THREE AMARILLOANS KILLED AS AUTOMOBILE TURNS OVER ON LONG CURVE AT GOODNIGHT

Driver's Wife Grabs Wheel When Awakened

GOODNIGHT, Aug. 19. (AP)—Three persons were killed and three injured at 1 a. m. today when the automobile in which they were riding overturned on a long curve one mile west of Goodnight on state highway No. 5. The dead and injured all were residents of Amarillo.

The dead were Mrs. W. A. Berry, wife of a refinery company employe; Claude Dean, her 10-month-old daughter; and Alvin Roe, 9-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Roe, 503 North Buchanan street.

Berry, who was driving the car, said Mrs. Berry had been asleep. She was awakened as the car took the curve, became excited and grabbed the steering wheel. He said he removed his foot from the accelerator and applied the brakes but lost control of the machine.

Mrs. Berry was holding the baby when the car crashed. Mrs. Roe and her son were riding in the jump seat of the coupe. She was unconscious when she reached Amarillo in an ambulance. She has not been notified of her son's death.

Berry escaped with a wrenched neck and back. Miss Hazel Courtney, riding in the seat with the Berries was only slightly injured.

MAJOR SIMPSON CHALLENGES FERGUSON CLAIMS—SAYS JIM IS FATHER OF MONOPOLIES

Major E. A. Simpson of Amarillo, who supported the Fergusons in 1924, last night told a small and demonstrative audience that Jim Ferguson had broken faith with the people of Texas and had forfeited all right to be called the friend of the common people.

The speaker, after his introduction by Judge Newton P. Willis, said that every Sterling speaker in this section was paying his own expenses and devoting his time to the interests of good government.

He charged that, contrary to Ferguson's statements that he had never represented the major interests, "Jim" had been placed on the payroll of four railroads within a month after his wife became governess, that Mrs. Ferguson had vetoed an increased tax on sugar and another imposed on the huge sugar trust.

Major Simpson said that while Sterling had inspired the current investigation of major companies, the Fergusons had approved the "Texas Company Bill" in 1915 which made the "oil octopus" possible and had in 1928 recommended "the Humble bill" which made possible the re-entry of Standard Oil into Texas under the guise of buying and controlling stock in Texas corporations. Ferguson, not Sterling, is the father of monopolies in Texas, Major Simpson charged. He added

SIoux CITY, Aug. 19. (AP)—Striking farmers augmented their forces today to tighten their grip on Sioux City—key point in their "war" for higher prices.

Dakota county farmers, farmers meeting in Dakota City, 5 miles south of here, voted their support and were patrolling roads leading into Sioux City from the south today.

More South Dakota farmers were also picketing the highways but striking a possible snag when Olf Eiden, United States district attorney at Sioux Falls, began an investigation into the stopping of trucks by farmers. Sheriff John Johnson of Minnehaha county expressed the belief the interstate commerce was being interfered with in violation of federal law.

Meanwhile the picketing farmers in Plymouth and Woodbury counties in Iowa agreed in conference with authorities to move back to the county lines and continue their picketing after having reduced the Car And Clothing Are Stolen Here

Two thefts were reported to officers this morning. H. S. Galling reported the loss of a 1928 black Ford coach from in front of the First Methodist church last night between 8 and 10 o'clock. The license numbers on the car were 513-455.

One of the Santa Fe section houses was entered and a large quantity of clothing was stolen. It was reported that 15 dress shirts, two wool shirts, one coat, six pair of trousers, a Galt revolver, shoes, ties, and underwear were among the missing articles.

A window was forced to gain admission.

Little Expense In Primary Campaign

Only three Gray county candidates had filed expense certificates for the second democratic primary last night which was the closing time for filing accounts. Two of the candidates had no expenses and the other had only $2.50.

Philip Wolf and E. E. Gary, candidates for the office of county judge, have had no expense since the first primary. Clem Davis of LePors, candidate for county commissioner of precinct 1, spent $2.50, according to his paper.

The next expense account will be filed after the second primary.

Parking Lanes Being Marked

Low spots in Pampa streets are being repaired by employees of the Stuekey Construction company. Paving has settled in several places, especially on corners, while other places have raised.

The city is marking pedestrian lanes on street intersections and warns people to walk in the places marked and not to jay walk. Diagonal parking lanes will be marked on the main streets with the idea of having motorists park in the lanes. It is believed the method will give additional parking room in the downtown district.

The second hardware store robbery in McLean was reported to officers of the sheriff's department this morning, when it was learned the McLean Hardware store was entered during the night and more than $700 worth of ammunition, guns, knives, and tools were taken.

The burglars walked up to the front door and smashed it open with an iron bar that was left inside the store when the burglars left.

On the previous night, the Western Lumber & Hardware company store was entered and 3,700 rounds of ammunition and a quantity of tools were taken. The bar used to open the McLean Hardware store was stolen from other store the previous night.

JOHN, LOWE AND JIM WHITELOCK ARE BEATEN

An intensive manhunt for two unmasked robbers, who held up the Danziger refinery office here last night, was under way near Whitteburg, Hutchinson county this afternoon with Sheriff Lon L. Blansett and Hutchinson county officers leading more than one hundred heavily armed men in a search of the canyons.

The automobile stolen here from John Lowe, Danziger employe, was found in a canyon early this afternoon. The engine was still warm, and officers, believing the suspects were hiding nearby, threw a cordon of armed citizens around the area. The officers and men were closing the circle this afternoon, but had not sighted the bandits.

Officers and oil company employes carried several machine guns. Sheriff Blansett said he would be able to recognize the bandits if they were seen.

One arrest had been made in Pampa.

Two Drunken Gunmen Who at 3 a. m. today pistol-whipped two of their victims, kidnaped six persons from the Danziger refinery east of the city, took a sum of money from the office, and stole the Buick sedan belonging to John Lowe, laboratory man, were being sought by officials of several counties today.

Lowe was struck on the cheek and deeply gashed when he, with

The scenes were taken in various parts of the world and pictured the many workers helping solve world problems. Judge Newton P. Willis gave a short, impressive speech in memory of Henry Ansley, who died following an automobile accident a few days ago. Mr. Ansley was praised for his joyful, willing way in making life more pleasant for others. A moment of silent prayer by all members of the club was given in his honor and memory.

The Kiwanis club will enter a team in the soft ball league to start soon. Paul M. LeBeuf, chairman, Frank Carter, and Lewis Cox will be in charge of selecting and managing the Kiwanis team.

New members today were George Eull and C. L. Stine. Mrs. Louise Miller Dunn was among the visitors.

BOY AND DEPRESSION

Beside the front walk of a middle western orphanage there sits, every day, a three-year-old boy, one arm circling the neck of a big police dog which has befriended him. The boy keeps watching everyone who comes up the walk; and whenever he sees a woman approaching his face lights up and he asks, eagerly, "Mamma?"

This youngster was brought to the orphanage several weeks ago. His mother and father had been out of work for a long time, and at last they left him with their landlady "for a day or so" while they went to a nearby town to look for jobs. They haven't come back yet, and the landlady at last notified the authorities. So now the lad waits at the orphanage, tries to see his mother in every woman who passes by, and wonders dimly what is the cause of this upset in his little world.

Quite clearly, the lad is just another victim of the depression; and his plight, so pathetic and heart-wrenching, is a thing we ought to remember—because it helps us to understand the tragedy and suffering which that one word, "depression," means.

There are good grounds now for believing that we have just about got to the end of the depression. Sooner or later we shall be back on our feet again. Shall we, when that time comes, talk glibly once more about "economic cycles" and the like, taking it for granted that our civilization must swing back and forth between extremes of prosperity and stagnation?

If we forget all of the bitter lessons that the last couple of years have taught us, we might be foolish enough to do just that; and, if we do, in a few years we shall repeat the old cycle again and go down into another depression like this one.

But we might remember that this "business cycle" causes thousands upon thousands of tragedies just like this one of the lonely boy at the orphanage. It means an almost immeasurable amount of human suffering. Keeping that in mind, shall we not insist that we will not put up with any economic system which does not find some way of averting periodic depressions?

ward to perusing the list of Reconstruction Finance corporation loans. The list is expected to disclose again what this column has pointed out many times—that President Hoover tries to help the common people only through high finance. The other side of the picture will be illustrated when some stockholder in an ailing corporation reads about the firm's getting a big loan, then broken confidence in that corporation may mean its failure. Or that's what the Hoovercrats would have you believe. Many thoughtful readers will assume that the taxpayer should know where his taxes are placed, and why. Americans need to learn how to know the truth and still keep their heads.

More Proof.

More proof of our good climate is furnished by George Briggs. George left Pampa on a vacation trip "to escape the hay fever." While away he stopped at Creed, Colo., and promptly developed a bad case of the fever. Back in Pampa, he has quickly recovered. Boost Pampa's summer climate!

mean failure for the child, or even cause it to have bad behavior. Many a dumbbell isn't dumb at all. Poor hearing or seeing handicaps a pupil beyond reason. Pre-school children often have ills never detected by the parents. An examination costs nothing and may mean success or failure for your child. The school's duty to the child embraces physical condition no less than mental progress. This truth too long was overlooked. Now the schools are eager to help your child stay well. The examinations are a part of the general health program. Do not let false pride or over-confidence in your child handicap him in his studies.

Small Change.

A Tulsa lawyer of our acquaintance made a habit of defending bank bandits. He defeated efforts to connect him with certain raids. Now he is dead—murdered on a lonely road. Beside his still form were a nickel and a penny—the gang's sign of good riddance of a person of small importance. Maybe the gang was right, or maybe he was removed because he lost the last case in which he defended a bandit. We had never known an ethical attorney to die that way.

INUNCTION ARGUED

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 15. (AP)—As an injunction hearing against the state corporation commission and Ciero I. Louie Behrends and Frank Hudgeg transacted business in Amarillo yesterday.

that Ferguson lobbied against bills of the independent oil men who were unable to pay a $5,000 fee. Turning to taxation, the speaker cited that Ferguson, in spite of his promises, had an ad valorem rate of 77 cents, while under Sterling this rate has been reduced to 67 cents. "Where then," demanded Major Simpson, is your economist if he isn't Ross Sterling?"

