MACHADO FLEES FROM MAD MOB

THIRD MEMBER IN DEATH CAR IS CAPTURED

OFFICER FIRES A RIOT GUN ON DOWN TOWN BOULEVARD

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 12.—A sheriff who carries his riot gun to lawn parties chanced upon a gang murder today in time to visit swift death on two of the executioners and capture a third member of their group.

The victim of the underworld sentence, slain as the sharp-shooting Sheriff Thomas B. Bash went into action with his slug-laden weapon, was Ferris J. Anthon, a fugitive from a Chicago indictment naming him as a member of a liquor syndicate.

The men who died in the assassin's automobile, from which burst the bullets that killed Anthon, were Sam Scola and Gus Pasone. They had been identified as operators of night clubs here, and as henchmen of John Lazia, northside political leader under indictment for income tax evasion.

A ballistics expert who examined the bullet that killed Anthon said it was fired from a .45 caliber automatic pistol. That also was the description of a gun dropped by Charles Gargotta, captured by Bash when the gunman pleaded for his life after emptying his weapon at the battling sheriff. A companion of Gargotta escaped.

T. A. Mastin, prosecutor, said he probably would file a first degree murder charge against Gargotta in Anthon's death.

The staccato bark of firearms along Armour boulevard, in the downtown apartment hotel district, and the screams of a terror stricken woman arrested the attention of Sheriff Bash as he was returning with Mrs. Bash, 14-year-old Melva Taylor, and a deputy, Lawrence Hodges, from a lawn party.

Stopping his automobile not far from that of the assassins, Bash seized his riot gun and dismounted to investigate. He was immediately forced into the fight by an attack upon him from the killers' car.

To keep the killers from escaping the deputy swung the automobile containing Mrs. Bash and the 14-year-old child into the path of their departing car. Meanwhile the sheriff blazed away with his riot gun. The gunmen's car, its driver driving, crashed into the sheriff's blocking automobile.

"I noticed Gargotta crossing the street toward me and shooting as he came," the sheriff said, in describing the brief but sanguinary battle. "I pulled down on him but didn't shoot."

AMARILLO, Aug. 12.—Claude and Put and Take of Amarillo reached the finals in the eighth Globe-News baseball tournament along with Pampa by winning in today's doubleheader.

Claude eliminated Wichita Falls, 3 and 2, while the local nine defeated Texas Theater, also of Amarillo, 8 and 1.

Pampa will play two games tomorrow, meeting the local club in the first and Claude in the second. Victory in each game will end the tournament. If Pampa loses one or both of tomorrow's games, an extra tilt will be played Monday.

Wichita Falls went into the last inning today trailing by two runs. Francis, the first man up, knocked a home run over the left field fence. After one was out, Wichita Falls loaded the bases. Pitcher Hayes lined to left field. Watson made a shoe-string catch and converted it into a double play with a perfect throw to the plate, catching Windham, who had started home with the tying run immediately after the catch.

SOME FARMERS Plowing Up Too Big an Acreage

Surveys made during the last week by County Agent Thomas and George Briggs will speed up making reports on cotton destruction when blanks are available.

Data compiled by actually measuring land owned or farmed by those who enrolled under the domestic allotment plan will be used in making reports. In a few instances, it was found that farmers had plowed up one to three acres more than necessary of good cotton. It was their error and their loss, since they will be paid only for what they agreed to destroy.

Mr. Thomas is eager to close the cotton campaign so that farmers can be paid and he can turn his attention to the wheat plan. Agents will be called to Plainview this week to receive instruction on the domestic allotment plan as it applies to wheat.

QUESTIONED by police in the mysterious murder of Henry F. Sanborn, rail executive found slain in a Queens, New York, thicket, was his fiancée, Magahlid Almskaar, 27-year-old stenographer of Brooklyn. She is shown leaving the district attorney's office in Long Island City after the questioning.

LOCAL MAN FATALLY BURNED IN HUTCHINSON COUNTY WHEN GULF-JOHNSON WELL BLAZES

John Shackelford Is Victim of Gas Explosion

Jim Shackelford died in a Berger hospital yesterday afternoon from burns received Friday afternoon when the well on which he was working caught fire. Two fellow workmen, S. P. Woods and B. T. Mitchell, were badly burned about the head and arms but hope is held for their recovery.

Mr. Shackelford had been a resident of Pampa for a number of years and leaves a wife and three children. He worked on many wells in the Gray county field. He was with the Gulf Production company.

Cleaning out of the Gulf Production company's No. 14 Johnson well west of Electric City in Hutchinson county was in progress when an explosion occurred and fire followed. Gulf officials believe that rocks, forced to the surface by gas pressure, caused a spark which ignited the gas and caused the fire.

Funeral arrangements had not been completed last night. The body was at rest at the Carver Funeral home in Berger, but was to be brought to the Stephenson Mortuary here.

Ferrara Flees From Havana In Hail of Bullets

MIAMI, Fla., Aug. 12.—Orestes Ferrara, secretary of state of the fallen Machado government, flew here late today from Havana. He was fired upon when he left his native capital and boomed when he arrived here. He was to leave tonight for New York.

The former secretary said Machado had not been deserted by the Cuban army, but that officers, learning he would resign, took matters into their own hands.

"I leave criticism of Welles' policy to history," Ferrara said.

The Cuban and his wife escaped Cuba in a shower of bullets. Their plane was hit several times. "A mob seized their baggage as they prepared to leave. Their pilot, an American, shoved the couple into the ship and took off like a shot."

When they arrived here, a crowd of Cubans hissed Ferrara. One man challenged him to a duel. The Cuban stepped forward quickly to answer the insult, but police interfered. Ferrara has fought 11 duels.

The former secretary told a story of riot and danger which he encountered in obtaining and changing the papers making the change of government in Cuba today.

Scores of Cuban exiles, no longer expatriates of their island republic with the downfall of the Machado regime, prepared tonight to return by airplane and steamship to their homes.

Carlsbad Man Beheads Wife In Jealous Fit

CARLSBAD, N. M., Aug. 12.—In a fit of jealous rage, Angel Larez, 22, virtually decapitated his 22-year-old divorced wife, Mrs. Maria Larez, and then made an unsuccessful attempt to commit suicide at her home at Loving, N. M., early today, the sheriff's office announced.

Mrs. Larez had been separated from her husband for several months and had been granted custody of their two small children.

Mr. Jesus Trujillo, Mrs. Larez's mother, said Larez entered the house and without a word drew a razor and attacked the woman. Despite fatal wounds, Mrs. Larez ran out of the house and for a distance of 50 feet before she fell.

Two Million More Workers Brought Under NRA

FIVE BRANCHES OF INDUSTRY ISSUED CODES

MODIFIED FORM OF OIL PRICE REGULATION CONSIDERED

BY JAMES P. SELVAGE, Associated Press Staff Writer.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—A multitude of additional workers were swept today within the embrace of the NRA's blue eagle, but the problem of fastening codes of fair competition upon the nation's major industries still hung perplexingly over the national recovery program.

For five important industries Hugh S. Johnson, administrator, signed into effectiveness a modified presidential re-employment agreement fixing wages and hours which employers may adopt to obtain the blue eagle pending completion of permanent codes.

These were designed to increase the nation's purchasing power by millions of dollars and put thousands of workers back on jobs through their provisions for maximum hour regulation and minimum wages.

They affected the electric light and power, gas utility—including natural and manufactured gas, telephone, canning and construction industries.

In addition temporary wage and hour agreements were promulgated for employers in the paper and pulp, fruit and flavoring syrups, garter suspender and belt, and marking device industries.

In all more than 2,000,000 workers were affected, NRA estimated.

Carrying above the three score and ten mark the number of industries, employing millions of men, except for temporary wage and hour provisions in effect for petroleum.

Modified form of price regulation for the oil industry was contemplated by the administration as part of a trade practice program for the billions invested in the petroleum business.

This was the understanding given high quarters as committees representing the main factions in the industry were called by the NRA to meet here next Wednesday.

Pampa Payrolls Increased

Business Men Add 139 New Employees—Not Many Off Welfare List, However.

AN addition of $2,216.55 weekly to Pampa payrolls was reported by General Chairman C. H. Walker late yesterday to General Hugh Johnson, national recovery administrator.

The report followed a survey of compliance by local firms. It was shown that 187 firms had added 139 new employees. The figures are gradually climbing. No figures were available from the oil fields, although it was known that scores of men had been given work there. In some cases, former company employees in other fields were transferred here and given work. There is shortage of good rent houses for these newcomers, many of whom desire to live in Pampa.

The new employment did not, however, decrease the number of men on the relief rolls of the federal relief committee. Most of the registered men are day laborers, truckers and craftsmen, and there has been no demand for these under the NRA "blanket code." They will be chiefly affected by the public works program of road building which is scheduled to start in a few weeks.

Men who have been given work, as well as the women and girls, were persons recently "laid off" or those who had not appealed to the welfare board for aid. A similar condition was noted in the oil fields. Observers declare that Gray county, by an over-supply of common labor which probably never will be needed. The only hope of these men is a continuation of federal relief, which now is conditioned on approval of the proposed Texas amendment permitting the legislature to match the federal funds.

"America has gone to war," said Mr. Walker, chairman of the local organization of the National Recovery Administration drive. "Yes, that's exactly what has happened. We are at war against as cruel and malicious an enemy as ever attempted to riddle Old Glory. Just think for a moment of the suffering and death that has come from this frightful depression of the last four years.

"We simply must get our people back to work," continued Mr. Walker, "and the present drive will do it. Here in Pampa we hear words of praise and encouragement on every hand from those who have studied the plans and realize that they are practicable and economically sound. I refer, of course, to the two plans for the adoption of the industrial codes and the so-called (See PAYROLLS, Page 6.)"

HAVANA, Aug. 12.—Carlos Manuel de Cespedes, 62-year-old former secretary of state, diplomat of many posts and choice of all Cuba's political factions for the post of provisional president, tonight officially took over the office.

HAVANA, Aug. 12.—Gerardo Machado, abdicating today as president of Cuba, fled for his life in an airplane bound for Nassau in the Bahamas while angry mobs dealt death and destruction to his adherents and their property.

At least 21 persons were slain and more than 200 injured. More bodies may have been left on side streets, forgotten. A violent electric storm this evening only temporarily halted the activities of the demonstrators.

