LOCAL CAR THIEVES ARE CAUGHT

Mattern's Return Planned

TWINKLES
England watches even small firearms; America has no registration of even machine guns. It ought to be a felony to possess a machine gun without a federal permit.

And, pondering over our wave of kidnappings, we recall with embarrassment how we used to wax indignant when an American was kidnaped in entire Mexico or China!

Hoat Gibson, who crashed in an air race, may be an authentic cowboy but he acts like a drugstore aviator.

No news is good news when our friends are concerned. For instance, we rushed post haste out to Charlie Thomas' place Wednesday on hearing a rumor that a tornado had struck there, but found Charlie suveying minor damage in perfect health.

Aprons of nothing, especially, is the fact that while Principal J. A. Meek was increasing the weight of school children at the Baker school cafeteria he gained no few pounds himself. Mistake not: he did a great work all around.

Mrs. Pampan's fright when visited by two wasps may be partly explained by the fact that she had recently finished "Fu Manchu's Bride" in Collier's.

WAS WORTH IT
Joseph M. Noble in Canadian Record: It is said that members of the senate consumed 500 aspirin tablets at the expense of the taxpayers during the last year. But just think how many aspirin tablets the taxpayers had to consume because of the senate.

Both groups needed relief from their headaches. Lawmaking is no picnic. Honest solons who leave their businesses in times like these often take heavy losses in addition to not receiving enough to pay all their expenses at capital. We don't begrudge them their aspirins.

SAVING GRACEFULLY
J. C. Estlack in Clarendon Leader. Few people are able to save money easily, and with most of us savings means a sacrifice—the doing without on the giving up of something we think we need or want. The man who can save money without permitting money to dominate his life and prevent his really living is fortunate because he has learned one of the most difficult lessons in the management of his affairs. He has also established a precedent by which others may learn a valuable lesson.

Few newspapermen are qualified to give advice on thrift. They are the farthest removed from hearing of any groups we know. They always intend to save, but never get around to it. If all men were newspaper men, there would be no depressions, no money would be entirely liquid. What you say must be true.

BURN THE BRIDGES?
T. A. Landers in McLean News. The flu-bird flies backward in order to see where it has been; it does not care where it goes. But there is no place for such birds under the new order of things. The changing order calls for new leaders, with new wings and a looking toward the future. We may profit by the mistakes of the past, but we cannot profit by looking toward the past.

WILL FLY TO NOME IN BIG SOVIET SHIP

AMERICAN PLANE DUE TO CARRY TEXAN TO U. S.

WASHINGTON, July 10 (AP)—Arrangements were in the making today for Soviet authorities to send the stranded American round-the-world flier James Mattern, from Anadyr, Siberia, to Nome, Alaska, from which point he would continue homeward in an American plane.

In a telegram to Boris Skvirsky, chief of the Soviet information bureau here, Irving Friedman of New York, who is backing the expedition to rescue Mattern, said: "Just received word from Alexander William Alexander, head of the Mattern relief flight now in Alaska; that Mattern is willing to fly back in a Soviet plane to Nome where he will continue the trip eastward in an American plane."

"Change of plans due to fact it would take too long to repair or send a new plane to Mattern."

"Will you kindly inform Mattern through the commissar of foreign affairs at Moscow."

Skvirsky immediately repeated the telegram to his government at Moscow and said arrangements would doubtless be completed very shortly to send Mattern by seaplane to Nome.

The Russians have a large seaplane now supposed to be on the way from Khabarovsk on the Amur river to Anadyr.

MOSCOW, July 10 (AP)—Dispatches from Khabarovsk, Siberia, published in today's Moscow newspapers say that Jimmie Mattern, the American aviator, was forced down 80 miles from Anadyr on the same day he left Khabarovsk (June 14) by motor trouble and that the fuselage and wing of his plane were damaged in landing because of the rough terrain.

The American came down on a spot three miles and a half from the bank of the river Anadyr, which on that date was still frozen over. How long he remained there without assistance is not yet known but today's advices said that he was found beside the damaged "Century of Progress" by a frontier guard boat which began patrolling the river as soon as the ice broke up.

Frolic To Draw Big Crowd To Ranch Tonight

Many Pampa residents are expected to go to the Mel Davis ranch beyond LeFors this evening to attend the city-rural frolic sponsored by the home demonstration clubs. There will be contests and stunts, with refreshments for sale. There will be no admission charge, and everyone is invited.

The crowd will begin gathering shortly before 6 p. m. and will come and go throughout the evening. It is hoped that many will attend, even if for but a short time.

Proceeds will be used to send three 4-H club girls to the annual A. & M. college short course this month.

MUST BALANCE BUDGETS
WASHINGTON, July 10 (AP)—Secretary Ickes look over his new assignment as public works administrator today with an announcement there will be no curtailment of the $3,300,000,000 public works program, but that federal funds will be extended only to those local governmental bodies which bring their expenditures in line with revenues.

TICKETS FOR JONES DINNER SELLING FAST

Reservations Being Received From Over Plains; Last-Minute Rush Expected.

PERSONS who wish reservations for the All-Panhandle reception banquet for Congressman Marvin Jones, must ask them immediately to be sure of obtaining tickets.

Gilmore N. Nunn, in charge of banquet arrangements for the Junior chamber of commerce, said at noon that the tickets would soon be sold out. He received orders from Clarendon, Groom, White Deer, and Dalhart in addition to the 133 reservations already made. Most of the Junior chamber members will make their own reservations at their luncheon tomorrow, which will just about fill the Schneider hotel dining room. Plates at one dollar each. Many women will attend.

Date of the banquet has not been set, but will likely be late this week.

Rye Skyrockets 8 Cents Bushel

CHICAGO, July 10 (AP)—A startling jump of eight cents a bushel in rye today carried wheat to the season's highest price level. The new processing tax of 20 cents a bushel on wheat turned speculators to rye in the belief that rye bread would become a much greater factor because there is no tax on the "black bread" grain.

The May delivery of wheat soared to $1.10 5/8 a bushel with all deliveries selling above a dollar at the close. The maximum gain in wheat was 1 3/4 cents a bushel.

Flour prices at Minneapolis skyrocketed, also because of the new processing tax, figured at $1.38 a barrel. The jump was as much as $1.50 a barrel and whirled prices to the highest levels since July, 1929, and to more than double prices current in December, 1932. The advance carried family patents up to $8.50 a barrel.

The December delivery of rye shot to well above 90 cents a bushel and within a shade of 95 cents. The close was lower, however, at 93 3/4 cents. A year ago today, the December delivery of rye was selling at 35 cents a bushel.

All other grains swept up with wheat and rye, but failed to touch new highs for the season.

PAMPA WHEAT MARKET
No. 1 wheat dropped to 85 cents a bushel locally this morning.

LaFollette Heir Poses For His First Portrait

The youngest of the famous LaFollette of Wisconsin, just ten weeks old, poses for his first picture in the lap of his mother at the LaFollette farm near Madison, Wis. The father, Senator Robert M. LaFollette, son of the late "Fighting Bob," looks on proudly. The baby, not yet named, probably will not be another "Bob" for too many relatives have adopted that name, says the mother.

Ferguson Talks With Ickes

Rates at City Swimming Pool Might Be Cut

Receipts at the municipal pool have been so satisfactory that a possible rate reduction may be possible before the end of the season.

To build the pool $8,200 was borrowed from the park fund and $136 from the general fund. The general fund will soon be repaid.

Receipts of the pool in the rest of the season will be smaller than the average to date because of the fall of season tickets. However, the commissioners hope to make it possible for every child in the city to enjoy the pool. This has been partly successful when admission was given for the tendering of a single wooden coat-hanger.

COTTON UP $3
NEW ORLEANS, July 10 (AP)—Cotton was swept up $3 a bale to new top prices for 1933 and the best quotations in more than two years in active trading today.

Mrs. J. E. Stroup of LeFors was a Pampa shopper Saturday.

LATE NEWS

NEW YORK, July 10 (AP)—Unfilled orders of the United States Steel corporation increased 176,456 tons in June to a total of 2,106,671 tons, the corporation announced today. The gain was the largest since the termination of the long-continued down trend in April. May tonnage lost 63,241 tons.

