TWINKLES
We read of an ideal civic organization the other day. It has no president, but every member is a vice president in charge of something. We commend this idea as a means of halting detrimental politics.

Our congratulations go to Miss Yedda Stein, who has been awarded the Prather scholarship by the University of Texas. We'll say this: The chief beneficiary of the arrangement will be the University of Texas. Pampa high will be well represented.

Another Pampa high scholar at Texas will be George Keasbey, who has a 4-year average of better than 95. The university is fortunate.

This Pampa went through the city-rural frolic without being defeated at pitching washers. We know our washers, but we make no claim to skill in pitching real dollars.

We commend a city plan, tentative, of sweeping the streets by hand to give more jobs to a few more men. And if we have another burglary epidemic, why not place look-outs all over the city to turn in alarms at night?

HERE WE COME!
Alex Schneider, get ready for a capacity crowd at dinner. The Marvin Jones banquet is as good as "sold out," and there won't be any standing room, either. It could be a politician's paradise, but the sponsoring Junior Chamber of Commerce will have none of that. The people want a report on the new deal at Washington and they are going to get just that.

SMALLPOX DECLINES
Incidence of smallpox declined 37 per cent in 1931, 56 per cent in 1932, compared with 1930 and it is significant that more than 90 per cent of 12,784 cases reported in the United States in 1932 occurred in less than half the 44 states, according to figures just received from the Metropolitan Life Insurance company. South Dakota alone reported 1,800 cases. Vermont has reported 900 cases of smallpox in the last four years, although that is the smallest state. In the neighboring states of New England, New York and the Province of Quebec, there were fewer cases per year than in Vermont. It is explanatory to say that Vermont has no compulsory vaccination law. The vaccination of school children for smallpox seems justified by the statistics.

NOTES ON FINANCING
Since we entered the world war in 1917, over $22,000,000,000 have been taken out of industry, commerce, and the mortgage market, and tied up in government securities, on the pretext that the government must borrow that it spends above its tax income. Experience shows that sufficient surplus taxes cannot be collected to pay off these bonds and pay interest on them besides. If big finance will withdraw its open and undercover opposition, the five vitally important objectives can be accomplished by refunding these interest-bearing government securities with treasury notes or currency. The farm bill already authorized the president to do this up to $3,000,000,000. This currency to be amortized four per cent annually. Here are the benefits:
1. Save $800,000,000 annual in-

CITES STATE LAW AS BASIS OF OIL ORDER

EFFORT MADE TO PUT FLOODED MARKET UNDER CONTROL

WASHINGTON, July 12 (AP)—President Roosevelt today issued an executive order prohibiting the transportation of oil in interstate commerce which is produced or withdrawn from storage in excess of the amount permitted "by any state law."

The order was issued under the authority provided by the oil provision in the industrial control bill just enacted. It is one of the first efforts by the federal government to extend its control over the flooded oil market. The executive order of the president reads:

"By virtue of the authority vested in me by the act of congress entitled an act to encourage national industrial recovery, to foster fair competition, and to provide for the construction of certain useful public works, and for other purposes, approved June 16, 1933, (public No. 67, 73rd congress), the transportation in interstate and foreign commerce of petroleum and the products thereof produced or withdrawn from storage in excess of the amount permitted to be produced or withdrawn from storage by any state law or valid regulation or order prescribed thereunder, by any board, commission, officer, or other duly authorized agency of a state, is hereby prohibited."

T. D. Hobart Is Pallbearer At Dallas Funeral

In Dallas this morning, T. D. Hobart of Pampa was to have been a pall bearer at the funeral of his friend and associate, Henry C. Coke Sr., chairman of the board of the First National bank. Mr. Coke was 77.

Other pall bearers were Ward Garrison, Paul Dana, Lewis R. Ferguson, J. L. Goggin, Harry Olmsted, Nathan Adams, and F. W. Marshall. Mr. Hobart arrived in Dallas on business shortly before Mr. Coke, whom he was to have seen, succumbed at Baylor hospital. Mr. Coke was co-administrator with Mr. Hobart of the Adair interests.

Mr. Coke was general counsel for a large number of corporations, including the General Electric company and the First National bank. He was for a time secretary of the Lone Star Cement company. He was born in Norfolk, Va., May 30, 1856.

Mr. Coke is survived by his wife, three sons, Rosser J. Coke, Richard W. Coke and Henry C. Coke Jr.; three daughters, Mrs. Alex Camp, Mrs. John G. McLaurin and Mrs. Julian B. Martin; a brother, Alex S. Coke; two sisters, Mrs. Louis S. Smith and Mrs. Susan C. Scott, and seven grandchildren. All are of Dallas but Mrs. Scott, whose home is in Norfolk, Va.

Active in Bank Affairs
Known as one of the most astute legal minds in the Southwest and one of the leading corporation lawyers in this part of the country, Mr. Coke interested himself alone in numerous other enterprises of his State and his city.

Few Tickets to Banquet Remain

With all arrangements completed and virtually all reservations sold, the Junior chamber of commerce which is sponsoring the All-Panhandle reception banquet today awaited definite information as to when the congressman could "break away" from Washington for a visit in his home district.

Mr. Jones' departure for the Panhandle has been delayed by reason of his work with officials who have the responsibility of putting into effect the farm legislation passed by the congress. Reservations continued to be made today, but only a few more can be accepted. The capacity of the dining room at the Schneider hotel is 220 plates.

FARLEY AND FERGUSON DISCUSS STATE POLITICS, REPEAL, PUBLIC WORKS PLANS AND AMON CARTER

Fort Worth Editor Is Referred To As 'Opposition'

WASHINGTON, July 12 (AP)—Postmaster General Farley in a conference with former Governor "Jim" Ferguson today gave assurance that the Texas administration would receive the same consideration at his hands as any other democratic state administration. The conference, chief objective of Ferguson's visit to the capital, lasted 35 minutes.

Accompanying Ferguson was Charles C. MacDonald. With Mrs. Ferguson, now serving as governor of Texas, the general political situation there, particularly as between the Ferguson and anti-Ferguson factions, and the prohibitionists and repealists was touched on in the conversation between Farley and her husband.

"I've had a very nice visit with 'governor' Ferguson and Charlie MacDonald," Farley told newspapermen afterward. "We had a general discussion. He said he was for the president and the president's program."

Ferguson said the matter of public works had been referred to casually. Asked if there was any mention of Amon Carter, Texas publisher, and prominent democrat, Ferguson replied: "Amon Carter was referred to in the general category as among the opposition."

I HEARD—

That a number of Pampans drove to Texola this morning only to find that Bill Murray had "put one over" by ordering out the militia and not allowing beer to be sold until permits were received. (I promised not to divulge the names of the trippers who later learned of the governor's proclamation declaring Oklahoma wet.) An early Associated Press bulletin received at THE NEWS this morning said "Oklahoma ordered beer and waited with empty stein today for Governor William H. 'Alfalfa Bill' Murray to take his mailed fist out of the bung."

Legal 3.2 Beer Foams In Oklahoma

MURRAY LIFTS BAN AS WETS' LEAD MOUNTS

EVEN RURAL DISTRICTS VOTE FOR BILL TO LEGALIZE BEER

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 12 (AP)—Governor William H. Murray proclaimed today that 3.2 per cent beer is legal in Oklahoma. In an executive order he announced sale of the beverage had been legalized by a majority of the state's voters in yesterday's special election.

