TRUTH AND GOODNESS: For the word of the Lord is right; and all His works are done in truth. He loveth righteousness and judgment; the earth is full of the goodness of the Lord.—Psalm 33:4, 5.

SCHOOL TEACHERS.

Pampa Daily News: To properly appreciate the school teachers who have arrived to teach Pampa's children, remember that virtually every teacher is supporting one to five relatives. That's how important a job is to the average school teacher.—State Press in Dallas News:

What a poor world, what a wobbly world this one would be without the school teachers. They go forth in the morning while the dew is yet wet and labor to apply civilization to the young. Often their labors are discouraging, for civilization is slow to take hold. The teachers do not despair, they do not resign, and seldom die. They are made of tenacious protoplasm. They teach the children of man to read and write, and to make efforts at spelling. They introduce the multiplication table to refractory minds. The teacher, ever mindful of her high calling, endeavors to make the resistant student differentiate between nouns and verbs. The office of the adjective, the use of the adverb, while plain as a porcupine to the teacher, meet hard obstructions at the halfgrown heads surrounding the patient instructress. The date of the battle of Brandywine, the name of the second President of the United States, the year of Texas' admittance to the Union—these rubrics in the histories made and provided for juvenile consumption pass through the youthful occiput without stopping. The teacher pleads, the teacher threatens, the teacher shudders when contemplating the state of the Nation when the rising generation shall come into the seats of authority. But she comes back next morning and goes through with it again. And when she gets her pay warrant she gallantly discounts it for whatever she can get, then contributes cheerfully to some relative's needs. If it were not for the school teachers the heavens would fall. And we might as well be crushed by the weight of the heavens as to have no school teachers, even though their efforts are largely in vain.

ON SLENDERIZING.

Daughter, demonstrating to father some of her college gymnasium exercises for maintaining a youthful and healthy figure, was a bit peeved when told that "if you had a broom in your hand, you'd be sweeping."

Father's observation received support in a recent Collier's article in which it was revealed that dish-washing, scrubbing, sewing, bed-making, sweeping, ironing, and especially running up and down stairs can melt off hips and surplus poundage and, indeed, constitute a general work-out which an athlete might welcome. Useful, too.

But the burden of the article was that attitude and "stance" are everything in this household conditioning. If the face muscles are allowed to sag in self-sympathy, the figure slouch and slump out of posture, and no attempt is made at what athletes call the follow-through, the result will inevitably be bad. In short, no housewife need lack "conditioning" just because she has no gymnasium.

The idea of using the feminine form divine as a lever instead of a crane in moving furniture and clothes baskets is as intriguing as some of the new labor-saving devices which are changing kitchens into clever laboratories. The trick, we read lies in keeping the hips forward instead of back and the body based in a pair of stout, medium heel shoes.

We think we hear, in the background, a good many wisecracks about this discussion, and we hasten to disclaim any authority. There's no harm in theorizing a bit, now and then, on the gentle art of staying thin!

OPEN COVENANTS.

President Wilson's principle of "open covenants, openly arrived at," have a counterpart in the NRA hearings designed to promote fair competition and stop losses.

Business men, particularly of some of the big corporations, have with difficulty come into hearings with their records, but they are getting the idea. That labor, the public, and even their competitors have a right to know how they are doing business would have seemed, a few years ago, like business anarchy. Now it is the accepted thing.

Business is being put on the basis of salesmanship, initiative, and resourcefulness rather than that of deception, under-selling, and sweatshop labor.

THE BLUE EAGLE.

Persons who have sought to link the origin of the Blue Eagle with German, Austrian, or Russian politics have overlooked the fact that a young Philadelphia artist conceived the emblem. He knows where he got it. He spent four days reading Indian lore and finally selected the Blue Eagle, or Indian thunder-bird, used for many centuries as an emblem of good will and good times. Thoroughly American, then, is the Blue Eagle, with a record of usefulness antedating the oldest Nordic family tree in America.

Aggressive job-hunter in West Virginia invaded dentist's office while a senator was having a tooth extracted to urge the senator to use his influence to help him get a political job. He ought to have known that the dentist had the most pull.

Ickes Asserts Red Tape Is Not Choking Relief

CHICAGO, Sept. 23 (AP)—Secretary of Interior Harold L. Ickes told the mayors of the nation's largest cities today that red tape was not impeding the lending by the federal government of hundreds of millions of dollars available for public works.

His address was a reply to objections voiced by the United States conference of mayors against delays in allocation of the $3,300,000,000 federal public works fund, which will be distributed in the ratio of $1 to every $2 supplied by states and cities.

Ickes, administrator of the fund, said that "in many parts of the country the federal government, in offering a grant of 30 per cent and loan of the other 70 per cent, was regarded as an ungenerous or even niggardly stepfather."

"There is even a chance that some of our municipalities will soon be calling us 'Uncle Shylock,'" he said. "It is intimated in some quarters that not only ought we to give 100 per cent outright, but that we should turn the money over for unregretted expenditure by the municipalities themselves."

Ickes declared legal technicalities in local constitutions were responsible for making delays.

Longhorns Beat Pirates 46 To 0

GEORGETOWN, Sept. 23 (AP)—The University of Texas Longhorns displayed an abundance of power to-night in their overwhelming 46 to 0 defeat of the Southwestern university Pirates.

The Longhorns started scoring a few minutes after game started when Jurecka whiffed around "right end," weaving 55 yards through the Pirates' defense, for a touchdown. Hilliard kicked the extra point.

Hilliard shortly afterward circled right end for 34 yards and another score. The try for extra point failed.

For a time the driving attack of the Longhorns was checked by the fighting Pirates. During this period Fike Jennings, and Gisecke gained consistently for the Pirates.

Then the Longhorn scoring machine started functioning again and Hilliard broke loose around right end, twisting and slipping by tacklers, for the third touchdown of the game. An attempt to make the extra point by passing failed.

palities themselves."

Stock Exchange Moving To Avoid High Taxation

NEW YORK, Sept. 23 (AP)—The New York Stock Exchange, the largest financial market in the world, announced today it had arranged for the transfer of some of its vast business to New Jersey.

For its trading, the exchange leased the municipal-owned center market in Newark, eight miles west of New York. The partly abandoned Pennsylvania railroad terminal in Jersey City was obtained for the stock clearing corporation, which completes the transfer of securities.

This modern Boston tea party, as Wall Street is calling it, banished any illusions that Tammany politicians might have that the exchange was bluffing in its threat to get out of the state to avoid what it regards as excessive and discriminatory taxation.

NEW STORM COMING TAMPICO, Mexico, Sept. 23 (AP)—Not yet recovered from last week's disastrous hurricane, inhabitants were warned tonight to prepare for another tropical storm approaching across the Gulf of Mexico. Advice said the storm probably would strike tomorrow.

Texan Is Hero In Polo Game

WESTBURY, N. Y., Sept. 23 (AP)—Just as it seemed he was to be cast in the villain's role, John Hay (Jock) Whitney went riding through to score three goals in the final period and lead his Greentree team to a 14-13 victory today over Templeton in the first game of the 1933 open polo championships on international field, Meadow Brook club.

All through the game Whitney had been overriding the ball, missing easy shots which Cecil Smith sent wiggling up to him time and again but when the pressure was on and only minutes of time separated his team from defeat, he suddenly found his long-missing mallet accuracy to send the defending title-holders down to defeat. Smith, the wild-riding Texan, was the hero of the piece with his six goals on free hits and his fine all-round play throughout the afternoon.

CHAMBERLAIN TRIO FLAYS BY JUDGE

Confessed Wife-Slayer Hangs Himself NRA COMPLIANCE BOARD IS SET UP

TO PROBE ALL VIOLATIONS OF NRA PROMISES

SEVEN MEN WILL HEAR COMPLAINTS AND INVESTIGATE

THE SECOND phase of the NRA campaign was entered this week when a compliance board of seven members was appointed to hear and investigate all complaints of non-compliance, Chairman C. H. Walker announced yesterday.

The first phase of the campaign—that of putting the Blue Eagle in the business place of every employer—is almost finished, Mr. Walker said. It was comparatively an easy matter to put practically 100 per cent of the employers and consumers in Pampa under the Blue Eagle, and the new compliance board is confident that employers will show the same patriotism in fulfilling the requirements of the various codes and the presidential agreement that they did in signing up under the Blue Eagle.

The members of this new compliance board, Mr. Walker said, represent employers in industry, retail and wholesale businesses, and employees in both. It also represents consumers. Included in the membership of the board is an attorney.

The board: C. P. Buckler, chairman; Reno Stinson, L. L. McGinn, Mack Graham, Homer Lively, Mrs. Lynn Boyd and William J. Smith.

The board is already at work. A number of complaints have already been filed and are now being investigated. Complaints of non-compliance may be made to the entire board which will sit in session at 10 o'clock every Saturday morning, and in called session from time to time. Complaints may be made privately or publicly to any member of the board at any time, and all charges will be investigated.

The board will undertake to settle any controversy by education and explanation, but unless violations are corrected, reports will be made to Washington NRA headquarters and the federal government will act, and act promptly. The committee will ignore anonymous communications, but invites written or verbal complaints, or charges made in person. If desired the identity of the informant will be protected and information will be considered confidential.

