Roosevelt Announces Huge Reduction In Veteran Expenditures

ANNUAL SAVING TO AMOUNT TO $400,000,000

LARGEST REVISION IN DISABILITY BENEFITS DEPARTMENT

EXTENSION LIST SLASHED

WILL REMOVE HALF OF VETS ON PAYROLL FROM ROSTER

WASHINGTON, April 1. (AP)—In the most sweeping economy move in the history of American government, President Roosevelt announced today an annual saving of $400,000,000 in veteran expenditures.

Effective July 1, the beginning of the next fiscal year, the order was made possible by the drastic law authorizing the president to pare sharply into payments to veterans, their widows and dependents—and cut federal salaries. The salary cuts occurred earlier in the week.

In issuing the diminished schedules of allowances, the president said "I do not want to see a veteran today an annual saving of $400,000,000 in veteran expenditures."

On the contrary," he added. "I want them to know that the regulations issued are but an integral part of our economy program embracing every department and agency of the government to which my employ is making his or her contribution."

He asked them to appreciate that only does their welfare but also the welfare of every American citizen depend upon the maintenance of the credit of their government that they also bear in mind every citizen in every walk of life is being called upon, directly or indirectly, to share in this.

Benefits Eliminated
One of the largest items of savings under the new regulations will be through the complete revision of the non-service connected disability benefits, most of which virtually are eliminated.

Some $100,000,000 will be saved through the limiting of this classification of pensions to those presently and totally disabled. They will receive $20 a month compared with $40 at present and those receiving allowances for less than total disability will be removed from the rolls.

W. W. Douglas, budget director and Brigadier General Frank Hines, veterans administrator, in brief summary of the 18,000 word executive order said the number of grants who would be affected by slashes could not be estimated yet.

Other interesting programs are being arranged.

MINSTREL TO BE GIVEN FOR JOBLESS HERE

Lions Club Agrees To Repeat Its Show

Unemployed men and their families, few of whom saw the Lions club musical revue and minstrel show will have the pleasure of seeing the performance soon at the city hall.

Only those admitted on free tickets available to those registered with the Welfare Board will be in the audience, but the city auditorium is expected to be full. There are 450 men on the active work list of the Board and almost as many others registered.

The day of the event has not been selected, but the performance must be soon because members of the club will attend a district convention in Amarillo April 17-18. President John Sturgeon in agreeing to present the show for the unemployed, said he would assemble his huge cast soon.

Kangaroo Trial Feature of Odd Fellow Meeting

Pampa Odd Fellows and Rebekahs held a social meeting in the lodge hall Friday night when music, games and a trial preceded "cats" which consisted of big red apples and suckers. The big event of the evening was a murder trial.

Judge Tom W. Barnes called to trial Joe Hall, charged with the murder of Reg. Brown and instructed District Attorney M. P. Downs to proceed with the prosecution of the defendant who was represented by the law firm of Baer, Oats, and Lunsford. A jury was selected and after heated questioning and debates by both sides, the jury found Hall guilty and he was sentenced to hang.

Car Licensing Is Under Par Here

A day of grace was granted to buyers of automobile licenses yesterday over most of Texas, but penalties for over-due payments on cars which have been in use will be assessed in Gray county and elsewhere beginning Monday.

COMMITTEE VOTES FARM BILL

GENERAL FORM CONFORMS TO FIRST DRAFT

OPPOSITION CRUMBLES AFTER CONFERENCE WITH PRESIDENT

FOUR ITEMS REMOVED

CATTLE, SHEEP, FLAX AND PEANUTS ARE ELIMINATED

WASHINGTON, April 1. (AP)—President Roosevelt's demand for speed in helping the farmer won today from the senate agriculture committee agreement on a relief bill almost exactly as the administration wanted it.

After several days' wrangling over the bill, opposition to the house-approved Roosevelt program, led by Chairman Smith (D., S. C.) crumbled in the wake of the long conference last night. Smith withdrew his proposed substitute for the bill.

A victory was chalked up in the committee, however, for Senator Kendrick of Wyoming, assistant democratic leader, whose motion to eliminate cattle and sheep from the sweeping farm price lifting bill was adopted 9 to 6 on his third try.

This done, flax and peanuts also were taken out, and the committee decided to report the bill to the senate Monday. Only one major question remains to be settled, members said, and that is whether to include the so-called Simpson production cost guaranty plan.

Members expect this proposal, advocated by John A. Simpson, president of the National Farmers Union, to be incorporated in the final draft of the bill, although it will be modified, and they will provide that it is an alternative to be used by the secretary of agriculture at his discretion.

Senator Norris (R., Neb.) is sponsoring Simpson's suggestion in the committee. It would authorize the government to fix prices on that portion of the farmer's crop going into the domestic market, to insure him production costs, and a "reasonable return" on his investment.

Flax and peanuts were put into the bill by the committee earlier in the week. With the elimination of these as well as cattle and sheep, the bill as it stands would give Secretary Wallace authority to deal with the problems of wheat, cotton, corn, hogs, rice, tobacco, and dairy products in an effort to lift the prices to the 1909-1914 levels, except tobacco, for which the level would be 1919-1928.

BOND ELECTION IS NOT NEEDED TO CANCEL

Legislative Act Is Sufficient To Void

The Wichita, Kans., legal firm which drew up proceedings for issuance of Gray county bonds has ruled as an opinion that no election is necessary to cancel $752,000 worth of unsold but authorized and now unnecessary bonds.

The ruling, in substance, is that action of the state legislature automatically voided the bonds by prohibiting counties from spending money on state roads except for purchase of right-of-way. Since the bonds which were to have been canceled were designated for "state highway" construction, they can never be sold and are, in short, canceled.

Gray county commissioners yesterday decided not to call a cancellation election after hearing the ruling explained by C. M. Smith, representative of the Brown-Crummer Investment company, buyer of Gray county bonds. Of the above amount, $620,000 has not been issued, and of $180,000 issued and printed $48,000 has been sold. This leaves $132,000 on deposit for safekeeping in a Dallas bank to be transferred to Gray county and burned by county officials.

For county purposes, such as completion of the Pampa-McLean highway and other lateral road projects, there is $523,000 in bonds not issued, not printed, and not yet sold. The county had a bonded, outstanding debt of about one and one-quarter million dollars. The county will pay off about $80,000 of the bonded debt this year, in addition to interest charges.

Roosevelt Now 'Overseer' In Oil Situation

WASHINGTON, April 1. (AP)—Leaders of both the opposing factions of oil producers and their representatives tonight stood on claims of having won a victory at the administration-sponsored governors' oil conference which assembled here this week.

Key men in the "insurgent" group of independent producers tonight declared unequivocally their side had won over the majority recommendations presented by the three controlling groups at the oil meeting.

With both sides claiming success, the White House, to which all of the diverging proposals were submitted, stands as a sort of overseer in the case. And tonight the White House was silent as to its decision. Indication was given something might be said shortly, however.

Recommendations made to President Roosevelt by the three governing groups of the governors' conference included proposals all flush pools of the principal oil producing states be closed until April 15. This vigorously was opposed by the "insurgent" independents. Another recommendation was that congress be asked to authorize the president to appoint a personal representative to cooperate with the states in an effort to stabilize the industry.

Secretary Ickes who called the governors' conference conferred with the president on the matter today but the chief executive has not yet acted upon the conferences' recommendation.

GAS WELL STRIPPING PERMITS GRANTED IN WEST PANHANDLE

Gas well stripping permits in the Panhandle field have been issued by the state railroad commission for that portion of the field beginning about 2 miles east of Pampa and extending westward to the end of the field.

This area, embracing roughly that from which the large interstate pipelines draw their fuel, was the subject for several recent hearings. About 150 wells owned largely by small independent concerns or individuals are affected by the ruling. Pampa firms and landowners are among those involved.

