Roosevelt Recommends Refinancing Of Farmers' Indebtedness

FERGUSON PROPOSES OIL TAX

TWINKLES
Nothing is more obvious than that Jim Ferguson is getting old. Instead of describing a stubborn legislature in twelve-cylinder terms, he asks newspaper men, "What do you think?"

Who has a copy of J. Everts Haley's book, History of the XIT Ranch, belonging to T. D. Hobart? The friend to whom Mr. Hobart lent the book has misplaced it and is eager to locate it. Stop and think folks, did you borrow the book?

Spring was a bit too gusty to permit holding of the Baker school kite tournament. Some of the tots are small and we don't wish any of them to be carried off by the wind.

There's going to be a chess tournament and a big one at that. This community has many chess players or persons who think they know the game. We haven't the slightest idea what it's all about, and being a poor fisherman, we suppose chess has no appeal for us. All chess players, we hear, are more patient than the most patient fisherman.

And sometimes fish act as if they were playing chess and thinking over all the consequences of the next move.

The West Foster grouch says this country has restored confidence but darned poor patience.

OUR CONTEMPORARIES

T. A. Landers in McLean News: The editor of the State Line Tribune says that a pastor there says "Amen" with a long A and when he prays while the choir sings "Amen" when it sings, and it has one of the members of the church worried as to which is correct. There is nothing for the gentleman to worry about. If the prayer is a bit too long, or the choir offering not any too pleasant, both pronouncements mean the same thing.

(Too many people believe that choral singing is the church prepared by the church publishing houses from month to month are high brow. No one has more appreciation for the standard old-time hymns than this writer, nor more contempt for the idea that we should approve nothing new. Not all of the new church music is good, but it is steadily improving, and most of it is usable if choir directors choose what their members can really sing. Those who condemn good church music usually cannot appreciate any kind of church music.)

WINDY VALLEY NEIGHBORS

Sam Brasswell in Clarendon News: It was a fine thing that J. W. Skinner's neighbors out in the Windy Valley community did for him last Thursday. Mr. Skinner, ill for several weeks, had doubtless worried no little bit about his farm work, and 34 of his neighbors, with 28 lists and 114 horses and mules, gathered at his farm and listed more than 100 acres of land for them. Then they drove past his window so he could see each of them. Would a man want to leave such neighbors as Mr. Skinner has? Not likely!

(Modern writers may ridicule the folk at the forks of the creeks, but there is more genuine neighborliness in our Windy Valleys than on our main streets. . . . This writer is glad that the chambers of commerce in Pampa are promoting the kind of helpfulness they have in Windy Valley. . . . People have hard times these days, but they are learning to be neighbors and to learn the joy of having little family circles instead of having curves all over the countryside.)

PUFFED WHEAT—AND PRICE

J. C. Estlack in Clarendon Leader: Did you know that a ton of wheat costing $20 can be made into puffed wheat retailing at $1,400? But the grower did not realize any of this nice profit. The fellows who reap the big end of the profit are no more

PROPOSAL CAN BE INCLUDED IN FARM BILL

URGES READJUSTMENT OF PRINCIPAL OF FARMERS' DEBTS

ASKS INTEREST SLASH
PRESIDENT WILL SOON ASK FOR TRAFFIC AGREEMENTS

WASHINGTON, April 3. (AP)—President Roosevelt recommended to congress today the enactment of legislation authorizing refinancing of farmers indebtedness.

Beginning his fifth White House week with the dispatch of his seventh message to the legislators, the president opened the way for inclusion of this latest major plan as an amendment to the farm relief bill in the senate.

Applying on farm mortgages, the message proposed both readjustment of the principal of the farmers debts and a reduction of interest rates.

He also proposed "a temporary readjustment of amortization, to give sufficient time to farmers to restore to them the hope of ultimate free ownership of their own land."

The president said he would soon propose an extension of this program to the debt burdened owners of small homes.

He also disclosed he would ask congress soon for legislation permitting the initiation of reciprocal tariff agreements.

"The legislation I suggest," said the president, "will not impose a heavy burden upon the national treasury."

Overwhelmingly voting into the administration farm relief bill the so-called Simpson production cost guaranty plan, members of the senate agriculture committee concluded work on that measure and turned directly to a study of the Roosevelt farm mortgage refinancing program.

After members had agreed on the farm relief bill, Chairman Smith (D., S. C.) called them to meet in executive session to take up formally the mortgage measure.

What the bill provides:
Here is in the main what the mortgage bill provides:
A $70,000,000 appropriation for the treasury to subscribe to federal land banks' capital to get the plan at work immediately.

A $2,000,000,000 farm mortgage bond issue, the bonds to be exchanged with mortgage holders for the mortgages, under the general supervision of the recently consolidated federal farm credits agency.

It sets up machinery for taking over the unpaid balances of mortgages outstanding, and in the case of mortgages on which nothing has been paid, provides that the property be repossessed and a maximum of 70 per cent covered in a new mortgage based on current appraised value.

This 70 per cent would be made up by 50 per cent of the value of the farm and 20 per cent of the improvements.

Registration Of Unemployed Will Be Resumed Soon

Registration of local unemployed has been temporarily halted for lack of forms, but additional forms have been ordered by wire and they are expected here soon. More than 100 had been registered when the forms were exhausted.

Seventy-nine men and six women were placed at work this morning through the relief committee. The men are at work on the swimming pool and on the streets. The men are being used in rotation according to number of dependents.

Leslie Quarles of Mobettie was here today.

I HEARD--

That Ed Disman of McLean was spreading laughs as usual here today. He came up to attend court but took the trip as a lark.

SANDSTORMS ARE ANNOYING, BUT WOULD YOU PREFER THIS?

A MID the desolation wrought by cyclones that cut swaths through four southern states, Mr. and Mrs. A. Buckalew surveyed thankfully the wreckage of their home near Mount Sylvan, Texas. The couple and three children escaped unhurt when the frame structure crumpled in the cyclonic fury, that killed two persons and took a toll of 81 deaths in Texas, Arkansas, Mississippi and Louisiana.

Forty-Barrel Allowable Protested

Hamilton of Pampa Is First Witness in State-Wide Oil Hearing at Austin.

AUSTIN, April 3. (AP)—R. E. Hardwick of Fort Worth, attorney for the Texas Oil & Gas Conservation association, today pleaded with the Texas railroad commission not to fix the minimum per well allowable in the East Texas oil field at 40 barrels daily.

James V. Allred, attorney general, held in an opinion yesterday that it was "extremely doubtful" that the commission could limit the production of any well to less than 40 barrels daily, the amount which he said was permitted to marginal wells by the statute.

Hardwick said that if the attorney general's interpretation was followed, production in the East Texas field would be "wrecked." He said that the field allowable would be between 600,000 and 1,000,000 barrels daily. There are approximately 10,000 wells in the field and the federal courts have held that the better wells must be allotted more production than the poorer ones.

Several persons attending the commission hearing suggested that the legislature should immediately amend the marginal well law.

Members of the commission asserted that they were primarily interested in writing a valid order and indicated that they would fix the minimum per well allowable at 40 barrels daily unless the marginal well statutes should be amended.

W. B. Hamilton of Pampa, railroad commission employe in the Panhandle, was the first witness he stated that Panhandle production was allocated on a potential basis and that the method was "very satisfactory."

He asserted that the well potentials were determined by five-day and ten-day tests.

City's Police Force Arrests 77 Last Month

Officers of the police department made 77 arrests last month. These included 22 for vagrancy, 16 for intoxication, 2 for disturbing the peace, 8 for speeding, 18 for other traffic violations, 7 for investigation, 3 for possession of intoxicating liquor, 2 for gaming and 1 for Sunday violation. Twenty-seven cases were later dismissed. Fines assessed totaled $622, of which $455.75 was paid in cash.

Saturday brought the beginning of a new fiscal year. The regular audit is being made by Cornell and company. It will not be completed for several weeks.

O. R. Jetter, Lewis J. Spitz, Percy Barrett, J. H. Cone, and J. E. Newman of LeFors were attending court today.

BEER WILL NOT BE BANNED BY MRS. ROOSEVELT

Be 'Proper' To Serve It In White House Says First Lady

WASHINGTON, April 3. (AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt today issued a statement saying there would be no ban against legalized beer in the White House.

In her statement, Mrs. Roosevelt said: "When it is legal to serve beer in any government house it will naturally be proper to do so for anyone who desires it at the White House."

"I hope very much that any change in legislation may tend to improve the present condition and lead to greater temperance."

