Pastor Denies Girl's Claims

Suing for divorce from a man who claims he never married her, shown, right in top photo, as she appeared in San Antonio, court with her sister, is Miss Wilhelma Long. The Rev. William D. Welburn, Jr., who denies that he married the plaintiff and that he is the father of her 8-month-old son, though records are said to uphold her claims, is shown right below, with his father, also a pastor, in the courtroom.

Gray County's Big PWA Loan For Highway Is Granted

JONES WIRES CARY OF ACT THIS MORNING

OUTRIGHT GRANT OF $36,000 INCLUDED WITH LOAN

Gray county's long-sought PWA loan for topping the Pampa-McLean highway when the call is placed has been granted, according to a telegram from Congressman Marvin Jones to County Judge C. E. Cary.

The telegram was as follows: "PWA advises president's approval loan and grant $120,000 for highway construction."

The telegram means that Gray county will receive $120,000 in exchange for $84,000 worth of 4 per cent paying bonds, or an outright gift of $36,000 (30 per cent). The loan was sought for the grant which goes with it and also for the exchange of the bonds at a low interest rate, par value.

Judge Cary was elated by the news because it will mean a saving to the county and will make possible topping of the highway before the caliche is damaged by traffic. Oran Spear of Alvord, contractor, is placing the caliche on the road.

Gray county's grant is one of the first made in West Texas. Judge Cary made a personal appearance before the Texas Advisory board early this year and secured approval of the application, but Washington delayed action for months. The West Texas chamber of commerce passed a resolution severely condemning delay of federal approval for this and other loans.

Kidnap Suspect

Suspected of the June Robles kidnaping in Tucson, Ariz., Don Rodriguez, 23, Globe, Ariz., is shown here in LaJanta, Colo., as he was held for questioning by Arizona officers. Rodriguez was captured in Rockyford, Colo., by a banker whom he tried to kidnap, police say.

MINISTER IS NAMED AGAIN AS 'THE MAN'

MOTHER OF PLAINTIFF POINTS OUT PASTOR IN TRIAL

SAN ANTONIO, June 29 (AP)—A grand jury investigation will be made of the divorce controversy between Mrs. Wilhelma Long Welburn and the Rev. William D. Welburn Jr., it became known today when Mrs. J. F. Long, mother of the pretty plaintiff, was summoned to appear before the ninety-fourth district court grand jury.

SAN ANTONIO, June 29 (AP)—Mrs. J. F. Long, grey-haired and self-assured, pointed to the Rev. William D. Welburn Jr., 31-year-old former pastor of the Government Hill Methodist church, as the man who married her daughter, Mrs. Wilhelma Long Welburn, in Boerne last July as rebuttal testimony was resumed in district court today.

Mrs. Welburn is seeking divorce, charging mental cruelty. Welburn denies that he ever married her or is the father of her seven-month-old child, Wm. Drummond Welburn III.

Mrs. Long's testimony followed that of three other witnesses yesterday who likewise pointed out the pastor. Miss Wilhelma Long, sister of the pretty plaintiff, positively identified Welburn as the man who married Wilhelma in Boerne; Judge Maurice Lehman of Kendall county and his secretary, Mrs. Irene Liedl, testified he strongly resembled the man who participated in the marriage ceremony. Dr. Raymond Wright of New Braunfels testified that Welburn had come to him with the pretty plaintiff last summer for an examination as to her condition.

The plaintiff's attorneys indicated they may ask for an instructed verdict, but if that is denied additional rebuttal testimony will be offered.

A new angle was injected into the case with the revelation by the former pastor that he is engaged to marry Miss Dorothy Watts of Austin. Although she is in San Antonio, she is not attending the trial.

Welburn said, when pressed for details: "She is above all this." He said he and the Austin girl had planned to marry last February before the suit for divorce was filed. "She is the sweetest thing," he said.

The Rev. Welburn admitted the engagement when he was asked what Miss Watts' interest in the outcome of the case was. He said: "It happens that we are engaged."

Asked if Miss Watts was attending the trial, the pastor said: "She is not. She is lying low at my request."

Gives New York Kidnap Scare

"One tough kid," Joey Mascato, 4, his mother said so herself. And New York police are inclined to agree. Joey threw an East Side neighborhood into an uproar and sent police scurrying in siren-blasting radio cars on a mad search when he "kidnaped" 13-month-old Fred Vera. Joey, whose mother, "licks him every day, but it does no good," is shown in front of the police station with his young "victim."

LONE BANDIT ESCAPES WITH $137 IN CASH

JOE BURROW'S FILLING STATION HELD UP LAST NIGHT

Without haste or confusion, an armed man held up Alonso Court, attendant at the Joe Burrow Service station at the corner of Kingmill and Ballard streets, last night and escaped with $137 in cash. The hi-jacking happened at 9 o'clock as the attendant was closing the station.

The man walked into the station and calmly drew a gun from under his coat. He ordered Mr. Court to face the wall and make no noise. The gunman made an unsuccessful attempt to open the cash register and called on the attendant to explain how it worked. After getting the cash drawer open, he filled a coat pocket with bills, change, and coupons, but left $2.75 in small change.

He then placed the gun under his arm and instructed Mr. Court to "take a little walk" with him. The two proceeded to the corner of the Saunders building and down the alley to Francis street, where the hi-jacker calmly remarked, "All right, go back to the station but don't look around. You can telephone anyone you like when you get back."

Mr. Court said he heard the roar of a motor soon after the man returned to the station and called the police.

The hi-jacker was described as being small, probably 5 feet 4 inches tall, and wearing a freshly pressed gray suit with light gray hat pulled over his eyes. He wore a clean white shirt. Although he was so calm and collected and seemed to know his business so well that it was all over before Mr. Court felt any nervousness.

Police advance the theory that the man was a veteran at the game and that his companion in a local car on Francis street, although car "divers" were searched, no trail of the robber was uncovered.

While the hi-jacking was in progress, Dow King was seated in his car at the west end of the service station. Bob Sower was in front of the service station across the street but neither man saw anything unusual.

AMARILLO WOMAN, NUDE EXCEPT FOR RING AND SMILE, MARRIES LOVER, ALSO NAKED, IN CHICAGO

Wedding Party of 9, Except Preacher Minus Clothes

CHICAGO, June 29 (AP)—Dressed in a smile and the bride at least, a wedding ring—an Amarillo girl, and a Milwaukee bridegroom were pronounced man and wife today in a strictly nudist ceremony at the world's fair they call "A Century of Progress."

The bride was Jean May, 23, of Amarillo, Texas, and her husband, Charles Mueller, 24, of Milwaukee.

Of the wedding party of nine, only the minister—deigned to wear clothing. He was dressed in a goat skin, walked about in bare feet, stubbing his toe now and then.

The nudists had selected as a background for their ceremony the setting of dinosaurs, triceratops, brontosaurus and other denizens of the "world a million years ago" at the world's fair site.

Cameramen and reporters furnished the blushing, watching the bridal party step into a boat to See NUDIST, Page 8.

Kansas Holdup Nets $25,000

OSAWATOMIE, Kas., June 29 (AP)—Two armed men obtained between $25,000 and $30,000 here today in a holdup, executing the robbery as the payroll of the Missouri Pacific railroad was being transferred to the postoffice from the railroad station.

The money, which was addressed to a local bank to be used in payment of wages at the Missouri Pacific division shops, was in a mail bag.

A postal employe was met at the station by two men who forced him to accompany them four blocks away to where they had a motor car parked. At this point they took the money and drove away.

An official at the bank which was to have received the funds said the consignment amounted to between $25,000 and $30,000.

One Injured in Car Collision

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Coble and children escaped injury last night in a collision with another car on the Berger road. The driver of the other car, whose name has not been learned, received a scalp wound and bruises but refused to be taken to a hospital.

The Cobles were driving toward Pampa and the other car was proceeding west when the accident happened. The Coble car was wrecked beyond repair, Mr. Coble reported. The other car was also badly damaged.

Mr. Coble has been connected with the Empire Gas & Fuel company for several years.

The accident was the third in which Pampans have figured during the last two days. One fatality was recorded in the three accidents.

Bob Knox and Clarence Kennedy were Wheeler visitors today.

PAMPA TOPICS OF OUR CITY

Twinkles

Human athletic achievements advance as the demand for human physical prowess declines. The shot-put record has been broken, but the shot-put demand is only for prospective record breakers.

It is our private opinion that Mr. Hoover's two chickens in every pot was a dream no more difficult of fulfillment than Mr. Roosevelt's dream of making trees grow from Canada to the Panhandle to stop the winds.

Every man has a plan, however, and ours is to haul some of those New Mexico mountains over here. The work would give employment to thousands and at the end of each day you could see progress.

The business outlook is good, hence that for golf is the reverse in our circle.

Evidently a "dead" bandit is a good bandit. At any rate, bandits that hide and turn good are assumed to be dead.

Brevitorials

Musing of the moment: We desire always to be loyal to our state and national officials and the president, but we cannot refrain from saying what we think about some of the schemes hatched in high places. . . . We deplore that well known tendency to quibble over dimes and quarters after congress has appropriated tens of millions for public works and relief purposes. The Texas relief commission had done as much winding of red tape as any other agency. It shares with Oklahoma the disrepute for having had the most fireworks in administration. . . . There is a deplorable tendency to run up overhead costs for detailed records, add to it for auditors to check bookkeepers, than likely hire accountants to check the auditors. The result is not the efficiency desired.

Local Man Is on Advisory Board of Centennial Group

H. C. Coffee, long time resident of the Panhandle, has been appointed to membership on the Texas Centennial Advisory board for Hansford county, he has been advised in a letter from Will H. Mayes, Austin, secretary of the Texas Centennial commission.

Mr. Coffee is an employe of the oil division of the Railroad commission in the local field. He was recently transferred to Pampa from Kilgore.

Ray Carter of LeFors transacted business here yesterday.

MOTHER SAVED FROM CHAIR FOR A DAY BY NEW YORK GOVERNOR

OSWING, N. Y., June 29 (AP)—A story that came tumbling from the lips of a condemned man even as the hour set for his death was striking, has saved Anna Antonio for at least a day—from the electric chair.

"She's absolutely innocent of the murder of her husband," said Vincent Saetta.

Warden Lawes, into whose ear she sat together last night in the death house Saetta whispered his story, telephoned Governor Lehman at Albany. For more than half an hour they talked. Midnight had passed when the governor issued a brief statement:

"I have directed the warden of

HUNTER WILL MAKE SPEECH ON SATURDAY

Candidate's Address To Be on East Side Of Courthouse

Tom Hunter of Wichita Falls, attorney and candidate for governor, will speak in Pampa tomorrow afternoon, it was announced today.

Mr. Hunter will speak at 2:30 o'clock on the east side of the Gray county courthouse, using a public address system.

Supporters of the candidate here are hoping for a large crowd. Of chief interest in his campaign is the platform of governmental reforms which he advocates. Some have referred to it as "radical." He calls it common sense.

Mr. Hunter also will speak in Berger tomorrow.

Mail Carrier Is Charged in $2,000 Holdup

LUBBOCK, June 29 (AP)—Arrangement of J. W. Dennis, a mail carrier, charged in connection with a purported holdup in which he said $2,000 in currency was taken from him near Oilton, June 5, was to be conducted here this afternoon.

Federal agents arrested Dennis last night at Plainview. He was held overnight in the Hale county jail there, and was being brought here by bus this afternoon by Bill Lampe, United States deputy marshal of Amarillo.

Victor H. Lindsey, United States commissioner before whom Dennis was to have a hearing here, confirmed that Dennis had been charged with specific allegations in the complaint, filed in Amarillo.

Dennis said two men in a da red-headed woman had robbed him at about about 1:30 p. m., June 5, about three miles east of Oilton.

Four packages, each containing $500 in currency, were taken. They were consigned from Plainview City National bank to Oilton State bank. Dennis had been a carrier eight years.

Political Rally At Alnreed Not To Be Held Now

A scheduled political rally at Alnreed has been postponed indefinitely, it was announced today.

Postponement followed the death yesterday of Hugh Guill, longtime resident of the Alnreed community. No date has been set for the future rally.

Woman Dies of Hurts Suffered In Car Accident

Injuries received in an automobile accident on West Foster ave. Wednesday morning proved fatal to Mrs. G. C. Roberts of Poteau, Okla., who died in a local hospital yesterday afternoon. The body is at rest at the Stephenson Mortuary. Funeral arrangements have not been made.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts and their two children were turning from Foster avenue to Purviance street when the crash occurred. The other car was driven by W. R. Coudling who was proceeding west on Foster avenue. The drivers said they failed to see each other until it was too late to stop.

Mrs. Roberts was thrown from the car and crushed beneath a trailer. Her pelvic bones were broken and she sustained other serious injuries.

Brothers Hop For Poland

Ahead, along the north Atlantic seaway lay favorable weather. A report from New York, which arrived as they warmed the motor of their plane, predicted favorable conditions all the way across.

