A midnight crash of a car and a gasoline truck about 10 miles north of McLean last night rewoody, 37 years old, who had made his home in Borger and Pampa for about five years

Woody's nearly new Plymouth coupe, traveling at a fast rate of speed, crashed into the rear of a gasoline truck driven by W. A. Smith, and owned by J. G. Smith of the public at the Pampa Daily of Pampa. The impact crushed one NEWS free election party, side of the Plymouth and drove the gasoline trailer-truck forward 10 feet, although the tank was loaded and the breaks set. Mr. Smith had stopped to fix a leaking valve on the gasoline tank. He was en route to Shamrock. Waved Flashlight.

While examining the tank with a flashlight, Smith heard the roar of the approaching car, which could not be seen on account of a hill a few hundred vards away. Fearing an accident, he climbed off the tank, he stated this morning, and waved his flashlight. The onrushing car was not slowed until nearly upon the gasoline truck. Smith said the impact made a loud noise. He was thrown to his feet when struck by something, but continued running on his hands and knees.

returned to the truck, noted that Woody was crushed in the front seat of the Plymouth, and determined that the man was dead. He then walked a short distance to filling station operated by Otto Gross. He and Gross returned to the scene of the accident and shortly afterward went to the Back farm to telephone to Pampa for the Stephenson Mortuary ambulance. County Attorney Sherman White was summoned to witness the details of the accident.

Lubbock to Arrive About Friday Noon

Lubbock football fnas will arrive about noon Friday for the Armistice day game, according to information received here by Joe Smith.

The number to make the trip is not yet known. Texas Tech, playing Baylor Friday evening, will detract somewhat from the interest of the Pampa-Lubbock high school game, which will start at 2:30 p. m. A pep squad of 75 members and a ece band will come.

Nearly all of the reserved seats to be placed on sale here had been taken this morning at Mr. Smith's office. More than 3,000 unreserved seats will be available at the general admission charge of 75 cents.

Republican Crowding 'Ma' In North Pampa, But Due To Lose South Side.

Pampa voters, who four years ago preferred Herbert Hoover to Alfred E. Smith by a 2 to 1 vote, turned to Franklin D. Roosevelt by an overwhelming percentage today.

Unofficially, The NEWS learned at noon that Mr. Hoover was the "forgotten man" at one box but was doing better at two others. Many republicans were staying by their presidential nominee, but there was no doubt that Hoover would be snowed under in this county.

For governor, it was another story.

The south side of Pampa and Gray county were expected to vote heavily for Mrs. Ferguson. In North Pampa, however, the report was that Orville Bullington was crowding Mrs. Ferguson closely

At noon, 200 votes had been cast in the East Pampa, precinct, No. 9, and 350 in precinct No. 10 at the courthouse. The South Pampa box, No. 2. showed 250 votes cast. The heaviest balloting developed in early

SERVICE OF NEWSPAPERS

With candidates in the home stretch, it is pardonable, we trust, to pause for a moment over the subject of the service which newspapers have rendered during the cam-

Nearly fifty millions of voters are eligible to express at the polls their reaction to the millions of words which have dinned into their ears the real and imaginary issues of the year. We recall how, just a few months ago, the newspapers massed a small army of experts, telegraphers, and photographers in Chicago to report the national conventions as they have never before been "covered." That service has been matched by the marvelous coverage of the subsequent party efforts.

