TWINKLES
Mrs. Gushaway has been talking of leaving Pampa for several years, but has stopped since her daughter attracted a "steady." Mrs. Gushaway feels much more kindly toward the world now.

Madid wets and architects tell us the oldtime saloon is gone forever and exhibit plans for gorgeous refreshment parlors. But a looped-legged "drunk" needs a saloon and in his presence a palace becomes a gutter.

Percy, the office mouse, says he hears that a second cousin of his has been executed in Russia for gnawing into a cheese reserved for the haughty members of the Communist families.

Call it scrip or barter money, as you will, but the basic idea is that it is supposed to represent an exchange of labor or its equivalent. We already have too much relief that from a practical standpoint resembles a dole. Work is still honorable.

City administrators, noting falling valuations in keeping with low prices, would do well to cut operating costs and lay aside a surplus for the awkward year when interest and sinking fund demands will be embarrassingly large and income low, pending the rebound of values in which assessments are 12 months behind as a universal policy.

Note that legislation is a product of the legislature. Jim promoted and Ma has improved, but the lawmakers really do the work.

Principal J. A. Meek of Baker school reports receipt of $2.75 from Mrs. Fatheree for the cafeteria. And Mrs. Fatheree, by the way, makes a similar contribution every month.

THAT NEW WORD
We have a new word for our readers. It's r-e-n-o-v-a-t-e. It is not in any dictionary. It is in full circulation at Philadelphia. The word means to make needed repairs and improvements at today's bargain prices. The country is filled with things that are not in repair, order, and good appearance. Millions of men need work. Money is as plentiful as ever, but not in circulation. Philadelphia is renovating in a big way. Not since Liberty Loan drives has so much civic enthusiasm been aroused. The ring of the hammer is being heard again, and it's sweet music to every ear. The ring of the hammer is followed by the ring of the cash register. Philadelphia citizens pledged themselves to spend fifteen millions in renovating. You can't tell them that renovating is a vulgarism. Every hamlet, town, and city could afford to take advantage of current prices to renovate.

FARMERS' DEMANDS
Most farmers realize, by now, that millions of other persons have joined them in the unhappy state of being unable to meet payments on loans. The inter-dependence of workers and employers in all lines was never more apparent. The prices of farm products will not be stabilized until the millions of idle men are given work in factories and workshops. There is this difference in the plight of farmers and unemployed men in general: The farmers must have time to meet mortgage demands in many instances or lose what they have built up during many years of hard work. They are caught in a technical vice not of their own making, and they are menaced by the prospect of being squeezed out of possession of their property. Given half the time, workers which have been lavished upon eastern manufacturers, they can become as independent financially as any class of workers in the nation. Without help they in many cases will lose the investments they have

SAYRE OILMAN SOUGHT BREAKDOWN OF PRORATION

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 3. (AP)—Ed Hicks, Jr., secretary of the Oklahoma corporation commission, resigned today, saying he did so "in view of testimony being taken before the senate oil investigating committee in which my name has been involved and in order to save the commission further embarrassment."

Hicks' resignation, effective on February 15, was tendered to members of the commission, which is charged by law with oil proration enforcement in Oklahoma. He has held the secretary's position for six years.

'Payments' Offered
On Wednesday of this week, Philip Flaxman, independent oil man of Sayre, Okla., told the senate committee he had negotiated for the breakdown of proration by means of three attempted payments totaling $100,000, but that the proposed scheme fell through. He said the plan called for the payment of $35,000 to Hicks, $50,000 to Commissioner E. R. Hughes and $25,000 to Commissioner C. C. Childers.

Both Hughes and Childers denied any knowledge of such a scheme and said the charge was ridiculous. At the time, Hicks declined to comment.

Although no testimony was given to implicate the commissioners in any direct negotiations, Flaxman said he had talked to Hicks several times about the alleged deal.

Murray J. C. Denton, vice-president and general counsel for Mid-Continent petroleum, told the committee that proration, as administered in Oklahoma, has cost his concern and its subsidiaries about $2,000,000 a year.

Other developments today included a charge by Gov. Murray, in his weekly newspaper, that the senate, in investigating oil affairs, has "reversed the usual impeachment proceedings," a demand by the oil commission for telephone toll records to trace a report that a man mentioned in the inquiry was "tipped off" by a state official and a proposed new proration enforcement law will allow important curb violators to escape punishment.

Governor Signs Car License Bill

AUSTIN, Feb. 3. (AP)—Governor Miriam A. Ferguson today signed a bill extending the time limit for payment of motor vehicle registration fees to April 1. It became law immediately, having been adopted by a two-thirds majority vote in each house, which made it effective at once with the chief executive's signature.

The woman governor presented the pen used in signing the bill to Senator Albert Stone of Brenham, who sponsored the legislation in the upper house.

The law was designed to succor owners of automobiles and trucks who were not immediately able to pay their taxes. The time limit set for the final date of payment on February 1. Those who did not pay were subject to 20 per cent penalties and denied use of their conveyances until new license plates were obtained.

Dallas Company Now Low Bidder On Post Office

Delayed bids for construction of the Pampa federal building, opened yesterday, revised the original list of low bids as carried in THE NEWS Thursday.

The NEWS was informed by the Associated Press last night that while the previous low bid was that of Charles Weitz and sons of Des Moines, Iowa, two lower bids had been received. These were those of Nathan Wolfheld of Dallas, $128,844, and Stibbard Construction company of Detroit, $128,900. The Weitz bid was $132,447. The Pampa firm of Glover and Boyington entered an offer of $133,900.

The treasury figures were tentative, and the check will determine who gets the contract. Ordinarily no revisions are made in checking tentative figures.

Economy Store To Open Saturday

Pampa's business barometer was hiked here today when Dave Rubin, who has had eighteen years experience in the men's clothing and furnishing business, announced the opening Saturday of his establishment, the Economy Store, located in the 100 block on South Cuyler.

"This will be a one-price, everything guaranteed store," Mr. Rubin declared. "Shoes will be a specialty in the new business, which will include in its stock ready-to-wear, men's clothing, men's furnishings, work clothing, as well as ladies', men's and children's shoes. More than a thousand pairs of shoes have already been received."

While not all the stock is on hand and will not be until within the next few days, it was decided to open the store tomorrow, in order that Pampa might benefit from the many bargains offered. One of the paramount ones will be dress shirts at 39c each.

The personnel of the store has not yet been selected, definitely, Mr. Rubin said, but he expected that the business would furnish employment for five persons.

Ralph Thomas, county agent, was demonstrative beef cutting near Kingsmill today.

The resolution, offered by Senator Grady Woodruff of Decatur, pointed out that Johnson's term would expire February 15. It expressed the senate's appreciation for his service.

NEW YORK, Feb. 3. (AP)—Rails crept up in the late trading to give a little better appearance to a ragged and irresolute stock market today. Some of the utilities and specialties were heavy, however, and the list was irregular at the finish. The turnover was only about 900,000 shares.

Application For Relief Fund Is Near Completion

Gray county's application for additional money through the Reconstruction Finance corporation will be completed sometime tomorrow, according to George W. Briggs, Mr. Briggs went to McLean and LeFors yesterday, learning the need of those two places and ascertaining how previous amounts were disbursed.

The new application blank requires much information, including the amount already received, how it was spent and how many families and persons benefited and to what extent, how much other available money, groceries, Red Cross flour and clothing have been dispensed, and much more information.

The application must be in the hands of West Texas chamber of commerce officials Monday and sent to Governor Ferguson by Feb. 11 for her approval. The governor has appointed the same county committee to handle the money. C. H. Walker is chairman.

Mrs. T. C. Overstreet of White Deer stopped in the city yesterday.

BANKER TRIES TO FOIL CAMERA

AMARILLO MAN IN CONFESSION SAYS SHERIFF
MITCHELL ARRESTED IN FATAL SHOOTING OF ROBERT THARP
ORAL ADMISSION MADE
STORE EMPLOYEES SEEK TO IDENTIFY PRISONER

LUBBOCK, Feb. 3. (AP)—Paul Mitchell, 24, of Amarillo, returned here from Kingsville today, has admitted orally that he fatally wounded Robert Tharp, 25, in a grocery store holdup here last October, and that he executed another grocery robbery a few minutes before he shot Tharp. Sheriff Abel said Mitchell admitted having participated in armed robbery of a grocery the night before the two holdups here.

Mitchell, blonde, slight, his right arm in a sling, arrived here with Sheriff Abel, Deputy Sheriff Cap Moore and J. C. Keller, state highway policeman, shortly after noon, ending an automobile trip of more than 1,500 miles.

Although the young man did not deny a major part in the robberies and the homicide here, he said he would not decide whether to make a signed statement until he had talked with his mother, Sheriff Abel said.

M-System store employees and other persons who witnessed the holdups and the shooting were to view Mitchell this afternoon in an attempt to establish identification, the sheriff said.

