

THREE CHARGED IN ROBBERY CASE

Deputy Killed By Suspects In Bank Robbery

PLAINVIEW MAN SHOT DOWN AT RANCH

FORTALES, N. M., Aug. 20. (P)—Posses near Tatum, N. M., this afternoon captured two men suspected of bank robbery who earlier today shot and killed one deputy sheriff and seriously wounded another at the Peabody ranch 48 miles southeast of Fortales.

Officers were undetermined whether the two men caught, Lee Peabody and Stanley Hedrick, had one or two companions. They believed at least one man jumped from the car in which Peabody and Hedrick were riding, and was in hiding near Bledsoe, Texas.

Neither Peabody nor Hedrick put up a fight when the officers overtook them at the Dalmont ranch 12 miles from Tatum, although they were heavily armed. Peabody was seriously wounded in an exchange of shots earlier in the day with a posse and physicians said he probably will not live.

Searching Fields.
A posse tonight was searching cornfields near Bledsoe for the one or two men who escaped them.

The shooting occurred early this morning when Sheriff Bob Crim of Lamb county, Texas, with a posse of seven New Mexico and Texas officers went to the Peabody ranch with a warrant for the arrest of Peabody, Hedrick, and A. C. Hunsucker, whom they suspected of participating in the robbery of the Olton, Texas, bank a month ago.

A group of men came out of the Peabody house and were commanded to "stick up your hands."

Deputy Is Killed.
For reply the men sent a volley of shots into the posse, killing Deputy Sheriff Harve Bollin, Plainview, Texas, and seriously wounding R. L. Hollis, Portales, appointed a special deputy to participate in the arrests.

Officers were undetermined whether there were three or four men in the group that came out of the house. The officers exchanged fire with them and were positive they wounded one or possibly two.

REWARD WILL TEND TO CURB ILLEGAL VOTE

GOVERNOR STRIKES AT PRACTICE SEEN RECENTLY

$500 HAS BEEN POSTED

PROOF OF FRAUD WILL BE SOUGHT BY STATE

AUSTIN, Aug. 20. (P)—Accusations that Texas' first democratic primary last month attracted many illegal votes into the ballot boxes, moved Governor Sterling, himself a candidate, to offer rewards today for information leading to convictions based on violations of laws governing elections.

The run-off primary campaign neared an end with the voting only one week away. Approach of election day served to accentuate the sharp contest between Governor Sterling and Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, ex-governor, for the gubernatorial nomination. Sterling and James E. Ferguson, Mrs. Ferguson's former governor husband and chief spokesman were juggling each other severely as they entered the last lap.

The Sterling camp, soon after a summation of the vote, said that there was overwhelming evidence of illegal voting in certain counties.

A group of counties was cited where votes cast in each far exceeded the number of poll tax receipts issued.

W. O. Huggins of Houston, chairman of the state democratic executive committee, supported the Sterling claims of illegal voting. He said there was "unmistakable" evidence, uncovered by the committee's official canvass of the first primary, that "illegal votes had been wilyly allowed to be cast."

Huggins appointed a sub-committee of the executive group to in-

L. T. Hill Firm Is To Close Monday To Begin Moving

The L. T. Hill company will close Monday to permit removal of its large stock to the new building just remodeled according to the needs of the firm at 213 North Cuyler.

The re-opening at the new location will be at 9 a. m. Thursday, it was announced yesterday by Nat. Featherington, manager.

The new building will permit moving of the large clothing and shoe section nearer the front, and it is believed that the public will find the arrangement particularly pleasing. New, compact display ideas have been worked out, with a lighting scheme which will enable customers to examine the merchandise minutely, according to Mr. Featherington.

Somewhat larger floor space, arranged in a long rectangle, will be completely filled with seasonal merchandise for the formal re-opening.

Former Captive Of Indians Dies In California

Early Panhandle history has been recalled in connection with the death of Mrs. Katherine Swerdfefer, at Atascadero, Calif., news of which has been received by T. D. Hobart.

Mrs. Swerdfefer, about 77 years old, was captured by the Cheyenne Indians in 1874 and with three sisters was kept captive for several months. Two of her sisters were rescued in the famous raid on Black Kettle's camp in Gray county, and she and her other sister were given up to General Miles a few weeks later.

Mrs. Swerdfefer was an honor-ary life member of the Panhandle-Plains Historical society.

SCOUTS WILL GO TO ANNUAL CAMP MONDAY

Adult Leaders Are To Go Ahead Of Group

Boy Scouts of the Abbe Walls council will leave tomorrow morning for Camp Cima Del Mundo (top of the world) 18 miles from Las Vegas, N. M., in the Gallinas river area in the Sangre de Cristo mountains.

The Pampa boys will leave from the high school gymnasium at 5 o'clock in buses. Their equipment will be sent by truck. They should arrive in camp in plenty of time for a hot supper prepared by Jack Bynum and adult leaders who will be in camp early.

The boys have been instructed to carry lunches to eat on the way as a long stop will not be made at noon. Camp will last ten days.

At noon yesterday, 30 boys had paid their camp fees and were ready to make the trip. Of that number, 38 were from Pampa, 32 from Borger and Whittenburg, four from Wheeler, three from Panhandle and three from Pollett.

Work at the camp will be under adult leader, C. A. Clarke, executive of the council, will be camp director. He will be assisted by the Rev. A. A. Hyde, president of the

Woman Record Makers To Stick Until Monday

CURTISS FIELD, N. Y., Aug. 20 With new minutes added to their women's endurance flight record every time they wheeled over Curtiss field, Mrs. Frances Marsalis and Mrs. Louise Thaden planned tonight to fly so long that "no other women could touch that record."

When they first took off the pair said they hoped to "stay up a week." It seemed a long time then, but today, with everything going well and the end of the week in sight, they decided to delay their landing still further.

"We won't be down until Monday," they notified their ground crew, "maybe not until Wednesday."

PAMPA LIONS GIVE PROGRAM AT SHAMROCK FRIDAY NIGHT

About fifty Lions and ladies of the Pampa club enjoyed the hospitality of the Shamrock club in an inter-city dinner meeting Friday evening.

The local group was welcomed at the banquet entrance by H. P. Mundy, president of the Shamrock organization. The toastmaster was Clayton Heare, young Shamrock attorney.

The program, however, was presented by the Pampa delegation with President John Sturgeon of the Pampa club presiding. He called on District governor C. H. Walker to discuss "The 100 Per Cent Lions Club" and on Judge Ivy E. Dun-

New PAMPA DAY Features Are Planned

CITY PROVIDES FUN FOR OLD AND FOR TOTS

FREE FILMS RETAINED ON DEMAND OF PUBLIC

CARNIVAL OF BARGAINS ANOTHER BIG CROWD IS EXPECTED TO BE PRESENT

PAMPA DAY—next Tuesday—will offer the usual attractions with some innovations which are sure to please young and old. Absolutely free entertainment is acceptable anytime, but especially so now.

The day will be opened by free movies at both the Rex and the La-Nora theaters. The movie programs will open at 9:30 o'clock, with a repetition of program at 10:30 a. m. for late arrivals.

Pampa merchants, who have always cooperated with The NEWS and the theaters in making PAMPA DAY a success, are going to have an unusually big part in the coming event. A regular carnival of values will be apparent in every store participating in PAMPA DAY.

Pampa stores are piled high with bargains which probably never again will be available to people of this territory. Rock-bottom prices on all summer articles will attract buyers, and what is even more interesting to many is the fact that the merchants have made exceptionally fortunate purchases in the eastern markets and are offering new fall merchandise at prices which a few months ago were below the cost of production.

And in addition to the carnival of bargains there will be other features, some similar to those on other PAMPA DAYS and some absolutely new in plan. Remember, PAMPA DAY is really and truly a coming-for-nothing occasion on which this city welcomes everyone who visits the business section and provides enjoyment for all. And on this occasion, the children will be permitted to participate only in the free shows.

For additional details of PAMPA DAY read the best story at the lower right-hand corner of this page.

Pampa-LeFors Nine Beaten at Borger

BORGER, Aug. 20. (Sp)—Phillips 66 of Borger lost to Texola in a heavy hitting affair this afternoon to open the Borger HERALD baseball tournament, 12 to 14.

The scoring: R H E Phillips 66.....12 15 4 Texola.....14 12 4 Ellis, Haddock, Dillon, Craig, and Francis; Knight, Hawkins, Chody, and Fant.

The second game was much tighter, with the Looney Cafe team of Borger defeating the Pampa-LeFors entry, 6 to 5. Shriver of Pampa hit a home run.

The scoring: Pampa-LeFors.....5 6 2 Looney Cafe.....6 13 2

Texola went up against Panhandle in a late night game, Dumas having drawn a bye. It was announced that the Masatos team of Oklahoma City would likely enter the tourney. Four defeats are necessary to eliminate a team, and the tourney will last more than a week.

GARNER RAPPED BY CONNECTICUT MAN

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20. (AP)—Representative Tilson of Connecticut in a statement issued through the republican national committee here assailed Speaker Garner anew for the public works section of the relief bill he introduced in the closing weeks of congress.

Asserting that the speaker "excuses his pork barrel postoffice measure which would have cost the taxpayers a billion dollars by saying that it was drawn overnight," Tilson said.

"That isn't any excuse. It may have been drawn overnight but there certainly was ample time for the speaker to have changed it completely before he forced his party colleagues to approve it in a party caucus. It was this action that forced through the house of representatives the most gigantic pork barrel measure in all the history of the country."

ENROLLMENT MAY SURPASS SCHOOL LIST

But Enumeration Is Smaller Than Last Year By Large Number.

Information gathered recently by school officials in rural districts adjoining the Pampa Independent School district, indicates that the enrollment for the school term which opens Sept. 5 may better the scholastic enumeration of the 2,856 pupils, repeating the history of the last three sessions.

The increase, if any, will include a larger number of transfers than last year. An unofficial survey made this week in the west part of the county showed, for instance, on one bus route an increase of 10 pupils over last year. The transfer enrollment has been growing for several years. At the beginning of last term, 12 buses were hauling pupils to Pampa to school, but before the term got well underway it was necessary to increase this number to 14.

Despite the larger number of transfers and the fact that for several years the enrollment has exceeded the scholastic enumeration, school officials would not predict the possible enrollment. "We'll know more about it after the first week of registration," Joe Smith, financial manager of the system, said.

Meanwhile, the school board is awaiting the return of Supt. R. E. Fisher from New York where he has been attending Columbia university, before it tackles many school

Walker To Query High GOP Chiefs

NEW YORK, Aug. 20. (P)—Mayor James J. Walker, who has described himself as the chief executive of the largest democratic center in the United States, prepared himself today to ask some questions in Albany next week of eight of the most important republican leaders in the state.

They have been subpoenaed to appear as his witnesses at the hearing before Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt on charges demanding his removal from office.

It is likely the mayor will question them himself, and it has been indicated the questions will cover the statement issued through the legislative investigation of his administration began, that the whole thing was a republican plot, designed to embarrass both Mayor Walker and Governor Roosevelt, who even two years ago was a leading candidate for the democratic presidential nomination.

Before W. Kingsland Macy, republican state chairman, and his associates appear in "the hall of governors", however, there will be argument in the supreme court in Albany on a legal move by Mayor Walker to put an end to the proceedings on the ground that the governor is acting outside his jurisdiction.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE LISTS 9 ECONOMIC REMEDIES

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 20. (P)—Nine "fundamental" economic remedies, which he said were of the average American men and women," were proposed today by Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt as he fired the opening gun in his road campaign for the presidency.

Charging that he president's acceptance speech and the republican platform are "empty of hope," the democratic standard bearer also aimed a four-barreled attack at the Hoover administration.

Thousands who had jammed the streets to cheer the New York governor as he arrived in the city earlier in the day, sat in a baseball stadium to hear his first-away-from-home campaign speech. He was introduced by James M. Cox, former governor of Ohio.

"I propose an orderly, explicit and practical, group of fundamental remedies," Governor Roosevelt declared.

"These will protect not the few, but the great mass of average American men and women, who I am not ashamed to repeat, have been forgotten by those in power."

