AMERICA IS IN 'ACCORD' WITH LEAGUE ACTION

Enough Will Be Left To Pay For Paving McLean Road

GRAY county commissioners Friday afternoon put "reverse English" on spending of money for paving by voting unanimously to call an election to cancel $750,000 worth of unsold countywide bonds.

The motion was made by Commissioner John R. White and seconded by Commissioner W. W. Wilson.

Sufficient bonds remain of the $1,233,000 worth of authorized but not sold to take care of the Pampa-McLean unfinished project. The grade and drainage structures on the cross-county road have been completed and the road-bed is suffering from wear and wind. There is a rather widespread belief, however, that the project should not be completed until the stability of valuations can be better determined as to the future.

The county-wide bonds, totaling $2,250,000, absorbed the Pampa precinct's $400,000 issue and the $250,000 issue at McLean. The election which made the bonds county-wide was on March 28, 1931, and followed a series of unsuccessful votes.

Cancellation of the $750,000 worth of bonds must be county-wide and at a cost of about $400 for holding the election. The action is expected to enhance the value of any bonds sold.

Danciger Plea Is Denied

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 25. (AP)—Mayor Anton Cermak, strengthened somewhat by a blood transfusion, rested fairly comfortably tonight under an oxygen tent while five physicians anxiously watched his heart action.

An electrocardiogram—a delicate heart action chart—tonight revealed no added muscle damage or rhythm defect and this led physicians to announce at 10:15 in the Chicago Mayor "appears about as he did this afternoon," when he rallied after the transfusion.

His temperature was 98.8, pulse 120 and respiration 28 at 10:15.

The oxygen tent, slipped over the wounded mayor's bed this morning to furnish a rich supply of oxygen, will be kept in place all night, doctors said.

Dr. E. S. Nichols said Cermak still was receiving heart stimulants. That organ showed evidences of failure yesterday, but no added muscle damage was noted tonight on the sensitive electrocardiogram.

Intravenous injections of glucose were administered again tonight. Cermak was given a semi-solid food this afternoon by mouth.

Dr. Nichols said a second blood transfusion will not be given tonight.

Pauper Problem Not Solved By Commissioners

Gray county commissioners spent several days in vain last week discussing ways to meet the county responsibility in caring for paupers and to lower, if possible, the hospitalization costs.

The county so far has not made its biennial appointment of the county health officer. The court discussed with several doctors their proposal to care for the pauper sick for a little as $150 monthly, and to reduce hospitalization to a minimum.

The only motion County Judge C. E. Cary could get from the commissioners was that of Commissioner H. G. McCleskey to table the whole question for the present. This did for a want of a second and the court adjourned to meet again on call to discuss this and other matters. Judge Cary will be busy in county court most of this week.

The court discussed pauper care with County Attorney Sherman White, City Commissioner, Clyde Fatheree, and others without arriving at any agreement as to how the problems can be unified as to the responsibility and duplications prevented. Differences of opinion as to how to recognize paupers among the unemployed continue to be heard.

AUSTIN, Feb. 25. (AP)—F. L. Denison of Temple, twice denied confirmation as chairman of the Texas highway commission by the state senate, today set himself up in that office and notified the treasurer and comptroller of claims and checks against the department must bear his signature.

Denison visited the highway department where he exhibited his commission, issued by Governor Miriam A. Ferguson, to Gibb Gilchrist, state highway engineer, and requested that W. B. Ely of Abilene and D. K. Martin of San Antonio, other members of the commission, be summoned to a conference for Monday morning.

Gilchrist communicated Denison's request to Ely and Martin. Ely has served as chairman of the commission since former Governor R. S.

Broussard And Long Have It Out in Senate

LOUISIANA'S two democratic senators—Broussard and Long—resumed their bitter personal feud today in a forensic dispute on the senate floor.

Broussard, the retiring senior senator, defeated for the renomination by the long-backed Representative John H. Overton, opened up his attack with the declaration the successful nominee had won by "fraud, trickery, and corruption."

Long, who sat quietly by as Broussard spoke in his own behalf, waited until he had concluded before replying briefly to his elder in senatorial service, whom he called "my friend" throughout his short answer.

Broussard, leaving the senate after 12 years while Long has just completed his first year, pleaded with members to allow the special campaign funds investigating committee to continue its inquiry into the state's 1932 democratic senatorial primary.

"I am not claiming to have been nominated," he said, "but I claim that the other candidate was nominated by fraud, trickery, corruption, intimidation, and by every method known to the racketeer."

"You can't separate Overton and Long," because Overton never would have made a campaign without a sign from the junior senator."

Terracing Used To Save Wheat

MIAMI, Feb. 25. (SP)—Like Gray county farmers, those of Roberts county are turning to terracing in an attempt to prevent wheat from blowing out of the ground.

Farmers are running deep furrows over the land and plowing up some of the wheat rather than lose it all. It is expected that March will bring even more winds than February.

HEARD--

R. R. Kirkpatrick called W. O. Christian at the main office of the Phillips company in the south Pampa field and asked whether spring training for the Phillips playground ball team would be at LeFors or Bowers City. He was informed that Hopkins would be the site this year and that a couple of balls had been given out already. It was also rumored that Danciger would light their diamond east of the city.

Plans being discussed for the formation of a golf league in Pampa. Several teams are already in the notion and an announcement should be made soon.

The World's Churches

Statistics showing relative expenditures for churches and other religious causes are constantly being quoted. To answer a demand for the church figures of the world, THE NEWS quotes them herewith from a Methodist pamphlet:

Table with church statistics: Total church members in United States (54,576,346), Total Sunday school scholars in United States (21,038,526), Number of church building in United States (210,924), etc.

