weather was postponed till March 3 and 4. They will enter the West Texas Invitation Debate tournament at Childress on March 17 and 18. The champions in Gray county will be determined in the county meet here March 31 and April 1.

CAST FOR 'THE HIGH HEART,' CONTEST PLAY, IS SELECTED BY PROFESSOR OF CANYON COLLEGE

The winning cast for "The High Heart," the contest one-act play, as decided by tryouts last night in the gym was as follows: Sam Davis, Joe Stephens; Agnes Cranston, Dorothy Harris; Major Cranston, Jim Stone; Mrs. Peyton, Roy Blalock; General Dodge, Henry Cullum; Lieut. Richards, Norman Carr; Augustus, Jack Benton; soldiers, Clinton Evans and Richmond Eastrup. The contest was judged by Mrs. Batchelder, head of the public speaking department of W. T. S. T. Local Air Mail Service Is Best To Be Obtained Through much effort on the part of local postal authorities, connections for air mail have been arranged which give Pampa patrons a service second only to cities located at air mail stops.

A complete schedule available at the postoffice shows time of arrival of Pampa mail at every air mail stop in the nation. A letter mailed here at 4:25 p. m. will reach Wichita, Kansas, at 9:27 p. m., Kansas City at 11:15 p. m., St. Louis at 1:55 a. m., Chicago at 6:30 a. m., or Los Angeles at 8:34 a. m. New York is reached the following noon and other distant points with similar speed.

It is pointed out also that air mail letters receive almost instant attention when received along with other less important mail. However, since air mail is handled just like all other first class mail at its destination, a special delivery stamp is necessary to assure maximum speed of delivery.

Postmaster D. E. Cecil said that air mail special delivery letters give overnight service to cities on air mail routes as far west as Chicago, and as far east as Pittsburgh.

Denny Shute Wins Tampa Golf Title

PALMA CEIA GOLF CLUB, Tampa, Fla., Feb. 14. (AP)—A cool par on an extra hole gave Denny Shute of Cleveland, Ohio, the 1933 Gaspardella open golf title and $300 in cash here yesterday in a play-off with Willie McFarlane of Tuckahoe, New York.

Both Shute and McFarlane wound up the 72-hole distance at 272 strokes and then went the extra inning to decide the winner. Their scores were eight strokes under par. Shute shot the extra hole easily in par but McFarlane got into a trap and took five. He won $200 as runner-up.

Shute, in his afternoon round, set a course record with a 33-30—63 adding to a 32-35—67 in the morning and two earlier rounds at 71-71—142.

John Revolta of Menominee, Mich., was third with 276 and won $150. Horton Smith of Oak Park, Ill., won fourth and $125 with a 279 and fifth and $100 went to Craig Wood of Deal, N. J., on 280.

Man Killed In Parachute Jump

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 14. (AP)—Two airplane stunt men, each eager to outdo the other, leaped from an airplane 10,000 feet above Los Angeles Eastside airport Sunday. Each carried two parachutes.

After coasting awhile with one open, they cut loose and plummeted toward the ground. The idea was to see which man could come nearer the earth before opening his second chute.

When "Spud" Manning was about 1,800 feet from the ground, he opened his chute and floated down safely.

But Harold H. (Bud) Bradon, whizzed on down, spectators grew tense. About 100 feet from the ground his chute opened.

It was too late. Bradon was killed as he hit the ground.

Secret Session Of Legislature Is Upheld Again

AUSTIN, Feb. 14. (AP)—A vigorous assault on the ancient practice of the Texas Senate in confirming or rejecting governors' appointees in secret session apparently has been repulsed.

Senator George Purl of Dallas, near the start of the session, pleaded with his colleagues to permit the final vote to be taken in the open. The proposal was re-referred to the committee on rules. Senator Purl regarded that action as "burial without benefit of clergy" and has not attempted to "resurrect" the proposed rule.

Senator Purl and others who supported his proposal contended that the public was entitled to know how each senator voted on any appointment made by the governor. They said the purpose of the executive session was to protect the appointee from publicity on any attacks which might be made on his character. The practice was not intended as protection for the senators, they stated.

The Senate committee on government's nominations, presided over by Sen. Will M. Martin of Hillsboro, has voted to open two or three times this year on confirmation of governors' appointees. In past years, the committee vote on appointees has been in secret sessions.

In every corner of the world, both here and overseas, wherever you find joy in life, 'tis always "Luckies Please!"

Character..for a perfect start
Mildness..for perfect enjoyment

You'll recognize it instantly—the fragrant, full-flavored character of Lucky Strike's fine tobaccos.

And then the tempting deliciousness of these fine tobaccos is enriched and purified by the famous "Toasting" process—that exclusive treatment which makes tobaccos really mild. Only Luckies offer these two benefits and for these two reasons—Character and Mildness—"Luckies Please!"

because "It's toasted"