'JIM' ASSERTS CONFIDENCE IS NOW RESTORED

RELATES BUTTER DEAL TO SHOW CREDIT IS LAGGING

LAMENTS OIL STATUS

NOT ENOUGH CURRENCY HAS BEEN ISSUED, HE BELIEVES

By R. W. BARRY, Associated Press Staff Writer. AUSTIN, April 1. (AP)—James E. Ferguson, husband of the governor of Texas, himself twice elected to that office and now serving his wife for a second chief executive's term as her counselor, decided today in an interview with newspapermen that he is a poor "money-tician."

He talked about butter, oil, money, the legislature and other things. He went down into his wallet to bring out and exhibit some federal reserve currency to prove he was not "the money-tician" he always had prided himself as being.

"I didn't know until recently that these notes on the federal reserve bank call for their redemption in gold at the demand of the bearer," Farmer Jim said. "I always had prided myself at being a fairly good 'money-tician' but you know I didn't discover until just recently that I could take one of these notes and demand that it be redeemed in gold."

He lamented the fact that something had happened to deter the government in issuing a promised batch of $200,000,000 worth of currency.

"They stopped after they put out $60,000,000 worth," he said. "We needed all the $200,000,000 they started to issue. We didn't want 'em to lock it up after they printed it. We need it in circulation. They probably got frightened that somebody would be fool enough to come up and demand gold in exchange for these notes. That would be just too bad, because we probably wouldn't have the gold."

He said "confidence had been restored, but not credit." To illustrate his point he said he had interviewed a local banker about a loan on butter.

He asked the East Texas oil situation as "serious" and "something ought to be done," but made no definite suggestion what should be done.

SCOUT DRIVE IS NOT FINISHED IN WEEK

Scoutmasters Are To Meet at Study Period

A final check of results in the Boy Scout finance drive will be made Monday at 9 a. m., when all solicitors are asked to meet A. G. (Pete) Post, president of the Adobe Walls council. It was evident yesterday that little more than half the prospects had been seen, hence a continuation of the drive will likely be ordered. Many of the teams were not able to cover their territory in the allotted time, but intend yet to do so. Good results were noted in the portion covered.

A uniformed Boy Scout will take receipts and a statement of quarterly expenditures to all persons who have contributed to the support of the movement this year. President Post has given notice that work of the council will continue only in proportion to the amount of funds raised here and in other towns of the council.

Meanwhile, the registration of Scouts in the council has passed the 800 mark. Courts of Honor have been asked by Morse and Spearman for this week. The regular monthly meeting of scoutmasters will be combined Monday evening with the adult leaders' training course directed by W. O. Christian, Supt. R. B. Fisher will deliver the address of the evening.

Death List Of Two-Day Storm Is Now At 81

By The Associated Press. Bayous and creeks of the lower Mississippi valley were swollen and big rivers rose menacingly as the deep south last night watched a flood threat move in the path of a two-day storm that killed 81 persons, injured many hundreds, and wrecked a score or more of villages from Texas to Alabama.

The storm death toll by states: Texas, 20; Louisiana, 9; Arkansas, 1; Mississippi, 51.

The Mississippi delta was awash in sections where its little rivers had tumbled out of their beds and spread across fertile fields and highways.

A deluge that trailed the storm—a series of tornadoes—was largely responsible for the immediate flood menace, but the rivers were rising as a result of earlier rains.

The Red Cross in the stricken areas moved quickly to care for the homeless and destitute.

Seniors To Observe 'Sneak' Day Monday

The Senior class will celebrate their annual "sneak day," picnic at Camp Warner, south of Claude. The class will leave from in front of the high school at 7 o'clock, making the trip in cars.

"Eats" and games will be featured during the day, and upon returning the entire class will be guest of George Limerick to see Lee Tracy in "Clear All Wires."

TWO MEN ARE KILLED--ONE SLAIN IN JAIL

'CRUSH GERMAN JEWRY' IS PROCLAMATION TO WOMEN

PEOPLE ARE IN GAY MOOD

BOYCOTT IS NOT DUE TO BE RESUMED WEDNESDAY

By TOM WILHELM, Associated Press Staff Writer. BERLIN, April 1. (AP)—The Nazi boycott against the Jews—the greatest organized anti-Semitic movement of modern times—paralyzed the commercial life of its victims today but passed with comparatively few disorders.

Reports from all parts of Germany indicated the only serious outbreak was at Kiel, where two men were killed. A Jewish attorney fatally wounded a Nazi leader and subsequently was slain in jail by unidentified men.

Indications were that the boycott, limited to one day by the government in a proclamation yesterday, would not be resumed as scheduled Wednesday morning, although Joseph Goebbels, minister of propaganda, made it clear to a vast cheering throng in the Lustgarten it would be simple thing to make repressive measures against all Jews effective again.

"We have the boycott so organized that it can be resumed at 10 a. m. on Wednesday," Dr. Goebbels said. "It must be resumed we will crush Germany."

Only a few Jewish stores remained open today anywhere in Germany, and the Nazis succeeded in "persuading" prospective customers not to enter them.

Pope Pius Begins Holy Year With Ancient Ritual

VATICAN CITY, April 1. (AP)—Pope Pius XI blessed the whole world today upon inaugurating the holy year by breaking down the holy door of St. Peter's with a gold hammer before a throng of 5,000.

"With incomparable solemnity it draws its importance from the infinite value of divine redemption, of which all receive benefits," the Pontiff said. "Even after nineteen centuries we see the copious fruits thereof bestowed through the immeasurable love of the divine redeemer."

"Therefore, however profound may be our devotion, however assiduous and frequent our prayers, our zeal for living well and doing well, we never can succeed in approaching the greatness of the subject we are celebrating, that is, the redemption and the redeemer."

The Pope's words were carried by loud speakers throughout the immense basilica, packed with a cheering throng.

Our Budget Balancing

Much has been said of the necessity of balancing the national budget as a means of saving the federal credit. It is too often overlooked that similar budget balancing and maintenance of stability is necessary for private concerns as well.

The "new deal" voiced by President Franklin Delano Roosevelt stresses governmental economies so that taxes may be reduced and private budgets balanced.

President Roosevelt has pointed out that since salaries were set food prices have declined 37 per cent, clothing 25 per cent, rent 24 per cent, and house furnishings 20 per cent.

The Better Plan

Rather than prohibiting of expenditures, it would seem the part of wisdom to learn to control them year by year. Experiences of recent years should provide the impetus.

As To Schools

New statistics show that Texas' school expenditures are in line with the national average in many respects. Texas is ninth in income and ninth in school expenditures among the states.

to receive their allowances, under the presumption that the injury, disease or death was the result of service.

It was provided, however, that the government could challenge this presumption at any time and remove from the rolls anyone whose medical judgment or direct evidence showed the disability or death was not incurred in line of duty.

This provision was not in the original plan, officials of the Spanish war veterans said, but was placed in at their request when they were consulted on the proposed cuts.

Spanish war veterans reaching the age of 62 were granted a $6 a month compulsory pension.

A flat cut of 20 per cent was made in allowances for those permanently disabled in battle. A new rating schedule of disability containing only five ratings, compared with the present schedule of unrestricted ratings between 10 per cent and 100 per cent, was decreed.

The new ratings and rates for service-connected disabilities are: 10 per cent—$8.00 monthly; 25 per cent—$20; 50 per cent—$40; 75 per cent—$60 and 100 per cent—$80.

The new order eliminates all payments for temporary disability and the present free hospitalization for such disabilities. It restricts to one year after discharge service-connected disability on so-called presumption that it was incurred in service. Veteran organizations estimated this would remove from the veterans' administration rolls about one-half of the 340,000 world war veterans now receiving payments for such disabilities.

STATISTICS ON COTTON

There were 5,309 bales of cotton, counting round as half bales, ginned and to be ginned in Gray county from the crop of 1932 as compared with 8,269 bales from the crop of 1931 a year ago, said B. Lewis Webb, special census agent for Gray county, yesterday in an announcement.

