'MA' FERGUSON'S LEAD GROWING

Legislators Vote Down Economy Moves In First Act of Session

PAMPA TOPIC OF OUR CITY

The Pampa is obliged to continue the call for donations to the school supply fund for destitute children. Won't you help just a little? The Welfare Board is swamped with demands for school supplies and clothing, without which many pupils cannot enter school next week. The need is NOW, and it is imperative that the children get an even start with those more fortunate. Make a small gift to the school supply fund by leaving it at the NEWS to be acknowledged by this columnist. And if you do not wish to help this fund, leave some garments at the Welfare Board office.

Who will be Texas' governor? Who should be? Well, at this writing we don't know the answer to the first question. The official state canvass will not be made by the democratic committee until September 12. Texans were not very sure themselves as to who should be governor. Each candidate accused the other of extravagance. Each charged that the other was the friend of the "interests." Not a few voters had the idea that they might each be right. Anyhow, half of Texas is sure to be disappointed.

Regardless of who is the democratic gubernatorial nominee, the problems of Texas will be blamed for the narrowness of the margin of victory. It is claimed, with some justification, that the republicans who voted in this primary, and for Ma, cut down Sterling's lead by a total, possibly greater than the margin between the two candidates.

Everywhere we go this week we hear boasts out of those Kiwanians. Peta Post heads the propaganda corps which is trying to undermine the morale of the Lions before the big charity game Wednesday afternoon at Magnolia park. The time will be 4:30 p. m. and the admission two bits. And by the way, the civic club members wish a bigger audience than saw the Lions when the Rotarians (or, as the wheelmen say, with the help of Dutch, Mantell).

Let the Kiwanians talk, say we. They must be talking before the game because after we Lions got through pounding the pellet all the Kiwanians will have left will be alibis. That's our story and we'll stick to it. We are not underrating those Kiwanians. They have enticed about half the men in town lately and they have big league stars enough to light up every base and the outer garden too. But we can't believe they are stronger than those Rotarians. Frankly, after playing softball we can't see the hard one as Ollie Mitchell throws it. He struck us out, he did, after falling to drop our pop fly as a favor for his old classmate. We are after his scalp, and he'd better beat Amarillo this year!

Now seriously folks—you intelligent people who read this space daily—won't you give up two bits for the sake of the crippled and under-nourished children and see this Kiwanis-Lions game Wednesday? Come out and laugh. Laugh at us, if you must, but there will be plenty of clear business men to chuckle about, too. And if you think you can bust the type of pitching you will see, you can have our bat and welcome. Anyhow, come on out, enjoy yourself, and do the kids a good turn.

It's a challenge, and our gustatory integrity is at stake. Miss Ruby Adams, home demonstration agent, and Mrs. C. A. Tignor, who knows her cooking, have promised to make the Pampa like carrots. Carrots, we might add, should be seasoned as rabbit fodder. We don't like them. The carrots we have promised to eat, however, will be picked. If we get by them safely, we may try a carrot pie guaranteed to taste like pumpkin. To get in training, we ate eating spinach, mustard greens, and cauliflower.

Talk of third parties and independent candidates was so rampant yesterday that we wondered whether the party discipline had any bearing whatever in local politics.

TAX-RELIEF DEMANDED

STERLING ASKS SOLONS TO WORK QUICKLY AND CHEAPLY

AUSTIN, Aug. 30 (AP)—The Texas legislature, convened in special session by Governor R. S. Sterling to consider enactment of tax relief laws, got under way here today after refusing to reduce the pay of its own members from $10 to $5 or $7.50 per day.

The chief executive's message, proposing a law to allot a portion of the state highway fund to relieve counties and road districts of interest and principal on bonds issued to build highways and suggesting other statutes designed to help the taxpayers over a rough economic crisis, was received by members of the house in silence.

The senate deferred reading the governor's message until tomorrow. Laws remitting interest and penalties on delinquent taxes, provided they are paid by January 31, 1933, and amendments to statutes governing the manner in which insurance companies shall place investments also were asked. Alteration of insurance and building and loan association laws were requested to permit them to purchase stock in federal farm loan banks, recently set up by congress.

Bills covering the subjects submitted by the governor were introduced in both houses.

The governor appealed to the legislators to hold down the expense of the special session.

One Week Sufficient.

"I sincerely trust and entreat that you work with utmost speed," he said in his message. He suggested that not more than one week should be required to consider and enact the relief legislation proposed.

Walker Is Ill of Nervous Exhaustion

NEW YORK, Aug. 30 (AP)—George S. Collins, the mayor's secretary, said today Mayor James J. Walker is ill in bed with nervous exhaustion and had been ordered by his physician to take a complete rest.

Collins said the mayor has made no plans yet to return to Albany for the resumption Friday afternoon of the hearing before Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt on the removal charges against him.

"Whether Mayor Walker may ask the governor for a postponement," Collins said, "will all depend on his condition."

ECLIPSE MAY BE SEEN HERE

NOT ANOTHER FOR 31 YEARS, SAY SCIENTISTS

How the eclipse of the sun on August 31 will be caused by the moon's shadow is illustrated in the above diagram, which also shows the narrow belt of total eclipse that will begin in the Arctic circle at sunrise, cross part of Canada and New England, and end in the Atlantic ocean at sunset. Areas outside the path of totality will see a partial eclipse, the sun being on'y partly obscured by the moon. The small chart at the lower left shows the limits of the partial eclipse. The overlapping circles at the right show the extent to which the sun is hidden by the moon over various cities.

A period of just 100 precious seconds—not to be repeated again for 31 years.

Observers in the United States and Canada should look carefully at the total eclipse of the sun on Wednesday, Aug. 31, for they will not see such an awe-inspiring spectacle again until July 20, 1963.

Still that's not as bad as it might be.

Up to just a couple of weeks ago, astronomers were saying that another total eclipse of the sun would not be visible in the United States and Canada until Oct. 12, 1997, which is 65 years hence.

Then they made a startling discovery. And that discovery makes an interesting story. It goes this way:

Back in 1887, Dr. Theodore von Oppolzer, an Austrian astronomer, completed the monumental task of charting and mapping 8000 eclipses of the sun from the year 1207 B. C. to 2162 A. D. He published his charts and the maps in book form.

GLEN ELDER, Kas., Aug. 30 (AP)—B. H. Lockridge, cashier, was released today near Hunter, Kas., by the three men who kidnaped him after robbing the Glen Elder State bank of approximately $3,000. He notified officers here that he was unharmed.

ST. PAUL, Aug. 30 (AP)—Ralph Stonehouse of Indianapolis romped over the Keller course with 70 to-day to take the lead in the race for the professional championship golf medal. His rounds were 35-35.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30 (AP)—The stock market again churned about without getting anywhere in particular today. Alternate strength in various groups failed to attract a following and the list ran into considerable selling in the last few minutes. The close was irregular with most net changes narrow. Transfers approximated 3,300,000 shares.

BOVINA, Aug. 30 (AP)—Hampered by continued rainfall last night and today, weary searching parties still were seeking to recover two of the bodies of four persons drowned in Runner Water creek, head waters of the Brazos river, early Monday.

