THOUGHTS for Mother's day:

"BEHOLD THY MOTHER"

Mother's day!
As if we could within the
Space of one poor day
Completely honor one so dear!

Mother's day!
Her day it was when first
We knew that sweet face
And sought her form;
Her glory, not ours, yet
From that hour selfishness
Fled her being.

Mother's day!
Her's the ecstasy when
First some toddling steps
We took; her's the generous
Forgiveness, unflinching love
That our feet strayed
And trials filled as errors,
Trailed us through the years.

Mother's day!
And Mother's night
When fewer lingered o'er us like
A torch, her's the cooling
Hand—none other could serve
Us or satisfy her, our Mother.

Mother's day!
Lengthened by sight
Of worthy sons, and daughters
Pure; longer their years also Promised in Holy writ,
Because of honoring her.

Mother's day!
Without a ray of sun,
Her travail impugned when
Dull, sordid progeny prove Unworthy of conception; but Glad the days of her whose
Devotion is memorialized
In good deeds and remembrances.

Mother's day!
And our's, the corporations
Crash about us, brokers make
Hazardous sidewalk traffic
With unthought leaps, and Inflation's bubble bursts;
Her faith defies all ticker tape,
Knows no deflation, and our
Soul is buoyed through it all.

Mother's day!
In our birth an ally
Of Divinity, well may she Flaunt the exigencies of
Any hour or year, pondering
Those immutable truths of Life and love exemplifying
Him whose life alone proved Wholly
Worthy of a mother's prayer.

Mother's day!
Consider Mary before
The Cross. A mother's Tears wringing the great
Heart of God. Sons of clay
How then less can you respond
On this hallowed day—
"BEHOLD YOUR MOTHER!"

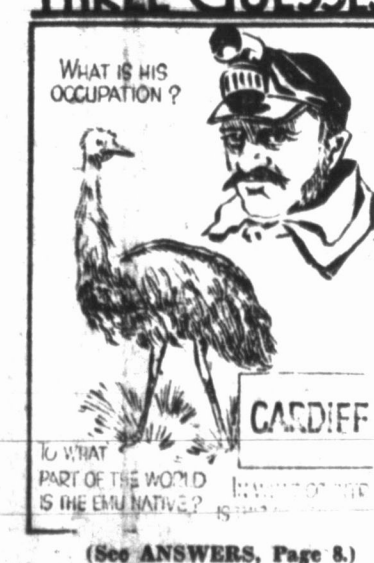

Contractors Here To Inspect Road

Walter Denison and Jack McClure of the contracting firm of that name, located in Abilene, and W. M. Thornton, representing the R. W. Briggs company of Pharr, were in Pampa yesterday. They made a trip over the road between Pampa and McLean with the idea of entering bids for paving of 20 miles between the end of the present pavement and McLean.

A. H. Doucette, county engineer, accompanied the men on their trip over the route. Bids will be opened by county commissioners May 22.

C. B. Goss of Denver was a Pampa visitor early this week. W. C. Hornsby of Austin left this morning after a visit here.

Regulations For Handling Wheat Loans Received

Regulations for handling wheat loans in this area have been outlined by Owen W. Sherrill, regional manager of the Dallas crop loan office, in a letter addressed to the Federal Land bank of Houston.

The letter, copies of which have been received here, follows:

"Our office has been called upon to finance wheat farmers in the Panhandle area who have lost all or most of their current wheat crop due to adverse weather conditions. Our plan is to lend not more than about $1.25 per acre to plant 1933 row crops, summer fallow, and plant wheat crop to be harvested in 1934.

It is suggested that in handling these loans with the greatest dispatch of time, economy of operation, and safety that your secretary-treasurers in the area affected be advised by your institution to give preferred attention and to be in with this program of financing to give the benefit of their advice regarding individual borrower's acreage and needs to our loan committees in each respective county and where in their judgment warrants the immediate execution of necessary warrants to permit the loan to be made.

"In view of our advance information, a first mortgage will be required of 1933 crops, (1933 harvested wheat excepted) but 1934 harvested wheat to be included. Valuers by your associations in any case where you have mortgages will be necessary before our loan can be made.

"There may be certain borrowers today owing a balance on 1932 or 1933 loans, in which event it is expected that you will so waive in the case of the above financing.

"If you do approve, it is requested that you advise the secretary-treasurers of your conclusion and request their full cooperation with the county committees."

From Washington is received the information that summer fallow and winter wheat seed loans will be limited to not more than $300 per person nor more than $2,000 to tenants of any one land holder.

Applicants for such loans "will be required to give a promissory note for the amount thereof payable to the secretary of agriculture on or before August 21, 1934, and bearing interest at the rate of 5 1/2 per cent per annum, and to first pay on their wheat crop to be harvested in 1934.

Applicants for loans for summer fallowing and the sowing of winter wheat must agree to plant not to exceed 70 per cent of the acreage planted to winter wheat in 1932. Applications must be made in time to reach the Dallas office not later than May 31, 1933.

The local wheat loan committee is composed of B. E. Finley, Roy Bourland, and C. S. Barrett. This committee will go to Amarillo tomorrow to receive training and information on how to make wheat loans.

-PAMPA BOYS

About 17 negroes from Oklahoma City have a special place away from the white men in camp. They have their own tents and a separate mess hall. Probably the most interesting thing is our recreation hour. Along the rows of tents one can hear singing, talking, joking, and music. Some of the boys go to the recreation house to write or read, some play football, some basketball, some box or wrestle, and some go to dances. Because of much noise in the recreation house, I have built a table from a box to write on here in my tent. In each tent are six beds, and at the foot of each is a barracks bag containing our army clothing. Our civilian clothing is kept in our suit cases. We have regulations on how to make our beds, and they must be made up just so.

Last night we witnessed a beautiful spectacle. Three army planes passed over in formation. Their lights were very pretty. The planes landed at the post.

One of my friends, J. T. Humphreys of Breckenridge, suffered a wrenched knee in a football game last night. On May 5 we re-checked our clothes and articles for inspection. That evening we took a five-mile hike to Saturday brought our second inoculation for typhoid. Now both arms are sore, and some of the boys are sitting around holding their arms. We can't work today because of the pain. Some of the boys have gone to Lawton, 10 miles away.