LONDON, July 10 (AP)—The steering committee of the world economic conference today decided tentatively that the parley would be adjourned on or about July 26, it was said in well informed quarters.

Carrier Boys To Arrive Tonight

"Boys on route home, well and happy, and will arrive about nine tonight."

So wired L. O. Johnson, circulation manager of THE NEWS from Roosevelt at 10:55 o'clock this morning.

The boys, winners in a circulation campaign, received a free trip to Carlsbad caverns.

Administration of Public Works Bill in Texas Is Subject of Confab.

WASHINGTON, July 10 (AP)—James E. Ferguson, husband of Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson of Texas, held his first conference today with a Roosevelt cabinet officer, discussing public works and left without either side gaining much information.

Ferguson, with C. C. McDonald, who is managing the state repeal campaign, conferred with Secretary Ickes for something less than five minutes. Ferguson asked who was going to be named state public works director and Ickes said there would be no state directors; that instead there would be regional directors with state advisory boards.

Announcements of appointments of regional directors, Ickes added, would be made by President Roosevelt.

Ferguson emphasized his belief that the public works program should not be restrained as suggested by Director Lewis Douglas of the budget. Ickes already had indicated his belief the program should be pressed to the utmost.

This ended the brief meeting. Ferguson did not personally suggest an appointment for Texas to Ickes but he told newspapermen he already had recommended R. J. Potts of Waxahatchee, Texas, and Hubert Harrison, general manager of the East Texas chamber of commerce, for the state administration of public works if there should be one.

There is a strong possibility that the federal reserve districts will be used as public works regions. Ferguson is counting on the fact that Texas is a district in itself. A further factor in its favor is the absence of federal public land in Texas, placing the state in somewhat different category from all others.

Morrow, Ferguson planned to see Postmaster General Farley, departmental national committee chairman and head of federal patronage. He says he is not hunting jobs and says he will talk to Farley about repeal of prohibition.

WASHINGTON, July 10 (AP)—Production of 495,681,000 bushels of wheat and 2,284,022,000 bushels of corn is indicated for this year's crop in statistics announced today by the department of agriculture based on July 1 crop conditions.

BOTH ARE WOUNDED SATURDAY NIGHT AT LAWTON WHILE THEY HOLD UP GROCERY STORE CROWD

LINDBERGH'S PLANE LANDS AT MORROW'S

Spend Night Near Coast of Maine at Camp of Shoe Merchant and Wife.

NORTH HAVEN, Me., July 10 (AP)—The monoplane in which Colonel and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh appeared over this island shortly after 9:30 a. m. (E. S. T.) today, and circled about.

In a few minutes the colonel brought his plane down in the water and he and Mrs. Lindbergh went ashore.

The Lindberghs flew here from South Warren about 20 miles away, where they alighted last night.

The Lindberghs' stop here will give them an opportunity to visit their son, John, and Mrs. Lindbergh's mother, Mrs. Dwight Morrow, at the Morrow summer home.

The Lindberghs are on a flight to Greenland where they plan to investigate the possibilities of establishing a transatlantic air route contemplated by the Air Transport Commission for which Colonel Lindbergh is technical adviser.

The Lindberghs were the guests last night of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Dorman, who spend their summers here. Dorman is a Rockland shoe merchant.

Flying inland to avoid the banks of fog which blanketed the Maine coast, Colonel Lindbergh alighted on South Pond shortly after 6 p. m. (E. S. T.).

South Warren is approximately 12 miles from the coast.

The famous aviator and his wife appeared at the Dorman's camp and were immediately recognized and were invited to make themselves at home.

Col. Lindbergh obtained blankets and luggage from his plane and returned to the camp to accept the Dorman's hospitality.

The colonel expressed surprise when informed of efforts to locate him last night. He pointed out his radio message sent at 6 p. m. disclosed his intention to bring his plane down "near Rockland."

Colonel Lindbergh walked nearby to a garage to telephone news of his arrival to North Haven. The proprietor of the garage said the colonel also telephoned to New York for a cable to replace a broken part of the plane.

State Asked To Designate And Pave Highway

Gray county commissioners have passed a resolution asking the state to designate and pave the Pampa-McLean road and other highways in this area.

Resolving that the state intends to pave the rest of highway 66, 33, and 152 in this county, the commissioners are urging that in addition the state take over the Pampa-McLean road and highway 88.

THREE CITIZENS ARE WOUNDED IN GUN FIGHT

STEEL-NOSED bullets fired by Oklahoma officers and citizens at Lawton, Okla., Saturday night seriously wounded two men who stole Paul Carmichael's Ford V-8 coach at 9:20 p. m. Friday and resulted in their capture. Three citizens were wounded, one seriously in the battle outside a grocery store the men had just held and robbed of more than $300.

The captured men gave their names as Finley Chappell, 28 years old, and Eugene ("Felix") Fields, 24 years old. Fields is said to be a former Pampa theater employe. They were taken to a hospital then to the basement of the Lawton jail where two officers are on constant guard duty.

Carmichael's car was recovered, virtually undamaged, near the scene of the robbery. Papers in it, bearing his name, resulted in notification of the Pampa police department early Sunday. Carmichael accompanied by Chief of Police John

LAWTON, Okla., July 10 (AP)—Officers said today that two wounded men giving the names of Eugene Fields and Finley Chappell, both of Enid, had confessed attempted robbery of a grocery store here, theft of two cars and robbery of a Pampa, Texas, filling station.

Five persons, including the pair, were wounded in the grocery store holdup here Saturday night. H. M. Smith, a butcher, shot in an exchange of gunfire with the robbers, remained in a critical condition in a Lawton hospital.

According to officers the two said they abandoned the car at Higgins, Texas, and rode a freight train to Pampa, where they robbed a filling station, then went to Chickasha and came to Lawton.

V. Andrews, Constable Frank Jordan, and Gus Irvin, who was held up at a South Cuyler filling station shortly after the car was stolen here, went to Lawton Sunday, returning with the car early today. The car was not damaged, except for burned rubber. The bandits set a terrific pace leaving Carmichael and officers who pursued them.

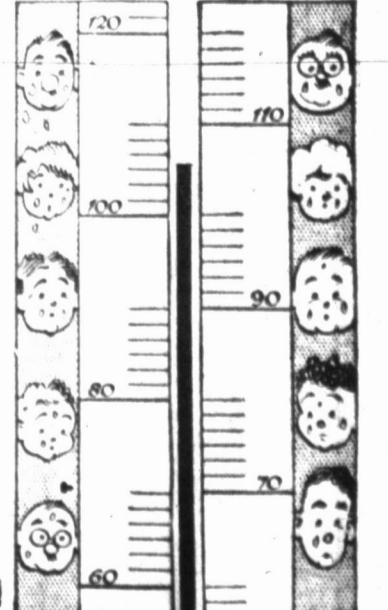

Butcher Badly Hurt.
H. M. Smith, butcher at the Safeway store which was held up Saturday night, was shot through the lungs when he opened fire on the pair as he handed over money from his cash register. His condition is critical. Eight store clerks, who with a dozen customers had been lined up along both sides of the store, threw milk bottles at the robbers as they shot Smith.

Meanwhile, city and county officers had been summoned. Chappell is said to have been shot by officers who arrived as he ran from the store. One bullet went entirely through his body near the heart, knocking him down, but he arose and stumbled on until another bullet grazed his head and one

The forecast:
TEXAS: Partly cloudy tonight and Tuesday. Light to moderate, mostly southerly winds on the coast.

New Air Venture For The Lindberghs

A NOTHER pioneering venture in aviation is the flight of Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh to Greenland, and possibly points westward, to determine the feasibility of a northern passenger- and-mail air route to Europe. The ship—used in their trip to the Orient—is pictured above at the Caldwell, N. J., airport as workmen installed a new 700 h. p. motor. Acting as mother ship for the Lindberghs is the Danish tramp steamer Jelling, shown below at Philadelphia. Captain Oscar Hogstadt, left, is the skipper.

