LOCATE MISSING PLANE; 7 KILLED

R.D. Parker Withdraws His Name As Smith's Opponent

BY OTHER WRITERS
THE PLAINSMAN in the Lubbock Journal—the easiest way to put teeth in the law is to sick your dog on a cop.

ALBERT COOPER in the Shamrock Texan, speaking of schools—If the curriculum has not yet been perfected, there must be patience until it is; in the meantime patrons can help instead offering discouragement.

DE WITT LANDIS in the Hereford Brand—Last week the commissioners of this county inaugurated a fight against tumble weeds and wind erosion. Their immediate problem is weeds, since the big Russian thistles blow into the ditches alongside the roads where they are covered by blown soil and create a problem in road maintenance that is almost beyond solution.

D. A. DAVIS in the McLean News—What do you call these doozies that look like an old-fashioned butter paddle with a rubber string fastened to it and a rubber ball fastened to the rubber string, and manipulated with a male or female wild, or Polish expression on the face and a wad of chewing gum in the mouth?

J. R. HULL in the Clovis News-Journal suggests the following commencement speech—"I have a lot of crabs, addressing you youngsters, because you can't help seeing that my generation just does not know how to run the country decently.

"Some of you will find jobs, if you're lucky; the rest will sit around the house and wonder what it's all about. I don't know what you that I've been wondering the same thing for several years.

"While you're wondering, you might stop to think that this country is able to raise so much food that everybody could have all he wants to eat. He's able to make enough clothing for everybody, enough shoes, enough vacuum cleaners, enough automobiles, enough houses, enough of everything you can think of.

"There isn't really much excuse for us to have unemployment and poverty and want, except our own stupidity.

"If you youngsters can figure out a way to get the wheels turning full speed, the country will be very grateful to you—if it doesn't put you in jail at any rate. I wish you lots of luck.

GEO. H. HILL in Roewell Morning Dispatch—Somehow we must readjust our society so that the greater emphasis will be put on purely human values. We should be a lot happier when we no longer feel the urge to look wistfully back at the day before yesterday.

THE LITTLE ARGUS in the Carlsbad, N. M., Daily Current Argus—The old fashioned fly swatter is crude but effective. Fly swatter better way is to buy some modern insecticide and spray every room until every fly is suffocated. But first get screens that don't look like the Barrow-Parker death car.

SAM BRASWELL in Clearndon News—Harking back, we recall another pertinent remark on advertising recently made by Spencer Huffman: "To be consistent, the man who stops advertising when sales are hard to get should disconnect a couple of spark plugs when his car starts up a hill." Now is the time to advertise.

Jesse Announces Candidacy For Justice Office

William T. Jesse has authorized The News to announce his candidacy for justice of the peace, precinct No. 2, place No. 1, subject to the action of the democratic primary in July.

Mr. Jesse has been in the Panhandle for 27 years, and in Pampa the last six years. He is well known in music circles, and as a salesman of Neon signs.

TENNANT ASKS STATE REPEAL BE ON BALLOT

STATE SUPERINTENDENT UNOPOSED—SMITH QUILTS RACE

AUSTIN, June 11. (AP)—R. D. Parker, chief of probation enforcement officer in East Texas, today withdrew his name as a candidate for the Texas railroad commission in opposition to Lon A. Smith, chairman who is seeking re-election.

Parker's withdrawal was requested in a telegram to J. K. Brim, chairman of the state democratic executive committee, which met to certify the official ballot for next month's primary election.

In his telegram, sent from Kilgore, Parker said: "I hereby request that your committee do not place my name on the ballot as a candidate for railroad commissioner at the coming democratic primary next month."

Parker's name was filed with Brim last week, assertedly without his knowledge and consent.

J. P. Hair of San Antonio withdrew as a candidate for attorney general.

A resolution proposing a referendum at the July primary submission of repeal of state prohibition was presented to the resolutions committee by Roy L. Tennant of Austin, who held the proxy of Will St. John of Cisco as a committee-man.

Tennant also offered a resolution to give women equal representation on the state democratic executive committee.

Both propositions were defeated by substantial margins several weeks ago at an executive committee in Houston.

Ben J. Witt of Harris county withdrew as a candidate for comptroller and Jefferson G. Smith withdrew from the race for state superintendent of public instruction, leaving I. A. Woods of Waco, incumbent, opposed.

J. D. Parnell of Wichita Falls, former state senator, had prepared a resolution with respect to the candidacy of a Dallas attorney who changed his name by district court action from Jefferson T. Baker to George B. Terrell, a name familiar in Texas politics. George B. Terrell of Alto is a congressman at large.

The resolution stated the change in name was a subterfuge to mislead the voters and ask that Terrell's name be stricken from the ballot.

Jurors Ordered Brought Before Judge W. R. Ewing

Only 30 jurors of the panel of 40 men summoned arrived for district court at 10 o'clock this morning. After County Clerk Frank Hill had called the roll, Judge W. R. Ewing instructed Chief Deputy Bud Colter to "find the rest of the jurors and have them report to me immediately." Most of the absent jurors were Pampa men, although some were from Groom, LeFors, and rural communities.

Criminal cases were on call for this week, but while witnesses were being summoned for the first case, one for driving a car while intoxicated, Judge Ewing called a civil suit for trial. It was the suit of A. Khoury versus Mrs. Gertha McCannell for debt. The suit was filed in 1931.

Criminal business will follow the civil suit. Most of the jail cases to be tried will be pleas of guilty. District Attorney Lewis Goodrich said this morning.

I HEARD—

John Sturgeon lamenting that court had to be in session in such pretty weather. He declared that Judge W. R. Ewing was lucky because he had a nice big window back of his throne.

Bill Kimbrell tell that the bass struck better Friday and Saturday than at any other time this year. He caught his limit and every fish weighed more than two pounds. He threw back more than 25 that were not of the required length.

4 BABIES ARE BORN TO YOUNG IOWAN MOTHER

Quadruplets—3 Girls And Boy May Steal Dionne Thunder

SAC CITY, Iowa, June 11. (AP)—A 30-year-old mother who does not believe in large families is caring today for a quartet of new babies ranging in weight from two and a half to four and a half pounds.

She is Mrs. L. R. Wycioff of Sac City, who gave birth to quadruplets, boosting the family roster to nine.

Mrs. Wycioff was "very proud" but she feels "very sorry" for her children because "they won't have the privileges they should."

