BREVITORIALS We doubt that Pampans fully realize how famous the Kid band of the Woodrow Wilson school is becoming.

Mrs. Hill writes us requesting that we "express the great appreciation of the seventh TOTS THRILL district for the DELEGATES pleasure which the Kid band furnished to the state convention at Austin last week.

There is a tremendous amount of emotion packed into that last sentence. JOE HILL IS HILL, now grown up and known as "Joe" to his fellows, is with Admiral Byrd en route to the Antarctic ice and unknown lands which will be explored and

Well, with the protest of Corbitt making district 1 history, the dear fans will not lack for something to talk about this winter.

In the rebuttal contest of Fans vs. Fans, a good lawyer or two in the quarterback position will fill the bill in a big way.

Much can be said against mixing football and rules disputes but at least it is demonstrated that the gridiron game can be made intellectual.

By the time any player proves that he is eligible, he will be able to pass all his tests in civics and commercial law with ease. Even the coaches will have to read the rules hereafter, which is something that few coaches have been found doing.

No apologies are offered or asked in this game of seeing that all players observe the rules. Pampa is not "pouring it on" Amarillo. Amarillo would gladly reverse the procedure, and Lubbock would with right good grace turn the tables on both Pampa and Amarillo if the opportunity was right.

Regardless of which team eventually represents this section in the state race, every town and city ought to be big enough to back the Panhandle entry.

Hill and Mrs. Hill have the home on the West Texas Teachers college campus well fitted with globes and maps to follow the movements of their son on the Jacob Ruppert, Byrd's flagship. The Canyon youngster is Byrd's personal aid and may have the thrill of flight with him the unexplored expanses of south polar ice.

Young Hill tasted real danger soon after sailing from Boston. The ship he was on was overtaken by a BAD STORM, the engines were damaged, lifeboats were torn away, and the ship put back into port for repairs. It was waist-deep and more with water despite use of every

CORBITT ISSUE EXPLAINED FOR PUBLIC TODAY

RULES ARE PLAIN ON "ATHLETIC YEAR" BASIS

WHAT THE RULES SAY Article VII, Sec. 7, Forth-Year Rule—interpreting the following points in mind:

a. A student is allowed four separate Athletic Years of participation dating from the beginning of the season of the sport in which he first competes. b. "Participation" is taking part in any athletic contest, either as a substitute or as a regular player, while enrolled in the Eighth Grade or higher.

PAMPA fans and school officials stood firm today in their belief that Captain J. R. Corbitt of the Amarillo Golden Sandstorm is ineligible to compete in sports this term. Meanwhile Chairman W. A. McIntosh of the Interscholastic League district committee awaited a ruling from Roy B. Henderson, League head at Austin, before calling a committee session expected to be held at the Amarillo hotel Saturday evening.

Citing that under the rules an athlete is limited to four athletic years of participation, and that participation in any sport between September and June constitutes a full athletic year. Supt. R. B. Fisher today outlined Corbitt's career as follows:

- First year—1929-30, started football in eighth grade at Buchanan Junior high school. Second year—1930-31, played basketball for Amarillo high in second semester, thereby constituting an athletic year. Third year—1931-32, played football and basketball. Fourth year—1932-33, played football and basketball. Fifth and ineligible year—1933, a further ground of ineligibility was raised in the Pampa protest because Corbitt played basketball

Posses Hunting For Barrow And His Companions

DALLAS, Nov. 23 (AP)—North, central, and east Texas counties ordered posses today to search for Clyde Barrow, West Dallas desperado, who shot his way out of a trap near Dallas last night and escaped. Jess Sweeten, sheriff at Athens, and Fred Adams, sheriff at Kaufman, directed a hunt in their sectors after receiving a tip that Barrow and companions were hiding in the Trinity river bottoms near Pettum. Barrow as a boy lived in the western part of Henderson county. Rufus Peevehouse, Navarro county sheriff, directed a search from Corsicana. The car Barrow was reported to have taken from Fort Worth was seen in Corsicana just before daylight. All roads were guarded and homes of Barrow's relatives were guarded.

Place of Course In Public Speaking Moved to Library

Place of the preliminary meeting of prospective students in a class in public speaking for men has been changed from the high school cafeteria to the school library Friday evening, it was announced today. The course, if enough interest is shown to start it, will be taught by Prof. C. W. Batchelder of Canyon Teachers college. The meeting Friday will begin at 7:30 o'clock. Civic clubmen are particularly interested in the practical course.

I HEARD—

J. T. Crawford, one of Pampa's oldest citizens, giving a clear and descriptive account of the alleged ineligibility of Captain J. R. Corbitt of the Amarillo Sandies. Mr. Crawford is one of Pampa's most ardent football fans. He keeps well informed on state football news.

Dodging Crowd at Big Probe

Some senators may jump to conclusions—other through windows, when necessary. When Senator Tom Connally was obstructed by crowds from attending the U. S. Senate committee investigation of Senator John Overton in New Orleans, he climbed a fire escape and leaped through a women's washroom, as shown here, to reach the hearing. Senator Connally is chairman of the inquiry.

ILLNESS OF PRANCER, ONE OF SANTA'S REINDEER, MAY DELAY HIS TRIP TO PAMPA

Frisky Little Animal Moans With Pain After Eating Too Much Candy. The children were nestled, all snug in their beds, while visions of sugar plums danced in their heads; And mama in her kerchief, and I in my cap Had just settled our brains for a long winter nap; When out on the lawn there arose such a clatter, I sprang from my bed to see what was the matter. Away to the window I flew like a flash, Tore open the shutters and threw up the sash. —Moore. (To Be Continued)

SANTA CLAUSLAND, Nov. 23.—Santa Claus, patron saint of childhood, today announced that he would start immediately to Pampa, Texas, in the United States, where the Junior chamber of commerce has decided to honor him in a special parade December 6 at 3 o'clock. You could tell that Santa was overjoyed. He always likes to go to Pampa, and has took part in two parades there in other years.

But whether Santa Claus can start tomorrow was uncertain today and here's why: PRANCER IS SICK! Prancer, the frisky little reindeer which leads the major team, today was moaning and groaning because he found a sack of candy which fell off one of Santa's trucks, and HE ATE TOO MUCH!

But Santa wasn't worried about it much. He just laughed, and what do you think he did? Why, he gave Prancer a big dose of castor oil! Then the little deer began to get better right away. But you should have seen Prancer's funny expression and how he wigged his delicate little nose.

Response to the appeal to businessmen to make Santa Day decorations and the big parade possible December 6 has been excellent, it was reported to THE NEWS today by Marvin Lewis, finance chairman. Although the canvass is just starting, the early reports were very encouraging. The lights this year will include a block south of the railroad tracks. Holly will be used with the lights to give Pampa a most attractive Christmas appearance.

Meanwhile, work is starting on the religious and historical floats which will make this year's parade of interest to old and young alike. Various churches, clubs, and Scout organizations will enter the floats in a prize contest. Another contest will be held for merchants' show windows.

Santa day plans are in charge of various committees of the Junior chamber of commerce.

TOUHY HAS ALIBI ST PAUL, Nov. 23 (AP)—Evidence that Roger Touhy, one of the chief defendants charged with the $100,000 William Hamm Jr. kidnaping, was in Des Plaines, Ill., the day the millionaire brewer was abducted was given in federal court today. J. C. Crawford, deputy sheriff of Chicago municipal court, testified he talked with Touhy on the telephone about 6 p. m. June 15, the day Hamm was spirited away from near his brewery here.