TOUGH TOUHY IS INDICTED

The Terrible And Three Henchmen Charged In Hamm Kidnaping

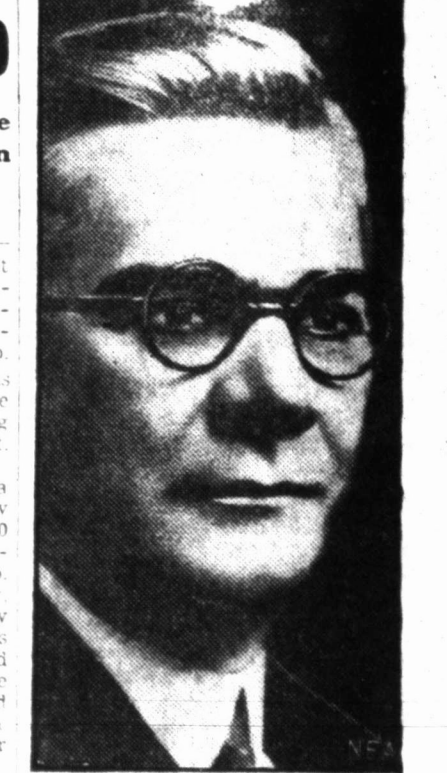

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 12.—The United States government invaded rangeland today with indictments under the so-called Lindbergh kidnap law against four members of the Touhy mob of Chicago.

Roger Touhy and three of his henchmen held in Milwaukee, were formally charged with abducting William Hamm, Jr., millionaire St. Paul brewer.

Two indictments were voted by a special grand jury convened solely to consider evidence in the $100,000 kidnaping of Theodore Hamm, brewer company president last June 15.

They named besides Roger Touhy, alias Robert Morgan and Harry Cobb, Eddie McFadden, alias Charles J. McFadden, Edward Burns, Charles Farland, Willie Sharkey, alias William O'Boyle, and William Boyle, and Gustav Schabel, alias Gus Schaffer, Peter Stevens, Gus J. Schaffer.

All were indicted on accusations of conspiracy to kidnap a person for ransom and transportation in interstate commerce of a person held for ransom. Hamm was held at most four days at or near Janesville or Beloit, Wis. The indictment said Hamm was chief witness among 15 to testify before the jury immediately after voting the indictments, following the presentation of evidence that consumed a day and a half, the jury heard Federal Judge Robert C. Bell increase the $50,000 bail on which each of the suspects is held, to $100,000.

Furr Case About Ready for Jury

GRAHAM, Aug. 12.—Arguments in the trial of Luther Milton Furr, 20, charged with murder for the shooting of C. S. Carlisle, Wichita Falls policeman, were practically completed tonight and the case was almost in readiness to present to a jury.

The trial began before Judge Alvin D. Montgomery of Wichita Falls last Monday, having been transferred here on change of venue.

Defense counsel attempted to prove the youth shot the police officer fatally and wounded his fellow officer, E. E. McCord, in self-defense.

Although defense witnesses testified they knew the officers shot first, when they halted the taxicab in which Furr was riding the night of June 27, the prosecution introduced witnesses the statements that contradicted this.

McCord recovered from his wound and was a state witness.

WARNING TO MEDDLERS: He that passeth by, and meddleth with strife belonging not to him, is like one that taketh a dog by the ears.—Proverbs 26:17.

Disagreement in Law

The recovery act, cites The Texas Weekly, says to the nation's industries: "You shall agree," while our state anti-trust laws says to Texas industries: "You shall not agree." Unless the Texas laws are changed, participation of Texas industries in the recovery program will be seriously restricted.

The Weekly believes that "Texas cannot afford to await the gradual discovery, through prosecution and defense, appeal and decision of many lawsuits, of the relative spheres of effectiveness of the national and state laws. Neither should Texas permit herself to be placed in the attitude of opposing a great national effort to terminate unemployment, restore the purchasing power of the people, give workers those things for which they have struggled many years, and meet an emergency commonly described as worse than war."

At the same time, any action taken by the legislature must be considered as impermanent and passed in an emergency. The evils which resulted in passage of anti-trust laws can perhaps be better controlled than by such laws as we now have, but they will be none the less deplorable when the depression is gone and old practices are resumed.

The State Amendments

The proposed amendment to the Texas constitution to permit the legislature to issue, if needed, up to $20,000,000 to match federal funds for relief of the jobless and destitute has been fully discussed in this column. Gray county has a big stake in its favorable consideration and should vote strongly for the amendment.

The first of the four proposed state amendments is that to permit the manufacture, sale, barter, or exchange of vinous or malt liquors of not more than 3.2 per cent alcoholic content by weight. We have heard no one express any opinion but that Gray county will favor this amendment. The proximity of state lines is doubtless a factor.

Another amendment would permit counties having 62,000 population or more to adopt home rule charters. This actually applies to but 13 counties, but the consent of the entire state is necessary. It allows charters adopted to county needs and finances. Its purpose is to effect a more efficient and economical government within the particular counties and to authorize (not mandatory) mergers of separate governmental agencies by vote of the people in those counties. This seems merely an extension of desirable self-rule. It involves no cost to other taxpayers of the state. It requires legislation to extend it to small counties.

One way to consider the amendment is this: Suppose county governments now were adjusted as to number of offices and expenditures to the size and geography involved—some having fewer salaries and fees to pay than now, some larger cities combining county and city functions to eliminate unnecessary limitations. Then, suppose an amendment should be proposed to set up the present antiquated system which takes little note of county differences. We think the present system would be, under those conditions, overwhelmingly defeated. People and places differ and voter should have the right to save money and adjust for efficiency if they desire.

The amendment relating to exemption or of homesteads from state taxation up to $3,000 of assessed valuation is merely corrective of an amendment adopted in November of 1932 and should be approved. The only counties affected are Aransas, Brooks, Collin, Duval, Galveston, Jeff Davis, Jefferson, Jim Hogg, Kleberg, San Patricio, and Willacy.

Several points in the amendments are worth noting. One is that the bond relief amendment provides that payments of interest and penalty on the bonds "shall never become a charge against or a lien upon any property, real or personal, within this state." Property owners' fears are, therefore, unnecessary.

Should the beer amendment be passed, regulations already passed would be vitalized. The Dallas NEWS' Austin correspondent has ascertained these to be as follows:

The proposal to legalize the selling of beer would be a modification of Section 23, Article 16, of the Constitution, adopted May 24, 1919, which prohibits the manufacture, sale, barter or exchange of any liquor "capable of producing intoxication." The Dean Act, enacted to enforce that prohibition of the constitution, declares that liquor containing as much as one-half of 1 per cent of alcohol by volume is capable of producing intoxication.

The pending amendment also directs the legislature to enact the measures necessary for enforcement and regulation, and to provide for local option in every county, justice precinct, city or town on the question of allowing beer to be sold. It provides that in counties and subdivisions which were wet when statewide prohibition was voted in 1919, the sale of 3.2 per cent beer would be made lawful by adoption of the proposed amendment; whereas in counties and subdivisions which were dry at that time, adoption of the proposed amendment would have to be supplemented with the consent of the qualified voters, expressed in a local option election, to make the sale of such beer lawful.

Anticipating adoption of the amendment, the Forty-second legislature enacted a statute which conforms to those requirements of the proposed amendment. It has been a mooted question whether the statute is a valid enactment; but lately an assistant attorney general has held that it is valid. If it is, it would be vitalized by adoption of the amendment.

State Tax Proposed

Aside from the sections which comply with the local option requirements of the amendment, these are the more important provisions of the statute, which, it is hardly necessary to say would be subject to change by succeeding legislatures:
Beer could be sold in barrels, kegs, bottles or glasses.
For the privilege of manufacturing the state would impose an

U. S. To Make 7 Million Gallons Of Liquor in '34

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12 (AP)—Seven million gallons of medicinal liquor may be made in the United States next year—exactly three and one-half times the amount permitted in 1933.
This increase was authorized today by the bureau of internal revenue with the explanation that it was required because of heavier consumption since congress relaxed the laws governing liquor prescriptions.
It was said unofficially that the total would have to be raised still more if the eighteenth amendment should be repealed, or if the demand for prescriptions should increase further.
Since 1929, 2,000,000 gallons have been authorized annually.
The present supply of medicinal liquor was estimated by the bureau at approximately 11,000,000 gallons of aged stock.
Custodians of the government's store of whiskey have forecast a shortage in the event prohibition repeal should be voted at an early date.
Of the 11,000 gallons now stored in government warehouses not more than 4,500,000 gallons could be used next year if they were aged for the required four years.

never use fresh pineapple in fruit jelly.

Hearings to Be Held

Manufacturers, distributors and retail dealers desiring to be licensed would have to petition the county judge of the county in which they wished to do business. Public hearings would be held on such petitions, and public officials or private citizens could contest statements made therein.
It would be unlawful to sell to minors. It would also be unlawful for any one engaged in manufacturing, distributing or selling beer to contribute to the campaign fund of any candidate for office.
No one engaged in the sale of beer as a principal business would be allowed to sell between midnight and 7 a. m., nor between midnight of Saturday and 7 a. m. of Monday.
Selling within 300 feet of a church or a school could be forbidden by local authorities.
A county judge could revoke a license if disorderly or immoral practices were permitted, or if the word saloon should be painted on any part of the premises where beer was sold, or used in advertising.
No blinds or barriers of any kind could be kept in the openings or doors where the sale of beer was the principal business.

JELLY MAKING TIME

Prepared for ratification by dairy representatives, the proposal is intended to provide relief for milkmen to offset rises in producing costs, particularly of feed, as a result of the drought in large grain and hay producing areas.
It is the answer of administrators to a complaint of dairy interests that the process of carrying out the farm act is proceeding at "too slow a pace."
As the latest development became known, the National Cooperative Milk Producers Federation, in a statement issued by Charles W. Holman, secretary, said "dairy farmers are restive because of the slow progress which proposed dairy marketing agreements are making under the administration of the agricultural adjustments act."

Skelly's Strong Team Has Lost Only Few Games; Lineup Is Changed.

