PAMPA-LEFORS ROAD IS MAJOR PROJECT TO BE LAUNCHED

Conditional upon the county's furnishing material - caliche - construction of the Pampa-McLean road from 6.5 miles south of Pampa to two miles south of Lefors was approved yesterday by E. A. Baugh, Texas Civil Works project engineer, of Austin. The approval was made by Mr. Baugh in a telegram to Mrs. W. H. Davis, C. W. A. administrator for Gray county. He also stated that trucks will be hired upon receipt of a request stating the number required. County commissioners will meet tomorrow to decide upon the proposal.

PAMPA business yesterday was given a potent shot in the arm, to last until Feb. 15.

The reason: more than 400 Gray county men and women were paid $5,147 with checks drawn on the U. S. treasury. The money they received was their salaries on regular jobs, and was not relief. They went to work Nov. 16 on Texas civil works projects in Gray county.

When the workers received their checks yesterday, their names were automatically taken off the relief rolls. No longer will they be eligible to receive the kind of "relief" to which they have been accustomed. They are on the pay-roll of the federal government, and will be until Feb. 15, when all projects must be finished. If, in the future, a doctor is needed, if they run out of groceries, it will be their responsibility to pay for these and other things out of their own salaries.

The men have been employed on roads, highways 152 and 33, cutting weeds, cleaning bar-pits, and women have been working in school cafeterias and Red Cross sewing rooms. Men have been working on projects in each of the commissioner's precincts.

After Dec. 1, C. W. A. jobs will be open for men in the federal employment office, where 509 men are registered. In giving jobs to the relief cases first, Mrs. W. H. Davis, county administrator, and the relief committee obeyed instructions of President Roosevelt.

Mrs. Davis and the committee meet with cooperation of public officials furnish projects for what were the relief cases and those who register in the federal employment office. That is why the office in the basement of the city hall is no longer a relief agency but an employment office.

Hanging fire at present is the first or $60,150 unit of the Pampa-McLean road. The government will spend $247,000 on the road, but it will probably not furnish materials on that or any project. In order to build the road, the county will be required to furnish the caliche. The commissioners will meet Monday at 2 p. m. to take action on that proposal.

The State Highway department, with L. A. White, resident engineer, has charge of all road work projects. Workers are receiving from $10.50 to $14 per week.

Remaining on the county relief rolls are approximately 30 cases, the average number in normal

BULLITT TOLD TO BEGIN TRIP TO NEW POST

Lack of Officers Is Problem Seen In Russia

WARM SPRINGS, Ga., Nov. 25 (AP)—President Roosevelt tonight directed Ambassador Bullitt to proceed immediately to Russia to establish new relations with the Soviet government and then to return to the United States and make a report.

The president issued the following statement: "Because of the difficulty of establishing adequate quarters for an American embassy and consulate and the staffs thereof in Moscow, where there is a housing shortage and a complete lack of American government offices and residences, I have ordered Ambassador Bullitt to proceed to Moscow to study the problem and make such preliminary arrangements as he may deem wise.

"Mr. Bullitt will embark on the steamship President Harding on November 29 and will proceed direct to Moscow.

"I have ordered Mr. Bullitt to return to the United States as soon as practicable to report on the problem of the permanent establishment of the embassy and consulates and to organize the staffs."

Third Trial of Negro Is Assured

DECATUR, Ala., Nov. 25 (AP)—The last obstacle to the third trial of Heywood Patterson, one of seven negro defendants in the "Scottsboro case," was removed today as Judge W. W. Callahan overruled a motion to quash the indictment on grounds of alleged fraud and "systematic exclusion of negroes" from the jury rolls.

The jurist held there was not sufficient evidence to "presume fraud" in the entering of several negroes' names on the rolls from which the grand jury had been drawn and that there was not conclusive testimony that negroes were "systematically excluded."

State Control Of Liquor Asked

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25 (AP)—Resentment over the administration's policy for strict federal control of liquor after repeal today caused distillers and brewers to discuss starting a nation-wide campaign to return the question of regulation to the states.