Mr. Hoover and Mr. Roosevelt, Mr. Garner and Mr. Curtis, have been trailed all over the country by the most expert writers, photographers, cartoonists, and observers that money can employ. Their speeches have been covered in great detail, together with all the charges and counter-charges, reactions and "bomb-shells" which have developed. The public has learned what each candidate ate for breakfast and how late he was up the night before. The lives of candidates were dissected for every sign of intelligence, as well as non-intelligence. The public has known it all-to the tune of reams of Public sentiment has been sounded, the past has been robbed of its political secrets and tendencies, the future has been forecast so that no intelligent voter should be deluded by ignorance and misinformation. That there with a tunultous day-long demarked problems so complex as to puzzle even the best-in-lonstration of military and latter power in which an estimated one formed voters is no fault of the newspapers. The welfare of a democracy is based on enlightened balloteers, and certainly no voter can plead ignorance this year. Added to tons of straight facts, the newspaper men have provided interpretations, editorial campaigns, opinions of experts-so that the public may know now without doubt what should be done. The public, and the juries of our land, are the judges of the evidence and the credibility of the witnesses. The press has been defense counsel, prosecuting attorney, and judge by turns, but to the mil-liens of voters is left the final responsibility.

In this age of free-thinking, the public values most highly its ability to make its own decisions. These decisions, however, must be based on information. The first from the Baltic fleet carried out duty of a newspaper is not to flaunt opinions, to cam- the military phase of the celebration paign, to interpret, to pre-digest; rather, it is to furnish mass of information. Three of Pool Halls Enjoined

Temperary injunctions to restrain the operation of so-called pool halls in Gray county were granted in three instances by Judge W. R. Ewing today.

Those enjoined on petition of J. L. Stroope, foreman of the grand jury, were the one at McLean, the oyal club here, and the Idle Hour club here.

A hearing on proposed closing of another club in Pampa and the club at LeFors will be held at 7:30 p. m. tomorrow and at 10 a. m. Saturday, respectively.

The state maintained that the en-terta nment halls were operating contrary to statute.

SERVICE OF NEWSPAPERS

me, and will gladly and fully correct any erroneous statement made

With candidates in the home stretch, it is pardonable, we trust, to pause for a moment over the subject of the service which newspapers have rendered during the cam-

Nearly fifty millions of voters are eligible to express at the polls their reaction to the millions of words which have dinned into their ears the real and imaginary issues of the year. We recall how, just a few months ago, the newspapers massed a small army of experts, telegraphers, and photographers in Chicago to report the national conventions as they have never before been "covered." That service has been matched by the marvelous coverage of the subsequent party efforts.

Mr. Hoover and Mr. Roosevelt, Mr. Garner and Mr. Curtis, have been trailed all over the country by the most expert writers, photographers, cartoonists, and observers that money can employ. Their speeches have been covered in great detail, together with all the charges and counter-charges, reactions and "bomb-shells" which have developed. The public has learned what each candidate ate for breakfast and how late he was up the night before. The lives of candidates were dissected for every sign of intelligence, as well as non-intelligence. The public has known it all—to the tune of reams of paper daily.

Public sentiment has been sounded, the past has been robbed of its political secrets and tendencies, the future has been forecast so that no intelligent voter should be deluded by ignorance and misinformation. That there are problems so complex as to puzzle even the best-informed voters is no fault of the newspapers. The welfare of a democracy is based on enlightened balloteers, and certainly no voter can plead ignorance this year. Added to tons of straight facts, the newspaper men have provided interpretations, editorial campaigns, opinions of experts—so that the public may know now without doubt what should be done. The public, and the juries of our land, are the judges of the evidence and the credibility of the witnesses. The press has been defense counsel, prosecuting attorney, and judge by turns, but to the milions of voters is left the final responsibility.

In this age of free-thinking, the public values most highly its ability to make its own decisions. These decisions, however, must be based on information. The first from the Baltic fleet carried out duty of a newspaper is not to flaunt opinions, to cam- the military phase of the celebration paign, to interpret, to pre-digest; rather, it is to furnish with a smart review which was notthe mass of information. Sees Movie on History of Fly

The first hour biology class was shown a very interesting science mo-tion picture last Wednesday by Mr. L. M. N. Bays, principal of Hop-kins school No. II. The picture included three reels.

