San Antonio Pastor Denies He Knew Woman Intimately

Twinkles
Unless you wish to be jostled in a crowd, and rubbing as you enter the new postoffice long enough to note that one door says "in" and the other "out."

Mr. L. O. Johnson of The NEWS staff is going to take the baths in Hot Springs, Ark., as his idea of a nice vacation. But anyone who makes a hobby of going around digging up Indian skeletons and prehistoric bones may need such treatment now and then.

You know that it's hot when Amarilloans haven't the energy to talk about the next Sande-Harvester battle, which the Harvesters will undoubtedly win in some way or other.

Queer, it seems to us, is the fact that after spending thousands for carved stone and molded iron work, Uncle Sam failed to put a glass window in our mail box, which happens to be right down on the floor.

Remembered enigma: Was it because Wales fell off his horse so much that the photographers never showed him on a racing animal as "up," in the vernacular of the tracks?

Brevitorials
Musings of the moment: Skip-py, the family pup, and Percy, the office mouse, share the opinion of a Pampa police department about marauding cats in his neighborhood. But the city has a dog catcher and no cat catcher, which isn't exactly fair. The dog catcher had a busy season last year, averaging 9 dogs a day for $12 for the season. . . . Maybe that explains why he is not quite so busy this year.

THERE is a dignified beauty about the front and rear of the new post office. It is rather plain exteriorly, yet here and there are bits of elegance which enhance its beauty. The windows and iron work are especially pleasing. The front entrance is so arranged that those in a hurry must turn a corner and therefore slow down before they dash in through the double door. The United States flag, flying high above the entrance, reminds one that Uncle Sam is a generous uncle and that we are a part of this great Union.

ONCE inside the building the contrast with the former quarters is positively startling to one visiting the new office for the first time. The reactions are mingled. First is one of pride, then of amazement, then of bewilderment as the new arrangements, new boxes, new windows, new offices are seen. The vast open spaces, the gold leaf, the ornate decorations, the decorative tables worth hundreds of dollars each remind one that he must be in a great bank. That's Uncle Sam's style, of course, and his way of impressing his people that this is a great country.

ODDLY, and yet with some reason, more than a few persons have remarked that the building is too expensive. Many have told us that they were glad for Pampa to have as good a building as any city of its size—and we agree heartily—but that they felt like it was extravagance to spend so much for ornament. Such buildings, erected all over the country, would cost huge sums. And Uncle Sam's money is our money. The people will furnish the money to pay for the postoffice, just as they will for the courthouse and city hall.

BUT the building is finished. We should be immensely proud of it. It is likely that no such building, with all its rich appointments, will be erected again in cities of this size. We can be thankful that Pampa's structure is the result of experience in building scores of other structures. The postoffice is an ornament, it is true, but a very useful one and one symbolic of the great country in which we live. Let no man, seeing the flag of our nation floating over such a majestic structure, forget that loyalty, unity, good citizenship, and patriotism have through the many years of our history, made it possible for that flag to float in Pampa—peacefully, majestically, proudly.

COC JOBS FOR VETS
AUSTIN, June 27. (AP)—W. E. Leonard, state service officer, said today there would be places available for 300 war veterans in C. C. C. camps July 1.

CLAIMS EVERY CHARGE FILED IS FALSEHOOD

DECLARES HE HAD NO RELATIONS WITH HIS 'WIFE'

SAN ANTONIO, June 27. (AP)—The Rev. William D. Welburn, Jr., the young clergyman and former pastor of the Government Hill Methodist church, denied from the witness stand in district court here today that he had ever had intimate relations with Mrs. Wineta Long Welburn, Mrs. Welburn, seeking divorce from the dapper minister, on the grounds of mental cruelty, had testified yesterday that she and the Rev. Welburn had been intimate on ten occasions. Mrs. Welburn seeks custody of William D. Welburn, III, her five-year-old child, whose paternity Welburn has denied.

Welburn's denials of the pretty plaintiff's accusations, previously made during a long session on the witness stand, caused a stir in the crowded courtroom, filled almost entirely with women.

Louis Schleisinger, questioning the defendant, asked: "Did you ever have intimate relations with the plaintiff the fourth time you went out with her, as she stated?"

"No." A conference of attorneys, caused by plaintiff's objections to the line of questioning halted the testimony briefly. The objections were overruled.

"Did you ever have intimate relations with the plaintiff as she testified?" Schleisinger asked.

"No, sir." "Did you ever have intimate relations at any other place or at any other time?"

"No, sir," the pastor said emphatically. "Did you ever make love to her at any time?"

"No, sir." "Did you ever compliment her, as she testified?"

"No, sir, not that way. I complimented her on her efficiency in carrying on a vacation Bible school when she played the piano at a arden party at Collins Gardens. I complimented her and her sister at a silver tea given at the church. The only one I ever paid her and only then with church work or as a musician."

"Was your attitude toward her any different from your attitude toward other members of the church?"

"I never treated her differently." See DIVORCE, Page 3.

PETITION TO DRILL ITS NO. 3 HAGGARD IS FILED BY MAGNOLIA

BY GEORGE L. GUTHRIE, Consulting Geologist, Combs-Worley Building.
The Magnolia Petroleum company filed the first petition of the week with the railroad commission today to drill its No. 3 Haggard 330 feet from the north line and 330 feet from the west line of the northwest quarter of section 113, block 5, I & GN, Gray county.

New locations have probably already been made this week which may not be considered as a slump in the activity of the field.

Three gas wells were tested in Wheeler county yesterday. The Dumas Oil & Gas company's No. 1 Krizan in section 101, block 23, I & GN was the only new one and gauged for a daily output of 12,600,000 cubic feet with a rock pressure of 374 pounds.

The other two were the Wood-Tex Gas company's Nos. 1 and 2 Linkey, which gauged 40,000,000 and 52,000,000 cubic feet, respectively.

STANTON HUNT IN PALO DURO IS ABANDONED

DESPERADO REPORTED SEEN LAST NIGHT AT TULIA

ANSON, June 27. (AP)—Occupants of a 1933 Chevrolet coach—four men believed to have been the desperados who escaped Sunday in the Lubbock jail break—were frustrated in two attempts to steal an automobile here between 1 and 2 o'clock this morning.

With officers five minutes behind, they abandoned a Dodge coupe, which they were pushing with the Chevrolet, in the ditch on the Abilene highway two miles south of here, and doubling back fled westward toward Roby.

The car, belonging to County Agent C. C. Johnson, had been moved by the efforts in front of his home, the efforts of the gang awakening neighbors who gave the alarm.

A second automobile, pushed more than a block, was abandoned because the steering gear was locked. It was a Ford coupe belonging to Dr. D. L. Stephens and from it two medicine cases, containing along with other drugs a small quantity of morphine, were stolen.

Officers were unable to check the license number of the Chevrolet.

AMARILLO, June 27. (AP)—An extensive search of the Palo Duro canyon for Ed (Perch Mouth) Stanton and his three fugitive companions was abandoned shortly after noon today by a large group of officers from all sections of the Panhandle who concentrated there after the escaped prisoners had been reported seen at Tulia.

Potter county officers, returning to Amarillo from the hunt, said they were confident Stanton was not hiding in the canyons.

While groups of officers stationed themselves on both rims of the canyon, others started early this morning on a systematic search of the bottom of the canyon, where they thought the fugitives might be in hiding.

