EFFORT TO GAG SENATE FAILS

MONDAY FIXED FOR SHOWDOWN ON 5-DAY BILL

INFLATION VICTORY IS PREDICTED BY STEAGALL

ROBINSON SEEKS SPEED

PLANS FOR ROOSEVELT PARLEYS BEING FINISHED

WASHINGTON, April 15. (AP)—A tide of oratory in the senate today postponed until next week the first test vote on currency inflation to aid the farmer, after democratic leaders had been thwarted in an effort to stem the flow of debate on the Roosevelt-sponsored agricultural relief program.

General discussion of the administration bill and its provisions for reflecting and lifting farm incomes to pre-war levels forestalled the opening of debate on pending proposals to add reamortization of silver to the bill as a rider.

Objections from members of his own party and from the republican ranks as well spelled failure for an attempt by Robinson of Arkansas to set an agreement for debate limitation on the farm bill, beginning Monday. By then, however, he may have worked out another way to reach an early vote.

In the path now, anyhow, is the bill of Senator Black (D. Ala.) looking toward federal assurance of a five-day week. Impatient over parliamentary obstacles to reaching a vote on a pending motion to reconsider its passage, which has kept it from being sent to the house for action, the Arkansas Robinson fixed it so a showdown may be had Monday.

A test vote on one of the several currency inflation propositions put up in the senate had been expected today but republican speeches of opposition and other arguments on the farm bill forced the count until next week. Opponents still asserted confidence that they could beat the expansionists.

A prediction that the house would approve some form of currency inflation was made by Chairman Steagall of the house banking committee.

Asserting some method of expansion of the currency should be un-

Local Man Opens New Museum Friday in Canyon

By OLIN E. HINKLE, Managing Editor, THE NEWS, CANYON, April 15. —Booming of a cannon on the campus of the West Texas Teachers college at noon Friday was still echoing when T. D. Hobart of Pampa, asserting that "this is one of the happiest days of my life," walked up the steps of Pioneer hall and opened as a monument to Panhandle-Plains pioneers the first museum building erected in Texas.

Mr. Hobart as president of the Panhandle-Plains Historical society for five administrations thereby closed his tenure—but not his work as an enthusiastic life-member of the organization—with a triumph which had been the dream of pioneers for many years.

Chuck Wagon Lunch. During the noon hour, a western lunch was served from a famous old chuck wagon by John M. Hendrix of Sweetwater.

Among the many tributes to Mr. Hobart was a touching one from Matthew (Bones) Hooks, negro horse wrangler and cook for the T-Anchor outfit and popular figure among the oldtimers. "Bones" sent a bouquet to Mr. Hobart and a message of tribute to pioneers who have "gone ahead."

Machine Ruins $132,000 Worth Of Gray's Bonds

An entry will be placed in the minutes of the Gray county commissioners court showing how $132,000 in bonds were canceled by Judge C. E. Cary, Treasurer D. R. Henry, and County Clerk Charlie Thut at the First National bank at Dallas.

On their return late Friday, the officials told how the bank's electric canceling machine had rendered the Gray county bonds worthless. Because the bonds were voted to be used on state-aid projects, and because the state has since decided to build its own designated roads without county assistance, the negotiable paper was ordered destroyed as to value in order that it may not appear as a liability in the county's financial statements.

Had the uncanceled bonds been sent by insured express the cost would have been about $200. The three officials, required by law to witness cancellation, made the trip for less than $50.

The county commissioners will have a special session Monday at 1:30 p. m. to consider financial matters and unfinished business.

GRAND JURY MEETS

Members of the Gray county grand jury, called into special session by Foreman M. E. Brown Saturday, investigated recent burglaries but did not complete their work and will convene again Monday. Meanwhile, county officers are continuing their investigations, which have resulted in burglary charges, being filed against Walter and Lloyd Hitt.

FROM 3 TO 10 EGGS FOUND BY EACH OF HUNDREDS OF CHILDREN

Children of all ages and in-arms—hundreds of them—spread in waves over several acres west of Harvester park Saturday afternoon in a grand and fruitful hunt for the Pampa Daily News-La Nora theater Easter egg hunt for children of the unemployed. Hundreds of eggs were overlooked at first but within half an hour only the most cleverly hidden eggs, including one hundred good for admission to the La Nora, had not been found. Every child found from three to ten eggs, and most of these were carried away in sacks. It was an intensely interesting event for the children and the adults too. Before the hunt started, Principals J. A. Meek and A. L. Patrick,

PROPOSES SHE HURL HERSELF THRU WINDOW

'THEY'RE GANGSTERS,' SHE SHOUTS AT JURORS

MATRON TAKES STAND

STRANGE ACTS, MOODS OF WOMAN ARE RELATED

FLORENCE, Ariz., April 15. (AP)—While Winnie Ruth Judd occupied the attention of attendants with mild attacks of apparent hysteria and threatened to throw herself from the courtroom window, Warden A. G. Walker of the Arizona state prison, Assistant Warden E. H. Shute and four matrons told a sanity jury today they believe the condemned woman is insane.

FLORENCE, Ariz., April 15. (AP)—Hysterical outburst, laughter and tears came from 28-year-old Winnie Ruth Judd today as her sanity hearing progressed slowly—with little more than five days left before the time set for her hanging.

At one time, the blonde confessed slaver of Agnes Anne Lerol and Hedvig Samuelson proposed that she throw herself out of the courtroom window, two stories up.

Before that, she had rose from her chair and said of the 12 jurors, "they're gangsters—all of them."

Unless they decide she is insane, she is to be hanged at the state prison at dawn next Friday on conviction of murdering Mrs. Lerol. If the hearing is not completed by then, she will have to hang, anyway, as calling of the hearing at request of the prison warden does not constitute a reprieve.

The sanity jury was completed this morning, but after one witness, a prison matron, had told of strange acts and moods of Mrs. Judd, testimony was held up by an argument over a request of the state that two alienists be allowed to examine the condemned woman without presence of her lawyers.

During this argument, Mrs. Judd said to her husband, Dr. William C.

Relief Agency Pays $1,027.30 To 255 Persons

A total of $1,027.30 was paid to 244 men and 11 women by the federal relief committee Saturday.

The committee discussed at length the work projects, method of keeping records under the new system recommended by the state, and future of the work.

Workers furnished by the committee have spent several weeks on the municipal swimming pool which, weather permitting, will be completed as to the main project within 10 working days. However, much work remains in shaping the grounds and such details as beautification, drainage, and parking.

Banquet and Box Supper Comprise Week's Program

Members of the chambers of commerce face a rather busy week, in which the highest point of interest will be in the community banquet Thursday evening.