The talk revolved around the creation of an organization similar to the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment which was a leading unit in the fight for repeal. The new set-up, if created, would have as its purpose advocacy of state control of all phases of the liquor business instead of supervision from Washington.

SAYS CRITICS ARE WITHOUT BETTER POLICY

AL SMITH IS TARGET AS REPUBLICAN HITS FDR "ENEMIES"

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—Senator Borah, Idaho republican, jumped into the free-for-all battle over President Roosevelt's monetary program today with a direct challenge to critics of the price-raising plan to offer something in its place other than "the policy under which we arrived at our present disastrous condition."

Borah's challenge was made in a formal statement directed at Alfred E. Smith and others who have recently attacked the president's monetary policies.

It was the high spot of another barrage of comment on the money question, in which R. Walton Moore, assistant secretary of state, lined up with the president, Senator Fess (R., O.), attacked the program, and Governor Black denied a rift between the federal reserve board and the treasury.

While the controversy raged, the administration made no change in the prevailing price of domestic gold of $33.76 an ounce, though the dollar strengthened abroad and agriculture department statistics showed a rise in the farmer's purchasing power from an index figured 60 to 61.

"The gold dollar is the most dishonest dollar ever created, except absolutely irredeemable paper money," Borah said. "The farmer is just as much interested in sound money as anybody."

His formal statement was a direct reply to Smith, James P. Warburg, and O. M. W. Sprague, who led the recent attack on the administration's program.

"I doubt if the critics of the president's monetary policy will succeed in winning public opinion away from the president unless they are prepared to offer an affirmative, constructive program," he said.

"The one thing that holds the people to the president is the belief that he deeply desires to lift them out of their desperate troubles. The people will naturally ask those who object to the president's monetary system: What have you to offer in lieu of the president's program?"

Former Officers In Cuba Slain

MATANZAS, Cuba, Nov. 25 (AP)—Unidentified men shot and killed five former Cuban army officers on a highway near Colon today after forcibly seizing the victims from guards escorting them from Matanzas to Santa Clara.

Matanzas residents inclined to the belief that revenge was the motive since the officers were slain near the ranch of the late Gallego Alvarez, who, with his three sons, was killed by soldiers in 1932.

The five officers, who had served under former President Gerardo Machado, were charged with being implicated in the Alvarez killings.

BANK POLICY CHANGE MADE FOR SERVICES

New Plan Result Of Study Of Handling Checks

ADOPTION of a measured change, details of which will be given with statements December 1, has been announced by directors of the First National bank of Pampa.

Pamphlets prepared by the Bank Management commission of the American Bankers association contain the outline of the new banking policy. Nationally, it is not a new plan, either in the banking business or in other businesses which have graduated service charges in some form.

If a patron's monthly balance is over the required minimum, he will be entitled to draw a number of checks in proportion to the size of his balance, without charge. When the number of checks is out of proportion to the balance, a small charge is made for each check. In other words, the activity of a checking account must be in proportion to the balance if no charge is to be made.

By either increasing the balance or decreasing the number of checks written each month, depositors may avoid the service charges.

The plan is intended solely to prevent banks from taking losses in handling unprofitable accounts. It is based on studies made by the commission of the American Bankers association. These studies show that for overhead, stationery, check-books, salaries, clerk hire, safekeeping of funds, postage, insurance, etc., the bank is out several cents for each check handled.

Extra! Santa Claus Is Lost

POINT BARROW, Alaska, Nov. 25.—Extra—Santa Claus, en route to Pampa, Texas, was long overdue here tonight from Santa Clausland. He should have arrived last night, but up to tonight he had not appeared.

Fears for Santa's safety were expressed because although winter is approaching in the United States, it is nearing summer in Santa Clausland. That means that the Arctic sea is full of ice which is slowly breaking up and leaving big spaces of open water.