The body of Mrs. C. B. Waddell of Friona was recovered Monday afternoon when the torrential waters deposited it on high ground about 50 yards from the bank and 13 miles downstream. The body of her daughter, Virginia, 4, was found at 9:30 a. m., today at Lagoodie bridge five miles from Friona.

The bodies of Vivian Waddell, 6, and Richard Caldwell, 21, who lost their life, were missing. One-half inch of rain fell last night to add to the 1 inches which fell during a heavy downpour Sunday afternoon and night. Traffic over state highway No. 39 was being detoured at a point between Friona and Bovina to a county road between Dimmitt and Bovina. It was a detour that led to an unbridged cross that the Waddell family were trapped early Monday morning while returning from a trip into New Mexico. Waddell, after his motor stalled, carried his two-year-old baby to safety but saw his wife and two small daughters swept away before he could return to their rescue.

Enrollment of New Students and Football Men Starts Friday Afternoon. Faculty members of the schools of Pampa independent district, who promised to arrive by Thursday, will have their first session with Supt. R. B. Fisher and their principals Friday morning at 9 o'clock in the study hall. In the afternoon they will begin enrolling the football men and new students of the high school. This

Eclipse Time Table for Key Cities of Nation

The time that the eclipse of the sun can be seen in various cities of the United States and Canada on Aug. 31, and the extent to which the sun will be obscured by the moon, is given here. The hour is expressed in local standard time in each case.

City	Pct. of Time of Totality Maximum
Portland, Me.	100 3:30 p. m.
Montreal	100 3:24 p. m.
New York	95 3:34 p. m.
Washington	89 3:35 p. m.
Cleveland	87 3:27 p. m.
Cincinnati	80 2:29 p. m.
Chicago	79 2:20 p. m.
St. Louis	71 2:25 p. m.
Kansas City	65 2:19 p. m.
New Orleans	59 2:43 p. m.
Denver	49 1:05 p. m.
Portland, Or.	33 11:29 a. m.
S. Francisco	15 1:41 p. m.

The percentage of totality in Pampa has been estimated at 50 per cent. The maximum totality will be about 2:28 p. m., according to local mathematicians, but those who wish to see the phenomenon are advised to rely on these figures only as suggestive.

The eclipse will be total over a belt 100 miles wide. The center of totality runs down from Canada through Derby, Vt., across the White mountains in New Hampshire, through Fryeburg and Biddeford in Maine and out across Massachusetts bay.

Along the New England coast line, the 100-mile belt extends from Beverly, Mass., to Wiscasset, Me. In the area of totality, the sun will be blotted out for 100 seconds in Canada and about 90 seconds in New England. From beginning

WELFARE BOARD NEEDS MORE CLOTHING FOR POOR CHILDREN

The demand for clothing for children of school age is so much greater than the supply that the Welfare Board is wondering how many pupils will be able to enroll next week.

Yesterday the proration office, through the interest of J. M. McDonald, arranged to fit out one youth. If other firms would do similarly, the problem would be minimized. Many of the churches are clothing children of the needy in their denominations, but there are other children of families of no such affiliation. Mothers unable to clothe their children are calling upon the welfare office for help.

The keenest need right now is for clothing for boys of the 'teen age. These demand garments which will wear well. Providing of dresses for the girls is not so difficult, especially with the church women sewing industriously.

The welfare office has been busy with cases of illness for several days. For three successive nights Mrs. W. H. Davis, manager, has been called at night. Two "baby cases" and one serious illness were involved. The maternity cases necessitated calling of physicians and furnishing medical supplies for the events.

Impeachment of Hindenberg Is Asked by Woman

BERLIN, Aug. 30 (AP)—The impeachment of President von Hindenberg and the cabinet of Chancellor Franz von Papen on charges that they had violated the constitution was demanded today by Clara Zetkin, 75-year-old "grandmother of the German revolution" and a communist leader, when in the capacity of senior member she opened the first session of the Reichstag.

Three hours before the session assembled, the president announced he was in complete accord with the program presented to him by the chancellor and was ready to provide emergency decrees to put it in operation. The government went before the new Reichstag with defiance for the opposition, the bulk of which is led by Adolf Hitler.

"The immediate duty of the Reichstag is to overthrow the cabinet and impeach the Reich's president and the ministers for violation of the constitution," Frau Zetkin said in her opening address.

"Political powers for the moment has been seized by a presidential cabinet formed by the elimination of the Reichstag," she continued.

Strong police guards were at all approaches to the Reichstag building and tickets of admission, having been procured weeks in advance, were no longer available. No one without a pass was allowed near the building and those who did get in were obliged to show their tickets five times on the way to the assembly hall.

AHEAD 1,463 VOTES, COUNT NEARS FINISH

POPULOUS EAST TEXAS COUNTIES SHOW MAJORITIES

JULY COUNT EXCEEDED

CONTENTION EXPECTED WHEN VOTES ARE CANVASSED

DALLAS, Aug. 30 (AP)—Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson continued to increase her lead over Gov. R. S. Sterling in the race for the democratic nomination for governor as further returns were compiled this afternoon by the Texas Election Bureau.

Forging ahead last night, the former woman governor built up a lead that totaled 1,463 on the 1:30 p. m. tabulation. The vote, compiled from all of the 254 counties, 237 complete, was: Mrs. Ferguson 474,813; Governor Sterling, 473,350.

The vote in the last 13 counties to report was: Andrews-Ferguson 158, Sterling 131; Burleson-Ferguson 2205, Sterling 872; Collinsworth-Ferguson 1487, Sterling 1116; Crockett-Ferguson 163, Sterling 488; Donley-Ferguson 891, Sterling 1361; Gaines-Ferguson 328, Sterling 399; Hardeman-Ferguson 1281, Sterling 1545; Reagan-Ferguson 211, Sterling 154; Loving-Ferguson 148, Sterling 90; McMullen-Ferguson 131, Sterling 74; Reeves-Ferguson 391, Sterling 882; Roberts-Ferguson 144, Sterling 427.

Mrs. Ferguson's lead resulted chiefly with the reporting of complete returns from Victoria, Lavaca, Waller and Van Zandt counties, all of which gave her a majority. Of the 30 incomplete counties, Governor Sterling was leading in 18.

The bureau said it was unable to make an estimate of the number of votes yet to be tabulated, since some of the incomplete counties had already exceeded the number of ballots cast in the July primary and upon which the bureau had based previous estimates.

Mistake Corrected. Both candidates remained in Austin today, each confident that the official count would be in their favor. The governor was busy with the convening of the Legislature into special session, which he called to consider proposals he had advocated in the heated campaign with Mrs. Ferguson, whose speech-making burden was left to her husband, James A. Ferguson, also a former governor.

A newspaperman telephoned from the pine woods of East Texas that returns from two neighboring counties had been listed erroneously—in one case because the word "nme" sounds like the word "five" when spoken over a telephone.

The bureau telephoned officials and got a confirmation of the corrections. With a few other votes, they took the lead away from Sterling and gave Mrs. Ferguson a lead

SCHOOL BAND WILL PLAY AT AMARILLO FAIR

Frazier's Musicians To Be Featured Attraction

Pampa Central high school's band will be one of the featured musical organizations at the Tri-State fair, it was announced today at the Board of City Development.