SMITH-ROOSEVELT SPLIT IS EXPLAINED

Developments following logically from the administration's recovery program are providing an interesting sidelight on one of the most perplexing features of the 1932 presidential campaign.

One of the high spots of that campaign was the apparent coolness between Franklin D. Roosevelt and Alfred E. Smith.

The two had been comrades in arms for years; furthermore, they had evidently been fairly close friends, as well, Roosevelt had twice put Smith in nomination for the presidency.

Gossip had it that the rift was personal. Roosevelt was accused of having gone high hat; Smith, of nursing wounded vanity.

Smith's recent editorial in The Outlook reveal that the gulf between himself and the president is almost as wide, fundamentally, as that between the president and ex-President Hoover.

The recovery act, says Smith, "will cripple initiative, legalize monopoly, raise prices and require higher tariffs." It goes beyond anything my imagination can follow.

These comments show that the rift of a year ago was based on something deeper than personal pique. Roosevelt had one political philosophy; Smith has one almost diametrically opposed to it.

It is not likely that we shall ever again see these two men in the same camp. The cleavage between them is too deep and wide.

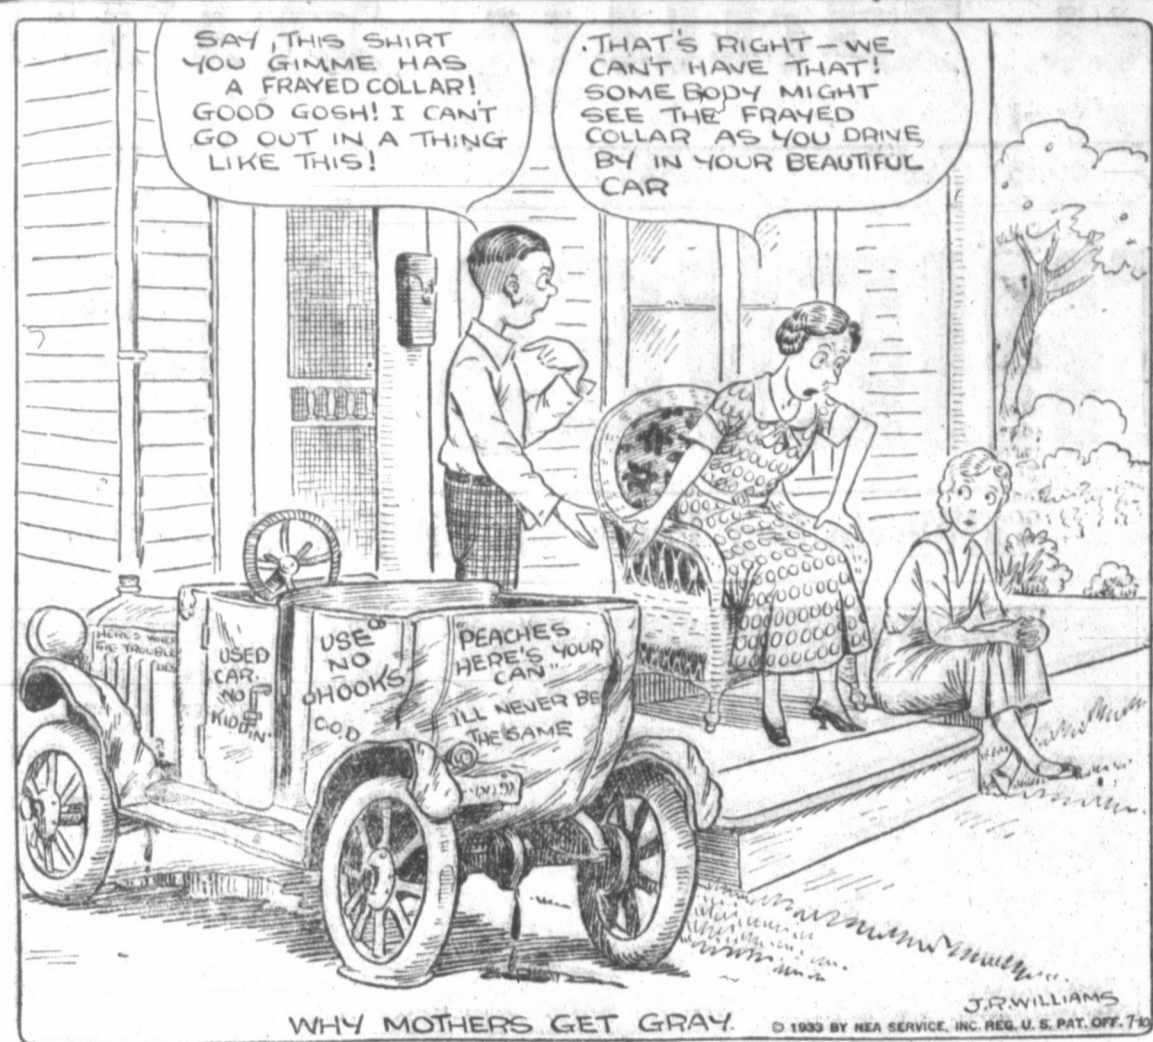

"It takes a lot of patience to make good in your chosen profession," speaker told graduating class of young doctors the other day.

Everything should be all right in Washington if the brain trust doesn't fall victim to the brain rust.

News of the reforestation work at Grants, N. M., has been sent The NEWS by Clifford Lewis. Young Lewis writes as follows: 'I am now in the forests of Northwestern New Mexico, and Mt. By the World FORGOT

A New Serial by Ruby M. Ayres

SYNOPSIS: George Bancroft, recently snatched from her peaceful life in an English village by her mother and step-father from New York, lives a gay life as a shop-girl acquaintance. Nelly Foster, out of a job and blue, just Nelly shows her newspaper clipping about Nicholas Boyd's operation in Germany, where he has gone in an effort to have removed the scar that has cost him his fine career.

Chapter 31 NELLY'S JOB

"HULLO! I thought it was your mother," Bishop said. "No, it's I." George came forward and stood beside him.

"I don't see what's to stop you," he answered, but his eyes softened a little. "Ask away."

"I want you to get a job for a friend of mine," George said. "A friend of yours... what is she? A chorus girl?" he asked cynically.

George's grave eyes were raised to his. "No, she's a shop girl," she said. "I met her on the boat coming back from America. Her step father had the sack three weeks ago, and I met her just now and she hadn't had any breakfast and it's... oh, I think it's perfectly awful," she added with a shiver.

"Bishop smiled faintly. "A great many things in life are perfectly awful," he said grimly. "How do you imagine I can find your friend a job?"

"I thought you might try," George said earnestly. "You know so many people."

"There was a little silence, then Bishop said, 'That film star young woman wants a maid. Suppose that wouldn't do, would it?'"

"Bernie Boyd?" George's color came and went. "Hasn't she got one?"

"Your mother tells me that she has not. The girl's ill. Do you think your friend would be any good at the job?"

"I could ask her," George said hopefully. "I expect it will be an unenviable task," Bishop said bluntly.

"Because a woman who will talk about her husband as she does won't be particular as to how she treats a dependent."

"How does she talk about her husband?" George asked, a little breathlessly. "In the way no decent woman would," Bishop said emphatically.

"In the way that I hope you will never talk about the man you marry." "I shall never marry," George said.

"I should like to bet on that," he answered. "There was a little silence. To be Bernie Boyd's maid seemed to George a most enviable task, and after a moment she said so."

"I wouldn't mind that, oh myself," "You!" Bishop's voice was indescribable. "The boy woman's not fit to lick the dust from your boots," he said.

George smiled. "She wouldn't like to hear you say that," she told him, and then, "Ought I to go and see her and ask about it?"

"You ought not. I'll see her myself. She has already invited me to put some money into her new show, and that will give me a pull—it will be a quid pro quo if she takes your friend."

"I think you're wonderful," George told him gratefully. Then suddenly his friendly manner changed.

