PRICE FIVE CENTS

LOCAL OPTION DEFEATED IN 44 COUNTIES

THREE-FIFTHS OF 77 COUNTIES VOTING WON BY DRYS

DALLAS, Aug. 28 (AP)—Texas, the twenty-third consecutive state to vote for prohibition repeal, also legalized 3.2 beer within its vast area, dry for 14 years.

The beer may be sold after mid-night September 14. Formal ratification of the voters' repeal sentiments Saturday will be made at Austin November 24.

The final tabulation announced by the Texas Election Bureau, a quasi-official organization maintained by newspapers in the state showed for repeal a majority of 114,485 and for liberalization of the state constitution to permit manufacture and sale of beer, a majority of 128,306.

These majorities were indicated in a total vote counted of 444,649. The election bureau estimated less than 100,000 votes were outstanding and these were so scattered that should existing percentages continue to the end, the final majority for repeal would be 135,000 and for beer 154,000, the bureau said in a statement.

The state constitutional amendment authorizing a $20,000,000 bond issue and another granting home rule to counties of certain sizes were shown to have carried by majorities of more than 10,000 each. Another amendment extending tax exemptions to homesteads in counties excepted from the original amendment went over by more than 200,000.

Although the state as a whole appeared to have voted by a safe majority for repeal and legalization of 3.2 per cent beer, scattering returns from the 188 local option elections indicated that of the communities where the issue was submitted, three-fifths of them would remain dry.

Partial returns last night showed that 44 of these local option elections were won by the drys and 33 by the wets. Reports from the others had not been received.

Houston, San Antonio, portions of Galveston county and numerous other localities had no local option laws before state and national prohibition became effective, so no further steps were necessary there to make beer sales legal after mid-night September 14, the date set by the legislature for effectiveness of the act should beer legalization be approved in Saturday elections.

Dallas, Fort Worth, Beaumont, Port Arthur, Waco, Amarillo, Wichita Falls, and other heavily populated centers voted by large majorities to legalize beer sales, although some few precincts voted to remain dry.

NEWS To Print "School Edition" Next Wednesday

The Pampa Daily NEWS of next Wednesday, August 30, will be of particular importance to parents who are preparing to send their children to school September 4.

The NEWS will present advertising on that day which will be a shopping guide to the children and their parents. All kinds of supplies for school, including clothing and shoes, will be shown.

Probably for the last time in years will such low prices prevail. When the merchants re-stock, they will have to pay more for school supplies and, indeed, everything the students need.

News of the schools will also be presented.

'May-December' Couple Happy

THIRTY-SEVEN years difference in ages made this honeymoon breakfast none the less romantic. Dr. Arthur S. Baker, 51, and his 14-year-old bride, the former Marjorie Hughes, shown at Montebello, Calif., after their wedding trip, contend they have a better chance of happiness than couples of the same age.

TWINKLES
Gray county surely did her part to pass the relief bond amendment!

And if we were to follow the style of another columnist in this section, we might say "Boy, Oh Boy! Aren't we a campaigner—was there ever a vote getter like the Pampan!"

But we don't say any such thing. We did all we could to lay the facts before the intelligent people of this county. They did the rest, as they have done on other questions. We have a great people. It's a privilege to live in Gray county.

We regret that so many who were with us had not paid their poll taxes. It is a huge error to place a monetary charge upon the voting privilege in a self-governing nation like ours. It's all wrong and we're going to battle for an amendment to re-enfranchise the hundreds of thousands of persons in this state who can ill afford the $1.75 expense for voting members of their families.

The legislature now has the authority to cooperate with the federal government in caring for the destitute. The work is just starting. The money must be well spent. It must be safeguarded and not allowed to become another instance of political patronage. Our responsibility was to untie the hands of legislature; theirs is to use those hands wisely.

OUR CONTEMPORARIES

FRED STORY in Clarendon News says "most people are very pleasant as long as you don't try to collect." (Yeah, and the West Foster grouch here at Pampa says when you do try to collect your former customer goes over to the opposition and pays cash.)

T. A. LANDERS remarks in his McLean News that "it has been said we were given two eyes, two ears, and only one mouth, yet the mouth does us more harm than any of the others." (Running a paper is a good way to learn to control the tongue, eh, T. A.?)

Up at Canadian, J. M. NOBLE in The Record says that "anyone who reads the annual reports of the larger American corporations cannot help being impressed by their tax statements." (Tax bills hurt big business just as they do little firms, and the greater the depression the heavier the tax to bear and yet maintain payrolls.)

"Before you mark your ballot, be sure you are right," advised R. B. HAYNES in the Miami Chief last week. (But there seems to be no way of knowing exactly when you are right on all issues—unless you take R. B.'s word for it!)

I HEARD—

That both the City of Pampa and Gray county will place a tax on beer, possibly the maximum, by September. The two levies can equal the state license.

RAIN TOTAL OF LAST 2 NIGHTS IS 1.80 INCHES

Generous Rains Fall Over Entire Section

Gray county shared generously Saturday night and Sunday night in rains which deluged this territory in every direction. The precipitation on the two nights was .85 and .95 inches, respectively.

The fall last night was rather short but severe. Nearly every point in this territory reported having had from half an inch to an inch of rain. Roads today were passable but slippery. All buses came through but were behind schedule.

The Canadian river was reported to be full from bank to bank for the first time in many months. Railroad tracks were damaged by high water north of Amarillo but were quickly repaired. A short length of paving was washed out between Borger and Kennett. As much as 6 inches of rain fell in the Dumas territory.

Farmers say they have had enough rain for the present. Row crops in the county are too late to make grain, but there will be much roughage. Cotton is growing rapidly.

Gasoline Prices Hiked One Cent

HOUSTON, Aug. 28 (AP)—Gasoline prices were advanced one cent a gallon by the Texas company today. Ethyl is now retailing at filling stations at 20 1/2 cents, commercial gas at 18 1/2 cents, and number 3 gas at 14 1/2 cents. The advance was effective at 7 a. m. and is applicable to all Texas points.

Adoption of the NRA code is assigned as the reason for the increase.

MOLEY AND ASTOR DENY COMING JOURNAL IS FACE-SAVING PLAN

NEW YORK, Aug. 28 (AP)—On their own initiative Vincent Astor and Raymond Moley emphatically denied today, any face-saving connection in their coming journalistic adventure.

They denied it in turn before a large assembly of reporters in Astor's downtown office.

"From reading the morning papers," said Astor, "one might be led to believe Mr. Moley really resigned as Assistant Secretary of State as the result of disagreement in the state department following the London conference. That isn't true."

"There is no denying the fact that resigning as a result of a conflict is interesting," said Moley, who is to be editor of Astor's forthcoming weekly political journal, "but it just isn't so."

NEW PROBLEM IS INCREASING WHEAT SUPPLY

'EXPORTABLE SURPLUS' IN NORTHWEST TO BE VAST

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28 (AP)—Disposition of America's bulging wheat crops popped up as a major problem again today despite action by nature. The agricultural adjustment administration, and more than a score of governments in signing at London a pact to cut down production and reopen foreign markets.

While one group in the agriculture department sought to speed up the campaign to reduce American wheat acreage, from another came word that two of the nation's largest producing areas will have vast "exportable surplus" this year—the Pacific northwest and the southwest.

Meanwhile the export movement of wheat has slowed down to a mere trickle compared with years past and doubts have arisen whether the wheat acreage reduction plan will offset unofficial reports that farmers not joining in it contemplate increasing their production.

Pending a study of the London agreement, administrators are withholding a decision on their plans for subsidizing exports of the grain. They have looked to China as an outlet but still another group reported that "there is no immediate interest in buying foreign wheat" there.

The bureau of agricultural economics estimates the "exportable surplus" at 161,000,000 bushels, most of it in the Pacific northwest and southwest, after allowing 125,000,000 bushels as a minimum carryover after domestic needs have been met from the potential supply. It would have been much higher except that this year's crop, the lowest since 1925, is estimated at less than 500,000,000 bushels. The July 1, carryover was 386,000,000.

Secretary Wallace believes that because world prices are substantially below American prices it may be impossible for this country to export as much as 40,000,000 bushels a year. If this estimate materializes, it is possible that the nation will have on hand unexported more than 120,000,000 bushels of its "exportable surplus" in addition to a carryover of 125,000,000 bushels.

Walker's Staff Will Plan Drive This Afternoon

General Chairman C. H. Walker and his "military" and general staff were to meet at the city hall this afternoon.

The main discussion was to be planning of the consumer campaign. Since all businesses are supposed to be under the blue eagle by Friday, it is expected that the consumer campaign can start immediately after that time.

This will be part of a national campaign. Women will have a large part in this drive.

INFANT IS BURIED

The infant of Mr. and Mrs. Tom McLoughlin, who died Saturday, was buried in the baby garden at Fairview cemetery yesterday afternoon. The Rev. W. O. Cooley, Central Baptist pastor, conducted the service at the cemetery.