About 25 officers met at the canyon last night, blocking all roads, but the search was not begun until daylight. Nine officers from Amarillo joined the search.

Stanton is familiar with the canyon recesses. Officers here pointed out the Stanton hideout, a three-shot lead in the first 18 holes of the 72-hole title grind.

Scouters Will Study First Aid Work on Monday

Scoutmasters, patrol leaders, and junior patrol leaders will meet at the municipal swimming pool Monday to study first aid work.

John Shannon, scoutmaster of Hopkins troop 18, will be in charge, assisted by other scoutmasters. Executive C. A. Clark recently visited troops at Wheeler, Shamrock, and Wellington. Wellington is studying Cubbing, for boys too young to become Scouts. The movement will likely be registered soon.

Scouts are enjoying their vacations but are giving considerable thought to the mountain camp which will be held in late summer.

Facing Noose

California's "Sphinx" Woman, Mrs. Nellie May Madison, above, will be the first of her sex to die on the gallows in that state, unless given clemency. She was convicted of the murder of her fourth husband, E. B. Madison, film studio employe, by a Los Angeles jury, despite her strange plea that her mate still lives and that the victim was unknown to her.

EXPECT SMALL TO GET RECORD VOTE IN AREA

Senatorial District Is 'Solid for Small,' Is Opinion

AMARILLO, June 27. (AP)—Clint Small is going to poll the heaviest vote he ever received in the 31st senatorial district in the coming July primary.

This seems to be the unanimous opinion of the vast majority of the active leaders of Small's campaign throughout the Panhandle country.

Senator Small has been exceedingly popular in his home district since he entered the state senate 6 years ago. Apparently his popularity has continued to increase.

In the first race Small made for the Senate in 1928, he ran unopposed. Therefore one has no gauge of his strength in the district at that time.

However, when he ran for governor in 1930, two years after he entered the senate, he polled a fraction more than 70 per cent of the total vote of this senatorial district.

Two years ago he was up for reelection to the senate and had one opponent. His opponent was the mayor of Perryton, a very popular man in the northeast corner of the state, who had served in public office for a number of years and was a vigorous campaigner. In this race, Small out-distanced his opponent by practically a 3 to 1 vote in the district, giving him a home strength of approximately 75 per cent of the voting capacity of the district.

A survey of seven counties of the northeastern Panhandle indicates that Small will poll a greater majority of votes in Carson, Gray, Roberts, Hemphill, Ochiltree, Hansford, and Hutchinson counties than in any race he has run in this district.

Because of the fact that the Panhandle senator ran third in the state race of 1930, falling short of the second place run-off position by less than 35,000 votes, his friends in this section look for a different outcome in this race. They realize that Small was unknown to the rest of the state in his previous campaign, but with the support being given him now by leaders in other sections, especially in south, central and Texas, the home folks are greatly encouraged.

They are mindful of the fact that the 26 counties in Small's district have a very light polling strength compared to other sections of the state, but feel that by staying with him this time the outcome will be changed this year.

RELIEF COMMISSION RESCINDS RULING TO CUT OFF INDIGENTS

REX TUGWELL STRESSES HIS CONSERVATISM

SAYS BIG BUSINESS IS TRYING TO WRECK NEW DEAL

DES MOINES, June 27. (AP)—Rexford G. Tugwell accused certain big businesses today of trying to wreck the new deal program for "social management" of agriculture.

Fresh from his senate victory over foes who called him radical, the undersecretary of agriculture swung into the farm belt in the vanguard of a number of high officials who will expound Rooseveltian policies to the country before the fall elections.

Emphasizing anew that he is a "conservative," the No. 1 man of the "little cabinet," told the Iowa State Bankers' association:

"I am willing to work for the conserving of all those things in America which I grew up to love and respect.

"This, I take it, does not preclude a willingness to treat radically those forces which are enemies of the common good."

Some firms dealing in farm products he hit as inimical to the AAA. He arraigned big canners, packers, millers and milk distributors for their opposition to the now famous "lost amendments" to the AAA.

The agriculture administration asked the last congress to pass amendments described as clarifying the licensing powers of this recovery unit. Opposition sprang up, denouncing the move as an attempt to hand a czar's power to Secretary Wallace, and the amendments died.

Tugwell said big processors fought the legislation, although previously some of them had urged the AAA to clamp down on small businesses with the same licensing powers clarified in the amendments. Some processors he accused of "sweating" farmers, wage-earners and consumers.

60th Birthday of Battle of Adobe Walls Observed

BORGER, June 27. (AP)—Sixty years ago today the cracking of a cottonwood ridge pole in a sod house saloon at Adobe Walls awakened a small group of buffalo hunters—and saved them from certain massacre.

At dawn, one of the fiercest Indian battles ever fought on the Texas frontier broke in all its fury. The Indians, instead of finding the hunters asleep as they had expected, were greeted by the rifle fire of Billy Dixon, Bat Masterson, Andy Johnson, Billy O'Grady and others famed for their marksmanship.

Brief ceremonies observing the sixtieth anniversary of the battle will be held at the battleground July 4, sponsored by the Borger Junior chamber of commerce, and the Adobe Walls Boy Scout council. Mr. Dixon will be guest of honor, and H. E. Hoover of Canadian, the principal speaker. A motor cavalcade will be run from Borger to the site, 40 miles away.

SESSION DRAGS AS MEMBERS WRANGLE

Adam Johnson Is Due To Be Reinstated This Afternoon

AUSTIN, June 27. (AP)—The Texas relief commission today rescinded a resolution adopted some time ago which denied relief from emergency funds to indigents who had been obtaining support from counties.

Judge Brady P. Gentry of Smith county brought the subject before the commission. He said his county had been unable to obtain sufficient funds to care for paupers that were "dumped" on it by the relief board's ruling.

During the discussion, which dragged tediously while the members wrangled, Carl Estes of Tyler said "this commission should have resigned three months ago, anyhow." Several other members added "amens" to his remarks.

Later Ed Husson of Houston, advocating rescinding the pauper order, pounded his fist on the table and said it was time "to quit passing fool resolutions and give this money to the needy."

The matter of reinstating Adam Johnson as director of the commission did not come up. It probably will be presented this afternoon, since a majority of the members, all friendly to Johnson, convened the session.

At the outset of the meeting, Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson, ex-officio chairman, who usually calls the sessions, said she had not been asked to convene this one.

Miss Marie Dresden was chosen director after R. L. Holliday of El Paso had been removed by order of the Speaker of the House Oake Steyer, who originally appointed him. Stevenson put Julius Dorenfield Jr. of Amarillo in Holliday's place, but the supreme court reinstated Holliday, ruling Stevenson had no right to remove him without trial for cause even though he was the speaker's appointee.

Sooner Woman Severely Hurt In Crash Here

Mrs. G. C. Roberts is in a critical condition in a local hospital following an automobile accident at the corner of West Foster avenue and North Purviance street this morning. Attending physicians announced that Mrs. Roberts suffered broken pelvis bones, temporary loss of memory, and other results.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts and their two children, residents of Poteau, Oklahoma, were driving through Pampa and were making a left turn from Foster to Purviance street when their car crashed with another car driven by W. R. Coudding, oil field employe, who was proceeding west on Foster avenue.

The impact threw Mrs. Roberts from the car and she was pinned beneath a trailer which was overturned. The trailer was being pulled behind the Roberts car.

