House Passes Bill To Develop Region Around Muscle Shoals Property

TWINKLES
Although from one point of view, currency inflation means a salary cut for us on top of all the previous cutting done by old man depression, we think Mr. Roosevelt is taking the shortest cut to better times by controlled inflation.

You can blame some of those republicans for howling — their bosses hold lots of money they don't wish cheapened.

As we understand it, the Japanese fight only when the Chinese fight back, but the Japs make sure of a way by cornering the Chinese every few days.

The West Foster grouch says we're right about rain. In general, but darned inaccurate about moisture for his wheat land north of town. All right, sell that and buy some south of town, say around Jericho.

ENTERING CONTEST

Jim Stroud and Hubert Phillips are two entrants in this column's garden contest for children. Jim is 13 and Hubert is 14. The age limit of the contest is 15 years. Prizes will be awarded next summer after the developed gardens are judged. The entrants should be small so that the entrants can do all the tending.

Another entrant is Betty Lou Archer, 11 1/2. She goes to the Woodrow Wilson school and is in Winston Savage's room. We're going to visit all entrants in a few weeks to note their progress. We'd like to know of your success. There is still some time to enter the contest. Just give us your names and addresses, children, and go ahead with your gardens.

ON PAID WAGES

Assurance that a prevailing wage scale as liberal as possible will be used by the contractor for the building is received with gratification. It is to be hoped that the structure may be built in a manner satisfactory to the contractor and to the workmen alike. Such construction as that soon to be under way here was expedited by several weeks of a work-relief measure. While the total amount of labor involved is far short of the need, that available will be very welcome.

WORK VS. DOLE

President Roosevelt's plans to relieve employment include some kind of relief for about 6,000,000 persons. Obviously, this must be considered as relief and not as work in the ideal sense of having a good wage. Young unmarried men will be given employment for 6 months at $30 per month and board. This is a hired-hand wage and far from the wage of 1929, but many will be glad to get it. The younger, unskilled men will "take" to the work more readily than older men who are skilled in some craft.

DOE LITTLE WORK

It is unfortunate that much federal relief has been dispensed, for lack of adequate work projects, much after the manner of a dole. Two things have been noticeable and to our thinking, regrettable: 1. Opportunity to earn an honest wage with honest work has been hampered by scarcity of work and over-abundance of workers and 2. Federal and state authorities have insisted on remuneration below the prevailing wage. In short, some men have received "something for nothing," which amounts to a dole, while the small amount of money available to each person tends to make some workmen, especially those skilled in some craft, feel that they are making a contribution, rather than receiving one. Gray county's 20 cents an hour is well above the state average of a dollar a day.

BUT GET GROCERIES

RECRUITING OF TREE ARMY IN TEXAS STARTS

SMALL TOWNS ARE TO FURNISH MEN FOR FOREST CAMPS

WILL HIRE 2,675 MEN

RECRUITING STATION IN THIS AREA LOCATED AT AMARILLO

SAN ANTONIO, April 25. (AP).— Recruiting for the tree army, officially the civilian conservation corps, was opened throughout the eighth corps area today.

A total of 2,675 men will be enrolled in Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Colorado and Wyoming by labor department representatives and will be sent to five army posts for preliminary conditioning before being sent to forest camps.

In the second increment of the reforestation force, 441 men will be recruited at designated places in Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Colorado and Wyoming by labor department representatives and will be sent to five army posts for preliminary conditioning before being sent to forest camps.

Recruiting stations at El Paso and Big Spring will enroll 117 Texans for the Fort Bliss camp and New Mexico will send 430 men to Fort Bliss.

Recruiting stations at Dallas, Ft. Worth, Tyler, Paris, Wichita Falls, Lubbock and Amarillo will recruit 342 men for the Fort Sill, Okla., camp and an additional 450 men will be signed up in Oklahoma for the Fort Sill camp.

Colorado will provide 650 recruits for the Fort Logan camp at Denver, and Wyoming will seek 225 for a camp at Fort Warren.

In contrast with the first increment which was drawn from large cities, the orders for the second extend the privilege of joining the conservation corps to small towns throughout the country.

Captain Gwynne Conrad of Austin has been designated as contact officer between the army and labor department in securing the men for the camps.

The Camp Bullis camp, which was designed to handle 2,000 men, has been placed under direction of First Lieut. A. G. Kelly.

Begin Building Work Structure On P. O. Site

Construction of an office building on the new postoffice site was started this morning. Engineers began setting posts for digging of the cellar.

The contract for the job will probably be let within the next few days. That end of the work does not have to be delayed until the arrival of the government supervising architect who is expected in Pampa this week.

The government official and representatives of the Stibbard Construction company will set a scale of wages to be effective throughout construction of the big building. Local organizations will have nothing to do with the setting of the wage scale.

The location at the corner of Ballard and Foster streets looked like a bee-hive this morning as work on the office started. Hundreds of men applied for work, but no contracts have been let and date of construction has not been set. Local labor will be used nearly altogether, and local material will be used wherever possible.

TERM COMMUTED

AUSTIN, April 25. (AP).—Governor Miriam A. Ferguson today commuted to 15 years a sentence of 99 years imprisonment given W. A. Stone in Tarrant county for robbery with fire arms. Stone has served about six years of his term. The offense was alleged in connection with robbery of the Majestic theater in Fort Worth.

SCOUT LEADERS POSTPONE CAMP IN NEW MEXICO

Small Registration Causes Change In Plans

Plans of local Scout leaders and Executive C. A. Clark to attend a regional encampment for three days in the New Mexico mountains southwest of Roswell were abruptly halted when the camp was postponed indefinitely.

Executive Clark, Raymond Harrah, A. G. Post, and Chris B. Martin had planned to attend. A smaller registration for the camp than expected caused the change in plans.

Last night about 40 Scouters enjoyed the weekly lesson in adult leadership. Gilmore N. Nunn talked to the group about his recent trip to New York, during which he visited the national headquarters of Scouting. He told of the efficiency of the huge staff of several hundred persons, all housed on an entire floor of a building in glassed in rooms which are visible to the officials at all times.

L. E. Church gave an instructive talk on map building from a Scouting standpoint.

Swimming Pool Staff Will Be Employed Soon

Decision on the personnel of the municipal swimming pool staff will likely be made next Monday night by the city commission.

The problem of staffing the pool to afford proper regulation and adequate protection was discussed at length by the commission last night. The pool proper will be finished next week, but the beginning of operation will not likely be before May 15. Beautification of the grounds will require three months.

The commission tentatively approved the auditor's report, copies of which will be ready for public inspection soon.

Group Play In Chess Tourney Ends Saturday

Saturday night will be the time limit for completion of all group play in the Pampa Daily NEWS chess tournament.

Most of the group play has been completed. Players are requested to see their group captains and arrange for completion of their schedules. Next week will bring the quarter-finals, with a heightening of interest in this ancient game. A number of matches have been hard-fought, indicating that selection of a champion by guess would be hazardous.

SMITH CLAIMS OIL CUT WAS COERCIVE ACT

HUMBLE ALSO SLASHES EAST TEXAS CRUDE TO 10 CENTS

COMPANY IS ATTACKED

ALLOWABLE IS NOT TO BE REDUCED, SAYS COMMISSIONER

DALLAS, April 25. (AP).—Lon A. Smith of the Texas railroad commission said today the commission had no intention of reducing the 750,000-barrel allowable for the East Texas oil field before May 10 unless so ordered by a federal court.

Smith said he could not forecast whether the allowable would be changed after that date because he could not forecast what the situation in the field would be at that time.

Smith charged that the reduced price of 10 cents per barrel, posted by the Texas company yesterday, had been put into effect largely in an effort to displace the commission's control with that of a purported new oil and gas commission.

"The cut came at the psychological time for this purpose," he said. "We will wait and see if they cut the price of gasoline and other products manufactured from crude oil in the same proportion that they have cut the price of the crude itself."

"If they do cut in this same proportion, we will know that they were sincere in their price reduction. If they do not, we will know it was done in an effort to coerce and punish the railroad commission and the people of Texas."

HOUSTON, April 25. (AP).—The Humble Oil & Refining company this afternoon posted new oil prices, setting East Texas crude oil at 10 cents a barrel.

Prices for other crudes ranged from 28 cents to 40 cents for Ranger, North Texas, Mexia, Poffell, Boggy Creek, Richland, Wortham, Currie, and Moran; 54 cents to 64 cents for Conroe crude; 32 cents to 62 cents for other gulf coast crudes, depending on gravity.

The company, the largest in the East Texas field, has connections to 1,865 wells. The officials said it would continue to pay only 75 per cent of the production of 40 barrels per well daily and would store the rest.

Frontier Days To Be Held In Changed Form

Frontier Days, held very successfully last year by the Junior chamber of commerce, will be repeated this year in somewhat changed form. It was decided by action of the membership today.

President W. T. Fraser announced appointment of George Limerick as general chairman of the event.

The program will include a beauty revue and water carnival to formally open the new municipal swimming pool, a rodeo probably at the Lon Blanscet ranch near here, old-time paragon, dances, and contests, a chuck wagon lunch for visiting oldtimers of pre-1900 days, and other entertainment.