The governor's proclamation was the signal for fleets of beer trucks to rumble into action, transporting cases of the brew from railroad cars to wholesale and retail dealers. Applicants for beer licenses swamped the offices of the tax commission.

Thus had Oklahoma, bone dry since statehood 26 years ago, joined the states in admitting the new beer. A rush of trucks started immediately for the railroad yards. National guard troops, called out by the governor last night to prevent opening of the beer cans, withdrew. Only licenses for selling of beer in bottles for consumption off the premises could be issued today. Licenses for restaurants and other dealers who expect to serve the beverage must allow their applications to wait five days for possible protests.

The governor's proclamation stated "it is clearly made known" that a referendum measure to legalize sale of a beverage "styled 3.2 beer, the same being defined as non-intoxicating," was carried by a vote of the people. The order directed the tax commission to begin issuing permits to dealers and collect the revenue authorized by the beer measure. The wholesale license is $250 a year and retail license $100.

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 12 (AP)—Returns from 2737 precincts out of 3113 in yesterday's beer election gave the proposal to legalize 3.2 brew a lead of 88,604 votes at 10 a. m. today. The vote was 202,778 for the bill and 114,174 against it. The final returns were gradually raising the huge majority in favor of the measure, although rural districts alone were being heard from.

Accident Victim Is Identified As Beech Baker

The man killed when he failed to "catch" a truck in White Deer yesterday afternoon was Beech Baker. A brother who resides in Haskell is en route to Pampa today. The body is at the G. C. Malone funeral home.

A man with whom Baker rode from Kingsmill to White Deer understood him to say that his name was Davis and when the body was first seen by people who knew a man of that name, they thought it was the same one.

Identification was made by a long scar which ran across the right cheek to the middle of the back, and by two teeth that had been worked on. Baker attempted to board a Farmers Oil company (Hereford) truck without knowledge of Frank Huckert, the driver. Witnesses said that the truck had passed the intersection and was picking up speed when Baker leaped for the running board.

Brand Given Bank Position

Sweetwater Man Appointed Bank Commissioner of Texas by Ferguson

FEDERAL FUNDS TO GIVE CITY ALL-WEATHER ROAD TO BORGER UNDER PLANS OF COMMISSION

Engineering Must Be Rushed Before State Can Let Contract—Reid's Efforts Recalled

Memories of the tireless work of the late F. P. Reid in efforts to secure paving for the Oil Field highway No. 41 were aroused today by the information that the state has decided to connect the Gray county paving with that in Hutchinson county. This lateral road from Pampa to Borger will provide a shorter, all-weather highway between the two oil field cities and traverse a picturesque section of the Panhandle. While many of the preferential projects will be let in contracts August 8, no engineering has been done on the Pampa-Borger unpaved road and presumably the actual work on this highway will be contracted for somewhat later.

TWO DOCKETS AND WHOLE OIL CONSERVATION QUESTION WILL BE TALKED ON NEXT FRIDAY

Representative oil men of the Panhandle will gather in Amarillo Friday morning at the Herring hotel to discuss problems which are arising out of the steadily changing conditions in the industry. Docket No. 11, calling for hearings on gas stripping permit applications, will be opened. Another docket will be 108, bearing on general conservation of oil and gas in the Panhandle field. The oft-repeated 10-day gauging potentials will be discussed again.

BUSINESS MEN WILL MEET AND DISCUSS FEDERAL CODE DEMAND

A meeting of Pampa merchants, who are more or less like other businessmen of the nation in that they are puzzled by the federal demand for trade practices codes, has been called for Tuesday evening by the Board of City Development.

The meeting will include "background" talks by Olin E. Hinkle, Travis Lively and Clarence Kennedy, and possibly a federal agent familiar with the national recovery act can be present. The meeting is intended to be informative and not controversial. There will be ample time for round-table discussions. With the federal government demanding that more codes be adopted, it is regarded as imperative that business men keep in touch with the situation. The whole Roosevelt program hinges on the recovery act. The Tuesday mass meeting of business men will begin at 8 o'clock at the city hall.

SCOUTS AWARDED 19 MERIT BADGES

Boy Scouts were advanced in rank, one receiving the rank of Eagle and 19 merit badges were awarded last night at a court of honor here. The Eagle Scout is Wendell Meek of Wheeler, who also received 4 merit badges. Other badges were given to Jim Bob Johnson 4, Carl Brown 5, Bobbie Surratt 4, Wilbur Irving 2, Woody Gray of troop 20 was advanced to second class rank, while Bobbie Surratt, James Arndt, and James Kidwell were advanced to first class rank.

George Limerick made an interesting talk on Scouts and their duties at the world's fair. The court of honor was composed of the Rev. A. A. Hyde, chairman; A. G. Post, Ewing Leach, Claude Riney, and C. J. Meek.

Corner In Rye Market Talked As Grains Soar

CHICAGO, July 12 (AP)—A corner in rye was rumored in the lobbies of the board of trade today as that cereal mounted 5 more cents a bushel for a gain of some 25 cents in three days and in some instances sold higher than certain wheat options. December rye ran up to $1.07, a bushel, a trifle higher than July wheat, and closed at $1.05, while September rye closed a fraction above a dollar and July at 98 cents. May wheat sold up to a new high of $1.15 and closed a half cent lower. Rye was up around 3 1/2 cents over yesterday's close at the finish, wheat nearly 2 cents higher and corn and oats slightly off from yesterday's final quotations. H. B. Book of Midland is visiting friends here for a few days.

POLICE ASKED TO WITHDRAW IN LUER CASE

REPORT O'CONNELL TO BE RELEASED IN CATSKILLS

ALBANY, N. Y., July 12 (AP)—Reports were flying today that young John J. O'Connell Jr., nephew of the upstate democratic dictators, would be freed by his kidnapers today after a ransom was paid. The Albany Evening News heard the abductors had agreed to accept $20,000, a small share of the $250,000 demanded. The paper also said the 24-year-old son of the eldest of the three O'Connells would be released in the historic Catskill mountains, south of the city.

Dan O'Connell, one of the uncles, and the father of the hostage, were away from Dan's Heiderberg mountain retreat all of the morning. A friend at the camp said they were "out for a ride." All at this remote spot, about 20 miles from Albany, were confident the boy would be released today.

There were persistent rumors that the kidnaped youth would be given his freedom in New York City. An individual high in the O'Connell family council, however, discounted this report and New York city police had no information to corroborate it. Young O'Connell was kidnaped last Friday morning.

ALTON, Ill., July 12 (AP)—Hoping that the kidnapers of August Luer, wealthy 77-year-old banker and meat packer might begin their negotiations today for ransom, members of the Luer family asked Alton police, county authorities and the state highway patrol to drop their search for the abductors and withdraw from the case. At an early morning conference Luer's three sons, Herman F. William Jr., and Carl A., decided that the withdrawal of the police was necessary to allow the kidnapers an opportunity to arrange for release of their father.

S. A. Covington of Wichita Falls was here on business yesterday.

ENTERING THE PROMISED LAND

For long years both the great political parties of the United States have been giving positive pledges to carry some manner of legislative "relief" to the American farmers.