Burial was directed by the Stephenson mortuary.

BURGAW, N. C., Aug. 28 (AP)—The body of Doc Rogers, 45-year-old negro farmer who shot a white woman and a deputy sheriff yesterday and was then slain after a three-hour gun battle with officers, was dragged about the lawn of the Funder county courthouse here last night.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28 (AP)—The New York Sun said today that United States Senator Huey Long, self styled Louisiana Kingfish, was the subject of a punching Saturday night in a fashionable Long Island spot near Fort Washington. The Sun did not name the purported assailant or give any details, except to say that the man had been "gravely insulted" by Long.

AMARILLO, Aug. 28 (AP)—Dr. E. H. Boaz today was charged with assault with intent to murder in connection with a knife battle staged Saturday night in a hotel room here. The physician, formerly of Memphis, Texas, is in a hospital under guard. M. L. May and James McAuley, both wounded seriously in the fight, have a chance to recover, physicians said.

AMARILLO, Aug. 28 (AP)—Stimmet early this afternoon remained isolated from the rest of the Panhandle after torrential rains Saturday and Sunday nights had swept away bridges on highways leading into the city. The state highway department expected to complete temporary bridges by late afternoon.

AMARILLO, Aug. 28 (AP)—Hardy Caded, former R. F. C. worker and ranch hand, today was charged with sending threatening letters through the mails in connection with the extortion plot against R. B. Masterman Jr., prominent cattleman of Amarillo.

MONARCHY IS GIVEN SUPPORT BY 'OLD PAUL'

HITLER RATTLES SABER IN WAR TALK OVER SAAR VALLEY

BERLIN, Aug. 28 (AP)—Germans regarded as handwriting on the wall today the broad-hints of two leaders regarding restoration of the monarchy and the Reich's claims to the Saar territory.

Venerable President Paul Von Hindenburg said he was thinking of his "Kaiser, the king and lord" when he accepted as a gift from east Prussia a forest estate adjoining his ancestral home at Neudeck.

Chancellor Adolf Hitler told a crowd of 200,000 that Germany, without wanting a new war or proposing to annex anything foreign, would never renounce her claims to the Saar.

"The flying chancellor" in his swift airplane flew to both gatherings about 700 miles apart—the demonstration at Niederwald mountain near the southwestern border, and exercises for Von Hindenburg at Tannenber, near the eastern extremity.

Thousands of persons—representatives of the old Imperial Army in uniforms, an honor company of the standing army, brown-shirted attendants, people from every German province, not others, farmers, and others—headed knowingly as Hindenburg said:

"I am thinking with reverence, fidelity, and gratitude of my Kaiser, the king and lord, in this hour, when I am thinking also of my deceased comrades in arms, and when I proceed to thank you for the gift."

He deposited a wreath in memory of his fallen comrades commemorating the victory of the former army leader over Russian forces in the world war.

Automobile clubs throughout Germany arranged a tour to East Prussia though the Polish territory that separates it from the rest of the Reich to assure the east Prussians that they intend to stand by the province.

Before the Niederwald monument Hitler predicted that in 1935 Saar residents would vote in a plebiscite to rejoin the fatherland. Now under League of Nations control, they will determine whether to remain a semi-autonomous state, become a part of France, or rejoin Germany.

Mob Action Is Threatened In Hockley Killing

LEVELLAND, Aug. 28 (AP)—V. L. Bradlev, charged with murder in connection with the fatal shooting of Tom Lettmer, about 45 here late Saturday, was transferred to Lubbock Sunday for safe keeping. Threats of violence in Hockley county resulted in the transfer, local officers said.

Lettmer, a water well driller, was struck with a shotgun well under the right shoulder blade as he was walking across the street from a produce station Bradley operated. He died instantly. Lettmer, eye witnesses said, had exploded a small torpedo on the sidewalk behind Bradley a short time before the shooting.

POLICE GUARD LINDBERGH'S IN DANISH CAPITAL

Hotel Is Stormed By Young Autograph Hunters

COPENHAGEN, Aug. 28 (AP)—Police stationed a guard today in front of the hotel where Col. Chas. A. Lindbergh and his wife are staying, and the men assigned to this duty had plenty of work keeping back a crowd of youthful autograph hunters and others.

The rooms occupied by the Lindberghs, who arrived Saturday after completing a flight over the north Atlantic route by stages from the United States, were guarded as though they contained the crown jewels.

So many letters and telegrams had piled up for the Lindberghs that merely to read them all would take a day or two. The messages included a large number from America sent by way of the American legation.

Apparently the airman realized that he could not entirely escape the public, for he seemed to be taking things philosophically. When he left his hotel autograph hunters rushed past the police guard, but Lindbergh, too quick for them, managed to reach his car and get away.

He drove to the naval seaplane station where he examined his plane carefully. It was reported that the plane will be thoroughly overhauled, as the Lindberghs have flown more than 6,000 miles since they left America.

English Woman Golfer Cracks 36-Year Record

EXMOOR CLUB, Highland Park, Ill., Aug. 28 (AP)—Shattering a record that had stood for 36 years, Enid Wilson of England shot a brilliant 76 today in the qualifying round of the women's national golf championship.

Miss Wilson, making her third and perhaps final bid for the American title, got her record breaking score and probably the medal with a great finish of two birdies and an eagle. The former low qualifying record that had stood for years was 77, held by four players.

Clipping par by one shot with a 78, Helen Hicks of New York, 1931 titleholder, led the early finishers in the struggle for the national women's golf championship medal at Exmoor today.

Bucking a cross wind that sent many scores so high that an 88 appeared good enough to qualify for the 32 match play positions, Miss Hicks hit every shot beautifully and posted a score of 37-41, 78.</

A NEW ERA DAWNS FOR THE WORKING MAN

American labor can take a hitch in its pants and cock its hat over one ear when it celebrates Labor Day this year.

On every Labor Day that anyone can remember, the nation has handed the working man a lot of flowery tributes about the nobility of his toil, and has complimented him with sugary phrases for being the backbone of the republic.

This year, for the first time, the nation is beginning to act as if it meant all of those things.

In that fact there is signalized the opening of a great new vista for labor. It has its charter of freedom, at last; it has its most valiant friends in high places at Washington; it has a pretty definite assurance that it is not going to get marked cards from the bottom of the deck any longer.

And on this Labor Day, so significant with its promise of a new deal for the man who works for wages, it might be an extremely good thing if the men who own and direct the physical properties of the United States would sit down for a moment and meditate on the debt that they owe to labor.

Labor has played ball during the trying years of the depression.

It has paid for those years in acute hardship—in hunger, in want, in loss of hope, in disappointment, in unwanted idleness. It has been tried as never before. It has seen the promises of former Labor Days turned into mockeries by the economic collapse.

But it has kept faith. It has not turned radical, it has not opened its brawny hands to destroy the system which let it down. It has simply tightened its belt and waited for a break in the luck.

Now the break has come. Labor can celebrate this holiday as never before. Its rights are written into federal law—its rights to a job, its rights to a living wage and a decently short working day, its rights to organize in its own way to protect its status. The federal government is pledged to see that those rights are respected.

With all of this, of course, goes a new responsibility. Labor has been given a new charter of rights; it is up to labor, now, to demonstrate that this charter will not be abused, to prove that capital and consumer alike can get from labor the kind of co-operation that will be necessary if the last uphill pull to prosperity is to be completed.

That such co-operation will be given is easy to believe. A new day has dawned for the American working man. His past record makes one confident that he will neither abuse the privileges it brings him nor neglect the duties it entails.

MACHADO AND PARTY LEAVE FOR CANADA

DEPOSED PRESIDENT'S ASSOCIATES TAKEN ON SHIP

HAVANA, Aug. 28 (AP)—General Mario G. Menocal, president of Cuba from 1912 to 1920 and outstanding opponent of the recently overthrown Machado administration today announced his re-entry into the political arena as leader of the conservative party in the forthcoming elections.

It was believed he would again be a candidate for the presidency. After a visit to provisional President Carlos Manuel de Cespedes, who wishes to retire after the present emergency is over, Menocal said he would "carry the banner of the conservative party, as well as of all Cuban political factions that are ready to fight for democratic principles."

Menocal was held prisoner for several months by the Machado government after being captured in the unsuccessful revolution of August, 1931.

Three men associated with the Machado government were arrested this morning aboard the North German Lloyd freighter Erfurt, after the army, navy and members of the ABC secret political society had sought them all week. The three, former Senator Wilfredo Fernandez, Representative Fidel Canas, and Benigno Gonzales, ex-mayor of Matanzas, were taken to Cabana Fortress.

At Camaguey, Domingo Depara, another former senator, was taken in custody.

NASSAU, N. P., Aug. 28 (AP)—Gerardo Machado, deposed president of Cuba, and his party, seeking new refuge in Canada, boarded the Steamship Lady Cordeux late today soon after its arrival in Nassau harbor.

The vessel was scheduled to sail at 7 p. m. for Canada via the Bermuda.