SMEEMAN FREE FROM SHADOWS OF PEN WALLS

Governor of Missouri Grants Man Full Pardon

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Feb. 3. (AP)—Shadows of threatened imprisonment behind penitentiary walls lifted today for Glenn Smeeman, Cleveland business man whose past caught up with him after 15 years.

Gov. Guy B. Park of Missouri granted a full pardon to Smeeman, who was sentenced in 1916 to serve two years in the penitentiary for theft of an automobile in St. Louis, but fled the state while under bond before being taken to prison.

Granting by Gov. Park of a pardon removed the last obstacle to Smeeman's resumption of the life he had lived for several years under an assumed name in Cleveland, where he had prospered as a music publisher and married a girl who knew nothing of his past.

Last week Gov. Edwin C. Johnson of Colorado commuted Smeeman's three and one-half year sentence to six months he had served in Colorado before he escaped from a prison road gang in 1918. He was sentenced in that state in 1917 for the theft of an automobile at Denver.

Gov. Park, in granting a pardon, said it would "do no good" to send Smeeman to prison. Brushing away years with his handkerchief, Smeeman told the governor he was "very grateful." Mrs. Smeeman, who had gone to Colorado with her three-month-old daughter when her husband was returned there, appeared with Smeeman before Gov. Park.

Farmers' Plight Is Discussed At Jaysee Meeting

Activities for 1933 were discussed by members of the activities committee of the Pampa junior chamber of commerce last night. Suggestions were recorded and various unfinished work from last year considered.

The committee will meet with the same committee from the Board of City Development at 7 o'clock Wednesday night to select major activities and divide minor projects between the two bodies.

It was agreed that the committees would become a clearing house for propositions and schemes presented to the presidents of both organizations for their approval. The committees were selected by the presidents because they could be called at any time to hear propositions.

Dr. C. H. Schulz is chairman of the junior committee and Jack Cunningham of the senior committee. Travis Lively, president of the B. C. D., and W. T. Fraser, president of the J. C. C., were present.

Roy Bourland, chairman of the B. C. D. inter-community relations committee, informed the group that his committee's idea in assisting the farmers organize to plead with loan companies for time to "get on their feet" before mortgages were closed was not a radical move but one of mercy.

Others present were Jack Dunn, L. P. Lusby, H. L. Polley, George Briggs, and Harry Hoare.

SAFE AND SANE

We like the attitude of the Panhandle-plains farmers who are meeting to discuss their problems. They are not seeking to take advantage of any situation, although it seems to them that some mortgagees have no sympathy. They do not expect to avoid payment of loans honestly asked and honestly received. They are frankly unable to pay big sums from earnings on farm products at present prices. No rugged West Texan will ask more than a fair chance, but he may be expected to fight for that. No radical demands are expected of the property owners' meeting which will be held here Saturday at 2 p. m. in the county courtroom.

MOVE PALO DURO

Rep. H. K. Stanfield of Amarillo is proposing a scenic state road through the Palo Duro canyon from the town of Canyon to the Goodnight ranch. It would be known as the Goodnight Trail, in honor of the pioneer, Chas. C. Goodnight. The plan will be vigorously opposed, especially downstate. If the Palo Duro could be moved to Austin, all would be well and the road would be elegantly built within a short time. But it is not in Austin and the money-grabbers down there will oppose any move which would call for spending of dollars in West Texas. The same bunch is seeking to centralize Texas higher education in downstate colleges.

UNUSUAL FROCK IS BLACK FRINGED

PARIS (AP)—Baronne Cartier de Marchienne, wife of the Belgian Ambassador to Great Britain, attended a recent smart party wearing an unusual black fringed frock. The gown was made of fine grained cloth with long heavy fringe hanging from a scalloped hip line to the hem of the skirt. Fringe also edged the scalloped shoulder cape which covered the back of the corsage.

head of a family is $2,500. The phrase "in one household" may be interpreted as meaning the taxpayer's personal residence, an apartment, rooms in a boarding house, hotel, etc.

Under certain circumstances it is not necessary that the taxpayer and his dependents live under one roof during the entire taxable year in order that the taxpayer may claim the exemption. If the common home being maintained, the parent is away on business, or a child away at school or on a visit, the exemption is allowed. Moreover, if a parent is obliged to maintain his dependent children with relatives or in a boarding house, while he lives elsewhere, the exemption still applies. If, however, without necessity, the dependent makes his home elsewhere, the benefactor is not the head of a family.

The same ruling applies to husband and wife "living-together." If occasionally and temporarily the husband is away on business or the wife is on a visit, the common home being maintained, the $2,500 exemption still applies. The unavoidable absence of husband or wife at a sanatorium does not preclude the exemption. But if the husband continuously makes his home at one place and the wife at another, they are not living together within the meaning of the revenue act.

LOOK OUT FOR THESE SYMPTOMS OF CONSTIPATION

Headaches, loss of appetite and energy, shallow complexion, and sleeplessness are often warning signs of common constipation. Unless checked, constipation may impair health. Today, you can get rid of common constipation by simply eating a delicious cereal. Laboratory tests show that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to further aid regularity. ALL-BRAN is also a good source of blood-building iron. The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that in leafy vegetables. Inside the body, it forms a soft mass. Gently, it clears the intestines of wastes. How much better than taking patent medicines. Two tablespoonfuls daily will overcome most types of constipation. Serious cases, with every meal. If not relieved this way, see your doctor. Enjoy ALL-BRAN as a cereal, or use in cooking. Appetizing recipes on the red-and-green package. At all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

to the evil as well as the holy habitations of the upper and lower spheres. There was every why the demons should kneel and dread him. "And he charged them much that they should not make him known." Thus also Paul forbade the demoniac slave girl of Philippi to follow the missionaries and proclaim their true character (Acts 16:17, 18). "Choice of the Twelve" "And he goeth up into the mountain." Tradition points out the Mount of Beatitudes as the place, so called because the Sermon on the Mount, beginning with the Beatitudes, was delivered there just after the calling of the Twelve. In preparation for this important event our Lord had spent the whole of the previous night in prayer, thus teaching us the need of spiritual guidance in all the changes of our lives. The hill was called the Mount of Beatitudes because it had two peaks, between which was the level place where the Sermon was delivered. It is about sixty feet high, and is situated near the center of the west coast of the Sea of Galilee, two or three miles from the sea and seven southwest of Capernaum. "And he appointed twelve." One for each of the twelve tribes of Israel; a small number with which to win the world, but then, they had the Son of God for their leader. "That they might be with him." That was their education, being constantly with Christ, hearing his marvelous addresses, and witnessing his wonderful works. From that time the training of the Twelve was perhaps Christ's most important work, a work in which he could not be thwarted by his bitter foes. Lists of the Twelve The Twelve are listed in Matthew 10:2-4; Mark 3:16-19; Luke 6:14-16; Acts 1:13. Luke's arrangement of the names in Acts differs from that in his Gospel. If the four lists are written in parallel columns the interesting fact will be noticed that in each there are three groups of four, and that with a considerable variety in the order of succession, Peter heads the first group in each list, Philip the second, and James the son of Alphaeus the third. Judas Iscariot is always at the end. The corresponding groups invariably contain the same four persons. Mark's list would be arranged as follows: Simon Peter, James, John, Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus, Simon Zealot, Judas Iscariot. It seems reasonable then to suppose that the Twelve were in some sense divided into three companies of four, each having a recognized leader. No merely human leader would ever have chosen such a group of inconspicuous and unimportant men. All of them were Galileans, with the possible exception of Judas who seems to have been a Judean. An appreciation of the personalities of these men will give an insight into the qualities by which Jesus judged men. The Brother of James The list of twelve includes three sets of brothers, it would seem; and this set was the most quickly broken by death, James dying young, being the first apostolic martyr (Acts 12:2). John outliving all the other apostles, dying at the age of nearly one hundred. He was hardly more than a boy at this time, but a marvelous boy, with such a keen insight into Christ's character and aims that he was, as he called himself, "the disciple whom Jesus loved." John's Gospel is the best-loved book in the world. His Epistles teach the Christian doctrine of love. His Revelation has been the stimulus and encouragement of the church in all ages, the only prophetic book in the New Testament. We see him in his old age as the bishop of Ephesus and as an exile for the faith on the Isle of Patmos. It was to John that the Redeemer left the most precious of all legacies, the care of his mother. The Brother of Peter His name is Greek, and means "rock." He became the patron saint of Scotland. "He was a quiet man, but he earned his right to sit down with the twelve apostles at the table of the Lord by the sheer strength of his inner worth. He never preached a sermon which converted three thousand people in one day. We never hear of his jumping into the sea of his cutting off anybody's ears. His famous brother did all that. But he listened and thought and made a clear-cut decision which would stand for all time. He was preeminently a man of decision."—Dean Charles R. Brown. Andrew was the finder among the Twelve. He found Peter and brought him to Jesus (John 1:40, 41), and that one day's work justified his entire life. He found the lad with the luncheon that became the material basis of that great miracle, the feeding of the five thousand. John 6:8, 9. And he brought the Greeks to Jesus in the temple, thus inaugurating the era of world-wide foreign missions. John 12:22. Well done, Andrew the Finder! "Matthew, the Publican" This was Levi, the publican of Capernaum, whose ready response to Christ's summons and whose sacrificial abandonment of his profitable business we have already studied from Mark 2:13, 14. Note his humility; it is in his own Gospel only that he is set down in the list of the apostles as Matthew "the publican." Having been a business man, Matthew carried into his apostleship the brusqueness and straightforward direction which characterize the practical man of affairs. Judas Iscariot "And Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him," v. 19. Judas has justly the place of ignominy; at the bottom of the list. "Iscariot" probably means "of Kerioth," a little village in the tribe of Judah. Thus Judas was probably the only member of the Twelve who was not a Galilean. He must have had good and hopeful qualities, or he would not have been chosen by Christ as a disciple, or made the treasurer of the little band. But greed seized upon him and he stole from the disciples' treasury. Moreover, he was ambitious, and was speedily disenchanted with the lowly programme of services which Christ marked out as the way to greatness in his kingdom. Thus he was disgusted when Mary lavished her costly ointment on the Saviour's feet and agreed to lead their officers to where they might arrest Jesus without fear of the people. "Judas is the worst type in life. Treachery breaks friendship it cannot be endured. The presence of Judas was heavier on Jesus than the cross. Judas was to be Jesus' failure."—Jan McLaren.