"There has been a great deal of bootlegging in beer and once it is legal, this will be impossible and I hope that a great many people who have used stronger things will be content with legal beer so that the cause of temperance will be served."

"No matter what the legislation, I myself do not drink anything with alcoholic content but that is purely an individual thing I should not dream of imposing my own convictions on other people as long as they live up to the law of our land."

Mrs. Roosevelt signed her statement simply "Eleanor Roosevelt."

Many To Attend Adult Leaders' Course Tonight

Probably as many as 75 men interested in the Boy Scout movement will meet at the high school gymnasium at 7:30 o'clock this evening for the second lesson of the adult leaders' training course.

The group will include the Scouters and scoutmasters who otherwise would have their monthly round-table course. Credit for the round-table course will be given those who attend the training course.

The program tonight will be in charge of W. O. Christian, Supt. R. B. Fisher will make the main address.

The Boy Scout drive is continuing this week as solicitors attempt to cover the territory assigned them. Most of the committees found they need more time than they could give to the work last week.

NURSES TO MEET
Graduate nurses will meet at the Pampa hospital Wednesday afternoon at 11:30 o'clock for study.

LATE NEWS

WASHINGTON, April 3. (AP)—Federal and state regulation of the oil industry to enforce conservation and gasoline tax laws was urged upon President Roosevelt, members of congress and state governors today in a telegram from R. C. Holmes of New York, president of the Texas company.

BOMBAY, April 3. (AP)—Mt. Everest, highest mountain in the world, was crossed by airplane today for the first time in history.

WASHINGTON, April 3. (AP)—The Connery thirty hour work week bill was approved unanimously today, by the house labor committee. The measure would prohibit the shipment of interstate or foreign commerce of the products of labor employed for more than five six hour days a week.

AUSTIN, April 3. (AP)—A senate bill to delay for 30 days the sale of real estate under mortgage foreclosure proceedings or deeds of trust, scheduled for tomorrow in Texas counties, was passed today by the house of representatives. The bill received enough votes in each house to become effective immediately on signature of the governor. It was planned to send it to the governor immediately.

AUSTIN, April 3. (AP)—Debate on a bill to establish a natural gas sources commission to supervise and regulate the production of oil and gas was started in the house of representatives today.

WASHINGTON, April 3. (AP)—The Summers bill to impose heavy penalties on persons who make public or publish diplomatic information "prejudicial to the safety or interest" of the United States was passed by the house today under a suspension of the rules.

Swimming Pool For Roosevelt Is Being Built

WASHINGTON, April 3. (AP)—The White House swimming pool probably will be ready for use within a month.

A crew of laborers was busy excavating today and the work had proceeded far enough to convince Lieutenant Colonel U. S. Grant, director of public buildings and grounds, that there was no obstacle to placing the pool in the west wing between the White House and the executive offices.

Colonel Grant said the pool would be about 18 by 38 and that it was expected to cost about $15,000.

Funds for it were raised by several newspapers and legislation was passed authorizing the White House to accept the contributions. President Roosevelt is looking forward to its completion to resume his principal form of exercise.

NO ONE TO BE PERMITTED TO LEAVE GERMANY

Resumption of Nazis' Boycott Believed Unlikely

BERLIN, April 3. (AP)—Without offering an explanation, the government announced today that beginning at midnight, no one will be allowed to leave German soil without special permission of the police stamped on his passport.

For several days reports have told of an exodus of Jews in considerable number to neighboring countries. At Koensberg the authorities ordered all passports withdrawn from Jews living in East Prussia.

The newspaper Tagliche Rundschau reported that a train had been halted by police near Dresden to prevent "an exodus of Jews to Czechoslovakia." Considerable sums of money were confiscated, the newspaper said, but Jewish passengers were permitted to return to their homes in Germany.

A resumption of Saturday's nationwide boycott which paralyzed all Jewish commercial activity was considered unlikely. Its announced purpose to force an end to the spread abroad of stories of anti-Jewish atrocities in Germany, was believed achieved.

The Nazis also had reason to be satisfied with the permanent effects of the great organized demonstration. The boycott was kept alive unofficially yesterday in several towns in lower Silesia. There have been hundreds of Jews discharged from businesses and many more permanently eliminated from medical and legal practice, from teaching schools and from newspaper staffs.

COUNTY JAIL IS FULL

The Gray county jail has many visitors, but the visit most desired is that of the state penitentiary agent. With thirty inmates, the county jail is too full now. There are four prisoners ready for transportation to the state prison.

Mrs. Ed Damon and children spent the day in Amarillo.

OKLAHOMA CITY—For $7.50 T. G. Thompson, obtained a tract of land in the heart of the Oklahoma City oil field. The tract is 18 inches wide and 140 feet long. Thompson "discovered" the property, which had been "lost" for 15 years, and he paid $7.50 for a tax deed to it.

BANK ROBBED DESPITE TIP

Holdup Expected for Weeks But Officer Is Disarmed And Bandits Escape.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., April 1. (AP)—Five bandits held up the First National bank of Leavenworth today and raced out of the city with between $4,000 and $5,000 as a special officer and an employe of another bank poured bullets into their large motor car.

The sheriff's office said the robbery had been expected the last six weeks and special preparations had been made to frustrate it, but the holdup was carried out without a hitch.

When the bandits entered the bank O. B. Taylor, president, ignored the command of "hands up" stepped on an alarm button near the rear and slipped out of the back door. From a nearby express office he telephoned the sheriff while five employes and two patrons were herded into the bank vault. The robbers were unable to close the vault door, however.

Responding to the alarm, Special Officer James Thompson rushed in the west door with one of his pistols drawn. The robbers took the officer by the hands and the others covered while they gathered up the cash.

Four Captured.
KANSAS CITY, Kan., April 3. (AP)—Four men, believed to have been participants in the robbery of the First National bank of Leavenworth were captured here today in a gun fight with officers. Two of the men were reported badly wounded. In a short time time two cars were halted by the barricade. In the ensuing gun fight four of the eight occupants of the two cars were captured and four escaped.

Relief Officials Of Section Will Confer Saturday

George Briggs, secretary of the federal relief committee, Mrs. W. H. Davis of the Welfare Board, and possibly others will go to Clarendon Saturday morning to attend a meeting called by a representative of the state relief committee.

Several counties will be represented in the discussion of the new regulations required in handling federal funds.

Senator Walter Woodul has been sent to Washington to confer with authorities concerning requirements for an expansion of the state and county and local relief activities caused the sending of Mr. Woodul.

It is understood that President Franklin D. Roosevelt has inspired recent requests for estimates as to how much longer federal relief will be absolutely necessary in Texas communities and in other states.

Negro Attacker Pointed Out In Scottsboro Case

DECATUR, Ala., April 3. (AP)—Mrs. Victoria Price today identified Heywood Patterson, Chattanooga negro, as one of her attackers on a freight train near Scottsboro, Ala., two years ago.

Patterson is the first of nine negro defendants in the "Scottsboro case" to be retried in Morgan circuit court under a change of venue.

Mrs. Price pointed to Patterson to identify him.

Samuel S. Leibowitz, New York, chief of defense counsel, began an exhaustive cross-examination, after solicitor H. G. Bailey had completed directed examination in 15 minutes.

Leibowitz started cross examination by seeking to have Mrs. Price identify cars of the miniature train, but she said they did not resemble the cars on the regular train.

"I ain't that educated," the woman retorted when Leibowitz asked her to figure her date of birth. She gave her age as 21 at the time of the attack.

Mrs. Price became nettled as Leibowitz persisted in questioning her about her resistance to the attacks.

"I don't know," she replied to continued questions as to whether she bit, scratched or kicked any of them.

"I answered you four times," Mrs. Price almost shouted, as Leibowitz asked her if she was knocked backwards.

BOWERS TO SPAIN

WASHINGTON, April 2. (AP)—President Roosevelt today nominated Sumner Welles, of Maryland, to be assistant secretary of state and Claude G. Bowers of New York to be ambassador to Spain.

LEVY RANGES FROM 2 TO 25 CENTS BARREL

'SERIOUS CONDITIONS' IN EAST TEXAS ARE POINTED OUT

ASKS STIFF PENALTIES

FINE OF $1,000 AND 12 MONTHS IN PRISON URGED

AUSTIN, April 3. (AP)—Governor Miriam A. Ferguson today sent to the legislature a message proposing passage of a bill levying a gross production tax on oil and calling attention to "the serious condition now taking place in the East Texas oil field."

The governor said conditions in the field were so unsettled that "we might truthfully term it a reign of terror, and the people who live in that area are disturbed in mind and spirit beyond comprehension."