His nine proposals are: 1. Prevention of the issuance of "manufactured and unnecessary securities of all kinds, which are brought out merely for the purpose of enriching those who handle their sale." And the requirement that holders of legitimate securities disclose their bonuses and commissions.

To Protect Depositors.

2. Full federal regulation of "holding companies which sell securities in interstate commerce."

Officer-Bandit Given 10 Years

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 20. (P)—A sentence of 10 years at hard labor in a federal penitentiary was imposed on Lieut. Herbert C. Lichtenberger, instructor at Randolph field today by a general court martial at Fort Sam Houston.

The officer was found guilty of having robbed the Schertz state bank of $648.50 on February 15 and of having fired a shot at W. W. Lehr, a customer of the bank, while making his get-away.

Lichtenberger stood with folded arms as the court's decision was read by Brig. General C. R. Howland, president and law member of the court. He declined to make a statement after the adjournment of court.

General Howland stated that the verdict had been reached through written and secret ballot.

Production Has Dropped Slightly

Production in the Panhandle field last week dropped 2,891 barrels from a peak for the year but still remained 209 barrels over the allowance posted by the railroad commission July 1. Gray county accounted for 2,899 barrels of the daily decrease. Moore county also showed a less but other counties were up in the field. Several tests are drilling on top of the pay and should be brought in soon.

Production by counties:

County	Last Wk.	This Wk.
Carson	243	5,522
Gray	797	36,693
Hutchinson	842	12,693
Moore	43	1,099
Wheeler	13	268

GRAY COUNTY TAXES SHOWN NEAR NORMAL

Statistics And Comparisons Are Made Available By State Auditor.

Interesting statistics on Gray county tax matters are contained in the report of Moore Lynn, state auditor.

His report shows that for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1931, Gray county collected for all purposes, including the state taxes administered by the county tax collector, a total of $470,333.75.

The cities and towns of the county collected $108,232.27, the common school districts $63,614.36, and the independent school districts $267,229.49. This makes a total collected by Gray county units of government $910,106.87.

Delinquencies were: County and state taxes $94,904.84, city and town taxes $57,199.38, common school taxes $5,022.40 and independent school district taxes $61,603.23, making the

Sterling on East Texas Journey

CLEVELAND, Aug. 20. (P)—Governor R. S. Sterling made a flying campaign trip through this section of East Texas today, presenting from stump after stump his claim for re-nomination in the August 27 run-off primary.

He detailed the accomplishments of his administration and made again some of his charges against James E. Ferguson, campaigning in behalf of the candidacy of his wife, Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson. As Sterling's caravan halted again and again to permit him to stump, it fell more than an hour behind schedule late in the day. Friends here in Cleveland made elaborate plans for his speech here, the last task he had set himself for the day.

Sterling arrived here weary from speeches at Rusk, Nacogdoches, Lufkin, Arko, Apple Springs, Groveton, Corrigan, Livingston, Shepherd, and Cold Springs. When the party reached Shepherd who members who declined to permit use of their names said a man at Groveton, apparently intoxicated had threatened residents with a knife when they tried to quiet him after Sterling refused to talk with him in the corridor of the court house.

Randall Plans Pattern School

CANYON, Aug. 20. (Sp)—A pattern school, the first to be held in Randall county, will be in session August 22 and 23, under the direction of Mrs. Dora R. Barnes, extension specialist in clothing from A. & M. college. The pattern school will be open to representatives of the home demonstration clubs of the county, directed by Miss Sadie Kate Bass, and one meeting open to all women will be held.

Randall county has had a home demonstration agent only since July 1, 1932.

The Grand canyon and the purpose for its existence has changed in the last five years. Formerly tourists raved about the colors. Now they don't rave at all. They listen to the government's geologist guides whose sole reason for talking seems to be to refute Genesis. They can show you tons of rock "laid down" 500,000,000 years before Adam and Eve.

NOTICE—It is the intention of this newspaper to cast reflection upon the character of anyone knowingly and through error it should, the management will appreciate having attention called to same, and will gladly and fully correct any erroneous statement made.

JUDGE IVY E. DUNCAN

is waging a campaign for state representative on his own merits. If he should be defeated, he would have no regrets. We do not believe he will be defeated. His qualifications are above criticism. That a "whispering campaign" is being conducted by over-zealous backers of his opponent is regrettable, but Judge Duncan and his friends do not intend to resort to any such tactics.

Recently the question was asked repeatedly: "Did you hear that Judge Duncan thinks?" Just a question, it leaves a vicious implication which is deeply resented by Judge Duncan's hundreds of friends here. Another claim made against the Gray county candidate is that he is the enemy of the major oil companies.

The truth is that Judge Duncan was pushed into the race by citizens who felt that his qualifications as an independent thinker, moral man of recognized ability should be available to the residents of the district. He represents no special interests. He would serve the varied interests of the district with equal attention to all problems. His knowledge of the technically difficult oil problems makes it imperative that he be elected. Work and vote for Judge Duncan.

We Expose Them.

Those Rotarians preparing to battle the Lions baseball team for sweet charity's sake, indicated that it would be a no-practice affair next Wednesday. Our spy reports that he saw the following diligently practicing in an alley: Travis Lively, Tom Perkins, M. D. Oden, C. G. Atteberry, Philip Pond. Such deception will be costly. The spectators will witness a slaughter of disaster proportions when those fellows take the field Wednesday.

Not Party Issue.

Repeated efforts of jobless men to form national parties have met with no success. Mere unemployment cannot be a lasting issue. The success of any such party would automatically disorganize it. There is always unemployment. Joblessness is a symptom, but not the disease. Broad principles of government are more or less permanent. When jobless men quit mere protesting and start voting intelligently and influentially in existing parties, the desired results will be obtainable. Voting prejudices will never work economic reforms. The reform of government, constitutionally achieved, must be the result of orderly thinking and education. The hope for permanency of any democratic government must rest on education.

Glimpsing the Unexplored.

Professor Piccard, in exploring the stratosphere, is penetrating about the only unknown "land" left to discover. Commander Byrd and his airplanes have made the ends of the earth as well known as Broadway and although his scientific work isn't finished, there is little left to thrill the human eye because no other humans have been present. But Piccard in going above the earth's atmosphere, is seeing a new world. The average human would see only a blue haze and the dim earth and intervening clouds. But Piccard, the scientist, explores a new world by watching instruments and calculating the effect of cosmic rays. He is no less an adventurer than Christopher Columbus, but he gets his thrills in a different way.

Any Intelligence?

The Plainsman in the Lubbock AVALANCHE submits this test of your mentality: Read the following sentence through JUST ONCE and, as you go, count the F's. Federal fuses are the result of scientific study combined with the experience of years. How many F's did you count? If you found three, you are of average intelligence. If you found four you are above the average. If you found five you are exceptional, and if you located six, you are a real genius, indeed.

Postage Business.

Recently this column remarked that "The 3-cent postage rate has not reduced the amount of mail from the publicity-seekers. State Press (J. J. Taylor in the Dallas NEWS comments on this as follows:

"When Uncle Sam set out to raise postage revenue, postal authorities recommended an increase in first-class rates, although the department has consistently earned a profit on this type of mail. The reasoning was purely economic. First-class postage is a Government monopoly. In other mail classifications the department must meet competition and rate increase would cost trade. So the Postmaster General said, but perhaps the same Postal people remembered that this is a campaign year and that most of the tons of material on campaign issues must travel first class. If so, the Postoffice Department is welcome to its profits but how come the wastebasket manufacturer have not co-operated by lowering their prices?"

Japan seems to be about the only country that takes Mr. Hoover seriously.

We're vindicated. The Dallas NEWS editorial writer now says: "In the run-off, the election officials have the plain duty to exercise extraordinary diligence in safeguarding the purity of the ballot. In 132 Texas counties the vote in the governor's race in the primary exceeds the number of poll taxes paid. This is too preposterous to be credible."

Of course Mr. Garner had to pacify the east, but we'd prefer that he talk about the next election, not the last one.

Prohibition is not a party issue. Once thrown out of national politics, the question is not even one of state rights. The saloon is a moral and social issue. So is bank robbery, burglary, murder, yet who would make these party issues?

Texas politics will have reached a higher plane when we quit calling gubernatorial candidates by their first names.

ABOUT NEW YORK

By WILLIAM GAINES.

NEW YORK—Three men who lead model lives: Herbert Dobbins, actor, from Olathe, Kansas, is known to artists and commercial photographers as "the most famous Santa Claus."

He has posed in the whiskers and regalia of the good St. Nicholas for advertisements and story illustrations, magazine covers and so forth, so many times he can't approximate the number.

Last season he had a part in Peggy Fears' "Child of Manhattan," but not as a Santa Claus.

Here's the story he told me: He was in love with a charming girl out in Olathe, and used to go home to see her after he became an actor. That was a good while ago, of course, when an actor probably couldn't have been elected mayor of Olathe.

The girl's parents and some of her friends told her what they thought about actor fellows. Dobbins went his way. She fell in love with Burt Rogers, prominent in Kansas newspaper circles, and married him.

The Rogerses had a son, and he carried the name of Buddy. As soon as Buddy Rogers could get away from home, he became an actor. Maybe you've heard of him.

Model Business Man.

Carleton Emory is a native of Amherst, Mass., and graduate of Amherst college. Until a few months ago he was a high salaried executive in a big New York firm.

Emory is an elderly man of distinctive appearance. You've probably seen him in many advertisements and illustration recently, appearing very much at home in his pose as an executive at his desk or as the pater familias trying out some sort of goods.

Here's the way he came to be a model: Deprived of his own desk by the business slump, Emory was sitting at home, chafing at inactivity, hoping for things to get better.

His son, Carl Emory, an actor, was supplementing his stage work by posing for ads. Emory the younger was in "Grand Hotel."

One day Carl was in a studio and needed a particular suit for a special pose, right away. He hadn't time to get home and back, so he phoned his father and asked him to bring his clothes.

Just as Emory reached the studio there was an immediate need for a gray haired man of evident breeding to pose for another picture.

"Do you suppose your father would do it?" some one asked Carl.

Emory agreed. Every since he has been kept busy, answering studio calls. He told me he found it a pleasant and profitable employment.

"Black Sheep"

Bill Black, born in Pittsburgh, member of a publishing family and a Carnegie Tech man, has had 16 years on the stage and screen.

When Bill came back from the war he entered Tech. His family wanted him to be an engineer, or something like that. But Bill started playing around in the Tech school of the theater, and that was all there was to it.

He began posing while playing fat leading parts. He is the handsome juvenile type, and has been the smiling young man in ads for everything from hair stickum to rugs. Once Jimmy Walker was petitioned for a pose in a dinner jacket. He didn't have time, but told the advertisers they could stick his head on some one else's body. So Bill donned his tux and posed for Mayor Jimmy's head-rest.

He's one of the leading lights in the new Models' Guild, which he hopes will mean for models what Equity has meant for the actors.

Ferguson Raps Special Session

GROESBECK, Aug. 20 (AP)—The action of Governor R. S. Sterling in calling a special session of the legislature was attacked here tonight by James E. Ferguson, speaking in behalf of the candidacy of his wife, Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, for the democratic gubernatorial nomination.

"Sterling's fool proposition to call a special session of the legislature at the expense of $3,600 a day to the overburdened tax payers is meeting with the rebuke that it deserves," Ferguson said. All his former supporters among the big daily newspapers if the state are editorially condemning his proposal as useless and as something that will produce no good. Various commissioners' courts confronted with the problem of paying road bonds and interest now see Sterling's proposition as camouflage and could not give any relief at this time.

Mrs. Ferguson spoke tonight for the first time this week, following closely her address in the opening of the second campaign, she may make two speeches next week.

"As she is going to be governor, she is not going to overwork herself campaigning," Ferguson said. "She is saving her strength for the duties of office."

Mrs. Ferguson said she would remove the present highway commissioners from office if elected, charging them with extravagance during the past five years.