Both cars were badly damaged in the crash. Traffic Officer Wayne Nicholson investigated the accident.

PECORA WILL BE CHAIRMAN OF STOCK ACT

INQUISITOR LIKELY TO SERVE YEAR FOR ROOSEVELT

WASHINGTON, June 27. (AP)—President Roosevelt received word today that Ferdinand Pecora, counsel for the senate banking committee, would serve for a year as chairman of the new securities and exchange commission.

While the president has indicated he has not decided definitely on the membership of the commission, it is now generally taken for granted that Pecora will get the chairmanship.

James M. Landis, a member of the federal trade commission, had been mentioned as the possible chairman. It was considered likely he would be a member of the federal trade commission, and become chairman later.

George C. Mathews, another trade commissioner, has been talked of for a membership.

Cities Service Is Accused of Value Writeups

WASHINGTON, June 27. (AP)—Alleged writeup in valuation of more than $25,250,000 in three Cities Service companies serving Kansas, Oklahoma, Missouri and Nebraska, were recorded by the trade commission in its utility inquiry today.

These companies were Cities Service Gas company, Cities Service Pipe Line company, and the Gas Service company, being studied by the commission in continuation of its survey of the Cities Service group.

The writeup in the case of Cities Service Gas company was $15,428,034 according to the commission's summary.

Robert Burns, Cities Service counsel, issued a statement in which he said "the report does not touch upon the actual value of the property" and cited the commission's statement that the report does not purport to go into the questions of fair value of the properties.

Florida Elects Trammell Again

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., June 27. (AP)—Senator Park Trammell apparently has won the democratic nomination for his fourth term in the United States senate over his youthful opponent, Claude Pepper.

On the basis of unofficial returns from all but 108 of the state's 1,288 precincts, the vote was: Trammell, 61,654; Pepper, 61,916.

Trammell, chairman of the important senate naval affairs committee, captured Orange county (Orlando), which Pepper carried by a 100-vote margin in the first primary. Trammell took the county, 2,480 to 2,291.

DALLAS, June 27. (AP)—Gus Moreland, Dallas, Walker cup star, apparently had lost all chances of entering match play to defend his Trans-Mississippi title for the third successive year by blowing himself to a poor 61 today, and a 159 total.

Moreland's bpd play of the past few days continued right on through his final effort to make the championship flight. He followed up with a 41 on the back side after a 40 on the front.

The putter blade that lifted him to the heights of American amateur golf refused to work. Many birdie puts that would have assured him a place in match play and a shot at his third "Trans" title, balked at the hole.

MAY BRING SWIMMERS
Archie Lee Walslad, new manager of the municipal swimming pool, today was trying to match the Gem lake swimming and diving team for a contest here Friday evening.

GIVE THE PLAINS A COMPETITIVE MARKET

The Plains country's grain producers are yet paying 19.8 cents per bushel freight to Texas common points. And they pay the freight, too! It is deducted from the price received locally for grain.

Just now there is relatively little grain moving from this particular territory to Kansas City and northern milling points. In the Panhandle area grain does move in that direction, due to favorable freight rates. The differential that applies to this territory now is between two and three cents per bushel on wheat. Only when premiums at Kansas City and other concentration and milling points north of us exceed the freight differential does much of our wheat move in that direction.

There is no export market now. Consequently growers here must look directly to Fort Worth for their market.

The Heald would not say that the Fort Worth market is a controlled market, but it does believe that it is a market that is controlled to a degree that is harmful to producers of this section.

American wheat is on a domestic consumption basis. Wheat from Plainview and surrounding territory is required by freight differential to move in one direction. In a day when there is every effort at a controlled economy we believe that this territory has a just complaint on this differential freight rate and that rates should be made that will give this territory practically an outlet to markets that are competitive enough to give this territory an average of the price that milling wheat demands.

A rate case now pending which includes this rate which promulgates a differential in this territory.

With same market conditions that have prevailed, it is a reasonable estimate that this territory has lost or will lose on the current crop more than a hundred thousand dollars. This takes into account no benefit which would arise out of a genuinely competitive market, which The Herald believes would exceed even the estimate of penalty loss attributable directly to the differential rate.

In many ways it looks like transportation and its cost has not come in for such painstaking and exhaustive study as has some of our other economic problems. The graph of freight rates on products of the Plains does not show this to be true.

Primarily, our greatest reduction in farm commodity freight rates, that of cotton, appears to follow the necessity of lower rates to hold tonnage from the trucks. Wheat can't be handled practically in trucks for long distances and our rates have been level throughout a long period of years, except the upward revision through differential as cited above—Plainview Herald.

Wales' Name Is Linked With Young Dutch Princess

LONDON, June 27 (AP)—Match-makers who have been worrying about the single state of the Prince of Wales had something new to talk about today.

Wales, who turned 40 Saturday without so much as an inkling that he was even thinking of matrimony, attended a dinner dance last night at the Dutch legation in honor of Princess Juliana of Holland, who is in London for the season.

The prince and princess, who is 25, have been linked in marriage rumors before. For that matter, both have been mentioned by matchmakers with nearly every royal house containing an eligible.

Recent rumors linked Princess Juliana with Prince Bertil of Sweden, but the Swedish legation in London issued a denial.

Princess Juliana, the daughter of Queen Wilhelmina and in direct succession to the throne, is noted in Holland for her democracy. She is a talented artist and also specialized in international law at the University of Leyden.

In appearance she is tall and inclined toward heaviness.

ADMIRAL BYRD PREPARES FOR SUMMER TRIPS

Explorations, Flights And Surveys Are Planned

LITTLE AMERICA, Antarctica, June 27 (AP)—Airplanes, tractors and dog sleds are to take part in a series of onslaughts to be made into the Antarctic fastness within a few months by Admiral Byrd's South polar expedition.

The broad outline for geographical exploration and scientific research during the coming spring and summer was laid down today by Byrd, isolated in a little ice hut far from the headquarters of the polar party.

Two of the most striking projects contemplated are a flight over the Edsel Ford range and an advance by dog team to the Edsel Ford plateau for geophysical and cosmic ray research.

Considerable exploration will be made in the eastern or Pacific quadrant. Admiral Byrd already has made some attempts to learn more about this vast uncharted area, both by ship and plane.

A geological and biological reconnaissance along the front of the Edsel Ford range will be made the eastern party.

The object of southern operations will be to plant one party on the polar plateau for geophysical operations and magnetic and cosmic ray research and advance the geological party to the foot of the Throne glacier.

A fresh survey will be made of the Bay of Whales to determine whether or not there has been any movement of the ice barrier.

PROPER PRICE FOR GASOLINE IS NEW ISSUE

REFINERS AND MAJOR COMPANIES CANNOT AGREE

BY WILLIAM VOIGHT, Jr., Associated Press Staff Writer.

TULSA, June 27 (AP)—Recovery of lost ground in the refining and marketing divisions of the oil industry was a slow process this week, due largely to the slowness with which major companies and small refiners of East Texas worked toward an agreement on crude runs and gasoline purchases.

Marketers of the midcontinent said that there had been no improvement in conditions and that there was a continuation of the low prices and absence of buying prevalent for several weeks.

Howard Bennett, national refinery allocator of the oil code authority, and representatives of the companies that last week agreed to purchase surplus gasoline from East Texas processors, after supplying them with legally produced crude oil with which to operate, held another meeting yesterday at Tyler in an effort to work out the problem.