That pretty pledge made every four years was nothing better than a pretty LIE. The one "relief" carried by the federal government to the American farmer in a legislative way appeared in the notorious Hoover Federal Farm Board, and the net result of that "relief" was to provide a lot of professional farmers with fat salaries to disorganize and depreciate the market for all manner of farm produce and dig a half billion dollar hole in the public treasury.

But something has happened. Today the American farmer is getting so close to the promised land of Federal legislative relief that he can actually behold it with the naked eye.

How come? Well, the American people got so mad last November that they rose up and elected as president of the United States a man whom they believed would conduct an administration at Washington which would be everything that the Hoover administration was not. Their belief has developed into fact. Since the fourth day of last March President Roosevelt has been conducting an administration which is indeed everything which the Hoover administration was not, and the result of that administration is now appearing in the CERTAIN ASSURANCE that by the fifteenth day of SEPTEMBER—not some distant September but this very next September, 1933), the Roosevelt administration, under operation of the new farm act, passed by the congress and approved by the president, will actually REDEEM A PLEDGE made by the 1932 democratic national platform, and with the result that every American wheat grower will, on or before the fifteenth day of September, 1933, receive in CASH his share of the benefits awarded to wheat growers under the terms of the new legislation, provided he shall comply with those terms.

I have received a thousand requests from Nebraska farmers to explain what this new wheat administration branch of the federal government plans to do for the wheat grower. In effort to procure the very best evidence on the subject I have recently held many conversations with the one man in the United States better qualified, in my judgment, than any and all others to explain just how and to what extent the American wheat grower will receive benefit under this new legislation. The best qualified man is Hon. Marvin Jones, of Texas. He was practically the voice of President Roosevelt in handling all farm legislation during the late session of congress. He is chairman of the committee on agriculture in the house of representatives. He knows this legislation from A to Z. He tells me that he is not yet ready to issue a general statement regarding the workings of the proposed new law, but indeed I have not desired so much his general statement as I have desired him to give me a concrete example of the amount of ACTUAL MONEY which will be carried by the federal government to the hand of an American farmer who has been growing wheat during the past three years. I have figured that perhaps the average production of wheat by the average American farmer during the past three years has been about 2,000 bushels annually. And upon that assumption I asked Chairman Marvin Jones to give me his own estimate of the benefit which this new farm legislation would carry to an American farmer whose average production during 1930, 1931 and 1932 was around 2,000 bushels. Mr. Jones answered my question in a manner which I feel will enable every inquiring farmer to understand just how his individual status will be with reference to the benefit he will receive from the federal treasury. Taking the case of a farmer who has produced an average of 2,000 bushels during the three years mentioned, Mr. Jones said:

OUT OUR WAY ..... By WILLIAMS

"Assuming that 60% of the wheat produced in America is needed for domestic consumption, then this farmer's domestic percentage of his average production would be 60% of 2,000 bushels, or a total of 1200 bushels.

"On this 1,200 bushels he would receive his definite per bushel allotment, which, if 30c per bushel, would amount to $360. HE WOULD BE GIVEN A CHECK FOR $240 ON OR BEFORE SEPTEMBER 15, 1933. HE WOULD BE GIVEN A CHECK AT A LATER TIME FOR $120.

"This would not interfere in any way with the regular marketing of his current crop. He would sell what wheat he raises in the regular way and secure the returns thereon. The $360 would be paid him as a sum in addition to whatever he might receive for his wheat in selling the same in the open market. The regular markets would not be interfered with in any way."

I asked Chairman Jones to explain in the fewest words just how the funds to meet such sums would be raised, and his reply was that the funds would be replenished by means of a manufacturers' processing fee. I shall not here attempt to enter into details with reference to the processing fee, but Secretary Wallace has figured out that the payment of money under this act to actual wheat growers will not disturb the condition of the Federal Treasury, because ample funds will be provided for this purpose by assessing the manufacturers a reasonable processing fee with reference to wheat.

And now I am asking all persons who have written to me for information regarding the workings of the new emergency farm legislation to accept this explanation as best possible reply to their inquiries. I have said that Chairman Marvin Jones is the best qualified man in America to speak on this subject. I believe it. Furthermore, I believe in Marvin Jones, and indeed everybody who ever comes in contact with that splendid man instantly beholds in him a man who travels the highway of integrity, speaks in the voice of common honesty, and lives in the house of honor.—Edgar Howard in Columbus, Nebr., Daily TELEGRAM.

First Editor of Higgins Paper Dies at Tulsa

TULSA, Okla., July 12 (AP)—A heart attack today claimed Omer K. Benedict, 59, banker, former republican nominee for governor and pioneer Oklahoma and Texas newspaper man.

At the time of his death here he was vice president of the First National Bank and Trust company, which absorbed the First Trust and Savings company, of which he was president.

He was defeated for the governor's office in 1926 by the democratic nominee, Henry S. Johnston.

Benedict established the first newspaper in the Texas Panhandle, the Courier, at Higgins, during the 80's. He owned and edited the Oklahoma City Times from 1907 to 1910; at one time he was managing editor of the Tulsa World and was associated in publication of the Chandler (Okla.) News, first newspaper in the Sac and Fox country, the Hennessy Courier, the Daily Daily News, the Wagoner Daily Sayings, and the Hobart Daily News Republican, all in Oklahoma.

His widow, mother, two sisters and three brothers survive.

Government To Prohibit Bread Price Increases

LOS ANGELES, July 11 (AP)—Dr. retary Wallace telegraphed today to mayors of 49 cities in 25 states announcing that the government will use its full powers if necessary to prevent "unwarranted increases in bread prices."

He has received protests on "unreasonable increases" in bread prices in connection with the processing tax levy of 30 cents a bushel on wheat which went into effect Sunday.

Frederick Clemson Howe, who heads a section in the farm administration to protect the interests of consumers, said that "every effort will be made to check advances in food prices where they are justified."

Howe asserted that it is "obvious that dealers in many cities are taking advantage of the government's efforts to raise commodity prices and are endeavoring to exploit the consumer without corresponding gains to the farmer or the worker. Standard weights of the bread loaves are being reduced. An examination of price advances throughout the country show that they range from one to four cents on the pound loaf. The latter figure is an extreme example of unjustifiable increase."

HOTTER AT VERNON

VERNON, July 12 (AP)—The temperature here reached 114 degrees at noon Tuesday, breaking the old record of 110 degrees established June 24. Vernon now has had 100-degree weather or better for 21 consecutive days.

By the World FORGOT

A New Serial by Ruby M. Ayres

SYNOPSIS: George Bancroft writes her first love letter, and to a married man. The man is Nicholas Boyd, former film star who now is in Germany trying to have removed the error that has ended his career in the movies. As she finishes her mother demands that George show her the letter. George refuses and is sustained by her step-father Bishop. Later she tells Bishop that the letter was to a "very special man." She has been asked to go to a dance with Clifford Asher.

Chapter 33

THE PROPOSAL

GEORGIE stirred the ice in her lemonade and looked across at Clifford Asher with thoughtful eyes. He had been very quiet all evening, almost sad, and as if he were not enjoying himself.