The band, directed by "Pop" Frazier, will broadcast a 30-minute program during the morning of September 23, and will play at various points on the fairgrounds, including the grandstand for the afternoon rodeo. Amarillo fair officials wish Pampans to make September 23 the special day on which to attend.

In the evening, a Pampa program, arranged by George Briggs, will be broadcast to complete the day's activity of the Pampa group.

ACHIEVEMENT DAY FOLLOWS COUNTY FAIRS

Held in September Before Climactic Event

Gray county women's clubs, assisted by Miss Ruby Adams, demonstration agent, are busily preparing for a series of community fairs which will precede the home demonstration achievement day and boys' club show to be held here September 14 and 15.

The community fair dates are: September 1—Laketon. September 2—McLean. September 3—Bell. September 6—Kingsmill. September 8—Alanreed. September 9—Back. September 12—Merter. September 13—Friscola club, Parlington.

Miss Adams believes that not less than 90 per cent of the club women will have two or more entries for home demonstration achievement day. Every club will be competing for honors in the communities and later at the Gray county event at Pampa, where the B. C. D. will award ribbons. The best of the winning entries here will be taken to Amarillo and judged before being placed in the district exhibit.

To Show at Fair. A number of Gray county women also will enter the domestic science competition at the Tri-State fair, including that of the clothing and canning. They hope to repeat the success they have had in other years. There are many skilled women among the club memberships. The county council of clubs will meet here on the second afternoon of the achievement day event.

Club boys of the county will have a big part in the event with their field crop exhibits. Their livestock show will be held later. County Agent Ralph Thomas today was assisting Gray county dairymen and hog raisers in making up their final

A CURRENT HERO

Add to the list of unsung heroes the name of Motorman William Lang, a gray-haired veteran of the gleaming rails who for the past 33 years has been employed by an electric interurban line operating between Cleveland and Toledo.

Maybe you read the story of what he did, and maybe you didn't—for such items have a habit of getting buried in the mass of daily news about revolutions in some far-off country, endurance flyers, channel swimmers and things like that.

The fast Cleveland-Toledo limited, which Motorman Lang was piloting, rounded a curve at 55 miles an hour near Lorain, Ohio. In the middle of the track, with the onrushing electric car bearing down on it, Lang saw a small child, Leila Smith, 2 years old, had toddled away from her nearby home and chosen the track as a nice place to play with her doll.

Instantly, Lang slapped on his air brakes, gave sand to the grinding wheels, threw the motor into reverse. But, as he realized, even that wasn't enough to stop the heavy interurban car in time.

Lang left the cab of his speeding car and climbed out on foot. Clinging with one hand, he reached down with the other. Two baby arms raised above a terrified child's face, reached up to him. He grasped the child and snatched her into his arms, held her there safely until the big interurban car finally came to a stop a hundred feet further on. Leila was unconscious from the shock of the impact but, thank God, she was still alive.

The world will forget, as the world has a habit of doing, the name of William Lang. But for little Leila Smith, if she lives to be 100, no story-book hero can ever take the place of William Lang, who risked his life to save her.

Farm Index Up Two Points; Due To Better Prices

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—The upward climb of commodity prices was reported by the department of agriculture today to have sent the farm index up two points August 15 as compared with July 15, and 7 points above the record low in June.

The index was 59 per cent of pre-war prices.

The improvement in the prices of cotton, corn, potatoes, eggs and milk and material gains in the prices of wheat, soy cotton seed, butter, and wool were held responsible by the department for the advance since July 15. Advances in these more than offset downward price trends for oats, barley, flaxseed and hay, a sharp break in the farm price of apples and a reaction in prices paid producers for neat animals following the advance from June to July.

Farm prices of hogs, which began the upward movement in prices, declined approximately 4 per cent in the last month, attributed largely to increased slaughter supplies and a weaker demand for products. A 2 per cent increase in the farm

Ritchie Is on Way To Visit Roosevelt

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—Governor Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland visited the national campaign headquarters today at the Alamy where he was to be the opponent of Governor Frank P. Roosevelt, democratic presidential candidate.

Governor Ritchie himself a candidate for the presidential nomination at the Chicago convention in June, was asked by E. E. Smith to take any part in the campaign. "I don't know," was his reply. "I admit that he had called Smith on the telephone, 'just to say, hey,'" Governor Ritchie admitted, "but there was some disappointment among his friends in Maryland because he himself was not the candidate."

"But that will wear away before election day," he said. "I think there is going to be a dramatic sweep," he added. "The chicken is out of the pot, and the two cars are not in the garage."

price of wheat was attributed by the department to a decline in the condition of spring wheat and to indications that world supplies of the grain are smaller than a year ago.

Pampa Orchestra At Gallup Event

Andy Andrews has returned from New Mexico but he left his orchestra playing in New Mexico and Arizona. Andy and his boys left here two weeks ago to play for the Inter-Tribal ceremonies at Gallup.

The orchestra played for 12 dances at Gallup, N. M., and Winslow, Flagstaff, Arizona. Mr. Andrews is one of the owners of the Pla-Mor auditorium. Ham Crawford and his orchestra are furnishing music now. "Pampa sure looked good after New Mexico and Arizona," Andy remarked upon his return.

ECLIPSE--

to end the eclipse will last approximately two hours.

Outside the area of totality there will be a partial eclipse in every part of the United States. In the east the sun will be reduced to a crescent thin enough to change the color of daylight and bring a slight coolness to the air. From midwest to the east the eclipse is only something to be looked at through smoking glasses.

To witness the corona, one must go to the area where the eclipse will be total. The cost of observation has been estimated at $1,000 a second. There will not be another eclipse visible in New England until 1933.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—An ominous "partly cloudy" is the forecast for tomorrow's weather—day of the sun's eclipse.

It applies to most all the New England territory in the path of total eclipse where astronomers and brother scientists have made elaborate preparations for observing the phenomenon.

But for a corner of Massachusetts in the belt of totality the more optimistic prediction of "fair and warmer" was given by the forecaster.

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE, Associated Press Science Editor. Artist Wood Paul It.

CONWAY, N. H., Aug. 30.—Painting the rare-hued corona in natural colors in 90 seconds during the total eclipse of the sun tomorrow, one lone artist will undertake a harder task than any of the 200 astronomers.

While these scientists are putting the finishing touches to equipment representing an expense of about $1,000 a second for observation, Charles Bittinger, Washington and Luxbury, Mass., artist, one of the world war camouflage pioneers, is having out on a table in the middle of a big field the color elements of an unknown problem.

He plans to mix his pigments to catch a true record of the most fleeting and rarest color display in the world. He pits a lifetime of judgment of color and form against a split second schedule and against such factors as the "Purkinje effect."

That is the unknown amount of the precious 90 second which the retina of his eye will need to adjust from the last ray of real day light to the sudden darkness of eclipse. This "Purkinje effect" is the reason why usually "all cats look grey at night."

Eclipse Booms Business

CONWAY, N. H., Aug. 30.—As the hour draws near for tomorrow's solar eclipse, this town begins to assume the aspects of a boom village.

The 200 and more scientists assembled hereabouts from all parts of this country and many foreign nations to witness the spectacle were in virtual readiness today but difficulties were accumulating in other directions.

Scores of visitors began to pour in by automobile, only to find the restricted accommodations were already taxed. Although a few rooms remained available in private homes, even those were dwindling rapidly.