'SOLUTION OF MURDER LIES BETWEEN PAIR'

STOMACH EXAMINATION INDICATES FLAW IN DOCTOR'S STORY

CHICAGO, Nov. 23 (AP)—Earle Wynekoop, whose 23-year-old wife was found slain in his mother's home Tuesday, returned from Kansas City today and was arrested. The young widower walked down an alley to the rear door of his home. A few minutes later he was hustled out of the front, minus his hat, overcoat and suitcase, and taken in a squad car to the Fillmore street police station to be questioned. Wynekoop, who had been apprised of the sensational death of his wife while in Kansas City yesterday, had returned by train without being noticed by police who guarded every station. Chief of Detectives Wm. Schoemaker asserted today that chemists and detectives had turned up evidence which "practically established" that Rheta Gardner Wynekoop was shot to death after partaking of the Tuesday evening dinner at the Wynekoop home and that "the murder was committed by someone in the household."

It had been reported that Dr. Wynekoop found the body after dinner. Chemical examination of the contents of the young woman's stomach divulged undigested food served at the meal which Dr. Wynekoop and Miss Edna Hennessy said they ate at 6 o'clock the night of the killing with Rheta absent. Dr. Wynekoop and members of her household were virtual prisoners over night in the old mansion that was the scene of the bizarre murder in her surgical room. They had been released from police custody, but two officers were stationed in the home throughout the night. "The America quoted an unnamed attorney as stating: "Dr. Catherine Wynekoop (sister of Earle) has positive information that her brother spent the night of the murder in Chicago." This, however, conflicted with statements by Stanley Young, companion of young Wynekoop, who said they drove to Kansas City Tuesday.

Chief Shoemaker, after receiving reports from special investigators assigned to the case, said: "These statements are pretty serious, but I am sure we are on the right track. The solution of the murder, I am sure, lies between the mother and the husband."

LeFors Provides Seats For Game There Friday

Assurance that there will be plenty of seats for all at the Pirate-Tiger bi-sectional football game at LeFors Friday afternoon at 2:45 o'clock was given THE NEWS last night by M. B. Brooks of the school faculty. The athletic association is placing seats around the field for the occasion. The dope is about even between the two teams, leaving the result a matter of power and skill and luck.

Workers in Roll Call Urged to Report Progress

While greatly pleased by the progress in the annual Red Cross roll call, Chairman J. E. Cunningham today pointed out that the ultimate result rests with the workers who have not yet covered their territory and made their reports. Mr. Cunningham also stressed the importance of follow-up work to see those who were not at home when first calls were made. He urges that everyone make an attempt to canvass assigned territory. In addition, it is important that workers report their progress to headquarters in the B. C. D. office. In no other way can the success of the drive be measured.

Woman 'Gets Connally Told'

She also charged that the committee had not made an effort to bring out the facts about campaign expenditures of the Overton campaign and requested the committee to recall Huey P. Long and his political treasurer, Seymour Weiss, and make them tell of the finances of the Overton campaign. She also insisted that the treasurer of the Choctaw club, the political organization in New Orleans, known as the old regulars and headed by Mayor Walmsley, be called to give similar testimony. Her request precipitated a heated

HOOVER NAMED IN SCHEME TO RETIRE W. FOX

Movie Magnate Tells Details of Deals With Mayer

Associated Press Staff Writer—WASHINGTON, Nov. 23 (AP)—William Fox told senate investigators today he was forced out of the movie business by a conspiracy of bakers and their related negotiations with noted republicans, including President Hoover, to prevent prosecution under the anti-trust laws. The retired movie magnate told a story of paying $2,000,000 to Louis B. Mayer, California republican leader, in settlement of a previous claim and then getting a promise from Mayer to aid him at the justice department.

The middle-aged, bald-headed man who rose from poverty to great wealth, said Mayer was suggested to him by Claudius Huston, then chairman of the republican national committee, and James Francis Burke, the committee's general counsel.

Before purchasing controlling stock in Loew's Inc. in 1928, the witness said he conferred with William J. Donovan, former assistant attorney general, to learn whether the justice department would object. He said he was informed later by the attorney general's office it would be "all right" for him to buy the stock.

When Hoover was inaugurated, Fox added, he became alarmed at what he called the hostile attitude of the new administration. He had expected Donovan to be named attorney general, he said, but instead that post went to William D. Mitchell.

"I was told by a friend there was a man by the name of Claudius Huston, who might be able to help," Fox said.

WORLD RECORD IS CLAIMED IN SETTLE FLIGHT

BALLOON ASCENDED TO HEIGHT OF 61,237 FEET

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23 (AP)—A calibration of the barometer carried by Lieut. Commander Settle in his stratosphere flight showed the balloonists had ascended 61,237 feet. The National Aeronautic association, in announcing the figure, said it would be forwarded to the Federation Aeronautique Internationale as a new world height record. Ray Cooper of the N. A. A. said that although the Soviet stratosphere balloonists had claimed a height of more than 62,000 feet, the U. S. S. R. was not a member of the Federation Aeronautique Internationale and that official proof of their height was held by that international organization. Officially, Cooper said, the 63,153 feet ascended by Auguste Piccard, the Belgian scientist, had stood as the world record.

The ceiling reached by Settle, and Major Chester L. Fordney of the marines was a distinct surprise to officials here. Both Settle and Fordney told newsmen the visible gauge on their barometer had indicated a height of around 59,000 feet.

Young Preacher To Open Revival In City Tonight

Evangelist Wallace G. Ross of Nebraska will conduct a revival meeting at the Full Gospel Temple, located at the corner of Brown and Cuyler streets, beginning tonight. Rev. Ross is a young man with wide experience in his ministerial work, having begun preaching at the age of 15 years. He has conducted campaigns in many cities of the southwest and middle west. He is known as an able orator with a message for today's problems. Special music will be featured at each service. He and Mrs. Ross have come here from South Dakota, where he recently completed a series of revivals. Services will begin daily at 7:30 p. m.

Their Kill: 8 Deer, Four Bear, 9 Turkeys, Fish

Deer, bear, and turkeys are plentiful in Old Mexico, Walter Liebman of the Pampa Ice company informs friends here. Mr. Liebman, Paul Shelby of Waco but formerly of Pampa, and Charlie Polshemus of Harlingen, have just returned from a trip in which they bagged 4 bear, 8 deer and 9 turkeys, not to mention all kinds of fish, some of which have been received by friends here. The party hunted in the mountains surrounding the Chivarrat ranch 80 miles from Villa Ahuna and at the headwaters of the San Rodrigo river. Many lions were sighted but the party had no dogs with them. They spent 12 days in the mountains.

TAX COLLECTOR SENTENCED

VERNON, Tex., Nov. 23 (AP)—C. D. Greene, tax collector, was sentenced to five years by jury last night on charges of misapplication of funds aggregating $55,000. The sentence will run concurrently with three and two-year sentences already assessed. He was indicted in seven cases but four were dismissed. A $4,000 appeal bond was posted.

WEST TEXAS: Fair, somewhat colder in the Panhandle tonight; Friday, fair, colder in north portion. High pressure, central over Utah, continues over the western Rocky Mountain region, with associated temperatures. Clear skies are general over the southwest. Temperature ranges here yesterday were 40 to 62 degrees, Fahrenheit.