The first reel showed the life history of the fly. The life was traced in these pictures through the eggs, the larvae stage which is the mag-got, the pupa stage, and last the adult fly. The second reel showed the life of the frog through its different stages. The third reel show-ed pictures of the protazo, one-celled animals which may be seen only Mrs. J. B. Each of the pictures was explained as it of the pictures as the pictures was explained as it of the pictures was explained as it of the pictures are not only as it is not only the pictures are not onl was shown, and the students seem-ed much interested.

Wants Students to Become 'Joiners'

There are several well organized clubs in P. H. S., such as the pep-squad, the band, the orchestra, the library club, the journalism club, and the home economics club, but the students as a whole are not taking part in the clubs and organizations as they should. It is not be-cause they do not have it in them; t is because sufficient interest has not been worked up. It would poy to talk up these things in P. H. S. Once the interest is aroused there will be better class and school spirit and more active organizations on the campus. Let's try.

MOST OF HARVESTERS EXPECTED TO BE IN GAME FRIDAY

While cripples sat in the specta-ors' seats in the gynasium yesterafternoon, the rest of the Harvester squad ran signals and worked on plays. Coaches did not let the boys suit up because of the cold wind which swooped down the city early in the afternoon.

After the practice, the boys nought they were back in classes when each member of the squad was handed several slips of paper and instructed to draw each play in the Harvester bag. It was a big ob but the boys showed that they ki w their football. There were several complicated plays in the lists and they could easily be mixed with other intricate systems.

A good practice is scheduled for his afternoon but no scrimmages on the program for the week. The Harvester list of cripples includes Jim Poole, Claude Sullins, Hoot Fullingim, Lloyd Hamilton, Rufus Walker, and Philip Powell. me of them will be in the game th the Lubbock Westerners Friy afternoon.

Beat Lubbock! Noisy Theme of Chapel Program

Determined to win the Lubbock ame, the students held a pep rally in the gym this morning instead of waiting until the regular chapel time Wednesday. Another assembly will be held Thursday morning.

The green and gold of the football weaters on one side, of the pep guad suits on the other, and of the new band uniforms in the center lent color to the assmbly. Songs yells, and pep talks filled the crowd with enthusiasm.

Superintendent Fisher was charge of the program. Mr. Lester made a short talk on "The Value of a Football Team." Coach Moore spoke for the Gorillas and offered the services of his men to Mitchell to help finish up Lubbock. Fisher then called on Miss May to give a report on the activities of certain folks who went to Oklahoma City last week-end. James Groom, manager of the team, spoke for the boys concerning the Capitol Hill trip, and "Chicken Creek" Ledrick told the folks what he told Coach Mitchell then asked for the aid of the entire student body in winning the Lubbock game. Captain Poole next promised the school the best the team can put out Friday Principal Sone stressed the imporance of teamwork not only of eleven men but of 775 students and the entire town.

Mr. Gordon announced that Pampa Drug Stores, Barnes and Hast r the game and the old dope cket has them down as favors, which is much to the liking of housand "Beat Lubbock" stickers available, and Miss Strnad ounced that Murfee's Inc., will provide hat bands.

Another pep assembly will be held ten o'clock Thursday morning at which time Baker school will pu on some stunts

Dear Old Jackson

Now Has a Catcher

DETROIT, Nov. 8.(A)-The baseball eam of dear old Jackson state prison can look forward to a winn-ng season next year, if a capable catcher was all it needed. For with the aid of recorder's Judge Henry S. Sweeney, Nicholas Gibrich, 18, who was good enough for try-outs with the St. Louis Cardinals and the Pittsburgh Pirates has "signed" for from one to five years.

Gibrich, who had pleaded guilty to burglary, said he had kept a-breast of the athletic situation at Jackson prison through a brother "If I have to go to prison, send me to Jackson," he asked Judge Sweeney. "They need a catcher for their ball team up there." So Jackson prison it was.