LEAD--

Efforts of an economic block in the house to keep expenses down by reducing pay of legislators and employees were defeated. Mrs. Helen Moore of Texas City proposed that the legislators' per diem set at a maximum of $10 by the constitution be reduced to $7.50. The vote against that was 50 to 69. G. V. Lee of Eden sought to fix the per diem at $5 but his amendment lost 21 to 93.

Attempts to pay the stenographers for six days work instead of several, when members called attention to a portion of the house in members.

Haley N. Graves of Georgia, arguing for the Moore amendment, fixing pay of legislators at $7.50 daily, said "this is the proper time to start an effort toward economy," but his plea went unheeded.

Each member of the house was allotted $10 for postage stamps and $15 for telephone and long-distance tolls. An amendment to reduce this by fifty per cent was defeated. The only retrenchment ordered was effected by an amendment to a resolution proposing that each member be permitted to subscribe to three daily newspapers, the pay to come from the contingent expense fund. The number of papers to be

Bond Load Cited

The primary purpose of the special session is to enact legislation setting aside a sufficient portion of the state highway funds to pay interest and sinking fund due this year, and in succeeding years, on bonds heretofore issued by counties and road districts to help finance construction of state highways," the governor said.

In many counties these road bond taxes are a ruinous load on the backs of the people, running as high as $2 on the $100 valuation in some instances. The cost of building state roads in late years should never have been saddled upon the bonus, farms, ranches, and other property of the people; it should have been derived from the traffic on the roads. In the present acute emergency the state should act quickly to assume the outstanding bonds of counties and road districts affected, so that their tax rates may be reduced accordingly.

Delinquent Taxes

A bill was enacted at my request a year ago, waiving interest and penalties accrued on delinquent taxes that should be paid on or before last January 31. This legislation justly relieved the taxpayer of an enormous burden at a time when he needed the relief, and also it encouraged the payment of delinquent taxes at a time when the state needed revenues. The measure should be re-enacted, so that all interest and penalties will be released on delinquent taxes that are paid on or before January 31, 1933. Its enactment at this time, rather than at the next regular session, is greatly desirable, for that it will enable the taxpayers to know what to expect and what to plan for, and will avoid much confusion which would result in event of the state's collecting the interest and penalties on delinquent taxes paid during the remainder of this year, and then having to remit them should a penalty release law be passed in January.

Other Laws Asked

"I have called the legislature into session to enact a bill allowing insurance companies and building and loan associations to make investments in the stock of the federal home loan banks created by the recent act of congress, and the home owners might have the benefit of those institutions in financing and extending loans on their homesteads. Under our present laws these institutions have no authority to invest their funds in the federal home loan bank. This measure is desirable simply to give them that authority, and let them participate in the relief program provided by congress, and save their home titles from loss by foreclosure."

Bus Schedule

The buses will start operating on schedule September 5. The drivers and routes are as follows: Bus No. 1—W. H. certificates must be presented as proof. Birth certificates are required for all pupils entering school for the first time. No pupil may enter the first time whose sixth birthday comes after September 1. Parents may make affidavits as their child's age if they are unable to obtain birth certificates. New high school students must present their report cards unless they have transcripts of their records on file with the registrar here.

The Requirements

High school students must have 3 units of credit to be a sophomore, 7 units to be a junior, and 11 units to be enrolled as a senior. These units may not include activity credits. The requirements for high school graduation are 16 "solid" units and 1 unit of some activity. Students expecting to enter college later must take 4 units of English, 2 units of social science (including one in history), 2 units of algebra, 1 unit of plane geometry, and 2 units of a foreign language, ancient or modern.

Supr. Fisher said that the slogan this year would be "Better Schooling for Less Money." He pointed out that the faculty could only make the best use of the funds entrusted to the teachers. Since opening of the school offices, the superintendent and principal have been busy interviewing callers, including applicants for teaching positions. Few positions need to be filled, and it is possible that not all of the 95 teachers expected to arrive by Thursday can be used.

Ward Zones

Horace Mann school, located in west part of town, will include all students who live on and west of Hobart street beginning at the southern limits of the city, extending south to the Santa Fe railway; thence east to West street, north on west street to Montague, one block west to Ward street, thence north to Hobart street across on Lincoln avenue, one block west to Banks street, and then north to city limits. The Woodrow Wilson school in the east part of town and Sam Houston school in the north part of town will be divided by a zone line running north on Ballard to Sunset Drive to Yeager, thence north to the city limits. The Baker school will include all additions south of the Santa Fe railway except Finley-Banks and Lancaster. All sixth and seventh grade students will report to the east wing of the Central high school.

NEW GAS BOMB MAKES BANDITS MEEK BY GIVING THEM FORM OF DRYLAND SICKNESS

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE.
 PITTSBURGH, Pa.—A new bandit gas that makes its victims meek has been developed here. Its name is diphenylaminechloroform, which means that it is composed of carbon, hydrogen, nitrogen, chlorine and a trace of phosphorus. It is said to be as harmless as tear gas, but capable of taking the resistance out of a criminal for about 15 times as long.

The actual contents of the "sea-sick bomb" is not a gas, but a solid, yellow-green, faintly aromatic. Upon bursting, contact with the atmosphere creates a canary-yellow smoke. The sufferer of this smoke, coughs, becomes nauseated and goes through other experiences of seasickness.

W. W. Long, president of the Federal Laboratories, which developed the bomb, says:

"For quite a time following the world war, criminals had the upper hand in using various instruments of warfare that had been discovered during the conflict. Science took up the battle against them with the idea that it should be made as bloodless and harmless as possible.

"This gas was successful in numerous instances. Now another forward step has been taken in making a new high-speed grenade that holds four times as much gas as those used heretofore, and is still slightly larger. It is timed to explode almost instantly, overcoming the fault of early gas grenades which sometimes were boomerangs when they were returned quickly to bandits before having time to go off.

"These high powered speed grenades also lend themselves to selective treatment of crime. If it is intended only to put the bandit out of commission for 15 to 20 minutes, tear gas is used but if it is necessary to extend the period of 'hors de combat' to hours, the choking gas can be used, which causes nausea and vomiting for five to six hours. Neither gas however leaves any permanent injury."

Bandits do not have to go to sea to become seasick now. If they inhale the fumes from a new bomb developed at Pittsburgh, Pa., they will become seasick and go through all the experiences of seasickness. The grenade, containing solid matter which turns to gas when it hits, is shown above.

Members of the library board said that C. H. Walker, manager of the office supply company, had been extremely generous in his offer of books.

Opening of school will lessen the number of juvenile fiction readers but increase the number of persons doing reference work. The librarian, Mrs. James Todd Jr., has a copy of the state reading list for children and is able to guide their reading, with assistance of teachers, to a certain extent.

Scanning New Books

By JOHN SELBY.

NEW YORK—Grand Duchess Marie's second major literary effort, "A Princess in Exile," is a thoroughly civilized and mature effort. It not only explains in detail Marie's personal struggle through mistakes after mistake to a madly upended world, but directly and by implication does the same for that of many thousands born to a less exalted state. Homeless royalty can be treated like the poor relations of small tradesmen, Marie reveals. And are a hungry grand duke, just a pliable and just as hungry as a tyrant's newboy. Kindness such as that shown Marie and her husband by Queen Marie of Rumania leaves a glow in royal hearts, just as Oubain Mehtabel's sudden befriending of the orphan next door would in yours.