Officials Fail To Keep Dates At Legion Meet

WICHITA FALLS, Aug. 28 (AP)—A roll call of Texas posts attending the annual convention of the American Legion in session here opened the third day business meeting today.

The meeting was followed by a brief concert by the Port Arthur Post, No. 7, state champion drum and bugle corps.

Watson B. Miller of Philadelphia, chairman of the national rehabilitation committee of the Legion, spoke on "National Rehabilitation" in a report to the convention. Carl Nesbitt, state commander, called the meeting to order. After the advancing of the colors, F. W. Langham, state chaplain, gave the invocation and Bob Whiteaker, state adjutant, made announcements regarding committee meetings and reports.

Nesbitt, Whiteaker, W. F. Spiegel, treasurer, and A. Garland Adair, historian, made reports.

Speakers on the opening program were Tom F. Hunter of Wichita Falls and W. D. McFarlane of Gingham. Huey P. Long, United States senator from Louisiana; Morris Sheppard, United States senator from Texas; and Ernest O. Thompson, member of the state railroad commission, cancelled their engagements to speak.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Aug. 28 (AP)—Grains sagged wearily today, hauled downward by a sharp drop in exchange rates on the British pound sterling. Trading was exceptionally narrow and quiet. Fairly liberal rains over parts of the wheat and corn belts were also discouraging. Liverpool wheat prices were relatively steady, in terms of English money, but were 1-3-8 to 1-5-8 cents lower in dollars because of the lower rate for sterling. Millers were fairly good buyers of cash wheat. Scattered liquidation in corn held that grain down.

Minutes Of U. S. Senate Read In Japanese Trial

TOKYO, Aug. 28. (AP)—The State bank began hummation today in began summations today in the court martial at Yokosuka naval base of 11 officers charged with participation in the assassination last May of Premier Inukai and accompanying acts of terrorism.

Direct testimony ended and defense attorneys used as the principal theme of their pleas that American support of the London naval treaty justified the young Japanese cadets in their conviction that Japanese leaders' acceptance of the treaty constituted a national betrayal.

Pursuing the argument stressed by the defense since the trial began 18 days ago that indignation over this "national betrayal" largely justified the accused men in their "patriotic crimes," attorneys offered as evidence a copy of the stenographic minutes of the American senate's foreign relations committee debate concerning the treaty in 1920.

It was maintained that arguments of American supporters of the treaty proved the righteousness of the Japanese antagonists to it.

NRA VIOLATIONS WILL BE GIVEN FIRST ATTENTION

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28. (AP)—NRA volunteers—1,500,000 strong, opened today, Hugh S. Johnson's mandate "we cannot afford to fail," a campaign to implant the blue eagle in every business house and in millions of homes.

Spreading this "greatest corps of volunteers in the country's history" is the "door-to-door" campaign, Johnson told his workers and the country that "either through codes or agreements we enter this drive with between 70 and 80 per cent of the employers in trade and industry already under the blue eagle."

The recovery administrator described the drive as a "milestone in human progress, explaining: "For the first time the American people has a chance to test in business a principle that they long ago proved in government. The principle is the tried old slogan, 'In union there is strength.'"

"Buy under the blue eagle" was the watchword set by Johnson for his volunteers after warning that "even a shadow" of "boycott, intimidation and violence would spoil the whole endeavor to do."

"But there must not be the slightest misunderstanding. It is not a boycott, for the people of a distressed country to say they are going to stick to those who do their part to cife a common evil and to ignore those who refuse to do so. It is to otherwise would be to frustrate the national purpose."

When Johnson made his address last night he had just completed one of the NRA's biggest tasks and was deep in critical negotiations to try for completion of a second, that of an automobile code that, now signed by President Roosevelt, will be binding upon all that industry, except the Ford company, on September 5, the day after Labor Day. Ford, virtually the only non-signer, will have a further 10-day period to determine his course.

STANTON TRIAL SET

PLAINVIEW, Aug. 28. (AP)—Trial of Ed (Perchmouth) Stanton for murder in the slaying of J. C. Moseley, Swisher county sheriff, January 25, was set for September 11 in sixty-fourth district court today. Attorneys for Stanton indicated they would file application for a change of venue.

Build Up that Skinny Child!

Enrich His Impoverished Blood

Sickly, weak, underweight children are usually lacking in rich, red blood. When blood becomes poor, a child becomes run-down, already weak, he loses appetite, which makes him still weaker. Take no chances on a child gaining strength. Start giving him Grove's Tasteless Child Tonic right away. This famous tonic contains both iron and tasteless quinine. It makes for rich, red blood while quinine tends to purify the blood. In other words, you get two effects in one. Grove's Tasteless Child Tonic. Put your child on this time-proven tonic for a few days and see the difference it makes in him. Good appetite, lots of pep and energy and red roses in his cheeks. Children like Grove's Tasteless Child Tonic and take it eagerly. It is absolutely harmless and has been a reliable family medicine for half a century. Get a bottle today at any store.

The HIDDEN DOOR

BY FRANK L. PACKARD

SYNOPSIS: Colin Hewitt, the mystery writer, is going about New York disguised as Clarke Lunn, a minor criminal. He has been threatened with death by the Mask, New York killer; he had gone to Canada in an effort to find Joe Lazzare, and get his help against the Mask. But there he stumbled into a raid upon the Mask's huge counterfeiting plant by hi-jackers under a rum runner, Captain Dollaire, and missed Lazzare. He met Germaine Tremblay, however, and now they are engaged. "Clarke" just has been tipped off that Dollaire is at a night club with a "rum baron."

CHAPTER 30
CONTACT

Spinnelli's enjoyed a reputation. There was no night club in New York that offered better entertainment or a wider opportunity to spend money, it was expensive, but admittedly cosmopolitan.

Dinner jackets and "tails" mingled in almost freedom with tweeds and what-nots; the ladies were equally without restriction in the choice of their ensembles, and a street costume was as welcome as an evening gown. Salvatore Spinnelli demanded only two requisites from his patrons: an "introduction" by way of entree—and the price.

Colin, as Clarke Lunn, possessed both.

It had been a matter of only six or seven blocks from his room, and, encountering no taxi, he had walked; and, now still in one of the lower fifties, he rang the bell of the three-story brownstone front with its shaded windows that harbored Spinnelli's admittedly colorful contribution to the night life of New York.

He had been there many times before. The doorman therefore admitted him without question. He crossed the wide reception hall to the desk just inside the iron gate that barred further progress, but which was so disarmingly artistic and ornamental that its existence was robbed of any suggestion of premeditated offense. Here he laid down his five-dollar "subscription"—and the door of the iron grill opened for him. A page took his hat.

Colin thrust his hands in his pockets and for a moment stared around him. It was already after midnight. Spinnelli's was in full swing. "Guests" were swarming in—he had been the only one admitted at the same time.

Straight ahead of him was the dance floor, the entrance blocked by a bevy of men and women gathered around the doorway. From within, a saxophone was playing, and someone, a boy with glistering teeth that barred further progress, was crooning a song. Colin shrugged his shoulders. Oh, well, some people liked that sort of thing—and Spinnelli's catered to all tastes!

On his right was a richly carpeted, spacious stairway. He turned in that direction. The bar was on the second floor. His feet sank noiselessly into the deep pile as he mounted the stairs. Dollaire. A month of futility, and now, least expected of all—Dollaire!

An uplift was upon him that he had not known for weeks. Whether merely contemptuous, or not, or whether he knew it or not, Dollaire was playing against stacked cards. It was as good as a certainty that the Mask had discovered it too—and the Mask had a very large account to settle with Dollaire!

Contact at last! If luck broke for him tonight, he would be able to identify—not the Mask, he could hardly hope for that—but one, or more perhaps, of the Mask's tools. That would be enough! He would night up the trail.

He gained the landing and entered the barroom. It was a huge room—its appointments lavish. The mahogany bar that ran its entire length glistened even in the soft, rose-shaded lighting. People were coming and going, pairs and groups were standing about here and there, glass in hand; and yet the room was not crowded, for the bar, though it kept four or five white-coated attendants busy, was not the sole Mecca of the thirsty at Spinnelli's one came here mostly for the hard stuff.

Colin glanced up and down the room. Butch Connal's "drunk at the bar" was not hard to identify—or, at least, there was but one man present who was outstanding in that particular. Colin watched the man for a moment—a middle-aged man in a dinner jacket, his tie sadly awry, his gait none too steady to be moved here and there, chatteringly attempting to insinuate himself into everybody else's conversation. The typical inebriated pest of the garrulous variety!

Who was the man—if it was the man? He had never seen the other before. The man had certainly not been one from Butch Connal's gang who had visited Colin when he was in the hospital. Of course not! Butch didn't work that way. None better than Butch knew what was at stake and the danger that would be invited if Clarke Lunn were in any way linked up with Reddy Turner's old mob—but Butch, when it came to details, made few mistakes.