She said she had been informed that "this desperate condition has reached that stage where heretofore law abiding citizens are arming themselves with fire arms and are threatening to take the law into their hands at the rights of property owners and persons . . . are not in some way protected by law."

The bill recommended by the chief executive would levy a tax of two cents on the first 150 barrels of oil produced each day from a single well, five cents per barrel on the next 100 barrels and 25 cents per barrel on oil in excess of 250 barrels produced daily from a single well.

At this time the state levies a tax of two per cent of the sale price of the oil.

Meteor Pieces Found By Dick Walker On Farm

The meteor of last week passed over Pampa, it was proved this morning when Dick Walker, a farmer residing 7 miles east of this city, brought several pieces of cinder-like formation to THE NEWS. He found more than a half-gallon full of the formation in a wheat field a half mile from his residence.

Wheat for a space of four by eight yards was scored where the pieces had fallen. They are like cinders or clinkers from a stove. Several of the samples will be given to the high school for study purposes and experiments.

Mr. Walker found the place while he was going after some cattle Friday afternoon. He resides on the Obbie Merten farm north of the G. & O. W. railway and on the new highway to Miami.

Packing Company Robbed In Dallas

DALLAS, April 3. (AP)—Three men armed with a machine gun and automatic pistols today robbed the Adkins Packing company in South Dallas of $1,500 in cash.

The men entered the office soon after four persons opened the building for the day and ordered all of them to sit on the floor. Then the man with the machine gun asked who was in charge.

Henry Peck replied that he was the manager. The leader of the trio ordered him to open the safe, "or we'll blow up this place with nitroglycerine." Peck opened the safe and the two other men scooped up all the currency and cash in sight.

Informed that a sedan parked outside was Beck's the leader told Beck they would escape in it but he might find it a while later, parked on a downtown Dallas street. The men backed out of the office and headed south. They abandoned the sedan three miles south of Dallas, entered another car and drove toward the city again.

LURE OF OPEN SPACES

It is a strange thing, the way an artfully-chosen photograph can set the mind reviving.
Mr. Ordinary Citizen sets out for his job on a spring morning. The early sunshine and the crisp breeze, chilly but carrying a promise of warmer weather a little later on, have already done things to him; made him question, perhaps, the wisdom of a life that keeps him pent up in a town all the time, led him to draw out again the old dream of some day living on a place in the open country.

Then, opening his newspaper, he spots a photograph of one of those "open country" scenes that editors like to present once in a while; a picture, say, of a valley in western Montana, with tumbling mountains in the distance and a fringe of trees by a little stream in the foreground.

And as he looks at it he suddenly discovers that a town is a poor sort of place for a man to live. The fine new buildings, busy streets, the lines of factories and railway yards and so on, things which ordinarily seem to him to be matters for a proper local pride—now they have become artificial devices by which he is cut off from contact with his own earth, they are obstacles in his way and he pays for their presence by an unfulfilled longing for the sort of thing of which the photograph speaks.

And this, in turn, is apt to set him speculating about that sparkling new dream which technologists have been revolving lately. Some of these men have remarked that the era of the great city is about over; that in the future all men will live on the doersill of the open country, with factory units broken up and decentralized, with electric power pulling industrial and rural areas closer and closer together, so that no worker will any longer be held a prisoner by any town.

Now all of that, to be sure, is a long way in the future, and Mr. Ordinary Citizen probably has moments in which he wouldn't care much for it anyway. But a spring morning, a revival of the old, perennial discontent, an ordinary photograph of a western valley—they can act powerfully to set a man's mind adrift from its moorings. They invite his inner self to play the truant.

HOME ECONOMY IS INCREASED

ADVANCEMENTS in electrical engineering have resulted in introduction of a household refrigerator that consumes no more current than an ordinary electric light bulb of the size commonly used in reading.

The greatest number of visitors ever attracted to the showroom of Bert Curry Refrigeration company, Frigidaire dealer, passed through the doors Saturday following the introduction of Frigidaire's refrigerator sensation that operates on the current consumed by an ordinary electric light bulb.
The standard model, together with a complete line of super models boasting every possible deluxe feature for kitchen efficiency and economy, was introduced nationally Saturday by the company that already has nearly two and one-half million units in use Mr. Curry said.
"The size of the crowd was a clear indication of many things," he said. "It showed that many people want electric refrigeration. It proved that they are particularly interested in equipment selling at an attractive price and with low operating cost."

OIL TAX

Would Punish Evaders
The bill would provide stiff penalties for violators of its provisions. A producer who failed to pay the tax would be subject to a fine of $1,000 and twelve months imprisonment. It would require all pipe lines to be metered and would direct that all persons or corporations transporting oil to make daily reports. Those failing to make reports would be subject to a fine of $1,000 for each day such report was not made.

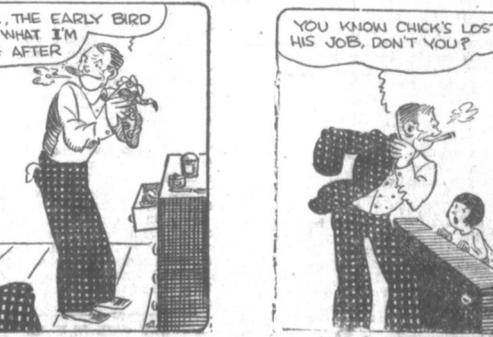

Persons interfering with employees of the state railroad commission, administrator of proration laws, would be subject to a fine of $500 and six months imprisonment.
Those found producing in excess of the allowable set by the commission would be subject to imprisonment of from one to five years.
Proceeds of the tax would be allocated as follows:
1. To the state treasury for the support of the public school fund and three-fourths to the general fund.
2. To the state treasury for the support of the public school fund and three-fourths to the general fund.
3. To the state treasury for the support of the public school fund and three-fourths to the general fund.

PRO. AND CON

"Home Town" in Vernon Record: A prominent Vernon citizen wants to know what the idea is in repealing prohibition. He insists that the present system is the best possible plan for the liquor question. "We have prohibition for the prohibitionists and liquor for the wets," he says. "Everybody knows we have prohibition and everybody who is interested knows we have liquor, too. Whoever heard of anyone who actually wanted liquor failing to obtain it in this or any other community? Of course, some system might be worked out to make the supply of liquor better in quality but it is foolish to even intimate that it can be made more plentiful."
(Supply is one thing and availability of that supply to the young is another. Some young folks find the supply plentiful. They associate with bootleggers and friends of bootleggers. Some young people, fairly well behaved, have little opportunity to become drunkards under present conditions. There is no solution for a basic human weakness—intemperance. When the wets talk of a "solution" they are absurd, and when they attempt to prove prohibition is without attendant evils they are not facing facts. Those who earnestly wish to make human conduct better and broadmindedly keep working at the job are not extremists in either camp.)

OUR STATE LINES

The Bones in Wheeler News Review: Repeal by the Texas legislature of the so-called "gin marriage" law, which appears likely, is an end to be desired of intention to marry three days before the ceremony has sent thousands of Texas couples across the borders of neighboring states to be wed. On the face of it the law has its sound points, but its purpose is hopelessly defeated by the fact that states which border on Texas have no such restriction.
(Another example of how state's rights are pretty weak, after all. States cannot build a high fence along their borders. High gas taxes would, many claim, dry up the monopolized but to some landowners very welcome market in this vicinity. The proposed sales tax would make it profitable to buy costly articles in Oklahoma. Uniformity of state laws is as much needed as new legislation; in fact, considerably more, in our opinion.)