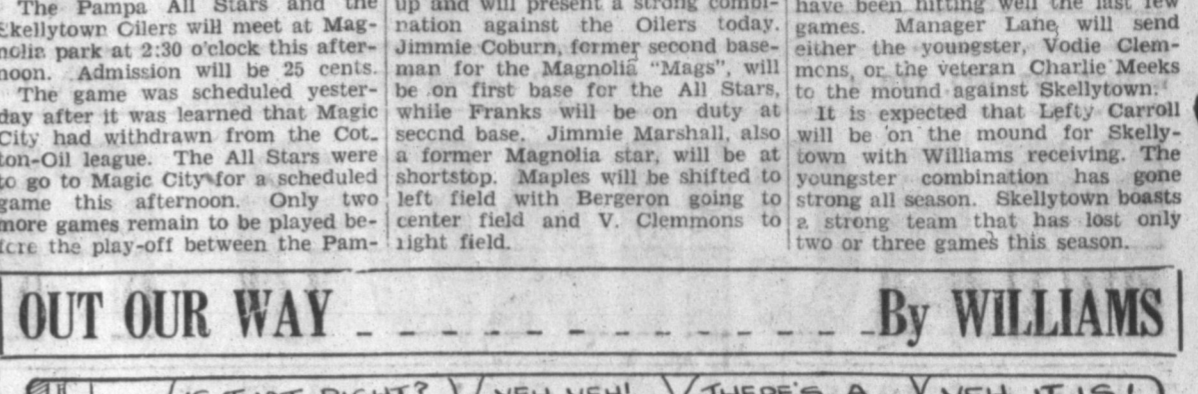

The Pampa All Stars and the Skellytown Oilers will meet at Magnolia park at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. Admission will be 25 cents.
The game was scheduled yesterday after it was learned that Magic City had withdrawn from the Cotton-Oil league. The All Stars were to go to Magic City for a scheduled game this afternoon. Only two more games remain to be played before the play-off between the Pampa entry and the team winning the second half of the schedule.
Manager C. V. Lane has made several changes in his All Star lineup and will present a strong combination against the Oilers today. Jimmie Coburn, former second baseman for the Magnolia "Mags", will be on first base for the All Stars, while Franks will be on duty at second base. Jimmie Marshall, also a former Magnolia star, will be at shortstop. Maples will be shifted to left field with Bergeron going to center field and V. Clemmons to right field.

WIN DOUBLES TITLE

NEW YORK, Aug. 12 (AP)—Ruth Bailey and Mrs. Katherine D. Feldinger, of St. Louis, justified their top seeding in the national public parks tennis tournament today by winning the women's doubles championship.
The changes are expected to give the All Stars added strength where most needed in the field. The boys have been hitting well the last few games. Manager Lane will send either the youngster, Vodie Clemmons, or the veteran Charlie Meeks to the mound against Skellytown. It is expected that Lefty Carroll will be on the mound for Skellytown with Williams receiving. The youngster combination has gone strong all season. Skellytown boasts a strong team that has lost only two or three games this season.

TEXANS WILL SEEK FEDERAL COTTON CODE

TEXAS COMMISSIONER OF AGRICULTURE LEADS MOVE

AUSTIN, Aug. 12 (AP)—Formation of a permanent organization aimed at promulgation of a federal code to fix a minimum price of 16 cents per pound for cotton was perfected here today at a meeting of Texas cotton farmers.

J. E. McDonald, Texas commissioner of agriculture, was instructed by the organization to go to Washington immediately to confer with federal officials on provisions of the proposed code.

He also was requested to invite agricultural commissioners and leading cotton farmers of the south to join him in pressing for immediate stabilization of the cotton market through governmental action.

McDonald probably will leave early next week for Washington. A resolution stating that the declining cotton market would prove disastrous to the south unless checked, was adopted. It suggested 16 cents a pound as a price at which farmers could pay their obligations and provide for their families on the rising commodity market.

It was the sense of the organization that any plan, however radical, be employed to stem the declining market and advance it to an adequate price level.

"I have plowed up 50 per cent of my cotton and if necessary I will plow up all the rest of it," McDonald said, his assertion meeting with a response of "so will we" from the audience.

Other resolutions adopted proposed:

That the cotton plow-up campaign be extended if necessary.

That provision be made for farmers to borrow money at low rates of interest with their cotton as security to enable them to hold their crop and prevent its being placed on a disorderly market.

That the government acquire a substantial portion of the surplus and apply it to uses not in competition with the new crop that a permanent plan be devised to govern agricultural production next year.

R. L. Battis was elected president and George Walling Jr., secretary. Both reside in Austin.

McDonald said the price decline would be "disastrous." He attributed the drop to manipulations of speculators and said it was time the cotton farmer put a stop to letting gamblers fix the price of the south's leading agricultural commodity.

"The rights of the south should be asserted and we should prevent a selfish and mercenary group from robbing us of the victory we have earned," McDonald said. "We have done one radical thing in plowing up our cotton and shall stop at nothing to gain our ends. If necessary, the government should close the markets to prevent price speculation."

Ex-Governor James E. Ferguson, husband of Governor Miriam A. Ferguson, advanced the code idea and recommended that President Roosevelt, General Hugh S. Johnson, federal recovery administrator, and Secretary of Agriculture Wallace be petitioned to draft a code for agriculture along lines drafted

Markets

BY JOHN P. BOUGHAN, Associated Press Market Editor.

CHICAGO, Aug. 12 (AP)—Brought to a standstill by measures adopted to meet the recent emergency conditions, all grains stopped today at the lowest prices possible until Aug. 16.

On that date an absolute fixed minimum level of quotations will be no longer in effect and trade predictions were numerous today that the markets would then quickly right themselves. Talk was general that any further declines in grain values appeared likely to result in an excellent class of buying, as many traders of late had remained apart from grain operations, while prices have been subject not merely to a daily 5-cent limit up or down, but banned altogether from going below the closing level of July 31.

In something of a general selling rush at the start today simultaneous with almost a complete absence of buyers, every kind of grain quickly reached the July 31 minimum, and the markets remained in a deadlock the rest of the day, closing flat, wheat 2 1/2-1 3/8 cents under yesterday's finish, corn 2 3/8, 3 3/8 down, oats 1 8-1 3/4 off, and provisions showing 7 to 2 cents decline.

Contributing a new incentive to sellers of wheat today and tending to curtail speculative demand was overnight action of board of trade directors abolishing July 31 closing prices as an absolute minimum limit on market fluctuations. This action was intended to prevent chaos from deliveries of wheat soon on September contracts with perhaps no selling egress available. The immediate effect, however, was further disturbance of traders' confidence, already unsettled by the fact that a national grain exchange code which had been tentatively agreed upon was suddenly found unacceptable to government officials at Washington.

Corn, oats, rye, and barley duplicated the action of wheat, and were governed mainly by the course of that cereal.

Provisions shared in the weakness of the grain and of hog values.

COTTON IS ACTIVE

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 12 (AP)—There was quite active trading in cotton today for a short session and although a fair advance occurred in the first hour, prices turned easier later on hedge selling and in sympathy with a drop in wheat. The close was near the bottom, barely steady, and showing net declines of 10 to 11 points.

The opening was irregular although Liverpool cables were lower than due. The market rallied on reported buying for government account and covering by shorts. October traded up to 9.51 and December to 9.73 or 23 to 24 points above the earlier lows and 16 to 17 points above the previous close.

The market turned easier in the second hour on a break in wheat and selling by rice traders, coupled with hedging. October eased to 9.25 and December to 9.46 or 26 to 27 points down from the highs. The close was at or near the bottom. October and December both showing net losses of 10 points.

MIDWESTERN LIVESTOCK REVIEW

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 12 (AP)—U. S. D. A.—Cattle trade at midwestern markets this week was featured by a fairly active late trade on fed steers and yearlings. Early declines of around 25 were generally recovered and at some centers light weight fed steers and yearlings closed strong to 25 higher than last week. So far this season, comparatively few western steers of quality to attract feeder buyers have been offered. At Kansas City, a limited showing of well-bred western steers cleared on country account at 4.50-5.40 being considered strong to 25 higher. Demand for stockers continued slow. Aggregate receipts at eight markets totaled around 104,000, as compared with 159,008 last week and 137,685 the corresponding period a year ago.

Hog trade this week has been rather spotted with weight averages from 170-240 pounds finishing steady

DALLAS, Aug. 12 (AP)—The hope that Texas would vote for repeal of the eighteenth amendment and the legalization of 3.2 beer in the August election, was expressed Friday by Curtis B. Dall, son-in-law of President Roosevelt, who was here on a business trip.

CITY OFFICERS IN RAID

City officers arrested Rose Rogers Friday afternoon and turned her over to the county. She was released on $500 bond for possession of beer. The officers seized 108 bottles of beer, 30 gallons "in the making", and 3 gallons of peach brandy.

to 10 higher than last week, while strong weight butchers are 5-15 lower. St. Louis had a late top of $4.60.

Fat lambs are generally 50-75 higher than a week ago while yearlings, aged stock and feeding lambs are strong to 25 or more higher. Chicago had the week's top of 8.90 on range lambs, but on the close, a long string of Washington origin cleared at 8.50.

Schenck Explains Cinema Divorces

"Some of the best people in the country are setting the example," he said in explaining the film colony divorce situation.

In Hollywood, women are independent, making their own money. A great many women in Omaha would like to divorce their husbands but because of their children they are dependent upon them. Iowa Girl Beats Virginia Van Wie National Champion

CHICAGO, Aug. 12. (AP)—Lucille Robinson, a comely youngster from Des Moines, Ia., dealt the national champion, Virginia Van Wie of Chicago, 6 to 5 today to win the Women's Western Open Golf title, a prize that has eluded the Chicago star for nine years.

Miss Robinson had played fine golf throughout the tournament, but was accorded no more than an outside chance of defeating Miss Van Wie, who, until today played at the top of her game. Today, however, the champion went about her work with surprising indifference, and was on top only until the eleventh hole of the morning round. The young Iowan, erratic and brilliant by turns, was one down at the morning turn, but steadied and defeated her famous opponent with amazing ease.

WHERE IS MACHADO? MIAMI, Fla., Aug. 12. Junta Succeeds In Overthrowing Cuban President

NEW YORK, Aug. 12. (AP)—The objective of the short lived Cuban revolutionary junta—the overthrow of the government of President Machado—was accomplished today, less than two months after the group had dissolved.

Unrelenting in its fight to unseat the president, the junta, representing the six powerful anti-Machado parties in the island republic, voluntarily broke up when Ambassador Welles undertook mediation of the Cuban difficulties.

Three of the junta leaders, who had been exiled from their homeland, remained in New York. They were silent tonight, awaiting private advices from colleagues in Havana before expressing their opinion of the selection of Manuel de Cespedes as provisional president.

These leaders, Dr. Carlos de la Torre, octogenarian president of the junta, and Colonel Carlos Mendicta and Colonel Roberto Mendez Penate, heads of the nationalist party, were credited with having played an important part—behind the scenes—in developments that led to Machado's withdrawal.

