FUTURE HANDLING OF RELIEF FUNDS IN COUNTY IS ON UNCERTAIN BASIS

TWINKLES
The West Foster grouch says the crash of firecrackers might be worth while if the youngsters had any conception of why we "celebrate" July 4.

Come to think of it, our drought is caused by a lack of storms in the tornado belt. When you read of twisters from Wichita Falls to Ardmore and beyond, we'll have rain here.

With the Italian planes slowed by bad weather, it is revealed that Mussolini's authority doesn't extend to the weather, which is about the first limitation noted.

French good will publicists in this country have a hopeless task as long as Americans and the French row over gold. We even have decided not to learn French so we can read the free French daily that France is sending us.

New Mexicans, who have politics 365 days in each year and have a hot whisk election coming up, still have time to bet that Jim Ferguson will run against Tom Connally for senator next year.

A man wanted in Lubbock was caught in Canada, where there are no extradition lines, and the delay in getting him to trial will begin when he crosses the U. S. line.

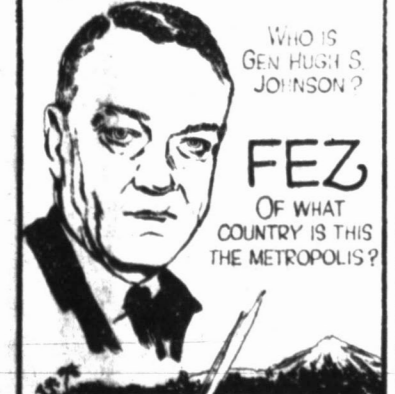

BREVITY AND BUSINESS.
By coincidence, depressions are associated with long dresses and prosperity with short skirts and dainty styles. This leads some folks to believe that normalcy is well on the way. Women's styles are definitely more daring but nobody seems to care. One-piece swimming suits which some years ago would have shocked the nation and reverberated in Canada and Mexico draw not a second glance as to the human anatomy, freely exposed, is a commonplace and often interesting bit of art from a scenic standpoint.

AS TO THE MALES.
But having conceded women's right to turn a bronze hue under Old Sol's rays, authorities are discussing two other problems this season: (1) Absolute nudism; and (2) bathing suits for men. The world is not ready for nudism. Noting eccentricities of the past, we refrain from cock-sure predictions as to the future. But on the style of the bathing males, we quote the New York Herald-Tribune:

"With the reappearance of hot weather and the bathing season at the city's many beaches comes the recurrent problem of whether or not the male of the species shall be allowed to ornament the sandy littoral without the top of his bathing suit. This year the situation is a little more acute, due to the spread of the custom of appearing only in trunks and the militant attitude of the sun worshippers participating in it. There have been arrests made, particularly at Coney Island, and magistrates have evidently been of two minds in the matter, since some impose fines in the cases, while others dismiss the complaints."

PRO AND CON.
The Herald-Tribune concludes that "it is difficult to imagine just who might be offended if men—"

NEW BOARD IS LIKELY TO BE NAMED HERE

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS MUST APPROVE NAMES

Gray county may pass from the present body soon to a board appointed by the Texas rehabilitation and relief commission as provided by an act passed by the last legislature.

The act provides that a county board of five be appointed by the state body and approved by the commissioners court. County Judge C. E. Cary today had not received such a list of nominees and it was not known whether the names will be available by Monday when the commissioners convene in regular session. County board members receive no pay.

Whether the present board will be re-appointed in part or whole is problematical. The board, headed by C. H. Walker, includes Alex Schneider, W. A. Bratton, M. K. Brown, and John R. White. This body was recently thanked for its services of the last year by Lawrence Westbrook, director of the state board, whose members are Governor Miriam A. Ferguson, chairman; E. H. Husson of Houston, vice-chairman; B. E. Giescke of Austin; W. A. Brooks Jr. of Dallas; W. E. Pope of Corpus Christi; T. A. Low of Brenham; H. T. King of Abilene and L. A. Schreiner of Kerrville. These are Ferguson partisans as are most of the appointees being made over the state.

The present director is allowed a salary of $4,000 a year, his assistant $2,500 a month, auditors $225 per month, field men $175 per month, bookkeepers $150 per month, and stenographers $110 per month. The legislature appropriated $50,000 for the general fund to pay these salaries and other expenses. A $200,000 bond issue is proposed for statewide vote in August, to be administered by this group. The federal government has served notice that unless the bond issue passes, some other state provision is made for the needy it will allocate no more money to this state for work-relief.

Meanwhile, the Fergusons are en route to Washington to discuss this and other matters and presumably to attempt to coordinate the federal and state relief plans.

Distribution of federal funds in Texas was first undertaken through the chambers of commerce, which functioned without overhead cost until the state commission was appointed.

Oil Stolen From '66' Warehouse

Several barrels of oil were stolen from the Phillips "66" wholesale warehouse in southwest Pampa some time last night. Entrance to the building was by smashing the lock off the door.

City officers, investigating the robbery this morning, found marks where a truck had been backed up to the doorway and then driven away loaded, the one imprint being plainer than the other. The exact loss had not been determined at noon.

Several wholesale warehouses in this territory have been entered recently. Two White Deer buildings were broken into last month.

WHOLESALE PRICE OF BREAD TO BE INCREASED ONE CENT A LOAF BAKERS OF PANHANDLE ANNOUNCE

Hike To Take Effect July 10; Raise In Wages Decided

AMARILLO, July 7 (AP)—Owners of bakeries in a dozen Panhandle cities announced today that they would increase wages 10 per cent on July 10, at which time the wholesale price of bread would be increased one cent a loaf.

Bakers attended a meeting here from Amarillo, Pampa, Borger, Canadian, Panhandle, Canyon, Herford, Dalhart, Memphis, Clarendon, Claude, and Clovis, N. M. Working hours and related matters will be discussed at a subsequent meeting they said.

Pampa bakers today were preparing to conform to new federal regulations as outlined in a code adopted by Panhandle bakers in Amarillo yesterday.

Few additional employees will be added as a result of working shorter hours, since most shops have been carrying more employees than actually needed. The hours vary according to market demands and state of the weather.