When this occurs near the full of the moon, it gives rise to the phenomenon known as the Harvest Moon. The moon which comes to full nearest Sept. 22d or 23d will rise night after night at the same time, for the nights are lengthening, while the time the moon remains above the horizon is lengthening still more.

Thrilling Scenes of Ski Tourney Shown in Pama Daily News' Reel

Thrilling scenes of the 27th annual ski tournament of Cary Hill, Ill., shown by the Morse Ski club, are shown in the current issue of Pampa Daily News-Universal News reel. The jump on Cary Hill is considered one of the most dangerous in the country and this year's contest resulted in a continual series of breath-taking spills. Graham McNamee, noted radio sports announcer and the screen's talking reporter, "covers" the meet for the newsreel and describes the outstanding jumps and spills in his own vivid style. An immense crowd turned out for the contest. The most popular contestant with the spectators was Miss Johanna Kolstad, 19 years old, the only woman entered in the meet. Although she lacked several yards of equalling the winning mark—a jump of 162 feet—she amazed the gallery by her excellent take-offs and landings. The longest jump, 176 feet, although not the winning one because of disqualifications, established a new record for the course.

PAYS CASH ODESSA, Feb. 3. (AP)—T. G. Hendrick, Odessa capitalist, recently paid $102,750 cash for a 15,812-acre ranch in Presidio county. The deal represented one of the largest land sales in West Texas in many months.

KILLS BOBCAT SAN ANGELO, Feb. 3. (AP)—J. P. Deats avenged the loss of many kid goats and lambs near Orient recently when he tracked down and killed a female bobcat. Accompanied by seven dogs, Deats chased the animal for four hours and treed it in a giant liveoak tree. He climbed the tree and poked the cat down with a stick. The dogs finished it. Deats, who is 68 years old, has killed hundreds of bobcats in West Texas. He formerly pitched on the Kickapoo river.

Roosevelt Plans Vast Experiment In Reforestation, Reclamation And Farm Rehabilitation of Watershed

WARM SPRINGS, Ga., Feb. 3. (AP)—A gigantic experiment designed to provide 200,000 jobs and herald the birth of a new America from which the curse of unemployment would be lifted was proposed today by President-elect Roosevelt. The rugged highlands and fertile industrial valley of the Tennessee watershed were chosen by the next president for this "most interesting experiment a government has ever undertaken." Seated before the blazing fireplace of the "Little White House," he told newspapermen of his dream for a vast internal development encompassing reforestation, reclamation, water power and agricultural rehabilitation. The aim is to balance the national population anew between cities and the country. Mr. Roosevelt expects this huge laboratory experiment to provide employment for 200,000 men in the Tennessee valley alone. More than this, he hopes to carry the scheme into other sections of the nation from Alleghenies to the Pacific coast and through it to re-establish American life on a basis that will mean the end of unemployment, the decentralization of industry and a people protected by the watchful eye of a government. The great Tennessee valley project involving half a dozen states is to include: 1.—Reforestation. 2.—Creation of flood control basins in the upper valleys, first at Cove Creek in the Church river. 3.—Water power development to be available for cities, states and farm homes. 4.—Reclamation of the fertile bottom lands of agricultural use. 5.—Elimination of the unprofitable marginal lands from farm pursuits. 6.—Eventual flood control of the great Mississippi river. 7.—Eventual improvement of navigation.

Sees Farm Future Mr. Roosevelt announced that as soon as he takes office next March 4th, he will ask the various government departments involved to make surveys with a view to putting the proposition up to congress at an early date. Confident that the whole project will be self sustaining, he has no doubt of the "bankability" of it and the availability of bonds for the undertaking. "If it is successful, and I am confident it will be," he said, "I think this development will be the forerunner of similar projects in other sections, particularly in the Ohio and Arkansas valleys and in the Columbia river basin of the north west. "We have about 12,000,000 wage earners unemployed. If we return immediately to the high level of 1929 I think we would still have 5,000,000 men out of work and on a debt which our population is out of balance. If by government activity we can restore the balance we will have taken a great step forward. "The normal trend now is back to the farm movement. For those who have had experience in agricultural work I think we will do well to provide a living." Without reference to notes or books but with an occasional glance at a huge map, Mr. Roosevelt unfolded his idea for a great Tennessee valley experiment. To Improve Farms He said he selected the Tennessee watershed running over the states of Virginia, West Virginia, Tennessee, North Carolina, South Carolina and parts of Kentucky, Alabama, and Mississippi for many reasons, principally because of its wide range of physical conditions, life and climate. The area involves 640,000 square miles. He believes the proposition of reforestation can be started immediately and with it work provided for 50,000 to 70,000 men in planting new trees, cutting and rehabilitating the vast forest lands. Through the development of huge flood control basins, beginning at Cove Creek dam he estimates the power to be produced at Muscle Shoals can be increased to between two and three million horsepower. With this power is to be improved every farm home and barn and the great city industrial units and homes within the valley—all under protection of the government. As a result of the flood control development, Mr. Roosevelt expects great stretches of rich bottom lands to be restored to the use of farmers—land to replace the eliminated and non-profitable margin acres. "Attacked from angles," he said, "this whole proposal should give work eventually to about 200,000 men. We have been going at these various factors in a piece meal way ever since the days of T. R. (Theodore Roosevelt) and Gifford Pinchot. Now is the time, I feel, to tie up all the various developments into one great comprehensive plan within a given area." He preferred not to involve the power issue in the first exposition of the project.

Sales Tax Scored By Civic Worker

AUSTIN, Feb. 3. (AP)—A sales tax was called an "iniquitous type of taxation" and likely to "bankrupt industry and stagnate the individual," by Arthur L. Kramer of Dallas, three times president of the chamber of commerce there in an address here before Austin merchants. A sales tax proposed as a means of lifting the burden of taxation from the land and home owners is pending before the legislature on recommendation of Governor Miriam A. Ferguson. Kramer suggested that a portion of the four cent gasoline tax levy, now used for highways and upkeep of the schools, be "allocated to other causes." He termed the gasoline tax as "nothing more nor less than a sales tax on gasoline paid by you and me and every other ultimate consumer." Kramer appealed to members of the legislature "to rescue the people from impending calamity by applying to government expenditures the same policies of retrenchment and economy that individuals and business have been forced to apply." Phone 666 for Classified Ads. He preferred not to involve the power issue in the first exposition of the project.

British Purchase Most From U. S.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3. (AP)—The United Kingdom, Canada, Japan, and Germany were the best customers of the United States in 1932.

Compliments announced by the commerce department today showed that goods exported to the United Kingdom in the twelve months were valued at $288,462,805 while Canada took $241,424,702, Japan bought $134,537,384 and Germany $133,471,862.

All of the exports, however, were lower than in the previous year, those to the United Kingdom and Canada each by nearly $150,000,000. The total to Japan was a decrease of $21,000,000 and the German purchases dropped $33,000,000.

The United States bought more goods from Canada and Japan than from any other nation, importing $174,101,306 from Canada—a drop of approximately $90,000,000 as compared to the previous year—and $134,011,311 from Japan, a drop of $72,000,000.

The United Kingdom sold this country merchandise worth $14,988,704 as compared to $135,552,411 the previous year. Among all the countries which purchased goods from the United States only one, Brazil, bought more in 1932 than in 1931. The exports to that country in 1932 were $28,600,128 and $28,579,023 in 1931.