With sudden impulse she leaned across the little table between them and spoke.

"You're so quiet."

His eyes met hers steadily. "I have been wondering if you remember that I told you this morning there was something I wanted to speak to you about."

Georgie's eyes opened wide.

"I'd forgotten," she said guiltily.

"I thought so."

He looked away from her into the crowded ballroom.

"Have you had enough of this?" he asked bluntly.

"But it's only twelve o'clock," she objected.

He made a helpless gesture with his hands. "It's such a noise, I can't talk to you."

"It's quiet enough here. What do you want to tell me? Is anything the matter?"

He turned his head to her again, his eyes angry.

"Yes," he said, "I love you, and I know you don't care a hang about me, that's what's the matter."

Georgie stared at him, and her heart-beats quickened.

"You mean... you want to marry me?" she asked.

"Yes."

He moved his chair a little nearer to her round the table.

"I know you don't care for me; but you like me a little, don't you?"

"I like you a great deal."

"Then couldn't you? I mean, won't you?"

"I don't love you," Georgie said.

"I know, but lots of girls marry fellows and get to love them afterwards."

There was a little silence, then Georgie said:

"Not if they love someone else—do they?"

There was an uncertain note in her voice.

Clifford laughed harshly.

"Do you love someone else?"

"Yes."

"Someone who won't marry you?"

"He can't. He's married."

"Would he if he married?"

"I don't think so," Georgie said truthfully, and then more firmly.

"No, I'm quite sure he wouldn't."

"And you're going on all your life hankering after a fellow who doesn't care for you?"

"It's not 'hankering,'" Georgie said. "I'm quite happy; at least I think I am."

"Do I know him?"

"No."

"Do you ever see him?"

"I haven't, not for a long time. At least it seems a long time," she added wistfully.

"And you're content to go on, hoping that some day he will change his mind?"

"I don't think about it like that."

CLIFFORD laid his hand over hers.

"Look here," he said. "I think I understand you. You live in the clouds—and dream. Aren't you dreaming now about this fellow?—Just imagining that you love him? You must want a home of your own, and a husband. All girls do. I'll be good to you, Georgie. You must know that, and I'm not badly off..."

"If you were it wouldn't matter, if I loved you," Georgie said.

He gave a little exclamation of pain.

"You never know a man till you've lived with him," Clifford said almost roughly. "You can't know me or how good I'd be to you until you try. Getting engaged isn't getting married. Get engaged to me and see how we get on. Lots of girls experiment like that, and I think it's only fair they should. If you find you don't like me—"

"But I do like you."

She listened to him apathetically, with a feeling of tears in her heart.

Why should the wrong voice always say such beautiful things? He said again abruptly:

"What's the matter?" he asked, struck by the intensity of her gaze.

Georgie did not answer him. She felt as if the world and all solid things had floated away from her, leaving her gladd and agonized, with only the words she had read on the scrap of paper blazoned before her in letters of fire.

"Can it be Nicholas?" Georgie asks herself in horror, tomorrow.

The little shop looked peaceful enough with its drawn blinds and dim light shining through the crack, and yet it was impossible to tell what sorrow and tragedy lived behind its walls.

She was in a mood to notice details. Idly she picked up a scrap of paper lying on the seat beside her; a torn fragment from what was probably the afternoon paper.

She looked at it with vague interest, then suddenly she caught her breath with a sharp sound of pain. Clifford glanced at her as he returned to the car.

"What's the matter?" he asked, struck by the intensity of her gaze.

Georgie did not answer him. She felt as if the world and all solid things had floated away from her, leaving her gladd and agonized, with only the words she had read on the scrap of paper blazoned before her in letters of fire.

Delegates to New Thought Congress in New York the other day witnessed demonstration which proved, to their satisfaction, that music cures headaches. But we still insist we've heard a lot of music that causes 'em.

"VANISHING TEAS" STARTED BY BAKER P.T.A. BOARD TUESDAY

PARTIES WILL BENEFIT FUND OF CAFETERIA

GUESTS TO TAKE TURN AS HOSTESSES IN SERIES

A SERIES of "vanishing teas" was launched yesterday afternoon when Mrs. A. L. Jones and Mrs. Claude Lard were hostesses at the home of Mrs. Lard for members of the executive board of Baker Parent-Teacher association and several special guests.

The series of teas will be given as a benefit for the cafeteria fund and the fund for school supplies for underprivileged children of Baker school.

Plan Explained
The plan to be followed in the "vanishing teas" calls for each of the 16 women at yesterday's event to contribute a dime to the fund, then to invite eight friends to a similar entertainment, bringing a dime each. The eight women will each entertain four, the four will each entertain two, and the parties will "vanish" as each of the two entertains one person.

Dimes collected this way are expected to add materially to the fund which means necessary food and school equipment for dozens of Baker pupils.

Plans for the association work of next term were discussed by Mrs. Roy Holt, president.

After several games were played, iced tea and wafers were served to the following: Mesdames Roy Holt, Earl Roof, M. D. Dwight, W. M. Moore, O. T. McKinney, Homer Simmons, Cecil Lunsford, A. L. Jones, members of the executive board, and Mesdames V. E. Fatheree, W. W. Beatty, J. B. Townsend, and W. B. Murphy, guests.

FIFTH AVENUE FASHIONS

By ELLEN WORTH

A Young Frock With Slenderizing Lines

Where did this idea start—that a slenderizing frock must be an "elderly" frock? It's ridiculous, of course. In this season of straight lines and flattering details there are plenty of "slimming" fashions for young women and older women with young ideas. This frock, for example, is just as youthful and becoming in size 46 as it is in size 14.

The slenderizing things about it are the vertical seams and the lapped closing. The youthful things about it are the crisply flared capelet and the fashionable sash that bows in front. Even the fabric is young and gay, a colorful printed lawn in the popular field flower design.

This is one of those simply cut frocks that almost put themselves together, so don't hesitate to try it if you are a beginner. The pattern envelope tells just the amount of material for your size. See our Fashion Book for all the latest styles for every occasion.

Pattern No. 5263 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18, 20 years, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 bust.

BORGER SENDS 300 HERE FOR REVIVAL MEET

VISITORS HEAR OLD FRIENDS CONDUCT SERVICE

A DELEGATION of over 300 from the Christian church of Borger attended the services at the open air tabernacle last night where the Vawter evangelistic party are conducting a revival for the First Christian church of this city.

The Borger delegation was accompanied by their band of about 40 players. They rendered several selections which were greatly enjoyed by those present. The Vawter party conducted a meeting for the church at Borger about a year ago.

Tuesday Sermon.
The sermon last night was "Equal With God." "Jesus is equal with God in that He has seen all the past," declared the evangelist, Dr. C. R. L. Vawter, in beginning his sermon. "He was present when the world was formed and has seen all that has taken place since. What does it mean when we take Him as our guide? It means that we are placing our hands in the hand of one who has seen all the way. He knows all the temptations and where all the troubles lie and how to avoid them."

"He is equal with God in that He can see into the future. We would like to pull aside the veil that hides tomorrow, but we can't. Old people speak out of their experiences and heartaches and try to warn the young so they may avoid the pitfalls of life, but the young call them old fogies."