The dates have tentatively been set as June 14, 15, and 16. The program will be divided into sections and assigned to various sub-chairmen, who will call upon local clubs to assist. It is to be a community-wide project, with appeal to both young and old. Talks concerning the event were made today by President Fraser, Lon L. Blanscet, Philip R. Pond, Dr. C. H. Schulzky, Olin E. Ihnkle, and others.

Gilmore Nunn and George Briggs urged the attendance of members at inter-community gatherings. Visitors today included Dr. W. A. Seydler.

SCENES IN FORESTRY CAMP

LIFE IN THE FORESTRY CAMP that the government has set up near Luray, Va., is keyed to a busy routine, indicated by the four pictures above. It's all part of Uncle Sam's plan to aid the unemployed and at the same time further conservation projects.

SPIRIT OF PIONEERING HAS MADE YOUTHS REVEL IN WORK FOR UNCLE SAM IN FORESTS

CAMP ROOSEVELT, LURAY, Va. (AP).—The ring of the ax through mountain wilderness is sweet music to the 200 young men faced with hewing out a home here in the first camp set up under the president's conservation plan.

As each pine crashes the men are closer to a home on the shaggy side of Massanutten mountain, seven miles west of Luray.

From Cities And Farms. They have gathered from cities and farms where doors are closed against the unemployed; where a cup of coffee is hard to "rustle," and a man's strength begins to slip.

In a day they dropped from modern civilization to the life that faced Daniel Boone and his kind. Everything had to be done at once; the forest floor was cleared for the camp; tents and a kitchen were set up; kindling chopped.

It took work, but it is done with pride, boyish boasting, grins and snatches of song that float off with camp-fire smoke to the dark humps of the Blue Ridges across the valley.

"Say this is the life!" exclaims a yellow-haired boy, Frank Marshall, of Maryland. "Of course, it doesn't look much now," and he waves his hand to muddy "company streets" and a chill, gray sky, "but give us a little time."

He stopped to grin as two boys trotted by with pine boughs in their arms. "There goes a floor," he explained.

He led the way proudly to the square army tent that is his "home" with five other young men. Army coats stood around the edge. Bar-

Manchukuo Trade Open To Nations Recognizing State

TOKYO, April 25. (AP).—The Manchukuo government's promise of an open door and equal opportunity in trade in Manchuria presupposes reciprocity by other nations and consequently is applicable to countries which recognize Manchukuo.

This significant assertion was made today by Takrezo Komai, councillor for Manchukuo, in an exclusive interview with the Associated Press.

Komai was one of the principal Japanese actors in the dramatic events resulting in the founding of the new government last year in territory seized from Chinese rule.

He is at present in Tokyo conducting a campaign of education in behalf of the Japan-Manchukuo economic bloc. This group seeks special tariffs and other privileges in Manchukuo for Japan.

CLAIMS BURNS ATTACKED FOR MONDAY TALK

MAJOR OIL COMPANIES ACCUSED OF LIBEL AND ASSAULT

AUSTIN, April 25. (AP).—Both houses of the legislature today directed the appointment of committees to investigate a fight in an Austin hotel lobby last night in which Representative Gordon Burns of Huntsville was severely injured.

Adoption of motions calling for the appointment of committees was preceded by discussion in which the purported activities of "major oil companies" in support of the new oil commission bill passed by the house yesterday were vigorously denounced. Burns was one of the leading opponents of the bill. He was in a hospital today.

The house committee immediately sent for James P. Hart, Travis county district attorney, and J. M. Griffith, justice of the peace. Newspaper men were asked to absent themselves from the conference.

The committee discussed whether the group of men alleged to have attacked Burns should be cited to appear before the bar of a committee of seven representatives. McGreer said it was reported that a member of the house had been "brutally assaulted" for statements made on the floor of the house in opposition to a bill to establish a natural resources commission to take over the oil and gas conservation duties now performed by the railroad commission.

Both the house committee and the senate committee of five were given plenary powers. The senate group was authorized to investigate the political activities of oil companies in so far as they concerned state legislation.

Senator Grady Woodruff of Deatur was author of the senate motion. He asserted threats had been made against him and his secretary unless he desisted in his opposition to the oil commission bill.

Moore charged the "major oil companies and their New York gang" with trying to dictate legislation in Texas.

He stated that Burns was caught in the hotel lobby after midnight with no friends to defend him and was thrown down on the hotel floor and kicked about. He charged that six men participated in the attack.

The senate adopted a resolution deploring the "brutal attack" on Burns and authorizing the sending of flowers to Burns' hospital room.

No charges had been filed with reference to the fight. Burns was a patient in a hospital with face scratches and an injury to his side.

Burns said he had returned to his hotel room about 11:30 p. m., when he met Charles F. Roesser of Fort Worth, president of the Texas Oil and Gas Conservation association.

Burns said Roesser stopped him and engaged him in conversation, during which the debate on the floor of the house yesterday concerning establishment of a new commission to administer oil and gas conservation was discussed.

Burns said he and Roesser started to fight and that while he (Burns) was on the floor others came up and kicked him.

Roesser remained in his hotel room today with a bruised eye.

BILL DISCUSSED

AUSTIN, April 25. (AP).—Discussion of the provisions of a bill to license chiropractors and authorize the practice of the chiropractic method of healing was started in the house of the legislature today.

THE RULE OF REHOBOAM

My father made your yoke heavy, and I will add to your yoke; my father also chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

So spoke the young King Rehoboam when he took the throne of Israel upon the death of Solomon. It seems that the Rehoboams have taken charge of the House at Austin. Faced with the urgent need for less taxes, they pile on more. Hard times, say the Rehoboams of the House, are to be cured with harder taxes.

Anybody with the white-collar wages of $2,500 a year to feel the blow. Any business prosperous enough to be able to meet its pay roll will be staggered afresh with the tax gatherer's demands. Corporations do not vote. All they do is to provide jobs for voters—and voters are so simple-minded that they will tax the possibility of their jobs in blissful ignorance that these jobs now hang by all too slender a thread. Thus do the Rehoboams of Austin reason.

The House was not willing to cut its own salary. The House has refused to enact any of the major reorganizations in the interest of economy as recommended by the Graves committee. The House has been timorous in the presence of lobbying minorities seeking to retain the old wasteful ways of government and of education.

The call, therefore, is for these $10-a-day Horsemen of the Depression to ride roughshod over the last remnants of solvency in Texas with the scourge of Rehoboam.

Some members of the House deserve none of these strictures. Some of them have done their best for the beleaguered taxpayer. Some have a record beyond criticism. But the majority gives character to the group, and the majority has done but little to meet a great emergency.—Dallas NEWS.

RUSSO-JAPANESE SORE SPOT

A NEW SORE SPOT in Russo-Japanese relations is Manchuli, rail head of the Soviet-Manchukuo border, pictured and mapped above. Manchukuo and Russia jointly operate the Chinese Eastern Railroad (A), which is the Soviets' direct route to Vladivostok, important Pacific port. Manchukuo officials have blockaded tracks at Manchuli, covering connections with Russia. This followed the Soviets' refusal to return to the Chinese Eastern 3400 cars and 83 locomotives which they allegedly hauled into Russia. Russia, meantime, is forced to use the longer northern trans-Siberian line (B) to reach Vladivostok.

Japanese Launch General Attack

PEIPING, China, April 25. (AP)—The Japanese at Kueipeikow "lost patience as a result of continued Chinese attacks," according to Japanese reports, and tonight launched a general attack south of the great Chinese Wall aimed to clear Chinese troops from the area. The Japanese military command said it expected the early occupation of strategic points in the North China section. This move would have the purpose, it was said, of opening the way to Peiping, to which important city Kueipei is the passageway in the Great Wall. Chinese forces claimed that despite artillery and aerial attacks the Chinese were holding their positions in the vicinity of the wall, where the Japanese began a major offensive last Friday.

The White Cockatoo by Mignon G. Eberhart

SYNOPSIS: Just as suddenly as he was hung into a jail, Jim Sundeen is released. The French police suspect him of murdering an unidentified Eustace in the corridor of a half-deserted hotel. Sundeen is innocent, but helpless until David Lorn is sent by Sue Tally to aid him. And Sundeen distrusts Lorn for no reason at all, and trusts Sue although he has reason to suspect her. Lorn will not enter the hotel with Sundeen after the latter's release.

Chapter 16
MORE MYSTERY
HE WAS right, of course. It was neither the place nor the time for the talk we must have. And, anyway he had told me the main fact, although his reply was so unexpected that it left me stunned and incredulous.

Poisoned. But the murdered man had been stabbed. I had found him, and I had seen the ugliness of the wound. I'd been obliged to wash my hands of the blood from it.

Mechanically I crossed the courtyard, passed under the swaying light, and entered the lobby. Lovschlem was bending over the desk.

The cockatoo clucked, and Lovschlem looked up, and it was curious to see how his eyes leaped when he saw me and how flabby his cheeks looked all at once and how his fat hands moved aimlessly about the desk. Finally Lovschlem said:

"How did you get out?" His voice was husky.

"Walked, Lovschlem. Walked. I'll have some dinner at once, please."