During the early part of the speech, a heckler broke in with questions, such as "What about Dan Moody?" and "What about 10-Cent Oil."
"I'll answer you in full before I'm through," Major Simpson countered, but when he came to the answer there was no more interruption.
The speaker ridiculed the claim of Ferguson supporters that Mrs. Ferguson would eliminate the state ad valorem tax "from now on." He said only a legislature could abolish the tax and that any legislature could restore it. But the Sterling plan for relieving counties of paying costs would save Gray county $41,000 this year and more than a million dollars in the next 20 years, he cited.

number of trucks entering the city from several hundred to two in 24 hours.

This restriction on highway transportation has reduced the livestock receipts at Sioux City stockyards more than half. Many farmers were shipping by rail, however, and at Des Moines W. O. Fraser of the United States department of agriculture said a marked increase in marketing at cities adjacent to Sioux City was apparent.

After a conference lasting far into the night, milk producers and distributors broke up again without coming to terms. The disagreement, which precipitated the present blockade, arose over demands of farmers for a 100 per cent increase in milk prices.

Sidney Tarpestra, a trucker, reported to Sheriff Ralph E. Rippey at Lemars today that the windshield of his machine was shattered by a club, allegedly thrown by a farmers' holiday striker.

"Isn't it wonderful?" she said, "I knew Jim would do it. I feel much easier now. I know the return journey is not easy but, in comparison with the outward trip it isn't so bad. I don't know exactly what Jim's plans are. If he has enough fuel he may make for New York non-stop."

ARRESTS

Identification at Washington that Stivigliano, alias "Adamo," was wanted for questioning at Houston and Kansas City concerning at least two killings.
Stivigliano had been shot nine times from a .45 caliber revolver, the type found on Jenkins when arrested here. Ballistic tests today added weight to Danbury's suspicion that Jenkins' gun was used in the killings.
Two other Texans, arrested with Jenkins will also be turned over to Glenwood authorities, though Omaha police have nothing to connect them definitely with the Stivigliano killings. They are C. J. Hester of Houston, and Ralph Arnold of Dallas or Waco.
Detective Ronald MacDonald, police ballistics expert, advised Danbury, after comparing bullets fired from Jenkins' gun with nine taken from Stivigliano's body, that they corresponded exactly.
A check of bullets fired from a .45 revolver taken from Hester's hotel room failed to reveal riflings similar to those taken from Stivigliano's body. The tests were not completed at noon, however.
Police believe that Stivigliano was murdered and his body tossed by the roadside after an automobile ride from Omaha with his slayers.

FLIGHT

his "The Heart's Content" for more than 24 hours, sitting on a bare, uncushioned seat, pushing his flying gasoline tank across more than 2,000 miles.
He had intended to stop at Harbor Grace for fuel, but he got better rest here.

Captain Hollison said he expected to go up to St. John after a brief rest here.

He was pleased when someone told him that his wife in London had been sure it was his plane that was sighted this morning at Halifax.
"She always did say I would make it easily," he said.

He lost a lot of time between Halifax, where he was sighted at 5:05 a. m., and here, because of fog.
"The mist was heavy over the Bay of Fundy, and I just groped along," he said. "I wanted to get to New York, and I could have made it with the gas I had, but weaving through away just pure spunk nor sorry mist couldn't go on. The weather was especially bad for the last eighteen hours."

Apparently after he passed Halifax he tried to follow the circuitous coast of the Bay of Fundy which swings north from Halifax and then back to the southwest with St. John and Penfield Ridge on the opposite bank.
At 9:05 o'clock this morning he was out of the airport at Halifax, 100 miles east of St. John, headed west, then for a time he was lost in the fog which blanketed the Bay of Fundy region.

It was 11:45 a. m. E. S. T. when he landed at Penfield Ridge.

LONDON, Aug. 15. (AP)—Amy Johnson, aviation record holder and wife of Captain J. A. Hollison was seated at luncheon with friends in a West-end hotel today when word was brought to her that a plane like that in which her husband started on his trans-Atlantic flight had been sighted over Halifax.

"Oh," she cried, "I'm sure it's Jim." But she was nervous and it was apparent she was not certain.
She and her friends went upstairs to her suite where confirmation was brought to her a few minutes later.

HITLER SAYS DEMOCRACY HAS BEEN FAILURE FOR GERMANS

By LOUIS P. LOCHNER.

BERECHTESGADEN, Bavaria, Aug. 15. (AP)—Adolf Hitler, Germany's fascist leader, said today he had received so many messages from his followers during the last few days expressing delight that he made no compromise with the government that he was more certain than ever he did the right thing in refusing a place in the cabinet under the terms offered.
He still is confident he will win in the long run, he said, although he has no intention of leading a march on Berlin. He even took occasion to condemn dictatorships set up on bayonets.
Far up in the Bavarian mountains in a little cottage, with his sister as housekeeper and only three Nazi storm trooper guards, his adjutant, his secretary, and several huge sheep-herd dogs for company, I visited him.
The cottage, over which his swastika emblem flies, is miles from Berechtesgaden, perched above a lonely road, only a few miles from Austria, the land of his birth. It is cool there, and he refuses to be wheedled into important decisions must be made.
The incorrect version of what took place during my interview with Chancellor Von Papen and President Von Hindenburg leaves me cold," he said.
He said he preferred to discuss the role of leader in relation to his idea of government.
"Fascism and Mussolini cannot be separated," he declared. "Fundamentally, you can't separate the leader from the idea. Only after a movement has well passed the organization stage and the idea has been translated into action and tested by experience is it safe to dispense with the leader.
"Had Bismarck died in 1869 there would have been no German empire. Had Frederick the Great been killed before the third Silesian war there would have been no Prussia such as we know it.
"Only after a movement has developed, say over 70 or 80 years, can it be said to have acquired a historic background and the tradition necessary for carrying on without a strong leader."
Democracy, he said, has not worked in Germany.
"Parliamentary democracy," he declared, "is a system foreign to us Germans, uninfluenced by the fluctuations of parliamentary whims and changes. Formerly the monarchs represented the idea of authoritarianism."

NEW TAXES COLLECTED
WASHINGTON, Aug. 16. (AP)—The full benefit of the new taxes hadn't yet been realized by far but they contributed more than 3 per cent of the federal income in July.
The treasury report, through, says that some of the old stand-bys provided a big share of the $61,656,467 received in that month. Income taxes, for instance, gave $17,571,311, cigarettes $28,605,437, chewing and smoking tobacco $4,373,873.

KIRKMAN'S TEAM OF GIRLS PLAYS GOOD GAME---LOSES

DEFEATED BY LOCAL WOMEN OF BUSINESS

GROUPS ARE IN GOOD CONDITION; PLAN OTHER GAMES

Although playing a steadily good game, the first of the year, girls of Ensign J. F. Kirkman's softball team were unable to defeat the greatly improved team of business women last evening at the Magnolia park, and the final score was 14-23. A large crowd witnessed the game.

Kirkman's team is composed of members of the Lifesaving Guards of the World, all under 18 years of age. The situation appeared gloomy for the girls until the beginning of the fifth inning. There were three runs in the first, none in the second or third, and only one in the fourth. But in the fifth these girls assumed a seemingly impossible vigor and made ten runs. W. Davis, B. Davis, Kentling, and Campbell were the outstanding players.

The girls team presented an attractive spectacle, each player being clad in a red shirt and blue overalls.

Here is the line-up for the Lifesaving Guards: W. Davis, c; E. Kentling, p; B. Davis, 1b; Mildred Holt, R. F. Moore, 2b; (later taking the position of 1b); Campbell, 2b; Butler, 2b; Stein, 1b (transferred to 1b); Tillman, 3b; L. Ewell, cf; Pruitt, lf; Hayner, rf; E. Ezell, rf.

The business team's line-up: Heiskell, c; Meers, p; Kentling, 1b; Gee, 2b; Williams, 3b; Solomon, 1b; Viles, 2b; Overall, rf; McNutt, cf; L. Lee, lf; Parpley went in for Overall.

Both teams expressed a desire for another game soon.

SHORT COURSE SOCIAL EVENTS ARE DESCRIBED

MEN AND WOMEN TAKE PART IN CONTEST CHOPPING WOOD

By MRS. WILLIS EMERY Bluebonnet Club

The trip to short course was an inspiration. We went on the train leaving Clarendon at 8 a. m. The morning was spent getting acquainted, at noon we spread our lunch, and in the afternoon we read and visited. At 10 p. m. we arrived at College Station. Ralph Thomas met us and accompanied us to our room.

Each evening of the week we were entertained at the Aggie stadium from 7 p. m. to 9:30 p. m. with the following program: Monday, band concert and a negro minstrel (by Victoria Rotary club); Tuesday, band concert, carnival and play; Dance of the Fire Flies, a special radio program from BUGS (no frequency and few kilocycles), a wood chopping contest between two county agents and two home agents; educated horse act, old fiddlers contest and tap dancing; Wednesday, band concert, club singing directed by Misses Sage and Reeves, the Cargill Brothers of Bryan, and their orchestra, a clog and tap dance by the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Merritt of Hondo, and harmonica concert; Thursday, horse show and tournament. Two of the most exciting races were the 1-4 mile running race and U. S. Army relay race. The tournament was given by the county agents knights, and home agents maids of honor selected from the different districts in the state. Friday at 4:30 p. m. a tea was given for the ladies on President Walton's lawn, this being the chief social feature of the week. The evening program was a band concert, county agent fig. 4-H club orchestra, and group singing.

BRING DOWN FAMILY BUDGET BY CANNING VEGETABLES, FRUITS

Thousands of women are realizing this year that important savings can be made in household expenses by canning a large stock of fruits and vegetables for winter use. In response to requests for authoritative information on canning, Sister Mary, food expert for THE NEWS and NEA Service, has prepared a series of six special articles. These articles deal with practical problems of home canning, contain explicit instructions for the novice and new ideas for the experienced canner. Even a canning budget is explained so that there may be neither shortage nor waste.