"How much trouble might be saved if we would listen and learn by the experience of those who have traveled life's pathway ahead of us. Jesus is great because He not only knows the past, but also knows the future. He sees where I might stumble, and warns me. As long as I keep my hand in His I am in no danger."

ROOSEVELT ORDERS HIS RECOVERY CABINET TO 'WORK FAST'

Pampa To Have An Exhibit At Chicago's Fair

Pampa, through the West Texas chamber of commerce, will be represented at the Century of Progress exposition at Chicago with literature, a miniature exhibit, and her name in large letters on a relief map.

This announcement is made by Gilmore N. Nunn, local W. T. C. C. director, who said his organization had obtained space for an exhibit at the fair. Thousands of descriptive booklets about West Texas will be distributed at the fair booth.

Students of the engineering department of Texas Tech have built a huge relief map showing topography of this section and Eastern New Mexico. This will be a permanent part of W. T. C. C. exhibits.

PUBLIC WORKS PROJECTS CAN BEGIN AT ONCE

PRESIDENT TELLS MEN QUICK RECOVERY CHIEF AIM

WASHINGTON, July 12 (AP)—Activity stimulated by orders from the boss to cooperate to the end spread through the government agencies that are trying to restore prosperity.

The invigorated efforts centered about plans to get unemployment back at work and guarantee them higher wages, feed those who cannot obtain jobs, lighten the home owners' burdens, help the farmer, protect the consumer—in short, to make things as they should be.

President Roosevelt was making a last study of $200,000,000 worth of job-creating projects to be constructed under the public works program; the industrial administration laid plans for hearings on new work-spreading, wage-fixing agreements by major industries; the relief administration promised to care for transient needy and demanded that states help take care of the unemployed at home; the home loan board pushed its organization into a score of states; Attorney General Cummings was on guard against unjustified higher prices; the farm administration has pushed its crop-reduction program.

SHELL LOSES SCHOOL FUND SUIT VERDICT

JUDGMENT OF $81,000 FOR RENTALS AND BONUS GIVEN

AUSTIN, July 12 (AP)—District Judge Charles A. Wheeler today entered judgment in favor of the state school fund for $81,734.98 against the Shell Petroleum corporation, holding this amount to be due the fund from oil and gas development from public school lands.

The amount becomes a part of the permanent free-school fund.

Leases executed by land owners, who patented their land from the state, formed the basis of the suit. The state contended the school fund was entitled to one-half the bonus and rentals. The leases were executed under the relinquishment act.

Seventy-five leases in approximately 20 counties were involved.

Judge Wheeler sustained the state's contention that the land owners who executed the leases were not necessary parties to the suit. The Shell Petroleum corporation had sought to bring the land owners in under a cross action.

The attorney general's department quoted attorneys for Shell as saying the case would not be appealed and that the judgment would be paid.

Judge Wheeler also sustained the state's allegation that the school fund was entitled to one-half the bonus and rentals on lands that had been forfeited and repurchased under the forfeiture and repurchase acts of 1925-26. Many lessees had contended the state was not entitled to any of the bonus and rentals from this land.

The decision on the forfeiture and repurchase question affects approximately 2,000 acres. The court ruled that where land previously had been classified as mineral land, the state still owns all of the minerals and is entitled to the same income after forfeiture and repurchase as it would have obtained had there been no forfeiture and repurchase.

This is the first bonus and rental suit to be tried since the Texas supreme court ruled the state was entitled to half the bonus and rentals from oil and gas leases executed by landowners who held title from the state. Had the trial court held the land owners were necessary parties, it would have been necessary to bring hundreds of them into the litigation.

Similar suits are pending against the Humble Oil and Refining company; the Continental Oil company; and the Phillips Petroleum company. Pleas of abatement in the suits will be argued next week. The Humble suit is in Judge Wheeler's court while the other suits are pending before District Judge J. D. Moore.

James V. Allred, attorney general, said other suits would be filed in the near future. Ralph Yarborough, assistant attorney general, represented the state in the Shell case.

Radio 'Firehouseholders'

THIS GROUP every Tuesday evening keeps alive the Firechief traditions of Ed Wynn. Left to right, Graham McNamee, Larry Butler, the mascot; Taylor Holmes as Uncle Tex, and Gustave (Wamp) Carlson as Olaf, Swedish caretaker of the firechief's pets.

The Firechief's uncle has been in and out of mousetraps, fist-fights, debt, purple pajamas, typhoons, swinging doors and engagements with fat girls—but now at last he's actually in radio.

The far-famed but hitherto ethereal kinsman of the chief, together with the firehouse hangers-on who include the keeper of the chief's menagerie, comes before the microphone on the regular Tuesday evening Texaco broadcasts over the NBC-WEAF hookup.

The "uncle" almost literally takes over Chief Ed Wynn's toga, dressing in costumes of the gay Nineties and looking as grotesque as his nephew does in oversized shoes, trousers, funny hats and coats.

SooooooOOOOooooo, during the intermission (enter into the parlor, Graham) while Ed Wynn is taking a well-earned vacation after the 63 consecutive weeks of broadcasting which halted with his final say-soooooOOOOooooo on Tuesday, July 4, the much labored uncle takes up the "difficult" story.

At the conclusion of his vacation, the chief will be back again in his accustomed program, this time no doubt in a vigorously renewed attempt to curb uncle (carbuncle, get it, Graham; I didn't think you would).

The uncle, who has been the defenseless goat (go to it now, uncle) of many of the chief's most uproarious sallies, has ample opportunity to defend himself and his automobile against the chief and his horse. On the program (go Graham, please pay attention with Uncle Tex is a Swedish comedian named Olaf who appears as caretaker of the Wynn horse and the many pets which Wynn has used in giving Graham McNamee his course in animal husbandry. A juvenile mascot, Larry, helps round out the firehousehold. McNamee and Don Voorhees' band continue to occupy leading places on the program.

In their new program the sponsors establish a new vehicle of entertainment through the medium of the firechief's family, the uncle's automobile and the pets. The introduction of Uncle Tex, Olaf and Larry is accompanied by laughing horns and a bass-drum thud, and the dialogue is heard between numbers by the Voorhees' band and the firechief's quartet.

Principals of the new show are Taylor Holmes as Uncle Tex, Gustave (Wamp) Carlson as Olaf, and Larry Butler, 9 years old, as the mascot. Holmes, although new to radio, has years of stage experience behind his debut as Uncle Tex. He has appeared in almost every form of entertainment, starting with character readings and similar work at clubs and lyceums when such

EACH COUNTY TO SHARE IN RELIEF FUND

AT LEAST ONE JOB TO BE AWARDED IN 254 COUNTIES

AUSTIN, July 12 (AP)—A plan whereby each county in Texas will participate to some degree in the emergency highway construction program, made possible through a federal appropriation of approximately $25,000,000 to Texas, was announced today by the highway commission.

The commission voted to recommend that at least one project be assigned to each of the 254 counties, the commission expressing the opinion that the emergency construction should be spread over the state as much as possible, with work concentrated in areas where the unemployment was greatest. Areas his by the drought also will share more heavily in the appropriation.

Contracts for grading and drainage structures on highway 4 from 15 miles north of the Salt Fork of Red river, Collingsworth county, and for concrete paving on the same highway from the river south to the Childress county line, will be let as soon as possible.