They set their big, white and blue monoplane "Warsaw" down here late yesterday after completing a 9-hour and 40-minute flight from Floyd Bennett field, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Holger Holtris, their flying instructor who hopped to Copenhagen in 1931 in the same plane—then named "Miss Liberty"—accompanied them as far as Harbor Grace.

He supervised the loading of 610 gallons of gasoline and made a final check of the motor while the brothers slept in nearby St. John's. Holtris was the last of the well wishers to grasp their hands as they swept down the runway, well worn by the tires of a myriad of other trans-Atlantic planes.

—This flight to Warsaw—and the brothers were confident of reaching their goal.

Once before, they left Floyd Bennett field Poland bound, but their ship cracked up while landing at Harbor Grace. They had called it a "test flight."

BYRD GROWING 'JITTERISH' IN POLAR ICE HUT

Tried Singing But It Drove Him Out Of Cabin

LITTLE AMERICA, Antarctica, June 29 (AP)—It took Admiral Byrd just three months to find out that variety is the spice of life.

Reaching the half-way mark of his self-imposed six-months hermit vigil in a south polar ice hut, Byrd is finding the daily routine somewhat monotonous.

For 90 days he has been alone on a vast stretch of ice, making meteorological as well as other scientific observations, his only contact with any form of life being via radio.

Although all his wireless messages to his base camp announce the fact that "all's well," Byrd admitted that things were becoming less interesting lately. To alleviate the tediousness of his isolation, he has resorted to altering his daily routine, just to keep him interested.

"I vary my books for the sake of surprise and freshness of point of view," he said. "I vary my daily physical exercises and instead of doing them at a fixed hour, change the time from day to day."

"I have tried singing to myself but had to stop because it drove me out of the cabin."

Admiral Byrd has ordered his expedition to "get ready to move by October 1," marking the beginning of the spring explorations.

Many Pampans at Wheeler Reunion

A misunderstanding as to the hour of the parade caused the Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce float to arrive late in Wheeler where a pioneer roundup is in progress. The committee in charge was under the impression the parade was to get under way at 2 o'clock.

The big parade started at 10 o'clock this morning and was one of the most interesting and elaborate in the history of the city. Floats were entered in competition for $100 in prizes and also in the publicity class.

Many Pampans went to Wheeler yesterday, the opening day of the celebration, and more left this morning for the closing ceremonies.

Favorable Weather Assured As Men Leave Newfoundland for Warsaw, Poland.

HARBOR GRACE, Nfld., June 29 (AP)—Benjamin and Joseph Adamowicz, aviation adventurers, swung into the east-sky shortly after dawn on their projected trans-Atlantic flight to Warsaw, Poland, their ancestral home.

The wind was light and from the west, and the weather clear as they hopped from Harbor Grace airport at 6:35 a. m. (EST).

U. S. RECOVERY LAGGING BEHIND OTHER NATIONS

NEW YORK, June 29 (AP)—Has recovery in the United States States lagged behind that of other leading countries? This has become one of those controversial questions which delight economists.

Taking industrial production alone, index figures as presented in the latest League of Nations bulletin of statistics might indicate that such important countries as England, France, Germany, and Japan have been more successful in attaining predepression conditions.

The following table shows index figures of industrial production for the United States and those countries (all reduced to a base of 1928 as 100) for the years 1932, 1933, and the month of March, 1934, with the exception of the United Kingdom, for which the 1934 figure is for the entire first quarter.

Table with industrial production index figures for U.S., U.K., Ger., Fr., Jap. for years 1932, 1933, and 1934 (Mar.).

While each of these countries seems to have gone farther toward restoring predepression industrial conditions, and Japan far beyond, it appears that the actual percentage gain over 1932 has been substantially larger here than in any country save Germany.

NEW COTTONS BRED TO MEET LATEST NEEDS

AGRONOMIST OF TEXAS A. & M. ISSUES STATEMENT

COLLEGE STATION, June 29 (AP)—The agricultural experiment station has released the following statement on "breeding cotton to meet new needs," by D. T. Kilgore, agronomist of the station:

After the serious spread of the boll weevil in 1900, the late maturing cotton varieties which were being more successful in attaining predepression conditions.

In order to supply the demand numerous strains of cotton which matured much earlier but some of which produced shorter and inferior staple, were introduced.

As the conditions became more severe this situation improved until 1933 when only 5 per cent of the Texas crop was 1/8 inch or less in staple length. Meanwhile, the cotton breeders were able to develop strains of cotton possessing both early maturity and fairly good staple with yielding qualities practically equal to the best yielding short staple cottons and many growers turned to the cottons or better staple length.

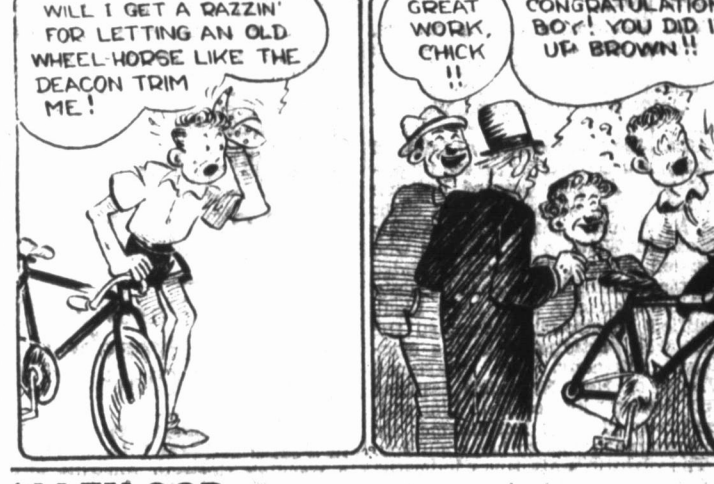

more readily poisoned on plants with hairy leaves and branches, the hairiness retaining the poison where the weevil becomes entangled with it in traveling over the stalk and poisons himself while cleaning the poison from his feet. Thus, along with other desirable characters it is found that a desirable cotton must possess hairy limos and leaves.

The breeding work with cotton has held in mind not only earliness, high yield and quality of staple but also resistance to disease. Both hybridization and selection have been invoked in producing these desirable types and in the breeding work use has recently been made of the X-ray and of radium to produce more rapidly the mutations which are being sought.

CANDIDATES IN A MAD SCRAMBLE FOR VOTES IN EAST TEXAS FIELD

AUSTIN, June 29 (AP)—The scramble for votes—state, district, and county—seems more intense in the big oil field of East Texas than in any other section of Texas. Political posters literally cover the inside and outside of walls of the thousands of frame structures along the highways connecting Kilgore, Gladewater, Henderson, and Longview.

Apparently there is more interest than ever in the choice of office holders in East Texas. Candidates are spending much time there. The voting strength of the counties of Cross, Rusk, and Smith has increased several fold since the last election.

In spite of their feverish activity, in producing oil residents of East Texas seem to be giving considerable time to the study of candidates. There is much contention as always, about the manner of producing oil—whether some operators are trying to beat the law and get more than their lawful share.

John A. Norris, chairman of the state board of water engineers, will have to purchase $600 worth of United States military academy uniforms. Two of his sons, John A. Jr., 19, and Frank W., 18, have received appointments to West Point and each must make a deposit of $300 for uniforms.

Norris said that two of his sons receiving appointments was unexpected. One was nominated outright and the other chosen a second alternate. In the case of the latter the principal and the first alternate decided against becoming army men.

DIMPLE DOES IT COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia.—A dimple reunited two brothers after a separation of 22 years. L. E. Stroud of Los Angeles, sat down in a local barber shop. Bert Stroud, the barber, commented that he had a brother on the west coast with a dimple like that of his customer and recognition followed.

MRS. FISCHER IS DELEGATE FOR MERTEN

DEMONSTRATION BODY ENTERTAINED BY MRS. BRIDGES

The Merten Home Demonstration club elected Mrs. Fred Fischer as a delegate to the A. & M. college short course to be held the last week in July, at a meeting Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. C. O. Bridges.

Sample dishes of tested recipes were brought by each member to the meeting. These dishes were sampled and the recipes for each were exchanged.

Nine members and seven guests attended the clothing contest held recently in Pampa. Five entries were made in the contest and two second prizes won. The club guests at the contest were Mrs. W. R. Ewing, Irvin Cole, Layne Addison, R. T. Phillips, Earl Claude, Nash, and Miss Joy Enloe.

Members present at the Wednesday meeting were as follows: Mmes. Fischer, Smith, Knapp, Phillips, Enloe, Haney, Sirman, Browning, and the hostess, Mrs. C. O. Bridges. Mrs. Paul Murray and Miss Effie Willis were guests.

Mrs. Tom Blair Is Hostess to I-Double-U Club

Mrs. Tom Blair was hostess to the I-Double-U Bridge club Wednesday evening in her home, 428 North Starkweather.

High score was awarded Mrs. C. E. Harvey and consolation prize to Mrs. E. D. Yowell. Miss Mabelle McDaniel scored high for the guests.

Novelty refreshments, carrying out a Fourth of July color scheme, were served the following members: Mmes. R. D. Yowell, C. E. Harvey, Earl Harkins, Orba Myatt, R. E. Abbott, Arlie B. Crites, Inez Balen, and the hostess, Mrs. Tom Blair. Guests were Mmes. Buri Faland, W. W. Wilson, and H. L. Ledrick, Jr.

Camp Fire Girls Kill Four Snakes, Capture Possum

Twenty-three Camp Fire Girls are having a great time at their camp at Reynolds' ranch.

Yesterday the girls went on a ten-mile hike. The hike was an exciting one as the girls killed four snakes and brought back a live opossum to camp.

The girls are learning to cook and the dinner Thursday consisted of the following menu: spinach, carrots, pork and beans, fruit salad, and lemonade. They had hot cakes for breakfast this morning.

Mrs. Reynolds gave a first aid course Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Reynolds has a small daughter who was a guest for supper.

After supper guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Seeds and boys and Nolan Harris.

The girls are getting along fine except for the sunburns.

Girls attending the camp are Kathleen and Roberta O'Hara, Emma and Edith Beckham, Anna Mae Jones, Mary Elizabeth Seeds, Jessie Farmer, Linda May, Helen Harris, Ellen Louise Cotton, Lemoine Duncan, Lillian and Jo Anna Nix, Mary Frances Yeager, Mildred Pierce, Edna Ball, Jessie Marie Gilbert, Kathleen Ward, Rosalie Dudley, Hazel Jo Elder, Felix Smith, Winnie Peterson, Virginia Covington, and the two guardians, Mrs. Nolan Harris and Mrs. Bo Barrett. Mrs. George Nix is a camp visitor.

HOLY SOULS CATHOLIC
Father Joseph E. Wondert, pastor First Communion services at the 8 o'clock Mass Sunday at the Holy Souls' church will bring to a solemn close the religious vacation school that has been in progress throughout the month of June. The school has been conducted by Sister Lauretta and Sister Henrietta members of the Sister of Charity of the Precious Word. Both have had years of experience in regular school work and the enrollment of 70 pupils attests to their ability.

The sacrament of Confirmation will be administered at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon by Bishop Lucey of Amarillo. The class will consist of approximately 20 adults and 20 children. This will be Bishop Lucey's first visit to Pampa and besides the members of the congregation, a large number of non-Catholics have expressed their desire to hear him preach.

MEN'S FELLOWSHIP CLASS
First Baptist Church
We enter upon a series of lessons from which we are to glean the principles of true leadership. We hope the members may all learn how to put these principles into practice in every day life.

Each member is asked to read these verses 11:35 to 13:21. In this reading you will discover how to prevent divisions. We invite you to meet and study with us at 9:45 when we render the following program:
"Help Somebody Today."
Scripture—Proverbs 1:20-26. Frank Johnson.
Prayer—L. S. Jamison.
"It Pays to Serve Jesus."
Scripture.
"The King's Business."
How to Prevent Divisions—C. E. Link.

MUCH WORK OF LIONS CLUB IS RECALLED AT ANNUAL BANQUET

A new administration of the Pampa Lions club was begun last evening at one of the largest ladies' night events in the history of the club.

Ray Hagan was installed as president by C. H. Walker, past district governor, to succeed Clyde Patterson, who automatically became vice-president. Lion Fathiere was presented a past president's pin by the clubmen.

John Osborne, who was the clever toastmaster last night, is the new secretary. He succeeds Arthur M. Tress, whose faithful service more than two years drew much praise.

M. A. Graham was made Lion tamer, following Ed Damon, and John B. Hessey succeeded Lion Hagan as tall-twister. The board of directors is composed of J. A. Meek, H. L. Polley, Olin E. Hinkle, Roy Bourland, and R. B. Fisher.

After singing led by B. B. Fisher, Judge W. R. Ewing gave the invocation. Dinner music was furnished by Claude Hipps and his local orchestra. W. A. Bratton directed a stunt on "punctuality" in which John Sturgeon made an extemporaneous speech while C. A. Clark held a large cake of ice. Then the procedure was reversed.

Miss Winifred Baldwin played accordion selections and several other numbers. Bert Curry directed a stunt in which several Lions and visitors carried eggs in spoons held in their mouths. Gilmore N. Nunn gave a "harmless harangue" which some people understood—in part.