JUDICIAL EXPLANATION

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Things were a bit vice versa in the superior court where Judge Walter Perry Johnson presided. It was the judge's turn to say "you see it was this way." Everybody was curious about the jurist's black eye and bruised nose. He said he got it when the iron door over a sidewalk freight elevator sprang open and knocked him down on his way to court.

MOST BUSINESS MEN ARE GOOD CITIZENS. In all the talk now current about need for development of a new spirit in American business, it is important that we do not make the mistake of judging all American business men by the spectacle which a very few have made of themselves.

One of the great purposes of the NRA program is to make possible some sort of effective, broad-gauge cooperation among business and industrial units. It is perfectly true that our pre-NRA system let greed go unchecked, and that the unrestrained working of that greed was in no small measure responsible for the depression.

But we could not make a greater mistake than to assume that the rank and file of business men should be included in the indictment which properly has been leveled at a comparatively small number.

For example, such men as Wiggin and Mitchell admit to a senate committee that their prime interest all along was to feather their own nests at no matter what cost to others; and Secretary of Agriculture Henry Wallace announces that "we need a new type of business man" who is willing to subordinate a part of his own interests for the general good.

True enough. Yet the Mitchells and Wiggins were, after all, the exception. The average business man is as good an American citizen as anyone else.

He is not on the job for his health, of course—who is?—but he does have a very definite and strong desire to be something more than just a buyer and seller of merchandise, and his goal is not simply the building of a fat bank balance.

He wants, in fact, what all really public-spirited men want—to be a part of a healthy, co-operative community in which it is possible for men to render a genuine service in return for the money they get.

And let it be said to the honor of American business men that the overwhelming majority have kept this desire in mind through the hard years of the depression.

The senate disclosures about blind greed in high places in the business world have been extremely ugly, indubitably. Somehow we have to rearrange things so that the style of the Mitchells and the Wiggins is cramped after this.

But the man who tries to argue that all business men are cut to the Mitchell-Wiggin pattern, the man who says that the business class as a whole stands condemned because of the faults of a few—that man simply does not know what he is talking about.

Anthony P. Zariengo, deputy district attorney, then pointed out Joe can be sent back to his native country if he is sentenced to a year or more in prison. So now it is up to the trial judge to determine if Joe goes to Mexico or to the penitentiary.

Gray county loans totaled 78, amounting to $8,895. Of these, 30 have been paid, involving $3,431.23.

It is not generally known that many scamen resigned their posts after that experience. Dr. Hill telephoned his son, asking tactfully whether Joe would like to withdraw. It was a non-committal question, but it drew an unconditional answer—Joe was still eager to go with Byrd regardless of danger. Byrd is his hero—has been for years—and though a land-lubber, Joe is learning to be useful aboard ship. He sees a worshipping element in storms at sea.

Among the pictures the youth sent back was one showing him kneeling with his right arm around a big dog, his left holding the pipe he has adopted for solace in the long, quiet days in the ice. The dogs, vital necessities in the polar zones, are described as "mean as the devil" and sullen. One of them bit him recently, but he is "on good terms" with most of them. Press dispatches reveal that the expedition will reach New Zealand, one of the distant intermediate points, about December 5. Members of the expedition have the privilege of sending back radiograms, which will be the only mode of communication after the ice is reached. We know of a certain young woman who gets letters from Joe, but we know better than to try to obtain possession of them from her!

SCREEN HITS

BY HUBBARD KEAVY.
HOLLYWOOD—Real and unreal: Lillian Harvey, dainty English actress, cold, but the weather has nothing to do with her attitude. She saw her first football game the other day and, despite expert advice by Gene Raymond, she couldn't understand what all the shouting was about.

What puzzles her most is why "they don't take the ball and run with it to the nearest goal, or why, since they call it football, they don't kick more." She thinks the game is tame, compared to ice hockey and rugby.

Hereafter, says Lillian, when she goes to a football game, she'll take several pillows along and perhaps a novel to read at such times when the rooting section ends its entertainment and the game is on. The pageantry of the rooting section she thinks is splendid.

A Working Vacation.
Victor Jory, who was "found" by the movies in a play at the nationally famous Pasadena community playhouse, is returning there for what he calls a "two weeks' vacation." And he's taking with him, as his supporting cast in "The Spider," seven young movie players, including Howard Lally, Susan Kaaren, and June Visek.

Warner Baxter, who is something of an amateur magician, says he hasn't been practicing his act lately. Must be because nobody in Hollywood wears a hat.

The quartet who compose the Yale Puppets, now in the movies, are named Brown, Burnett, Brandon, and Brown. They took the name "Yale" after a season at Professor Baker's workshop.

No Cowboy Stuff.
George O'Brien will wear 16 outfits in his next picture, but there isn't a cowboy hat or a pair of chaps in the lot. For the first time in years George isn't starring in a western.

There is a possibility that Adrienne Ames and Bruce Cabot, recent newcomers, will be teamed in a picture.

Says Cabot, who is learning to be an actor: "I'd like nothing better than to be in a picture with Adrienne. I do my best work when I can be absolutely natural. Working with Adrienne would give me an opportunity to be just that, and it would also prove a great inspiration."

To date, "The Three Little Pigs" has had about 25,000 play dates in this country. The feature picture that gets between two and three thousand showings is considered to be doing good business.

STEADY NERVES—NO QUESTION.
LOS ANGELES (AP)—J. O. Bircks, range master at the police pistol target range here, often wondered "what effect a bullet would have on a policeman's nerve." He found out.

A stray bullet pierced his thigh and while he was waiting for the ambulance he tried out his aim, making a score of 49 out of a possible 50.

OPPOSITION TO GOLD POLICY GROWS DAILY

JAMES WARBURG JOINS DR. SPRAGUE IN ATTACK

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23 (AP)—Pyrotechnical debate failed to develop indications of a change today in the administration's monetary policy as Henry Morgenthau, Jr., new acting secretary of the treasury, prepared to talk over latest developments with President Roosevelt.

Morgenthau leaves tonight for Warm Springs, Georgia, to keep an engagement with the president. No authoritative official here had forecast whether the decision at Warm Springs would be for continued administration silence or a counter word-offensive to meet that set off by Dr. O. M. W. Sprague's resignation and criticism of the policy as leading to "unrestrained inflation."

Some consideration was given to President Roosevelt's speech last night in which he talked of fighting the "powerful," the "intolerant" and the "obstinate" for "the things which we believe to be right." There were intimations at Warm Springs that steps would be taken soon to aid silver.

Two things were awaited with particular interest, meanwhile: The price fixed today for REO purchases of domestic gold and the Federal Reserve board's weekly statement late today of government bond purchases in the last seven days.

Sprague, in resigning as treasury adviser, argued that gold-buying depreciated government bonds, and that if this were continued federal securities could not be sold, making necessary the issuance of new currency to meet running expenses.

Morgenthau disclosed that money deposited with the treasury from postal savings, farm credit administration, federal deposit insurance and debt sinking fund sources was being used to buy government bonds supporting their price. The bonds specify that this money be invested in government securities. That will be done through the Federal Reserve bank in New York.

Last week purchases by all Federal Reserve banks with their own funds were $2,000,000 as against an average of $1,000,000 for the several weeks immediately preceding and about $35,000,000 just before that.

The latest to align himself with Dr. Sprague was James P. Warburg, heretofore, at least, a participant in many economic discussions with the president.