If employers are in doubt as to the application of the presidential agreement or codes of business, any member of the board will be glad to furnish him with authentic information. The board is of the opinion that ignorance of the law should no longer be an excuse for non-compliance.

SUSPECT IN DARING HOLDUP OF BANK MESSENGER IN CHICAGO IS IDENTIFIED AS 'MACHINE GUN'

Man Is Known As 'J. J. Rosenberg' In Chicago

CHICAGO, Sept. 23 (AP)—The nation wide hunt for George (Machine Gun) Kelly, suspect in half a dozen major crimes of the southwest was focussing on the Chicago area tonight.

A picture of a man known locally as "J. J. Rosenberg," suspected owner of the armored car which figured Friday in a daring mail messenger holdup and the slaying of a policeman, was identified, Chief of Police William Shoemaker said, as that of Kelly.

Who made the identification was a carefully guarded police secret, but Schoemaker intimated it was a close acquaintance of Rosenberg. Shortly before police announced this progress in the widespread hunt for the slayers of Policeman Miles Cunningham and the robbers of the Federal Reserve bank mail truck, Theodore Rosenberg who had been brought to the station on an anonymous tip was released. Theodore Rosenberg established his status as a reputable citizen and it was disclosed that he was a prospective candidate for the police force from department lists.

A bill of sale bearing the name "J. J. Rosenberg" was found in the car. Chicago police were asked Thursday to seek Kelly following receipt of threatening letters by U. S. District Attorney Herbert Hyde, Charles F. Urschel, for whose kidnaping Harvey Bailey and others are being tried in Oklahoma City, and others in that city associated with the kidnaping of the alleged Urschel kidnapers.

The letters to the Oklahoma City recipients were mailed from Chicago and bore Kelly's fingerprint. In the abandoned car along with the bill of sale bearing Rosenberg's name was found a map heavily annotated in the Kansas-Oklahoma region—home haunt of the Kelly gang.

MANY FLOWERS BEING GUARDED FOR CLUB SHOW

Burst of Blossom To Precede Death Of Flowers

"BLOOM, little rose tree bloom; summer is nearly over. The dahlias bleed and the phlox are seed, and what's become of the clover? . . . Summer for all hercule will brown in a week to autumn and the chariest bud the summer can boast be brought to death by the chastening frost."—Edna St. Vincent Millay.

But not before the Pampa Garden club's flowers—bleeding dahlias, critically chrysanthemums, flaming zinnias and other blossoms—flaunt their vivid colors in the first annual fall flower show in the Presbyterian church annex, Oct. 6.

For the beauty of dying summer, the perfume that must leave the earth before Indian Summer, will be gathered together in a great mass of tender and iridescent petals, by the club members before the cold and strangling fingers of "the chastening frost" leaves brown seed and withered leaves in its wake.

DALHART MAN DIES IN JAIL -- WIFE IS SHOT

BLANKET ROPE THROWN OVER BAR IN CELL

DALHART, Sept. 23 (AP)—J. Marvin Turner, confessed slayer of his wife, Mrs. May Turner, at his Starley county home Thursday, hanged himself in the Dallam county jail early today.

Turner, 54, made an extensive statement to officers beginning shortly after midnight Friday morning, giving a detailed account of the shooting of his wife. He later amplified the statement, even to the extent of leaving instructions for a division of his property among his children.

At 5:30 a. m. Turner was found by his cell mate, Bert Rice, hanging from a bar, a rope improvised from blankets about his neck, his feet barely touching the floor. Death was due to strangulation.

Three Killed In Car Collision; Four Are Hurt

GREENVILLE, Sept. 23 (AP)—Three persons were killed, another probably fatally injured and four more were seriously hurt in a head-on automobile collision three miles north of Greenville late today.

A federal judge here issued a warrant both charging them with conspiracy to violate the "Lindbergh" act.

WITNESS AND COURT CLASH IN NAZI TRIAL

DEFENDANTS DENY ANY CONNECTION WITH REICHSSTAG FIRE

LEIPZIG, Germany, Sept. 23 (AP)—Fiercy exchanges between the court and Georgi Dimitroff, Bulgarian refugee, during which he admitted he would have committed suicide during his imprisonment is given a chance, today, marked the trial of five men charged with burning the Reichstag building.

Both Dimitroff and Blagoi Popoff, another Bulgarian defendant who was placed on the stand, denied any connection with the blaze.

The remarks of the defendant, once leader of the Bulgarian Communists, brought a rebuke from Justice Wilhelm Buenger that "you're altogether too fresh," and a threat of special measures "unless you moderate yourself."

"I have heard I have been condemned to death," said Dimitroff, "but that does not interest me. The sentences have no meaning."

"Your honor, I ask your pardon," said Dimitroff, "but you must understand that after months of confinement, five of which were spent handcuffed and during which time I could not sleep, I naturally sound excited and possibly use expressions which are not permissible."

SCHOOL FUND GETS MILLION IN OIL SUIT

Check for $1,073,000 Given State Immediately After Verdict Is Returned.

AUSTIN, Sept. 23 (AP)—The permanent fund of the Texas public school system was richer by $1,073,000 tonight.

J. D. Moore, Travis county district judge, today entered judgment for that amount in favor of the state against the Mid-Kansas Oil and Gas company holding it to be due from oil and gas produced from a 51-acre tract in Pecos county, adjudged by the Texas supreme court to be vacant public school land.

Judgment in favor of Fred Turner Jr. for $926,500 also was entered by Judge Moore. Turner held a patent on the land from the state, but had been denied possession for approximately five years while the tract was in litigation. The Mid-Kansas had produced the land during the period.

HUGE REWARD OFFERED FOR GEORGE KELLY

$15,000 TO BE GIVEN FOR CAPTURE, DEAD OR ALIVE

BY WILLIAM VOIGHT Jr., Associated Press Staff Writer.
OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 23 (AP)—Unprecedented rulings by Federal Judge Edgar S. Vaughn today swept aside demurrers of nine defendants in the Charles F. Urschel kidnaping conspiracy trial, won freedom for one man and a deferred judgement for two others.

Harvey Bailey and Albert Bates received no consideration from the judge, who overruled defense motions "without comment."

Judge Vaughn said the three Shannons from Wise county, Texas, were "just as guilty" if they harbored the kidnapers and held their victim, "as if they had kidnaped, transported and later collected the ransom."

Charles Wolk, one of seven defendants from Minneapolis and St. Paul, was ordered released. Isadore Blumenthal and Peter Valder will learn Monday morning whether they must trust their cases to the jury.

The four others—Barney Berman, Clifford Skolby, Sam Kronick and Sam Kosberg—were given no encouragement by the judge, who declared that they may not have known they were handling Urschel money, but that they knew that had "hot" money in their possession.

The prosecution traced $1,800 and $500 of the $200,000 paid for Urschel's release to these four.

"This is a revolutionary proceeding today," said Judge Vaughn when defense attorneys had finished arguing their assertions that the prosecution had been insufficient to convict.

"Kidnaping is as bad as murder, if not worse. There is no greater menace in the country today. In interpreting the act under which this case is heard I bear in mind that its purpose is to prevent all kidnaping."

Refuses Shannons' Alibi.
The law in the case is the new "Lindbergh" act passed by congress in June, 1932. This is the first time it has been invoked.

After overruling the Bailey and Bates' motions, Judge Vaughn said that "the evidence shows the Shannons knew there was a kidnaped man at their home. If they knew, he was kidnaped and guarded him, then they would be just as guilty as if they had abducted him in the first place, transported him and collected the ransom."

The contention of counsel that the Shannons had been coerced was met by the declaration that "fear of individual punishment is no excuse for violation of the law."

"That isn't the way things are done," said Judge Vaughn as he began ruling on the four Twin Cities.

WILL ROGERS IS DR BULL IN NEW FILM

GENIAL PHYSICIAN OF FAMED NOVEL AT THE LANORA

Will Rogers comes to the Lanora theatre beginning on Sunday for four days in his latest picture for Fox Film, "Doctor Bull." It is the screen presentation of the famous novel by James Gould Cozzens, "The Last Adam," best-seller and recent Book-of-the-Month selection. It is reported as the most powerful vehicle the popular philosopher-comedian has had on the talking screen.

The story concerns a physician in a small town who, in addition to ministering to the health of the community, acts as its unofficial father confessor. None of the secrets of the town escape him. He knows the inner life of every one of its inhabitants. But it is not as a gossip that he finds himself interested in the private lives of the village. He is a meek gentleman to whom everyone's reactions are an interesting bit of human document.

The film does not present the story of one character. Like "State Fair," the last of the Rogers screen plays, it deals with many characters, each typical of its kind. It is more than the story of one town. For it is the story of thousands on thousands of similar towns all over the country.

RAIL COMMISSION AND ALLRED ARE LIKELY DISPLEASED WITH HIGH POSITION GIVEN ROESER

AUSTIN, Sept. 23 (AP)—Charles F. Roeser of Fort Worth has risen to a new height in the oil industry. He has been placed by President Roosevelt on the planning and coordinating committee that will direct affairs of the oil industry under NRA.

Roeser, as president of the Texas oil and gas conservation association, was especially active during the regular session of the legislature in advocating and opposing legislation affecting oil.

He was reprimanded along with two others, for his part in a fist-cuff with Representative Gordon Burns of Huntsville, after a hard-fought contest over whether the Texas Railroad commission should not be replaced as administrator of oil and gas conservation laws. The proposal to set up a separate oil and gas commission was approved by the house but was lost in the senate.