CLAIMS THAT HE SHOT WIFE BEFORE FLIGHT

BUT AVIATOR FRIEND IS ABLE TO DISPROVE STORY

CHICAGO, Nov. 25 (AP)—Assistant State's Attorney Charles S. Dougherty tonight said Earle Wynkoop had made a "fantastic" confession of the slaying of his wife, Rheta, 23.

Dougherty said he believed it merely an attempt to shield Wynkoop's mother, Dr. Alton Wynkoop, who previously confessed firing a revolver bullet into Rheta's body.

Dougherty's announcement was made shortly after Earle was formally booked on a charge of murder. The doctor was in the hospital at the county jail awaiting action of the Cook county grand jury.

Dougherty said Earle's statement had many discrepancies and as a consequence he believed the "confession" had as its only purpose the protection of the mother.

Earle was reported to have told police that on Tuesday afternoon, the day Rheta's half clad body was found face down, on an operating table in the Wynkoop home, that he met his wife at their home, followed her to the basement operating room, and poured chloroform down her throat, later shooting her.

Stanley Young, "alibi" friend of young Wynkoop who bore out the widower's previous story two had motored to Peoria earlier in the day Tuesday and thence to Kansas City, confronted with Earle after his statement, had a terse comment.

"You're a liar, Earle," he said. "Young inflected story of having been with Earle was true and asserted it was impossible for Earle to have killed his wife Tuesday."

Police Sergeant Thomas Kelly said that earlier this afternoon, before announcement of the "confession" was made, Earle accompanied police to the West Monroe street mansion and there "enacted" his self-styled crime.

"But he could have done that from close reading of newspaper reports of the death," Kelly said. "The 'confession' was understood to have recounted that Earle slipped into the house at 3 p. m., and took his wife to the basement where she was to weigh herself. After she removed her clothing and stepped on the scales. Then, according to reports of the statement, Earle poured it into her mouth while she struggled. After Rheta lost consciousness, the 'confession' continued, Earle shot her, rushed from the house, and took a private airplane to Kansas City."

Concerning the airplane, all young Wynkoop would say was that it was buff colored. He refused to tell the name of the supposed pilot or any details concerning the trip.

During the questioning Dougherty telephoned Kansas City and ascertained the pair, as Young had said, had registered at a hotel there shortly after midnight.

"I can prove by witnesses," Young said, "that he was with me all day Tuesday. We bought gasoline one place but several. I can show you where we bought it. I won't be a party to a pack of lies. It's ridiculous."

GRAY'S WHEAT ALLOTMENT IS GRANTED O. K.

Local Group Praised For Correctness Of Records

THE Gray county wheat allotments, including applications and contracts, were approved by the State Board of Review at Amarillo, Friday, and today were en route to Washington by air express.

Gray was the first big wheat county to have its allotments approved. Several smaller wheat counties have already had their allotments approved.

The board which approved the figures Friday found no errors in the papers, made no corrections, and praised the work of the county committee and County Agent Ralph R. Thomas. Members of the board were Carl Robinson, John E. Edmonds, district agent, and E. A. Miller.

When the first checks will arrive is problematical. Gray county wheat farmers will receive $280,000 this fall and next spring. This amount represents an increase of approximately $43,000 over the original sum.

The three-year average production was 1,818,000 bushels. The five-year average production was 1,722,000 bushels. The county allotment was 930,204 bushels for which farmers will receive 28c per bushel.

OKLAHOMA: Fair, cooler Sunday; Monday fair, somewhat warmer.

TEXAS: In north, partly cloudy in south portion Sunday and Monday; somewhat cooler in north portion Sunday. Light to moderate variable winds on the coast becoming northerly.

an airplane will be sent from Nome to look for him.

"When Old Santa arrives December 6 at 3 p. m. we will be ready for him and so will thousands of children and grownups," said H. L. Polley, Santa Day chairman, last night.

He said this year's event would be unique, educational, and of interest to persons of all ages. The religious and historical floats will be particularly appealing.