Lawrence Wycioff, the father, works for the state highway commission for $16 a week.

"I don't know what to think about it all," he said, "but you bet your life I'm proud about it."

The babies all have the same initials—L. D. W. Their names and weights:

Lester Dean, 4½ pounds; and the three girls, Lavern Delane, 4 pounds; and Lorraine Delaine, 3½ pounds; and Lavonne Danene, 3½ pounds, and Lavonne Danene, 3½ pounds, born Saturday.

The quadruplets, born Saturday, were attended by a trained nurse and Dr. G. H. Swearingen, who delivered the babies. They are being fed on a diet of corn syrup and milk, administered to the two sturdiest with medicine droppers and to the other pair through tubes.

Dr. Swearingen reported the appetites of the youngsters normal. Mrs. Wycioff was reported in a satisfactory condition.

FIT OF LITTLE TOE IN SHOE IS NECESSARY FOR FOOT'S COMFORT

CLEVELAND, June 11. (AP)—It is not the high heel of a fashionable woman's shoe, but her little toe which decides whether the footwear is good for her health and her stance.

Likewise in man, the fit of the same small toe largely decides whether his shoe gives stable footing, or whether it will produce foot strain, leg cramp, knee discomfort or even an aching back.

These and other up-to-date ideas about how to fit shoes were shown at the scientific exhibit of the eighty-fifth annual meeting of the American Medical Association which began today. They were presented by R. Plato Schwartz, M. D., of the University of Rochester School of Medicine and Dentistry.

WHOLE TOWNS DESTROYED IN TROPIC NATION

HONDURAS COMMUNITY WIPED OUT BY FLOOD

By The Associated Press
A tropical storm of hurricane intensity carrying with it a series of cloudbursts apparently has killed at least 2,500 persons in Central America.

The storm reached its height last Thursday, smashing communications. It was not until today that the first picture of the extent of the tragedy was learned.

The republics of El Salvador and Honduras apparently were the heaviest hit.

Reputable sources in San Salvador reported that at least 2,000 persons died around that capital city. A report from Octopecque, Honduras, said the storm wiped out that village, killing 500 inhabitants.

The original property loss estimates of $1,500,000 probably, it was indicated, will have to be revised upward.

The Salvadorean air corps yesterday sent 70 airplanes to survey the nation. They returned to report death and destruction everywhere.

Le C. Calloway, Pan-American Airways airport manager, went along as an observer and made an unofficial report of his findings.

He said the government planes dropped messages to all communities where life was still observed asking them to report in to the capital immediately as to the extent of casualties and loss in each village.

He saw evidences that whole towns had been destroyed by landslides started down volcanoes as the result of the rains.

In the Lemay river he saw the funnels of river boat sticking out of the water and bodies floating around it.

The coast from La Libertad to La Union was worse hit and the villages there virtually destroyed.

The present of the republic has issued a decree that prices on foodstuffs must remain the same as before the disaster.

He abolished all import duties on wheat, rice, and other cereals for the next three months in order that the people of El Salvador may be fed at as low a cost as possible.

Contractor In City to Start Laying Caliche

Placing of caliche on the Pampa-LeFors road is expected to begin late this week. Engineer Warren Fox said that the road will be ready for a successful bidder at the letting of the contract June 2, arrived in Pampa yesterday.

Work will start on the south end of the project first. Mr. Spear said asking them to arrive in McLean today and will be unloaded and taken to the starting point immediately. Equipment for work on the Pampa end of the project has to come a longer route and will not be received until late this week.

All work will be started immediately so that plenty of caliche will be available when hauling starts. Bill Dee of Pampa will supervise the work on the McLean end of the job. W. O. Groene will have charge of the Pampa section.

Mrs. Spear said he expected to start work from Pampa early next week and that he did not anticipate any delay before completion of the job.

Iowa Farmers Prayed for Rain—And Got a Flood

Prayers of Iowa farmers for rain were answered a hundredfold when the heavens gushed and damaging floods swept the state, parched by months of drouth.

Here is a remarkable picture of the toll taken by the deluge, the wreck of a train caused by wash-out of tracks near Council Bluffs, Ia., when Henry creek became a raging torrent overnight. With cars spilled from the rails and flood debris littering the tracks, workmen are toiling to reopen the way for trains.

Tugwell Is 'Dirt Farmer'

Lists Qualifications And Defends AAA in Hearing Before Senate Group.

WASHINGTON, June 11. (AP)—Experience as a "dirt farmer" was listed today by Rexford G. Tugwell as among his qualifications for the post of undersecretary of agriculture.

He also defended administration efforts to have congress strengthen the agricultural adjustment act. Dissension in the committee and disorder in the room accompanied his statements.

He testified to the senate agriculture committee, holding a hearing on whether to approve his advancement from assistant secretary of agriculture.

"The member of the Roosevelt 'brain trust' who formerly taught economics at Columbia university, also said he believed in the American constitution but regarded it as 'flexible enough to do what we believe necessary to meet exigencies of the situation in the last few years.'

This hearing was the principal object of attention on capital hill in the senate sought a final vote on the house-approved bill to make silver 25 per cent of the nation's metallic monetary stock.

Senators Smith and Byrd, South Carolina and Virginia democrats who have objected to the promotion, led by the questioning. On hand was the biggest crowd at any senate hearing of the year, largely composed of women.

Citing the controversial bill to amend the farm act, Byrd said Tugwell had misled the committee by saying they were merely "clarifying."

One of the amendments, he declared, would let the department say how many chickens could be raised. He asked if that were not an "enormous increase" in present A. A. A. powers.

Tugwell said he looked up the word "clarifying" and it meant to "make clear and free from obscurity."

"That is what the amendments are intended to do," he asserted.

The auction will start at 1:30 o'clock at the townsite, which is just across the line in Central Wheeler county.

MADDENED KNIFE WIELDER STABS THREE WOMEN, 2 MEN TO DEATH

SUSANVILLE, Calif., June 11. (AP)—Victims of a maddened knife wielder, three women and two men, were attacked and stabbed to death here during the night, Sheriff James Leavitt said today.

The victims were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sazio and their 20-year-old daughter, Maria; Mrs. Lena Amistani and Sazio's son, John.

Sheriff Leavitt said a suspect, gave him name as Peter Dalos, 45, a lumber mill worker, had been taken into custody and was being questioned.