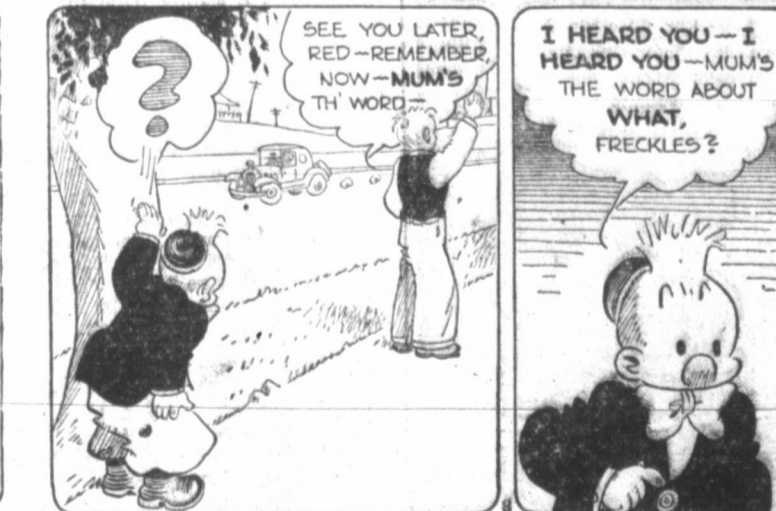

Those noiseless street cars that Chicago is getting ready to introduce should certainly mark an important step in that city's war on rackets.

PRESIDENT APPROVES TEXTILE CODE, ABOLISHES CHILD LABOR

WORKERS' PAY RAISED FOUR DOLLARS WEEK

CODE SHORTENS WORK WEEK FROM 50 TO 40 HOURS

WASHINGTON, July 10. (AP)—Upwards of 400,000 employees in cotton textile mills next Monday will begin working only 40 hours a week instead of 48 to 50 for no less than $12 or $13, against $8 to $9.

That was assured when President Roosevelt, with reservations and interpretations, last night approved and promulgated the first work-spreading, wage-raising code of fair competition completed under the national recovery act.

Approval of this agreement, officials said, would bring more from other big industries in the attempt to recover prosperity by what the president calls "a partnership" between business and the government.

The situation now is this: A majority of the cotton textile industry has agreed upon minimum wages for a part of their employees and the maximum number of hours they shall work.

About 23 per cent of the industry, officials reported, have not signed that agreement. They will be granted hearings this week. If they do not accept, then the attempt will be ready to demand that they apply for federal licenses to operate. These licenses will require compliance with the agreement, which was made a law by presidential promulgation.

The president's modifications and clarifications of the code left it unchanged as to minimum wages and maximum hours. Nor did they remove the bar against employment of children under 16 or the stipulation that no cotton textile plant may operate its machines more than 80 hours a week.

He did direct that the code should apply to white-collar office employees; that the amounts by which higher paid workers' salaries now exceed those of the lowest-paid shall be maintained; that the industry shall prepare a similar code for cleaners and outside workers now employed; that repair shop crews, engineers, electricians and watching crews, if employed more than 40 hours a week, shall get time and a half for overtime.

Because this was the first such agreement, and because conditions are changing, the president made it operative for only four months. At the end of that time, employers and workers may be asked to accept modifications or the plan may be extended as is.

In his announcement of approval, the president remarked that after "years of fruitless effort," the "ancient atrocity" of child labor has

BLACK MOON—By Clements Ripley, Harcourt, Brace, $2.

BLACK MOON is another of those books of voodoo and the spell of the tropics, always interesting to the average reader considers such a subject just so much bosh and a taste of the impossible is at times that which we all seek. Amalia, called a blond Spaniard by one who introduced her to Stephen Lane at a debutante dance in New York, is gorgeous, mysterious, uncanny, and disgracefully beautiful. After Lane had promptly fallen in love with her, she disappeared and months later a letter from Amalia's uncle under the Caribbean inviting Lane to visit them was received. A postscript, scrawled at the end, caused him to hasten down to Amalia who is dramatically surrounded with a south sea island atmosphere and the theme there becomes radiant with tropical moons and blue their furnishings. Action is surprised to learn that the lovely Amalia is a voodoo priestess in her more secretive moments and incidents such as Lane finding her dancing naked in the moonlight are more or less to be expected. Action is swift and drums, blood, and death are introduced to the general plotting before Lane finds himself northward bound again with another beautiful lady in his arms.

BEST SHORT STORIES 1933—By Edward J. O'Brien. Boston: Houghton Mifflin Co. 1933. $2.50.

O'Brien remarks in his preface of the 1933 anthology that since 1925 at least, the newer writers are placing their emphasis on character. Instead of the proverbial machine-made formalism; the characters are at once individuals and separate people, each with a different and recognizable background. One can place any character in any of the number of American environments so accurately have the authors described them.

Another development is that dealing with the much abused subject of plot. These stories do not cling to an obvious patterns; neither do they ramble without coming eventually to a logical conclusion. They are rapid enough to make good reading and properly ended.

The selection is catholic enough so that every reader should find at least half of the twenty-nine stories interesting, and perhaps six of his own particular brand. Those by Bessie, Cantwell, Flandrau, Halper, Porter, and Steele are especially to be recommended.

been eliminated in this industry "because this law permits employers to do by agreement that which none of them could do separately."

"I can think of no greater achievement of cooperation, mutual understanding and good will," he added.

This acceptance of the code came from the White House only a short time after the president finished a week-end trip on the Potomac river. Delay of presidential action until today would have postponed effectiveness of the plan until July 24. But the fact that "Franklin D. Roosevelt" was written across the order before midnight made it operative July 17—the second Monday after promulgation.

The president decided upon his action after reading a report submitted by Hugh S. Johnson, recovery administrator who had worked all night Saturday to get it ready. As the president read, in the presence of John D. and others, he remarked "bully!" and "great!"

NO TIME LIKE THE PRESENT—By Storm Jameson. New York: Alfred A. Knopf. 1933. $2.35.

Miss Jameson is at her best in this book in which she mentions all her adventures and indignations against war. She belongs to that generation which was coming to maturity during the war and arrived at achievement in a world of chaos and indecision.

In 1913 while in college, Miss Jameson felt that her generation had everything to gain and nothing to lose. The narrow standards and conventions of the Victorian era were rapidly losing a foothold in England. The new literature, the new art were stimulants for the imagination under such a stress of feeling that at times rises to eloquence. In earlier sections, she describes her life in the seaport town of Whitby, her childhood, college days and her friends. After 1914, Miss Jameson says the story of her life ends. The rest of the book deals with opinions, reflections of writing, reading, religion, and preachers, and always with insistent ardor, on war Virginia Hersch, whose STORM BEACH has just run serially in OPINION and made its appearance in book form (Houghton Mifflin Co.), is spending the summer in the little Canadian town of Bic, where she has just begun work on her next novel.

Mary Austin who has recently written her autobiography in EARTH HORIZON (Houghton Mifflin Co.), discusses the Spanish drama in the July issue of the THEATRE ARTS MAGAZINE. She has just given to the Santa Fe museum, the manuscript of the first play ever produced on American soil—at the founding of Santa Fe, July 10, 1598. Mrs. Austin is now one of the associate editors of the SOUTHWEST REVIEW.

LUCRECE, Thornton Wilder's translation of Andre Obey's play, Le Viol De Lucere is now available for production by Little Theatre and amateur acting groups in America. This drama, inspired by Shakespeare's poem, was first given with great success in Paris and in London by Jacques Coepaer's company. Katharine Cornell produced it in the United States and achieved one of her outstanding successes as an actress in the role of LUCRECE. Its stylized setting and numerous characters should particularly appeal to Little Theatre associations.

LAW PROVIDES FOR A NATIONAL EMPLOYMENT OFFICE SYSTEM AND FARM PLACEMENT SERVICE

Shaw Reluctant To Leave Austin For New Office

By MELBOURNE CHRISTERSON Associated Press Staff Writer The law directs the new agency to promote and develop a national system of employment offices for men, women and juniors who are legally qualified to work, to maintain a veterans service and a farm placement service.

The sum of $1,125,000,000 has been appropriated for disbursement this year to states cooperating in the movement.

