

Some hard weather is ahead, but the general average of days, full of sunshine and golf possibilities, will be but little under normal for the next six months.

We make this prediction without reference to heat or cold or plant life. Why consult these things when human beings are just as reliable in years like this? Ordinarily, humans do not act as they feel, but this Hoover-year is an exception.

The first indication of approaching rough weather is grandpa's rheumatism. It's been bothering him a heap lately and none who know him will gainsay his prediction. Moreover, his whiskers are longer than usual and thicker too. Not through anything he has done to his hirsute covering, but just nature taking its due course and preparing for bitter winds.

Aunt Susan is taking on weight again, which she always does when cold weather is more than ordinarily severe. The hired men round about are demanding beans and lots of sow-belly, although it isn't yet cold and they don't know why. But nature knows and the hired hands having no inhibitions about their vintages and good weather barometers, Grandma is spending most of her time knitting wool socks. Every member of the family has called for extra bed coverings, and from the weight of them you would think this the night before the biggest blizzard of the year. No one stops to analyze it, but the fact is that nature's subtle warning has taken hold of us all.

Boys, sensing bad weather, are acquiring an extra coat of "rust" on their wrists. Those whose mothers have applied soap and water are crying for protection.

"Papa, I want my gloves—I'm cold," a lad told his father en route to Butler field last Saturday.

It wasn't really cold for a healthy youngster like him, but he instinctively was passing on news of the impending winter. Outdoor men are shaving less often; cigarette smokers are turning to pipes to warm their noses, many people have taken the last bath before spring.

But the most remarkable and trustworthy sign of winter is that the sweet young things who for a number of years have worn only "unmentionables" are turning to UNDERWEAR. Now underwear is mentioned. It's a good household word, closely associated with the pioneers who wore red flannels and built a great nation out of the wilderness. Store managers tell the Pampa that the ladies are buying real cotton underwear and putting their temperature above the dictates of styles and customs of the early Hoover years. And when mild weather offers comfort to feather-weight notions, there is frost in the making and winter is on the way. Better get that anti-freeze in the radiator and underwear on the old carcass. The day is back with us when the men were long-haired and the women were long-skirted. This winter yesterday attended pantry demonstrations at Hoover and near Laketon. Mrs. Marvin Daugherty and Mrs. Ernest Murrell were the demonstrators, and wonderful hostesses they were, too. Their homes are filled with clever things of their own making and their cellars are stocked with canned food of great variety.

These modern farm women are very smart and farm husbands are lucky. We understand, of course, that the farm hubby has much to do while his wife is canning and cooking. But in times like these even the farmer, long hard-pressed by low prices, is glad to have a job. Short on cash he may be, but he looks to the soil for his food and the soil rewards his efforts.

It is truly wonderful what the women are doing to beat the depression. On nearly every farm home in Gray county is a well-fitted cellar. There is food enough to last through the winter, and the hogs, cows, and chickens will do their part during coming months. Mrs. M. L. Roberts has promised 10 gallons of sorghum syrup to the Welfare Board and we know this will be appreciated. Personally, we'd like to go back to the good old days when neighbors exchanged ham, or a side of beef, at killing time. And when spare ribs and liver were distributed without expectation of receiving pay!

LEGISLATURE'S OIL SESSION IS EXPECTED NOW

WALTER WOODWARD IN PREDICTION OF CALL

PRESSURE IS BROUGHT

DECISION OF FEDERAL COURT FORCES ISSUE

AUSTIN, Nov. 2. (AP)—State Senator Walter Woodward of Coleman stated today after a conference with Governor R. S. Sterling that he expected a special session of the Texas legislature would be called to convene tomorrow to enact laws to strengthen the oil and gas conservation statutes.

Woodward was asked when he came from the governor's office when he expected to return to Austin. "I'm going home tonight and will be back day after tomorrow," he stated.

He was then asked about the prospects for a special session and stated he believed it would be called today and would convene tomorrow.

The governor also conferred with State Senator Walter Wood of Houston.

Wood, however, would make no comment concerning a special session.

Governor Sterling has been pondering the advisability of calling a special session since a three-judge federal court several days ago declared invalid orders of the Texas railroad commission by which the commission sought to regulate oil production in the East Texas field.

The federal court held the orders of the commission were an attempt to limit production to market demand. The opinion declared this was contrary to Texas statutes which, it stated, limited the commission to promulgation of orders designed solely to prevent physical waste.

BANK ROBBED!

VEGA, Nov. 2. (AP)—Two unmasked, well-dressed men robbed the First State bank of Vega of between $1,800 and $2,000 at 1 p. m. today, and escaped after kidnapping Robert Armitage, bookkeeper.

Four customers, including County Judge Charles Ingram, were in the bank at the time of the robbery. Other customers were R. L. Morris, W. A. Jinks and a man by the name of Hiatt. Armitage was the only employe on duty.

The robbers drove away toward the west in a small coupe, with Sheriff John Halliburton and a posse in a dozen automobiles in pursuit.

Leader London Riots Arrested

LONDON, Nov. 1. (AP)—W. A. L. Hannington, communist organizer of the unemployed "hunger march" on London, was arrested today on a charge of inciting to riot and lodged in the Bow Street police station pending arraignment.

Twenty detectives swarmed into the office from which he has been directing activities of thousands of unemployed who engaged in serious rioting in Hyde Park and Trafalgar Square last week. Hannington was arrested as he was talking at his desk with a newspaperman.

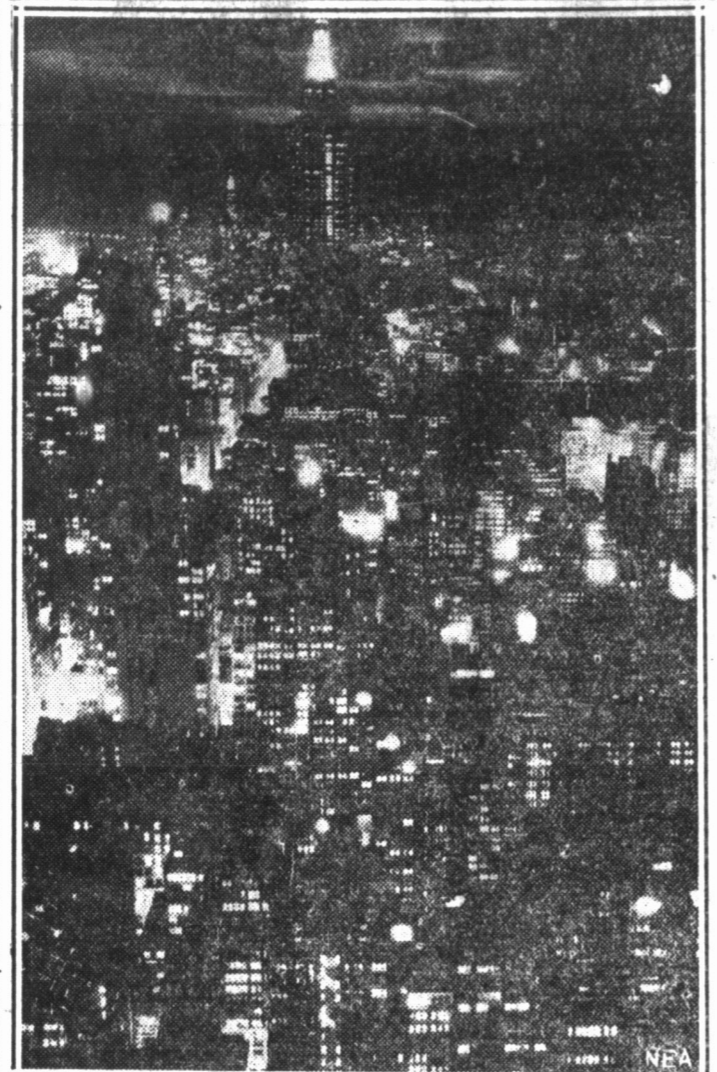

The office records were seized and another man was arrested on a charge of distributing seditious literature.