The processing tax on wheat at the mills will be $1.38 per barrel of flour and will go into effect Sunday midnight. This amounts to nearly $300 per carload of flour. While the tax itself imposes a burden on bakers which can only in part be passed to the consumer, the greater worry of the business now is the mounting price of flour, which with the tax is more than double what it was a few weeks ago.

P. E. Faust of the City bakery was among the 40 bakery representatives in Amarillo yesterday.

L. W. Davidson of Dallas is here on a business trip.

L. R. Patterson of Wichita Falls is visiting friends here.

VINES LOSES WIMBLEDON TENNIS TITLE TO AUSTRALIAN NET STAR

WIMBLEDON, Eng., July 7 (AP)—Jack Crawford, Australian star, won the final round of the men's singles and with it the Wimbledon championship from Ellsworth Vines today. 4-6, 11-9, 6-2, 2-6, 6-4.

The Australian became, temporarily at least, the king of all he surveys in the tennis world as he added the prized Wimbledon title to that of his native land and of France.

CANYON FOLK WISH TO HEAR SPEECH HERE

EVENT WILL BE HELD TOWARD END OF NEXT WEEK

FORMER State Representative Clyde W. Warwick of Canyon will head a delegation of citizens of his town to the Panhandle-wide banquet in honor of Congressman Marvin Jones here next week.

Mr. Warwick had a telephone conversation with Mr. Jones yesterday, in the course of which the congressman mentioned that he would reach Pampa in the latter part of the coming week. It will be his first appearance in his home district since the "new deal" administration was launched.

The Pampa Junior chamber of commerce in sponsoring the banquet will give residents of this section a chance to hear an authoritative report on acts of the recent congress and by the president. Mr. Jones will be the principal speaker but will make no political address.

Meanwhile, reservations continue to pour in to Gilmore N. Nunn, general manager of THE NEWS and vice-president of the Junior chamber, who is in charge of banquet arrangements. Since only a limited number of persons—about 230—can be seated, the first who apply for reservations will get tickets. It was emphasized today that both men and women are to attend, and that many of the reservations already made are for women.

District Attorney Lewis M. Goodrich of Shamrock telephoned this morning for two reservations. County officials and chambers of commerce in neighboring counties will swell the list before the banquet meeting.

The date of the event, which will be held at the Behrler hotel, will be set as soon as Mr. Jones determines the time of his departure from Washington. Tickets are $1 each.

Scout Officers And Chairmen To Attend Meeting

President A. G. "Pete" Post of the Adobe Walls Boy Scout council is eager to have all officers and chairmen of standing committees attend the executive board council meeting in the headquarters room in the city hall at 8:30 o'clock tonight. Mr. Post said the meeting would last only one hour and a half.

Members of all committees, adult leaders, scoutmasters, and men who attended the Adult Leadership Training school will be welcomed at the meeting. Plans for the next six months activities will be outlined and chairmen will make reports of activities of the first half year.

Of particular interest will be the report of Chris Martin, chairman of the camping committee. Mr. Post and Dr. R. M. Bellamy will make a report on their trip to the mountains of New Mexico and Colorado last week.

A board of review last night passed four boys for second class rank, three boys for first class rank, and approved 15 merit badges. The review was in charge of Kenneth Irwin. A court of honor will be conducted Tuesday night when the boys will receive certificates.

Those who attended all sessions of the leadership training course and who will receive certificates tonight are: W. O. Christian, leader; John Shannon, assistant; C. Hieronimus, Dee Partridge, W. E. Reno, R. E. Smith, Fred Curtis, R. L. Bowden, T. M. Gilham, Al. R. L. Ruckelshaus, Claude Riney, W. B. Casey, Chris B. Martin, Darnell, Earl Goodwin, John Rickard, Royer Watson, Howard Buckingham, and J. L. Jones.

Those lacking one lesson are L. E. Church, Carroll Bell, George Adams, Phil Pond, Earl Holmes, Tom Clapp, Tracy Cary, Gilmore Nunn, and W. M. Parker.

GOLD NATIONS LOSE SECOND PARLEY FIGHT

But Win Battle Temporarily To Prevent Discussion Of Tariffs

LONDON, July 7 (AP)—The European gold bloc lost its fight for exclusion of monetary questions from the renovated agenda of the world economic conference today when the subcommittee on immediate measures for financial reconstruction voted 25 to 15 to continue to discuss monetary problems.

The vote came after an all-day battle over the proposal by Neville Chamberlain, British chancellor of the exchequer, that the full agenda be continued including monetary matters which the gold countries have been fiercely opposing.

The British Dominions, Scandinavia and the countries of the far east and Latin America lined up firmly with Mr. Chamberlain's position which supports the American thesis.

Among those supporting the gold bloc in demanding elimination of monetary questions until currency stabilization should be accomplished were Spain, Lithuania, Rumania, Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia, and Turkey.

Today's decision which was in a sub-committee of the monetary commission will be reported to the steering committee Monday for confirmation or reversal.

The committee on commercial policy, a subordinate group of the economic commission, voted a few hours earlier to exclude discussion of tariffs and quotas from the revised agenda, approving a French demand by eight to seven votes.

The American delegation, which has been temporarily on the question of trading tariffs and quotas, hoped to reverse this decision in the steering committee.

France and other members of the gold bloc flatly refused to discuss monetary questions.

The vote in the monetary sub-group was hailed by the Americans as another victory for their policy since it amounts to approval of the idea of continuing the full conference.

Wheat Reaches Peak Of $1.10

CHICAGO, July 7 (AP)—All deliveries of wheat sold at a dollar a bushel or better today for the first time this year. Wheat and corn went to the season's highest price levels soon after trading started because of the nose dive of the American dollar and the rise of the British pound sterling. Sharp reactions followed the upturns, based chiefly on heavy profit taking and timely rains in parts of the corn belt.

Closing prices were at or near the lowest levels of the day. Wheat was as much as 1-3-8 cent under yesterday's close and corn was down as much as 2-38 cents. The early advance had carried the July delivery to 1.09 1-4 a bushel, the first time this delivery had reached the dollar mark. However, at the close July had dropped to 96 3-4 cents.