Recently I heard the honk of a car and was surprised to see Miss V. Lora Reed, former teacher at Pampa high school. Miss Reed is teaching the Cameron Aggies. She said to "Say Hello" to her friends back at Pampa.

Last Sunday some of the boys started out to hike to Mt. Signal, but I had to stay at camp to peel potatoes. One of the boys captured an owl. After our 5 p. m. meal, Otis Compton of Sanford and I hiked to Signal mountain, which was cut up by shrapnel and shell fire. Unexploded shells were lying about. We were instructed not to touch these shells, lest they explode. We did get several shell noses for souvenirs.

We are having frequent hives to put us in good condition. Blistered feet are causing some trouble. I like the Panhandle, but I wish I could move some of this beautiful scenery back home.

The religious services are Catholic and Protestant, the latter including several denominations. Services are held at 3 o'clock each Sunday afternoon.

The spirit of the camp is about as follows: "We have work. We have opportunity. We have construction tasks before us. Physically and morally we are challenged and we shall not betray this faith."

We are fixing up to leave camp soon. We had our last inoculation for typhoid, and on Monday, May 15 we are supposed to leave for our forest camp. My next article will tell about the real work which the government has for us.

Telephone Call Exposes Family Letter Racket

A new "racket" was uncovered here yesterday afternoon by Mrs. W. H. Davis, manager of the Pampa Welfare Board and Chief of Police Jno. V. Andrews, after the chief had arrested a man and woman and two children begging on the streets. They carried letters from the chief of police, city attorney, and a physician at Vernon, telling that they were worthy of help.

Upon investigation, Mrs. Davis found that the letters were 10 years old. She called Vernon and learned that the signatures had been affixed long before there were any relief organizations. The family was given a severe reprimand and ordered to leave Pampa at once.

Pampans are urged by the Welfare Board not to give donations to anyone, regardless of their plea. The practice only increases transients and there is no need for them to beg because if their case is justifiable, they will be given help by the board. Those entitled to help seldom, if ever, beg but call at the welfare board office and state their case.

The family detained yesterday was apparently "seeing America first." They had a Dallas license on their car, a bottle of medicine from Muskogee, Okla., and articles from other cities.

Clyde Schuford and Stanley Hornsby, Austin attorneys, are here on business.

Mrs. C. R. Hankins and baby left Worley hospital this morning.

Lions To Help Rotarians Win 1934 Meeting

Pampa Lions will join Rotarians in seeking to land the 1934 convention of the 41st Rotary district for this city.

After President Tom E. Rose, Rotary president, told the Lions of Pampa's chance to win over Sweetwater and Abilene, he was assured of the Lions' support.

President Dan McGrew of the Kiwanis club, another visitor yesterday, challenged the Lions to an inter-club golf match. The challenge was accepted and Dr. H. H. Hicks was placed in charge of the Lions' golf squad.

Delegates of the Lions club to the Lubbock district convention May 21, 22, and 23 were appointed as follows: John B. Hessey, George Limerick, Dr. R. A. Webb, W. A. Bratton, Clyde Fatheree, R. G. Allen, A. M. Toed, Gilmore N. Nunn.

An entertainment feature was presentation of talking movies of the manufacture of glass by the Pittsburgh Plate Glass company. Every step of manufacture, with a historical background, was shown. C. E. Hutchens arranged for the show. J. W. Brumley was announced as a new member of the club.

Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Goldston returned from Fort Worth yesterday. Dr. Goldston attended a medical convention while away.

R. A. Wynn of Dallas was a Pampa visitor yesterday.

INVESTIGATION REQUESTED BY MANY PERSONS

SOLOON CLAIMS EVASION OF $6,700,000 BY MAGNATE

WASHINGTON, May 12 (AP)—An investigation of the income tax returns of Andrew W. Mellon, former secretary of the treasury and ambassador to Great Britain, has been started by the justice department. Charges made on the floor of the house by Representative McFadden (R., Pa.) form the basis of the action. McFadden asserted that Mellon while in President Hoover's cabinet had been guilty of a "specific tax evasion" of approximately $6,700,000.

In addition to the McFadden charges, Attorney General Cummings said, a number of letters had been received from private citizens asking for such an investigation. Cummings indicated he would handle the case through a special investigator.

"It is fair to say that the policy of the department is to investigate all cases where the complaint indicates that there is some substance to the allegations," the attorney general said. "This is a serious charge and it has to be treated seriously and I hope fairly."

McFadden last week read a letter to the house from David A. Olson, former investigator for the senate stock market committee, asserting that in 1921 Mellon sold stock in the West Public Service company and the Pittsburgh Coal company showing a loss of $6,700,000, "which loss was deducted from income tax purposes."

Watch out! Don't let bargain gasoline "Take YOU for a ride"

The more you know about a car, the less chance there is of your being tempted by inflated claims and bargain gas ballyhoos.

Inexperienced drivers may think they are saving a few pennies per tankful, but YOU know that they will soon be spending many extra dollars to keep their engines in condition.

More than 7,000,000 veteran motorists like yourself, who have carefully compared performance and figured costs, are enthusiastic users of Phillips 66... the greater gasoline.

Every time you fill-up with Phillips 66, you get high test and high anti-knock without a single cent of higher price. And you know exactly how high the test is, because Phillips always prints the definite figures instead of indefinite claims.

This month, for example, Phillips 66 gravity ranges from 62° to 68°. That's why you will quickly feel the difference it makes in your motor—extra power and added snap... more miles per gallon... swifter acceleration... smoother running.

Besides, Phillips 66 contains no injurious chemicals which attack cylinder walls. No surplus gum to stick the valves. No excess carbon to foul the spark plugs. And don't forget, every gallon of Phillips 66 is scientifically pre-suited to your weather at the time you buy it, by the famous principle of CONTROLLED VOLATILITY.

If you wonder how Phillips can give this honest high test and bigger value without extra cost, just remember that Phillips is the world's largest producer of natural high gravity gasoline.

So stop for gas at the Orange and Black 66 shield... and while you're there, ask the courteous attendant to drain and refill with Phillips 66 motor oil. We are proud of its reputation as "the world's finest oil for your motor."