About The Farms

Gross farm income fell from $11,950,000,000 to $5,250,000,000 since 1929, or 56 per cent. That is indicative of extreme deflation.

But other industries suffered a similar deflation, and the laboring man has absorbed his share of the punishment. Wages and salaries in industries fell in index values from 110 to 40, or 64 per cent.

About The Children

Children can live but once. Depression or not, they have need of food, education, and direction along wholesome lines. They, of all persons, should be favored in appropriations of a welfare nature.

Statistics show that of 45 million children, 35 millions are acceptably normal, 6 millions are improperly nourished, 3 millions hear poorly, one million have defective speech, one million have defective hearts, 670,000 have poor behavior, 450,000 are mentally retarded, 82,000 are tubercular, 18,000 are deaf, 300,000 are crippled, 50,000 are blind, 200,000 are delinquent, and 100,000 are dependent upon relatives or charity for support directly or indirectly.

There is a huge child problem which will be carried over as a grave adult problem. Moreover, if the present rats of increase of insanity continues uninterrupted for a hundred years or more, half the population will be laying to care for the other half housed in insane asylums.

On Tax Exemptions

Creation of a class of wealthy investors which cannot be reached directly for taxation of their principal holdings is a deplorable development in governmental financing. The system of making loans easy for the government at low rates of interest is not only conducive to extravagance but it otherwise unwise.

OUT OUR WAY By WILLIAMS

Cost of Government

The legislative news bureau of the Texas Press association provides these facts on Texas governmental costs:

Total receipts of the state government for the fiscal year ending Sept. 1, 1932, were $96,894,751.25. Of this amount $24,175,000.74 came from ad valorem taxes, $28,213,020.59 from the gasoline tax, while the gross receipts yielded $7,001,299.89.

Other receipts include: Insurance companies occupation, $2,236,950.37; cigarette, $3,420,645.42; franchise, $1,490,349.73; gross receipts, $1,553,706.68; licenses, $3,636,619.11; fees and permits, $1,130,384.55; land sales, rentals and royalties, $2,355,893.84; interest and penalties, $3,623,324.22; federal, county and other aid, $15,803,686.68.

These are major sources of income. Principal expenditures follow: Judicial, $2,271,198.90; military and law enforcement, $1,208,466.22; regulation of business and industry, $1,137,021.79; development and conservation of natural resources, $1,978,007.21; highways, $3,945,336; eleemosynary and correctional, $5,744,739; public schools, $28,961,501.44; higher education, $9,525,277.33; pensions, $3,562,641.57. Figures are from the comptroller's office. Items of income and expenditure of less than one million dollars are not included in the above.

Forty-one per cent of all state expenditures are for highways, 35 per cent for public free schools and slightly less than 10 per cent for colleges and universities. These three items, plus Confederate pensions, care and education of blind, deaf and other wards of the state, account for 91 per cent of all state expenditures. Hence, if all other costs were eliminated, including judiciary, law enforcement, legislature and executive, saving to taxpayers would be LESS THAN TEN PER CENT.

Leaders Predict Early Abolition Of Farm Board

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25 (AP)—Early abolition of the farm board, which was the Hoover administration's response to farm relief demands, was forecast today by friends of President-elect Roosevelt.

They expressed the opinion that the agency created by the resignation yesterday of James C. Stone, board chairman, would be left unfulfilled by the incoming chief executive.

Stone resigned effective March 4. A group of Roosevelt's agriculture advisers, now studying reorganization of scattered federal farm organs, have recommended transfer of the board's activities to other existing agencies as one of the first steps to bring about greater centralization.

Another vacancy on the board also will go unfilled if this plan is carried out. C. C. Teague of California, resigned the vice chairmanship nearly a year ago and no successor has been named.

Stone, whose resignation was formally accepted by President Hoover, said he intends to take a "long rest" in an effort to recover from recent ill-health. His home is in Kentucky where he headed a large tobacco cooperative marketing association.

Friends of the president-elect said the actual work of reorganizing agricultural agencies will be placed in the hands of the man Roosevelt selects as secretary of agriculture, understood to be Henry A. Wallace of Iowa.

IMPROVING HIGHWAY

Placing of caliche on the main road through Skellytown is under way. Unemployed men will be used to do the work, and will be paid with federal relief funds.

REVIEWS and NEWS OF CURRENT BOOKS

(Vance Weston, the struggling and unstable writer, who is one of the two chief characters in "The Gods Arrive," has returned to Paul's Landing on the Hudson river, a scene that is deeply treasured in his memories of the past. Unworthy of Halo Tarrant, the New York society woman who has sacrificed herself to her love for him, Weston is in a mood of humble melancholy.)

Every fibre of his past was intertwined with that scene. Long before he had flown there to his first meetings with Halo, he and Laura Lou and her brother had ranged through the decaying garden and waded the echoes of Miss Emily Lorburn's strange old dwelling. In the arbour at the back of the house Vance had put a first kiss on Laura Lou's fluttering eyelids; on the doorstep he had sat and waited through a long afternoon for Halo Spear, who had promised to meet him and forgotten her promise; among the musty bookshelves of the library, and under the sad painted gaze of Miss Emily Lorburn, he had first travelled in the realms of gold, with Halo guiding him.

In that setting she came suddenly back to him, poised for flight as he had first known her; then, after her marriage, under a shadow of disquietude torn by laughter and irony, but never dispelled till he took her in his arms on the night of their flight. Thus detached from the uncertainties and irritations of their life together, her renovated image leaped to him from that enchanted world where they had first met. The memory caught him about the heart, and if she had come to him across the lawn at that moment all his scruples and hesitations might have been swept away in a flood of tenderness. But he was determined not to abandon himself to such dreams. His future, wherever it led, was to be ruled by realities, no illusions. He had thought he loved her, and he had failed her; she had accepted the fact, and faced it with her usual ironic courage; and the one service his unstable heart could do her now was to leave her in peace and go his way.