Sazio, his wife and daughter were attacked in their home by the slayer, who stabbed them to death and then disemboweled Sazio, Leavitt said.

The man and two women fought with the attacker, whose knife slashed them to death, making a shambles of their little home, Leavitt said.

After ascertaining all three persons were dead, the killer fled down a nearby road.

Encountering Sazio's son, John, and Mrs. Amistani about three-eighths of a mile from Sazio's home, Leavitt said, the slayer began striking at them viciously.

The younger Sazio attempted to fight off the maddened killer but fell beneath a rain of knife slashes.

Then the killer turned upon Mrs. Amistani and cut her down, inflicting 15 knife wounds.

Lipscomb County Men Badly Hurt

A. M. Winsett, brother-in-law of Judge W. R. Ewing, and Ben Roberts, sheriff of Lipscomb county, are in a critical condition in Higgins hospital as a result of injuries received yesterday in an automobile accident. Cleve Hughes and Bill Holmes, also of Higgins, received minor injuries.

The four men were returning to Higgins about noon yesterday when a front tire blew out, hurling the car into a ditch. The car turned over several times, pinning the men under the wreckage.

Judge and Mrs. Ewing drove to Higgins yesterday afternoon. This morning Judge Ewing learned that the condition of Mr. Winsett and Sheriff Roberts showed little change. Physicians from Amarillo were called into consultation with Higgins doctors.

Injuries received when she fell from the running board of an automobile early yesterday morning proved fatal to Mrs. T. P. Rider, 25, of 603 East Browning avenue, who died in a local hospital at 11:45 o'clock yesterday morning.

Mrs. Rider was standing on the running board of a car which was pushing over a hill. Her car fell from the running board as the car turned from the Berger road to Francis avenue, striking her head on the pavement. She was rushed to a local hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Rider had been residents of Pampa for five months. Mr. Rider is employed by the Wilcox Oil & Gas company.

Surviving Mrs. Rider are her husband and one daughter, Billie Ruth, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Stringfield of Jacksonville, two sisters, Juanita, and five brothers—Clyde Fonder, J. D. and Leg, all of Jacksonville, and T. F. Astador.

Funeral services were to be conducted at 2 o'clock this afternoon in the chapel of the Stephenson Mortuary with the Rev. A. A. Hyde, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiating. Burial was to follow in Fairview cemetery.

CRASH BURNS PARTY BEYOND RECOGNITION

CRAFT IS SIGHTED IN CATSKILL AREA OF NEW YORK

LIVINGSTON, MANOR, N. Y., June 11. (AP)—W. H. (Ted) Halleck, aviator who discovered from the air the wrecked Newark-Chicago air liner in the forests near here today, made his way to the scene on foot, and later reported that all the bodies of the seven occupants, with one exception, was burned beyond recognition.

NEWARK, N. J., June 11. (AP)—The American Airlines plane, missing with seven occupants since Saturday night, was reported sighted this afternoon near Livingston Manor, N. Y.

Planes sent out by the Airline to check reports made by a private flyer reported back here by radio.

Earl Ward, general superintendent of all the line, said pilots in the ships had radioed that the plane, partly burned, was buried in the underbrush in the side of a mountain near the New York village.

A large number of the group of 22 ships the line had out on the search since early this morning were ordered into the Livingston Manor area after a pilot named Halleck reported to Ward that he had seen the plane, which had been unreported since Saturday evening as it passed over Newark, N. Y., on its flight to Buffalo and Chicago.

Theodore Schmidt, division manager here, told reporters the plane had not yet been reached by ground searching parties but that the description as radioed to New York left "no doubt" that it was the lost 15-passenger twin-motored Curtiss.

The wreckage on the ground, according to Schmidt, showed the same number of motors and the same shaped fuselage.

The report also said that the four passengers, pilot, co-pilot and stewardess were inside the plane and had been killed.

JUNIN, Argentina, June 11. (AP)—Three persons were killed today when a Pan-American-Crane Airways plane crashed in Mar Chiquita, a small lake 2000 miles west of Buenos Aires. The pilot of the plane, which carried six passengers and a crew of four, was Charles F. Lindenberg of Los Angeles, Calif., married.

WE MIGHT BE HONEST WITH OUR YOUTH

The commencement speaker is abroad in the land again these days, and if his task is a little easier this year than it has been for some time, it is still the kind of job that might make a strong man quail.

In the old days it was fairly simple. The speaker had only to get up and begin telling the youngsters about the innumerable opportunities that were ahead of them, and how hard work and honesty would bring their inevitable reward.

Then, when he saw the younger members of the class getting restless, he could shut it off and sit down, contented.

But of late years it has been different.

Opportunities for young graduates have been anything but innumerable during the last three or four years. There are plenty of young men in America today who got their diplomas four years ago who haven't been able to get jobs since then—although many of them needed jobs very badly, since their fathers were out of work.

Nor have hard work and honesty carried their usual premiums. It's all very well to talk about them, but when a depression forces your employer out of business and your job dissolves beneath you, you're left holding the sack just as if you had been a time-server and a con- niver.

Of course, things are better now. There is reason to hope that they will be even better a year from now. But the commencement speaker is still on the spot.

Perhaps his best course would simply be to go honest and say something like this: "I have a lot of crust, addressing you youngsters, because you can't help seeing that my generation just doesn't know how to run the country decently.

"Some of you will find jobs, if you're lucky; the rest will sit around the house and wonder what it's all about. I don't mind telling you that I've been wondering the same thing for years.

"While you're wondering, you might stop to think that this country is able to raise so much food that everybody could have all he wants to eat. It's able to make enough clothing for everybody, enough shoes, enough vacuum cleaners, enough automobiles, enough houses, enough of everything you can think of.

"There isn't really much excuse for us to have unemployment and poverty and want, except our own stupidity.

"If you youngsters can figure out a way to get the wheels turning full speed, the country will be very grateful to you—if it doesn't put you in jail. At any rate, I wish you lots of luck."

Maine Election Is Watched By Major Parties

PORTLAND, Me., June 11 (AP)—Maine holds an election next week and political observers of both parties have a weather eye open for signs bearing on the national picture.

Party nominees for governor, United States senator, three representatives in congress and legislative and county positions will be chosen in primaries a week from today.

The candidate list totals nearly 1,000.

The principal interest has centered on the total vote a militant democratic party may poll and the efforts of the republicans to emerge with a formidable ticket.