Commissioner W. R. Ely told representatives of Stonewall, Crosby and Dickens counties the commission is not building roads to satisfy any chamber of commerce. "We're trying to build roads with this federal money to relieve unemployment to feed people," he said.

Location of highway 18 from Aspermont to Spur, through Stonewall, Kent and Dickens counties was ordered on condition the counties furnish 100 feet of right way.

The commission recommended that Crosby county's share of the federal highway fund be expended toward the completion of highway 24.

Widening highway 24 was designated as Delta county's primary project, because the project would furnish more employment than any other. Paving 154 from Cooper to Sulphur Springs, 18 miles was ranked next in importance.

SMALL FIRE DAMAGE
A city ordinance forbids the burning of trash in the fire zone and unless the practice is stopped at once, Fire Chief Clyde Gold will be forced to file complaints. Another fire at noon today resulted from burning trash inside the fire zone. The blaze 100 feet to right way, warehouse near the City bakery. Damage was about $10. The fire department answered the call and put out the fire with water from the booster tank on the truck.

CARBON SHIPMENTS INCREASE IN PAMPA AREA AS DEMAND GROWS

The carbon industry of the Pampa district has had a business revival along with other industries in the nation, according to reports gathered here yesterday.

The Berger district shipments last month averaged 50 per cent more than in the corresponding period last year, and the Pampa district has had a similar increase. Ordinarily, the seasonal decline in the shipment of the product to tire factories begins in May, but this year, although it is almost midsummer, there has been no diminishing in the number of orders.

Stocks which piled up in warehouses of Gray county carbon companies have been shipped to satisfy a growing demand, reducing the supply to some degree, but not enough to affect the price which has not increased.

Because manufacturers of automobiles reported startling gains in sales in June, that would naturally effect the carbon industry. In June, General Motors sold more cars than in any year since 1929.

Over at the industrial administration, prospects were brighter for that job-spreading program. Hugh S. Johnson expected quick submission of an agreement by which steel producers would fix minimum wages and maximum hours.

His plans were for a hearing on the steel code—representative of 95 per cent or more of the industry, measured by output—within a week. This steel hearing would run concurrently with that on lumber's wage-raising, job-spreading agreement, which will be put under review considerably. A preliminary list of federal public works projects proposed. Some could not be started soon enough.

Husband Kills Wife and Then Slays Himself

DALLAS, July 12 (AP)—After a bitter quarrel with his estranged wife, J. T. Hickerson, 40, of Greenville, shot her and then fired a bullet into his own chest. The woman was killed outright and Hickerson died at a hospital.

The shooting occurred last night at the Dallas home of Mrs. W. O. Bradford, a friend of the slain woman. Mrs. Bradford said the couple had been involved in marital difficulties for several weeks. Mrs. Hickerson came to Dallas yesterday and visited Mrs. Bradford. She had been at the Bradford residence only a few hours when her husband arrived. He asked Mrs. Bradford if he might talk to his wife privately.

The couple went to the upstairs room and talked almost two hours before the shooting. Occupants of the house said their voices rose to a high pitched scream. Just before the shots were fired there was a noise as if they were fighting, one roomer said.

Mrs. Hickerson, with blood streaming from a wound in her head, stumbled out of the room and fell down the stairs. Lifeless, Hickerson was found lying on the floor of the room, with a pistol by his side.

Detectives asked Hickerson why he shot his wife. She said he replied, "I shot her because she was crooked."

Justice of the Peace Ben Fly returned a verdict of murder and suicide.

The couple had been married less than a year, according to Mrs. Bradford. Mrs. Hickerson was survived by her mother, Mrs. John Hayten, and a daughter, Mrs. Garnet Danewood, both of Greenville.

Madman Killed In Night-Long Fight With Law

ALBANY, Ore., July 12 (AP)—A night-long battle between a madman and police ended today with the death of the man, who barricaded himself in the sheriff's apartment—a veritable arsenal.

Police identified him as Frank Stankiewicz, 22, who escaped from the Oregon state hospital for the insane.

The only other casualty was Harry Anderson, one of many residents who turned out to watch the siege. He was wounded in the right knee.

Tear gas and smoke bombs, hurled into the barricaded apartment, were sent sailing back wrapped in bed clothing, but their fumes finally overcame the gunman and he was shot down as he pointed a pistol at an officer who had broken into the apartment.

Stankiewicz escaped from a deputy, with the latter's pistol, when the officer momentarily laid the weapon down at the jail.

The escaped inmate had been arrested when he appeared at a farm house, with two rifles, seeking food.

Fred McCarty of Skellytown was in Pampa Monday.

entertainment was in vogue. He appeared with David Warfield in several David Belasco productions and was starred in "His Majesty, Bunker Bean," which enjoyed a long run on Broadway and on the road. He has also worked before the movie camera. e of his pictures being "Rugles Red Gap." The Texas company, sponsor of the new program, is represented here by Addison & Gunn Tire company, Bill's Certified Texaco Station, and Lee Waggoner.

BABE HUNT PUNCHES BAER SO EFFECTIVELY MAX CANCELS EXHIBITION BOUTS

HAND INJURED IN ROUGH AND TUMBLE SHOW

BAER LOOKS POOR AS HUNT POUNDS HIM IN 4 ROUNDS

FORT WORTH, July 12 (AP)—A weary of hot and dusty land travel, Jack Dempsey, Max Baer, and party took to the air today, leaving Fort Worth for Kansas City and Salt Lake.

Baer, his manager and his trainer flew towards Salt Lake by way of Amarillo and Denver. Dempsey took another plane for Kansas City, where he is to meet a young woman, Hannah Williams, whom he expects to marry in Reno next week. Miss Williams is a New York musical comedy star formerly married to Roger Wolf Kahn, son of Otto Kahn.

Because he hurt his right hand in a rough exhibition bout with Babe Hunt here last night and is tired of all other engagements and cancelled all other engagements and cancelled until time to start work on a moving picture in which he will play opposite Joan Crawford. A show scheduled for Wichita, Kan., has been called off, and Baer was of the opinion he would not go through with a tentatively arranged bout in Denver.

The cuffing Hunt gave him in four rounds here was considered to do with convincing Baer he needed rest. Baer looked bad. Hunt punched him so earnestly in the fourth round, when Baer's hand was hurt, that Maxie lost his temper and kept slugging after the final bell until the referee, who separated the men. He, too, got a clout among his black whiskers for his trouble.

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, July 12 (AP)—A rather indifferent stock market closed somewhat stubbornly into firmer territory today under the leadership of the buoyant alcohol and assorted specialties. Except in a few issues, the trading was not especially pronounced until the last hour. Transfers approximated 5,000,000 shares.