He stood for a long time on the lawn remembering how, when he had first come there, fresh from the mediocrity and uniformity of Euphoria, the house had seemed as vast as a Roman villa and as venerable as a feudal castle. Thru its modest doorway he had entered into a legendary past; its shingled tower with Sister Anne's outlook, its bracketed balconies overhung the perilous foam on which his imagination had voyaged ever since. The old house had been his fairy godmother, and it was only now as he looked at it again, that he understood.

He went up to the door, studying the shuttered windows, looking for signs of change, catching at every stray tendril of association. Of change he saw little; the family had always kept the house in decent repair, and its fresh front and bracketed balconies looked hardly more blistered and weather-streaked than when he had first seen them. Last year's dead geraniums still dangled from the fluted iron vases flanking the door.

He turned and looked across the lawn at the broad-door arbour where he and Laura Lou had sat. His thoughts went out to it in an act of piety, as though its broken trellis were arched above her grave. But he no longer recognized himself in the boy who had sat there on that June morning and caressed her frightened curls. His real life had long been elsewhere, and the thought of her stirred only a shadowy tenderness. He went a little way down the lawn and then turned back.

The house, at that distance, looked more than ever like the steel engraving in the old book on landscape-gardening which he and Halo had once laughed over—both oddly shrunken and small, as though from a full-page picture it had dwindled to the ornamental tail-piece of a chapter. And that, after all, was what it was, he mused; though he was still in the twenties the picture of the Willows seemed to close the chapter of his youth. He walked back to the gate, and went out.

Cuba Smoulders With Revolt; 8 Bombs Explode

HAVANA, Feb. 25. (AP)—Eight bombs were exploded in Havana within two hours after midnight Friday as the 38th Cuban Independence day began.

Meanwhile, the capital was scanning reports anxiously to determine whether a rumored revolutionary movement was taking form. Mexico City dispatches recently predicted that a movement or rebels from the mainland toward Cuba would coincide with bombings in Havana.

Three of the bombs were large ones, while the five others, which were smaller, caused several hundred persons to desert the ballroom at the Centro Asturiano.

Reports from Camaguey and Santiago said those cities were quiet. However, unconfirmed rumors said rebels were numerous around Cienfuegos and that a tense situation prevailed at Nuevitas. Communications were interrupted east of this city.

A Santiago dispatch said the Jibacoa sugar mill near Manzanilla was destroyed by fire yesterday but that the cause of the fire had not been determined.

MEET AT MIDLAND

John Coney, most famous of New England silversmiths, is the subject of a biography by Hermann Peterick Clarke, just published by Houghton Mifflin company. Corey's first piece of silver was presented to the First Parish Church of Concord, Massachusetts, in 1676, and from that time until his death in 1722, he designed and fashioned the many pieces of plate valued so highly by collectors today. "John Coney: Silversmith" is issued with an introduction by Hollis French, author of "A List of Early American Silversmiths and Their Marks."

"Earth Horizon," the title given by Mary Austin to her autobiography, refers to the "incalculable blue ring of sky meeting earth" where "the heart of man, the recipient of experience, is established." This explains in large measure why, in writing her life story, Mrs. Austin has confined herself to her own personal growth and development without digression and the introduction of comments and observations on people and events which did not affect her own experience. "Earth Horizon" is the intimate, rich, and full-bodied chronicle of a woman's life—as one critic expressed it, "the kind of a book you can walk around in."

WOMANLESS EVENT IS SCHEDULED FOR MARCH 30

RUMORS which have been going the rounds in club groups have been confirmed. There is to be a showing of fashionable garments for the spring season on March 30—and without women!

Among other things contemplated by the council for raising money for the club room is a checker tournament, which may be held in April. A tournament to choose the champion auction and contract bridge players of Gray county has been suggested and will be considered further after Easter.

MORE DISLIKE THAN APPROVE OF NEW MODE

NO MINCING OF WORDS IS DONE BY LOCAL RESIDENTS

"TROUSERS for women!" proclaim the stylists, but Pampans, almost with one accord, say "NO!" Of course, the mode has its champions, even in Pampa. There is Otto Studer, for instance, who has become quite "famous" for his hearty sanction of the trousers, and there is Carl Sturgeon, who thinks that with some modifications they would be "quite the thing." George W. Briggs can imagine some women appearing "passably attractive" in trouser suits, but says that on the whole he does not like them.

Some have taken humorous outlooks on the subject, pointing to Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey, who are now "skirting" about Hollywood in laughable contrast with Marlene Dietrich, who has the credit for originating the trouser mode in this country. "Anything good enough for my mother is good enough for me," said Wheeler, and Woolsey added his opinion that "trousers are safe feminine."
But the fact remains that if a woman wore trousers down the streets of Pampa she would receive far more unfavorable than favorable glances.

Mr. Polley's Opinion.
"Do you think women like to wear what men want them to wear?" asked H. L. Polley, local merchant, and when he received an affirmative answer he continued: "Do you think men want women to look like themselves? They don't! Trousers suits for women are only a fad which I do not think will be either widespread or of long life."

Mrs. J. B. Massa, who has viewed one of the new trouses suits, declared that "they are something we would have to get used to. They deprive one of femininity. Although I had not given the matter much thought, I do not think the suits will be as popular as the pajama mode has been. The suit Mrs. Massa saw had a box over the belt, and the trouses were a bit fuller than those worn by men.