The first of these articles will appear Sunday, and daily thereafter, in the popular column called "Sister Mary's Kitchen." If you are not familiar with this helpful feature, now is a good time to get acquainted with the woman who writes menus for millions.

Bridge Party Is To Be Sponsored By Club Tonight

As a means of earning money to buy a Flex-o-Graph, the Pampa Business and Professional Women's club will sponsor a bridge party this evening in the Rose building club rooms.

All members of the club are to act as hostesses for the event, but the publicity committee, headed by Mrs. Ed Fowler, is in general charge. The publicity committee will use the Flex-o-Graph to prepare informal bulletins and various kinds of club literature.

CHURCH LOSES LEADER

NEW RICHMOND, O., Aug. 19. (P)—The Methodist Episcopal church lost one of its greatest leaders last night by the death of Bishop Earl Cranston, 92.

Retired 16 years ago, the bishop had been in failing health several months. He died at his country home near here on the Ohio river. His wife and a few friends were at the bedside.

Bishop Cranston was chairman of the commission to reunite his church with the Methodist Episcopal church, South, and was author of a book on the subject, entitled "Breaking Down the Walls."

OFFICERS NOT INSTALLED

An installation service which was to have been held by the American Legion auxiliary last evening, was postponed.

day to have assured herself adequate compensation in a free entry of her industrial products into the nations of the commonwealth. What she gains will probably be largely at the expense of exports to Canada from the United States, although some American observers were inclined to believe the United States' loss will be no more than the total loss of trade resulting from the multitude of bi-lateral trade treaties between the dominions.

ONE POLITICIAN, MIRIAM A. FERGUSON, DISLIKES SHAKING HANDS, RATHER STAY AT HOME

By R. W. BARRY

AUSTIN, Aug. 19. (P)—Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, Texas' first and only woman governor, prefers that her husband do all the political "chores." She does not say so, but there is an unmistakable something in her manner that lets one believe she should much prefer staying at home than campaigning and having men, women and children shake her hand and say: "I am glad to meet you, governor."

"Please do not grasp it too firmly," she told one stalwart, enthusiastic partisan who approached her after a rally in Coleman and said: "Governor Ferguson, I want to shake your hand."

In hotel lobbies, where her husband, James E. Ferguson, holds levees in every town he visits, Mrs. Ferguson may be seen avoiding attention. She plainly wants her husband to do all the hob-nobbing. She is affable and all that, but she deftly manages to keep her attention directed elsewhere or to busy herself in a way that it will not be so easy for the Ferguson partisans to interest themselves in her.

"Mam, I want you to shake hands with Mr. . . ." James E. Ferguson will address her frequently, bringing up some friend of long-standing.

Jim Ferguson always has a string of political friends of long-standing and many are farmers and ranchmen, who travel distances to get to "Farmer Jim."

He likes it and knows most of them by their first name. He gets tired of the hardships of campaigning—getting late and getting up early to catch trains—but he is a sound sleeper once he puts his head on a pillow. Companions who have traveled with him through many campaigns, testify that no matter what the day brought forth—renewed bitterness, favorable or unfavorable news from the political trenches—Ferguson always dismissed it completely from his mind the minute he turned to his bed for rest.

They say that the faculty for brushing the past completely from his mind is a characteristic practice by Ferguson the day a campaign ends.

Mrs. Ferguson likes to talk about her home, her children and her little grandson.

"I can't be so very hard to get along with, or I would not have kept one maid for thirty-two years," Mrs. Ferguson jokingly told a newspaper reporter. She has in her employed thirty-two years ago when she started housekeeping.

Mrs. Ferguson listens to Jim's speeches and when he gets too firm in his language intended to describe his political enemies, she gently calls him down after the speaking and cautions him not to do it again. He always seems appreciative of her advice and accepts her criticism of his stump behavior as infallible.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Goodwin are the parents of an 8-pound boy born a week ago.

My Beauty Hint

By FRANCES STARR

My secret of keeping thin is no secret at all. I simply go to bed without my dinner.

A busy woman needs nourishment at noon-time. When I am working in the studio, I eat at noon so I will have "power" for the afternoon.

A glass of milk or orange juice at night, with an apple or lettuce for bulk, makes one feel amazingly thin on arising the next morning. I think women should eat enough to be healthy, but they should choose the proper time to do it.

MARATHON GAME RECORD SET BY CUBS AND BRAVES

FORTY-THREE INNINGS USED FOR 3 TILTS

THIS IS EQUIVALENT TO FIVE ORDINARY CONTESTS

By HERBERT W. BARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

No matter who may win the National League pennant, the Chicago Cubs and Boston Braves seem to have clinched the marathon championship beyond a doubt.

They've just completed a three-game series and the Cubs have had to travel 43 innings—the equivalent of almost five ordinary contests—to win three one-run decisions.

Charley Grimm's outfit scored four runs in the ninth to win the first game, 4-3, Tuesday and Wednesday the clubs battled through 19 innings before the Cubs won, 3-2.

Taking up right where they had left off, they fought through another extra-inning thriller yesterday until Riggs Stephenson broke up the ball game in the 15th with a single that gave the Cubs a 4-3 triumph and stretched their league lead to 2 1/2 games over the idle Pittsburgh Pirates.

The Phillies turned back the St. Louis Cardinals in both ends of a double-header, 10-4 and 9-4. The Phils uncorked one five-run rally off Dizzy Dean in the third frame of the opener and another off Paul Derringer in the sixth. They won the second game with another five-run rally off Stout and Varleton in the fifth inning. The New York Giants made it four in a row from Cincinnati, 7-3. Waite Hoyt held the Reds in subjection until the eighth when he lost control and had to be relieved by Adolf Luege.

The only American league game was a spectacular struggle between the Boston Red Sox and St. Louis Browns which the former won 7-6 in 15 innings. In the 14th the Browns apparently won the game with a three-run rally but the battling Red Sox tied it up in the half once more. Irving Burns, Brown first baseman, collected five hits.

Tourney Becomes All-American In Rhode Island

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 19. (AP)—The Newport Casino Tennis tournament, which entered the semi-final stage today became an all-American affair.

Frederick J. Perry of England and Jiro Tatom of Japan were knocked out of the competition yesterday, losing their quarter-final matches to Davey Jones of New York and Wilmer Allison, Texas star, respectively.

Gregory Mangin, of Newark, N. J., national indoor champion, outlasted Jack Tidball of Los Angeles in a court marathon, Mangin winning a quarter-final match which required 68 games. Play lasted almost four hours.

The other victor yesterday was Ellsworth Vines, hanky Californian, whose opponent will be the hard-hitting Jones. Allison opposed Mangin in the other semi-final match.

In yesterday's doubles quarter-final play the defending champions, Vines and Keith Gledhill of Los Angeles, Calif., defeated J. Gilbert Hall, South Orange, N. J., and Bryan Grant, Atlanta, in straight sets. The national titlists, Allison and John Van Ryn of Philadelphia, vanquished Tidball and Elbert Lewis, another Californian.

The foreign contingent also was eliminated from the doubles play as George Lott and Frank Shields accounted for the English pair. Perry and Henry W. "Bunny" Austin, and Sidney Wood, New York, and Lester Stoeffen, Los Angeles, defeated the Japanese Seton and Takeo Kuwabara.

Ralph de Palma Claims Records

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 19. (AP)—Establishment of three world's records on Muroc dry lake was claimed today by Ralph de Palma, veteran race driver, on the basis of time checks made by officials of a telegraph company.

The driver said he had broken the record for 500 miles with an average speed of 122.22 miles an hour for four hours, 27 minutes, 20.2 seconds; Tuesday, as well as the records for 500 and 1,000 kilometers. He negotiated 500 kilometers, the telegraph company said, at an average speed of 111.56 miles per hour and 1,000 at a speed of 133.51.

The former record for 500 miles was announced as 105.17 miles an hour, established at Brooklands, England, in 1930; for 500 kilometers 111.46, established in France, and for 1,000 kilometers 104.76, also made at Brooklands.

AT SEMI-FINALS

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 19. (AP)—Semi-final play in the men's and women's doubles and women's singles and quarter-finals in the men's singles were on the afternoon program today in the tenth annual National Public Parks Tennis tournament here. No Southwestern or southern player was left.

RICE COACH IS OPTIMISTIC AS SEASON NEARS

But Other Schools Also To Boast Fine Outfits in Coming Season.

Popular Jack Meagher, coach of the Rice Institute Owls at Houston, is frank to admit his 1932 football team will be an improvement over his 1931 model. Jack isn't claiming a conference championship, but he believes his team will be up there fighting for the title instead of being washed down in the also ran class.

"Our boy, Jack Frey, will be of no service to us and may not play at all unless he gets in at the end of the season," said Meagher, "but we will have a better team this season. Several losses through scholastic difficulties and depression will hurt us, but we are looking forward to an improvement over our three victories and three defeats in last year's conference race."

Meagher said the only trouble visible for his team was that other conference teams, except Baylor, would boast superior 1932 aggregations. He said:

"It looks like Texas Christian and the University of Texas will be one-two, with Southern Methodist, Texas A. & M. and Rice fighting it out with Arkansas for the other positions. I am told that Arkansas will have a whole of a team."

Clifton About Ready

"Flea" Clifton, diminutive short-stop of the Beaumont Exporters is ready to assume his position after being idle several weeks because of injuries.

Bobby Stowe, business manager of the Exporters, is probably the greatest admirer of his club has. Bobby challenges any fan or critic in the league to name any other club that could play as the Exporters have with Clifton and Pete Fox on the shelf the same time.

"There isn't a club in the league that could lose its two best players through injuries as Beaumont and continue to remain in first place. Fox and Clifton are our two best players, but when they went out of the lineup, the other boys just hustled a bit harder and our pitchers just pitched a bit harder. As for pitchers, I think Beaumont has one of the finest collections of hurlers ever to appear in the Texas league, and I have been knocking around this loop many years."

Stowe doesn't believe Fox will be able to play again this season unless it is in the Dixie series.