Selling was largely based on the fact that there had been no major reactions in wheat prices of late notwithstanding that almost unprecedented advances had been scored. Opening unchanged to 1/2 lower. Wheat afterward declined all around. Corn started 1/2-2/3 down and subsequently recovered much of the loss.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON
NEW ORLEANS, July 12 (AP)—Cotton had rather a disappointing opening today. Although cables were better than due and sterling was higher, first trades showed no change to 3 points decline. Prices were irregular, October trading up to $10.82, or 2 points above yesterday's close, while December was quoted at $10.96, or 2 points under yesterday's close. The market soon turned easier owing to disappointment over reports on the cotton acreage reduction program. October dropped to $10.71 and December to $10.87, down 9 to 11 points from the close of yesterday. The market became more active as the morning advanced, particularly after issue of the weekly weather and crop bulletin, which was more unfavorable than looked for and therefore was bullish construed. Reports also reached the floor that several states had completed their acreage reduction quotas and prices advanced until October traded at $10.94, within a point of yesterday's season high, and December reached $11.10, within 3 points of its 1933 top. These prices were 23 points above the early lows and 12 to 14 points up from yesterday's close. Later in the morning the market was somewhat easier owing to realizing and some long liquidation and there were reactions of 7 to 8 points from the best.

ROADRUNNERS HOPE TO PLAY AMARILLOANS

ANGLING FOR A GAME WITH EX-SANDIES OR MERCHANTS

The Danciger Roadrunners may play the Amarillo Ex-Sandies or the Amarillo Merchants here Sunday afternoon in the biggest game of the season. Team officials are in touch with the Amarillo teams and hope to arrange a game with one of the teams.

The Roadrunners were scheduled to play the Borger Carbon Cubs here Sunday, but upon learning that the Cubs was a junior team, they canceled the game. The Indians, Pampa juniors, are trying for a game with the Cubs, but those worries "want the world with a fence around it" as Manager C. O. Busby expressed the demand made by the Borgerites. The Indians play for the fun and experience and cannot pay out big money for a game.

Hickey, a third baseman, has been added to the Danciger line-up. He played his first game last Sunday when the Roadrunners defeated the Skellytown Oilers 6 to 1. The Roadrunners were outfit but took advantage of all the breaks of the game, coupled with heady base running and chances that proved disastrous for the Oilers.

The Roadrunners have a real pitching staff in Stewart, Thomas, and Godwin and a catching staff of Liggett, Lister, and Herrin. Lister holds down first base and Herrin patrols the outfield, but both can take their turn behind the bat.

Pampa fans are already talking about the team entering the Amarillo tournament which will be played next month. With one or two good utility players, the team should be a strong favorite.

Crawford Will Play Austin In First Cup Match

LONDON, July 12 (AP)—The result of the draw today for the European zone finals of the Davis cup tennis competition pits Jack Crawford, the Australian, against Henry W. (Bunny) Austin of England, in the first singles match tomorrow.

Fred Perry, No. 1 English player, is paired with Vivian McGrath, youthful Australian newcomer to the Davis cup contest, in the second singles match.

These pairings will be reversed in the closing two singles matches Saturday, with Austin and McGrath and Perry and Crawford playing in that order.

The British nominated Perry and George Patrick Hughes to carry the hopes into the doubles. Friday, but the Australians withheld their selections, pending the outcome of the first two singles matches.

Mr. Nagle said he had heard a lot about Pampa, the home of Bill Jackson, and took this opportunity of visiting here.

President's Son Greeted in Paris

PARIS, July 12 (AP)—Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr., son of the president, arrived here today in a second-class railway carriage from Le Havre, where he landed from the steamship Washington.

A big crowd greeted Roosevelt and his three companions who handed their own baggage from the coach and vainly tried to avoid public attention. They were welcomed first by representatives of Foreign Minister Paul-Boncour of France and the American Ambassador Jesse H. Straus. Then the cheering crowd insisted on shaking hands with the president's son.

Roosevelt thought he would remain in Paris a week, after which he may go to London to visit the world economic conference "if it is still running." Then he expects to go to Spain.

GIANTS SLUMP WHILE RIVALS MOVE HIGHER

By HUGH S. FULLERTON JR.

The slump of the New York Giants, a long awaited event which has been keeping the hopes of various other clubs in the National League alive, appears to be well under way. A losing streak which began when the Giants tackled a July 4 doubleheader at Boston has extended through seven straight games and now four clubs are closer to the league leaders than the Giants.

The Cards, by virtue of a 2-1 "gift" victory over the Giants yesterday are only 2 1/2 games behind. Chicago's Cubs moved into third place three games back of the leaders by defeating the Brooklyn Dodgers 6-2 while the Boston Braves were taking a 5-3 decision from Pittsburgh that left the Pirates and the tribe following at one-game intervals.

A combination of weak hitting and weaker fielding again wrecked the Giants' chances against the Cardinals. Bud Parmelee gave them more of the fine pitching they have had right along. Errors in the seventh by Travis Jackson, Parmelee, Bill Perry and Gus Mancuso gave the Cards both their runs and the Sox did the same thing even more emphatically to Al Crowder and the Washington Senators, winning 9-3 by scoring eight runs in the first three innings. The defeat reduced Washington's lead to two games.

The third place Philadelphia Athletics kept pace by rapping Clint Brown for three runs in the first and defeating the Cleveland Indians 6 to 4. The Boston Red Sox handed the Detroit Tigers their fourth straight loss when a double by Dusty Cooke led to two runs in the fourth and a 2-1 victory in a flinging duel between Bob Weiland and Vic Frasier.

Miller Knocks Out Israel For Feather Title

SEATTLE, July 12 (AP)—That part of the world's featherweight championship recognized by the National Boxing Association remained today in the possession of Freddie Miller but the Cincinnati southpaw had to twice knock out Abie Israel, Seattle Jewish flash, to keep the crown in a scheduled 15-round battle here last night.

Israel's title venture ended in a coat of resin on a new canvas in the fourth round when he was battered down for the third time by a crushing left.

The closest Seattle youngster came to the N. B. A. championship was his claim to a foul in the third when he was flattened with a left uppercut to the body. He writhed and rolled on the canvas while many of the approximately 7,000 fans yelled "foul," but Referee Tommy McCarthy ruled otherwise and ordered Israel to continue after a 6-minute rest.

Dr. J. S. Thomas, official boxing physician, said he "found no evidence of a foul."

After Israel had been counted out once and then given the rest, the battle was started again but it didn't last long.

Midland Solon Seriously Hurt In Road Mishap

SAN ANGELO, July 12 (AP)—B. Frank Haag, Midland attorney and representative of 88th legislative district, was in a hospital here this morning with a fractured skull and a deep cut in his forehead. He was injured last night in a collision between a sedan he was driving and a truck on state highway No. 9 five miles north of Sterling City.

His chances of recovery were pronounced slim.

E. H. Barron, Midland county judge; Paul T. Vickers, secretary of the Midland chamber of commerce, and Clarence Scarborough, Midland hotel owner, accompanying Haag, sustained only slight injuries. They were returning home from Austin, where they appeared before the highway commission. Four men on the truck escaped unhurt.

Rains Fall In Panhandle Area

AMARILLO, July 12 (AP)—Rains, varying from light showers to near floods, fell yesterday afternoon and last night in the drought-stricken northwest Panhandle area. Although the drought was not broken regionally, many communities were benefited.

Morse, near the south line of Hansford county, received an inch, Dunsmuir and Etter, in Moore county, one-half inch, and Boise City, Okla., one-fourth inch. Only a light shower fell in Dalhart, but at Ware, immediately northwest of Dalhart, the Denver railroad and state highway No. 5 were flooded from a near cloudburst. Rains estimated at one inch fell at Clayton and Des Moines, New Mexico.