In Philadelphia, Warburg, a banker, said he must express "reluctant" opposition to "some of the methods by which he (the president) seeks to attain his goal, some of the misconceptions that seem to becloud his purpose."

At the same meeting of the American academy of political science, Professor Irving Fisher of Yale, held the president's money policy "substantially right." The objective, he continued, is "stabilization but not stabilization relative to gold nor in terms of foreign exchange."

Senator Thomas (D., Okla.), drafter of inflation legislation, remarked at that meeting, too, that he was "as much opposed" to "improper" inflation "as any money changer in Wall Street."

Warburg reminded that before the 1929 stock market collapse, Fisher in several statements said stocks were not too high.

He apologized for quoting Fisher's statements but said he thought it was time somebody showed that the banker was not always wrong and the professor always right.

Mrs. Mabel Webber of Pasadena will arrive this afternoon for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Finley and family.

Youth No Billed In Slaying of His Sweetheart

FRANKLIN, Nov. 23 (AP)—Erwin B. Conway, senior student at Baylor University, has been no billed by the Robertson county grand jury on a murder complaint which charged him with shooting his fiancée, Miss Ledella Hammond.

Conway and Miss Hammond were motoring from Kasse to Bryan the night of June 16 when they were halted by a woman standing beside a truck blocking an underpass on the highway 10 miles south of Hearne, according to Conway.

Forced to stop, Conway said he was robbed and then both he and Miss Hammond were shot. A bullet penetrated the girl's heart and Conway was hit in the shoulder.

Rangers and other investigators working on the case for several weeks tried to apprehend the persons Conway described as the slayers of Miss Hammond. Finally County Attorney John R. Grace filed the complaint against Conway.

Conway has repeatedly declared he was innocent of the charge and the parents of the slain girl have expressed their belief in his innocence.

Mastodon Tusk Is Found at McLean

MCLEAN, Nov. 23 (AP)—A tusk that belonged to one of the hairy mastodons of prehistoric days in the Panhandle recently was unearthed in a gravel pit near McLean.

The tusk, 7 1/2 feet long, was curved along the entire length. It was eight inches in diameter at one end, tapering to about three inches at the other. It was in a good state of preservation, although workmen broke it into four pieces in removing it from the pit.

Volunteer Barley Is Found In Head

Volunteer wheat in head has been found near Amarillo but G. M. Counts who lives three miles west of Laketon has "gone the Amarillo community one better" and has a heavy stance of volunteer barley in head. Mr. Counts sent a sample of the barley to The NEWS this morning.

The sampe has straws 18 inches high with well filled heads three inches long and nearly ripe. The sampe is healthy and thick. Mr. Counts has several acres of the volunteer. He harvested a good crop from the field.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, and often breaks out in blotches. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely. But don't look for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. MISS GRADY AND ROY WILMESMEIER MARRIED EARLY TODAY

CEREMONY IS READ AT HOLY SOULS CHURCH

A RECEPTION AT THE RECTORY FOLLOWS SERVICE

A BEAUTIFUL early morning ceremony at Holy Souls Catholic church united in marriage Miss Mary Grady and Roy Wilmesmeier today. The Rev. Joseph Wonderly, pastor, read the service at 7 o'clock. Yellow chrysanthemums and fern formed the floral background in the church, and the bride party stood before an altar of fern. They entered to the strains of the "Lohengrin" wedding march, played by Mrs. May Foreman Carr.

Miss Grady was attired in black velvet, with a white velvet hat and accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of yellow roses and lilies of the valley.

Brother Gives Bride. She was attended by Miss Ella Mason, who wore a modish fall dress of brozene with brown accessories. Her brother, Earl Grady of Kansas City, gave the bride in marriage. Carol McMurry was the groom's attendant.

Following the ceremony, solemn high mass was conducted. Mrs. J. W. Garman sang "Ave Maria," and other solo parts were sung by Mrs. Lynn Boyd, Mrs. Ed Bissett, and Mrs. William Dea.

An informal wedding reception was held at the rectory, when Mrs. Hamp Waddell poured coffee at a table appointed in yellow and white leaves for Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmesmeier left immediately for Dallas, where they will spend a week. The bride's traveling dress was of blue, with brown accessories.

Guests at the wedding included his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Wilmesmeier of Slaton, and Mrs. J. W. Garman. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Bessie Grady, and has been bookkeeper at Worley hospital for some time. She was graduated from Augusta high school and attended Kansas State college before coming to Pampa.

She has been prominent in musical circles here, is a member of the Treble Clef club and an organist for the choir of Holy Souls church.

Mr. Wilmesmeier came to Pampa from Slaton, where he was graduated from high school. He is business manager of Worley Hospital.

INDIA IS TOPIC FOR CHRISTIAN COUNCIL MEET

Group Five Presents Special Night Program

Women of India were portrayed in drama and story in the program presented by group five of the Christian Women's Council last evening. All women of the church were invited as guests for the evening meeting.

Mrs. J. L. Lester was in charge of the program, which opened with violin solos, Oriental and Modern, by Miss Hermine Stover with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Ethel Powell.

Miss Florence Jones presented the devotional topic "Mondays With the Master." Songs by a quartet, Mesdames W. A. Brattan, J. B. Townsend, Fritchle, and Miss Josephine Thomas, followed.

A talk, India and the World, was given by Mrs. James Todd Jr. Mrs. C. E. Hutchins directed the play, Weary Womanhood, with a cast including Mesdames T. C. Humphreys, F. H. Meskimen, John Beverly, Dick Roach, Misses Madeline Gantz and Betty Jo Townsend.

New Three-Quarter Length Coats Are Fashioned of Rich Fabrics

Rich black velvet makes this three-quarter length afternoon coat to which Molyneux adds the luxury of an ermine lining and trim. The same fur trims the black velvet toque, while white vollets on a black frock complete the black and white scheme.

BY RITA FERRIS, Associated Press Fashion Editor.

PARIS (AP)—The three-quarter length coat is back again, strongly entrenched in fashion's favor.

It is popular among the new fur models for all-around wear, appears in wool luncheon time ensembles, goes to tea in the shape of velvet or fur and steps out again in the evening modeled of lane or velvet.

The knee-length coat of fur belongs distinctly to the new season. Black and golden brown seal, muskrat, pony, astrakhan and galyak are all used for the models which are generally cut to hang loose. Their collars and sleeves are simple and trim.

Evening wraps include many three-quarter-length models based on two different designs. One of them, generally designed of velvet, hangs loose in the back with a jaunty air; the other, often fashioned of lame, is worn swathed closely about the hips. The first occasionally is hemmed in fur.

Seven-eighth and three-quarter length coats give chic to many an afternoon ensemble. Many of the three-quarter length fabric coats are lined with fur, such as squirrel or pin, to match the collar and cuffs.

FOOD WILL BE ADDED TO SKIT PROGRAM

LITTLE THEATER IS TO SPONSOR CHARITY PROGRAM

LITTLE THEATER members will make their contribution to charity in the form of staple food for Pampa's needy, to be collected at a "cabbage theater" Monday evening.

Entrance to the city hall auditorium, where the program is to be presented, will be by canned or packaged food. Members hope to collect a large quantity of needed food in this way.

Each of the men's service clubs and women's study clubs has been asked to furnish a program number. Representatives from these organizations will meet Friday evening at 7:30 in the city hall club room, to arrange the program.

Skits and humorous entertainment numbers are being prepared by the groups, and only the program order is to be decided upon. Mrs. E. B. Emerson is in general charge of the program, with Mrs. Frank Perry and Ed Damon as committee members with her.