One of the chief difficulties was arriving at a price for gasoline satisfactory to both parties to the agreement.

Some of the refiners held that in order to operate on legally produced crude they must receive a minimum of 4 cents a gallon for their gasoline—the low or third grade.

The purchasing companies have let it be known that their ideas about the proper price to pay at this stage of recovery is nearer 3 1/4 cents a gallon for this grade, the chief one produced in East Texas.

The view of these purchasing companies is that they should start out by paying the going price, and that as soon as the plan swings into active effect the price problems will settle itself. That is, as soon as the running of "hot" oil is halted and the refiners find a ready market for their product, the price automatically will begin to go up and soon will reach higher than 4 cents a gallon.

C. H. Chandler of Mobeetie spent yesterday with friends in Pampa.

SIX FRENCH DROWN IN FRENCH PORT AS SHIP SINKS

BY STUART MORONEY, Associated Press Foreign Staff.

LOBIENT, France, June 27 (AP)—The business jealousy of competing harbor boat captains was blamed by authorities today for a disaster in which an undetermined number of persons were feared to have drowned.

There were six known victims but authorities, fearful of a heavier toll, searched the harbor for bodies and checked workers' homes. At least two others were on the missing list. Owners of the passenger vessels Properite and Marie Ange, which crashed in midstream near the docks last night, had been warned by port officials to cease their dangerous jockeying for positions.

With 100 arsenal workers, many of them women, aboard, the Properite was rammed from behind. She sank almost immediately. A strong current flowing through the harbor carried some bodies out toward the Bay of Biscay.

At least 50 persons were injured, some seriously. The crash occurred in view of hundreds thronging the docks. The bravery of dockworkers and sailors who plunged into the harbor and rescued numerous passengers greatly diminished the death toll. This was officially placed at six pending a check of the passenger lists.

The public prosecutor and port authorities opened an inquiry into circumstances of the collision. Vessels leaving the port were ordered to keep a sharp lookout for floating bodies.

Texas College President Dies

CORPUS CHRISTI, June 27 (AP)—South Texas friends prepared today to pay last honors to Edmund Wynn Seale, 47, president of the Texas College of Arts and Industries at Kingsville, who died last night in a hospital at Detroit, where he had gone to attend a convention of Rotary International.

Seale was married earlier this month at Houston to Miss Mary Elsie Brenner, home economics instructor in Corpus Christi schools. The educator was a native of Floresville, Texas, was educated in Karnes county schools and was graduated from the University of Texas. He served as superintendent of schools at San Diego, Texas, 1920 to 1927; as Robstown, 1927-1930; and was high school principal and business manager of Corpus Christi schools from 1930 to 1932. He then was elected president of the college at Kingsville.

Survivors are his widow and two brothers, Wesley, of Corpus Christi, and Wiley, superintendent of schools at Sinton, Texas.

Funeral arrangements were incomplete but Wesley Seale said he expected the body would be brought either to Corpus Christi or to Kingsville for burial.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Purviance of Pleasant Plains, Ill., visited in the home of Mr. Purviance's brother, W. Purviance, for the past few days. They left yesterday to visit relatives in Panhandle. They plan to visit in this section of the country about a month.

Murder at MOCKING HOUSE

BY WALTER C. BROWN

Chapter 53
RECONCILIATION

Harper put Aline Croyden's ring away in the pocket he held the little key to Richard Croyden's piano. The artist's renunciation of his beloved instrument had been a poignant gesture, indeed, just or unjustly, the dead ride hard! Harper meditated sourly to himself as he mounted the stairs to spread his thankless news through the house. He tapped on the door of Mrs. Dufresne's room, deciding that she was entitled to be told first.

After that painful interview he sought out the master of the house and found him in the upstairs library, the scene of his mocking challenge of the evening before. Pierre Dufresne was staring moodily out the window when the detective entered. His face, too, proclaimed the stress and strain of restless hours that should have been devoted to sleep.

In plain, unadorned phrases Sergeant Harper told the story of the murders. He talked Pierre Dufresne paced up and down, exclaiming, interrupting with questions, struggling over details with a brain fagged from its own unjust but hard-spurred woes. At times he could hardly credit the tale. "Wait! Wait!" he cried, poured himself a drink and downed it at a gulp. Then he resumed his nervous pacing, firing questions again and again at the detective.

When he had finished his story, Harper turned to the man. "You're right, Harper. I had prepared and the letters I had written to myself I felt quite certain that I would never be suspected, no matter what happened."

"I took a taxi and got out some distance from here. I had been keeping watch on that sand-urn and I knew a meeting had been arranged for that night. I went past the house. There was no light, no sign of life, and there were no footprints leading up to the door. I hid behind a wall, watching. It was quite dark."

"I waited, but nothing happened. I was furious because I had been outwitted again. Then I saw a policeman coming along the street. He was the first person I had seen in the street at all. To my astonishment, he turned in at the gate as though he had business here. He went up the steps and entered the house, although I couldn't see who had opened the door. I was greatly puzzled. I watched and waited, but the policeman didn't come out. I don't know how long I hid behind the wall, but it must have been quite a while, for I began to get stiff with cold."

"Suddenly, the front door began to bang in the wind. When that kept up I grew frightened at the prospect. I knew that something unusual must have happened and I wanted to keep clear of it. How could I have explained my absence from the hotel? So I left my hiding place and walked until I caught a taxi that brought me back to the center of the city. I had not been in very long before you arrived. "When you brought me up here to view the bodies I couldn't understand half of what I saw and heard and I've been trying ever since to figure out what really took place in that room."

Harper nodded. "That shows what totally different meanings can be drawn from the simplest things. The notes left in that urn were construed in a different manner by every one who found out about them."

"Only Mrs. Croyden and your wife knew the real truth about them. At any time a frank discussion would have cleared it all up. Instead, it was allowed to fester in secrecy. Richard Croyden, the real victim of the whole intrigue, didn't know of their existence until much later."

The detective looked Pierre Dufresne squarely in the eyes. "I am going to lay aside my role as police officer for a few seconds," he stated, "and take the liberty of talking to you as man to man. You may resent what I am going to say but I shall not apologize for my presumption. You know now that you gravely misjudged your wife. Had you acted with the slightest degree of sanity and understanding both of you would have been spared a great deal of suffering."

Harper flung out his hand to check Dufresne's rising retort. "Wait until I have finished. I talked with her just before I came to this room and she explained to me all that she knew. She had brooded and worried over her sister's plight until she was nearly frantic, not knowing what would happen next. Loyalty to her sister's secret kept her silent and your unaccountable attitude made it impossible to turn to you for help. Knowing the truth of it herself, she never dreamed that you had found out about the notes and were accusing her in your mind. "When you telephoned and told her about the ambush she was terrified. She thought that this I.D. was at the bottom of it. From her sister's account she knew that he was capable of nearly anything. She saw that a terrible crisis was at hand, but she didn't know what to do nor which way to turn. She knew about the meeting that night, but this other thing arose too suddenly for her to formulate any plans. "Then came the fire at Mrs. Morlock's house and she saw the opportunity to slip away unobserved in the confusion. Without thinking, she dashed blindly out of the house, not even properly dressed against the storm. It was a gesture of panic and it came to nothing. The wind, the snow, the cold were too much for her overwrought state. "She floundered in the storm after a short distance and had to

SLOAN WRITES PROGRESS OF TEXTILE CODE

HOPES HOUR AND WAGE FEATURES WILL BE PERMANENT

The first public hearing on an NRA code was begun a year ago today on the charter submitted for the cotton textile industry. Since then nearly 500 industries have been codified. In the following article, written exclusively for The Associated Press, George A. Sloan, chairman of the cotton textile code, outlines the progress of the code and his recommendations for the future.