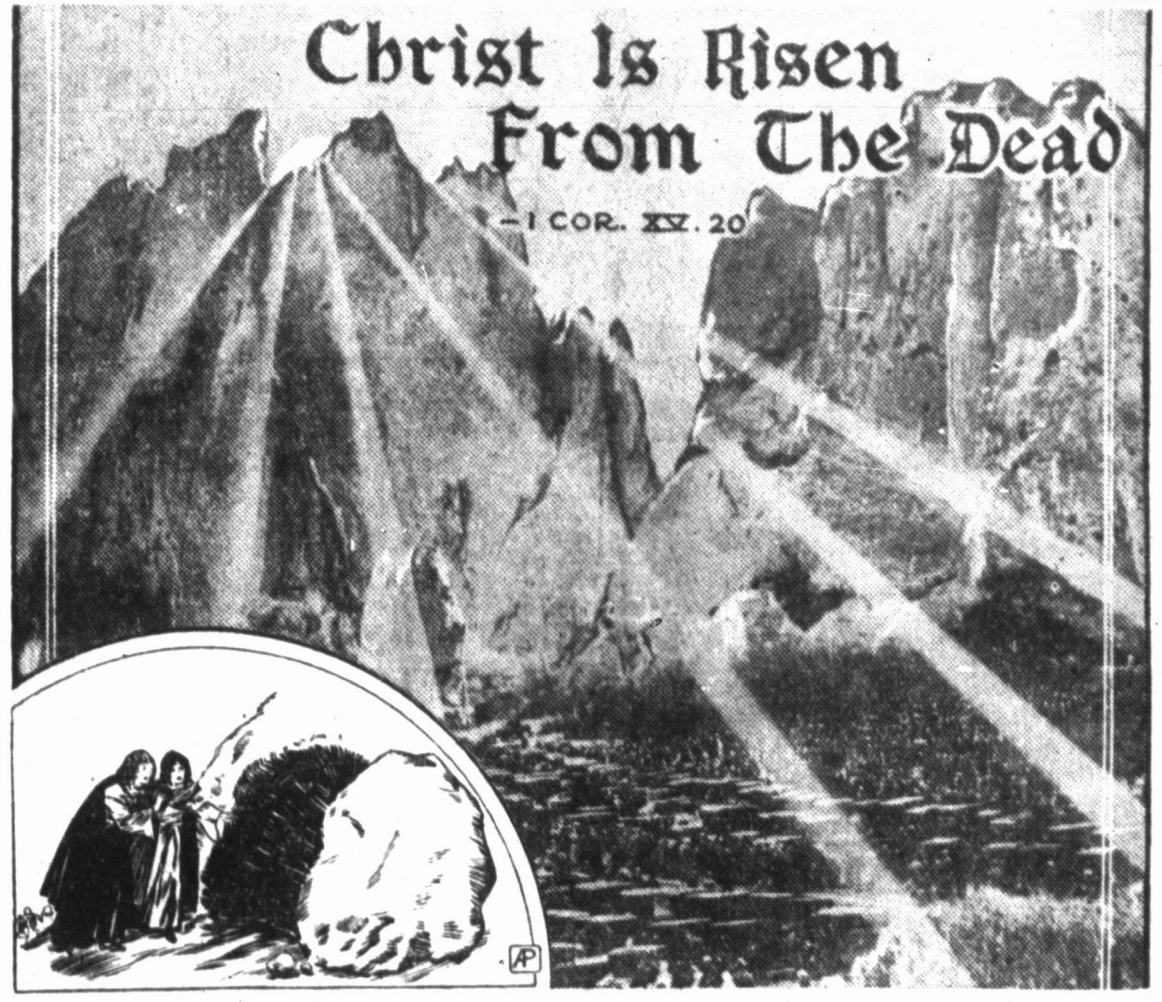

All men of the community are invited to the banquet, which is sponsored jointly and annually by the B. C. D. and the Junior chamber of commerce. It will begin at the Methodist church at 8 o'clock and will proceed swiftly to an early adjournment.

Three short speeches will follow half an hour of musical entertainment. The speakers will be R. G. Allen, Dr. C. H. Schukey, and Frank Foster. Tickets will be placed on sale at 50 cents each by a committee headed by Frank Hill.

Previously, on Tuesday evening, a delegation will go to the Hopkins No. 1 school for a community box supper. Local trippers—many are asked to make the journey—will meet at the city hall at 7:15 p. m. to start.

INDIAN COMMISSIONER AND SOLICITOR GENERAL NAMED

Californian To Manage Indian Wards; North Carolina Man in Lawyer Post

WASHINGTON, April 15. (AP)—Two important posts in the national government—solitor general of the United States and commissioner of Indian affairs—were filled today by President Roosevelt in the administration's drive to bring an early ending to patronage worries.

The president sent to the senate the nomination of James Crawford Biggs of North Carolina to represent the supreme court and the name of John Collier of California to manage the nation's Indian wards.

At the same time, he nominated James A. Donohoe to be federal judge for Nebraska. Clifton Matthews to be federal attorney for Arizona, and Rear Admiral Christian J. Peoples, now stationed at the Brooklyn navy yard, to be paymaster general of the navy.

In addition, he formally withdrew the nomination of Mayor James M. Curley of Boston to be ambassador to Poland. Curley had declined the appointment, saying he thought he could be of greater service to Boston and the nation by remaining in this country.

Meanwhile, the name of Guy T. Helvering, a former representative from Kansas, was mentioned widely in speculation over the post of commissioner of internal revenue.

A number of senators were known to have been opposed to the nomination of Collier, but administration supporters were confident he would be confirmed easily.

The nomination of Biggs came as a surprise to a number of persons on Capitol Hill who had understood Felix Frankfurter, dean of the Harvard law school, was to be named. Others said Frankfurter turned down the post.

SENATE AND HOUSE MUST AGREE ON DATE TO HOLD BEER BALLOT

By R. W. BARRY, Associated Press Staff Writer.

AUSTIN, April 15. (AP)—Legislators stood surprised with themselves this week-end as members of the Texas house of representatives contemplated how neatly they had disposed of the proposition of legalization of beer.

It was probable the entire prohibition program will have been consummated and forgotten, until the time rolls around to discuss the issue before the electorate, by the end of next week.

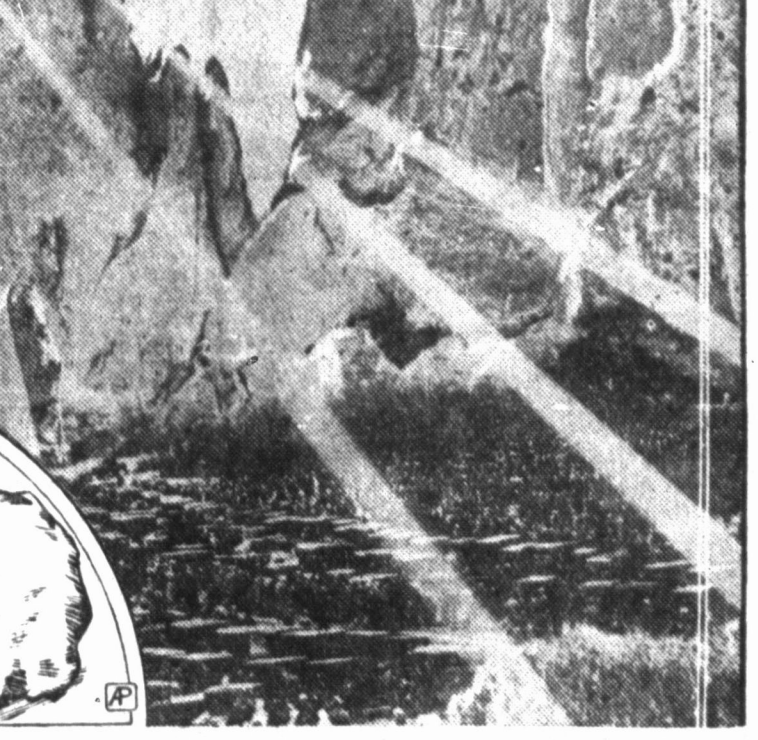

An agreement between the two houses on how best to get an expression from the voters on repeal of the eighteenth amendment is regarded as likely the early part of next week.

Should the house concur in the senate's sentiment about striking prohibition from the nation's fundamental law to hold the election of next August 26. The house wanted to postpone a referendum until the general election of November 1934.

YOUTH IS HELD FOR $100,000 POLICE CLAIM

'JAKE THE BARBER'S' SON OVERPOWERED BY GANGSTERS

FATHER NONCOMMITTAL

LETTER THREATENS TO 'SEND BOY HOME IN PIECES'

CHICAGO, April 15. (AP)—Jerome Factor, 17, son of John "Jake the Barber" Factor, is being held for $100,000 ransom, police revealed tonight.

The son of the internationally-known speculator was overpowered and spirited away from in front of his home of Chicago's South Side last Wednesday. Capt. Daniel Gilbert, chief of the state's attorney's police, said.

A letter demanding $50,000 ransom was delivered Friday to Factor at his hotel suite where he had been living in seclusion pending outcome of his appeal of the U. S. supreme court from an order extraditing him to England on charges of swindling British investors of $8,000,000.

Another letter raising the ransom demand to $100,000 was sent later, according to Capt. Gilbert, who conferred with Factor tonight concerning it.

Factor denied himself to all other callers and refused comment on the abduction.

Capt. Gilbert said he was told that the boy, a student at Northwestern university, was entering his home Wednesday night when four men drove up in an automobile, forced him to enter and drove him away.

To Inherit Fortune. Previous to the abduction, Capt. Gilbert said, numerous attempts had been made to kidnap the boy who is a beneficiary of a huge trust fund established by factor.

Capt. Gilbert revealed the first ransom note contained a threat to send the youth "home in pieces" if the abductors' demands were not complied with.

Factor himself has been under heavy guard recently to protect him from threatened kidnaping. Since his return to the United States from England, he is understood to have added several million dollars to the fortune he amassed through his stock promotion enterprises.

Factor's career has been spectacular. Production of Chicago's West Side, he became an apprentice barber, but discarded the clippers for the more profitable calling of a market operator.

His speculations in Australia, Canada and England brought him to public attention and he amassed money with astonishing speed.

In Under Extradition Hearing. He became a familiar figure at Europe's most fashionable gambling resorts and is reputed to have won $640,000 in a single evening at Le Touquet, France, where his present wife later broke the bank.

In May, 1931, he surrendered here on a charge of bilking British investors in a questionable promotion scheme. After months of hearings United States Commissioner Edwin K. Need For Reflation

Before the writer is a ponderous collection of material bearing on the claim that inflation of currency is the nation's hope. It is from James M. Thomson, publisher of the New Orleans Tribune...

"I look with horror on the idea that we have to go into a war in order to inflate or reflate. I know that if the money-masters of the East made up their minds that they were through with picking up bargains, that the Country would stand no more deflation—we would start on a period of reflation."

"I am not interested personally in any bank stocks, and never have been. I have no antipathy to banks or bankers, and only an ordinary citizen's interest in the protection of any bank or banker."

"The primary difficulty with the banks of America has been and is the terrific and unprecedented deflation which has gone on in commodity prices, in real estate, and in the price of almost everything that people use."