W. Frank Persons, director, and his aides, say the new system will be able to find more jobs for the idle because the higher standards should convince employers that they can obtain a better type of workman from a great pool rather than depending on those who call at the gate.

The system is cooperating with states through legislation to drive out the "racketeering" type of employment services.

The public works administration has allocated $500,000 to the United States employment service to establish a temporary system of re-employment agencies where needed to mobilize workers for the public works program. This will be distinct from the permanent service, existing for only five months.

Twenty-four states now have state employment services and these will be enlisted first in the drive for putting the idle back to work.

In states where services now exist those seeking work will proceed in the same manner as heretofore, making application to the local office which will send the applicants to employers requesting aid in selecting employees. The federal service, too, will provide a sort of nationwide clearing house, so an unemployed man in one state may be told about a job in another if he cannot be placed at home.

Regional offices will be developed gradually to provide this service, to see that states comply with the new standards and to collect statistical information.

STANWYCK IN PLEASING ROLE IN 'BABY FACE'

HAS PART OF GIRL OF SLUMS—MEN ARE TOO PLENTIFUL

BARBARA STANWYCK in the little role is certain to thrill and delight her old steadfast admirers, and win a legion of new followers, in her newest production, "Baby Face," which is at the La Nora theater today.

The central character of "Baby Face" is one of those tremendous roles that offers to any dramatic star capable of handling such a part, opportunities for inspiring work.

Born in the slums of a steel mill town, reared in the squalid atmosphere of a speakeasy, Lily (Baby Face) has no illusions about men, love or marriage. Life and an old German have taught her that it is the strong who take and the weak who give. With nothing but supreme confidence in her own feminine appeal to the opposite sex and a grim determination to make them pay for their smiles, Lily invades New York and the world of business.

In the years that follow, many men lose their heart to her. Lily accepts their devotion, their money and jewels and moves steadily on from one admirer to another—careless of the tragedy and scandal she leaves behind her. Her supreme coup, however, is her conquest of the young bank president whose predecessor in the institution was her prey for years.

Then the drama of "Baby Face" takes an unexpected turn and crashes to a denouement that furnished a surprising and unsurpassed climax.

It is difficult to say at what point, more than at any other, Miss Stanwyck is most superbly convincing. She is a pathetic, vividly forlorn figure as the little waitress in her step-father's beer flat, fighting off the mill workers who would paw her every time she passes a table.

She becomes increasingly dazzling as she goes from one success to another in the questionable career she has mapped out for herself after her arrival in New York.

No part that we can recall having seen Miss Stanwyck play, offers her the scope and depth that the role of Lily does, and she takes inspired advantage of every opportunity.

George Brent is delightful as "Thenheim," the bank president who is the last but not the least of Lily's captives.

The cast surrounding Miss Stanwyck is of competent calibre, including as it does such talented actors as Henry Kolker, Douglas Dumbrille, James Murray, Arthur Hohl, Alphonse Eliezer, Robert Baris, Alfred E. Green's direction of "Baby Face" is keen and subtle throughout.

CHURCH ACTIVITIES ARE SPURRED BY START OF TWO REVIVALS

SERVICES WILL BE HELD DAILY THROUGH WEEK

OTHER CHURCHES IN USUAL PROGRAMS YESTERDAY

A PERIOD of church activity started yesterday with the opening of revivals in two Pampa churches, the First Christian and the Assembly of God. Large attendance was reported for initial services.

All seats at the Christian church were filled last evening as the evangelistic party gave a 30 minute concert of sacred music and Dr. C. R. L. Vawter preached on "Repentance." Five additions to the church were reported.

Services will be conducted each evening, the music starting at 8 o'clock. On Tuesday evening 300 visitors are expected from the Berger church, where Dr. Vawter conducted a revival last year. He has also preached at Clarendon, Canadian, and other nearby cities, which are expected to send delegations to hear him during the meetings here.

Morning Hours Planned
Morning services will start Tuesday at 9:30, when Howard House, a member of the Vawter party, will begin a Bible study course for adults and young people, open to all. On Wednesday morning Billy Reaves song leader, will take charge of a junior chorus which will meet each day at 9:30 a. m.

Other churches here had their usual services yesterday, with their own pastors preaching.

A number of week-day activities were announced in the First Baptist church. The Livingston B. Y. P. U. will leave the church at 5 a. m. Tuesday for a summer breakfast. The Dorcas class will hold an executive meeting and covered dish lunch at the home of Mrs. H. L. Groves Wednesday. All men of the church and Sunday school classes, with their wives will meet at Harvester park Friday evening for a fellowship session and supper sponsored by the church brotherhood.

Sunday school attendance yesterday was reported as follows: Methodist, 423; Presbyterian, 115; Christian, 387; First Baptist, 698 with 95 in the training service Sunday evening.

Class Plans For Ice Cream Supper

Plans for an ice cream social on the church lawn next Friday evening were made by the Clara Hill class of First Methodist church when they met for a fellowship session at the home of Mrs. Philip Wolfe Friday afternoon.

The public is invited to the outdoor social. Home made cake and ice cream will be served.

Members of the sewing club continued work on articles that will be placed in a class bazaar next Christmas. The hostess served apricot sherbet, ice box cookies, and tea after the work hour.

Those present were Mesdames G. T. Ratliff, R. O. Pierce, J. D. Sackett, E. L. Garrett, Patience, Jean, Carl, Baer, Roy Kretzmer, F. L. Stallings, Neil Cross, C. Price, R. C. King, H. O. Roberts, C. C. Clark, A. Heflin, and Dixon.

TOO OLD TO SMILE
TARRYTOWN, N. Y., July 10 (AP)—John D. Rockefeller Sr. says (with a smile) that he's far too old to smile.

He was 94 Saturday and he went to church yesterday. When he came out photographers took aim at him. "Smile, please," they said. "Don't say that," he said, "just snap your picture. Remember I'm an old man and if I smiled people would think I were pretending. I can't smile."

The crowd around him laughed. Then Mr. Rockefeller smiled.

Tres Bonne!

YOU'VE got to hand it to the French for getting along with the bare necessities! Here's the creation that drew a chorus of buzz-saws at the actresses' Nautical fete in Paris.

LOS ANGELES, July 10. (AP)—The current run of divorces and separations among persons prominent in the Hollywood film colony today had added the marital difficulties of an Hungarian actress, a noted director and an independent producer.

Striking among the elements figuring in the woes besetting marriage in the town dedicated to the production of celluloid fictions was the oft-repeated friendliness of the principals.

Last week Rickard Dix, cowboy hero, said he and the San Francisco society girl, the former Winifred Coe, would remain dear friends after their divorce, and he might woo her again later.

Today came Zita Johann, Hungarian, who said she and her husband, John Haussman, playwright, now engaged in the brokerage business in New York, had separated—on a friendly basis.

There came also Mabel Le Baron, former actress well known in musical circles, with word that she and her husband, William Le Baron, producer, were living apart—as an "ideally separated couple."

And finally—for the moment, at least—there came Edmund Goulding, film director, and his wife of less than two years, the former Marjorie Violett Moss, stage dancer, whose reported separation remained unconfirmed.

A new crop of disagreements, which have been laid variously to pursuit of professional careers, temperament and whatnot, the McClelland Barclays added their own particular type of complaint in Mrs. Barclay's assertion in divorce court that her artist-husband quarreled with her over a game of backgammon.

Red-headed Mrs. Barclay, the former Helene Marie Haskin, screen actress and automobile and cigarette ad girl, disclosed that she and the artist had their own ideas about beauty in women.

"A red-haired woman," she said, "cannot depend upon her hair alone for charm."

Barclay on the same subject: For a woman to be really beautiful, she should have Kay Francis' gait, Marlene Dietrich's legs, Wynne Gibson's knees, Miriam Hopkins' chest and shoulders, Carole Lombard's hips, Sylvia Sydney's hands, Mae West's teeth, Helen Twelvetrees' lips and Elissa Landi's carriage.

And in passing, Miss Lombard said in Nevada for a divorce from William Powell, the actor:

"I cannot depend upon her hair alone for charm."