Penney Chooses Newspapers When Action Is Sought

BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 3.—A strong argument for newspaper advertising and its results recently was sent by the advertising department of the J. C. Penney Company, operators of a national chain of retail stores, to its store manager. The message follows:

(1) Do you want to be certain of reader interest? Then use the newspapers. Many a circular receives only a glance, while the local newspaper, with hundreds of general news items is read thoroughly from first to last page.

(2) Do you want representation in the same 'shopping window' as the other merchants of your town? Then use the local newspaper. Women, the purchasing agents of the home, read newspaper advertising daily, whereas many a circular is tossed into the waste basket without a glance.

(3) Do you want fast action? Then use the newspaper. The ad that you run today, if it contains immediate results tomorrow. You can receive and sell out a consignment of merchandise with newspaper advertising in less time than it takes to prepare a circular.

(4) Do you want to be recognized as a factor of importance in your community—a real home-town store? If you do, use the newspaper. Undoubtedly is a strong factor in the building of good will and acceptance by the whole town as a good place to trade.

Siamese Twins Guests of Lions

Their home country, the Philippines, has made faster progress than any other nation in the last quarter century, declared the Go-timo Siamese twins in speaking to Pampa Lions Thursday.

The city of Manila was described as having 450,000 inhabitants, but with 90 per cent of the business conducted by foreigners.

Finley Barrett, assistant scoutmaster of the Baptist church troop, presided at the clubmen to attend the father and son banquet to be held next Friday evening at the church at 7 p. m. as part of the anniversary week program. His troop, assisted by Baptist ladies headed by Mrs. T. E. Rose, will serve the meal.

Judge Ivy E. Duncan, whose finance committee is in charge of programs for this month, announced that Judge H. E. Hoover of Canadian would be the principal speaker next Thursday.

Visitors yesterday included R. A. Kelly, E. D. Fitzgerald, Rufe Thompson, Finley Barrett, and Art Swanson.

Quantity Selling Is Modern Marvel

Along with modern, marvelous inventions, few persons consider efficiency which makes possible selling of a pencil, with wood, lead, eraser, and coating of paint, for one cent.

Or, to continue, consider the quality and beauty of infants' dresses priced at 2 cents, a decorated 10-inch salad bowl for the same price, and a string of multi-colored beads for a dime. Quantity production, it is pointed out by Frank Goodhalter, has made it possible for the Best Franklin organization to sell thousands of these small, necessary articles all over the nation for prices so low that buyers marvel when they stop to think of it.

The program will stress and reveal the varied talent of high school pupils. It will be sponsored by Principal L. L. Sone, Miss Fannie May, and Miss Mary Idelle Cox. Miss Arless O'Keefe will present a number of her pupils, probably in a play.

The executive board also decided to entertain the room mothers on the afternoon of February 10 at 2 p. m. Hours will be set for the mothers to visit the various rooms.

On the afternoon and night of March 24, parents will be urged to visit the high school and view exhibits of work which will be placed on display for the instruction of the public.

OLD STUFF POWERFUL
CHAMBERS, Neb. (AP)—Old age may be creeping up on 70-year-old Edward Adams, president of the Chambers State bank, but he doesn't act that way. A young man armed with a pistol, entered the bank and announced robbery was about to be committed. "I hate," he said, "to shoot an old man, but I guess I'll have to." When Adams was slow in raising his hands, instead of getting shot the aged man let one fist fly. It connected with such force that the intruder was stunned. Two of Adams' sons then overpowered him. Arrested, he gave the name of J. L. Boyle of Columbus, Neb.

WELL BRACED

Vivian Reid
By NEA Service.

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 3.—There is youth, and a certain urbane smartness in jumper dresses that makes the younger stars love them.

Vivian Reid wears a claret wool jumper dress, with a white silk-crepe blouse with puffed sleeves and a turned-down round collar. The skirt and straps are made all in one. She pulls them up over her shoulders the way a lazy man does his suspenders. She wears white accessories, giving the dress a Spring look, and white earrings of the chink-china look made for sportswomen.

Other youngsters who lean to jumper dresses include:

Sari Maritza, who wears a black one, with red, black, white and gold plaid taffeta blouse.

Loretta Young, who lunched with Joan Blondell at the First National Studio, wearing a black jumper dress with the sweetest little barred and crinkly organza blouse with a simple round neck and puffed sleeves, very fresh and young looking.

Alice White, who leans to black and white, and usually has a little skirt-with-collar of some fancy silk or cotton crepe for her dress of this type.

CHICAGO (AP)—George Pilgutt came to a decision, which explains about the house, concrete foundation, and sidewalk that disappeared the other day from Gary, Ind. He said: "I paid $200 for the site and built the cottage for $2,000. I lost my job. My street improvement tax was $200. My lot and property tax for 1931 and 1932 totaled $275. I tore it down and sold the material for $500. Did I pay the $475 total tax? I did not. "Gary can have the lot."

WAVED SIDE-HAIR REVEALED IN NEW SPRING HAT STYLE

By ALICE LANGHEIER,
International News Service Staff
Correspondent.

PARIS, Feb. 3.—Head glory will remain short in the glorious springtime, if early spring fashions tell anything about the question of lovely locks. They are made to reveal perfectly-waved side hair and leave no room for any chignon in the small crown or back.

"Double up" is the very newest coiffure being featured by one of Paris' smartest hairdressers. It is the continuation of the popular brushed-away-from-the-forehead style. The hair is whisked directly back into a swirl and fin's its way back again around the ears, or only one of them, terminating there in any one of the many curl fashions. One of the coiffeurs finishes the ends in a kind of fringe and another in three rows of tiny flat curls, reminding one of the antique statues.

Mrs. J. B. Townsend directed the candle lighting ceremonies, symbolic of the thirty-sixth anniversary of the founding of the national organization. The two candles in honor of the two founders were lighted by Mrs. Townsend, and a candle in honor of Mrs. Hugh Bradford, national president, by Mrs. A. L. Patrick. Mrs. C. P. FOOD STORES CHANGE NAME DURING WEEK

M-SYSTEM UNITS TO BEAR NAME OF C. W. FURR

C. W. Furr and associates in Pampa have announced a change in the name of the two local M-System Stores to Furr Food stores. This change in name means no change of any kind in the ownership or management of the stores.

Mr. Furr has had an interesting career. He started in the Panhandle as a farmer and country banker. Later he became interested in the retailing of food products and from small beginnings extended his grocery retailing activities until today he heads one of the largest groups of grocery stores in the Panhandle-Plains.

Mr. Furr is particularly proud of the fact that Furr Food Stores, Inc., is a 100 per cent Panhandle-Plains institution. Every officer and every stockholder is an actual resident and of belief in this country, it is pointed out.

Asked what he considers the reasons for the growth and popularity of his group of grocery stores, Mr. Furr indicated that he believes it was primarily due to the fixed policy of the organization to provide quality grocery items at the lowest possible prices consistent with courteous, adequate service to the grocery buying public, quality merchandise, and clean, neat stocks.

In every Furr Food Store, Mr. Furr said he insists on these policies being maintained, in addition to providing housewives with a very complete variety and selection of groceries, fruits, produce and meats.

STORES NOW BEAR HIS NAME

The change of name of the two M-System stores to Furr Food Stores has recalled the interesting career of C. W. Furr, whose picture appears above. Mr. Furr is a pioneer citizen of the Panhandle and has developed a group of grocery stores and markets which are entirely owned and operated by people of the Panhandle.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY

Room 2, First National Bank Bldg. "Spirit" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, February 5. The Golden Text is from John 4: "God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth." Included with other passages to be read from the Bible will be the following from Galatians 3: "This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would. But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye

'COUSIN' BLOCKS MOVE

A. E. HOOVER, above, who says he is a cousin of President Hoover, has foreclosed a $14,000 mortgage on his farm near Grand Meadow, Minn., through a plea by a committee of the Minnesota Farmers' Holiday Association. Accompanied by the committee, Hoover went to Des Moines, Ia., and effected a compromise with the mortgage holder through the Joint Stock Land Bank there. The compromise, it was reported, will allow Hoover to stay on his farm as a renter. According to Hoover he had missed one semi-annual payment of $400 and was faced with eviction and loss of his stock, machinery and household goods, as are many midwestern farmers. Hoover says his father and the president's father were brothers. Hoover says that he, like the president, was born in West Branch, Ia.

are not under the law. . . . If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

The Lesson-Sermon will also include citations from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy; among these will be the following: "To have one God and avail yourself of the power of Spirit, you must love God supremely.

"The flesh lusteth against the Spirit." The flesh and Spirit can no more unite in action than good can coincide with evil. It is not wise to take a halting and half-way position or to expect to work equally with Spirit and matter.

Truth and error. There is but one way—namely, God and His idea—which leads to spiritual being" (p. 167).

Stranger Dies In Hospital in Pampa

The body of Howard Nichols, 20, is at rest at the G. C. Malone funeral home following death in a local hospital at 10 o'clock last night. Relatives had not been located this afternoon but efforts were being made by funeral home attendants and the police.