Chapter 46
ANOTHER PLOT
"Coffee, Hassan, quickly," said Jules, and slyly made a secret sign.
Swiftly Hassan departed, and a few moments later, was seated in his near-by stone cell, before a small brazier where a fire perpetually smoldered, and water was ready for the making of coffee or mint-tea at any time.
Having set the coffee to boil, Hassan el Miskeen now departed from his accustomed unchanging ritual.
Pulling a stone from the wall, he put his hand into the aperture thus disclosed, and brought forth a tiny amulet-box.
From this he shook a quantity of dirty white powder into the coffee-pot.
And smacking his lips, Hassan el Miskeen stirred the brew once more, and then hurried with laden tray to his master's room: When Hassan el Miskeen entered, he found his master seated cross-legged upon a divan, a bottle of brandy and a glass upon a low table by his side.
Seated opposite to him, lolling in comfort, smoking a cigarette, Raisul smiled enigmatically.
"Put the coffee beside the Sidi," ordered Jules.
And having obeyed, Hassan el Miskeen departed from the room, and sat himself down within sight of the door, to watch and to wait.
Would that human devil actually die there in the room? Might Hassan be called, to go quickly for help, and looking into the room might he actually see him contorted and writhing in the throes of death; with his own eyes see him dying there in dreadful agony, even as he had caused so many others to die in agony?
Smiling, almost chucking, at his thoughts, Raisul poured himself a cup of coffee.
"Aren't you going to have a little drink, Jules?" he asked, nodding towards the brandy bottle.
"Rather. I was only waiting until you..."
"Oh, don't wait for me, my dear chap," and Raisul stirred his coffee. Jules poured himself a generous measure of brandy.
"Allah," he said, "that tastes funny, and smacked his lips and clicked his tongue doubtfully.
"Brandy wrong, or your liver?" smiled Raisul, still stirring the untasted coffee.
"My liver's all right," observed Jules, who suddenly seemed a little drunk. "So's the brandy," replied Raisul. "Try it again."
Jules Maligni tried it again.
"Snasty," he said. "Bin in boll too long..."
Raisul laughed.
"Look here, aren't you going to drink your—hic—coffee?"
Raisul again laughed merrily.
"No, I don't think I'll drink any coffee tonight, Jules, you half-baked Borgia."
"Whassyou say?"
"I said, 'Come along to my room now.' I'm going to show you something. Something really good, I'll give you my word. Come on with you."
"Rope!" observed Raisul to Jules Maligni as he sat in the former's room a few minutes later.
"Bear your weight, wouldn't it, Jules, if it were round your neck."
"I should stay so," laughed the other, less vacantly.
"Yes, a very nice rope," continued Raisul, "and it gives me a very nice idea. Strong enough and, I think long enough."
"For what?" asked Jules Maligni.
"I'll show you, as I promised. Great idea. Come along," and going to the door, Raisul bade Jules Maligni bring the rope.
"I say, you know, old chappie, you do think you're going to—hic—hang me, do you?"
"No, I am not going to—hic—hang you. Come along, will you?"
And followed obediently by his companion with the rope, and soon by Hassan el Miskeen, Raisul proceeded, by devious ways, to a distant part of the Citadel.
"This is the place," said Raisul at length. "At least, I think it is. I want you to lean through that em-sole taking Maligni squarely between the shoulder-blades, and hurling him onward.

His legs struck the edge of the low embrasure, and with a gasping cry he threw out his arms and clutched wildly at the embrasure slides, as head foremost, he fell—and disappeared over the castle wall...
Down... down... down... turning and turning in mid-air, to strike the jagged-roofed rocks in the deep ravine, three hundred feet below.
Raisul turned away.
"And now for the little rope-trick," quoth he, and smiled his own especial smile.

What was to be the end of it all—the end of her—Margaret wondered as she again assured herself that the huge key of her door was turned as far as it would go, and that both the great heavy bolts were shot home.
Having undressed, she went to the little stone verandah-balcony built out from the wall of the room, that vast wall, ten feet thick even at this great height, which was part of the outer wall of the castle itself. Yawning heavily, for sleep of late had been light, sooty and broken, Margaret flung herself down upon the over-cushioned bed, and once again tried all the sleep-wooling devices of which she had ever heard.
But what folly to think that she could sleep while Otho was lying bound and gagged, perhaps maimed for life.
What was that? A cry?
(Copyright, 1932, F. A. Stokes Co.)
A terrible situation follows, tomorrow, upon that eerie cry.

Over 250 Attend Magnolia Safety Meeting in City

W. S. Norman of Amarillo was the chief speaker at the monthly meeting of the Magnolia Safety League in the city auditorium Friday night. The meeting was attended by more than 250 employees of the Magnolia Sales, production, pipeline, gasoline, carbon black, and natural gas departments.

Members of the sales division had lunch and a meeting in the Schneider hotel before the general meeting in the city hall. There were representatives present from Pampa, LeFors, Groom, Borger, Skellytown, Amarillo, Kingsmill, and other cities.

Entertainment at the general meeting was by Cal Farley's Flying Dutchman circus, which gave an hour of music and fun.

Mr. Norman talked of the "New Deal" stressing full speed ahead with the president. He stressed the safety end of all business and illustrated with a picture of Uncle Sam at the wheel of a new car, the wheel being of gold.

M. J. Sayer of Amarillo spoke on individual safety, declaring that each employee owed it to himself and his family to be careful at all times in all undertakings regardless of how small.

F. G. Landrum of Amarillo spoke on safety in the home as well as on the job. He told of a personal experience when one of his sons was killed by the accidental discharge of a gun in the home.

The Magnolia Petroleum company holds all of its meetings in Pampa, this being the most centrally located city in this territory.

Howard Buckingham has charge of the local retail division. C. E. "Dan" McGrew is chairman of the safety division.

MICHIGAN IS VOTING TODAY ON DRY ISSUE

WISCONSIN DRY GROUPS NOT HOPEFUL OF SUCCESS

DETROIT, April 3. (AP)—Michigan blazed an unmapped trail today, as the first state to elect its constitutional convention for consideration of the amendment to repeal national prohibition.

An estimated 90,000 voters will elect 100 delegates to the convention, one from each of the 100 representative districts.

In each district there were two candidates. One was pledged to vote for ratification of the repeal amendment; the other for retention of the eighteenth amendment.

Although this was the first opportunity voters anywhere had had to render a decisive verdict on national prohibition, state prohibition was a clear-cut issue at the polls last November—and the wets won, repealing the "bone dry" clause in the Michigan constitution by a vote of 1,022,508 to 475,265.

That was done by a popular majority, Detroit's vote weighing heavily in the balance. Today, however, with the vote in each district standing alone, the chances for repeal were proportionately less and prohibition leaders based their hopes principally on that factor.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 3. (AP)—Wisconsin will pass official judgment on the 18th amendment tomorrow, with the head of the state's anti-saloon league frankly pessimistic over the outcome.

The Rev. Warren Jones, state superintendent of the league, said he conceded that the repealists would win. He said there was no hope for prohibition in Wisconsin in an election at which delegates to the state's 18th amendment convention were chosen from the state at large.

If the delegates, he added, were chosen by districts there might be some possibility of overcoming wet majorities in the eastern part of the state.

Fifteen delegates are to be named to the convention which will meet at Madison April 15.

VELVET LOOKING WORSE? BATH-TUB'S THE ANSWER

If your velvet garments are beginning to show that a whole winter season is behind, your friend in need is the bath-tub.

Run it full of steaming hot water and hang the garments near enough to get the benefit of the steam but not so close that they get an actual bath.

Then rub a silk cloth over the material, stroking it the way of the pile. The stroking will restore the sheen and erase the "rubbed" spots.

ALL MEMBERS OF CULT WILL BE ARRESTED

LEADER CONFESSES TO HORRIBLE DEATH OF 'UNFAITHFUL WIFE'

MARTINEZ, Calif., April 3. (AP)—Accused of burying a young woman alive in a ceremony prescribed by their cult for unfaithful wives, eight Filipinos were held in jail here today.

Authorities said others would be arrested and charged with participation in the horrible death of 26-year-old Celine Novarro, whose body was exhumed from a hidden grave on Jersey Island in the San Joaquin river yesterday.

By the light of flaming torches, investigators reported, the young expectant mother was thrown into her grave the night of last November 19 and earth shoveled over her living body.

She had been accused of unfaithfulness to her sick husband when brought before a meeting of the Kalaya-an-Marie-Clara earlier the same night in Redmen's hall in Stockton. Her husband, who has since died, was ready enough to forgive her but the women members of the cult demanded her death.

Mrs. Novarro was bound and gagged, police continued, and carried by automobile to Jersey Island where two Filipino laborers were roused from bed to dig the grave. While men members of the cult held torches, women hurled Mrs. Novarro into the grave and death. And into her face they threw a purse containing $130 she was accused of stealing from her husband's brother.

Leon Kantinello, 40-year-old Jersey Island camp foreman and alleged leader of the cult which has a large membership, confessed to the burial, District Attorney F. J. Hoey said.

The story of her death was brought to authorities by Pablo Busbruant, a Filipino who had quarreled with the cult leader. The grave diggers—Estacui Cadog and Espidion Kang—pointed out the grave.

"At least seven or eight murder charges will be brought," said Hoey, who declared he would ask the grand jury to indict all connected with the death ritual. He said he had obtained a roster of the membership of Kalaya-an-Marie-Clara from those arrested.

Few 'Pet' Bills Are Likely To Be Acted Upon

AUSTIN, April 3. (AP)—Members of the Texas legislature are becoming concerned about the fate of their "pet" measures. They see in the crowded legislative calendar the probability they will not even be considered on the floor, let alone given final passage.