Before retiring, President Fathiere gave a resume of club activities for 1933-34, in which work with and for the underprivileged children was featured prominently. Earlier, the group heard President Roosevelt's radio talk.

"The Lost World" To Be Shown at Church Tonight

There will be a double feature for the Friendly Friday night, which is sponsored by the Methodist young people for all the young people of the town. The regular sundown ball game will be held at the Sam Houston school grounds at 6:30. Both boys and girls will play ball.

A regular feature picture will be shown in the basement of the church at 8:15 this evening for the public. Young and old are invited. Wallace Beery and Lewis Stone will appear in "The Lost World."

A free will offering will be taken to apply on the payment of the picture machine.

Amarillo Man Is New President of Utility Company

According to announcement from the board of directors of the Southwestern Public Service company, O. S. Meisler, general manager, has been elected president of the company. Mr. Meisler stated that this development was in line with the policy of the company to place the operation of the properties under the direction of local personnel.

The company serves Pampa, Amarillo, McLean, and other cities and towns in the Panhandle together with Roswell, Artesia, Carlisburg, and other towns in the Pecos valley territory of New Mexico.

Mr. Meisler began his employment with the company in Amarillo seventeen years ago as a bookkeeper. He subsequently held various positions in the local office, and was appointed manager of the property in 1925. During the following two years, the company expanded its operations and its properties in line with the rapid development of the territory taking place at that time. Transmission lines were erected in various parts of the Panhandle. The power plant in Pampa was connected to the first of these transmission lines in March, 1927.

In October, 1927, Mr. Meisler was transferred to Roswell, New Mexico, as manager of the New Mexico division of the company. In March, 1928, he was transferred to Louisiana as general manager of the Gulf Public Service company. In June, 1928, he returned to the Panhandle as general manager of the Southwestern Public Service company.

AT SALES MEETING
Paul M. LeBeuf, assistant manager of the Pampa Office Supply company, is in Denver attending a sales meeting of Royal typewriter dealers. It is announced that the new model typewriter will be demonstrated at this meeting, and will be offered for sale soon by all dealers.

TURKEY'S METHUSELAH WHO SAID HE WAS 160 DIES; CHIEF CAUSE WAS SCIENCE'S DOUBT OF STORY

Achieved Much Fame Over World When 'Past 150'

ISTANBUL, Turkey, June 29. (AP)—Death caught up today with Zaro Agis, Turkey's methuselah, who once boasted he would live forever.

The picturesque old man, who claimed 160 years and felt deeply hurt when anyone doubted it died by a quirk of fate—in the children's hospital.

For two months Zaro Agis, whose longevity brought him from obscurity to world fame and Broadway when he was "past 150," had been ill.

LE BON TEMPS BRIDGE CLUB ENTERTAINED

MRS. JOHN WEEKS IS HOSTESS AT HOME AND AT CAFE

Mrs. John Weeks was hostess to the Le Bon Temps Contract club Wednesday morning at her home.

An effective color scheme of green and white was carried out in detail.

Mrs. E. Hooks scored high and Mrs. Earl Scheig second high.

Three new members, Mmes. Earl Scheig, Harold Kelly, and Earl Statton, joined the club.

After the game, a luncheon was served at the Courthouse cafe to the following members: Mmes. E. Hooks, Earl Scheig, Harold Kelly, Earl Statton, Carroll, H. C. Berry, Otto Geppelt, and the hostess, Mrs. John Weeks.

MONTANA, TEXAS AND OKLAHOMA TO VOTE NEXT

Voters of 3 States Will Ballot In July

By The Associated Press
More than two-thirds of the candidates who will put the new deal to the test in November's congressional elections are yet to be selected.

In 13 states which already have had primaries or conventions, or both, nominations have been for 140 of the 435 seats in the house of representatives and for seven of the 35 seats in the senate which will be filled this year.

In nine of 35 states which elect governors this year nominations have been made.

No senator has failed of renomination so far. Ten members of the house of representatives—six democrats, three republicans and one farmer-labor—have not been renominated. Five democrats and three republicans were defeated at the polls and one democrat was nominated for the senate. The farmer-labor representative unsuccessfully sought nomination for the senate.

Only three states will have primaries next month. In August and September parties will be busy selecting nominees.

Next month's primaries are: July 3—Oklahoma. Fifteen democrats are seeking the gubernatorial nomination in a hot race. Among them are Speaker Tom Anglin of the state house of representatives, who is backed by Governor Murray; Jack Walton, once ousted from the governor's chair, and Representative E. W. Marland, who has promised to apply the Roosevelt new deal to the state. Some of the candidates are making an issue of "Murrayism." Nominations will be made for nine seats in the national house.

The entire delegation is now democratic. Will Rogers, representative at large, has opposition although he managed to prevent another Will Rogers getting his name on the ballot. Another Jack Walton besides the former governor was denied a place on the ballot as a gubernatorial aspirant. Runoff primary July 24.

July 17—Montana. Senator Burton K. Wheeler, democrat, is opposed for renomination by Bert Repplogie, a member of the legislature. George M. Bourquin, former federal district judge, is seeking the republican nomination against O. H. P. Shelley, publisher. Bourquin, 70, wants the new deal "put through the furnace of the constitution, the slag of misdeal and raw deal runoff and any pure metal of the square deal of Theodore Roosevelt recovered." Nominations will be made also for senator to fill the unexpired term of the late Thomas J. Walsh, now held by John E. Erickson, democrat, who is seeking the nomination opposed by Mrs. W. W. Hamilton, former legislator, among others. Two democratic incumbents of seats in the national house have opposition. There are contests also for congress and the short senators.

He was suffering from a variety of ailments, including bright's disease and gland and bladder disorders. Physicians said a contributing cause to his death was weary over science's skepticism toward his age.

Probably his proudest possession was a certificate purporting to show he was born in 1774—before the American colonies declared war on Great Britain.

Zaro had buried ten wives and had another desert him. Number 11 got angry six years ago when her aged husband demanded he wanted a 10th wife—one young and pretty—and refused to come home after playing around in New York and London.

The number of children? Zaro boasted that at 95 his 95th offspring was born.

torial term in the republican ranks. July 28—Texas. Joseph W. Bailey, representative-at-large, is making active efforts for the democratic nomination for the senate seat now held by Tom Connally, who seeks to be returned. Guy B. Fisher also is a candidate. Nominations will be made for 21 seats in the house. Seven seek the democratic nomination for governor in succession to the incumbent, Mrs. Miriam Ferguson. The administration is sponsoring C. C. McDonald. Runoff primary Aug. 25.

Swimming Meet Still in Doubt
Definite assurance that Amarillo would send a swimming and diving team to Pampa this afternoon had not been received at noon by Archie Lee Walstad, new manager of the Pampa pool. Mr. Walstad said, however, that he would present his swimming and diving team at 5:30 o'clock in exhibitions. Bill Moody of Cleveland, Okla., and Tommy Atkins of Ardmore, Okla., have moved to Pampa to make their home and they will bolster the local team. The two newcomers were described by Mr. Walstad as being "mighty classy performers." Other members of the teams are Don Manning, Art Swanson, Bucky Mundy, Dick Sullins, Ed Whittenberg and David Whittenberg. Read The NEWS Want-Ads.

MARIE DRESSLER RALLIES, DEATH THREAT PASSES FOR TIME

TUGWELL CALLS 'GRAIN TRADE' MENACE TO AAA

Claims Dealers Are Seeking Repeal Of Act

BROOKINGS, S. D., June 29. (AP)—Rexford G. Tugwell, said today that the "grain trade" is seeking the "repeal" of the agricultural adjustment act.

In this section ravaged by drought, the undersecretary of agriculture urged an audience at a farm and home picnic to stand steadfast for the act and "against the forces which desire no good for farmers."

Launching a vigorous offensive, he attacked both Thomas Wickham, of the grain committee on national affairs, and Arthur Cutten, Chicago grain speculator.

"Oceans of crocodile tears," he said, "have been shed over your behalf by middlemen who asserted that all legislation enacted to benefit the farmer actually works to your injury."

TOOK PILLS FOR YEARS THEN CEREAL BROUGHT RELIEF

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN Corrected His Constipation

If you are troubled by common constipation, read this letter: "Just a word in appreciation of what your ALL-BRAN has done for my health. For years, I had been doped myself with pills and other dopes for constipation."

"I decided to try Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Now I am in good health, and haven't taken a drop of medicine for six months."—Thos. F. Little, 564 E. Wheeling St., Lancaster, Ohio.

Headaches, loss of appetite and energy, sleeplessness—any one of these may be caused by common constipation. Yet this condition can be corrected, usually, by eating a delicious cereal.

Tests show Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" and vitamin B to help promote regularity. ALL-BRAN also furnishes iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that in leafy vegetables. How much safer than patent medicines! Two tablespoonfuls of ALL-BRAN daily are usually sufficient. Chronic cases, with each meal.

If seriously ill, see your doctor. ALL-BRAN makes no claim to be a "cure-all."

Serve as a cereal or use in cooking. At all grocers in the red-and-green package. Get ALL-BRAN, and not a part-bran product. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

DOCTOR HELD NO HOPE FOR HER RECOVERY

PASSES MAJOR CRISIS OF ILLNESS AND IMPROVES

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., June 29. (AP)—Marie Dressler, 62-year-old actress, passed a major crisis in her illness early today after doctors at her bedside had abandoned hope that she would live to see dawn.

Five hours after Dr. F. R. Nuzum, head of the medical staff attending her, expressed belief she would not live through the night, Miss Dressler rallied so strongly that physicians announced the threat of death had passed at least until noon.

Her amazing vitality held out against a complication of heart and kidney ailments. At seven o'clock last night Dr. Nuzum said "we don't expect her to live through the night."

At eight o'clock she sank so low that her features turned blue. Her heart faltered—almost stopped. Then slowly the blue pallor drained from her face.

By midnight her heart action was normal. There was no fever. Respiration was 80 to 100. Through the day and night telegrams and messages of cheer poured in upon her from all sections of the country, attesting the popularity of Marie Dressler who became filmdom's greatest woman star at 60.

Outside her sick room in the estate of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. G. Billings clustered a little group of her closest friends—the Billings; Frances Marion, the scenario writer who conceived many of Miss Dressler's famous pictures; Mrs. Etanhope Nixon and Mr. and Mrs. Alan Walker.

A DAY'S DEALS ELMSTDALE, N. S.—Willis McPhee takes second place to none when it comes to swapping. Willis set out from home with an $11.40 rifle, and here's what he returned with in the evening:

A nanny goat awaiting a blessed event; a Mauser rifle; an 8-day clock; a pair of boots; a yellow cat.

bushels of grain and thus assisting the grain farmers and that any legislation which would in any way interfere with his benevolent conduct would play havoc with you."

The undersecretary then referred to Cutten's recent trial on charges of violating the grain futures act by failing to report deals in grain to the government.

Tugwell said it seems "significant" that "during the period which Mr. Cutten piously proclaimed his activities in supporting and providing a market for the grain farmers, evidence developed by the government would indicate that he was selling short."

"It will also be interesting to note the relation between Mr. Wickham and the brokers who so obligingly assisted Mr. Cutten," Tugwell added. "Perhaps you can suspect as I do why the grain trade is so eager to procure the repeal of the agricultural adjustment act and to block any clarification of the license provisions."

CHURCHES

METHODIST CHURCH. Rev. Gaston Foote, Pastor. Sunday school begins at 9:45. We have a place for each of you.

Sunday morning service starts promptly at 10:55. The choir will sing "Thy Way Not Mine, O Lord" as the anthem. Miss Audrey Noel will sing "I Shall Not Pass Again This Way." The subject of the sermon by the Rev. Foote will be "What Does It Cost?"

At the evening service the "parson's package" will be "The Race Horse Gambling Menace." A male quartet will sing. Letters from local young men will be read and the sermon will be "Then Commandments to Sweethearts."

The Rev. Beavers, presiding elder of our Clarendon district, will preach at the McCullough church Sunday evening.

FULL GOSPEL TEMPLE. H. E. Comstock, pastor. Sunday school, 9:45. Preaching, 11:45. C. A. S., 6:45. Preaching, 7:45. Tuesday night, 7:45. Wednesday—Women's Missionary Council, 4:30. Thursday night, 7:45. A welcome awaits you at all our services.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY. 901 North Frost Street. "Christian Science" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 1.

The Golden Text is: "Laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisy, and envies, and all evil speakings, as newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby" (I Peter 2:1, 2).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit" (Matthew 7:18).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Christian Science awakens the sinner, reclaims the infidel, and raises from the couch of pain the helpless and invalid. It speaks to the dumb the words of Truth and they answer with rejoicing. It causes the deaf to hear, the lame to walk, and the blind to see. Who would be the first to disown the Christliness of good works when our Master says, 'By their fruits ye shall know them?'" (page 342).