The Bible Speaks.
Asked if the Bible contained anything which might have a bearing on the right or wrong of the style, the Rev. C. E. Lancaster and the Rev. A. H. Hyer pointed to the following scripture:
Deuteronomy 22:5: The women shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment; for all that do so are an abomination unto the Lord thy God.

Mrs. M. K. Brown, who is a reader of London magazines, states trouses are quite popular in that Great Britain city.
Judge James Todd Jr. when asked what he thought about women wearing trouses said, "Let them wear what they wish; they will anyway."
Archer Fullingim of THE NEWS said, "Marlene Dietrich can get away with wearing trouses as a publicity stunt, but American women will never attempt it because they realize that the fact that they do not look and dress like men make them attractive to men. Women who do not like men at all should wear trouses."

Harry E. Hoare, sports editor of THE NEWS, thinks the trouser suits are terrible—even for sports.
"Always Wore Pants."
"Some women have always worn the pants," ventured Mrs. Otto Rice, "but not in real suit form. So let those advertise if they care to—if they are not too fat."

Mrs. Leona Rusk Thurg, instructor of the "Fanny Kitchen," "Terrible! Most foolish fad I can think off! I don't even like pajamas on the street, much less trouser suits."
Mrs. E. L. Fowler: "I don't see why any one would want to wear the things."
Mrs. Steve Oates: "I can't think of anything more horrible than a fat woman strutting around in a man's suit of clothes."
Mrs. Annie Allred: "I do not admire them as much as the plain old dress suits."
Mrs. Roy Kretzmeier: "I don't think trouses are proper for women to wear, and I don't think they will be cheaper."
Mrs. E. J. Pafford: "I think they're the bunk."
"I hadn't given the matter much thought," said Mrs. A. D. Robinson.

Strong Adjectives Used.
Opinions of some of the women called for powerful adjectives. "Disgusting," said Mrs. Ethel Owen; "foolish," declared Mrs. K. W. Bunch; "repulsive," agreed Mrs. John Kelly; "unbearable," said Mrs. Louie Bahrendtsen.
Mrs. T. W. Sweetman admitted that her husband did not care for the trouses.
"They could not look worse," criticized Mrs. C. O. Seeds.
And from Mrs. E. M. Brown, a bit of a humorist:

LENT TO BE USHERED IN WITH SERVICES WEDNESDAY

ASHES TO BE DISTRIBUTED TO FAITHFUL

MASSES ANNOUNCED FOR MORNING AND EVENING

THE usual impressive services that usher in Lent may be witnessed at Holy Souls church on Wednesday of this week, which is called Ash Wednesday.

Palm branches that remain from the preceding Palm Sunday distribution are burned and the ashes are blessed. The priest then marks the forehead of each of the faithful with the ashes in the form of a cross which is the symbol of salvation.

The ashes will be blessed and distributed at the regular 7:30 mass in the morning as well as at a special 8 o'clock evening service. Included in this latter service will be the Way of the Cross, a series of short meditations and prayers connected with the principal events on Christ's journey to Calvary.

Beside this, the following schedule of Lenten services is announced: There will be Way of the Cross and benediction on Sunday afternoons 3 o'clock, and on Friday evenings at 8 o'clock a series of sermons will be delivered by the Rev. John Steingage, spiritual director of Price Memorial college, Amarillo. The public is cordially invited.

Sister MARY'S KITCHEN

By SISTER MARY, NEA Service Writer

There may be some persons who do not like the taste of chocolate, but they are so few and far between that it's safe to say that chocolate is one of the most popular flavors.

On account of its composition, chocolate and chocolate mixtures scorch quickly. For this reason, don't try to melt chocolate over direct heat. Put the chocolate on a piece of wax paper in a saucer and place over hot water until melted.

ANOTHER PRIZE ESSAY CONTEST NOW ARRANGED

CLUB'S INFLUENCE IN HOME CHOSEN AS SUBJECT

By Mrs. T. V. REEVES Mrs. F. G. Sadler, of Littlefield, chairman of the American home department for the seventh district has announced a prize of $5 in gold to be given at the district meeting at Hereford. This prize goes to the club member who writes the best essay of 1500 words or less on the subject The Influence of the Woman's Club on the Home.

The Deaf Smith County Federation of Clubs which will entertain the club women from the 48 counties making up the seventh district has nine clubs and is one of the most interesting federations in northwest Texas.

Mrs. Rex Tynes, the president, states that recently this Federation has put its greatest emphasis on health work and the promotion of a public library which shall eventually serve all of Deaf Smith county, an area of 1,549 square miles.

A public health nurse is employed, the clubs uniting to assist her in her work, which is financed by the Red Cross, the Hereford School district and Deaf Smith county. The major task of the nurse is health education. All school children are examined. A baby clinic is held once each month that mothers may learn to keep their children well and to have weaknesses corrected in their infancy.

The public library, which is maintained in the Deaf Smith county court house was used more in January 1933 than in any month of its entire history. Those who contribute to the support and determine the policies of this library are the club women. A fine selection of reference books, an adequate variety of magazines, and books to meet the tastes and needs of all the people who come to the library.

Another interest in the Deaf Smith county federation is the national prohibition law. A telegram, expressing their views was sent to the chairman of the recent prohibition rally in Amarillo.

Women of the seventh district will have an opportunity to meet the workers of the Deaf Smith county federation on April 19, 20 and 21 when the district convention will be held in Hereford.

The Twentieth Century club of Amarillo has a way of declaring a short recess from their regular routine in the middle of each club year. This recess takes the form of a colonial tea which is given annually about February 12. This year the home of Mrs. C. O. Wolfm is the delightful setting for the affair.

of humor: "Leave the pants for the men—and Maggie."

"The style has found a champion in Mrs. O. E. Palmer, who said: 'I think on occasion of sports and informal dress they would be very convenient.'"