BOYCOTT

Boycott measures were enforced against Jewish doctors and lawyers and all Jews holding government and municipal offices were ordered discharged.

Although racial hate was at the back of today's demonstration, in many parts of Germany, particularly in Berlin, people in the streets were in almost picnic mood.

Brown-shirted Nazis swarmed the thoroughfares carrying buckets of paint with which they splashed identifying signs on every shop run by a Jew.

Nazi headquarters had directed that a black placard marked with yellow be used to designate Jewish shops, but the forces of the boycott had ideas of their own. Such signs as "Danger—Jew Store" and "Attention—Beware of the Jew," accompanied by skull and crossbones, were put up, in addition to the regulation black and yellow quarantine.

CLARENDON NOSES OUT PAMPA TO WIN INVITATION MEET

Mexico's Racing Classic Will Be Run On Monday

QUA CALIENTE, April 1. (AP)—A field of nine (the smallest in 14 years) of renewals of Mexico's racing classic, will go to the post tomorrow for the $25,000 added Agua Caliente Stakes. The reputation of a powerful built son of Sir Galahad III, the 3-year-old Gallant Sir, owned by Norman W. Church, was responsible in part for the fact only a handful of the 35 eligible thoroughbreds will start.

Gallant Sir's odds opened in the feature book several months ago at 1 to 1. The favorite, however, was the Maryland handicap at Laurel Park and the Lonia championship at Altonia last fall.

A. A. Baroni's two entrants, Wirt G. Bowman and Waylayer, finished

Florida Crackers To Play For Dance

The management of the Pla-Mor announced last night Johnny Floyd and his Florida Crackers had been secured for a special dance Monday April 30.

Floyd is well known in the Southwest for the excellent music that he and his band produce. The band is composed of 12 pieces and four entertainers.

They have just completed a three months engagement at the Nat in Amarillo. Previous to their engagement at the Nat they were engaged as the staff orchestra for radio station KOB at Albuquerque, N. M. Floyd is well known at the Baker Hotel in Dallas where he has played at different times.

C. T. Everts and Lee Stewart of Dallas are spending the week-end with friends here.

Their final work over five eighths of a mile today. Waylayer covered the distance in one minute, one second, astonishing time for a warm-up gallop. Wirt G. Bowman did it in 1:22-5. Both were in excellent condition.

WHITLOW ON BOXING CARD

Battling Del Gado Will Be Favorite's Foe in Ten-Round Main Event.

Pampa boxing fans are scheduled to see another big-time fight at the Pla-More auditorium Wednesday when Allen Whitlow of Indianapolis meets Battling Del Gado of Fort Worth in the 10-round main event of the American Legion's fifth athletic show. The semi-final will bring Joe Vernon, local boy, into the ring with Red Williams of Waco.

Sammy Squyers, local boy, and Kid Stamper of Macon, Ga., will battle in a 6-round special event. Tiny Shanahan of Fort Worth is being brought in to meet Tuffy Simons of Berger in a 4-round bout. Shanahan is a "kid brother" of Gado's manager. Bill Forbes of Berger and Lefty Wright, also of Berger, have been matched for four rounds at 75 pounds.

The big card will open with two negroes in the ring to settle a grudge. They will be Clyde Bowie of the Hawkins barber shop and Oscar Hunter of the Schneider hotel. Both will weigh 160 pounds.

Gado is a real fighter and should give the great Whitlow a real run for his money. He has an enviable record in his class, having met and defeated some of the best men in the country. He packs a wallop and is fast and shifty.

Whitlow made himself an idol with Pampa fans last Wednesday night when he met Pug Grubbs in the local ring. A return bout is being planned.

Admission will be 40 cents for men and 25 cents for women and children. Reserve seats will be 25 cents to everyone.

FIFTEEN HIGH SCHOOL TEAMS ENTER EVENTS

CLARENDON SCORES 44 POINTS TO 38 FOR HARVESTERS

(By Staff Correspondent)

Making an excellent showing against some of the best high school track and field teams in this section of the state, the Pampa high school team took second place in the Clarendon college invitation tournament yesterday afternoon. The Harvesters were defeated by the Clarendon team, which made practically all its points in hurdles run in two heats without time or finals but in which points counted to give Clarendon 22 points.

Clarendon scored 44 points in all and the Harvesters followed with 38 points. Amarillo took third place with 22 points. Fourteen schools were represented and some of the best times were recorded of any met to date. Other schools participating were Memphis, Quitaque, Childress, Dumas, Shamrock, Kelton, Groom, LeFors, Silverton, White Deer, and Hedley.

The two preliminary heats in the 100-yard dash were run in 10 seconds flat, but the final was in 10.2 seconds. Heber Stewart, LeFors flash, took the first heat and Leslie of Memphis won the second. Leslie won the final. The first 120-yard hurdle event went to Reavis of Clarendon in 15.8 seconds. Bearden of Kelton, Wheeler county, outdistanced Heiskell in the 880-yard run to make it in 2 minutes 13 seconds. Other events were also keenly contested.

Reavis Tops List.

Reavis of Clarendon was high point scorer with 15 points and was presented with the chamber of commerce cup. Individual prizes went to winners of the first three places in each event.

Pampa first places went to Woodward in the pole vault, Boyington, in the mile, and O'Keefe in the broad jump in a tie with Morris of Quitaque.

A terrific cross wind was combated in all events. The cinder track was in excellent condition and a large crowd witnessed the events. The Mitchelmen made their best showing against the strong competition.

Hoot Fullington took third in the first 120-yard high hurdles and Wayne Kelley added a point with a fourth in the second heat. The best time was 15.8 seconds.

Emmitt Lane took fourth in the discus where the best throw was 113 feet 3 inches.

Lane also took fourth in the 100-yard dash when nosed out by Stewart of LeFors who took third place. The time was 10 seconds flat in the preliminaries and 10.2 seconds in the finals. Lane was second in his preliminary heat.

Locals Get Thirds.

Hoot Fullington took third place in the 230-yard hurdle event, which was run in 27.9 seconds and Dick Sullins took a third in the second race which went to Reavis of Clarendon in 25.8 seconds.

Leon Robinson led the 400-yard dash until the last few yards when he faltered and came in fourth. The track was longer than the regulation distance and Robinson was unable to hold the extra distance. The time of 56.6 seconds went to Jacobs of Amarillo.

Pampa failed to place in the shot-put, which went to Mills of Dumas, a little fellow who looped it 47 feet.

CAMBRIDGE IS WINNER AGAIN

Oxford Oarsmen Lose Tenth Straight Race By 2 And One-Half Lengths.

PUTNEY-ON-THAMES, England, April 1. (AP)—While half a million persons cheered them on, a fine stroking Cambridge university crew today rode the ebb tide of the muddy Thames to a two and a half length victory over Oxford to set up a new competitive record of ten straight triumphs.

It was the 85th renewal of the most colorful of all boat races, rowed as it is through populous suburban Putney against a chimney-pot horizon, and was the 44th victory for the light blues against 40 for Oxford and one dead heat.

Outglaced by one of the smoothest crews in Cambridge history the eight men in the Oxford shell put up a game fight to hold a quarter length lead at the mile and force Cambridge to their best for the first three miles of the four and a quarter mile test. Cambridge's winning time was 20 minutes, 57 seconds, the slowest since 1925.

For Cambridge it was merely reassertion of the dominance they have held on the water with only one interruption since the war. They had run their previous victory string to nine in 1923 when W. Palmer Melien, an American-trained oarsman, stroked the dark blues to a thrilling three-quarter length victory for their only triumph of the last 20 meetings.

CURRY WILL RETIRE AS LEGION COMMANDER

Selection of a commander to replace W. H. Curry will take place soon by the American Legion here. Mr. Curry stated in his resignation that his business required so much of his time that he could not give sufficient time to his duties as commander.

3 inches for a record.

O'Keefe of Pampa and Morris of Quitaque tied for first honors in the broad jump with 19 feet 10 inches. Woodward of Pampa took a fourth place.