"There is a school of honest though in America which has been educated to the idea that the word 'inflation' means dishonesty. To my mind this is utterly absurd. Honesty is stabilization. Deflation followed by continued deflation is absolutely dishonest, just as intelligent reflation followed by undue inflation is absolute dishonesty."

"When we had come through the 1929 stock boom and the Hoover panic occurred, the public and private debts of the United States amounted to something like $215,000,000,000. In a feeble way from time to time we wrote in The Item that this stock boom resembled the Florida land boom. Perhaps some people paid some attention to this. But no voice could reach far through gambling and speculating fever that afflicted the country."

"Roughly speaking, most of those billions of dollars of bonds and mortgages on farms, railroads and the like, have been issued—locally as well as nationally—as honest obligations, easily warranted by the scale of prices between 1924 and 1927. But today, in an utterly demoralized market for the prices of bonds, mortgages, and securities of all kinds, there is not enough wealth in the entire United States to pay its debts."

"In other words, if the whole Country were sold out for its mortgaged indebtedness, we would find that the greatest, richest and most powerful nation in the world owing no money abroad, but holding great foreign loans, could not be sold out to pay its debts."

Farm Boys Are Excellent Scouts

More than fifty per cent of all boys of twelve or over live, in what the government census experts describe as rural areas. That is, centers of less than 2,500 population. With this great field before it the Boy Scout movement has developed a rural program, helpfully adapting the details of the Boy Scout character building and citizenship training program to meet the needs of these country boys.

Rural boys may and do, in increasing numbers, join farm or home patrols, rural troops or Lone Scout tribes. They make excellent Scouts, reports show. The flexibility of the program is further evidenced in the fact that a lone rural boy, isolated from other boys, may carry on his Scout work successfully as a Lone Scout, with the leadership and advice of a friend and counselor whom he selects with the approval of his parents.

The boy finds a rich field for prevocational exploration in the Scout merit badge program having a direct bearing upon agricultural and rural interests. A highly important phase of the program is the training which is given to rural scouts in the value of health, safety and first aid and in the varied applications of the program in

REVIEWS and NEWS OF CURRENT BOOKS By T. L. E.

THRILLER IS TRANSLATED Arrangements have recently been concluded for the publication of Valentine Williams' recent spy story, "The Mystery of the Gold Box" (Houghton Mifflin company) in Danish and Norwegian. The novel is already being translated into French, Dutch and Hungarian.

"Discovery," his new autobiographical volume, published by Houghton Mifflin company, John Drinkwater says of his early literary background, "I went to Birmingham, at an age when I might have been leaving a public school for the university, an insurance clerk of some experience and, it appeared, unusual promise, but with no intellectual horizons whatever."

"The cardinal virtues, learnt at mother's knee, have never penetrated to the core of Hollywood, and were they to seek an entrance, they would be laughed out of existence. As a result, Hollywood, for all the ferocity of its labors and wealth of its spend, is as empty a shell as ever existed in the history of the world."

Such is the picture of the movie metropolis given by the frank and vivid pen of the anonymous author of "City Without a Heart," announced for early publication by Houghton Mifflin company.

WHAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN Liddell Hart has been called the greatest living writer on war, and his new book, "The British War in Warfare" ($2.75) promises to excite both criticism and controversy by reason of its attack on British and French strategy in the Great War. His discussion of what might have happened if Britain had clung to her historic way in warfare—economic pressure exercised through sea power is of special interest.

Captain Liddell Hart writes also of the future of armament, the control of the air, the weapons of land warfare, and the army of New Italy.

In the OIL FIELDS

With the legislature's passing of the revision of the marginal oil bill, Panhandle oil producers breathed easier yesterday. They felt confident that the senate would pass the bill and that the governor would sign it upon passage by the senate.

The new revision bill was presented after Attorney General James V. Alfred had ruled that production could not be limited to 40 barrels per well and after the federal court had ruled that acreage should be considered. Even if the 40 barrel marginal had been set it would have meant 400,000 barrels production daily and at least 800,000 barrels additional would have to be allowed for acreage, giving the field 600,000 barrels a day or enough to almost ruin the Panhandle field.

Under the revision figures, marginal production can be 200,000 barrels and acreage about 150,000 in addition, giving the field output 350,000 barrels.

Activities in the Panhandle field last week were negligible. A few drilling wells were nearing the pay. The Daner test in the West Pampa pool looks good for producer but no test has been made. The Texasvania test on the Hale ranch in Hutchinson county, near the sensational Murphy test which opened a new pool several weeks ago, topped pay Friday but has not been completed.

Production in the field increased 3,027 barrels to 48,433 barrels.

HITTY IN ENGLAND An English edition of Rachel Field's and Dorothy Lathrop's "Hitty," best seller and Newbery Medal winner, was published recently. One of the first reviews to reach America was written by Eleanor Farjeon for Time and Tide. She says: "Hitty" is so well done it can hardly be over praised. It is the best book about a doll I have ever read. She ends with a delightful tribute: "All Hitty's adventures are perfectly devised, and related with the gravity and reality of Robinson Crusoe. The tale moves in a sedate yet animated air, and would be a lovely one to read aloud in the evening to an expectant child."

The White Cockatoo by Mignon G. Eberhart

SYNOPSIS: Jim Sundean is accused of murder by the manager of the French summer hotel in which Sundean is spending a winter week. He detests the oily manager, Lovschlem. His three fellow guests he knows nothing about except Sue Tully. And Sue has, only a few minutes before, wakened him from a dose by demanding entrance to his room, and told him a horrifying tale of escape from an abductor. She has sent him to the hotel lobby for her key, which is not there. On his way back he sees Sue's shadow in the upper corridor, and then she stumbles over a chair. But Madame Lovschlem detests her husband.

Chapter 8 PERHAPS A TRAP? "YOU'RE A FOOL!" Madame Lovschlem repeated, and the glance she gave her deflated husband was not pleasant.

The man made a protestant gesture, but nevertheless handed her the sword, and she took it coolly. "I'll just wash this off and replace it and nobody need know anything about it."

Lovschlem looked blank. "That won't do at all," he said. "I don't know what you—"

"Lovschlem," she said sharply. Her eyes quelled his. Yet there was no reason that I could see for Madame Lovschlem's suddenly championing me.

Moreover, I didn't know that I wanted her championship. In the first place, if I let her do as she proposed there was no danger of the girl, me being accused of murder. At the same time, if the truth eventually came out, as it readily might, things would look much blacker for me.

"No," I said. "We'll call the police and let them know the whole thing, dagger and all. I didn't kill him. I'm not afraid."

She stopped and looked at me incredulously. I saw then that her eyes were green, limpid, and clear, and yet with a look of secret reflection that a cat's have.

"Not afraid?" she said rather softly. "American, aren't you? Not bad-looking, either. Accustomed to having your own way, I suppose, with men—and women?"

"You are too kind, madame. You'll leave the dagger exactly as it is, please, and your husband and I will wait together while you phone for the police."

"I'll do nothing of the kind," she said and turned to the bathroom, but I caught her wrist and led her back to the dead man. She did not protest or even pull back when I told her to place the dagger on the dead man's chest, but I did not release her wrist until she had done so, and her eyes shone like a cat's when the light strikes them.

She said nothing to me, however. She gave her husband a glance of scorn and fury but said in a smooth voice that was under perfect control, that since Mr. Sundean so wished, they might as well call the police.

"Very well," said Lovschlem slyly, as if his thoughts were sunk in some dark mire. "Call them."

She looked at him again in a kind of impatient scorn, shrugged lightly, and then glanced all about.

"Father Robert!" she said suddenly. "Of course, Father Robert. I'll get him at once. This—this dead man must have prayers immediately. A violent death, without absolution. Besides, it is not bad to give a more pious atmosphere, eh?"

The fringes of her yellow scarf twisted and vanished in the gloom of the long corridor. Shadows followed her, and the wind whispered, and the whisper rose to a gust, and the whole place rattled like a dead man's dry bones.

I said to myself: It's a nightmare. I'll shut my eyes and then open them and look directly at the master clock. The sword will still be there, and it will all have been a dream.

The clock worked, was of course, not on the mantle; it was lying bloodstained there below me, and the dead man's face was real enough.

Lovschlem was standing quiet beside me, his gaze too upon the dead man, and his fat face only vaguely frightened now, for he was still sunk deep in his thoughts and looked more troubled and perplexed than he looked frightened.

I thought of Sue as I waited, of the story she had told of her abduction—and the fact that she had not told enough about the event. She had not wanted me to look for her abductor, or to tell either the police or the Lovschlems.

It was all full of holes, and yet I believed it. I was thinking how pleasant it had been having her by my bedside when I remembered that she had sent me for a key that was not where she had said it would be.

While I was gone a murder had been done, and the sword from the big clock, which she had had in her hand a few minutes before, was in the breast of the murdered man. It seemed ridiculous—but I still believed her. Perhaps this lurching, grotesque thing at our feet had been pursuing her, and she had snatched the sword and struck at him, and then run away.