Mr. Nichols arrived in Pampa about a month ago. He told friends that his home was in Virginia. He had been ill more than a week.

Experiences Of Siamese Twins Told To Scouts

Emplio and Lucio Godino, Siamese twins who appeared at the La Nora theater Wednesday and yesterday, thrilled more than 100 Pampa Boy Scouts and many parents with stories of their Boy Scout activities in the Philippine Islands, where they are assistant scoutmasters. They were introduced by Gilmore Nunn, vice-president of the Adobe Walls council, of which Pampa is the headquarters.

The boys told about being turned down by a Y. M. C. A. when they desired to become Scouts, of how they bought Scout books and studied, later to pass their examinations before the commissioner, and how they organized a "tribe" of four troops with 14 officers and a drum and bugle corps of 32 members. The boys need only the life saving test to become Eagle Scouts.

"The Scouting exemplifies a determination and shows what can be done if the goal is worthy enough," Nunn told the boys, many of whom were not Scouts, after the twins had talked for a long time. They really enjoyed the occasion.

"We entered Scouting not because of publicity or satisfaction of ego, but in order to learn the principles and to make us better citizens," they said. "We plead for financial support on its merits alone. The activity is more interesting and worthwhile to the boys if their parents and the public is wholeheartedly behind Scouting. We were handicapped but fought to the top. What did your boy accomplish if they were backed in this great movement?"

The boys told of their native country, life, and experiences, and their Scout work in the United States.

Oil Hearing Is In Progress at Austin

A hearing on the validity of the Panhandle gas conservation and regulatory order set by the Texas railroad commission, opened in Austin today. J. M. McDonald, deputy supervisor of the oil and gas division, with offices here, and J. B. Massa of the gas division, are in Austin for the hearing.

The commission, after local and statewide hearings, adopted a utilization plan for the production of gas in the Panhandle field. They decided on the 160-acre unit plan. It was immediately attacked and the Cities Service, Texhoma, and Canadian River Gas companies started a fight against the plan.

ONLY A RUMOR

Parking of a welder's truck outside the window of the sheriff's office today gave rise to a rumor that prisoners in the county jail had been trying to break out.

But it was only a rumor. The prisoners have been orderly and the repair work was to old breaks in the elevator partition, one of which dated back to the Graves administration.

Singers To Meet Here February 12

The Gray county association of singers will meet in the First Baptist church February 12 and the support of the Pampa Junior chamber of commerce will be given the organization, the activities committee decided last night. M. L. H. Baze of Hopkins asked for the support of the J. C. C. thru a letter to Dr. C. H. Schulky of that committee. Dr. Schulky said he would make the announcement at the next regular meeting.

Mr. Baze in his letter said "the organization meets for the sole purpose of enabling the singers of the county to come together to express themselves in song—not as 'we' think they should always but just as they want to and can."

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 3. (AP)—Cotton had a firm and active opening today. Liverpool came in considerably better than due and first trades here showed gains of 6 to 7 points. The market continued to improve after the start on rather good trade buying and March advanced to 5.86, May to 5.98 and July to 6.11, or 8 to 9 points above yesterday's close.

Following the early advance which was accompanied by considerable price fixing by mills as well as a side buying and March gradually eased off during the rest of the morning on hedge-selling and owing to disappointing weekly mill takings. March declined to 5.80, May to 5.92 and July to 6.04, or 6 to 7 points down from the earlier highs but still one to two points above the previous close.

Around noon the market was steady and May and July had recovered 2 to 3 points from the lows.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Feb. 3. (AP)—Grain tended upward early today, influenced by cable suggestions of a decided change toward closer adjustment of world supply and demand. Unfavorable crop reports from domestic winter wheat territory were given increased notice.

Wheat closed easy, unchanged to 1/2 lower compared with yesterday's finish. Corn closed firm, 1/2 up, unchanged to 1/4 higher, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 2 cents.

Many Fishermen See Display At Hardware Store

Pampa has more fishermen, the so far from water, than any other small city in the United States, according to G. F. Mikesell, who showed a complete line of fishing equipment at the Pampa Hardware company yesterday and this morning. More than 300 enthusiasts visited the store and admired the display, which covered seven large tables.

Rufe Thompson, in charge, started a fish story telling contest but when the fishermen started "pulling them out with teeth," he called it off. However, there were some interesting one-liners.

All day long fishermen looked over the huge display, giving suggestions and making notes of their needs for the coming year. There were rods that appeared like feathers in the hand, reels that sang songs and bait that even the wariest fish couldn't ignore.

"We were more than pleased with the interest taken in the display," Mr. Thompson said. "It was one of the bright spots of the Texas Hardware convention at Dallas and we decided to bring it to Pampa. We plan to handle one of the most complete lines of fishing equipment in the history of the store this year."

Rasbuth Thompson and Travis Lively said the number of visitors far exceeded their expectations.

COMING SOON

MRS. LEONA RUSK IBRIGG, popular expert in home economics, will return to Pampa February 14 to open a Pampa Daily NEWS "Happy Kitchen" school lasting for four days.

Post Explains Magnitude Of Scout Roundup

Many Pampa business men learned last night what the Adobe Walls Boy Scout council roundup next week means and they were considerably surprised as A. G. "Pete" Post, president, explained its magnitude. The big day of the celebration will be Saturday, when there will be a parade and demonstrations and troops from nearly every of the 26 other cities in the council and parents and friends will be present.

"The roundup is not a gathering out in the country as some of our citizens have in error informed out-of-town customers who showed a marked interest in the big day," Mr. Post told the gathering. "The boys will take over the city government for one hour Saturday morning and you merchants who desire an audience with the mayor, city manager, chief of police, or any other city official will have to talk to the Scouts in charge of the departments."

"The boys are not asking for donations of money or prizes. They are selling tickets to their stunt program which will be in the high school gymnasium Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock. Displays will show what Scouting really does for the boy and what he learns," he said. A Father and Son banquet will be held Friday night. Tickets will be 50 cents each.

The parade Saturday afternoon will be one of the features of the roundup. Many troops will participate, coming from the Panhandle of Texas and the Panhandle of Oklahoma.

Others who spoke last night were Gilmore Nunn, J. O. Gillham, Roger McConnell, Rev. O. E. Lancaster, J. W. Martin, L. S. McClellan, J. F. Curtis, and others.

PERIL IN PRETENSE
One thing, at least, the depression has done for us. It has made it possible for us to mention the word, "revolution," without first pulling down the blinds, peeking under the beds and giving the maid an afternoon off.

To be sure, nothing in particular is to be gained by mouthing that dread word. But a fair sample of the kind of talk that is really needed is furnished in the report of President Hoover's committee on social trends, which asserts flatly that a revolution in this country is by no means impossible, and warns that our greatest danger comes from people who refuse that fact.

While possible, of course, revolution is not in the least probable. But the president's committee does a fine service by pointing out that the worst error we could commit would be to continue a policy of aimless drifting, hoping, Micawber-like, that something will turn up.

That, or something like it, was our policy for quite a while. At first we all tried valiantly to pretend that there really was no such thing as a depression. We pretended that everything would come out right if only we all looked on the bright side of things. We invented slogans such as "buy now"; we listened reverently while rich men told us that all would be well if everyone would stop worrying and go to work. And we postponed as long as we could a clear-eyed recognition of the fact that there really was something radically wrong which couldn't be charmed out of existence by the performance of suitable incantation.

In plain English, we drifted. The big development of the past year has been our growing realization that it would be dangerous for us to drift any longer. We may not yet know just what we have to do, but we have at least discovered that we must do something. We are not willing to be passive any more.

Those ponies that came home winners because their jockeys "sparked" them from batteries hidden in the saddles weren't the only ones shocked. Heavy charges, doubtless were felt in the grandstands.
Since the Eugene O'Neill influence has put that "thinking-out-loud" wrinkle in the movies, there ought to be a lot of silent films.

Barter now makes it possible to trade a "peck-of-potatoes-worth" of parsnips for a "bushel-of-corn-worth" of artichokes.

Sister MARY'S KITCHEN

By SISTER MARY
When the same fundamental foods must be used over and over again, the home-maker will find that clever seasoning does much to break the monotony of the necessary repetition.
Of course, "high" seasoning should not be used to cover up poor food or poor cooking, but the right use of spices, herbs and condiments will add zest and give additional relish to good, wholesome foods.

Restraint always must be practiced in the use of these ingredients enough should be used to bring out and enhance the flavor of the food being seasoned. The way to use garlic is to rub the salt that is needed for the meat in a clove of garlic before seasoning the meat. This imparts a distinctive and savory flavor to the meat but does not in any way suggest a definite garlic or onion taste.

These herbs are all very inexpensive and add practically nothing to the cost of cooking. The occasional use of them will give a new flavor and interest to everyday dishes.