Ed Rockwell, Pampa's high jumper, went 5 feet 10 inches only to be beaten by an inch by Martin of Clarendon.

The Amarillo relay team won in the last lap when Jacobs ran away with the lap. Childress was second and Pampa third. O'Keefe was tied with the leader on the first lap and Robinson gave the Harvesters a lead. Heiskell increased the lead to about 10 yards but Sullins loathed on the early stages and let both winners pass him.

The javelin event was the biggest upset of the day when Smith of Groom threw the spear 164 feet. Miles Marbaugh then struck himself with a throw of 160 feet 6 inches. Wayne Kelley took a fourth place with a throw of 157 feet, 6 inches.

Place a piece of camphor gum in the drawer or box used for storing silver, and this will aid in preventing tarnishing.

First Ball Game Will Be Played Here On Tuesday

The first playground ball game of the season will be played at 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon on the Sam Houston playground when the Faculty will meet the newly organized Diamond Shoppers, in an exhibition tilt. Neither team has had an opportunity to practice much this spring.

The Faculty will have the same line-up that went through last season with only two losses. The Diamond Shoppers will be made up of well known baseball and playground ball stars.

Sam Fenberg, manager of the Shoppers, has not named his pitcher yet but said yesterday that he would have a surprise for the Faculty. Sam has already signed Jimmie Marshall, Rusty Cahill, Jimmie Baldwin, Hol Wagner, Robert Woodward, Wayne Kelley, Raeburn Burke, Leo Shriver, Hates Saltzman, and Hap Baxter.

The Faculty will have Odus Mitchell, Lem Sone, E. G. Gordon, A. L. Patrick, W. O. Workman, Warren Moore, Harry Kelley, Schroeder, Herrod, Argus Fox, McDonald, Winston Savage, Aaron Meek, and others ready for the big game.

Several other teams are expected to swing into action this week and organization of a league will be soon.

Mrs. Walter Wise of LeFors shop here yesterday afternoon.

Bufs To Enter Two Dual Meets

CANYON, April 1. (SP)—Coach "Sad" Sam Burton has announced a limited program for track this spring. There will be at least two dual meets held at Canyon, with a possibility of a third to be held on the home lot.

Plans have practically been completed for meets at Canyon with Panhandle A. & M., and Southwestern Oklahoma Teachers, with the possibility of a home and home basis agreement with Texas Tech.

The meets will be held at night and could be first class attractions for the spring session.

Miss Eleanor Frey, local violinist, received a highly superior rating at the Panhandle Music festival at Amarillo yesterday. Here was the highest rating given in the violin department contests.

D HOBART ASSISTS MAKING PROGRAM IN DEDICATION OF MUSEUM BUILDING FOR SOCIETY

HUNDREDS WILL VISIT STRUCTURE NEXT APRIL 14

ANYON, April 1.—On April 14, you will be hosts to hundreds of people coming to join in the money dedicating the $50,000 museum of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society which will be an annual event in the annals of the organization.

Coming into existence in 1921, under the guidance of Miss Hattie M. Johnson of the history department of the West Texas State Teachers College, Amarillo, the society has grown to the point where the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society has in little less than phenomenal time immediately challenged the best of such leading pioneer cities as Mrs. Olive K. Dixon, widow of Billy Dixon of Adobe Walls fame, T. D. Hobart of Pampa, former president of the Southwestern Cattlemen's association, of O. H. Nelson, who brought the first registered Herefords to the Plains region, and of Colonel Charles Goodnight, until his death gave the small organization his assistance and support.

Secured Relics.

The first notable collection which came the property of the society is called the Morgan collection and was secured largely through the efforts of Prof. L. S. Baker of Canyon. This included guns, Mexican relics, small objects of historical significance and letters. Since was received in 1923 relics and documents have poured into the society almost daily. They include a variety so wide that every visitor is interested. Indian blankets, head-dresses, and implements share a place with guns, swords, powder horns, and bullet molds. A sturdy table, around which eager visitors from far countries sat when it was part of the furnishings of the Goodnight home, Bibles hundreds of years old, a shawl which graced the shoulders of a fair wearer when Lafayette visited America after the revolution, branding irons and a bed check wagon outfit which tell story of life on the range, a bell which once called students to books at old Goodnight college are used here.

With them are mounted specimens of animals and birds indigenous to the region, this collection being of particular interest to children and visitors from distances.

Most valuable perhaps of the society's possessions are documents, the largest single collection being records of the XIT ranch from the days when the Texas capital was being built almost to the present. Letters, including some unpublished ones telling of Sam Houston the days when he was Texas' leading citizen, and hundreds of letters telling of the experiences of common folk are in safe keeping to tell their story to succeeding generations.

Inadequate Room.

The West Texas State Teachers college gave storage space for the museum materials, but the room that could be provided was entirely inadequate even five years ago, so in 1928 definite plans were made to erect a building. At this time T. D. Hobart of Pampa was president of the society. H. E. Hoover, Canadian attorney, was chosen to head the building committee, with W. H. Patrick of Claydon, Colonel R. P. Smyth of Plainview, T. D. Hobart of Pampa, Mrs. Olive K. Dixon, Editor Gene Howe, Mrs. W. T. Coble, and H. M. Russell of Amarillo, and Dr. J. A. Hill of Canyon as members. From the first Prof. L. F. Sheffy, field secretary of the society, was the executive officer of the building committee.

Despite the hard times which began to be felt in Texas in the last weeks of 1929, the building fund campaign was not abandoned. The appropriation was the only one made by that legislature for building purposes, and it indicated that this museum had state-wide significance.

On August 24, just seven days before the appropriation would have reverted to the state, the contract for the building was let. Texas limestone was the material selected, it being the wish of the committee that Texas materials be used wherever possible.

Construction began in less than a week after the contract was awarded and on November 5 the cornerstone was laid with appropriate ceremonies.

Building Is Accepted.

An unusually mild winter allowed the work to progress rapidly and on March 4 the completed building was accepted by the State of Texas and the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society. Judge Henry Paulus of Yoakum and J. E. Hill of Amarillo representing the state and Judge H. E. Hoover, Canadian, Mrs. W. T. Coble, and H. M. Russell of Amarillo representing the latter.

The building, 150 feet by 50 feet, and fireproof, under term of the contract cost $50,000 but this did not include a floor in the basement; additional money was raised and this floor has been laid.

Since the completion of work on the museum materials have been moved into it, and they will be arranged for visitors for the first public opening, April 14.

Big Program for Dedication.

Prof. L. F. Sheffy will be in general charge of the program on April 14, with President T. D. Hobart and other officers of the society sharing the responsibilities with him. The society will hold three sessions that day, the final being a banquet with Judge J. D. Hamlin of Farwell as principal speaker.

A special feature of the opening will be an exhibit of paintings by six Panhandle artists who are interested in depicting Southwestern life.

After its formal opening the museum will be regularly open to the public, according to officials of the society.

VALIANT DUST

by Percival Christopher Wren

SYNOPSIS: Just in time to prevent Kaiser Napoleon Riccoli's betraying both France and the Raid of Mekeas, Colonel Le Sage of the French Secret Service steps in. He captures Riccoli in ten moments before Riccoli planned to seize the citadel of Mekeas, then to betray the Raid and seize him. Now Le Sage and his posse of loyal men of the Foreign Legion from Riccoli's command wait in the audience chamber for the Raid who plans, in his turn, to capture and torture Le Sage.

Chapter 45
THE TRAP IS SPRUNG
ASOUND. The turning of a key in the lock.

The door opened, and the Great Kaid, Haroun Abdallah Karim, stood in the doorway.

He entered the room, and, like a following shadow, the giant negro, Ibrahim the Lion, stooping through the six-foot doorway, followed his master. Behind him came the Kaid's confidential scribe.

Softly the door closed behind him, and Le Sage suppressed a sigh of relief.