Slays Rival in Husband's Bedroom

A bullet ended a Texas triangle, when Mrs. L. H. Boone, left, police say, lured her rival, Mrs. Pearl Hall, center, to the Boone home in Dallas, led her to Boone's bedroom, forced the pair to admit intimacy, and then shot down Mrs. Hall. Self-defense is claimed by Mrs. Boone, who told police that Mrs. Hall advanced toward her, reaching inside her coat as if to draw a gun. Boone, a Dallas hardware buyer, is shown at the right.

Old Pal!

You wouldn't pick him for a pal, even if his name is "Chummy." But he hasn't an ounce of pep, Doc Wals, Hot Springs showman, indicates to a Los Angeles court, where the vigor and length of the big python were at issue in a suit. Courtroom spectators stood agape as Doc gave "Chummy" a near-kiss—keeping a tight grip on his neck, incidentally.

ALL-STAR BOXING CARD TONIGHT TO FEATURE ADY, MURDOCK, REGAL, ZILITIS

CONTRACTS OF ALL FIGHTERS ARE RECEIVED

ATTRACTION TO START AT 8:15 O'CLOCK AT PLA-MOR

Contracts of all fighters to be seen in the prize ring at the Pla-Mor auditorium tonight have been received by Promoter B. W. Kelly, who has arranged an all star attraction to start at 8:15 o'clock. There will be little fellows, medium size boys, and big fellows.

The 10-round main event, three-minute rounds, will bring Charlie Ady, 115, Collinsville, Ill., against Thurman Murdock, 117, Berger, the two little men are classed as the hardest hitters in the game for their weight and anything might happen. Murdock has met such well known fighters as Baby Manila, Dave Ado, Jay Ward, Frank Garcia, Ben Gomez, and other top-notchers. Ady has been boxing in the north, where he was a finalist in the golden glove tournament two years ago.

The six-round semi-final speaks for itself when the names of Pete Regal, 133, Berger, and Eddie Zilitis, 135, Collinsville, Ill., are mentioned. These two wild-swinging punchers will attempt to go the distance in a slug-fest. Regal is known for his ability to give and take while Zilitis is more of a boxer but a hard hitter as well.

Babe Ruth, Amarillo wild man who looks one way and hits another, will tangle with Kid Stamper of Macon, Ga., in a special 4-round battle. If the bout goes the distance it will be a surprise to local fans. Both boys hit like trip hammers but can take plenty.

Skeet Ford and Leo Stanley will open the card.

The shouts and angry exchange at the U. S. senate investigation of the election of Senator John H. Overton at New Orleans, had their reaction on Senator Huey P. Long, a witness. His fist clenched, his jaw set, this is how the Kingfish eyed witnesses.

GREAT GROUND EXPECTED AT LEFORS GAME

PIRATES EXPECTED TO FLASH SURPRISING OFFENSE

One of the outstanding Class B high school football games in the Panhandle will be played at LeFors tomorrow when the LeFors Pirates meet the Groom Tigers in a sectional game. The whistle will blow at 2:45 o'clock and the two teams, primed to the limit, will battle for the right to meet Dumas for sectional honors.

Both teams have strong lines with fleet backfields, hence much open play is predicted. The teams met in a pre-season game with the Pirates winning by one touchdown, but since that time Groom has come to the front with a hard-charging attack. Coach A. J. Hill, captain of the Sul Ross Teachers last year, has developed a wonderful combination of speed and power which was at its peak last week when Groom defeated Pathhandle for the sectional championship.

The Pirates' work-out in the last few days has been behind closed doors, so it can not be determined just what Coach Duncan has up his sleeve. It is believed, however, that the Pirates will flash a brand new offense when they meet the Tigers Friday.

It is a known fact that the Pirates have left their early season tactics in using power plays. In the Pampa game, the Pirate backfield went back in a long punt formation, whereas in all other games they had used the short punt. Another thing that leads fans to believe that Coach Duncan will score a surprise for Groom is the fact that in the Wheeler and Pampa games he has started players who have speed, but who have insufficient weight to play the line.

Temporary grand stand seats have been erected and one of the largest crowds ever to see a high school football game in LeFors is expected. Hundreds of Pampa fans plan to drive to LeFors for the big game.

Gorillas Will Play Miami Grid Team Tomorrow

The Gorilla football team will not go to Miami tomorrow afternoon for the last game of the season. The boys turned their suits in yesterday and next week will start basketball under Coaches Harry Kelley and E. N. Danner.

Miami called the game off Tuesday afternoon. The return meeting between Miami and Gorilla teams will be a basketball game instead of football. The Gorillas have had a good season and the boys learned lots of football. The Gorillas defeated Miami the first time the teams met.

JUNIORS BEAT HOPKINS 12-0 IN GRID GAME

HARVESTERS' BROTHERS ON JUNIOR HIGH ELEVEN

The Pampa Junior high football team, coached by Tom "Red" Herod, defeated the Hopkins team 12 to 0 yesterday at Harvesters park. The team of little fellows scrapped for the full time with honors even most of the time. However, the Pampa boys took advantage of every break and mixed with some smart football scored twice.

Floyd Stevens, small brother of Bert Stevens, star halfback on the Harvesters squad, scored the first touchdown on a pretty jaunt that ended across the goal line. His sidestepping reminded fans of his big brother. He carried the ball 14 yards through a broken field. Benjamin Horn, big fullback, plowed for the other Pampa touchdown.

The future Harvesters showed a wonderful knowledge of football for youngsters. Seven members of the Junior high team "have or had" brothers who starred on the Pampa Harvesters football team. Price Green, brother of Clovis Green now with Texas Christian university, was at tackle for the Pampa boys. He has a brother on the Gorilla team, also playing tackle. J. R. Green, not related, plays tackle for Harvesters, while Clovis Green is a tackle in college. W. M. Mumford, halfback, is a brother of Fred Mumford of the Harvesters.

Schmidt Thinks Porkers Should Forfeit Games

FORT WORTH, Nov. 23. (P)—In the opinion of Coach Francis A. Schmidt of Texas Christian university, the games in which Ulysses (Heinie) Schleuter, ineligible tackle, participated for the University of Arkansas should be forfeited. The present situation at the school is the result of a "new deal" in athletics instituted at the school last year, the Purple coach believes.

Schleuter, who played against the Frogs and Baylor, was a member of the Nebraska football team last season and earned a varsity letter, it was revealed. According to reports from Arkansas he entered that school last year, transferring only his credit from a Missouri junior college.

"Arkansas put in a 'new deal' last season," Coach Schmidt said, "and it was announced in their newspapers. B. N. Wilson, who had headed the eligibility committee at the school for 20 years, was removed and a new committee approved. A 'training house' at which players could live and eat with little expense was installed. The state was combated for material, especially from junior colleges.

SCOUT NEWS

Troop 15, Holt Hamlett, scribble The troop meeting last week was in the form of a luncheon in the dining room at the First Presbyterian church. The Rev. A. A. Hyde presided. A business session was called to order by Otto Rice, senior patrol leader, after the luncheon. Committeeman Frank Foster gave an interesting talk on etiquette. Bob Surratt, Fred Irving and Wilbur Irving then put on a skit. Several boxing matches followed with Fred Gordon, Jack Allison, Melvin Qualls, Otto Rice and Don Foster. The meeting closed with the Scout benediction.