"I'M A FANATIC"

on the subject of gasoline quality. That's why our independent organization set out to make a world-beating motor fuel which would offer more value for the money. I personally invite you to try a tankful of Phillips 66 and see how well we have succeeded. Then, as a favor, please write me your opinion.

TEXAS HISTORY TOPIC FOR EL PROGRESSO CLUB

Colorful Places And Names Introduced In Program

Romance of old Texas trails was brought vividly to members of El Progreso club at their meeting this week by Mrs. T. D. Hobart, whose paper was outstanding on the annual Texas day program.

Mrs. Pearl Sweet was club hostess, and Mrs. George Briggs was program leader. Roll call was answered with names of famous Texans.

Mrs. Briggs presented interesting facts in Texas history, which she termed so amazingly interesting that selection of incidents was difficult. From the shipwreck that brought the first whites to Texas, she traced the history of early expeditions, Mexican freedom from Spain, early American colonists, revolution and the republic, organization of the ranger force to defend the border, annexation, to the settlement of West Texas.

A cowboy ballad, The Great Roundup, was read by Mrs. George Walstad. Mrs. P. C. Ledrick gave the history of the bluebonnet, adopted in 1901 as the state flower under sponsorship of the Colonial Dames in Texas.

Beauty spots of Texas were described by Mrs. Carson Loftus, who compared the state's wealth of scenic wonders with those in other states. She included Palo Duro canyon in her list.

Members voted to contribute to the fund for a piano for city club rooms.

A plate lunch was served after the program to those on program and Mesdames John Andrews, J. M. Dodson, C. P. Buckler, W. M. Craven, S. B. Surratt, C. T. Hunkapillar, H. L. Ledrick, J. M. McDonald, Dave Pope, W. Purviance, James Todd Jr.

At Last—Offensive Body Odor Ended!

Soaps with Tell-Tale Medicine Smell No Longer Needed! Laboratory tests now show that ordinary soap, with its thick, sluggish lather, will cleanse only the surface of the skin. But body odor is deep-seated, caused by stale perspiration curds. Ordinary soap can't remove these curds!

That's why deep-pore cleansing is needed—and it's a scientific fact that there is only one way to accomplish this. Kirk's Coco Castile, being a 100% pure vegetable oil soap, mixes with the particles of perspiration curds, loosens them, then rinses out completely. Thus it ends body odor in the only effective way—by removing the cause. Kirk's Coco Castile is stimulating to the skin—leaves no offensive M.S. (medicine smell)—ends body odor the odorless way. A BIG cake, half again larger than the average toilet soap, it is today selling at the lowest price in history. Be sure to ask for Kirk's Castile by name—at your grocer's.

ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR

Think of it! . . . 4-TIMES the Power of others that use current ALL the time . . . yet it uses current only ONE-THIRD of the time!

We know you'll say that here is the biggest value in electric refrigeration today.

This great New TruKold is not a new "cheap" design made to establish a low price. It is full size, full power—a part of our 1933 TruKold line.

It has 4 cubic feet of storage space for food, enough for use by a family of 3 or 4 persons. It has the famous TruKold cooling unit that runs and uses current only a THIRD of the time, meaning longer life, more economy.

The big beautiful cabinet is of heavy, rigid steel over a one-piece welded frame. There is 2 1/2 inches of insulation all around insuring that the unit will need to operate but a THIRD of the time, and your bill for current is very low.

Come and see it. You'll agree, quality for quality, dollar for dollar, there's no match anywhere.

MUDDY TRACK AWAITS HORSES IN PREAKNESS RACE SATURDAY

Historic Maryland Race To Feature Broker's Tip Head Play Duel.

BALTIMORE, May 12 (AP)—With the skies overclouded and occasional rain, a heavy, muddy track was in prospect tomorrow at Pimlico for the country's three-year-old horses in the most historic of Maryland turf events—the preakness.

Led by Col. E. R. Bradley's Broker's Tip, fresh from victory in the Kentucky Derby, the thoroughbreds will compete over a mile and three-sixteenths course for a purse of more than $25,000 and for the coveted Woodward cup.

A crowd of 30,000 is expected by Pimlico officials to be on hand to watch the race.

Notwithstanding the victory of Broker's Tip in the derby, he will hardly go to the post the favorite. Mrs. Silas B. Mason's Head Play, a colt she purchased for $30,000 on the eve of the derby, probably will have more backers than any other horse in the flashy field.

Head Play, the son of My Play and Red Head, has displayed splendid form in this week's workouts at Pimlico and this, coupled with his sterling performance last Saturday when he was barely nosed out by Broker's Tip, has made him looked upon as the most likely winner.

There were other candidates conceded a good chance to win the money. Among them was Ladysman, the fragile colt from W. E. Cook's stables. Although highly favored to take the derby, the best Ladysman was able to run was a poor fourth place, two lengths behind the third place Charley O., owned by the R. M. Eastman estate. Charley O. is the only one of the derby leaders not entered in the preakness. Among the other candidates was another Col. E. R. Bradley's, the Catawba Farm's Mr. Khayyam. R. E. Hughes' Silent Shot, Willis Sharpe Kilmer's Dark Winter, Mrs. John Hay Whitney's Poppyman, Lee Rosenberg's Kerry Patch, the Wheatley's Stable's Utopian, H. C. Phlips' De Valera, the Brookmeade Stable's Inlander and Tedlu Stable's Euryalus.

Almost any of them is looked upon as a possible winner and turfmen are expecting the race to be a closer one than the mile and a quarter derby.

Col. E. R. Bradley is expected to arrive in Baltimore tomorrow to watch his colt in the attempt to make a double, killing in the two outstanding spring race events. Last year his Burgoo King captured both the derby and the preakness and if Broker's Tip can do the same this year, the colt's horses doubtless will have established some sort of a record.

HERO OF '24 PLAYS AGAIN

Freddy Lindstrom On Polo Grounds, But in Grey Uniform of Enemy.

By EDWARD J. NEIL.

NEW YORK, May 12 (AP)—Freddy Lindstrom, the "boy wonder" of John McGraw's last triumphs with the Giants, stepped up out of a dugout and onto the playing field of the Polo Grounds for the first time in the grey uniform of the enemy.