Intent upon his victim, the Kaid noticed not the absence of his trusted Vizier, and, in the noise of his booming speech, the faint, almost inaudible sound of a turning, well-oiled key, was lost.

Seating himself on the throne, his bodyguard and secretary behind him, the Kaid smiled again.

"Aselamu, alellumu!" he boomed. "How is your health? Well? That is well. We would have you get the fullest enjoyment from such life as may remain to you by the Grace of Allah, the Merciful, the Compassionate."

Le Sage bowed and seated himself.

"I trust that Allah the Merciful, the Compassionate, will not only give the Great Kaid many long years of health, but to me at least an equal number in which I may know that he is safe—safe where no enemy can reach him, and . . ."

Leaning back upon his throne, his great jeweled sword across his knees, the Kaid gave vent to his humor in his great roaring laugh for which he was not only famous, but feared.

And scarcely had that booming roar of dreadful laughter begun before there was another roar, a shout, a cry in Cockney English.

"My Gawd! It's 'im! It's 'im!" as Sailor Harris sprang to his feet. "E'ung m; chum on the 'ooks!"

And, leaping the settee as he shouted, Sailor Harris, his fixed bayonet at the charge, rushed upon the Kaid.

Even as Le Sage sprang to his feet, the madman lunged and drove the long lean bayonet through the heart of the Kaid.

"Take that, you bloody torturer," shouted the mad Harris, as he drew forth his bayonet and stabbed again.

"Ready," shouted Le Sage, striking Ibrahim the Lion on the side of the head with all his strength, as the latter stooped to seize the Kaid's sabre.

As Ibrahim staggered and almost fell Otho leaped upon him, bringing him to the ground, while William Bossum, with excess of zeal, gave the unfortunate scribe so heavy a right-hander on the point of his jaw that he crashed to the ground and lay as one dead.

In a moment Ibrahim the Lion sighed, relaxed, closed his eyes and lay still.

"Well, my man," said Le Sage, turning to the panting Sailor Harris, "you solved a problem—with the bayonet. What were your orders?"

"I forgot meself, Sir," panted Sailor Harris. "E laughed like that when 'e killed my chum an' tortured me. 'E'd have 'ad you on the 'ooks, Sir."

"What were your orders?"

"I see red, sir. I went mad when I 'eard 'im laugh."

"We'll call it that, then; madness. All right, now?"

"Yes, sir."

Suddenly there was a swift, tremendous swirl of struggling humanity.

Ibrahim the Lion had suddenly drawn up his legs, flexed his mighty arms, shot out his feet, sent flying the man whose bayonet was at his throat, crashed together the heads of the men who held his arms, and struggled free.

Leaping like a man of India, rubber to his feet, he snatched his master's sword and sprang at Le Sage. Ere the great shining blade could descend, and cleave Le Sage's skull, Otho struck.

With his bare fist he drove a tremendous well-timed smashing blow between the giant's eyes, driving him staggering back.

Morgan Officers Are Told To Be Ready For Summons

Railroads Deny Labor Charges

CHICAGO, April 1. (AP)—A charge that two vast railroad systems had broken faith with their union employees was made today and denied by the railroads involved.

At Washington, chairman A. F. Whitney of the Railway Labor Executive association said the Rock Island lines and the Illinois Central system were undertaking to force employees to accept a 16 2-3 per cent pay cut in violation of federal laws and of a contract with the workers. The roads denied it, the Rock Island announcing employees had been given opportunity to "contribute voluntarily if they wished to do so" but that there had been no deduction or reduction. The Illinois Central stated simply it had no intention of breaking its contract.

The United States Board of Mediation entered the case tonight. Mediator Edwin P. Morrow visited headquarters of the two railroads in Chicago but made no comment.

—AND RUNYAN COMES ON VIRGINIA BEACH, Va., April 1. (AP)—Winds blew and rains fell today but failed to crimp seriously the crack golf of Paul Runyan, wiry little professional from White Plains, New York.

Dodson Given 8 Years In Death Of Plane Pilot

BROWNSVILLE, April 1. (AP)—Earl Dodson, 17-year-old San Benito youth, was convicted and sentenced to eight years' imprisonment today on charges of aiding in bringing about the death of Lehman Nelson, 33, flying instructor, victim in an airplane shooting.

Nelson was shot through the head February 23 by Erin McCall, 21, whom he was teaching to fly. McCall landed the plane, jumped out as it nosed over, then committed suicide.

The counts on which Dodson was indicted charged murder, aiding in murder, agreeing to aid in murder. The district court judge told the jury in his charge yesterday he was striking out the first count and deliberation would proceed on the others. The conviction came on the count charging furnishing arms and aid.

D. S. Purl, district attorney, and others who investigated the murder and suicide, developed the theory that Nelson's slaying was the outgrowth of a plan of several youths to obtain the plane for use in a trip to Yucatan. A map outlining the route to that country was found on McCall's body.

McCall went to the Harlingen airport late in the afternoon and asked Bill Williams to take him up in the plane, which belonged to a San Juan man. Williams said he would be unable to give the lesson and arranged for Nelson to substitute for him.

Two nights before, two youths made an attempt to steal the same plane from its hangar but a wing scraped against the side of the building and made a noise which frightened the boys away. Charges of attempted theft were filed against four young men.

BONURA SIGNS
DALLAS, April 1. (AP)—Zeke Bonura, regular first baseman, signed a Dallas contract today and will play part of tomorrow's game against the Indianapolis Indians.

Bonura, unable to come to terms with the Dallas club, appeared at the ball park with his baggage packed and ready to return to his home at New Orleans. Manager Happ Morse went into the clubhouse with Bonura and after conference, Bonura agreed to sign. Bob Tarleton, who was downtown, was called and rushed to the park and prepared the contract.

SENATE VOTES AUTHORITY TO PROBE DEAL

MORGAN MEN TOLD TO BE READY TO TAKE WITNESS STAND

WASHINGTON, April 1. (AP)—The senate banking committee set out today to remove all possible legal doubts of its authority to investigate J. P. Morgan & Co., meanwhile advising members of that huge banking firm to stand by for subpoenas to testify.

Confronted with an assertion by its counsel the Morgan house had refused to reveal its capital setup, when questions had been submitted in the stock market inquiry ordered by the senate, the committee recommended the senate extend its power to cover private as well as commercial banking in the investigation.

After the committee counsel, Ferdinand Pecora, New York, had said his authority had been challenged on behalf of the Morgan firm, a statement was issued in New York by John W. Davis as counsel for J. P. Morgan & company which said: "I have seen the statements emanating from Washington with reference to the inquiry by the senate banking and currency committee into the affairs of J. P. Morgan & company."

"The impression given that the firm of J. P. Morgan & company has refused to cooperate in the proceedings of the committee is entirely erroneous.

"Even now the firm is engaged in the preparation under my direction, of information along the lines suggested by Mr. Pecora several days ago.

"There is no disposition to decline to answer any pertinent inquiries."

Thut And Davis Named Trustees In LeFors Vote

LEFORS, April 1. (SP)—George Thut and D. E. Davis were elected to the board of the LeFors Independent school district in a trustee election today. The vote was as follows: George Thut 160, D. E. Davis 142, Howard Blake 87, E. Clifford West 71. A total of 230 votes were cast, including 45 of persons over the age to require payment of poll tax and 7 under this age.

Voters in county school districts went to the polls in Gray county to choose from one to three trustees in each election. No election was necessary this year in the Pampa Independent school district because of overlapping terms.

Three county trustees were to be chosen to fill the places of Siler Faulkner, trustee at large, W. S. Wills of commissioners' precinct 3 and J. S. Wynne of commissioners, precinct 2. The incumbents were expected to be re-elected.

Few contests were noted by County Supt. John B. Hesse, chief interest in such elections was reported at LeFors.

Confession Is Claimed in Bohn Kidnaping Case

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 1. (AP)—Minnesota and Canadian authorities today seized an unemployed railroad worker who confessed, officers said, he had a part in the kidnaping of young Haskell Bohn here last summer.