The man, carrying his glass rather uncertainly, and having been summarily ejected from a group near by, was moving slightly in Colin's direction. Colin, starting toward the bar, purposely allowed their paths to cross. They bumped into each other, and the contents of the other's glass was spilled on the floor.

"Shay," said the man thickly, "sorry! Most awful damn sorry! L—L—L—apologize. Buy you another."

"I'm afraid it was your glass, not mine, that was spilled," smiled Colin.

Someone in the immediate foreground laughed.

"It's no matter," declared the inebriated one. "Buy you another all the same. Come on."

"Just as you say," agreed Colin good-naturedly.

There was an empty space at the end of the bar. The "drunk" lurched in that direction. Colin followed.

"Make it—hic—two high balls," commanded Colin's new-found companion.

They were served with the drinks.

"Four dollars," said the bartender amiably—Spinnelli's was not at all cheap.

The "drunk" was apparently hard of hearing; and, besides, he was clinging a little precariously to the bar.

Colin pushed a bill across the bar. The bartender grinned.

"And besides that," he said in a friendly undertone as he returned the change, "he'll talk the leg off you if you give him a chance—and he ain't got any bottom in his tank."

"Thanks," said Colin. "I'm on! But don't worry, I'm no Santa Claus."

The "drunk" had still apparently heard nothing, but, as the bartender moved away to serve another customer he turned and leaned heavily with his back against the bar. He spoke then over the rim of his glass as he lifted it shakily to his lips:

"Clarke Lunn?"

"Yes."

"Ever hear of anyone by the name of Connal?"

"Butch sent me."

"Okay. Sorry to sting you for those four bucks—but it lets us both out. Got to keep up appearances, you know, or I wouldn't be worth a nickel to Butch. I don't travel around with the gang—not even as one of them. You're all right, though. I'm under—see? There's a lot of things—worth cash—to get next to in these joints and around town."

"Anyone who's in with Butch is right with me," Colin answered.

The man swayed, upset a goody portion of his highball, and then with a valiant effort carried the glass again to his lips.

"That goes both ways," he said. "I know what you want. Dollaire's brought his schooner up from St. Pierre with a full load of high-priced goods. It's somewhere out there just beyond the twelve-mile limit. Dollaire's been ashore all day angling for the best offer. It looks like Helmie Schwarm, the big booze baron was coming across the biggest wad. Anyway, the two of them are making love to each other now in the dance hall downstairs."

"I don't know either of them," said Colin.

"Well, you can't miss Helmie. He's a straw-haired Dutchy in a red tie and light suit like he always wears. He's sitting on one of those little stalls near the door, and the fellow that is with him is Dollaire. Anyway, they were both of them there a few minutes before you came in, and I guess they're there still, for they were just starting on a fresh bottle of fizz."

"Right!" said Colin. "I'll push on, then."

"Wait a second. Leave the break-away to me. I'll screen better—and there's no telling who's looking. And—listen! I don't know what your game is, but watch your step! There's something queer going on around here tonight. I don't know yet what it is—but—the drunk was suddenly patting Colin's arm. His voice rose:

"Excuse me for a minute. Just saw an old friend of mine—hic—very intimate friend over there. I'll get him—hic—and we'll have another."

MOLEY QUILTS CABINET--TO EDIT WEEKLY

SECRETARY HULL WINS ARGUMENT OVER ADVISER

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Aug. 28. (AP)—Raymond Moley, intimate of President Roosevelt and recent storm center of the administration is going to edit a new national weekly to be published by Vincent Astor, another friend and distant relative of the chief executive.

The sudden retirement of the Columbia university professor and close adviser of the president was announced yesterday after a talk between the two.

The first break in the official family of the President followed closely an almost open routine in the state department between Secretary Hull and Moley, the assistant secretary.

Mr. Roosevelt is very friendly to both Moley and Hull and all those involved say everything is all right. Certainly there is no break in the friendship between the president and Moley who has been the key man of his group of advisers during the last two years.

"I need not tell you," said Mr. Roosevelt in his letter accepting Moley's resignation, "that I appreciate and shall always remember your participation during these two years in the development of policies based on our common ideals. You have rendered a very definite service to your country; and your departure from an official position to undertake an editorship will give you opportunity to carry on the task in an equally wide field."

Moley was just as sincere in his letter of resignation which makes his retirement from office effective on September 7.

The departure of Moley from official service follows an interesting series of events. Moley was the lone man who accompanied Roosevelt to the white house last winter when President Hoover asked for a conference on war debts.

When Mr. Roosevelt took office he was made assistant secretary of state. He consulted frequently at the white house. The London economic conference came along. Secretary Hull headed the American delegation. Moley went over as

Ford Is Silent On His Own Code

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28. (AP)—Despite the promulgation last night by President Roosevelt of an NRA code for the automobile industry, Henry Ford today still had not indicated his attitude.

Referring to reports that the Detroit manufacturer intended placing in effect maximum hour-minimum wage scales more beneficial to labor than those provided in the code drafted by the National Automobile chamber of commerce, it was pointed out by NRA officials that he could not use the blue eagle without signing the general agreement.

The law provides that once a code is made effective, it shall be applicable to the entire industry or any sub-division thereof. The wages in the charter are minimum wages, it was said, and even should Ford order higher wages it still would be necessary for him to accept the code to display the NRA insignia.

HUCKINS DIES

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 28. (AP)—Joseph Huckins Jr., whose hotels kept pace with the southwest's rapid growth, is dead. Born in a hotel, Huckins followed in the path of his father who was identified with the famous Parker House in Boston; the Palmer House in Chicago and the Planters in St. Louis, and became in turn president of the Huckins Hotel company, which now operates hotels in seven cities of the south and west.

Roy Huff of Miami was in Pampa on business this morning.

special messenger for the president, something happened over there that brought the differences of opinion between Hull and Moley to a climax.

The president, of course, stood by his secretary of state. Upon his return Moley was transferred to a special assignment to study kidnaping and racketeering. He has been on that study for three weeks and separated from the state department.

Resignation was not at his suggestion.

From his mountain vacation place in Virginia Hull sent word to the press he "had no information beforehand that Professor Moley contemplated resigning" as assistant secretary of state. He further said in his formal statement:

"I may add that I can accurately say, in this connection, that I have not at any time offered the slightest suggestion to the president or Mr. Moley relative to any present or future change in the official status of the latter as assistant secretary of state."

Texan Is Slated For Position On Oil Committee

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Aug. 28. (AP)—President Roosevelt studied carefully today with Secretary Ickes the membership of the oil planning and coordination committee and it appeared likely that James A. Moffett, former vice president of the Standard Oil of New Jersey, would be his choice to head the three government representatives.

So interested is the president in seeing a new order for this warring industry he intends to keep the closest personal supervision of it to assure a new deal and an end of the over production of this resource resulting from cut-throat competition.

In all likelihood, Professor George W. Stocking, of Texas, the technical advisor to the NRA on oil, and the solicitor of the interior department will be the other government representative.

Ickes, the present administrator, came here silent today. There is reason to believe, however, that the list of recommendations for the other twelve members of the committee will be divided as follows: Nine for the price fixing advocates; two from the anti-price fixers, and one for the independents. However, all of the group of nine are not understood to be price fixers, as such.

PARTY SERIES COMPLIMENTS COUPLE WHO WILL LEAVE PAMPA

FRIENDS HONOR HOLLIS RABBS AT DEPARTURE

DINNER, BRIDGE, AND THEATER PARTY ARE GIVEN

MR. and Mrs. Hollis Rabb, who will leave Pampa this week, were honored with a series of parties by friends here the past few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Baker were hosts Saturday evening with dinner followed by a trip to the movie.

Afternoon bridge and Mrs. C. Cobb entertained with an afternoon party for Mrs. Rabb Thursday, at the home of Mrs. Oswald.

A black and orange color scheme was carried out. Nasturtiums centered the tables when a salad course was served with iced tea, and corsages of nasturtiums were given as favors.

Mrs. A. C. Rabb scored high in the games of bridge. A shower of handkerchiefs was presented the honoree.

Guests were Mesdames Hollis Rabb, A. C. Rabb, Jack Baker, E. J. Pafford, E. P. Hollingshead, Roy Dyson, Raymond Brumley, and Miss Martha Sneed. Unable to be present, Miss Mary Sneed sent a lovely handkerchief for the shower.

Three are hostesses. On Wednesday evening Mesdames Hollingshead, Brumley, and Pafford were hostesses with a bridge dance at the home of Mrs. Hollingshead.

Appointments for the bridge tables were in black, white, and green, colors repeated in the refreshment course. Summer flowers brightened the rooms.

Mrs. Cobb scored high for women, and Mr. Rabb for men in the bridge games.

Present were Messrs. and Mesdames Rabb, Oswald, Cobb, Brumley, Pafford, and Hollingshead.

Casting of Play To Start Tonight

Little Theater members and prospective members who aspire to a place in the cast of "Gold in the Hills," first public play of the season, are especially urged to be present at the city hall club rooms this evening at 8 o'clock.