Sunday, 11 a. m. Sunday school, 9:30 a. m. Wednesday, 8 p. m. The reading room is open Monday, Wednesday, and Saturday from 1 to 4 p. m. and Wednesday evening before and after services. The public is cordially invited to attend our services and use the reading room.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH. Nearing the day of the 158th anniversary of the American independence, the message Sunday morning will be on the subject of patriotism.

We cordially welcome you. At 11 a. m., "Christian Patriotism." At 8 p. m., "Lying Prophecies." And Sunday school at 10 a. m. Worship with us in any of these services. A. A. Hyde, minister.

ST. MATTHEWS' EPISCOPAL. Corner N. Ward and W. Browning. Fifth Sunday after Trinity. Church school, 9:45. Holy communion and sermon at 11 o'clock.

A cordial invitation is extended to all to worship with us this day. During the remainder of the month of July there will be no morning services, but the church school will meet as usual at the regular hour, 9:45.

Our fondest desire is to see to it that this church is the warmest and most effective brotherhood in the town; that no stranger shall remain unregretted; that no unfortunate member shall go un-befriended; that no invalid shall go unvisited; that no needy person shall go unassisted; that no bewitched soul shall go unadvised; that no home of mourning shall be neglected; and that no act of heeded mercy shall be omitted. If you have no church home, we cordially invite you to come with us.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH. Corner Kingsmill and West Streets. "Heaven's Ultimatum" will be the subject Sunday morning. An evangelistic service in the evening. This begins the ninth year as pastor of this good church. We wish it to be a rally day with all members present. A most cordial welcome is extended to the visitors and strangers in the community to worship with us. They will find a Bible class at 9:45 and a B. Y. P. U. at 6:45. C. E. Lancaster, pastor.

BUSINESS MEN'S BIBLE CLASS. Meeting at City Hall at 9:45 a. m. Mr. G. V. Edwards will accept the presidency of the class and have charge Sunday. We need very much to be present not only with our

CONDITIONS IN LABOR CRISES ARE BRIGHTER

TWO STRIKES AVERTED BY MEDIATORS WEDNESDAY

By The Associated Press. Death has stepped into the picture of the Milwaukee Transportation workers' strike. 50 Milwaukee men were killed in an automobile accident last night. Throughout the nation as a whole, however, labor conditions were considerably brighter today than yesterday.

As a result of President Roosevelt's appointment of a national labor relations board for steel, the international executive board of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers saw no further "necessity, or occasion for a suspension of operation" in that industry.

The three experienced mediators named on the board came to Washington. Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins said both sides had accepted the board's jurisdiction.

Representatives of the wool textile code authority and union labor reached an agreement which apparently averts a strike of 75,000 workers in that field Monday. It is subject to ratification by labor delegates tomorrow at Providence, R. I.

In Milwaukee, the third night of violence virtually completed paralysis of street car and bus lines of the Milwaukee Electric Railway & Light Company. The city council authorized unemployed persons to operate "jitney" buses, with hitch-hiking and walking were the only means of getting to work available to thousands. Racine, Wis., lines also were tied up.

A youth was electrocuted when a crowd stormed the main generating plant of the company. Another demonstrator was burned and a guard was hurt. Tear gas and fire streams were used to defend the plant.

One striker told police of plans to hurl acid on defenders of the company's property and another was arrested for firing a pistol.

Harriman, Tenn., was described by Mayor J. C. D'Amy as "feeling like a creep" in the employ of the Harriman hosiery mills, shut down when the NRA revoked its blue eagle in a strike bout.

Attorney General Cummings, without commenting on revocation of the emblem, said there was insufficient evidence of code, or NIRA, violations to warrant criminal prosecution.

Little change was reported on the Pacific coast, where 27,000 longshoremen are on strike.

Scout Troop to Enjoy Treasure Hunt on Tuesday

Troop 3 of the Girl Scouts, enjoyed a supper Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Paul Kasheke.

The girls built a fire in the stone fireplace in the back yard and roasted wieners and marshmallows.

The troops are to go on a treasure hunt next Tuesday evening. The members are to meet at the high school at 7:30 and the hunt will last until 8:30. Those who wish to go swimming after the hunt are to bring their suits and fifteen cents.

Those present at the supper were: Sara Ellen and Patty Will, Dorothy Joe Moore, Betty Curtis, Sara Parford, Doris Gray, and Mrs. C. C. Will, troop captain.

Tiny Tot Revue Feature Tonight

A Tiny Tot Bathing revue is scheduled at the La Nora theater for tonight at 9 o'clock. Two winners will be declared, one first place for the group age 2 to 7 years and another first place for the group ranging in age from 7 to 10 years. The winners in each group will be decided by applause from the audience.

Thirty three entries have been sponsored by local merchants and the stage revue will be mixed with music and novelty by Claude Higgs and his orchestra.

In connection with the Tiny Tot Revue will show the screen program "Mingaree," a spectacular dramatization of the career and personal romance of the lovable Australian bandit of that name, which reaches the talking picture screen this season as a venture into a picturesque new locale and as a recognition of the popularity of heart-interest melodrama.

Two high caliber stars, Irene Dunne and Richard Dix, who scored so prodigiously several seasons ago when teamed in "Cimarron," a production of similar great scope, play the heroine and the hero of the title respectively with Mary Boland featured in a strong serio-comic character part.

RETURNS HOME. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hudson and son, T. G. Jr., returned to their home in Fort Sumner, N. M., after a short visit with their daughter, Mrs. Ciesch Moore.

presence but encouragement as he takes the difficult task of leading us for the next six months.

STRIKER DIES IN ATTACK ON POWER PLANT

RIOING CONTINUES IN MILWAUKEE UTILITY DISORDERS

MILWAUKEE, June 29. (AP)—One death in a new outbreak of violence spurred peace makers on to redoubled efforts to end the strike of union employees of the Milwaukee Electric Railway company, which threatened today to spread to other industries.

The Rev. Francis J. Haas of Washington, chief conciliator of the National Labor Board sought the quickest method of putting a stop to the reign of violence after Eugene Domagalski, 24, leader of a band of strike sympathizers and pickets, died last night in a raid on the company's huge lakeside power plant.

Domagalski was electrocuted when the iron post he was using to batter a path into the generating plant swung against a switchboard.

Meanwhile, while rioting persisted on other scattered fronts last night, thirty-five representatives of 24 building trades and crafts unions voted unanimously to call a general strike of nearly 6,000 men in their lines in sympathy with the utility strike.

The fatal mishap climaxing three successive nights of disorders, occurred when a throng of 8,000 reached the peak of rioting after knocking out all lights in the section with rocks. Employees of the plant sought to keep back the crowd with streams of water but it stubbornly refused to disband until reinforcements of deputies fired tear gas bombs.

After a day of sporadic disorders which caused utility officials to abandon car service, the tragic raid brought an abrupt quietus to further pillaging for the night.

Stunned because one of their group had met death in an attempt to carry the strike battle onward,

Sadler to Bring New Troupe Soon

Harley Sadler's popular stage show will come to Pampa for a week's engagement beginning Monday, July 2.

Sadler will show under the auspices of the local post of the American Legion. It was announced also that Sadler will bring an almost entirely new company. He has taken over the Roy E. Fox Popular Players. The show also is featuring eight acts of big-time vaudeville.

Arturo Toscanini has been given the original manuscript of Debussy's "L'Après-midi d'un Faun" by Ganna Walska and the Orchestre Symphonique de Paris.

most of the pickets and sympathizers suitably returned to their homes leaving heavy cordons of police, seared and weary from fighting, jeering, hooting and restless assailants since Tuesday morning when the walkout was called.

Mr. Haas, who is endowed with the fullest authority of the federal government, said after a conference with S. B. May, utility president, that he had found the company's position is unchanging.

He said May was still adamant for the request of organized labor for a vote of employees as to what type of collective bargaining representatives they wish.

REMAINING 'BIG GUNS' FACE DETERMINED CREW TODAY

BY FELIX K. MCKNIGHT, Associated Press Staff Writer. DALLAS, June 29.—Shorn of colorful favorites who succumbed in a flurry of first round killings, the Trans-Mississippi championship tip went into its second round today at Brook Hollow Golf club as anybody's tournament.

The blond head of Johnny Goodman of Omaha, bobbed slightly above the remaining 16 players, but Johnny Dawson of Chicago; Zell Easton of Oklahoma City; the "giant killer" who disposed of W. Lawson Little, the British amateur champion, and many others were rated even choices for the title.

GILBERT HUNT BEATS CHAMP IN NET MEET

TEXAN IS DEFEATED BY ACE FROM GEORGIA TECH

PHILADELPHIA, June 29.—(P) An 18-year-old Massachusetts youth with a fondness for playing in his bare feet put on his socks and shoes and knocked the National Intercollegiate tennis crown from Jack Tidball's head.

The semi-finals today, Hunt and his strokes against those of Billy Reese, Georgia Tech ace who finished yesterday's second big upset by trimming Martin Buxby, Texas, seeded No. 3, 4-6, 6-2, 6-1.

World War Vet Hanged in Jail In Kansas City

KANSAS CITY, June 29.—(P)—Paul H. Kaufman, 35, world war veteran and former minor league player, was hanged in the county jail here today for the murder of 17-year-old Ayla Woolley of Webb City, Mo., whom he lured to Kansas City and attacked in Swope park four years ago.

McCraw Said to Have Worn Sheet Of Ku Klux Klan

SAN MARCOS, June 29.—(Special) Prohibition, ku klux klan dangers, control of utilities and enforcement of the relief laws were discussed here today by Senator Walter Woodward, candidate for attorney-general, in a speech before more than 1,000 persons. The occasion was a barbecue honoring the Coleman candidate.

By The Associated Press. New York: Tony Canzoneri, 134, New York, stopped Frankie Kluck, 133, San Francisco. (9) Harry Lubinsky, 142, Chicago outpointed Billy Hogan, 140, Piermont, N. Y.

MARBAUGH HAS BEEN SHOWING FINE CONTROL

Well over his stage fright, Miles "Gomer" Marbaugh has been doing some nice hurling during a week of hard practice with the Roadrunners. The elongated lefthander may start one of the games Saturday afternoon at Roadrunner park. Tate also has been showing much improvement and has been designated by Manager Geo. Bulla as a starter in one of the contests.

LEFTHANDER EXPECTED TO START ONE OF TWO GAMES

The Memphis Owls will follow as opposition. The first game will be called at 2 o'clock. Admission will remain at 25 cents for women and 35 cents for men in the grandstand, and 25 cents for bleacher seats.

PRESIDENT IS CONFIDENT IN RADIO SPEECH

'DOUBTING THOMASES' CRITICIZED BY ROOSEVELT

By FRANCIS M. STEPHENSON, WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP)—President Roosevelt's lashing of "die-hards" and pledge of a vast new deal promised today to reform in the campaigns for the fall elections.

Friend and foe alike studied the latest "report to the nation" in which the president claimed "substantial gains," laughed at "prophecies of calamity" and again stressed his future program for "the security of the men, women and children of the nation."

Sitting in the oval room of the White House, in the steaming heat of a Washington summer, the president gave a radio talk last night in which he:

1. Praised congress as the most bipartisan since the time of President Washington himself.

2. Cited statistics to show gains in wages, employment, farm prices and consuming power.

3. Struck at "plausible self-seekers and theoretical die-hards" who "tell you of loss of individual liberty."

4. Declared the "most vociferous of the doubting Thomases" are those who seek special political or financial privileges.

5. Said the loss of harmful self-seekers "are being stepped on and are going to be stepped on."

6. Reaffirmed his faith in what has come to be known as the "brain trust."

7. Promised protection against chiselers and "unfair sky-rocketing" of prices in NRA's "Process of Evolution."

8. Again emphasized his huge, three-fold plan for "security" through providing better homes, planning land and water resources and social insurance.

The president said: "A few timid people, who fear congress, will try to give you fear."

MANY DIE OF BAKING HEAT

All-Time Heat Record Is Broken in Illinois as Iowa Suffers Most

By The Associated Press. More than a score of deaths were attributed today to scorching temperatures that scorched much of the continent from the Rockies to the Atlantic seaboard. Generally speaking, no immediate relief was in sight.

Of the mid-western states, Iowa apparently was the hardest hit, with six deaths, three due to prostrations and three to drownings. A maximum of 107 degrees was reached at Waterloo.

Many of the victims in other states died when they took to the water to escape the baking heat. Nebraska counted three dead; Illinois one; Maryland three; Michigan four; Ohio four; western Pennsylvania three and Indiana two.

An all-time heat record of 112 was registered at Mattoon, Ill., while in Chicago, where one person died from the heat and scores were prostrated, the mercury hit 99—a new high for the date.

In the Pittsburgh district records of 40 years' standing went tumbling, and Franklin, Pa., saw a reading of 101, the hottest in its history.

Kansas City's high was 101. Cleveland had 100, a record; Cincinnati, 101; Detroit, 104; and Washington, D. C., 93.

There was some hope of relief in Nebraska, where rain was reported last night.

Heavy property damage was reported at Marysville, Ky., after the city had baked in a temperature of 105.

A heavy loss of livestock was reported from some of the drought-stricken areas of the mid-west, and crops were withered and burned.