EDUCATOR NEAR DEATH ABILENE, Aug. 20 (AP)—Dr. O. H. Cooper, famous in the field of education for a half-century, was near death tonight at his home here. Doctors had abandoned hope.

Dr. Cooper, 79, has been president of two Texas institutions of higher learning, Baylor and Simmons, both now universities. He is known as the "father of the public school system of Texas," which was put on its present state-supported footing during his incumbency as state superintendent of education. He also is known as the father of Texas University, originally promoting it.

POLITICS at random

By BYRON PRICE.

There are two schools of thought as to the political consequences of a Walker case postponement in New York.

The remark heard most often among politicians is that the intervention of the courts, possibly delaying final action until after the election, bids fair to rescue Gov. Franklin Roosevelt from the necessity of making one of the most difficult decisions ever faced by a presidential nominee.

There are astute politicians who do not agree. They see the governor losing the great advantage they believe he would have gained from a forceful, clear-cut decision, at once removing Mayor Walker from office if the evidence warrants and laying down a ringing challenge to Tammany.

Gains Outweigh Losses. Doubtless the changed situation involves both debits and credits on the Roosevelt political ledger, but the gains are far more obvious than the losses.

It was plain, for instance, that whichever way the governor jumped, he was in trouble. If he kept Walker in, he was certain to be accused of trucking to Tammany. If he threw Walker out, he ran the risk of antagonizing Tammany.

Conversely, if it now turns out that no decision is necessary until after election, the democratic nominee will have both sides suspended in air, and neither will have anything much against him.

Presumably, whether he is elected president or not, he will remain governor for a time after election day. Mayor Walker's friends throughout the campaign, therefore, will be looking wistfully to Albany, hopeful that the axe will not descend, and careful to do nothing that would make matters worse; while the enemies of Walker and Tammany will see no cause to lose confidence.

That is the way one group of

KING MODIFIES POTENTATE

SIMLA, India, Aug. 20 (AP)—British officials announced that a boundary dispute between Chitral and Afghanistan had been settled in favor of Afghanistan, but that King George, as reward for the unswerving loyalty of the Mehtar of Chitral had made hereditary a salute of 11 guns for the ruler.

In the last 12 years the Salinas-Watsonville district in California has developed 30,000 acres of lettuce.

then turn in, and do their best for him anyway. That would increase Roosevelt's prestige, it is argued, in those upstate counties where the coolness of Tammany was such an asset to Tilden, Cleveland and Wilson, the only three democrats who have carried New York for president since the civil war.

It would also greatly strengthen the governor in other states where antipathy to Tammany is proverbial.

Just Guesses. This divergence of views,—on what now seems an academic question,—only goes to show that politicians are not as infallible in their judgment as most voters suppose.

MRS. STERLING JOINS MOODY IN SPEAKING ON SATURDAY

SULPHUR SPRINGS, Aug. 20 (AP)—Mrs. R. S. Sterling and former Governor Dan Moody spoke here tonight in behalf of the renomination of Governor Sterling.

"I was asked where is my bodyguard," Mrs. Sterling said. "And I replied that I have no bodyguard and need none because I have had a most friendly reception and have found you all are friends." She touched briefly on campaign issues, textbook costs, local labor on road work (Wilson administration, and highways).

Moody said election officials violate the laws in allowing illegal balloting. He asked citizens of Hopkins to watch for violations.

In three addresses today Moody condemned James E. Ferguson for "irresponsible use of the power of the governor's office," reading from a legislative committee report in the house journal.

Moody spoke at Mount Pleasant this morning, Mount Vernon this afternoon and in Sulphur Springs tonight. Dr. J. M. Fleming introduced him at Mount Vernon and T. J. Fiewharty at Sulphur Springs, with Dr. J. J. Johnson, Sterling chairman, presiding at the night meeting.

At Mt. Vernon the same aged man who heckled Moody eight years ago as a candidate for attorney general repeatedly interrupted him this afternoon with cheers for "Ma" and "Jim."

"The legislative committee," Moody told his hearers, "after taking extensive testimony of the Ferguson administration, made a report to the house of representatives. As printed in the house journal, as permanent a public state record as the constitution of Texas, this report said:

"We believe the testimony is sufficient to establish the fact that the power and prestige of the governor's office of this state during the years 1926 and 1928 have been practically usurped and dictated by a private citizen, the husband of the governor, for political favoritism and financial gain.

"Testimony justifies us in reporting to the house that the members of the highway commission, together with the aid and abetment of the chief executive of this state, through her husband, a private citizen, have wantonly, recklessly and fraudulently dissipated millions of dollars of the highway fund paid by the tax payers of Texas."

"He told audiences that despite Jim Ferguson's denial the federal government withdrew federal highway aid from Texas in Mrs. Ferguson's administration, and the Ferguson platform plank now would necessitate losing all or nearly all the $14,000,000 aid over a two year period because it would dissipate the state highway fund and prevent Texas from matching federal aid.

Junior Golfers Enter State Meet

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 20 (AP)—Fred Borod of Houston, and Louis Nowlin of Dallas, two of Texas' finest young junior golfers, have filed their entries for the Texas state junior golf championship to be played over the difficult Willow Springs course here September 6, 7, 8, and 9, under auspices of the San Antonio Light.

Borod, 15-year-old Houston brilliant, who carried Gus Moreland, Texas amateur champion, twenty holes in the Houston country club invitation this year, will rank a big favorite. Nowlin, recent conquerer of Gus Moreland at the all-southwestern tournament, reconsidered a previous decision to pass up the tournament and informed tournament officials he would be present for competition. It is expected that Jack Cameron and Willie Maguire Jr., both of Houston, will enter this week. These two youngsters recently played in the trans-Mississippi tournament at Oklahoma City.

The entry list contains the names of Raleigh White of Temple, freshman start at Rice Institute last year and touted as No. 1 man on the varsity next season. Duck Turner of McAllen, University of Texas freshman star last year but a certain varsity member this year.

Germany Studies How To Govern

BERLIN, Aug. 20 (AP)—The possibility of a new German constitution, in which the word republic would not be mentioned, emerged today as one way out of the present political crisis.

A leading Bavarian statesman informed the Associated Press that such a constitution will be drawn up if the new reichstag, which meets August 30, cannot agree on a constructive program and fails to continue the cabinet of Chancellor Van Papen in office.

Although the new charter would not mention the word republic, this informant said, it would not necessarily mean restoration of the monarchial system. Instead, the final form of the government would be left an open question.

Abilene Votes Sunday Movies

ABILENE, Aug. 20 (AP)—By a majority of 378, voters of Abilene today instructed the city commission to repeal an ordinance prohibiting showing of Sunday pictures. The number of votes cast in favor of Sunday shows was 1,567; against, 1,189.

The city commission sponsored an informal referendum at request of 750 citizens who presented a petition last week, promising that, in event the petitioners won the anti-Sunday picture ordinance would be repealed, that action will be taken at once, said Mayor Lee, R. York.

Sunday shows here were legislated out of business last January, after operating briefly, after a referendum in which the anti-show group won by a majority of about 250 votes. The tables were turned today in the second referendum of the year, which brought to an end a week of lively campaigning heading up in rival mass meetings and including advertising broadcasts in the newspapers by the pro-show group.

Conference Ends Historic Session

OTTAWA, Ontario, Aug. 20 (AP)—While guns boomed and a carillon pealed forth, the British imperial economic conference today completed a month of labor by signing numerous trade agreements constituting a definite program for commercial recovery throughout the empire.

There was a sizeable number of these treaties. Great Britain concluded pacts with Australia, the Union of South Africa, New Zealand, India, Newfoundland, southern Rhodesia and Canada. The Irish Free State signed bi-liberal treaties with Canada and South Africa; Canada with South Africa and Southern Rhodesia, and New Zealand with South Africa.

All of these pacts are subject to ratification by the respective parliaments and there may be modifications of the various duty rates that have proposed at the conference.

These were listed as the outstanding accomplishments of the parley at its final session.

A British tariff of six cents a bushel on foreign wheat to protect foreign wheat.

A British tariff of possibly 4 cents a pound on copper, and a 20 cent preference on empire lumber.

Johnny Frederiek, Brooklyn outfielder, has clouted four homers this season as a pinch hitter.

There have been only 14 light-weight champions since Jack McAuliffe became the first in 1885.

HOOKS and SLIDES by WILLIAM BRAUCHER

What is a Race Track?

During the interrogation of several Chicago Cubs, regarding their race track activities, Leslie O'Connor, who is Judge Landis' secretary, asked a direct question of Rogers Hornsby and the reply was interesting.

O'Connor wanted to know if Hornsby ever had taken any of these "hot boys"—Bush, Malone, English and O'Leary—to the race track with him. And Hornsby replied:

"I never went to the races, so they never went with me any place. I have never been to the races."

Bad Luck at Track.

Of course you don't have to go to the races to be a horse player. Many inveterate followers of the ponies insist they have no luck at a track. They meet some one with a hot tip and are "talked off their horse."

The judge should have asked the Rajah, "What is a race track?" And, perhaps from his memory of pictures in the newspapers, Hornsby could have told him what one is like.

Others Go, However.

At different times, I have seen members of almost every major league ball club at race tracks, and included among the number were owners, managers, trainers and bat boys.

The entire point of Judge Landis' inquiry seems obscure, in the light of the fact that there isn't a ball club in either league which hasn't horse players on its roster.

The owner of one American-league club operates a stable, though Col. Joe Williams of the New York World-Telegram avers that he failed to win a bet placed on one of the owner's hides.

Unimportant Money.

Most of the ball players I know who play the races, go to the tracks, and do not make the sort of bets Hornsby is reputed to have laid on the line.

Of course a majority of ball players are only occasional betters. And as they go to the race tracks only on their off days, not very serious money is involved.

Babe Ruth's contributions to the betterment of the breed of ignoble gee-gees is legendary. When the Babe was younger and the world was his oyster, the horses looked easy to the big fellow. His losses are said to have run into important thousands.

McGraw Poses.

McGraw of the Giants makes no secret of his craving for the ponies, and even has posed for numerous pictures at the track in Havana. Now and again I have met mem-

Miami Pioneer Is Buried Friday

Funeral services for A. W. Maddox, prominent citizen of Miami, who died at his home there Thursday, were held at the First Christian church Friday afternoon. The church was filled with many friends and acquaintances. The service was conducted by the Rev. Jasper Bogue, Christian minister of Spearman.

Fallbearers were C. L. Broadus, J. A. Morrison, J. V. Coffee, John Turcotte, J. A. Lee, and W. L. Brown. Interment was in Miami cemetery. The funeral was held under direction of Stephenson mortuary of Pampa. Mr. Maddox would have been 82 years old had he lived nine days longer. He had been a resident of Miami for 13 years.

Mrs. Charles Burnett read "Crossing the Bar," and dedicated a floral wreath to his memory. Many persons from various parts of the Panhandle, from Oklahoma, New Mexico, Colorado attended the funeral.

Among those from Pampa who were at the funeral were Mrs. T. B. Solomon, Mrs. E. F. Brake, Stanley Brake, W. W. Maddox, and Ed Maddox of the Hay Fork ranch near Pampa, and the Rev. James Todd Jr., who assisted Rev. Bogue and other ministers in conducting the funeral.

F. W. Wooten was admitted to Pampa hospital for treatment yesterday.

The Brooklyn Dodgers won only seven out of their first 19 games with the Phillies this season.

Members of the Yankees, Athletics, Indians, Browns, Red Sox, Tigers, etc.—but why go on?—at the tracks here and there. And didn't think at the time I was witnessing the commission of some ponderous moral turpitude.

Hornsby, the Horse.

Several horses are named after ball players. Offhand, I can think of such nags as Hornsby, Dick Porling and Bib Falk. During the very time Hornsby, the ball player, was being investigated, Hornsby, the horse, was running at Thistle-down.

Hornsby, the horse, wasn't running very fast, however. After that animal in one of his recent heats, it was this writer's hope that Hornsby, the ball player, never had bet on that scrot.

The outlook, right now, isn't so rosy for either of the Hornsby's.