The exchange with Burns took place between the time the house acted and the senate voted. Feeling was pretty high over activities of lobbyists at the time and some believed the attack on Burns was responsible for the new commission bill losing in the senate.

Roeser did not enter actively into oil affairs at Austin after the incident, but he is high up the ladder once more.

Because of his stand against the present commission it has been assumed that the three men who comprise that group are not pleased with his presence on the committee. Another who doubtless was displeased is James V. Allred, Texas attorney general. Allred had been bearing down on the Roeser-Burns fight investigation and it was curious gossip he took the matter to a Travis county grand jury and asked an inquiry of lobbying activities. If he did, the grand jury never made a report on the matter.

A WICKED WOMAN by Anne Austin, author of ONE DROP OF BLOOD, MURDER BACKSTAIRS etc.; Macmillan company, $2.

This is the story of a woman's fight for her children's happiness and her own peace against tremendous odds. Naomi Trice goes through ten significant years burdened by the feeling that she is a "wicked woman." In a moment of passionate hate she has done something which she believes she will never be able to forget. Facing poverty and the horror of remorse, she still refuses to give in, and fights gallantly for the good things of life—the security of a job, a comfortable home, love—the things which she wants her children to know, though she has never known them.

Out of the ruins of the past she makes a new life for herself: then when the old tragedy faces her again, she is ready for it.

In this novel Miss Austin has done something quite different from the mysteries which have brought her wide recognition. She tells with a fine sympathy and understanding this story of a woman who makes a bargain with life. You will not easily forget Naomi Trice, nor her children, nor the man she loves.

Anne Austin was born in Waco, Texas. She attended Baylor university, taught for several years, and later worked on the WACO MORNING NEWS and NEWS-TRIBUNE, the BEAUMONT JOURNAL, and in her marriage—gayety, youth, friendliness and whole-hearted devotion. And she is faced with a choice that will influence her whole life.

THE HOUSE OF THE BORIES is notable both for beautifully delicate writing and for psychological insight not only into the character of an unusual woman but also into the minds of three lively and delicious children. The theme is an unhappy marriage, but Isabelle transcends her environment. Strong, sensitive, wise, her devotion to her children and her loyalty are twin characteristics of a nature that is fine and intelligent enough to be "modern" without being unbalanced, and tender without being sentimental.

THE HOUSE OF THE BORIES received the notable French award—the Prix Interallie for 1932.

MEMOIRS OF A SPY: ADVENTURES ALONG THE EASTERN FRONT, by Nicholas Snowden (Nicolas Soltesz); Charles Scribner's Sons, $2.75. Illustrated. Publication date, September 22.

The Author: The young Czech whose war-time adventures are here recorded is now living in the United States.

In September, 1914, at the age of nineteen, Nicholas Snowden entered the Austro-Hungarian secret service. The young agent's first important commission was the bearing of a code message through the Russian lines into beleaguered Przemyśl. He repeated this difficult feat, had some interesting experiences with a woman counter-spy, was decorated by the kaiser, made a prisoner of war in Russia where he escaped and continued his operations, returned home and soon again was active—this time along the Italian front.

After the Red Revolution in Hungary, Snowden became a Bolshevik army officer. By birth a citizen of the newly created Czechoslovakia, he was now captured and sentenced to death as a spy by the Hungarian government but eventually released, after many months in prison.

This authentic record of a spy's daily life and adventures during the entire period of the war and for several years after, is as thrilling and full of suspense as the most breath-taking mystery story.

defendants and singled out the manner the Urschel money was handled.

"The court will not ignore the fact that the papers were filled with the fact that Urschel had been kidnaped, that he had been held for ransom and ransom was paid. All of these things convince the court that these Minneapolis men had guilty knowledge of the money."

The court then overruled motions for Berman, Skelly, Kozberg, and Kronick, and took under advisement the cases of Blumenfeld and Valder until Monday, before ruling.

The latter two were connected by association only with the other four when the money was being handled.

Rewards Offered.

Meanwhile, a group of wealthy Oklahoma City citizens, headed by Charles Colcord, capitalist and a United States marshal in territorial days, met and underwrote rewards totaling $15,000 for the capture and delivery of Kelly and his wife, Kathryn, dead or alive to authorities anywhere in the country. Mrs. Kelly is a daughter of Mrs. Shannon, one of the defendants.

The reward for Kelly was fixed at $10,000 and for his wife, at $5,000.

"Rats now are just like they were in the old days when I was a peace officer," said Colcord. "Cash was the double-cross where gangs are concerned."

More than 500 citizens joined in establishing the rewards and contributions were asked from any others desiring to aid in the apprehension of the fugitive pair, who have defied the law by making numerous threats against Urschel and others since the trial got under way.

Provisions of the rewards are phrased so payment will be made in event either Kelly or his wife is killed while resisting capture.

The terms also open the way for permitting any fellow gangster, underworld character or citizen who traps or delivers either of the fugitives or both, or who furnishes information resulting in the arrest or capture of either or both, to share in the reward.

PELS VOW TO BEAT TEXANS

New Orleans Believes Club Can Emerge Victorious In Day Games.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 23. (P)—Trailing the San Antonio Missions 2 to 1 in the Dixie Series after three night games in Texas, New Orleans Pelicans came back home tonight more sore than ever at the guy who thought up after-dark baseball and vowing vengeance in the remaining day games to be played here, starting tomorrow.

The Pels never did like the night game and proved it in San Antonio by some ragged playing, interrupted only by Thursday night's temporary show of snap for a 7-4 victory. San Antonio sailed through the home-town opener 3-1 and repeated last night 6-3. Today was an off day to allow for the shift of scene.

Hank Severid, the catcher-boss who sent his San Antonio club thru a complicated Shaughnessy plan playoff to its first Texas league championship, just grinned, and looked confident.

Ace twirlers of the two clubs drew the pitching assignments for tomorrow afternoon's fourth contest here.

The Southern Association champions will call on their veteran, Fred Johnson, who has won 21 games for the Pels this season, to lead the way toward a comeback. It will be his first start in the series.

San Antonio will again send to the mound Fabian Kowalik, the young Pole who has 25 wins in 1933 to his credit, including the 3-1 polishing handed to New Orleans last Wednesday night.

Poole Playing Half at Tulsa

Mrs. J. A. Poole and son, Bill, returned yesterday from Tulsa where they visited Jim Poole, last year captain of the Harvester football team. Jim is a freshman at the Tulsa university this year.

The former Pampa-captain is living at the Phi Delta fraternity. Mrs. Joe Kahl, formerly of Pampa, is the home mother. Jim has made the Tulsa university freshman team. He weighs 193 pounds.

Jim played center, and fullback on the Harvester squad during his four years of high school football. He is a blocking half back this year at Tulsa.

Tennis Players To Meet Again Monday Night

Tennis players and fans of this community will meet again at 8 o'clock tomorrow night in the chamber of commerce rooms in the city hall to make further plans for the re-organization of a tennis club. Committees appointed at a meeting last week will make their reports.

Estimates on the price of constructing four courts will be received and a proposed membership list presented. Committees have been at work during the last week securing data and information. Every player should be present or represented because definite action on the club will probably be taken at the meeting.

If it is decided to go ahead with the club, officers will be elected and dues set. Chris Martin was named temporary chairman at the last meeting.

McMurry Beats Teachers 7 To 0

ABILENE, Sept. 23 (P)—Plowing through guard for a touchdown in the last minute of play, Francis Smith, all-conference quarterback, gave the McMurry Indians a 7 to 0 victory over the East Texas Teachers here this afternoon.

Smith was the mainstay of a drive which hammered the Teacher defense back 72 yards for the counter. He passed and ran to three first downs before the East Texas defense stiffened at the 50-yard line and held the Indians to no gain for three downs. Faking a place kick near the 30-yard line, Smith bulled a pass to Jim McKenzie for first down on the 7-yard line, then in two plays went over for the score. Smith place kicked for the extra point.

TOUCHDOWN IS MADE LATE IN FOURTH PERIOD

GUARD INTERCEPTS A PASS TOSSED BY WILSON

DALLAS, Sept. 23 (AP)—Handicaps for the football failed to arrive in time today to save the Southern Methodist Mustangs from defeat. The North Texas Teachers college of Denton, who played the Mustangs to a scoreless tie last season, put on more steam and made it a 7 to 0 victory in the opening game for both teams. It was a non-Southwest conference game. Inability to hold the ball probably cost Southern Methodist a couple of touchdowns. Several times the Mustangs drove deep into North Texas territory only to fumble the ball and have some opponent pounce on it.

1932 CHAMPS OF OKLAHOMA TO PLAY PAMPA ON FRIDAY

Big Improvement In Harvesters Planned By Coach Odus Mitchell.

The Pampa Harvesters will have to do a lot of hard work before next Friday afternoon if they expect to hold the Capital Hill Indians of Oklahoma City, 1932 champions of Oklahoma. The Redskins will play here, the second home game of the season.

The game will be the last at home until Oct. 21 when Cisco comes to Pampa. October 7 will see the Harvesters at Big Spring and the following week they will go to Shawnee, Okla., for an important game. Shawnee last year played the Indians in the state finals.