Buying Barbara

By Julia Cleft-Addams
SYNOPSIS: Farrell Armitage tells Mark Lodely that he has launched Mark's career as artist and paid for the operation that will cure his lameness so that Barbara Quentin, Mark's former fiancée, could choose fairly between them. Mark's mother desires that Barbara would consent to such an agreement, but Mark orders her to "shut up."

Chapter 44
"COMIC OPERA PIFFLE"
IT'S all very well for Mark to tell me to shut up! I thrust in Mrs. Lodely. "But I don't see why I shouldn't say I never heard anything so fantastic in all my life. And you can't deny that I warned you, Farrell, didn't I? I said Babs has never had a thought apart from Mark, I said. But I daresay you're one of the stubborn sort, you'd rather take a toss at a hedge than go round by a gate—"

"Marriage with Barbara would be advantageous to Mark."

"She thought you were deliberately dragging me down to your level," contributed Mark and shook with genuine mirth.
"Mark muttered furiously and was silent.
"Remember also that it was through your behavior and not mine that she broke off her engagement to you."

Machine Age Has Not Yet Begun, Says Henry Ford

NEW YORK, Feb. 3. (AP)—The New York Times has published under a Detroit dateline a copyrighted interview with Henry Ford in which the automobile manufacturer declared these were not bad times but good ones, and that we were on the threshold of an inconceivably bright future.

While the Ford plants lay idle because of the strike in the Briggs company's factories, Ford gave an interview at Detroit to the Times representative, Harold N. Denny.

He said that it was the development of machines which would bring the bright new era and he smilingly dismissed technocracy.

"Technocracy seems to me misnamed," he said. "I see little evidence of technical experience in it. Its diagnosis of present conditions is partly correct, but when it assumes the present conditions are permanent, when it forgets the fluid and progressive elements in life, it simply goes on the rocks."

"The machine age is barely started now. In the real machine age which is to come the dirt and ugliness and confusion and noise and disregard of human rights which are all about us will be done away with."

Although he declared no one knows just when industry will pick up, he said:

"This period that we are going through right now is the recovery. The bad times were back in 1929 and before. That was the real panic—that so-called prosperous period."

Paraguayans Charge German Is Leading Bolivians to Battle

ASUNCION, Paraguay, Feb. 3. (AP)—A Paraguayan communique today said that the bodies of 929 Bolivian soldiers had been found yesterday on the Gran Chaco battlefields in the vicinity of Forts Herrera, Corrales and Nanawa (Ayala.) It was believed, however, that the figure might be exaggerated.

He added, "the mountains of bodies piled in front of our positions showed the indifference with which soldiers of fortune are gaining control of the Bolivian army and are making the Chaco a slaughterhouse for the execution of Bolivians."

The communique added that a German was commanding the eighth Bolivian division at Hererras.

Missionary Says Gran Chaco War Has Been Bloody

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina, Feb. 3. (AP)—Dr. Arthur E. Elliott, American missionary in Paraguay and president of the International College at Asuncion, said today that the "undeclared war" between Bolivia and Paraguay over the Gran Chaco has reached enormous proportions.

"More thousands have been killed than anybody cares to tell," he wrote in a letter to supporters of his mission here and abroad, and other thousands have died of thirst, starvation and disease. Each country has 50,000 men under arms. "Asuncion is a city of hospitals."

Meyers Brought Back For Trial

DALLAS, Feb. 3. (AP)—After serving 11 years in the penitentiary at Folsom, Calif., on a robbery charge, George Meyers, alias Robert Reese, has been paroled by California authorities and was in jail here today, awaiting trial on a 12-year-old charge of robbery in connection with the $2,000,000 robbery of the Jackson street postoffice here on Jan. 14, 1921.

The postoffice robbery, one of the most spectacular in Dallas police annals, resulted in the killing of G. W. Street, a mail clerk. Six men were alleged to have been involved. Two served prison sentences, another turned state's evidence, a fourth was killed in an automobile accident and a fifth, known only as "Blackie," never was arrested.

Swimming Champ To Wed Army Aviator

SHREVEPORT, La., Feb. 3. (AP)—Miss Helen Wainwright, former Olympic swimming champion, arrived this morning to wed Lieutenant H. C. Stelling of Brooks Field, Texas, aviator and former Georgia football star.