Try-outs for the 35 roles in the blue stage melodrama will start after the meeting. Casting will continue as long as is necessary to give hearings to all who wish try-outs.

It will be in charge of Mrs. T. F. Merton, chairman; Mrs. W. T. Frazer, W. J. Smith, and Gilmore Nunn, members of the play committee, and of the director.

Tonight's meeting, to which former members and prospective members have been invited, is a preliminary to the year's regular program, scheduled to start September 11.

Macedonia Baptists To Open Meetings

Meetings to be conducted daily at Macedonia Baptist church, colored, beginning Tuesday night will continue through Sunday, the pastor, Rev. J. J. Johnson, announces.

Services are to be conducted by states, with R. T. Woods director for the Texas group, R. H. Hazzelrigg for Oklahoma, P. H. Harris for Arkansas, and O'Neal for Kansas. A Bible lesson will be taught each night by the pastor.

An invitation is extended to white and colored friends of the church to attend.

HILL CLASS TO PICNIC Members of the Clara Hill class, Methodist church, with their husbands and families will have a basket supper at Harvester park Tuesday at 6:30 p. m.

Miss Daisy Ann Shields has returned from a visit with Miss Lois Sager at Childress.

Miss Vincent To Return Soon and Organize Class

Miss Kathryn Vincent, teacher of dancing in Pampa the past three years, writes that she will return within the next week to organize her classes for fall. She has spent the summer teaching and dancing in Oklahoma and Texas, and studying new teaching methods on a visit to Chicago.

Miss Vincent announces that she will again teach all types of stage technique in all phases of dancing, and as a new feature will organize health building classes for women. She will also teach personality singing and vaudeville training.

Her studio will be in a new location this year, to be announced on her return. Perhaps the most interesting of her new work resulting from visits to leading studios in Chicago, Miss Vincent says, will be that secured from the Gladys High school of dancing.

Her classes last year reached an enrollment rivaling that of any teacher in Texas, winning her commendation in the national magazine of the Dancing Masters of America. The October issue of that magazine will carry another account of her school, and the work she plans to do this fall.

CLASS ELECTION SCHEDULED
 Fidelis Matrons class of First Baptist church will hold their monthly class social and business meeting tomorrow at 2:30 p. m. in the church basement, with the track group as hostesses. END AGONY OF NEURITIS

Newark Man Knows How and Loses 10 Pounds

"Gentlemen," used Kruschen Salts to try and get rid of Neuritis from which I had suffered for one year in my left shoulder and arm. I took a little of the salts in the morning, sometimes in my coffee, other times in water. I would occasionally take a dose in water at night before retiring. For 3 months I used the salts and while I lost 10 pounds in weight the pain in my shoulder HAS ENTIRELY DISAPPEARED. During the time I was taking the salts I received no other medical treatment, so I am fully convinced the Kruschen Salts did the trick." C. K. Murray, Newark, N. J.
 Take one-half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water every morning—a jar lasts 4 weeks. Get it at Richards Drug Co., Inc., or City Drug Store, or any druggist in the world—costs but a trifle. (Adv.)

YOUNG PEOPLE GIVE PROGRAM FOR BAPTISTS

CHURCHES HERE MAKE REPORT ON SUNDAY SERVICES

YOUNG people of First Baptist training classes were in charge of the evening church service, yesterday, presenting a program featuring a playlet directed by Miss Lois Barrett.

A chalk talk by Mrs. S. E. Horner was another interesting number. Awards won in the recent summer training school were presented formally.

This program was given in the absence of the pastor, the Rev. C. E. Lancaster, who left yesterday afternoon to attend a state church conference at Brownwood.

First Baptist church reported a Sunday school attendance of 569, Central Baptist church 113, and the Presbyterian church 90.

At the church of Christ, 103 were present for Sunday school, and preaching services of the day resulted in addition of three members. The Christian church reported 292 at Sunday school. A musical program by the Hanna concert company was presented there yesterday afternoon to a large crowd.

Crowd Hears the Final Sermon of Canadian Pastor

CANADIAN, AUG. 28.—A large audience heard the final message of Rev. W. C. Harrison, pastor of the First Baptist church last night. Rev. Harrison has been the pastor here for the past seven years. Services at the other churches were dismissed for this occasion.

This service was chosen by the members of the local chapter of the Eastern Star in which to honor the founder of their order. They attended in a body.

A special song, "The Star of the East," was rendered by Mesdames E. N. Mathews, C. W. Allen and R. M. Hobdy, accompanied by Miss Mildred Harrison. A quartet, composed of W. L. Austin, R. N. Mathews, Millard Humphrey and Troy Newton, accompanied by Miss Ruth Snyder, also sang a special number.

Rev. Harrison and family are leaving this week for Odessa where he will take up his duties as pastor of the First Baptist church.

Ed Fowler of Amarillo spent the week-end here visiting his family.

Charles Kindel is recovering from his recent operation and is able to be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Chumley announce the birth of an eight-pound baby boy, born to them on Friday, August 25.

Many people of Canadian viewed the immense rise of the Canadian river yesterday afternoon. According to old timers here, this is the largest rise since 1923 when a section of the bridge was washed out.

Dan Dean is to be dismissed to work from Worley hospital.

FIFTH AVENUE FASHIONS

Fashion Puts a Wheel To the Shoulder

Frills twirled over the shoulders and round the neck—that's the newest trick in flattery. This enchanting touch of frou-frou gives your shoulders that all-important height and width, and frames your face becomingly. Incidentally, nothing could be easier for the beginner to handle. So get your scissors and needle busy and have this frock for your very own.

If you are interested in other new points, as of course you are, there are the high square neck, the soft, high-bosomed effect and the sash in back. The skirt is another example of what nice things panel seams can do to your figure.

It has a formal informality that will carry you to luncheon or tea with equal chic, especially if it is made in taffeta, satin or a crisp sheer cotton. Size 16 requires 2 1/2 yards 36-inch dark, 1 1/2 yard light. Width about 1 1/2 yard. Our new Fall Fashion Magazine is out. It is full of Easy-to-Make designs for afternoon, evening, sports and general wear.

Pattern No. 5239 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18, 20 years, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 bust.

TOMATO MEETS UNIQUE DEMAND IN DIET NEEDS

Fresh Crop Should Be Used While In Season

There comes a time of year when all this country, and not just the south, may enjoy fresh tomatoes at their best. That time is here as you do not need to be reminded if you are lucky enough to have garden space in which you grow your own.

But city folks, the gardenless, may forget that the vine-ripened, home-grown tomato is much more flavorful fruit than the one which is grown many miles away, picked for shipment when still green, and ripened in storage. All the fine nutritive values of the tomato, as well as the flavor, says the bureau of home economics of the U. S. department of agriculture, are at their best when the sun has had full opportunity to do its work on vines and ripening fruit.

It is evident that Americans appreciate tomatoes. The United States is said to be the largest per capita consumer, and there seems to be, literally, nothing that could take the place of tomatoes. The characteristic color and flavor, refreshing quality, adaptability to any part of the meal, make them a god-send to the housekeeper. When you consider their nutritive values in addition, tomatoes are unique. Modern science finds them one of the very best of the "protective foods," because they are a good source, not of just one, or two, but of three of the vitamins.

Then there are those very important qualities of the tomato which make it unusual for cooking and canning. Vitamin C, for which the tomato is particularly valuable, is easily destroyed by heat, but the acidity of the tomato helps reduce this loss. To a less extent, the same thing is true of vitamin B also. Again because of their acid content, and their juiciness, tomatoes are easier to can than other vegetables. A pressure cooker is not needed, in fact is not desirable for tomatoes, although necessary in canning the non-acid vegetables to insure the prevention of spoilage. For tomatoes, says the bureau of home economics, use the hot-pack method of canning—i. e., heat the tomatoes to boiling and pack them hot into the containers—then process them in the hot-water bath.

Canned Supply Needed
 Canned tomatoes—canned when the freshest of their season—are so important as a winter food that nutritionists recommend a serving in some form three times a week. This amounts to about a pint a week for each member of the family or 16 to 20 quarts per person for eight months of winter. It takes about 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 pounds of raw tomatoes to make one quart canned—or, roughly, a bushel of raw tomatoes to make an eight months' supply for one person.

Hardly any other article of food can be used in as many ways as the tomato. Raw, cooked, or canned, in some form tomatoes may appear in any part of any meal. The baby has his tomato juice for breakfast, but you may prefer your tomatoes sliced and broiled or fried, to be eaten with your hot biscuit. A fresh tomato, sliced or quartered, may be one of the vegetables on your plate at lunch or dinner or supper. Broiled tomato on toast with a bit of melted cheese and a curl of bacon in the center of the slice, is an attractive supper dish. And there are the countless uses of tomatoes in soups, in scalloped dishes with rice, macaroni, potatoes and beans, in tomato jelly, in preserves up to mention the ever popular tomato-juice cocktail. Later on, green tomatoes that come too late to ripen on the vines before frost comes will be used for pickles, for broiling, or in green tomato pie.