"Fox broke two small ankle bones, and unless we get into the Dixie series, I am afraid he is through for the season. But if we make the Dixie classic, Fox will be ready, so will Clifton and our pitchers."

On each visit to Dallas, Stowe stands at the turnstiles and admits he wants to see when he sees thousands of women and children pass through the pds gate. Last Monday night, over thirteen thousand fans saw Beaumont beat Dallas but only five thousand paid.

"I feel sorry for the next fellow who buys the Dallas club," said Stowe, "for he will have a hard time educating all these people to pay after the present owners have allowed them to pass in free the last two seasons. I believe in educating them to pay the freight just as the club owners have to pay the players."

OLD PLAYER DIES

WATERBURY, Conn., Aug. 19. (AP)—Baseball has lost another of its old timers—George "Candy" LaChance, first baseman on the 1903 world's championship Boston Red Sox team.

The veteran player, who began his professional career as a catcher with the Portland, Me., club of the old New England league in 1891, died last night at the age of 63, years after a year's illness.

Los Angeles Girl Is Net Sensation

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Aug. 19. (AP)—Rain yesterday cheated spectators at the women's national tennis championships of their first major thrill.

Carolyn Backcock, 20-year-old girl from Los Angeles, had taken the first set from the second seeded player, Mrs. L. A. Harper, 6-3, and appeared well on her way to a sensational triumph when a down-pour forced officials to postpone the remainder of the match until today.

Prior to that spectacular struggle, Helen Jacobs, the prime favorite, advanced to the semi-final round after a grueling battle against Marjorie Gladman Van Ryn, 2-6, 6-3, 6-1.

BIG TALK ALREADY BEGUN OVER CIVIC CLUB SERIES

Stars From Forks of Creeks Will Be Assembled To Play For Charity.

The Lions and the Rotarians got together yesterday and after one had challenged the other or the other way about to a baseball game, it was arranged that the two teams would battle Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at Magnolia park. Unexpectedly like the Kiwanians and the Junior chamber of commerce boys didn't like to be left out in the cold when it came to baseball, so a complication has arisen.

However, the Rotary-Lions battle will be as scheduled. It has been suggested that the Kiwanians and the Jaycees lock horns the following week and then the winner will play winners and the losers play losers.

Travis Lively, former big twilight league catcher, will manage the Rotarians while Dr. H. Henson Hicks, unknown will be at the helm of the Lions club. The doctor has already selected Mayor W. A. Bratton, former anti-saloon league hurler, for mound duty. He will be opposed by either Oden of the radio league or Perkins of the poison squad.

It is rumored that the Lions have plans underway to cripple Odu Mitchell of the Rotarians before the big game. Mitchell is feared, and justly so, as he is a former big leaguer, having seen service with the Hackberry club of the Salt Creek league.

The Jaycees would be hard hit by having the majority of the members playing with other clubs, but it is believed that they can get together a strong club with Jack Dunn, the Miller brothers, W. B. Hamilton, and a few more former stars. The Kiwanians would have Dan McGrew of the Kingsmill Terraces to call on for support. Dad Clayman would be his assistant in all probability.

Anyway, it should be a big series. Admission will be 25 cents if anyone can raise that amount.

Perfect Balance Needed in Stance

By JOHNNY FARRELL (As Told To Artie McGovern)

A stance which gives perfect control of balance is most essential to a golf swing. Any position that causes the body to sway will ruin a shot. Falling away from or into a shot causes the hooks, slices, topped balls and other bugaboos.

The clubhead must come in to the ball on a perfectly straight line and follow through for at least a foot after impact.

When the distance the clubhead travels before its contact with a small ball is considered, the need for perfect equilibrium is readily understood. A variation of a fraction of an inch will send the clubhead against the ball at an oblique angle, making a straight shot impossible.

Stand up to the ball in a comfortably relaxed position. If you have been hooking or slicing as a result of body swaying, you will find it helpful to put the weight of the body back on the heels just before you start the clubhead into the swing.

POLAND'S STAR SHOWS UP IN TRACK AGES

BABE DIDRIKSON SEES POLISH GIRL EXCEL

CHICAGO, Aug. 19. (AP)—That dispute between Lauri Lehtinen of Finland and Ralph Hill of Oregon over superiority at running 5,000 meters will have to be settled some other time and it probably would be best to keep Jajusz Kuscinski, Poland's great distance star, out of it.

Hill and Lehtinen, who won a judge's decision in the recent Olympic games at Los Angeles after a long argument over the question of foul tactics, started out to settle their difficulties last night under artificial lighting at Soldier Field.

The occasion was a post-Olympic meet in which stars of several nations competed before about 35,000 spectators.

The Polish ace decided to get into the argument and before the race was finished Lehtinen had dropped out and at the end, Hill was a pretty thoroughly beaten runner. The Pole won easily in the fair time of 14 minutes, 59.9 second, about a half minute slower than the winning time at Los Angeles.

Performances in the other event, with the exception of the 100 and 200 meter runs, were not exceptional. Ralph Metcalfe tied the world record of 10.3 seconds for the century and Erich Brockmeyer of Germany equalled the Olympic standard of 21.2 seconds for the longer race. Ivan Fuqua of Indiana outfooted Alex Wilson of Canada in the 400 meters, winning in 47.8 seconds, and Phil Edwards, Canada's negro star, won the 800-meters from Dr. Otto Peltzer of Germany and Charles Horn bostel of Indiana in 1:55.

Stella Walsh of Cleveland and Poland won the 100 and 200 meters, the broad jump and took fourth in the discus, among the women, while Babe Didrikson of Texas, won the high jump and was second in the discus. She broke the record in the latter event but Jadwiga Majumora of Poland went her several better by throwing the plate 137 feet, 3 1/2 inches.

MORE TEAMS TAKING FORM DURING WEEK

League Officers Will Be Elected Tuesday And Rules Formulated.

When managers and captains of teams already entered in the Pampa Playground ball league meet in the chamber of commerce rooms at 8 o'clock Tuesday night, they will be confronted by the application of at least two more teams for membership in the league. Eight teams have already entered.

The schedule for the season, which will open August 30, will be drawn up at the meeting. Election of a permanent president and a secretary-treasurer will also be held. Read Crites is acting president. The type of ball to be used during the season will also be adopted at the meeting.

The "Conoco's" are reported to be organizing and looking for a place in the league. It has also been rumored the last few days that a team of "dark horses" is being gotten together for the same purpose.

Teams already entered include the Santa Fe, Danciger, Salvation Army, NEWS, Phillips, Faculty, Rose Building, and Kiwanis club.

Fairbanks Will Hunt In Africa

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 19. (AP)—Douglas Fairbanks began preparations to day to go to the Orient to hunt long-haired tigers. He will sail next Thursday from San Francisco, expecting to visit China, Japan, and Manchuria.

He will take a camera to photograph highlights of his hunt but is not certain they will be incorporated in his next picture.

Cameramen Chuck Lewis, Ken Davenport and Allen Boon will accompany the screen actor. His wife, Mary Pickford, is remaining at home to make another picture. If she completes it in time, she plans to meet Fairbanks in Russia.

New coaches and an almost new team will represent Davidson college on the gridiron this fall. Few veteran players are to be back.

B. B. CRIMM EVANGELIST, IS TO OPEN REVIVAL WEDNESDAY

Danciger Order Again Is Delayed. AUSTIN, Aug. 19. (P)—A Texas railroad commission order placing wells of the Danciger Oil and Refining company in Carson, Gray, and Hatchison counties under state proration still was being held in abeyance today pending a conference between Danciger's attorneys and representatives of the commission. A conference was to have been held yesterday at Dallas between attorneys and Railroad Commissioner Ernest C. Thomas but was postponed. R. D. Parker, director of the commission's oil and gas division, said Commissioner Thompson probably would be in Austin Monday to confer with Danciger's attorneys on the order. Letters from Evangelist Crimm to local pastors included the following explanation: "I have been in evangelistic work for 18 years, have worked in 25 states at the call of the pastors but the last few years conditions have so changed that I find it is hard to get the pastor and churches to come together in a union or a cooperative effort. I won't attempt to analyze the reason why. So after two years praying I have come to a decision that for the best of all concerned I will just go to the evangelist to the places where I think the Lord would have me go. Go under the authority of the Great Commission to do the work of an evangelist to which the Lord has surely called me. Go absolutely independent, calling on all pastors and Christian forces in the city to cooperate with me. Upon this plan I am coming to Pampa as I am writing you now asking for your cooperation and that of your church, to the end that the lost may be saved and the saved encouraged and built up. "There will be no Sunday morning services in my tabernacle, unless it be the last Sunday morning and not then unless the pastors cooperate and are willing for it. We shall insist that everybody go to his own church and Sunday school, Sunday morning. Those that come professing conversion will be asked what church they want to join, their decision will be announced publicly and the church they specify will receive their names and addresses."

Acklam Holds Skellytown To 2 Hits Yesterday

Ray Acklam, pitcher for the Pampa Junior baseball team, allowed the Skellytown team only two hits yesterday afternoon in Skellytown, but lost his game 1 to 0. He was on his way to a no-hit game when a fielder got two flies away from him, one of them going for three bases. Fowler, Skellytown pitcher, had a strong game also. He allowed the Pampa boys only five scattered hits and struck out 13 men besides. Goodwin and Horner got the two hits off Acklam. Rasdale with two hits led the Pampa attack. Heiskell, Sullins, and Davis got the other three blows. Only three errors were made during the game. Acklam had the hard hitting seniors hitting to the infield and popping up throughout the game. His slow ball was working to perfection and his curve breaking fast. Stokes caught a great game for the local boys. Five of the Skelly boys popped to the infield. The juniors have been playing great ball the past few weeks, having lost only one of the last five games played.