"A Princess in Exile" is a very human and very ingratiating book.

The First-Rate Novels.
 Two Americans oblige this week with first rate novels. One is Ellen Glasgow, with "The Sheltered Life," the other Julian Green with "The Strange River."

Green (writing as usual in French, translated by Vyvyan Holland) goes deliberately about the business of stripping off, in small segments, the protective covering that conceals Philip Clerly's cowardice from himself and the world. The raw flesh beneath is not too pleasant a sight.

Miss Glasgow does the same thing, but in a less austere way, and for a larger range of characters.

Let There Be Gossip.
 Washington, by now used to frequent bludgeoning, is beaten about the head twice this week, once in "More Washington Merry-Go-Round," and again in a tirade against alleged senatorial extravagance called "Washington Swindle Sheet." The "More Merry-Go-Round" is anonymous, as was the first one; the other book is by William P. Helm.

Also out is a waspish satire on the English in Italy by someone using the pseudonym of James Aston, called "They Winter in A-Word"; an excellent fantasy, "The Fair of St. James," by Eleanor Farjeon; a good sea yarn entitled "A Count in the Fo'c'sle" by Jean Louis d'Esque; a competent if monotonous novel of Wales written by Hilda Vaughan under the title "The Soldier and the Gentleman"; and a nice collection of travel pieces called "Twenty-four Vagabond Tales" by its author, John Gibbons.

Papen To Risk Half Billion In Year's Program

BERLIN, Aug. 30. (AP)—Defying all the political parties of Germany to oust his junker government, Chancellor Franz von Papen has laid before the nation a year-long resuscitation program that will risk nearly half a billion dollars on the imminent return of prosperity.

The chancellor launched his program for harassed Germany before a meeting of Westphalian farmers at Muenster yesterday. He gave defiance especially to the outspoken Nazi leader, Adolf Hitler, and served notice that he would keep the seat of power thus: "If necessary I shall use force to bring about recognition of the equal rights applicable to all German citizens. I am firmly determined to stamp out the smoldering fires of civil war and to suppress increasing political unrest and political acts of violence."

Then came the surprising Junker scheme to coax back prosperity and to give more than 1,500,000 of Germany's 5,000,000 jobless something to do. It was based on this premise:

"We proceed from the consideration that important signs point to the fact that the bottom of the depression has been reached, hence all efforts to reinvigorate industry will contribute toward actual revival."

Wise County Bank Robbed of $3,000

BRIDGEPORT, Aug. 30. (AP)—Two unmasked men with pistols drawn robbed the First National bank of Bridgeport Monday while a confederate waited in an automobile in which the trio escaped.

Roger Ray, assistant cashier, was kidnaped and three other persons, including a customer and two employees, were locked in the vault. Ray was released about a mile from Bridgeport.

The small automobile in which the three men escaped headed for Chico on the Wichita Falls road. Officers in nearby cities were ordered to block the highways.

Frank Turner, president of the bank, said that a check was being made of the loot. He estimated it would be about $3,000.

Governor Ruby Laffoon of Kentucky has designated one week in each month as "pardon week." He receives requests for pardons during those weeks only.

Chinese Raiders Attack Mukden

MUKDEN, Aug. 30. (AP)—Flames and bullets of war spread terror through this city Monday after hundreds of Chinese raiders had sprung up in the night and dealt a swift blow at the heart of the Japanese military defense system.

Before daylight, most of the many small bands of Chinese had vanished, but large concentrations of Chinese guerrillas were reported only four miles away at Hun Hopu. At daylight, Japanese bombers took the air with orders to "get" them.

In Mukden, the largest city of rich Manchuria, all was confusion after a night of panic, during which the big arsenal and Japanese air base were fired.

The Chinese raiders obviously had a well-organized plan of action, so sudden and mysterious were their attacks on strategic defense points shortly after midnight.

Hardly had the alarm been sounded for Japanese troops and police when fire broke out at the arsenal and air base and the wireless station was the scene of hand to hand fighting.

The chatter of machine guns and the rumble of tanks soon aroused the populace. The groups of raiders,

Weather Watchers Disagree on Storm

HAVANA, Aug. 29. (AP)—Two Cuban observatories charting the course of a tropical disturbance moving westward from the Bahamas disagreed today as to its probable effects on Florida.

Officials at the national observatory said the storm had doubled its strength and speed and was heading toward Florida from Andros. They said Florida probably would feel its greatest intensity this afternoon.

Those at Belen observatory said that although the storm had increased in speed and strength, the center had risen high into the stratosphere, dissipating the danger to the Florida coast.

Early today the Japanese declared the sudden assault on Mukden, where they themselves entered the wedge for their own military campaign almost a year ago, was inspired by Marshal Hsiao Liang. They said guerrilla forces allied with the young marshal had been reported concentrating in nearby villages for some time.

Two Men Fatally Shot In Dispute

FORT WORTH, Aug. 30. (AP)—Two men were wounded fatally last night in a shooting precipitated by a dispute, presumably over money. Police were hunting for a man and a woman who fled from the scene.

The dead were Emmet Hilliard, 29, of Oklahoma City, and W. J. (Jack) Nabors, 24, of Fort Worth. Hilliard, who also was known under the alias of Bright, died at a hospital early today. Five bullets struck him. Nabors was killed outright.

Police linked the shooting with a robbery several hours before in which $800 was taken from Ben Riddle, former oil man, in the lobby of an office building here.

As Riddle stepped from an elevator, a man covered him with a pistol and said, "Gimme that money in a buckskin bag wrapped in a newspaper. He handed it over and the robber escaped.

Police said they were seeking the man and the woman involved in the double shooting in connection with the Riddle holdup.

WALKER TEAM STARTS FINAL PREPARATIONS

Capt. Ouimet Weak But Hopes To Lead Americans

BROOKLINE, Mass., Aug. 30 (AP)—Golf balls whizzed over the country club course today as American and British Walker cup teams began final preparations for their matches Thursday and Friday.

Captain Francis Ouimet, just out of a sick bed, was still in a weakened condition but was hoping to be in sufficient condition to lead the Americans.

Another American team member who was hoping to overcome the injury link in time to get into the battle was "Jimmy" Johnston of St. Paul. He came to town with a limp. He twisted his ankle invading the tennis field, but said he would be in shape to play Thursday.

Neither Captain Tony Torrance of the British team nor Outmet was prepared to announce team selections until it was time for the play to begin Thursday. Ouimet appeared to have at least five of the American starters chosen. They were himself, George Volst, Gus Moreland, Jess Sweetser and Charlie Seaver. He has three more choices to make.

GREENBERG IS IRON MAN IN TEXAS LEAGUE

HIS HITTING KEEPING BEAUMONT AHEAD OF DALLAS

By BILL PARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer.

A young son of the New York Bronx, the elongated Henry Greenberg of the Beaumont Exporters, is murdering Texas league pitching to help keep Beaumont ahead of Dallas in the second half flag marathon.

Sunday, Greenberg slapped a pair of homers over the wall to help win a doubleheader. Yesterday his 36th and 37th home runs of the season were the blows that gave Beaumont an 8 to 1 decision over Longview.