Hannington threatened yesterday that he would lead fifty of his men to the house of commons tonight and demand revision of the dole system, scorning the tradition that any petition to the house must be presented by a member of parliament.

The organizer of the hunger army has long been known to police as a communist and he claims responsibility for the naval mutiny at Inverclyde last year. He organized a similar march on London in 1930.

SERGEANT IS CHARGED EL PASO, Nov. 2. (AP)—A complaint charging Staff Sergeant Henry Wood, 36, with killing Private Kenneth Smith, 26, at Fort Bliss Saturday, was filed today with United States Commissioner A. J. W. Schmid.

WHEN NEW YORK WORKS LATE

EXPERIENCED ACTORS EXPECTED TO PERFORM WELL TONIGHT IN 'KEPT WOMAN' TRIAL AT LaNORA

Ewing and Crites Due To Give Finished Performances

"A jealous woman charged with murdering her lover," as the state claims, will be tried tonight in "The Trial of Mary Dugan," sensational court room melodrama, at the LaNora Theater, beginning at 8:15 o'clock. The play will be the initial production this season of the Pampa Little Theater.

No seats will be reserved because every word said on the stage can be heard from every seat in the house. George Limerick, manager of the LaNora, announced. Prices of admission will be 40c for adults and 25c for children. Seven hundred tickets have already been sold. The theater will seat 1,200 persons.

Leading roles will be interpreted by Reed Crites as Jimmy, and Miss Lucille Ewing as Mary Dugan. "The play is going to be a wow!" W. J. Smith, local attorney and member of the Little Theater, said Monday night after he had attended dress rehearsal and had heard the two principal actors perform. Both Mr. Crites and Miss Ewing are well-equipped to give performances that would rate with the best given by professionals. Miss Ewing received varied experience in several Little Theater plays, and she directed "Adam and Eve" one of the most successful dramas ever presented by the Little Theater. Mr. LeBeuf will make his debut on the Pampa stage tonight, and Miss Arless O'Keefe, director of the "Trial," predicted he would "go over with a bang."

In the first act, state and defense attorneys question eight witnesses, and all give sensational, amusing, dramatic testimony, according to their roles in the play. In the second act, the defendant takes the stand and never leaves it until a few minutes before the act closes. She gives the story of her life in detail and it is poignant, bitter, sophisticated. She bares the secrets of her soul when she describes the life she lived as the mistress of four men, including Edgar Rice, who was found stabbed to death in her apartment.

In the third act, the defense attorney brings back to the stand many of the witnesses who testified

MAGNOLIA OFFICIAL OF DALLAS GIVES SAFETY TALK TO. A. P. I.

"An individual's duty to himself, his family, his employer, and the public is to be careful at all times," J. L. Risinger, of Dallas, safety head of the Magnolia Petroleum company, said last night at a meeting of the Panhandle chapter of the American Petroleum Institute in the city auditorium. More than 500 oil men and citizens attended.

Mr. Risinger declared that there was a difference between an accident and a injury. The same accident may happen time and again without injury but sooner or later the injury will occur. "It is the duty of every man and woman re-

VOTING ARMY WILL NUMBER 47 MILLIONS

HOWEVER VOTE DUE TO BE 40 MILLIONS ON TUESDAY

REGISTRATION CLIMBS

CALIFORNIA HAS TOTAL GAIN OF 570,000 DEMOCRATS

Copyright, 1932, By The Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Nov. 2. (AP)—Voting precincts in nearly every city, town and village in the United States will be the converging points next Tuesday for the greatest army of qualified voters in the nation's history—approximately 47,000,000.

A survey by the Associated Press, just completed, places the total number of persons eligible to take part in next week's balloting at 46,965,230, an increase of four and a half million over the previous record in 1928 and over ten million more than the actual vote cast in the Hoover-Smith contest of that year.

How many of the qualifiers will actually exercise their voting privilege is a matter of conjecture. Some election experts believe the stay-at-home vote, normally about 15 percent, will be greater this year. Others arrive at a lower percentage. Calculated on the basis of 15 percent, the actual vote next Tuesday would be around 40,000,000, or $9,920,445, an increase of more than 3,000,000 over 1928, when the record popular balloting peak of 36,789,669 was reached. In 1924, the Coolidge-Davis presidential contest drew 29,014,992 voters, the decrease may be as high as 45,000,000. Other place it below that of 1928.

The 1932 registrations reveal declines in only six states—Arkansas, Delaware, Georgia, Idaho, Pennsylvania and Texas. In some of these, however, the decrease may be due, more conservative estimating for this year. In others, as in Pennsylvania, there is an actual drop.

Registration Gain All of the large electoral vote states, except Pennsylvania, show increases in registration. Some of the largest gains were made in the following: Wisconsin, increase of

Fern to Arrange Night School's Trade Courses

Persons interested in trade and industrial study courses to be made available here are asked to get in touch with G. H. Fern, A. & M. extension representative, at the Schneider hotel.

If there is interest enough, courses will be available in gasoline engine operation and maintenance, pulling wells and pumping methods, water problems and treating of oil fields, practical mathematics, slide rules, gas measurements, practical electricity, acetylene welding, shop drawing and blue print reading. The instructors will be chosen from this territory.

The courses are offered for men who wish to improve themselves in their occupation. All studies are below college grade. The enrollment fee will not be more $1.50 for any course. Classes would be held two nights each week for twelve weeks. The time and place for enrolling will be announced later.

The classes are made possible by the Pampa school system in cooperation with the state department of industrial education. Mr. Fern will be here through Friday.

Reports of Births Should Be Made To Secretary of City

Attention of physicians is directed to the fact that registrations of births and reports of deaths are now to be made to City Secretary J. H. Blythe at the city hall.

Effective November 1, the city secretary was made registrar of vital statistics as provided by state law. Previously, Chas. O. Duenkel had been registrar, having taken over this work several years ago to provide better registration than had been available prior to that time.

ARMY OF 50,000 PERSONS WILL GIVE NEWS READERS PROMPT ELECTION RETURNS

The complete story of the November 8 election returns will reach the NEWS readers promptly and accurately through the nationwide staff of the ASSOCIATED PRESS. This photo shows a group of A. P. election tabulators in the New York headquarters during a national election. State and national returns will be given free to the public by the Pampa Daily News Tuesday evening in the city auditorium, where Sid Merton's TEXANS orchestra will play at intervals during the party. Be there!

George Washington learned he had been elected president of the United States two months after the ballots were cast. The 1932 candidates will know the news in a matter of hours after the polls close—because THE ASSOCIATED PRESS, of which the Pampa Daily NEWS is a member will compile the results with an army of workers.

Not less than 50,000 persons will participate in informing the voters promptly on what was decided November 8. Most of these will start their work after nightfall and continue until the job is finished.

Precinct reporters throughout the country will speed the results to county or district centers. Progressive totals next will be forwarded by telephone or telegraph to zone headquarters, from there to a central state bureau.

The results from each state, carefully checked and verified, news are simultaneously telegraphed over leased wires to member newspapers and to THE ASSOCIATED PRESS bureau at Washington, the national tabulating center. At frequent intervals, the electoral and popular

Attendance at High School Is Unusually Good

Attendance at schools of the Pampa independent school district for the first six weeks of the current term was excellent. Records in the office of Supt. R. E. Fisher show the percentage to have been 98.7 for the period ending Oct. 14.