I was about to say something to Lovschlem, anything to break the silence in that narrow passage, when we heard a sound down the corridor and Madame Lovschlem's yellow shawl emerged, followed by the black skirts of the priest.

Madame Lovschlem led the priest directly to the man at our feet. We both moved back a little when the priest's red beard boomed up into the light. He bent over, as we all had, and stared at the dead man. But he looked puzzled and clumsy and did not seem to know exactly what Madame Lovschlem expected of him. He got down, however, on his knees and got out his crucifix and rosary and began passing his fingers over the body.

I COULDN'T see his face, only his bent head and rather thin and narrow shoulders in their tightly buttoned "outane, and his feet, which projected from the black folds of the skirt of the garment he wore and looked very large. He was younger than he had seemed on my first glimpse of him; there was an unwrinkled look about the back of his neck, there seemed to be no gray in his mouse-colored hair, and his figure was rather lean.

It was strange, I thought, that he was wearing American-made shoes. It was so strange that I looked closely at the soles and heels and stitching. They had undoubtedly been made in America.

TROOP NO. 18 By Harold Rickard

A regular meeting of leaders of Scout Troop No. 18 was held Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock. Those present were John E. Shannon, scoutmaster, W. O. Christian, assistant; W. P. Weathered, Everett Vanderburg, S. P. L.; Norman Cox, L. L. of Bears; Roscoe Pinnell, P. L. of Wolves; and Bob Kelsey, P. L. of Rattlesnakes.

Plans went forward at this meeting for a Father and Son hike on April 28th, and overnight hike on May 6th.

Means and methods were also gone into to get the troop tents. It was suggested by some of the boys "buddy up" and buy a pup tent between them. Others brought forward the idea of a single tent for each patrol, and still another that the boys get a pattern and make their own tents. A vote was taken and indicated that the majority was in favor of the boys buying or making their pup tents.

Among other problems taken up were difficulties in each patrol on advancement, patrol hikes, and Scout meetings. It was also decided that more attention be given to the enlargement of patrol activities, and that each patrol be completely organized, with treasurer, scribe, hikemaster, grubmaster, cheerleader, and quartermaster.

Various projects, working toward our booth next year, were assigned to different boys to be under the supervision of patrol leaders. Comments and helps for patrol leaders were thoroughly discussed by scoutmaster and his assistants in order to help patrol leaders with their patrols and to develop leadership.

Our next leaders meeting will be held on May 10.

Friday night the troop ball team met for practice and yesterday afternoon the troop won a 7 to 4 game from Troop 16. Both managers experimented considerably during the game. The troop team will practice at 4:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at Magnolia park.

TROOP NO. 18 Harold Rickard, Scout scribe

Fenberg's Face Burned By Acid

Sam A. Fenberg, owner of the Diamond Shop, was slightly burned on the face Friday afternoon when a bottle of nitric acid broke on a counter in the Corner drug store, splashing the acid on his face and clothing.

Druggists applied first aid and a physician treated the burns before they became deep.

The acid was to be used in testing old gold which Mr. Fenberg is buying and sending to the mint. The front of his shirt was burned, but none of the acid reached the skin. Only a drop of the acid touched a corner of Mr. Fenberg's eye as he jumped away from the counter.

Miss Barrett Is In Serious State After Accident

The condition of Miss Elizabeth Barrett, Pampa girl who was injured in an automobile accident Wednesday afternoon near Baylor university, is still serious according to word received yesterday from her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Barrett, and Mrs. Aaron Meek, a sister, who are with her.

In a letter to Mr. Meek, his wife said that Miss Barrett's face was badly cut and bruised and that her jaw was broken in several places. It took more than two hours to set the jaw bones Friday, when an operation was performed. She also received a broken collar bone, fractured pelvis, and probably a broken leg.

Two other girls were injured in the accident which occurred when five girls were returning from a biology lesson out of doors. One of the accident victims was still unconscious when the letter was written.

Arthur "Pinky" Whitney, captain and third baseman of the Philadelphia Phillies, gained his nickname from a comic strip character that was popular "way back yonder."

18 was held in his quarters on April 14 at 7:30 p. m. "Troop Assembly" was broken by Troop Bugler Ben Slaughter and presentation of the colors and the pledge to the Flag with the troop repeating the 5th Scout law, "Courteous."

Patrol Assembly by senior patrol leader, checking attendance by patrol scribe and collection of thrift dues by the scout treasurer, followed.

The recreation period was taken up mostly by the playing of "Pioneers & Indians," which proved to be a sensation. A clean, wholesome game with plenty of action.

Instruction by the patrol method under the direction of patrol leaders followed, including knot-tying for 5 minutes, semaphore signalling for ten minutes, and compass points for five minutes. The patrol method of instruction seems to work successfully and it was pointed out that this method will continue.

A knot-tying contest was held by the three individual patrols competing with each other. The "Rattlesnake" patrol won this event. This winning patrol is the newest formed patrol and is showing signs of becoming a leader.

The closing ceremony included each patrol's giving its yell, singing of "Old McDonald Had A Farm," giving the Scout oath, singing "What A Friend We Have in Jesus," followed by the Scout benediction and taps by the bugler.

Scouts present numbered 27; uniformed 11; attending Sunday school 14; committeemen present E. F. Vanderburg, L. T. Jones and John Rickard. Leaders present were: Scoutmaster Shannon, Assistant Scoutmaster Christian, and Senior Patrol Leader Everett Vanderburg. One adult visitor whom we welcomed was Grady Enoch. Total present at meeting were 34.

Each patrol is being operated on a "point" basis, with points for numerous activities. The two losing patrols are to give the winning patrol a hike with entertainment furnished, as well as refreshments. The standing list far is as follows: Bears 394 points, Wolves 301 points, and the Rattlesnakes 213 points.

Touching Tribute Paid J. L. Stroope By Judge Ewing

Final tribute to James L. Stroope, a pioneer who 52 years ago rode horseback into the almost uninhabited Panhandle, was paid by hundreds of old-timers at funeral services held yesterday afternoon at the First Baptist church. Burial followed in Fairview cemetery.

A touching eulogy was delivered by Judge W. R. Ewing whose close friend Mr. Stroope was for almost forty years. Judge Ewing mentioned that he had found Mr. Stroope a loyal citizen and friend. He recalled that the pioneer was foreman of the grand jury last term, and that during his association with him at the time and previously he had been courageous and loyal to the highest ideals of citizenship.

The Rev. C. E. Lancaster said that Mr. Stroope had taken time to cultivate friendships and that he had aroused the sincere love and respect of his intimate associates. Friends from White Deer, Panhandle, Miami and other towns in the Panhandle were present. The funeral was held under the direction of Malone funeral home.

Years before agriculture became an occupation in the Panhandle, Mr. Stroope worked as a cowboy on ranches. He married in 1906 and thereafter operated his farm in the Farrington community. He moved to Pampa in 1919. He is survived by his widow and one daughter, Miss Donnie Lee Stroope.

By MRS. T. V. REEVES. CANYON, April 15. (Sp.)—Clubdom's outstanding event of the year takes place this week when Hereford will be host to the officers of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, the officers of the Seventh District, and the delegates from 137 clubs which make up the district. For months the little city of Hereford has been planning and working so that its hospitality on April 19, 20, and 21 may be characterized by the ease which has always been associated with true western entertainment.

Every organization in Deaf Smith county has contributed to the plans for making the convention a success. Months ago house holders planted hundreds of tulips that their color might add a festal air to the town for the occasion to which it has so long looked forward.

Those who have furnished the local leadership so necessary when a small city entertains several hundred guests are Mrs. Bob Wilson, general chairman; Mrs. F. M. Kesler, Mrs. H. Gilliland, assistant general chairman; Mrs. A. A. Foster, credentials; Mrs. B. F. Guthrie, program; Mrs. O. G. Hill, homes; Mrs. J. P. Slaton, decorations; Mrs. E. W. Harrison, transportation; Mrs. G. A. F. Parker, Miss Jessie Standford, organist; Mrs. A. O. Thompson, social; Mrs. H. D. Reed, finance; Mrs. Claude Ricketts, information and tickets; Mrs. John Olson, pages; Mrs. M. D. Womble, election chairman.

District Well Represented. The 1933 convention program is planned to serve the clubs and to honor their delegates. A list of the women who have department and division chairmanships shows that work has been widely distributed over the entire 48 counties of the district.

Lifefield, Hereford, Wellington, and Tullia are represented on the American Home Department in the person of Mrs. F. G. Sadler, chairman; Mrs. Bob Higgins, Mrs. W. Y. Burden, and Mrs. C. E. Duke. From Post will come the chairman of the Education Department, Mrs. Tillman Jones, and associated with her are Miss Mae Murphree, Lubbock; Mrs. S. W. Meharg, Plainview; Mrs. J. A. Winchester, Shamrock; Mrs. T. L. Brown, Tullia, and Mrs. O. H. Booth, Pampa.