House bill No. 35 is yet to be disposed of and as the session draws nearer an end, there is less likelihood that bills on the regular calendar will receive consideration.

During the regular session two years ago, the house got down to house bill No. 37 on the regular calendar. From here onward members will be forced to depend on suspension requests and special orders to get their bills before the respective houses, since a majority of the pet bills are far down on the calendar.

Also, from now to the end of the session many of the bills considered will be highly controversial in nature and will consume much time in debate.

Virtually none of the really controversial legislation. Bills on such debatable questions as prohibition, revenue and taxation, establishment of a new highway commission and appropriations are still before the two houses.

Grocery Store Is Burglarized

The door of the Brown & McLean grocery store on South Cuyler street was found unlocked yesterday morning. A check by owners revealed that several sacks of flour, a quantity of tobacco, cigars and candy, and $2.70 in cash were missing.

A duplicate key was used or the lock picked, it is believed, as the owners said the door was locked when they closed Saturday night. City officers are investigating.

PLUMBERS AT WORK

Plumbing for the bath-house at the municipal swimming pool was being placed today preparatory to laying the floor for the house.

Cobb, D. M. Davis, Witt Springer; for secretary, W. E. Bogan, Jack Crow; for marshal, J. A. Sparks, unopposed. A total of 149 persons is on the poll tax roll.

Recent visitors to Pampa from McLean included Mrs. Lee Atwood and little daughter, Olive Louise, Mrs. W. B. Upham, Mrs. W. W. Boyd, J. P. Heasley, M. M. Ruff, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Montgomery, Mrs. Bob Lynch, Mrs. Arthur Wilson, Mrs. E. L. Sitter, W. T. Wilson, Mrs. Inez McCarty, Mrs. Chas. E. Cook, H. M. Barnes, Jack Crow, Mrs. James Stroup, Thomas Ashby, R. L. Harlan, and Mrs. C. C. Bender.

CLARENDON, April 3.—The $25,000 damage suit of Joe Ivey of Borger against Sheriff Guy Pierce of Donley county was decided in favor of the sheriff last week. Ivey was detained by the sheriff while the latter was investigating a filling station robbery, then released without charge. Ivey's car was damaged with bullets when the sheriff said, an order to halt was not heeded.

A zone meeting of Lions clubs will be climaxed next Tuesday evening here with a ladies' night program. District Governor C. H. Walker of Pampa will be the principal speaker.

WILL RECEIVE FLOUR HIGGINS, April 3.—Mayor T. H. Black, chairman of the Lipscomb county relief committee, has been notified that a carload of flour from the Red Cross, consisting of 940 sacks, will be shipped here soon. In the same car will be 600 sacks for Ellis county, Okla.

Recent deaths here included W. E. Reppeto and J. W. Wheat, longtime residents of this community.

BISHOP SEAMAN SELECTED SHAMROCK, April 3.—Bishop E. Cecil Seaman of Amarillo has been chosen to deliver the baccalaureate sermon May 14 to the graduating class of the high school.

More than 100 trees are being planted at the local cemetery in a beautification program.

Two local high school girls en route home from B. Y. P. U. were seized on a dark street by two men this week, and bound and gagged, but otherwise not harmed. Screams of the girls later led to their release. They had been thrown into a ditch.

WILL KILL DOGS HEREFORD, April 3.—A campaign against dogs, poultry, and livestock has been started by those interested in having pretty yards and flowers. Killing of ownerless dogs has started.

R. O. Dunkle, for more than 7 years county agent here, has been transferred to Throckmorton. His services have been closely identified with all agricultural activities in this county since 1925.

CROP LOANS RECEIVED CANYON, April 3.—Four checks have been received by farmers who requested government aid in the form of seed loans. Many other applications have been mailed.

TODD WILL PREACH PANHANDLE, April 3.—The Rev. James Todd, Jr., of Pampa will conduct special services at the First Christian church during the week of April 2 to April 9, inclusive. He will speak each evening.

No candidates for city offices have announced for election next

Luther Nickels' Funeral Is Held In Dallas Today

DALLAS, April 3. (AP)—Funeral services for Luther Nickels, widely-known attorney and political leader, were arranged here for 10:30 a. m. today. It was planned to take his body afterward to his birthplace, Mount Calm, in Hill county, for burial.

Expressions of sympathy came to his family from all parts of the state. The death Saturday night came as a surprise and a shock to relatives and friends, who had thought him to be in excellent health. He succumbed to a heart attack.

The Rev. Guy Jones of Grace Methodist church and Dr. W. D. Bradford of Southern Methodist university were named to conduct services here. Pallbearers were Congressman Joseph Weldon Bailey Jr., Ernest Boedeker, Judson Francis, Mike McNamara, Jeff Strickland, and O. C. Punderburk.

Nickels was a political advisor of James E. Ferguson, husband of Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson, and staunchly supported them in their campaigns.

He was a former law partner of the late United States Senator Joseph Weldon Bailey Sr., a former member of the Texas Commission of Appeals and served as a representative from Hill county in the thirty-first Texas legislature.

Born at Mount Calm December 19, 1882, he attended public schools there. Later he attended Baylor university and the University of Texas, where he received his law degree.

Despite the fact that he was active in state affairs for many years, he ran only once for an elective office. That was in 1908 when he was elected a member of the legislature.

They Satisfy .. all you could ask for!

Just two words...

Yes, I have heard about two words; and now and then three words—but "They Satisfy" means "To gratify fully." Why do these two words "they satisfy" fit Chesterfields? Because Chesterfield Cigarettes are milder. Because Chesterfield Cigarettes taste better.

Chesterfield's way of blending and cross-blending fine Turkish and Domestic tobaccos brings out better flavor and aroma. They Satisfy!

ROUGE, LIPSTICK, HIGH HEELS TO BE USED TONIGHT

Forty-Seven Persons At Party In Merten Community On Saturday

PRACTICE TO PRECEDE BIG SHOW TUESDAY

MANY MEN WILL HELP MAKE UNDERTAKING SUCCESSFUL

"NO PROPOSAL, perhaps!" Such were the whispers when it was reported that the "bride-elect," who is to take part in the woman's style show tomorrow night, was "ailing" and unable to attend practice Sunday afternoon. It is expected, however, that this character will be at the practice tonight at 7:30, and Mrs. J. M. Dodson, general chairman, has urged that every man who is to take part in the revue be present "with rouge, lip stick, and high heels."

This unique style show which will be quite a contrast with the authentic Panhandle style revue of Friday night will begin at 8:30 o'clock in the city auditorium. It is to be sponsored by the Council of Clubs, composed of all women's clubs in the city, yet no women are to participate in the actual presentation. Archer Pulling, the prospective bride, will visit Madame Guyon's Salon in quest of a trousseau. Accompanying her will be her mother, Howard Nellis. I. A. Freeman will be the madame, and Reed Crites, the saleslady. George Limerick will be seen trying on hats. The greatest mystery surrounds the parts to be played by W. O. Workman, D. J. Gribbon, and Paul LeBeuf.

A program of specialty acts will be given by Judge Philip Wolfe, Fred Cullum, R. B. Fisher, Emmitt Smith, Roy McMillen, John Sturgeon, Howard Neath, and perhaps others.

Models have been announced as follows: Evening gowns—A. M. Martini, Dick Hughes, Jack Stern, Howard Buckingham, Mitchell, Frank Carter, Pete Post, Paul Kassinke, Neal Bean, Roy Bourland, Dr. A. B. Goldson.

Afternoon frocks—Dr. C. H. Schullkey, Dr. R. M. Johnson, Dan J. Gribbon, Buck Miller, R. B. Fisher, E. C. Wiley, J. A. Meek, Frank Hill, H. L. Polley, Otto Studer, Mayor W. A. Bratton.

Sport models—C. H. Walker, J. B. Massa, Dr. H. L. Wilder (what he will do will be a sport surprise). Art Holland, C. F. Buckler, Lynn Boyd, Art Swanson.

Lingerie, pajamas, and bathing suits—Tina Pipes, Ed Bisset, "May-or" Dan McGrew, Russ Allen, W. J. Smith, J. O. Gillham, Alex Schneider, Bud Doucette, Clarence R. Barrett, Bill Fraser, Max Mahaffey, Roy Showers.

Mrs. Helen Turner will assist in directing.

Jackie Mason Now Full-Fledged "Jr."

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mason and baby son, Jackie, have returned from Fort Worth, where adoption papers for the baby were completed. They also visited relatives in Sweetwater and Rotan.