His flabby hands moved helplessly, and the cockatoo, attracted by some glint of jewels, cocked his head knowingly on one side, made a kissing sound with his tongue, and sidled toward the hand nearer him.

"You can have it served in my room," I added airily. "And see that there's a good fire."

With that I left him, still staring and flabby, with the cockatoo examining the ring suspiciously and clicking his tongue in an experimental fashion.

The corridors were empty and darkish and long. But there was a gleam of light below the door labeled nineteen, and I paused beside it and hesitated and finally knocked lightly.

It opened in a moment, and Sue, her bright hair aureoled against the light behind her, stood on the threshold.

"It's you!" she cried softly and happily and stretched out both hands, and as I took them she said with a little catch in her voice, "Oh, I'm glad."

"YOUR Mr. Lorn managed to get me out," I said. "It was good of you to send him."

"The whole thing was absurd," she said vigorously. "They had no right to arrest you like that. But he isn't my Mr. Lorn. And what did he do?"

"The Mr. Lorn, then. Whoever he is, he managed it very cleverly. Although I don't know exactly what happened yet. See here, isn't there some place where we can talk? Come downstairs to the lounge."

She hesitated and after a moment said, as if she'd come to a decision: "I do want to talk to you. There are things I want to know. But—" as for one purpose—to provide a means of getting enough groceries to sustain life. We believe that most recipients are grateful for this assistance. It is not ample without being supplemented by other work, but it has actually saved many lives. That more work has not been provided is due to the fact that this city, this state, and this nation so over-built a few years ago that time must be taken out to pay for work already done and money spent in anticipation of taxes—taxes now payable with dollars much dearer than those of 1929. The federal government intends to prevent starvation and suffering, but the unemployed should understand that there is no possibility of providing a "good wage" for every man now idle. Relief at best is just what the name implies, no more.

They have a big program, a wideflung organization which they consider as essential as many other county projects. They believe that some means of continuing the agent can be worked out, and they may be prepared to point out how, if requested. They could cite examples in other counties, for instance. Reports recently showed that the home demonstration work reached 79 per cent of the farm homes, not to mention the expansion of the work into the oil fields and considerable interest in it in the towns of the county. Where is another county service which, for the small expenditure involved, can carry more helpful assistance to so many people?

A. P. Service To Distribute No News To Radios

NEW YORK, April 25. (AP).—Members of the Associated Press, in annual meeting, passed a resolution that no news distributed by the organization be given to radio chains. The resolution, adopted late yesterday, also provided that no member newspaper shall be permitted to broadcast either its local or Associated Press news other than brief bulletins. The directors were empowered to fix assessments to be paid by member papers who do such broadcasting. The resolution directed that this revenue be applied to pro-rate reduction of assessments of non-broadcasting members. The members elected five new directors. Two of them, George B. Another important newspaper gathering gets under way this afternoon—the annual meeting of the American Newspaper Publishers association. The Associated Press resolution concerning broadcasting, was offered by James G. Stahlman, publisher of the Nashville (Tenn.) Banner and president of the Southern Newspaper Publishers association. He said his purpose in framing it was to bring together preferences expressed in a poll of members taken recently by Frank B. Noyes, president of the Associated Press.

BARRYMORE IS OFTEN VICTIM OF GOSSIPERS

REPUTATION OF "HIGH HAT" NOT MERITED BY STAR JOHN BARRYMORE suffers more penalties of greatness than any other actor in the world, is the belief of Luis Alberni, playing an important role with the youngest Barrymore in "Topaze" the RKO Radio picture showing today at the Rex theater. Alberni has known Barrymore for many years and has appeared with him in many stage successes and in such films as "The Mad Genius," "Svengali," and "Rasputin." "I do not believe," declares Alberni, "there is any celebrity, male or female, who has been pictured as wrongly as has Barrymore." "His temperament, of which he has none, is the talk of the world! His idiosyncracies, of which he has none, are legend. "His high hat, which he never has worn, has been written up to be as high as the Empire State building. "In reality, he is the easiest actor to work with I have ever known. He never steals a scene, nor slaps actresses' faces. He is a sincere, natural and very misunderstood artist. "One peculiarity of his, I think, is responsible for it all. It would be funny were it not for the false stories it causes. It is simply that he cordially detests anything that smacks of sycophancy. "The quickest and surest way to arouse his ire is to 'Yes' him. That, however, in view of his renown, is just the way nine out of ten approach him. He ignores them—he can't help it and they don't know why. So they beat a hurried retreat and spread further tales of the Barrymore 'high hat.' "They are so wrong! He is always courteous to those who treat him as an equal. They can be authors or cab drivers, critics or milkmen." "Topaze" is said to be a favorite role of Barrymore's because it combines comedy and characterization. He is at his happiest in comedy and thinks it far more difficult an art than tragedy. It is taken from the stage play by Marcel Pagnol, based upon the translation by Benn W. Levy. Harry Arrast directed and the cast includes Myrna Loy, Regi-

The Colonel Wins Again Sometime ago, Cpl. Matt Winn announced that the prize of $50,000 for the Kentucky Derby would not be cut. Other races on the spring program could be trimmed but the president of the American Turf Association insisted that the Derby be saved from the economic axe. Shortly after his announcement, a committee of stockholders in the association, which controls Churchill Downs, Lexington, Lincoln Fields and Washington Park tracks, charged extravagance on Winn's part and acted to oust him by securing proxies. The old colonel's friends rallied, bought 88,000 shares of the association stock held by the Bank of Kentucky and re-elected Winn. June 30 will bring Colonel Winn his 72nd birthday. As a boy of 14 he watched from his father's grocery wagon as Aristides won the first Kentucky Derby back in 75. The boy went on to live a remarkable career. He enlisted millions against millions in more than one horse-racing war, and has fought politicians with their own weapons. The reform wave of 1911-12 almost killed racing in America. With no welcome in the United States, Colonel Winn, backed by a little group of wealthy men, created a haven for the sport at Juarez, Mexico. Opponents of racing managed to put through a bill in Kentucky in 1913 killing the bookmaker betting feature. Winn recalled that a clause in an old charter, granted in 1875 by the state legislature to the Louisville Jockey Club, legalized pari-mutuel wagering. "The colonel" found two pari-mutuel machines in a Louisville pawn shop. The machines had been used at Churchill Downs back in 78. He found a few more, here and there, set 'em up at the track and opened up for business. Winn has grown with the Derby. Back in 1912 about $50,000 was bet on Derby Day. During the last few years more than a million has been bet on the whole card on Derby Day. The high point $2,096,000 in 1926.

BRIMS SMART IN HOLLYWOOD

MURIEL EVANS

By NEA Service
HOLLYWOOD, April 25 (Sp)—You don't have to go down to the sea in ships to wear a sailor these days. Everybody out here has at least one!

Muriel Evans wear a checkered black and white cellophane sailor, with velvet bow and banding for trim, that repeats the checked black and white sailor suit.

Shells Perry, dancing at the Coconut Grove with an unknown, wore a checkered one-piece ensemble—the jacket like a man's Tux-topped by a white pique sailor, like her pique vest.

Benita Hume, shopping along the Boulevard, wore a grayish tan tailored suit, with a blouse and a scarf of mulberry red crepe, and a mulberry red straw sailor hat.

Patricia Ellis, lunching with her mother, Mrs. Alexander Lertwich, and Reginald Owen, at Sardi's, wore a black crepe dress with white ruffled collar and a black shiny sailor hat, with white band.

Marion Nixon, at the polo game with Buddy Rogers, wore a Sheldan tweed suit, cut with raglan sleeves and a narrow brown patent leather belt, a pink blouse and a brown sailor hat banded in brown and pink.

Lunching at the Brown Derby with Al Jolson, Ruby Keeler wore a black and white ensemble, with a shallow crowned white pique sailor, like her short jacket's pique.

"BE GOOD NEIGHBOR" URGED BY CIRCLES OF METHODIST W. M. S. IN STUDY SESSIONS ON MONDAY

Business Sessions and Social Hours Are Held
CIRCLES of the First Methodist W. M. S. yesterday afternoon made a study of godliness and being a good neighbor.

The meeting of Circle 4 was in the home of Mrs. Albert Wood. After a devotional by Mrs. H. L. Wilder, using as her subject "Am I a good neighbor?" the following program was given: Discussion of a man who wants to become a "deaconess," Mrs. Luther Pierson; the "deaconess," a good neighbor; Mrs. L. N. Atchison; short resume of next Bible study, Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar, study leader.

Mrs. Albert Wood resigned as chairman of the circle and Mrs. H. L. Wilder was elected as her successor. Mrs. Wood consented to be assistant chairman.

The hostess served angel food cake topped with whipped cream and iced tea to Mesdames L. N. Atchison, F. C. Gullum, S. C. Evans, C. T. Hunkapillar, Paul Jensen, C. E. Nelson, Luther Pierson, Nels Walberg, Joe Shelton, A. B. Fullington, Chas. Ward, D. E. Whittington, H. L. Wilder, Albert Wood, Carl Boston, J. L. Nasse, D. M. Lowrance, Ralph Chisum.