Statistics completed yesterday afternoon show that there have been enrolled 1,293 boys and 1,373 girls or a total of 2,666 scholastics. Of these, 42 boys and 44 girls, were from out of the state and enrolled in the district for the first time.

The number of tardies in all schools for the six weeks was 481. There were 2,388 pupils between the ages of 6 and 17, and 1,353 between the ages of 8 and 14.

Illness has not been serious at any time, and teachers are constantly attempting to prevent disease and to help undernourished children. The cafeterias are feeding many children who have inadequate lunches, or none at all.

INSTALLMENT PLAN FOR PAYING 1932 TAXES ADOPTED BY CITY

City commissioners, in approving the 1932 tax rolls, have granted a split-payment arrangement for the convenience of hard-pressed taxpayers.

Taxes for 1932 may be paid in two installments, providing the first payment is made on or before December 31, 1932. The second payment must be made on or before June 30, 1933, plus 6 per cent interest from February 1, 1933. The whole amount of taxes will become delinquent February 1, 1933, unless the first payment is made within the specified time.

Delinquent taxes of previous years are due and payable with penalty, and with the interest mounting month by month.

TRIP PLANS UNDERWAY

DEMOCRAT HAS VISITED IN 37 STATES SINCE NOMINATION

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 2. (AP)—Governor Roosevelt today prepared for the final bid of his presidential campaign with a week-end of speech-making in New York City.

He returned to the capital last night after a whirlwind three day motor trip through all of the six New England states. He said he was "assured that all of the New England states" would be democratic this fall.

On Thursday, Mr. Roosevelt will go to New York City for a speech that night at the Metropolitan Opera House. Friday and Saturday nights will come rallies in the Brooklyn Academy of Music and Madison Square Garden in New York.

Since he stepped into an airplane here July 2 for his acceptance speech at Chicago, Mr. Roosevelt has traveled more than 17,000 miles. He has been in 37 of the 48 states, several of them two or three times. The only states he has not visited are Nevada, Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Mississippi, Arkansas, Alabama and Florida.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2. (AP)—Plans for President Hoover to wind up his sixth campaign tour beginning tomorrow with a dash to his home in California to vote election day were being rapidly today at the White House.

President and Mrs. Hoover will leave Washington tomorrow night for the middle west for the chief executive's final re-election drive.

Speeches will be made by the chief executive at Springfield, Illinois, Friday afternoon, St. Louis Friday night and in Twin Cities, probably in the St. Paul auditorium, Saturday night.

From that point on the program still was in a tentative stage today, without public approval by the president, but arrangements had been made for him to speed westward to his home at Palo Alto in time to cast his ballot next Tuesday, if he wants to.

Mr. Hoover makes a radio address tonight from the White House to listeners in his home state as part of the celebration of "California Day" and he may at that time announce whether he will go to the coast.

Both the President and Mrs. Hoover have received ballots from California which they can send in by mail, if they decide against the transcontinental trip.

Judge Braly III At Pampa Home

He had a fairly restful night and was somewhat improved today.

Bullington Cites Ferguson Scare

PALESTINE, Nov. 2. (AP)—A warning that should the democratic nomination for governor be elected next Tuesday, the independent oil operators would be driven into bankruptcy and "gobbled up" by the petroleum trust was sounded here, on the edge of the great, restless East Texas field by Orville Bullington, republican gubernatorial candidate, today.

Bullington also promised that should he be put at the head of the state government, he would call a conference of governors of adjoining states and seek a pact fixing uniform hours of labor for all classes of workers.

"I am opposed to the conditions now existing whereby those who operate buses and trucks are placed in competition with men who work on the railroads in respect to hours of their work," he said.

E. F. Hallett of Bartlesville, Okla., is a Pampa visitor today.

GOV. PAT M. NEFF ON CENTENNIAL

Centennials are the punctuations of History. They are the periods when man properly pauses in his onward march to take a backward glance on the panorama of his achievements. This mark of civilization's march is age-old and earth-wide. Nowhere, however, has it been observed with more uniformity than in America.

Philadelphia, to glorify the one-hundredth birthday of the nation, opened to the plaudits of an admiring world our first great exposition... Chicago, to celebrate the four-hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America, gave to all humanity the World's Columbian Exposition. St. Louis, in recognition of the achievements of one-hundred years from the date of the Louisiana Purchase, educated mankind with her wonderful fair. Virginia celebrated her three-hundredth birthday with the Jamestown Exposition. California commemorated the passing of a century mark from the discovery of the Pacific Ocean when, on the completion of the Panama Canal, she added glory to American life with her Panama-Pacific Exposition. Chicago is now making extensive preparations to celebrate next year a hundred years of accomplishments since its pioneers laid on the Michigan shores the foundation stones of their commanding city.

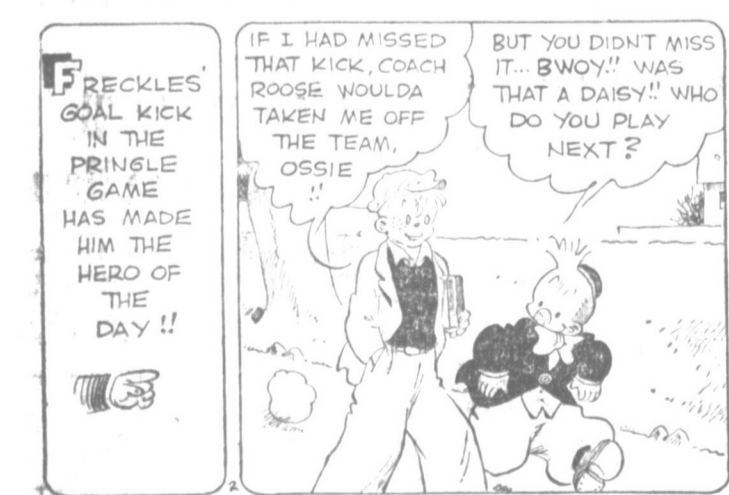

The people, where these expositions have been held, have always given enthusiastically to their maintenance. The citizens of Illinois, by legislative enactment made liberal appropriations for the support of the World's Columbian Exposition. The voters of Missouri amended their state constitution in order to give sanction and make a suitable contribution for the support of the St. Louis Fair. The people of California amended their constitution in order that the state give support to the Panama-Pacific Centennial. What other states have done, Texas can, and ought to do.

These Centennials are educational institutions, and it has been this view that caused the respective states to approve by legislative enactment the holding of these historical Centennials. A Texas Centennial will show the people at home and abroad what Texas is as a country, historically, geographically, educationally, commercially, and industrially. A Texas Centennial will attract the attention of the world.

Surely, the one-hundredth anniversary of Texas' independence should be celebrated in a manner becoming the dignity of our forefather, in keeping with the magnitude of the government they established, and befitting the mighty influence our government has had for a hundred years upon the destinies of mankind. Not to do so would be to prove ourselves the unworthy sons of illustrious sires.

The people of Texas, therefore, at the November election should amend their constitution as other states have gladly done in order that the legislature in its wisdom may give its endorsement and its support to a Texas Centennial in 1936. Texas will have no great tomorrows unless it holds in reverence and devotion its great yesterdays.—Pat M. Neff.

President Now Assails Persons Roosevelt Says

WITH GOVERNOR ROOSEVELT, BOSTON, Nov. 2 (AP)—Governor Roosevelt, in the last major speech of his presidential campaign, told a Boston audience that President Hoover "abandoned argument for personalities."