T. C. Cofor of Skellytown was a Pampa business visitor yesterday.

E. A. Ellis of Panhandle transacted business here this morning.

Miss Della Gordon of Miami shopped in the city this morning.

and strange names for what we are doing. Sometimes they call it 'fascism,' sometimes 'communism,' sometimes 'regimentation,' sometimes, 'socialism.'

"But, in so doing, they are trying to make very complex and theoretical something that is really very simple and very practical."

Declaring that in a land of vast resources no one should be permitted to starve, he said relief would call for large expenditures for some time.

The paralysis that made this necessary, he said, "arose as the after-effect of that unfortunate decade characterized by a mad chase for unearned riches and an unwillingness of leaders in almost every walk of life to look beyond their own schemes and speculations."

TO PURCHASE TEN MILLION MORE CATTLE

CATTLE TO BE BOUGHT IN DROUGHT AREAS

WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP)—The farm administration has decided to increase the purchase of livestock in the drought areas to 10,000,000 head.

Expansion of the buying program, designed to aid farmers hit by this spring's long dry spell and to rid the country of undesirable stock, will be announced within a few days.

Purchase of only 3,000,000 head was contemplated originally. Personal inspection of the parched grazing land west of the Mississippi led officials to increase the number. The 10,000,000 will include about 5,000,000 sheep.

The price has not been set, officials said, but probably will be about $2 a head for animals a year or more old.

"If a year from today we can have weeded out the poorer and diseased animals from our herds and the nation's livestock industry will be on a better basis than at any time in the past," one prominent official said.

Directors hope the bulk of the 10,000,000 can be brought before winter, pointing out that forage and feed are inadequate to last through the cold months.

Grass and legumes are considered so badly damaged that they cannot recover over a vast section of the drought area. Officials predicted that effects of the drought on hay and forage crops will be felt for two years.

A plan also has been suggested that 10,000,000 acres of sub-marginal land in an area stretching from the Dakotas southwestward be purchased for an emergency grazing reserve.

Small's Vote in West Texas May Pass 1930 Total

HASKELL, June 29.—Confident of a large vote in the Panhandle and South Plains sections of the state, Senator Clint Small is winding up a whirlwind five-day tour of West Texas in his campaign for governor.

He predicted that West Texas would go for him this year by a wider margin than it did in 1930, when it polled more than 100,000 votes for him.

"My Panhandle and South Plains friends tell me that country is going to give me as much as 85 per cent of the vote in some counties. If the rest of West Texas supports me as it did in my former campaign, I'll be one of the contenders in the run-off." Small asserted.

Court Reverses Potter County Assault Verdict

AUSTIN, June 29 (AP)—Currie W. Caldwell, convicted of the kidnaping of Robert Cerf, son of a Corsicana banker, and sentenced to ten years in a new trial today by the court of criminal appeals.

Caldwell was convicted on a charge of assault in disguise. He was indicted with Jimmie Ash, Oliver Clapp, and Charles R. Hassell. The kidnaping occurred December 9, 1930. Young Cerf was taken to Dallas and held for $15,000 ransom.

Caldwell was convicted in Ellis county after a charge of venue from Navarro county. It was Caldwell's second appeal. He was first convicted in Navarro county and sentenced to 12 years imprisonment but the conviction was reversed by the appeals court.

The conviction of A. M. Thomas in Potter county on a charge of assault to murder Homer Hart was reversed and remanded because of improper admission of extraneous parts of a purported confession made by Thomas. He had been sentenced to five years in prison.

Affirmance was given the 4-year term of A. C. Darnell, convicted in Potter county of slaying Marvin Sisson. The charge against Darnell grew out of a collision between a motor vehicle driven by Darnell and a motorcycle operated by Sisson, in which Sisson was fatally injured. Darnell was allegedly operating his machine while intoxicated.

$4,500,000 Is Allotted for a Dam Near Austin

WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP)—An allotment of $4,500,000 to complete the Hamilton dam and reservoir on the Colorado river 90 miles above Austin, Texas, was announced today by Public Works Administrator Ickes.

Ickes announced the allotment was for a loan to the Colorado River company of San Antonio, which would be utilized as an agency to carry on the work pending creation by the Texas legislature of a public authority to take it over.

One of the principal conditions upon which the allotment was made was that the company should be under government control and a majority of its directors named by the administrator.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, June 29 (AP)—Although subjected to no especial pressure, stocks drifted lower today. A reaction in grains may have been a depressing factor.

Hundreds of cowboys from over the southwest gather, in their quaint attire, to compete for supremacy in these sports of the mountain and plain.

The 1934 contests, representing the twelfth year that these events have been held in Canadian, will tell the story of the old west, "the good old days" of the rangeland and cowpuncher, when a sure-footed horse, a strong wrist, and quick eye meant fame and fortune.

For more than a score of years, this little city on the Canadian river has been the mecca of the rodeo enthusiast, and this year will prove no exception for already the Panhandle's cattlemen and cowboys have signified their intention to take part, and one confident of his ability to be "in the money."

And there is the money. "Every dollar advertised at Canadian is worth a dollar paid." For years Canadian has staked its reputation on that slogan and every year finds the cattlemen and cowboys continuing to return for these wonderful contests.

Cash prizes, amounting to hundreds of dollars, will be hung up for the various events, including broncho riding, steer riding, bulldogging, calf roping, wild cow milking, and other events of the range.

Everything points to the biggest and best contests ever staged. Plenty of fun and entertainment are ready for visitors, who wish to enjoy their vacation in this wonderful outdoor country. Canadian is reached by the transcontinental train service of the Santa Fe railroad; U. S. Highway No. 60 and No. 83. A genuine western hospitality awaits those who journey to Canadian, where cool breezes blow on the hottest day and where always there is rest and peace from the year-round grind of business and house-keeping.

The Indians are coming! And with them will come all the trappings that an Indian likes to get together when he goes somewhere to help put on a show.

Indians from the Cheyenne reservation will arrive July 2 to set up their camp near Anvil Park. They will put on an exhibition of their tribal dance each day before the grandstand.

One of the amusement features of the rodeo this year is to be the riding exhibition of Malee Harding, thirteen-year-old trick rider who will give exhibitions of fancy horsemanship. She has won championships in big contests and performs many features of trick riding and roping, also gives demonstrations with her high school horse. Her older sister, Earlene Harding, will accompany her this year and will show feats of rope spinning.

With the avoidance of the proposed strike of the United Textile Workers, subject to ratification at Sunday's meeting, there should be a clearer way open to the placing of orders for wool fabrics and it would not be surprising were the working basis for which the trade has been looking established in wool very shortly. Meanwhile, there is little being done.

The foreign markets are quiet and say, awaiting the opening of the London colonial sales Tuesday, when a decline of ten to fifteen per cent is predicted.

In the west, little has developed. Shipments of wool are largely on consignment against advances ranging from 15 to 20 cents, according to the wool. In the bright wool sections, the market is slightly easier.

Reports from Texas this morning state that sizeable sales of the short call and spring wools in and around Kerrville which were held at about 26 cents have been made at 18 to 20-1-2 cents.

Mohair is in limited demand at steady rates. Quotations: Scoured basis—Texas. Fine 12 months (selected) 83-85; fine short 12 months 80-82.

Mohair: Domestic, good original bag, Texas spring, 45-48 cents; Texas kid, 55-58.

CHICAGO GRAIN. CHICAGO, June 29 (AP)—Notable weakness of grain prices today contrasted with strength shown yesterday, and there was also a pronounced contraction in the volume of trading.

Corn led the declines of prices, and at times dropped more than 2 cents a bushel. Cooler temperatures and some moisture relief for the corn belt did much to induce selling and to restrict demand from buyers.

Corn closed heavy, 2 1/2-2 1/2 cents under yesterday's finish, wheat weak, 1 1/2-2 cents down, oats 1-1 1/2 cents, colored 20; rock springs 24, colored 23; rock broilers 19-21, colored 19, leghorn 16-12, barebacks 15-16; roosters 8 1/2; turkeys 10-14; spring ducks 12-14, old 7-9; spring geese 13, old 7.

SPIRIT OF FRONTIER SEEN IN ANNUAL RODEO PROGRAMS AT ANVL PARK EACH JULY

CANADIAN, June 29.—Commemorating the spirit of the frontiersmen, those who blazed the trail into Texas, cowboy contests are held annually on July 5, 4, and 5 at Canadian.

Hundreds of cowboys from over the southwest gather, in their quaint attire, to compete for supremacy in these sports of the mountain and plain.

Miss May had been an adherent of the Roselawn, Ind., nudist colony and Mueller was a disciple of a colony at Mirror Lake, Wis.

The bridesmaid was Yvonne Stacey, 22, known down at the Roselawn camp as "Zorine, Daughter of the Sun." A beautiful coat of tan was her wedding gown.

The best man was Fred M. Smith of Chicago. They didn't need any ushers, as there were only 25 spectators and they knew their way around the "lost river"; but there were two male witnesses, Max Hillbig of the Mirror Lake camp and Alois S. Knapp, attorney of the Zero colony; and two young women who refrained from giving their names.

It was a great day for it. The sun started out early pounding the thermometer bulbs, and clothes were not necessary for warmth. At 10:30, the ceremonial hour, there was a cooling breeze off the lake.

The couple had met a year ago in the Zero colony, and the wedding arrangements were her heart's desire. They had thought to be married at the colony where they met, but, as Attorney Knapp explained, "they concluded that might draw unfavorable publicity to the league."

So they picked the fair's "world a million years ago" because of "the aptness of the surroundings."

There have been several sudden closings of night clubs at the fair this year because of the decision of censors that fan dancers and models were next to nothing. But it seemed to be a mystery today whether the censors knew about the nudist wedding, or if they did, whether nothing was better than next to nothing.

After the ceremony, the happy couple donned street clothes, pending return to a nudist colony.

The ceremony was brief and in accordance with regular rites of the church.

The bride was overheard whispering, after the rites, that she'd like a honeymoon but she "hadn't a thing to wear."

Sound movies of the ceremony were made, and the photographers stopped the service at one point, finding that a small motor some place nearby was adding a hum to the record. Aside from that, however, and the matter of clothing, the wedding was just like any other. The best man missed his cue, when he was supposed to hand over the ring; and the bridegroom trembled a little when he slipped the ring over the bride's finger.

Then they walked back to a big rock and posed for more pictures. The names given on their marriage licenses were at variance with those announced at the wedding.

The bride had given her name as Gertrude May, and the bridegroom as Samuel Wallace, Jr., Milwaukee.

A skeptic among the witnesses asked whether the marriage was really legal and binding.

"It's perfectly all right," said the bridegroom. "We were married in the marriage court yesterday, right after the license was issued. Today's ceremony was the religious one." And the minister said he would go to the county building to sign the certificate.

Officials of the world's fair were not informed of the nudist plan, it was explained.

"Since it was private," said the concession manager, "we felt that the fair officials would not object."

Guard your Health with FLY-TOX

KILLS FLIES, MOSQUITOES AND OTHER INSECTS

WE are not one of those who would suppress sale and use of fireworks. Boys—and girls too—of all ages have long derived a certain amount of pleasure from use of fireworks. Deprived of one menace, boys usually find another. But caution is a good thing to develop. It is something that can be taught. Parents will do well to teach proper use of fireworks—how to avoid fire. . . . July 4 is the traditional time to use fireworks. Other days, especially Christmas, are not appropriate.

Nothing is more futile than some of the efforts made to assure the public that its food is safe. There is not enough teeth in existing laws, and far too much politics. . . . The state health department calls attention to the health certificates for food handlers, and urges that domestics be required to have similar examinations. . . . Yet it is a fact well known that many so-called physical examinations do not even require a trip to the physician's office, or at least do not require the detailed check which is necessary to detect such diseases as general diseases, t. b., and typhoid fever (carriers). The integrity of the food seller remains the best safeguard.

BROTHERS

(Continued from Page 1.) That was last August and since they had almost a year's more training and the experience of exploits to aid them over their prospective journey via the great circle route to Dublin, Berlin, and Warsaw.

Benjamin is 36 years old and married. Joseph is 39 and single. They have been flying since 1927.

The brothers were well-named the silent partners. They had hardly a word to say to anyone excepting Holtris as they waited to take off, but they smiled "thanks" to the well wishers.

Holtris was all but breathless as the big monoplane ran nearly the entire length of the runway before lifting slowly. As she gained altitude steadily, Holtris smiled.

"That take-off would do credit to an old timer," was his comment. Asked what food had been taken, Benjamin Adamowicz said: "Plenty of eats."

And 610 gallons of gasoline—how long it would keep them in the air? "About 40 hours," Ben said, "but we hope to make it in thirty."

At mid-session the market was quiet and at the lows.