Mrs. Evans is hostess. Mrs. J. R. Evans was hostess in her home to Circle 2. Mrs. Fred Cary presented the devotional on the compassion of Jesus. Mrs. H. T. Wohl-

Foundation Patterns Are Fitted By Laketon Women; Fruit Cakes Canned But Finishing of Floors Postponed

LAKETON, April 25. (Sp.)—Mrs. Lawton Hoffer was hostess at an all-day session of the Laketon home demonstration club. The morning was spent in making and fitting foundation patterns, and at noon a covered dish luncheon was served. Ways of using the foundation patterns were studied under the leadership of Miss Ruby Adams. Special attention was given to collars and sleeves.

Those attending were Mesdames Clyde Gray, Leo Paris, Nettie Attaway, Harry Gillispie, Charles V. Talley, Miss Adams, and the hostess.

Fruit Cake Canned.
The Laketon club women are busy this month getting their supply of fruit cakes made before the rush season of vegetable canning arrives. Gardens are being planted and irrigated, and the women are hoping for an abundance of vegetables for

INSTALLATION CONDUCTED BY CITY COUNCIL

MRS. LARD SUCCEEDS MRS. TOWNSEND AS PRESIDENT

INSTALLATION of officers and a program under the direction of Sam Houston school featured a meeting of the city council of Parent-Teacher association Monday afternoon at the high school cafeteria. Mrs. J. B. Townsend, retiring president, presided, and A. L. Patrick opened the meeting with prayer.

After a short business session the following program was given: Number by the band from Mrs. C. W. Stowell's room; talk on problems of school by Principal A. L. Patrick; two numbers by glee club of Junior high school, A Dream Boat Passes by and Junior high school song, director by Miss Helen Martin; vocal solos, Where the Four-Leaf Clover Grew and The Cuckoo Clock, by Mrs. J. W. Gorman Jr., accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Phillip Wolfe.

Mrs. C. E. Hutchins discussed the 15th point of the Children's Charter, after which Mrs. Townsend installed the following officers for the coming year: President, Mrs. Claude Lard; vice president, Mrs. A. N. Dilley Jr.; treasurer, Mrs. H. P. Knapp; historian, Mrs. J. D. Lawson.

Mrs. V. E. Fatheree made a short talk presenting a life membership in the Parent-Teacher association to Mrs. Townsend. It was announced that 41 had completed the correspondence course and would be entitled to receive certificates at the conference in Amarillo. Of this number, 20 are from the Sam Houston association and 13 of the Baker association. There are 4 from Woodrow Wilson and 4 from Horace Mann.

Program Presented For Church Group

Group 5 of the First Christian Women's council heard a program last evening in the home of Mrs. C. A. Clark. Mrs. J. L. Lester, leader, was assisted by Miss Jewell Montague, who led the devotional Miss Josephine Thomas, who presented Geraldine Smith and Pat Peterson in a musical number, "No Sir," and Miss Loma Groom, who sang Tell Me the Story, accompanied at the piano by Miss Frances McCue. Mrs. Bob Koener gave a description of a day spent in a missionary's home.

Following a brief business meeting, refreshments were served to 18 persons.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Bob Koener, 1119 East Francis, with Miss Cleora Stanard as leader.

Measure To Create New Oil Commission Is Passed By House

SPONSORS ARE CONFIDENT OF FINAL PASSAGE

TEXAS COMPANY CUTS EAST TEXAS OIL TO 10 CENTS

AUSTIN, April 25. (AP)—The fate of a bill to create a new oil commission to take over the oil and gas conservation duties now performed by the railroad commission rested today with the Texas senate.

The house passed the bill late yesterday, 71 to 65. It must be considered and reported by committee before it is ready for floor action in the upper branch. Proponents expressed confidence it could be passed in the remaining days of the legislative session.

The bill did not receive enough votes to become effective immediately even if passed by the senate and signed by the governor. It would not become effective until 90 days after the close of the session.

Many oil men have petitioned the legislature to create a new commission. They have attacked the commission's administration of oil prorations, particularly in the East Texas field.

On Sunday, the railroad commission issued an order permitting East Texas production of between 700,000 and 750,000 barrels daily, much greater than any previous allowable. The Texas company yesterday reduced its posted price for crude from 50 cents to 10 cents a barrel, declaring that the allowable was far in excess of the market demand. These developments were discussed in the brief but spirited debate in the house.

Representative Gordon Burns of Huntsville charged that the new commission plan was a scheme of major oil companies to get control of the industry in Texas. Proponents denied this charge.

The proposed commission of three would be appointed until the next general election and elective thereafter.

A bill to legalize chiropractic was at the top of today's house calendar. The five man highway elective commission bill was next in line. That commission would replace the existing three-member appointive commission.

The senate state affairs committee voted a favor on a bill to regulate and tax the sale of 3.2 beer if and when voters approve a constitutional amendment to legalize it.

Under present plans, the election would be held on next August 26, and the sale of beer would be inaugurated on Sept. 15.

Young Pupils Are To Present Play

Forty children of the first grade rooms of Miss Wilma Chapman and Mrs. George Clark, Horace Mann school, will take part in a play, "A Trio Through Storyland," Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the school. Mothers of the pupils and all other persons interested are invited to attend.

The play is quite elaborate for such young ones. It is by Dorothy Dumpty, Little M. Muffet, and many other story-book characters will be impersonated and Mother Goose songs will be sung.

E. M. Conley and J. R. Coats spent the day in Stinnett.

A. T. Cobb of LeFors was a Pampa visitor yesterday afternoon.

Methodist News From Miami

Miami, April 25. (SP)—Miss Doris Meek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Meek of Laketon, became the bride of P. Counts of Miami Friday evening at 6 o'clock at an impressive ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the bride's family by her brother-in-law, Rev. Goddard, Presbyterian minister of Sherman. The bride was lovely in honey-suckle beige with harmonizing accessories. She is a graduate of Miami high school as is Mr. Counts. The groom is employed with the Gulf company at Miami and the popular young couple will reside here.

Meet at Church.
Circle 3 held a study meeting at the church. Mrs. R. W. Lane led a devotional on godliness, and Mrs. A. L. Patrick favored the group with a reading. Mr. Sherman White then spoke on the Wesley house, and Mrs. E. B. Fisher discussed changed lives. Mrs. F. M. Culbertson discussed "the man who wanted to be a deaconess," after which Mrs. Nell Beaver closed the meeting with a reading.

Those present were Mesdames Joe Gordon, Jim Collins, F. M. Culbertson, R. E. Fisher, M. E. de Tar, Jim Sackett, C. A. Long, Ira Spearman, Sherman White, A. L. Patrick, Har- Hoare, Nell Beaver, Herbert Beaty, J. I. Howard.

Mrs. Vicars Leads.
Mrs. Edwin S. Vicars led an impressive devotional at a meeting of Circle 4 in the Brotherhood classroom of the church. She told two interesting stories with the theme "bearing one another's burdens." In connection with the devotional, all sang Help Somebody Today.

Mrs. Tom Cook told the story of John Wesley in America, and Mrs. Hoyt Allen told the story of the Werley house.

Mrs. Al Lawson, chairman of the telephone committee, reported good work during the last week, and Mrs. J. M. Turner reported on welfare activities.

One new member, Mrs. E. G. Wilson, and the following old members attended: Mesdames Tom Cook, John Hedge, Rufe Thompson, Edwin S. Vicars, H. R. Thompson, Neal Cross, J. M. Turner, Hoyt Allen, H. B. Carson, W. D. McArthur, Carl Sturgess, E. D. Zimmerman, Frank Bryan, W. R. Campbell.

Clothing Found; Negro in Jail
A negro woman is in the city jail and Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Lilly, 729 North Somerville street, have recovered a quantity of clothing stolen last night. The clothing was removed from the line at the rear of the Lilly residence about dark last night.
Chief of Police Jno. V. Andrews this morning tracked the woman from the clothes line to where she lived on the next street and recovered the clothing.
Police have made only one other arrest since Friday night.

LAFOLLETTE HERE
WASHINGTON, April 25. (AP)—A son was born this morning to Mrs. Robert M. LaFollette, wife of the senator from Wisconsin. The weight was seven pounds, fourteen ounces; and mother and child were reported at Garfield hospital to be doing well.
O. M. Evans of Tulsa transacted business here yesterday.

Little Theater Enjoys Concert Of School Band

Little Theater members were profuse in their praise of the Woodrow Wilson school's kid band this morning. The youngsters gave a program of music and songs at the regular meeting last night in the club room at the city hall.

No business was transacted. Annual election of officers will be held on May 8. Sale of tickets for "Holiday," three-act comedy which will be produced May 2, is under way and the pastebards are selling rapidly, it was said. Residents are showing an unusual interest in the play. Pampans have been invited through the Little Theater to attend "The Last of Mrs. Cheney" which will be presented by the Clarendon Little Theater, April 27, with Mr. Ritchie, late of London, in one of the leading roles.