RECIPES
Fresh Tomato Cocktail
 8 to 10 ripe red ripe tomatoes.
 1/2 teaspoon onion pulp.
 Salt and pepper to season.
 Grated horseradish.
 Wash and chop the tomatoes. Press through a fine sieve rejecting the skin and seeds. Add the seasonings. Chill and beat well before serving.
Stewed Tomatoes and Cucumbers
 1 quart tomatoes, fresh or canned.
 1 pint pared and sliced cucumbers.
 2 teaspoons salt.
 Pepper.
 1/2 small onion, sliced.
 2 tablespoons fat.
 2 teaspoons flour.
 If fresh tomatoes are used, skin and cut them into small pieces. Cook the tomatoes, cucumbers, and onion together for 15 minutes or until the cucumbers are tender. Add the salt and pepper. Blend the flour and butter, mix with a little of the hot tomato juice, then pour this thickening into the mixture and cook until thickened. Serve at once.
Codfish, Spaghetti, and Tomatoes
 1/2 pound salt codfish, diced.
 2 cups spaghetti, broken in small pieces.
 1 quart tomatoes, fresh or canned.
 1 onion, sliced.
 2 tablespoons chopped parsley.
 2 tablespoons of fat.
 Salt if needed.
 Soak the codfish in cold water to cover for 2 hours or longer, until

Dixie's Watermelon Queen

THE UNIVERSE takes in a lot of territory, but most of its inhabitants won't be disposed to quarrel with the farmers of Yalobusha county, Miss., who named Miss Mary Eleanor Harris, above, 16, Water City, as "watermelon queen of the universe" to reign at their annual festival. Luscious watermelons, we gather, aren't the only attractions in Yalobusha county.

Dyke Cullum Is Contact Man For Mexican Brewers

BY R. W. BARRY.

AUSTIN, Aug. 28. (AP)—Dyke Cullum, San Antonio, was given the important assignment by the Mexican National Association of Brewers of cooperating with American officials to eliminate smuggling and exportations of Mexican beer into dry territory and to insure compliance with American customs regulations.

Through Cullum, Mexican brewers have promised that their exported beer would not exceed 3.2 per cent alcoholic content, the maximum set by the United States congress as the line between intoxicating and non-intoxicating beverages. Cullum also promised on behalf of the Mexican brewers that they would not sell their product to residents of states that had not legalized 3.2 per cent beer.

Cullum said some of the Mexican brewers had expressed a desire to move their plants to the United States.

Mexico now is exporting beer into California, Arizona, Oklahoma, Missouri, and Louisiana, Cullum said. He said Mexican brewers believed Texas would become the largest market should the state change their constitution to permit the manufacture and sale of beer.

Cullum said Mexican beer is made principally from Texas products. He pointed out that the cost of brewing beer was only 10 per cent of its sale price. Texas silica is used in making the bottles, Texas and Louisiana supply the cardboard for the cartons in which the beer is shipped and rice and barley are imported from Louisiana and Texas, he said.

TUCKER IS CHARGED

A charge of false imprisonment was filed in county court today against Dan Tucker. Tucker is accused of restraining W. B. Burgess in a car last week while making threats against the latter. Tucker had not been arraigned on the charge this morning. A hearing will be held tomorrow afternoon to determine whether Tucker is to be placed under a peace bond.

French Premier Defies Fascist Conquest Aims

PARIS, Aug. 28. (AP)—Premier Edouard Daladier's visit to intricate fortifications along the German frontier after proclaiming that France will maintain the independence of Austria was of keen interest in political circles today.

In a statement issued before he left to inspect trenches and dug-outs over a 125-mile front the premier declared that France wants peace, but "it is a duty to assure our own liberty which will be better respected when it is known we are capable of guaranteeing it."

"We must also be on guard," he continued, "to see that decisions of the regular organisms of European life—the League of Nations and the Hague Court of arbitration—are observed and maintained."

"They have notably proclaimed and defined the political and economic independence of Austria. We are resolved to guarantee it."

"The smaller, weaker, and less populous states have the same right as those of larger population and area."

Meanwhile, several socialist members of the chamber of deputies, speaking at a meeting at Angouleme said they feared war within a few weeks if Fascist control should spread to Austria.

The hundred million dollar fortification visited by the premier was erected in the last three years along a 125-mile front between the Rhine and Luxembourg on the German frontier.

TEXAS PRISON GUARD IS SLAIN, CONVICT SHOT IN ESCAPE PLOT

GUARD FOILS DELIVERY OF ALL CONVICTS

VERNON INMATE GIVEN CHANCE TO SURVIVE WOUND

SUGARLAND, Aug. 28 (P)—A pistol fight which broke up a convict escape plot at Central State prison farm had resulted today in the death of a prison guard and the critical wounding of a convict.

J. R. McCall, 44-year-old guard, was shot in the chest by Beaumont King, 26, Wilbarger county convict. The guard then shot King in the chest.

Before he died, McCall told Captain Buck Flannigan, farm manager, that he heard King call for medicine in the prison pharmacy shop early yesterday and went to assist him in arousing the druggist.

As McCall approached the bars separating his station from the dormitory in which 120 convicts were sleeping, King aimed a pistol at him and ordered him to raise his hands.

Before he could comply, McCall said the convict opened fire. McCall, mortally wounded, drew his own pistol and returned the fire.

The first bullet took effect and the convict spun around, running toward a group of prisoners. McCall fired again in an effort to stop King before he could reach the convicts with the pistol in his hands.

Captain Flannigan also obtained a statement from King, who was given a chance to recover. King said the pistol was placed in his cotton sack at noon Saturday while the convicts were in the dormitory for their two-hour rest period and lunch.

King said he strapped the pistol to his leg inside his uniform while still in the field and then walked into the dormitory, undetected by guards.

Captain Flannigan said he learned that several desperate convicts, some of them under life sentence for murder, had conspired to overpower McCall and take his keys to the dormitory. They had planned to effect a wholesale delivery of inmates.

"I wasn't familiar with the gun I used," Captain Flannigan said King told him, "and I fired before I was ready. I didn't expect Guard McCall to act the way he did, either. I guess that was one of the reasons I fired when I did. I fired only one shot."

Mrs. Dunlap Dies At Pampa Home

Mrs. Eddie Dunlap, 42, died early this morning at her home, 318 East Brown.

The funeral service will be held at Stephenson chapel at 3 o'clock Tuesday. The Rev. W. O. Cooley will be in charge. Burial under the direction of Stephenson Mortuary will follow in the cemetery.

Besides her husband, Wm. Dunlap, Mrs. Dunlap is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Sara Lee McGhee of Pampa; her mother, Mrs. O. B. Edwards of Pampa; three brothers, Joe and Pete Edwards of Savoy, Texas, and Terrell, whereabouts unknown; and four sisters, Mrs. Vera Littlefield of Pryor, Okla., Mrs. Georgia McKee of Mosquero, N. M., Mrs. Mollie Walters of Eufala, Okla., and Mrs. Lita Neely of Cushing, Okla.

Mack Burch Is Attorney For Highway Body

AUSTIN, Aug. 28 (P)—The Texas highway commission has set up its own legal department. M. W. Burch of Decatur, law partner of Senator Grady Woodruff, has been placed in charge, with offices in the new highway building headquarters. Burch and his assistants have the task of defending the highway funds against suits brought by some two score persons who seek damages for injuries and for recoveries on contracts.

The state cannot be sued without its permission and the legislature authorized nearly 50 suits during its recent session. It probably is the largest number of suits ever sanctioned by the legislature.

The attorney general's department is swamped with other duties that keep it so constantly occupied that it is necessary for the highway department to engage its own defender, although Burch no doubt will be given any assistance requested from James V. Allred and his staff.

Charles F. Petet, secretary to the Texas railroad commission, resembles President Franklin D. Roosevelt. Swimming at a resort in California while on his vacation, recently, Petet was told by a Japanese who was watching the bathers that he looked like Roosevelt. Since the Japanese mentioned the resemblance between the president and the Texan is striking, Petet was impressed by the Japs' loyalty.

"You look like our president," the Japanese said, addressing Petet. "I didn't understand you," Petet replied, and to make it plainer, the Japanese put it this way: "You look like our president, Mr. Roosevelt."

ROAD RUNNERS AND PHILLIPS TO BEGIN PLAY FOR CHAMPIONSHIP TONIGHT

LOCALS MUST BEAT BORGANS THREE IN ROW

VICTORY FOR PHILLIPS WOULD END PLAY THIS EVENING

Their backs to the wall but with victory possible in the Borger baseball tournament, the Pampa Danziger Road Runners will meet the Phillips 66 nine tonight in what may be the first of three games in the finals.