RAMBLERS ARE RESTING FOR TROJAN GAME

ANDERSON BELIEVES HE HAS SECRET FOR A SCORING PUNCH

NEW YORK, Nov. 23. (P)—While there may be bigger crowds at other games Saturday, there's no lack of enthusiasm in either camp as preparations for the Army-Navy football battle at Philadelphia Saturday go on.

At practice sessions every cadet or midshipman who wasn't busy on the field has been present to cheer the players on. West Point broke out yesterday with an array of banners, painted, sheets and so forth exhorting the cadets to "beat Navy."

Today Army was scheduled for a light drill before leaving for the Pine Valley golf club, near Philadelphia, where the team will remain until Saturday.

Navy, hopeful after its great showing against Princeton last week, pinned most of its hopes on the kicking of Bill Clark. The Midshipmen stressed defensive work in yesterday's scrimmage against the squad but it appeared that Clark would have to get more than an even break in the booking duel with Jack Buckler if Navy was to go far.

Offensive power and tactics were the chief concern of Harvard and Yale in their preparations for their 52nd clash. Yale, drilling behind locked gates in contrast to the turn-outs at West Point and Annapolis, worked on some new spread formations together with a drill on defense against Crimson passes.

Coach Hank Anderson is about convinced that what Notre Dame needed all season to provide a scoring punch was rest.

The week prior to the Northwestern game, the Ramblers didn't engage in one scrimmage because of a consistent down fall of snow and they responded by flashing impressive power to defeat the Wildcats. So far this week, during the preparation for Southern California's invasion, they have had only one scrimmage and that's all they are

Loughran Wins After Referee Stops Battle

NEW YORK, Nov. 23. (P)—With the aid of one of the most surprising actions ever taken in a New York ring, Tommy Loughran, the veteran boxer from Philadelphia, has demonstrated that the young giant, Ray Impellittere, isn't ready to become a heavyweight title contender yet.

The big moment of the battle, which otherwise was mostly a demonstration of Loughran's well-known boxing skill, came in the sixth round. A right uppercut caught his mouth and cut it badly. Referee Pete Hartley wasted no time about halting the proceedings. After one look at the stream of blood pouring down Loughran's chest he raised Impellittere's hand in token of victory.

At this point General John J. Phelan, chairman of the New York State Athletic commission, took a hand. Fighting his way through the howling crowd of 6,000 to the ringside, he ordered the fight continued.

No one at the ringside could recall a similar situation in which a commissioner had over-ruled a referee.

eree. Tommy was patched up between rounds and promptly lit into his oversize opponent and never stopped punching until the fight ended.

Loughran weighed 185 3-4 pounds. Impellittere 255.

Lindbergh Will Fly to U. S. By Way of Africa

WASHINGTON (AP)—One of the new evening dresses with a high neckline and long, tight-fitted sleeves was worn by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt to a recent concert. Her gown was of pale blue crepe. Over it she wore a short, white fur jacket.

HORTA, Azores, Nov. 23. (AP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, who with Mrs. Lindbergh left here today in their big monoplane, said shortly before the takeoff that he planned to return to America by way of Cape Verde, Africa.

"We contemplate reaching the American continent," said Col. Lindbergh, "by way of St. Michael Island, Madeira, Lisbon, and Cape Verde."

The route to America by way of Cape Verde already is being flown by the German foreign Air Line company, Lufthansa. That company uses a base steamer, the Westfalen, which is kept in position midway between Africa and South America to serve as a base for transatlantic airmail flights.

Regular service over this route has not yet been inaugurated but it is understood that such a step is contemplated for the near future.

The Lindberghs are conducting a survey of proposed transatlantic routes for Pan-American Airways, the American International Flying company.

PONTA DELGADA, Azores, Nov. 23. (AP)—Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh, flying from Horta, arrived here this afternoon.

Forbidden Valley

—By WILLIAM BYRON MOWERY

SYNOPSIS: Instead of taking the good job that had been offered him when he came down from a winter in the sub-Arctic to Edmonton, Curt Tennyson has gone to the aid of A. K. Marlin, his former chief in the Royal Mounted. He is tracking down Igor Karakhan, international crook, who apparently has disappeared into the wilds of the Ellmore. Curt, with Paul St. Claire, has landed at the tiny backwoods as a prospector, and now suddenly finds his plans in danger. He has seen a girl; at dusk, paddled to an island nearby to fish. A drunken half-breed has followed her. Curt dislikes making an enemy of anyone—but the girl is in danger.

wise—no? You said me, we stay here on this little island. Sonya's heart stopped beating. Her canoe, down the landwash—he had found it, wrecked it! She was caught, as helpless as a creature in a trap. On beyond the pines two shadowy figures unexpectedly appeared out of the darkness of the spruces. Sonya thought they were confederates of the breed. Without a second's hesitation she whirled toward the water edge. She could hardly swim a stroke, but rather than remain there with those three she meant to strike out for the nearest island two hundred yards away. A sharp voice called to the half-breed "I say, fellow, what the devil do you think you're doing here?" The voice stopped Sonya in her tracks. "Oh—so!" It was a wordless cry of thankfulness. She peered at the two figures as they came on. Strangers they were. And that sharp commanding voice was also strange. They must be the two prospectors who had come to Russian Lake that evening. The breed jerked around and stared blankly at the pair. With his brain all muddled by liquor, he did not understand at first this sudden turn to things, but it did dawn on him finally. Caught dead to rights, he crouched like a cornered animal, his hands flexing and unflexing. And then, as those two figures stalked nearer and nearer he went suddenly berserk. His hand dropped to his belt, whipped out a glittering hunting knife, and with a yell he lunged at the two. The younger stranger drew an automatic and leveled it at the half-breed. "Stop!" he snapped. "Put down that knife, you!" "Put up your gun, Paul," the older stranger ordered. "I'll handle him and his frog-sticker." Without a gun or knife or any weapon at all, he tensed himself to meet the vicious rush. Sonya trembled with fear for him. The breed was taller than he and much heavier, and that flashing knife was a wicked thing in a hand-to-hand battle. But in the next few seconds something happened—happened so very swiftly that Sonya could hardly follow it. As the breed's knife swished down a hand shot out and seized his wrist and wrenched it till the weapon dropped. The stranger bent a little lower and turned his shoulder to receive the charge. There was a moment of impact. In the next instant the breed was lifted bodily and went somersaulting over his enemy's shoulder. Fairly flying through the air, he hit the ground thump on his back, with all the breath and fight fairly knocked out of him. At the commotion below the cloud of excited twittering, and vanished in the twilight. Curt poked up the knife, flung it out into the water and looked at the attacker, who had managed to sit up. He was one of the men at the fish scaffolding that afternoon, a powerfully built man, with bushy black hair, a stubble of coarse beard and the high cheekbones of an Indian. He looked like an intelligent fellow, well dressed and neat and much above the average half-breed. "Where's your canoe?" Curt demanded. "Where's your canoe?" Curt demanded. The man gestured at the lower end of the islet. "Down dere in de bush." "Go get his boat, Paul," Curt ordered the mainland. Curt meets, tomorrow, a most important person.

Freighter Rams Another Ship In New York Harbor

NEW YORK, Nov. 23. (AP)—Two freighters collided in lower New York bay shortly after midnight today, leaving one so badly damaged that for a time it was feared she would sink.