TOM ROSE AGAIN IS APPOINTED FORD DEALER IN THIS COMMUNITY

EXCHANGE OF ENGINES ONE FORD SERVICE

PRECISION WORK DONE IN FACTORY—PRICES LOWERED

When after thousands and thousands of miles of service, the engine needs overhauling, Ford offers an exclusive service feature. For only $49.50, plus freight, (slightly more on the West Coast) any Ford dealer can supply a factory reconditioned V-8 engine, all worn parts replaced with new ones. The reconditioning is done by the great Ford Rouge plant by the same men, methods, precision machinery and materials in the manufacture of new engines.

This engine exchange service is of triple benefit to the Ford owner; first, since the changeover can be made in a few hours it reduces the idle time by keeping the car or truck out of the service station. Secondly, it gives the equal of new engine performance at less than half the cost of an ordinary engine overhaul, and third, quality work is assured by the use of precision equipment which, because of its cost, could not be available to the garage mechanic.

And the Ford service policies go even further than this. Other parts can be exchanged at astonishingly low prices. Wheel hub and brake drum assemblies, brakes, clutches, fuel pump, carburetor, distributor and battery are available upon an exchange basis—in order that the Ford owner may be assured of the highest quality of service at substantial savings.

Ford Service Is Carried to Door of Fleet Owners

A fleet consisting of more than 500 Ford Panel trucks of 157-inch wheelbase cover the entire country, each carrying approximately $2,000 worth of genuine Ford parts for sale direct to fleet owners, garages and others at their doors.

The Ford organization has always had more points of service with larger stocks. Now these moving parts stocks form a network of routes so that every fleet owner or garage in the country will be contacted at least one each week by an experienced service man, having a complete stock of genuine Ford parts with him.

This service gives every owner the advantage of genuine Ford parts wherever he may go and is another step ahead in rendering proper service.

Motorist of '34 Buys Great Car At Small Cost

As the summer motoring season gets actively under way, the motorist of ordinary means can congratulate himself on his ability to purchase for a low price a motor car that not only has all the features of cars which several years ago cost $2,000 or $3,000 but incorporates many engineering improvements which have been developed in recent years.

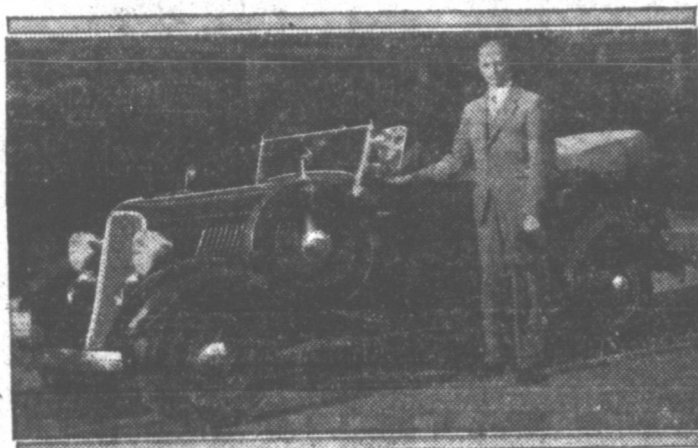

"The 1934 motor car buyers get a real break," Tom Rose, new Pampa dealer, points out. "He can buy a car at reasonable price and be certain to get every comfort and every feature that a motorist could desire. Five years ago to obtain these same motoring features would have cost him thousands of dollars."

"Ford engineers have been able to build these features into a low-priced car. The new Ford V-8's have transverse springs allowing free action on all four wheels. They have torque tube drive, which assures safety at high speed. Their wheels are of welded steel with nothing to work loose and the steel itself is so strong that a single spoke will support the weight of the entire car. This car can be accelerated to 60 miles an hour in second gear.

"Then, too, this year's buyer gets a double drop frame, high height bumpers, all-steel body, safety glass all around, and a low center of gravity, permitting the car to hug the road and making it possible for it to be tilted to a 40 degree angle.

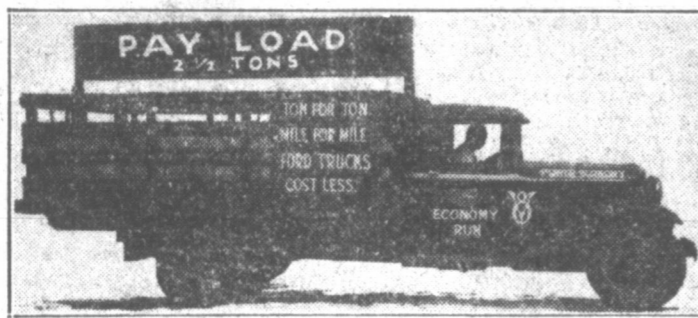

"In short, the motorist of 1934 not only enjoys the benefits of low prices but at the same time he obtains these multiple features that make motoring a genuine pleasure and provide the motorist with comfort, speed and safety. In view of these facts it is not to be wondered at that the automobile industry has gone ahead so rapidly this year. The American motorist recognizes value and is quick to take advantage of it when he sees it. Sales records for the current year are proof of this."

A BRUTE FOR PUNISHMENT

FORD DEALERS PUNISH V-8 TRUCK IN ECONOMY TEST

Ford V-8 Dealers have just completed a fact finding, punishing economy test of the Ford V-8 Truck. A standard 157-inch wheel-base stake V-8 Truck was driven 5,013 miles in 6½ days at an average speed of 40 miles per hour. The run was made over all types of Southern roads, ferrying 4 times each day, with the mileage equally divided between concrete and gravel. Three drivers were used, each driver driving for 8 hours at a stretch. The truck was loaded with 2½ tons of pay load. The hood and gasoline tanks were sealed and padlocked. The truck was refueled and the oil changed under the direction of impartial officials who kept the keys to the locks. Oil changes and chassis lubrications were made at 1,000 mile intervals.

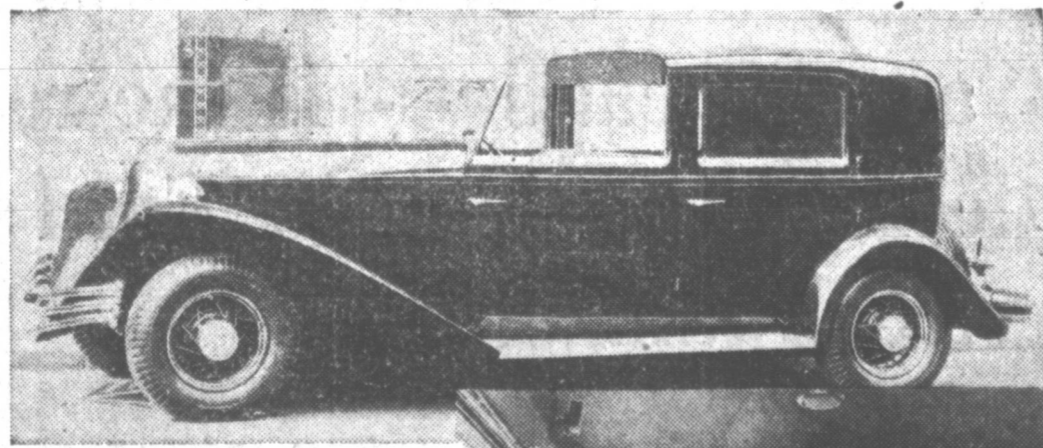

At the end of the 5,013 mile grind the economy was calculated and the dealers reported "It was not necessary to add any oil between the 1,000 mile changes. Five quarts of oil were used at each change. With the 2½ ton pay load and an average speed of 40 miles an hour the gasoline mileage averaged 11½ miles per gallon.

"The powerful V-8 engine and the rugged Ford truck chassis completed its punishing job without a moment's delay for repairs or service. Only routine maintenance was required to place the truck back into immediate service."

Ford-Front Seat Accommodates Three

This shows the front seat of a Ford V-8 Victoria which has been designed to accommodate three passengers easily.

New Brewster on Ford Chassis

This is the Luxury Car which the Brewster Body Company, Rolls-Royce Subsidiary, has started to produce in the parent company's plant at Springfield, Mass. It uses the Ford V-8 Motor and is built on a lengthened Ford chassis. It will sell for $3,500.00.

SALE GROWTH SEEN AS INDEX TO CONDITIONS

Tom Rose, New Ford Dealer Here, Points to Many Truck Improvements.

Steady improvement in general business conditions is reflected in growing truck sales and increasing inquiries for hauling equipment, according to Tom Rose, local Ford dealer.

"The many improvements in the new Ford V-8 trucks and commercial cars undoubtedly are partly responsible for the increased sales," he said after a trip to Oklahoma City, "but it also is an index of improved business conditions."

"The V-8 engine in the new trucks have a special truck-type cylinder head which increases the power and reduces the piston strain," he continued. "Dual down-draft carburetion also has been added, and other engine refinements include new type pistons and baffle-plates which provide greater oil economy. The present truck engine, which gives 80 horsepower, gives also more miles per gallon of gasoline than any truck engine Ford has built."

"Another radical improvement in the trucks is a full-floating rear axle. The entire weight of the load is carried on the axle housing, and the axle shaft is used only to transmit the power to the wheels. One of the advantages of this type of construction is that if abusive operation should ever result in the breaking of an axle shaft, the truck and its load still can be towed on its own wheels, and a new axle shaft can be installed without jacking up the wheels."

The new Ford V-8 trucks and commercial cars, he said, are not only the finest but also the most economical hauling and delivery equipment ever built by Ford.

Rose and Turner Have Ford Agency in McLean Area

Tom Rose, who tomorrow will become Pampa Ford dealer, has also obtained the agency at McLean in association with his son-in-law, E. L. Turner.

They bought the agency from the firm of McLaughlin & Reeder. Standard Ford sales and service will be maintained there by Mr. Turner.

FORD HAS ENAMEL FINISH

One of the features of unusual interest is the new enamel finish of the Ford V-8. This finish assures new car beauty over the life of the car through the maintenance of its original lustre of the life of the car. New color combinations include Vineyard Green, Cordova grey, black, and others.

The new ventilation system in the V-8 Fords for 1934 provides individual control for passengers in both front and rear seats, prevents drafts and provides completely clear vision. The system does not require any visible mechanism, either on the windows or inside the car, as the handle which raises and lowers the window operates it. After a window has been raised to the top, an additional half turn of the handle slides it back horizontally, forming a vertical slot thru which stale air and smoke are drawn from the car interior.

The easy riding qualities of the Ford V-8 have been improved in the 1934 cars without sacrificing the road safety and safety which is characteristic of the transverse spring suspension system. The rear spring has been made more flexible and the shock absorbers improved to provide the necessary control for varying temperatures and road conditions.

FORMER AGENT HAS FRANCHISE FOR V-8 LINE

CHANGE EFFECTIVE ON SATURDAY—CITIZENS INVITED

The Ford Motor Company today announces the appointment of Tom Rose as Ford dealer in this community, effective tomorrow. He succeeds the Miller-Lybrand company.

Mr. Rose's decision to rejoin the Ford retail organization was made as a result of a survey of the sales possibilities of all makes of cars. "After studying the automobile outlook and the attitude of people in this community toward different cars, I came to the conclusion," said Mr. Rose, "that a very large percentage of the people here feel as I do—that the Ford V-8 is the car to buy."

"With business conditions generally improving, I feel that we are going to have an excellent year with the Ford V-8. Frankly, I am proud to become again associated with an organization that has done so much to distinguish itself in the automobile industry."

"Ever since its inception, the Ford Motor company has been a leader in engineering and manufacturing principles and methods. We have with us this year a striking proof of this leadership in the widespread publicity given independent front wheel suspension as a new development."

"Now as a matter of fact, Ford has used the same principle—not on two wheels but on all four—for thirty years. And so it gives me confidence, as a dealer, to know that we have a factory organization that leads in offering the motoring public sound motor car improvements."

Mr. Rose is extending the public an invitation to visit his showrooms and inspect the various models of the Ford V-8 to be on display Saturday. He is maintaining a complete stock of parts and a factory-authorized Ford service station.

The V-type of engine in a motor car has certain advantages over the straight type because of shorter travel of both gas and water, according to Mr. Rose, local Ford dealer.

"Because it is shorter, the V-type motor occupies less frame length leaves more room for the body, but there are also other advantages," he said. "In the case of the Ford V-8 with the dual carburetor, the intake charge of gas has much shorter travel and is equally distributed to all cylinders. Water circulation also is improved, for in the V-8 engine water from the radiator passes only two cylinders on each side to get to the last two. Another advantage of this type of construction is the short, rigid crankshaft, with less tendency to whip or oscillate than is the case with one that is longer."

The engine of the Ford V-8 for 1934 is fundamentally unchanged, but the use of a new dual carburetor and dual intake manifold and other improvements provide greater gasoline and oil economy, according to Mr. Rose, who said: "The power of the engine has been increased 12 per cent and tests show that it gives more miles per gallon of gasoline than formerly."

Wheat Harvest In Full Swing

AMARILLO, June 29. (P)—The Panhandle wheat movement was near its peak today when the Amarillo Grain Exchange reported that the day's inspections totaled 407 cars.

The movement was several cars short of the peak in early July, 1931, when the Panhandle shipped its biggest crop of 63,000,000 bushels.