All deliveries of corn managed to stay above 60 cents at the close, even though sharply lower. July was barely 60 1-4 and the May was 74 cents.

FACTOR SOUGHT AS FUGITIVE AT BORDER POINTS

Believe Gambler And Capone Successor Are Fleeing

SAN ANTONIO, July 7 (AP)—John Factor, kidnaped Chicago stock broker, and Murray Humphries, reputed head of the Capone gang, were sought here today after reports came from Chicago that they were headed for Mexico.

Charles Davis, department of justice investigator here, asked police to hunt a roadster in which the pair was believed to be traveling. Davis said he received a telephone message from Federal investigators which informed him Factor and Humphries would pass through San Antonio en route to the southern republic.

Factor was kidnaped in Chicago last week after leaving a night club there with his son, Jerome Factor, and his attorney. The son was kidnaped recently but was returned unharmed after his father had entered into negotiations with the kidnapers.

Chicago authorities expressed the theory Factor was going to Mexico to escape extradition to England to face charges of stock swindling pending against him there. The broker was known to be acquainted with the Capone gang, which was understood to be headed by Humphries since Al Capone has been in the Federal prison at Atlanta for income tax evasion.

Davis notified all border points of the report.

MATTERN MESSAGE SENT FROM TRADING POST BY FLIER

DETAILS OF STAY IN RUSSIAN WASTES NOT KNOWN

MESSAGE SENT FROM TRADING POST BY FLIER

DETAILS OF STAY IN RUSSIAN WASTES NOT KNOWN

By The Associated Press. JIMMIE MATTERN, world flier given up for dead by all but a trusting few, is safe in Siberia.

From the little trading post of Anadir, brief word came today that the aviator, who disappeared June 14 while making the first solo flight around the world in aviation history was safe.

The good news was dispatched by the flier himself, relayed across the wastes of Siberia to Moscow and sent on from there to his homeland.

"Safe Anadir, Chukotka, Siberia," the message read, and it was signed "Jimmie Mattern."

Mattern's wife on the west coast had never lost her faith that he was still alive. Nor had his mother in Freeport, Ill., or his backers in Chicago.

"I was confident all the while," said the wife.

"We always had confidence," said the banker.

The unwavering hope of this little band of persons was shared by the United States coast guard. When Mattern's announcement of his safety was received, the Coast Guard in Washington disclosed that ever since the flier disappeared while on the way from Siberia to Alaska the Coast Guard Cutter Northland had been searching Alaskan waters for him.

Details Not Known. And today word was sent to the northern part of Mattern's safety and coast guard officials expected the cutter to be in touch with the flier some time today.

Only one message was received from Mattern, and that had taken two days to be relayed to civilization, so that details were known. It was not known whether he crashed or was merely forced down or how far he had to travel to reach the little trading post from which he sent out his message to the world.

TERRACE, B. C., July 7 (AP)—Advised by the Associated Press that Jimmie Mattern, Texas flier, had been reported safe at Anadir, Siberia, William Alexander, head of a Mattern rescue expedition grounded here by unfavorable weather, asked that Mattern be informed that the rescue plane was at his disposal.

Alexander suggested a boat could be sent from Prince Rupert, B. C., to salvage Mattern's plane, if the flier desired.

NEW DEAL IN "GOLDFISH BOWL"

Gen. Hugh S. Johnson, administrator of the government's industrial recovery machinery, promises that this tremendously important new experiment is going to take place "in a goldfish bowl."

Industrialists who devise a code for their plants must get up where everybody can see and hear them to explain just what they believe about working hours, wages, profits, prices and the like.

This is perhaps the most wholesome part of all the "new deal."

It means that the hush-hush days at Washington are over. The lobbyist who tip-toes about the corridors, lurks in the shadows of the capitol pillars, buttonholes congressmen on the quiet and talks softly in the privacy of a bureaucrat's office—he has stepped out into the open, now, and all that he says and does takes place in the brightness of the spotlight.

That, anyhow, is the theory. But some of the big boys don't seem to have heard about it yet.

Washington correspondents reported that old-style lobbyists swarmed all over the capital during the last session of Congress. A sizable army of them still remains there. They are trying to work in the traditional manner; making deals, putting on the fix, applying pressure, trading favors, exerting pull, exercising all of the old tricks.

If anything is obvious, it is that the time for this sort of thing is past.

What the big business man, the financier and the company director do nowadays is strictly the public's business. The country is embarking on a vast new experiment in economics, and it has a right to know which of its business leaders are going to play ball and which are trying to drop a monkey wrench in the machinery.

General Johnson's goldfish bowl is the only place in which lobbying can be tolerated now. Any business group that objects to what is being done is entitled to state its case there. It has every right to voice its objections and to argue for special consideration—so long as it does it openly, where all of us can hear. It has no right whatever to do it under cover, in the privacy of someone's inner office.

The group that continues to maintain the old-style lobby now convicts itself, automatically, of a complete misunderstanding of the spirit and purpose of the "new deal."

Primo Carnera, the new heavyweight champ, has considerable difficulty in trying to speak English. Jack Sharkey discovered, however, that Primo has no trouble in talking with his hands.

We don't know how that newspaper debate over "Should Honeymoons Be Abolished?" is going to end up, but it is with breathless anxiety that we await the vote of the Niagara Falls hotel keepers.

A minister of Mansfield, Ohio, recently set new record by playing 150 holes of golf in a single day. Apparently an attempt to show that the game could be made more holy.

By the World FORGOT A New Serial by Ruby M. Ayres

SYNOPSIS: George Bancroft has been taken from her home in rural England, and plunged into a round of London society by her mother, just arrived from her home in America. But her heart belongs to Nicholas Boyd, the film star whose career has been blighted by a herculean rescue which left him with a scarred face.

Chapter 29 THE MEETING ONE night when they were dining in the hotel restaurant instead of going out as they usually did, Bernie Boyd walked in.