Dallas Defeats Galveston Nine

DALLAS, Aug. 20 (AP)—Scoring five runs in the first two innings off Darrow, Dallas defeated Galveston tonight, 5-3. Dick McCabe, recent addition to the Dallas pitching staff, won his second game in three starts. He held the Buccaneers to nine hits. Dallas played perfect ball behind McCabe's fine pitching to pick up a half game on the league leading Beaumont Exporters.

Priest's Death Is Probably Suicide

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Aug. 20 (AP)—Investigators into the death of the Rev. Joseph P. Cournoyer, 43-year old Catholic priest, lean toward a theory of suicide, it was learned on high authority tonight, but they have not reached a conclusion about the death of Miss Lavinia Moran, a school teacher whose partly clad body was found in a rectory bedroom.

Corner James J. Corrigan is expected to return a verdict in the priest's death early next fall.

Father Cournoyer was found slumped over the steering wheel of his automobile in a closed garage Friday evening, a few hours after Miss Moran's body was discovered.

Carbon monoxide poisoning was given as the cause of his death.

A finding in the case of the 29-year old teacher, however is being delayed pending completion of an analysis of her internal organs.

PACIFIC COAST UNKNOWN NETTER TO MEET HELEN JACOBS

MISS BABCOCK BEATS ENGLISH TENNIS STAR

FAVORITE HAS EASILY GONE TO TOP OF TOURNEY

By GAYLE TALBOT.
Associated Press Sports Writer.
FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Aug. 20. (AP)—Although ranked no higher than eighth on the Pacific coast, Carolyn Babcock, Los Angeles, was good enough today to out-flight Joan Ridley, of England, in a terrific three-setter and gain the right to face Helen Jacobs for the women's national tennis crown.

The slender girl defeated Miss Ridley 4-8, 7-4, 6-3.

Miss Jacobs, still the reigning favorite to succeed Mrs. Helen Wills Moody as queen of American tennis, made the day a total washout for England by subduing Mrs. Eloise Goldsack Pittman, 6-2, 6-3.

While few were willing to predict victory for the Los Angeles girl tomorrow, she is certain to give Miss Jacobs a run for her money.

Paired with Sarah Paulfrey, Miss Jacobs reached the finals of doubles by defeating Virginia Hilleary and Mrs. Dorothy Andrus Burke, 6-4, 6-3.

In the other semi-final, Alice Marble, San Francisco, and Mrs. Marjorie Morrill Painter, Dedham, Mass., defeated Mrs. John Van Ryn, Philadelphia, and Josephine Cruickshank, Santa Ana, 6-4, 10-8.

Vines Comes To Life Suddenly

NEW PORT, E. I., Aug. 20 (AP)—A deadly baseline barrage today gave Elsworth Vines, national tennis champion, his second leg on the historic Newport casino trophy. He overwhelmed his Davis cup team mate, Wilmer Allison, Austin, Texas, 6-4, 6-2, 6-2.

Then he added to the Texan's discomfort by joining with his fellow Californian, Keith Gledhill, and trouncing Allison and Van Ryn for the Casino double trophies.

Allison and Van Ryn, who hold the national and Davis cup championships, as well as almost every other prize doubles title in the tennis world, bowed in four sets, 6-8, 13-11, 3-6, 6-2.

DANCIGER HAS FAST OUTFIT THROUGH NEW

Puts Up Stormy Battle In Meeting NEWS Team And Phillips Nine.

Interest in the Pampa Playground baseball league is reaching its peak with all teams scheduling practice games and working out regularly. Managers and captains will meet in the chamber of commerce rooms at 8 o'clock Tuesday night to draw up a schedule and complete arrangements for the opening of the league Aug. 30. The application of one or two more teams for places in the league will be acted upon.

Danciger is fast becoming one of the favorite teams in the league. Although organized only two weeks ago, the refinery boys held the Phillips 66 to an 11-8 score Thursday night and the NEWS to a 9 to 2 score Friday night.

Phillips came through with a ninth inning rally to win the first game. Crites, Newsome and Herring had to play top ball to win over Miller, Riley, Parkinson, Geppelt and company.

The NEWS and Danciger battled five innings with the score 2 to 1 Friday night but in the sixth the Pampa boys sent the seven runs across the plate. The game was a pitchers' duel between Geppelt and Hoare up to the eventual inning. Danciger got only six hits during the nine innings, four off Wagner, Sturgeon, Marshall, Wagner and Kelley played great games. The Pampa outfield only got two chances throughout the game.

Ferris, Parkinson and Jones did most of the hitting for Danciger with Riley and Jones doing the brunt of the fielding. Acklam, Dillman and Sturgeon each got two hits for the newsmen.

The eight teams already in the league are Danciger, Phillips, News, Faculty, Rose Building, Salvation Army, Santa Fe and Kiwanis club. Team managers will turn in their rosters at the managers meeting Tuesday night. Reed Crites will preside. Permanent officers will be elected.

Rob Roy Gets Challenges From Many Wrestlers

Rob Roy, new Pampa wrestler, is popular with the fans but he is anything but popular with other members of the wrestling fraternity, according to challenges received since he defeated Roy Welch of Berger here last Wednesday night. Roy has received challenges from Sammy George, the boy who was disqualified for roughing last week, and Walter Stratton, the Latonia strong boy.

Promoters Jesse and Andrews are going to pick one or the other for Roy to maul Wednesday night, but they were uncertain which could give the best account of himself. Sammy George was liberal in his challenges, wanting to meet Referee James Gotcher who picked him off Howard Belcher last week and deposited him in a corner for roughing.

A large crowd witnessed the match last week which was the first in several months. Dutch Mantell acted as "master of ceremonies" to the huge delight of the crowd. The famous Dutchman appeared in the ring with a magazine in the front of his sweater to make him have a big chest. Before starting the matches he would say "play ball." The Dutchman will be on hand again this week.

Other matches will be scheduled for the card.

SHAMROCK TO PLAY LOCALS IN AFTERNOON

Irish Will Be Seeking Caprock League Leadership While Here.

The Shamrock golf team will play the last game in the Cap Rock Golf league here this afternoon over the Pampa Country club course. First foursomes will tee off at 1 o'clock over both nines. Dr. H. H. Hicks, chairman of the tournament committee, will be in charge.

Shamrock defeated the Pampa team in Shamrock and will come today with a strong team in an endeavor to get into the top position in the league. The course is in excellent condition despite the dry weather and some good scores are predicted.

The Cap Rock tournament will be played off in Childress starting Sept. 11. A few local golfers will probably enter the tournament.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 20 (AP)—Putting on a 10-run rally in the fifth inning of the second game, the Athletics slugged their way to an even break in a double-header with the Chicago White Sox today. The Mackmen lost the first game 6-4, and took the second 14-8.

The A's sent 16 men to bat in their slugging demonstration in the eighth inning of the nightcap.

Fox hit his 44th home run of the year in the first game. Luke Appling and Charley Berry also hit homers.

Get Many Hits
WASHINGTON, Aug. 20 (AP)—Cleveland hammered Weaver and Coffman for 21 hits to take the second game of a double header, 11-5, today after Washington had won the first, 4-2.

The Indian attack drove Weaver to the showers in the fourth after six runs and 11 hits had been scored off his delivery. Hildebrand was credited with the victory.

In the opener, Crowder kept the Indians' nine hits scattered while the Senators touched Russell for 13.

FORECAST ARRANGED
Mrs. May Foreman Carr, local pianist and organist, will be assisted by Mrs. Ramon Wilson in her regular Wednesday afternoon concert, August 23, over station KGRS, Amarillo.

The following selections will be played:
Kamenci-Ostrow (Rubenstein), piano and organ duo by Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Carr; Gavotte (Brahms), organ solo, Mrs. Carr; Rimpianto serenade (Toselli), Pale Moon (Logan), Blue Danube Waltz (Strauss), Waters of Minnetonka (Heurricane), finale from the Fifth Symphony (Beethoven), Mrs. Carr; Meditation from Thais (Massenet), Mrs. Carr and Mrs. Wilson.

HARVESTERS TO GET SUITS HERE MONDAY

Formal Practice To Begin Tuesday Afternoon For 1932 Campaign.

Uniforms will be issued at the gymnasium all day tomorrow and practice will start at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon for every boy desirous of trying out for the 1932 football team. Coaches Odus Mitchell and Argus Fox will be on hand.

The first few days will be devoted to conditioning and kicking the ball around with each boy being given a chance to try his ability wherever he so desires.

When serious work starts, the squad will be divided with Coach Mitchell looking after the backfield, and ends and Coach Fox in charge of the linemen. With the exception of Hook Phillips and Phillip Powell, every eligible player from last season will be on hand. Fullingim and Powell are expected in during the early part of the week. The coaches are hoping for great things from the two absent players.

Coaches are expecting between 30 and 40 boys to appear in uniform opening day. Many of last season's Gorillas are expected to make things lively for the old timers. Several boys from Hopkins school are expected to "do things" for the green and gold this season. New students who have never played football before will be eligible to try out for position.

The Harvesters were hit hard by graduation last year but a great team should be built around such veterans as Captain Jim Pool, Gerdis Schmidt, Dick Sullins, Sammy Turner, Philip Powell, Walter Kelley, Jess Patton, Rufus Walker, H. L. Ledrick, Leo Sausbury, Clovis Green, and others.

DODGERS ON RAMPAGE
CINCINNATI, Aug. 20 (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers continued their rampage through the National League today by winning both games of a doubleheader from the Reds, 6 to 0 and 6 to 1, gaining a half game in the close pennant race.

The double victory reduced Chicago's lead over Brooklyn to 1½ games and put the Dodgers the same distance ahead of the third place Pittsburgh Pirates.

Cincinnati went 21 innings before getting a run of the Brooklyn pitchers. Watson Clark handed them their second straight shutout in the opener, granting them only five hits, while Hollis Thurston allowed a run in the third inning of the nightcap.

The second game was called at the end of the seventh to allow the Dodgers to entrain for home to meet the New York Giants tomorrow.

Mollison Kept Grounded by Fog

ST. JOHN, N. B., Aug. 20 (AP)—Fog, which caused Captain J. A. Mollison considerable trouble yesterday in the concluding hours of his westward solo flight across the Atlantic, disrupted his program again today.

The young Scottish airman intended to fly his tiny moth ship to St. John from Pennfield Ridge, forty miles from here, where he landed yesterday, and then to speed on to Montreal to attend the aviation meet there.

But when he got down to Pennfield Ridge he found the atmosphere much too thick for flying and he came back here by motor to attend a luncheon. He announced that he expected to take off tomorrow morning.

"I'll be in New York by 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon," the airman said.

The first bale of 1932 cotton sold at Pensacola, Fla., brought 21 cents a pound.

AMPLE REASON FOR WINNING LIONS YARD CONTEST SEEN AT PRETTY PAMPA HOMES

By ARCHER FULLINGIM From alley to front curb, the homes of George E. Dull at 1132 Mary Ellen and Mrs. Inez Carter at 905 Mary Ellen present almost satisfactory evidence why judges in the Lions club yard contest awarded them first place last week. Mr. Dull won first place in the division for home owners doing their own work and Mrs. Carter among the entries who hired manual labor.

To achieve a perfect frame of greenery, Mr. Dull made use of a quick-growing old-fashioned climbing vine, the maderia vine, sometimes called the potato vine. Every arch and door at the Dull home was hidden by this leafy vine. Mrs. Carter also had this vine covering the arched gateway to her garden.

Flowers at Rear The Dull front yard was simplicity itself. The lawn was of clover and was luxuriant. Suitable shrubs, including first and second year roses, sweet peas, the garden boundary was a privet hedge. A honeysuckle vine hid a pole that upheld a clothes line. A Virginia creeper twined about another pole. The rear of the back yard was devoted to a well-kept lawn, in the center children's playground. In the clean alley at the rear were cosmos, castor beans and various kinds of flowers growing.