Trailed by local investigators and Royal Canadian Mounted police, Ray Robinson, 40, was found at Roxton, Man.

Police Chief Thomas Dahill said he was told by County Attorney M. F. Kinkead from Winnipeg Robinson had confessed participation in the Bohn kidnaping and implicated Mr. and Mrs. Verne Sankey.

Sankey has been hunted several weeks on charges of complicity in the Bohn seizure, as has Gordon Elkhorn. Both are wanted also in the Denver kidnaping of Charles Roether II, wealthy broker in February. Mrs. Sankey is in custody at Denver in the Boettcher case.

Kinkead remained in Winnipeg today with young Bohn, who was held in a Minneapolis house a week before payment of $12,000 by his father, a refrigerator manufacturer, brought freedom.

Robinson was brought into the case here after Bohn, 21, identified him through a picture as one of two men who forced him into a car near his home June 30. The other man, police said, was Sankey. Bohn told of hearing a "strange voice" while in the Minneapolis residence which police said was occupied by the Sankeys. The voice, Dahill said, was that of Elkhorn. Bohn did not see the man, however, because his eyes were kept closed by adhesive tape.

PAMPA BEATS L'FORS 90-57 IN MEET HERE

SCORING HONORS WON BY STEWART WITH 17 POINTS

Pampa's track and field team won the senior division of the county interscholastic meet at Harvester park Friday afternoon by scoring 90 points to 37 for LeFors, the only other contender. McLean did not enter a team.

Heber Stewart, LeFors crack field and track man, scored high individual honors with 17 points. Wayne Kelley, captain of the Pampa team, was second high with 12 points. Emmitt Lane of Pampa took third high with 10 points.

Only two new records were hung up during the meet. Wayne Kelley set a new distance for the javelin that will probably stand for many years. Stewart locked only one-inch of a second of equaling the 220-yard dash mark held by Mertel McLean with 23.7 seconds.

A large crowd witnessed the meet which was one of the most keenly contested in several years. The athletes were evenly matched and competition was close from the first event.

The Harvesters won 10 firsts and tied for another first place to give LeFors two firsts and a tie. Lane of Pampa showed up well in the 100 yard dash which he stepped in 10.4 seconds and not pushed hard. Heiskell showed strong in the half mile.

Morgan Officers Are Told To Be Ready For Summons

Railroads Deny Labor Charges

CHICAGO, April 1. (AP)—A charge that two vast railroad systems had broken faith with their union employees was made today and denied by the railroads involved.

At Washington, chairman A. F. Whitney of the Railway Labor Executives association said the Rock Island lines and the Illinois Central system were undertaking to force employees to accept a 16 2-3 per cent pay cut in violation of federal laws and of a contract with the workers. The roads denied it, the Rock Island announcing employees had been given opportunity to "contribute voluntarily if they wished to do so" but that there had been no deduction or reduction. The Illinois Central stated simply it had no intention of breaking its contract.

The United States Board of Mediation entered the case tonight. Mediator Edwin P. Morrow visited headquarters of the two railroads in Chicago but made no comment.

—AND RUNYAN COMES ON VIRGINIA BEACH Va., April 1. (AP)—Winds blew and rains fell today but failed to crimp seriously the crack golf of Paul Runyan, wry little professional from White Plains, New York.

Dodson Given 8 Years In Death Of Plane Pilot

BROWNSVILLE, April 1. (AP)—Earl Dodson, 17-year-old San Benito youth, was convicted and sentenced to eight years' imprisonment today on charges of aiding in bringing about the death of Lehman Nelson, 33, flying instructor, victim in an airplane shooting.

Nelson was shot through the head February 23 by Erin McCall, 21, whom he was teaching to fly. McCall landed the plane, jumped out as it nosed over, then committed suicide.

The counts on which Dodson was indicted charged murder, aiding in murder, agreeing to aid in murder. The district court judge told the jury in his charge yesterday he was striking out the first count and deliberation would proceed on the others. The conviction came on the count charging furnishing arms and aid.

D. S. Purl, district attorney, and others who investigated the murder and suicide, developed the theory that Nelson's slaying was the outgrowth of a plan of several youths to obtain the plane for use in a trip to Yucatan. A map outlining the route to that country was found on McCall's body.

McCall went to the Harlingen airport late in the afternoon and asked Bill Williams to take him up in the plane, which belonged to a San Juan man. Williams said he would be unable to give the lesson and arranged for Nelson to substitute for him.

Two nights before, two youths made an attempt to steal the same plane from its hangar but a wing scraped against the side of the building and made a noise which frightened the boys away. Charges of attempted theft were filed against four young men.

SENATE VOTES AUTHORITY TO PROBE DEAL

MORGAN MEN TOLD TO BE READY TO TAKE WITNESS STAND

WASHINGTON, April 1. (AP)—The senate banking committee set out today to remove all possible legal doubts of its authority to investigate J. P. Morgan & Co., meanwhile advising members of that huge banking firm to stand by for subpoenas to testify.

Confronted with an assertion by its counsel the Morgan house had refused to reveal its capital setup when questions had been submitted in the stock market inquiry ordered by the senate, the committee recommended the senate extend its power to cover private as well as commercial banking in the investigation.

After the committee counsel, Ferdinand Pecora, New York, had said his authority had been challenged on behalf of the Morgan firm, a statement was issued in New York by John W. Davis as counsel for J. P. Morgan & company which said:

"I have seen the statements emanating from Washington with reference to the inquiry by the senate banking and currency committee in to the affairs of J. P. Morgan & company.

"The impression given that the firm of J. P. Morgan & company has refused to cooperate in the probing of the committee is entirely erroneous.

"Even now the firm is engaged in the preparation, under my direction, of information along the lines suggested by Mr. Pecora several days ago.

"There is no disposition to decline to answer any pertinent inquiries."

Confession Is Claimed in Bohn Kidnaping Case

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 1. (AP)—Minnesota and Canadian authorities today seized an unemployed railroader who confessed, officers said, he had a part in the kidnaping of young Haskell Bohn here last summer.

Trailed by local investigators and Royal Canadian Mounted police, Ray Robinson, 40, was found a Rorketon, Man.

Police Chief Thomas Dahill said he was told by County Attorney M. P. Kinkaid from Winnipeg Robinson had confessed participation in the Bohn kidnaping and implicated Mr. and Mrs. Verne Sankey.

Sankey has been hunted several weeks on charges of complicity in the Bohn case, as has Gordon Elkhorn. Both are wanted also in the Denver kidnaping of Charles Boettcher II, wealthy broker in February. Mrs. Sankey is in custody at Denver in the Boettcher case.

Kinkaid remained in Winnipeg today with young Bohn, who was held in a Minneapolis house a week before payment of $12,000 by his father, a refrigerator manufacturer, brought freedom.

Robinson was brought into the case here which police said was coupled by the Sankeys. The voice, Dahill said, was that of Elkhorn. Bohn did not see the man, however, because his eyes were kept closed by adhesive tape.

PAMPA BEATS L'FORS 90-57 IN MEET HERE

SCORING HONORS WON BY STEWART WITH 17 POINTS

Pampa's track and field team won the senior division of the county interscholastic meet at Harvester park Friday afternoon by scoring 90 points to 57 for LeFors, the only other contender. McLean did not enter a team.

Heber Stewart, LeFors crack field and track man, scored high individual honors with 17 points. Wayne Kelley, captain of the Pampa team, was second high with 12 points. Emmitt Lane of Pampa took third high with 10 points.

Only two new records were hung up during the meet. Wayne Kelley set a new distance for the javelin that will probably stand for many years. He sent the thin pole whistling through the air 163 feet 7 inches to break his own record of 152 feet. Heber Stewart broke the other record when he broad jumped 20 feet 11 1/2 inches to break the record of 20 feet 11 inches set by Archie Walstad in 1929. Stewart lacked only one-tenth of a second of equalling the 220-yard dash mark held by Merteil of McLean with 23.7 seconds.