Only Pampa's entry and Phillips 66 remain in the tournament, and a win for Phillips would end the play. However, the Road Runners can win the tournament by defeating Phillips three straight games. Tonight's play under the lights will begin at 8:30 o'clock. Unless it rains near game time, the diamond will be in playing condition. Phillips 66 is undefeated.

The Fampans went into the finals by defeating the Wilcox Oilers of Oklahoma City in the first of the ninth, 6 to 5, after the Oilers had lost to Borger 5-1 in the afternoon's opener. The Oilers made one run off the Road Runners in each of the first five innings. The locals scored two in the second inning when McLary hit a homer with one on. They got another run in the fourth and one in the fifth, when it began to sprinkle rain. McLary scored again in the eighth from second after Leggett had hit a bad hop which got through the Oiler first baseman. The rain came heavier and the Oilers asked for a halt, but the umpires denied the move. In the first of the ninth, Faudree doubled for Pampa and Hack Wilson scored him for the victory, the Oilers being retired scoreless in their half.

Score by innings:
Pampa, 020 101 011-6 10 3
Oilers, 111 110 000-5 1 3
Stewart and Leggett; Nance and McGee.

Remains Of 10 Cubans Found In Lake Banks
HAVANA, Aug. 28 (P)—Members of the A B C secret society found the remains of ten men, believed by authorities to have been killed by the army lieutenant, Diez Diaz, after an abortive revolution in August 1931 while digging in the banks of Lake Piedra near Havana Sunday. Two skeletons were identified as those of Dr. Andres Bacallao and Jose Hernandez, prominent members of a group opposing the regime of former President Gerardo Machado.

Diez Diaz was killed in May, 1932, by a bomb received in a registered mail package. Four men held in connection with his death were later killed by a military guard. Two men were killed and four wounded last night in a shooting said to have started because of differences between two groups of workmen. Shots were fired at soldiers guarding the national capital. Workers on the Cuba and Northern railways agreed at Camaguey to return to work today after striking for nearly four weeks. Definite solution of their demands was postponed 15 days, during which time consideration will be given to their request for the March, 1930, pay levels. Scores of less important strikes throughout the island continued.

Nick Dobbs, who coached the Jefferson university Rangers last year and finished an untied and undefeated season by whipping some of the better rated football aggregations, is coming back this season with the Dallas Dixie university Rebels.

Dobbs promises another powerful blocking combination that will be worth the time and attention of any football team or fan. When the scarlet and grey colors of Dixie go against Simmons university September 23, several names will be missing from the lineup of last year. One part of the team will be intact—that hard running, blocking backfield which caused so much misery to opponents last year. Jodie White and Jack Malone will be the regular fullbacks. Chuck Bird, the stokey fullback from Ranger, will be at his old position. Rabbit Minnehan, a smart field general, has quarterback cinched. Other backs who will bid for starting positions include Cook, Hart, Gilmer, Pruitt, McLemore, Silver, Miller and several other youngsters who plan to matriculate at Dixie university which is a law school.

BRAVES GAIN ON GIANTS BUT LOSE A GAME

BOSTONIANS HANG UP EIGHTH STRAIGHT VICTORY

BY HERBERT W. BARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer.
Despite the snapping of their 8-game winning streak, the Boston Braves, sensations of the National league, had clipped another half-game off the New York Giants' lead today and found themselves six games out of first place. With a crowd of 40,000 urging them on, the Braves hung up their eighth successive win as Tom Zachary pitched a 7-0 shutout over the Cincinnati Reds in the first game of a doubleheader yesterday but the Reds came back to snare the second, 5-3.

Their even split still enabled the Braves to pick up half a game on the Giants who dropped the first game of a twin bill to Dizzy Dean and the St. Louis Cardinals, 7-1, and then Paul Herrman out of the box with a six-run attack in the fifth. Pinky Whitney's double being the big show. Fred Fankhouse was wild and ineffective in the second game and the Reds won fairly easily behind a 16-hit attack in which Ernie Lombardi and Chick Hafey contributed four safeties each. Brooklyn divided a doubleheader with the Chicago Cubs, bowing 2-0 to the two-hit pitching of Guy Bush in the opener but winning the second, 5-2, on a 12-hit attack on Bud Tinning and Leroy Herrman. Bengie held the Cubs in check with eight hits, well spaced. Pittsburgh and Philadelphia enjoyed an open date.

The American league situation remained unchanged as both the Washington Senators and New York Yankees split doubleheaders, leaving the Senators still eight games in front. A crowd of 60,000 saw the Senators crowd 13 hits with nine Cleveland errors to win the first game, 14-1, as Earl Whitehill scattered 9 Indian hits. Cleveland drove Alvin Crowder to cover with a six-run outburst in the sixth inning to take the second game, 6-2. Tom Bridges held the Yankees to four hits as Detroit won the opener, 4-3, but the champions smashed out 22 hits, including nine doubles, a triple and a home run to take the second, 12-2, before a crowd of 30,000. Red Ruffing pitched six-hit ball for the Yankees, 6-2.

Al Simmons collected five hits and drove in six runs as the Chicago White Sox took both games from the Philadelphia Athletics, 5-3 and 9-8. His double in the fifth inning of the opener drove in two runs and gave the Pale Hoos a lead they never relinquished despite a pair of home runs by Mickey Cochrane. He drove in the winning run in the second game with a single in the ninth. The Boston Red Sox and St. Louis Browns split a double bill, the Red Sox taking the first game, 7-5, and St. Louis the nightcap, 5-3.

SCHOOLS WILL OPEN
All county schools, including the independent districts, will open Monday. It was said today by John B. Hessey, county superintendent. The teachers will begin to arrive near the middle of the week. A new teacher will be added at the Webb and the Bell school.

TWO MEN BURN TO DEATH IN 2 HOUSTON FIRES
HOUSTON, Aug. 28 (P)—Two Houstonians were killed and two critically burned early today in two fires which partly destroyed frame residences within a few blocks of each other. Two men burned to death and the lives of a number of others were endangered when a two story frame apartment house at 2111 Crawford was transformed into a raging furnace by fire at 2 a. m. The dead are: James P. Honnessey, 73, freight rate auditor with offices in the National Standard building, occupying an apartment in the house, and H. C. Randall, 45, who operated the apartment house and who died in a vain attempt to rescue Hennessy. Another fire, caused by gasoline exploding in the kitchen of a two story frame residence at 2509 Hamilton, critically burned Mrs. A. R. Handy, 49, prominent Houston club woman, and seriously injured her husband.

with the season starting September 15th, with the Cameron Aggies of Lawton, Oklahoma. Following this game Simmons university will be played September 23rd, and September 30 will probably see the eighth Corps area champs, the 23rd Infantry at Dallas. The next game will perhaps be the hardest on the schedule against the tough Texas Tech Matadors. Texas Military college, Oklahoma City university, Kansas State Teachers, University of North Dakota, DePaul university, Dakota Wesleyan and either the University of Idaho or Washington and Jefferson will wind up the regular season's play.

OVER 40 HARVESTERS START GRID WORK ON RANCH TODAY

First String Squad Will Be Cut Down After Training Is Resumed At Park
Pampa's young but husky Harvesters, after preliminary work-outs last week and issuance of suits, have gone into serious training at Camp Mel Davis near LeFors. They will return next Saturday afternoon. Fans have made their camp possible. Nearly fifty boys will take the training, but the first string squad will be cut down shortly after training is resumed at Harvester park. Some will become Gorillas, but all will have an opportunity to make the first squad if they show enough fight and ability. Defying the night rains and damp grounds, the boys will be under ample canvas. In other camps when they were not bothered by rainfall, the boys slept "all over the grounds" and a few took to the trees.

In the group which went to camp today were Mundy, Kidwell, Reynolds, Walker, Parks, Gregory, Hamilton, McAuley, Captain Patton, Marbaugh, Stevens, Cartwright, Benton, Nolan, R. Elkins, Noblett, Berry, Mason, Frasier, Lansford, Smith, Maxey, Nash, Eldridge, Gilstrap, Clark, Fagan, Buffington, Rose, Heiskell, G. Elkins, Drake, Carr, B. Owens, M. Owens, Pinnell, Mackey, Dunaway, Green, Welton, Montgomery, Sartin, R. Eldridge, Porter, Johnson, and Webb. Assistant Coach Argus Fox joined the squad today. He returned from the east Sunday.

QUEEN HELEN'S EXIT CAUSES CONTROVERSY
SOME CLAIM AILMENTS CONTRIBUTED LITTLE TO DOWNFALL
BY ALAN GOULD, Associated Press Sports Editor.
NEW YORK, Aug. 28 (P)—Beaten for the first time since 1922 in American tennis championship competition, Helen Wills Moody was California bound for home today, leaving a flock of controversial echoes in the wake of the history-making match she defaulted in the third set to Helen Hull Jacobs, for the national women's title. The circumstances marking the end of Queen Helen the First's long reign at Forest Hills Saturday added a dramatic and extraordinary chapter to the annals of the sport. Unquestionably they lifted "Helen the Second" to the throne room of women's tennis for 1933, as she won her second successive national championship. Yet it may be a long time before tennis fans or critics are satisfied as to what extent Mrs. Moody's ailments contributed to her downfall or whether she might have found sufficient reserve to finish, after losing the first three games of the final set.