Major Corbin Will Address Officers

Major George A. Corbin of Amarillo, contact officer with the regular army for the Panhandle, will address local reserve officers on the subject of combat orders in the office of Dr. W. Purviance, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

It was learned today that officers of the reserve corps will be ordered to duty for six months periods with the Civilian Conservation corps. Officers will be placed on duty in the ratio of one captain and two lieutenants of the medical reserve for each 1,000 men and one captain and two lieutenants of the line for each 200 men.

The recruits will be received at the following camps for conditioning: Fort Sam Houston, Still, Bliss Logan, Colo., Warren, Wyo.

Siren For Church

COLEMAN, April 25. (AP)—Arrangements have been made by the churches of Coleman to have the approach of the hour for Sunday services announced by blowing the fire siren at 9:30 o'clock Sunday mornings. It is proposed to follow the whistle with the ringing of the bell in the clock of the court house tower.

Smallest Theater To Show Progress

The world's smallest moving picture theater, seating only 22 persons, but embodying the most modern lighting and air-conditioning equipment, will be a feature of the exhibit of the Household Finance corporation at Chicago's great exposition—A Century of Progress.

The theater will supplement a graphic portrayal of the changes in the economic and social fabric of the United States since 1833. It will be located in the hall of social science on Northern Island.

The exhibit will be divided into six parts—a pillar of light will symbolize A Century of Progress in personal financing. A miniature stage, flanked by bas-relief groups will depict the typical family of 100 years ago and of today. On the stage will appear a changing series of natural color pictures, portraying the development of social and economic life. Opening onto this section will be the moving picture theater, a reception hall and a private office for use of company executives and a mechanical device illustrating the manner in which household service operates.

Aluminum will be used as an exterior wall covering the aluminum trim will be used within the exhibit. Automatic controls will syn- chronize color changes of indirect lighting systems throughout the exhibit with the color and motion picture displays.

Pampa Men On P-T. A. Program

County Supt. John B. Hesse and Supt. R. B. Fisher will be among the speakers tomorrow in Amarillo at the district conference of Parent-Teacher associations.

Supt. Hesse will make the commencement address, at noon to 75 graduates of the home study course sponsored by the organization. In his remarks he will review the work and commend those responsible for founding it and carrying it on for several years.

Supt. Fisher will speak tomorrow afternoon on the subject, "Turning the Corner in Education." About 350 persons are expected to attend the conference, which opened today. Pampa P-T. A. leaders will attend, some already being present.

Daniels Given Warm Welcome In Mexico City

MEXICO CITY, April 25. (AP)—Josephus Daniels, deeply moved by the warmth of his official reception by President Abelardo Rodriguez, plunged today into his task as United States ambassador.

A dozen official calls, two receptions and scores of appointments lie ahead for the next week. A diplomatic reception Thursday and a public reception Friday for the American colony are on his program. A colorful ceremony yesterday marked Daniels' presentation of his credentials to the president. Friendship and cooperation between the two nations were stressed by both men during the ceremony in the national palace.

Seventy detectives guarded Daniels during the presentation ceremony.

An unnamed student missed seeing the presentation because he carried a package under his arm. Detectives suspecting the package quickly surrounded him and edged him out of the ambassadorial hall.

In an ante room, he was invited to open the package, which he did with indignant protests. It contained toilet articles. When he got back to the presentation it was all over.

Crosbyton Paves Eight City Blocks With R. F. C. Funds

CROSBYTON, April 25. (AP)—Crosbyton, a little south plains city of less than 1,500 people, believes it has established a record by completing the paving of eight blocks of city streets recently. A caliche base with little lime top was used in the paving. A local highway contracting firm furnished the machinery free and the gravel at cost.

The city authorities furnished the asphalt and trucks for hauling out of money donated by citizens, no tax money being used. Unskilled labor was paid out of R. F. C. funds for the project. With completion of this work, Crosbyton now has 35 blocks of paved streets.

Mrs. James Williams of Kingsmill shopped here yesterday.

Unemployed Are Urged to Register

Registration of Pampa's unemployed for government information is progressing rapidly. Up to noon today, 350 had registered in the basement of the city hall. Those who have not registered to date are urged to do so immediately.

The records will probably be used when work starts on the new federal building, and local men will be used. Starting date has not been set.

More than 100 men are being paid with Federal Relief funds. The swimming pool program is rapidly nearing completion.

Plans Made To Close Chicago Schools Soon

CHICAGO, April 25. (AP)—Un- willing to force Chicago's teachers to continue working on an unpaid basis, Orville J. Taylor, president of the board of education, said he would take steps today to close the schools within the next two or three weeks.

Taylor made his statement at the close of yesterday's hectic activities during which 5,000 teachers took the freedom afforded by the first day of their spring vacation to heckle loop bankers and a meeting of officials attended by Gov. Henry Horner.

Taylor said the "situation has reached the point where the schools must close" and that he would confer with Superintendent of Schools William J. Borgan about speeding up such action.

Quartet Jailed In Connection With Car Theft

Two men and two women were in jail here today in connection with recovery at Spearman of a car belonging to Mrs. Annie Daniels of Pampa.

Arraignment of at least one of the four on a charge of car theft was expected this afternoon.

The car was not damaged except that the lock had been broken and "wired around" to permit starting without the proper key. The four persons were arrested in Spearman and then returned here by Chief John V. Andrews and Deputy F. A. Hollenbeck.

MADE '89' RUN

GUTHRIE, Okla., April 25. (AP)—Judge John H. Cotteral, whose career took him from a frontier practice of law to the bench of the tenth federal circuit court of appeals, will be buried here tomorrow in the land to which he came in the "run" of 1889 when this section of Oklahoma territory was opened to white settlement.

A Picture Story Of The Mooney Case

(By The Associated Press.)
TOM MOONEY'S case is heading toward a new climax in San Francisco, April 26, after 17 years in prison, part of them marked by the shadow of the noose.

This time, another trial to bring to life a dormant charge, one virtually a duplicate of that which resulted from the bombing of a Preparedness Day parade in San Francisco on July 22, 1916, and for which he was condemned first to death and then to life imprisonment.

Ten lives were snuffed out that day when a suitcase loaded with dynamite and scraps of iron exploded among the spectators gathered at Stewart and Market streets to witness the parade. Mooney and an alleged co-conspirator, Warren K. Billings, were convicted of first degree murder for causing one of those deaths. Now Mooney is to face the same charge but with another victim named.

Acquittal on this second indictment, he hopes, would give him the right to demand vindication on the first charge.

The "Mooney case," one of the most celebrated in American criminal annals, goes back to the country's efforts to prepare itself against the danger of possible embroilment in the great war in Europe.

The situation was seized upon by radicals, who charged capitalists were trying to plunge the country into the conflict.

When "preparedness days" were planned as demonstrations of patriotism in the chief cities, the opposition became especially vocal. Threats of trouble were climaxed by the San Francisco explosion.

Mooney, his wife and Billings had achieved reputations as "direct action" agitators on the coast.

They fled when the round-up of suspects started after the parade bombing, but were found at a resort in the mountains. Billings was arrested along with Israel Weinberg, a jitney bus driver, and Edward F. Nolan, a radical agitator.

Mooney offered an alibi based upon a snapshot of the parade. It showed, the defense contended, Mooney and his wife on the roof of the building in which they lived several blocks from the scene of the explosion.

In the background was a street clock which registered the time as within only a few minutes of the tragedy.

The defense contended that they could not have reached the roof within the brief space of time elapsing between the hour at which the prosecution said they were seen at Stewart and Market and that shown by the clock.

Mooney's aged mother, Mrs. Mary Mooney, was active in plans for his defense.

Sherman's Flag At San Jacinto Given To State

AUSTIN, April 25. (AP)—The flag of General Sidney Sherman, the only banner carried by the victorious Texans in the Battle of San Jacinto, was formally presented to the state Friday on the 97th anniversary of that history-making conflict.

The presentation speech was made by William E. Kendall of Houston, grandson of General Sherman. Mrs. Lucy Sherman Craig of Houston, only living daughter of the man who commanded the left wing of Sam Houston's forces, was on the platform. The ceremony was held in the hall of the house of representatives before a joint session of the legislature.

The banner came into possession of the state many years ago but only recently through a legislative appropriation and efforts of the Daughters of the Republic of Texas was it restored to a semblance of its former state.

Coke Stevenson of Junction, speaker of the house, introduced Mrs. O. M. Farnsworth of San Antonio, president of the Daughters of the Republic, as the woman through whose efforts the flag was preserved and restored. "If we resolve anew to perpetuate the characteristics of our heroes, then this day shall not be in vain," Mrs. Farnsworth said. Speaker Stevenson accepted the

NEW CIGARET TAX STAMP FOILS PURPOSES OF MANY BOOTLEGGERS

By R. W. BARRY
 AUSTIN, April 25. (AP)—The new cigarette tax revenue stamp is about one-fourth the size of the old one and not quite as large as a dime. Try to remove one from the package of cigarettes. The paper crumbles like so much dry sand. Impossible to get one off intact.

There was a reason for making the stamp small and of a specially-treated paper that crumbles when attempt is made to remove it. It was for the purpose of defeating the bootlegger of cigarette tax stamps. The old stamps were easily removed and some dealers bought them second-hand and placed them on cigarette packages. Collectors of the stamps are said to have traded them for cigarettes, in some instances, Texas lost thousands of dollars from the cigarette tax fund because a revenue stamp was used more than once.