Assoc. Mendicta, defeated by Machado in 1924 and mentioned as a possible candidate in the 1934 elections, said he would probably leave for Cuba within a few days.

Ford Motor Company Dearborn, Mich. The reasons are worth knowing Henry Ford Dearborn, Mich. Last week we told you how the 8-cylinder motor made its entry into the low-price field. But an "8" is not the whole story. There are two varieties of the "8". We have chosen the V-8—a motor with two banks of cylinders set at an angle opposite each other, instead of all eight cylinders in a line. There are good reasons for this. When we take 8 cylinders and set them four on a side, the length of the motor is reduced about half; it becomes a sturdy and compact power plant. The V-8 motor is 4 cylinders long; if the cylinders were set in line the motor would be 8 cylinders long. This would sacrifice compactness. One simple advantage of the V-type is that it gives more room in the body of your car. In the medium-size car that is built for economical operation this is important. And it accounts for the generous interior body room of the new Ford V-8. Another advantage concerns the motor itself. The V-8 type of motor, with its two short banks of cylinders, cuts in half the distance which the gas mixture must travel to the end cylinders. This gives a more uniform distribution to each cylinder and makes a smoother running motor. Also, two water pumps and two streams of water cool the cylinders instead of one stream. This means more uniform cooling. Other points of advantage I reserve for another letter. To mention one:—When we seemed to be slow in introducing the new Ford V-8 the delay was caused by our doing a very important thing in the interest of strength, long service and efficiency. We were perfecting the V-8 cylinder block as a one-piece casting. As a result our cylinder block is not made of two or three castings bolted together. It is one compact whole, which permanently keeps the operating parts in perfect alignment. We cannot expect the general reader to appreciate the difficulties we had to overcome before this could be done. But if you ever have a chance to see our cylinder block casting before it goes into an engine, you will marvel that it could be done at all. We are the only manufacturers now doing it this more expensive way. Our new car is making its way so rapidly, on its own merits, that it is worth knowing some of the reasons for its success. BALBO'S ARMADA ARRIVES AT ROME AS ITALIANS CELEBRATE

Oilers Defeat Beaumont 4-2

BEAUMONT, Aug. 12. (AP)—Scoring three runs in the ninth inning, after two were out, the Tulsa Oilers defeated the Exporters, 4-2, here today in the first game of the series. Lefty Jake Wade retired the first two men to face him in that turbulent ninth, but Kelly, batting for Hosteler, walked. Eggert drew a base on balls and when York, rookie outfielder, failed to field Hooks' easy fly in right, Kelly crossed the plate with the tying run, Eggert taking third.

Judge Dick Schulz relieved Wade and Hale greeted him with a single that bounced off Parker's head, scoring Eggert, and when Shelley in left booted the ball, Hooks scored and Hale took second. Stoneham, who was whiffed, three times by Wade, skied.

LAST LEG OF FLIGHT FROM LISBON ENDS

EVERY SHIP LANDS SIX WEEKS AFTER THE TAKE-OFF

By ANDRUE BERDING

Correspondent

ROME, Aug. 12. (AP)—The greatest mass oceanic flight in the history of aviation ended tonight with the return of air minister Italo Balbo's transatlantic seaplane squadron.

Just six weeks after starting its long aerial cruise to the Chicago world's fair, the big winged fleet completed the last leg of its home-ward journey in a 1,300 mile flight from Lisbon, Portugal.

A series of noisy welcoming festivities began as the squadron alighted.

Premier Mussolini was on hand to start off the long round of celebrations kissing both cheeks of each officer in the flying crews, beginning with the young bearded leader, General Balbo.

With the cruiser Dixia firing booming salutes, General Balbo alighted in the first plane at 6:32 p. m. (12:32 p. m. E. S. T.) this was just 11 hours, 20 minutes after Balbo had started the takeoffs in Lisbon. At 6:47 p. m. all the planes had taken their places at the airport.

Spurs Found In Grave Might Be Key to Mystery

TULSA, Aug. 11 (AP)—J. O. Bass, local wheat farmer, who for many years manufactured spurs and bridle bits during the days of the cattle ranges in this section, received information that Pete Van Buggenum living near Savagetown, Wyoming, found a expensive pair of spurs near the middle of Pumpkin Butte while riding the sheep range recently on his ranch.

The spurs were found in what appeared to be a shallow grave with some bones near them. It was impossible to tell whether the bones were human.

Mr. Bass traced the sale of the spurs by the number they bore, "No. 666." Made by J. O. Bass, Tulsa, Texas. His business records revealed that the spurs were made for L. E. Neeley, Democrat, Texas, on November 6, 1913. The spurs were sent by parcel post and the sum of $11 was paid by Mr. Neeley.

Mr. Bass did not know the purchaser personally, and has never heard of him since. The finding of the spurs may be the key to a mystery in the opinion of Mr. Bass who believes the owner lost his life at this spot in Wyoming.

Fresh orange juice poured over sliced fruits or melon balls make a delicious summer cocktail.

CROPS SLIGHTLY BETTER

AUSTIN, Aug. 12. (AP)—Crop conditions in Texas on August 1 were only slightly better, if improved at all, than they were a month ago, the United States department of agriculture said today in an official report.

If you dip a tomato in very hot water or place it in a fork and hold it over a gas flame, you will have no difficulty in removing the skin.

WILLIE GOGGAN FACES FORMER CHAMP TODAY

JOHNNY FARRELL AND HINES BEATEN IN SEMI-FINALS

BY PAUL MICKELSON,
Associated Press Sports Writer.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 12 (AP)—Gene Sarazen rode into the finals of the National Professional Golf championship with Willie Goggan, an unknown to golf renown from a San Francisco municipal golf course, today.

Foies apart as fame goes in golf, they will meet for the prized title dropped by Glen Durruth of Los Angeles, in a 36-hole final over the short Blue Mound course tomorrow.

Sarazen, open champion of the United States and Great Britain last year, sailed into the finals on the tide of an easy 5 and 4 triumph over another prominent star, Johnny Farrell, of New York. Goggan, on leave of absence as golf professional at a municipal course 10 miles from the Golden Gate to compete in his first important golf championship, survived after a great duel in which he turned back another unknown of the ranks, Jimmy Hines, of the Timber Point club, New York, one up. He salted away his victory with a birdie on the 35th green.

Never before did the semi-finals of a national championship produce a stranger contrast in golf. Sarazen, who was teased to forget his squabbles with the Professional Golfers' Association of America and compete for the title he has twice held and once missed in the finals, was an easy man to see. The man who won fame back in 1928 by beating Bobby Jones in the playoff for the national open title.

He led four up after the front nine of the morning, saw his lead dwindle to only one hole on the 12th, and won almost as he pleased with perfect golf in the afternoon.

Johnny, outclassed, made a valiant stand, but Sarazen ended the duel by matching his birdie four on the 32nd green. Sarazen had only two birdies, but got both when he needed them.

Gene, out to recoup his championship losses, blanked Farrell on the first nine holes with even par, hitting tremendously long wood shots but missing five separate chances for birdies. It was on the back nine that Farrell, off most of the day with his approach shots, made his greatest stand. As they passed the 12th hole, Johnny stood four down but found the range and finished with a medal of 33, two under par.

To pick up three holes and go to four all down, he had four birdies on the back stretch. He was able to win but three holes in the afternoon as Gene romped along confidently. Sarazen won five of the front nine in the afternoon to Johnny's one to draw away to a five and 4 victory in the final four coming home. Farrell, who was five over par on the out nine, was forced to shoot birdies to win his final two holes.

Jim Harrison has been working on plans for the grandstand, barn, grounds, track and other buildings. Should the government cooperate, as it is believed possible it is thought that Panhandle will make this city outstanding.

Inquiries have been received from many cities in regard to the meet. Oklahoma oil men have been astonished at the development that Panhandle has made in racing, according to letters received here from Tulsa.

BETTING PERMIT FOR RACES AT PANHANDLE TO BE ASKED

First Meet in State Under 'Betting Law Will Be At Panhandle Sept. 1-5.

PANHANDLE, Aug. 11.—Meetings will be held twice a week hereafter to work out details for the Southwest Race meet and Stock Show to be held Sept. 1 to 5 inclusive. President Ashery A. Callaghan announced the next meeting will be held Monday night at the Panhandle Inn.

Geo. P. Grout, Ed Deahl and M. B. Davidson were named on a committee to confer with the state racing commission on obtaining a permit for legalizing betting. This will be the first meet in Texas to be held after the new certificate betting bill goes into effect September 1.

Indications are that the meet will bring a large number of horses as usual according to Supt. M. B. Davidson. Panhandle's record of always paying the purses in full has given this city a favorable name with horse owners.

Purses of around $3,000 will be paid for all events in connection with the race meet and stock show. Special emphasis will be placed on the Guernsey show and agricultural exhibits under the direction of Mr. Grout. Also there will be a horse show again with Mr. Grout in charge.

President Callaghan said that plans were going ahead to ask for a loan of $30,000 from the Federal government to make permanent improvements. The city will sponsor the work.

Convict Out On Furlough Slain

TEMPLE, Aug. 11.—Will Fell, who lives 10 miles south of Belton, today was at liberty on $5,000 bond on a murder charge in the slaying here yesterday of W. D. (Hy) Thompson, who was on a furlough from the Texas penitentiary.

Fell was arrested at his home a short time after the shooting, which occurred across the street from the city hall. Thompson died from two charges from a shotgun fired from the rear window of an automobile occupied by two men and a woman.

Fell is the father of Carleton Fell, for whose murder at a Belton skating rink on May 16, 1928, Thompson was convicted in district court at Cameron and sentenced to 25 years in prison.

Thompson was granted a furlough some time ago to attend the funeral of a daughter who was killed in an automobile accident at Waco.

Green Apples In Season Lend The Menu Piquancy

Menus and Recipes Prepared by Department of Home Economics, Texas State College for Women DENTON, Aug. 12.—During the spring and summer months when plentiful, the task of meal planning is an easy one. Now that the resources of our summer gardens are exhausted, we must begin to look elsewhere for appetizing foods with which to tempt our families. It is at this time that green apples come on to the market. They lend a piquancy to the menu which might otherwise be lacking. The early apples are fairly tart and require considerable sugar for sweetening so they should be counted for their energy value as well as minerals and vitamins.