Coches will start working on the weak spots which showed up Friday afternoon when the Harvesters held McLean to a 6 to 6 tie. They were many and glaring, but most of them should disappear before next week. One of the greatest weaknesses was blocking. The boys were willing high fullback, was the most impressive ball lugger for the Mustangs. He plunged the ball to the one-foot line once but failed to carry it across on the fourth down.

North Texas won the game late in the fourth period when Knowles, left guard, intercepted a pass tossed by Robert Wilson. He grabbed it on a "dead" run and kept going until he was across the S. M. U. goal line. Maggard kicked goal for the extra point.

Score by periods:
 North Texas Teachers. 0 0 0 7—7

enough, but they appeared afraid to leave their feet and time after time every McLean man was on his feet.

Several second string boys showed up remarkably well in the opening game and are making a strong bid for starting honors. There may be some changes in the lineup when the Indians come to Pampa. One or two new combinations appeared to click better than the veterans Friday.

Oklahoma City will bring a team of veterans, eight of whom played in the state finals last year. The Indians swamped the Harvesters in Oklahoma City last year.

Fans will be admitted to Harvester Park Wednesday afternoon for the open scrimmage but gates will be closed other days.

U. S. May Ease Dry Prosecutions

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (AP)—In view of the numerous predictions by administration officials that prohibition repeal is imminent, plans have been made for a review of the thousands of liquor cases pending in federal courts to determine which shall be brought to trial.

The work will begin officially on October 1, when L. J. Bugg, a Monroeville, Ala., attorney, becomes senior counsel of the prohibition unit of the justice department.

It was estimated at the justice department today that in some federal courts there were as many as 1,000 criminal cases pending. Altogether, one official said, there probably were 90,000 cases on the

MCLEAN VETS HOLD PAMPANS IN 6-6 FIGHT

TIGERS TURN OUT TO BE FIRST CLASS ELEVEN

Looking like first class warriors at times, and giving a poor exhibition of football at others, the Pampa Harvesters held the sensational McLean Tigers to a 6 to 6 tie on Harvester field Friday afternoon.

Lloyd Hamilton, Harvester quarterback, crossed the line for the Harvesters in the first quarter. Chickett Christian evened the count in the second quarter after McLean got the ball on mistaken signals by the Harvesters.

The Harvesters outplayed the McLean team in nearly every department, but showed ignorance of knowing how to really fight. Pampa made 10 first downs to five by McLean and gained 204 yards from scrimmage to 89 for the Tigers.

Fumbles marred the game, the Harvesters being the greater offenders. The green and gold fumbled eight times and lost the ball on four occasions. McLean miscued five times and lost the ball twice, Stewart and McAuley doing the recovering for the Harvesters.

Leslie Sartin, midget Harvester halfback, was injured in the second quarter and was unable to return to the game. An operation was performed on his leg yesterday afternoon to remove a cartilage from between two joints.

Lloyd Hamilton called a fairly heady game for the Harvesters and his ability in the spinner position was proven. He reeled off 40 yards the longest run of the day, but kept looking behind him and was tackled from behind by a fleet McLean back. He also wriggled through for the touchdown.

The work of McAuley, Pinnell and Mackie was noticeable in the line, especially on the defense. Marbaugh, Gregory and Dunaway, punter, worked well throughout the game with Gregory's placement on the one-yard line outstanding.

McLean's eleven clicked nicely but they could only gain once and a while through the Pampa line. Their passes were also wild. It was on defense that the McLean boys showed their power. Crockett and Christian carried the ball for most of the McLean gains. It was Crockett's 14 yard dash that placed the ball in scoring position.

Dowell's sportsmanship was lauded by officials and fans. On two occasions he asked McLean fans to cease "calling" the officials, who were calling the game. Robinson, Ellison and Stratton were notables in the McLean line. They threw Harvester backs for several losses.

The Harvester offense showed marked promise but the line leaked badly at times. It was on defense that the McLean boys showed their power. Coaches will spend this week ironing out the wrinkles that appeared in Friday's encounter. The Capitol Hill Indians of Oklahoma City will be here next Friday for the last home game for three weeks.

First Quarter The Harvesters kept the ball in their possession most of the first quarter. They carried the ball to the McLean one foot line where they lost possession. Stevens and Hamilton did most of the ball toting until near the goal line when Marbaugh made three unsuccessful plunges to put the ball on the one-yard line. Hamilton then lacked a foot of going over. McLean punted out of danger and the Harvesters then started their march for the goal.

Sartin returned the McLean punt to their own 25 yard line. Sartin made 5 yards and Hamilton followed with a spinner good for 12 yards. Hamilton gained another 3 yards and Sartin followed with 2 more. Sartin carried the ball to the 1-foot line and Hamilton carried it over. The try for extra point failed.

Second Quarter Tolleriver booted to Pampa's 23 yard line. On a fake punt the Harvesters got their signals mixed and Ellison fell on the ball on the Harvester 14 yard line. On the next play McLean caught the Pampa end and backs asleep and ran to the 1-yard line around the right end. Christian made four attempts before he got the ball across by inches. The try for extra point failed. Penalties nearly proved disastrous to the Harvesters later in the second quarter when they drew 5 yards for offside and another 5 for too many times out. On the second play Pampa was penalized 15 yards for holding but the half saved a march.

Last Half Both elevens played hard ball in the last half but neither team threatened. Heiskell and Hamilton carried the ball for many Harvester gains while Dow and Christian did most of the McLean ball toting. Marbaugh in the last quarter showed his best form of the season when he ripped off gains of 5, 6 and 18 yards before injuring his shoulder. Several great tackles by both teams saved long gains in the closing minutes of the game. Owens and Hamilton broke through to throw McLean backs for losses and Ellison and Stratton did the same to the Harvesters.

Pirates Whip Cards

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 23. (AP)—Halted by rain for two hours with the score standing 3-all, the Pittsburgh Pirates came back after the rest to score six runs and defeat the St. Louis Cardinals in the series opener here today, 9 to 3.

The second game of a scheduled double header was called off. Bill Hallahan was the victim of the Pirates' attack, while victory went to another left-hander, Birwofner, a heavyweight newcomer to the major leagues.

Split Doubleheader PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 23. (AP)—The Phillies and Braves divided a doubleheader today, the locals winning the first game, 5-4, and the visitors taking the second, also 5 to 4.

Both games were "see-saw" contests in which the lead changed hands several times. Chick Fuhls provided the winning hit for the Phillies in the first game.

A two run rally by the Braves in the eighth inning with the score 4-3 in favor of the Phils turned the tide in the nightcap.

Dodgers Drub Giants NEW YORK, Sept. 23. (AP)—The Giants made their first public appearance on the ball field today since they clinched the National league championship and took a drubbing from the Brooklyn Dodgers in both ends of a doubleheader.

The scores were 7 to 4 and 3 to 0. The Giants started out with most of their regulars in the lineup but by the time the second game got under way Blondy Ryan was the only one left and Van Lingle Mungo had little trouble shutting out the reserves with four hits. It was Mungo's 16th victory of the year and his ninth in the last 12 starts. It also was the tenth blanking administered to the Giants his season.

Losses No. 27 CHICAGO, Sept. 23. (AP)—Paul Derringer, the majors' "losingest" pitcher, suffered his 27th defeat of the season today as the Chicago Cubs defeated the Cincinnati Reds, 7 to 1, in the opening game of their series.

Guy Bush went the route for the Cubs for his 19th victory and was deprived of a shut-out only by Jim Bottomley's home run in the ninth. Ray Kolp, Derringer's successor, was the victim of a home run by Gabby Hartnett. It was the 16th of the season for the big Cub catcher.

Harris Resigns DETROIT, Sept. 23. (AP)—Stanley (Bucky) Harris today submitted his resignation as manager of the Detroit Tigers just after his newest recruit, Luke Hamlin, had pitched the Bengals to a 5 to 3 victory over the St. Louis Browns.

Harris had been subjected to criticism by some fans who charged that a lack of fighting spirit held the Tigers in the second division. His resignation came as a surprise to Frank Navin, owner of the club.

Senators Beaten WASHINGTON, Sept. 23. (AP)—The Senators, American league champions, took a 3 to 1 beating today from the Philadelphia Athletics. Monte Weaver held the Athletics to five hits, but four of these came in the sixth and seventh to net evened tallies to win.

Manager Joe Cronin began easing up on his Senators who meet the New York Giants in the world series. He shifted his line-up from time to time, Boken relieving Myer, Rice

Penock Beats Sox

BOSTON, Sept. 23. (AP)—The veteran Herb Penock of the Yankees was credited with beating Lloyd Brown and the Red Sox, 16 to 12 today, but his work was merely an incident in a wild afternoon of baseball. New York used three pitchers and Boston four in the slugfest. A total of 39 hits were made, 23 by the Yanks. Lou Gehrig hit his 31st homer of the year in the first inning and Babe Ruth equalled it in the fourth; and Wiley Moore drove in a run with his first hit of the season.

In recent days of industrial disorder, we have frequently lost sight of that thing called QUALITY. One of the brightest features of the N. R. A., as typified by the Blue Eagle, is the trend toward the recognition of quality in merchandise...

We abhor the cheap tricks of the so-called "shrewd merchandiser" who resorts to stratagem for his patronage.

Our declared policy is to offer to our trade only the highest grade merchandise obtainable at the lowest prices possible.