Half in apology, he said: "I guess you can't break a habit of nine years so easily. I feel as though I should be on the other bench. But it's a thrill to be back, just the same."

That was all there was to the return of Freddy Lindstrom to the Polo Grounds, where he first came up as an 18-year-old kid in 1924. A third base prodigy of Old Master McGraw. He stayed until the great "Jaw" retired last summer, turned the reins over to Bill Terry, and started the wholesale breaking up of a ball club. During the winter Terry traded Lindstrom to the Pittsburgh Pirates amid a cloud of rumors that Freddy was dissatisfied because Terry, and not he had been given the club management.

Very clearly did he remember that first year with the Giants, when he stepped into the world series against another Swede, old Walter Johnson, of the Senators, and played the hero's role until the final game. Then Earl McNeely hit a sharp bouncer down to him in the twelfth. The ball hit a pebble, bounced over Freddy's head and with it went a ball game, a world series and a final crown of triumph for the faltering "Big Train."

Horse Enthusiasts Will Meet May 20

Notice of a change in date of a meeting of horse enthusiasts at Amarillo has been received here.

The session was to have been held tomorrow but because of many sportsmen attending the West Texas chamber of commerce convention this week the date has been moved to May 20, at 2 p. m.

Organization of a horse association is planned.

BANKERS MEET SOON

AMARILLO, May 12 (AP)—The Twenty-ninth annual convention of the Panhandle Bankers association will be held in Amarillo June 14. It was announced after a meeting of the executive committee.

Mags Will Open Season Against Irish On Sunday

The Magnolia "Mags" ball team will open the 1933 season at Magnolia park Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock when the Shamrock Irishmen come to Pampa for the first game of the Cotton-Oil league. The Pampa team will appear on the field in new grey and green uniforms. Admission will be only 25 cents and advance sale of tickets gives promise of a large crowd.

Howard Buckingham has been working his team every afternoon this week and the men are showing a marked improvement over their play last Sunday, when they defeated Hoover 10 to 8. His pitching staff has not rounded into form and he has not named his starting hurler.

Most of the players who will appear in a Pampa uniform are well known to Pampa fans. They have been seen in action many times and their ability is known. The starting hurler will be picked from Rodgers, Simmons and Burke while Hol "Boss" Wagner will be on the receiving end.

A new lead pencil is made entirely of graphite without any wooden covering.

1b; Jimmie Coburn, 2b; Jimmie Baldwin, ss; Rusty Cahill, 3b; Freddy Newsome, lf; Warren, cf; Leo Shriver, rf. Schroeder, Webb, and Romine will be available for utility work.

Davis Cup Stars Ready For Play

NEW YORK, May 12 (AP)—All four members of America's Davis Cup team have assembled here for a few days' practice for the forthcoming international tennis matches against either Canada or Cuba.

Ellsworth Vines, national champion, arrived Wednesday and was joined yesterday by Wilmer Allison, George Lott and John Van Ryn. Lester Stofen and Frank Shields, who defeated Lott and Van Ryn in doubles at White Sulphur Springs last month, also are here and will work out with him.

"I hope Van Ryn and I can play Stofen and Shields again," Lott said. "John is playing a great deal better now than he was a month ago and my game has improved, too. In the first two sets of our doubles match with Mexico, Van Ryn made only five errors."

DALLAS PLAYS FINE BALL TO BEAT HOUSTON

BUFFALOES NOW LEAD LEAGUE BY ONLY ONE GAME

By BILL PARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer.

The Texas league pennant race is tightening up. What a few days ago was a four-game lead for Houston has dwindled to a thin one-game margin. Where a few days ago the swan song was being copyrighted for the Dallas Steers there is now a new marching tune because the Steers are putting the screws on the championship marathon. First it was by defeating San Antonio. Second it was the taking of two straight games from Houston.

Dallas, with Leslie Tietje hurling four-hit baseball, swept to victory Thursday night over the Buffaloes with an impressive 6 to 1 score. Impressive, because the Steers not only got excellent pitching but clouted the ball in the clutches that sent runs across the plate.

Dallas pitchers, Johnny Salveson and Leslie Tietje, held Houston to only one run in 18 innings. Langford, Jenkins, Bonura and Holman drove across Dallas' runs. Gene Moore scored Houston's run with a home run into the left field bleachers.

The Galveston Buccaneers crept closer to first place with a 6 to 3 decision over Fort Worth. Dick Whitworth, ace, started for the Cats but was driven to cover. Russell Cromer, a Fort Worth sandlot graduate buried for Galveston and teased the Cats with six hits. Galveston made a clean sweep of the two-game series. The Buccaneers move into Dallas Friday night to open a crucial three game series with second place at stake.

Once again the Oklahoma City Indians, far down in the cellar, have whispered that they are not out of the race. Thursday night they beat Beaumont 5 to 2, thanks to some excellent five-hit pitching by Kennedy. Ray Plaskamper got two hits and drove across two runs for the Indians. It made two in a row for the Indians over the Exporters.

The San Antonio and Tulsa game was postponed because of rain.

For use in small airplanes a radio-telephone transmitting set weighing only 11 pounds has been developed.

Danciger Takes Three-Hit Game From Faculty

Only three safe hits were made in a ball game which the Danciger Oilers won from the Faculty 3 to 0 yesterday afternoon at Danciger park. The oil men scored their three runs in the seventh inning on four errors by youngsters on the Faculty team.

The loss was the first this season for the Faculty. The game was a pitchers' battle between Carter of Danciger and Patrick of the Faculty. There is some discussion as to how the hits were divided, but both teams agree that there were three hits in the game. Danciger's scorer claims that his team got two hits and the Faculty one while the Faculty scorer says the teachers got three hits and the oil men failed to connect. Anyway, it was a real ball game.

Adair, Nash, and Hamilton were outstanding for the Faculty and Riley and Gossett for the Oilers. Hamilton and Gossett were the receivers. The teams batted into the wind and solid blows failed to travel far and the fielders played just back of the bases most of the game.