More than 3,000,000 bushels, have been inspected by the local exchange. Much of the Panhandle grain is consigned to other points not inspected here, but no figures on car loadings were available. Walter A. Barlow, president of the Panhandle Grain Dealers association, said that most of the new crop on the south plains is being held by farmers. Frank Triplett, manager of the Texas Wheat Growers association, also said the storage elevators were full in that area, where the harvest is practically over.

The harvest is in full swing on the north plains. Most of the grain is being sold in that region, dealers reported.

With the harvest well under way in all sections, estimates of from 15,000,000 to 18,000,000 bushels for the Panhandle have not been changed.

MATABELES ACT IN FILM PLAY BULAWAYO, Rhodesia (P)—Natives are making the first Rhodesian talkie, an 8-reel film, in which a young Matabele warrior wins the girl of his choice, despite the wiles of an amorous old chief. The all-native cast includes aged tribesmen who fought the Boers 40 years ago.

Rose Glad To Be Back In Mass Sales Auto Field

Ford V-8 Dealers Reduce Prices

Tom Rose, who is again becoming Pampa's Ford dealer, says he is happy to be back in the field of mass sales of a quality product. He is a veteran of the business.

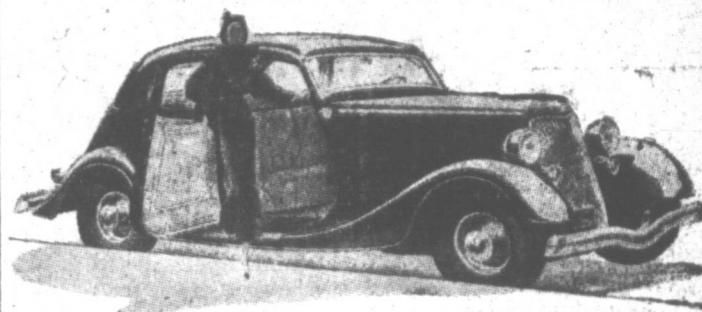

As he prepares to take over the local Ford business tomorrow with a full display of new models and colors, he recalls his start at Chillicothe in 1915. There were few cars then, but he believed in the business and stayed with it.

He came to Pampa in January of 1922 to take the Ford agency in the building where Baum's grocery store is located. In December of 1926, he built and occupied the building where he is now situated. He continued as Ford agent until May of 1931, when he became dealer for the Buick-Oldsmobile line.

Looking back over his records yesterday, he noted that as Ford dealer in 1929 his firm sold 794 units, followed by 396 in 1930. Sales also were very good in 1926-27.

In re-opening as Ford dealer, Mr. Rose is assembling a competent staff of mechanics, is stocking complete in parts, and is preparing

NEWEST FORD V-8

Ford V-8 Dealers announce reduction of delivered prices on all models of Ford V-8 passenger cars and the full line of Ford V-8 trucks and commercial cars.

The reductions have been brought about by savings effected by lower freight rates and handling costs. Dealers announce that these savings are being passed on directly to the consumer.

Ford V-8 sales have been booming and the new price reductions have added a further stimulant to buying.

The compression ratio of the Ford V-8 is 6.33 to 1, made possible by the rapid heat dissipating qualities of the aluminum cylinder head.

A NEW FORD DEALER

TOM ROSE

North Ballard and Kingsmill Ave.

In keeping with the Ford Motor Company policy of providing the highest type of representation in each community Tom Rose has been selected to handle the sale and service of Ford cars and trucks.

This new dealership, in addition to furnishing complete Ford service facilities, offers to the people of this locality a better opportunity to become acquainted with the outstanding features of the New Ford V-8. You will be welcome at any time to inspect these cars and to drive them yourself.

The Ford Motor Company's policy is founded on the belief that a sale does not complete the transaction with the buyer, but establishes a new economical service.

Tom Rose, as an Authorized Dealer, is pledged to carry out that policy. Thoroughly trained mechanics, using approved tools and machinery, service Ford cars and trucks. Only genuine Ford parts, priced low, are used. All labor is billed at a suggested standard flat rate.

This new dealership is now open and ready to serve you. We are confident they will do it well.

International Sunday School Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

General Topic—Ahiyah and the Divided Kingdom

Scripture Lesson: 1 Kings 11:26-39.

29. And it came to pass at that time, when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem that the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him in the way; now Ahijah had clad himself with a new garment; and they two were alone in the field.

30. And Ahijah laid hold of the new garment that was on him, and rent it in twelve pieces.

31. And he said to Jeroboam, Take these ten pieces; for thus saith Jehovah, the God of Israel, Behold, I will rend the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give ten tribes to thee.

32. (But he shall have one tribe, for my servant David's sake and for Jerusalem's sake, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel):

33. Because that they have forsaken me, and have worshipped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of Moab, and Milcom the god of the children of Ammon; and they have not walked in my ways, to do that which is right in mine eyes, and to keep my statutes and mine ordinances, as did David his father.

34. Howbeit, I will not take the whole kingdom from thee; but I will leave thee two tribes, and David my servant, and Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen me to put my name there.

35. But I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand, and will give it unto thee seven ten tribes.

36. And unto his son I give one tribe, that David my servant may have a lamp always before me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen me to put my name there.

37. And I will take thee, and thou shalt reign according to all that thy soul desireth, and shalt be king over Israel.

38. And it shall be, if thou wilt hearken unto all that I command thee, and wilt walk in my ways, and do that which is right in mine eyes, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as David my servant did; that I will be with thee, and will build thee a sure house, as I built for David, and will give Israel unto thee.

39. And I will for this afflict the seed of David, but not for ever.

Introduction

Last year, in the third quarter, we studied the history of God's chosen people from Joshua to Solomon, continuing the Old Testament studies of the preceding year in Genesis and Exodus. Now we are to carry on the story, beginning with Solomon's successor and ending with an account of Isaiah, and next year we complete our survey of the Old Testament, from Isaiah to Malachi. Seven of the lessons of this course will be taken from the Books of Kings and Chronicles. The two Books, First and Second Kings, were originally one Book, the Greek translators (the Septuagint), dividing them into two. The two Books cover the history of four centuries, ending with the exile, and picture especially the moral and religious failures of the kings and people which led to that greater disaster.

First and Second Chronicles were also one book in the Old Hebrew Bible, and were divided by the seventy Greek translators whose work is called the Septuagint. The two Books are the work of a single writer, traditionally Esdras, and a single purpose runs through them. Perhaps the most striking feature of the Books that presents itself to the ordinary reader is the fact that the author deals almost exclusively with the history of the kingdom of Judah.

Evil of Solomon's Reign

In spite of the wisdom of Solomon, and his early piety, the reign of this great king ended in darkness. His failure—one of the saddest in history—was due mainly to two causes. In the first place, with the false idea that thus he would add to the strength of his kingdom, Solomon made matrimonial alliances with many foreign princesses. In the second place, his worldly ostentation demanded from his people the imposition of burdens far heavier than they were willing to bear. The indolent luxury and glided pomp of his court could only be maintained by the imposition of taxes which fell with crushing weight on pauperized people. Solomon, before he died at the comparatively early age of sixty, had lost his early popularity, and we are now to witness the rise of his successor had to reap the fruits of his father's misdeeds.

Jeroboam

The man who was destined to head the revolt of the people against the evils fostered by Solomon was named Jeroboam. This young man, though poor, was able, industrious and brave. He was one of the contingent drafted by Solomon when he built the bastion called Millo, a part of the fortification of Jerusalem which seems to have been left unfinished by David. His zeal and skill in this work were noted by Solomon, and the king promoted Jeroboam to be at the head of all the workmen from "the house of Joseph," i. e., from the tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh, sons of Joseph. In this position Jeroboam heard the mutterings of the bands of unwilling laborers and began to cherish in his impetuous soul the patriotic indignation and the towering personal ambition which were to bear in the future such momentous fruit.

Ahiyah, the Prophet

"And Ahijah laid hold of the new garment that was on him, and rent it in twelve pieces." v. 30. One piece for each of the twelve tribes, the tribe of Levi not being counted, as being solely devoted to service, in the temple, and the house of Joseph being divided into the two tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh. Acted parables such as this of Ahijah's were often employed by later prophets.

"Behold, I will rend the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon." Really, Solomon in his misuse of his great opportunities, had let the kingdom fall out of his hands. God took away only what Solomon had basely let go. "And will give thee seven ten tribes." v. 36. Ahijah's strength of mind, his ability as a leader, had been amply displayed before the prophet's observation, until the voice of God's Spirit within him had said, as God said to Samuel in the case of David: "Arise, anoint him; for this is he" (1 Sam. 16:12).

The Reward of Obedience, v. 38

"And it shall be, if thou wilt hearken unto all that I command thee, and wilt walk in my ways, and do that which is right in mine eyes." v. 38. "And I will be with thee, and will build thee a sure house, as I built for David, and will give Israel unto thee." v. 39. "And I will afflict the seed of David, but not for ever." v. 39. "Listening is the first step in a life of obedience. We must learn God's will and how we can do it. "And wilt walk in my ways." The path of life pointed out by God's commands. "Follow me," said the Son of God. He ever "goes on before," and the ways of blessedness are those ways in which he walks first, and then his people after him. "And do that which is right in mine eyes." Both Jeroboam and Rehoboam as Solomon before them, chose to do what was right in their own eyes, forgetting how weak and untrustworthy was their vision, how fallible were their choices. "To keep my statutes and my commandments, as David my servant did." If we are "men of the Book," we must be men of obedience. "That I will be with thee." All other blessings are involved in this supreme blessing of God's presence with his people, to be sought with all eagerness and held to with all fidelity. "And will build thee a sure house, as I built for David." Every one desires permanence for his work and security for its results. There is no such permanence and security except from God.

The Divided Kingdom

The story of Rehoboam's momentous decision is one of the most dramatic in all history. His father's sagacious counselors advised him to use soft words and make smooth promises; but the advice of the young nobles who had grown up with Rehoboam in the court was that he should speak up boldly and sternly, and beware of the multitude by an assurance of worldly strictness. With incredible folly the son of Solomon shouted to the northern malcontents; "My little finger is thicker than my father's loins. My father laid on you a heavy yoke, but I will add to it. My father chastized you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions." No sooner had he made his insane reply than the assembly raised the cry, "What portion have we in David? neither have we heritage in the house of Jesse; to your tents, O Israel: now see to thine own house, David." 1 Kings 12:16. The terrible schism was complete. Thenceforth we are to read of a divided kingdom, north and south, Israel and Judah. Dur-

FORD SALES

To give unexcelled service to all Ford buyers. Factory trained men will service the Model A cars. In relinquishing his dealership in 1931, Mr. Rose did not overlook his promises to service Fords he had sold to hundreds of owners. Since that time he has stocked Ford parts and serviced many of the cars he sold.

Believing that the patrons who have bought Buicks and Oldsmobile cars from him deserve the same consideration, Mr. Rose will continue for some time to maintain a first class service for owners of these cars. He also will sell out the stock of Buick and Oldsmobile vehicles he now has and will accept orders for these cars until an authorized dealer for the cars is appointed. He said he had enjoyed his relations with Buick, but believed he would be more contented with the small car line.

Mr. Rose believes that the new Ford is the best buy for the money in the American automobile market. He will stock all models and colors, including trucks and delivery jobs. He is choosing efficient mechanics, who will make courtesy a watchword. His personnel will include twenty persons.

Return of Mr. Rose to the Ford dealership will be celebrated tomorrow, when executives of the Oklahoma City factory branch will arrive, along with dealers of numerous of Panhandle cities. On display tomorrow will be a cut-away chassis showing the working parts of the car. Another mounted machine will illustrate the "free action" of the Ford transverse springs.

Everyone is invited to visit the Rose motor company tomorrow to see the special exhibits and models of the 1934 V-8 automobiles.

Cranfill, Percy Barker, H. H. Lamm, C. S. Borin, Thos. A. O'Donnell, A. J. Van Cleave, C. T. Ware, Clem Calhoun, Trustee, E. C. Brand, Banking Commissioner of the State of Texas, Gulf Producers Co., Humble Oil & Refining Co., Humble Pipe Line Co., Associated Natural Gas Corp., Gladys Gray Oil Co., Harry Cragin Lumber Co., Maloney Tank Mfg. Co., Black, Sivalis & Bryson, Inc., King Visible Time Bomb Co., Cicero Smith, Ltd., Phillips Petroleum Co., Acifine Oil & Gas Co., The American First Trust Co. in Oklahoma City, The First National Bank & Trust Co. of Tulsa, Shamrock Oil & Gas Co., Sinclair-Frazier Oil Co., Lucey Petroleum Co., Guaranty Trust Co. of New York, C. G. Sanders, C. G. Saunders, Curtis F. Bryan, Receiver of Imperial Royalties Co., and Curtis F. Bryan and J. A. Stinson, co-ancillary receivers of Imperial Royalties Co., are defendants, and a brief statement of plaintiff's cause of action, being as follows: Suit upon thirteen negotiable real estate mortgage bonds, numbered from 2-12229 to 14-12229, inclusive, dated May 20, 1930, executed and delivered by defendants, Geo. P. Colebank and wife, Clara Colebank, to Oklahoma Farm Mortgage Company, a corporation, of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, bonds Nos. 2-12229 to 6-12229, inclusive, being in the principal sum of $1,000.00 each, and bonds Nos. 7-12229 to 14-12229, inclusive, being in the principal sum of $500.00 each, all due and payable on or before July 1, 1930, together with interest thereon at the rate of 7 per cent per annum from July 1, 1930, until maturity, and providing that all past due principal and interest shall bear interest at the rate of 10 per cent per annum until fully paid.