BY GEORGE A. SLOAN. (Copyright, 1934, by The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 27 (AP)—The cotton textile industry, first to organize under the national industrial recovery act, is completing its first year under code operations, and from this milestone can review its accomplishments, reappraise its disappointments, and in the light of experience offer a loyal word of caution as to the pitfalls that threaten our forward path toward sound recovery.

Any review of the first year under the first code would be incomplete without first paying tribute to the outstanding NRA personality. I have nothing but admiration for the unselfish devotion and untiring energy with which General Johnson has met his tremendous responsibilities.

The national industrial recovery act was designed to rehabilitate industry and to improve working conditions. It will be generally recognized that we cannot accomplish one without the other. In this industry we have seen tremendous improvement for labor.

We trust that neither our industry nor the nation will ever abandon the social advantages represented in the establishment of maximum hours of labor and minimum rates of hourly pay. Moreover we reaffirm our conviction that the right to insure orderly production—and distribution and stabilization of employment through production and control of machine hours is emphatically in the best interests of employees, distributors, consumers and mill stockholders, alike.

While the industry takes pride in the tremendous gains for its workers under the code, the stockholder is still the forgotten man. Unhappily, the progress which industry made during the latter half of 1933 toward a sounder financial position has been largely reversed during recent months.

Among the factors which have induced these conditions must be recognized a growing apprehension on the part of business management over the trend in recent legislation. Confidence must be restored if gains already attained in working conditions are to be maintained. Sound economic and social improvement cannot be expected without a feeling of security in our

PROCEDURE TO OBTAIN HOUSING LOANS OUTLINED BY GOVERNMENT

WASHINGTON, June 27 (AP)—Inquiries about the borrowing of money for home repair are bringing the reminder here that the federal government itself advances no funds under this latest emergency set-up.

What lending there is will be by banks and building and loan associations, with the privilege of government insurance of the loans to varying degrees.

The delay in appointing an administrator has made it difficult to answer numerous letters to Washington about the procedure necessary to get a loan.

In general, however, a man in Hackensack, New Jersey, for instance, who wants to take advantage of the opportunity, may apply to any private lending agency for a loan to build a porch which would cost say $1,500.

If the bank or other agency wishes to make the loan, it will do so and arrange for the home owner to pay it back in monthly payments which may run as long as five years.

The lender then may notify the new housing administration, under procedure not yet outlined, that he wishes to take advantage of the government's guarantee. If the loan meets the government's requirements, the administrator will guarantee the lender against loss up to 20 per cent of the loan.

There is no reason why a person monetary policy, without a knowledge that the national budget will be balanced, without confidence in the integrity and soundness of American business, and without recognition of the rank and file of American business men as national assets to be conserved like other national resources.

As to the immediate future of the NRA, we offer the following recommendations:

1. Full responsibility should be placed on those code authorities that have demonstrated capacity for sound economic thinking and a proper regard for the public interest.
2. If code authorities are to be held responsible to the government for the conduct of their industries, the right to exercise administrative powers must accompany such responsibility, always subject to governmental veto if this right is abused.
3. Removal of the fear that basic code provisions may be subjected to further experimentation before policies heretofore agreed on can be fairly tested by experience.
4. Rigid enforcement of code provisions and prompt effective action by the government in case of wage violations.
5. Avoidance of any compromise of principle or unwillingness to deal with facts in the face of threatened force, either from employers or employees.
6. A never-relaxing recognition of the partnership relation between industry and government—thus increasing the willingness and desire of individual business men to cooperate wholeheartedly with their respective code authorities and with the government.

LABOR BOARD SELECTED TO SOLVE STRIKE

JOHNSON REFUSES TO RETURN EAGLE TO HOSIERY MILLS

By The Associated Press. President Roosevelt has invoked the recently enacted Wagner labor disputes bill to settle the strike of 27,000 Pacific Coast longshoremen.

One of the most troublesome of labor disputes in scattered parts of the nation, the longshoremen's walk-out, will be dealt with by a labor board composed of the Right Rev. Edward J. Hanna, O. K. Cushing, and Edward J. McGrady, assistant secretary of labor. Roosevelt named the board last night.

Street car windows were smashed and motormen routed as violence broke out in the strike of Milwaukee electric railway and light company employees. One hundred police had difficulty handling the crowd of 5,000 persons.

Employees of the Harriman hosiery mills, Harriman, Tenn., announced a march today on emergency relief administration headquarters, to demand aid.

The workers protested the action of the NRA in revoking the plant's blue eagle, but William Green, president of the American Federation, said it would be "abject surrender."

Langer Seeking Vindication in Primary Today

BISMARCK, N. D., June 27 (AP)—Gov. William Langer, convicted recently of a felony, went before the North Dakota electorate in a statewide primary today, seeking vindication.

He was opposed for renomination by the candidates of two other republican factions—T. H. H. Thoresen of the non-partisan league, and the independent, J. P. Cain.

Victory in the primary would not assure Langer of entering the fall election for he is scheduled to appear with four co-defendants before Judge Andrew Miller at Fargo Friday for sentencing.

Convicted ten days ago of conspiracy to defraud the United States government through solicitation of money from federal relief workers, they face a possible penalty of two years in a federal penitentiary, $10,000 fine or both.

There are two candidates for the democratic nomination for governor, Thomas H. Moodle and R. A. Johnson.

Mrs. W. Purviance has as her guest for the summer her sister, Mrs. Maude Hall, of Chatham, Ill.

More waterfront trouble was brewing on the Great Lakes. Longshoremen sent their strike votes to union headquarters in Chicago as bare canal men at Buffalo voted to walk out. Tugman already were out.

NEED ENERGY?

Here's the latest word from Science on increasing Vim and Energy... quickly!

Today we call attention again to important facts which were presented to smokers in a recent item in this paper. Perhaps you overlooked it. We repeat: You can release new vigor, when tired, by smoking a Camel. This comes from the "energizing effect" in Camels as recently confirmed and described by a famous New York scientific laboratory. Everyone gets fatigued...cross...down in the dumps...when his energy is used up. But the way to turn on more energy has now been pointed out, by actual Camel smokers who tell of their own experiences. And by up-to-date research made in the laboratories of science.

And so—"get a lift with a Camel!" Any time you want to enjoy yourself or restore yourself. Steady smoking need not concoct Camel smokers, since the finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS in Camels never get on your nerves.

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic—than any other popular brand.

Club Woman Is Learning Methods Of Dry Cleaning

"Since learning to dry clean so easily I do not feel so badly when one of the children spills something on a freshly cleaned garment," says Mrs. Ira Spearman, wardrobe demonstrator of the Priscilla club. "I find that naphtha and dry cleaning compound do wonders in cleaning our clothes easily. With an expenditure of $1.06 I have cleaned 10 garments that would have cost $9.25 had I had it done by an expert."