"All right for sports but not for 'street wear,'" said Mrs. Martin Hegdal.

"Splendid for those who care for them," said Mrs. O. E. Wasson. "As for me, I prefer the dress."

"If a lady looks attractive in trousers, why shouldn't she wear them?" asks Lillian Keahy.

"If women dress to please the men," said Mrs. C. R. Price. "I don't think they will wear trousers. They are too masculine looking."

Said Mrs. E. J. Montgomery: "I should think all ladies would want to act like ladies."

Mrs. Cyril Hamilton: "We are women, not men, and trousers are not feminine."

Mrs. Bob Rose: "It's the bunk." "I think like Jiggs," said Mrs. Estella Wears—and when talking to funny-paper readers she need say no more.

Mrs. H. D. Balthore dismissed the subject with "Very, very disgusting."

Trousers feel bad and look worse—or so believes Mrs. K. Kuykendall. Mrs. L. B. Taylor prefers feminine clothing for women.

Mrs. J. C. Wheeler: "All right for golf and other sports, but not for dress or street wear."

Mrs. A. A. Stewart: "I very much disapprove of the trouser suit. Please, let us have the mark of unrefinedness to the men."

An interesting opinion was expressed by Mrs. Clifford F. Jones: "Trousers are not practical for ladies. Just when we are getting away from the extreme styles of short dresses, etc., we adopt one more barbaric than ever. If we must do something extraordinary, let's be original and not copy the poor men, as they have very few rights to infringe upon. It will not be a success."

STRONG ARMY AND NAVY AID TO BE SOUGHT

ORGANIZED EFFORTS BY WOMEN'S GROUPS ARE MADE

A navy equal to any in the world and an army of sufficient strength to guarantee the security of the country will be sought for the United States by the women's patriotic organizations, according to Mrs. W. C. de Cordova, president of the Pampa unit of the American Legion auxiliary.

Objectives in a national campaign for adequate national defense were outlined at the Eighth Women's Patriotic Conference on National Defense, held in Washington, D. C. January 30 to February 1, and attended by 627 delegates from 38 women's organizations.

The local auxiliary unit, in cooperation with other local patriotic organizations, will sponsor national defense activities here. Special national defense meetings at which the findings of the national conference will be explained and the need for adequate defensive forces discussed are being planned.

"One of the principal purposes of the women's national defense campaign will be to draw public attention to the weakness of the United States navy," Mrs. de Cordova explained. "At the conference in Washington our delegates learned that the American navy today has only 101 undersea ships, compared with 138 for Great Britain, 184 for Japan, 124 for France, and 151 for Italy. By the end of 1936, unless new ships are built for our navy we will have in cruisers, submarine carriers, destroyers and submarines but 60 undersea ships compared with 150 for Great Britain, 151 for Japan, 159 for France and 121 for Italy. We are urging through carrying out the program of the National Navy Club at the home of Mrs. Albert Hayter.

MOTHERS OF SCOUTS HEAR GOOD TALKS

RESPECT FOR FLAG IS URGED IN PROGRAM ON FRIDAY

The Mothers auxiliary of Scout troop 4 held an interesting meeting Friday evening at the First Christian church. At the close of the business meeting, the president, Mrs. J. W. Martin, in a short talk stressed the importance of a mothers' organization in furthering the Scout movement. "When the men of the city are giving their time to training of these boys, how much more it should mean to the mothers!" she said.

A lesson on the history of and the respect due to the United States flag was led by Mrs. J. E. Townsend, who stated that the flag had never gone into battle to gain possessions, but always to uphold a just cause.

Roll call was answered with reasons why children should be taught to honor the flag. An interesting paper on the history of the flag was read by Mrs. H. L. Ledrick; this being followed by a talk by Mrs. Gerald Chisum, a first class Scout, on respect due the flag. The devotional, led by Mrs. George Cree, was based on boyhood training. Two readings were given by Bobbie Burns.

The auxiliary is growing, and much interest is being shown by mothers, who realize the importance of Scouting in their boys' lives since they themselves have taken up the study of Scouting. Any woman interested in the Boy Scout movement is eligible for membership.

BOYS FALL TO BENEFIT FROM UNIQUE RULING

LAMESA TRAILS UNTIL LUCKY SHOT BEATS PAMPANS

A fighting quintet of Lamesa basketball players, who didn't know when they were defeated, showed why they won district 3 in the Tex. high school basketball race in defeating the Pampa Harvesters district 1 winners, 19 to 17 here Friday night. Addison, Lamesa guard, took a pass-out from under the Lamesa basket and unopposed looped the winning goal after Britt had tied the score on a long shot. The second game will be played in Lamesa Friday night.

The winning point came as a surprise to the Harvesters and the other three members of the Lamesa team who had turned from under the Lamesa basket to take positions for a toss-up. Referee Froggy Lovorn claimed that he called a Lamesa ball when Kelley fell on a loose ball ahead of Britt in a scramble under the basket. The referee's decision could not be heard above the yelling of the pack. It made in the heat of play he handed the ball to Lamesa without apparently seeing that the other members of the teams had heard not his decision.

Defensive Game

Both teams played defensive basketball, not taking any chances. Both teams showed weakness in making the ball off the other's backboard but protected their own stronghold well. There were few rebound shots attempted because of the close guarding. Lamesa missed eight attempts while the Harvesters let four get away.

Wayne Kelley, Pampa guard, was the outstanding defensive player on the floor, while Britt and Woodward took offensive honors, both making eight points. Marbaugh was second with six points. He made in the last half. Sturdivant, Lamesa center, got the jump on the injured Fullington and the Harvesters had to take the ball away from the visitors on nearly every occasion.