DARING SCIENTIST TO FIGURE SEVERAL MONTHS THEN VENTURE UP AGAIN IN ARCTIC REGION

DESENZANO, Italy, Aug. 19. (P)—Prof. Auguste Piccard, rested today after his record-breaking ascent into the stratosphere yesterday, announced he would begin immediately to prepare for a third ascent from the northwest shore of Hudson bay, in Canada. "The moment we finish the work of calculating the results recorded by our instruments on yesterday's flight," he said, "we will begin preparations for the third experiment. "We plan to take off from the northwest shore of Hudson bay as close as we can get to the North Pole. Our purpose will be to complete the study of cosmic rays at a point where the lines of magnetic force penetrate the stratosphere. "A solution for many scientific problems will be provided when we know how the rays act under these conditions." The third expedition, he said, would not begin until the middle of next summer. Asked what he was going to do now, the bushy-haired little scientist said with a smile: "I'm going to take a swim in Lake Garda." Lake Garda, near here, was spotted by him yesterday from the skies as a guide to a landing and he came down near its shore. His next scientific move, he said, would be to take the instruments he carried with him yesterday to a height of more than 10 miles above the earth to Zurich, Switzerland, the starting point of his flight, to have the seals removed and the results verified. "Then," he said, "will begin several months of figuring on our experiments and after that we will be free to start planning the third flight from Hudson bay." Prof. Piccard said he would do all the observation of cosmic rays during the flight, he himself giving all

Two Murderers Are Electrocutated

MALESTER, Okla., Aug. 19. (P)—Two convicted murderers from Blaine county, one a negro, paid the extreme penalty in the electric chair at state's prison today. U. J. Alder, 50-year-old farmer, who killed his brother-in-law, Tom McDonald allegedly because he was not served enough pie at a family dinner, went to his death protesting extreme penalty in the electric chair at state's prison today. The negro, William Davis, was convicted of slaying Guy Jarvis, Blaine county undersheriff, when the officer sought to arrest him on a gasoline theft charge.

Striking Miners Stop Operations

TAYLORVILLE, Ill., Aug. 19. (P)—"Ten thousand" or more striking union coal miners stopped all mining operations in this area today and leaders announced they planned to spread over Southern Illinois and continue their campaign. More than 2,000 miners protesting a reduced wage scale picketed Peabody Coal company mines near Taylorville. Only a few employees appeared for work and they turned away without attempting to enter the mines. Illinois national guardsmen were held in readiness to move into the picketing zone but there were few reports of violence. Fifteen hundred special deputy sheriffs did not interfere with the strikers' movements. State police were directing traffic on congested highways. W. C. Argust, superintendent of Peabody mines in the Taylorville area, said no attempt would be made to open the mines "until conditions are changed." He charged that strikers attacked and beat a guard and another employe this morning as they reported for work at mine No. 9 near Kirksaid and took a gun from the guard. He also said a house on Peabody property near here where the miners camped last night had been dynamited and two others burned. Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Wood and family returned yesterday from a vacation trip to Milwaukee and St. Paul. Frank Morrison of Dalhart is visiting here today.

Soldier Says His Mind Was Blank

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 19. (P)—Lieutenant Herbert C. Leichtenberger testified in his court martial trial Friday that he was in a complete daze on the day he is alleged to have held up the Schertz State bank and did not remember anything that happened even when he read of the holdup in the newspaper the next morning. Leichtenberger told of excessive drinking for about a week preceding the robbery. He said that on the morning of February 16, the day following the holdup, he read of the holdup in the paper but did not recognize any of the events and did not connect himself with the robbery. "The lieutenant declared he saw bills of several denominations and a pistol on the floor of his automobile when he started to drive away from his house and was "stunned" by the sight. Worry over his wife's illness and financial problems had led him to excessive drinking for the several days preceding the robbery, the accused officer said.

COTTON ACTIVE, FIRM

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 19. (P)—The cotton market here experienced quite an active and firmer opening today. Liverpool cables were much better than due and October started out four points higher than yesterday's close while December gained 7 points. The October position gained an additional point after the start, but the advance attracted considerable liquidation and some hedge selling with the result that October dropped to 7.51 and December to 7.69 on six points down from the early high. Near the end of the first hour steadiness in stocks and considerable rain in the belt induced fresh buying and prices soon rallied five points from the lows. At the end of the first hour the market was active and steady.

WHEAT IS LOWER

CHICAGO, Aug. 19. (P)—Lower prices for grains early today resulted largely from indications that the newly-formed commodity finance corporations would not buy big quantities of any commodity. Refusal of the Liverpool wheat market to follow advances yesterday on this side of the Atlantic was also a bearish influence. Opening unchanged to 5-8 off, wheat, later declined all around. Corn started unchanged to 3-8 down and subsequently showed a general setback.

SPOT COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 19. (P)—Spot cotton closed steady 10 points down. Sales 633; low middling $6.87; middling $7.32; good middling $7.67; receipts 488; stock 880,040. Mrs. E. B. Stephenson has been ill for the past two or three days. She is feeling somewhat better this morning, though she is still confined to her bed.

RETURN FROM COLORADO

Chas. C. Cook, C. F. Buckler, and C. T. Hunkapiller have returned from Colorado where they enjoyed fishing and golfing for a few days at Rainbow Trout Lodge near Antonia. While away they stopped for a time with Chas. Thomas and family. They reported that the fishing was fair, the sand greens had in that rainy climate. Mr. and Mrs. Ervin C. Davis of LeFors were Pampa shoppers this morning. His attention to navigation of the balloon. The rays, he said, increased in intensity as the altitude of the balloon increased, until "they were like rain on a tin roof." He was too busy with navigation to observe his own sensations, but he recalled that the view from above the Alps was indescribably beautiful. Pending the examination of the instruments, he refused to say more than that he had reached a height of nearly 55,000 feet and encountered temperatures five degrees below zero Fahrenheit inside the spherical aluminum gondola and 67 degrees below on the outside.

International Sunday School Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

General Topic: THE TENT OF MEETING—THE TABERNACLE. Scripture Lesson: Ex. 33:7-16.

7. Now Moses used to take the tent and to pitch it without the camp, afar off from the camp; and he called it The tent of meeting. And it came to pass, that every one that sought Jehovah went out unto the tent of meeting, which was without the camp.

8. And it came to pass, when Moses went out unto the Tent, that all the people rose up, and stood every man at his tent door, and looked after Moses, until he was gone into the Tent.

9. And it came to pass, when Moses entered into the Tent, the pillar of cloud descended, and stood at the door of the Tent: and Jehovah spake with Moses.

10. And all the people saw the pillar of cloud stand at the door of the Tent: and all the people rose up and worshipped, every man at his tent door.

11. And Jehovah spake unto Moses face to face, as a man speaketh unto his friend. And he turned again into the camp; but his minister Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, departed not out of the Tent.

12. And Moses said unto Jehovah, See, thou savest unto me, bring up this people: and thou hast not let me know whom thou wilt send with me. Yet thou hast said, I know thee by name, and thou hast also found favor in my sight.

13. Now, therefore, I pray thee, if I have found favor in thy sight, show me now thy ways, that I may know thee, to the end that I may find favor in thy sight: and consider that this nation is thy people.

14. And he said, My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest.

15. And he said unto him, If thy presence go not with me, carry us not up hence.

16. For wherein now shall it be known that I have found favor in thy sight, I and thy people? Is it not in that thou goest with us, so that we are separated, I and thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth?

17. Golden Text: Jehovah spake unto Moses face to face, as a man speaketh unto his friend—Ex. 33:11. Time: B. C. 1406. Place: At Mt. Sinai.

Introduction
The tent of meeting brought the people to a place that symbolized the presence of Jehovah and made it more vivid and vital. The church is our tent of meeting with God and with one another in religious worship and fellowship; and we need it still. Though our worship is more spiritual than that of the Israelites, yet if we do not have a home and a school for it, it is likely to grow dim and thin, and may fade into a reminiscence.—Snowden.

The great saints of history have all been praying men and women. They did not cultivate God in order to become hermits and recluses, but rather to take their places as workers of their Master's work.—Round Table.

After the Lord had given the Ten Commandments to Israel, Moses again ascended the mount, where he remained for forty days and nights communing with Jehovah, who spoke to him many more of his laws for his people, a record of which we have in Exodus 21-31.

THE GOLDEN CALF
Chapter 32:1-6
While Moses tarried in the mount, the people became restless and perplexed. They went to Aaron and said, "Up, make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot (know) not what is become of him." The request was in direct violation of the Commandments. What did Aaron do? He weakly yielded to the commanding of the people, and made them a golden calf such as they had seen in Egypt. To the people he said, "These be thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt;" he built an altar before it, proclaimed a feast for the following day, and thus led the people to sacrifice and play before the image.

MOSES, THE INTERCESSOR
33:30-33
So it was that Moses, at the command of God, returned from the mount to see his people worshipping the molten image. In his anger he cast down the tables of the law which he had in his hand and destroyed the golden calf. By the next day, however, the anger of Moses had cooled, his love for his people shone through, and we hear him praying that wonderful prayer of intercession. "Oh, this people have made thee a god of gold. Yet now, if thou wilt forgive their sin; and if not, blot me, I pray thee, out of thy book which thou hast written." For answer, the Lord did not destroy them, but withheld his presence and visited them with his displeasure.

"FACE TO FACE"
v. 11
The Lord spake unto Moses face to face, as a man speaketh unto his friend. The whole world's chief thought about God was of power—dread power, protective or vengeful. There was much of awe and fear. But here is Israel, in the infancy of the nation, God reveals himself as one who is ready to come into human life as a friend. No less power, no less majesty, but these bathed in the tenderness of love. Abraham was the friend of God. God spoke to Moses as one friend speaks to another—freely, intimately, giving and inviting utmost confidence.

MOSES' PRAYER
v. 13-16
First is Moses' prayer for himself: "Show me now thy way, that I may know thee, that I may find grace in thy sight." It is for himself, but is far from selfish. It looks in two directions—toward the command of God that he should lead the people out of Egypt and the assurance of his grace that God had given him—and toward the people and the task to which he was committed. The favor that Moses sought was reassurance and re-enforcement for his task. Closely connected, therefore, with the prayer for himself is one for his people: "Consider that this nation is thy people," and (in verses 15, 16) a plea for the Presence of the Lord with them: "If thy presence go not, carry us not up hence." "Can we look at this scene without seeing in it the operation on a lower field of the same great principle of intercession, which reaches its unique example in Jesus Christ? We see in it a foreshadowing of our great High-priest" (MacLaren).