A few minutes after Mr. Hoover finished speaking last night in New York City, the democratic presidential candidate, said "at first the president refused to recognize that he was in a contest, but as the people have responded to our program with enthusiasm he recognized that we were both candidates."

"And then," Mr. Roosevelt added, "dignity died. At Indianapolis he spoke of my arguments—misquoting them. But at Indianapolis he went further. He abandoned argument for personalities."

'Miss America' Could Not Take Such An Insult

CHICAGO, Nov. 2 (AP)—What appeared to be a carefully groomed woman sat in an automobile with Police Sergeant John Orgel and gazed at the landscape in the vicinity of Chicago Heights.

"Lean on my shoulder," commanded the sergeant. "Put your head against my cheek and your arm around my neck and incidentally throw away your cigar."

Presently, as the police tell it, two youths appeared, and one of them said: "This is a stickup; get out."

Oil Production Shows Decrease

TULSA, Okla., Nov. 1 (AP)—Reductions in Texas, California and Oklahoma brought the daily crude oil output of the United States down last week from 2,151,289 barrels to 2,092,488 barrels, a decrease of 58,801 barrels the Oil and Gas Journal reports.

Ronald 'Rubbed Out' Quick With 23 Gang Bullets

CHICAGO, Nov. 2 (AP)—Mrs. Rose McKenna stood at her kitchen window last night and sang out: "Ronald's coming."

But Ronald never arrived because as he walked toward his home he came into the line of bullets from a machine gun nest planted on the second floor of a building across the street.

Police counted 23 bullet wounds in his body and came to the conclusion that his killing was an "important" one in gangland because of the precision with which it was carried out. They pointed to evidence that the slaying was as elaborately prepared for as some of the killings of major gang figures in the past.

CONVENTION OPENS AMARILLO, Nov. 2 (AP)—The third annual convention of the P. E. O. chapters of Texas opened here today with 75 delegates and 100 visitors present for the first open session tonight. Two closed business sessions and memorial services for members who died during last year were to be held today, with Mrs. Vassie B. Shafer of San Antonio, state president, in charge.

Recognition of the important part to be played by the farmer vote both in the presidential race and the contest for control of the next congress was reflected in the selection of the agricultural-minded Dickinson for two strategic posts in the republican drive for ballots.

At the national convention he was the militant White-haired and of powerful physique, the senator from the Tall Corn state is one of the most distinguished-looking figures in congress. He speaks with almost explosive force.

Shooting gently derisive punches at the G.O.P. is the specialty of Pat Harrison, senator from Mississippi, for the past ten years and one of the leading southern campaigners for the Roosevelt-Garner ticket.

Harrison, a veteran campaigner for his party and a past master of partisan attack, is rated a better debater than an orator. He likes the give-and-take of verbal combat on the senate floor, where his gaudiness of the republicans is a familiar spectacle.

His "razzing" of the policies or performances of a political adversary is considered highly entertaining both by the galleries and his colleagues, the targets of his jibes often joining in the laughs at their expense.

He tempers his attack with a soft Dixie drawl and a whimsical wit, and, while he may get "under the skin" of an opponent, he seldom leaves a scar.

Harrison shines as an impromptu speaker, often departing from the text of a relatively staid formal address to employ a telling phrase or make an ironical observation.

Harrison, like most southerners in politics, has a lawyer's training. He was a district attorney before coming to Washington as a representative in 1911.

DALLAS, Nov. 2 (AP)—E. J. Cannon, prominent in southwest banking circles since 1874, died at his home here early today. He resigned last year as a director of the First National bank of Dallas.

Plymouth Six To Go On Sale Soon

F. C. Cullum, Henry Cullum, L. E. Gordon, B. R. Wood, Barney Wood, and Jack Gerrish returned from Dallas last night after reviewing the new Plymouth "Six" which will be placed on the market soon. The members of the Cullum Motor company staff declared that the car was the sensation of the year.

While in Dallas they attended a meeting of dealers and heard a broadcast to 25 of the leading cities in the United States with Walter P. Chrysler the chief speaker. He told of the work and expense of making the new car.

"The new Plymouth Six," according to Mr. Cullum, "will be a full-sized automobile. It will be outstanding in performance and will be economical in operating cost. The new six has all the comfort and convenience features of cars selling in the much higher priced brackets. It has style, extremely smart lines and has nothing of the 'cheap-car-look'."

"Details of the car's specifications, the announcement date itself and prices on the various body models will be announced soon," it was stated by Mr. Cullum.

Rotarians Hear Cast of Drama

The realism of the play, "The Trial of Mary Dugan," which is to be presented at the LaNora theater tonight, was brought to members of the Rotary club at its luncheon today.

Several excerpts were given by the following members of the cast: Lewis Curry, Archer Pullingim, Paul LeBeuf, Mrs. Raymond Harrah, Julian Barrett, Gilmore Nunn and Emler Pite. Miss Arless O'Keefe, is director.

Visitors today included Clyde Pathree and Rotarians C. H. McClelland, Wichita Falls, and Bob Lehman, Amarillo.

Two Hostesses at Halloween Party

Anna Mae Jones and Hazel Nicholson were co-hostesses at a Halloween masquerade party Friday evening in the home of Mrs. J. M. Nicholson.

Games were played and fortunes were told in rooms gaily decorated in orange and black. A salad course was served with sandwiches and hot chocolate at the close of the evening.

The guest list follows: Nellie Meers, Evelyn Nash, Madge Tiemann, Dorothy Hehnert, Minnie Archer, Velda Richards, Ina Mae Dean, Melbo Williams, DeAnn Heiskell, Odessa Winkler, Thelma Faye Seeds, Dickey Tarrant, Virginia Roberts, Joe Hawkins, Willie Hunt, Ralph Williams, Raymond Elkins, Tom Palmatrix, Andy Walker, Lawrence Stalcup, Wulford Bivins, Earl Rice, Forest Luder of Claude, Barrie Buffington, Gerald Mazey, Bill Oswald, Albert Hollenbeck, Russell Turner, Scott Mullins, W. J. Brown, Homer Wilson, Clarence Arnold, Albert Jordan, Ralph Shannon, Harry Barnett, James Foster, and Aaron Hunter, and T. E. Barton.

Spooky Party Is Held Monday Night

Ghosts and goblins added to the spooky atmosphere of a party given by Alberta Latus Halloween night in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Latus.

Fortunes were told, games were played, and refreshments of sandwiches, punch, and popcorn balls were served. The house was gaily decorated for the occasion.

Guests were Dorothy Dyer, Dorothy Ann Dilley, Emma Boone Todd, Betty Taylor, Jeanette McMullen, Moleta Turman, Fay Redman, Helen Chandler, and Geraldine Jones.

H. E. Albert of Dallas arrived here on business this morning.

John Peake of Fort Worth is visiting relatives here for a few days.

Mrs. Brandon Is Hostess at Party For Mrs. Woollen

Mrs. John Brandon entertained with a surprise birthday party in her home yesterday afternoon to honor Mrs. J. F. Woollen.

The guests were Mesdames J. F. Woollen, V. L. Fasker, L. A. Lavery, O. N. Culverhouse, Fred Culverhouse, Herbert Evans, Logan, C. E. Haney, H. D. Bradley, Burns Moore, T. D. Alford, A. C. Jones, C. C. Woodward, I. R. Harsh, N. E. Tennant, Glen Hinkle, Bruce Head, Geo Gillman, and C. E. Nelson.

The party was informal throughout. A clever word contest was conducted, with Mrs. Jones being declared winner, while Mrs. Culverhouse and Mrs. Woollen were winners in other contests. The hostess served refreshments at the close of the afternoon.