Lamesa Covered Up

Coach Cedric Mitchell will take the team to Lamesa Thursday morning.

Lamesa scored only two points during the first half. They then opened the game with Britt making a field goal from the black line in the first five seconds of play. Woodward evened the count. The Harvesters with a similar shot and the teams battled even until the quarter. While Lamesa was held scoreless in the second quarter, Woodward added two for Pampa on the first play after the whistle when he looped a long shot. Fullington sent the Harvesters into the lead when he picked Kelley's attempted free throw off the hoop and sent it through.

Marbaugh took a perfect pass from Woodward on the opening play of the second half. About the only crisp shot in the game was a long pass from Woodward and looped one without a player near. Britt ended the quarter with a rather long looper.

Ruling Misunderstood

Sturdivant made a free throw to open the fourth quarter. Marbaugh made a long shot and Patton a free throw but Smith, Lamesa guard, came into the limelight with two straight baskets from near the center as the Harvesters looked on dazed. With the score tied, Woodward made a long one and only a minute to go. The excitement was not over as Britt took a desperate chance and broke through to score. Lamesa won the game at the whistle as Addison made his only goal of the game on a pass-in from under the Lamesa goal while the Harvesters and the rest of the Lamesa team were getting ready for a toss-up. The referee said he yelled throw-in but because of the noise only two players on the floor heard him.

The Harvesters will practice on a space 35 feet wide by 70 feet long this week in an effort to get used to the small playing surface they will encounter in Lamesa. The big gym floor will be marked off.

RYDER GOLF TEAM NAMED

Nine Members Include Two Newcomers—Dutra And Paul Runyan.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25. (P)—The selection of nine members of the 1933 American Ryder cup golf team, captained by Walter Hagen and including two newcomers, Olin Dutra, an Angeleno national professional champion and Paul Runyan, White Plains, N. Y., was announced today by George R. Jacobus, president of the Professional Golfers' Association of America, for the biennial matches with Great Britain.

The others named are: Gene Sarazen, New York, present British and American open champion; Donmore Shute, Cleveland, Craig Wood, Deal, N. J., sensation of the California winter tournament campaign; Ed Dudley, newly appointed pro at the Augusta, Ga., National Golf club; Leo Diegel, Agona, California; and Horton Smith, Chicago.

A tenth member will be named only if any American homebred outside this list happens to capture the national championship, at Chicago, in June.

Jacobus sent the list of selections from his winter headquarters, Sebring, Fla., after acting with other members of the executive committee of the P. G. A. The committee, he explained, was aided by the advisory vote of the presidents of each of the 23 sectional groups making up the national association.

Von Porat Now Knows When To Eat and What

CHICAGO, Feb. 25. (P)—From his hospital bed, Otto Von Porat today vowed that never again would he disobey his manager's eating orders.

He did yesterday with the result he lost his important fight against Tuffy Griffiths, Sioux City, and landed in the hospital.

The stately Norwegian heavyweight's manager, Ed Stevenson, ordered him to eat his dinner yesterday by 3:30 p. m. so the food would be digested by the time he climbed into the coliseum ring to face Griffiths. Otto rebelled. Instead, he ate a big steak dinner at 4:30, expecting to start fighting not earlier than five hours later. But the preliminaries ended quickly and he was called in the ring at 9 p. m. After getting a wide margin over Griffiths, the Norwegian caught a stiff jolt in the stomach in the seventh round. He couldn't come back for more in the eighth and Griffiths was awarded a technical knockout.

Von Porat, reeling and helpless with pain in the stomach region, was rushed to a hospital. A stomach pump was used and he was little worse for the illness but a great deal wiser on digestive matters today. Stevenson said he would leave the hospital late tonight or Sunday.

"Nothing wrong with him now at all," Stevenson said with a half-subdued grin. "But he knows when to eat on fight nights."

Bell Scores First Victory In Bermuda

HAMILTON, Bermuda, Feb. 25. (P)—Berkeley Bell, New York, recorded the first victory for the United States over England in the Bermuda Lawn Tennis club's championship tournament today, turning back K. C. Gardner Dwyer, leader of the English team, 7-5, 6-4, 8-6 in the feature match of the second day's play.