Edwina Booth Faces Death As Result Of African Movie

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—An adventurous year in Africa, a better than average chance at movie fame and a few thousand dollars may cost Edwina Booth her life.

The blond heroine of the jungle-made picture, "Trader Horn," has been ill virtually all of the time since she returned three years ago. She has been confined to her bed for the last 16 months. Recently her condition became critical and her mother says her recovery is extremely doubtful.

"Our doctors say the tropical sun burned up certain nerve cells in Edwina's body," her mother, Mrs. James L. Woodruff, who is nursing her, explains. "They say these cells never can be regrown."

Condition Varies.
"Frequently Edwina seems to be improving, and our hopes are raised, but then she falls rapidly again and we become almost despondent. There is little hope of her ever getting well."

Although her body is wasting away, the young actress' mind is alert and active much of the time. When she is able to be propped up in bed, she reads, writes and models in clay. Some of her modeling has a professional touch, although she never has taken lessons.

She has written several scores of clever verses for a child's book, which her younger sister has illustrated. Edwina, who is 23, is the oldest of five children.

Future Looked Bright.
"The opportunity to be in 'Trader Horn' seemed to Edwina and us the grandest thing in the world," her mother says. "The studio promised her that if she made good in it she would be kept under contract and put in other pictures."

After she came back Edwina played in two serials for other studios, and she had just started a good part in another picture when she collapsed on the set. That was near a studio since.

"All of her money is gone now—she was paid only $100 a week on the trip to Africa—and that knowledge adds to her discouragement. Sometimes we've been in actual need of money to pay for her medicine and other things Edwina needed."

Don't Make Over Child Before Teatime Visitors.
If you allow your children to come in for grown-up afternoon tea don't make them the center of attraction. It is embarrassing for them and for the outside visitors. Have them speak nicely to the visitors and then partake of some toothsome bit of refreshment. Do not discuss them before visitors. Children have a vague feeling that this is disloyal.

Simple Refreshments Make Outdoor Parties Different.
Informal parties, with refreshments prepared out of doors or in the garage or recreation room, are winning favor. Scrambled eggs, fried eggs and ham, hamburgers or baked beans, with coffee, a salad and dessert make a suitable menu. Sandwiches, buttered biscuits, muffins or rolls can also be served. If an outdoor fire or a fire place is available the guests can toast meat squares, filled buns or sandwiches.

Cuban Ambassador's Wife Chooses Ivory Crepe.
WASHINGTON (AP)—White, absolutely devoid of trimming, was worn at a recent embassy dinner party by the Senora de Cintas, wife of the Cuban ambassador. Her gown was a deep ivory-white crepe with the oval neckline cut high in front and deep in back. The gown was tightly fitted to the hips where it flared widely to the hem-line.

PROMISED a continuance of her Hollywood contract if she made good in "Trader Horn," Edwina Booth had visions of a glorious success in the films. But the year she spent in Africa making the picture wrecked her health, says her mother, and she is in a critical condition. Here are two photographs of Miss Booth, the one at the right showing her as she arrived in this country from the expedition.

PEOPLE like Mr. Stevens understand why Plymouth carries "details" so far. Four rings per piston instead of three. Four crankshaft bearings. Full pressure lubrication—not hit-or-miss splash. But details count—and we'd like you to see how much. Look at all three... and see for yourself why Plymouth is growing so fast.

WHEN MILK IS SOUR COOK HAS OPPORTUNITIES

Different Summer Dishes May Be Made Then

It may seem like a disaster when milk turns sour. But sour milk is good food, and should never be thrown away, says the bureau of home economics of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Some of the best cooks go so far as to make the milk sour deliberately, for special uses. And you remember, of course, that Little Miss Muffet sat on a tuffet, eating her curds and whey—with enjoyment, presumably, until the spider came.

But perhaps you call it clabber—or bonnyclabber. Or, if you live in the far south, it may be French curd to you. In any case, clabber or curd with sweet cream or top milk and sugar is good for breakfast, or it is a delightful summer dessert—with fruit or preserves if you have them. For a dish like this the souring must not go too far—just far enough for the milk to "set." For quick breads, however, and some kinds of cakes, sour clabber is just as good. Many cooks prefer it to sweet milk for biscuits, griddle cakes, corn bread, muffins, brown bread, waffles, gingerbread, spice cake, or devil's cake.

When used in cooking, sour milk must be neutralized by soda. In doughs or batters, it can be substituted for equal quantities of sweet milk if you use the right quantity of soda. The proportions are 1/2 level teaspoon of soda to each cup of sour clabbered milk, or a quarter teaspoon of soda if the milk is just turning. The soda should be mixed with the flour and other ingredients so it will not begin to act until it is in the batter or dough. For thin batters, the soda and sour milk usually furnish enough leavening, but for thick batters or doughs baking powder is usually needed too. For griddle cakes, for instance, in place of 1 cup of sweet milk and 2 teaspoons of baking powder, use 1 cup of sour clabbered milk and 1/2 level teaspoon of soda with no baking powder. This quantity of soda is right for the sour milk, and with it is practically equivalent in leavening power to the 2 teaspoons of baking powder. For biscuit dough, however, where you would use 1 cup of milk and 4 teaspoons of baking powder, substitute 1 cup of sour clabbered milk, 1/2 level teaspoon of soda, and 2 teaspoons of baking powder.

Milk turns sour because of the lactic acid bacteria it contains, but these are beneficial bacteria. They produce a soft curd in sour milk, which is easy to digest, and this is the reason that buttermilk cottage cheese, and artificially soured milk are so often recommended by physicians.

Cottage cheese is one of the best summer dishes. It is often made of sour milk, and when moistened with a little sweet top milk and seasoned with salt and pepper it may be served with dinner, or as a main dish for lunch or supper. Or it can be used as a dessert, served with top milk or cream and sugar. It makes an attractive salad when loosely piled on a lettuce leaf, perhaps with grated carrot or strips of green pepper, green cabbage, slices of tomato, cucumber, or pickle. Or it can be put in the center of a ring of tomato jelly, or pressed into a green pepper which is then chilled and sliced. Again, cottage cheese with crackers and jelly or preserves makes a good finish for lunch, dinner, or supper.

If the milk has soured with the top milk on it, fry using that top, or any sour cream, to make a horseradish sauce to serve with meat or fish. Or add a little sour cream to pork gravy just before it comes off the stove. Or you can add small quantities of sour cream to any cooked salad dressing with good effect.

ROADRUNNERS TURN BACK SKELLY 6-1 DESPITE FINE HURLING OF COSTELLO

FOUR SCORES MADE IN LAST THREE FRAMES

PITCHER FANS 10, AND ALLOWS 3 HITS IN FIRST 6 INNINGS

The Danciger Roadrunners indicated their new diamond Sunday with a 6 to 1 victory over the Skellytown Oilers. With the exception of being a little slow due to soft dirt, the diamond was in good shape despite the rapidity with which the ground was converted into a baseball field.

It was a much closer battle than the first contest, as the Roadrunners scored four of their six runs in the last three frames of the game. Costello of Amarillo and Skellytown allowed only three hits, one of them a scratch, in the first six innings, but the Roadrunners took advantage of some loose defensive work by Skellytown and had three runs to show for the first three. They took the lead in the first inning when Bacucus got an infield hit toward second base. He went to second on a short passed ball by Bryant and when the latter threw wild to second, scored by some fast leg work.

The Roadrunners added another run to their lead in the third inning when, with one down, Thomas was safe on Williams' error. He stole second and scored easily on Bacucus' two-bagger to left. There was no more scoring, or even a scoring opportunity, until the last half of the sixth when the Roadrunners added another marker without the aid of a base hit. Bacucus was safe and went all the way to second when Williams muffed his high pop fly. He took third on Wilson's infield out and, with Lister doing the bunting, scored on the squeeze play.

Skellytown almost got loose in the seventh, but a little hard luck and poor base running limited them to one run. C. Horner led off with a double to right. Harvey got hold of a line for a live drive right to Stewart. Had it been a little higher it would have been a clean hit to center. Willis hit a grounder to deep short on which Ballow made a nice play, but had no chance to get his man at first base. Costello followed with his second hit to right field to score C. Horner and made second on the throw-in, but was out when he overstepped the bag, for the third out.