Late Summer Menus.
Breakfast: Fried apple rings, bacon, toast, preserves, butter, coffee.
Lunch: Tomato soup, stuffed eggs, lettuce salad, apple sauce and marshmallows, milk.
Dinner: Pork roast, creamed potatoes, asparagus, dull pickle, salad, Dutch apple cake, sauce.
Breakfast: Baked apples, eggs in a goldenrod, toast, coffee, apple compote milk.
Dinner: Braided veal cutlets, buttered, stuff tomato salad, bread, butter, apple crisp.

Recipes With Apples.
Apple Compote: $\frac{1}{2}$ apples, $\frac{1}{2}$ c sugar, 1 c water, pinch of salt. Mix sugar, water and salt and heat to boiling. Place apples in hot syrup and boil gently until soft. Serve with the syrup. Rosy apples compote may be prepared by adding red cinnamon candies or red sugar to the water before the apples are placed in it.
Dutch Apple Cake: 2 or 3 apples, $\frac{1}{2}$ c sugar, 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ to 2 t of cinnamon. Use recipe for yeast coffee cake and add apples when the dough is rising. Arrange apple slices on it in regular rows sticking the thin edge of each into the dough and letting each slice overlap the other. Make straight rows for a square or rectangular cake. Mix sugar and cinnamon and sprinkle over apples. Bake 20 to 25 minutes in moderate oven. Serve either hot or cold, with sauce if desired.
Apple Crisp: 2 c sliced apples, $\frac{1}{2}$ c shortening, $\frac{1}{2}$ c water, 3.4 c flour, 1 c sugar, 1 c sauce. Put apples in greased baking dish. Sprinkle cinnamon over, pour water over

FINAL FIGHT PLANNED

DALLAS, Aug. 12. (AP)—Dwight Lewelling, Dallas prohibition leader, said today the final decision on the fight to be made by Texas dry probably will be made here next week when former Governor Dan Moody and Walter A. Keeling come here for a conference.

Richard D. Bailey was dismissed from Worley hospital Friday evening after a major operation.

LOCAL OPTION FAVORED

RICHMOND, Aug. 12. (AP)—Texas' first test on the prohibition question was provided here today when precinct number one, Fort Bend county, voted five to one against continuing dry under local option.

EYE-WITNESS ACCOUNT OF GORY SCENES IN CUBAN UPRISING TOLD

(Editor's Note: An Associated Press staff writer witnessed the bloody scenes in Havana yesterday after President Machado had abdicated. His first-hand account follows.)

BY T. R. GILL.
HAVANA, Aug. 12.—Arriving at the presidential palace today, amid scenes unequalled in Cuba's history, this correspondent saw the first acts of violence by angry mobs. The crowd, yelling and cheering, ransacked the historic building from top to bottom. Furniture prized by President Machado and his predecessors was unceremoniously carried to the streets until soldiers and sailors arrived to clear the palace and restore order.

The temper of the mob suddenly changed from anger to hilarity when several of the looters carried out a squealing pig, which they found in a crate in the building. "Machado! Machado!" they shouted, hoisting the pig high in the air and slamming it down on the pavement, killing it. Thunderous cheers filled the streets. Finally driven back by soldiers, the mob remained orderly for a while and then rushed into the beautiful palace garden and stripped it of all its flowers, plants, and shrubs. They wanted them for souvenirs.

Dashing across the street to the American embassy building I sought to telephone the news to our central office, but found the communication service disrupted. Outside, demonstrators were yelling wildly. Presently, someone shouted a suggestion that the mob march to the headquarters of the secret police and "clean them out." Hoisting the leaders on their shoulders, part of the demonstrators started off toward the headquarters. The remainder proceeded in another direction.

I followed the second group, but before I proceeded far, we ran into a gun battle between soldiers and a gangster—or "porrista," as they say in Spanish. It was not much of a fight, for blanket code. "Very briefly the situation may be explained in this way: In order to build up the nation's buying power to keep pace with the increasing commodity prices, there must be wholesale re-employment —not sometime in the near future but right now. So President Roosevelt, acting under the Industrial Recovery act, first entrusted to General Hugh S. Johnson the organization of the vast task of working out acceptable industrial codes. This work has been progressing rapidly and satisfactorily. Then in order to speed things up still more and get men back to work more quickly throughout the nation, thus raising the mass buying power to keep pace with increasing commodity prices, President Roosevelt has inaugurated the blanket code. This was quite fully gone into in his recent nation-wide radio talk. Substantially all concerns employing two or more persons are asked to join up with the President in a covenant to maintain wages at least at a certain minimum level and restrict working hours within certain limitations.

"Every employer who signs this solemn agreement with the President of the United States will immediately have the right to display the NRA emblem in his place of business and on his merchandise, too, if he desires."
"This will notify the public just what places of business have fallen in line with this tremendously important national patriotic movement and all such firms are of course entitled to the same loyal consideration from the general public that would be theirs were we actually at war with an outside enemy and these firms had by some fine display of patriotism shown special loyalty to the commander of the army and navy."

The soldiers quickly riddled the gangster with high powered rifle bullets and left him lying in the street. Immediately several of the mob lifted the soldier aloft and carried him through the streets. Crowds on the sidewalks cheered. Some of those who remained by the body, dipped their handkerchiefs in the slain man's blood and waved them in the air amid resounding shouts. A block farther down the street, I was caught in the gunfire of another fusillade fired by soldiers at another gangster. Bullets whizzed by my ears and I ducked behind a post. Eight or ten shots were fired at the fleeing man, but he escaped. He was one of the few sought by the troops who got away. The morgues tonight held the others.

one of the demonstrators, a group of soldiers shot Jimenez to death and cheering men kicked the body and trampled it.

The home of Octavio Zubizarreta, secretary of the interior in the overthrown government, was looted and fired by the mob this afternoon. Similar treatment was dealt out to the home of Jose Izquierdo, chief of the Havana Central district.

Good will prevailed between the demonstrators and the military and naval guards at the palace which did not interfere when the mob stormed the official residences, sacked the first floor of the interior and stripped the grounds of trees and flowers.

A throng of several hundred refusing persons formed in front of the American embassy, cheering loudly. More than 200 injured persons, many of them seriously hurt, were treated at hospitals.

Girl Leads Attack.
It was well for Machado that he stayed hidden or under heavy guard for time after time during the day the menacing cry issued from thousands of throats: "Get Machado! Let's get Machado!"

After the looting of Jose Izquierdo's house, a girl rode wildly thru Havana's streets this afternoon standing on the running board of an automobile and screaming hysterically as she extended her feet in which were men's shoes: "Peppito Izquierdo's shoes! Peppito Izquierdo's shoes!"

The furniture, clothing, fixtures and personal effects of both the Izquierdo and the Zubizarreta homes, which were ransacked by the mob, were carried out into the streets and shattered to pieces or distributed. So far as could be learned no member of either family was at home when the looting occurred.

Unconfirmed reports circulated that the home of many other government adherents also were sacked by the mobs, crazed with their power. The president, a veteran of Cuba's war for independence, made a dramatic and last desperate play for the army's support when he heard the news which Herrera brought him. With his still faithful palace guard attending him, armed with machine guns, Machado left the palace and accompanied by Herrera and other political aides raced out to Camp Columbia to face his rebellious army, once his staunchest support.

At Columbia, Colonel Jililo San-

gully, one of the leaders of the movement, told him: "With all respect, General, you must resign before noon tomorrow."
One after another the chiefs of battalions, the head of the army air corps, the acting chief of the navy and all the other officers whom the president regarded as his enduring friends, faced him and made the same demand.

Col. Antonio Jimenez, thin, heavy-eyed leader of those men all Cuba knew as the "Porra" and hated as the alleged killers of numerous oppositionists, and Jimenez drew his gun. The crowd came nearer and Jimenez fired. One man slumped, wounded, and Jimenez and a companion took refuge within a drugstore. As the increasing mob held him at bay, soldiers came up and Jimenez fired again. A burst of rifle fire made chaos of his refuge and he and his aide fell dead.

In front of the shining, new capitol—monument to Machado's administration, his friends said; lasting evidence of his extravagance, his enemies charged—the mob found Julio Lebrón, another man they believed had killed for Machado as member of the porra. A police uniform did not save him. His clothes were torn away and he was beaten and kicked and clubbed to death. Late arriving soldiers covered his naked body with palm leaves and there it lay, just to one side of the capitol's wide sidewalk, hours and hours. In Jesus del Monte borough, Carlos Lorenzo, another who drew the mob's hatred, was killed and his body drawn about in a handcart.

GARDEN LOVERS TOLD OF BOOKS ABOUT FLOWERS

Summer Flowers And Lawns Discussed By Club

A magazine and a book in the public library this garden lovers will enjoy were recommended to the Pampa Garden club at its meeting Friday morning by Mrs. A. A. Hyde. The magazine, received monthly, is "The Flower Grower", and the book is "Flowers of the Southwest."

Members of the club met at the city club rooms for the last of their series of summer meetings. Thirty-two were present.

Mrs. Tom Perkins discussed the planting of summer flowers for continued bloom through the season. She suggested iris, peonies, phlox, delphinium, asters, hollyhocks, Shasta daisies and chrysanthemums for a cycle of bloom.

Planting the Lawn
Mrs. Tom Ross had "Lawns" as her subject. Preparation of the soil several weeks before planting grass is best, she said, and if a particularly poor lawn is to be improved it is better dug up and started anew. Deep watering will reach the grass roots and result in a greener lawn.

The history of poppies, a flower that was common in Biblical times, was given by Mrs. Ewing Leech, who also told of methods for growing them. Transplanting should be done late in July or August, she said, and seed should be planted in the fall. For bouquets of poppies, Mrs. Leech suggested sowing the end of each stem to make the blooms last longer.

PLAYS CHOSEN FOR OFFERINGS TO THE PUBLIC

OPEN PROGRAMS AND TICKET SALES TO BE PLANNED

By SUE VINSON

ARRANGEMENT of a program for the year, enrollment of active members, and distribution of season tickets, are aims for the next few weeks of Little Theater leaders. An executive board meeting, the second this month, is called for 7:30 tomorrow at the home of Mrs. H. H. Hicks.

Four plays for public presentation have been selected, the dates set and books ordered, according to Mrs. T. P. Morton, play chairman.

Season tickets for this series of plays are in the hands of Mrs. Lee McConnell, ticket chairman, and will be placed on sale soon. In addition to the four three-act plays, a season's program of one-act plays is being planned for open meetings, to which season ticket holders will be admitted.

Mrs. Hicks is in charge of selecting the one-act plays, and has not yet announced the program.