Built of Rocks It was noticeable that the garden walks at both the Dull and Carter homes were curbed and built of rocks. The two beauty spots at the Carter home were a bed of verbena along the driveway at the front, and a lily pond at the rear. This pond contained red and white lilies, water hyacinth, and the background for the pond was a bank from which spring many kinds of flowers and shrubs. The whole was surrounded by mineral rocks of every description. Mrs. Carter has an unusual collection of shrubs and they extend around the house. Having lived in the country, Mrs. Carter loved the golden poppies which grow wild in that state, and she has several clusters of them in her garden. Other flowers in the back yard include rose moss, double petunias, pink phlox, daisies, scarlet sage—

White, after being tied up by hijackers, was slugged with a pistol. John Lowe was hit in the face by the taller of the two men who kidnaped the Dancier Reining company. Whitelock also struck when the men demanded that he produce the money at the refinery.

day afternoon. Hawkins and Walker declined to make statements. Chambers' confessions were read. Two charges of robbery with firearms were filed against each of the three men, and one charge of kidnaping against each. The cases are not ballable, and each man was returned to jail. The grand jury will investigate the hijackings when 31st district court convenes here September 19.

Abandoned Car.

Chambless was arrested at an Amarillo hotel at the request of Sheriff Blansett, who had information the man like his gone to Amarillo from Whittensburg, where they abandoned the car they had stolen from John Lowe of the Dancier company. Chambless was unarmed and ready to talk, but Hawkins, found at another hotel, asleep, was hard-boiled and had three pistols nearby—two 45 Colt, and one .38 Colt, the latter weapon having been taken off William Arp, night-watchman for Dancier.

Walker was placed in jail here Friday, implicated in the Chambers confession, and charged with the other two men.

Chambless said in his confession that while going through the city with the five prisoners—Mr. and Mrs. Jim Whitelock, William Arp, John Lowe, and Oscar Clements—he became lost and could not find the Berger road for some time. Chambless was identified by John Lowe as the shorter of the two men who robbed the Dancier Reining company of about $285. Chambless held a pistol on the party while the taller man drove Lowe's car.

When arrested, Chambless had about $67 and Hawkins had $87. The arrests followed a search in which officers of several counties assisted and during which Sheriff Blansett drove 444 miles and spent $12 in telephone calls. If the men are indicted, the sheriff will receive in fees only a small portion of the amount spent in the chase.

The car stolen here was found near Whittensburg with the engine still warm. A manhunt immediately began, but the suspects have not been captured and started to Amarillo.

White, after being tied up by hijackers, was slugged with a pistol. John Lowe was hit in the face by the taller of the two men who kidnaped the Dancier Reining company. Whitelock also struck when the men demanded that he produce the money at the refinery.

investigate any reports of illegal voting in the second primary. Governor Sterling issued a proclamation posting rewards for arrest and conviction of two classes of violators. He offered $500 to any person furnishing evidence, on which conviction could be based, of law violations on the part of any election official "including chairmen and members of executive committees" in the run-off primary, and he promised to pay $100 for each conviction of any person not an election official who violates the laws. The smaller reward was aimed at voters who participate in the primary knowing they are ineligible to do so although election officials might permit them to mark and deposit their ballots.

ums, penurias, verbenas. Back of these near the lily pond was Mrs. Carter's rose garden. Mr. Dull largely preferred climbing roses of a hobby of Mr. Dull is growing parsley which he raises for the market and sells at the grocery store.

DEPUTY--

The men barricaded themselves in a barn and later escaped in a light car, heading toward the Mexican border.

Overtake Fugitives.

Fifty New Mexico and Texas officers formed a posse that started in pursuit. This afternoon Sheriff Beverly of Lea county and Deputies Dew Woods, C. Shannon, and Don McComb overtook a car near the Dalmont ranch, 65 miles south of here, in which were Peabworth and Hedrick surrendered. They were brought to the Portales jail. Besides the Clon-holdup, Deputy Sheriff Bob Miller of Plainview said Peabworth, Hedrick, and Hunsucker were suspected of participating in bank robberies at Shawnee, Oklahoma, and O'Donnell, Texas.

Hollis, at first believed fatally wounded, was slightly improved to-night by physicians said.

PLAINVIEW, Aug. 20 (AP)—Lee Peabworth, wounded today at his ranch 44 miles southeast of Portales, N. M., when he and two other men engaged in a gun fight with officers, was taken this afternoon to a hospital in Clovis, N. M. He was in a critical condition.

He wore a bullet near eye, officer, was killed in the fight. His body was brought back to Plainview. R. L. Hollis, deputy sheriff of Roosevelt county, N. M., lay critically wounded at Portales.

Peabworth was one of four men indicted in bank robbery for robbing L. E. Silcott, cashier of the Otton State bank, of $3,850 July 15. Henry Reed, held in the Hale county jail here, H. C. Hunsucker, and Jack Sullivan were indicted with him.

TAX FACTS--

Total of delinquent taxes reach $218,729.85. Outstanding current warrants are chiefly in the school districts. These are: Cities $2,309.27, common school districts $785, independent school districts $65,794.09, total $68,888.96. Total outstanding time warrants are: County $422,000, cities $39,000, common school districts $109,000, total $560,105.00.

SCHOOLS--

problems now to the fore. Mr. Fisher is due home this week-end. If he does not return tonight he is due to return tomorrow. If he arrives in time, a meeting of the board will be held tomorrow. At that session, problems dealing with transfers, the budget, expenditures, hiring of new teachers to succeed several who have resigned, will be considered.

According to the budget which Mr. Smith has completed in accordance with the statutes, the school district will have approximately $400,000 less to spend during the 1932-33 term than last year. During the last term, the district collected in round numbers $150,000 in taxes. This year, allowing for possible delinquencies, the taxes will amount to $140,000. The budget calls for an expenditure of $202,000 this year as compared with disbursements of $239,000 during the last term, a slash in operative expense of $37,000. This year the district has $30,000 to start the term on, whereas last year, the treasury was in "the red" $10,000.

Valuation of property in the district is expected to reach the $18,000,000 mark, as compared with the $21,000,000 valuation last year. Valuation of farm property was cut 10 per cent, and that of city property also reduced.

The school board, expecting a decrease in enrollment over that of last year, plans to effect the cut in operative expense by using fewer teachers.

Since election of teachers was held last spring, resignations have been received from five teachers. These were from Wallace O'Keefe, commercial; Marie Dodgen, Edna Mims, Esther Thompson, and Nell Grant. A successor to Mr. O'Keefe will be elected, while the other positions may be discontinued, depending on the enrollment.

Exact date of the institute has not been determined, although Thursday and Friday before school opens on Sept. 5 have been tentatively agreed upon as institute days. Mr. Fisher is due to make a definite announcement as soon as he returns.

The school spirit will invade the town this week when the football camp will open Tuesday afternoon at Harvesters park. From then on until Thanksgiving, Pampans will have something to occupy their minds besides elections.

The Faithful Cheat

BY RUBY M. AYRES

SYNOPSIS: Sondra Merriman tries to explain to her husband, Mark, that she has been told about John Anderson and herself is not true. She has not been unfaithful to him. But she loves John. She and John have decided to keep Mark, who has been ill, from knowing this.

Chapter 36
STANDING BY A MISTAKE
PRESENTLY Sondra went on again falteringly—
"You've never really known me, Mark—not as I am. I know you love me, but sometimes... well love is supposed to be blind, isn't it? You mustn't mind if it hurts you—what I am going to say—but if we're ever going to be... well, if we're ever going to be happy, we must understand each other, mustn't we dear?"

"You don't believe me—you don't believe me—"
"I am not fool enough to believe that any man will do for a woman what Anderson has done for you, without some hope of return—no doubt he sent me away because it suited him—to leave the field clear."
Sondra said quietly, "You don't know John if you can say that."
There was a little silence, then Mark said dully "And now I suppose I am to be under a fresh obligation to him—this new job—for your sake go doubt or perhaps to get me out of the way once more. I suppose you are going to tell me I must go alone—"
Sondra's face quivered. "Do you think I should have married you, if I had cared for—for anyone else?" she asked.

"Do you love me, Sondra?" Mark asked. "If you do, nothing else matters."
"I don't think you know that, and I hated being poor. Flora was good to me—while she lived with Ben—but even that wasn't enough... I don't think you understand that there are lots of girls in the world like me—girls who take expensive presents from men and think nothing about it—men they don't care anything about—"
"As you did from Anderson—" he interrupted.
"Yes— she taught her breath. As I did. He was rich, and I didn't see any harm in it—there wasn't, really... You see— she moved her hands helplessly. "I knew you loved me—I loved you too—at least... but I was afraid—so I asked John to give you that postcard to send you away, because I was afraid. I knew we should be poor and I loathed being poor... Then she—when I saw you were really going, I felt as if I couldn't bear it, and so... well, you know the rest."
She stopped, with a feeling of amusement at herself. Had she ever loved this man so utterly that she had been driven to make the greatest mistake of her life? She felt as if she was telling him about someone else—repeating a story she had heard.
She went on presently. "Well, you went away—add then Flora left Ben, and I hadn't anything—only a few dollars. I suppose I ought to have told you, but somehow I couldn't. Then—Mark—you must try to understand, dear—Mr. Anderson asked me to marry him. His wife died—you know that—and so I had to tell him that I was already married to you."
He gave a bitter little laugh. "That was hard luck Sondra—a rich girl like Anderson—"
She said brokenly. "Don't be... think Mark—"
"Thinking—" he opened his eyes suddenly, eyes dark with pain. "When I was of the way home, I came across a little ruse in a book someone lent me... it was this—'Oh, that's true, across so many miles, so many days that keep us—' apart—'... I thought what rubbish it was—when two people loved one another... I don't think so now."

GRAINS COLLAPSE

CHICAGO, Aug. 20 (AP)—Joined by reported action of the British Empire economic conference—regarded here as likely to revolutionize trade relations with the United States, grain prices tumbled today.
Wheat fell to about 7 cents a bushel under last week's high point, and oats outdid all bottom records since 1896. General selling, and the downward plunge of values, followed trade advice that Great Britain had agreed to establish 6 cents preference on wheat from British Empire sources as against wheat originating elsewhere.
Wheat closed nervous, 1/2 cent lower than yesterday's finish, corn 1/2 down, oats 1/2 off, and provisions unchanged to 5 cents up.
On the break in prices, wheat went to below 50 cents a bushel for September contracts, the first time of late. At no stage did the market show much power to rally. A further disturbing influence was talk that 500,000 bushels of Canadian wheat had been bought today for overseas, but that export trade in United States wheat appeared extinct.
Increasing receipts of wheat in Canada added to market weakness. Meanwhile, widespread notice was taken of a statement by one of the largest houses in the grain trade saying it had been hoped that with termination of United States farm board stabilization operations and disposal of the board's accumulated wheat stocks the United States might regain its former share of the English market for wheat. The 6 cents preference now given British Empire wheat, however, destroyed that hope, the statement said, and limited United States exports to the greatest wheat importing country of the world.
Corn and oats dropped with wheat.
Closing indemnities: Wheat—Sept. 48 1/2, 51 1/4; Dec. 52 1/2, 54 1/2; May 57 1/2, 59 1/2. Corn—Sept. 30, 30 1/2; Dec. 31 1/2, 32 1/2; May 57 1/2, offers.

COTTON IS ACTIVE

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 20 (AP)—Trading in cotton was quite active today for a short week end session and prices developed an upward trend, despite unfavorable cables and an easier stock market. The main stimulating influence was the continued rains in the central and eastern parts of the belt and numerous very unfavorable reports as to the crop in those sections. The weekly weather forecast was also considered unfavorable and therefore bullish. After easing off 2 to 3 points price rallied and kept on the upgrade practically the rest of the session making highs for the day in the late trading. The close was 2 to 3 points under the top on a little realizing.
The market continued to improve owing to unfavorable weather and crop reports and a bullish long distance forecast for the coming week. Stocks were easier but the cotton market paid no attention. In the late trading October traded as high as 7.54 and December at 7.70 or 13 to 14 points above the lows. There was a slight reaction of 2 to 3 points at the end on profit taking and October closed at a net gain of 9 points for the day and December at a net gain of 8 points.
Net Receipts 14,923. For season 220,494, last season, 68,931. Exports 33,890, for the season 301,204, last season 110,386. Port stock 3,299,665, last year 2,732,069. of its March-to-June loss, was only moderately under the 1932 high level reach in March, and was somewhat above the 1931 low, touched last December.
The advances in today's short session were somewhat more modest than in the sweeping upturn on Friday, but the market moved forward along a broad front, with many industrial issues joining the rails and utilities, which had previously been in the lead. Many issues advanced $10 to more than $30 per bond of $1,000 par value, and the turnover for the two hour session was $5,067,000, par value, the largest for a Saturday since June 4.
The stock market moved in a narrow range, and closed with mostly unimportant changes from Friday's final prices.