The merchants, he added, were supporting the Junior chamber of commerce with enthusiasm, assuring the biggest and best Santa day program ever held here. The day will officially open the Christmas period in Pampa.

AMARILLO HAS FILED CHARGES ON HARVESTER

VOTE ON MACKAY NOT REACHED—WIRE TO HENDERSON

AMARILLO, Nov. 25.—The Amarillo Sandies tonight voluntarily withdrew from the district 1 football race which they were leading when Supt. W. A. McIntosh, of the Amarillo schools acknowledged he was convinced that Captain J. K. Corbett is ineligible under the four-year rule.

Supt. McIntosh filed a protest against Hazel Mackey of the Pampa Harvesters on two counts, but the executive committee declined to vote until Roy B. Henderson, secretary of the Interscholastic League, has ruled on what constitutes "living at home" and defines a "public road." The Amarillo protest claimed that Mackey, Pampa lineaman, should be attending LeFors high school and that because he is a part-time Pampa fireman he is not in fact living with his parents.

Anticipating that protests might be filed following visits here by Coach Blair Cherry of Amarillo and Dr. R. P. Parcels, Supt. R. B. Fisher and his staff took affidavits to the meeting, which proceeded until nearly midnight behind closed doors in executive session. Supt. McIntosh had not intended to protest the Pampa player last night, but Supt. Fisher demanded that anyone having complaints make them known at once. The meeting then proceeded with Supt. C. E. Davis in the chair and with superintendents of Borger and Lubbock as the other voting members.

Henderson's ruling is expected to be received today or tomorrow, and another session of the executive committee will then be held. Meanwhile, the Harvesters are at the top of the district with victories over Lubbock and Plainview and, by reason of the successful protest, over Amarillo. Borger will play the Harvesters here Wednesday afternoon.

In the Pampa delegation were Supt. Fisher, Principal L. L. Sone, Coach Odus Mitchell, Assistant Coach Arvus M. Fox, C. P. Buckler, Judge S. D. Stennis, Judge Ivy E. Duncan, Supt. M. L. H. Baze of Hopkins schools and Harry E. Hoare of THE NEWS staff.

The meeting, it was learned, was spirited to the point of insinuations, but Chairman Davis ruled out "dirty digs" when any were indicated and, for the most part, maintained a deliberative atmosphere.

Meantime, hundreds of fans called THE NEWS for information on the meeting.

At the close of the meeting Supt. Davis of Plainview, announced that Amarillo and Pampa school superintendent had agreed that if any more evidence develops in the case against Pampa, the case may be reopened when the session reconvenes.

FDR'S SUCCESSES AND FAILURES

No manner of conjuring can show that all of Franklin D. Roosevelt's projects are succeeding, just as no one can fall to appreciate the astounding success of certain parts of his program.

Mr. Roosevelt is a leader in social experiments. His economic measures early in his administration were answers—good answers—to crises. His handling of the monetary situation with regard to inflation, reflation, managed money, or whatever you care to call it, is not to be classed in the same category.

Indeed, the uncertainty of the Roosevelt policy on money is believed by many to be threatening economic progress at this time. Part of the opposition to him is of course based on the same selfishness and narrow sightedness which NRA was designed to correct. But when on November 18 the Chamber of Commerce of the United States demanded an end to the currency experimentation, less NRA control of business, and less governmental competition to business, a new era in economic reconstruction was started. Henceforth, criticism of the president's measures will be more frank, in some cases more bitter. Friends and foes alike now feel more free to say what they think. Crises are less acute, hence it is no longer unpatriotic to make reasonable, constructive criticisms.

NRA's success depends not so much on Uncle Sam as upon willingness of business men to adopt the principles involved. The new civil works administration is undoubtedly giving a new deal to labor by providing "regular work at regular pay."

The initial cost of the plan to end unemployment through February is 400 millions. The precedent set is an important one, with staggering potentialities.