Plays for public presentation are of varied types. The first, to be presented October 20, is a melodrama with an 1890 setting, to be presented in costumes of that period to the fashion of similar revivals in large cities. Its title is "Gold in Them Thar Hills."

"He Who Gets Slapped", Broadway success of a few years ago, will be the second offering. It is scheduled for December 5. This play had a long run in New York in its stage version, and was filmed with the late Lon Chaney as its star.

A favorite mystery comedy, "The Cat and the Canary," will be presented February 27, and the last play of the year will be a comedy, "Dear Me", on April 20.

Members last year are being enrolled for the new season, and new material sought by the membership committee.

The first general meeting of the organization is scheduled for August 26, when activities of the season will be formally launched.

Miss Johnsson To Give Mozart Style Lessons

Miss Esther Johnsson of Amarillo, famous Mozart player who recently returned from Europe, will hold a class of three sessions in Mozart style at her home in Amarillo, 1222 Harrison street, at 3 o'clock on the afternoons of Aug. 18, 25 and 31.

All summer, Miss Johnsson has had many requests for lessons and for a while brushed them aside because, she said, she always has so much work of her own to do. Then she decided to group all these applicants together and offer three class lessons. "I think the idea of playing for one another is good," she said. "If attendants are not prepared to play they may listen."

Several Pampa musicians are planning to attend the classes.

Mrs. Virgil Kidwell was hostess to Taylor's Merry Maids and their families with a watermelon feast on her lawn honoring the birthday of her husband.

A number of games were played, then a dozen huge cold melons were cut.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Kidwell, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Taylor and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Taylor and family, Mr. and Mrs. Billie Taylor and family, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. "Bigger and smarter" is the rule for the newest bib. It combines the chic of a collar, a plastron and a sash all cut in one. It's a grand idea, not only because it looks so smart and new, but because it gives us just one more way to introduce contrast in our clothes. And contrast is the spice of every wardrobe!

If you're a beginner at sewing you'll notice how easily this frock can be made. The sleeves are simple, slightly full at the shoulders, and the skirt has those becoming yoke-and-panel lines. The bodice is plain except for the stunning bib.

Black linen is our suggestion for a fabric choice, combined with an orange-and-white check. This frock takes very little material. Our large Fall Fashion Magazine contains many other Easy-to-Make styles for home, sports, afternoon and evenings; also models for the children, and interesting articles on dressmaking.

Hitler's First Woman Official Supervises Style

BY WALTER BROCKMANN
BERLIN (AP)—Demanding "equality for German fashion" along with equality in other fields, the nazis have extended their sway to the domain of women's styles.

Frau Magda Goebbels, wife of Germany's minister of propaganda, Dr. Joseph Goebbels, has been commissioned to see that "the German woman gets a German dress."

Only woman in Nazi Regime. She has been named patroness of a newly-created "Mode-Amt," or government fashion center, and as such is virtually arbiter of fashion. Also she is the only woman with official status in Hitler's avowedly masculine regime.

Where style is concerned, Frau Goebbels is regarded as a model. At social functions all eyes pivot towards her—her blond hair and harmonizing gowns presenting an attractive combination.

Though her title is just "schirmerin," or patroness, The Hamburg Herald has assured its readers that Frau Goebbels' "name is an excellent guarantee that relations between the Mode-Amt and the government will be more than formal."

Ask "Place in Style Sun."

Dr. Hans Horst, one of the board members described the Mode-Amt thusly: "We desire to give German designers work and manufacturers for a preview of winter materials and in September there will be a grand exhibit of creations purely German."

Baby Kenneth McAnally was returned to his home in Phillips camp yesterday after treatment at Pampa hospital.

TEXAS CONGRESS OF PARENTS AND TEACHERS

Mrs. J. M. Crain, Claude, Publicity Director

"Aroused of the prospect that thousands of children may be deprived of school privileges this fall leaders of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers at the semi-annual meeting of the national board of managers in Washington, D. C., September 18 to 21, will consider definite plans for mobilizing public support for stricken schools during the coming year," announces a release sent out from the national office of the national congress.

The harder the times the greater the need to make education better and times as they safeguard the health of the child, they fortify the home; they give hope and encouragement to citizens who are victims of misfortune but who can take satisfaction that their children are being properly trained.

Some Schools Closed

Concern of parents and teachers over the plight of schools intensified by the outlook that many public schools will open their doors much later than usual this fall, or fail to open at all. This situation is indicated in a state by state review recently published by the national education association, the national release states.

Parent-teacher associations all throughout this nation have been instrumental in keeping large numbers of children in school during this educational crisis. According to present plans, they will make an effort this year to arouse all citizens to the need of maintaining educational standards, citizen councils have been formed under parent-teacher auspices in various sections of the country to study educational needs and to promote the idea that education is the responsibility of all citizens, regardless of the fact whether or not they are parents and teachers.

Increased Safeguards for Schools

Increased safeguards for schools are mandatory when times like these suggest retrenchment. Next to food, clothing, and shelter, schools stand between the people and chaos. Let this generation preserve and improve its schools and ever keep its children first.

Financing of public schools to assure adequate educational opportunity to all children is viewed by parent-teacher workers as one of the pressing problems confronting the nation today.

"It is not to be expected that education will be properly financed by a world largely devoted to business and which has no appreciation of education ideals or methods," declares Mrs. Hugh Bradford, president of the national congress.

Mrs. Bradford will report to the national board meeting concerning the convention of the world federation of education associations and international federation of home and school, which she attended in July. The national board of managers consists of the national officers, national committee chairman, and presidents of the forty-nine state branches, including Hawaii and the District of Columbia. Mrs. A. P. Wood, president of the Texas Congress, will represent Texas at the national board meeting.

New Device Mixes Perfect Mayonnaise

Pampa housewives are making delicious mayonnaise under a new plan recently introduced here by the makers of Wesson oil.

The secret is in a new device consisting of a glass jar with a screw-on top through which a dasher is inserted. The recipe is in the jar. Ingredients, except the oil, are put into the jar and mixed with a few strokes of the dasher. Then a pint of Wesson oil is added and mixed.

The result is said to be the best mayonnaise ever tasted. The mixers are on sale at local grocery stores.

Auxiliary Approves Ship Construction

The American Legion Auxiliary will greet the beginning of work on the 32 new ships to be constructed with national industrial recovery act funds as a splendid start toward restoring America's defenses to adequate strength, according to Mrs. W. C. deCordova, president of the Pampa unit of the Auxiliary. Nearly 100 additional ships will be needed to bring the United States navy up to the full strength authorized under the London treaty, Mrs. deCordova said.

Even when the 32 new ships are completed, the United States navy will be approximately 175,000 tons short of the London treaty strength unless additional construction is begun, she pointed out. This tonnage is divided among four types of warships. To bring it up to treaty strength the United States navy will still need approximately 250,000 tons of aircraft carriers, 30,000 tons of cruisers, 100,000 tons of destroyers, and 20,000 tons of submarines. Building of one large or two smaller aircraft carriers, three cruisers, and 15 or more submarines will be required to supply this tonnage.

Miss Neva Lou Pierce of LeFors underwent a major operation at Pampa hospital Friday night.

W. A. Cotham of LeFors has been admitted to Pampa hospital for treatment.

"GOLD DIGGERS OF 1933" IS CALLED BETTER THAN "42ND STREET"

GREAT MOVIE
OPENING TODAY
AT LA NORA

MANY STARS, GORGEOUS
CHORUSES WILL

"Gold Diggers of 1933." Warner Bros. all-star, dramatic musical spectacle, said to be even greater than "42nd Street" as the most lavish entertainment of the decade, opens today at the La Nora theater.

A fitting sequel to the sensational popular picture "42nd Street" which started new styles in screen fare, "Gold Diggers of 1933" according to Hollywood information equals its predecessor in beauty, in catchy tunes and 'whistling' music, in comedy and in its story values. Its list of stars is even more imposing and chorus ensembles, directed by Busby Berkeley, are more spectacular; its songs by Harry Warren and Al Dubin, will appeal to even wider audiences.

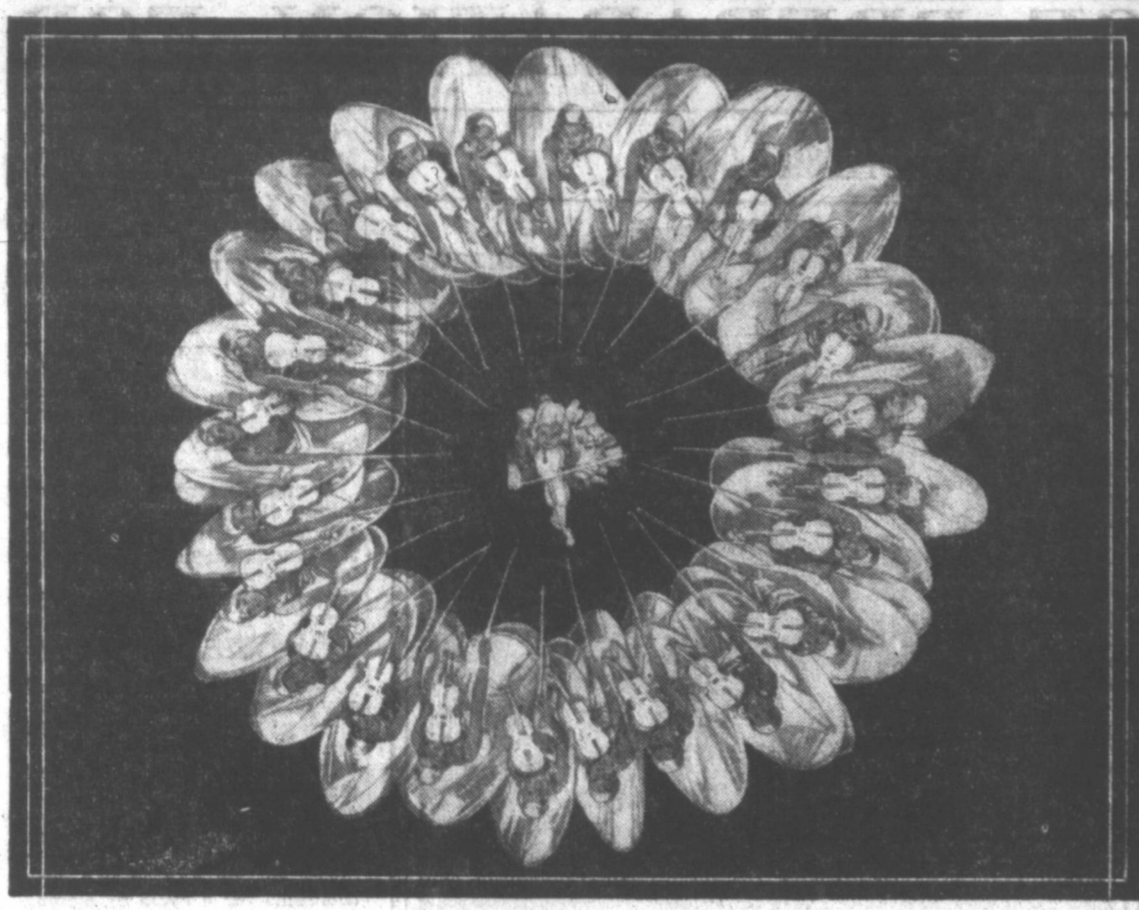

The names of Warren William, Joan Blondell, Ruby Keeler, (Mrs. Al Jolson) who sprang to screen fame overnight in "42nd Street," Dick Powell, Aline MacMahon, Guy Kibbee, Ginger Rogers and Ned Sparks head the superlative cast assembled by Warner Bros. in "Gold Diggers of 1933." Mervy LeRoy, who directed "I Am a Fugitive From a Chain Gang" and "Elmer the Great," directed from the Avery Hopwood story adapted by Erwin Gelsey and James Seymour.