SHARES STRONG

NEW YORK, Aug. 20 (AP)—The stock market was overshadowed today by the still briskly advancing bonds, but shares were at least able to throw off the reactionary tendencies of the previous session.

Shares sagged a point or two here and there in the first hour, but came back in the last hour to finish with a number of gains of fractions to more than a point in prominent issues. The turnover of 661,350 shares was the smallest for a Saturday session in four weeks.
Rail shares stiffened in the last hour, on appearance of the weekly report of the movement of revenue freight, showing a total of 512,421 cars in the week ended August 13. This represented a gain of 16,398 cars over the preceding week, and was the best for any week since that ended June 18, although it was only slightly above the week ended July 30.

CHURCHES TO COOPERATE IN UNDERTAKING

TODAY'S SERVICES ARE OUTLINED BY MINISTERS

Featuring church activities of this week will be the beginning of a revival with all churches in Pampa asked to cooperate. It will be conducted by B. E. Crimm, well-known evangelist, and will begin Wednesday evening.

Mr. Crimm will speak in one of the local churches on Wednesday and Thursday evening, after which he will speak at a tabernacle at a spot to be selected by him. He always remains about three weeks in each city visited.

Mr. Crimm has done evangelistic work for 19 years and has worked in 25 states.

Local ministers have made the following announcements of today's services:

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
Corner Kingsmill and West Streets. Bible school will meet by departments Sunday morning at 9:45, morning worship at 11. Training service at 7 and evening worship at 9:15. Sunday was a good day and a splendid attendance. There were 651 in the Bible school. A welcome is extended.

C. E. LANCASTER, Pastor.

BUSINESS MEN'S BIBLE CLASS
The Men's Bible class will meet at the La Nora theater 9:45. The lesson will be "The Reign of King Solomon." Men who are Masons will find these studies significant and interesting. These chapters also reveal the fulfillment of God's promise to Abraham. A welcome is extended to all.

C. E. LANCASTER, Teacher.

FIRST CHRISTIAN
509 East Kingsmill. L. A. Estes will fill the pulpit at 11 o'clock hour. All other services will take place as usual except the evening preaching service, which will not be held.

WILL GREET LEGIONNAIRES

Talla-wet-on-mi (meaning White Dove, which is a compliment to the dove).

Queen of Round-Up Is So Pretty She Has Been Barred From Annual Beauty Contests of Indian Girls

When war veterans visit the Pendleton Round-up, September 8th, 9th and 10th, on their way to the national Legion convention (Portland, September 12th-15th) they will be greeted by Talla-wet-on-mi, a full-blooded Cayuse Indian girl who has been chosen to preside as queen at this year's western range classic.

She is a great, great granddaughter of Chief Joseph who was nearly as friendly to the early white settlers as she is to the present generation.

Barred from Contests Talla-wet-on-mi for five years in succession won the Indian girls' beauty contest at the Round-up. To keep from discouraging all other participants she has been barred from these jousts of pulchritude for the last two years.

She has adopted the Americanized name of Melissa Parr for the benefit of her white friends. She is a descendant of Chief Joseph. She is a member of the federal troops of the pioneer days their greatest lesson in Indian strategy and warfare. His trail was a desolate waste of burned settlements and bereft families until he and his band of sturdy braves were run to earth in a blind ravine in the federal trap. To save his women and children from starving to death he surrendered. 2,000 Indians Present Two thousand Indians, representing many tribes, are part of the Round-up show with their beaded war dress, some pieces valued into the thousands of dollars. These are handed down from one generation after Trinity as follows: Church school at 9:45. Morning prayer and sermon at 11. —Newton O. Smith, rector.

Miss Ola Nellis and Mrs. E. E. Bechehmer returned Friday from California where they spent a two-week vacation.

HUGE CHICKEN DINNER GIVEN FRIDAY NOON

PRISCILLA MEMBERS WIN IN STUNT CONTEST

No club event of the year equalled in general merry-making the encampment at Gething ranch Thursday and Friday attended by 150 persons, most of them being members of the county home demonstration clubs and of the 4-H girls' clubs.

The fun opened Thursday afternoon when swimming, visiting, and games were the diversions, and after a big picnic dinner, the clubs contested in ability to produce clever stunts. Priscilla club took first place; Eldridge girls, second place, and Back women, third place.

Opening the series of stunts was a humorous reading given by Mildred Blackney, representing the Al-anreed club. Then came the winning stunt directed by Mrs. C. A. Tignor. It opened with songs, readings, and other stunt features before a playlet, "John and Priscilla" was given. Then Meryl Tignor gave the following toast to Miss Ruby Adams, county home demonstration diamonds, some counties have their diamonds, some counties have their pearls; Gray county has its Ruby, the finest in the world.

To Play Nurse Mrs. J. H. Smith and Mrs. T. D. Alford, representing the Merten club, announced they would give Miss Adams treatment for poison ivy. They treated her arm in such a way that it looked like a fuch, then put it in a sling.

The Back club performed an operation for depression. Finally, the Eldridge club gave a mock church service using only the letters "A. B. C." in songs, sermon, prayers, and confession.

Mrs. May Foreman Carr, Mrs. V. E. Patherer, and Mrs. J. Gething judged the entries and then Mrs. Carr led in group singing. Moonlight swimming, watermelon feasts, and other diversions held interest before the women and girls finally retired.

Breakfast was served according to clubs Friday morning, and the campers amused themselves in various ways until the 10 o'clock county council meeting, at which every club except Grandview was represented.

Program Decided It was decided that the major demonstrations for next year should be based on wardrobe work, farm and ranch food supply, and bedroom work. There will be a special demonstrator in each club for each major demonstration, some of these having already been selected.

Each club itself to secure a big exhibit for county achievement day in September and for the Tri-State fair, and a goal of at least two entries for every club woman in the county was set for achievement day.

Miss Josephine Vannoy, home economic teacher in McLean, supervised the preparation of the elaborate fried chicken dinner served Friday at noon. The menu included fried chicken, cream gravy, fresh vegetable salad, mashed potatoes, string beans, lettuce and tomatoes, and cake and lemonade.

It was announced that a number of women would attend the district encampment at Jack Hall's ranch, Potter county, Tuesday and Wednesday.

COOLEYS ARE HOME The Rev. and Mrs. W. O. Cooley and daughters, Florence and June and Mrs. Pete Caldwell and baby returned Friday evening after a visit to Wynona and Oklahoma City. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Cooley's mother, Mrs. T. H. Bryan.

Mrs. W. A. Myers, 522 E. Francis, underwent an operation Friday evening at the Worley hospital.

Canning Budget Is Printed in NEWS Today

How many quarts of vegetables can be canned from a bushel of fresh ones? How many quarts of each kind of fruit would be adequate for your family through the fall, winter and spring months? These are some of the problems solved today by Sister Mary, food expert, in the first of a series of articles on home canning.

Mrs. W. A. Myers, 522 E. Francis, underwent an operation Friday evening at the Worley hospital.

Council of Women's Clubs Is Set Forth by Mrs. Booth as One Need Of Pampa; Would Aid Culturally

A council of women's clubs is one of the greatest cultural needs of Pampa, according to the opinion of Mrs. O. H. Booth, one of Pampa's most active club women. Mrs. Booth is president of the Pampa Art club and a member of the Twentieth Century Culture club. She was interviewed in connection with a series of articles on Pampa's greatest needs which are being printed by the women's department of The NEWS.

Vogue For Velvet Heralds Autumn

VELVETS come to the fore in the fall style spotlight. Here Sylvia Sidney of the films shows a novel black velvet evening wrap that trails the floor. Note the striking high collar and large sleeves.

By DIANA MERWIN (Associated Press Fashion Editor) PARIS (AP)—A velvet vogue has swept across the style horizon.

Formal daytime frocks and evening gowns and wraps and even such accessories as gloves, girdles and bags are displayed in dark and jewel toned velvets for those first cool days when summer togs look their dingiest. A new, dull, short-pile weave which will not crush, a thick pile silk weave and the standby velvet are all used in the wide range of models varying from formal frivolity to stern practicality.

TRAINS are seen on many of the new gowns that will be worn with the advent of cooler weather. The black silk velvet frock at left above has a voluminous train which sweeps behind the wearer like a fan. The model selected by Nora Gregory, actress (right above) also features a train. Made in black velvet, this frock has a low-cut back with cross-strings and a decorative black feather trimming. The accompanying wrap has a shawl collar edged with silver fox fur.

Russet brown, apple red and grape purple velvets coats with elbow length capes and no sleeves are the favorite of the moment, since they are practical for both late summer and early fall street wear. For the more formal daytime wrap there are slender black velvet coats with simple scarf necklines and bands of sable or silver fox on the sleeves. The velvet frocks and wraps which designers have evolved for early fall evening wear reflect a formality reminiscent of the middle ages with a new "high in front-low in back" décolletage outstanding in the design.

Hinkle left yesterday for Lubbock, where a friend of her family is critically ill. The horn was stolen off C. P. Buckler's Buick sedan Friday night.

ALL WANT TO BE CAPTAINS OF SOFTBALL

HUNDRED CHICKENS SERVED TO MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

The fact that it is not "always fair weather when good fellows get together" was demonstrated by the 82 men attending the chicken barbecue given at Harvester park Friday evening for the Men's Bible class which meets at the La Nora theater.

It happened, however, that the conflicts caused chiefly by the desire of all members to be captains of the soft ball (teams) resulted in added merriment for the entire crowd. No one knew just who was captain of the teams, and no one knew just which was the winning team, but there was plenty of exercise and fun for all. Some of the men began playing ball at 4 o'clock and stopped only when it became too dark to continue.

Pitching of horse shoes and washers were other diversions. "There were no accidents, but I'm not sure," said the Rev. C. E. Lancaster, "just how many of those 82 men had to have doctors after eating 100 barbecued chickens as well as an abundance of pickles, bread, and watermelon."

The following committees were in charge: Invitation—P. O. Anderson and Lewis Davis. Entertainment—Tom E. Rose. Menu—Roy Sewell, "Doc" Kitchens, and Floyd Hoffman. Committee to assemble equipment—Fred Thompson and Peter Fort. Bert Curry, the class president served on all committees.

Description Of Scholarship Is Given By Woman

By MRS. C. T. O'NEAL, McLean Club President

The scholarship fund sponsored by the home demonstration clubs of Texas has been raised for several years by donations of 50 cents per club, but it was not until the short session in College Station to ask each club member in the state to pay 5 cents a year toward the fund. Three hundred dollars of this is used to send the girl winning first place on her three or four years of 4-H club work to college.

At short course this year we had a talk from Ardelle Watkins, who is one of the scholarship girls who now has her degree and is a prospective agent.

The vote carried in a business meeting to allow $300 for the scholarship each year, and also enough money to pay the expenses of the organization, basing the amount upon upon the amount expended last year. The remainder of the funds on hand were to be loaned out, and the interest on this money was to be deposited as a loan fund for the scholarship girls. Often a girl winning scholarships needs some financial help to finish high school, or even the second, third, or fourth year of college. She can then borrow from $15 to $50 from this loan fund, which comes in as a great help. My daughter is planning on entering college the first of September, and on making her scholarship fund go as far as it will on two years of college work. I feel that the scholarship fund is a wonderful thing in club work. I also think that every lady without an exception can give the sum of five cents without missing and girls who long to go to college will be helped by that nickel.