Governor Louis J. Brain, democrat, is unopposed for re-election. Four republicans—Alfred K. Ames, Frank W. Carlton, B. W. Page, and Donald F. Partridge—seek the right to oppose Governor Brain in the general election.

Senator Frederick Hale, republican, completing his third term, is opposed in his own party by Louis A. Jack of Lisbon, who has campaigned as a champion of the "working man." Democratic aspirants for the senatorial nomination are Paul C. Thurston of Bethel, F. Harold Hubbard, national committeeman, and Clinton C. Stevens of Bangor.

HEROES ARE MADE—NOT BORN

FORMER KAISER CALLS LEAGUE 'TALKING CIRCUS AT GENEVA'

Associated Press Foreign Staff. LONDON, June 11 (AP)—From his comfortable seclusion at Doorn, Kaiser Wilhelm has bestowed his blessing upon the Hitler regime.

In an interview in the London Daily mail he is quoted as hitting at the belief that Hitler's work may be "crowned" by the restoration of the Hohenzollern monarchy.

Although the former ruler, now 75, did not disclose whether he was looking for reinstatement himself, he was quoted as saying: "The German people have turned me out. If they want me back they will have to come and fetch me."

The interview was obtained by Randolph Churchill, son of Winston Churchill, former British chancellor of the exchequer.

Wilhelm indicated he has his eye on the eventual restoration of the monarchy through some member of his family.

Young Churchill, whose father knew the kaiser personally before the World war, said he found his host gay, mentally alert, gracious and amiable.

"Hitler has done marvelous work in putting new life and soul into the German nation," the former kaiser was quoted. "If ever they felt it right that his endeavors should be crowned by a return to a constitutional monarchy, I am sure that my family would not fall in their duty."

Wilhelm, his interviewer said, expressed contempt of "the talking circus at Geneva" and said the League of Nations "does nothing but bring international cooperation in to ridicule."

SALARIES OF EMPLOYEES WILL BE CUT IN RELIEF OFFICES

AUSTIN, June 11.—Relief administration costs have again been marked for reduction throughout the state. It was learned today from Director Marie Dresden of the Texas Relief Commission.

An immediate saving of $3,500 monthly in state relief expenses is to be accomplished through a new "classification of position" system going into effect immediately.

Employees of the relief commission will receive wage reductions under the new system excepting those now receiving minimum wages under the law.

Pay reductions, initiated in the interest of administrative economy, will be based on an appropriate wage scale, arrived at out of consideration of the duties performed by employees, thus bringing all employees doing the same kind of work into the same classification.

Plans for insulating the system were discussed recently in New Orleans and in Kansas City where federal relief representatives conferred to discuss administrative problems touching six southern states.

These representatives considered the feasibility of putting this "position plan" into effect elsewhere to insure a uniform system of employee pay-rating and duty classification.

All persons in the state relief service performing the same duties will be placed under the same work classification and receive the same pay.

Under the new set-up the administration will establish a set of scale of service values, which will eliminate promotion except on basis of merit.

The establishment of the rate of pay for each separate classification of work will be determined from the minimum wage code requirement prevailing for that class of work.

The new program will be effective in two weeks in counties and today in the central office.

Each relief employee in Texas has filled out forms containing personal history, the employee's ideas concerning scope of his duties and his supervisor's check-up, thus assuring accuracy in determining the actual field covered by each employee and per cent of time spent on each task during an average day. This information will enable the administration to properly classify each employee according to types of duties actually performed in the regular course of his work.

The state is to be divided into areas. These are designated according to population and relief load. The relief load of the county is the number on relief rolls in relation to the population census of the county. The division of the counties into these areas will make possible the comparison of like situations. Group classifications of positions then can be obtained.

The system embraces a model organization chart which will be used in county administrative offices. On this chart will be mapped the definitions of duties of each employee. The necessary duties of each position will be clearly outlined under each work classification.

The only exception to be made to the system will be where the county has certain exceptional conditions prompting the state administration to modify the plan in that area.

This program will ultimately save the state approximately $65,000 each month.

Other savings instituted during the first 60 days of Director Dresden's administration are $35,000 monthly through adoption of a stringent purchasing policy and $180,000 monthly by reduction and elimination of unnecessary personnel throughout Texas, making a total saving of $275,000 monthly.

GRID STAR INJURED
SEATTLE, Wash., June 11.—(AP)—Jay Hornbeak of Corsicana, Texas, University of Washington varsity football quarterback last fall, and Miss Lorena Moran, a co-ed, received severe cuts and bruises yesterday when a car driven by Miss Moran crashed into a telephone pole. Hornbeak received a deep head laceration, requiring a number of stitches to close.

NEW YORK CITY SELLS 8-CENT MILK TO POOR

Declares Emergency Goes Into Milk Business

NEW YORK, June 11.—(AP)—The City of New York, declaring that malnutrition of many of its people is an emergency and a menace to public health, went into the milk business today.

Ten thousand quarts of grade B milk were put on sale at 53 baby health stations at eight cents a quart, five cents under the regular price. The daily quantity will be increased as rapidly as arrangements can be made to get more milk.

The board of health, in taking this action, announced: "The purchasing power of a very large number of persons in this city has been reduced to a point where the inability to purchase milk at prevailing prices has led to malnutrition of adults as well as of infants and school children, which malnutrition is a menace to the public health of this city."

The board, therefore, declared an emergency to exist, and said that it "deems it necessary and proper for the preservation of life and health in the City of New York to provide for the distribution of milk in said city to such persons."

Each purchaser was held to two quarts, due to the small quantity available, and the board requested that only persons actually in need should apply for milk at the eight-cent price.

CHURCHES

REVIVAL CONTINUING
Four new members were added to the Central Baptist church Sunday in the evangelistic services being conducted by the Rev. Mr. Johnson and his party. The day's meetings closed with men, women, and children humbly bowed on their knees asking God to shake Pampa with a great revival of the religion for His glory.

Services will be held twice daily this week in the large auditorium of the church. They will open at 10 a. m. and 8 p. m., except today when no day meetings will be held. In addition to these regular services, special prayer meetings will be conducted. The evangelist will speak at 8 p. m. today on the theme, "What is the Unpardonable Sin?" The public is invited.