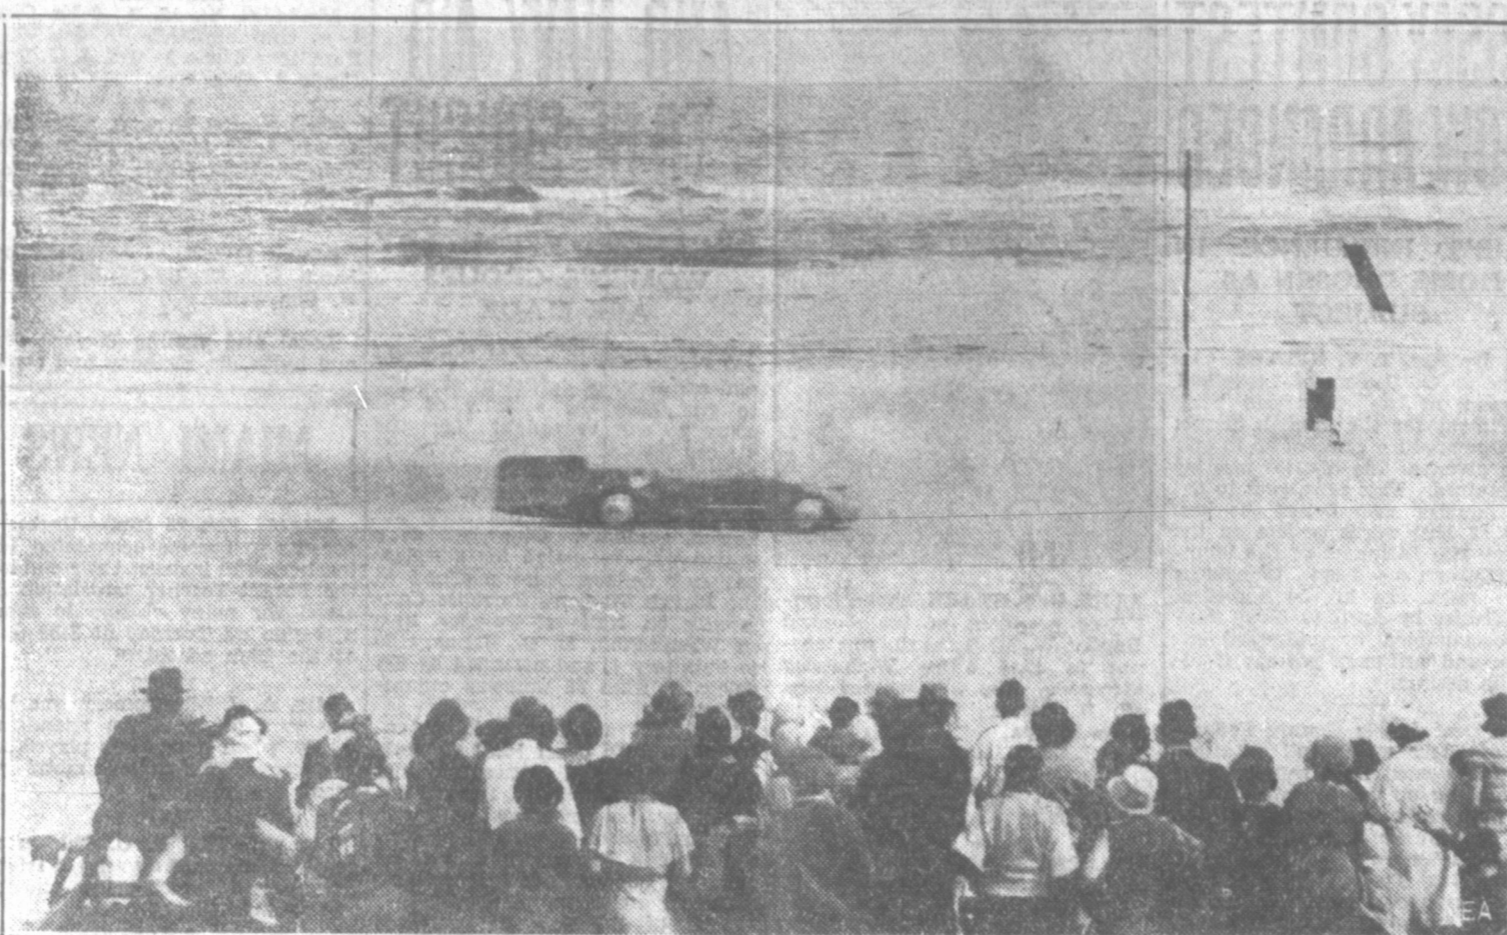

Another of the English invaders, R. K. Tinkler, had a narrow escape from elimination at the hands of Harry C. Brunt, Boston, but finally won out, 7-5, 4-6, 8-6. In the third set Brunt had the score 5-3 and 40 love in his favor but could not put over the winning point.

MORELAND TO PLAY CARLTON IN LAST ROUND

CHAMP SHOOTS BIRDIE AFTER BIRDIE IN COMEBACK

By BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

HOUSTON, Feb. 25. (P)—Gus Turner Moreland of Dallas and Cecil Carlton of Houston will meet tomorrow in a 36-hole battle for the 18th annual Houston Country club invitation championship.

Moreland, whose golf shoe's and putting stroke last year were good enough for him to win for the second time the Houston Country club invitation, the Texas amateur championship and for the first time, the western amateur and trans-Mississippi titles plus two matches as a member of the United States Walker cup team, swept into the finals today by trimming David Goldman of Dallas, 2 up.

Carlton, a veteran campaigner of Houston, who in the yesterdays was a star Texas amateur champion and three times winner of the Houston invitation, proved today he still can match shots with the ranking players by eliminating that crack par shooter, Johnnie Dawson of Chicago, 9 to 8. Carlton did not plan to enter the tournament, fearing he wasn't shooting well enough to qualify. His professional, Willie Maguire, Sr., insisted that Carlton enter, and tonight found Carlton in the finals as an even favorite tomorrow against Moreland. Their match will be over the 36-hole route. Carlton won the invitation crown in 1924, 1928 and 1929.

Nowhere in the colorful history of the Houston Country club invitations can one find a more thrilling chapter than Gus Moreland but here today through his sensational comeback to beat David Goldman, a club mate who had defeated the defending champion four times in six matches.

It was a grim and extremely determined Moreland who started the second round four down but who shot birdie after birdie to erase Goldman's lead and eventually emerge victorious.

Pampans Favor Cage Courts Of Regulation Size

Football is played on a specified size field, baseball is played on a standard diamond, and races are run over a set distance, but basketball can be played in Texas on any size floor from 35 by 60 to 50 by 94 feet. Pampa basketball fans, who have come to life with a vengeance this year, wonder why.

They are in favor of adopting the regulation size of high school courts as recognized by the basketball guide which is 48 feet wide and 75 feet long or a court near that size and in title play-offs the team that does not have a home court must play their home game on the nearest court of regulation size.

Pampa's gymnasium has a playing floor 45 feet wide by 78 feet long which is about as close to regulation size as any floor in the Panhandle.