Charley Lockhart, state treasurer, who sells the stamps to vendors of cigarettes, hit upon the idea of making them so small and of such fragile paper they could not be removed.

Judge F. L. Hawkins of the Texas court of criminal appeals heard the voice of an earnestly debating legislator coming from the house of representatives chamber. A page came through the door and Judge Hawkins wanted to learn from him what all the oratory was about.

"Son, what's that fellow mad about?" Judge Hawkins asked the page.

"He ain't mad," the boy replied. "That's just Representative Pope of Corpus Christi. He's that way all the time."

INFLATION MEANS CHEAP MONEY WHILE TENDENCY HAS BEEN TO CHEAP GOODS

Exchange of Wheat or Other Products for Dollars Is Far Too Inequitable.

INFLATION, deflation, reflation—what do these terms mean to the average man, what is their relation to the prices he pays and what he in turn receives for his services and goods? More broadly, how do they affect business as a whole? This is the first of a series of daily articles dealing with these and related questions.

By J. R. BRACKETT

NEW YORK (AP)—In two words, inflation means cheaper money.

To make money cheaper is the aim of all schools of inflation now vying changes in the money system—whether it be by increasing the use of silver as money, reducing the gold content of the dollar, printing more currency or by increasing credit.

What does it mean to make money cheaper?

Suppose dollars were for sale in the store and a farmer wished to buy dollars with wheat. The merchant sold him one dollar for one bushel of wheat. At a later time the merchant asked two bushels of wheat for the dollar. The dollar might be purchased with leather, cement or any other commodity.

Cheap and Expensive Dollars.

In the first instance, the dollar was cheap at one bushel of wheat, expensive at two bushels. The reverse was true of wheat. It was expensive at one dollar for one bushel; cheap at one dollar for two bushels. Its price was one dollar a bushel in the first trade; 60 cents a bushel in the second trade.

The effect of inflation is to increase the price of wheat and other commodities; or, in reverse, to lower the price of money to decrease the amount of commodities necessary to sell in order to get a dollar.

Why do many people urge inflation: Why do they think money should be cheaper?

There are two great classes of things which involve the use of money.

First, the commodities mentioned above, which vary considerably—the average price of all commodities has fallen about 40 per cent since 1929. Secondly, debt, interest, taxes, railroad rates, prices fixed by contract in leases and other items the prices of which do not vary greatly.

Depression a Deflation.

The depression has been a deflation process. It has forced down the prices of commodities and the fixed items, too. Some fixed items have declined much less than other items, so that it required the sale of more commodities to get the dollars necessary to pay interest, taxes and so on. That is to say, money has become expensive. It takes more goods to buy money.

This lack of equilibrium has meant difficulties to everyone, depending on income from the sale of commodities—farmers, miners and merchants. Their fixed costs have remained up, their income-producing items have dropped.

The secondary purpose of inflation is to bring prices up enough so that it will be easier to get the money to pay fixed charges, to bring all prices into balance.

The effect of further deflation would be to force down fixed charges to the present level of other prices. This would mean mortgage foreclosures, bankruptcies, and so on.

He is also able to listen to Pauline tell a story she had read, then tell it himself in detail. He knows every part of an automobile by name. These he learned by listening to his father talk about the various parts at his filling station.

EIGHT OUT OF 11 GAMES WON BY PALE HOSE

BATting IS POWERFUL AND PITCHING IS SURPRISING

By HERBERT W. BARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer.

On the basis of early returns, the Chicago White Sox threaten to become a source of considerable embarrassment to the rest of the American league.

Thanks principally to the addition of such batsmen as Al Simmons and Mule Haas, the Pale Hose had won eight games out of eleven from the St. Louis Browns, Cleveland Indians and Detroit Tigers today, were in a virtual first-place with the New York Yankees and generally were getting much better pitching than any one had reason to anticipate.

Lack of pitching, the experts said, would ruin Chicago's hopes of pushing into the first division. It still may, but so far Lew Fonseca's moundmen have been more than adequate. They've allowed only 34 runs and 73 hits in 11 games while the Sox were scoring 52 runs on 101 hits.

They made it three in a row over the Indians yesterday, winning a 5-4 decision as Vic Frazier and Joe Heving outpitched Wes Ferrell, Frazier allowed only seven hits in the first eight innings but weakened in the ninth and Heving came in to stop an Indian rally one run short of a tie.

Meanwhile the Yankees were suffering their second successive defeat at the hands of the Washington Senators, 11-10. Successive doubles by Goslin, Cronin, and Schulte in the eighth gave the Senators the two runs they needed to win, for Al Crowder, fifth Washington pitcher, stopped the world champions with one run in the ninth.

Jimmie Fox went on a batting spree, flouted his third home run, three doubles and a single and led the Philadelphia Athletics to a 16-10 victory over the Boston Red Sox. Detroit made it three in succession over the Browns, 4-3, although St. Louis drove Carl Fisher to cover the two out in the ninth and had the tying and winning runs on base when Elton Hogsett retired the side.

The National league program was restricted to two games, the New York Giants beating Brooklyn, 4-0, and the Phillies noosing out Boston's Braves, 6-5, in 12 innings.

Carl Hubbell gave Brooklyn only four hits in winning his second successive shutout while the Giants made good use of the eight hits they made off Joe Shaute. Hubbell has pitched 30 innings this season and allowed only one run.

Al Todd's pitch single in the 12th with the bases filled was the blow that yave the Phillies at thrilling victory over the Braves.

JENS OUSTED FROM BOXING

Nazis Ban Jewish Athletes From Organized German Sports Life.

BERLIN, April 25. (AP)—A new climax in the complete ostracism of Jewish athletes from organized German sports life has been reached in the dropping of Daniel Frenn from the Davis Cup tennis team, forced the resignation of Theodor Lewald, chairman of the German Athletic Federation, and to a lesser degree has resulted in bans on all foreign competitors. Lewald, the "William Mallodon" of German sports, is part Jewish but the family has been Christian for more than 100 years.

With full sympathy of the Nazi press, which commented that the boxers did all the work anyway while managers, trainers, and doctors or lawyers "got all the glory," the master minds of the boxers union issued the following decrees:

All Jews, including those baptized, are ruled out of the lists of members; all honorary members of Jewish blood are asked to hand in their cards; every German boxer is ordered to tear up any contract with a Jewish manager; Jews are barred from the club rooms; Jewish capital is barred from participation in the financing of boxing shows; union members are forbidden to engage Jewish doctors, dentists or lawyers; all foreigners are hereby suspended until further notice; all club officials, not in harmony with the "new Germany," should resign; all members out of harmony with the new movement should also quit; men in the confidence of the government are to sit in at all meetings.

SEE-SAW TILT LEAVES BUFFS IN LEAD AGAIN

GALVESTON TIED WITH STEERS FOR SECOND POSITION

By BILL PARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer.

The hand that controls the Texas league is flashing the old shell game on teams striving for permanent possession of first place.

Today it probably is your favorite at the pinnacle but within a few hours another round of games and there's a new pace setter.

Tuesday it is the Houston Buffs who are upstairs with a one-half game margin. But it probably doesn't mean much since the shell game has introduced four leaders within four days.

Galveston dropped to second place and Houston jumped to first Monday night when the Buccaneers lost a 5 to 4 battle to San Antonio while Houston staged a vicious batting rampage in the eighth to defeat Beaumont, 4 to 1.

Skipper Carey Selph started the stampede for first place when he doubled after one was out in the eighth. Lee Stebbins tripled scoring Selph, and the count was tied. Moore popped out but Ival Goodman proved just how good he really was by slugging a safety to score Stebbins with the run that eventually meant victory.

The Dallas Steers had to bombard hard and often to retain their place with a 10 to 8 victory over Oklahoma City. Their place happened to be a tie with Galveston for second position.

John Whitehead, knocked from the mound by Tulsa and twice by Fort Worth, requested Manager Morse to use him against Oklahoma City. Morse granted the request and Whitehead was shelled from the mound in the fourth inning after allowing three hits and five runs that ruined Dallas' early five-run lead in the first inning. It made the fourth straight time the young hurler has been routed.

The Fort Worth Cats are in third place by virtue of a 1 to 0 victory over the Tulsa Oilers. Doubles by Vernon Washington and Joe Norris in the ninth inning gave Fort Worth victory after two were out and it looked like an extra inning would be required.

Shoppers Nose Out Phillips In 2-1 Mound Duel

Everett Poe of the Diamond Shoppers and "High" Hieronemus of Phillips tangled in a pitching duel on the Sam Houston diamond yesterday afternoon with Poe on the winning end of a 2 to 1 score. Both hurlers were at their peak and tightened in pinches.

The Shoppers were robbed of a home run when Jimmie Coburn looped one of Hieronemus' slow balls far over Crites' head in left field and the umpire called it foul.

The fielding of Midget Woodward and Coburn for the Shoppers and of Jimmie Baldwin and W. O. Christian for Phillips was outstanding. Woodward and Baldwin had a duel at shortstop with both making five sensational stops without an error.