"Gold Diggers of 1933" is a "back of the back-stage" story, a dramatic and amusing insight into the lives and loves of the people primarily responsible for the staging of a great New York show. It is an intensively human story climaxed by a triumphant and spectacular "show" in which Busby Berkeley's choruses of 200 picked beauties are lavishly displayed in dance ensembles unequalled in the history of stage or screen.

It is, furthermore, the story of three gold digging show girls into whose capable hands the problem of finding an "angel" for the show that will give them employment and opportunity, is entrusted. The tricks and trades behind many a Broadway success, are disclosed in a whirlwind of exciting incident and amusing situations. The song writing team of a proud family eventually involves both his severely proper older brother and the family lawyer in the intricacies of showmanship. All in all, it is a dramatically sound comedy drama enhanced by the generous production values of the "big show."

The chorus featured throughout, is a collection of beauty gathered from the whole nation and trained under the guiding genius of the man responsible for the chorus ensembles already famous in "The Kid from Spain" and "42nd Street" as well as in numerous New York stage revues in recent years. The numbers originated for "Gold Diggers of 1933" mark the high spot in Hollywood's donations to the world's entertainment. Nothing like them in beauty, spectacle and staging has been seen before.

Golden Circle in "Gold Diggers of 1933"

MANY are the moments of splendor at the La Nora theater where "Gold Diggers of 1933," hailed as the "super-successor to '42nd Street,'" is holding forth. Many of the stars seen in "42nd Street" appear in the new musical success, and many more new ones, besides.

HERSHOLT HAS CLEAR ROLE IN LATEST FILM

CHANGES CHARACTER IN SHORT ORDER AS REQUIRED

Hollywood boasts character actors aplenty, but few of the magnitude of Jean Hersholt, who heads the cast of "Hearts of Humanity," the stirring Majestic drama which comes to the Rex theater for a 3-day run starting today.

By a series of vivid, clear-cut characterizations, Hersholt has succeeded in making his way to the foremost rank of the outstanding character actors in America today.

A glance back over the succession of widely diversified roles in which he has triumphed evidences both the proof and the cause of his success.

Unlike too many character actors, Hersholt is not content to simply superimpose a few characteristics and mannerisms upon his own personality and let it go at that. He puts Hersholt out of the picture altogether and sets to work creating an entirely new personality—building up the outlines of the character, meticulously, filling in the minutest details—the quirks, the oddities, that distinguish the particular man from all others.

In this, he is aided by his vast store of observation; his keen human understanding; and that intuitive knowledge of the world and its people that is the special possession of genius.

No trace of yesterday's character is evident in today's and you may be sure that none of today's will be discovered in tomorrow's.

In the present picture, for instance, Hersholt, as Sol Bloom, a gentle Jewish second-hand dealer in New York's lower East Side, who adopts a small Irish immigrant boy.

This role is indeed a far cry from his recent roles—there is no resemblance whatsoever to the doctor-benefactor of Madelon's son in Helen Hayes' triumph, "The Sign of the Cross." It has no relationship to Susan's brutal guardian in "The Sign of the Cross," or the despicable "Grand Hotel" clerk, or the kindly widower of "Emma" in which he shared honors with Marie Dressler.

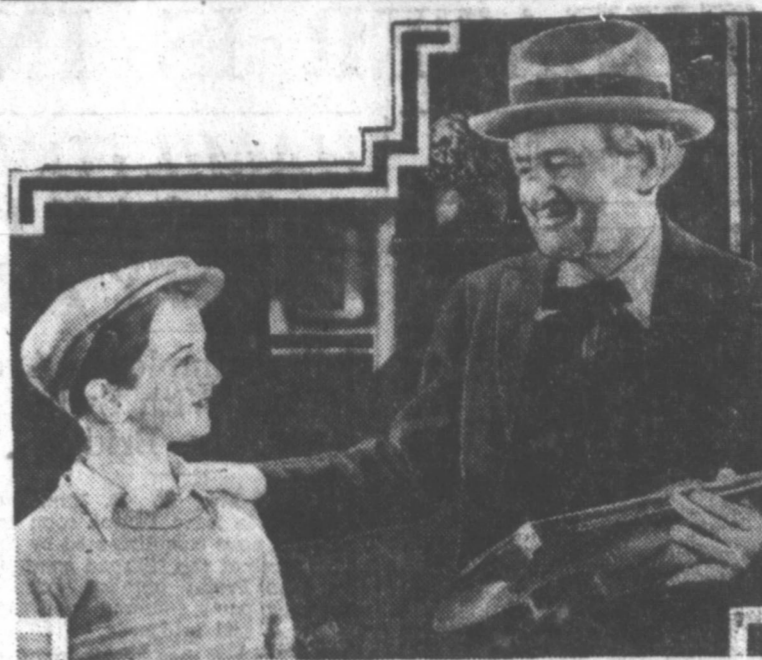

Yet, Sol Bloom emerges as a fresh new character, definite and clearly cut as a cameo in its outlines, nobly human and appealing in detail.

In this gripping story of man's grim struggle against Fate in the great melting pot of the world, Hersholt is supported by a cast of all-star proportions, including the inevitable child star, Jackie Searl, J. Farrell MacDonald, Claudia Dell, Charles Delaney, Lucille LaVerne and others.

"GOLD DIGGERS" FILM HOLDING ATTENTION OF THEATER-GOERS

All attention is on "Gold Diggers of Broadway" at Pampa theaters today.

Welfare Garden Is Productive Of Fine Vegetables

The Pampa community garden north of the municipal swimming pool is providing families on the Welfare Board with many fresh vegetables. The garden is watered from the pool, particularly when the pool is drained.

Nearly every kind of vegetable that will grow in this country has been planted. J. T. Ashley is in charge of the work at the garden and he takes large baskets of fresh vegetables to the Welfare Board office nearly every day. The vegetables are distributed from the Welfare Board office.

Last week Mr. Ashley picked 60 bunches of beets, 6 to 8 beets to the bush; eight gallons of beans; two bushels of peas; 32 gallons of cucumbers; five gallons of okra.

Corn on the cob will be ready this week. A second crop of radishes and lettuce is also growing rapidly.

'Blue Shirts' of Ireland Cancel 'Rebel' Parade

DUBLIN, Irish Free State, Aug. 12. (AP)—Forbidden by President De Valera to parade his uniformed national guard in a memorial observance tomorrow, General Owen O'Duffy, leader of the recently formed "Blue Shirt" military body, canceled orders for the march and announced tonight that he and his followers would boycott the ceremonies.

Banning of the parade clarified the troubled political situation in the Free State but did not entirely allay anxieties that disorderly incidents may occur tomorrow as a result of the conflict between the De Valera government and the opposition chiefs.

William T. Cosgrave, former president of the executive council, and a severe critic of De Valera's regime, joined General O'Duffy in denouncing the government's attitude and in deciding to abstain from tomorrow's ceremonies which are to honor the memories of Arthur Griffith, Michael Collins and Kevin O'Higgins, deceased "strong men" of the state's early days.

Brick Work on P. O. Starts Next Week

Brick work on Pampa's new federal building will probably be started next week. Pouring of concrete for the first floor should be completed tomorrow or Monday.

Stone work and structural steel work will follow the brick laying. More than 40 men are at work on the building. Progress is being made after several delays. The weather has been favorable and material has been arriving on time.

GUNMAN SLAIN AND DRAGGED THRU STREET

NEWSPAPERS FRIENDLY TO MACHADO ARE DESTROYED

BY T. R. GILL, Associated Press Staff Writer. (Copyright, 1933, Associated Press.) HAVANA, Aug. 12 (AP)—Wildest disorders, eclipsing even those experienced when Cubans were granted their independence back in 1901, prevailed in the streets of Havana late today as a frenzied population celebrated the downfall of the Machado regime.

Riotous demonstrations occurred throughout the city as immense throngs of delirious supporters of the army's revolt, brandishing clubs and sticks, swarmed through the streets to attack the presidential palace and other properties owned by adherents of the deposed executive.

Machado Gunman Slain

At least one "porra" or gunman affiliated with the Machado forces was shot and killed in a gun battle with soldiers, and a policeman in uniform, popularly charged with having slain several oppositionists, was beaten to death outside the national capital building.

Their bodies were paraded thru the streets as warnings to their associates. Numerous reports were received that others had been similarly slain as excitement reached a fever pitch.

There was no denying that the excited demonstrators, surging with patriotic emotion, were out to get the blood of those who had shown sympathy to the Machado government.

Havana had gone wild with excitement and disorders were rampant.

Palace Looted

To the accompaniment of shouts and cheers thousands of marchers, attacked the presidential palace, evacuated yesterday by the deposed chief executive, and ransacked it from top to bottom before police reserves arrived.

Pieces of furniture were carried into the streets and smashed and a grunting pig, found in a crate inside the palace, was carted to the sidewalk and killed by the angry mob.

When police arrived, the demonstrators were forced outside the building and warned to keep back. These orders were disregarded, however, and hundreds swept back past the police lines and into the tropical garden at the palace which was completely stripped of plants, flowers, and other shrubbery.