The damaged vessel was the Ohioan of the American-Hawaiian line, inbound from Seattle. The other was the Liberty of the Cosmopolitan line, which had just cleared for Baltimore and LeHavre.

The Liberty struck the Ohioan amidships and tore a huge hole in her side. The vessel started to sink and coast guard boats which rushed to the scene removed all the members of the Ohioan's crew except the captain and the radio operator.

Several hours later, however, the Ohioan was beached on what is known as West Bank Shoals, and the crew returned to the ship. Coast guardsmen said she was in no immediate danger unless a storm came up.

The Liberty, which received only minor damage to its bow, remained at anchor. The scene of the crash until daylight permitted a thorough inspection.

The Ohioan's crew numbered 43 and the Liberty's 37. The captains of both boats reported only one was injured.

The Ohioan, of 5,154 gross tons, was built in 1914 at Sparrows Point, Md., and has been operated by the American-Hawaiian line ever since. She is 407 feet long, with a 53-foot beam.

The Liberty was built for the United States shipping board at Kearney, N. J., in 1918. She is a vessel of 6,211 tons, 395 feet long and 55-foot beam.

New Mexico's Legion Officers To Keep Posts

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 23 (AP)—Officers of the New Mexico department of the American Legion will continue in office until a committee authorized to take charge of the affairs of the suspended department is constituted and prepared to assume control.

Edward A. Hayes, national commander of the Legion, clarified the status of the New Mexico officers in a statement today. The New Mexico charter was suspended after a hearing at national headquarters here on factional charges involving the New Mexico department.

"The present officers will continue their duties under my direction as the executive head of the national organization, subject to the closest scrutiny," Hayes said, "until the committee authorized by the same action that suspended the charter is constituted and takes charge."

Scoutmaster R. R. Watson and Herman Jones, his assistant, turned the program over to Ben Horn, senior patrol leader, who introduced the boys. Talks on various phases of Scout work were made by A. J. Organ, Lawrence Johnson, Leon Plato, Billie Tidwell, Edward Haner, Leonard Johnson, Jimmie Hill, and Scout Horn. The boys concluded by singing "Keep the Home Fires Burning." President Clyde F. Fairmore praised them highly for their program and work.

Supt. R. B. Fisher explained the eligibility rules governing Pampa's protest of Captain J. E. Corbitt of Amarillo. The club feasted on venison provided by Lion Bonnie W. Rose. Visitors today were Dr. J. I. Reid, Rev. C. E. Lancaster, Tom E. Rose, Aaron Sturgeon of Paris, Texas, and the Rev. Gaston Poole.

SPRAGUE WAS 'OUT' BEFORE HE RESIGNED

OPINION HAD NOT BEEN ASKED SINCE LONDON CONFERENCE

By FRANCIS M. STEVENSON Associated Press Staff Writer

WARREN SPRAGUE, Ga., Nov. 23. (AP)—President Roosevelt is going ahead with his dollar revaluation program and is leaving the issue with acting Secretary Morgenthau of the treasury while he goes on with his vacation.

This is accepted here as the president's answer to the resignation of C. M. W. Sprague, former adviser to the Bank of England, as special adviser to the treasury. Sprague proposed an organized movement against the administration monetary program.

If the published letter of Sprague protesting against the gold control plan and the failure to consult him caused the president any concern here it was not evident. Stephen T. Early, a secretary to the president, replied in response to inquiry that the Sprague action would have no effect on the administration monetary program. Sprague has not been in the president's monetary conferences since the London economic conference.

Last Saturday the president referred to the critics of his money plan as "modern Tories" and "doubting Thomases."

He will speak over the air today and again Friday but there is no indication that he is going to discuss his gold control program.

Interest is evident here in the treasury in the protest of the newspapermen over the ruling of acting Secretary Morgenthau requiring that all information in that department be given out at one source.

Early, who is in charge of government press relations insists that this is not meant for censorship or for a " gag " but rather for accuracy. He is returning to Washington today in accordance with previous plans and Mr. Roosevelt apparently expects Early and Morgenthau to reach an understanding about press relations at the treasury.

Meanwhile, a reflection here over the unusual Thanksgiving day proclamation issued yesterday by the president centered attention on foreign affairs.

"We are grateful," said the proclamation, "for a clearer knowledge of all nations that we seek no conquests and ask only honorable engagements by all peoples to respect the lands and rights of their neighbors."

In this was seen a direct message to Europe and to the west of the western hemisphere about to assemble at Montevideo.

Now's your chance! Get that coat you've been longing for—at a real clear-away price! They're still 'way up in value—though the prices are 'way down! Only Penney's slashes prices so drastically at the end of the season!

Act NOW—They'll soon be GONE!

For Your Nearest—and Dearest! WARM LOUNGE Slippers 49c

Attention was directed today to an Amarillo suggestion that players' records be exchanged by schools and studied before the football seasons open. In rebuttal, it was stated that only Amarillo high failed to comply with a district rule to do this furnishing of records this year.

Pampa fans who, assisted by residents of another district city, collected the information on Captain Corbitt, believe that the four-year rule is inflexible and pertinent. They show that Mr. Henderson has thrice ruled on this point in hypothetical cases submitted to him, using facts concerning the Amarillo boy.

The four-year rule has been understood in Pampa for several years. Both Jim Ayres and Dick Sullins were voluntarily retired from competition under the rule. If Corbitt is eligible, so is Sullins and several others 'not on the Harvester roster this year.

NOVELTY EGGS Here's a new idea in egg preparation. Beat the whites of as many eggs as necessary for the number of people to be at the meal. See that the white is good and stiff. Add salt and pepper. Drop several spoonfuls on pieces of toast, hot and waiting. In the center of each mound put an unbroken egg yolk. Put in a quick oven until the white is a warm, deep brown. Serve at once with touches of parsley.

ROOSEVELT EXPECTED TO ANSWER MONETARY FOES SHORTLY

ADVISERS TO RESERVE BANK ISSUE WARNING

FLUCTUATING VALUE OF CURRENCY IS OPPOSED

NEW YORK, Nov. 23 (AP)—The Herald-Tribune said in a Washington dispatch today that the advisory council to the federal reserve board has warned Roosevelt administration against "a currency of fluctuating value."

The resolution, adopted in executive session yesterday and made available to the Herald-Tribune in authoritative quarters, follows: "While the council is in sympathy with the general purposes of the administration, it believes these are not to be accomplished by a currency of fluctuating value."

"The members of the advisory council believe: 1. That a higher price level is beneficial only if accompanied by higher natural income, and that can only be brought about by increased volume of business and increased employment."

"2. That a depressing and fluctuating currency value will not adjust existing discrepancies in the price level."

"3. That as long as there is uncertainty in regard to the future value of the monetary unit there can be no lasting or fundamental improvement in business."

"4. That this uncertainty tends and has tended to depress the market price of government securities and corporate and municipal bonds, which in turn has affected and will continue to affect adversely the entire economic structure and thus stand in the way of recovery."

"5. That unless there is monetary rehabilitation it will become increasingly difficult for the government to finance its large commitments for reconstruction purposes and to refinance its maturing obligations. The resulting uncertainty will especially affect and cause great uneasiness among the millions of wage earners, savings depositors, and holders of insurance policies. It will further diminish the flow of capital into the investment field, and it is this money which is used largely for the purpose of financing the production of capital and durable goods. It is in these fields that unemployment has been difficult to overcome. The existing uncertainty has lowered the value of capital funds, leaving the country to be invested in foreign securities and deposited in foreign banks."