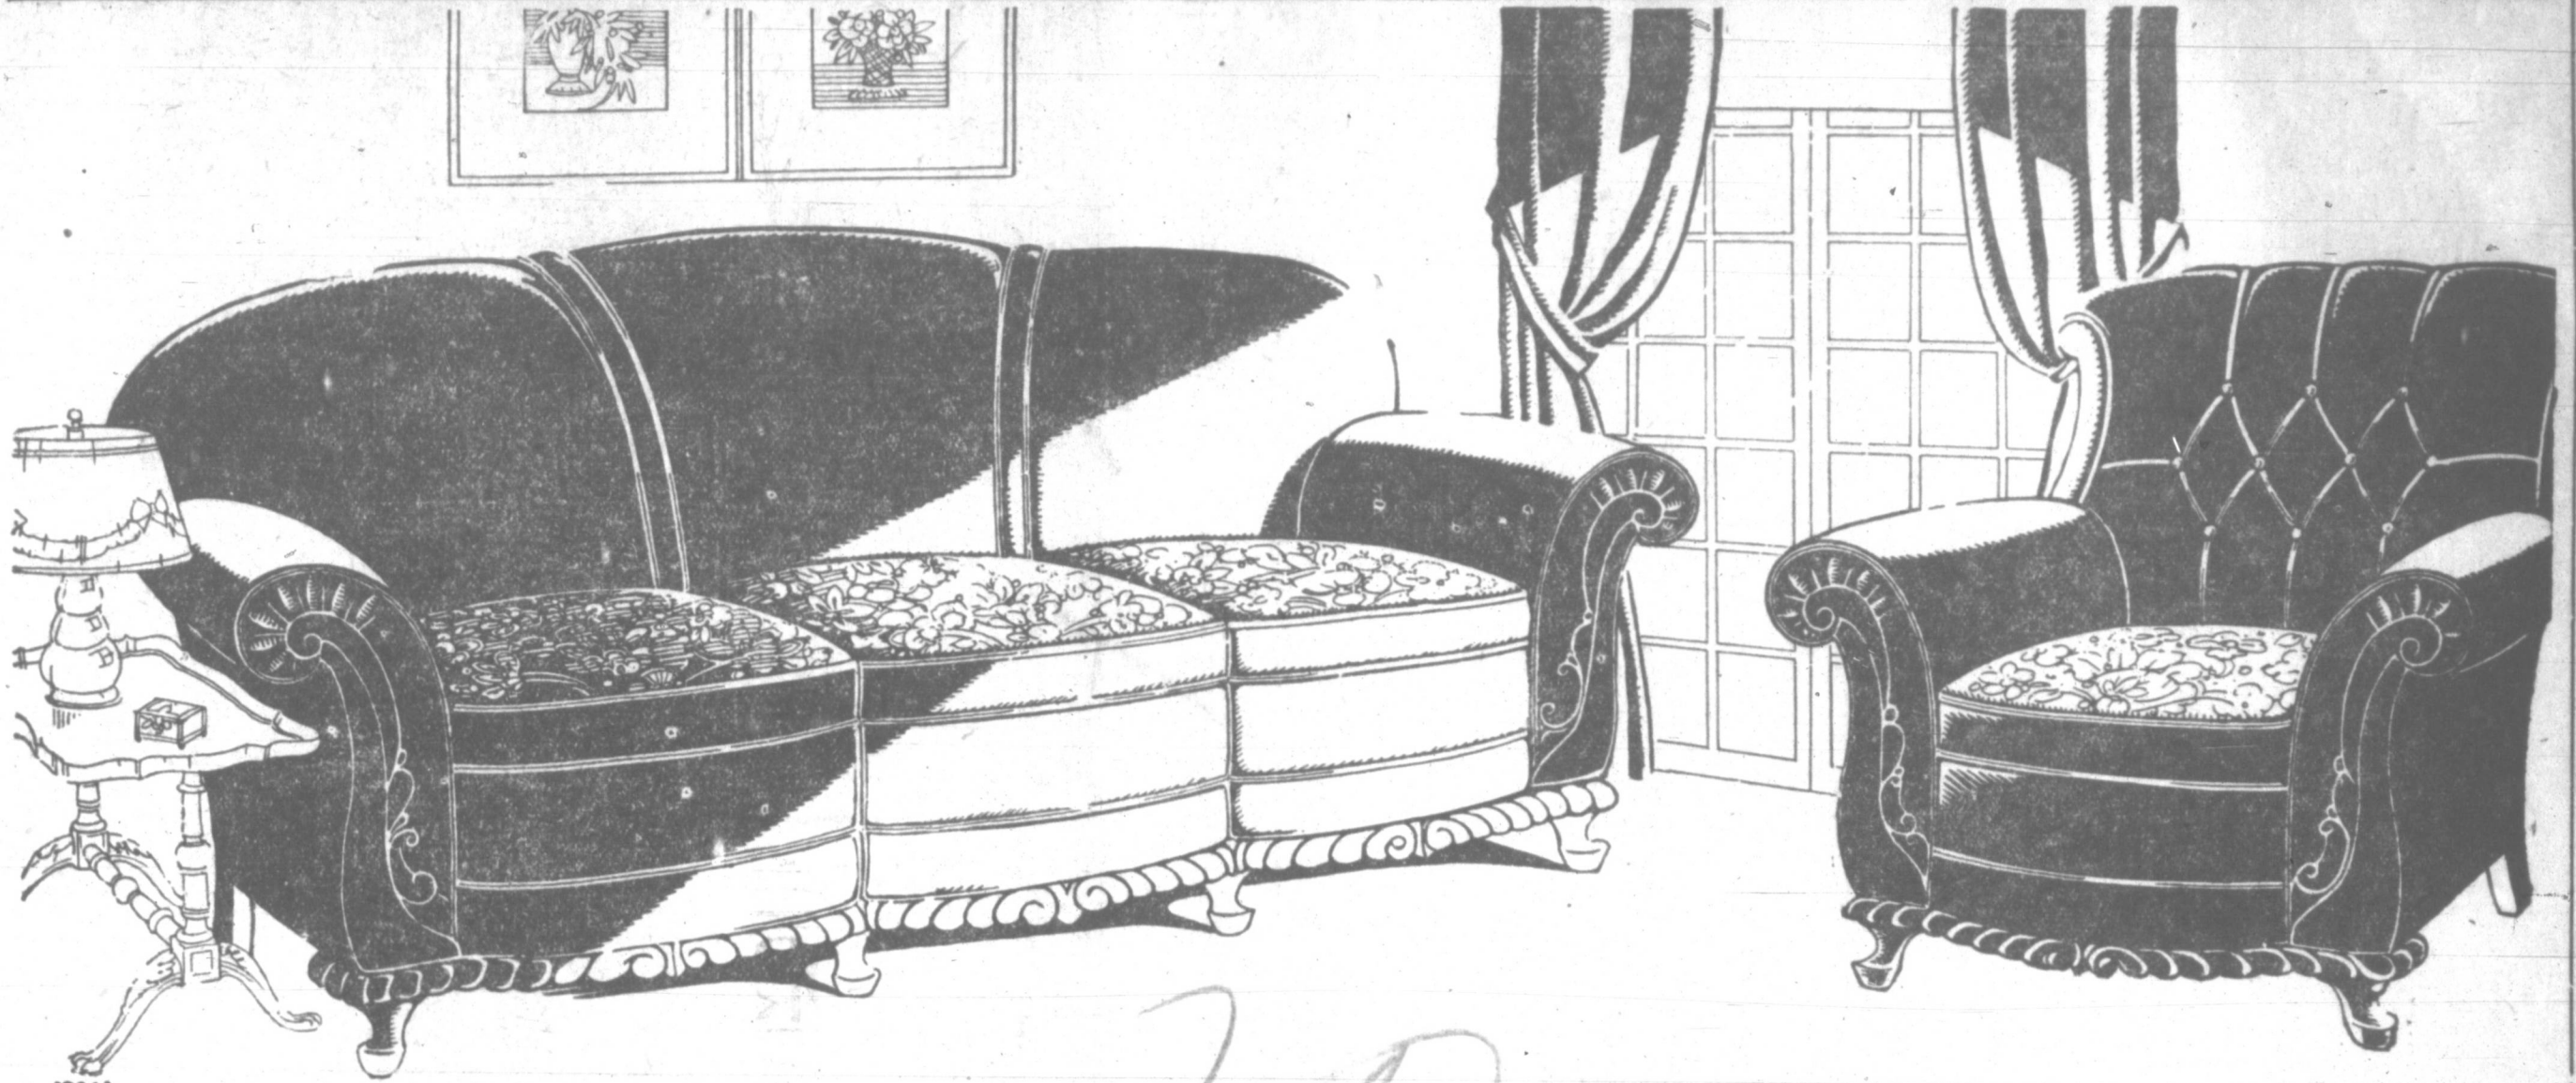

Miss Wainwright went to the home of Marion K. Smith, attorney and former state legislator, who is a relative of the groom. It was announced the wedding would be a "quiet affair sometime this afternoon."

License for the ceremony was obtained at the clerk's office by Lieutenant Stelling. He gave the age of both as 26 years. Stelling's home is at Augusta, Ga. Miss Wainwright lived at Flushing, New York.

TO REOPEN AGENCY
GALVESTON, Feb. 3. (AP)—The Italian government will re-establish a consular agency at Galveston in the near future, it has been announced. In a letter received from Dr. Vitale G. Gallina, royal consul for Italy at New Orleans, assurance was given that a consular agency would be established. The Italian government has had no agency here for some time.

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 3. (AP)—His habit of smoking a cigarette in bed just before going to sleep was believed to have been responsible for E. D. Southgate, 55, a semi-invalid, burning to death in his bed here last night.

PAMPANS PLAN TO TAKE LUBBOCK FOR A RIDE TONIGHT

REVENGE FOR RECENT LOSS TO BE SOUGHT

GAME WILL BEGIN IN GYM AT EIGHT O'CLOCK

Intent upon avenging a 29 to 26 defeat handed them in Lubbock two weeks ago tonight, the Pampa Harvesters will take the floor at the high school gymnasium tonight at 8 o'clock with blood in their eyes. The Harvesters "B" team will play a preliminary game with the Miami Warriors "B" squad at 6:45 o'clock.

The Harvesters will be without the services of their sharp-shooting first string substitute, Bill "Straight Eight" Kelley, who will play no more this season because of a side injury. Kelley has been unable to play in the last three games but it was only yesterday that it was learned he would be out for the rest of the season.

Coach Orlan Mitchell plans to throw a surprise offensive against the fast-traveling Westerners and take the visitors "for a ride." Lubbock has been unbeatable in the south plains this season. The club has won two 47 to 26 games from the Plainview Bulldogs and also their own invitation tournament.

The Harvesters will have to stop Hale and Stone, forwards, and Big Wilkinson, center, before they can hope for a win. The elongated Westerner center scored 75 points in three games during the Lubbock tournament.

Easy games have been a detriment to the Harvesters. They have already played two set-ups this week.

Admission will be by season ticket or the usual general admission. Plans are being made to install a number of bleacher seats to handle the biggest crowd of the season.

VEECK GOOD AT CONTRACTS

Chicago Cubs President Is Signing Champion of Leagues.

By PAUL MICKELSON, Associated Press Sports Writer, CHICAGO, Feb. 3. (AP)—If Colonel Jacob Ruppert really strikes a bad snag in his salary debate with Babe Ruth this year, he should send for William L. Veck.

Veck, a sports writer who made good as president of the Chicago Cubs, is the contract signing champion of the major leagues, perhaps of all organized baseball. Contract trouble? He never heard of it in his office.

For several years now, the hot stove league has been looking for contract trouble in Bill's office with an important development. After the Cubs won the national league pennant in 1929, the Cub president surprised the baseball world by signing up every player in record-breaking time. Even Hack Wilson, who caused a stir from his Martinsburg, W. V., retreat with holdout talk, left the Cub front office with a happy smile and a contract in his pocket five minutes after he entered.

This year hasn't been an exception. As Veck arrived back in Chicago after a business trip to the Pacific coast, he had every important contract signed. He called on Babe Herman, a celebrated member of the holdout brigade while at Brooklyn, and said he got the Babe's name on the dotted line long before paying the dinner check. Today, he said he had everybody signed and happy with a few exceptions and that the remainder were expected to line up within a few days as soon as they could come to town.

"I never saw such an enthusiastic bunch of players in my life," he said as he asserted the contracts and filed them away. "They're all satisfied, full of spirit and anxious to play baseball again. The world seems to have forgotten about that. They'll be back again!"

During his career Campbell has had numerous miraculous escapes and has seen many of the world's most daring pilots crash to death—some while in actual competition with him.

LAUGHING AT DEATH

WITH SIR MALCOLM CAMPBELL

By TED GILL, DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Fate has been kind to Sir Malcolm Campbell, who comes back from England seeking to break his own world automobile speed record of 253 miles an hour.

For nearly a quarter of a century, this 48-year-old Briton has been blazing sensational racing history down the rugged, roaring road, flirting with death for the thrill of the sport and worshipping the Goddess of Luck, who still rides with him.

Throughout his long and colorful career, Campbell has taken the breaks as he found them—a victory here, a close call there—it's all in the game and he likes it!

Still in his prime at an age when most race car drivers have laid aside gained admission to that mythical legion of race car drivers who have attained the super speed of 200 or more miles an hour on American soil.