Children, and Tullia Conservation department with Mrs. W. E. Davis, chairman, Mrs. L. A. Andrews, and Mrs. E. G. Barks. Amarillo furnishes the chairman of the Fine Arts department, Mrs. J. W. Sanders. Associated with her are Mrs. G. E. Palmer, Mrs. J. H. Jerinigan, Childress; Mrs. C. B. Powell, Lubbock; Mrs. A. H. Doucette, Pampa; Mrs. Walter Lander, Farwell; Mrs. Charles F. Smith, Amarillo; Mrs. Harry Brown, Canyon.

The International Relations chairman is Miss Edna Bryant, Memphis, and Mrs. Clint Small, Amarillo, heads the Legislation committee. Press and publicity is handled by Mrs. T. V. Reeves, Canyon.

Will Participate In District Club Gathering

SUCCESS of the convention of the 7th district, Texas Federation of Women's clubs, which will open in Hereford Wednesday, will be partly attributable to the Pampa women shown here. At the upper left is Mrs. T. E. Rose, chairman of the district program committee. At the upper right is Mrs. A. H. Doucette, district music chairman. Mrs. Doucette and Mrs. Raymond Harrah, lower right, are among the Triple Trio members who will compete in the vocal contest in Hereford. They also are members of the group which won first place in the contest at last year's convention. All are Twentieth Century club members, while Mrs. Doucette also is a member of the Arno Art club.

SELECTION OF "MISS PAMPA" OF 1933 SCHEDULED TO TAKE PLACE AT LA NORA THIS WEEK

Bathing Suits of 1864 AND 1933 WILL BE Modeled MARIONETTES WILL BE SEEN HERE APRIL 26

"MISS PAMPA" of 1933 will be selected by out-of-town judges Thursday and Friday nights, at which time Pampa's most beautiful girls will parade in a colorful beach fashion show and beauty revue on the La Nora theater stage.

The pageant is being directed by David Dallas, of Roswell, N. M. According to Mr. Dallas a number of local girls will appear in sports clothes, evening gowns, colonial gowns, old fashioned riding suits, and an 1864 model bathing suit as well as a 1912 bathing suit will be modeled. These models will not compete for the title of "Miss Pampa." Only the girls who will model in the 1933 suits will compete for this title. Miss Jacquie Downs, who was given the title of "Miss North Plains" and a revue staged here last year by Mr. Dallas will be introduced as "Queen of the West," the title which she won in the western revue in Roswell.

The Thrill Harmony orchestra, a local band which played for the recent style show, will furnish the music for the pageant. The band later will play for the beauty queens dance at the new Rainbow Garden in honor of "Miss Pampa of 1933," "Miss Berger," "Miss Hutchinson County," and "Miss Stinnett" will also appear on the stage Friday night and later will be guests at the dance.

An opportunity to see what has been acclaimed as the finest marionette show in this county will be afforded the people of Pampa on April 26 when the celebrated Monro Hollywood Marionettes are coming to play under the auspices of the high school Parent-Teacher association.

The company will present two performances. A gala matinee for children will be "Cinderella" in three acts, and for the evening show, a romance of a legendary mine of the Forty Niner days, "The Lost Adams' Diggin'." Several acts of vaudeville, featuring movie stars in miniature with portrait marionettes of famous screen characters will be added to both performances.

The company travels with its own stage, specially lighted and equipped with sound amplifiers and music reproducers. A marionette show includes all the features of the theater, acting, stagecraft, costuming, lighting, music, design, mechanics, painting, and the oldest forms of dramatic expression. Although the popular conception of marionette puppets credits them with being merely an amusement for children, this style of entertainment is really the medium of a serious form of dramatic art.

Boys of the high school agriculture department are selling tickets on a commission basis.

CANTATA WILL BE PRESENTED THIS EVENING

METHODIST CHOR TO GIVE "OLIVET TO CALVARY"

OLIVET to Calvary, the Easter cantata to be given by the First Methodist choir this evening is one of the most beautiful cantatas ever written. Its music has a grandeur of its own and is a perfect setting for the story which is told in song of the death and resurrection of the Savior.

The cantata recalls simply and reverently the scenes which marked the last few days of the Savior's life on earth. The rejoicing of the multitude with Hosannas and palms, the view of Jerusalem from the steep of Olivet, the lament over the beautiful city, the scene in the temple, and the lonely walk back over the mount at night.

The second part opens with the supper of the Passover, at which Jesus washes his disciples' feet and gives to his friends the new commandment of love for one another as the sign of true discipleship. From this the scene passes to the infinite pathos of the garden of Gethsemane, the sudden appearance of the hostile crowd, Jesus forsaken by His disciples, His utter loneliness among ruthless foes, the tumult before Pilate in the judgment hall, the passage of the cross, and the tragedy and triumph of Calvary.

'SCHOOLBOY' ROWE PITCHES DETROIT TO FIRST VICTORY

BABE SMASHES FIRST HOMER AS YANKS WIN

ONE HIT—A HOME RUN ALLOWED SENATORS BY WEAVER

DETROIT, April 15. (AP)—Lynwood "Schoolboy" Rowe, rookie pitcher from Beaumont, Texas, pitched Detroit to its first victory of the season here today when he set the Chicago White Sox back 3-0, allowing them only six hits.

It was the Schoolboy's first big league game, but it was his game all the way. He fanned four, and saw only one get as far as third base.

PHILADELPHIA, April 15. (AP)—One run behind in the ninth inning of a ground out between Jim Elliott and Owen Carroll, the Phillies uncorked a thrilling finish today and defeated the Brooklyn Dodgers 2-1, for their first victory of the National league campaign.

The Phils got only five hits off Carroll in eight innings.

The tilt was marked by brilliant defensive work.

WASHINGTON, April 15. (AP)—Alexander's lashing homer in the seventh blocked a Monte Weaver shutout today with the Washington Senators noosing out Boston 2-1.

Weaver, who stopped teaching mathematics to become the Senators' sensational rookie hurler of a season ago, allowed five hits, the same number Rhodes was touched for in the eight innings he was on the Boston staff.

NEW YORK, April 15. (AP)—Looming larger than ever, due to an extra wrapping for protection against the chilly breeze, Babe Ruth took a toe-hold in his first turn at bat today, smashed his first home run of the season into the bleachers and propelled the Yankees to a 7-3 victory over the Philadelphia Athletics.

The acclaim of more than 25,000 rooters accompanied Ruth's jaunt around the bases behind Earle Combs. The Babe's No. 1 for 1933, for statistical purposes, was also No. 653 for his league career.

CHICAGO, April 15. (AP)—A tenth inning flurry of extra base hits at the expense of relief pitcher Burleigh Grimes gave the Pittsburgh Pirates a 6-4 victory over the Cubs in their series opener here today.

With the score 4-1 Lindstrom opened the extra inning with a triple to deep center and Paul Waner immediately followed with a three-bagger to right. Traynor then doubled to right to count the final run. Henshaw replaced Grimes, but it was too late.

AMARILLO, April 15. (AP)—Amarillo netters today captured three of four titles in the district one interscholastic tennis championships.

J. R. Corbett erased Joe Robinson of Oklahoma Lane, the defending champion, in the boys' singles final, 6-4, 6-3, 4-6, 6-1.

Stephen Dale and Alva Hollingshead, 15-year-old Follett sophomores, downed the Amarillo team of Harry Griegs and Harold Cannon, 6-3, 3-6, 7-5, 6-3.

Amarillo girls experienced little trouble all the way through. Camella Wheatley defeated Ruth Crum, Panhandle 6-1, 6-0, in the singles final, and Margaret Buckingham and Iris Peters downed the Panhandle team of Roberta Hawkins and Eleanor O'Keefe of the same score.

Two Ball Games Scheduled Today

Two playground ball games have been scheduled for this afternoon. At 2:30 o'clock, the Jitney Jungle gang will meet the Lane Brothers team on the South Pampa diamond. Thirty minutes later on the Danciger diamond east of Pampa, the Diamond Shoppers and the Danciger Oilers will meet.

The Danciger team will be playing its first game, while the Jewelers will be playing for their fourth consecutive win. Harry Drain, former Danciger speedball artist, will probably be in the box for the Diamond Shoppers. The Danciger battery has not been named.

Lane Brothers will be playing their second game of the season and the Jitney Jungle boys their third. Both teams have promising lineups but need plenty of practice before the season opens.

EVERY TOWN SENT LETTER

Six Ways To Cooperate In Making Convention Success Are Outlined.

BIG SPRING, April 15.—All cities and towns in West Texas Monday afternoon extended a formal invitation to participate in the annual convention of the West Texas chamber of commerce convention program at Big Spring, May 11, 12, and 13. The invitation was extended from the convention headquarters office in behalf of the regional chamber and the Big Spring chamber of commerce.