The Roadrunners scored again in the seventh. With one down, Hickey walked and went to second on Ballow's hit to right. Stewart forced Hickey at third, Harvey unassisted, for the second out. Thomas looped a little fly back of the pitcher's box that fell safe for a hit and scored Ballow, but Stewart was out. C. Horner to Harvey when he overstepped third base. J. Horner's error, Lister's single to left and Liggett's double to right center accounted for the Roadrunners' final two runs in the eighth.

Bacucus, with two hits out of four times up, three runs scored, one run driven in, two stolen bases and ten fielding chances without an error, was the individual star of the Roadrunners. Costello's pitching featured the Skellytown team's work. He struck out ten men, allowed seven hits, four of which came in the last two innings and did not allow an earned run until the seventh inning. He also got two hits out of three times up and drove in his team's only run. Willis' catch of Lister's long drive to left in the third inning was the most spectacular play of the game. Stewart pitched good ball and despite the fact that he allowed 12 hits, was never in danger. However, he was accorded good support by his team mates, three double plays helping materially. An idea of the kind of pitching on tap may be gained by the fact that only four putouts were made by all the outfielders during the game, and not one batter was hit by a pitched ball or received a base on balls.

BEN JEBY TO FIGHT TERRY

Fifteen-Round Bout to Take Place in Newark Tonight; Champion Favored.

NEW YORK, July 10. (AP)—Ben Jeby of New York opens a busy week for boxing champions at Newark tonight, defending his claim to the world's middleweight championships against the assault of young Terry, aggressive 160-pounder from Trenton, N. J.

Jebby, whose title claims rest upon recognition by the New York State Athletic commission, rules a 6 to 5 favorite despite the fact that Terry took a decision from him two years ago. The bout, to be held in Dreamland Park, will be over the championship distance of 15 rounds.

The middleweight crown has been in dispute ever since Mickey Walker outgrew the division. Marcel Tith of France, holds National association recognition as titleholder.

Three other champions, Freddie Miller, Maxey Roosenbloom and mid-weight Volagast, also swing into action this week as will Billy Petrolle, Duluth veteran who has abandoned all efforts at weight-making and will campaign strictly as a welterweight hereafter.

Miller, National Boxing association featherweight king, will defend his crown in a 15-round match with Able Israet at Seattle tomorrow night. Miller, whose southpaw style has puzzled many a good 126-pounder, is a well-defined favorite.

Rosenbloom, light heavyweight champion, and Volagast, generally regarded as flyweight titleholder, will appear in overweight matches, the former against John Henry Lewis, Phoenix, Ariz., negro at San Francisco tonight and Volagast against Lew Farber of New York at Pugsley Bowl, here tomorrow.

Petrolle starts his campaign for a shot at the welterweight championship in a ten-round match with Bep Van Klaveren, speedy Hollander, at the Polo grounds here Wednesday night.

Frankie Parker Conquers Mako In Net Finals

CHICAGO, July 10. (AP)—Owner of his first major national single tennis championship, young Frankie Parker of Milwaukee headed east today on a hunt for new honors.

The 17-year-old Polish youth, who changed his name from Pajkowski to Parker, yesterday conquered another youngster, Gene Mako, Los Angeles, in the finals of the National Clay Courts Title tournament, 6-3, 6-2.

Parker previously has won the National Boys and Junior championships, and in each instance, defeated Mako in the finals.

Later Mako, paired with ack Tidball, the Intercollegiate champion, a Los Angeles combination, defeated John McDiarmid, Fox Worth, Tex., and Robert (Lefty) Bryan Chattanooga, Tenn., for the doubles title, 6-2, 6-2, 7-5, 4-6, 6-0.

Bill Silvers of LeFors underwent a major operation in Pampa hospital yesterday.

MAGS' RALLY ROUTS MAGIC CITY 10 TO 6

PITCHER WEAKENS IN TWO INNINGS AND LOSES GAME

The Magnolia "Mags" came from behind to defeat Magic City in a Cotton-Oil league game at Magnolia park yesterday afternoon. The final score was 10 to 6, but the Pampa team was trailing at the end of the third inning 4 to 0, and Burke was being hit freely while Abels of Magic City was mowing the Mags down.

The Magnolia rally of seven runs started in the last half of the third inning when Wagner and Burke walked and Baldwin and Coburn singled them in. Newsome was safe on a fielder's choice but Cahill and Warren followed with hits. Hipps fanned and then Marshall hit a two-bagger. Wagner, up for the second time in the inning, scored Marshall with a two-bagger, but was left stranded when Burke fanned.

The "Mags" added their other three runs in the seventh when Coburn was safe on an error and Freddy Newsome hit a home run. Lorie Warren, not to be outdone, hit a four-ply wallop for himself to end the scoring. With the exception of the two big innings, Abels had the Pampans well under control. Only three "Mags" got on base in the other six innings.

Magic City scored twice in the first inning when Davis singled, Anderson walked and Burke uncorked two wild pitches in a row. Two more were added in the third when the "Mags" made two errors and Burke issued a walk and allowed a hit. Clean hits scored Setzler in the fifth and the last Magic City run came in the seventh on two hits and an out.

Abels gave the best exhibition of pitching seen here this year. He held the Mags to one hit and one run in 14 Magnolia batters, during the nine innings. He whiffed three in a row in the fifth inning. Baldwin and Hipps each fanned three times. Lorie Warren was the only member of the Magnolia team to hold his batting average. He is now in unblemished lead with a .500 average. Besides home runs by Newsome and Warren, Marshall and Wagner hit two baggers each for the other extra base blows of the game.

Coburn and Newsome each got two hits for the "Mags." Davis led the Magic City attack with three singles. "Bromo" Setzler, formerly of Shamrock, followed with two singles. There were no extra base blows made off Burke. Each pitcher walked three men and each one hit a man.

A Garland Adair, chairman of the committee, states that the entire representing all of the congressional districts of Texas, will be called to meet within the next few days and after that session these questions may be answered with definiteness.

"Suggestions have been pouring in," he adds. "There seems to be an almost universal demand that the Alamo be on one side of the coins. Other suggestions are for the pictures of Stephen F. Austin, Sam Houston, the map of Texas, the first capitol building, the lone star, the memorial museum, Sam's Jacinto battlefields scenes, etc."

The question of a slogan or motto for Texas has also been asked. Texas is one of only a very few states that does not have a motto. The slogan of the American Legion Texas centennial committee so far, Adair declares, is "do it today for Texas." An unofficial but most frequently used motto for this state is "Texas one and indivisible."

Alamo Will Be On One Side of Centennial Coin

AUSTIN, July 10. (AP)—Just when will the Texas centennial half dollars authorized by the Connally-Patman bill be available and what will appear on the coins are questions that are being daily received at the American Legion Texas centennial committee headquarters in Austin.

Mrs. Mary Daniels, 54 years old, and her son, John, 25 years old, were struck by stray bullets as they sat on their porch near the store, but they were not seriously hurt.

Tracing the movements of the robbers, officers said they were suspected of stealing a Chevrolet coupe at Enid Thursday morning and robbing a filling station at Ringwood that night, taking 8 gallons of gas and $3 in money from A. P. Ruth, whom they carried 8 miles before releasing him. They arrived in Pampa Friday night, supposedly with a third man with whom they were seen riding in an old car without a license. Suspicious of the trio, J. M. Lybrand and L. R. Miller, local Ford dealers, were searching for them when the two look Carmichael's car, eluded the owner, robbed the local filling station, and raced away from city officers at an 80-mile pace.

Stopping at Chickasha, they took a single license plate off an Oklahoma car and placed it on Carmichael's vehicle. One of the local man's license plates was thrown away, the other placed under a rear seat. Mr. Carmichael will have to buy a new set of plates. The men spent most of Saturday at a beer joint at the edge of Lawton, then went to the grocery store. About $100 of the money taken from the store was not recovered.