MCCRAW TELLS OF PLATFORM IN VISIT HERE

DALLAS MAN IN RACE FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL

With a five-point program for effective regulation of public utilities, careful stewardship of the permanent school fund, iron-clad safeguards for banking and insurance and general enforcement and administration of the law, William McCraw of Dallas, county brought his candidacy for the attorney general ship to Pampa this morning.

"This is a year for Texans to vote for instead of 'against' men for public office," McCraw told Pampa citizens. "Mine is a constructive campaign, acknowledging ability and integrity as the sole issues."

McCraw has been waging an aggressive campaign since last February. He spoke at Borger Saturday night, will make a radio address from station WDAG at Amarillo from 8:15 to 8:30 o'clock tonight, and will carry his campaign on to Lubbock, Plainview, and El Paso this week.

Big and red-headed, the 38-year-old candidate was three times president of the County and District Attorneys' association of Texas, and served three terms as district attorney of Dallas county. As president of the attorneys' association, he recommended an act still fighting for reforms in the criminal code and court procedure to make justice more certain and less costly to the taxpayers. As district attorney, he gained national renown as a colorful, fighting prosecutor who broke up a rampant crime wave.

He was equally successful in his civil court duties while district attorney. He defended the county in several hundred right-of-way damage suits growing out of a big road building program, and won every case. He sued Eastern distributors and succeeded in adding millions of dollars in taxable values to the state and county rolls on merchandise held in warehouses and terminals previously escaping taxation. And when an independent audit of Dallas county fee officials revealed several officials had illegally retained fees, he sued and recovered for the county treasury more than $100,000.

"In the prime of life, I look forward to the attorney generalship as a man-sized job in which to make good, and not as a soft berth for a political trader," McCraw said. "I am confident of meeting the tremendous responsibilities of the office with energy and ability."

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, June 11. (AP)—Lower prices ruled in the stock market today, although the activity dwindled appreciably on the declining trend. With the steel strike problem still unsettled and legislative developments indefinite, some traders were disposed to take profits.

The close was a bit heavy. Transfers approximated 750,000 shares.

In the OIL FIELDS

By GEORGE L. GUTHRIE Consulting Geologist, Combs-Worley Bldg.

Several drilling wells were shut down temporarily and only one new location was filed during the week-end. This is no indication of decreased activity however, but is just a lull after the completions of last week.

The new location is the Piney Oil and Gas company's number B-1, in section 43, block 24, 230 feet from the south line and 330 feet from the west line of the northwest quarter, Wheeler county.

Statistics by the Bureau of Mines at Washington show an increase of 8 per cent over the month of April 1933 in the demand for gasoline. There was also a decrease in the stocks of gasoline of 583,000 barrels over the month previous.

The French government in anticipation of oil from Iraq, in which it has an interest, has increased its duties on foreign petroleum to such an extent that it is almost impossible to import oil into that country on a profitable basis.

The new federal tax of one-tenth of a cent barrel, which went into effect June 9, will serve as an effective means of checking against illegal oil in the East Texas field, according to L. R. Glavis, director of the division of investigation of the Department of the Interior.

Rules on Issuing Blue Eagles Are Received Here

Conditions which regulate the issuance of Blue Eagles in the petroleum industry have been outlined by the regional planning and coordination committee at Fort Worth to E. J. Dunigan, Jr., chairman of the enforcement committee of the petroleum code in the Panhandle district.

In an effort to improve the conditions as to compliance with the petroleum code, the administration now requires that the Blue Eagle may be had only upon written application to the proper authority, and that each Blue Eagle bear a registration number, record of which is to be kept in the office of issuance.

The new Eagles are the property of the United States government and may be retained by the user only so long as he complies with the provisions of the code.

A supply of the new Blue Eagles is now available in this office for instance, and will be distributed to members of the production division of the petroleum industry in Texas who make proper application therefor.

NEW PRICES CHANGE THE PICTURE IF YOU READ THE PAPERS last week you probably saw that Plymouth had substantially reduced its prices. Unless you are in the automobile business you probably don't realize just what this means. It means the prices of "all three" are now so close you can well afford to dismiss that factor from your mind. What you should think about today is WHAT YOU GET FOR YOUR MONEY. For instance, take this question of SAFETY. Surely nothing is more important than the protection of your family. When you put your foot on the brakes you want your car to stop RIGHT IN ITS TRACKS. When emergencies happen you don't want to depend on ordinary brakes that often make your car skid and swerve dangerously. With Hydraulic Brakes you can jam the pedal down to the floor and STOP DEAD. The marks on the pavement will track straight ahead. Even if Plymouth COST MORE it would be worth it just for this one feature alone. But add to this the security of a Safety-Steel Body... the comfort of Floating Power engine mountings... the smoother ride of Individual Front Wheel Springing... and remember you get these features in Plymouth without spending one extra red cent. JET BRUMLEY DEFEATS PERKINS; GRAHAM LOSSES TO WEIR

Playing great golf to open the City golf tournament, members of the championship flight turned in two scores under par, one par score, and a stroke over the regulation number yesterday in winning matches. Other flights saw close matches and several upsets.

Grover Austin, former caddy, turned in a 69 to defeat the veteran Ben Ferris 3 to 2. Dale Lott, who will meet Austin in the second round, also shot a 69 to defeat Floyd Gehr, 3 and 2. Buck Talley, another former caddy, shot a 71 to win from Doc Croston 2 and 1. Bus Kaufman, defending city champion, turned in a score of 72 in defeating C. B. Stewart 2 and 1.

MISSIONS ARE LEADING TEXAS LEAGUE AGAIN

1933 CHAMPIONS BEAT DALLAS IN ONE BIG INNING, 9-5

By BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The San Antonio Missions, last year's champions, are again leading the Texas league pennant race. They jumped into first place yesterday by defeating Dallas, 9 to 5. The defeat knocked Dallas out of the league pinacle.

The Missions went to the front of the class by virtue of one big inning when they hammered half a dozen hits for as many runs in the second frame of Eam Vangilder, a veteran right-hander. Wilse pitched a rather erratic eleven-hit game for San Antonio but the second inning saved him from defeat.

Pitcher "Peaches" Davis pitched a great ball game to give Fort Worth a 6 to 5 victory over Galveston. Davis limited Galveston to a pair of hits until the ninth when the Buccaneers got to him for four runs but the tally was cut one run short of what the Cats had. Five hits produced the Galveston rally and when the situation appeared exceedingly dark for pitcher Davis, Ruddy York, playing right field, came up with a line drive off his shoestrings to double Jack Maloy off second to end the rampage.