Six definite ways in which the local directors of the West Texas chamber, and local chamber of commerce managers can cooperate in their preparations for the convention and to obtain benefits for their respective cities, are outlined as follows:

1. "Organization of a delegation. We urge that you immediately begin to organize a delegation of your citizens to attend the convention—the more in the delegation the better. If you have a band, bring it if possible. If you have any entertainment features that will add color, bring them.

2. Group conference. Two special business group conferences will be held this year as follows: (a) Public Expenditure conference for the purpose of furthering budget making in local units of government, and promoting county government reorganization; and (b) Public Works and Emergency Relief conference for the purpose of obtaining for West Texas cities and towns the maximum benefits of the self-liquidating loan provisions of the Reconstruction Finance corporation thru the West Texas chamber of commerce bureau of public works and Emergency relief now being organized. Directors and secretaries are urged to see that these two conferences are widely attended.

3. "Home Town Speaking contest—Your school superintendent has been furnished rules and regulations and an entry blank for this annual feature. Arrange at once for one of your high school students to represent your city in this contest.

4. "Nomination of directors. The elections committee has asked your town to immediately nominate its West Texas chamber of commerce

'Strongest Man In World' Will Appear in Ring

Arthur Saxon, "world's strongest man," will appear in the ring at the Pla-Mor auditorium Wednesday night in an added attraction. Andy Andrews announced yesterday afternoon. The great Saxon will be on his way to his home in Dallas, but will stop over to visit the Oscar Dotson and appear in a strong-man act between bouts on the weekly boxing card.

Pampa wrestling fans will remember seeing Saxon here two years ago. The big fellow wrestled two or three matches here and also gave exhibitions of strength. He allowed a car, filled with passengers, to be driven over his chest. Saxon is the remaining member of the "Three Saxons" known the world over as strong men. One was killed in the world war and the other crippled for life by machine gun bullets.

The great Saxon will appear briefly between bouts on the regular boxing card. He will show fans that he has not lost any of his all-time superhuman strength for all of his 50 years.

Director for the next fiscal year subject to election at the convention. See that the nomination is made, and that we are advised whom you nominate.

"Town exhibits. See that your city prepares an exhibit and enters the contest. This feature of the convention gives your city an excellent opportunity to advertise its resources and advantages before a huge crowd of people at practically no cost, and with a chance of winning a substantial award and publicity throughout the year.

5. Beautification contest. See that your town sends in its report of beautification activities provided it is a contestant in the West Texas Inter-Community Beautification contest the first year of which closes with the Big Spring convention.

Directors and secretaries were asked by the convention manager, Maury Hopkins, to write into the convention headquarters giving details of their plans for participating in the convention program so that the maximum publicity might be given, and the entertainment of the delegations definitely arranged.

Bowling Scores

The City Bowling league race will end in two weeks and the winner could be any one of four teams. The Phillips team clings to a half game lead over the Jaysees going into the second last week but the Jaysees have a protest game to be aired and a win would give that team a half game lead over the Oilers.

However, Phillips has nine more games to roll while the Jaysees have only six more games.

The Kiwanis No. 2 team is in third place, two full games ahead of the Voss Cleaners and two and a half games behind the Jaysees. They also have nine games to roll. Texas company and Kiwanis No. 1 hold fifth and sixth places, respectively.

The schedule for the rest of the season follows:

TUESDAY, APRIL 18—Kiwanis No. 2 vs. Phillips; Jaysees vs. Texas company.

THURSDAY, APRIL 20—Voss Cleaners vs. Kiwanis No. 1; Texas vs. Phillips.

TUESDAY, APRIL 25—Kiwanis No. 2 vs. Phillips; Voss Cleaners vs. Jaysees.

THURSDAY, APRIL 27—Kiwanis No. 1 vs. Kiwanis No. 2; Voss Cleaners vs. Texas.

The Kiwanis No. 2 and Phillips will have to meet twice to fill out their five-game series. When the season ends each team will have played the other five times for a total of 75 games.

Standing including games rolled last week:

Team	W. L.
Phillips	38 28
Jaysees	39 30
Kiwanis No. 2	35 31
Voss	33 33
Texas	28 38
Kiwanis No. 1	28 31

Playground Ball League Will Be Formed Monday

A playground ball league will be organized at a meeting in the chamber of commerce rooms in the city hall at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night. Officers will be elected and plans for the season made. All team managers are urged to be present to vote on the officers and to take part in the discussions to follow.

A nominating committee, composed of Sam Fenberg, Jim Kolb, and Harry Hoare, which was authorized at a meeting last week to transact other business will make a lengthy report after presenting the proposed officers and other officers.

Eight teams have already announced "ready" and it might be that two more teams will make application at the meeting tomorrow night. Teams already entered are the Diamond Shoppers, Jitney Jungle, Lions club, Faculty, Lane Brothers, Phillips, Danciger, and Skellytown.

Plans for erecting lights for night play later in the season will take an important part in the meeting. Prices will be available and plans for raising the money will be presented.

Held Stonewall's Horse at Battle Of The Wilderness

WASHINGTON, April 15. (AP)—"Uncle Joe" Ford, tall 80-year-old negro, who says he was the slave servant of General Stonewall Jackson in the civil war, was brought to town today by Representative Sadowski (D., Mich.) in an effort to get him a job in the house.

"Uncle Joe" has been in charge of the Michigan state senate cloak room for 52 years.

"Yes sir," Ford told Speaker Rainey with a big smile, "I was General Jackson's servant, and held his horse when he mounted for the Battle of the Wilderness. I was born in slavery near Fredericksburg, Va., and was owned by the Frank Allison family.

"I shure would like to get a job here. You shure are nice folks."

STEERS BEAT HUMBLE
CONROE, April 15. (AP)—The Texas Longhorns had little trouble taking the Humble town ball club, 16 to 0, here today. Taylor limited the Oilers to two safeties while the Steers pounded out 16 hits off Pete Trowe, veteran left-hander. Koy with a triple, double and four singles in six trips to the plate led the Longhorn attack. Eleven errors were charged against the losers.

Byrne James, rookie second baseman with the Giants, was voted the most popular player at Dallas last season. The fans gave him the finest saddle money could buy, for use on his West Texas ranch.

ARGUMENTS AND BEAN BALLS FEATURE BATTLE

FORT WORTH, April 15. (AP)—On the impetus of a home run and a double delivered by Pinch Hitters Dallas Warren and Art McHenry, Fort Worth put on a flaming four run rally in the last half of the ninth inning here today but it lacked just a little of washing away previous diamond sins and Dallas ended up an 8 to 7 winner. It was a regular old time Fort Worth Dallas game, with bean balls, arguments, ragged play, doubtful umpiring and a one run difference in the score.

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 15. (AP)—Hitting hard for extra bases, the Oklahoma City Indians defeated their traditional rivals, the Tulsa Oilers, 4 to 3, here today.

Supporting the steady hurling of Matzok, Sloan, Indian center fielder, his home run, Johnson, Choler and O'Neill two baggers and Sloan and Theller triples.

BEAUMONT, April 15. (AP)—Before a shivering crowd of 500 fans the Exporters spotted the San Antonio Mission 3 runs today and then beat them out, 13 to 5, with Joe Vance traveling the entire distance and receiving poor support from his mates.

Passau left the box in favor of P. V. Fritz who finished the nine innings while giving up but four hits for his pitching debut.

Pampa's Tennis Teams Defeated

Pampa high school tennis teams failed to get anywhere against the strong competition encountered in the district tournament in Amarillo Friday afternoon. The boys' doubles team went out in the first round, while Harold Gregory, singles, lost in the second round to Joe Robertson of Oklahoma Lane, defending champion.

Daisy Ann Shields lost her match in the girls' singles to Wahna Levy of Oklahoma Lane, 6-2, 6-1. The boys' doubles team of Roy Webb, Jr., and Wilton Frier lost to Claud Strader and Robert Dunn of Canadian 5-7, 6-3, 6-1.

Harold Gregory took his first match from Walter Lampke of Vega 6-3, 6-2, but lost to the defending champion 5-7, 6-1, 6-2.

REGAL ALSO LEADS FIGHT

Fast and Furious Bout Sure To Take Place When Regal and Whitlow Meet.

Pampa fight fans who thought they saw leather in the air in the two meetings between Allen Whitlow of Indianapolis and Pug Grubbs of Borger, are apt to be dizzy at the Pla-Mor auditorium Wednesday night when Whitlow meets Pete Regal of Fort Worth in the 10 round main event.

Regal is one of the toughest of lightweight in the southwest. He is known as the "Great One," and recently in Borger, Regal broke Nichols' jaw and several ribs and the Muskoque boy is still in bed. Regal packs a terrific punch and leads the fighting from going to going which is the Whitlow style also.

Both the little battlers will weigh 134 pounds ringside, their managers report. Whitlow trains every afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Pla-Mor. Regal will be in Pampa tomorrow or Tuesday.