There are two schools of industrial thought which must carry the fight to the finish. Big business does not thrive on governmental competition and rigid control. Hope of big and at times illegitimate profits is what coaxes capital into the open and starts big projects. The same interests have much to do with starting depressions because of the unbridled promotion and manipulation involved. The "reactionary capitalists" who claim Mr. Roosevelt is delaying recovery through his experiments will be referred to as "torians" Wall Streeters, and symbols of entrenched selfishness.

But beyond this battle front are the agencies working steadily and with increasing efficiency to help the farmers. Permanent credit facilities for the American farmer have been provided through consolidation of the credit agencies by the Farm Credit Administration. It is enlightening to quote Congressman Marvin Jones on this point. He recently said:

"The farmer has long been a victim of mortgaged debt and insufficient credit facilities in time of need. Because he has been unorganized, he has had to manage as best he could and be financed to suit the private interests from which he has had to borrow. Now provision is made for a new channel of finances which has been shaped to serve the farmer himself.

"Immediate help in the present emergency has come through the farm adjustment program, which is aiding the wheat and cotton farmers and the hog raisers of this section. Now permanent aid through a system of refinancing farm mortgages over a long period of years and through a further bolstering of the farmer's financial status has come through the Farm Credit Administration.

"Organization of the farm credit set-up in Houston, which will serve the Texas district, has just been completed and will soon be functioning under a unified plan. By next spring it is expected that each of the twelve regional offices throughout the nation will be organized in a like manner, and the entire credit system is ultimately intended to be on a self-supporting, cooperative basis.

"The new Farm Credit administration in Washington represents a merging of six scattered agencies of farm credit measure. These two acts were supplemented to depend. These scattered offices, which have been under several different heads, included the Federal Land bank, the Intermediate Credit bank, the old Federal Farm Board, the Agricultural Credit corporation, the Reconstruction finance corporation, and the Crop Production Loan corporation.

"This consolidation and regrouping of credit agencies is the result of legislation which was passed during the special session of Congress last spring. It was my privilege, as chairman of the House Committee on agriculture, to introduce and sponsor in the House both the farm mortgage refinancing measure and the later farm credit measure. These two acts were supplemented by the President's executive order providing for reorganization, and out of the three has come one central organization whose twelve regional branch offices will be directly in line with the set-up in Washington.

"The Farm Credit administration, with Henry Morgenthau, Jr., at its head as governor, is separated into four divisions: The Federal Land Bank, the Intermediate Credit Bank, the Cooperative Bank, and the Production Credit Corporation.

"Now that these various agencies are under one head, rather than being divided supervision under different departments they form a separate unit of the federal government in themselves—a unit through which the farmers may serve themselves.

"A branch of the main institution will be located in each of the twelve land bank districts. For our district, it will be known as the Farm Credit administration at Houston. There will be four divisions or wings to the Houston Farm Credit administration. These will be called the land bank, the intermediate credit bank, the production credit corporation, and the bank for cooperatives.

"Loans on land will be made through the Federal Land bank, applications being made through local appraisers or through the secretary of local associations. Cooperatives desiring credit will make application direct to the bank for cooperatives.

"If farmers and ranchmen desire livestock or current farm production credit, not less than ten of them may form a local association and make application direct to the production credit corporation at Houston. The Production Credit corporation will furnish 80 percent of the Class A capital stock. The association's paper may be rediscouted through the Intermediate Credit Bank.

"The four divisions of the regional administration have already been set up in Houston, and as soon as the necessary groundwork is laid, will be ready to serve the farmers of Texas. Similarly, farmers all over the country will be served through these coordinated facilities through their own branch.

"The Farm Credit administration represents government aid which will directly affect thirty million people who comprise the agricultural population of America, and benefits to one-fourth of a people will naturally spread to the others."

OIL FORTUNE PROVED DISASTROUS TO WELL-TO-DO RANCHER OF BIG SPRING—BUILT IMPOSING HOTEL

BIG SPRING, Tex., Nov. 24 (AP)—The name Settles appears in large orange letters on top of Big Spring's cream-colored 15-story hotel, one of the finest bits of architecture along the far-flung Bankhead highway. At 1900 Settles street, there is another cream-colored house, this one of wood.