Tea Is Given for Extension Class

Students of the extension class in mental tests and measurements which is being conducted in Pampa were surprised yesterday with a tea in the home economics entertaining room.

As the students, most of whom are teachers in the Pampa schools, arrived to class, they were presented invitations for the high school group to be guests in the home economics room during recess.

The room was decorated with Halloween symbols and was lighted with yellow tapers. Home economics girls poured tea and coffee, which was served with sandwiches and mints.

The class meets each Tuesday afternoon with Dr. Albert Barnett of West Texas State Teachers college, Canyon, as instructor.

Rev. Hyde Will Be Speaker at Chapel

The Rev. A. A. Hyde will speak at Woodrow Wilson chapel services Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock when Miss Jimma Searcy's low third grade pupils and Miss Tidi Sessions' low and high third grade pupils will have charge of the program.

Other numbers will include the following: Music by the school band; presentation of "Book Week in the School Room"; presentation of "How to Treat Books"; musical numbers; presentation of "Victoria and the Book Folk"; tap-dance, Betty Cree; reading number.

Kline Duo Will Give Concert at

"The Builders" class of the First Christian church will present the Kline duo, composed of Harry Byrd Kline and Mrs. Kline, in a sacred concert next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 in the auditorium of the church.

They appeared in the schools here in the early part of this year, and gave a sacred concert in the Presbyterian church one Sunday evening. They were well received, and all who did not hear them are being urged to hear them Sunday afternoon. A free-will offering will be taken.

In addition to vocal numbers, they will use Hawaiian guitars, musical saw, piano accordion, and tiple as well as piano.

NO TRIALS TODAY

This being non-jury week, 31st district court was quiet today. Tomorrow it will be different, with J. W. Hawkins, alias Doc Holly, going to trial for robbery with firearms, a capital offense. The indictment grew out of the robbery of the Danziger refinery.

A special venire has been summoned for the Hawkins' trial.

One Sure Way to End Coughs and Colds

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of the respiratory tract. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the eggs of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (Adv.)

HALLOWE'EN THEME IS EVIDENT IN FIDELITY CLASS FUNCTION

Fidelity class members, First Methodist church, and their friends were entertained at a lively party last evening in the church basement. Hostesses for the occasion were Miss Lillian Mullinax, Mrs. Waldo Fisher, Miss Fay Winget, and Mrs. C. A. Long.

Games and spooky stories held interest during the evening and refreshments of pumpkin pie, whipped cream, and coffee were served. The following attended: Misses

VOTING--

620,000; California, 575,000; Ohio, 500,000; New York, 340,000, and Indiana, 325,000.

Excepting Philadelphia, which felt the decline in the total of Pennsylvania registration, all of the big cities showed increases.

Separation of eligible voters by parties is not customary in most states. However, in Pennsylvania, the democratic registration declined, while the republican figures jumped to the total. Conversely, President Hoover's home state of California showed only a 29,000 gain for the republicans as against a democratic increase of 670,000.

Women accounted for the entire decline of 50,000 in Pennsylvania's registration. Ruth Taunton, secretary of the national woman's party, feels three factors will combine to send a record number of women to the voting booths—a natural growth through twelve years of political activity, a growth forced by the economic independence of women in the name of the depression, and a belief that women "are feeling keenly the economic pinch, just as men."

"It is going to be an economic vote this year instead of a prohibition vote," she says. "A hungry child in the home will react to send more women to the polls than worry over whether her child will take to drink when he grows up, should prohibition be wiped out."

Despite the jump in national registration, William Tyler Pease, former clerk of the house and an election authority, figures the actual vote this year may be smaller than in 1928.

He says "an unusually large vote in the southern states, which cannot be expected this year, helped to swell the total in 1928."

Following is a tabulation of the registration of persons in a group in next Tuesday's general elections, of southern state eligible to vote the state figures being compared with both registrations and actual votes cast:

Alabama	$25,000	300,000	248,981
Arkansas	330,000	345,533	197,692
Louisiana	479,133	378,518	215,833

CHURCHES

ASSEMBLY OF GOD SERVICE
The revival meeting is still going on at the Assembly of God church, corner Brown and South Cuyler. Interest is increasing, crowds are getting larger, and the Lord's blessings are getting greater. The Sunday night meeting was approved by the Lord, by the Glory of God coming down till the minister could not minister, Holiness, Baptists, Methodists, and all that was present were shouting, crying and rejoicing, many said they never felt as happy in all their life. When the pastor got a chance he gave an invitation to the people to come to the altar for salvation, and first and last there was about six or seven responded, and a gracious spirit prevailed. Now it matters not about your denominational belief if you are hungry for God and His word, you can't go wrong by attending these meetings, for the Bible is preached and not theories, the one and all sufficient theme is Jesus. He came to seek and to save that which was lost. He hung on the tree to redeem us from our guilt. He arose for our justification. He ascended that we might have the Comforter, and He is coming again to take His own to be with Him. The Rev. A. J. Wilcox of Sweetwater, Okla., was back Monday night after spending Sunday night with his church. He gave a timely message on the signs of the times, which was enjoyed by all. He will speak on the thousand-year reign tonight, and will speak from Revelations the rest of the week. Come on folks; let's go to church.

Water Consumption Has Drastic Drop

Water consumption by Pampa users declined drastically last month after the summer lawn rate expired. Back to the seasonal decline, the daily consumption dropped to 550-600 gallons on an average, or 16-502,000 gallons for the month. Last month the total consumption was 20,830,000 for a daily average of 694,333 gallons.

The water receipts dropped appreciably with the decline in demand, and expenses of the water department slowed somewhat at the same time.

J. H. O'Connor of Albuquerque, N. M., is visiting friends here for a few days.

Cross-Blending

WHAT IS IT...and how does it improve cigarette taste?

YOU'VE heard how fruit of one variety has been crossed with fruit of another to produce a new and more pleasing flavor. The loganberry, for example, is a cross between the raspberry and the blackberry.

Chesterfield's Cross-Blend gets the same result—better taste—by a different method.

It welds together the different kinds of several varieties of tobacco. Many types of Bright tobacco, a great many types of Burley tobacco, and numerous grades of Turkish tobacco are all merged into one—Chesterfield tobacco.

This welding or Cross-Blending goes beyond ordinary blending or mixing of tobaccos together. It actually makes every kind of tobacco in Chesterfield partake of the qualities of every other type.

It's the Cross-Blending of fine Turkish and Domestic tobaccos that gives Chesterfields a distinctive, better taste.

They are milder. They have a flavor and aroma which, we believe, you will like.

PROSPECTS FAVORABLE FOR ANOTHER THREE-WAY TIE

LUBBOCK MUST BEAT SANDIES IN JINX GAME

PAMPA MUST DEFEAT WESTERNERS IN BATTLE HERE

The Harvesters scrimmaged long and hard yesterday afternoon in preparation for their game with the Capitol Hill Indians of Oklahoma City under the flood lights at Capitol Hill stadium. The Indians have a strong team this year, being one of the undefeated high school eleven in the state.

New plays were used and old ones rehearsed during the scrimmage. Several sets of backfields were used and many changes were made in the lines during the heavy workout. Another scrimmage is on schedule for this afternoon and a signal practice tomorrow. Coaches and the team will leave for Oklahoma City about noon Friday.

Coaches have not decided on a starting line-up for Saturday night. Several changes may be made. Boys injured in previous games may be kept out most of the game in order to save them for the important game with the Lubbock Westerners here Armistice day.

The race in District 1 this year could easily develop into a three-way tie similar to last year. If the Harvesters can win from Lubbock and the Westerners defeat the Sandies, the tie would result. However, the Amarillo-Lubbock game is to be played in Amarillo this year and the Westerners will be fighting the Butler field jinx.