George saw her first, broke off in something she was saying, and stared and stared at the vision in white that was slowly advancing down the room, happily conscious that she was the center of all eyes.

There were two men with her, and for one wild moment George thought that perhaps one of them might be Nicholas, but of course it was not, and she caught her breath with a quick sigh of disappointment.

Bernie was dressed in white chiffon with a feecy wrap of some expensive looking fur, and one of the men with her was carrying a bouquet of crimson roses which he laid beside her plate when they sat down at their table.

"George—what are you staring at?" Evelyn asked, but almost at once she saw for herself.

"Bernie Boyd! Well, now you see!" "See what?" George asked.

"The attention she gets," Evelyn said rather tartly. "That tall man with her is Lord Silbury. The other I suppose is her husband. Why men will run after common women is more than I can understand. Women never run after common men. They are far too sensitive."

"I wish she'd come and speak to us," George said.

There was a flush of excitement in her cheeks, and her eyes looked darker than usual.

"I suppose she thinks that it is my place to go and speak to her," Evelyn said. "Everything is upside down nowadays. But very probably I shall go and speak to her. I should like to meet Lord Silbury. You're not eating anything, George."

"I'm not hungry," George said. George looked at the two men who were with Bernie Lord Silbury was tall, and thin; "Hungry looking," George thought; he reminded her of one of the Peers in "Jolanthe," of which she had seen an amateur performance.

Mrs. Spears had been in the chorus, and she had given George a ticket on the second and most unsuccessful night.

The other man who Evelyn had vaguely supposed to be Nicholas was young and fair, and effeminate, with a waist to his coat and hair too carefully marcelled.

"If you've finished, Bishop, we may as well go to the lounge," Evelyn said.

And it was in the lounge, over coffee and liqueurs that George was introduced to Bernie.

"My daughter George, she's a film fan, Miss Boyd. She knew all about you directly I mentioned your name."

Bernie turned starchy, black-lashed eyes on George.

"How sweet," she said; she smiled at the girl and sat down beside her, but she still talked to the men, seeming to single Bishop out for special attention.

GEORGIE watched her with a feeling of unreality. She was so fair and small, like a doll.

Of course Nicholas must love her. Men always liked that type of girl much better than anyone dark and brown-skinned like herself.

A long mirror on the wall opposite reflected the little group they made, and George studied it with sombre eyes.

She was wearing a brown frock tonight which made her look even darker and more elfin-like.

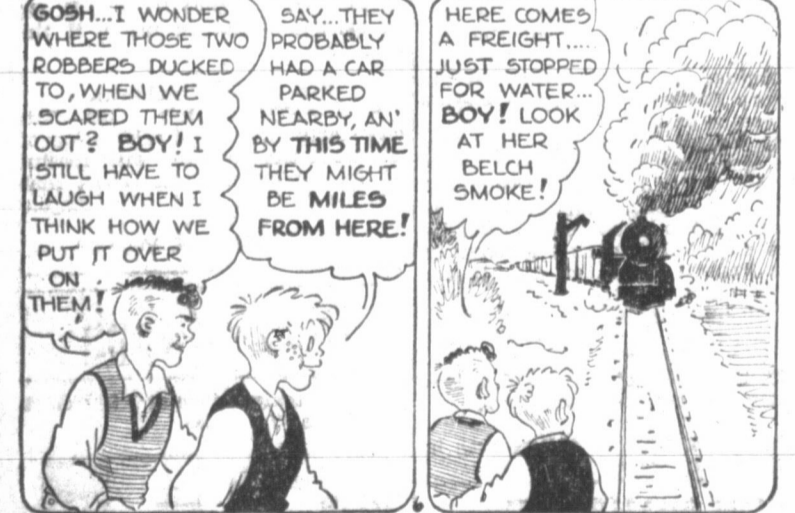

Evelyn had said it was a clever touch when the dressmaker, who called herself Irene, with an accent on the second syllable, had suggested brown.

"If you are sunburnt, you might as well make use of it instead of trying to hide it," she told George. "You're a brunette and can never be anything else, so we must make the most of it."

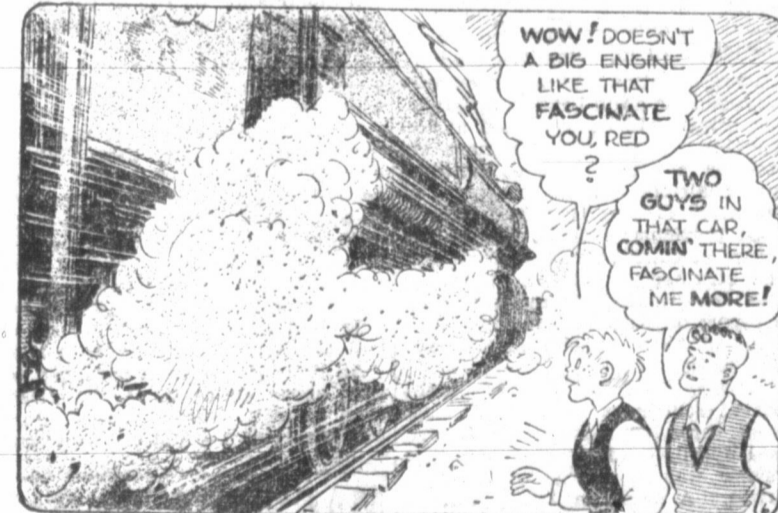

But tonight George hated herself; hated her dark eyes, and her thick wavy hair, and longed to be fair, and all pink and white like the girl beside her.

Even Bishop looked at Bernie ad-

International Sunday School Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

International Sunday school lesson for June.

General Topic: Caleb.

Scripture Lesson: Josh. 14:6-14.

6. Then the children of Judah drew nigh unto Joshua in Gilgal; and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said unto him, Thou knowest the thing that Jehovah spake unto Moses the man of God concerning me and concerning thee in Kadeshbarnea.

7. Forty years old was I when Moses the servant of Jehovah sent me from Kadeshbarnea to spy out the land; and I brought him word again as it was in my heart.