The home, built in 1926, is paid for—it is the remnant of the once-wealthy W. R. Settles fortune and was erected before oil wells came to make him a millionaire.

Their money gone, health not so good, their diet by physicians' orders restricted mostly of vegetables, Mr. and Mrs. Settles sat in their large living room and told the story of their lost fortune.

It was some forty years ago when Mr. and Mrs. Settles, then newly-weds, started to acquire the ranch gradually.

They were happy on the ranch. There were hard times when droughts seemed about to wreck them, but it always rained eventually, cattle would rise in price and money would be banked. It was in 1927 that the oil wells came.

The sudden rush of money did not excite them. They built no new home. Mr. Settles, believing that divine intervention had sent him that good fortune, gave $20,000 and Mrs. Settles $8,500 to the Presbyterian church. The church built a beautiful $65,000 building. Though Mr. Settles is a deacon in the church, they go to the Methodist church where there is a minister of whom they are fond.

Then came the suggestion that they build a hotel that would attract people to Big Spring.

They sold some royalty for $250,000, the most cash they ever had at one time. They borrowed more money on their ranch and built the hotel. Came the sheriff's sale of the property and they lost the hotel in which they had invested $600,000.

"I am too old to start in the ranching business again," says Mr. Settles who is 78.

The Settles fortune lasted for about four unhappy years. In 1931 when their hotel was sold the Settles ceased to worry.

"It was the Lord's money," said Mrs. Settles, "and may he have mercy on those who got it."

"We put $600,000 in the hotel and never slept on it. Our old home was good enough for us."

times. These cases are still on the rolls because they include persons who are not able to work. Thus, relief has become a side issue. Relief ceases after workers receive their first check.

The total payroll in this county until Dec. 1 will be around $25,000 monthly, and after Dec. 10, or thereabout, around $50,000 monthly.

AUSTIN, Nov. 25 (AP)—While nearly 105,000 Texans were drawing their first week's wages today under the Civil Works construction program, state and federal agencies were considering plans to put additional thousands to work and give remunerative employment to women who must support themselves and their dependents.

It was pay day for thousands who had been unemployed for months—some of them for as long as two years. Paymasters of the Civil Works administration released $1,298,192 to workmen in virtually every county of the state. The minimum wage paid was $12 for 30 hours work. The huge payroll was participated in by 104,959 persons and represented 3,755,207 hours of work.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25 (AP)—Figures from state officials today indicated that the newly created Civil Works administration had transferred over 1,000,000 persons from relief rolls to pay rolls.

Eventually, the administration headed by Harry L. Hopkins, who is also federal relief administrator, hopes to put 4,000,000 men and women on a self-supporting basis.

The state figures included: Texas, 104,959; Pennsylvania, 41,258; New Jersey, 25,000; Ohio, 93,000; Illinois, 65,000; Michigan, 70,000; Oklahoma, 30,000; Kansas, 36,900; California, 3,500; Colorado, 1,000; New Mexico, 1,000; Wyoming, 500; Arizona, 3,000.

Mrs. Charlie Kyser, 36-year-old Texas woman, has four grandchildren, the first born when she was thirty.

Admits Getting Election Expense From Huey Long

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 25 (AP)—Testimony that Seymour Weiss, treasurer of Huey P. Long's organization, had given him from $10,000 to $12,000 to run his campaign for public service commission was made today by Wade O. Martin, who ran on the same ticket with Senator John H. Overton, before the senate subcommittee investigating the Overton election.

He said the money was paid him by Weiss by draft, but mostly in cash, and at one time he gave him $2,000 in cash in an envelope at the Roosevelt hotel. The money, he said, was used for campaign expenses, but none of it was used directly in the Overton campaign.

If he does not arrive by tonight, commerce with enthusiasm, assuredly in the Overton campaign. He agreed with the committee that he worked for Overton's election and both Senators Long and Overton worked with him.