Said bonds were given in renewal and extension of six vendor's lien notes, each in the principal sum of $1,456.00, being notes Nos. 3, 4, 5, 6, 9 and 10, maturing on April 20, 1920, 1921, 1922, 1926 and 1927, respectively, made and executed by Geo. P. Colebank in favor of F. M. Faulkner, and given in part payment for the land hereinafter described, and also in renewal and extension of the sum of $936.00 due and owing to the State of Texas on section No. 66 of said land.

Plaintiff alleges further that the said defendants, Geo. P. Colebank and wife, Clara Colebank, executed to Andrew Kingkade, as trustee, contemporaneously with the execution of said bonds, in fee simple, a deed of trust covering the following described real estate situated in Gray County, Texas, to-wit: All of sections fifty-six and sixty-six, in block 25, of the H&GN Ry. Co. surveys, to secure said Oklahoma Farm Mortgage Company, and the legal holder of said bonds, in the terms thereof, according to their terms, which said deed of trust, is duly recorded in the Deed of Trust Records of Gray County, Texas, in Vol. 9, pages 506 to 507, and that by instrument duly recorded in Vol. 14, page 365, of the Deed of Trust Records of Gray County, Texas, said Oklahoma Farm Mortgage Company, for value received, duly transferred, assigned, and delivered said bonds and the deed of trust securing the same to Sterling Fire Insurance Company, its receiver, of Madison County, Indiana; thereafter, by instrument dated May 7, 1927, and recorded in Vol. 35, page 349, of the Deed Records of Gray County, Texas, said Sterling Fire Insurance Company, acting by and through its receiver, Edwin Stee, thereunto duly authorized, for value received, duly transferred, assigned, and delivered said bonds and the deed of trust securing the same to plaintiff.

Plaintiff also alleges that he is now the legal owner and holder of said bonds and the deed of trust securing same, and that by virtue of the transfers aforesaid, the said defendants, Geo. P. Colebank and wife, Clara Colebank, became bound and obligated to pay to plaintiff the full amount of said bonds in accordance with their terms.

Plaintiff also alleges that by warranty deed dated June 4, 1926, recorded in Vol. 29, page 568 of the Deed Records of Gray County, Texas, the above described property was conveyed by E. E. Masterman and wife, Jennie H. Masterman, C. Q. Chandler and wife, Alice T. Chandler, and George Theis, Jr., and wife, Jennie E. Theis, to the defendant, J. S. Morse, and in said deed said defendant assumed payment of said bonds, and thereby became obligated to pay to the legal holder thereof the full amount then due thereon.

Plaintiff also alleges that by warranty deed dated July 16, 1926, and recorded in Vol. 30, page 509, of the Deed Records of Gray County, Texas, said defendant, J. S. Morse, and wife, M. E. Morse, conveyed all of said section 65 above described to defendants, L. L. Morse and Geo. P. Colebank, and that in said deed said defendants, L. L. Morse and Geo. P. Colebank assumed the payment of two-thirds, or the sum of $666.66 of the aggregate amount of said bonds.

The principal of said bond No. 2-12229 has a credit of $187.50 heretofore paid on same, and the interest on all of said bonds has been paid to and including July 15, 1931, and the sum of $677.57 has been paid on the interest due on said bonds since said date; that all of said bonds, both principal and interest, with the exception of the credits above set out are long past due and unpaid, and that although demanded to do so the defendants, Geo. P. Colebank and wife, Clara Colebank, J. S. Morse and L. L. Morse, have failed and refused and still fail and refuse to pay the amount of said bonds, principal and interest to plaintiff's damage in the sum of $10,500.00.

Plaintiff further alleges that said deed of trust provides for an attorney's fee of $1,000.00, and that by reason of the failure and refusal of said defendants to pay said bonds, plaintiff has placed same in the hands of his attorneys and contracted and agreed to pay them the sum of $1,000.00 for bringing this suit to plaintiff's additional damage in the said sum of $1,000.00.

Said section 65 above described, is now owned in fee simple by the defendants, Geo. P. Colebank and L. L. Morse; said section 65 above described is now owned in fee simple by plaintiff, and that by reason of the failure and refusal of said defendants to pay said bonds, plaintiff is claiming some sort of right, title or interest in and to the above described property, the exact nature and extent of which is to plaintiff unknown, but plaintiff alleges that same is in all things inferior and subordinate to the rights, titles, interests and liens of plaintiff therein and thereon.

Plaintiff prays for judgment against the defendants, Geo. P. Colebank and wife, Clara Colebank, and J. S. Morse, jointly and severally, for the amount now due and owing upon said bonds, principal, interest and attorney's fees, together with all costs of this suit; for judgment against the defendant, J. S. Morse, for two-thirds of the full amount now due and owing on said bonds, together with all costs of this suit, jointly and severally with said defendants, Geo. P. Colebank and wife, Clara Colebank, and J. S. Morse; plaintiff further prays for judgment against each and all of the defendants in this cause for a foreclosure of his lien to and upon the above described property, that same be ordered sold as under execution in satisfaction of his said judgment against the said Geo. P. Colebank and wife, Clara Colebank, J. S. Morse and L. L. Morse, that the officer executing said order of sale place the purchaser of said property so sold in possession thereof within thirty days after the date of sale. Plaintiff also prays for further relief, wherever special, to which he may be entitled.

NAZIS CLAIM GERMANY WOULD BENEFIT FROM WORLD BOYCOTT

MORATORIUM IS PROTESTED BY UNITED STATES

HULL BLAMES POLICIES OF NAZIS FOR DEFAULT

WASHINGTON, June 29. (AP)—The United States protested today against Germany's moratorium on $1,500,000,000 in obligations held by Americans, blaming the Reich's financial plight on Nazi policies.

Secretary of State Hull handed the German Charge D'Affaires a note last night which said:

"The German government is no doubt aware that its policies have created opposition in many parts of the world which has expressed itself in various trade conflicts and the probable reduction of Germany's capacity to transfer."

It was the first American move in a diplomatic campaign to modify drastic provisions in the moratorium whereby Germany suspended interest payments on external debts.

Hull did not mention anti-Jewish measures which have brought boycotts on German goods, but observers agreed his note was broad enough to include such policies.

The United States recognizes that Germany's ability to pay has been limited by a shortage of foreign exchange, Hull said, but he hinted that if certain policies were modified trade might increase, allowing Germany to pay.

BERLIN, June 29. (AP)—A warning that a boycott on German goods would only force this country toward complete economic independence came today while officials studied a United States note protesting the debt moratorium and blaming Nazi policies for it.

The government, a high official indicated, will take its own good time to study the note before deciding on a reply. No cue has yet been given the Nazi press as to how to interpret Secretary of State Hull's declaration.

Rudolph Hess, minister without portfolio, told a meeting of German chamber of commerce abroad: "It has already been evidenced that a boycott by foreign countries carries a double-edged sword and Jews, by prompting such boycotts, are bringing threats of economic injury to the individual countries whose hospitality they enjoy."

Soviet Colleges Opened to Aliens MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet universities have been ordered to open their doors to foreign citizens and permit the new students to take entrance tests in their own languages.

United States Attracts Germans. BERLIN (AP)—The United States was the land of promise for 1,748 of the 2,441 emigrants from Germany in the first quarter of 1934. The second largest group, 271, went to Brazil.

SPITE MARRIAGE

by Katharine Harland Taylor

SYNOPSIS: Marsha Moore's mother was gay and flirtatious, and not much of a mother. Her father concerned life's rebuffs behind a smiling countenance and taught Marsha not to care deeply for anyone—excepting herself. And now both father and mother are dead, and Marsha at sixteen has gone to live with her aunt, Miss Gertrude Moore, which missing spinster has no human contacts, but rather "duties."

Chapter Two TEN YEARS

The ten years that lay between Miss Gertrude Moore at thirty and Miss Gertrude Moore at forty taught Marsha a great deal of how to manage—with many other things.

Even at sixteen she had learned to look unearring when she heard some ancient gallant murmur, "A daughter of the gods!" some sport's rough and hearty, "Jove, quite ripping!" or the honest and fervently breathed "Wonderful girl!" which sprang from the lips of a boy.

After sixteen was passed, she didn't have to pretend unconcern. She was so accustomed to full admiration by that hour that she felt no flutter from it. Admiration was so frequent that it wore the gray garb of the entirely expected and the bound-to-occur, and it often "quite wearied" her.

Upon the streets, in restaurants and in theaters, men glanced her way casually to have their glance arrested and condensed, a little bright gleam would come to their eyes. Marsha measured men by the gleam and its intensity, and to stretch Mr. Kipling's line a bit, she learned about women from them.

Most women left their faces sour at such exhibition, touched a male arm with effort to tighten the domestic leash, or after a bitter glance at Marsha, stared, angry, ahead. Women, as a group, didn't like her. They saw her as a menace to a solid and domestic peace or to a budding affair; and one does not make friends with a menace.

Marsha, at twenty-six, was loudly frank in admitting that women bored her, and she thought they did. She did not consider the fact that the man who is stupid in business usually professes a distaste for business; that the woman who is divorced says there are no happy marriages and that the girl who cannot hold her lover says all men are liars; that every distaste and aversion may be a confession of a failure.

She walked alone a good part of the time, always when she did not select from the ranks one of the many admiring males. To be just to her, women did not give her a chance, and men gave her too much chance; and this often makes trouble.

Doctor James, her aunt's Rector and the Rector of St. Timothy's, was the one man in the world whom she respected and the one man whom she tried to avoid. He always made, in an almost unexplained chamber of her heart, the bitterest ache.

It was he who had retrieved her from an attempted elopement with the music teacher at the Church School. He had found her, and the melting-eyed Mr. Craven (who was well named) just in time.

"Well, Marsha," said Doctor James. She turned, to go white. "Craven," Doctor James went on, "I hear your youngest boy has croup. You'd better go home to him. And—if you do your best to help your wife care for him and to remember your family, I shall say nothing of this."

Marsha stepped into the taxi-cab that had followed the one in which she had started her futile journey with Herbert Craven. Doctor James followed her. "Do you mind if I smoke?" he asked. She choked out a "No."

"Would you like to smoke?" he asked after a little progress over an assertive stretch of cobblestones.

She gave him a blank look which grew of surprise. Then she said a weak "Yes."

"I carry them," he said, bringing forth a neat, small leather case, "for young ladies who try to cope."

"Does my aunt know?" she asked. He nodded. Then he put his hand over hers. But his touch was unlike any she had ever had from any other man; it was only and comforting, an dastily paternal. "Some day," he said slowly, "the love that you need will come to you, but it will never come through cheating. I know what you need, and of the shortage in your heart's diet, but you would not have had love from Craven.

A man who deserts his family can give but a weak display of rather worn-out passion. Let me see—you are seventeen—and you felt you could not stand it much longer with Miss Gertrude? And you thought, child, that Craven really cared—" "Yes—" "Well, you are mistaken. You can stand it with Miss Gertrude, and Craven didn't really care. Remember that, and remember that what you keep of decency within, makes your life. The things that are outside don't need to matter. "Miss Gertrude is outside for you, I know, and I fear she'll always will be! But there are books and pictures and music. And some day, my dear child, there will be the right sort of love for you. Now let me see, what are you reading?" She told him; she was beginning to feel "a little better," but she still clung to his hand in a way that touched him and that told him too much of her fear that was made by her thought of "going home."

He went with Marsha into Miss Gertrude's presence that day. When Miss Gertrude said, "I did not dream—I did not dream—that there could be love in a church school—" his eyes met Marsha's and he saw a flash in them (that echoed one in his eyes) and he thought, "Thank heaven, she has a sense of humor; that ought to help!" Dr. James saw in Marsha a strangely thwarted little girl, one who still showed, after all Aunt

Gertrude could do, the remnants of her childish desire to please, to be loved, and to live a happy life. But he doubted that Aunt Gertrude's strange code would permit He promised himself that he would call on Marsha often and lend her books, and he did, to build in her a pretty reading taste. And one bad day, when she followed him, wistful and hungry to the hall, he slipped into her hand a packet of cigarettes; grinning down at her as he did it and as he said, "Not in bed; a fire of that sort would be too difficult to explain to your worthy aunt!" (Copyright, 1934, by K. Mavland-Taylor) "Shocking Gerty" is a pastime for Marsha, tomorrow. Rex Rose, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Rose, has gone to Branson, Mo., to spend a few weeks at Camp Kugabo on the White river. He left with Tom Jr., who will return soon. The boys en route will visit Mrs. Rose's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Barnes, at Bentonville, Ark.