Oklahoma City opened a series against Beaumont by taking a twin bill, 6 to 1, and 4 to 3. Johnson's home run and three-bagger led the Indians battling attack in the initial contest. Shaef was right on the mound with a five-hit game against the Exporters. In the second melee, the Indians trailed until the last inning when they opened with a bombardment of timely hits that netted four runs.

Walter Euler, former Tulsa stopper, had a field day to win Houston in a double victory over Tulsa, 6 to 5, and 6 to 3. Euler hit four home runs. Three of them were clouted in the first three times at bat in the first game and accounted for five Houston tallies.

Roy Marshall beat C. T. Hunkapillar, 6-5.
Eusie Turner lost to Johnny Corrigan, 4-3.

ROADRUNNERS TAKE SECOND WILCOX GAME

THREE ERRORS MARKED UP AGAINST EACH CLUB

A barrage of hits in the last four innings turned a pitcher's battle into a slugfest match yesterday afternoon at Roadrunner park as the Pampa team took the second consecutive game from the Wilcox Oilers of Oklahoma City, 19 to 11.

Fritz Stegman allowed only three scattered hits to hold the Oilers to one run in the first five innings. Harold Nance allowed four hits and three runs in the fifth. Both hurlers needed relief badly in the sixth, seventh, and eighth innings but they were left on the mound to finish the game. The heat was intense and the hurlers tired badly.

For the first time this season, Stegman got by without a run being scored against him in the first inning. He pitched invincible ball for five innings and had a four-run lead, twice coming within a run of pecked away at the Roadrunner lead, twice coming within a run of tying the score.

Ray Ater's big bat again led the Roadrunner attack but his defensive play was marred by three errors. 'HITLESS' GIANTS TURN INTO HIGH POWERED SLUGGING CREW

Mel Ott Knocks 5th Home Run in 4 Days to Tie With Yankees' Gehrig.

By HUGH S. FULLERTON Jr., Associated Press Sports Writer.

In the latest spurt to the head of the National league, standing the New York Giants, "hitleless" champions of 1933, have turned into a bunch of high-powered sluggers. In the course of winning 12 out of 15 games, the Giants have touched the ten-hit mark nine times, reaching a climax yesterday when they battered the Phillies for 20 blows and an 18 to 7 victory.

The biggest blow of the slugfest was Mel Ott's fifth home run in four days and his fifteenth of the season. It gave him a tie with Lou Gehrig of the Yankees and Zerk Bonura of the White Sox for the major league lead. The Giants suffered one setback for Southpaw Carl Hubbell was forced out in the fifth when he hurt his hand trying to field Al Todd's hit and may be absent a week or more.

The victory didn't increase the Giants' lead as the second-place Cardinals came through with a 3 to 2 triumph over Pittsburgh with the aid of Jim Collins, thirteenth homer and Dizzy Dean's steady pitching. The Cubs, in the third, came back to beat Cincinnati 7 to 4 after dropping two straight to the tail-enders.

Brooklyn's "daffiness boys" lived up to their reputation in the fourth National league game by dropping a 10-8 decision to the Braves with two errors in the eleventh inning after they had overcome a five-run deficit to tie the score.

The American league leaders tightened up their race again when Detroit's pace-setting Tigers ran into a 3-1 setback at Chicago's hands despite Schoolboy Rowe's 6-hit pitching and the second-place Yankees smashed out a 7 to 3 decision over the Athletics. Lou Gehrig started the Yankees off by smashing homer No. 15 with the bases loaded in the first inning.

Bostons' new brother battery of Wes and Rick Ferrell turned in its first full game with Wesley doing most of the work in a 4 to 3 triumph over Washington. He granted only eight hits and drove in the winning run in the ninth by hitting a long fly with the sacks crowded. The Sox again moved into a fifth place tie with the losers.

CYCLONE WILL GRAPPLE SHEIK THIS EVENING

DAN CARVER TO FACE LOU KODRICK IN SEMI-FINAL

According to Cyclone Mackey, Amarillo wrestler, a cyclone is scheduled to blow in Pampa tonight that will make Sheik Ben Ali Marallah think he's back in Arabia. Mackey and the sheik will meet in the main event wrestling match at the Pla-Mar auditorium tonight.

Supporting the wild main event will be a match between Dan Carver, little El Paso favorite, and Lou Kodrick, stocky Englishman, which should show plenty of wrestling and lots of science. The two weights have appeared on the Pampa mat, but never before together.

Two giants will open the big card. Claude Halley, carbon black worker, and Bob Rodgers, rig builder, will be the grunt and groin artists first on the mat. They will be settling a difference that has been in the air for some time.

Mackey made himself a favorite with Pampa fans in two semi-final matches here. He stuck to straight wrestling on his two previous appearances but it is doubtful if he can continue this style of grappling against the wild Marallah. He will have the permission of Pampa fans to meet the sheik at his own game.

The Amarillo middleweight went to a draw with Rod Fentori in Amarillo last week to prove that he is ready for the main event in the elimination tournament. Marallah, according to a few stray remarks, doesn't consider Mackey dangerous.

'SICK MAN OF LINKS' TAKES $25,000 PRIZE

CALIFORNIAN DID NOT GET 'JITTERS' ON LAST 9 HOLES

By ALAN GOULD,
Associated Press Sports Writer.

NEW YORK, June 11 (AP)—Only two years after making his first big challenge for America's premier golf honors, the United States, the clouting Californian, holds the open golf championship of the United States, which, with the conspicuous upturn in today's sportin' business, may well be worth $25,000 to him before he is crowned.

Dutra came east in 1932 with a great record, hailed as a coming champion. Simultaneously, stocky Gene Sarazen came back from England with the British open crown. Twin favorites in the United States open that year at Fresh Meadow, Dutra paced the field for one round, but Sarazen came from behind with a glorious finishing 66, on the last 18 holes, and won the tournament with the record-equaling score of 286.

Saturday, over the magnificent East course of the Merion Cricket club, which completely jolted the over-confidence of the professional leaders, the tables were abruptly turned.

Starting the last round of the 12-hole battle, Sarazen was out in front, worrying not about Dutra, but about a pair of veterans ahead of him, Bobby Cruickshank and Wifry Cox.