Gus Irvin of Pampa readily identified both Chappell and Fields. He said Fields shakily held a pistol on him during the hijacking, but Chappell claimed that it was he, Chappell, fearing he is going to die, is seeking to take the major part of the blame, officers believe.

To Be Charged Here.
The robber pair may be brought here for trial after they are tried but this is considered rather unlikely, since the Oklahoma law is very drastic in armed hijacking. Chief Deputy H. C. Cottrell said that he would file charges of car theft and robbery with firearms against Chappell and Fields here

THIEVES

CLARENDON, July 10. (AP)—Interested persons again are looking for the sword-marked spot somewhere in Donley county, which is believed to have been the grave of an explorer probably of Coronado's time.

W. H. Patrick, Clarendon banker, owns an ancient sword which was removed from the legendary grave in 1896. Through the word "inspiration" which is the only inscription in the sword, Miss Katherine Patrick believes she has traced the weapon back to a town in Germany where a noted sword blade manufacturer plied his trade in the sixteenth century.

The small plot, marked with swords, was found by three boys, Crockett, June and Walter Taylor, and a negro cook, 37 years ago while they were making a trip from Carroll creek to Acock Springs. Several swords had been driven into the ground up to the hilt. The blade was broken from one in trying to remove it from the hard earth. The boys then carried water in their hats to soften the ground around another and removed the blade intact, although the hit today is missing.

The legendary grave was on a mesquite flat south of the Salt Fork of Red river, and on land now belonging to Mrs. E. W. Bromley. No one has been able to locate the spot in recent years. A 30-day search was made several years ago, and different parties have searched in recent months, but the spot which might more definitely link up the early history of this territory with the Spanish explorations remains "lost."

RUTH SWACKS THREE HOMERS IN ONE GAME

RAISES TOTAL TO 22; ONLY TWO BEHIND JIMMIE FOX

By HUGH S. FULLESTON JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

The nation's baseball fans today were faced with the task of keeping one eye focused upon George Herman (Babe) Ruth and the other upon the Chicago Cubs, who have forced their way into the thick of the National league race.

Ruth, the old gentleman who has been reported "through" at various times for the last half dozen years, hoisted three home runs into the bleachers at the Yankee stadium yesterday and personally conducted the Yankees to two victories over the Detroit Tigers, 11-7 and 7-6. The three circuit swats, which drove in six runs, lifted the Babe's total to 22 and left him only two behind Jimmie Foxx of the Athletics.

The Cubs, however, gained only a tie game and remained four behind the Washington Senators, who scored three runs in the first inning and edged out Cleveland's Indians, 3 to 2.

The Cubs climbed into third place in the National league, passing the St. Louis Cardinals, 6 to 3, in a pair of games from the pace-setting New York Giants, 4-0 and 2-1. They ran their string of victories to five games and New York's defeat chain to six.

The Giants collected only ten hits altogether off Lon Warneke and Bud Tinning and the latter after battling Fred Fitzsimmons on the hill in brilliant style, drove in the winning run in the ninth inning of the second game.

The double defeat reduced the Cubs' lead over St. Louis to 3-2 games but the Brooklyn Dodgers kept things from becoming worse by dividing a twin bill with the Cardinals. A triple by Ralph Boyle with two aboard in the seventh gave Brooklyn an 8-6 decision in the open, but Tex Eavelton turned in the seventh-inning shutout and St. Louis won the second game, 2 to 0.

The Boston Braves' winning streak took them above the 500 mark for the first time this season as they won two close games, one in the Cincinnati Reds, 3-2 and 3-1.

The Boston Red Sox and St. Louis Browns divided a doubleheader, the Sox winning the first contest 4-0 behind the five-hit flinging of George Pipgras and the Browns pounding out a 9-2 victory in the second. Miss Katherine Patrick, St. Louis shortstop, was injured by St. Louis opener when a pitched ball hit his arm.

Other major league clubs had an open date.

Baseball Game Of 22 Innings Ends in 2-2 Tie

OSONA, July 10. (AP)—From 2 o'clock until dark here Sunday afternoon the baseball teams of Abilene and Ocala made futile efforts to break a deadlock. At sunset each team had scored three runs, and a West Texas endurance record was claimed for their 22-inning tie.

For the first 20 innings Mark Hanna, veteran Abilene southpaw, and Hersel "Slim" Kinzy, T. C. U. star playing for Ocala, fought it out on the mound without relief. Debs Ehrhridge and Bill Duncan finished with them. Kinzy fanned 22 batters.

When each side scored once in the eighth, the count was 2-2. The next ten rounds went by without a scratch. In the first of the 19th, Abilene took the lead, 3-2, but Ocala came back with a technical home run by Russell, the runner circling the bases while the defense made several relay throws.

The game marked the opening of the second half of the West Texas independent league race. Texas, first half champ, and San Angelo broke even in a double header, Texas taking the first, 7 to 0, and losing the nightcap, 2 to 1.

DALLAS LOSES DOUBLEHEADER TO BUFFALOES

SHIPPERS SPLIT TWIN BILL WITH FORT WORTH

By BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Just to remove any fear that they might be slipping, the pace-setting Houston Buffaloes celebrated Sunday with a double win over the Dallas Steers. When the Buffaloes dropped a pair of games last week some critics hastened to write the league leaders were slipping. If their 6 to 2 and 3 to 1 decisions are a true indication of how they are slipping, the Buffaloes have the pennant clinched.

Superior pitching, hustle and costly Dallas errors were factors in the double victory. Mike Cvengros, southpaw, out-pitched big Elam Vandinger in the first game. Houston got seven hits against six for Dallas.

Bill Beckman limited Dallas to one hit in the second game while his mates collected five off Sal Ghitto. The Dallas pitcher was the only man to solve Beckman for a hit.

After losing the first game, 5 to 2, the Beaumont Exporters breezed back to take the second game, 3 to 1, from the Fort Worth Cats. The victory allowed Beaumont to remain in the race for a first division berth. Dick Whitworth's tight pitching in the pinches gave Fort Worth the first game. Auker outlured Minogue for the second.

The third place San Antonio Missions swept a doubleheader from Tulsa, 6 to 0, and 3 to 2. The Missions pounded the ball hard for victory in the first game, but had to go two extra innings to nab the second. "Pit" Purdy, one of the league's leading hitters who has been out of San Antonio's lineup because of injuries, returned and got four hits.

The second place Galveston Buccaneers defeated Oklahoma City in a doubleheader, 4 to 2 and 4 to 1. The Buccaneers out-hit the league cellarites for the two favorable verdicts.

DOING HARD THINGS
J. C. Phillips in Borger Herald: Children who are not taught to do hard things are not prepared for life. If you have allowed a child to dodge the hard things for 10 or 15 years, you can't come down on him overnight and expect him to stand up for life.

(True, but there are complications. Child labor can be so hard that it stifles ambition and saps the health, not to mention cheating the young of education. On the other hand, there is no demand for child labor, even moderately used, in most communities. A good substitute is well planned recreation. Competitive games directed by skilled adults can teach many rules needed in adult life.)

SO THAT'S WHY
CHICAGO (AP)—Divorce in Cook county (Chicago) are decreasing in number.

There was a drop of 7 per cent for the first six months of 1932, as compared with a like period in 1932. "People," said John E. Conroy, circuit court clerk, "think twice before they spend the amount it takes to start a divorce suit. Also, our judges, are fighting to discourage frivolous divorce actions."

One of the most vivid and startling pictures of the World War will probably be brought to Pampa next month by the local post of the American Legion. The picture "The Big Drive" was shown to local Legionnaires and members of the Pampa Daily NEWS staff this morning at the La Nora theater.

The picture is made up of scenes taken during the war by the various governments. The pictures were assembled at a huge cost and made into a picture along with a vivid description.

The early portion of the picture shows scenes of preparation by the various nations and then goes into the actual fighting. Scenes from hospitals and pinches camps show vividly the suffering and labor. The last portion of the picture shows the American preparation and the major battles in which American soldiers participated. Many of the scenes were familiar to Pampa veterans.

Mrs. B. Barrett entered Worley hospital this morning for a tonsillectomy.