THE ANSWER OF GOD
"There are some kinds of prayer that God does not answer. Recall from the psalmist the futility of the prayer in which one regard iniquity in the heart; and from James, 'Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts.'"

"What then is the kind of prayer that obtains a blessing? In his recent book on The Path of Prayer, Samuel Chadwick speaks of 'the law of faith in prayer' under several heads: (1) Ask. (2) Ask in faith. (3) Ask aright or with the right motive. (4) Ask righteously. The rightness of the asking goes down to the rightness of the asker.' (5) Ask earnestly. (6) Ask in the Spirit. Its source is divine, harmonizing with the revealed purpose of God."

THE "PRESENCE" OF GOD
This the all-sufficient answer to all our needs. "My presence shall go with thee." "The promise of the presences sent Jacob on his way with confidence. It is the same promise that sent Moses from Midian to Egypt to combat all the powers of that great empire, and gave him the courage to face the wilderness with the hosts of Israel. And when at Sinai the people sinned and God withdrew the promise, Moses' heart failed. "If thy presence go not, carry us not up hence." The sense of the Presence is the sine qua non; it is also the one comprehensive grace. "If God be for us, who can be against us?"

Intercession
"Prayer cannot stop at personal need. Even in the inner chamber there is no escape from the impact of those who impinge upon us in the home, the church, and the world. The law of prayer is that each stands alone in the presence of God, just as surely as each one of us shall give account of himself to God, each bearing his own burden, and yet every man bearing the burden of others. There is always a burden. Intercession is vicarious. The Saviour made intercession because he bare the sin of others. Moses made the cause of Israel his own."

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 19. (AP)—Scorning "sissy" poses suggested by news photographers, Babe Didrikson, 19-year-old Dallas Olympic star, paused here in a flight to Chicago long enough to convince skeptics that her clerical ability was in a class with her athletic prowess.

Shortly after she leaped unaided from a plane which brought her from Parsons, Kansas, the Dallas athlete was asked if she was employed by an insurance company there because of her athletic ability.

The question provoked a fire of anger from the lean, muscular girl champion.

"I do clerical work, and I do it well," she retorted. "Babe didn't ask the critic to take her word for it. With long, springing strides she led a crowd to a hangar. There she seated herself at a typewriter and offered ample proof of her assertion."

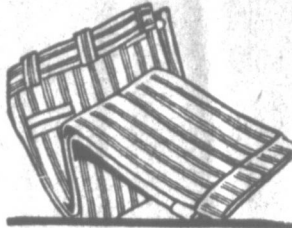

TOWN'S CLAIM ECHOES
SAINT CLOUD, France, Aug. 19. (AP)—An action has been started by this municipality to recover from Germany a clock and a library taken 60 years ago.

The claim is based on article 245 of the Versailles treaty which requires Germany to return all objects of art seized in war.

In 1871, when the Germans occupied the town, the historic chateau caught fire. The Germans removed all valuable objects and later some belonging to the late Empress Eugenie were returned. The clock and library, it is claimed, were held.

NO WET-DRY ISSUE IS RAISED IN GUBERNATORIAL CAMPAIGNS

AUSTIN, Aug. 19. (AP)—Although the prohibition issue has entered somewhat into the campaign for the three congressional-at-large places in the run-off of democratic primary, little on that subject is being said with respect to the gubernatorial race.

Nothing is being said by the woman's Christian Temperance Union and some of the ultra-dry have announced their intention of supporting the renomination of Governor R. S. Sterling, the wet and dry line-up seems to have been avoided.

Governor Sterling maintains he always has been a teetotaler prohibitionist. He was attacked in the first primary by M. H. Wolfe of Dallas, ardent dry, who wanted the nomination himself, as an insincere prohibitionist, but the Sterling forces paid little or no attention to it.

The Fergusons have not said much about prohibition, although James E. Ferguson, during his tenure beginning in 1914 was an anti-prohibitionist. He always has been regarded as a teetotaler personally.

Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, the candidate this time, did not have anything to say about the prohibition question in her platform, and neither did Sterling.

The Fergusons were present in their home precinct convention when delegates were chosen to the state convention. James E. took a part in the debate upon a resolution endorsing the democratic national platform demand for repeal of the eighteenth amendment and proposing repeal of the Dean law. Texas state statutory prohibition statute.

It is suggested that the subject be split into two resolutions, one commending the national platform and the other dealing with the Dean law repeal. He said to treat both proposals as one might be unfair to democrats who were willing to be on record as to the national plank and not favorable to the Dean law change. His suggestion was followed and both resolutions were adopted.

Texas are apt to hear much of prohibition in the general election campaign next fall. While both major parties, since President Herbert Hoover's recent declaration in connection with his acceptance of renomination, are regarded as wet, it is very likely the drys will not consider the republicans as "dripping" as the democrats, in view of the latter's stand for out-and-out repeal.

The agitation bearing on the comparative dampness of the two major parties will arouse plenty of interest, which probably will be augmented by the republican nominee for governor advocating retention of the eighteenth amendment and strict enforcement of all prohibition laws.

Crylle Bullington of Wichita Falls, the G. O. P. gubernatorial choice, snapped into action instantly for rigid enforcement of Texas prohibition laws a few minutes after he had been given the nomination.

Some one asked him how he stood on the Dean law while he was declining for inequivalent support of the eighteenth amendment. He predicted that no party would ever again have the audacity to propose repeal after "the people soak next November." He wanted to know what the Dean law was and when someone told him he said he was for scolding bootleggers to the penitentiary "from no on-out" if that was necessary to stop the sale of "poison liquor to the boys and girls." He made the speech and his prediction of dire happenings to a party that proposed repeal of the prohibition amendment before President Hoover made the board assertions he did on the subject in his speech of acceptance.

"Spiderweb" Retains Steam Locomotives

SAN BENITO, Aug. 19. (AP)—The "galloping goose" as an earlier type of locomotive on the San Benito and Rio Grande valley railroad was known, gave place in its time to a more modern machine but the later model has given way to a motor car.

The "spiderweb," as the railroad is known because of its ramifications, still has steam locomotives but the motor car takes the regular passenger run.

So well does this railroad cover the territory that there are very few farms which are not within a very few miles of a loading station.

Mother Alexis came to this section eleven years ago to organize support of the two hospitals. She guided the Clayton institution through its first years and for the past year and a half has been in charge here.

Karankawa Graves Are Unearthed By University Group

BEAUMONT, Aug. 19. (AP)—Well-preserved skeletons of Karankawa Indians, some 50 in number, have been excavated from the shell burying mound near Caplen, Texas, by anthropologists from the University of Texas, it was announced by A. M. Woolsey, head of the excavation crew.

The graves are estimated by Woolsey to be 200 years old, possibly older and are the first Karankawa graves ever unearthed by experts. The Karankawa Indians were the dreaded cannibal tribe which inhabited the beaches of the Gulf of Mexico from Brownsville east to sections of the Louisiana coast.

The bodies were found to lie in three tiers, in a formation of heavy clam shell. Some were buried in sitting positions. Few ornaments other than beads were found with the skeletons, and only a few crude implements.

The finer specimens were packed and sent to the university where they will be studied, finally to be placed in the university museum.

Many persons at Galveston, Beaumont and other communities of the section have long known of the burial ground, and amateurs have made some investigation. In 1912 Boy Scouts took several skeletons and some beads from the shell mound. Attention of the anthropologists, however, only recently was called to the discovery.

Black Bear Gives Texas Men Fright

QUANAH, Aug. 19. (AP)—A large black bear in Yellowstone park gave Will Cotton and Kelsey Chesshir a "thrill" when they returned to their parked car near a stream where they had been fishing during a recent visit to the government reservation. They had placed their morning catch in the back of the car, and during their absence brown came along and proceeded to breakfast off the catch. When the men returned the bear refused to leave peacefully. Cotton urged his departure with an accurately placed rock to the head. Retreating, the bear tore out the backs of the seats and scarred the side of the car. Chesshir makes no

State Designation Of Highway Urged

DALHART, Aug. 19. (AP)—The Dalhart chamber of commerce is planning to send two men to San Haw's, highway commission chairman, at Oklahoma City, to urge designation of highway 41. Efforts are being made to get two men from Cimarron county, Okla., to accompany them. Texas will designate the road if Oklahoma will, according to agreement. The road runs from Oklahoma City through Pampa, Tex., to Dalhart and then north to Boise City, Okla.

Lindley Hatfield, Auburn football star, will coach football at Center, Ala., the coming season.

TOO MUCH CHEESE SPOILS ITALIANS TRIP TO U. S. A.

PALERMO, Sicily, Aug. 19. (AP)—Four men who tried to slowway cheese, were caught as they were being loaded onto a ship here and were jailed.

They were shipping themselves in three large boxes, one of which was filled with water and food and all of which were billed as choice brands of cheese.

The size of the boxes aroused suspicion and led to their discovery.

POLITICS

By BYRON PRICE
(Chief of Bureau, The Associated Press, Washington)

Those who expected the republicans to rely solely on a defensive attitude during the campaign have found several surprises in President Hoover's speech of acceptance.

In conspicuous fashion, that speech marked a wide departure from Mr. Hoover's campaign strategy of four years ago. It is true that long passages were devoted to the glorification of republican doctrine, after a manner reminiscent of 1928. But on the two most-discussed issues, the republican nominee attacked the democrats both directly and indirectly.

On the score of the depression, he warned repeatedly against "demagogues" and radical proposals, and set a whole string of red danger lights against "destructive" democratic tariff policies, treasury "tricks" and "wild schemes" of inflation.

On the score of prohibition, he charged that the democratic repeal proposal would bring back the moon, attended by ruin, and asked the country to put its faith instead in a "wise solution."

In other words, Mr. Hoover clearly set out to brand the opposition as thoroughly un dependable in a crisis and thoroughly wet.

A Change From 1928

This all sounds very different from the Hoover campaign speeches of 1928, in which the very existence of the democratic party and candidate were all but ignored. The change is readily understandable when changed political conditions are taken into account.