TEXAS AGGIES ROUT TRINITY TIGERS 38-0

SEVERAL REGULARS ON SIDELINES DURING EASY VICTORY

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. 23 (AP)—Playing under wraps with several regulars on the sidelines, the Texas Aggies romped to a 38 to 0 victory over the Trinity Tigers in the season's opener today at Kyle Field. The Aggies piled up 26 first downs to Trinity's none and gained 293 yards from running plays to Trinity's 27.

Bill Couser, sophomore quarterback from Breckenridge, led the Aggie attack with three touchdowns. He gained 115 yards on running plays, averaging better than four yards on each try.

The Aggies completed only five out of 21 passes but gained 110 yards by the aerial route. Several

When To Put a Stripe On Blue Eagle's Breast

In a number of instances, employers have signed the presidential agreement and have petitioned for a stay of certain provisions on the ground that it worked a real hardship upon them. C. H. Walker, general chairman of the NRA said yesterday.

This they can do under the last paragraph of the presidential agreement, but in cases where employers have signed petitions they should place a white stripe across the breast of the Blue Eagle with the word "provisional" written upon it, Mr. Walker emphasized. If and when the petition is granted, the stripe may be removed. If the petition is not granted, they must comply with the provisions of the presidential agreement.

The setting up of the new compliance board, membership of which was announced yesterday, does not mean that the campaign to put every employer and consumer under the Blue Eagle has been finished, but will be continued until all employers and consumers of Pampa

THOMPSON IS PROUD OF CUT CARRIER RATES

SCHEDULE WILL SAVE SHIPPERS 20 MILLION

AUSTIN, Sept. 23 (AP)—The Texas Railroad commission, and Commissioners Ernest O. Thompson in particular, is going around with a satisfied air as the result of the outcome of its drive for lower pipe line rates.

With virtually no cost to the state the principal common carrier pipe lines have agreed to a rate schedule that will effect a saving to shippers estimated at $20,000,000 annually.

There were several things that aided in bringing about the reductions, and vicinity are under the Blue Eagle, Mr. Walker said.

West Texas Air Pirate Stations Quit Operating

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22 (AP)—Twelve cases involving the alleged operations of radio broadcasting stations in Texas without license from the Federal Radio commission will be "vigorously" prosecuted, Col. Thad Brown, vice chairman of the commission, has announced.

Colonel Brown returned to Washington recently after an extended inspection trip of field forces, during which he held several conferences concerning the Texas situation. He referred to federal prosecutors the 12 cases. Seven alleged violators, he said, will be prosecuted at Fort Worth, two in San Antonio federal courts, two in Houston and one at Beaumont.

The first case, Colonel Brown has been informed, will be presented to a federal grand jury at Amarillo on Sept. 18, and other cases will follow in short order.

Meanwhile, the vice chairman also has been advised "all but four of the unlicensed radio stations in West Texas have ceased operations as a result of the mobilization of

Arms Front Is Firm In Face Of German Demands

PARIS, Sept. 23 (AP)—French officials held tonight that a general agreement on the disarmament question by the United States, France, Great Britain, and Italy remained firm despite purported German demands—set out by a French newspaper and disavowed by German sources—for massive frontier fortifications and military aviation.

The Paris newspaper, L'Echo de Paris, listed German disarmament counter proposals as comprising acceptance of an arms supervision and test period under four conditions as follows:

Germany would be authorized to fortify the Franco-German frontier the same as France and would be permitted to possess pursuit planes; supervision would be arranged so that each country's arms would be inspected only by nations of equal government forces in its campaign to clear the atmosphere of all "air pirates," he said.

Strength, for example as between France and Germany.

French officials said nothing was known concerning this reputed German plan, while Reich authorities described it as "pure imagination from A to Z." It was understood Konstantin von Neurath, the German foreign minister, would announce the plan at Geneva.

HARDING AND ROGERS WILL FEATURE BILL

'DOUBLE HARNESS' IS SECOND MOVIE AT LANORA

Only two movies will be shown at the Lanora theater this week, but the two are worth four of the average run of pictures, because one of them features the ever-popular Will Rogers and the other Ann Harding. It is not often that any theater is able to bring these two stars to its patrons in the same week. The program:

LANORA Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday.

"DR. BULL" with Will Rogers and Marion Nixon; Also "Boskos Mechanical Man" a Looney Toon, "Pigskins" a sport thrill and Fox News Reel.

Thursday, Friday, Saturday: "DOUBLE HARNESS" with Ann Harding and William Powell—also: "Coo Coo Magician," a Frog Comedy, "Duck Hunter's Paradise," an oddity and Pampa Daily NEWS-reel.

REX Sunday, Monday, Tuesday: "Below the Sea" with Fay Wray and Ralph Bellamy—also: "Happy Loboes," a Tom & Jerry Comedy and "Druggists Dilemma" with Clark and McCullough.

Wednesday, Thursday: "Air Hostess" with Evelyn Knapp, Thelma Todd and James Murray—also: "Merchant of Menace" with Edgar Kennedy.

Friday, Saturday, September 29 and 30: "Fighting for Justice" with Colonel Tim McCoy—also: "Nature's Workshop" a Pup Comedy and Chapter 8 of "Clancy of the Mounted."

Montgomery Ward Obtains 30-Year Lease on Building

The Montgomery Ward company last week extended the lease on their present building on North Cuyler street 30 years, Manager E. M. Conley announced last night. The company took a 5-year lease on the building with a 5-year option. They have occupied it only four years. The building is owned by R. E. Johnson, local hardware merchant and hotelman. It was built for the Montgomery Ward company. "We believe in Pampa and its future," Mr. Conley said.

Although six native sons of Ohio have been elected president of the United States, no citizen of the state has ever been elected vice-president.

T. C. U. Enrolls Famous McCall And Three Mates

FOR WORTH, Sept. 23.—Some 40 freshmen football candidates greeted Coach Dutch Meyer Wednesday afternoon on the initial call for the first-year grid prospects. Among the group are some of the outstanding high school grid performers of the past football season, many of whom won all-state, all-district or all-city honors.

From the strong Masonic Home team of last year came four of the outstanding stars of their squad. Leading the quartet is the highly advertised Scott McCall, rated by many sports scribes as one of the best high school backfield men ever seen in the state. Along with McCall are Donkey Roberts, end, Tom Adams, linesman, and Sam McClure, backfield ace.

From Temple the freshman squad received Cotton Harrison, selected as all-state fullback last year. Harrison was the backbone of the Temple team in 1932.

Probably the best all-around athlete of the new crop is Bill Walls of Little Rock. Walls tips the scales at 193 pounds and is a star performer in football, basketball, baseball and track. He has also won honors as an amateur boxer and swimming.

Volcanic Smoke Issues From A Texas Mountain

ALPINE, Sept. 23 (AP)—Recently the inhabitants of San Vicente and Hot Springs, southern Brewster county, were amazed at the sight of a thin wisp of smoke curling from the top of one of the peaks in the Chisos mountains. Following reports of the phenomena a party from Alpine went down to investigate. Ray Miller, well known rancher of the area, told members of the party that the smoke undoubtedly came from an old volcano crater located on the slope of Mt. Emery, tallest peak of the Chisos range. The crater, he said, was located on a "shelf" just below the rimrock near the top of the peak. Mt. Emery was found by the federal Geodetic survey two years ago to be the highest peak in the state, the elevation being 9,996 feet. The monument placed on the peak by the Geodetic survey is near the location of the old crater. Mr. Miller said it is now believed that the smoke seen hanging over Mt. Emery came from this crater which was probably a "breather" or a kickback from some active volcano on this continent.

No announcement has yet been made of any likely scientific investigation of the alleged "breather," but it is hoped by many residents here that such an investigation will be made.

Members of the party making the trip stated upon their return to Alpine that the crater is almost inaccessible and that so far as they could learn no one has ever explored or been within its walls. It cannot be reached from the top of the peak as it is located at the foot of the high perpendicular rimrock, a sheer drop of some two thousand feet.

Melvin G. Owens, 28, swam Albatross sound off the North Carolina coast in 11 hours, 40 minutes. He was the first to do so.

WETS AFRAID ATTITUDE MAY CHANGE SOON

STATE DRY LAW CAN'T BE VOTED ON UNTIL 1935 AT LEAST

AUSTIN, Sept. 23. (AP)—Texas anti-prohibitionists are happy, of course, over the decisive manner in which the electorate decided to vote for repeal of the eighteenth amendment and approved legalization of 3.2 beer.

There was only one disappointment. Opponents of prohibition regretted a proposition to repeal state prohibition outright was not submitted at the same time. A constitutional amendment cannot be submitted except at a regular session which means the matter of doing away with prohibition in Texas cannot be put to the voters of Texas before 1935.

By that time it is impossible the pendulum will have swung the other way. Sentiment changes rapidly in these modern times, as one will note after observing the complete reversal with reference to national prohibition. What, 14 years ago, was regarded as a national mind incorrigibly dry, has developed into an attitude about as strong the other way. The most optimistic anti-prohibitionists did not dream of such a turn in affairs. Fact is, many of the opponents of prohibition had made up their minds there never would be a reversal and a return to the liberality that at this time seems rampant.

Texas' stringent enforcement law can be tempered by the legislators which could be repealed entirely. With the enforcement statute softened or junked, prohibition would have lost its effectiveness even though the constitutional provision were undisturbed.