The Harvesters will attend the Oklahoma-Missouri game in Norman Saturday afternoon as the guests of the High School Athletic association. They will return to Pampa Sunday afternoon.

Next week will be spent in hard practice for the Lubbock game.

Petrolle Almost Certain to Make Weight for Bout

NEW YORK, Nov. 2. (AP)—Apparently fistic observers were a trifle too previous with their early fears that Billy Petrolle would have trouble getting down to the class limit for his 15-round lightweight title match against Tony Canzoneri in Madison Square Garden Friday night.

The battle-scarred Duluth veteran, who weighed around 148 pounds when he started training for this, his first "shot" at any title, tipped the beam at 136 1/2 pounds at the conclusion of his workout yesterday. He has two full days, plus the usual drying out process, to shave off the pound and a half that stands between him and the class limit of 135 pounds.

His handlers are confident he can do that with ease and retain all his strength. Petrolle himself said last summer when the Canzoneri match first was discussed that he would have no trouble making the poundage in the winter time although it would be a virtual impossibility in the summer.

Canzoneri, of course, has no weight worries at all. The champion is a "light" lightweight, almost never scaling above 133 pounds.

'Hunk' Demotes More Ramblers

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nov. 2. (AP)—If the Notre Dame regulars wish to retain their ranking, today was a good day to show Coach Hearty (Hunk) Anderson a lot of football. Anderson, still smoldering over shortcomings which aided Pittsburg to an unexpected triumph last week, called his shock troops out for scrimmage yesterday, and left them at it for two hours and a half without finding what he was looking for. During the long, hard scrimmage against freshmen, who used the defense which enabled Pitt to halt the Irish attack, the seconds scored only five touchdowns. He finally let them go, after sending Laurie Vejar, quarterback, to the third team and promoting Emmet Murphy to the vacancy.

The regulars were due for the same test today and demotions were promised if the results failed to please.

TWO TEAMS SCRIMMAGE

Bucks and Gorillas Sparkle In Tough Workout Here Yesterday.

The Gorillas had a tough scrimmage with the White Deer Bucks in White Deer yesterday and are ready for their important game with the Miami Warriors Friday afternoon in Miami. The game was scheduled to be played early last month but a mix-up in engagements made it impossible for the Pampa boys to make the trip.

Both teams used a full list of plays yesterday and the workout was declared the best of the season. The Bucks defeated the Gorillas here two weeks ago but it was a different looking team that scrimmaged yesterday.

Curly Owens will have to be stopped if the Gorillas hope to win from the Warriors. Owens is a 200 pound fullback and his defensive play is more sparkling than his offense which is carrying the ball and passing.

Stanford Does Not Blame Pop For Two Losses

PALO ALTO, Calif., Nov. 2. (AP)—Despite two straight setbacks to the Stanford university football team, the sentiment here is all for Coach Glenn "Pop" Warner.

The Cardinals dropped a game to the University of California at Los Angeles last Saturday 13 to 6 and were on the losing end of a 13-0 game with Southern California the week previous, but the general feeling is that the two games were lost by breaks against Stanford.

Alfred R. Masters, graduate manager, said there always are a few chronic kickers who criticize a team whether it wins or loses.

"We are for Warner, win, lose or draw," he said. "Stanford outscrimmaged U. S. C. and U. C. L. A., and made more first downs. They were just tough games to lose."

Warner recently renewed an agreement to remain at Stanford five years. He is a member of the faculty and has no written contract and may sever his connections with the university at any time. Last year several eastern institutions were reported bidding for his services.

Stanford's schedule the remainder of the season includes a game with Washington Saturday and the annual "big game" with the University of California, November 19. Coach Warner and his charges will leave shortly afterward for Pittsburgh, where the Cardinals meet the University of Pittsburgh, conquerors of Notre Dame, on November 26.

WRESTLING CARD TO INCLUDE FOUR MAIN EVENT GRAPPLERS

Program Shows Clingman vs. Sailor Wood and Roy vs. Kimona Artist.

The first big all-star wrestling card of the season will be staged at the Pla-Mor auditorium tonight, when three big matches will be presented. In the main event, best two out of three falls, Sailor Otis Clingman will meet Sailor Jack Woods of Kansas City. Rob Roy will go to the mat with Tetsura Higami of Japan with the jackets in a thirty-minute or one-fall match. Red Michael and Howard Belcher of Amarillo will open the match in a 20-minute time limit or one-fall match.

Clingman was champion of the United States Pacific fleet while Woods was champion of the Atlantic but they did not meet. Clingman won the championship of the entire navy the next year but Woods had retired before that time. He thinks he is a better man than Clingman.

The local boy thrilled a packed house last Wednesday night when he won two straight falls from Eddie Brock of Centralia, Washington. He showed more speed and skill than at any previous time before a Pampa audience. Clingman has been wrestling in the east and is in line for a chance at the middle-weight title.

Woods is among the topnotchers in the light heavyweight class and hopes to get a chance at Hugh Nichols' title. He has met the best in his class but has not been seen in this part of the country. He will be wrestling for a chance in the Amarillo tournament.

Roy has had a little experience in kimona and he is apt to hold his own with the experienced Japanese. Higami and Clingman went nearly 3 minutes in the jackets in Amarillo last week before the Pampa crowd succumbed.

Michael and Belcher will be wrestling a return engagement. The local redhead won the first time they met this year but Belcher has been working hard for a return match.

Tickets are going fast at the City Drug store.

Foursomes Will Be Played Over Course Sunday

Scotch foursomes will play golf over the Red Deer course Sunday and Mark Heath, owner and manager, will give a silver King golf ball to each foursome playing the course. The winning pair can decide which member will get the ball.

The one ball to partners is becoming popular in many cities in the Southwest but has not invaded Pampa. There will be only two balls used in each foursome. One man of each team of two will drive from the tee box and the partner will make the second shot with the same ball. Should he not reach the green the man who drove from the tee box will make another approach shot.

The same player cannot take two shots in a row without penalty. Play will continue all day.

WELL-FILLED PANTRIES OF GRAY COUNTY ARE VIEWED Presidents of Local Federated Clubs Are Guests at Program Tea Here

OPEN HOUSE HELD BY CLUBS IN MURRELL AND DAUGHERTY HOMES TUESDAY AFTERNOON

BALANCED MENUS FROM CANS SHOWN; GIFTS SUGGESTED FOR CHRISTMAS ARE USEFUL AND ARE MADE AT SMALL EXPENSE

Well-filled cellars, from which delicious, balanced meals can be taken for months, furnish proof of the splendid work being done by the farm women of Gray county. Groups of Pampa residents Tuesday were present at the first two of a series of pantry demonstrations. Yesterday the homes visited were those of Mrs. Marvin Daugherty of Hoover and Mrs. E. C. Murrell of near Laketon; pantry demonstrators for the Priscilla and Helping Hand clubs, respectively.

It was a large and enthusiastic group of visitors which assembled at the Marvin Daugherty home near Hoover yesterday to see Mrs. Daugherty's pantry demonstration.

The occasion also included a trip to the kitchen, where chili, coffee, crackers, cocoa, cookies, and other "treats" were served. In the parlor were tables containing Christmas gifts made by members of the Priscilla club, for which Mrs. Murrell is demonstrator. These gifts included cakes, garments, canned goods, match holders, and a unique nut bowl made by softening a phonograph record in hot water and bending it to an attractive shape.