J. R. Davis of McLean was here this morning.

WOMEN'S AILMENT...

WOMEN of all ages can find help for delicate organs by taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It overcomes bearing-down pains, and the weakening drains of womanhood. Women all over the country praise it as does Mrs. Gertrude Hill of 209 Wilderman St. Fort Worth. She says: "I used to have a nervous breakdown. I was so nervous and irritable, had headaches, periodic pain, poor appetite and restless nights. One bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was all I found necessary to take as after its use I felt so well and strong I knew I was in normal condition again."

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

By ELLEN SLOAN

The newly organized Girl Scout troop held a recent meeting at Hopkins 2 school house. The meeting was opened with a few songs, and the Lord's prayer was led by Sally Lu Church.

Every member of the troop agreed on "Bluebonnet" as the name for the troop. Two patrols were followed.

The Blue Jay patrol officers are as follows: Patrol leader, Mary Louise Lane; second, Floy Lee Hill; scribe, Laura Mae Slaughter, Eagle patrol officers include: Patrol leader, Ruth Slaughter; second, Eula Bell Rickard; scribe, Ellen Sloan.

The meeting was closed with a few games and songs, every one leaving with the feeling that the scout troop will be a success. The next meeting will be held Friday, April 7, at 7:30 o'clock at Hopkins 2 school.

HERE FROM CLOVIS

Central Baptists Have 167 Present

Attendance was 167 at the Central Baptist Sunday school yesterday morning.

The Dorcas Sunday school class will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the home of Mrs. L. W. Hardcastle, 928 E. Francis, at 2:30 o'clock.

Several members of the Central church are planning to attend the district 10 Sunday school and Training Service convention in Amarillo from Tuesday to Thursday.

Revival at First Baptist Church Is Started on Sunday

The crowd at the First Baptist Sunday school was unusually large this week, there being an attendance of 905. The day also marked the beginning of a series of prayer services which are a part of the revival to be continued by Dr. G. L. Yates of Amarillo beginning next Sunday.

Deacons of the church are to meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock and are to sponsor the prayer service this evening at 8 o'clock. The W. M. J. will be in charge Tuesday evening, the department superintendents Wednesday evening, the teachers of organized classes Thursday evening, and the young people of the training service Friday evening.

A large group of First Baptist church members will attend the Sunday school and Training service convention of District 10 beginning in Amarillo tomorrow and continuing through Thursday. One class alone, the Fidels Matrons, plans to send four carloads. The church will have charge of the special music for the opening session Tuesday evening. E. C. Link will direct an adult union B. T. S. conference on the morning, and 11:30 a. m. the same day the Rev. C. E. Lancaster will speak on "The Cooperation Program." Dr. G. L. Yates of Amarillo, who is to conduct a revival meeting in Pampa soon, will preach a sermon the first evening of the convention.

STYLE REVUE PRACTICE TO BE TONIGHT

ELABORATE STAGING TO TAKE PLACE FRIDAY EVENING

REHEARSAL for the Panhandle Style revue, sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's club, will be held this evening in the city hall club rooms. The style show, which will be presented Friday evening at the La Nora theater, will be the most elaborate event of its kind ever presented in Pampa, and members are attempting to make it "the show of the Panhandle." Mrs. H. H. Hicks is in charge of the staging of the show.

Additional entertainment will be furnished by the Treble Clef club, the Thrill Harmony orchestra, Miss Eleanor Frey, violinist, and pupils of Miss Kathryn Vincent, who will dance adagio and rumba numbers.

Models for women's clothing will be as follows: Mitchell—Miss Martha Sneed, Mrs. Holt Barber of Miami, Miss Jerry Dublin.

Murfee's—Miss Esther Stark, Miss Dorothy Jane Adams, Miss Audrey Lee Rawley of Canadian.

Violet Shoppe—Mrs. Martella Lang, Miss Louise Mann, Miss Aurelia Miller of Amarillo.

Gordon Store—Miss Florita Frenier, Miss Allen Helm of Wheeler.

Levine's—Miss Ethel Jones, Miss Viola Haggard, Miss Elizabeth Barnard of White Deer.

Doak's—Miss Kathryn Vincent, Miss Louise Pearce, Miss Juanita Hayes of Miami.

At the close of an afternoon of games, cold drinks, cake, and apples were served to the following children: Coleen and Mary Jo Cockerill, Charlene Crane, Maxine Richey, Henry and Anna Ford, Woodrow Rice, Marceline McKinney, Wanda Gordon, Doris and Gertrude Ingram, Roscoe Meek, Betty Jo Holt, Eula Bee Campbell.

House Is Full For First Methodist Revival Opening

Pampans filled the First Methodist church yesterday morning for the opening of the revival meeting, and there were 574 persons in Sunday school.

The revival will continue at 10 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. each day thru Easter Sunday. Home forces are in charge.

Central Baptists Have 167 Present

Attendance was 167 at the Central Baptist Sunday school yesterday morning.

The Dorcas Sunday school class will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the home of Mrs. L. W. Hardcastle, 928 E. Francis, at 2:30 o'clock.

Several members of the Central church are planning to attend the district 10 Sunday school and Training Service convention in Amarillo from Tuesday to Thursday.

Revival at First Baptist Church Is Started on Sunday

The crowd at the First Baptist Sunday school was unusually large this week, there being an attendance of 905. The day also marked the beginning of a series of prayer services which are a part of the revival to be continued by Dr. G. L. Yates of Amarillo beginning next Sunday.

Deacons of the church are to meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock and are to sponsor the prayer service this evening at 8 o'clock. The W. M. J. will be in charge Tuesday evening, the department superintendents Wednesday evening, the teachers of organized classes Thursday evening, and the young people of the training service Friday evening.

A large group of First Baptist church members will attend the Sunday school and Training service convention of District 10 beginning in Amarillo tomorrow and continuing through Thursday. One class alone, the Fidels Matrons, plans to send four carloads. The church will have charge of the special music for the opening session Tuesday evening. E. C. Link will direct an adult union B. T. S. conference on the morning, and 11:30 a. m. the same day the Rev. C. E. Lancaster will speak on "The Cooperation Program." Dr. G. L. Yates of Amarillo, who is to conduct a revival meeting in Pampa soon, will preach a sermon the first evening of the convention.

WHITE COLLAR

ALBERT COMBS ENTERTAINED ON BIRTHDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Reynolds entertained in their lovely new home south of Pampa yesterday to honor Albert Combs, who was 76 years old March 30, and Wiley Reynolds, who was 18 years old March 28.

A beautiful turkey dinner was served to the following: Albert Combs, Mrs. P. A. Worley, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Reynolds and sons, Herbert, Raymond, and Jim Frank, Mrs. Inez Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reynolds and son, Henry Herman, Mr. and Mrs. Noel Reynolds and baby girl, Lois Ruth, Mrs. Minnie Mahan, Marion Blasingame, Miss Ruth Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Reynolds and children, Miss Ruth, Wiley Albert, and Bertie, and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Reese and son, Jerry Lee, of Clovis, N. M.

The younger honoree is a grandson of Mrs. Worley and a close friend of Mr. Combs. Mr. Combs is one of the most beloved pioneer citizens of the Panhandle, and young Reynolds is a member of a pioneer family.

Boys Surprised By Friends at Party On Saturday Night

Ralph Williams and Barney Buffington were surprised at a party given Saturday night in the Buffington home at Humble camp.

Games and music were enjoyed and refreshments of punch and cake were served to the following: Wilks Zimmerman, Bill Mack Parks, Roy Webb, Paul Schneider, Dick Sullins, Franklin Baer, Buck Mundy, Wiley Reynolds, John Wolfe, Frank Paulk, Bertie Doucette, Barney Buffington, Jack Mann, Howard Zimmerman, Ramon Fritchell, Harold Gregory, Ralph Williams, Wayne Larsh, Warren Finley, Harry Barnett, Pettie Lyon, Jean Mann, Ollana Atterberry, Jerry Mitchell, Sue Dodson, Mary E. Neese, Doto Shields, Marie Tinsley, Louise Jarrett, Harriett Hunkapillar, Lucille Cole.

Vegetables, Fruits, And Milk in Diet Essential

(Menus and recipes prepared by department of home economics Texas State College for Women.)

DENTON, April 3. (SP)—During war days every housewife in the nation was trying new food recipes and news recipes, serving her homefolds peanut loaf and potato bread. Today we are facing an emergency no less tremendous than that which we faced during the war.