Four years ago the republican leaders were content to wage a somewhat colorless campaign. It fitted the times, and it fitted the republican conviction that if Governor Smith, the democratic nominee, were left alone, he would be defeated without much republican effort. Smith made himself the issue, and politicians agree that hundreds of thousands just went out and voted "against Smith."

This year circumstances and the hammering of a never-sleeping democratic headquarters in Washington have in large measure made Mr. Hoover the issue. Rightly or wrongly, his administration has become closely linked in many minds with the depression. The democratic managers are hoping that if they themselves make no major blunders, millions will go out and vote "against Hoover."

Obviously, the republicans have no intention of playing that end of the game if they can avoid it.

G. O. P. On Offensive

The way to avoid it, the republican managers are not only to defend what Mr. Hoover has done, but to take the aggressive along the principal salients of the campaign front.

Some of this had come out before:

The nest is made in a hole in the earth, or among loose stones, and only one egg is laid. For several weeks after the young bird is hatched, it is fed on a diet consisting of a rich oil, which is brought up from the crops of the parent birds.

WOMAN IS PUBLISHER

NEW YORK, Aug. 19. (AP)—Katharine Dougherty, for twelve years secretary, treasurer and business manager of Photoplay magazine, has been chosen to succeed James R. Quirk, recently deceased publisher and president. Miss Dougherty became associated with the magazine seventeen years ago as a bookkeeper at $15 a week. She will retain the office of treasurer.

and operation of building and loan associations also were proposed.

Submitting the subject of legislation to enable "home owners to immediately avail themselves of the benefits of the home loan bank law recently enacted by the congress of the United States, making provision for the financing and extension of loans on resident homesteads," the governor also paved the way for consideration of changes in the so-called insurance law.

In proposing that the legislature "amend the laws of Texas governing the investment of life insurance companies," it was indicated the governor had the Robertson insurance law in mind.

Repeal of amendments to the Robertson insurance law, which stipulated that out of state insurance companies shall invest in Texas securities or real estate seventy-five per cent of its legal reserve, has been a controversial subject before several legislatures.

FIND ALL-BRAN HAS TWICE THE USABLE IRON IN LIVER

Also Furnishes "Bulk" and Vitamin B to Overcome Common Constipation

Liver is known as a good source of iron for the blood. Now, new tests show Kellogg's ALL-BRAN contains twice as much blood-building iron as an equal amount by weight of beef liver.

But more important still, laboratory experiments show ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and Vitamin B to tone the intestinal tract.

This means Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is a fine way to overcome constipation—with the headaches, loss of appetite and energy that so frequently result.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of lettuce. Inside the body, it absorbs moisture, forming a soft mass, which gently clears the intestines of wastes. Special cooking processes make ALL-BRAN finer, milder, more palatable.

How much better than rinking pills and drugs—so often habit-forming. Just eat two tablespoonfuls of ALL-BRAN daily for most types of constipation. It is not habit-forming. If your intestinal trouble is not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Governor Sterling Calls For Session —Names Subjects

AUSTIN, Aug. 19. (AP)—Governor R. S. Sterling has summoned the Texas legislature to meet in extraordinary session Tuesday, August 30, at 10 a. m. to consider tax relief legislation and other matters.

Reserving the right to submit other subjects "of public imperative importance" from time to time, the governor in his proclamation specifically mentioned three subjects of proposed "relief."

The first was legislation to enable the state to assume payment of interest and principal on county and district road bonds issued for state highway construction.

Release of interest and penalties on delinquent taxes if paid before January 31, 1933, and amendments to laws governing investment of funds of life insurance companies fore; Mr. Hoover's speech emphasized it and put an authority behind it which is sure to have great effect in shaping the utterances of lesser republican lights from now on.

How far it will change the democratic plans does not yet appear. The Roosevelt leaders will not be diverted easily from their desire to keep the republicans on the defensive, although, of course, they will take steps at once to divest themselves of the labels Mr. Hoover has sought to attach to them.

However, it comes out, the line of strategy indicated in Mr. Hoover's speech is sure to heighten public interest in the campaign, because the public does not like to see all of the blows struck by one side.

MUTE CHORUS WINS STRIKE

BELGRADE, Aug. 19. (AP)—Because they couldn't collect long overdue salaries, the chorus singers of the Jugoslavain state opera here started a "sound strike" in the midst of a performance, opening their mouths wide but making no sound. They got their money.

OLYMPICS, BONUS MARCHERS, NEW TANK SHOWN IN NEWSREEL

The most stirring athletic event in the history of the world, the Tenth Olympiad at the gigantic stadium in Los Angeles, is reported in all its colorful and inspiring detail in the current issue of the Pampa Daily NEWS - Universal Newsreel. Gathered from the four corners of the globe, bearing the flags and hopes of thirty-nine nations, the cream of the earth's athletes present a remarkable sight as they assemble to take the famous Olympic oath of true sportsmanship. The reel is at the La Nora theater today.

With 105 spectators wildly cheering, the celebrated March of the Nations moves around the vast amphitheater and the 2,000 contestants in their variegated costumes mass before Vice-President Curtis as he formally opens the historic meet. The huge Olympic torch flames high, a great chorus chants the Olympic hymn and Lieut. George C. Calman, U. S. N., takes the sacred oath for his comrades. The full beauty and impressiveness of the ceremony in all its glory is depicted in the newsreel.

Another outstanding event of the day, reported by Graham McNamee, ace of radio announcers and the screen's talking reporter, is the reorganization of the Bonus Army at Johnstown, Pa., following its rout and the retreat from Washington. The rapidity with which these ex-soldiers dig in, set up their tents and shacks and begin to forage for food, gives ample proof of their campaign experience.

In strange comparison with the footsore "bonusers," the newsreel gives a startling insight into the next war, showing the amazing trial run of a new armored tank that travels at 112 miles an hour on roads, 60 miles an hour over rough ground and leaps trenches twelve feet wide. A record parachute jumper, establishing a world mark of fourteen consecutive "hops" makes still another interesting subject, and the outboard motorboat trophy races on the World's Fair lagoon in Chicago, provides a number of outstanding thrills.

One of the most striking chapters of the newsreel, however, is a series of scenes showing new factories opening up and crowds of workmen back on the job as a result of the upward trend in industry, an optimistic note that truly exemplifies the rapidly rising tide of public confidence.

Sister MARY'S KITCHEN

By SISTER MARY NEA Service Writer

Pears of some variety are in the market almost the whole year through, but the delicious Bartlett pear is at its best during August and September. Many other high quality varieties follow the Bartlett, prolonging the season into the late fall.

In spite of their seeming sweetness, pears are somewhat acid and consequently are an excellent tonic fruit. Their flavor is refreshing, tending to tone up a tired summer appetite. Used fresh in salads, fruit cups and desserts, or as a breakfast fruit, they provide a welcome change.

Unlike most fruits, pears are best picked green and allowed to ripen in storage. In this way the fruit develops better flavor and finer texture than tree-ripened. In choosing pears, those on the verge of greenness rather than ripeness are desirable.

Baked Pears

Baked pears may be prepared like baked apples and are especially good for breakfast with bacon and eggs. If wanted for dessert, they can be pared and cored, sprinkled with sugar and baked, covered, in a moderate oven for an hour.

Served with whipped cream and ginger cookies, they make an inviting last course for an August dinner. Two tablespoons sugar for each pear makes the fruit pleasantly sweet for the average taste. A little powdered ginger mixed with the sugar adds zest to the fruit, too.

Stuffed pear salad always is popular, and when fresh, perfectly ripe fruit is used the salad is delicious.

Cream cheese mixed with preserved ginger and finely chopped nut meats is a delectable combination. Chill.

Tomorrow's Menu

BREAKFAST: Chilled melon balls, oatmeal, cream, broiled tomatoes, pop-overs, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON: Sweet corn soufflé, creamed green peppers, chilled baked pears with whipped cream, ginger cookies, milk, tea.

DINNER: Steamed haddock, shoestring potatoes, creamed green beans, cucumber and lettuce salad, sautéed pears in chocolate sauce, milk, coffee.

Vice Presidential Candidates Hold Spotlight Today

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19. (AP)—Save for echoes of President Hoover's acceptance speech and the daily grind from the still politically impendable personal inquiry by Governor Roosevelt into the case of Mayor Walker, vice presidential nominees took over the national campaign as another week rolled by.

A high point for political discussion lay in Vice President Curtis with French dressing to which orange juice has been added.

Fritters made with pears are very good, too. Served with ginger sauce, pear fritters make a fitting dessert for a September vegetable dinner. Pare fruit and cut in very thin slices. Drop into fritter batter and fry in deep hot fat.

unqualified declaration in accepting renomination as Mr. Hoover's excursion from his Texas home of Speaker Garner, democratic rival for the vice presidency, to attempt in person the enlistment of Alfred E. Smith's active support of the Roosevelt-Garner ticket vied for attention with the Curtis speech.

Mr. Curtis, speaking at his notification ceremonies at Topeka, added fuel to the fire of prohibition discussion precipitated by president and Curtis position is to be expected. Their own candidates are pledged to repeal both personally and by platform.

To complicate the vexed picture of the place prohibition will have in the election, Bishop James Cannon Jr., contributed from Switzerland where he is traveling his awaited statement as to the Hoover prohibition views. He charged the president had "surrendered" on prohibition enforcement.

Specialists In Cancer Cases of Much Importance

The selection of a physician is always the most important factor and is frequently the greatest problem in the care of cancer cases, since a favorable outcome often depends so much upon the accurate diagnosis and competent treatment from the very beginning.

The family physician is generally the first person with whom the patient makes contact. Upon his judgment the final result often depends. He usually finds it necessary to refer the case to a specialist who is more familiar with this type of disease and possess the required skill and suitable equipment for its accurate diagnosis and correct treatment.

If there is no family physician, reliable advice may usually be obtained from the local medical society, the local hospital, the local nursing association or other local health agencies. In rural areas the county nurse or the state health department may be helpful.