Delayed exactly a week by rain, the championship final was a duel of invalids. For Miss Jacobs, too, had been under a doctor's care throughout the tournament as a result of overstrain. But "Helen the Second" displayed her rival in most of the critical exchanges and she was much the stronger of the two starting the third set, after an hour's hard play in which she pulled out the first set 8-6 and lost the second 3-6. For the first time in eight contests between the two California girls, Miss Jacobs played Mrs. Moody on even terms and clearly earned her laurels. Whether or not Mrs. Moody could have continued, she was obviously fast losing her physical resources, handicapped by wearing a brace to protect her injured back and a weakening right leg. Only Queen Helen herself knew how close she was to utter collapse. Her statement afterward was that she simply could not continue because she felt "as if I were going to faint."

At the time Mrs. Moody simply was going through the motions of playing tennis. She made no effort whatever to reach some of Miss Jacobs' low-spinning shots. It could have added little or nothing to Miss Jacobs' victory for the match to be finished, under the circumstances.

Refinery Blast Burns Nineteen Men Seriously
WRITING, IND., Aug. 28 (P)—Nineteen men were burned seriously and 10 others slightly today by a gas explosion in the Writing refinery of the Standard Oil company at Indiana. Officials of the company said about 50 other workers escaped injury because of a whirling given by I. C. Wheeler, an assistant superintendent. Wheeler noticed the odor of the escaping gas before the explosion. The explosion occurred in an unused unit of the refinery. Officials began an inquiry immediately to learn the source of the gas. It was believed one or more of the injured men might die. Mrs. Clara Pafford was visiting in Claude Sunday.

DALLAS BEATS CATS 5-3 IN LAST MEETING

BUCS ARE NOW THREE AND A HALF GAMES BEHIND BUFFS

By The Associated Press.
The gap between first and second division Texas league teams widened Monday as the leaders, keenly anticipating the impending four-way pennant play-off, strengthened their positions at the expense of weaker aggregations.

San Antonio, Dallas, and Galveston won hard-fought games from their second division opponents while the league leading Houston Buffs were dividing a pair with the Oklahoma City Indians, perennial occupants of the cellar. In team standings Galveston advanced to within three and a half games of Houston by defeating the Tulsa Oilers 3 to 0. The Buccaneers pounded Augie Johns for 8 hits and all their runs before he was pulled for a pinch hitter in the seventh. Frank Tubbs went strong on the mound for Galveston until the fifth, when he hurt his arm throwing a curve. Hutchinson replaced him. The Dallas Steers bunched seven of their thirteen hits in the fifth and sixth innings to come from behind and defeat the Fort Worth Cats, 5 to 3, in their final meeting of the season at Dallas.

By winning, Dallas retained its grip on third place over the San Antonio Missions and moved five and a half games ahead of Beaumont, who alone among the second division clubs still have a chance to crowd into the first division and its attending pennant play-off series. San Antonio took care of Beaumont by making the most of seven hits and as many bases on balls off three Exporter pitchers. The final score was 5 to 4. Beaumont rallied in the ninth in a desperate attempt to overtake the Missions, scoring two runs before being stopped.

PURDY AND BONURA BATTLING FOR LEAGUE HITTING HONORS

Difficult Task Will Be Selecting Most Valuable Pitcher in League.
BY BILL PARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer.
The race for premier hitting honors this year in the Texas league has narrowed down to "Pud" Purdy of San Antonio and Zeke Bonura of Dallas. It promises to be a great race. Bonura, fired by the new ambition since his sale to the Chicago White Sox, has started a whirlwind campaign in an effort to overtake the leading Purdy. He no longer is worried about playing well enough for some major league aggregation to purchase him. He knows now he is going to the big show. His entire attention is centered on getting base hits and leading Purdy in the 1933 swat race. They started this week with Purdy hitting .362 and Bonura .357.

George Washington, the Fort Worth outfielder who was second to Purdy for several weeks, has faded from the running. He would have to uncover a sensational hitting streak to regain forty or more points in his batting average suffered within the last three weeks. Although he leads the league in total hits and is batting well over .322, Manager Billy Webb does not believe Buck Fausett, Galveston third baseman, is ripe for the majors. Several scouts have been trailing Fausett. One of them may purchase him before the season closes, but Webb, who knows Fausett's baseball qualifications day in and day out, believes his crack third sacker should spend another year in the minors. Voting the most valuable pitcher in the league is a difficult assignment. Darrow of Galveston, Greer of Houston, Cvevros of Houston, and Payne of Houston are four leading candidates. Thormahlen of Galveston is another. Darrow and Greer are in a neck and neck race for most games won honors. On Monday, August 21, each had won 21 games and pitched 24 complete games. Cvevros had won 20 games and pitched 23 complete games. Payne had only 17 wins but his ability to step in as relief hurler 257 win has saved the Buffaloes several games this season. When the going is the toughest for the Buffaloes they look to Payne for help and he is always ready. Thormahlen hasn't won 20 games, but he leads the circuit in strikeouts and is a mainstay on the Galveston pitching staff. To name the most valuable man to his team from this selection of pitchers means that four good ones will have to be left off.

GREGORY AND M'SKIMMING TO FIGHT IT OUT FOR NET TITLE

Hicks And Johnson To Play Gregory And Webb For City Doubles Crown

The flat, back-court placements and steadiness of Forrest P. McSkimming won him the top rung of the senior singles division in the city tennis tournament yesterday, and with it the right to meet Harold Gregory, winner of the junior division, for the championship. Last night's heavy rain made it impossible to schedule matches today.

McSkimming defeated the Rev. Joseph Wonderly in straight sets, 6-2, 6-2, 6-0, on the high school court. Drs. H. H. Hicks and R. M. Johnson ended their long tussle with Rev. Wonderly and Edwin Vicars, taking the deciding set, 6-4. The winners had taken two sets at 6-2 Saturday, but had lost the third at 1-6. Darkness prevented completion of the deciding set Saturday when it stood at 7-all.

Rosenbloom To Feature A Dull Boxing Program

NEW YORK, Aug. 28 (P)—The light heavyweight, represented by Maxey Rosenbloom, and the featherweights, with Freddie Miller for a standard-bearer, take over the important assignments in a dull boxing program this week. Rosenbloom, world's 175-pound king, continues his non-title campaign in the far west in a ten-round tussle with Leroy Haynes at Los Angeles tomorrow night. On Wednesday, Miller, National Boxing association 126-pound titleholder, returns to his home town of Cincinnati to battle Lew Feldman of New York in another non-title ten-rounder. Feldman held New York state recognition as featherweight champion for a brief time until he was stopped by Kid Chocolate of Cuba here a year ago. Gorilla Jones, Akron, Ohio, holder of the N. B. A. American middleweight crown, will invade Mexico to tackle Manuel Rubio Vitoria in a 15-round bout at Agua Caliente Sunday. The home of Schuyler Colfax, once vice-president of the United States, has been razed at South Bend, Ind. Two preachers of Tipton, Mich., and Chicago, Ill., traded pulpits for two weeks as a "vacation."

ROBBERS FORCE CASHIER TO OPEN BANK IN ILLINOIS

GALENA, MO., Aug. 28 (P)—Three bandits, who called on the cashier at his home, early this morning, looted the bank of Galena here and escaped. Troy Stone, the cashier, was forced to accompany two of the men to the bank and open the vault, while one of the robbers remained with Stone's family. Stone was locked in the vault, and was not released until 8:30 o'clock this morning. Only a meager description of the men was obtained. STATE AGENT HERE H. H. Williamson of College Station, state agricultural agent, is here visiting his sister, Mrs. Henry Cox, and family. Mr. Williamson's family Mr. Williamson's family is with him. While here he will confer with County Agent Ralph Thomas about the wheat plan.

BUSBY'S INDIANS SPLIT TWIN BILL WITH GROOM NINE

Pampa's young Indians split a doubleheader with the Groom baseball team at Groom Sunday, losing the first contest 8 to 14 but taking the second, 7 to 1.

Indian batteries for the first game were Trenary, Acklam, and Kelly; for the second, Acklam, Kelly and Trenary. It was the first meeting of the two clubs. Groom has been invited to play here next Sunday.

McDonald Smith Is Western Champion
OLYMPIA FIELDS, Ill., Aug. 28 (P)—After an 8-year absence, MacDonald Smith, the old Scot, was back on the western open championship throne today. Refusing to fade out against one of the largest fields that ever sought the title, the 43-year-old veteran won the western open crown yesterday, finishing the 72-hole grind at Olympia Fields with a 282 total that beat his closest rival, Tommy Armour of Chicago, by six shots. The trophy and top money of $500 went to Mac after his victory march.