Romero and Middlewater, in Hartley county, received rain, and the precipitation extended from Channing to Tacosca, but no official measurements were available.

Meanwhile, Amarillo sweltered during the second hottest night on record, with a minimum of 76 Monday night's 82 was the record. The forecast was "partly cloudy tonight and Thursday."

Qualifying For Tourney Draws Many Entrants

More Pampa golfers are qualifying every day for the Gray County club handicap tournament which will get under way Sunday morning over 54 holes. The 54 holes may be played any time next week, including Sunday July 23.

The tournament committee believes that nearly 100 local golfers will compete. Qualifying over 18 holes will end Friday night when the committee will get together and figure handicaps and set individual pars.

Feeling that every golfer in the city would like to compete, the entry fee was reduced to 50 cents and green fees to 25 cents, during play. The course is in good condition and several excellent scores have been turned in. A prize will be given for the lowest score during qualifying.

At least six prizes will be given for tournament play. The committee has not decided definitely on the number of prizes or what they will be.

G. W. Wills of Miami visited in the city this morning.

W. J. S. Thomas, official boxing physician, said he "found no evidence of a foul."

L. S. James of LeFors transacted business in the city yesterday.

ITALIAN AIR ARMADA ENROUTE FROM ICELAND TO LABRADOR

PLANES SOAR THROUGH FOG PART OF WAY

THIRD OF 1,500 MILES COVERED WHEN WIRE IS SENT

SHEDIAC, N. B., July 12 (AP)—The Italian air squadron led by Italo Balbo arrived this afternoon at Cartwright, Labrador, ending its flight from Iceland, according to a wireless report received here. The information of completion of the flight from Reykjavik to the Labrador port, a distance of 1,500 miles, and the longest stage in the entire trip from Italy to Chicago, was received at the Italian air base here.

REYKJAVIK, Iceland, July 12 (AP)—General Italo Balbo's armada of 24 Italian seaplanes left today on a 1,500-mile hop to Cartwright, Labrador, the longest leg of their cruise to Chicago.

The aviators, glad to continue their 6,100-mile journey even though their week's stay here was brightened by many entertainments, departed at 6 a. m. (2 a. m. E. S. T.).

Townpeople were astir at an early hour and a large throng was thrilled as one after another the flying boats rose from the calm waters of Vatnagarðar Bar and started out over the north Atlantic. They arrived here from London-derry, Northern Ireland, July 5, five days after leaving the training school laagoon at Orbetello, Italy.

REYKJAVIK, Iceland, July 12 (AP)—A message from General Italo Balbo who left with his Italian air squadron for Cartwright, Labrador, early today to the armada's base here a few hours after his departure, said: "All well. Flew during twenty minutes through dense fog. Now clearing up."

It was estimated that the Italian air fleet had covered one-third of the 1,500 miles to Cartwright when this wireless message was sent.

NEW YORK, July 12 (AP)—The Mackay radio received a message that the Italian air squadron of General Italo Balbo was sighted at 6:45 a. m. Eastern Standard Time today at latitude 57 degrees, 46 minutes north and longitude 46 degrees 5 minutes west. This would place it on a line due south of Julianehaab, Greenland, approximately 950 miles from Reykjavik, Iceland.

DEATH GIVEN NEGRO KILLER

Changes Not Guilty Plea And Confesses He Slew Woman in Apartment

DALLAS, July 12 (AP)—An irresistible desire to "get right with God" impelled R. T. Bennett, negro convict, to confess unexpectedly at his murder trial here that he strangled Mrs. Leona Buchanan in her apartment last December 1.

A jury which heard the negro change his plea of innocence to one of guilty after the trial had been in progress two days sentenced him to death.

Bennett, an admitted burglar, said he entered the woman's apartment and with the intention of robbing in. Finding her asleep, he choked her with a silk stocking and took two of her rings.

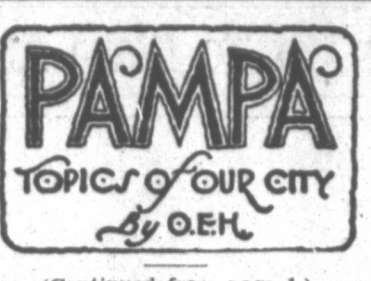

Solution of the case had baffled officers until the arrest last week of Bennett in connection with the slaying of Policeman Sam G. Lanford, who was shot when he pursued a negro prowler into a yard in the residence district.

At that time police said they obtained a confession from him in which he admitted shooting the officer and strangling the woman. But when his case was called to trial Monday, the negro repudiated the statement that he had slain the woman.

Late yesterday, when evidence was completed in the case and arguments had been heard, the climax came. A brief recess had been called and the negro was in his cell. The negro asked to see District Judge Grover Adams.

"Judge, I want to change to a plea of guilty," the negro said when taken before the judge. When asked why, he replied "because I am guilty."

"When I was trying to hide away there was a thumping in my breast like somebody was trying to get in and tell me something," the negro later told a newspaper man. "The thumping stopped when I told the police that I had killed the woman and the policeman."

2. Retire the national debt in 25 years, by amortizing the currency, so issued, four per cent annually. Thus, the interest that otherwise would be paid on the bonds, will extinguish the national debt.

3. Restore to industrial, commercial and mortgage investment, the capital now tied up in government securities.

4. Raise the standard of corporate securities, for without government bonds, big finance will have to invest in its own products.

5. Mortgages will again become preferred investments at low rates of interest.

Until congress authorizes the refunding of all short term treasury obligations and bonds with treasury notes or currency, no bonds or loans should be floated. All treasury needs should be financed through sale of treasury bills to the highest bidder, with a minimum price not make the annual cost exceed two per cent.

JOHNSON ON EDUCATION
Louis Johnson, national commander of the American Legion, wisely ranks education in first rank among agencies of national preparedness. Moreover, in counting the costs of the world war, he does not overlook the present disorganization of the schools. We quote a pertinent portion:

"It was inevitable that out of a cataclysm such as the world war there should come overwhelming economic disorders and political chaos. Many generations will pass before the price of that war has been paid in full. Every field of endeavor has suffered, but I can think of none that has suffered a blow more disastrous to our very civilization than that which has fallen upon our educational system. When education is put in disorder it is time, indeed, to take counsel.

"In hundreds of communities in this country schools have been closed entirely, in many more, school hours have been curtailed severely. Thousands of teachers have worked for months, many for even years, without pay. Legions of young men and women have been graduated from colleges only to find that there was no field in which to apply their energies. The effect of such a condition on our growing generations is appalling. We who had the benefit of such an education can bear the temporary suffering of this period, but those who are denied an education by it are handicapped for life."

'HOOT' IS BACK
Henry Will (Hoot) Pullingim returned to Pampa yesterday after a visit of five weeks with relatives and friends in Galveston, Houston, Kilgore, Dallas, and Decatur.

Spirituals by members of the Macedonia church will be included on the program Thursday, to which the public is invited. The Rev. J. J. Johnson, Macedonia pastor, said.

The speaker is employed by the home mission board of the Southern Baptist convention at Atlanta, to conduct work among colored Baptist churches of this state. He will discuss his work in the address.