Although she had only two months to prepare her demonstration, having replaced another demonstrator who resigned, Mrs. Ernest Murrell made an exceptional showing. As the group gathered at her farm home, southeast of Laketon, the first things noticed were beautiful and useful gifts made by members of the Helping Hand club under the direction of Miss Ruby Adams, demonstration agent. These gifts included containers of sorghum molasses, apple jelly, sacks of butter beans, dried apples, and peanuts, and cans of preserves. There also were articles of needle work.

Nearly tables held balanced menus and menus for each day of the week. One menu showed baked ham, turnip greens, peas, scalloped corn, hot rolls, butter, apple jelly, green grape cobbler, and coffee. As much of this as could be canned was put up for later use. Another menu contained corn meal muffins, lamb's quarter, sweet potatoes, apple pie, whipped cream, fried ham, snap beans and cocoa.

After examining these exhibits, those present were served delicious punch and wafers.

Next seen was Mrs. Murrell's cellar pantry—a cellar with walls lined with beautifully colored cans of fruits and vegetables. There were 330 containers, including 53 of leafy vegetables, 23 starchy vegetables, 27 other vegetables, 61 fruit, 19 tomatoes, 30 meat, 38 pickles and relishes, 42 jellies and preserves, 17 miscellaneous, of a total value of $148.30. Forty varieties of fruits and vegetables were canned. Mr. and Mrs. Murrell also cured 200 pounds of meat, put up 8 gallons of lard, and made 48 pounds of soap. They also dried beans, sweet potatoes, milk, butter, and eggs to round out their menu.

Every Member Helps
There are nine members in the demonstration club, all of whom had a part in the food conservation program. The club as a whole canned 3,799 containers of food having a value of $1,431.99. This included 70 pounds of dried fruit, 120 pounds dried vegetables, 295 pounds of cured meat. Members made 686 pounds of soap and put up 328 gallons of lard. They have 1,392 chickens. They sold 4,128 dozens of eggs for $508.18. They obtained 4,800 gallons of milk from 16 cows. Their other club activities included making of dresses, other garments, 27 quilts, and numerous rugs.

Mrs. Charles Talley is president of the club. Other officers are Mrs. Clyde Gray, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Leo Paris, reporter; Mrs. Melvin Roberts, parliamentarian; Mrs. G. C. Springer, council representative.

Those visitors who registered at the pantry demonstration yesterday included: Mrs. John R. White, Laketon; Miss Mary Sue White, Laketon; Mrs. Dink Woods, Paducah; Mrs. Will Davis, Miami; George Briggs, Pampa; Olin E. Hinkle, Pampa; Mrs. H. E. Baird, Miami; Mrs. W. D. Champion, Mrs. A. G. Sanders, Mrs. B. R. Nash, Mrs. Etta Walker, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Stonecipher, members of Busy Bee club; Miss Ruby M. Adams, demonstration agent; Miss Fannie Hogan, L. T. Hill company, Pampa.

CIVIC CULTURE MEMBERS GIVE PRETTY EVENT

CLUB FOLK DISCUSSED AS BUILDERS BY MRS. HUTCHINS

Presidents or other representatives of the hostess club welcomed the guests of honor at a program tea given Tuesday afternoon by the Civic Culture club in the home of Mrs. H. H. Isbell, 211 N. Houston.

The Isbell home was artistically decorated for the occasion. Four big baskets of white and orchid chrysanthemums were tied with tulle of the same colors.

Miss Katie Vincent, president of the hostess club, welcomed the guests and asked them to introduce themselves and to state the clubs they represented.

The following program was then given:
Piano solos, The Second Valse (Godard) and To a Comedian (Cadenat), Mrs. Irving Cole.
Vocal selections, The Mardi Gras and a spiritual, Lord You Made the Night Too Long, Miss Kathryn Vincent, with Mrs. Cole at the piano.

At refreshment time, butterfly salad, dainty sandwiches, angel food cake topped with cherry whipped cream, and tea were served, and little colonial women were given as favors.

The following were special guests: Mrs. E. M. Conley, president of the Little Theater; Mrs. O. H. Booth, president of the Arno Art club; Mrs. S. G. Surratt, secretary of El Progreso club; Mrs. Philip Wolfe, president of the Treble Clef club; Mrs. H. W. Jones, president of the Child Study club; Mrs. Ivy E. Duhan, vice president of the senior Twentieth Century club; Mrs. B. W. Ferris of the American Association of University Women; Mrs. Jack Dunn of the Business and Professional Women's club; Mrs. C. H. Todd of the Junior Twentieth Century club; Mrs. F. Ewing Leech, president of the Twentieth Century Culture club; Miss Kathryn Vincent, who took part on the program.

FEWER SCHOOL DAYS LOST DUE TO COLDS

Remarkable Results of New Colds-Control Plan of Special Interest to Mothers and Teachers

Last winter, comparative tests of Vicks Plan for better Control of Colds were made among 862 children in nine schools. A group of 429 did not follow the Plan—and lost a total of 161 days on account of colds. The other group of 433 followed the Plan—and lost a total of only 107 days on account of colds. A saving of practically two-thirds in school time!

Each Vicks package contains full details of this unique Vicks Colds-Control Plan.

To PREVENT many Colds

...after exposure, at that first sniffle or any other signs of "catching cold." The number and spread of colds can be cut more than half.

To END a Cold Sooner

...at bedtime, for its famous double action and quicker relief. Vicks is the mother standby for treating colds. And it's available now in a new Stainless form.

FIRST ROYAL FALL WEDDING

More than 60 members of the royalty and nobility of a half-dozen European countries participated in the colorful ceremonies marking the recent wedding of Princess Sibylle of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha and Prince Gustaf Adolf, eldest son of the Swedish Carown Prince, in the medieval Church of St. Moritz, Coburg, Germany. The bridal couple are shown after the ceremony which united two royal houses of Europe. The Princess is wearing a cream crepe satin gown with lace and a blue sash. The bridegroom is in the blue uniform of a lieutenant of the Swedish Guards. Three days of festivities preceded the ceremony—the most brilliant in Germany since the world war.

TEA IS GIVEN ROOM MOTHERS OF JUNIOR HI

Mrs. J. F. Curtis is hostess Tuesday afternoon

Mrs. J. F. Curtis entertained with an informal tea for room mothers of Junior high school Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the school cafeteria.

The table was attractively floriated and was lighted with silver candle sticks. Tea and wafers were served.

Mrs. Curtis made a short talk on room mothers' accomplishments in behalf of the Parent-Teacher association, after which Principal B. A. Selby of Junior high school told what room mothers could accomplish in behalf of the school. He asked the mothers not to entertain the children in the school rooms but to visit the parents of the children and to strengthen ties between home and school. He asked that they urge parents to visit the classrooms and regardless of his or her position, to inform the proper persons of hazards that might mean an accident in the future. If a hammer drops from the scaffold three times there is something wrong whether anyone is injured or not," Mr. Risinger said.

"Responsibility presents an opportunity to prevent accidents and the man with the lowest job in an organization has the same opportunity as the man in the highest position. He may be injured and cannot afford it even though he is protected and it is up to him to guard himself and his employer's property."

Mr. Risinger spoke of accidents in terms of cost, saying that many refused to consider one with the other. The more accidents the greater cost and therefore money is not available to increase salaries and production, he said. The Magnolia Petroleum company has decreased injuries 63 per cent since starting a safety league. There has been only one man hurt in the Panhandle area since the Magnolia safety league was organized in April, and the victim was absent from work only two days.

"The man with the responsible position must co-ordinate with the others or he is not the man for the job, because something is always coming up to change the other fellow's stride."