The expansion committee of the Gray County Council of Home Demonstration clubs set a goal of 100 per cent farm families of Gray county to be helped during 1934. Each club has a certain part of the county that is called its "expansion club area." Each club woman has a list of farm families that she will plan to visit and help in any way that she can, or she will find some one to help where she can not.

The expansion report from the Blue Bonnet club shows that there are 65 farm homes in their area and during the last few months 40 have been helped with some form of this year's program for home demonstration clubs. Six outside of club area have been helped and 22 on the outside of the county have been reached.

The Kingsmill club reports that there are 58 farm families in their area and that 35 have been helped along with 47 families in the oil fields, and 21 outside of the area. This shows that the club women of the county are not only eager to gain information but are eager to pass it on to the one who is not able for some reason or other to attend a meeting of a regularly organized club.

PIONEER DIES

HOUSTON, June 27 (AP)—Mrs. Hannah C. Morris, 91, widow of J. R. Morris, one time mayor of Houston, and believed to have been the oldest native Houstonian, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Early, in Waco yesterday. She was the daughter of Judge Benjamin P. Buckner, who came to Texas in 1834, and settled in Galveston, moving to Houston shortly after the town was founded by the Allen brothers.

WOOL PRICE IN TEXAS IS STILL UNSATISFACTORY

Fleece Is Being Held By Warehouses And Growers

SAN ANGELO, June 27 (AP)—Although 1,500,000 pounds of wool have been sold in West Texas at prices of 23 1-2 to 27 cents a pound, many growers and warehouses are continuing to hold for higher offers. The largest sale was made by the Schreiner Wool & Commission company of Kerrville which sold about 1,000,000 pounds for 23 1-2 to 26 cents apound. Nearly all of the best 12 months clip held by the Schreiner company brought 23 1-2 cents, it was announced. Since then the market has firmed and prices as high as 27 cents have been paid in a number of instances for small lots.

The Schreiner sale was followed by a statement from the sales committee of the Wool Growers Central Storage company of San Angelo, which said that no wools would be offered by the company until the market more stabilized. The committee said that it believed "prevailing prices in Texas are out of line with the policies of the government." The committee referred to prices of 83 to 85 cents advisory committee of the farm credit administration. This would mean 90-cent range wool in Texas.

Aside from the Schreiner sale lots of 50,000 to 100,000 pounds have been moving over the section. Most growers and warehouses are holding out for 30 cents a pound. The market has been noticeably strong since the Schreiner sale. Trading in small lots has been active around Kerrville, Comanche, Brownwood, Lometa, and Lampasas. The National Wool Marketing corporation has shipped several carloads on consignment. Some of the larger sales included: Jeff Solis of Wright brothers, Boston, bought 30,000 pounds of a young lot for 25 1-2 to 26 cents a pound. Max Robin of San Angelo bought 150,000 pounds over the territory at 28 to 27 cents a pound. C. T. Parker of Ryder & Brown bought 100,000 pounds at announced prices. No sale has been made of the one million pounds of short wool accumulation by the Schreiner company.

Mr. Robin, San Angelo buyer, offered 27 cents a pound for the 85,000 Roy Spire clip but it was declined. No mohair sales have been reported but a pool may be formed. All the mohair in the state to be held in Texas and sold out as the mills need it.

Marion Davies' Photograph to Stay in Exhibit

VENICE, June 27 (AP)—The portrait of Marion Davies, American motion picture actress, must remain in the American section of the International art exhibition here, it was ruled today by Count Volpi di Misurata, exposition president. His decision was communicated immediately to Mrs. Juliana Force, director of the Whitney Museum of New York, who had objected to the presence of the Davies portrait. Mrs. Force, now at London, said it had been hung without her authorization, and she threatened to remove other pictures if the portrait remained.

Italian authorities, in carrying out the ruling of Count Volpi, will resist efforts to take down other pictures. The count ruled that everything must remain as it is in the American pavilion. The portrait of Miss Davies, if Count Volpi's order is not amended, will remain in the vestibule of the American pavilion. A card explaining it is not a part of the Whitney collection will remain under it.

MILTON WORK FAMOUS CARD EXPERT DIES

AUTHORITY ON BRIDGE BEGAN AS A LAWYER

PHILADELPHIA, June 27 (AP)—Milton C. Work, instructor and advisor to millions in the international realm of auction and contract bridge, died early today in a Philadelphia hospital. He was 69. The Philadelphia card expert, who gave up a promising law career to find a fortune in popular interpretation of the laws of bridge, fell victim of intestinal disorders that had plagued him for months.

He was first stricken at Reading, Pa., while playing in the open play Eastern Pennsylvania Contract Bridge championship tournament last October. Recovered sufficiently to return to his Rittenhouse Square apartment, he continued to play his favorite game until he was last taken ill several weeks ago. A son of Robert and Mrs. Anna Whiteman Work, the bridge author-teacher entered his chosen field through the medium of whist, a game of which he was enthusiastic follower in his college days at the University of Pennsylvania and the university law school.

His law career opened auspiciously, but whist held much of his attention. His first book, issued in 1893, was "Whist of Today."

With the advent of bridge, he became a "fan" of the new favorite, and soon learned he could win consistently by following certain laws he found inherent in the game.

His first book on bridge came out in 1913, titled "Auction Development." The list of titles of his later works, numbering more than a score, is an extensive history of the growing popularity of the game and the swing from auction to contract.

Dropping his law practice entirely in 1917, he toured the country at his own expense arranging bridge tournaments as Red Cross benefits. His efforts realized more than $100,000.

When contract became popular, Work originated the "Official System," with the "Two Club Force" as a prominent innovation. As his writings increased, his services as a teacher were more and more in demand. His interpretation and clarification of the laws of the game was given countless bridge followers in books, magazine articles, in 200 newspapers, and lectures.

He divided his time between his home and office in Philadelphia and bridge headquarters, 285 Madison Avenue, New York City. Before his bridge interests consumed so much of his energies, he had a taste of public life as eighth ward representative in Philadelphia's old select councils about 20 years ago under Mayor John Weaver.

The Union League club, Racquet club, Philadelphia Country club, Merion Cricket Country and Pennsylvania Athletic club claimed him as a member, as did whist and Cavendish clubs in New York. He was a member of the U. S. Bridge association.

Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Margaret Hazlehurst Work, and two step-children, Mrs. William W. Barber, Jr., of Southborough, Mass., and Henry H. Patton, Philadelphia.

DISSENSION IS SUSPECTED IN STEERS' RANKS

TWELFTH CONSECUTIVE DEFEAT SUFFERED BY DALLAS

By The Associated Press
Firmly convinced there is dissension in the ranks of the Dallas Steers, Sol Dreyfus, president and owner of the club, said Tuesday night he would take immediate action to remedy the situation. The Dallas mogul, thoroughly disgusted with a report of the Steers' twelfth consecutive defeat, said:

"I believe there is dissension among the players with the players and manager. I don't know exactly what is wrong but I am going to find out. Fred Brainard, manager, is with the club. He should know what the trouble is and if he doesn't know, I soon will."

Following in the wake of Dreyfus' statement, vice-president Bob Tarleton of the Steers announced the release of Catcher Bubber Jonnard, the benching of first baseman Jim Keesey, the sending of Ralph Erickson, southern hurler, to Longview, the signing of Catcher Dallas Warren and the recalling of first baseman Jake Daniels from Longview.