The Harvesters go to Lamesa for an important game Friday night and will have to play on a floor less than 35 feet wide and about 70 feet long. Men who have played basketball know the handicap of small playing surface.

Houston Signs Two Promising Young Reokies

HOUSTON, Feb. 25. (P)—The signing of two promising rookies—Kelly Scott, former star Rice Institute football player and Elmer Dean, elder brother of the famous "Dizzy" Dean—was announced today by President Fred Ankenman of the Houston Texas League Buffs.

Scott was one of eight football players recently suspended from Rice Institute on charges of violation of rules. He has played amateur and semi-professional for Marshall, Woodsboro and an oil company team. He plays at any position in the infield.

Ankenman expressed belief Dean, six feet tall and weighing 185 pounds, who played in the Ozark league last year, would follow the Dean tradition in the matter of colorful performance. Dean's father came with him here. The player bats left handed and throws right handed. He is an outfielder.

Ankenman also planned the Buffs had sold infielder Harold King outright to Elmira of the New York-Pennsylvania league. King was with Denver last year, and requested to be sent to a cooler climate.

The entire Buff roster, save for three pitchers, Harold Wynn, Mike Cevengros and Ralph Judd, is signed.

Texas Polo Team To Meet Champs For Famed Title

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 25. (P)—The big four of Midwick, three times winner of the Pacific Coast open polo championship, ranked a favorite tonight to gain its fourth title tomorrow when it clashes with the powerful Austin, Texas, quartet of Cecil Smith in the silver anniversary game of the tournament.

The rangy purple would like nothing better than victory Saturday to keep the immense silver and gold Spegkies trophy here for the year that marks a quarter of a century of Pacific coast open tournament polo.

Smith, America's only 9-goal player, will lead the Texans into their first competition for the trophy, which in 25 years has been carried thousands of miles by winning teams and on whose glistening silver are inscribed the names of most of the world's famous players.

Each team rates 23 goals. The big power of Austin rests in Smith and Laddie Sanford of New York, who between them are worth 15 goals. Likewise, Midwick's strength is rated between Elmer J. Boeske, Jr., and Eric Pedley, both 8-goal riders of more than west coast fame. Midwick's display of power in stopping the 23-goal-chopper team put it in the favorite position, inasmuch as the Texans barely won over a team which was four goals weak.

Illinois Women Sweep National Indoor Contests

NEW YORK, Feb. 25. (P)—In a wholesale dethroning of champions and the breaking of two world records, the Illinois Women's Athletic club today won the National Women's track and field meet, held in Madison Square Garden as a preliminary to the men's title events.

The two new records were established by Dorothy Lyford, of the Boston Swimming association in the standing board jump and Nan Gindele, of the Chicago club in the basketball throw. Miss Lyford jumped eight feet, six and three quarters inches to better her own record made a year ago by nine sixteenths of an inch. Miss Gindele threw the basketball 101 feet, 6 1/2 inches, nearly six inches further than Carolyn Dieckman's record heave made in last year's games.

SPECTATORS PROTEST RULING OF REFEREE ON 'TRAVELING'

Ball Is Thrown In At End Zone Instead of on The Side Lines.

More than their athletic foes realize, Pampans dislike to squawk at referees' decisions. This was evident yesterday when scores of Harvesters fans who attended the Lamesa game here Friday night were heard to remark, "I'm sorry we had to see that referee as we did because people who hate to see the Harvesters win will keep on saying that Pampa always blames a defeat on the officials, but that break Lamesa got last night on account of the referee's decision was too much to ask anybody to swallow."

It was the first time in the memory of many fans that a Pampa audience gave a demonstration of deafening boojing.

How It Happened.

The following is an account of the events that caused the demonstration, as Harvesters fans viewed them:

The game had a minute to go before the final whistle. In quick succession, the referee called three held balls near the corner of Lamesa's scoring zone. Wayne Kelley, intrepid Harvesters guard, recovered the ball after the third toss-up, and in the scramble, in which five players were participating, he fell to the floor on his side and rolled over on his back. When the whistle blew a Lamesa player had his hand on the ball. The Harvesters expected a toss-up. The referee quickly gave the ball to a Lamesa player at the end zone and the latter tossed it to a team-mate who looped a crisp shot. The Harvesters did not hear the decision on account of the noise and the referee did not make them aware of it.

The Traveling Rule.

The referee's ruling was "traveling." Now both Harvesters and spectators knew that the penalty for "traveling," running with the ball is, according to the rule book, rule 14, "The ball shall go to an opponent out of bounds, on the side at the point nearest the spot where the violation was committed." Therefore, they expected the referee to give the ball to Lamesa on the side lines, not the end zone, when he said "traveling." The Lamesa player was almost under the basket when he tossed in the ball. The spectators believed that the most the referee could have done to penalize Pampa was to call a held ball, because Kelley certainly fell to the floor when he recovered the ball, and they doubted that he "traveled."

Before the referee could leave the floor, he was surrounded by more than a hundred loudly protesting fans. The angry crowd did not disperse for 20 minutes. No one made

Pampa Runner In Fourth Place At Laredo Olympics

Running against some of the best athletes in the state, Sam Kieth, former Pampa high school boy, took fourth place in the 100-yard dash, and fifth place in the 440-yard dash, at the International Frontier Olympics in Laredo during a George Washington celebration last week. The Pampa boy ran the 100 yards in 10 seconds flat and the 440-yards in 52 seconds.

Kieth was up against such boys as Meyers and Cox of Texas university, Hayes of State Teachers, and Ben Britte of San Marcos. There were so many entered in the 440-yard dash that three eliminations were necessary before the final race.

The Pampa boy was the only entrant from the Panhandle and he won the best distance of any athlete in the meet. Kieth may enter Baylor university.