Money, our medium of exchange, has almost vanished into the safety deposit vaults and other hiding places. Most of us have such a limited supply that we must resort to purchase only the least expensive foods or resort to barter. Even when our expenditure must be the very minimum, however, we must not fail to provide our families daily with milk in some form, fruit and vegetables and bread, or some kind of cereal.

The least expensive of each of these may be used, if necessary; skim-milk is better than none at all; a potato better than no fruit or vegetable. If there is a plot of ground available, it may be wise to raise fruits and vegetables and purchase only the other necessary foods. A monotonous diet containing enough milk, fruit or vegetable and cereal will leave no permanent injury, but a diet that lacks these three will leave plenty of ills for years to come.

Breakfast: Stewed apricots, oatmeal with milk, French toast, scrambled eggs, coffee, milk.

Lunch: Lamb stew with dumplings, cabbage - carrot - pineapple salad, mayonnaise, hot biscuit, honey, milk.

Dinner: Cubed steak, mashed potatoes, gravy, candied parsnips, lettuce salad, hot rolls, butter, uncooked lemon pie, coffee.

Breakfast: Chilled orange juice with mint, wholewheat cereal with milk, bacon, eggs, toast, butter, coffee, milk.

Lunch: Cream of spinach soup, croquettes, scalloped cauliflower and hard cooked eggs, mashed sweet potato balls, buttered beets, hot ginger bread, tea, cocoa.

Dinner: Roast loin of lamb, mint jelly, potatoes baked around the roast, brown gravy, wilted lettuce, scalloped tomatoes, hot rolls, butter, apple squares, cheese, coffee, milk.

Wilted Lettuce: Cube about 4 slices of bacon and partially cook. To the bacon and hot fat add

SEEN AT PARIS DISPLAY

BEIGE LINEN makes this spring ensemble designed by Lucile Paray. The high-necked upper blouse of white linen is attached to the skirt by fagoting which is used also as a trimming note on the coat.

By RITA FERRIS
(Associated Press Fashion Editor)
PARIS, April 3. (AP)—The new three-quarter length cut, which marks the mode of 1933, is an outstanding feature of spring styles launched by Lucile Paray.

Knee length coats which reveal the frock below and dresses designed with tunics six inches shorter than the skirt are foremost evidences of the trend.

Combinations Varied
A black wool frock appears with a three-quarter length coat of white cotton; a morning frock is designed with a brown crepe skirt and a long tunic blouse of brown and white checked crepe and an afternoon gown has a black crepe skirt and a three-quarter length tunic of black and white printed crepe.

Pert taffeta frocks as crisp as a sheet of tissue-paper are among new offerings for formal afternoon wear. Most of them are designed with short sleeves or sleeveless cape shoulder lines and fairly full skirts which rustle as the mannequins parade through the salons.

Shoulder Cape Matches
A black model is designed with a round neckline and short puffed sleeves while another of navy blue has a little matching shoulder cape touched with a frill of white organdy.

For the girl who wants a more colorful afternoon ensemble there is a frock of chartreuse green cotton crepe topped with a wool coat of the same hue and a pale mauve crepe worn with a jacket of the same fabric, the elbow length sleeves of which are banded in brown fox.

Evening frocks show interesting notes at the hemline, some of the models being designed with floor-length skirts slashed 12 or 15 times to a depth of 12 inches, while others have hemlines six inches from the floor in front and sweeping the carpet at the back and on the sides.

THOMAS IN DEMONSTRATION
County Agent Ralph Thomas was in the southeast part of the county today to give a demonstration in cutting of beef.

BOARD WILL MEET
The executive board of the Business and Professional Women's club will meet tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock instead of the usual time, 7:30.

ENSEMBLE TO MEET
The Piano Ensemble will meet from 6:30 to 7:30 o'clock this evening at the Carr School of music.

LUNCHEON PLANNED
The Dorcas Sunday school class, First Baptist church, will have an executive meeting Wednesday in the home of Mrs. W. Sticker. A covered dish luncheon will be served.

TEXAS LEAGUE CLUBS TO OPEN SEASON IN 8 MORE DAYS

SHIPPERS WIN 6-5 DECISION AT GALVESTON

OKLAHOMA CITY TAKES TULSA IN FOR 10 TO 7 LOSS

By BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Texas league baseball players have only eight more training days before the inauguration of their 1933 pennant race. For most of the eight clubs, the remaining spring training days will be loaded with heavy workouts and exhibition games. Many unconditional releases will be handed out to aspiring rookies and fading veterans.

Naturally, as the managers drive their cohorts to the starting post, they have their pennant sights aimed high, and from all indications this year's race will be close.

Sunday saw most Texas league teams playing exhibitions. The Beaumont Exporters, last year pennant winners but losers in the Dixie series, bounced the Galveston Buccaneers for a 6 to 5 decision. John Pask, catcher returned to Beaumont after a spring trial with Detroit, clouted a homer in the fourth with a runner on to aid in Beaumont's win.

After winning Saturday, the Fort Worth Cats slipped into reverse Sunday to drop a 6 to 3 decision to the first string Indianapolis team. The victory squared the series at two all.

Texas who have been wondering about the strength of Tulsa and Oklahoma City, next Texas league members, may get some idea from Oklahoma City's 10 to 7 victory yesterday. Tulsa won the first series game Saturday, 12 to 6.

Manager Carey Selph sent his Houston Buffaloes against the amateur Humble Oil team Sunday and had to bear down to get a 3 to 2 verdict.

The Dallas Steers won a 9 to 7 game Sunday from a mixture of Fort Worth and second string Indianapolis players. Zeke Bonura hit a home run. He signed Saturday after being listed as a holdout.

Tickets For Big League Game Are On Sale in City

Tickets to the Pittsburgh Pirates-Chicago White Sox baseball game, went on sale at the City Drug Store this morning at 75 cents. The game will start at 2:30 o'clock at Metro park off Tenth street. Many Pampa fans plan to make the trip.

The teams have just completed their spring training period and will play several series on their way north to open the season. The game in Amarillo will be their third encounter of the trip. Metro park has been put in playing condition and enough seats will be available for many thousands fans.

A street parade through the downtown section will be held before the game. The teams will then proceed to Metro park for a workout before the game.

Several Pampans know members of both teams and will go to Amarillo early to renew acquaintances. It will be the first time in several years that major league ball teams have played in the Panhandle. Fans will have an opportunity to see the famous Waner brothers and many other notables in action.

FIVE ROOKIES RELEASED
DALLAS, April 3. (AP)—The Dallas Steers playing roster was cut today with the unconditional release of five rookies. Manager Happ Morse eliminated Laird and Schmuier, infielders; Joe Carter, catcher, and C. W. Carter and Spencer, outfielders. Laird was the only player under contract.

RETAINING FLAVOR
Many housewives use a pinch of soda to keep vegetables green in the cooking, but super-housewives use a pinch of sugar instead of soda which not only retains the vegetable's fresh color but adds to the flavor. Keeping the lid off while cooking is also a help.

GALLANT SIR SETS RECORD

Wins $25,000 Agua Caliente Handicap and Smashes Mark of Phar Lap.

AGUA CALIENTE, Mex., April 3. (AP)—The first of thoroughbreds which have won great victories and the name of Gallant Sir, and opposite it write "the $25,000 added Agua Caliente handicap of 1933."

While the mile and a quarter race was no longer the "richest in the world" when he won it yesterday and in a small field, the big 4-year-old colt did his job handsomely in 2:02 3-5. He cracked the record set by Phar Lap, the wonder horse from the Antipodes, in overcoming surprisingly stiff competition.

Waylayer, owned by A. A. Baroni, was second, and Lemon Hills was third.

Ex-Harvesters Expect To Make 1933 Frog Team

Two ex-Harvester football stars are in line for regular jobs on the Texas Christian university Frog football team this fall. With the closing of spring training, Coach Francis Schmidt has named the boys who appeared promising during the training period and among those mentioned were Paul Hill and Joe Freeman.

Paul Hill, 235 pounds, was fullback on the Harvester team two years ago, but when he got to T. C. U. he became a center and starred on the freshman team. Joe Freeman, a guard, made a good running mate for Hill in the freshman line last season.

From Frog Flashes comes the following comment:

"Spring football training came to a close this week when Coach Schmidt called the remaining practices off because of mid-term examinations. Although few men attended the spring drill this year, the Christian coach was well pleased with the progress made. He was especially pleased with the work of Paul Hill, Tiny Godwin, Howard Pulliam, Jewell Wallace, Taldon Lanton, James Simpson, Darrell Lester, Wilson, Groseclose, Bobby Stowe, Richard Allison, Cy Perkins, Melvin Diggs, John Kitchin, John Freeman, Jimmy Lawrence and Charlie Needham. Grid logs at T. C. U. will rest among the moth balls until Sept. 10, when the entire squad gathers for the first fall practice.