Enforcement of the prohibition laws has not been stringent in Texas in recent years. For a while there were many convictions, jurors apparently having no conscientious scruples about sending trans-porters, sellers and possessors of intoxicating liquor to the penitenti-

WILL PRESENT SACRED MUSIC MARTIAL AIRS

AUDIENCE WILL SIT ON GRASSY SLOPES IN CITY PARK

THE PAMPA high school band will play a concert in the city park, starting at 3 o'clock this afternoon and lasting between one hour and one hour and a half. Director Roy Wallrabenstein has prepared a program of sacred music, marches and overtures.

"There is an earnest hope to develop in the city of Pampa better musicians and more appreciation of good music," Director Wallrabenstein said in planning the concert. "Plans are in the making to give concerts frequently. While the band has been practicing only two weeks, it has shown marked improvement."

The high school pep squad will act as ushers. Patrons are urged to take a blanket and sit on the grassy slopes during the concert. The music will be easily heard in cars around the park.

The program follows:
Band Boys March—Ed. Chenette.
The Booster March—J. G. Klein.
Rock of Ages (brass quartet)—Thos. Hastings, Robert Daugherty, trumpet; Jack Powell, trumpet; Ella Faye O'Keefe, trombone; Charles Frazee, trombone.
National High School Band March—Carl Mader.
Then Basses March—G. H. Huffine. Featuring the basses, trombones, and baritone.
Energy Overture—Harold Bennett.

TOMORROW IS PAMPA'S BLUE EAGLE DAY

THE BLUE EAGLE in its flight over the nation will hover over Pampa tomorrow in salute to those concerns who have responded to the Nation's call by signing N. R. A. pledges. These firms will demonstrate this new era in the production of quality goods; of goods made and sold under fair and inspiring working conditions. They will reveal the soundness of values on goods that deserve and protect public confidence. They will present this demonstration at specially attractive prices and most of all demonstrate what General Johnson meant in his Labor Day address when he referred to "the need to buy freely and to begin at once, not as a patriotic duty but as a prudent use of money."

formed the colorful setting for four tables of bridge.

PIANISTS WILL BE PRESENTED IN A RECITAL

Four Musicians Are To Play In Program

A musical event of unusual type will be the recital of four young piano pupils of Mrs. Nina McKimming Monday evening at the Presbyterian church.

Leona Hurst, Marie Tinsley, Pauline Stewart, and Dorothy Dodd will be presented in ensemble numbers and each in solos. Miss Dodd, also a voice pupil of Mrs. Philip Wolfe, will be heard in two vocal numbers.

All the young musicians are well known in Pampa. They are mailing personal invitations to friends, but the public is welcome to hear the program.

Mrs. McKimming and Mrs. Wolf are faculty members of the newly organized Pampa Conservatory. Monday's program, the first presented by the conservatory, is as follows:

Grand Valse, Misses Doss, Tinsley, Stewart, Hurst.
Herbst, Horvath, Miss Tinsley.
Con Amore, Beaumont, Miss Hurst.

Flower Rain, Schneider, vocal solo by Miss Dodd.
To a Water Lily, MacDowell, by Miss Stewart.
Polonaise, piano quartet.
Für Elise, Beethoven, Miss Hurst.

Spring's Song, MacPadden, Miss Dodd.
Spanish Serenade, Twitshell, Miss Stewart.
Idylle, MacDowell, Miss Tinsley.

Quartet number, to be selected.

MODERN TRENDS IN KITCHEN METHODS TO BE EMPHASIZED IN COMING COOKERY SCHOOL

Whether you're a bride of a month or a grandmother, you will enjoy the sparkling programs that will be presented soon when this newspaper brings the Happy Kitchens to this city. The age-old theory of cookery will be presented in a new dress, and every woman should make her plans now to attend the Happy Kitchens which will be presented through the courtesy of this newspaper for three days, starting October 5.

Under the personal direction of Miss Beulah Mackey Yates, well known home economist, every minute of these sessions will be enjoyed by those attending, and large crowds are expected to attend this gala event, which will be held at the city hall auditorium.

Unusual Is Taught.—"Every woman who keeps house," says Miss Yates, "loves to surprise those who gather around her table with some new delicacy . . . some unusual little touch that heightens the joy of housekeeping . . . that brings back the ever evasive romance of home making. These Happy Kitchens have caught the modern trend . . . the remaking of old into new. That is why I emphasize this modern idea so much.

"There is a new spirit in the kitchen . . . a spirit of happiness chasing out the kitchen drudgery. No longer does the modern housewife accept the older methods of cooking . . . methods which might ever so ably fit those former days, but are inappropriate today in this modern world of ours."

We invite you to attend the Happy Kitchens School of Cookery as our guest. Remember the dates and place and plan to attend every session.

Citizens Band To Uphold American School Standards

BY MRS. J. M. CRAIN, Claude, State Publicity Director Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers.

American schools are facing serious problems. The cultural subjects, especially, are being attacked. There is urgent need for a declaration of faith that the arts are not optional luxuries for the few, but are essential for the complete living of the many.

Music and the allied arts give cheer and comfort and richness to life. They bring beauty to this materialistic civilization. Beauty contributes to the morale and stability of a nation. Social unrest gains its deadliest recruits among men who have not found beauty and joy in their work and in their environment.

The pioneers of America faced a simpler world than ours, with relatively simpler needs. Modern inventions are shortening the working weeks and greatly increasing the hours of leisure. But in making the rapid advancement in this century, necessarily some penalties are incurred. Science and the machine have added so much to living that in some instances they have been rated above human values. Life tends to be overmechanized. Education today must concern itself with physical and mental health and with emotional, social, and spiritual responses as well as with reasoning powers.

Burden Cannot Be Shifted.

The responsibility of the present generation for the education of those that are to follow should not be shifted to the future. Youth must be served while it is youth. If this generation fails in its duty to the boys and girls of today, it cannot be made up to them in after years when prosperity returns and public funds are more easily available. People have no right to unload upon the youth of today the burden of financial adversity.

Pep Squad Thanks Donors for Fifty New Megaphones

Fifty new megaphones have been presented to the high school pep squad by the Pampa Office Supply Co. to replace those worn out during last football season. The megaphones are yellow, to harmonize with the green and gold pep squad uniforms.

Megaphones were supplied last year by the office supply company. Appreciation for the replacements was expressed for squad members by Mrs. E. L. Norman and Miss Angela Strnad, faculty sponsors.

with a total membership of more than 5,000,000 American citizens declare their faith in the arts. Curtailed in educational budgets must not be permitted to affect vitally the cultural subjects, especially music. Avocations as well as vocations must be provided for the sake of the present times and for the days of larger leisure which lie ahead.

Recent legislation enacted by the federal government concerns the work of the schools at many points. The legislative commission of the national education association is working in this field, under the chairmanship of State Superintendent of Schools Sidney B. Hall, Virginia.

At present the legislative commission is including in its program the following activities: Efforts are being made to have the president recognize the seriousness of the educational situation and take action thereon in a radio address, or proclamation, or otherwise.

To secure federal assistance, either under existing or future legislation, which will aid the states to keep schools open and to maintain educational standards is another objective.

The commission is working with the national recovery administration in the development of a code to be signed by school boards, concerning the salaries and working conditions of teachers and other school employees.

BRIDGE CLUBS START SEASON WITH PARTIES

OTHER CLUBS GIVE SPECIAL ENTERTAINMENTS

AUTUMN flowers set the color note when Miss Martha Snead entertained the Linger Linger club in its first fall meeting Thursday afternoon. The colors were reflected in bridge appointments.

Miss Frances Finley made high score in the games, and Mesdames Jack Baker and Sug Cobb cut high. Miss Finley and Mrs. C. P. Chandler were voted to club membership. Mrs. Hollis Rabb and Mrs. E. F. Hollinghead were guests for the afternoon, and other members playing were Mesdames Clyde Oswald, E. J. Pafford, and Miss Mary Snead.

Contract Club Meets.

Contract Bridge club members had their first meeting of the fall Friday afternoon, with Mrs. L. O. Johnson as hostess to three tables of players.

Mrs. George Taylor made high score in the games, which were followed by a tempting salad course.

Members present were Mesdames Clifford Braly, T. F. Smalling, J. H. Kelley, Henry Thut, A. B. Zahn, and Philip Pond. Special guests were Mesdames Clyde Gold, A. C. Wilson, H. R. Keys, Clyde Drew, and Taylor.

Member Is Given Shower.

Mrs. E. M. Conley entertained the Queen of Clubs at her home Thursday afternoon, when Mrs. H. D. Keys was honored at a surprise shower.

Dainty pastel shades were used on the tables, tallies, and score pads. Gifts were presented in a huge baby shoe, and tiny shoes held candy on the refreshment plates.

Mrs. M. C. Overton scored high for club guests, and Mrs. A. B. Goldston for members. Mrs. J. H. Kelley received a favor for low cut.

Other guests were Meses, Keys, C. C. Cook, I. B. Hughey, Hamlett, A. M. Martini, L. N. McCullough, Howard Buckingham, George Waldstad, Raymond Harrah, Max Mahaffey, J. M. Lybrand, Frank Perry, H. C. Wilson, H. C. Charless.

Husbands Entertained.