8. Nevertheless my brethren that went up with me made the heart of the people melt; but I wholly followed Jehovah my God.

9. And Moses swore on that day, saying, Surely the land whereon thy foot treadeth shall be an inheritance to thee and to thy children for ever; because thou hast wholly followed Jehovah my God.

10. And now, behold, Jehovah hath kept me alive, as he spake, these forty and five years, from the time that Jehovah spake this word unto Moses, while Israel walked in the wilderness; and now, I am this day fourscore and five years old.

11. As yet I am as strong this day as I was in the day that Moses sent me; as my strength was then, even so is my strength now, for war, and to go out and to come in.

12. Now therefore give me this hill-country whereof Jehovah spake in that day; for thou heardest in that day how the Anakim were there, and cities great and fortified; it may be that Jehovah will be with me, and I shall drive them out, as Jehovah spake.

13. And Jehovah blessed him; and he gave Hebron unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh for an inheritance.

14. Therefore Hebron became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite unto this day; because that he wholly followed Jehovah, the God of Israel.

Golden Text: Blessed is the man that maketh Jehovah his trust.—Ps. 40:4.

Time: The reports of the twelve spies, B. C. 1487. Assignment of Hebron to Caleb, B. C. 1454. (Beecher.)

Place: Kadesh-Barnea. Gilgal.

Introduction. After spending a year in Sinai, immediately after leaving Egypt, the Hebrew host journeyed northward until they reached Kadesh-Barnea, near the southern border of Palestine and within one hundred miles of Jerusalem.

From Kadesh-Barnea the twelve spies were sent into Canaan to obtain accurate data concerning the country and its inhabitants. They spent forty days traversing the land full length. On their return they reported unanimously upon the vast resources of the country and the strength of the people, among whom were five warlike tribes and the sons of Anak, the giant; but the immediate invasion of Canaan was opposed by ten and favored by the immortal two, Caleb and Joshua.

"A shiver of dread shot through the Hebrew multitude who cried and complained; yearned for Egypt, and wanted to kill their leaders. But God spoke, penalty was pronounced, the faithless spies fell by plague, the people mourned their blundering sin, and in presumption suffered defeat only to fall back into the wilderness for thirty-eight more years of wandering."

Conquest of Canaan. The invasion of Canaan by Joshua, as recounted in our lesson for last Sunday, was followed by the triumph of Israel. After the siege and fall of Jericho and Ai, the united kings of the South were met at Beth-horon and exterminated; the confederacy of the North met an equal fate near the Waters of Merom; and after a war of about seven years Joshua was conqueror of Canaan, although the Canaanites were left here and there in the land. The various tribes were then allotted their portions of the territory. Upon him as witnessed by his admiration of his fidelity, Caleb was awarded the yet unconquered hill country of Hebron and with its historic association as the home of Abraham.

Caleb's Request. Caleb is celebrating his eighty-fifth birthday, and he is doing it so far as the records go. He comes before his leader and friend with a specific request. He wants an exception made in his case in the allotment of land. With the enthusiasm of reflecting age, he recalls the promise that God made through Moses to Joshua and to him that day forty-five years ago, that the land on which his feet had trodden should be his inheritance and his children's forever; he reviews the evidence of God's continued favor upon him as witnessed by his advanced but very vigorous years; he insists upon his fitness for war, even as he was when together they began their exploration of Canaan. With this preliminary background, he asks Joshua to give him Hebron for his inheritance, and promises with the help of the Lord to keep it clear of infesting Anakim. It is particularly worthy of notice that Caleb was really asking for a chance to perform an important service to the nation by becoming responsible for a hazardous undertaking.

Caleb and Joshua. The Book says Joshua blessed Caleb, v. 13, when he had finished his speech. Fine old Joshua! Some one should do justice to the Joshua-Caleb friendship one of these days. Joshua listened with warming heart to the review of experiences that he had shared with his life-long comrade. He remembered particularly Moses' solemn oath on that day on which the people rejected his and Caleb's report, Num. 13, and immediately ratified Moses' promise by designating Hebron as Caleb's inheritance.

This Caleb came into possession of famous territory, 19 miles from Jerusalem and 13 miles from Bethlehem. Hebron, the seat of Machpelah, sacred forever because of association with Abraham and Sarah, Isaac and Rebekah, and Jacob and Leah, and later to be distinguished as the royal residence of David, and as the place he was anointed king over all Israel.

The Study of Biography. The beauty of the study of biography lies in the fact that most any life contains qualities that will inspire to higher living or warn against a wasted life. It is therefore both pleasurable and profitable to contemplate some Caleb qualities. Courage is certainly outstanding in his career; courage to accept appointment as scout, courage to face facts, courage to trust God against great odds, courage to champion his convictions against a bitterly hostile assembly, courage to keep resolute in the hour of defeat, courage to wait for his opportunity, courage to request a difficult task even in old age. Courage, as the name would indicate, is a heart quality; it cannot be put on, it springs from within.

Another quality, of which courage is one expression, is loyalty. Caleb was loyal to his people in seeking their best interests always; he was loyal to his superiors in authority, carefully and efficiently executing every commission given him; he was loyal to his God, following him scrupulously at every turn in his life. Hear his own words, "I wholly followed the Lord my God" (Joshua 14:8), and hear Jehovah's testimony, "He hath wholly followed the Lord" (Deut. 1:36), and "My servant Caleb hath followed me fully" (Num. 14:24).

Caleb An Inspiring Example. We are not told much about Caleb, but what we are told is enough to give him a secure place among Bible immortals, and make him forever an inspiration to the world. For he was that glorious sight, a gallant and indomitable old man, eighty-five years of age, fighting to the last in the most magnificent of causes. We rejoice when a young man does heroic deeds, but we grieve deeply when he dies in the midst of them. Such a life is like a splendid statue, left incomplete. But when an old man carries through a long life consistently brave, and ends it at last as noble as when he started, we have the satisfaction of the finished statue, with no sense of vague regret but with a feeling of superb triumph. Such a life was Caleb's, bravely begun, bravely ended, youth and old age one inspiring whole.

L'NORA NEWSREEL SHOWS F. D. R. PILOTING YACHT UP EAST COAST

Striking scenes as Franklin D. Roosevelt pilots the trim schooner Amberjack II out of the Marlon, Mass. harbor and points her nose up the New England Coast to start his first vacation as President of the United States, are to be seen in the current issue of the Pampa Daily NEWS-Universal Newsreel.

Graham McNamee, noted radio announcer and the screen's talking reporter describes this and the other important events in the reel at the LaNora theater.

The great reception given to the president as he rides through the streets of Boston on his way to Groton where he visits his mother and son and the picturesque views as he guides his ship out of the harbor after ordering her sails raised to a spanking wind, combine to make a remarkable screen record of the chief executive's holiday.

Other important events described by McNamee include graphic action pictures of Chinese troops burning the bridges leading to their Capital City, Peiping, to retard the advancing armies of the Japanese and thrilling views at New London, Conn. as Harvard makes a last minute drive in its race with Yale on the Thames river and comes through to win a dramatic victory in the 81st of the series of classic races with Ell.

HURRICANE STRIKES MEXICAN COAST SOUTH OF BROWNSVILLE

MEXICAN CITY IS SWEEPED BY FIERCE WINDS

damage there and apparently moved today toward the mountains west of Tampico.

Residents of the lower Rio Grande valley, tensely watching the storm's progress across the Gulf of Mexico, relaxed as the disturbance, which weather bureau observers had believed would pass inland somewhere near the extreme southern tip of Texas, hit far to the south.

Violent winds striking the hurricane whipped furiously at the coastline in the vicinity of Brownsville. Although the wind velocity at one time was approximately 50 miles an hour, reports indicated that damage caused in Texas was inconsequential.

DAMAGE DONE IN RIO GRANDE VALLEY IS INCONSEQUENTIAL

BROWNSVILLE, July 7 (AP)—A tropical disturbance which struck furiously at the Mexican coastline midway between Tampico, Mexico, and Brownsville last night, caused an undetermined amount of strong winds followed close upon the heels of torrential rains. So far as Mexican sources could learn, there was no loss of life.

There was no loss of life on the mainland nor the islands off the coast but fears were felt today for the crews of two schooners at sea when the storm roared close to this section.

Captain Angelo Rose of the Schooner Mary Jane which was driven ashore on Padre Island yesterday, had received no word today of the Audley, another schooner which was helping him salvage a fishing smack off the island when the storm struck.

Captain M. McCauley, in charge of the coast guard station on Padre Island, also said no reports had been received about the fate of the Schooner Allen, which ran before the gale yesterday after trying futilely to enter Laguna Madre through Brazos pass.

five and the Allen four men. Rose's boat was driven high onto the beach by the foaming breakers and today appeared to be a total wreck. The Mary Jane is 35 feet long and is owned by the Liberty Fishing company of Galveston.

Nebraska Kept Out Of 'Red' By Constitution

LINCOLN, Neb., July 7 (AP)—If Budget Director Lewis Douglas succeeds in limiting the federal public works program to states with balanced budgets, it won't bother Nebraska—the state whose budget always has been balanced.

Only a tax strike could unbalance Nebraska's state budget. Its constitution bars bond issues and the state can not create indebtedness of more than $100,000. To assure meeting expenses, the state board of assessments must make an annual levy sufficient to raise half of the biennial state appropriations and expending agencies can spend only one-eighth of the appropriations each quarter.

The assessment board also can make allowances for expected tax delinquencies and last year increased the levy for anticipated defaulters slightly. But only excessive defaults could put the state in the red.

Mrs. Hunsucker Given Two-Year Term In Prison

DECATUR, July 7 (AP)—Mrs. Ida Hunsucker has been sentenced to two years imprisonment on a murder charge in connection with the slaying of Deputy Sheriff Joe Brown at Rhome, Wise county.

Deputy Brown was shot to death in his barber shop at Rhome Jan. 27 after he had arrested Mrs. Hunsucker, her son, Glen Hunsucker, and John "Perch Mouth" Stanton, for alleged theft of a barrel of oil from a wagon on the highway north of Decatur.

The officer intercepted the three as they drove into Rhome in a truck and took them to his shop to telephone Decatur authorities. After the shooting Mrs. Hunsucker and the two men escaped in the car. She was later arrested but the men still are at large.

Mrs. Hunsucker also must serve three years in prison for receiving stolen goods at the tourist camp she operated at Quitaque. When she was convicted for receiving stolen goods some months ago, the sentence was suspended but her conviction in the murder case yesterday will require her to serve it.

Those present were Patty McDonald, Susan Elliott, Barbara Ann Carlton, Pauline Cockrell, Joe Bill Lister, Sybil Pierson, Patsy Pierson, Beverly Jean Stalls, Horace Wayne Johns, Bobby Boyles, Haldane Suttle.

Robbers Shoot Two To Death, Wound A Third

LA JUNTA, Colo., July 7 (AP)—Robbers shot two persons to death, wounded a third, probably fatally, then set fire to their residence here today and fled.

The dead are Mary Russell, about 50, and an unidentified man whose body was found in the charred ruins of the house.
John Russell, about 60, brother of the dead woman, is in the Menomonee hospital here with a bullet wound in the head and doctors said it was doubtful if he would live.

On the way to the hospital Russell told Ed Oberling, city councilman and member of the volunteer fire department, that two men entered his home about 7:30 o'clock this morning.
They shot Russell, he told Oberling, then went to another room and shot his sister.
Oberling said Russell lost consciousness before he could say who the other man was.

Alvin York Is Dry Campaigner In Deep South

MONTGOMERY, Ala., July 7 (AP)—The contest over prohibition has moved into the deep south where three states vote on the question soon and repealists are raising the old issue of state's rights.
Concentrated campaigns are under way in Alabama and Arkansas which vote July 18 and in Tennessee which holds its election July 20.

Repealists believe victory in Arkansas and Alabama would presage speedy repeal and have a psychological effect on Tennessee. Prohibitionists want to hold the traditionally dry territory of the old south.

Sixteen states have thus far voted for repeal. Twenty others would have to follow suit to repeal the eighteenth amendment.

Sergeant Alvin York, Tennessee world war hero, is campaigning for the dry forces in Tennessee and Arkansas. On the repealists side Tennessee is former Congressman A. Pierce, Confederate veteran.

REVIVAL AT FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH IS TO START SUNDAY

VANTER PARTY WILL CONDUCT CHURCH SERIES

MUSIC TO BE FEATURE OF SERVICES IN MEETING

A MAJOR summer church event will begin Sunday, when the Vawter evangelistic party arrives to begin a revival in First Christian church. Dr. C. R. L. Vawter, widely known preacher in Christian churches, will be leader of the services.

With him will come three assistants, all musicians. Dr. Vawter, in addition to being a noted evangelist, plays several instruments. Mrs. Vawter is a soprano soloist; Billy Reeves is song leader with the party, and Howard House, pianist. All members of the group play some musical instrument, and they bring several unique instruments. One of the two sets in America of the famous Notre Dame organ chimes are included. These chimes, nine feet long, and containing 142 bells, are specially effective in rendering hymn tunes. A rosewood marimba is another instrument that will be brought here.

The pianist, Howard House, is also a crayon artist and at each evening service will draw a picture to illustrate some familiar hymn. These pictures will be given to someone in the congregation each evening.

The Vawter party will come here from Atlanta, where they have just closed a successful revival in the Capital View Christian church. They have conducted revivals over all parts of the United States and have made three trips around the world, conducting meetings in all English-speaking countries.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shelton and children visited yesterday in Amarillo and in Canyon, where they stopped at the new West Texas museum.

Principals Of Revival Party

DR. C. R. L. VAWTER and Mrs. Vawter, shown above, head the evangelistic party which will conduct a revival in First Christian church beginning Sunday. Dr. Vawter is one of the best known evangelistic preachers in his church. In addition he and Mrs. Vawter, with the other two members of their party, form musical ensembles that make their revivals more than ordinarily interesting.

Girls' Club Has Extended Party

Entertainment that began Wednesday afternoon and ended with a breakfast and swim Thursday morning was enjoyed by girls who are members of the newly organized A. B. C. club.

Miss Anne Clayton was hostess at her home Wednesday afternoon. She served punch, cake, and orange sherbet to Misses Ethel Hamilton, Grace New, Roberta Montgomery, Helen Jo Daugherty, Christine Dickinson, Willie Ibbell, Mianie Olive Montgomery, Mary McKamey, and Mrs. Inez Sumner.

A slumber party Wednesday night started with a bicycle ride and midnight lunch. After a swim the next morning, breakfast was served to the party.

Bethany Circle Of Central B.M.U. Has Meeting For Study

Mrs. J. W. Busby was hostess to the Bethany circle of Central Baptist Missionary union at her home Wednesday afternoon. Members studied the third chapter of their book, "Glad Tidings."

Mrs. L. W. Hardcastle conducted the devotional and Mrs. D. C. Chandler gave the opening prayer. Those present included Mesdames O. J. McAllister, G. O. Moore, G. C. Stark, D. C. Chandler, L. L. Brewer, O. H. Gilstrap, and Busby.

Mrs. J. A. Sellkirk of Kingsmill was admitted to Worley hospital for a major operation this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Pierson and children were in Amarillo on business yesterday.

CHURCHES

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

Room 2, First National Bank Bldg. "Sacrament" is the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, July 9.

The Golden Text is from I Corinthians 10: "The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?"

Included with other passages from the Bible is the following from Mark 10: "Jesus said unto them, whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all. For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many."

The lesson-sermon also includes citations from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "It is the living Christ, the practical truth, which makes Jesus 'the resurrection and the life' to all who follow him in deed. Obeying his precious precepts—following his demonstration so far as we apprehend it—we drink of his cup, partake of his bread, are baptized with his purity; and at last we shall rest, sit down with him, in a full understanding of the divine principle which triumphs over death" (p. 31).

Fashion Dots Her T-Square Frock

Here is a spectator sports frock that hits all the high spots of 1933. From its high neckline to the hem of its slender skirt it shows just what's what in fashion. It builds the important T-square shoulder line with becoming capelet sleeves. It marks off a slender waistline with a wide crushed sash. It accents that high-necked look with a casual knotted collar. And the skirt is seamed in center front—one of the many tricks by which a stem-like silhouette is stressed.

And it does all this in the fabric success of the hour—pale pink chalky crepe dotted in brown. For all its swank, this frock is one that is especially easy to reproduce at home. There are no troublesome sewing details to puzzle a beginner. The pattern envelope tells just how much material you will need for your size. This is one of many bright new frocks. See our Fashion Book for the others. Price of book only 10 cents.

Pattern No. 5261 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18, 20 years, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 bust.

RUTH'S HOMER IS DIFFERENCE IN TWO TEAMS

CIRCUIT BLAST SCORES TWO RUNS—MARGIN OF DEFEAT

BY WILLIAM WEEKES, Associated Press Sports Writer. CHICAGO, July 7 (P)—Baseball's dream game has been played and the story thereof is largely another tale about the man who made the home run famous—George Herman Ruth.

Thirteen hand-picked stars from American league teams defeated 17 selected National leaguers, 4 to 2, yesterday before 49,000 fans. And it was one of old Mr. Ruth's copyrighted blasts that accounted for the two big runs.

The typical gesture came in the third inning with Charlie Gehringer of the Detroit Tigers on first base. Wild Bill Hallahan of the St. Louis Cardinals was the victim. With the count one ball and a strike, Hallahan served the next one up about knee-high and outside. A mighty swing by the 39-year-old Ruth and the ball sailed on a line into the lower deck of the right field stands. There were other thrills. In the eighth Ruth leaned against the ball to haul down a drive by Chick Hafey and end the National's last rally.

Gross receipts were $52,000, of which $42,000 was turned over to the Association of Professional Baseball Players of America.

The National leaguers were beaten, but anything but disgraced. Outside of Ruth's wallop, which was matched in size, but not importance by Frankie Frisch, and better control on the part of the junior circuit's pitchers, there was little to choose.

SKELLY TEAM WILL BATTLE ROADRUNNERS

Danciger Will Seek Revenge For Recent Defeat At New Roadrunner Diamond

The Danciger Roadrunners and the Skellytown Oilers will meet on the new Danciger diamond at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The Roadrunners will be out to get revenge for a defeat handed them in Skellytown several weeks ago. The Danciger nine has been strengthened since the first meeting of the two teams and the game is scheduled to be close.

The Danciger field has been rebuilt during the last two weeks and is in excellent condition. A fence will be built around part of the field so that a home run to right field will have to be over the fence. The left and center fields will be long. The infield is fast and even. Either Stewart or Godwin will get the call to start the game for the Roadrunners with Leggett behind the bat. Carroll will be the Skellytown-choice it is expected.

PAYNE PITCHES 12TH VICTORY FOR HOUSTON

GALVESTON TROUNCES MISSIONS 6 TO 4; GOVERNOR STARS

By The Associated Press.
Pitching his twelfth victory of the season, George Payne contributed in a large way Thursday night to the league-leading Houston Buffs' 6 to 2 win over Beaumont.

Dick Schulz, usually effective against the Houston club, was pounded for a dozen hits. Gene Moore and Ernie Parker each got to him for three and drove in three runs. One of Moore's smashes sailed over the right field fence.

The second place Galveston Buccaneers defeated their closest rivals, San Antonio, 6 to 4. Tony Governor, Buccaneer center fielder, collected four hits in five trips to bat. Governor also saved the game twice by spearing long, hard drives which looked like they would go for hits.

Galveston routed Kowalk from the mound in the second inning with five hits and three walks, which were good for five runs. San Antonio started fast, scoring a run in the first inning and three more in the second but after that Galveston held the Missions in check.

The up-and-going Dallas Steers, who have been moving steadily upward in the league of late, pounced on the Tulsa Oilers in the opener of their two-game series, winning 7 to 6. Zeke Bonura, giant Dallas first sacker, furnished the punch which broke up the close contest by driving the winning runs across the plate in the ninth.

Fort Worth split a double header with the Oklahoma City Indians. The Indians hit freely in the first game to win 6 to 2. In the second contest, George Loepp, Fort Worth cuttler, connected with a home run with the bases full and gave the Panthers a 6 to 1 victory.

It hung alongside others of former secretaries in the corridor of the interior department building. Recently, some of the pictures were moved. Fall's was lost in the shuffle.

R. J. Wollard returned to his home at LeFors from Pampa hospital yesterday.

Followers of Texas golf would not be greatly startled if Texas blossomed with two national amateur champions this year. The state has a substantial chance to come thru with Miss Anela Gorczyca, of Fort Worth, and Gus Moreland, of Dallas.

Miss Gorczyca is playing superb golf. Her victories in the Fort Worth city championship, Texas Women's Golf association, Southern Women's Golf association champion ship and the Fort Worth invitation have proven that this slender Fort Worth girl has arrived and is ready to compete against the world's best. Medalist in three of the four tournaments in which she has played, winner in all four, cracking the ball straight and with power, Miss Gorczyca is being ranked as the greatest woman shot-maker to ever play a Texas golf course.

Mrs. Dan Chandler of Dallas, former state champion, is a splendid golfer and one who has an assortment of accurate championship shots, but Saturday in the finals of the Fort Worth invitation, Miss Gorczyca made Mrs. Chandler resemble a second flighter by her overwhelming victory. It was the worst defeat Mrs. Chandler had suffered since she arrived as a championship golfer three years ago.

Miss Gorczyca is ready for bigger tournaments. She will go to the national with a good chance of winning if her game remains intact. There are few women who can shoot 77's from men's tees, and that is what Miss Gorczyca is doing.

Moreland Again.
Gus Moreland sincerely believes this is his year to win the national amateur. He knows it will require rounds of superb golf. He knows he will have to get a few good breaks along with his good shooting. He knows the field will include many players who are confident they can beat Moreland day in and day out. Regardless, Gus still believes this is his year.

Moreland convinced many that he has the shots and the heart of a champion in last week's Trans-Mississippi at Colorado Springs where he retained his championship. Not once during the tournament did Moreland have an easy match. In the championship finals he had to shoot under par on the last nine to retain his title. He left the 27th tee knowing that nothing but superb golf could win. He shot that kind. Finishing in a tie for seventh place in the national open gave Moreland the needed confidence that he can compete with the nation's best shot-makers.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT
CHICAGO—A couple of comments from Dr. Joseph Rotheir, president of the National Education association:

Americans spend as much money on motor cars as on education. They spend for cigars and amusements half again as much as they do on all elementary and secondary schools.

Mrs. Dennis Taylor was admitted to Pampa hospital Thursday.

MAGIC CITY TO SHOW REBUILT TEAM SUNDAY

CLUB HAS IMPROVED A LOT SINCE MAGS BEAT THEM

The Magic City baseball team will come to Pampa Sunday afternoon for the first game of the second half of the Cotton-Oil league and will meet the Magnolia "Mags" winners of the first half, at Magnolia park. The game will be called at 2:30 o'clock. Admission will be 25 cents.

The "Mags" barely nosed out the Magic City entry in the game played in the Wheeler county town and since that time the Magic City team has been strengthened. Magic City has a strong battery and a hard-hitting aggregation. They were beaten on their fielding at the first meeting.

Unless big Sam Rogers gets in condition, the "Mags" will be hard hit for a pitcher Sunday. Rabeurn Burke has already pitched 22 innings this week and he will be in no condition to take the mound again Sunday. Burke won from Wheeler last Sunday and from Skellytown Tuesday. He also pitched four innings of the game against the Daniger Roadrunners Sunday. Magic City will have Stewart and Rogers ready for mound duty Sunday with Stags behind the bat.

Manager Howard Buckingham has issued a call for his "Mags" to be out for a long, hard practice session at 5 o'clock this afternoon. The boys had many lapses in base running in the games played this week and the fielding was lax at times.