Joe Vernon has been matched with Eddie Brock of Amarillo in the eight round semi-final. Brock is reported a hard hitter and a shifty fighter. Fans who have seen him in action believe he will give Vernon the battle of the year.

Rusty Cahill, "Pampa's grand old man," will take on the well known Dave Sutton of Fort Worth in a six-round special event. Cahill has been training hard for several weeks and is in good condition. He is known throughout the Southwest as a hard hitter and Sutton has the same reputation.

Hates Saltzman will get a boy his own size in Kid Woods for a four round bout. Woods is a Fort Worth home town. Saltzman is a real corner.

A good curtain raiser will be matched.

FATHERS PROVE VALUABLE AS PARENT-TEACHER MEMBERS IN UNDERTAKINGS AT HOUSTON

THEIR TALENTS USED TO AID SCHOOLS IN NUMEROUS WAYS

By MRS. J. M. CRAIN, Claude. FATHERS OF Wharton Parent-Teacher association in Houston participate as actively as do the mothers at the association meetings.

About half the executive committee are men and in all phases of the work are the men well represented. R. A. Smith is president and other men serve as treasurer, public welfare chairman, and parliamentary.

The office of public welfare chairman, who is fourth vice president, has been filled by a father for the four years this association has been organized.

Various talents and facilities of the fathers in different professions are offered to aid the projects undertaken by the association. The doctor and dentist serve in the summer round-up; the jeweler lends his exhibit case to display the children's work; the caterer bakes the cake for the Valentine game party; the photographer takes the picture of the school for the publicity record book; the sign painter makes posters for the membership drive.

At Halloween and May fetes the men sell soda water, ice cream, "hot dogs," etc. Each man volunteers to serve and attends to all the details involved.

Men play an important part as members, officers, committeemen, chairmen in many local units in Texas. Often times the associations hold their meetings in the evening so the fathers may be privileged to come.

The state chairman of physical education, Dr. David K. Brace, University of Texas, is the only man on the Texas Congress Board of Managers.

Delaware and West Virginia are two states with men presidents. Almost one-third of the new National board of Managers of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers are men. Three of the 13 members of the national executive

THINGS CHEAPER; BUT LESS TO PAY FOR THEM

U. S WORKERS' WAGES HAVE FALLEN FARTHER THAN DROP IN THEIR HIGH COST OF LIVING

PURCHASING POWER IS 21.7 PER CENT UNDER 1928

By J. R. BRACKETT. NEW YORK, April 15. (AP)—Mr. John American Smith's wages have fallen farther than his cost of living.

While each of his dollar's will buy more, he has so many fewer dollars that his total purchasing power was 21.7 per cent less in February this year than in September, 1929, just before the depression began, according to the Industrial Conference Board statistics disclose.

Mr. Smith (the average small wage and salary receiver) finds that prices of the things he buys have declined 25.5 per cent since September, 1929.

He finds also that the number of dollars he receives has fallen 44 per cent, as a result of wage cuts and reduced working hours.

Thus, despite his dollar's higher purchasing power, the decline in the number of dollars has brought his total purchasing power 21.7 per cent under 1929.

Mr. Smith finds that living costs declined about 10 per cent in 1932, a smaller decline than in 1931. His budget included food, rent, clothing, fuel, light, and sundries, held to be applicable in a general way to the expenditures of the many who earn around $2,000 a year.

Mr. Smith's budget does not reveal the status of higher income earners, or those numerous in the lower income brackets, who are burdened with debt, insurance and other fixed charges which do not decline as do ordinary budget items.

Fixed Charge Share Grows. In a study of 530 small home owners near New York, it was shown that the proportion of the owner's dollar going to fixed charges increased from 22 cents in 1928 to 44 cents in 1932. The fixed charges themselves did not increase, but as income declined they took a larger share of each dollar, reduced the amounts available for ordinary living expenses.

Mr. Smith's budget is based by the conference board on analysis of many budgets showing that about 33 per cent of income is spent for food; 20 per cent for housing, 12 per cent, clothing; 5 per cent, fuel and light, and 30 per cent sundries, such as doctor's bills, recreation and tobacco.

A major portion of the declines in Mr. Smith's living costs in 1932 as compared with 1929 represented food, which cost about 37.5 per cent less; rents 26.4 per cent less; clothing, 36.1 per cent; fuel and light, 8.6 per cent, and sundries, 6.9 per cent less.

Midwest Food Drop Largest. The analysis shows that geographically the midwest showed the largest decline in food prices, the far west the least, with the east and south second and third, respectively. Rents appeared to have declined least in large cities, least in the east, and most in the midwest.

Prices of food, clothing and rent appear to have fallen least in the east. The bureau of labor index shows declines in living costs for major American cities as follows (December, 1932, compared to June, 1929): San Francisco, 19.8 per cent; Detroit, 20.3 per cent; Kansas City, Mo., 19.9 per cent; Portland, Me., 20.2; Birmingham, Ala., 27.3; Chicago, 26.2, and New York, 20.8.

Baker School To Present Minstrel

The Baker school Parent-Teacher association and faculty have announced that a negro minstrel will be presented in the auditorium of the school next Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

Ward school pupils will be admitted for 5 cents, other students for 10 cents, and adults for 15 cents. Clever "take-offs" on the recent Lions minstrel will be a part of the program.

Foreign War Vets To Meet Tuesday

Veterans of Foreign Wars members will meet at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday night in the city courtroom in the basement of the city hall.

Commander D. E. Cecil said yesterday that important business would be discussed and that he hoped every member would be present.

but heavy profit-taking sales toward the last wiped out part of the gain. Higher quotations on the British pound sterling were interpreted by many wheat traders as indicative of a possible monetary agreement with this country.

Wheat closed nervous, 3/4-1/2 above Thursday's finish, corn 1/4-1/2 up, as advanced, and provisions at a rise of 5 to 12 cents.

Washington reports that relief measures so far undertaken would obligate federal government expenditure of more than five billion dollars attracted special notice among wheat traders. This was connected with other supposed evidence of tendencies toward inflation.

Some trade authorities asserted that the outlook for a sensationally small United States winter wheat crop this season, together with uncertainty as to spring wheat prospects, would preclude any important price downturns.

Closing indemnities: Wheat—May 59 1/2-3/4, 62 1/2; July 61-61 1/4, 64-64 1/4; Sept. 62, 65. Corn—May 31 1/2, 33 1/2; July 33 1/2-3/4, 35 1/2-3/4; Sept. 35 1/2, 37 1/4.

KANSAS CITY LIVESTOCK

KANSAS CITY, April 15. (AP)—U. S. Dept. Agr.—Cattle trade this week was featured by a fairly broad demand for the better grades of fed steers and long yearlings with most markets reporting price upturns of 15-25. The lower grades of steers opened the week on a stronger basis but at several markets such offerings on the close carried a weaker trend.

Light heifers and mixed yearlings also finished the week at steady to strong prices. Aggregate receipts at eleven markets for the week totaled around 147,000 as compared with 142,177 last week and 165,617 the corresponding period a year ago.

Curtailed hog supplies this week failed to stimulate demand to any material extent and current quotations are only steady to 15 higher as compared with a week ago. Shipping demand was rather narrow on most all sessions. Chicago had a closing top of $3.90. Total offerings of around 322,000 were 49,000 less than last week and 91,000 short of a year ago.

The PEOPLES COLUMN

Editor, The NEWS:

I am getting letters and cards of all descriptions, some for beer and some against beer. In fact, I get as great a number "for" as "against."

Since a majority in my district voted at the last election to submit the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment to the vote of the people, I voted to submit. I have heard the statement from numbers of people: "We did not have a chance to vote on this question before the Eighteenth amendment was adopted."

If the people want beer, whiskey and saloons back and say so by their vote, then I favor letting them have them. If they say they do not want beer, whiskey and saloons, then I say let's enforce the law.

I came here to represent my district as far as I could ascertain the wishes of my people, but I have thus far been unable to determine who is in the majority, wet or the drys. The vote last fall was only to submit the question to the vote of the people and was not a test of the strength of either side, since I know a lot who voted to submit, were wet, and a lot were dry; therefore, I think the people should vote before I act on this, and I assure you that I will vote according to the majority.

HOPEING THAT this will satisfy you as to my position at present, I am yours very truly, JOHN PURYEAR, Representative 122nd Dist.

TIME EXTENDED. SHERMAN, April 15. (AP)—Randolph Bryant, federal judge, today informed the department of James V. Alfred, attorney general, that he did not consider it a violation of the court's injunction order if the state railroad commission found additional time required to take a test of wells in the East Texas oil field. He gave his opinion by telephone and no formal order was entered in federal court here.

DOLLAR BOBBLES

NEW YORK, April 15. (AP)—Wild gyrations of the dollar exchange provided the chief interest in week-end financial markets today.

Stocks bobbed about irregularly and actively net advances being limited largely to the commodity classifications. However, financial gains and losses showed a rather even distribution. Demand for most leaders appeared to have held up well, especially those representing production of metals, oil and other staples.