LOW WAGES, RACKETS MENACE LABOR. American labor today presents one of the oddest jumbles the American people ever had to tackle.

At each end there exists an evil so serious that the whole labor field will eventually be demoralized if a corrective is not soon applied. And in the middle there is a vast burden of unemployment which has parred society almost to its foundations.

Strangely enough, the burden of unemployment is in some ways the least menacing of the three evils. Everybody recognizes it as an evil, and the strongest forces of government, private industry and organized labor are uniting to meet it.

It is the disturbances at the ends of the line that are really ominous. At one end there is the sweatshop evil, a thing which has its roots in human greed, which helps to demoralize labor and industry alike and which is paid for by those least able to pay; women, children and the aged.

At the other end is an evil equally disturbing; the racketeer. He has been most active in New York and Chicago, but many other cities have felt his heavy hand. In some instances he has taken over whole union organizations; in others he has chiseled his way in from the outside; but wherever he operates he has sold out the workingman, taken tribute from industry and helped to raise problems that will take years to settle.

Pennsylvania, so far, has figured most prominently in the stories of sweatshops. It is in Pennsylvania that children have gone on strike against wages of $1 to $5 for a 60-hour week. But there are plenty of other states that contain conditions about as bad as anything to be found in Pennsylvania.

Two potent remedies for the sweatshop evil lie at hand; the minimum wage law and the child labor amendment. Get these two adopted and have them enforced energetically and one of labor's—and the nation's—greatest handicaps would vanish.

Against the racketeer the procedure is not so clear. Federal officials in Chicago are trying to operate via the income tax evasion law; and Attorney General Cummings is investigating to find out if the federal government might not pass new laws to make possible a determined federal drive against racketeers on all fronts. It is to be hoped that definite action will come out of this.

American labor is under three curses. Unemployment is only one of them.

Spiritualistic revivals follow depressions, movie director says. Probably bank depositors trying to find out where their money went.

Japan's claim that the Open Door still prevails in Manchoukuo is somewhat affected by the fact that Japan holds the key.

Maybe that stock market boom is just the echo of the crash.

Texas Under 6 Flags' Will Be Sold at Fair

AUSTIN, May 12. (AP)—The first edition of 10,000 copies of the official Texas World's Fair commission booklet, "Texas Under Six Flags," has been distributed to district chairmen and to schools over the state.

Proceeds from the book, which is done in full colors, are to be used by the commission toward assembling and maintaining the Texas exhibit at the Century of Progress World's Fair at Chicago which opens June 1 and closes November 1.

Van Camp of Fort Worth, author of the booklet, and J. L. Dunham of Dallas, have been named joint chairmen of the booklet sales division of the Texas World's Fair commission.

Assembling of the Texas exhibit which is to depict 100 years of Texas progress in education, agriculture and industry, as well as to show the possibilities of new settlers and new investments is now under way at Austin under the supervision of Prof. W. T. Rife, University of Texas, and Ivan H. Riley, architect of Harlingen, Texas, and Chicago, and will be forwarded to Chicago at an early date, Snively said.

Claude-Wayside Road Shortened. CLAUDE, May 12. (AP)—The distance between Claude and Wayside, both in Armstrong county on opposite banks of the Palo Duro canyon, has been shortened about 50 miles—not as the crow flies, but by highway.

No longer will it be necessary for residents of the Wayside community to drive from 75 to 100 miles to reach their county seat to pay taxes, when they live almost within sight of the town. The distance across the canyon is from 20 to 25 miles. A new county highway has been opened along a direct route as could be followed, providing Wayside residents the first direct overland connection they have had with the county seat.

Sand Storms In Hale Worse Than In Last 29 Years. ABERNATHY, May 12. (AP)—Hale county and the south plains this spring have experienced the worst surge of sand and wind storms in 29 years, according to several old-timers of this section.

The territory around Abernathy has received a few small showers, but not enough moisture to lay the dust. During one storm, all traffic stopped on the highway through here and business houses were forced to resort to electric lights.

Housewives have been occupied with the discouraging task of cleaning their homes of the fine dust that filters beneath doors and thru windows.

STOLEN ALMS. M'KENZIE, Tenn. (AP)—A shoulder of meat stolen from the smoke-house of Rufus Hastings turned up at the Bethlehem Baptist church. The owner said he believed it was left there as a token of the taker's conversion at a revival.

German And Jap Aid Sought On Arms Reduction

WASHINGTON, May 12. (AP)—Strong efforts are being made here as well as abroad to dissolve German objections to the British arms reduction plan and similar diplomatic suasion is expected to be employed by President Roosevelt in his forthcoming talks with high Japanese officials.

The president has taken disarmament as well as war debts into his own hands and is sparing no effort to bring about acceptance of the plan proposed at Geneva by Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald of Great Britain.

Thus far Germany has been the stumbling block in the way of progress toward adoption, but officials here feel that Japan likewise will present objections in due time.

French opposition has been dispelled at least temporarily by Mr. Roosevelt's assurance that the United States will help guarantee

TULIA'S PINE TREES

TULIA, May 12. (AP)—Four pine trees, 20 years old, one of which is blooming this spring, are growing in the yard of James Freye, Tulia justice of the peace, contrary to the general belief that pines would not grow in the Panhandle. The largest of the trees is 40 feet tall.

KNAPP TO TALK

ABERNATHY, May 12. (AP)—Dr. Bradford Knapp, president of Texas Technological college of Lubbock, will deliver the commencement address for Abernathy high school graduates the evening of Friday, June 2.

International peace by some form of consular pact if definite arms limitation is achieved.

The MacDonald plan, which includes such a "security" provision, would abolish heavy mobile guns, heavy tanks, bombing from the air and poison gas.

If likewise would set definite limitations on the size of continental European armies and would require that they be of a short term conscripted militia type rather than comprised by a professional volunteer long term service soldiery.

The White Cockatoo by Mignon G. Eberhart

SYNOPSIS: No reader of solution of the two murders that have occurred in their small French hotel, and the two attempts on her own life, Jim Sundeen confers with David Lora, a detective. They agree the events are part of an attempt to secure the token by means of which Sue Tully must claim her share of her father's huge fortune.