While this trio staggered and blundered down the stretch, the swarthy California Spaniard came galloping from behind to pass all three and snatch the victor's gold and glory. This time Sarazen was the runner-up, by a single stroke.

Dutra, the "sick man of the links," may have had his handicaps, but he didn't get the "jitters" when it came to the last nine-hole stretch with the outcome of the championship hanging on every spot. Despite three putting each of the last two greens after he had taken the decisive lead, Dutra covered the treacherous last nine of Merion in even par, 36, while Sarazen and Harry Cooper took 36 each, Cox 37, and Cruickshank 39. These figures tell the story of how it happened.

The final totals were Dutra 289, Sarazen 294, Cooper, Cruickshank, and Cox 295 each. It was the closest and most exciting finish since big Ted Ray of England won by a stroke at Inverness in 1926, with four rivals tied for second place. Two other veterans, MacDonald Smith of Nashville and Bill Burke of Cleveland, were in another tie for sixth place at 298.

NRA, STORMY INFANT, CLAIMS SUCCESS AS BIRTHDAY NEARS

CERTAIN GOALS ARE ATTAINED IN LAST YEAR

VAST UNDERTAKING IS CRACKING UP, SAY OPPONENTS

By JAMES COPE
WASHINGTON, June 11 (AP)—NRA, that amazing offspring of hard times, attains its first birthday next Saturday.

Born in economic gloom, mothered by enthusiasm, the infant has drawn the attention of the whole world. Observers everywhere are trying to assess its accomplishments. Its future.

As Hugh S. Johnson himself predicted, NRA, in these later days, has stood amid a strange shower of bouquets and dead cats.

But as Johnson bids his pioneer NRA workers and high officials to a jubilee party next Friday night, the hard-hitting general is confident. Brushing aside the shafts of critics, some of whom say the vast undertaking is cracking up.

NRA's friends contend it has laid a firm groundwork of industrial organization.

Since President Roosevelt put his signature to the Industrial Recovery Act of June 16, 1933, it has affected more millions of people than any new deal legislation except laws dealing with money and banks.

Final victory is not claimed for the daring experiment. NRA proudly declares, though, that it has gone a long way toward its goal of government-business partnership.

The objectives were:

To substitute ordered competition for catch-as-catch-can warfare;

To make more jobs by limiting hours of work, and by wiping out child labor;

To guarantee all workers the right to organize without interference by negotiable better working terms;

In the year there have been ups and downs, progress and stalemate, popular fervor and some reaction, but the birthday finds certain definite things achieved:

1. The bulk of the industry is operating under voluntary codes. Many observers say compliance is spotty and in places bad. The codes are in a constant process of revision and correction.

2. Payrolls are up sharply. There is controversy as to how much of the new purchasing power has been offset by higher prices, due to codes or other causes.

There is fairly general agreement that private industry has employed three million more men. Though some critics contend NRA cannot claim the credit, others say there is unconvertible evidence in many industries of huge increases caused by codes alone.

4. Child labor has been placed under a ban in all legitimate, codified manufacturing and sharply limited in trade.

5. There have been increases in trade union membership. The grant of freedom for collective bargaining in the famed section 7A has, however, been a center of swirling controversy.

The latter problem appears among the most difficult faced by the recovery administration. Others are securing full compliance with the codes and seeing that industries or groups within them do not abuse them for selfish benefit.

In the immediate future NRA is seeking to consolidate what has been done, to concentrate on making code operation as near perfect as may be.

Murder at MOCKING HOUSE

BY WALTER C. BROWN

SYNOPSIS: Sergeant Harper is not much closer to finding the murderer of a policeman and a stranger in Pierre Dufresne's house than at the beginning, although he has assembled a great deal of evidence. But he has at least determined that the man who wrote a series of threatening letters to Dufresne wrote them on paper he found in a wastebasket in Dufresne's basement. Now to find the writer.

Chapter 39 PUMPING WHITMORE

The sergeant's meditations were interrupted by the return of John Whitmore with the spoils of his tour through the house. The booty was entirely devoid of interest except for the six or seven slips from Mrs. Dufresne's past. Harper deftly rescued three, pretending to poke through the rest of the papers, then sent Whitmore to dispose of the trash, telling him to return afterwards.

While he was gone Harper ran through this latest collection of slips, evidently covering the recent visit of Dr. Ulrich. But once again the almost monosyllabic brevity of the penciled notes defied reconstruction. The lady was either distraught or wary.

Whitmore returned to the breakfast-room with the sleek air of a successful conspirator. The detective realized that in this placid-minded handy man not the household had his best chance to get some genuine "inside" information. The detective rose and locked the door with a theatrical flourish. "I don't want any interruptions for a while," he explained, as he returned to his chair. "Sit down, John, and make yourself comfortable. What do you say to a friendly little chat?"

Whitmore hitched his chair a bit closer. "Yes, sir. Anything I can do—"

"Oh, before we talk," Harper interrupted, "there's a little test I want to make." He then explained about the hand-lettered warnings and put Whitmore through the same paces with the dictated notes, first leisurely, then rapidly.

"Just as I expected, no similarity at all," Harper announced heartily, putting the sheets aside. "Now that's out of the way, we can relax." He drew out his pipe and tobacco pouch. "Do you smoke, John?"

"Whereupon John produced a curved briar pipe even more scarred from use than Harper's own and accepted a filling from the detective's pouch.

For a few moments they puffed away in silence. "This is good tobacco, sir," Whitmore commented, nodding his head sagely.

Harper smiled. "I have the mixture made up specially for me," he explained. "I smoke a lot and it's worth the difference in price. There's nothing like a pipeful of good tobacco when you've got a bit of thinking to do."

John nodded agreement. "I guess this business has given you plenty of that, sir. It's a queer one, all right."

"As queer as any I've ever handled," said Harper, gazing thoughtfully into the circular view of the room projected on the Girandoie mirror over the buffet.

"Two murders in one night—right here in this room," Whitmore almost whispered. "It doesn't seem real."

"It was real enough for the poor devils who were killed. You knew Officer Hamill, didn't you, John?" "Yes, I knew him. Talked to him lots of times last summer. A nice, pleasant fellow."

"He was a fine man and a good policeman. Everybody liked him, John, from his Captain down. He leaves a wife and children and it's going to be hard on them. The other fellow may have been a crook, or a blackmailer, or a gunman, and the world's better off without him, as Mr. Dufresne says, but the family of a man like Hamill has to pay the price for it."