Four Dollars Is Spent for Food: Family Well-Fed

As far as food is concerned, the family of Mrs. L. S. Prock, Alan-reed, can laugh at the depression. Mrs. Prock's grocery bill averges only $4 a month and is never nore than $6, yet her family is well-fed.

That was one of the interest-ing facts revealed when the Alanreed home demonstration club observed achievement day in the home of Mrs. Prock, 4-H pantry demonstrator, last Friday.

Mrs. Prock canned 967 quarts of food, valued at $521.25. She has 125 hens and pullets on her farm, as well as cows, hogs, and seven turkeys. She bartered beets and tomatoes for wheat, sweet potatoes for flour, pepper for cabbage. She secured bottles for canning juices without cost. She canned 200 quarts of cherries from her orchard and marketed them.

Whole Hat Gives Way To Half a Hat in Style

By DIANA MERWIN

NEW YORK, Nov. 8. (A)-This season half a hat is not only better than none; it is better than a whole hat.

To misquote Kipling, the hat of today is nothing much at the right and rather less than half of that at Even the left. At smart restaurants these nights much soup grows cold and ice cream warm as hat-conscious diners try to guess who is hatless and who half-hatted.

Another mystery is involved in the strange power of small flat turbans and still smaller berets to cling to their place atop a smoothly coiffed head. The secret, however, really is simple—a narrow elastic band inside the hat holds it securely in SYNOPSIS: The wreckage of Santa's first disastrous marriage to Dicky Dak had scarcely been cleared away in the Chicago divorce court before she and her girthood sweetheart Clive Doncaster are married and take the train for New York. Just as the snage of the filted Clive had hung over her marriage with the rotter Dicky, so Dicky's image is in Santa's and Clive's minds now. Santa has marriage experience—Clive has none.

onstantly increasing. He not only has the regular constitutional duties of enforcing the laws, commanding the army and navy, making tree and appointments, any one of which is a huge responsibility. But congress may, and does, create new commissions and bureaus responsi-ble to him which add to the burden. Merely to list these executive commissions and bureaus and their officers takes some 60 pages in the Congressional Directory; the Veteran's Bureau, Shipping Board, Alien Properties Custodian, Tariff Comcabinet members.

Cabinet officers have access to the president at any time without regard to the schedule of appointments which is placed before him each morning, portioning out every minute of his working day. He must be available to 435 representaives and 96 senators at almost any

All in Day's Work He is required by law to countersign the wills of Indians, who are not citizens, but wards of the nation. Until the administration of averaged 79.6 years of life, the next President Coolidge every federal 10, 68.5, and the most recent 10, 61.9 land grant had to carry his signature. Coolidge balked on this, and empowered Mrs. Vila B. Pugh of the Land Grant office to sign his name on these.

The president must preside over cabinet meetings regularly, and hear reports regularly from these officers, and the heads of the executive bureaus and commissions.

Then there are little matters like eviewing troops, laying cornernes, unveiling monuments, joining lodges, opening conventions, pushing buttons, posing for pictures with delegations, tap-dancers, opera singers, or anybody else an enter-prising press agent leads to the White House door. The American president has no Prince of Wales to attend to these matters. Of course he doesn't have to write the speeches for such of these affairs as require them. But he has to read

That is enough. Distribution of patronage and apof re-election or at least of the conership in an often hostile congress is most discouraging."

But he must personally receive all foreign envoys and give at least four formal receptions at the White House each year, shaking hands through a long, dull evening with thousands of people.

And No Privacy Even in his daily routine he is and shake hands with the president. So at noon there is usually little informal reception when visitors file through the executive offices and grasp the president's hand, sometimes as many as 400

The people furnish the president house to live in, but they retain the right to tramp through a great part of it at certain hours. Even when he seeks relaxation he is not alone, for the secret service, charged with his safety, has always from three to a dozen men at his heels. President Roosevelt chafed at this constant guard, but the memory of Lincoln, Garfield and McKinley keeps the secret service vigilant.