A large crowd witnessed the meet which was one of the most keenly contested in several years. The athletes were evenly matched and competition was close from the first event.

The Harvesters won 10 firsts and tied for another first place to give LeFors two firsts and a tie. Lane of Pampa showed up well in the 100-yard dash which he topped in 10.4 seconds and not pushed hard. Heiskell showed strong in the half mile.

Out of 240 piano contestants only four highly superior ratings were given, and Miss Jones won over three contestants from Amarillo and Plainview. She played the Schero in E Minor (Mendelssohn) in the 17-year-old division, and also received a rating of superior in the 19-year-old division, playing Liebestraum No. 2 (Liszt). She was first in both events and will enter in both at Lubbock. Frances Thomason, only pupil of Mrs. F. P. McKimling to enter, received the ranking of excellent when she played The Juggler (Kern). She will go to Lubbock.

"GREATEST CRISIS" FACED BY TEXAS PUBLIC SCHOOLS

PARENTS AND TEACHERS ASK QUICK ACTION

DRASTIC ECONOMY FOR EDUCATION GREATLY DEPLORED

By MRS. J. M. CRAIN, Claude State Parent-Teacher Publicity Director

THE PUBLIC schools of Texas are facing the greatest crisis in history. Some schools have closed and many others face the same prospect on account of the decrease in school revenues.

Ben Johnson says that prisons are monuments to neglected youth. Juvenile delinquents cost $400 annually while an adult in prison for the same length of time cost $300. To keep a child in school for a year costs less than $100.

Officials who want to curtail education for the sake of a little economy should contrast the figures quoted above. Economy at the expense of the children of the state is poor economy indeed. False economy which restricts education means more juvenile delinquency and is an admission that the people are not smart enough to run the government and at the same time provide adequate educational facilities for the youth of the state.

"Public education marks the outstanding difference between civilized and non-civilized peoples. Civilized nations tax themselves to maintain organized school. They know that education is the price of civilization, and they are willing to pay the price. Many individuals clamor for lower taxes, but few clamor for lower civilization," states D. W. Parrott.

Many Baptists Of Pampa Planning To Attend Gathering

Many Pampa Baptists are making plans to attend the Sunday school and Training Service convention of district 10 to be held in the San Jacinto Heights Baptist church, Amarillo, beginning Tuesday and continuing through Thursday. One class alone, the Fidelis Matrons of the First Baptist church, is making plans to send four carloads.

The First church of this city will have charge of the special music for the opening session Tuesday evening. E. C. Link will direct an adult union B. T. S. conference on the morning, and 11:30 a. m. the same day the Rev. C. E. Lancaster will speak on The Cooperative Program. Dr. G. L. Yates of Amarillo, who is to conduct a revival meeting in Pampa soon, will preach a sermon the first evening of the convention.

Miss Taylor Given High Violin Rank

Miss Willie Reece Taylor, local student of violin, received the superior or highest rating in her age division at the Panhandle Music festival in Amarillo yesterday. This will entitle her to enter the Tri-State Music festival in Lubbock April 6, 7, and 8.

Miss Taylor played Air Varié (Dance), accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Frank Keehn. Her instructor is Prof. Otto Schick.

under fire, and the child, for whom this education is intended, is bound to pay the price for a situation which it had no hand in shaping. Only a solid front composed of parents, teachers and other interested citizens in education will prevent chaos at this time.

Public machinery, such as public health, welfare agencies, educational systems, should be the last to be affected by measures of drastic economy. Libraries, parks and playgrounds are outstanding havens in a troubled time. People everywhere should be on guard against any retrenchment which pinches the young.

The Texas Congress at its last convention passed a resolution, reaffirming its stand for adequate appropriations for the support of the school system of the state. This organization values its opportunity for co-operation with the public school system of Texas.

Many parent-teacher associations over the state have recently sent petitions, telegrams, and resolutions to the legislature requesting it to take care of the schools through the passage of bills which will provide sufficient revenues for education. A grievance that Texas pioneers had against the Mexican government was that it had failed to establish a system of public education that was adopted when Texas became a state: "A general diffusion of knowledge being essential to the preservation of the rights and liberties of the people, it shall be the duty of the legislature of this state to make suitable provision for the proper support and maintenance of the public schools."

THIS is the first photograph taken of Mary and Tommy Tucker, the musical children of Mrs. Tucker of Sherman, Tex. The shortening fame, who are stars on the "Mrs. Tucker's Smiles" program being broadcast every Monday, Wednesday and Friday morning at 7:45 o'clock over station WFAA. "Mary Tucker has an unusual style of piano playing which is all her own. She ripples the old and new melodies from her magic piano. Tommy Tucker, the smiling, silver-voiced boy of Mrs. Tucker, sings the songs which southwestern housewives want to hear as they go about their evening's work. Housewives all over the southwest write Mrs. Tucker at Sherman, Texas, the numbers they want to hear; and Mary and Tommy play and sing them."

Woodin Says 265 Banks Restored

WASHINGTON, March 31. (AP)—The treasury reported today that 265 national banks with deposits of $350,000,000 have been restored to a 100 per cent banking function thru reorganization of the ten-day period ending March 25.

Secretary Woodin, in commenting upon the progress made, said these results since March 15 indicated the extent to which work is actively in process of the restoration of banks which were unable to open on the date originally set, and the constructive response being made by stockholders and depositors.

He said that as additional banks have been reopened they have assumed on a sound basis the performance of the same full functions as the banks opened on the first days set.

WAR VETERANS ONLY ARE TO MAKE POPPIES

LEGION AUXILIARY TO SELL FLOWERS ON MAY 27

WHEN Mr. and Mrs. America put on their little red poppies in honor of the American World War dead on Poppy day, May 27, they will not wear foreign or factory-made poppies. That is, they will not if they secure their poppies from the American Legion auxiliary, state Mrs. W. C. de Cordova, president of the Pampa unit of the auxiliary here.

When the custom of wearing poppies in memory of the war dead was first started, many of the poppies were foreign-made, Mrs. de Cordova explained. Others were made in factories in this country at a profit to the factory owners. Believing the foreign or factory-made poppies could not express the true sentiment of the memorial flower, the auxiliary for years has had all of its poppies made by disabled American veterans.

Poppies which the auxiliary women will distribute on Poppy day this year are now being made in government hospitals and special poppy workrooms maintained by the auxiliary in 32 different states. Millions of the flowers already have been completed and are ready for shipment. Ten million are expected to be made before the day of the sale. Foreign or factory-made poppies could be purchased much more cheaply, but under the auxiliary's plan every penny which the public pays for the little flowers goes for the relief of a needy world war veteran or veteran's family.

Canyon Students To Give Pageant For Old-Timers

CANYON, April 1. (AP)—Pioneers in the development of the Panhandle will be honored by an historical pageant to be presented by students of West Texas State Teachers college at the formal opening of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum on April 14.

Oldtimers who have lived half a century or more in the Panhandle and seen the region of prairie grazing lands transformed into an agricultural empire, simultaneously with the development of its hidden wealth of oil and gas, will occupy seats in the college auditorium while the students reenact the scenes once familiar on the plains. Six definite periods which figured in the history of the Panhandle will be presented in the pageant. The era of the Indian, then the Buffalo hunter, the cattleman, first settler, pioneer schools, and the period of achievement will provide material for the several scenes.

More than 150 students will take part, and the pageant will be presented "in appreciation of the sacrifices and contributions of the Panhandle's pioneers."

MAKE GARDEN AND HOUSE HARMONIZE, PAMPAN URGES

'PUBLIC AREAS' OF YARD MUST BE IN KEEPING WITH STREET IN ORDER TO BE MOST ATTRACTIVE

ONE'S INDIVIDUALITY SHOULD BE USED IN PRIVATE AREAS

(Note: The following article was contributed by Mrs. John F. Dixon of Pampa, who received extensive training in landscaping gardening at Iowa State College, Ames, Ia.)