Whitmore nodded in sympathy. "I've heard what they have to say about the murder upstairs," Harper went on, "and that's very little to go on. What I have been wondering, John, is what the staff thinks about it?"

"They're not saying very much and that's a fact," Whitmore answered, and chuckled. "Between you and me, sir, you've got 'em all suspicious of each other. They're going around watching each other out of the tail of their eyes."

"Have there been any arguments or bad feeling lately?" "Nothing to speak of, Sergeant. We all get along together pretty well, better than in most places. Of course, once in a while old Andrews gives Joe a raking over the coals, but that's only when Joe has been too flip with his tongue. Joe's young and hot-headed, not as well broken to the harness as the rest of us."

"Joe—you mean Donaghy, the chauffeur?" "Yes, he gets a bit beyond himself at times, talking up all kinds of wild ideas about capital and labor, and plutocracy, and that sort of stuff. Joe has it in for the rich, all right," Whitmore snickered.

Held in Robles Kidnaping Hunt

After noting that Thursday, June 14, is Flag Day, the Pampa American Legion Auxiliary asked the NEWS to print the following regulations and suggestions:

When you see a nation's flag, do you just see only a flag, or do you see the nation itself? When you see Old Glory, do you just see the stars and stripes or do you see our nation, proud in its origin and history? No other banner has carried such hope, such grandeur of spirit, such soul inspiring patriotism as the American flag. It was made by liberty, made for liberty, nourished in its spirit, and carried in its service, and has never once in all history stooped to despotism.

"The American flag is the third oldest of all the national standards of the world, being authorized by congress June 14, 1777, and this date (June 14) has since been observed as flag day in America. The first idea was that there should be a star and a stripe for each state in the union, but as states were added it was soon evident that there would be too many stripes, so congress in 1818 decreed there should be only thirteen stripes, representing the thirteen original states, and that a star should be added for each new state.

A careful study should be made by every American citizen on the story of our flag and how it should be properly displayed. These rules are easily learned and one is surprised after studying them to know how easy it is to detect any improper display. It is an interesting study and awakens further respect and patriotism.

Rules for Flag Day Provided by Auxiliary Here

1. Do not permit disrespect to be shown to the flag of the United States.

2. Do not dip the flag of the U. S. to any person or thing. The regimental color, state flag, organization or institutional flag will render this honor.

4. Do not place any other flag or pennant above or to the right of the flag of the U. S.

5. Do not let the flag of the U. S. touch the ground or trail in water.

6. Do not place any object or emblem of any kind on or above the flag of the U. S.

7. Do not use the flag as drapery in any form whatsoever. Use bunting of red, white, and blue.

8. Do not fasten the flag in such manner as will permit it to be easily torn.

9. Do not drape the flag over the hood, top, sides or back of a vehicle, or a railroad train or boat. When the flag is displayed on a motor car the staff should be affixed firmly to the chassis or clamped to the radiator cap.

10. Do not display the flag on a float in a parade except from a staff.

11. Do not use the flag as a covering for a ceiling.

12. Do not use the flag as a portion of a costume or of an athletic uniform.

13. Do not put lettering of any kind upon the flag.

14. Do not use the flag in any form of advertising, nor faster an advertising sign to a pole from from which the flag of the U. S. is flying.

15. Do not display, use or store the flag in such a manner as will permit it to be easily damaged.

Let's see that June 14 is observed in a big way.

Your flag and my flag! And oh, how much it holds Your land and my land Secure within its folds! Your heart and my heart Beats quicker at the sight; Sun kissed and wind tossed, Red and blue and white."

PARACHUTE ALIBI NETS BEAN THIEF ROME (AP)—A parachute prowler is Rome's latest contribution to the fraternity of thieves. He is Eneas Bersaglieri alias Alessandro.

Surprised in a bean patch by a farmer living near the peak of Monte Mario, Bersaglieri calmly began to fold up a parachute which lay wrinkled around.

"Too bad if I've damaged your bean patch," he murmured. "My plane caught fire and I had to jump."

But the farmer had been watching his beans all evening. He had heard no airplane, and turned the marauder over to the carabinieri.

Checking up they found that Bersaglieri had used the alibi afforded by a worn-out parachute on numerous successful occasions.

The Nicest LAXATIVE for Busy People Just as autos have replaced horses, science has developed and proven a new, more thorough and prompt-acting laxative called Feen-a-mint. Feen-a-mint is the delicious chewing gum laxative. It contains a laxative ingredient regularly prescribed by physicians. Feen-a-mint is better than old-fashioned laxatives, because chewing distributes the laxative uniformly into the system, thus insuring a "full" action without shock or irritation to even the delicate digestive organs of children. The prompt, gentle but complete action of Feen-a-mint does not interfere with usual duties. Rid your system of constipation's headaches and sluggishness. "Delay" is dangerous—chew Feen-a-mint for constipation. 15c and 25c at druggists everywhere.

Horse Cannot Be Driven Recklessly Says Judge

CHICAGO, June 11 (AP)—A horse, it appears today, can not be driven recklessly in Chicago.

Into court went Dave Miller to refute charges that he had driven his horse, Nathaniel, in a reckless manner when his wagon sideswiped a parked automobile.

"I pulled," said David, "on the left rein and Nathaniel went to the right. I thought that was funny because Nathaniel always was a sensible horse. Then I yelled 'haw' but he went 'gee' and he hit the auto. Then I discovered it was a frame-up. I had been eating a hamburger near the scene. Some fellow crossed Nathaniel's reins at the bit. When I pulled he went left and vice versa."

"Anyhow," said the court, "case dismissed, you can't drive a horse recklessly with so many automobiles about."

NAZI-LIKE SCARECROWS BANNED BY HITLERITES

MUNICH, Germany (AP)—Wooden scarecrows, carved to represent uniformed Nazi storm troopers, were quickly pounced upon by the authorities, who forbade their sale as "calculated to bring contempt upon the brown shirt legion."

The scarecrows now appear on the latest list of articles forbidden under the law for the protection of national symbols, along with party pins, candlesticks, serviettes, candles, flower pots and countless other objects decorated with Hitler's picture or the swastika emblem.

HAVE GOOD APPETITES ANTWERP (AP)—New government figures state that Belgium annually consumes 185,000 tons of pork, 147,000 tons of beef, 8,000 tons of horse meat and 11,000 tons of sausages.