Lack of funds need not discourage a patient from seeking competent medical service. All physicians of recognized ability give due consideration to the financial situation of the patient, and all reputable hospitals regulate their charges accordingly.

Under no circumstances it is wise to select for the treatment of cancer a physician who advertises and promises a cure for cancer, or demands that a fee be paid in advance, or is not willing to call another physician in consultation. Such methods are not practiced by reputable medical men.

Every case of cancer is so serious and so urgent that it is criminal to waste valuable time and money by trifling with non-medical persons who are utterly incompetent to treat this disease.

Tips on CONTRACT

Avoiding No-Trump Overcalls
By TOM O'NEIL

It often is better to name a suit rather than no-trump after an opponent has opened the bidding. A no-trump offer tips off the enemy how to finesse. The expert prefers in such situations to overcall with a suit, even highly shaded, until he sees how his partner is fixed.

Here is a hand in which a no-trump overcall, even with a fair hand, was termed "horrible" by such a master as Waldemar von Zedwitz:

Having a good hand with two five-card biddable suits, Reith started with the major, bidding one spade. Bosowitz, having the spades stopped, offered one no-trump.

Karn could not see game possible from his hand, unless Reith had better than a minimum opening, so he doubled the one no-trump, confident of being able to set it.

Von Zedwitz passed and Reith bid three clubs, one more than necessary, a force upon partner commanding him to keep the bidding open until a game contract should be reached.

Bosowitz and von Zedwitz passed during the rest of the auction. Over the three clubs Karn offered three no-trump. Reith went to four clubs and Karn closed offers with four spades.

Success for the declarer was due largely to leading the seven of spades and letting it ride when Bosowitz failed to cover. The no-trump bid by Bosowitz gave a tip as to the probability of a successful finesse.

"Horrible bid, Hubby," said von Zedwitz as Reith was tallying up the count of game and rubber. "If anything, you should have bid two diamonds."

In that case the final contract probably would have been the same, but the chances are that Reith would not have taken a deep finesse and would have been set. Here was the play:

HOW'S your HEALTH?

Edited by the New York Academy of Medicine
V. Iago Goldston

ACID AND ALKALINE FOODS.

The idea that certain foods are acid and others alkaline has been widespread for many years, and many confusing and erroneous conclusions have been drawn.

Thus, for example, it was believed that tomatoes are acid-producing, and that fruits and milk must never be mixed because of their "chemical disharmony."

Many of these ideas and impressions date from the earliest days of the science of physiological chemistry, a science that has developed but recently.

Foods were then tested for their chemical reaction and were found to be either slightly or markedly alkaline, slightly or markedly acid, or neutral.

With the advance of the science of physiological chemistry it became apparent that the reaction of the food outside of the body and its effect upon the body when eaten may differ very markedly.

This is particularly true of so-called acid foods. A pointed illustration of this may be found in the so-called citrus fruits.

These fruits, including oranges, lemons and grapefruit, when tested by the common method employed by chemists react as acids. Yet when eaten and subjected to the various chemical changes which they normally undergo within the body, they leave an alkaline residue.

This is recent years has led to the use of acid fruit juices in the place, for example, of so distinctly an alkaline substance as sodium bicarbonate.

Tests have shown that protein or meat foods and cereals give rise, as a rule, to acid end products in the body whereas fruits and vegetables on the contrary tend to alkalinity. Milk is intermediate in its end results.

For its normal working the body requires acid as well as alkaline foods. The alkaline foods have no dominant virtues.

We hear a good deal about acidosis, but less about alkalosis. Nevertheless alkalosis may be as distinctly abnormal as acidosis.

WATCHES EGGS HATCH
FREDRICKSBURG, Aug. 18 (AP)—Whether Max Beckmann, a merchant of Stonewall, is prepared to offer proof of his statements as Ripley does, was not mentioned in a news story in the Fredericksburg STANDARD last week.

According to the STANDARD, Beckmann said that a hen he had been setting on eggs in a peach orchard near his home got so hot and uncomfortable that she left the nest to stand in the shade and quietly watched the sun hatch ten baby chicks out of the eggs.

Memory of Soldier To Be Perpetuated

CLEBURNE, Aug. 19 (AP)—The memory of Col Middleton Johnson, soldier and statesman, for whom Johnson county was named, will be perpetuated by the Johnson county pioneers and Old Settlers association.

A committee of Dr. C. A. Schultz, Mrs. J. B. Campbell and Walter Murphree, Alvarado, has been named to either erect a monument over the grave of Col. Johnson at Johnson station near Mansfield in Farintosh county, or have the remains disinterred and taken to Austin for burial in the state cemetery.

Col. Johnson organized a Texas regiment to fight in the war with Mexico under Gen. Zachary Taylor. He served in the civil war and he was a leader of rangers in frontier defense.

Babe Says Keeping House Too Hard

CHICAGO, Aug. 19 (AP)—It seems certain that Mildred Didrikson, the Texas girl who runs more hurdles in less time than any other lass in the world, isn't think about getting married.

"Marriage," she said here last night, "is just a decahthon."

"I'm an all-around athlete but there are ten events to do in a day that would wear me out." She named them as follows:

Dish washing, scrubbing, washing, cooking meals, caring for the baby, cleaning the house, going to the grocer, hanging up the ice card, making the beds, and darning socks.

WOULD SAVE MANSION

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 19 (AP)—A $2,500,000 Moorish castle built by Death Valley Scotty and A. M. Johnson, wealthy Chicago insurance man, in Death Valley, Calif., is located on land with-drawn by the government for a national park.

Johnson, who visited Denver Saturday to ascertain whether his "mystery mansion" was endangered, has filed a formal protest against the withdrawal.

No wonder Kellogg's Whole Wheat Flakes are so popular. You've never tasted such delicious, crunchy wheat flakes.

And just compare the size of the big Kellogg package! It certainly is economical. Ask your grocer for this new cereal. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

New Airport May Be Dedicated By F. D. Roosevelt

BEAUMONT, Aug. 19. (AP)—Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt may come to Beaumont for the formal dedication of its new airport, recently finished at a cost of approximately $100,000.

Replying to an invitation sent the democratic candidate for the presidency, James A. Farley, chairman of the democratic national committee, said, "be assured that I will do everything possible to have Governor Roosevelt there for the dedication."

A plane will be placed at his disposal on any occasion he wishes to come south, it was announced by President Cohn of the American Airways.

Final decision of Governor Roosevelt largely will determine the date of the dedication ceremony. The new airport has been accepted by the city and is in use. Dedication plans are going forward.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN Washington

By RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON.—The plain, old-fashioned middle class type of woman seems to be getting the best breaks in politics.

The flashier, more sophisticated gals who go in for the more important elective jobs have had some, but not as great a degree of success and frequently they have been getting it in the neck.

Here's nice, unassuming Mrs. Nettie Garner of Arkansas, considered a lonely, pathetic figure in the life of this capital, suddenly becoming the first woman in history to win an equivalent election nomination for a full six-year term in the Senate.

Other women, wealthier, more dazzling and more used to public life, have tried or yearned for such an honor, but it remained for this motherly little widow in black to turn the trick in a contest with half a dozen men who had originally supposed that she would "know her place" and retire from the Senate to which she had been sent briefly as a gallant gesture.

From Arkansas Plantation

Mrs. Garner, well educated and keenly intelligent despite her retiring disposition, comes from the same kind of people who produced Mrs. Nettie Garner, wife of the speaker of the House, and Mrs. Dolly Gann, hostess and half-sister of Vice-President Curtis—two women the political success of whose men folks have lodged them in the very highest social position.

Mrs. Garner came from an Arkansas plantation, Mrs. Gann from a Texas ranch and Mrs. Gann from a Kansas farm. They are of different types, but each has a background of simple domesticity, which contrasts with the wealth and original social position of other widely known women who have sought to advance far in the political or social life of the capital.

Another Trio

Consider another trio—Ruth Hains McCormick, Ruth Bryan Owen and Alice Longworth, daughters of famous men—Mark Hanna, William Jennings Bryan and Teddy Roosevelt.

They are attractive in personality, credited with political acumen and possessed of wit, grace, liveliness, good features and charm. It's a far wealthier group than the other three women we were talking about.

But they have all been having bad luck and they must sit and observe Mrs. Garner, Mrs. Gann and Mrs. Gann on top of the heap.

Mrs. McCormick, who was considered the country's most able woman politician and had plenty of money to finance her Illinois campaigns, won a nomination and election in statewide vote for congresswoman-at-large. She lost no time in seeking Senator Charles Deneen when he sought renomination and it appeared for a while that the first woman to become a senator in a regular election would be Ruth.

But between the wet-dry issue, the bye-election fund's investigation, the antics of Jim Ham Lewis and some fancy double-crossing, Ruth took a very bad licking in November, 1930, and fell out of Congress.

The Owen Case

Congressman Owen was intensely interested in the campaign of her close friend Mrs. McCormick because she, too, was planning to run for the Senate against Duncan Fletcher, the incumbent.

But time went on and prospects of landing that job became increasingly dim. Ruth Owen decided for the time being to forget it. And then when this year's primaries came along it developed that she couldn't even retain her seat in the House—apparently because she didn't turn out fast enough to please the voters.

Mrs. Longworth, often suggested as a candidate for one public office or another, never ran for anything. But she did undertake to assert herself, while her late husband was speaker, as high-ranking social queen of Washington in a memorable contest with Dolly Gann. Mrs. Gann won the decision and soon afterward Mrs. Garner came into the official social position previously held by Mrs. Longworth.

DEMOCRATIC STANDARD BEARERS MEET

"Well, how are you, John?" "Jimmy but you look fine, Governor!" ... It was the first time since the opening of the Democratic national campaign that Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt, the party's presidential nominee, had met his running mate, Speaker John Garner. And here you see them—Governor Roosevelt at the left—as they stood together on the speaker's stand during a cornerstone laying ceremony for a new armory at Peekskill, N. Y. Afterward they conferred on arrangements for the campaign.

A. D. 1932 in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 3249, wherein E. M. Millard is Plaintiff, and Lola Millard is Defendant, and a brief statement of plaintiff's cause of action, being as follows:
