LITHUANIAN FLIERS DIE IN CRASH

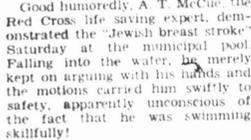

POST REFUSES TO SLEEP IN SUPERB FLYING WEATHER AND LEAVES MOSCOW FOR SIBERIA

TWINKLES
If you find it hard to keep up with the new deal as it applies to you, consider how much more President Roosevelt has on his mind behind that smile, and marvel.

OH YOU KIDS! Meet a new pal, SCORCHY SMITH, who appears daily in the comic strip.

You'll like SCORCHY, the adventurer. He's clever, brave, modern, AND STILL A BOY. Don't forget to keep up with him every day in THE NEWS.

Good humoredly, A. T. McCue, the Red Cross life saving expert, demonstrated the "Jewish breast stroke" Saturday at the municipal pool. Falling into the water, he merely kept on arguing with his habits and the motions carried him swiftly to safety, apparently unconscious of the fact that he was swimming skillfully!

If you don't think the ladies know a thing or two just watch that amazing pair, Mesdames Art Swanson and Clyde Fathorne tread water, carry "drowning" persons, demonstrate resuscitation, and go through the hard routine of the Red Cross examiners' tests. Anyone who qualifies under their supervision for life saving certificates will know "a plenty."

SCANT OPTIMISM
Analyzed, the national industrial recovery act is based on pessimism—the idea that conditions are not bad because we drifted into a depression but that the depression persists because we are still drifting along in damaging industrial practices, with no signs of a change unless Uncle Sam does something about it. We have plenty of money in the country. The productive resources are so great that we are forced to curb them. People's needs are legion. One staggering fact remains: THEIR BUYING POWER IS PARALYZED.

ONE GREAT AIM
The fundamental and immediate purpose of the national recovery act is to restore buying power. All other phases of the legislation are incidental. Unfortunately, many business men have reversed the picture—RAISING PRICES BEFORE PEOPLE HAVE THE MONEY TO BUY. This won't work. It will merely spread misery. It can't be cured with increased production because, unless wage hikes keep pace, the inevitable result will be unit demands

ROBOT IS BLAMED FOR FORCING FLIER OFF COURSE

BY STANLEY P. RICHARDSON, Associated Press Staff Correspondent
MOSCOW, July 17 (AP)—An American round-the-world solo flier, landed here from Koenigsberg, Germany, this afternoon and a few hours later soared eastward on the 1,818-mile journey to Novosibirsk, in Siberia.

The most perfect possible weather conditions prevailed from Moscow as far as the Ural mountains. Local weather officials who gave the airman full meteorological information before he left, said it was probable that the present cloudiness between the Urals and Novosibirsk would clear up before he reached that area.

Post refused a chance to snatch a few minutes sleep at the Moscow airport that he might speed up mechanics working on his plane.

Robot Goes "Haywire"
It was 3:12 p. m. (9:12 a. m. E. T.) when the American flier, who was born at Grand Saline, Texas, started the Novosibirsk leg of his journey. He had been in Moscow 2 hours and 52 minutes.

When he sped away from the Soviet capital a more than 48-hour growth of beard had disappeared from his face, as he spent fifteen minutes of his short stay here in the airport barber shop.

Post said he experienced great difficulty with his mechanical pilot from the beginning of his flight from New York and he was therefore compelled to drive his ship manually the entire distance.

Difficulties with the robot were blamed for forcing the American flier a hundred miles off his course between Koenigsberg and Moscow and they were also said to be the chief reason why he landed at the East Prussian capital last night.

The robot trouble combined with a break in the oil feed induced Post to land at Moscow, he said. He hoped he had everything in excellent order here before he departed.

Russian officials were concerned at Post's small appetite and urged more food on him but the American declined, saying, "I eat only enough to keep from weakening myself. I purposely stay hungry so I can keep suit case."

The American aviator had his two thermos bottles filled with boiled water just before taking off for Siberia.

The Oklahoma will make the remainder of his globe circling flight without a change of clothing, having forgotten and left behind at Koenigsberg his suitcase, his only piece of baggage. Airport officials at Koenigsberg telephone that the suitcase would be forwarded to Moscow by the regular commercial air service but Post replied, "I can't wait for it. Just have it sent home for me," and soared away without a clean shirt.

MANY TICKET DEMANDS ARE TURNED DOWN

Junior Chamber Sells All Reservations Possible

Officers of the Junior chamber of commerce hourly are saying, with regret, that there are no more tickets for sale for the Al-Panhandle reception banquet to be held for Congressman Marvin Jones here tomorrow evening.

Demand for reservations continue to be received from many cities of the Panhandle in addition to Pampa. The number of out-of-town persons will be large, however, since they were quick to take advantage of the opportunity to hear Mr. Jones report on the "new deal."

The banquet will begin at 8 o'clock in the dining room of the Schneider hotel. About 220 persons will be seated. Half an hour before the banquet opens, Mr. Jones will join the group in the lobby. A short musical program will precede the main address by the congressman.

POSSE TRAILING COMPANION OVER DESERT AFTER DEPUTY IS SLAIN IN PITCHED BATTLE

TWO MEN WANTED FOR DEPUTY SLAYING AT RHOME

CARRIZOZO, N. M., July 17 (AP)—Determined to avenge the death of their fellow officer, Tom Jones, deputy sheriff, a posse today scoured the flat and desolate wastes of northeastern Lincoln county for the companion of a man believed to be Glenn Hunsucker, Texas gunman, who had slain Hunsucker and the officer had been killed.

Hunsucker and his companion, whom officers believed to be "Parrot Mouth" or "Perch Mouth" Stanton, were surprised by officers yesterday afternoon at a lonely spot near Ramon, N. M., 60 northeast of here.

The two men immediately opened fire on Sheriff A. S. MacAmant and in the exchange of shots Deputy Sheriff Jones fell and Hunsucker also was killed. The other man escaped into the wilderness on foot and officers immediately organized a posse which continued the search throughout the night.

Jones' body was brought here late last night, but Hunsucker's body was left on the spot where he was shot down.

The shooting occurred in a country which has few inhabitants and which has no telephone or telegraph communications. For that reason no word had been received here early today of the results of last night's search.

Wanted At Tulsa
PLAINVIEW, July 17 (AP)—Glenn Hunsucker, reported slain in a gunfight with New Mexico officers over the week-end, was sought in West Texas on charges of slaying John C. Mosley, sheriff of Swissler county, Jan. 22 and for the Oilton State bank robbery a year ago.

NEWS INTRODUCES TODAY ANOTHER FINE COMIC STRIP

A pretty girl, stylish clothes, thrilling parties, snappy dialogue, adventure, excitement, and romance—that's DIANA, heroine of the daily strip-story OH, DIANA! which THE NEWS is introducing to its readers today on this page.

DIANA constantly finds herself in the midst of action. She always is doing interesting things and places with personable companions. She doesn't lose her heart—very often—but there are always plenty of dates, moonlight, and men to keep romance in the running.

There's BILL BING with whom she once collaborated on trying to put over a musical comedy and then proved his innocence when he was wrongfully accused of a crime. Bill has tried to convince DIANA she loves him but there hasn't been an answer.

Then DOOLEY, who sometimes thinks he's a great detective and again that he's the great lover. DIANA can't take this seriously either way but still she's very fond of him and you never can tell.

Just now, DIANA is conformed with DOOLEY's infatuation for GOLDIE SPADE whose name fits her better than her gloves. DIANA is interested, of course, only in keeping DOOLEY from doing something foolish—but perhaps she just doesn't like the idea of DOOLEY being interested in someone else.

Besides living a fascinating story, DIANA daily wears the newest fashionable creations. She's an accurate style guide but not a "clothes-horse," just a real girl who will entertain and thrill you.

Roadrunners And Mags Will Play For Poor Fund

A three-game series between the Magnolia "Mags" and the Danciger "Roadrunners", with proceeds going to the Kiwanis club underprivileged children's fund, was arranged this morning between Howard Buckingham of the "Mags" and Earl Roff of the "Roadrunners". Admission to each game will be 35 cents. A double header will be played to close the season, with Wheeler supplying the opposition for the Magnolias in one game.

The first game will be played the afternoon of July 26 at Danciger park, half a mile east of the city. The following afternoon a game will be played at Magnolia park on East Foster avenue. The third and last game will be July 30 at Danciger park. The "Mags" and Wheeler will play a scheduled game in the Cotton-Oil league first and then they will clash with the Roadrunners.

Fans have it that the games are to be for the city championship and to settle old differences. The Magnolias will be considerably strengthened for the series, according to Manager Buckingham.

Tickets will go on sale Thursday.

PLANE WITH GASOLINE TANK EMPTY, IS DEMOLISHED WHEN IT LANDS IN GERMAN FOREST

They had completed roughly nine-tenths of their proposed non-stop flight. Presumably through lack of fuel they sought to effect a landing in the dark morning hours, when there were low hanging clouds.

The plane mowed down about a dozen fir trees and then crashed to earth, one wing resting against a tree. The ship turned completely around in crashing.

The motor was snapped off and carried ten feet away. Some parts of the plane, which was demolished, were found 80 feet distant.

The log of the airman indicated that their plane, the Lithuanica, followed a remarkably straight course, keeping virtually the same latitude throughout.

The time of the disaster remained a matter of doubt tonight. Some

FEDERAL ACT TO BE TALKED THIS EVENING

Merchants Are Urged To Attend Mass Meeting

Mainly educational will be the mass meeting of business men to be held in the city hall this evening under the auspices of the Board of City Development.

Provisions of the national industrial recovery act will be discussed, together with a brief sketch of the background of that legislation. How drawing of trade practices codes, with agreements as to wages and hours of labor, will affect retail business will be talked in a round-table discussion.

The gathering will be opened at 8 o'clock. It is hoped by the sponsors that many business men will be present. What several local businesses are doing to frame codes and agree on prices will be told.

Science Society To Build Church On Frost Street

A new building for the Christian Science Society of Pampa is to be erected immediately at the end of North Frost street, across from the Sam Houston school, the building committee has announced.

The contract has been let to Arthur Hill, local contractor. The building is to be in one story, 31 by 50 feet. Concrete, wood and brick are the materials to be used. The Independent Lumber company will furnish materials.

In addition to an auditorium 29 by 35 feet in size, there will be two Sunday school rooms, a reading room, and rest room. The building will be modern in all respects, with water, lights, and gas furnace. Oak floors and texture finished walls will be used in all rooms.

Members of the building committee have found that they are making a considerable saving by building now, as materials are far below normal cost. The contractor estimates the cost of the building in normal times at $4,500. The lot cost $1,000.

They were examined and approved by A. T. McCue, national life saving representative.

HUTTON WANTS DIVORCE--SAYS AIMEE MADE HIM RIDICULOUS

Land Bank Cuts Its Interest Rate To 5 Per Cent

HOUSTON, July 17.—The interest rate on new loans made by the Federal Land Bank of Houston through national farm loan associations has been reduced to 5 per cent according to a statement made by A. C. Williams, president of the bank following a meeting of the board of directors of the bank in Houston today. The reduced rate applies to all notes and mortgages prepared and sent out for execution from the Houston bank on and after July 11. Loans are made on the amortization plan on a 20 year or 35 year basis, and the saving to the farmer will be considerable.

This reduction in rate follows action by the Land Bank Commissioner of the farm credit administration making effective the 5 per cent rate in all federal land bank districts.

In addition to the long time savings by the new rate which will be written in the borrower's note and mortgage, the Emergency Farm Mortgage Act passed by congress in May makes a further temporary interest reduction for a five year period on all loans made by the bank prior to May 12, 1935. During the five year period the interest rate charged borrowers on loans through national farm loan associations is automatically reduced to 4 1/2 per cent per annum. The difference between the rate provided by the note and mortgage and the rate paid by the farmer during the five year period will be paid to the Federal Land Bank by the United States government. Farmers who keep their loans in good standing may also postpone payments on the principal of their loans for the five year period.

All loans by the Houston bank are being made through national farm loan associations.

SIX ARRESTED

City police officers made six arrests over the week-end. Three persons entered pleas of guilty, two claimed to be not guilty and a negro was turned over to the county after being arrested for transporting beer. The charges filed were for intoxication and vagrancy. Traffic Officer Wayne Nicholson has returned from his vacation and Pampa motorists who became careless during his absence are being reminded through tickets.

A New Serial by Ruby M. Ayres

SYNOPSIS: George Bancroft has tried to get information about the man she loves even from Bernice Boyd, his wife, but with no success. Nicholas Boyd is in Germany trying to have removed the scar that has ruined his film career. Bernice is making a picture in England. George's mother has taken her from her village home to London, and now tires of her, and complains because she will not marry Clifford Asher. Nicholas has not even answered George's letter.

Chapter 27
WORD FROM NICHOLAS

OF COURSE she could marry Clifford if she wished to; George opened her eyes with a start as Bishop came into the room. "Is your mother out?" he asked.

"Yes," George stood up. "May I ask you something?" she said.

"Well?"

"What do you want me to do?" she asked in her most direct way. "To do?" he queried.

"Yes. Do you want me to go to Scotland, or to go back to Uncle Edward, or what shall I do?"

He laughed. "Your mother does not want you in Scotland," he said. "Why not?" she asked.

"She has other fish to fry," he answered; he came a step nearer to her. "You took such a child," he said. "And yet you should be old enough to understand something of life." He paused a moment, then asked: "Do you imagine that your mother and I are contented with one another?"

George shook her head.

"I don't know."

He eyed her steadily. "Would you prefer to stay with your mother, or would you care to come to Germany with me—always supposing I go?"

The hot color raced to her cheeks. "You said you were not going," she breathed.

"I have been advised that it is well, unnecessary," he answered. "But I am not a man who is fond of taking advice, and anyway you have not answered my question."

"I would rather come with you, of course," George said breathlessly.

"For my sake, or for the sake of someone who is already there?" he asked, with faint irony.

"For both," George said.

"Humph. Well, we will see. When shall we go?" George asked; her eyes were bright with excitement, all her lassitude and weariness had vanished.

BUT Bishop would say nothing definite.

"I have not said that we shall go," he answered. "You must not be impatient." He turned to leave her, but George ran after him.

"Do you really, really mean it?" she asked, in a trembling voice.

"If I go, I will take you with me," was all he would say.

So the vague "something" for which she had been waiting had come at last! That was the one thought in George's mind; there was something to look forward to. Germany shone before her like a bright star, making everything else fade into insignificance.

She would see Nicholas; of course she would see him! Her feet seemed to dance for sheer happiness, and if Evelyn had seen her at that moment she would no longer have needed to talk about rouge; George's cheeks were rosy with happiness.

She had told Nicholas that she had grown better looking! Would he think so? Or would he be disappointed.

"You are a very dear little girl, Robin," so he had once said to her. Life was being kind at last; she turned sharply round as someone tapped at the door.

"Come in," George said cheerily; at the moment she loved everyone. Life was beautiful.

One of the hotel pages entered. "A young lady to see you, Miss. She said she was sure you would see her."

"Who is it?" George asked.

"Miss Taylor, Miss."

Nelly! "Oh, show her up," George said.

She had not seen Nelly since she took up her new work with Bernice Boyd; had not even heard how she liked it or was progressing.

It would be fun to see Nelly, and have a long talk with her.

NELLY looked a little stiff and shy as she entered; she seemed rather surprised when George kissed her.

"You ought not to do that now," she protested.

"Why not?" George asked; for the moment she could see nothing wrong with anything. "Do sit down, and tell me all about yourself."

"There isn't much to tell," Nelly said rather dolefully. "I'm not much good at the job, I'm afraid. Miss Boyd told me today I was the clumsiest creature she had ever known, but I do try," Nelly added.

"Isn't she nice to you?" George asked.

Nelly shrugged her thin shoulders. "Oh, I suppose so; she's spoilt of course. She told me straight out that if it hadn't been your stepfather who had asked her about me, she would have said so."

"What do you mean?" George asked.

"I mean," Nelly said, "that if it hadn't been your stepfather who had asked her about me, she would have said so."

"What do you mean?" George asked.

"I mean," Nelly said, "that if it hadn't been your stepfather who had asked her about me, she would have said so."

"What do you mean?" George asked.

"I mean," Nelly said, "that if it hadn't been your stepfather who had asked her about me, she would have said so."

BABY HOAX TO BE SET FORTH IN COURT PLEA

EVANGELIST'S HUSBAND CHARGES MENTAL CRUELTY

LOS ANGELES, July 17. (AP)—Suit for divorce was filed by David Hutton, baritone singer against Aimee Semple McPherson-Hutton, the evangelist, in superior court today.

LOS ANGELES, July 17. (AP)—David L. Hutton, rotund husband of the crusading evangelist, Aimee Semple McPherson-Hutton, said he will file suit for divorce today in superior court on the ground of mental cruelty.

Specifically, said the baritone chorister who married the Angelus Temple evangelist 22 months ago on a flying trip to Yuma, Ariz., he was tired of having the intimate details of his married life "publicly discussed."

Mrs. McPherson-Hutton is on the high seas, en route home from Europe.

Divorce, often rumored, is sought by Hutton as a climax to a tumultuous wedded life, which, only a fortnight or so ago, was punctuated by a serio-comic cablegram from his wife in Paris, announcing the birth of a son.

Subsequently the explanation drifted out of temple headquarters that Sister Aimee was merely trying to find out where the "leak" was occurring in confidential messages she sent the temple.

The complaint drawn for filing alleged Aimee made him and his married life "ridiculous" by perpetrating "a hoax as to the birth of a baby," which was "banded about in the press of the world," when, in fact, "no baby was born."

That was when Aimee lay in a Paris hospital recovering from what ultimately was described as a plastic operation.

The oft-mongered intrigue at Angelus Temple, having to do with management of the evangelistic plant in the absence of its titular head, was referred to in the papers prepared for filing.

CIVIL WAR VET OF ELECTRA WAS ONCE SENTENCED TO BE SHOT BY UNION ARMY, BUT DUG WAY OUT

ELECTRA, July 17. (AP)—Head erect, shoulders which scarcely betray their weight of years and with a swift, firm step that still shows something of the military training that began in April, 1862, when he enlisted in the Third Louisiana regiment at New Orleans, Col. Ed. C. Wilson, who celebrated his 91st birthday on Monday, July 10, at his home here, is probably the busiest and most active survivor of the civil war.

Col. Wilson, the only survivor of his regiment so far as has been learned and the last of his family. He participates in every patriotic parade, ceremonial or service given in Electra. He serves as registrar of vital statistics for his town and precinct in Wichita county and uses a typewriter efficiently in making out his reports.

When Col. Wilson came to Electra in 1911 a score or more Confederate veterans were living in this vicinity. They dwindled to 11 in 1926 and in 1933 only two remain, Joe McCracken and Col. Wilson. The two carried out the U. C. V. ritualistic ceremony over a majority of their deceased comrades, Col. Wilson serving as chaplain.

Col. Wilson was born in New Orleans.

McPherson-Hutton when she was on her world tour began a system of intrigue to "embarrass and humiliate" him, he said, and with the "full knowledge" of his wife who "failed, neglected and refused" to protect him from such acts and conduct.

He disclosed plans for a theatrical career beginning Thursday. He will open at a Long Beach theater and then continue appearances in an eastward trek already booked.

Hutton months ago dropped out of the picture as Temple business manager, although he remained connected with the institution until a few weeks ago. He will ask for a portion of the community property.

Their marriage was Hutton's first and Aimee's third. She is the mother of two children, both married.

Hutton gave vocal lessons and sang until his marriage to the evangelist, September 13, 1931. Shortly after his marriage he was named defendant in a breach of promise suit by Miss Hazel Myrtle Joan St. Pierre, comely nurse, who, after several weeks of legal skirmishes, won a $5,000 judgement which Hutton has pleaded he is unable to pay.

Equipoise Will Run In Handicap Next Saturday

CHICAGO, July 17. (AP)—Equipoise, Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney's handicap champion, will renew his campaign to win enough money to blot out Sun Beau's all-time record, next Saturday in the Arlington handicap—if he is not assigned too much weight.

The great eastern horse was named for the stars and stripes handicap July 4, but was withdrawn because of lameness. He was assessed 136 pounds for the Independence day feature, but may get in with a pound or two less this week.

Nominated and likely to start are Norman W. Church's pair of speedsters, Plucky Play and Gallant Sir; Larranaga, from the Anall stable, winner of the Cuban Grand National, and the Decoration day and Hockey club stakes in New York, and Gusto, which won the 1932 Arlington classic.

1933 Arlington classic failed to establish anything in the way of a three-year-old champion. Inlander, the winner, liked sticky going and polished off a field which included Golden Way and War Glory, which landed second and third; Head Play, Gold Basis, Kerry Patch, Okapi, Sarada, Edelweiss, Pomponius, Silent Shot, the Darb and Red Roamer.

Alva Alexander, Carl Carpenter, J. L. Turner, and Bee Everett of McLean were here this morning.

Loss of Appetite

May Mean You're Rundown!

When your appetite goes back on you and you feel weak, tired and depressed, it's a sign you're rundown and in need of a good tonic. There is nothing better than Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic.

Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic contains both iron and tasteless quinine in highly concentrated form. Iron, to build the blood; quinine, to act as a blood purifier. These two effects makes Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic an exceptional medicine. Try it for three days and notice the results. Appetite restored, pep and energy renewed. Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic is pleasant to take. Absolutely no taste of quinine. Even children like it. Get a bottle today and enjoy the vigor that makes life worth while. Sold by all stores. To taste right food must be seasoned right

—every good cook knows that

To Satisfy—a cigarette has to be seasoned just right

You buy food—steak, flour, corn meal, or fruit—it is cooked and brought to the table and tastes just fine. While the same food, cooked by somebody else, may not taste right at all. That's the difference between cooks—knowing how to season food. It's somewhat like this with cigarettes.

Many kinds of cigarettes are have good tobaccos, but they are not mixed right; and then again they are not seasoned with the right amount of the right kind of Turkish Tobacco. Chesterfields are seasoned just right...they are milder and taste better...and that's why They Satisfy.

CONCERT OF SACRED MUSIC IS ATTENDED BY LARGE CROWD

ATTENDANCE FOR SERVICES SETS RECORD

EVENING MEETING TO BE HELD TONIGHT IS NEW PLAN

A PUBLIC concert of sacred music which preceded the evening service at the First Christian tabernacle yesterday was attended by a large crowd, and attendance at the preaching service was the largest during the revival now in progress.

The concert, heard by an audience that filled the tabernacle and numerous cars parked nearby, started with a quartet, "Won't You Come Home?" played on the chimes.

Howard House, artist of the revival party, then made a rag picture, a novelty which he will explain at the service Tuesday night. Using various colored rags, he quickly completed a picture that had from a short distance the appearance of a crayon drawing.

Mr. House also drew a crayon picture to illustrate "The House by the Side of the Road" as Mrs. C. R. L. Vawter sang that song. Mrs. Vawter and Billy Reeves whistled a duet, and she also sang "When They Ring the Golden Bells," a favorite with her hearers.

Meditation, by Morrison, was played as a piano and marimba duet, and the closing number of the concert was "Jesus Included Me," played on the chimes, marimba, and piano.

Members of the church had met in the church basement at 6 o'clock for a supper, when they planned services and individual work of the coming week.

Dr. C. R. L. Vawter's sermon last evening was on the subject, "Faith, and How to Get It." As an illustration for the children who heard him, he discussed the passage in the second chapter of James, "Faith without works is dead, being alone," and simplified it with an illustration with coins.

Services through the day were attended by large crowds, and 10 additions to the church resulted.

Plans have been changed, and regular services will be conducted tonight. Special music will include solos by Mrs. Vawter, selections on the chimes and marimba. Mr. House will draw a picture which will be given to the largest delegation present.

Bourland Given Plaque at Lions St. Louis Meeting

Pampa Lions, who have returned from their international convention at St. Louis, were a part of the largest state delegation present. They are District Governor C. H. Walker, Clyde Fatheree, Roy Bourland, and A. M. Teed.

Mr. Bourland was honored as a "master key member" at a special ceremony. He was given a 6-inch plaque bearing a large emblem key, and a plate on which his name was engraved.

The delegation will report to the local club next Thursday. Next year's international convention was awarded Grand Rapids, Michigan.

W. E. Thompson of LeFors was admitted to Pampa hospital for emergency treatment last night.

Bennie Ray Burkett underwent a minor operation at Pampa hospital this morning.

Little Margaret Eckerd had her tonsils removed at the Worley hospital this morning.

J. P. Elms of Abilene was attending court here today.

George Hawthorne is here from McLean.

What Becomes of Movie Babies? —That Marsh Child, For Instance

JOAN MARSH looks ahead to a career in films, desiring popularity but fearing the worries of stardom. And she can look back too—well, if it isn't Baby Joan doing a little record-keeping in an old Mary Pickford film.

HOLLYWOOD—Movie fans who may wonder what happens to wide-eyed babies who go to the camera have the answer, or at least one answer, in Joan Marsh.

The wide-eyed infant who was Joan Marsh in silent pictures of Mary Pickford's heyday as a screen macep has grown into the wide-eyed blond who is Joan Marsh today.

Joan was only three months old when she began her picture career. She is 19 now, and only in the last two or three years has she drawn any notable roles.

In her case the first 15 years were the easiest, because it was at 15 that she tackled a screen career seriously, and simplified it with an illustration with coins.

Services through the day were attended by large crowds, and 10 additions to the church resulted. Plans have been changed, and regular services will be conducted tonight. Special music will include solos by Mrs. Vawter, selections on the chimes and marimba. Mr. House will draw a picture which will be given to the largest delegation present.

Just Vamping Along

She vamped Adolphe Menjou so happily in "Bachelor's Affairs" that they called her to try to seal Raul Roulien from Gloria Stuart in "It's Great to Be Alive"—a battle of blonds. Of native daughters, incidentally, too.

Joan has her own slant on stardom. "What I'd like to do," she says, "is to get to the place where people would say, 'Why don't they star that girl Joan Marsh?' but as for taking on all the glory that goes with stardom, it isn't worth it. Starring makes old men and women out of young people!"

Joan's domestic talents include cooking—especially cooking and designing her own clothes. Asked about rumors of her engagement to a young business man, Joan insists "there isn't anything to announce." But when you ask her if she'd give up her career for marriage, she beams, with an emphatic "Sure!"

Stories and Diamonds.

Says Robert Yost, studio story editor: "You can take a fishy diamond and put it in a platinum setting and it's still a fishy. But you can take a real stone and put it in a tin setting and it will lose nothing."

"It's the same way with screen stories. Unless you have a real diamond to start with, all the expending of cash and extra money spent on it won't cover up its faults, although they may make them more pleasant to take."

Old Tascosa Had Code of Honor Says Ingerton

AMARILLO, July 17 (AP)—Old Tascosa, with its fast-shooting gunmen and famous Boot Hill cemetery, was a town tough enough for anyone, but its code of honor was above that of cities of today, according to Capt. W. H. Ingerton of Amarillo.

There was never a holdup or a burglary in old Tascosa, as Captain Ingerton's memory serves him right. He was in and around the early-day trading post throughout its prosperous days. His mother taught the first Sunday school, teaching both in her own residence.

"I have seen the operator of a gambling table walk away and leave $500 stacked on the table, and never a dime was touched," Ingerton said. "Odie & Co. left their general merchandise store open every night so that any rider who came in from the range could have a place to sleep. During cold weather the cowboys borrowed extra blankets from the store, because they had to sleep on the floor. The store, saloon and wagon yard were all under one roof. The boys helped themselves to coffee and canned goods, and paid up when the proprietor came down."

"We never wrote a contract in those days," Ingerton said. "So far as Ingerton recalls, the town never had a minister."

Ingerton's mother came to the frontier town to persuade her son to return to civilization, but she remained to become one of its leading citizens.

Walter Smith and Bill Bentley drove to the city from McLean today.

HOOVER EVENTS INCLUDE PARTY, CLUB MEETING

Sunday School And Singing Held Yesterday

HOOVER, July 17.—Sunday school was conducted yesterday morning by Mr. Bond, with 28 present. Last night a community singing was enjoyed, led by Mr. Bond.

Four-H Club Meets.

A demonstration of salad making, and plans for organizing a ball team featured a meeting of the 4-H club girls at the home of Peggy Chesters Tuesday morning.

Organization of the team was not completed at the time set, Thursday afternoon, since all the girls were not present.

Two guests, Lois Daugherty and Melba Centre, were present for the demonstration given Tuesday by Miss Sikes. Members present were Sae Lee Chester, Mildred Cole, Lois Johnston, Leona Johnston, Clara Colvin, Loretta Hogan, Leona Lewis, Mary Fern Lewis, Virginia Guyther, Betty Jo Guyther, Frances Rogers, Altha Mae Durham.

Party Enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Turcotte entertained with a party Friday night at their home.

Those present to enjoy the evening were Edna and Duane Turcotte, Boy Colvin, Joe Massengale, Pete Cole, Pete Bond, Lewis and Clara Colvin, Louis and Mildred Cole, Jarrett Bond, Winnie and Mendie Bond, Frances and John Thomas Rogers, Melba Centre, Icaah Phillips, Blondy Dermite, and Loretta Moore.

Music was furnished by Boy Colvin, Pete Bond, and Mr. Turcotte, with Miss Moore at the piano.

This community was visited by a three-fourths inch rain Friday afternoon, benefiting the cotton crop.

Louis Cole, Lewis Colvin and Ralph Colvin returned Thursday from a two-day fishing trip, reporting no luck.

The Hoover kid baseball team has played seven games this season and lost only one.

Mrs. Robinson Is Hostess To Club

Members of the Gay Friday club were entertained last week at the home of Mrs. Robinson, with three tables of bridge in play.

Mrs. Palmer won high score for guests, and Mrs. Bert Isbell, high club prize went to Mrs. Hugh Isbell, consolation to Mrs. Cora Kolb, and the traveler prize to Mrs. Robert Montgomery.

A salad course with iced tea was served to them and to Mesdames Robert Woodward, E. W. Hogan, Paul Caylor, Ethel West, Carl Dunlap, and Erwin.

SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT

Sunday school attendance reports from Pampa churches yesterday were as follows:

First Baptist church, 717; Central Baptist, 122; First Methodist, 460; Presbyterian, 102; First Christian, 371. First Baptist church also reported 107 in the evening training service.

Dan Williams is in Lubbock on business.

FIFTH AVENUE FASHIONS

By ELLEN WORTH

Swagger Lines Call For White Linen

If there were a prize for the best fashion of 1933 it would go to the white linen swagger coat. It is inspired by the motor duster of the gay nineties but it is as modern as television and as exciting as aviation. Life just isn't complete without it this year. You'll realize this fully when you consider the possibilities of this attractive model.

First, it is becoming to everyone and it looks different on everyone. Then, it is smart with all your clothes from tailored tennis frocks to the most formal evening gowns. It's stunning over black but there's not a color it can't be worn with. So whatever your wardrobe, whatever your budget, you simply must have this coat. And you can have it—it's as simple as a frock to make. The straight, easy lines do away with fitting. The broad revers and big patch pockets are details that anyone can handle. The pattern envelope tells just the amount of material you require.

Pattern No. 5275 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18, 20 years, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 bust.

PLAY WILL BE ONE H. D. CLUB PROJECT SOON

ACTIVITIES OF WEEK ANNOUNCED BY WOMEN

A REPEAT performance of their play, "Love a la Carte," will be presented by the Merten Home Demonstration club Friday evening at the Merten school building.

This play was given a few weeks ago, during the busy harvest season when many residents of the community were unable to attend. Small admission fees will be charged, and proceeds used in club projects. The public is invited.

The Merten Home Demonstration club will meet Wednesday for a morning demonstration at the home of Mrs. E. R. Sunkel. Miss Ruby M. Adams, agent, will be in charge of the lesson on making jelly and preserves.

Members are asked to be present promptly at 9 o'clock.

This meeting will follow a recent business session of the club at the home of Mrs. G. G. Frasier. At that time Mrs. Frasier was elected the club delegate to the A. & M. college short course this month.

Mrs. Roy Showers was welcomed as a new member, and Mrs. Amos Walker was a guest. Other members present were Mesdames O. G. Smith, V. J. Sastika, E. R. Sunkel, N. B. Cude, and the hostess.

All-Day Meeting Held By Rebekahs

Members of the Rebekah club and a number of friends attended an all-day quilting and covered dish luncheon at the home of Mrs. Chris Baer last week.

Mrs. J. J. Spangler will be hostess at the next meeting, July 25.

Those present at Baer's home were Mesdames O. G. Smith, Cecil Saunders, J. G. Gantz, Guy C. Lumsford, D. L. Lumsford, G. W. Lumsford, Amos Walker, Nat Lumsford, T. B. Solomon, R. S. Walker, W. J. FOUR-HIT PITCHING AND ROADRUNNER CLOUTERS BEAT AMARILLO CLUB 11-3

LEAD TAKEN IN FOURTH INNING BY CITY TEAM

FIRST THREE FRAMES YIELD NO RUNS NOR HITS

The Danziger Roadrunners continued their victory march yesterday afternoon at Danziger park when they downed the Amarillo Merchants 11 to 3 in a game that was featured by hard hitting and good pitching by Stewart. The Pampa hurler outlasted two Amarillo moundsmen and allowed only four hits. However, his wildness caused considerable trouble.

Cox and Phillips, two new additions to the Danziger team, were in the van of the Danziger attack with three hits each on four trips to the plate. The Amarillo lineup presented a number of veterans who failed to get started.

The new grandstand, the first to be erected in Pampa, was filled with fans and cars lined the playing field. It was really the dedication game although a game was played last Sunday while the park was under construction.

It was a ball game for just three innings. In that time only nine batters faced each pitcher. Sullivan singled to right in the second inning, but was wiped up in a fast double play, Stewart to Phillips to Cox. The Roadrunners got two men on in the first inning, never the less only three men faced the pitcher. Thomas led off with a single to left, but was caught off with a first base by Martin, and Wilson was safe on Martin's bad throw, but was caught stealing. Phillips tripped down in the second, Phillips tripped to right, but a fast double play started by Williamson's good stop of Lister's grounder, Williamson to Coleman to Sullivan, caught Phillips at the plate.

The Roadrunners took a 3-run lead in the fourth and were never headed after that. With one gone, Bacus doubled to left and took third when Federer made a pretty stop of Wilson's hard smash. Cox scored Bacus with a single to left and went to third on Phillips one baser to right. Phillips stole second without drawing a throw and Lister scored with a triple to right, but a fast double play started by Williamson's good stop of Lister's grounder, Williamson to Coleman to Sullivan, caught Phillips at the plate.

The Roadrunners took a 3-run lead in the fourth and were never headed after that. With one gone, Bacus doubled to left and took third when Federer made a pretty stop of Wilson's hard smash. Cox scored Bacus with a single to left and went to third on Phillips one baser to right. Phillips stole second without drawing a throw and Lister scored with a triple to right, but a fast double play started by Williamson's good stop of Lister's grounder, Williamson to Coleman to Sullivan, caught Phillips at the plate.

The Merchants, aided by Hickey's error and Stewart's wildness, made their only threat in the sixth. With one down, Holland singled to right and took second on Coleman's infield out. Williamson was safe on Hickey's fumble, which would have retired the side without a score. The error must have upset Stewart because he walked Smith to fill the bases and followed with a base on balls to Sullivan, forcing in Holland. Martin did his best to win his own game by hitting a single to right, scoring Williamson and Smith, but a strike ended the rally with a high foul to Hickey.

The lucky seventh was beneficial to the Roadrunners. Liggett walked and went to third on Hickey's double to right. With the squeeze play on tap, Martin pitched high and outside to Stewart who made no effort to hit the ball. As a result, Liggett was trapped at the plate, Hickey going to third on the play, whence he scored on the next pitch which was a wild one. Stewart started the rally all over with a double to right center. He scored and Thomas was safe on Holland's error. Thomas was out stealing, but Bacus started the rally for the third time in the same inning with a walk. Wilson singled to center and Cox scored both runners with a single to left. At this point Terry relieved Martin in the box. Phillips promptly greeted him with a triple to right center and Lister followed with a home run, the first on the new diamond, over the left field fence, whereupon Terry decided that as a pitcher he would make a good outfielder and returned to his post in center field, Martin returning to the box. Liggett, up for the second time, singled to left, but Hickey ended the frame with a fly to Terry in center.

The two new additions to the Roadrunners line-up, Phillips at short and Cox at first base, looked good both in the field and at the plate. Phillips collected two triples and a single out of four tries and Cox also hit safely three times, but limited his blows to one base each. The Roadrunners collected a total of sixteen hits and each member of the team hit safely at least once. Williamson's stop of Lister's grounder in the second, which started a double play and Federer's stop of Wilson's grounder in the fourth were the most spectacular plays of the game.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

THE PASSENGER PIGEON

WAS THE MOST NUMEROUS BIRD IN ALL NORTH AMERICA LESS THAN ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO! YET THE RACE DISAPPEARED ENTIRELY FROM THE EARTH ON SEPT. 1, 1914, WHEN THE LAST SPECIMEN DIED IN THE CINCINNATI ZOO.

OUR DAYS ARE GROWING LONGER, LONGER, MORE SLOWLY ALL THE TIME, THIS LENGTHENING THE DAY, BUT IT WILL AMOUNT TO ONLY ABOUT ONE SECOND EVERY 100,000 YEARS!

THE WORLD'S last passenger pigeon was mounted and may now be seen at the Smithsonian Institute, Washington, D. C., a grim reminder of man's greed. Audubon, the naturalist, saw single flocks of these birds which he estimated to contain several billion. Forests had the appearance of having been swept by a tornado after a flock of pigeons had roosted there, the trees being unable to stand up under the strain.

YANKEES TIE SENATORS FOR LEAGUE LEAD

WASHINGTON SUFFERS FIFTH DEFEAT IN EIGHT GAMES

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr., Associated Press Sports Writer.

The slump which strikes nearly every good ball club at least once a season, has hit the Washington Senators just when they seemed to have first place in the American league packed away in moth balls.

A week ago, Washington, with 23 victories in 26 games, had pulled away to a 4½ game lead over the New York Yankees. Then, as the Yanks started a streak, the Senators went wrong and today the clubs were tied for lead.

The Senators took a 7 to 0 whitewash from the St. Louis Browns yesterday, their fifth defeat in eight games.

Irving "Bump" Hadley gave the Senators only four hits, three of them by Heinie Manush, while Earl Whitehill went up in the air in the ninth and Bill McAfee also was hit hard to give the last place club six runs.

The only other American league game saw the Cleveland Indians defeat the Boston Red Sox 2 to 1 in 14 innings when Frank Pytlak and Willie Kamm nicked Bob Welland for singles and the former scored after Bill Knickerbocker's fly. Willis Hudlin held the Sox to five hits, only one of which came in the first nine innings.

The New York Giants, national league leaders, continued their career as "hittless wonders" by dividing a pair of 10 decisions with the last place Cincinnati Reds although they got only 15 hits in 24 innings.

The Reds won the opener, a 15-inning duel between Red Lucas and Bud Parmelee when Rollie Hemery singled George Grantham home. Manager Bill Terry's double and Johnny Vergez's single produced the Giant tally off Paul Derringer in the fourth inning of the nightcap.

Two of the Giants' principal rivals, the Chicago Cubs and St. Louis Cardinals, also split doubleheaders while Pittsburgh was kept idle by rain at Brooklyn.

The second place Cubs dropped the opener to Boston 2-1 when Wally Berger clouted his 17th homer of the year in the eighth inning to break up a mound duel between Ed Brandt and Pat Malone. Guy Bush pitched seven-hit ball and Woody English and Riggs Stephenson contributed fancy slugging to give Chicago a 4-2 decision over the Phillies in the first game, but the Phils piled up eight runs in three frames to win the second, 8-2 behind Snipe Hansen's six-hit hurling.

Wife Tells Post 'To Hurry Home'

NEW YORK, July 17 (AP)—The prospect of glory is not the only spirit that is sending Wiley Post hurtling around the globe. There is also a stern injunction from his wife to "hurry home."

Mrs. Post talked with her husband at Koenigsberg, Germany, by telephone last night. The conversation was terse.

"Well, how do you feel?" she asked.

"Well, hurry home."
"You bet I will."
"I'll be seeing you soon."
"O. K. So Long."

Mr. and Mrs. David M. Warren and children of Panhandle visited in Pampa Saturday afternoon.

Sikes To Lay Out Canadian's Course

Walter Sikes, well known Panhandle golf professional, passed through Pampa this morning en route to Canadian, where he will lay out a golf course. The "pro" will return to Pampa tomorrow morning to conduct his regular clinics. He has two open periods in his schedule.

Many Canadian golfers have been coming to Pampa for games and only last week the championship game of a friendly tournament was played here. Canadian has an excellent natural site for a golf course, Mr. Sikes said.

Upon completion of the course, it is expected that a large tournament will be held. Pampans are looking forward to playing the Panhandle's newest course.

McLean Juniors Win

McLEAN, July 17.—The McLean Juniors won a 9 to 3 game from Heald at McLean Saturday afternoon. Both kid teams hit the ball hard and there were several spectacular fielding plays made by both teams.

J. E. Smith and Nunley took turns on the mound for McLean with Harris behind the bat. Holder went the distance for Heald with B. Talley receiving.

C. M. Bryson of Longview, former Pampa resident, is spending a few days in the city.

LOVELOCK IS KING OF MILE

Record Likely To Be Lowered Even More by Bonthron of Princeton.

BY ALAN GOULD, Associated Press Sports Writer.

NEW YORK, July 17 (AP)—America, once the home of the world's greatest middle distance foot-racers hailed today a new king of mile runners, 23-year-old John E. (Jack) Lovelock from Dunedin, New Zealand, and Oxford University of England.

Running for the Oxford-Cambridge team in a meet Saturday against the combined Cornell-Princeton forces, Lovelock flashed his 133 pounds of racing energy past a quartet of amazed timers in 4 minutes, 7.6 seconds, beating Princeton's famous Bill Bonthron by seven yards and shattering the world record.

Bonthron ran the distance faster than any American before him, being clocked in 4:08.7, but the 20-year-old Detroit boy was unable to match Lovelock's marvelous finishing sprint after the two had raced stride for stride most of the way.

Thus, under circumstances as remarkable as any in foot-racing annals, the mile record passed farther than ever from American hands, he may get a chance to demonstrate it by racing that other American college ace, Glenn Cunningham of Kansas, this summer in Europe.

Cunningham, who set an unofficial American record of 4:09.8 at Chicago this June, is now abroad with an all star track and field squad, touring the principal European capitals.

The following table shows the progress downward of the mile record since 1882: 4:21 2-5, W. G. George, England; 1895, 4:15 3-5, Tommy Conell, U. S. A.; 1911, 4:15 2-5, John Paul Jones, U. S. A.; 1913, 4:14 2-5, John Paul Jones, U. S. A.; 1915, 4:12 3-5, Norman S. Taber, U. S. A.; 1923, 4:10 3-5, Paavo Nurmi, Finland; 1930, 4:9 1-5, Jules Ladoumègue, France; 1932, 4:7 3-5, Jack Lovelock, New Zealand.

THIRD PLACE IS SOUGHT BY DALLAS STEERS

BY BILL BARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer.

The battle for third place between San Antonio and Dallas started Sunday with a doubleheader that was split. The Missions slugged their way to a 15 to 8 decision in the opener. Dallas nosed out, 2 to 0, in the second. By dividing the spoils, San Antonio remained two games in front of the Steers.

San Antonio's victory broke a five-game winning streak for the Steers who Sunday made their first appearance here under Manager Fred Brainerd. The opener was a slugfest.

John Whitehead, Dallas right-hander, and Hal Wiltse tangled in the second. It was a close hurling duel with Whitehead reaping the favorable verdict by stopping the Missions with three hits. Wiltse held Dallas to four.

The second place Galveston Buccaneers had to go ten innings to win the first of a doubleheader from Fort Worth, 7 to 6. Two Galveston mound aces, Lefty Darrow and Hank Thormahlen, were used in stopping the Cats who got twelve hits and played errorless ball against Galveston's twelve and three errors.

In the second game, Chambers pitched shutout ball until the seventh inning, when three hits and an error counted for Galveston's two runs, but the rally was far short and the Fort Worth Cats emerged with a 5 to 2 victory.

All other Texas league games were rained out.

DIES IN WRECK

DENTON, July 17 (AP)—J. M. Atkins, 50, was killed today when the automobile he was driving was struck by a passenger train at a grade crossing 4 miles northeast of Denton. The car was dragged about 2,000 feet. He was survived by his widow and five children.

HARRIMAN ESCAPES FROM NURSING HOME

NEW YORK, July 17 (AP)—Joseph W. Harriman, former head of the Harriman National Bank & Trust company, disappeared today for a second time from the Regent Nursing home, 115 East 61st street.

William J. O'Donovan, chief of counsel for Harriman, who is under bail of $25,000 on a federal indictment charging alteration of the books of the bank, notified U. S. Attorney George Z. Medale of Harriman's disappearance.

O'Donovan said that Harriman "slipped out" through the service entrance to the home, and entered a taxicab, that a boy who was close

Next Davis Cup Matches To Be Played Friday

AUTREUIL, France, July 17 (AP)—The United States will pin its Davis cup tennis hopes in the interzone finals this week on the same four players who conquered Canada and Argentina.

Bernon S. Prentice, in charge of the American squad, selected Ellis Vines, Wilmer Allison, George Lott and John Van Ryn yesterday to face England, surprise conqueror of Australia last week, in the interzone series starting in Roland Garros stadium Friday. Keith Gledhill of Santa Barbara, Vines' doubles partner, was picked as alternate.

Although the draw will not be made until later in the week, it was expected Vines and Allison would be given the two singles berths with Lott and Van Ryn handling the doubles.

England probably will use Fred Perry and H. W. (Bunny) Austin in singles and Perry and George Patrick in doubles.

After Friday's opening singles matches, the doubles will be played Saturday and the final two singles matches Sunday. The winner will qualify to meet France in the challenge round here July 28, 29, and 30.

SKIPPER GIVES SIGNAL BUT IT IS TOO LATE

LIGHT SEEN AS TANKER SINKS; BODY NEVER FOUND

CHARLESTON, S. C., July 17 (AP)—Survivors of stirring drama of the seas, 36 members of the crew of the Cities Service Petrol were back in port today.

Arrangements were being made to send home 34 of the men, who were aboard the tanker which caught fire off the North Carolina coast Friday and sank 14 hours later. Two other members of the crew, William J. Emsley, of Sumner, Mass., second assistant engineer, and Messman John J. Sandow, of Newark, N. J., who were badly injured, are receiving hospital treatment.

Survivors explained how Captain F. L. Sears of Dennis, Mass., reported to have refused to leave the ship, lost his life. He was thought as long as he thought there was a possibility the ship would remain afloat, they said, and arranged to flash a light when he left.

A light was seen as the tanker was sinking, presumably his signal, but efforts to find the officer failed. Members of the crew said he went down with $8,000 in cash, money being long to the ship and to men aboard.

The only other fatality was Geo. R. Binninger of Indianapolis, Ind., a wiper, trapped by a bursting steam pipe and killed.

Survivors were brought here yesterday by the ships who picked them up—the tanker Gulf Gem and the steamer Trimountain. They included: Sigurd O. S. Hellum, Galena Park, Texas, third mate, and the following members of the crew: Alexander E. Reichard, Watson, Ark.; William A. Rodgers, Watson, Ark.; Horace Balch, Woodville, Tex.; John E. Weston, Port Arthur, Texas.

people in the neighborhood said they heard a crash about 1 a. m. and believed it to be a thunder clap. Berry pickers declared they heard the drone of a machine at 5 o'clock.

The bodies of the two aviators, covered by a tarpaulin, rested beneath the trees.

NEW YORK, July 17 (AP)—Stephen Darius and Stanley Girenas, Lithuanian-American fliers who crashed to their death in Pomerania today, started their attempt to fly non-stop to Lithuania without the knowledge or approval of the government.

They had waited here since May 7 to begin the flight to their native land, but never had obtained permission to fly over or land in other countries. This failure was due to the fact that they would not or could not pay the $100 or so cable tolls asking permission.

WETS LIKELY TO PROVIDE FOE FOR SENATOR CONNALLY IN 1934

BL. R. W. RAREY.

AUSTIN, July 17 (AP)—Senator Tom Connally's recent declaration that he, personally, would vote against repealing the eighteenth amendment was food for the political forecasters.

At the recent anti-prohibition convention here there were rumblings of opposition for the junior United States senator from Texas.

There was talk of bringing out a "wet" to measure swords with him in 1934. Congressman Joseph Weldon Bailey was boosted by Frost Doodhull, county judge of Bexar county, as an ideal candidate against the Marlin man. Other names were mentioned, including State Senator W. K. Hopkins of Gonzales, A. J. Wirtz of Seguin, Wright Morrow of Houston and James E. Ferguson, former governor.

Incidentally, Bailey and Morrow were listed by the dopesters as likely aspirants for the governorship next year. That's something for them to decide: whether to run for United States senator or governor, or either.

All of which recalls that James V. Alfred, attorney general, has a decision to make, whether he shall ask for election to the governor's office or the Connally seat in the national congress.

Alfred went to Mexico recently for a fishing trip ostensibly, but many of his friends said he absented and secluded himself in a quiet spot in Mexico to calmly think out his political future. While there he came in contact with some poison ivy and as a result he was obliged to do some reflecting while quarantined at home with the uncomfortable skin rash that results from poison ivy.

even smaller in number than now. Pegging prices at cost or just above is of course necessary if business is to survive. Fair trade practices, tied up in codes approved by Uncle Sam, will make fair prices possible—but NOT GET-RICH-QUICK PRICES. Below-cost selling and driving prices down by reducing salaries to beggar's pittance have demonstrated their devastating effect. When one firm does this, others inevitably follow. The firm initiating the move may profit for a day, but wage earners pay for this folly through months and years of economic slavery.

QUOTING THE GENERAL
General Hugh Johnson, who is setting up the industrial recovery act machinery, recently wrote as follows:
"Sound prosperity is in watching over distribution of income, to see that each worker gets back a sufficient share of what he himself produced to enable him to buy a reasonable share of his necessities produced by the rest of the workers."
"Simple, yet it is a stiff job to work out these aims in terms of pay roll figures and price levels in each industry in each town."
"To make a start, and to put some sort of bottom under the whole effort, I have made as a general suggestion, without commitment, and especially to help the widely scattered smaller businesses in their thinking, the average figure of 32 hours for the work week at not less than 45 cents an hour for the lowest paid class of workers, as a general basis to start the recovery effort. That's thrown out as something concrete for our new industrial self-government to chew on, as an appetizer."
"It can be translated into fact in every community, step by step, as fast as local leaders go to it with confidence, public spirit and guts. This whole recovery administration is a challenge to the self-governing capacity of management and labor everywhere."

John Garner At Uvalde Gets 500 Letters Per Day

UVALDE, July 17 (AP)—The vice-president of the United States, John N. Garner, is said to be finding it difficult to obtain much rest during his vacation. His mail consists of about 500 letters daily; he receives dozens of telegrams each day at his home, 333 Park street.

Although he talks freely with friends, Mr. Garner is giving no interviews to the press these days.

Peter Walcott, one of Mr. Garner's best friends, Jake Schwartz, merchant, and Ross Brumfield, garage man, are among those who have received letters soliciting their influence in securing appointments thru Mr. Garner.

Walcott says Mr. Garner has changed.

"I can't get an argument out of him these days," he says. "When he was speaker of the house, he was ready to take me on, but now that is over in the senate, he's different. He's peaceful."

No one in Uvalde has received a government job, but the federal building is getting a new roof.

The letters and telegrams which accordance with the terms of the enactment, under which that desirable end may be achieved. What I believe is most important to us locally, is the statement issued by the president immediately after affixing his signature to the bill on June 16. It is recommended that prices be kept as low as consistent with rising costs—even at expense of profits so that higher wages can be used to buy more things and thus afford employment to increasing numbers.

The statement on the point (quoted from the Chicago Tribune) follows: "I am fully aware that wage increases will eventually raise costs, but I ask that management give first consideration to the improvement of operating figures by greatly increased sales to be expected from the rising purchasing power of the public. That is good economics and good business. The aim of this whole effort is to restore our domestic market by raising its vast consuming capacity. If we now inflate prices as fast and as far as increase wages, the whole project will be set at naught."

"We cannot hope for the full effect of this plan unless, in these first critical months, and even at the expense of full initial profit, we defer price increases as long as possible. If we can start a strong, sound, upward spiral of business activity, our industries will have little doubt of black ink operations in the last quarter of this year. The pent-up demand of this people is great, and if we can release it on so broad front we need not fear a lagging recovery. There is greater danger of too much feverish speed."

The act gives the president wide authority to establish the necessary agencies in the effectuation of the objects of the law. It provides for executive approval or rejection of codes of fair competition among the members of trade or individual groups or associations. Such groups must not impose inequitable restrictions as to membership, and must not create monopolies, nor discriminate against small enterprises. Substantial penalties are provided for those who violate the proposed codes. Manufacturers are urged to study the cost of production and distribution of their articles. Then let us here locally not jump at the conclusion that we must immediately raise prices of our merchandise on the shelves, let us rather heed the warning of the president and not inflate prices at present but rather increase wages, which in some of our local institutions are terrifically small. Let us stop cut-throat competition.

We are looking for a continued rise in business with the utmost confidence, and as that rise continues we will each of us share in the wholesome prosperity of our country in the proportion to which we have contributed to that prosperity. If we each of us regard the industrial recovery act as a personal act which is necessary to each one of us and not purely an act of congress, it will bear the fruits which are expected from it.

QUOTING THE PRESIDENT
A reader of this column writes us as follows, in part:
The chief object of the national industrial recovery bill is to create employment on a wage level of a comfortable living for workers. It is in form a mandate to industrial management to formulate and establish in the respective industries, codes of principle and practice in keep pouring in make it difficult for Mrs. Garner to obtain much rest or enjoy her vacation back home. She has had to hire a stenographer to help her.