Husbands of members were special guests of the Merry Mixers club at a gay party Thursday evening. Mrs. G. L. Greene and Mrs. T. G. Green were hostesses at the home of the former.

Mrs. Otto Geppelt scored high for women and Dr. C. D. Hunter for men, while consolation went to Mrs. Earl Powell and Noel Reynolds.

Refreshments were served to Messrs. and Mesdames Joe Berry, B. C. Fahy, Ed Mazey, John Weeks, O. L. Basham, Powell, Hunter, Reynolds, Geppelt, G. L. Greene, and T. G. Green, Mrs. Otto Palton, and Mr. Lilly.

Because they are comparatively free of disease, Montana sheep are permitted to enter some states without dipping.

The Brazilian government is calling for bids on the opening of a new weekly air service between Bellem, Para, and Manaus, Amazonas, a distance of 900 miles.

Outrageous Fortune

—By PATRICIA WENTWORTH

SYNOPSIS: Two women go to the Elston hospital in response to an inquiry broadcast by the authorities after a man is picked up on the shore, dazed from his experience in a shipwreck. He has talked in his sleep about "Jimmy Riddell" and about green beads, and emeralds. Neta Riddell tells the hospital staff the man is her husband, and removes him in her brother Tom's car. Caroline Leigh arrives too late. She believes the man may be her cousin, Jim Randall, an engineer. The nurse explains, and tells her that unless she is sure Jim Randall was on the unlucky boat, she must continue to "hope for the best."

Chapter Five.

MORE MYSTERY

"Oh—" said Caroline. "And he hadn't any papers or anything of that sort?"

"Not a thing—nothing at all, except the torn-off end of a letter."

"Oh, that's something!" Caroline's voice thrilled. "A bit of a letter? Oh please, what was on it?"

"Nothing but the signature," said the day nurse.

"What? Your affectionate Uncle Alfred, or Aunt Maria, or Cousin Jimmie?"

The day nurse felt a little disturbed; she did not know why.

"No—it was only the name."

"Just Caroline?"

Caroline put both hands to her head as if she were afraid that her head would blow off in some violent, intangible wind. She felt giddy with the rush of it. It slapped her face and sang in her ears. She held on her bright brown curls and opened her eyes as far as they would go.

"Caroline!" she said in her very deepest voice.

"That's all."

"It's quite enough. My dear thing, it's more than enough—because I am Caroline."

"Oh!" said the nurse. Then she said, "Caroline—" in an experimental sort of way. Then she stopped dead.

"Caroline Leigh," said Caroline with a warm rush of words. "I told the girl who let me in, but I expect she forgot—or perhaps she just didn't like the name—lots of people don't. But I am Caroline Leigh, and I wrote to him and signed it just like that, Caroline. And what do you think of that?"

The nurse did not seem able to think at all. She took refuge behind Neta Riddell.

"Mrs. Riddell said he was her husband."

"Is her name Caroline?"

"I don't know. I did ask her if she knew anyone by that name?"

"And what did she say?"

"She said she might."

Caroline stopped holding her curls. The wind had blown past her and away. Her right hand took her left hand and pinched it hard.

"She said it was her husband?"

"Yes."

"She ought to know. What was he like? I ought to have asked that straight away—oughtn't I? What was he like?"

The day nurse looked vague. Her mind didn't work as quickly as that; it did not in fact work quickly at all, except on the accustomed lines of routine.

Caroline's eyes sparkled and implored. They were bright, as deep spring water is bright—bright, and brown, and eager.

"Oh, what was he like? Aren't you going to tell me?"

"Well—" said the nurse slowly, "it's not so very easy to say, you know."

"His age, height, weight, color, hair, eyes?" Caroline flung the words at her like a handful of pebbles.

The day nurse caught at the easiest question.

"Well, his hair was what you'd call betwixt and between—nothing very special, you know."

"And his eyes?"

The nurse shook her head.

"I never noticed them—he'd mostly go, them shut."

Caroline picked up the rest of the pebbles and threw them one by one. She wanted to shake the nurse, but she restrained herself.

"Age?"

"Oh, he wasn't old."

"About thirty?"

"He might have been."

"Height?"

"Oh, just ordinary."

"Coloring?"

"Well, he was sunburnt—we all noticed that."

"Where has she taken him?"

"Marley," said the nurse. "It's only about eight miles from here, and if you will set your mind at rest—"

"Yes—I must see him. I'll go there. Thank you very much—I'll go."

go." She turned, and turned back again. "You haven't got that bit of my letter, I suppose?"

This was going too far for the nurse.

"I don't see how it could be your letter," she protested. "No—we left it in his pocket just where it was."

Caroline turned again. The signature would have told her everything at once. Now she'd got to wait and wait and wait. Eight miles, or eight hundred, were all the same when you wanted to know something at once—at once.

"Miss Leigh—"

Of course she hadn't said goodbye. How frightfully, unforgivably rude. She flung round with an impulsive hand out.

"Oh, please forgive me—you've been so kind!"

But the nurse was taking something out of her apron pocket.

"That's nothing. But if you're seeing Mrs. Riddell, perhaps you'll give her this." She held out a flimsy folded paper. "The nurse who let her in thinks she must have dropped it when she opened her bag. She's just given it to me, and though I don't suppose it's important, still if you are seeing her—"

"Yes, of course. What's the address?"

She didn't say—but Marley's quite a small place."

"Good-bye, and thank you," said Caroline.

The nurse had said she was busy, yet she stood quietly in the door as Caroline got into her little car, turned and disappeared down the drive as quickly as the conformation there would permit.

The nurse was thinking, and it was difficult for her. There were, evidently two Carolines, since Neta Riddell had practically admitted to knowing one. It was asking a good deal of coincidence to believe there were two missing men as well, yet Caroline was on the trail of a Jim Randall, and Neta Riddell had a Jimmy Riddell in her care at the moment.

Or could it be—a voice shrilled behind her, and the nurse, suddenly called back to earth, disappeared with a sigh.

The injured man gets a severe shock when he awakes tomorrow.

Stewart Will Lead Junior Orchestra For Amarillo Club

T. Duncan Stewart, who recently started advanced violin classes in Amarillo, but will continue his classes here on Tuesdays and Saturdays, has been invited to direct two Amarillo musical events. He has been asked to direct the mass piano concert to be given in December, and to assist with violin solos. He also is to be the first conductor of the Philharmonic club's junior orchestra, which is planned to train young musicians and graduate them to places in the club's symphony orchestra. Stewart is connected with the Pampa Conservatory of Music and Allied Arts.

Little Knowledge Is Dangerous---

A Little Knowledge Is Dangerous. This is especially true when men with a limited Chiropractic education, consisting of a few months' study, attempt to lure the unsuspecting public to their offices by offering Chiropractic at greatly reduced prices. Then to make a malicious attempt to satisfy a dangerous ambition, to have the public believe they are qualified to administer therapeutic measures other than Chiropractic, which is only a bold bluff and might be expensive at any cost.

I am the only Chiropractor in Pampa who has the educational qualifications to practice Electro-Therapy. I have proven I am qualified before State Board Examiners by presenting my credentials and credits from recognized Colleges. I have written and successfully passed State Board examinations and now hold a reciprocal license to practice in fourteen states and two foreign countries. I spent several years getting my education and it consists of more than the study of Chiropractic. Chiropractors are not licensed in Texas, therefore some take advantage and attempt to practice many things of which they know absolutely nothing. Physio-Therapy or the application of electricity is not a cure-all, but in cases where indicated has no equal when properly used.

'Terrible Swede' Alias Andy Gump, With A Carnival

Andy Gump, whose real name is Harry Fowler, plans to report back to Pampa this fall ready to meet all comers at or near his weight. He is wrestling with the J. R. Strayer carnival and "going great," he writes friends here.

An meeting all comers up to 175 pounds, Andy writes. "Last week I wrestled Charlie Fisher, middleweight champion of Missouri, to a draw. Am wrestling under the name of Roughhouse Ole Olsen, the terrible Swede. Want Red Michael and Barber Kelly when I get back this fall."

Andy wrestled and boxed, it didn't matter to him which, whenever needed and was always a fan pleaser. The experience he is getting now should make him even more popular when he returns to the Panhandle.

DOLLARS WILL DOLLAR WILL BE RELEASED

COTTON AND WHEAT IN ADVANCE AFTER STATEMENT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (AP)—President Roosevelt has summoned his financial leaders to work out plans to assure the credit for his reinvigorated price-lifting drive that now is focused on lagging agriculture.

Release of millions of dollars in closed banks and a pumping into channels of other idle millions now on deposit in banks was described today as the main objective of the parity which has been set for tomorrow night.

By moves this week and others still in contemplation the administration is stirring sagging farm prices to new activity. Cotton and wheat advanced today with the announcement that the government stood ready to loan on minimum prices in agriculture commodities.

Mr. Roosevelt has said he wanted farm prices to catch up with industrial prices in the upward swing promoted by the NRA campaign.

He is relying on the promise of federal backing to stimulate the bankers to extend the needed credit to support the expansion drive.

Immediate inflation of currency has not been indicated but this weapon is in the hands of the president if he requires it.

Secretary Woodin heads the group called into conference for tomorrow night by Mr. Roosevelt. Others understood to have been invited are the heads of the federal reserve board, the reconstruction corporation, the bank deposit insurance corporation, and the farm credit administration.