"6. That no monetary standards can be finally and permanently satisfactory until other important nations have taken similar action and that such international action is extremely improbable on any other basis than a gold basis."

"7. That history shows that the further currency inflation goes, the more difficult it becomes to control and that it invariably results in untold losses to great masses of the people and the ruin of national credit."

ALABAMA UNIVERSITY PROFESSOR ALLOWS 'BLACK WIDOW' TO BITE HIM AND GOES TO THE HOSPITAL

SCREEN LIFE

By HUBBARD KEAY
HOLLYWOOD—A concession usually granted first line stars only, was necessary to get Evelyn Venable to put her name on a movie contract.

This 19-year-old Cincinnati girl, whose professional experience was gained during her two seasons with Walter Hampden's company, has the privilege of turning down roles she believes unsuitable.

When she came here a year ago, as Ophelia to the classicist's Hamlet, picture offers came thick and fast. Evelyn finally accepted one, but only on the condition that the contract start when a part she liked came along and that she need not play any and all roles.

She makes her debut as Teresa, the convent girl in "Cradle Song." Miss Venable's first love is the stage and she is determined to return to it. As soon, she says, as she makes enough money to form her own Shakespearean company she will leave pictures. Meanwhile, she is looking forward to an interesting seven years—that is, if they take up all the options in her contract.

"My demand for a voice in what I do on the screen is not because I'm 'starry,'" Evelyn explains. "Everyone who is serious about an acting career has some definite objective. My own Shakespearean companion is my aim, so I want to work toward that in whatever I do."

Bartenders' Ball Will Be Revived

BY ROBERT B. PARKER JR.
NEW YORK, Nov. 23 (AP)—The bartenders' ball, like the bustle and the nickel cigar, is back.

After 13 years without cause for celebration, the Bartenders' Benevolent and Protective association will revive the annual ball this year. On November 26 the "who's-who" behind the brass rail will dance their own Thanksgiving to the music of "Professor" Henry Kleigast and his band that played at the first ball exactly 33 years ago.

"Here we are again," says the announcement, "emerging after 13 years of hibernation. This event is going to be of the old-fashioned gala times, given by the bar boys, where everybody will meet somebody and will be attended by 'who is who' behind the bar."

And, of course, the old quartet will sing "Sweet Adeline."

When prohibition came in, said John Speciale, the association's president, the ball was abandoned and "pretty dismal" smokers were held instead. The membership dwindled.

Now the organization has 1,400 members and more are joining every day, Speciale says.

Work Tickets Issued to 282 Here This Week

The Gray county board of relief and employment, Pampa branch, and the Federal Employment bureau, have issued 282 work tickets to unemployed men and women this week. Of the 282 tickets issued by the county board, 14 were to women.

Two hundred men were given tickets to report for work on Highway 33 project through the city where curb and gutter are being laid, grade put up and fine grading done before laying of caliche base. All the men have not reported for work, however. Commissioner John Haggard is using 90 men on lateral roads and the city is using 15 men on city street labor.

The state highway department is using five men registered on the federal employment list. Seventeen other men are at work on the Highway 152 project doing preliminary work for the contractor.

A call last week for 16 dual-wheel trucks to be used in hauling gravel. Only eight trucks have been offered and the rest are needed badly. Owners of dual-wheel trucks should report to relief headquarters in the basement of the city hall.

AUSTIN, Nov. 23. (AP)—Texas will formally cast her vote for repeal of the 18th amendment tomorrow. The 31 delegates chosen in a special election to certify this state's sentiment will meet in the senate chamber.

Liner Ripped

UNIVERSITY, Ala., Nov. 23 (AP)—For many years, archeologists—they say—archeologists—have wondered whether the "black widow" spider was poisonous to human beings.

Dr. Alan W. Blair, 37-year-old sociate professor of medicine at the University of Alabama here, has a new answer that question with a loud affirmative.

Dr. Blair, after months of experiment with the spiders, during which he allowed them to bite rats, cats, dogs, mice, and guinea pigs with varying results, allowed one of the insects to bite his little finger.

Two days of extreme pain in the United States Veterans hospital here was the result.

For 18 months the professor tried he insects on the animals. Dogs and cats were not affected. Guinea pigs were made sick and rats and mice died.

Dr. Blair began collecting the "black widows." He came to know their habits and their peculiarities. He dissected many of them and looked at their poison sacs under microscope.

But he still had not solved the problem of whether they were poisonous to humans. A study of 16 clinical cases of "black widow" bites treated in the Tennessee coal, iron, and railroad company hospital in Birmingham still did not settle the question.

Two medical students at the university and Mrs. Blair offered to allow him to make the tests on them. Dr. Blair declined to allow them to take the risk, but finally determined to take it himself.

After the insect, caught on the Blair's lawn, had been permitted to bite his little finger, Dr. Blair said he felt a sharp pain in his hand, which later spread as far as his shoulder.

He thought his symptoms would end there, but a few moments later he was seized with violent abdominal cramps. His blood pressure sank rapidly, and in extreme pain, he refused narcotics until his reactions had been registered on the electrocardiographic table at the hospital.

This ordeal over, Dr. Blair went to bed and spent two days in intense suffering, despite continued injections of opiates.

Today he was back at home, weak and pale, but able to eat again for the first time since the experiment.

LEE TRACY IS DISMISSED BY FILM COMPANY

ACTOR CENSORED FOR EPISODE IN MEXICO

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 23 (AP)—Lee Tracy, the screen actor who got into trouble in Mexico City for an impromptu scum he staged on a hotel balcony, was due back in Hollywood tonight where he will find himself among the ranks of the unemployed.

Describing the actor's unscheduled appearance in the Mexican capital as "deplorable behavior," Louis B. Mayer, executive of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios which held Tracy's contract, announced the actor could no longer consider himself in any way connected with his organization.

Arriving in El Paso en route to Hollywood Tracy offered an explanation for his conduct. He said Mexico City newspapers erred when they reported he appeared unclad on the hotel balcony and thumbed his nose at a group of cadets on parade.

"I was just helping them celebrate," said Tracy. "I'd been on a cabaret party and had some drinks and like any drunk, I began yelling. 'Someone yelled back and I shouted, 'Why don't you go to —?' The next day I went to jail, paid a small fine, apologized and that's all there was to it."

Mayer sent a telegram to President Abelardo Rodriguez of Mexico, in which he apologized for Tracy's conduct. The actor was in Mexico to take part in the film, "Viva Villa."

Southern Pacific Would Arbitrate To Avert Strike

HOUSTON, Nov. 23 (AP)—The Southern Pacific Railway today received in silence official notification that approximately 3,000 employees of the line in Texas and Louisiana planned to strike at noon Saturday. The employees affected are engineers, firemen, conductors, brakemen, and enginemen.

L. B. McDonald, general manager of the road, said he had no further comment to make. He previously stated that the management was willing to submit to arbitration some of the 106 grievances listed by the employees but that it considered some of the points of controversy strictly "managerial" and therefore not "arbitrable."

Fred W. Lewis, vice president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, said that two brotherhood committees delivered the official notice to McDonald.

"If the management of the Southern Pacific agrees to arbitrate and accedes some of the demands of the brotherhoods before the strike starts, the result of yesterday's vote will be set aside," Lewis said. "It's up to the Southern Pacific now."

Brotherhood officials said they expected little picketing and were opposed to any sort of violence.