The Coburn was caught at the plate on both runs in the first inning. Woodward singled and went to third on Saltzman's hit. Woodward scored on Coburn's hit after Cahill was safe on an error. Marshall forced Cahill but Saltzman scored on Wagner's double. Coburn was caught at the plate on a close play. Lard scored Phillips run in the third with a single and two outs. Phillips threatened in the fourth when the first three men up got on base but the threat died when Christian fanned and Lard filed out.

Phillips outlit the Shoppers 7 to 5. Kirkpatrick and Newsome got two hits each for Phillips while Woodward gathered the same number for the Penberg crew. The game was the closest played here this season. A return game will be played Friday afternoon.

CHAMP CAGERS PLAY '34 TEAM ON WEDNESDAY

GRAD AND PROSPECTS MEET TOMORROW AFTERNOON

Pampa high school should be able to successfully defend her district basketball title next season if nothing happens to the available material. The boys, 30 of them, went through a stiff workout yesterday afternoon and then scrimmaged for a long time. The veterans from last year showed up remarkably well while several ex-Gorillas and newcomers give promise.

The 1934 prospects will scrimmage the graduating Harvesters, including Wayne and Bill Kelley, Hoy Fulginiti, and Robert Woodward of the 1933 championship team tomorrow afternoon to give Coach Odus Mitchell an idea of what his boys look like against stiff competition. Friday night the Amarillo Sandies will invade Pampa for a spring training game. The whistle will blow at 8 o'clock. Admission will be 10 and 25 cents.

Coach Mitchell has not named his starting lineup, but the wise birds have already made their selection. They see Leslie Sartin and J. R. Green, forwards; Miles Marbauch, center; and Jess Patton and Orville Heiskell, guards. However, there is a chance that Lloyd Hamilton will be in the starting lineup in place of Sartin, who has a sprained ankle. Then there will be such promising boys as Elmer Irving, Bert Stevens, Bill Dunaway, and others to be considered.

The boy who is showing the most promise in spring practice is Lloyd Hamilton. He has been hitting the basket and passing nicely. J. R. Green is another boy who will be hard to beat this year. Bill Dunaway, former Panhandle boy, is another find. There are several former Gorillas who are expected to go places during the season.

The Sandies of Coach Davis Hill have been working out for more than three weeks while the Harvesters have only had a week of prac-

Canyon Players Receive Praise In Plains Towns

J. B. Fowler, comedian-manager of the Teachers college players who will present a play and vaudeville here at the LaNora theater Friday evening, May 5, said yesterday that the cast was appearing in many Panhandle towns and receiving much acclaim everywhere.

The show, which will include a girls' tap-dance chorus and other vaudeville, will be presented for the benefit of the Panhandle-Plains historical museum at Canyon. The museum is complete except for display cases, which must be made available to properly show the material already on hand.

Admission in the evening will be 20 and 40 cents, and a special matinee at 4:30 p. m. will be 10 cents for pupils under 12 years old and 20 cents for those over 12. The evening show will begin at 8:30 p. m.

Abilene Has Gain In School Census

ABILENE, April 25. (AP)—Census rolls of Abilene and Taylor counties recently completed for school purposes show a "wholesome" population in the county of 53,700, an increase of 130 over last year.

The 41 common school districts in the county show a total of 4,448, or 36 more than last year and the Abilene city schools showed 5,049, or 100 more than in 1932.

CHAPEL TO BE TOMORROW

All persons interested are invited to attend the Sam Houston chapel program tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. Mrs. J. L. Lester's room will be in charge.

No accurate counts of deaths in the violent earthquake which shook southeast Missouri in 1817, was ever possible owing to the remoteness of the region at that time.

WHITLOW AND GRANITE TO MEET IN MAIN EVENT

The all-star boxing show of the season will be staged at the Pampa auditorium tomorrow night when eight main event boys will be seen in action. The big card will be headed by the Allen Whitlow-Young Kid Granite 10-round bout. Supporting the main event will be a 6-round affair between Gyp Zarro of Dallas and Kayo Kitchens, local boy. There will also be four events of four rounds each.

Allen Whitlow had to turn down a chance to fight the semi-final to the Maxie Rosenbloom-Al Singleton world championship fight at Springfield, Ill., tonight in order to appear on the card here tomorrow night as scheduled. Matchmaker Andy Andrews offered to release Whitlow from his contract, but as tomorrow night will be his last appearance in a local ring, Whitlow agreed to stay here and meet Granite, whom he has been trying to engage for some time.

The younger Granite is a real chip off the old block according to those who have seen him in action. He has lost only one bout this year and is rated high in the lightweight class. In Whitlow he will meet the sixth ranking lightweight in the world, according to the National Boxing association records.

Zarro is well known throughout the southwest as another lightweight of no mean ability. Kitchens has been coming to the front since he has been working with Whitlow and he should give the great Zarro a tough battle.

Old Kid Granite will return to the Pampa ring for a 4-round engagement with Lonnie Riggs, Texas Tech champion Kid Stamper and Sammy Squires will fight their recent draw off in another 4-round event.

Joy Christians, Granite's sparring partner, will tangle with Red McGinty, Borger slugger, in four rounds. The other four rounds will be between Bill Forbes and Lewis Smith, two youngsters.

The same depression prices will prevail for the big match.

Joe Doby of LeFors was a visitor here this morning.

Vol. 2. PAMPA HIGH SCHOOL, APRIL 25, 1933. NO. 29

PAMPA STUDENTS WIN ONE FIRST PLACE AND MANY SECONDS AND THIRDS IN DISTRICT CONTESTS

Pampa high school won only one first place in the district meet at Canyon last week-end, but counting all her second, third, and fourth places, she scored quite a number of points. The only first place was won by the girls' debate team, composed of Yvonne Stein and Opal Denson. This was the second year these girls have won the district.

Florence Sue Dodson and J. G. McConnell won second place in senior girls' and juniors boys' declamation respectively. The team, composed of Rachel Cross, Margaret Beck, Iris Gillis, Myrtle Faye Gilbert, and Eula Mae Meador, took second place, losing to Borger. Rachel Cross won second place as an individual in typing, and Myrtle Faye Gilbert was 4th individual. Ella Faye O'Keefe went to the semifinals in junior girls' declamation, and the boys' debate team, composed of Fred Johnson and Reed Clarke, was eliminated by Miami.

DID YOU KNOW?

Miss Brannon's sophomores claim Charlie Manee was a great French hero, and Julia Caesar was a great Roman politician.

All seniors with names beginning with letters from A to P must have their pictures made by the end of this week.

Fampa will meet the Sandies in a basketball game Friday night.

Cinderella and all your favorite movie stars will make their appearance in the marionette show Wednesday for the benefit of the P-T-A.

Yvonne Stein and Opal Denson will represent Pampa in debate at the State meet for the second time.

MUSIC NOTES

Bonnie Oakes played "America" as a cornet solo in chapel Wednesday. Bonnie is only 8 years old.

The high school band will play for chapel Wednesday.

The band and orchestra are working on several numbers for Music night, May 11.

The band will present "Light Calvary" and "Aids" overtures and the orchestra will give "William Tell" overture. "Pop" is working hard on these selections, as this will be the last appearance of the band and orchestra under his direction.

The high school glee club under the direction of Miss Josephine Carter will present an operetta, "Lady Frances," during music week, and Miss Clarine Brannon's violin class will present several numbers.

RIBBONS AWARDED TO STUDENTS WHO WON PLACES IN LITERARY AND TRACK EVENTS OF COUNTY

Tom Mooney Is Irked at Delay In His Removal

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25. (AP)—Tom Mooney, serving a life sentence for complicity in the preparedness day parade bombing here in 1916, was reported impatient and disappointed when informed he may not be brought here from San Quentin prison today for his second trial, on an unused indictment more than 16 years old.

A delay in Mooney's trip was indicated when Superior Judge Louis H. Ward ruled his presence would not be necessary for "preliminary arguments."

Judge Ward directed that a panel of 40 gentlemen, previously summoned for tomorrow, need not appear until Thursday.

Julian To Fight Return to U. S.

SHANGHAI, April 25. (AP)—C. Julian, who is wanted in Oklahoma on charges of conspiring to defraud oil investors of $3,500,000, said today he defied American efforts to extradite him to the United States.

Julian is staying at a British hotel in Shanghai's international settlement.

It is understood Anglo-American extradition treaties do not extend to China and that thus far American efforts toward the extradition of Julian have been nullified.

He is using the name T. R. King.

Reese Taylor, and Eleanor Frey gave violin solos. The band and orchestra combined played.

Th's little poem seems to fit the occasion. We mean of course the bathing beauty contest held last Friday night.

Alene Gregory certainly had the best wishes of all the school and deserved her success.

Harry Nelson claims that Mrs. Alexander can ask some funny questions. The other day she asked, "What are nitrates?" Harry answered, "I don't know, but they're cheaper than day rates." He still wonders why the class roared.

Wilks Chapman has been going around bringing happiness to the school. He just got the proofs for his senior picture.

Bob Martin seems to enjoy the razzing the history class hands him when he makes one of his famous wisecracks.