While Steer officials were seeking to eliminate team trouble, the San Antonio Missions drubbed the Steers, 10 to 5, for their third straight win. Caldwell allowed ten hits but kept them scattered where his mates hit Barnabe for thirteen wallops.

The Houston Buffaloes nosed out Tulsa, 2 to 1, behind the fine six-hit pitching of Phippen. Phippen allowed the Oilers a run in the second, then closed up Tulsa's scoring department for the remainder of the game.

It was a 3 to 3 tie at Galveston between the Buccaneers and Fort Worth Cats. The game was called in the eighth to allow Fort Worth time to catch a train.

ROADRUNNERS AND COLTEXO'S GASOLINERS TO ENTER MEET

HOW THEY STAND

Teams Being Strengthened For Borger's Tournament Which Begins Saturday.

Pampa and LeFors will be presented in the Borger invitation baseball tournament which will get under way Saturday and last thru the following Sunday.

The team from Pampa will be the Danziger Roadrunners, while LeFors will send the Coltexo Gasolin division team which is being strengthened for the big event. It was rumored yesterday that two good players from Louisiana and a veteran hurler from Los Angeles are en route to LeFors, and that a fourth player might be added to the team roster.

The Roadrunners may add one or two more players to bring the roster up to full strength. Each team entering the tournament will be allowed 16 men, including a playing manager, or 16 players and a bench manager. The Roadrunners now have 14 players available.

The Roadrunner cripples will be able to play in the tournament. Freddie Brickell's ankle is still a little sore, but he reported for practice yesterday and, although limping, showed some of his old time speed. Eddie Sain and Whitely Bacaus, out of the last two games with injured ankles, were also in uniform and ready to go. Pete Stegman, pitcher, reported that his strained knee was o. k. again.

Besides Manager George Bulla, the Roadrunner pitching staff will include Carl Stewart, Bill Hardin, Pete Stegman, Miles Marbaugh, and Tatum. Other members of the team are Cox, Ward, Ater, McLary, Brickell, Seitz, Vaughn, Bacaus, and Sain.

The Coltexo team has been playing good ball and, with a couple of weak spots filled, should provide strong opposition for any nine in the tournament. Included in the Coltexo pitching staff are Halsey, Croft, Armstrong, and Warner, besides Thomas, who regularly patrols the outfield but can take his turn on the mound. Other members include Sawyer, Manager Cobbs, second base, Baldwin, Bellah, Caldwell, Newsome, Poindexter, and Isley.

Texas Survives Second Round of Tennis Tourney

PHILADELPHIA, June 27. (AP)—The east's hopes of snatching the National Intercollegiate Lawn tennis title from the Pacific coast went pretty much a-glimmering as two unsung net warriors stormed out of the west to vanquish seeded eastern men.

The two upset artists, Carl Holmes, of California's Berkeley Branch, and Kendall Cram, of Tulane, took their places on the tourney surviving list of 16 by downing Marco Hecht, of Pennsylvania university, and Ellsworth Davenport, of Harvard on the Merion Cricket club courts yesterday.

The latter, seeded four for the title, bowed to Cram, Cliff Sutter's successor as Tulane's lead-off man, 6-3, 6-4, under a rain of drop shots and volleys. Hecht, sixth on the seeded list, lasted a set longer against Holmes: 2-6, 6-1, 6-2.

Martin Buxby, No. 3, University of Texas, trailed 4-5 in the third set before pulling himself to triumph over Thomas D. Flynn, Princeton, 8-6, 2-6, 7-5. Gilbert Hunt, New England intercollegiate titlist from Massachusetts Tech also dropped a set to Henry Crawford, Georgia Tech, 6-1, 2-6, 6-3.

Champion Jack Tidball, University of California, downed Hugh Lynch, Princeton captain, 6-4, 6-2, while his most promising opponent, Gene Mako, Southern California, chanted John Ray, Harvard, aside to the tune of 6-1, 2-6, 6-1.

Michigan Golf Team Leads in National Meet

CLEVELAND, June 27. (AP)—Thirty-two of the nation's best college golfers swung into match play today for the individual title in the National Intercollegiate championships.

In the van was Charlie Kocsis of the University of Michigan, Big Ten champion, medalist in the 36-hole qualifier, and leader of his team in the feat of prying the team title off the Atlantic seaboard for the first time in the 38 years of the tournament.

Kocsis, impassive as ever, splashed through the last six holes yesterday at Country club to the accompaniment of thunder and a lashing rain for a 73 and a total of 147, three over par for the 36-hole route.

Michigan's winning team total 614, three strokes better than the aggregate turned in by Yale, winner in the last three seasons.

A total of 160 was the limit for the qualifiers, whose numbers will be cut by nightfall to eight in two 18-hole rounds. The finals will be played Saturday.

DIVORCE GRANTED
LONDON, June 27. (AP)—Jury hearing the divorce action of Edward Frank Willis James against Tilly Louise James, former Viennese dancer, has granted him a decree NISI. The divorce will not become absolute for six months. The jury held that the husbands' charge of adultery had been proved. The counter charge of cruelty brought by Mrs. James was not substantiated.

ROADRUNNERS PLAY 2 GAMES NEXT SUNDAY

SAYRE BASEBALL NINE WILL BE FOE IN DOUBLEHEADER

The first doubleheader of the 1934 season will be played at Roadrunner park Sunday afternoon when the Pampa Roadrunners meet Sayre, Okla., and Memphis.

The game with Sayre will be called at 2 o'clock and will be followed with Memphis providing the opposition. Single game admissions will prevail with men paying 25 cents for bleacher and 35 cents for grandstand seats and women—being charged 25 cents.

Sayre has another strong club this year and a few additional players will be added for the game Sunday, which will be the first meeting of the year. Sayre recently held the House of David team to a 11 to 7 score. The team is stronger now.

The lineup was not available this morning when the game was matched. The Roadrunners recently nosed out Memphis 5 to 3 in an uphill battle. Manager George Bulla was on the mound for the Pampa team.

The Civil slugs had him on the spot most of the game. Memphis has many familiar faces in the lineup. The Marcum brothers, Boone, Hale, and Newman, are well known to Pampa baseball fans. Stewart and Ables are the backbone of the Memphis pitching staff. It will probably be Ables who will get the call to start the game. Stewart is scheduled to pitch against Coltexo of LeFors Friday in Memphis.

Manager Bulla of the Roadrunners has not decided on a starting pitcher for either game. The Roadrunners will be in the Borger baseball tournament and if the Roadrunners play Saturday, the opening day, Bulla will have to work his pitchers so that he will have strength for the second game. The Roadrunner hurlers have not been having enough competition, which was the main reason the doubleheader was matched for Sunday.

from any other member." Welburn replied.

The young minister further denied statements made by the pretty plaintiff, but he decided to be emphatic that he had held her hand in a theater, that he had made advances to her, or that he had complimented her on her "husky voice."

Welburn testified that the plaintiff had not decided on a starting pitcher for either game. The Roadrunners will be in the Borger baseball tournament and if the Roadrunners play Saturday, the opening day, Bulla will have to work his pitchers so that he will have strength for the second game.

At one time, he testified, the plaintiff had said: "I'm going to marry you if it's the last thing I do." He had even gone so far as to say "I'm going to have a baby."