Police, swinging to the support of the overthrow movement, now made no effort to interfere with the will of the throng.

Signs reading "for rent" were pasted on doors and windows of the palace while thunderous applause filled the air.

Newspaper Building Wrecked

Holding shrubbery from the garden high with their hands, the surging demonstrators marched to the building occupied by the Heraldo de Cuba, supporter of the Machado government, and completely wrecked it. Two other buildings owned by adherents of the Machado regime also were smashed.

It was while the frenzied marchers were en route to the Heraldo building that the gun battle took place in which soldiers shot and killed the secret policeman. His body was dragged into the street where it lay for an hour before it was placed in an automobile and paraded through the crowd filled streets.

Immediately after the shooting the soldiers who had killed the man were hoisted to the shoulders of the cheering throng and carried along the thoroughfares while spectators shouted in praise.

Some of the demonstrators, swarming around the body, dipped their handkerchiefs in the blood on the pavement and waved them in the air.

The sacking of the office of the Heraldo de Cuba was one of the wildest demonstrations of a wild day. The building was completely looted, furniture hurled into the street and smashed and the printing press demolished.

Pictures Destroyed

Hundreds of yelling demonstrators swarmed into the building and began ransacking it. Large desks, typewriters, filing cabinets filled with documents and every piece of furniture were hurled out of the upper story windows and demolished.

Pictures of Machado and other officials high in his regime were torn to shreds by the angry mob.

One picture, that of Carlos Mendieta, leader of the national party, was taken from the walls, held high in the air by the marchers and paraded through the streets.

Some of the rioters venting their wrath on the newspaper property, pounded the debris with sticks and yelled and cursed.

The pieces of the smashed typewriters, telephones and other office equipment were picked up in the streets and carried away as souvenirs.

Firemen Join Mob

In the wild enthusiasm of the demonstration pistols were fired into the air, people were knocked down by one another in the rush and sticks and clubs were wielded freely as the mob beat against the building and upon the wreckage demon-

More than 400 boys and girls who read The NEWS about the free swim at the municipal pool yesterday were off hand promptly.

They, with many parents, greatly enjoyed the three hours in the pool. Long before 9 a. m. the youngsters singly and in groups up to a dozen began walking to the pool. All sorts of bathing suits were carried in their hands or thrown over their shoulders.

The free swims are becoming immensely popular, particularly HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Aug. 11. (AP)—Hollywood heard today that Douglas Fairbanks, now in London, had gone to England for good.

There was no confirmation, but the report met little argument as it swept down Hollywood boulevard. Gossipers cited the prospect that the veteran actor planned to make a talking picture version of "Robin Hood" near London.

It's Time To LIGHT UP
for Better Business

People Are Again Disposed To Buy Particularly In View of Rising Prices

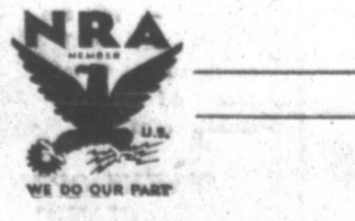

The tremendous value of good lighting as an aid to selling and buying has been tested and proved by enterprising merchants all over the Panhandle. Good lighting makes selling easier; it also makes it easy for customers to select and buy the articles which interest them.

Properly lighted windows invite customers to 'Come In' your store. Well lighted interiors permit you to display your merchandise most attractively. Both enable your customers to buy with that feeling of confidence and security which you have found so essential to every satisfactory business transaction.

Business is everywhere taking on increased momentum, thanks to the leadership at Washington that has inspired the American people as never before. There is new employment, new hope, and renewed progress.

Hats off to a Government that is carrying a new spirit and enthusiasm into the farthest corners of this Nation.

ROADRUNNERS WILL WIN BASEBALL TOURNEY BY BEATING TWO TEAMS TODAY

GRIDDERS TO BE SELECTED MONDAY NIGHT

COACH WILL PICK BOYS WHO WILL ATTEND TRAINING CAMP

Pampa high school students who are eligible to play football on the 1935 Harvester squad have been called to meet with Coach Odus Mitchell at the high school gymnasium at 8 o'clock Friday night. At that time, the coach will select the boys who will attend the fall training camp at the Mel Davis ranch east of LeFors, starting Monday, August 28.

Coach Mitchell returned yesterday morning from Lubbock, where he attended the Texas Tech coaching school. Such famous football coaches were present as Andy Kerr of Colgate, who told how his double wingback system kept his team from being scored on last season. Harry Kipke of Michigan outlined the short punt formation with defense stressed. Frank Kizer of Purdue uses the Notre Dame shift, while Bernie Bierman of Minnesota believes in the single wingback formation.

Although the selected boys will not go to camp until August 28, practice will probably start earlier at Harvester park with the entire squad in uniform. The time has come when the boys should be getting in condition. Conditioning of legs and feet should be started by running in heavy shoes and bathing the feet in alum water to toughen them. Smoking should be discontinued at once so that the wind will be improved by camp time.

Many of the boys have been kept in condition all summer by working on ranches and farms or in the oil field.

First Round of Tennis Doubles Ends Saturday

Play in the first round senior doubles events in the city tennis tournament was completed yesterday afternoon. One series in the junior doubles was to be played this morning to finish that division.

Several close matches resulted, three going three sets and two of them being won with 10-8 games. Results in the senior division follows:

Rev. Joseph Wonderly and Edwin Vicars defeated Earl O'Keefe and W. A. Bratton 6-4, 10-8.

George Christopher and W. C. Dillman won from Forest Linquist and Dr. C. D. Hunter 6-1, 6-4. L. N. Atchison and Chris Martin defeated Ray Cheever and Murray 6-3, 4-6, 6-2.

Forest McSkimming and V. G. Potts won from L. M. Batton and C. E. Slocum 6-2, 6-4.

Results in the junior division follows:

Evens and Tom Rose Jr. won from Blanton and Clark 6-3, 4-6, 10-8. Corrigan and Lamb defeated Brown and Pearson 6-0, 2-6, 6-3.

Mrs. L. M. Batton defeated Miss Harriett Hunkapillar in a postponed match, 6-3, 6-4.

Clifford Sutter and Sidney Wood Meet in Finals

RYE, N. Y., Aug. 12 (AP)—Clearing the courts for the grand finale tomorrow, when Clifford Sutter, of New Orleans and Sidney B. Wood, of New York, will meet in the men's singles, three titles were decided today in the eastern grass tennis championships at the Westchester Country club.

The invading English team figured in two of the titles as Dorothy Round, Britain's foremost player, defeated her fellow-countrywoman,

DANCIGER CLUB IS UNDEFEATED ON FINAL DAY

STRONG WICHITA FALLS TEAM LOSES TO PAMPANS

The Pampa-Danciger Roadrunner baseball team will be fighting this afternoon to bring the fourth News-Globe baseball tournament title to Pampa. The Pampa entry clinched third place Friday afternoon with a 9 to 2 victory over the Ed and White Stores of Wichita Falls, and this afternoon will play two games against the teams winning games yesterday afternoon. The first game will be called at 1:30 o'clock.

Pampa baseball teams have won three tournament titles in the seven years the tournament has been held. The old Pampa Grays, under Emmer "Red" Guber, captured the titles in 1928 and 1929. The following year George Sullivan and his Pampa-Gulf Guns took the title and this year Pampans are backing the Roadrunners to bring Pampa the title.

Whitey Vaughn jumped into the batting lead in the tournament Friday as he led the Roadrunners to victory. The white-thatched right fielder hit a home run, two doubles, and a single in five trips to the plate. Whitey Bacus continued his hitting with two blows, while Leggett and Cox also got two safe singles.

The veteran Aaron Ward was the defensive star of the game. The former New York Yankee accepted eight chances and made two putouts at second without a bobble. Bacus pulled the prize play of the tournament when he went high into the air to take a sure hit away from Satterwhite with the bases loaded. McLary had four chances at short. Stewart started the game for the Roadrunners and coasted along nicely until the sixth inning when he allowed three safe singles which accounted for both the Wichita Falls runs. Lefty Bulla finished the game, allowing two hits.

The Roadrunners collected 13 hits and played errorless ball. Wichita Falls got to Stewart and Bulla for 10 hits but they were well scattered excepting in the sixth when four hits were made.

This afternoon the Roadrunners will meet the winner of the Claude Padre Hounds-Wichita Falls game of yesterday afternoon and the winner of the Texas Theater Lions-Put and Take Grocery game. Two wins will give the Roadrunners first money and the title while one loss would send the tournament into an overtime session Monday. A double loss would have the same effect as one loss only the fight would be between the teams winning Sunday's games.

Managers Earl Roff and Ike Lister had not decided on starting hurlers for today's games, but the wise birds saw Lefty Bulla and Long John Costello netting the calls. Nichols is available but he failed to make an impressive showing opening game and it is doubtful whether the Danciger managers will take a chance on starting him.

Vines and Gledhill took the measure of George Lott and Gregory Mangin, 6-2, 6-2, 6-4.

INDIANS PLAY DOUBLEHEADER IN CITY TODAY

BUSBY BOYS TO MEET NINES FROM HOOVER AND BORGER

A doubleheader ball game will be played on the Talley addition diamond this afternoon with the Busby Indians meeting Hoover at 1:30 o'clock and the Huber carbon team from Borger after the first game. Manager C. O. Busby will start Miles "Gomez" Marbaugh and Trenary but he had not decided yesterday which would start the first game. Trenary lost a 10-inning game to Borger two weeks ago and it may be that he will get a chance at them on his home diamond.

Borger has a strong aggregation of young players. The team has had a successful season, losing only a couple of games to stronger clubs. The team boasts a good pitching staff. Admission to the games this afternoon will be only 15 cents. Members of the team have started a drive to sell tickets to the three remaining games. The tickets will be good to any of the games which will all be doubleheaders.

No admission has been charged to earlier games, the team being supporting itself. The team is several dollars in the hole and sale of tickets is hoped to bring them up to par.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 12 (AP)—Sharpshooting Pittsburgh batting behind impregnable pitching, today gave the Pirates a double conquest of the Chicago Cubs, 5-2 and 3-2, and boosted them back into second place in the National league.

The opener was a home run battle all the way.

In the second clash Danny MacFayden failed to hold the three run lead Lazzeri's homer game him, but Charley Devens came in after that A's had scored twice in the sixth to take a 6-4 lead and pitched two hit ball for the last 3 2-3 innings to get the decision over Geo. Earnshaw.