Chapter 31 EYES IN THE DARK. IT WAS as if some ghost had taken a fancy to haunt my footsteps—disturbed possibly by my intrusion into his rightful domain, for it ever a place looked haunted it was that rambling old hotel.

And then I felt a presence more definitely. And I'd no sooner realized it than, out of the tall of my eyes, I caught a sort of movement on the lower gallery.

It was only a flicker, and it was gone, though I leaped far out to look.

Yet, Madame Grethe, Mrs. Byng, and Sue were still in the parlor, and I took the pains to walk to the elevator shaft whence I had a view of a part of the lobby and could see Lovschlem still bending over his desk. I could see, however, see beyond the door to the bar, so the only alternative was the suspicion that Father Robert was my ghostly companion.

I had become, by that time, very circumspect in my actions, and I took greater caution about opening doors into supposedly empty rooms and was careful not to outline myself against any windows, thus providing a target.

Had I needed warning, which I did not, the silent, dark little elevator hanging there at the ground floor would have supplied it.

But, as I say, I was little wiser, and the one definite clue—which I was not, as a matter of fact, at all certain was actually a clue—as was impalpable and ghostly as was the feeling of a menacing presence stalking the dim-stretching corridors with me, just out of my sight and reach.

I found it when I visited the two rooms, thirty-four and thirty-five; from the window of one of the two I had caught that wild glimpse of a haggard and terrible face. The face which I refused to believe was Sue, which she herself unwittingly denied, and which still was so like—so terribly like her face, with the square-cut hair framing it, page-like.

Neither of the rooms appeared to have been occupied for some time. They were both cold and unaired and dusty. It was only accident that I took my way across the heavy carpet of the latter, and going to the window, pulled back its curtain and squinted in an effort to see through the slits in the shutters in order to discover just how much of the second-floor corridor, directly opposite and across the court, the watcher's gaze could have encompassed.

I realized at once that I couldn't see through the shutters satisfactorily and was reaching out my hand to pull back the doors of the window and properly unlatch the shutter when my hand arrested itself in the very act.

The shining glass was cold; the shutters behind it dark. My breath against the glass had misted a small patch, and in that little patch suddenly I saw very clearly the whorled imprint of fingertips. Four of them and a thumb.

They were very clear, sharply definite. They were spread as if the hand had pressed heavily against the glass. And they were small and slender. No man's hand had made them.

They were in the lobby. The light was already swaying under the entrance arch, and thus above the gate that was not yet closed. Two policemen were in the court, huddled under their capes and leaning against the inner wall, which sheltered them to some degree from the wind.

Lovschlem and Grethe were in the lobby. I could see into the parlor, since the light was shining there and the window facing the court yet unshuttered; Mrs. Byng and Sue were still there.

I turned and walked along the north corridor, turned into the main section of the hotel, and started again toward the corridor running to the elevator.

The whole upstairs was silent and deserted and unbelievably empty. My footsteps made no sound on the carpeted corridor. Thus it was, I suppose, that as I passed the closed door to Sue's room I distinctly heard someone moving about beyond it.

And it could not be Sue, because I had just seen her sitting there in the parlor.

Gandhi's Wife Is Released As Mahatma Sinks

POONA, India, May 11. (AP)—The wife of the Mahatma Gandhi, who was sentenced to six months' imprisonment February 8 because of her participation in the campaign of civil disobedience against the government, was unconditionally released yesterday, the fourth day of her husband's scheduled fast of three weeks.

The personal physician of the Mahatma expressed surprise and disappointment at the rapid decline in the health of the nationalist leader.

Mrs. Gandhi was imprisoned on charges that she had not paid revenue due to the government. Non-payment of taxes is one of the items in the civil disobedience campaign.

Briton Speaks Sharp Words To Hitler's Envoy

LONDON, May 12. (AP)—Sir John Simon, British foreign secretary, has informed Chancellor Hitler's special envoy of what Sir John termed the prevailing English sentiment concerning "recent events in the internal policy of Germany."

Sir John conferred with the envoy, Dr. Alfred Rosenberg, privately. Answering questions in the House of Commons yesterday, the foreign secretary said:

"He gave me some information as to recent events in the internal policy of Germany and I explained to him with equal frankness the prevailing sentiment in this country on the subject."

The Daily Herald says Sir John bluntly told Dr. Rosenberg that strong feeling was aroused in Britain by treatment of Jews in Germany and that no support for German schemes could be expected from British public opinion.

Rosenberg, the paper says, expressed regret, but assured Simon the German situation was becoming more normal. He then went on to utter a warning that Germany would not brook interference in her internal affairs.

F. D. E.'s SALARY SET
WASHINGTON, May 12. (AP)—The house approved a $75,000 salary to-day for President Roosevelt during the next fiscal year. Under the constitution, the full pay for the president could not be tampered with. He intends, however, to continue to remit 15 per cent of his salary to the treasury.

Man Confesses He Burned City

ELLSWORTH, Mr., May 12. (AP)—Norman Moore, 26, said by authorities that he set the fire which caused $2,000,000 damage and made 400 homeless Sunday night was held prisoner by the national guard to-day.

Moore was charged with arson. He was arrested on a farm at Hancock in his alleged confession. Moore said "something in my head led me to do this."

Moore told officials, they said, that he had gone to the Morang-Robinson storehouse Sunday night and set fire to a pile of excelsior in the basement.

As preparations were made to combat the spreading flames, Moore went to his room above a restaurant where he was employed as a dishwasher. When it became apparent the restaurant was doomed Moore assisted his employer in removing part of the furnishings.

Moore is a man of large physique and has a reputation as an amateur wrestler.

Food Likes And Dislikes May Be Taught Children

DENTON, May 12.—One of the simplest ways of assuring oneself of an adequate diet is to eat a variety of foods. One of the most embarrassing things that may happen to a person is to be a guest at a dinner where one is served foods one does not like, or even worse, to be the hostess who makes the tragic mistake of unknowingly serving guests with foods they dislike. And, yet, with few exceptions, had we been trained at a sufficiently early age we might all like everything that is served on American tables.

The young infant has no established taste, likes or dislikes. Apparently quinine is just as appealing as sugar. Furthermore, tests made by Gauger at Columbia university showed that taste responses of children 3 to 4 years of age may be modified without difficulty.