By MRS. JOHN F. DIXON
THERE are two forms of landscape treatment, the formal and informal. The informal garden is less expensive and more readily kept in good condition than the formal garden, and the free lines allow more or less irregularity in the upkeep and exactness of the detail which is more advantageous.

Perhaps the simplest method in planning your grounds is to make a plot of your grounds on a sheet of paper. This gives one an opportunity to see the relation of everything to each other and to the neighboring surroundings. Strive to have your garden in keeping with your house. The Spanish house can have the bright tile bordered pool, and there can be brightly-colored pots along the edge of the terrace in which should grow bright geraniums. If your home is of the English type, there are brick walls; the prim beds bordering them, ivy clinging to the house and vines scrambling over walls. If you possess a modern bungalow there is no period style with this sort of home and this gives us a free rein in making a typical American bungalow garden.

The location of the house upon the property is of fundamental importance, for when the house is located, the various areas about the house are automatically determined. The public area of the grounds plays the prominent part of forming the setting of our homes as viewed from the street. We should treat the public area in the sense that it belongs to the public, and that it becomes a part of the environment of everyone using the street, just the same as every other lot and should be considered accordingly. The home owner should study the surrounding lots in order to keep his lot in harmony with the whole street and he should do everything in his power to make his street more attractive.

In the foundation planting, one should be careful to relieve the abrupt transition from the ground to the house. Use medium tall shrubs with lower ones in front, and medium or tall shrubs at the corners of the house to heighten the corners, while accent plants may mark the entrance walk. Leave a few spaces in the shrubbery planting so that the foundation of the house shows. Avoid gay colors as much as possible.

Trees should be used to frame the view of the house and of course where shade is needed. Do not plant in the parking unless it is the policy of the whole street. The private area should be planned to express the individuality of the owner, for it is to be enjoyed by the family and should be planned accordingly. Often a wall of brick or stone, a fence of lattice, covered with vines screen the view of the private area from the street. The planting should be high in places and lower in others for there are often objectionable views to screen and often views to frame. The private area should be planned as a simple lawn area, bordered by trees, shrubs and flowers. The service area of the lot may include the garage, vegetable garden, laundry-yard, and all outdoor working parts. There should be screening of shrubs, fences, walls or lattice from the street and the living portion of the house and grounds. Shrubs and flowers should be planted in masses as much as possible. Follow the straight lines in planting. Leave open grassy spaces, where there are compact areas.

Several independents in the gas industry in the Panhandle including producers and royalty and landowners, have expressed opposition to the bill recently introduced in the Texas legislature which laid a flat tax of 2 cents per 1000 cubic feet on all natural gas production.

Tracy signals his employer's chorus girl sweetie and takes her to Moscow where he's to "cover" the Red Army. He gets fired for it, tries to stage a supposed killing of a prince to get back on the payroll, falls afoul of the secret police, can't escape all his pursuing women, and in a fine pickle when a newspaperwoman who really loves him gets him out of his countless and complicated situations.

Benita Hume, British star making her American debut, is charming and a superb little actress as the newspaperwoman. Irresistible comedy is contributed by Una Merkel and James Gleason, and C. Henry Gordon scores as the menacing police commissar. Alan Edwards, Lya Lys, Lawrence Grant and Guy Lohr are excellent in minor roles, and three members of the original New York cast, Ari Katal, Eugene Sigaloff and John Melvin Biefer, distinguish themselves in their stage parts.

More than 12 miles of bamboo were used in building the two African villages. The bamboo, ranging in size from three inches in diameter to others which are as much as four inches across, forms the outer walls of all buildings, which were made rain-tight by the use of reeds, palm leaves and matted grasses within.

In the main, the larger sizes were used in a settlement which represents the jungle village of the tribal king, with his own house a remarkable example of African architecture. Each bamboo stalk in the walls was 30 feet in length, and the dwelling was surrounded by a colonnade of pillars formed by the crooked trunks of African oak trees.

From the West Panhandle field, there are now five trunk lines; 20-inch lines go to Kansas City and Denver; a 24-inch line of the Tahoma Natural Gas company serves Chicago and is building into Milwaukee. The Panhandle eastern connects at the Indiana-Illinois line with the Columbia gas system and with the Northern Natural is within 100 miles of Minneapolis and St. Paul.

The major gas interests have successfully maintained that the state can limit their production only if it is being produced wastefully and cannot compel them to share their markets. They contend that the state should prohibit any gas from being produced except for light and fuel. They have admitted and pleaded in their various lawsuits that they have every light and fuel market for 1,000 miles "bottled up."

'Kidnaped' Man Released After Money Is Found

AMARILLO, April 1. (AP)—Aaron Young, 45-year-old Hillsboro truck driver, who reported to Amarillo police yesterday that he was kidnaped at Fort Worth Wednesday night and robbed of $300, was released late today after Sheriff Bill Adams had taken possession of $217 found in one of Young's socks.

Adams said he decided to release the trucker on his own recognition after talking with Fort Worth officers. He said Young told him he originally had $294.60, which had been paid him for a truck load of sugar delivered in Fort Worth. Adams said he found two $100 bills, two $5 bills and seven $1 bills folded beneath the arch of Young's foot, inside the sock, and that Young said he had spent the balance of the money coming to T. W. Jackson, chief of detectives, at Fort Worth.

Japs May Invade North China Soon

CHANGCHUN, Manchuria, April 1. (AP)—Lieut. Gen. Kuniaki Koiso, chief of staff of the Japanese armies in Manchuria, told the Associated Press today, that continuing Chinese attacks along the Great Wall of China were only resulting in sacrifice of Chinese lives and might bring on an extension of the Japanese occupation into North China proper.

Asked whether the Japanese army could avoid occupation of Peiping if the attacks continued, Gen. Koiso said: "It is impossible to ignore such challenges. But at the same time we must consider the international factors involved in the possible occupation of Peiping, as well as the risk to lives of Japanese, foreigners, and peaceful residents of the old capital." Gen. Koiso estimated 120,000 Chinese troops are immediately southward of the Great Wall, in addition to 60,000 west and south of Shan-hai-kwan, and 40,000 in Peiping and Tientsin, totaling about five times the Japanese strength in Jehol.

Burglars Kidnap Man, Cut Lines, Then Loot Bank

COMANCHE, April 1. (AP)—After kidnaping a filling station operator and cutting telephone lines leading from the town, four men last night entered the Farmers and Merchants bank of Friday, cut a hole with an acetylene torch in the safe and escaped with between $700 and $900. The filling station operator, Otto Schoen, was kidnaped about 1 a. m., and taken to the bank where he was freed to a chair. He was able to spread the alarm. Comanche and Mills county officers were notified. Schoen said two of the burglars appeared to be young men and the other two middle aged. They fled toward Goldthwaite after returning Schoen to his station and binding him to a cot. They paid him three dollars in scorched bills taken from the bank for 10 gallons of gasoline.

Rockne Killed Near Spot Of Toilers' Crash

KANSAS CITY, April 1. (AP)—Two years ago Friday a commercial liner hovering over the flint hills of the blue stem grazing ranchland of Kansas, dashing Knute Rockne and seven others to their deaths, barely 100 miles from the place where a multi-motored plane fell thru a screen of clouds Friday with the Canadian amateur champion basketball squad aboard.

Weather bureau officials here said meteorological conditions of today and two years ago were not at all comparable. L. A. Warren of the airport weather station here described the condition in the vicinity of Neodesha, Kan., as not unfavorable to flying, although the entire area was obscured by clouds. Warren said the ceiling generally was 800 to 1200 feet above ground and that flying in such weather is not regarded as abnormally hazardous.

The Rockne crash, never explained although the federal government made an intensive investigation which is still reported in progress, occurred near Bazaar, Kan., late in the forenoon of March 31, 1931. It was a cold, raw day and visibility was poor. The plane roared over a ranchhouse on schedule, then circled back and appeared in distress five minutes later with a motor missing fire.