The victory was the ninth straight for the Exporters and kept them one game in front of Dallas. Izzy Goldstein, another New Yorker, pitched for Beaumont and was never in trouble.

A 3 to 0 victory over Galveston merely kept Dallas within striking distance of the Exporters. The Steers jumped into a one-run lead in the first when James led off with a triple and scored on Morehart's single, collected a second run in the third and added another in the sixth.

Fort Worth whipped San Antonio in a doubleheader, 8 to 3, and 3 to 0. Lefty Johns checked in with Fort Worth's victory. Paul Gribble grabbed the second game on a 3-hit performance.

Scoring four runs in the eighth inning, Tyler won the first game of a doubleheader from Houston, 4 to 2. In the second game, Houston won, 4 to 1.

HARVESTERS PLAY CLOVIS ON SEPT. 30

Boys More Intent on Learning How to Play Than Where They'll Play.

The Pampa Harvesters will get their first test against Clovis high school Sept. 30. Coach Odus Mitchell announced yesterday afternoon before practice. The boys seemed to feel the urge to work hard in preparation for this game.

Clovis will come to Pampa for the game, which has been advanced to Friday afternoon because of the Amarillo-Ranger game to be played October 1. Pampa's first conference game will be played in Borger the following week with the first home game against Plainview the next week.

Coach Mitchell is looking for a game away from home on either October 5 or 19. He has only the one open date, but can make it on either of the above dates. He is anxious to get in touch with any team desiring a game.

The 65 boys out for practice at Harvesters park are working hard but with little idea where they are going. They are still at sea as to where they will play, and Coaches Mitchell and Argus Fox are letting them flounder until they find their feet.

Line work was started in earnest yesterday with Coach Fox in charge of about 30 boys. Coach Mitchell had the backfield and ends running the ball and catching passes. Every boy seemed willing to work his head off and the morale appeared good.

Coaches will have to depend on ex-Gerillas for their main strength this year. Only a couple of regulars and a few substitutes remain from the great machine of last season. Fans are watching and wondering if the boys will come through.

Fred Newsome Bats .700 During Tourney

Unofficial reports come from Borger that Fred Newsome, slugging Pampa-LeFors center fielder, batted an even .700 per cent during the Borger HERALD baseball tournament which closed last night with the Phillips 66 of Borger taking first place. The Pampa-LeFors nine came in for fourth money. It was also reported that Rommie of the local nine had an average of better than .600 for the tournament. The Pampa-LeFors team played seven games, winning 4 and losing 4. Lefty Freshour of the same team was the iron-man of the tournament, pitching three straight days and winning two out of the three. He won all three games for his team.

Official returns on the tournament are expected within the next two days.

WOMEN AVERT NOISY MIX-UP AT BALL PARK

THEY CAPTURE FIELD FROM WRANGLING CLUB MEN

Baseballs, abuse and anything else around will fly at Magnolia park at 4:30 tomorrow afternoon when the Lions and Kiwanis baseball teams clash in a heated debate of superiority, club spirit and what-have-you.

The Lions, cocky from a win over the Rotary club last week, had a light workout late yesterday afternoon at Magnolia park but were somewhat perturbed when the Kiwanis came on hand for a practice. It looked like a battle on the ground to see which nine would have the diamond but the Salvation Army and the B. & P. W. softball teams came along and took the ground from under the "mess" of the arguing clubmen who had to be satisfied with a corner of the outfield each.

Manager Roy Bourland and his Lions, including Heavy Studer, Oil Graham, Teacher Hessey, Cleaver Kennedy, Dud Dunkel, Newey Hinkle, and a few more of the boys were on hand.

Cutup Overton, Fuller Johnson, Presser Voss, Bwiler Cullum, Supply LeBeuf, Attorney Willis, Ad Reno, Justice Todd, Babe Ruth Stine, and other Kiwanians will be seen in action if they are not too sore from yesterday's workout. All in all, it should be a real battle. Proceeds will go to the crippled children's fund of the two clubs. Tickets are 25 cents and more than 250 of the 500 tickets printed have been sold.

Baseballs will probably be Mayor Bill Bratton and Bonnie Lee Rose for the Lions and Eric Voss and Harry Grov for the Kiwanians. The umpire has not been named but it is a race between Dutch Mantell, Lon Blanche, M. K. Brown, and Odus Mitchell.

GAME CALLED AT MAGNOLIA PARK FRIDAY

WOMEN ARE DEFEATED BY GIRL SCOUTS ON TUESDAY

"Was that a horsehair?" asked Manager Mable Gie of the Business and Professional Women's softball team...

But now that the Kiwanians have accepted the challenge, and a game has been scheduled for Friday evening at 8:10 o'clock at Magnolia park...

The women do not claim to be Babe Ruths (or Babe Didriksons) and they recognize the fact that to beat the more experienced Kiwanians will be no small task.

Friday's game is thought to be the first softball game ever played between men and women in Pampa and it is expected that a large crowd will attend.

Many Kiwanians saw last night's game as they made plans to avoid disputes which might follow a defeat by the women.

There are several varieties of lima beans, tiny green ones, large green ones and large flat white ones...

The best way to serve lima beans that have been allowed to become over-ripe is to rub them through a sieve after cooking and use them in a puree or soufflé.

Since beans are lacking in fat, this must be furnished in the seasoning. The most delicious way to serve lima beans is in pure cream.

Tomorrow's Menu

BREAKFAST: Casaba melon, cereal, corn cereal, blueberry muffins, milk, coffee. LUNCHEON: Open tomato and bacon sandwiches, minted apples with whipped cream, nut cookies, milk, tea.

DINNER: Fried spring chicken, cream gravy, mashed potatoes, lima beans in cream, onion and cucumber salad, peach parfyli, coconut macaroons, milk, coffee.

Always cook limas in as little water as possible and cook uncovered. Let the water cook away or use it in the sauce. If you add salt when the beans are put on to cook, there's danger of toughening the covering, but they have a better flavor if the salt is "cooked off" for half the cooking period.

PREHISTORIC DWELLINGS TO BE OBSERVED

COW PONIES ARE USED FOR VENTURESOME JOURNEY

(Special to The NEWS) Led by Daddy Elza White, pioneer New Mexico cattleman, a party of Girl Scout leaders left Roswell, New Mexico today on a 200-mile back trip through the Guadalupe mountains to the Carlsbad caves.

The girls are making the journey on sure-footed cow ponies that can be trusted to take them easily up and down old trails, many of them untraveled by man since the days of the Spanish Conquistadores.

By a well experienced camper, the Girl Scout leaders are prepared to sleep at night in their bed-rolls on the hard ground and to pitch poncho shelters, should rain at any time threaten.

To the call of "Roll out, cow-boys! Come and get it!" shouted loud and clear by Daddy White, the Girl Scout leaders will wake up each morning to wash hastily in the contents of a half empty canteen and powder their noses before mirrors stuck on a convenient cactus.

Crooner Vallee And Wife Just 'Can't Get Along'

NEW YORK, Aug. 30/AP—A sour note sounded today in the matrimonial music of the Rudy Vallees.

"Yes, there is a rift. They just can't seem to get along together," said a statement by Hyman Bushel, attorney who said he represented both the orchestra singer-leader and Mrs. Vallee.