This conversation was overheard in the halls by the Snooper: Jim Madden, ex-Florida student: "I did a good day's work yesterday. I even washed the wood work." Clinton Evans, ex-master mind: "Did you get a shampoo, too?"

Boy Webb and company informed us they considered placing the following advertisement in a local paper:
Wanted: Two rooms and closet. Rooms must be large enough to work rick-rack in, closet large enough to hold jig-saw puzzles, and the whole house strong enough to withstand a case of insanity.

Do you want to see Hollywood stars in action? If so, then see the marionette show and your favorite star in the city auditorium next Wednesday. The Snooper says he's going.

Markets New York Stocks

NEW YORK, April 25. (AP)—Speculative enthusiasm ebbed in the stock and staple markets today, and prices quietly receded.

In shares, many issues lost 1 to more than 2 points, although final prices were somewhat above the lowert, and some of the industrial specialties registered small gains. The final tone was heavy. Sales approximated 3,300,000 shares.

Liverpool was also slightly lower than due and first trades here showed losses of 3 points on May and 5 to 9 points on later deliveries. Prices continued to ease after the start, and May dropped to 47.50, or 5

Hi-Y Club's Last Meeting of Year Will Be Tonight

After a very successful year, the Hi-Y club of P. H. S. will have its final meeting tonight in the library at 7:30. The program this year has been partly athletic and partly educational.

Athletic programs were carried on in the gym and the educational programs in the library. Some of the outstanding features of the year were the conference in Plainview, the basketball games with Amarillo clubs, and the Texas Independence day program. The attendance this year exceeded that of last year by a large margin.

The baseball schedule has been abandoned since the meetings will be discontinued.

Film Stars Will Appear in Monro Marionette Show's '49 Romance

THERE are strings to the Monro Marionette show which will give two performances in Pampa tomorrow, but the public is not to be alarmed—all the strings are to the movie star figures which will be made to go through plays just like there were alive.

The show will appear under the auspices of the High School Parent-Teacher association at 8:30 p. m. tomorrow night, and there will be a special matinee for children only at 2 o'clock. Both performances will be at the city auditorium.

For the evening show, the company will give a romance of the 49er days, "The Lost Adams Diggins". The movie stars in miniature who will perform are Clark Gable as the lover, Janet Gaynor as the girl, Ernest Torrence as the Forty-Niner, William Powell as the gambler, Tully Marshall as the desert rat, and Richard Dix as the Indian.

At the children's matinee will be the beloved fairy story "Cinderella" in a colorful Spanish setting. The heroine is Ann Harding, with Marie Dressler as the step-mother, and Don Jose Mojica as Prince Charming. The marionettes are real little figures and much more expressive than the oldtime puppets. Nine strings are attached to most figures. The Egyptian tombs revealed that marionettes had been popular in ancient times. There has recently been a revival of interest in America in this form of entertainment.

points below yesterday's close, while July traded to $7.52 and October at $7.70 down 8 to 10 points net.

The market continued to improve after the first hour on reported moderately on heavy selling and on continued covering by shorts. May advanced to 7.63 and October to 7.85, up 11 to 14 points from the lows and 3 to 4 points above yesterday's close.

Later in the morning, the market quieted down and prices eased moderately on heavy selling and due to easier wheat. July reacted to 7.56 and October to 7.78, down 7 points from the highs to levels 3 to 4 points under the close of yesterday.

NEW YORK, April 25. (AP)—Director of the United States steel corporation today ordered disbursement of a dividend of 50 cents on the preferred shares, as they did three months ago.

Pastor's Trial Delayed 2 Weeks

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., April 25. (AP)—The Rev. Sharon C. Inman did not appear today to answer charges of gross immorality and conduct unbecoming to a minister pending against him in the Presbytery of Ozark.

In accordance with the Presbyterian U. S. A. regulations, trial of the 35-year-old former Cave Spring minister who abandoned his church and his family two weeks ago was postponed. A second citation was made asking his appearance for trial at Cave Spring on May 12.

Eight ministers and three elders attended the special meeting of the Presbytery this morning. For an hour they discussed the technicalities of the case, form of citation, and probable whereabouts of Inman, in executive session.

Winnifred Ruth Judd Is Giving Lecture Course at Church

PHOENIX, Ariz., April 25. (AP)—Winnifred Ruth Judd, "trunk murderer," today enters into the routine of the state hospital for the insane where she must spend the remainder of her life, or until she regains her sanity.

Lubbock Minister Is Giving Lecture Course at Church

Conducted by the Rev. J. W. Watson of Lubbock, a lecture course on adult Sunday school administration at the First Methodist church is being attended by about sixty persons. Classes are held each evening at 7:30 o'clock, and it was announced that these classes were not confined to those who wished to obtain credit.

R. A. Selby gave a 15-minute talk last evening telling reasons he believed in a church training program. Henry Jordan will speak this evening.

racks bags filled with clothes stood in an orderly pile in one corner. In the center a small, iron, cone-shaped stove gave off warmth. A "buddy" was scraping woodland mud from his boots. Another was writing home to mother, using the side of a crate for a desk. An improvised rack hung over the stove held drying towels and wash-cloths.

Routine Is Simple
"The routine is purposely simple," says Capt. Leo Donovan, the world war veteran, taken from Ft. Washington to launch this experiment. "We hardly need it. The men are so eager to work."

The day's program includes: 6 a. m., rising bugle; 8 a. m., ready for work after dressing; eating and straightening camp; 11 a. m., rest and clean up for dinner; noon, dinner; 1 p. m., work; 4:30 p. m., rest and recreation; 5:30 supper; 7 p. m., some talk and singing "and so to bed."

"We don't work them too hard," says Donovan, "some of the men are not strong enough. But I could see a change for the better the first week, including those conditioning days at Ft. Washington. I've never seen a group of men with better spirit—and I've never seen a hungrier lot."

"All the comforts of home," grinner curly-haired Barney Taylor from Texas, as he looked around his tent home. "Running water and steam heat."

That brought a shout of laughter from his five tent mates. Rains have made the ground soggy. Rivulets trickle across the floor of the tents, strike the little army, cone-shaped stoves, and send up steam clouds.

The men are fed on 33 cents a day per man. A typical day's menu includes:

BREAKFAST: boiled eggs, fried potatoes, jam, coffee, butter and bread.
DINNER: Beef loaf and bacon, baked potato, beans, apple sauce, coffee, bread and butter.
SUPPER: Eggs, succotash, coffee, bread and butter, ice cream.

A young rookie from Pennsylvania expressed it well in writing to his mother:

"Dear Mom: Eating three squares again. Having a swell time. Sending you my pay. $30 a month. Don't worry."

A bill to prohibit teaching of Latin in South Carolina schools was voted down by the legislature.

WHILE JURY DEBATED HER DOOM

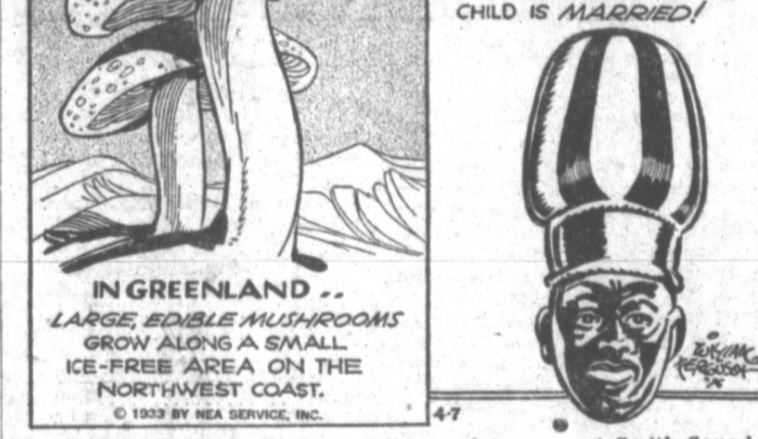

A JURY FOUND that this half-smile on the lips of Winnie Ruth Judd was evidence of her insanity. She posed for this picture in the prison courtyard at Florence, Ariz., while the jury weighed the question of her sanity. The confessed slayer of Agnes Ann Lerol was adjudged insane, and was saved from the gallows.

No Vacancies In County Schools

There will be few changes in the county teaching staff, according to Supt. John B. Hessey, and all vacancies have been filled.

An average of 40 persons per week are applying for positions. Most of the applications are made in person, since the oldtime way of applying by letter and photograph has been largely abandoned. Somewhat reduced salaries will be paid to county teachers next term.

Miss Ruby Adams, home demonstration agent, was working with club women in the Merten community today.

Ralph Thomas, county agent, was in the south part of the county today to demonstrate trapping of gophers and moles.

Leland Abbott and Clyde McAdams of Amarillo were here on business yesterday.

Less Suffering After She Took Cardui

"Periodically I have a dull ache in the lower part of my back," writes Mrs. Ruth Hill, of Charleston, W. Va. "I get real dizzy, my head aches, and I have a weak, 'gone' feeling that keeps me from doing my work well. I have found that taking Cardui prevents this. I have been greatly benefited from its use."

When womanly aches and pains are due to a weak, run-down condition, take CARDUI.

Sold at the drug stores here.