H. N. Blakeslee, of the division of accident prevention of the A. P. I. at Dallas, spoke of accident prevention in the oil business, comparing the injury lists of 1927 with the same lists of 1931. He told of the first attempt to curtail accidents in the petroleum industry in 1927, when the National Safety council

Many Help to Make Slide Successful

Many persons contributed to the success of the bulb culture lecture-slides given under the auspices of the Pampa Garden club yesterday at La Nora theater.

The club has expressed appreciation to George Limerick for use of the theater; to Blackie Yowell for operating the projector; Knights of Pythias for use of the projection; Figgly Wiggy for coffee; Woman's Exchange for sandwiches and cake; Wear-Ever Aluminum company for serving the coffee; the women who took subscriptions to Better Homes and Gardens which made the presentation possible.

A large group of both men and women attended the educational lecture-slides. Mrs. H. H. Hicks was the lecturer.

Fortnightly Party Will Be Tomorrow

The fortnightly bridge party sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's club will be held in the Rose Building club rooms tomorrow evening with the following members as hostesses: Mrs. J. C. Carroll, Mrs. E. L. Fowler, Mrs. Mable Gee, Mrs. C. A. Clark, Miss Charlotte Embry, and Mrs. Lee McConnell.

Mrs. T. K. Manley was admitted to Worley hospital for treatment this morning.

asked the A. P. I. to set aside money to put a man in charge of accident prevention in the industry.

"The move was so beneficial that in 1929 the A. P. I. organized its own safety club and accidents have declined 54 per cent since that time," Blakeslee said. "Correct operation has been preached and I believe the lessons have been heeded."

Mr. Blakeslee deplored the fact that Texas laws were made for the lawyers rather than the plaintiff in suits for compensation. He declared that in many instances the lawyer got more than the person injured. He said that the A. P. I. advocated fair payment of all claims and that only unjust claims were ever taken to court, and then usually at the instigation of certain types of lawyers.

Manuals on safety and accident prevention have been prepared by the safety department and are sent out at regular intervals. Statistics on accidents are gathered by the organization and, after careful study, remedies are suggested. Cleanliness is one of the goals of the department, along with fire prevention.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2 (AP)—With Canada and Argentina both offering wheat cheaper abroad, grain prices here averaged lower early today. Chicago prices of wheat, however, were given some support thru purchases made here against equal simultaneous sales at Winnipeg.

Opening at 1/4 decline to 1/4 advance, wheat afterward sagged all around. Corn started unchanged to 1/4 off and subsequently receded further.

when they go to school. vote totals will be provided, to show the trend of the steadily mounting tabulations and the final results.

The elections organization in each state also will tabulate the votes for senators, representatives and state officers. The results of congressional elections, because of their importance in the makeup of the new legislative department, are tabulated nationally with the same speed as the presidential results.

Unusual precautions are exercised throughout the election organization to safeguard against errors creeping into THE ASSOCIATED PRESS reports. Figures and totals are subjected to careful checks and tests by staff men experienced in handling election results.

Any possible discrepancy, such as an unusual reversal of party adherence in a precinct or section, is immediately investigated by trained experts. Only when there is no question of its accuracy is the news released.

American newspaper readers will not wait for the formal counting of electoral college ballots in February to learn who will occupy the White House for the next four years.

Member papers of THE ASSOCIATED PRESS will bring them the news as promptly as humanly possible to obtain it—accurately.

The NEWS also will have the exclusive returns of the TEXAS ELECTION BUREAU, the only tabulating agency in this state. All these returns will be given free to the public on Tuesday evening at a huge election party in the city auditorium.

A PATH TO PARADISE

by Coningsby DAWSON

SYNOPSIS: Just as precipitate as she fled from Dicky, her sensible husband, Santa returns to him. In front of their Chicago apartment she poses a girl in a polo coat like one she owns. The apartment is cluttered. But Dicky takes her back, even when she confesses to having biased Olive, the lover whom she had filled in Dicky's favor while at her parents' home in New Jersey. Santa and Dicky indulge in a confessional party at breakfast.

Chapter 13
UNPLEASANT TRUTH

"I've always known I could succeed, but I never had the incentive," Dicky told her. "All that roaming at Dicky ends in Europe was bad for me."

"My training was no better," Santa accused herself generously. "There was always a new boy on the doorstep. I was encouraged to be selfish. It's taken a year to cure me."

"We're both cured," he assured her at parting.

She set to work on the arrears of housekeeping. Men without women to restrain them certainly could create a pig-sty! Tables, the piano, chests of drawers were ringed where tumbler had been set down moist on them. It would require weeks of polishing to remove the marks.

"We're both cured," Dicky assured Santa.

And what were ash-trays invented for? She discovered a hole in the living-room carpet. Which of Dicky's friends had done that? If she knew, she'd like to shake him. No good being old-maidish. It served her right for running off.

About midday the telephone tinkled.

"Dicky speaking. Called to tell you I'm thinking of you. How about lunching together?"

She agreed with alacrity. The rendezvous arranged was the Con Gross Hotel.

"Wrap up warmly," were his last words.

She donned tools. Why worry when she had a over? Ann could do the tidying. She'd get hold of her tomorrow. This was romance—to have a husband who made dates with you.

Having attired herself as becomingly as she knew how, she remembered his advice about wrapping up warmly. He polo coat would be just the thing. She searched the cupboard in which she was sure it had been hanging. It wasn't there. She instituted a hunt. No result. The clock warned her; she took down the mink cloak she reserved for special occasions.

In Peacock Alley he was waiting. "You're doing me proud."

"Didn't mean to," she laughed. "If I could have found it, I'd have worn my polo coat."

"Glad you didn't." He slipped his arm through hers. "You look top-hole."

How he led up to the subject she couldn't recall clearly. He'd been offered the chance of a lifetime. Twenty thousand dollars down and he'd become partner in a mining syndicate. No, he hadn't seen the mines. They were in Montana. His job would be to float the stock. He spangled a prospectus on the table, deluging her with alleged facts and figures.

She noted that partnerships had doubled in price since her repentance. Previous to her three days' desertion of him, the most he had tried to borrow had been ten thousand. He was wasting no time in cashing in on their reconciliation. If this was the worth of forgiveness, it struck her as costly.

the booth. Till he was out of sight she went through the motions of looking up a number. Then, to avoid being molested, she seated herself at a desk and pretended to write.

Again he had lied to her. How he'd consoled himself during her absence was all too evident. Ann had been dismissed that she might tell no tales. Dicky's display of affection for herself had no more depth than his toadie passion for this fly-by-night.

When she'd liet herself into the apartment, he must have thought at first that she was wise to him. As soon as he'd realized that she wasn't, he'd permitted her to confess about Olive and had graciously pardoned her. And of all this she would have been ignorant, save for the wad on her wardrobe!

"Thank God, she had her own money! What to do next? Stage another scene? Fly back again to her parents? Dipping, her pen and scrawling meaningless lines, she sat puzzling.

Rising with an air of decision, she approached the booth. Having completed a brief telephone conversation, she drove to a high building and was shown into an office. A lean young man with a sensitive face, dark hair and hollow eyes, dismissed his secretary. Leaping up, he clasped Santa's hand sympathetically.

"I hope your husband returned home in reasonably good shape the other night."

"Depends on what you call reasonable." She felt that her errand was already divined. "You're not surprised to see me, Mr. Garstead."

"Mrs. Dak," he returned, "we called you Santa the other night. You called me Paul and my wife Estelle. Let's be more friendly. It may make things easier. If you'd merely wished to thank me, you wouldn't have visited me in my office. How did you discover my business address?"

She lowered her eyes.

"I looked it up in a directory."

"And you need a lawyer?"

"And you need a lawyer?"

Still another complication intruded, tomorrow, into Santa's already disturbed situation.