Tastes Trained.
The important points in training a small child to like new foods are practice and indifference. The food should be served at frequent intervals, starting with a very small quantity the first time and more the next time. Be pleasant and cheerful at meal time. Assume that the child will eat the food, but do not coax and do not threaten for the best results. Set a good example, and the child will usually do the rest.

Menus.
Breakfast: Stewed apples, wheat-

ena with top milk, toast, milk, coffee, for adults.
Mid-morning lunch: Cod liver oil, orange juice.
Lunch: Baked potato, scrambled eggs, and brains, buttered spinach, carrot sandwich, lemon sponge, tea.
Dinner: Swiss steak, steamed buttered rice, creamed onions, hot rolls, butter, pineapple salad, frozen custard, coffee.
Breakfast: Tomato juice, French toast, scrambled eggs, apricot jam, coffee.
Lunch: Vegetable hash, liver, sandwiches, carrot salad, doughnuts, coffee.
Dinner: Chicken pot pie, mashed potatoes, buttered new peas, escalloped spinach, peach pickle salad, Dutch apple pie, coffee.

Recipes.
FROZEN CUSTARD: 1 1/2 c sugar, 1-8 t salt, 3 eggs beaten, 3 c evaporated milk chilled and whipped, 1 T flour, 3 c boiling water, 1 T vanilla. Mix sugar, flour and salt and water and boil 2 minutes, stirring constantly. Pour mixture over eggs slowly to prevent curdling. Remove to fire and cook two minutes longer. Cool; add vanilla and fold into whipped milk. Freeze with 1-6 salt mixture. Yield—2 qts.

LIVER SANDWICH FILLING: 1/2 lb. beef liver, 4 medium sized grated carrots, salad dressing, 4 stalks celery grated, 1/2 t salt. Pour boiling water over liver and simmer for about 3 minutes. Cool; put through a food chopper and mix with grated vegetables. Season to taste and mix salad dressing to make smooth paste.

ESCALLOPED SPINACH: 2 c cooked spinach, 1/2 t salt, 1 egg slightly beaten, 1/2 cup buttered baking crumbs, 2 T minced onion, 1-4 t pepper, 1/2 c milk. Heat spinach, put through sieve, add all ingredients except crumbs. Put mixture into greased baking dish. Cover with crumbs. Bake in moderate oven until brown. Requires fifteen minutes

Police Have No Clues in Death Of Old Eccentric

NEW YORK, May 12. (AP)—The strange life of the eccentric Edward Ridley was the field police raked today for clues to his equally strange death.

They hunted for some hint of an enemy—an enemy with a hatred so great that it would leave the 88-year-old eccentric dead on the floor of his sub-basement office with his beard torn out by the roots, his head crushed and an ear torn away.

Perhaps some tenant of Ridley properties—Ridley was reputedly wealthy—may have gone to the office, a damp, gloomy cubbyhole 35-feet under the street level at 63 Allen street, and sought to avenge some fancied wrong. Detectives worked upon that theory.

The double murder appeared as insoluble as the murder in the same ward setting two years ago of Herman Moench. Moench was 65 years old. He had been Ridley's secretary and assistant for half a century.

Boston Red Sox Obtain Ferrell And Phil Ball

BOSTON, May 12. (AP)—The Quarter-million bankroll that Tom Yawkey brought into baseball about two months ago was probably $50,000 short today but the Boston Red Sox had two new players who promise to boost the perennial tail-enders a few notches in the American league standing.

Going to Cleveland Tuesday, ostensibly to attend a special league meeting, during which he was elected a director, Yawkey and Eddie Collins, his general manager, made a surprise trade with Phil Ball, owner of the St. Louis Browns, for Lloyd Brown, a high-grade left-handed pitcher, and Rick Ferrell, ace of the Browns' catching department.

These stars cost the Red Sox an unannounced sum, reported to be $50,000, and the services of Mervin Shea, a smart enough catcher, but a weak hitter. The cash was said to have cost considerable money this season, while his team played to small crowds.

The purchase of Brown gives Manager Marty McManus a sixth starting pitcher and a crack southpaw to team up with Bob Welland. St. Louis obtained Brown from the Washington Senators, for whom he won 15 out of 27 starts last season. Ferrell, brother of Wesley, the Cleveland pitcher, has been with the Browns for the past four seasons.

Girl Hangs Self After Her Auto Runs Down Child

CHICAGO, May 12. (AP)—Marie Bode, 17-year-old Riverside high school girl, drove the family car against a youngster riding a bicycle yesterday.

The seven-year-old boy was seriously hurt—how seriously, hospital attendants have not yet determined.

The girls was prostrated with remorse after the accident.

Today they found her dead. She had hanged herself.

International Sunday School Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

General Topic: Jesus Asserts His Kingship.
Scripture Lesson: Mark 11:1-10, 15-18.

1. And when they draw nigh unto Jerusalem, unto Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount of Olives, he sendeth two of his disciples.

2. And saith unto them, Go your way into the village that is over against you: and straightway as ye enter into it, ye shall find a colt tied, wherupon no man ever yet sat: loose him, and bring him.

3. And if any one say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye, The Lord hath need of him: and straightway he will send him back hither.

4. And they went away, and found a colt tied at the door without in the open street; and they loose him.

5. And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing the colt?

6. And they said unto them even as Jesus had said: and they let them go.

7. And they bring the colt unto Jesus, and cast on him their garments; and he sat upon him.

8. And many spread their garments upon the way; and others branches, which they had cut from the fields.

9. And they that went before, and they that followed, cried Hosanna: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord:

10. Blessed is the kingdom that cometh, the kingdom of our father David; Hosanna in the highest.

15. And they come to Jerusalem; and he entered into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold the doves;

16. And he taught, and said unto them, Is it not written, My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations? but ye have made it a den of robbers.

17. And he taught, and said unto them, Is it not written, My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations? but ye have made it a den of robbers.

18. And the chief priests and the scribes heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, for all the multitude was astonished at his teaching.

Golden Text: Behold, thy King cometh unto thee; he is just, and having salvation.—Zech. 9:9.