The lawyer said Mrs. Vallee, the former Fay Webb whose father is police chief at Santa Monica, Calif., would leave New York at the end of the week. Reports that her destination would be Reno were without confirmation. Bushel said the domestic difficulties had not reached the point of divorce.

"While neither has started divorce proceedings as yet I cannot answer for Mrs. Vallee's plans. If I can't match things up—and I am not sanguine of my ability to do it—divorce will follow. I cannot discuss what the grounds for divorce may be."

"They just haven't been hitting it off well. He is away much of the time. He is on tour now. He will return Thursday. And I expect to make a further announcement the following day."

"There is no other woman and no other man in the case." Mrs. Vallee is at the Vallee apartment with her father and mother. The Maine Yankee who sang and saxophoned his way to stardom and radio high place, met Miss Webb in 1930 when she was making a talking picture. They were married July 6, the following year, in West Orange, N. J.

Visiting Here Mrs. B. L. Tate of Graham arrived here today to visit in the home of her sister, Mrs. J. L. Stroope, and other relatives. Mrs. Tate used to live in Pampa and is known by many old timers here.

J. W. Myers, who was admitted Saturday for treatment at the Worley hospital, was doing nicely this morning.

Frank Boyan of Duran, Okla., looked after business here yesterday.

Ophelia Smith of Skellytown was a Pampa shopper this morning.

Globe Clothiers are coming to Pampa.

CHAPTER I
ENTER "F. F."

NAN did not know that she was going to run, but she found herself running breathlessly, blindly on. When at last she stopped running, she had no breath in her and she was shaking from head to foot. She had turned a corner and was in a street she did not know.

She stood still—not thinking—getting back her breath. Then she began to walk again mechanically, her mind pulled this way and that by her clamorous thoughts. She set to work to quiet these thoughts, to make them speak reasonably. It was very difficult, because, instead of being calm and judicial, she was quivering with fear not for herself, but for Jervis.

Robert Leonard had come out of the house. He had spoken to the driver of the taxi. She tried to put together what he had said.

The more Nan thought, the more she anguished for took hold of her. For ten years she had believed that Robert Leonard had struck down Jervis Weare and left him to drown on Croston rocks. Now she believed that there was to be another attempt upon his life. Robert Leonard had said, "He is sure to walk—he is crazy, but he is sure." She was quite sure that he was Jervis. The driver was to "drive dangerous." "If he" took a taxi, he was to do the best he could. He was to risk nothing, and he was to earn twenty-five hundred dollars.

An accident, she thought, had sprung into her mind. It seemed to make a sense. She had felt as if someone had been a gun close to her ear. "The word distressed her. An accident," she thought, "that was what had been happening."

As the noise of the world died down, she found herself walking dazedly, and thinking clearly. The taxi had stopped. She must have Jervis, and tell him what she had heard. She looked at her watch. It was five minutes to four. If Jervis was coming up from Weare she could catch him at the Twenty-third Street ferry. Of course he might be coming from anywhere else!

She reached the ferry with two minutes to spare. She wasn't frightened any more. She would see Jervis, and everything would be all right.

He came striding up. Nan ran after him, let him clear the crowd, and touched his arm. He turned, stared, took off his hat. The ferry house became a place where anything might happen. It had the true atmosphere of romantic adventure. Nan was inspired by it that a dimple came out on either side of her smile as she said,

"You didn't expect to see me?"

"Did you expect to see me?" he asked.

Nan nodded.

"I came to meet you."

"Did you tell me I was coming?"

"His shock he heard."

"Nobody told me."

"Then how did you know?" said Jervis Weare. Nan saw the dark color rise in his face, and wondered what had brought it there. Her dimples trembled away. She said quickly,

"I'll tell you how I know. I've got things to tell you—important things."

They were standing still, with a stream of people flowing past them. A big man swung a bag of golf-clubs within half an inch of Nan's ear, and she ducked and stepped aside, out of the stream they burst a smile that lit their eyes. He had a Gladstone bag in one hand, a tin hat-box in the other, a camera slung from his shoulder, and an extremely elegant rickshaw boy like a hump sat on his back. He burst from the stream, cast the hat-box clanking down the pavement, bumped down the Gladstone bag, and caught Jervis by one hand and the wrist of the other—the second hand being occupied with his suitcase. He pumped

STOCK MARKET WEARY

NEW YORK, Aug. 30 (AP)—The stock market again acted a bit weary today. While a fair assortment of coppers, rubbers, motors, and oils moved forward, most of the traditional leaders were laggy. A rather pronounced decline in some of the commodities, notably cotton, in the early trading, was not particularly disturbing to the share market, but bullish efforts failed to attract an important following and trading was comparatively quiet.

NEW ORLEANS WEAK

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 30 (AP)—The cotton market opened weak in feverishly active trading today and prices soon showed a loss of $2 a bale, or 41 points under yesterday's close, and 77 points or nearly $4 a bale below the high point of an average season reached in yesterday's session.

LIVERPOOL CAME IN

Liverpool came in 18 to 22 penny points, equivalent to 36 to 44 American points lower than due. This coupled with a large private contract estimate issued yesterday afternoon caused the selling. Although the reaction from yesterday's highs was considered natural and inevitable, first trades here showed losses of 27 to 29 points and the market continued to ease after the start until October dropped to $6.71 and December to $6.85, or 41 to 44 points below Saturday's close.

GRAIN VALUES SETBACK

CHICAGO, Aug. 30 (AP)—Sharp setbacks in grain values today followed downturns in stocks and cotton at New York. A heavy rush of profit-taking was induced by weakness of commodities, opening 1/2 to 1 cent lower, wheat later continued weak. Corn started steady to 1/2 down and held around the initial figures.

ASKS WET VOTE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (AP)—Representative Laguardia of New York has written to all members of the house asking how they would vote at the coming short session of congress on modification of the Volstead law and repeal of the 18th amendment. The letter asked specifically if the members would vote for measures to accomplish these changes if the forthcoming election indicates the next house will be preponderantly wet.

HOW TO WATCH THE ECLIPSE

Jeanne Andre . . . shows how to watch the eclipse through smoked glass.

The thousands of eyes that will be turned skyward in Pampa on August 31, when Old Sol does his disappearing act, had better take a dark view of the celestial spectacle.

That's the timely warning from Miss Eleanor Brown, secretary of the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness, who says that vision may be seriously weakened by looking at an eclipse with the naked eye.

Miss Brown does not recommend the use of ordinary lightly-tinted motoring glasses.

"A test for any glass, colored or smoked," she says, "is to glance at the sun through it. If you find your eyes stung to maintain your gaze the glass is not dark enough."

The best way of smoking glass, she says, is to hold it over a candle flame, moving it along to get an even coating. Hold the smoked glass away from the face, while using, so it won't be brushed off.

A photographic film or plate is satisfactory for this purpose if it has been uniformly exposed. But you should try the squirt test to be sure it is dark enough.

Haizlip Lowers Time 56 Minutes

NEW YORK, Aug. 30 (AP)—Captain James O. Haizlip, who made the flight from Los Angeles to New York a jaunt of 10 hours and 19 minutes, planned to fly back to Cleveland today.

Haizlip's "breakfast in Los Angeles" for this purpose if it has been uniformly exposed. But you should try the squirt test to be sure it is dark enough.