Newlyweds Return After Automobile Tour in Colorado

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Atchison, who were married August 14, have returned to Pampa after an automobile trip to many interesting spots in Colorado. They are residing temporarily at the home of Mrs. Atchison's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Cullum, 911 E. Francis, but later will make their home at 414 N. Gray.

The double ring ceremony, simple but beautiful, took place in the Cullum home with the Rev. G. A. Long, pastor of the First Methodist church, officiating. The bride is a graduate of Woodrow Wilson high school, Dallas, has lived in various cities of the Panhandle, and has been in Pampa since last November. She is an accomplished pianist. Mr. Atchison, an employee of the Cabot company, has lived here for four years. He is formerly of Breckenridge, is a graduate of the Abilene, North Texas State Teachers college, Denton.

Business Women Are Hostesses For Party; Proceeds Will Be Used by Publicity Committee

A pleasant evening of bridge was spent in the Rose building club rooms when members of the Business and Professional Women's club were hostesses Friday evening. Proceeds of the event will be used by the publicity committee to buy a Flex-o-Graph.

The players included Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cee, Mr. and Mrs. Vick Smith, Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Bellamy, Mrs. Stella Bastin, Mrs. Ekham, Mrs. J. H. Dehnert, Mrs. Lee McConnell, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Eckelberry, Mrs. F. M. Foster, Jack Foster, Miss Clara Lee Shewmaker, Mrs. Shinn of Borger, Mrs. Bauer, Miss Marie Bastin, and Mrs. Ed Fowler.

Mrs. Ekham, who won high score, was presented a box of candy, and a package of cookies went to Mrs. Ekham and Mrs. Shinn for making the first grand slam. Mrs. Dehnert and Miss Shewmaker made the first little slam.

Punch and cookies were served at refreshment time.

Lyman to Arrange Brotherhood's Next Program on Tuesday

Harry Lyman will be in charge of the program at the regular dinner of the Men's Brotherhood of the First Presbyterian church Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock.

The program will consist of two short talks and some music. All men of the church are urged to attend the meeting and to bring any friends that may desire to invite.

The first grand slam. Mrs. Dehnert and Miss Shewmaker made the first little slam.

Punch and cookies were served at refreshment time.

Keeping Pupils In School Despite Financial Stress Will be Aim of Parents And Teachers This Year

By MRS. J. M. CRAIN

Now is the time when publicity is needed as never before to enlist the aid of the general public and Parent-Teacher workers in carrying out the purpose suggested by the theme of the 1932 state convention—"Safeguarding Childhood Through This Crisis."

More than 2,000 Parent-Teacher associations in Texas will concentrate their united efforts next year on keeping children in school in spite of adverse business conditions. In September these associations will begin intensive work to insure normal educational opportunities to children living under normal economic stress. Every parent and every teacher should join forces to protect the children in whom they are mutually interested.

Child welfare workers cheerfully accepted their increased responsibilities last year, though many were working under terrific handicaps. Most people are still able to pay a few cents dues for a worthy cause, if they can be made to feel that it is worthy. It is the publicity chairman's responsibility to work closely with the membership chairman and other leaders in creating this sentiment. Now is the time to finish the plans for the work of next year.

Sister MARY'S KITCHEN

By SISTER MARY
NEA Service Writer

Home canning in variety and quantity will definitely reduce next winter's cost of living and should be considered on a business basis, either when we produce or when we buy foods to can. In order to make the most of the investment in equipment and raw food products every homemaker should plan carefully in regard to her own family needs.

The number of jars or cans which can be produced from a bushel of fruits or vegetables will naturally vary slightly according to the size of the pieces, the skill with which the can is packed and the quantity of syrup or juice. But the following table, showing the usual number of one-quart cans one bushel of a certain fruit or vegetable will make may be convenient in estimating your own needs:

- Green or string beans 15 quarts
 - Unshelled lima beans 10 quarts
 - Peas (in pods) 10 quarts
 - Corn (husked) 6 quarts
 - Peaches 16 to 18 quarts
 - Tomatoes 18 quarts
 - Pears 18 quarts
 - Plums 20 quarts
- If you are a family of two or three it is sensible to can most fruits and vegetables in pint jars. A well-packed pint jar will be sufficient for one meal, while a quart can would be too much and the remainder might be wasted if not used quickly. Even a family of four will find such vegetables as peas and lima beans packed in pint jars sufficient for their needs. The family of four or more will use quart jars to advantage.

Before you begin to can, it is a good idea to estimate how many jars you will probably need during the winter for family meals and also for company dinners. A few jars of extra fine products for special occasions are an asset to your stock. Although families differ in the amounts of food used, the calculation for one person can be multiplied by the number in the family and an adequate working basis reached.

For one person for 25 weeks, allow one serving of two vegetables besides potatoes each day, the following budget has been worked out:

- Tomatoes, 3 servings per week, 1-2 cup size of serving, 24 pints.
- Green beans, 2 servings per week, 1-2 cup per serving, 16 pints.
- Corn, 1 serving per week, 1-2 cup per serving, 8 pints.
- Peas, 1 serving per week, 1-2 cup per serving, 4 pints.
- Beets, 1 serving per week, 1-2 cup per serving, 8 pints.

- Monday's Menu
- BREAKFAST: Fried apple sauce, cereal, cooked with dates, cream, crisp toast, milk, coffee.
- LUNCHEON: Eggs in tomato cups, graham rolls, spice cake, milk, tea.
- DINNER: Salisbury steak, creamed potatoes, buttered beans, carrot and cabbage with orange dressing, peanut brittle, ice cream, milk, coffee.

- Carrots, 1 serving per week, 1-2 cup per serving, 8 pints.
 - Soup mixture, 3 servings per week, 1-2 cup per serving, 24 pints.
 - Spinach, 2 servings per week, 1-2 cup per serving, 16 pints.
- If winter vegetables which are stored, such as cabbage, celery, squash, rutabagas and parsnips, are used regularly, the quantity of canned foods required is naturally decreased. If you figure on serving cabbage three times a week, allowing less than one-fourth pound per serving, 20 pounds should be calculated for each person over a period of 32 weeks. Twenty-one pounds of onions will allow two servings per week.
- The dried vegetables, peas, beans, corn and lentils, do their share toward decreasing the amount of canned foods necessary to take one through the winter, too, and should be included in every canning budget.

Standard Buys Kansas Property

CHICAGO, Aug. 20 (AP)—Standard Oil Company of Indiana has announced the purchase for $3,400,000 of certain properties at Neodesha, Kas., of the Standard Oil company of Kansas.

"The purchase includes only physical properties of the Kansas company," Edward G. Seufert, president of Standard of Indiana, announced, "and not acquisition of Standard of Kansas itself. The Kansas company will retain its production properties and various other assets."

The properties acquired, Seufert announced, were an oil refinery and pipeline system in the vicinity of Neodesha. The sale was subject to ratification by Standard of Kansas stockholders at a meeting September 29.

On his first hunting trip, Charles Broyle, 8, of Oakland, Cal., brought down a two-point buck unaided.

Bagby Gives Son Three Years To Show Talent as Big Leaguer

ATLANTA, (AP)—The next three years are going to hold a certain amount of suspense and perhaps some apprehension for Jim Bagby, star pitcher for the Cleveland Indians a dozen years ago.

Jim's stable citizen of Atlanta now, where he is well established in the dry cleaning business. It's Jim Jr., who is causing the uncertainty. Junior is 18 now and beginning to feel out his arm as a sandlot pitcher. He is showing some form, but old Jim can't decide whether his offspring is of big league timber or not.

Time Will Tell.

"It's not so bad," mused the pater. "I figure that by the time he's 19 I'll know whether he'll make a pitcher or not. That's the time to tell."

Bagby said he never thought the boy could pitch a lick until some friends told him he'd better look the kid over. Jim Jr. did some pitching last spring for the junior high school team and later in the summer went on the mound for the North Side Terrors, a local sandlot outfit.

History Against Junior.

The Bagby youngster has a lot of team and good control, but old Jim points out that baseball history shows few sons of great pitchers ever successfully emulate their dads. But to local experts Jim Bagby's boy looks like an exception to the rule.

Father Jim, however, will wait until 1935 before making up his mind definitely. Meantime he's mainly interested in the progress of the Indians.

He reflects on the summer of 1920 when he was pitching for a pennant winning club of Indians. That season Bagby won 31 ball games and lost 12. He wishes he might be pitching for the Indians now—salaries were low in his day.

In 1917 Jim won 25 games and lost 12 which was next to his biggest year with Cleveland and all he got was a $1,000 raise.

"By Whose Hand?" Showing at Rex Is Mystery Tale

Do the thirteen actors playing in Columbia's mystery drama, "By Whose Hand?" showing now at the Rex theater, go in for detective or mystery fiction?

A symposium conducted on the set revealed the interest fact that some of them do like this type of literature and that even those actors who prefer heavier reading confess to being vastly entertained at times by a good thriller book.

Ben Lyon does not read detective stories as a general rule, although, if a good one is highly recommended, he will usually read it. He and his wife, Bebe Daniels, have a library of more than 1,000 books, the bulk of them bequeathed by her grandfather, but he admits that the arduous work of acting and studying scripts affords little time for reading other than weekly newspapers and certain weekly periodicals which keep a busy individual in touch with the world's important news developments.

Barbara Weeks, the heroine of the film, says she loves to read detective and mystery books, having an especial fondness for the works of the late Edgar Wallace, S. S. Van Dine, Mary Roberts Rinehart and A. Conan Doyle's Sherlock Holmes stories.

Ethel Kenyon, one of the feminine heavies in the picture, doesn't go in much for detective books. She seems to be more interested in the Max Beerbohm and John Dos Passos type of literature.

Tom Dugan, who plays the comedy drunk, never reads, either. He prefers O. Henry and Upton Sinclair's books.

Tom McGuire, the conductor, reads even the weekly detective story magazines. He began his literary readings with those hectic blood and thunder Nick Carter detective thrillers and has gone for them ever since.

Nat Pendleton, the burly-wrestler-actor who plays the role of Killer Delmar, devotes practically all his reading to philosophy and psychology. He is a graduate of Columbia and was a close friend of the late Milton Sills, who served for a time as a professor of psychology before taking up acting. Pendleton doesn't read detective fiction at all.

Helen Millard, who plays the interesting widow in the picture, seldom reads detective stories. She prefers biography or books related to the drama.

Kenneth Thompson, who is also a former prominent stage actor, likewise prefers to read plays and books on the drama, but he confesses that whenever he picks up a good detective or mystery story, he is fascinated by it.

Dolores Rey, the former Folles girl just signed to a long term contract by Columbia, prefers to read the most highly recommended current fiction. Books which she has read recently and enjoyed were Somerset Maugham's "The Moon and Sixpence" and "Cakes and Ale," and Dreiser's "The Genius."

William Halligan, who plays the detective, is a widely read man but he said that, while he doesn't read detective or mystery fiction as a general thing, he enjoyed Gilbert Chesterton's famous Father Brown detective stories and the Dashiell Hammett books.

Quality:—

There is plenty of demand for good merchandise—fabrics that will wear—merchandise that will stand up—that will be worth the price you pay for it.

The intelligent customer is fed up on cheap goods, cheap prices, the so-called bargain "Ballyhoo" minus the quality they expect.

MURFEE'S INC. have steadfastly refused to be drawn into the whirlwind of cheap merchandise at a cheap price. No store ever progressed and grew with "Price" its only objective, no matter what the quality.

Careful intelligent buying on our part enables us to offer you Quality Merchandise at the price you want to pay, and quite often for less than so-called bargain prices.

We are not building for today nor tomorrow, but for . . . 1933—1934—1935 and the years to follow.

Respectfully,

GRAY COUNTY WILL SEND MANY BOYS TO FUTURE FARMERS CAMP

CANYON, Aug. 20 (Sp.)—Between seventy-five and one hundred boys belonging to the Future Farmers clubs of the Panhandle will arrive at the Tierra Blanca Farm, one mile east of Canyon, August 23 for their annual two-day encampment. Prof. fessors Frank R. Phillips and T. M. Moore of the department of agriculture at the local college will be in charge of the arrangements here.