Sir Henry Segrave of England, the greatest rival Campbell ever had, was the first to attain those lofty heights, and was one of the first of the quintet to meet his end. He was killed in a motor-boat accident on Lake Windermere, England, after hanging up a new water record of 98 miles an hour.

Becoming interested in motor-boat racing, Segrave had retired from automobile competition after setting previous land records of 203 and 231 miles an hour. His death removed one of the world's most Colorful drivers from the racing realm. Three Americans killed. Other members of the quintet who sacrificed their lives for the advancement of speed were Frank Lockhart and Ray Keoch, two of America's premier drivers, and Lee Bible, a comparative novice at automobile racing.

Lockhart and Bible were killed here in unsuccessful attempts to establish new straightaway records. Keoch met his death at Altona after setting a speed mark of 207 miles an hour here and winning the annual 500 mile classic at Indianapolis.

Fate has been kind to Campbell. The Goddess of Luck still rides with him.

PAMPA TEAMS DOWN MIAMI'S TWO QUINTETS

THRILL SHOT OF PARIS DRAWS MERITED APPLAUSE

Pampa basketball team won two games from Miami last night in the local gymnasium. The Harvesters swamped the Warriors 51 to 12 while the Harvestettes nosed out the Squaws 28 to 23.

It was Miami that pulled the prize shot of the evening that had the fans on their feet. With less than two minutes to go, Paris unloosed one from about the stage and it went through the hoop without touching the ring. Paris was standing near the stove at the west end of the gymnasium and looped the ball through the east goal a distance of about 65 feet. Prolonged cheering followed the shot.

"Gomez" Marbaugh, elongated Pampa forward, was in the van of the scorers by starting early and ending late in hitting the basket for a total of 17 points. Woodward followed with 10 points. The team clicked well but had little difficulty breaking through the Miami defense. Several spectacular shots were made during the game.

Miami's points were well divided with Paris leading the way with five points. The Warriors tried hard but were unable to pierce the Harvesters wall. Most of their shots were of the long type and were rushed because of the close guarding of the Harvesters.

Lubbock's Westerners will be here tonight and tomorrow night three McLean teams will be here.

Substitutes: Helmsell, Heard, Hamilton, Referee, Fuller.

The Pampa and Miami girls' teams played a nip and tuck affair throughout with the Harvesters pulling to the front in the last half, due largely to the deadly shooting of Captain Louise Walstad who was on the receiving end of many nice passes. The final score was 28 to 23. The half time whistle caught the score tied at 13 points each.

McCarthy looped six points in the second half after getting only one free throw in the opening stanza. Walstad's total went to 21 during the game. Crowson for Miami broke loose to count 18 points. Airheart and Graham added the other points.

Guarding was hard and close from the opening whistle and starting guards on both teams were fouled out of the game.

The Harvestettes won a 21 to 20 game from the Squaws in Miami at their first meeting of the season.

The players used:

Harvestettes: Walstad, Murphy, Hunkapillar, Neal, Fletcher, Shields, Moyer, Frazier and Helmsell.

Squaws: Airheart, Graham, Crowson, Black, Williams, Haffner, Pursey, Wickesser, Eamsey and Lyons.

BABE RUTH NAMES HIS THREE MOST THRILLING EXPERIENCES

Feats Include Mound Victory, One-Handed Catch And Home-Run.

By ALAN GOULD, Associated Press Sports Editor, NEW YORK, Feb. 3. (AP)—It isn't because he has read much of Rudyard Kipling's poems that Babe Ruth has seldom stopped to consider the work he has done.

The slugger whose exploits take up page after page of baseball's record books does not go in much for self-analysis or retrospection.

Consequently it was something like prying candy away from a small child to get him to concentrate on an examination of his big league record and list as his most thrilling diamond experiences:

1. The 2-1 victory he pitched for the Red Sox over Brooklyn in the 1916 world series, holding the Dodgers scoreless after the first inning and beating Sherrill Smith in a 14-inning battle, longest game ever played in the championship series.
  2. The one-hand running catch he made off Frankie Frisch for the last out in the fourth and last game of the 1922 world series, abruptly ending a desperate rally by the St. Louis Cardinals in their home park.
  3. The dramatic home run he hit off Charley Root in the third game of the 1922 world series at Chicago, a tremendous clout over the centerfield barrier, his second of the game and a blow that knocked Root out of the box besides knocking the last resistance out of the Cubs.
- At the time it did not occur to Ruth that he had, off-hand, named three events that promptly emphasized his amazing versatility, first as a great southpaw pitcher, later as a brilliant defensive outfielder and, lastly, as the most destructive batsman in the history of the game.

Baby Batten, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Batten of McLean, was admitted to Worley hospital last night.

BASKETS and BANKBOARDS

By FORREST C. (Phog) ALLEN, Writen for The Associated Press, LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP)—Many basket ball coaches have a deep seated yearning for a material which is at least six feet tall, with the ability of towering from four to six inches over the other "big sixes." Which brings me to the question: are small men still valuable under the new basket ball rules?

Emphatically, yes!

For tip off plays and basket rebounding, the big, tall man still excels. He also is better on the zone defense, but in the man-to-man style of play and in screen and pick off plays the little man is much the better.

The much used quick break after recovery of the ball from the defensive bank board utilizes the small, speedy man in an emphatic fashion.

Ed Wachter, the Harvard coach, cites Tommy Cullen, Jr., the Dartmouth flash of 10 years ago, and Albee Booth, Yale's "little, big man," as two of the greatest of the undersized court luminaries to make basket ball's hall of fame.

In the Big Ten, the Big Six, the Southwest and the Pacific Coast Conferences big, tall, rangy men still have the call over the little fellows.

Little Fellows Valuable

However, with the new rules in force, two small, clever men can be used very handily in the basket ball combination. Indeed, there are coaches who discard some of their taller men, preferring to use the big-little man combination, thereby utilizing the quick cuts, and screens which are so essential to their game.

They also use clever publicity strategy, capitalizing pseudo-sympathy by complaining to the public that their team is undermanned, when as a matter of fact these small men actually are desired.

So long as screen plays and quick cuts are used, good little men will be at a premium. Big men cannot stand the running necessary in the proper execution of this strenuous type of play.

Teach Them To Obey

We hear very little of the stall game this season. Occasionally, however, we read where some of the die-hard coaches who dislike

Cochran Meets Layton in Finals

Feats Include Mound Victory, One-Handed Catch And Home-Run.

CHICAGO, Feb. 3. (AP)—A triumph in his first try for the world three cushion billiards title and the big share of the prize money will go to Welker Cochran, San Francisco's balkline master tonight—if he can beat J. Layton, the Sedalia, Mo., vet., who has held the championship ten times.

Cochran, famous at balkline, especially 18-2, but a comparative newcomer at three cushions, last night removed J. N. Bozeman, Jr., the sensational youngster from Vallejo, Calif., 50 to 40 in 41 innings, from the championship scheme, leaving Layton as his last chance. Even should Layton overcome Cochran, another battle between them would be necessary for they would then be tied for first place.

Heimach Signs Dodger Offer; Hack Holdsout

NEW YORK, Feb. 3. (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers have received the signed contract of pitcher Fred Heimach, the club announced today.

Heimach, who with William Watson Clark forms the southpaw division of the Dodger pitching staff, appeared in 36 games last season, chiefly in relief roles. He was credited with nine victories against four defeats.

At his home in Martinsburg, W. Va., Hack Wilson, Dodger outfielder, revealed last night he had accepted a new offer from the club. The Dodgers were understood to have offered Hack $9,500 for his labors in 1933, as compared with $16,500 in 1932, but Wilson says it still isn't enough. A ten per cent cut, he said, would be acceptable to him.

Lloyd Brown has joined Rick Ferrell as the St. Louis Browns' representatives in the hold-out parade. Brown, a southpaw, was obtained in a trade with Washington.

The New York Yankees announced they had assigned the contract of outfielder George Selkirk to their Newark International league farm.

Honus Wagner, generally regarded as the greatest short stop in baseball history, signed a contract with the Pittsburgh Pirates as coach and general assistant to Manager George Gibson. Honus, now 58 years old, spent his entire major league career with the Pirates.

PAMPA'S LEADING GROCERY HAS A NEW NAME TODAY....

FURR FOOD STORES

The two M-System Stores of Pampa have changed their names to Furr Food Stores! But there is no change in either ownership or management. Byrl Sanders continues to be the manager of Store No. 1, at 314 West Foster; and L. W. Hardcastle remains as manager of Store No. 2, at 109 South Cuyler. The new name of our two stores merely identifies the man who, starting with a single grocery store, has progressed until today he operates the largest group of food stores in the Panhandle-Plains. This man is our President, C. W. Furr. In bringing his name to the attention of Pampa housewives through the renaming of the stores, he offers below values in quality food items which should make these stores the mecca for thrifty grocery shoppers during this entire NAME CHANGE SALE!

PRICES GOOD ENTIRE WEEK OF FEBRUARY THIRD TO TENTH