A sweeping advance in foreign exchange terminated shortly before noon when it was learned that two licenses had been granted for gold shipments from this country, in addition to yesterday's exportation to Holland. This news brought a swift reversal in trend and some rates dropped just as precipitantly as they had risen.

The market was very thin by reason of European holidays, but it was evident, both from the action of exchanges and of certain stocks, that speculators were being influenced by an inflationary psychology.

CHICAGO GRAIN. CHICAGO, April 15. (AP)—Soaring anew, largely because of inflation talk, wheat went about 2 cents a bushel higher today, and outdid the season's previous top for September contracts last week. At today's maximum, wheat showed 20 cents advance in 3 1/2 months.

Sax Prodigy Of Amarillo Takes 3 First Places

AMARILLO, April 15. (AP)—Hugo Loewenstein, Amarillo's nine-year-old saxophone prodigy, will participate in the national music contests in Chicago in June.

Hugo was the only contestant of the approximately 1,000 who entered the Panhandle Music Festival here recently to receive the highest rating in more than one contest. He competed in all age classes and won first place in each class. His playing was rated "highly superior" in three divisions, and the judges said they had no criticism to offer.

J. W. Walnwright of the University of Indiana, one of the judges, was so impressed with Hugo's ability he made the announcement that Mrs. Walnwright would go to Chicago to accompany the boy in the national event.

The Loewenstein boy finds compositions by Kreisler and Tchaikovsky easy to master. Although he has been studying music less than three years he has committed to memory almost 100 classical numbers.

Two More Days Granted To Test Texas Oil Wells

AUSTIN, April 15. (AP)—The Texas railroad commission today was granted additional time in which to complete its well potential tests in the East Texas oil field.

The work originally was to be completed today. Commission employees, however, were unable to finish and asked Neal Powers, assistant attorney general, to request an extension. Powers said Federal Judge Randolph Bryant of Sherman approved a continuation of the tests after he had been assured they could be completed in two more days.

The commission is "waiting" the flow from some 300 key wells. Judge Bryant having modified an injunction to permit such tests.

Mr. Merchant Shoppers Eyes Are Smrt Little Cameras! If your store is well lighted, those eyes take a good picture . . . But, if poor light makes merchandise seem dim and lifeless, or if glare makes eyes squint, then shoppers get bad impressions . . . distorted pictures . . . and your business suffers. In your windows does the glare from unshaded lamps make shoppers wince? Are there places inside your store where goods must be examined, compared, selected in weak light? Have you any show cases that do not "show"—but cause eyes to turn away from reflections and dazzle? Is the interior of your store flooded with a soft, penetrating display of electric light or is it a place of concentrated light in some parts and dark corners in others? Use your present lighting system to its best advantage. We'll be glad to help you get a lighting system which can work a profitable change in the picture the public gets of your store and stock. Briton Charges A Frame-Up But Fails To Give Explanation

APOLOGIZES TO SOVIET JUDGE AFTER OUTCRY

ADMITS RUSSIANS DID NOT QUESTION HIM 18 HOURS

MOSCOW, April 15. (AP)—Allan Monkhouse, highest-ranking of the six British engineers on trial for spying and sabotage, provided a double sensation in court today by charging that the case was a frame-up and then failing to follow thru with a detailed explanation of his accusation.

At the morning session Monkhouse interjected an unhesitating statement that the case was a "frame-up based on evidence of terrorized prisoners."

The court shut him off before he had his full say, but when he was called to the stand as the first witness of the night session he provided a flat anti-climax by failing to renew his demand for permission to make the declaration.

Monkhouse did, however, repeat complaints that he had been subjected to 18 hours of continuous questioning. The prosecution had been attacked on similar grounds by L. C. Thornton, another of the British defendants.

These attacks collapsed when Prosecutor Andrej Vishinsky, in a bitter arraignment of their statements, produced documentary evidence to show that the OGPU (secret police) interrogation was not nearly so protracted as the Englishmen had represented it.

Monkhouse apologized to the prosecutor for "making a mistake" in saying he had been questioned 18 hours without a let-up. Thornton accepted the prosecutor's presentation of the evidence in silence.

Before Monkhouse was allowed to testify Judge Ulrich questioned him about his service with the British army's Archangel expedition, in which he was an officer of engineers.

"Di you know Richards there?" the judge asked, referring to C. S. Richards, who now is a director of the Metropolitan-Vickers company, the electrical equipment organization for which Monkhouse and the other defendants work.

"Yes," the witness replied, "he was an officer in the intelligence service."

the same day on the propositions. There were mingled feelings on both sides, beer advocates not sure they wanted to mix the two proposals and proponents of strict prohibition unable to assure themselves it was the best thing to do.

The date when the state and federal beer amendments should be voted on was virtually the only point at issue, it was believed. Of course, the senate had not yet voted on the submission of the state beer constitutional amendment and the accompanying bill setting up regulations governing sales, levying taxes and imposing licenses in event the amendment carries, but it was considered assured it would accept the two, passing the final decision to the people.

SLIM REALLY SHY AND HAS QUIET HOUSE

MOVES OFTEN, FLOPS COMEDIAN WHEN AT PARTIES

"They loved him, but he moved away would be a good title for a Slim Summerville's life history. This lanky comedian, whose very appearance on a screen starts an audience to laughing, just hates to be funny at home and in his home town. Though he sees the funny side of everything, he admits that he's too flop at a party. Twice he has sold his house and moved on to communities that didn't know him so well. In one of them, he became alderman, but the other alderman expected wise-cracks from the lanky comedian instead of words of wisdom.

Now Summerville who is playing at the La Nora theater in "Out All Night," lives by the sea, sixty miles away from Hollywood and the reputation he enjoys as a comedian.

"The sea gulls don't expect me to be funny," said Slim as he walked along with me on the deserted sands at Laguna Beach.

"I know people won't believe it, but this is the third time I have run away from parties. I'm a flop at a party. I like 'em, but people all expect me to be funny, and I don't go to bash-defined lazy to get all steamed up and make wise-cracks and do funny antics to please people. Naturally, folks don't understand this. They think I'm holding something back. They think I refuse to be funny because they don't pay admission to get into the party."

"It's the same way on the street in Hollywood. In self-defense, I moved to Toluca Lake. It was nice and handy. All I had to do was to walk across the street and down the driveway and bunks to get to Universal Studios, where I am under contract. But that wasn't why I went there. It was to avoid parties. There were only a few houses there then. There were so few householders that they elected me to be mayor of the village.

"But it was no use. My fellow alderman expected me to make such board meeting a riot of laughter, and broke into giggles every time I opened my mouth. When I delivered a serious, carefully planned speech on some matter affecting the town, they laughed uproariously. I wasn't trying to be funny, but they seemed to feel that there was some hidden humor in my remarks.

"But in the course of time many other moves to Toluca Lake Park—some of them among the most scintillating of Hollywood's wise-crackers. Invitations to parties multiplied, and I found myself up against the same old conditions.

"And so I have moved again. I have built a house at Laguna Beach, 60 miles from Hollywood, and hard by the crashing breakers of the Pacific Ocean. I can stroll solemnly up and down the deserted beach beside the sad sea waves, and enjoy myself in my own simple fashion. There are no parties here."

MUSEUM

Another old-timer and frequent key-note of pioneers, Judge H. E. Hoover of Canadian was elected president of the society to succeed Mr. Hobart. Mr. Hoover was chairman of the museum building committee. His election was announced Friday evening at the annual banquet attended by nearly 300 persons, including many old-timers. H. C. Pinkin of Amarillo was toastmaster. The program included a brief, eloquent speech, "Lure of the Soil," by J. Everett Haley of Texas university, a violin solo by Herschel Coffee, cowboy songs by Prof. Wallace R. Clark, and the dedicatory address by Judge James D. Hamlin of Farwell.

was a historical pageant by students showing various stages of plains development. Opening with an Indian tepee scene, the pageant progressed through scenes of Coronado's expedition hunting the fabled cities of Cibola, buffalo hunters and skirmishes with Indians, arrival of soldiers, cowboys trail-driving to "Dodge," railroad builders of the 80's, a realistic frontier dance, frontier school in which Anna Thut and Fred and Dora Hobart "answered" the roll call, and finally unveiling of a large picture of the new museum, "Pioneer Hall."

The museum was opened at high noon, and it was filled with visitors when the members of the historical society met for their annual business session. President Hobart in opening the meeting praised Prof. L. R. Sheffy and other colleagues who helped raise the museum funds and erect the building. Prof. Sheffy was praised by many other speakers for his "nerve" in trying to match the state's $75,000 appropriation. A membership drive, campaign to secure pictures of all pioneers, and securing of historical data through interviews will be among the projects of this year. A committee composed of Miss Katherine Patrick of Clarendon, Judge Hoover, and Col. R. P. Sweeney of Plainview will seek the pictures. Miss Patrick also gave the society a book of pioneers' autographs.