Miss Adams Gives Requested Recipe

By RUBY M. ADAMS

County Home Demonstration Agent Select red-ripe tomatoes. The extra juice, and small broken fruit which will not do for canning, may be used, if the tomatoes are sound red. Any green or yellowish parts of fruit will make a ketchup inferior in flavor and color. Tie whole spices loosely in a bag while cooking, and remove before bottling to prevent darkening the color of the ketchup. The pulp of sweet Spanish pepper or the ground Hungarian paprika may be used to give color and flavor. Remove seeds from sweet pepper, chop, and add one cupful of this pepper and two medium-sized onions to one gallon of tomatoes before cooking. The tomato pulp may be made either by the hot process, that is, heating and pressing through a sieve tomatoes which have been peeled and prepared for cooking, or by running the fresh fruit through a colander or tomato pulper. It is well to add the onions and the hopped sweet pepper at the time the tomatoes are first cooked so that any coarse tissues will be removed by the screening or straining process.

For every gallon of pulp use the following:

- 2 tablespoonfuls of salt.
- 4 tablespoonfuls of sugar.
- 1 tablespoonful of mustard. (powdered)

1 pint of good cider vinegar.

Half level tablespoonful each of whole allspice and cloves.

1 level tablespoonful each of whole cinnamon and pepper.

2 small red peppers, sliced and seeds removed.

After putting tomatoes through colander, add ground spices in spice bag, and cook for one and one-half hours, or until nearly thick enough. Cooking should continue until the original quantity is reduced in bulk (being careful not to scorch the ketchup) will give a better color than slow cooking. The finished product should have a fine, bright red color and good smooth consistency.

Pour the ketchup at once into hot bottles that have boiled. If any quantity is made, set the hot bottles at once into a vessel of hot water, having a rack or false bottom in it to prevent breakage, put the cork stoppers in loosely, and process at 180 degrees Fahrenheit for 30 minutes. Drive the corks in tightly, and when cool dip mouth of bottle into melted paraffin, or cover stopper with sealing wax. A good finished product will stand in the bottle without the separation of free juice. The use of a large amount of vinegar tends to prevent spoilage.

Upsets In South Feature Opening Gridiron Battles

By The Associated Press.

Football's major college football teams inaugurated the 1933 season on a widespread front yesterday and for some of them, at least, the consequences were a trifle embarrassing.

Where they anticipated one-sided victories over apparent get-ups, the big fellows, especially in the south, found themselves locked in bitter struggle and in some cases completely overmatched.

Virginia Military, Virginia, and Clemson of the Southern conference and the University of Mississippi, member of the newly-organized Southeastern conference, all were either beaten or tied and Virginia Poly and North Carolina State, also Southern conference representatives, had to be content with one touch-down victories.

North Carolina State edged out Catawba, 7-0, and Virginia Poly beat Roanoke by a similar score but South Carolina ran over Wofford, 31-0, and Vanderbilt swamped Cumberland 50-0. Centenary, unbeaten last year, opened with an 18-0 triumph over Louisiana normal.

In the far west, M. J. (Clipper) Smith's Santa Clara outfit whipped the University of California for the second successive year, 7-0.

In the east, West Virginia's Mountaineers, with one of the heaviest teams in its history, could gain no better than a scoreless tie with Washington and Lee of the Southern conference. Villanova opened with an easy 45-0 conquest of Westchester (Penn.) Teachers. Davis and Elkins rolled up a 62-0 count on Langley field.

Kansas of the Big Six trounced Warrensburg (Mo.) Teachers 34-0 and Arkansas of the Southwest conference swamped the College of the Ozarks, 40-0.

Abilene College Whips Amarillo Badgers 14 To 0

AMARILLO, Sept. 23 (AP)—Maxwell, 150-pound halfback, broke loose twice in the second half today and the Abilene Christian college Wildcats defeated the Amarillo Junior college Badgers, 14-0, in the opening game of the season.

In the second play after the Christians got possession of the ball in the third quarter, Maxwell broke straight through the center of the line, evaded several tacklers, and sprinted 64 yards to a touchdown. In the fourth period, the fleet little back, dashed off runs of 15 and 10 yards, going over from the 10-yard line. Baldwin, fullback, made the score possible when he intercepted a Badger pass in mid-field and ran to the 35-yard line before going out of bounds.

Ezzell, substitute center, went in to the game after each touchdown, kicked goal and then left the field. The Badgers came within a yard of scoring in the first period, when a 58-yard drive was halted on the 1-yard line. Caldwell, Badger half also got loose in the fourth period, picking up 33 yards on a pass before he was chased out.

THOMPSON ASKS GOVERNMENT TO FORCE UNIFORM OIL PRICES

Strength Shown By Arkansas In 40 to 0 Victory

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Sept. 23 (AP)—The University of Arkansas Razorbacks showed strength in every phase of play today as they smothered the College of the Ozarks eleven in their opening game of the season, 40 to 0.

The Razorbacks began scoring in the first period when Ralph LaForge, speedy halfback, raced 78 yards for a touchdown.

Murphy, veteran quarterback, shot a long pass to P. Rucker, giant end, to chalk up another touchdown in the first period.

In the second and third periods Coach Fred Thomsen ran in two secondary teams who accounted for two more touchdowns. The first string returned to the game in the final period and pushed over two more scores.

The Razorback line allowed only one first down to be made by the College of the Ozarks.

WOULD DIVERT HALF OF OIL TO RAILROADS

BELIEVES STATE MIGHT GET INCREASED ALLOWANCE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (AP)—The federal oil control administration was asked today by E. O. Thompson, Texas railroad commissioner, to do everything possible to force payment of uniform prices for uniform grades of crude oil, subject to varying transportation costs.

Thompson, ending a series of conferences he believed averted a prospective cut in the Texas allowable production in favor of a possible increase, said the administration received his price suggestion with apparent sympathy.

"They promised to consider it with a view of determining what could be done," he said.

"It occurred to me the administration might define it as an unfair practice and thus prohibit the practice of paying more money for oil of a given gravity in one area than is paid in another.

"Of course, the rule requiring uniform prices would be subject to the factor of transportation cost—but to that alone."

The suggestion was aimed at a situation in West Texas fields where less is paid for oil than for the same gravity oil in other fields, he said.

Among other matters Thompson put before the administration was the request that it look into the possibility of diverting to railroads half of the oil moved by pipe lines. Restricted production and movement in East Texas particularly, he advised, had brought heavy unemployment among railroad men.

Discussing the question of the Texas allowable production, set at 975,300 barrels, the commissioner said if it could be shown that Texas had an immediate "firm consumer demand" for more oil, he believed the state might obtain an increased allowable. At present, the commission determines market demand for oil by taking nominations from refiners. Thompson said it might be found necessary to broaden the procedure so the commission could trace oil to find whether it was refined for an immediate consumptive demand.

Six Thousand See Rice Beat Javelinas 7-0

HOUSTON, Sept. 23 (AP)—A 60-yard drive, climaxed by Norman Letts' 10-yard touchdown gallop behind Fay Lagow's fine blocking, carried Coach Jack Meagher's Rice Institute Owls to a 7 to 0 win today over Coach Bud McCallum's Texas A. & I. Javelinas of Kingsville.

Six thousand customers, the largest crowd ever to witness a Rice Institute opening game here, were in the stands. Considering the heat, the Owls and Javelinas put on a great football game. Both teams were stubborn on defense. The visitors never threatened seriously.

That 1933 Meagher football machine, lightly regarded by most critics has possibilities. Considering they were playing their first game of the year, the Owls showed smooth team play.

He jumped to the wrong conclusion

Henry Ford
Dearborn, Mich.

One of the most surprising letters I have received in a long time came recently. A man wrote to ask why I had "abandoned the low-price field."

We found the writer of that letter. He had used only Ford cars; his present car had served him seven years; he hoped sometime to replace it with a new Ford;—but, as he saw the Ford V-8's grow thicker on the streets, and noted their style and action, he just naturally jumped to the conclusion that these must be expensive cars, and that therefore "Ford had gone out of the low-price field."

Besides that, "did not this new Ford have 8 cylinders?" "Did not that prove that the car was not low-priced—for are not all 8's expensive?"

Hence his letter. He complained that after 30 years of making cars for the low-price field I had deserted my old customers for those who were used to spending more money.

Of course, a price-list soon showed him his mistake.

He was helped to his hasty conclusion by seeing a new class of people riding in Ford cars the last four or five years. It was once believed that no one who could afford a high-priced car would use a low-priced car.

But that has changed. The matter of value now comes first, the matter of price second. America used to buy price-tags, now it demands quality.

That explains why tens of thousands of Americans who can afford to pay higher prices, prefer to buy the Ford at a lower price, because in the Ford V-8 they get the quality, the performance, the comfort, the style which are supposed to be exclusive in very high-priced cars.

To be low-priced, a car is not necessarily cheap. A really cheap or inferior car never could become low-priced. Not enough of them would be bought to make a low price possible.

That means that to keep my prices low I must remain in the high-quality field, for it is impossible to have the price right unless the car is right too.

What I have done is to adapt the expensive V-type 8-cylinder engine to the low-price field, making it simple, and less expensive to own and drive than the 4-cylinder cars were.

There is one thing I would make clear to my friends:—my field is the low-price field and will always remain so.