The requirement for a fair trial and the provisions of section 34 of the public officers law do not constitute in my judgment wholesale receipt and use of testimony taken by an investigating committee. The retrial in this proceeding (Mayor Walker) as a matter of common justice, is entitled to receive that full measure of protection which has been accorded to others."

Justice Staley said that, as he interpreted the law, the mayor could be removed "only for cause, and for a cause relating to some act or omission on the part of the officer which amounts to official misconduct or violation of public trust, or one that involves moral turpitude."

MOLLISON FOGBOUND

SYDNEY, N. S., Aug. 30 (AP)—Homeward bound on his round-trip venture, top Atlantic, Capt. James A. Mollison encountered rain and fog, and as a result his tiny plane was in a farmyard today. The Scot left St. John yesterday for Harbor Grace, but the storm forced him to land. He hoped to get off soon today for Harbor Grace, where he will refuel for the last lap back to London.

Details of Cotton Loan Kept Silent

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (AP)—Silence today surrounded the $50,000,000 loan to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, last night announced had been made available to keep government controlled cotton off the market until 1933.

Under different terms from those which the Reconstruction Finance Corporation specified in giving its approval.

Only Saturday the Farm Board said in a letter to Governor Murray of Oklahoma that there had been no change in its policy to dispose of 650,000 bales of cotton during the current year. Governor Murray had suggested that by withdrawing the stabilization supplies, prices would be increased.

Financial Status Of Gray County Schools Is Good

Gray county schools will open September 5 in the best condition as to buildings and finances—in their history.

Supt. John B. Hesse, has spent a portion of the summer repairing buildings and oiling floors. Two new buildings have been completed. One of these at the Bell community, cost only $2,600 but is a beautiful brick structure wholly modern, and built without a bond issue. A frame structure of modern equipment and hardwood floors has been erected at the Webb school. Not for three years has there been a bond issue in a rural school district. The last issue was for the Laketon school. Only four schools have not been given new buildings in recent years.

One new school, in the Davis community 12 miles east of here, will be opened this term. A new teacher must be added there and one each at Webb and Hopkins because of increased enrollments. A total of about 75 teachers will be needed in the rural schools of Gray county.

County teachers will report to Supt. Hesse at Canyon, where the consolidated institute will open Thursday. These teachers will have a group conference with Hesse in room 302 of the Teachers college at 4 p. m. A feature of the institute will be lectures Thursday morning and evening by Josh Lee, noted Oklahoma humorist, who was secured by Supt. Hesse, a member of the institute's executive committee.

Gray county teachers may look forward to receiving their pay promptly. There will be no deferred payments in this county unless taxes should be abnormally slow in coming in next spring.

Loot Division Ends In Death of Two

FORT WORTH, Aug. 30 (AP)—The search for a man and woman, stranded in connection with a downtown robbery yesterday which preceded by several hours a double shooting in an automobile turned to Dallas today.

Believing they had information which would lead them to the hide-out place of the couple, Police Lieut. Green and Detectives Howerton and Stuckman left for Dallas shortly before noon and expected to return this afternoon with the suspects.

Two men were dead as the result of the shooting, said to have taken place after a quarrel over division of money.

Emmett Britz, 29, of Oklahoma City, died at 2:10 a. m. He was shot five times, once in the abdomen.

W. J. (Jack) Nabors, 24, of Fort Worth was shot to death in the automobile which was parked in front of a clinic here. The couple sought in Dallas was said to have witnessed the shooting, the woman running from the scene and the man driving away in another automobile.

JUSTICE APPOINTED

AUSTIN, Aug. 30 (AP)—Governor R. S. Sterling today appointed H. S. Lattimore of Fort Worth to be associate justice of the second court of civil appeals at Fort Worth. He will fill a vacancy left by the death of Judge R. H. Buck. The governor named Marvin H. Brown of Fort Worth judge of the 96th district court of Tarrant county, succeeding Judge Lattimore who will resign to take his place on the appellate court.

Former McLean Mayor Dies of Gunshot Wounds

Press dispatches from Duran, N. M., last night told of the suicide of Joe Montgomery, former McLean druggist, mayor, and republican leader. He was well-known here.

He died of gunshot wound, according to messages from Mrs. Montgomery. He had gone to New Mexico a few months ago in an attempt to regain his health and was in the ranching business. His misfortunes in McLean in the burning of his drug store three times in recent years are believed to have affected his health.

Born in Memphis, which was founded by his father, the late J. T. Montgomery, he was 42 years old. He engaged in livestock raising before going to McLean. Besides his widow, he is survived by a brother, S. F. Montgomery of Memphis, bank president; and two sisters, Mrs. Mary Arnold of Memphis and Mrs. Beulah Brice of San Antonio.

Picard Leads In Pro Tournament

ST. PAUL, Aug. 30 (AP)—A strong wind roused across the Keller course today and sent the scores sailing to such heights that a 73, one over par, by Henry Picard of Charleston, S. C., led the field of early finishers in the first round of the professional golf championship qualifying drive.

First round 18-hole scores: Charles Hall, Birmingham, Ala., 39-38-75; Jock Henry, St. Paul, 39-39-78; George Smith, Chicago, 38-38-75; Jock Hutchinson, Chicago, withdrew; Eddie Schultz, Troy, N. Y., 40-34-74.

Court Makes Babe Her Legal Boss

DALLAS, Aug. 30 (AP)—Mildred (Babe) Didrikson, the world's most versatile woman athlete, was granted a court order today giving her the legal right to conduct her own business affairs, although she is but 19 years old.

The Olympic champion cited several instances where opportunities has been offered her, through which she could benefit financially, and said she desired to have her disabilities of minority removed in order that she could sign contracts or handle other legal matters if she chose.

Her father, Ole Didrikson of Beaumont, told District Judge Royal H. Watkins he was willing for the court to issue such an order. Col. J. McCombs, her coach, said he believed she was thoroughly capable of managing her own business affairs.

Medwick Goes to Work with Cards

HOUSTON, Aug. 30 (AP)—Joe Medwick said a farewell to minor league baseball today, packing up to go to St. Louis and begin work with the Cardinals.

He closed his brief and brilliant career with Houston of the Texas league last night with a home run hit in his last time at bat for the Buffaloes.

Assessment of Oil Values Continues

Hearings on oil valuations of Gray county were continuing today, with the last persons and firms to be heard Thursday night.

Consideration of Magnolia Petroleum company properties by the county commissioners and employees of the Texas Y. Pickett company was completed yesterday. Royalty owners were appearing today.

Late in the afternoon late in afternoon, more companies being willing to accept the assessments with minor adjustments.

There are a number of oil companies which have accepted assessments but have not paid their taxes for a year or two. Some of these have paid their school taxes, however.

Clothing Reported Taken from House

Henry Charles reported to officers of the sheriff's department this morning that his house at the corner of North Frost and Montague streets had been entered while he was on his vacation. Two suits of clothes, three pairs of trousers, and an overcoat were stolen.

Entry to the house was gained by breaking in the rear door. None of Mrs. Charles' clothing is missing, she reported.

John Bradley, also a resident of North Frost street, reported to officers this morning that a tire had been taken from his car some time last night. The car was parked in the driveway.