Toscanini Sends Protest of Nazi Artist Treatment

NEW YORK, April 3. (AP)—Arturo Toscanini, who was trounced two years ago in Italy for refusing to play the fascist national anthem, joined ten other celebrated musicians Saturday in cabling to Chancellor Adolf Hitler a protest of the Nazi treatment of artists in Germany.

His friends have represented him as feeling himself duty bound to go to Barreuth, because he has signed a contract.

Tonight, however, some of them said they feared his signature on the cable of protests might lead to a cancellation in Germany of the contract.

In announcing the dispatch of the cable, Berthold Neuer said the decision to send it was reached after New York musicians had received word of widespread "persecution" of artists in Germany.

Four Found Shot

LA CROSSE, Va., April 3. (AP)—Police were engaged in a search tonight for the slayers of four reputedly wealthy bachelors found shot at their farmhouse near here early Saturday.

CLASS A MEET SATURDAY MAY BE CANCELLED

HARVESTER TRACK AND FIELD MEN MIGHT GO TO PERRYTON

Unless Berger and Plainview enter the district 1, Class A track and field meet scheduled to be at Harvester park Saturday afternoon will probably be canceled. Coach Odus Mitchell said this morning. Amarillo and Lubbock have already signified their intention of entering, but no word has been received from the other schools.

The track at Harvester park will be lengthened to the regulation 440 yards if the other schools enter. The present distance is only 360 yards. A 220-yard straight-away will be built at the same time. The track would be built around the south bleachers.

Coach Odus Mitchell is anxious to pit his team's strength against the other Class A teams in the district. He believes that he can defeat Amarillo now that his boys have swung into action. They showed up better in Clarendon Saturday than at any other time this year.

The coach intends to take the team to Perryton Saturday if the Class A meet is abandoned. Perryton is sponsoring an invitation meet for schools on the north plains and the Panhandle of Oklahoma. Competition is expected to be keen.

Although the Harvester dash men made fair showings Saturday, there is plenty of room for improvement. They failed to keep their pace at the right time and labored at the finish. The coach will work hard with them this week.

No meet has been set for the following Saturday, but April 21 and 22 will bring the district meet in Canyon.

Rosenbloom And Miller To Fight During This Week

NEW YORK, April 3. (AP)—Maxey Rosenbloom, ruler of the light heavyweight, opens a dull week's boxing program at Buffalo tonight.

The Harlem brawler, who successfully defended his title against Adolph Heuser and Bob Godwin in a span of two weeks last month, faces Lou Scozza, rugged Buffalo battler, in a ten-round non-title engagement.

The only other outstanding bout of the week sends Freddie Miller, of Cincinnati, National boxing association featherweight champion, against Cecil Payne of Louisville at Los Angeles tomorrow night. They will fight ten rounds or less. Miller's crown will not be at stake.

Neighbors To Meet

The Royal Neighbors are having their social meeting tonight with a special program featuring dance pupils of Miss Kathryn Vincent, accompanied by Mrs. Frank Keesh. Pupils on the program are Frankie Lou Keesh, June Marie Amick, Neva Lou Woodhouse, Aaron Hunter, and Lela Pearl Baldwin. Popular songs and tap dance by Miss Vincent.

Bowling Scores Highest in 32 Years of Meet

COLUMBUS, O., April 3. (AP)—The custodian of the official high ten standing board of the American bowling congress was a busy individual yesterday. New leaders appeared on practically every squad and officials said the general scoring was possibly the highest for any one day in the 32 years of A. B. C. pin history.

Topping the terrific bombardment were the Flags Opticians of Covington, Ky., who soared into the five-man event lead with a total of 3021. Other high totals included a 1356 count that sent Forrest Beve and David Knapp of St. Louis into the lead in the doubles.

Two sparkling totals were registered in the singles class. Rudy Riepel, Milwaukee veteran, counted 722 to take the solo event lead after Andy Tomasek of Cleveland had scored 721 on an earlier shift.

Art Dingwell of Detroit vaulted into second spot in the all-events division with 1942 and Otto Stein of St. Louis scored 1929 for third berth in the nine-game division.

Columbus "regulars" will peg away with out-of-town bowlers again tonight, 41 teams being scheduled on the two squads.

Grandview To Be Host To Pampans Friday Evening

A group of Pampa citizens will go to Grandview Friday evening at the invitation of residents of that community south of this city.

Arrangements were perfected Saturday by the B. C. D. and Junior chamber of commerce groups and a committee headed by Mrs. Joe Looper of Grandview. The Pampans will present a short program arranged by Roy Bourland and his intercommunity relations committee.

The local party will meet at the city hall at 7:15 p. m. before starting to Grandview.

Judge and Mrs. Clifford Braly left yesterday for points in Oklahoma.

John R. Riley of Oklahoma City arrived in Pampa this morning on business.

J. Workman and family of Shamrock were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Workman here.

Miss Marjorie Buckler and Miss Christine Cook arrived home from Miss Hockaday school, Dallas, for the Easter holidays Saturday.

Markets New York Stocks

NEW YORK, April 3. (AP)—The stock market shifted position frequently in a dull session today, trading with irregular and generally narrow changes. Tobacco were firm, but rails again reacted and farm implement issues lost early gains. Transfers approximately 650,000 shares.

GRID BATTLE IN PAMPA SET FOR APRIL 11

GRADUATES WILL PLAY 1933 HARVESTER PROSPECTS

The big football game of the spring season has been definitely set for April 11. Coaches Odus Mitchell and Argus Fox announced this morning. The game will be between the graduating Harvesters and the 1933 prospects. Several members of both squads are on the track and field squad, but they will forget their spiked shoes for that afternoon and wear the heavy football togs.

Assistant Coach Argus Fox has been working with 70 and more boys for the last month and has not been devoting much time to rounding out a team. However, he has had his eye on the best prospects and last week he started work on his proposed starting line-up and a number of substs today. He has not decided who will start the game and will not release the information until before the game.

The "Mitchell grads" will work secretly after track and field workouts for the next week. Nearly all the members are in excellent condition. In fact, John Pafford is wanting to get into the game. He claims he is an ex-Harvester but is still going to school.

The game will tend to give the coaches an opportunity to see their prospects up against real competition and give them an idea what to expect this fall. Coach Fox believes his young hopefuls will give the Harvesters a real surprise while the old fellows are a little cocky.

Dixie Class C Loop Organized By Eight Cities

TYLER, April 3. (AP)—Arrangements have been completed for the organization of the Class C Dixie baseball league that will include Baton Rouge and Shreveport, La., Jackson, Miss., Eldorado, Ark., Longview, Henderson, Tyler and Waco.

Fifteen representatives from various cities attended a meeting here yesterday in which President J. Alvin Gardner of the Texas league presided. Gardner will serve as president of the Dixie league.

It was voted to open the season April 27 and to close August 27. The league schedule will include 126 games, and the season will be split on June 26. Mondays will be "off-days" and doubleheaders will be played on most Sundays.

Lamar L. Denman of Mount Pleasant was named vice-president, and Milton Price, secretary of the Texas league, was elected secretary.

The Dixie league will have a salary limit of $1,200 exclusive of managers' salaries. Each team will be limited to 14 players.

Bill Ruggles, who annually draws up the Texas league schedule, will arrange a Dixie league schedule and, as soon as it is completed, President Gardner will call another meeting.

Teddy Lyons Is Showing Up Well In Spring Camp

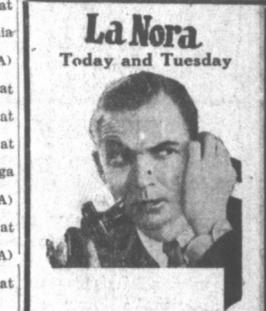

TUCSON, Ariz., April 3. (AP)—A preview of Teddy Lyons' 1933 pitching assortment was scheduled for today as the White Sox moved into action against the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Lyons, an outstanding hero among White Sox fans through all the lean years, has been showing fine form during the spring training jaunt and probably will draw the opening pitching assignment against St. Louis April 12.

Urban "Red" Faber, 44-year-old pitching veteran, opened his 50th White Sox campaign yesterday with fair results, holding the Pasadena Merchants to seven hits in four innings. The White Sox beat the semi-pro team in their farewell game on the west coast, 6 to 2.

L. D. Duffalo of Shreveport is in the city for a few days this week.

Mrs. O. E. Keplinger of Kingmill shopped here Saturday.