Time: Sunday to Tuesday, April 2-4, A. D. 30. The last week of our Lord's earthly life.

Place: Jerusalem and the Mount of Olives.

Introduction
After the opening of the eyes of Bartimaeus, and the other blind man at Jericho came Christ's visit to Zacchaeus the chief publican, found by our Lord looking down upon the crowd from the branch of a mulberry tree. Christ's condescension in visiting the house of the much despised taxgatherer melted his hard heart, and brought about his repentance, confession, and reformation. It is one of the most moving events in the Bible. After this, Christ spoke the parable of the figs, and about went on westward to Bethany, where, as before, he was entertained by the very dear family, Martha and Mary, and Lazarus whom he had raised from the dead. Here Mary showed her gratitude by anointing Christ with the costly ointment, an act which aroused the bitter resentment of Judas, the thievish treasurer of the Twelve, who from that time gave up all hope of profit from a temporal Messianic kingdom, and sought only to fill his own purse by betraying his Lord to the Jewish authorities.

Bethany is a little village on the eastern slope of the Mount of Olives, about two miles from Jerusalem. Its name means "the house of dates." Bethphage, "the house of figs," was another little village, not far from Bethany, between it and Jerusalem. "At the Mount of Olives." A hill with four peaks, lying directly east of Jerusalem, its summit a Sabbath day's journey from the city. Its highest point is 2723 feet above sea level, and about 200 feet above the ground on which the temple stood. It was named from its many olive orchards. "He sendeth two of his disciples." Probably Peter, Mark's informant, was one of these and probably, as usual, John accompanied him. The affection of these two for each other is very beautiful—the youngest and probably the blindest of the Twelve, the rough and blundering but gold-hearted apostle and the apostle whom Jesus loved because he had the deepest insight into his soul.

Colt Ready for the Master
"And straightway." Mark's adverb, here especially appropriate, the colt being probably at the entrance to the hamlet. "Ye shall find a colt tied, wherupon no man ever yet sat." "An unbroken colt, as was appropriate in the case of one meant for a sacred service. See the provisions in the Mosaic Law (Num. 19:2; Deut. 21:3). Everything was foreseen by Jesus, the presence of the colt, the precise place where he should be found, the fact that he was tied, and even the ready compliance of those in charge; and all happened exactly as he had said."—Principal S. D. F. Salmond.

"Loose him and bring him." Our Lord exercise his kingly right to all things, a right which he claims today. The owner of the colt was probably a disciple; but whether he was or not, the Lord of all had entire authority over all persons and all possessions. Even Christians are often sadly and senselessly forgetful of this, to the great hindrance of Christ's work.

"The Lord Hath Need of Him"
"Say ye, the Lord hath need of him." A strange saying indeed, that the Lord of heaven and earth should have need of anything, should have need of anything, are the cattle on a thousand hills. He could have created a colt at a word. But no; though all riches are Christ's, he has need, actual need, of the free-will gifts of the rich. Nothing that Christ could force or compel could take the place of the smallest gift that comes to him from a grateful heart. Not that the Lord has need of the gift, but he has need of the obedience and love that lie back of the gift.

"And straightway he will send him back hither." "Straightway," without complaint, argument, or delay—that is the Christian way to give. But how much grumbling there is about our giving, how much procrastination and uncertainty. "He gives twice who gives quickly."—Let us make it our own in joyful and constant practice.

The Triumphal Entry
"And many spread their garments upon the way." "The populace had trooped out from Jerusalem, and they quickly recognized the fulfillment of the ancient prophecy and jubilantly hailed Christ as their Messianic King. Their enthusiasm was boundless, and they zealously played their part in the sacred pageant." "And they that went before, and they that followed." "A multitude had followed Jesus and the disciples from Bethany, and another crowd had started from Jerusalem to Bethany, and meeting the incoming procession, retraced their steps. So the crowd preceded and the crowd followed Jesus—the two multitudes."—Prof. Byron Hoover, DeMott.

"Hosanna." The cry means "Save (us)!" Matt. 21:9 gives the fuller form, "Hosanna to the Son of David, and Luke 19:38 adds "Peace in heaven and glory in the highest," reminding us of the angel's hymn at the Saviour's birth.

"Blessed is the kingdom that cometh, the kingdom of our father David." The kingdom of the Messiah was expected to take up and carry to still greater heights of glory the reign of the chief of all Jewish kings, the immortal David, whose descendant according to the Flesh Jesus was. "Hosanna in the highest." In the highest degree, the shout of joy and triumph intensified. And to the triumphal procession continued down the slope of Olivet, into the deep Kidron valley, up the steep western side, and through St. Stephen's Gate into the courts of the temple.

Cleansing the Temple
As a King enters his capital, so the Lord entered Jerusalem; and as a King passes from room to room of his palace, so the Lord surveyed with keen and loving interest all the courts of the temple so dear to him from boyhood as his Father's house. "And he entered into the temple." The home of his soul during all that last passover. "And began to cast out them that sold and them that bought in the temple." The measure removed Galveston and Chambers from the old seventh to the ninth district. This forced DeWitt and Gonzales counties, on the western edge of the ninth, into the fourteenth district.

Rep. J. D. Young of Cuero was one of those who pleaded against house adoption of the report. Rep. Howard C. Hartzog of Port Lavaca also complained against the bill. Young objected because it took his county out of Congressman J. J. Mansfield's district and into a district with which, he said, it had little in common. Hartzog opposed the bill because it placed Galveston county in the ninth to be the oldest Galveston county in the ninth.

The death of Congressman Clay Stone Briggs of Galveston paved the way for placing Galveston county in the ninth. This proposal previously had been opposed because it would have placed Briggs and Mansfield in the same district and resulted in unseating one of them. With Briggs' death, however, the committee felt at liberty to move Galveston over into the ninth.

Galveston Not Satisfied With Redistricting

By CHARLES E. SIMONS

AUSTIN, May 12. (AP)—Dissatisfaction has been expressed by members of the legislature with the congressional redistricting bill finally agreed upon by the house and senate.

The changes were especially distasteful to some representatives of the old seventh and ninth districts, one of whom indicated he would ask the governor to veto the bill.