On July 21, last year, Welburn testified, Mrs. Welburn suggested marriage. "I told her frankly I admired some of her accomplishments but I figured people should be in love before they got married," he testified.

A few days later, he said, Mrs. Welburn called up and apologized. "Have you ever married her?" defense counsel asked.

"No," the witness replied. "Have you ever gone through the marriage ceremony with her?" "No, I did not."

"Did you ever propose marriage to her?" "No."

The pastor described in detail what he did on July 25, the day of the alleged wedding. He said he had played baseball that morning, did not leave the city except to take some friends to Fort Sam Houston, took other friends to San Pedro park and went to a picnic that night.

He did not see the plaintiff, he testified, between July 21, last, and January, 1934. Mrs. Welburn had testified the wedding took place at Berne on July 25, last.

PAUL DEAN IS VICTOR OVER GIANTS 13-7

DEAN BROTHERS HAVE BEATEN CHAMPS 5 TIMES

BY HERBERT W. BARKER.
Associated Press Sports Writer.

The score of the famous National league series, the brothers Dean vs. the world champion New York Giants, stood at 5-0 in favor of the eccentric pitching duo of the St. Louis Cardinals today.

Elder brother, Jerome H. (Dizzy) Dean, has beaten the champions twice in as many chances this season. Brother Paul, younger and not quite so noisy, outpointed them yesterday for the third successive time.

Young Paul, perhaps the league's outstanding freshman hurler, has pitched better ball games than he did yesterday but he was adequate and earned his tenth victory against only one defeat. The Giants pounded on him for 15 hits, including Mel Ott's nineteenth homer, and Jackson's tenth, but the Cards presented him with a 13-2 lead as early as the fifth inning and he staggered through to win, 13-7.

The Chicago Cubs benefitted by Lon Warneke's steady pitching and won from Brooklyn, 5-2.

Pittsburgh, in fourth place split two games with the Phillies, dropping the first, 5-4, and winning the second, 4-1. The fifth place Boston Braves downed Cincinnati, 5-1.

In the American league, Danny MacFay's fine pitching and Lou Gehrig's double and twentieth homer were the high spots in the New York Yankees' 6-2 conquest of the Chicago White Sox.

actual opposition to his candidacy. The support for other candidates in almost every instance is a matter of personal preference rather than objection to the Panhandle man.

W. J. Todd, chairman of the Hemphill county Small-for-Governor club, last week predicted: "Nine out of every 10 votes in Hemphill county will be cast for Clint Small."

What is termed "the normal Ferguson vote" seems to be split in the city of Panhandle. Former Ferguson leaders there are supporting McDonald, Alred, Hunter and Wit. Outside of Panhandle, Small's strength in Carson county appears to be much stronger than in previous campaigns.

In Borger and south Hutchinson county, the labor vote is flocking to the Small banner. There seems to be little if any real opposition to Small in Borger. Alred seems to carry the preference of those who will vote for someone else.

Manager Bulla of the Roadrunners has not decided on a starting pitcher for either game. The Roadrunners will be in the Borger baseball tournament and if the Roadrunners play Saturday, the opening day, Bulla will have to work his pitchers so that he will have strength for the second game.

At one time, he testified, the plaintiff had said: "I'm going to marry you if it's the last thing I do." He had even gone so far as to say "I'm going to have a baby."

On July 21, last year, Welburn testified, Mrs. Welburn suggested marriage. "I told her frankly I admired some of her accomplishments but I figured people should be in love before they got married," he testified.

A few days later, he said, Mrs. Welburn called up and apologized. "Have you ever married her?" defense counsel asked.

"No," the witness replied. "Have you ever gone through the marriage ceremony with her?" "No, I did not."

"Did you ever propose marriage to her?" "No."

The pastor described in detail what he did on July 25, the day of the alleged wedding. He said he had played baseball that morning, did not leave the city except to take some friends to Fort Sam Houston, took other friends to San Pedro park and went to a picnic that night.

He did not see the plaintiff, he testified, between July 21, last, and January, 1934. Mrs. Welburn had testified the wedding took place at Berne on July 25, last.

actual opposition to his candidacy. The support for other candidates in almost every instance is a matter of personal preference rather than objection to the Panhandle man.

W. J. Todd, chairman of the Hemphill county Small-for-Governor club, last week predicted: "Nine out of every 10 votes in Hemphill county will be cast for Clint Small."

What is termed "the normal Ferguson vote" seems to be split in the city of Panhandle. Former Ferguson leaders there are supporting McDonald, Alred, Hunter and Wit. Outside of Panhandle, Small's strength in Carson county appears to be much stronger than in previous campaigns.

In Borger and south Hutchinson county, the labor vote is flocking to the Small banner. There seems to be little if any real opposition to Small in Borger. Alred seems to carry the preference of those who will vote for someone else.

ROADRUNNERS PLAY 2 GAMES NEXT SUNDAY

The first doubleheader of the 1934 season will be played at Roadrunner park Sunday afternoon when the Pampa Roadrunners meet Sayre, Okla., and Memphis.

The game with Sayre will be called at 2 o'clock and will be followed with Memphis providing the opposition. Single game admissions will prevail with men paying 25 cents for bleacher and 35 cents for grandstand seats and women—being charged 25 cents.

Sayre has another strong club this year and a few additional players will be added for the game Sunday, which will be the first meeting of the year. Sayre recently held the House of David team to a 11 to 7 score. The team is stronger now.

The lineup was not available this morning when the game was matched. The Roadrunners recently nosed out Memphis 5 to 3 in an uphill battle. Manager George Bulla was on the mound for the Pampa team.

The Civil slugs had him on the spot most of the game. Memphis has many familiar faces in the lineup. The Marcum brothers, Boone, Hale, and Newman, are well known to Pampa baseball fans. Stewart and Ables are the backbone of the Memphis pitching staff. It will probably be Ables who will get the call to start the game. Stewart is scheduled to pitch against Coltexo of LeFors Friday in Memphis.

STARS ARE FAR BEHIND SPEC GOLDMAN AND OKLAHOMA MAN

Gus Moreland Shoots a 78, Seven Strokes Behind the Leaders; Othert Falter.

By FELIX R. MCKNIGHT
Associated Press Staff Writer

DALLAS, June 27. (AP)—Bewildered Gus Moreland, the defending champion, and a host of other equally reeling link stars, girded up for a tremendous comeback assignment today in the final 18 holes of the qualifying round, or it was curtains for them in the thirty-fourth annual Trans-Mississippi championship.

They prepared for a final assault on Brook Hollow's delectable course with many shots separating them from Zell Eaton, Oklahoma City's medal artist, and David (Spec) Goldman of Dallas, who led the initial 18 holes with crackling 71 rounds.

Pitifully struggling to right a game that for many days has been woefully off form, Moreland actually toiled to finish with a 40-38 was missing a beat and he bungled several approach shots.

But some of the big gun American amateurs finished safely among the leaders. Johnny Dawson, Chicago's crisp shotmaker, breezed to a 35-37-72, while Johnny Goodman, the blond Omaha wizard, rallied 36-38-74. W. Lawson Little, the British amateur king of San Francisco, belted his usual terrific tee shots in a round that added 38-37-75.

Wilson Schoellkopf, riding the tournament's "dark horse" position, hit sweet shots that produced a 38-34-72 on his home course. O'Hara Watts and Harry Todd were under-erring in