Pampa will send thirty boys in charge of J. L. Lester; McLean with A. A. Tampke in charge of twenty to thirty; Hereford three, H. H. Hopkins, teacher; Panhandle, eight, George P. Groat, teacher; Tulla, D. Taylor, teacher, five boys; Dodsonville, F. Deupree, five boys; Dalhart, R. C. Lind, five boys; White Deer, five boys including J. R. Burt-rand, state president of the Future Farmers of Texas.

A business meeting of the vocational agriculture teachers of the Panhandle will be a feature of the Future Farmers encampment. Another feature will be the planning of the Future Farmers exhibits for the Tri-State Fair. Seven schools have already made arrangements to have a booth at the fair. These booths will be in the agriculture building.

Contests in poultry, dairy, and livestock judging will be a feature of the encampment at Canyon as the boys who are coming want to get practice to qualify to have the judging contest at the Amarillo Tri-State Fair.

The Tierra Blanca Farm at which the encampment will be held has a swimming pool and the farm will furnish barbecue for the visitors Friday night.

It is believed that the encampment this year will be the largest in the history of the Panhandle Future Farmers association.

Gusts Does No Better Than 5th

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Aug. 20. (AP)—Gusto, leading money winning three-year-old, today was made a 6 to 5 favorite for the 3rd running of America's oldest thoroughbred race, the Travers, but could do no better than fifth in a field of seven as War Hero won the $23,150 by four lengths.

War Hero, sporting the silks of the Glen Riddle Farms, ran a perfect race under guidance of Johnny Gilbert. He was never far off the pace and once Gilbert gave the word he bounded to the front, easily conquering Mrs. I. D. Sloane's Monday, a 30 to 1 shot. W. S. Kilmer's Sunnuss was another length to the rear in third place while W. R. Coe's Osculator beat Gusto by a half-length. Back of the Morton L. Schwartz colt trailed Stephen-licht and Pardee.

S. B. Snow, chief of the forest service in California, has announced $3,584,615 will be expended by congressional action in the fiscal year in national forests within the state.

August 16, 1932

TO THE VOTERS OF GRAY COUNTY:

IT HAS come to the attention of the undersigned that Philip Wolfe, now a candidate for the office of County Judge in your County, is being accused of causing, tending to cause, or having been instrumental in the closing of the Plainview National Bank in Plainview, Texas.

The undersigned knew Mr. Wolfe for the four and one-half years he lived in Plainview, and knows that he sustained an excellent reputation in all respects while here; that he had no connection with the Plainview National Bank or any other Bank in Plainview during such time as he resided here or since other than a depositor; that the reports being circulated in Gray County to the effect above mentioned are utterly false.

Yours very truly,
DAN M. COOK, Chairman Democratic Executive Committee, Hale County Texas.

Due to the fact that certain rumors have been started concerning Judge Philip Wolfe, and his alleged connection with various defunct banking institutions and certain other institutions and tales about his character, we give the FACTS below in order that the HONEST voter of Gray County may know the truth.

TO THE CITIZENS OF GRAY COUNTY:

WHEREAS, a former citizen of Mineral Wells, Philip Wolfe is now making the race for the office of County Judge of Gray County, Texas, we having been informed that there is being circulated a statement that the said Philip Wolfe, our former citizen and neighbor, was connected with the bank of Mineral Wells when the same went broke in 1925, said statement being made for the purpose of putting a blot upon Mr. Wolfe's reputation.

WE, the undersigned citizens, having lived in Mineral Wells for the past 15 years or more, and having been well acquainted with the banking institutions of our city and with Mr. Wolfe, do say that Mr. Philip Wolfe was not connected with the Bank of Mineral Wells when the same closed in 1925 or for many years prior thereto. Mr. Wolfe at one time did work merely as an employee of said bank, which was many years prior to the closing of said Bank.

WHEREAS, a former citizen of Eastland, Texas, Philip Wolfe is now making the race for the office of County Judge of Gray County, Texas, and WHEREAS, the undersigned have been informed that there is now being circulated a statement that the said Philip Wolfe, our former citizen and neighbor, was connected with the First State Bank of Eastland, Texas, when the same went broke. The undersigned state that Mr. Wolfe was not connected with the First State Bank, at the time that it discontinued business, and we further state that he was never at any time connected with any bank in Eastland, Texas at the time said bank closed.

We further state that Philip Wolfe served the City of Eastland as City Commissioner for about three years during our boom period and, in addition, acted as Treasurer for the City of Eastland during such time, and we are glad to state that he not only made a good, fair and conservative city Commissioner, but he was also an efficient, capable and accurate Treasurer and the audit of the City Books covering his service showed every item of the city receipts and expenditures properly accounted for.

We take pleasure in commending to you citizens of Gray County our former citizen and neighbor, PHILIP WOLFE.

Plainview, Texas

August 16th, 1932

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

This statement is to certify from my own personal knowledge that Philip S. Wolfe of Pampa, Texas, former Plainview citizen, has never been in any way officially connected or associated with any bank in the city of Plainview.

Yours very truly,

J. L. JACOBS, President.

Gatesville, Texas

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

My attention has been called to the fact that my friend Philip Wolfe, is in the run-off race for county judge of Gray County. I have known Mr. Wolfe about 13 years and unhesitatingly recommend him to the moral and Christian forces of Gray County.

The report that he is using his church relations merely as a tool to catch voters, and that he has not long been a member of the Methodist Church is utterly without foundation. Mr. Wolfe and his wife have been devoted Christians and church workers ever since I knew them and long before. He was superintendent of the Sunday school 13 years ago, where I first came in contact with him as pastor, and was also a member of the board of stewards. Under his administration, our church built up the largest Sunday school attendance ever known in its history.

While Mr. Wolfe has always been a loyal churchman, yet far be it from him to try in any way to use his church as a stepping stone to his political success. He is not that kind of a man. If he can't win the office on merit and genuine ability, I am persuaded he would not want the office at all.

I have no interest of course in the campaign, other than to have all good people know the real facts about a man who is entirely worthy of their confidence and who if elected would give, them in my judgement an administration that would be a credit to your county.

Sincerely,

ROY A. LANGSTON,
Presiding Elder of the Gatesville District, Central Texas Conference,

M. E. LAWRENCE, Attorney-at-Law
201 Sikes Building
Eastland, Texas

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

You are advised that during the years of 1926-27, I was actively engaged in the liquidating of the First State Bank of Eastland, Texas, in the capacity as attorney for the liquidation.

That the records of said bank did not reflect that Philip Wolfe, was connected with the Bank at the time it closed in 1924. That I was acquainted with Mr. Wolfe, while he resided in Eastland, Texas, and know that he had left Eastland more than three years before the First State Bank closed its doors.

I am glad to recommend Mr. Wolfe as one who is capable of handling the affairs of the office which he seeks.

Your very truly,

M. E. LAWRENCE.

The PEOPLES COLUMN

Editor, The NEWS:
The grades of all milk and milk supplies distributed in the city of Pampa have been determined by the local health department in accordance with the standard grade specifications of the U. S. Public Health Service standard inspection code and ordinances of the city of Pampa.

Milk consumers in the city of Pampa are urged by the city health department to purchase milk and milk supplies on the basis of grade; each bottle of milk sold within the city limits of the city of Pampa is marked with a grade appearing on the cap, and the different grades offered for sale by restaurants, soda fountains, grocery stores, etcetera are conspicuously posted in order that the consumer may be advised at all times as to the grade of milk purchased. As a matter of information, grade "A" pasteurized milk is the safest pasteurized grade, and certified and grade "A" raw milk are the safest raw grades.

The distributors and the grades of milk and milk products distributed within the city of Pampa are as follows:

Gray County Creamery, permit No. 12, grade "A" pasteurized milk; Taylor Farm Dairy, permit No. 1, grade "B" raw milk and grade "A" raw milk; Bennett Farm Dairy, permit No. 24, grade "A" raw milk; Montgomery Farm Dairy, permit No. 5, grade "A" raw milk; Spruill's Farm Dairy, permit No. 10, grade "A" raw milk.

DR. T. J. WORRELL,
Assistant Health Officer,
City of Pampa.

Editor, The NEWS:
We desire to avail ourselves, through your paper, of this opportunity to commend our sheriff, Mr. Lon L. Blanscet, and his force, for their untiring efforts in apprehending the bandits who held up and abused employees at our refinery east of Pampa on the early morning of August 18.

We consider that Mr. Blanscet handled this case most efficiently, and we feel that the people of Gray county are fortunate indeed in having for their sheriff a man of his character and capabilities.

Our employees join us in extending to Mr. Blanscet our appreciation of his valuable services.

Yours very truly,

HOLLYWOOD — In this unreal parade:

In the days before Vitaphone put the Warner Bros. up there among film leaders Rin-Tin-Tin was one star absolutely untemperamental, who could be relied upon to click steadily at the box office.

His death the other day at 14 years of age was a real blow, for "Rinty" was a personality far more vivid a lot of human actors.

Rin-Tin-Tin Jr., equally well trained in camera technique, will carry on in pictures, being the first "second generation" actor in a dog family.

Work Before Pleasure

Lee Tracy back in school days used to be something of a track man. He used to think nothing could be greater than to win a trip to the Olympic games. During the games here in Los Angeles he's been working so steadily he hasn't had time even to run out to the stadium. Isn't it always the way?

It's a more restrained Missa Landi who appears in "A Passport to Hell", which will inevitably be compared to Tallulah Bankhead's "Thunder Below" and Ann Harding's "Prestige" since it has the setting of the latter and the situation of the former, but it is better than either—fortunately for Miss Landi.

News travels fast in Hollywood. An executive lost his job one morning, and that noon went to lunch at one of those tourist spots where the headwaiter knows everybody of importance and seats accordingly. The deposed executive, knowing his Hollywood, was not surprised to be hurriedly shown to an obscure table in a corner.

Surprises

Motion Picture's Herald's recent poll of exhibitors to determine the leading box-office stars revealed a few surprises. In order of money making importance they are Marie Dressler, Janet Gaynor, Joan Crawford, Charles Farrell, Greta Garbo, Will Rogers, Norma Shearer, Wallace Beery, Clark Gable and Joe E. Brown—the first ten.

Other leaders include the Marx Brothers, Wheeler and Woolsey, Eddie Cantor, Maurice Chevalier, Constance Bennett, George Arliss, James Dunn, Sally Eilers, Marlene Dietrich and Lionel Barrymore.

Amusing is the fact that Jonny Weissmuller was mentioned just a few times more in the voting than was John Barrymore.

FRENCH HUNT JUNGLE GOLD
CUYABA, Matto Grosso, Brazil, Aug. 20 (AP)—French engineers are exploring gold bearing lands along the Rio Gaupore, which marks the boundary between Brazil and Bolivia. They are trying to ascertain the exact scope of the region's mineral wealth.

SACRED IMAGES SPARED BY HURRICANE

Though houses on all sides were wrecked, and the church was ripped to pieces, figures of the Virgin Mary and Christ were found standing, unscathed, in the ruins of a Catholic church at Danbury, Texas, after the hurricane that swept over the coastal region, southwest of Houston. The church roof is seen in the background at the right, while the star railing, pews and other wreckage is strewn about the images. The monstrance, still upright, is seen at the lower left.

I'LL MARRY YOU FOR $10,000'

NAN FORSYTH offered to marry JERVIS WEARE on a strictly business basis, cash on delivery. He needed a bride on 24 hours notice; she wanted the money, not for herself, but for her sister.

To WEARE it was an astounding proposal from a stranger; for NAN it was a chance on which she was willing to risk her own happiness, her whole future. This is the story of

Nothing Venture

by PATRICIA WENTWORTH

Both parties expected their strange relationship to end with the "I do." Neither could foresee the weird chain of events which would make them allies in a fantastic struggle for WEARE's life against an unknown, unseen foe.

Here is a story of adventure, romance and mystery, a serial alive with action, racing along a course of thrills and surprises. It vibrates with fascinating excitement and suspense from start to finish.