Michigan Wolverines Are Conference Champs Again

PASSES LATE IN GAME GIVE BEARS GLORY

TEXAS CHRISTIAN HOLDS HOPE OF CHAMPIONSHIP

Associated Press Staff Writer
OWNBY STADIUM, DALLAS, Nov. 25. (AP)—The Baylor Bears of Waco brought to this nationally-known home of aerial football the most thrilling forward passing game ever displayed here today and defeated Southern Methodist university, the famed "aerial circus," 13 to 7 to eliminate the Methodists from the southwest conference championship race.

Until the fourth period, Baylor had tried only a few forward passes, adhering strictly to a running-punting game. In the final three minutes, however, the Bears unleashed an aerial game that clicked so nearly perfectly that six of seven passes, all from Joe Jack Pearce to Parks, advanced the ball 75 yards to the goal line, despite a 15-yard penalty. With one end of the ball resting on the goal line, Pearce hit center three times before his final vicious thrust scored the winning points. Barnett, a kicking expert, was rushed into the game to try for the point but missed.

Those six points added to seven earned previously in the final period and were enough, because Baylor assured itself of permitting no Mustang to get loose on the final kickoff by merely thumping it along a few feet in front of the team.

Leaps High for Ball
A forward pass from Pearce to Petty, Baylor right end, accounted for the other touchdown. Baylor had the ball on the Methodist 14-yard line, after a series of end runs and line backs, Pearce fainted back to the 30-yard line and heaved what appeared to be a hopeless pass

GROOM DEFEATS LEFORS AND WILL MEET DUMAS ELEVEN IN DISTRICT TITLE TILT

Steady Toe of A. Kuehler Gives One-Point Advantage Over LeFors, 7-6.

(BY A STAFF WRITER.)

LEFORS, Nov. 25.—The right foot of A. Kuehler, 250-pound tackle sent the Groom Tigers into the district Class B play-off Friday afternoon in LeFors when he kicked the point after touchdown to give his team a 7 to 6 victory. It was his second time in two weeks to thus win for Groom, the Tigers taking sectional honors when Kuehler kicked an extra point to win from Panhandle 13 to 12.

Both scores came in the first half with Groom scoring first. Black, fleet halfback, spun through the line, cut across to the sidelines, and without interference raced 50 yards to the LeFors 2-yard line before he was downed by Bagwell, LeFors safety. L. Kuehler then plunged over for the touchdown and his big brother kicked the point after touchdown.

LeFors scored in the second quarter when Bagwell crossed the goal line on a 5-yard plunge after a march up the field which had been halted twice inside the 10-yard line because of penalties. Bagwell's kick that would have tied the score was inches wide of the uprights.

The remainder of the game was a weird affair that had the fans almost craning upon the field as both quarterbacks took sensational chances.

The game was really a battle between Bagwell of LeFors and Black of Groom, in the backfields, and Berg of LeFors and Britten of Groom, ends, with Black getting away for a long run and the "edge" in play. However, the Groom interference far exceeded that displayed by LeFors and practically every good gain made by the LeFors backs was a personal thrust. A Hal Williams did some small ball carrying for LeFors, while James and L. Kuehler were the other ball carriers for Groom. Wilson of LeFors and Dod of Groom were the blockers, with honors about even.

The two lines were about even, with both charging hard and holding well when their goal lines were in danger. LeFors men lost a good chance to score in the first period when they had the ball on Groom's 1-yard line, but a bad pass from center was smothered by Groom. Three other times LeFors had good chances, but two 15-yard penalties proved disastrous.

The Pirates had the most first downs, making 13 to 5 for Groom. LeFors gained 195 yards from scrimmage to 158 by Groom. Both teams were penalized 45 yards. Only four

NAVY SCARES ARMY BARLY IN LOSING BATTLE

SCORE OF 12-7 VERY UNEXPECTED AND THRILLING

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 25. (AP)—Navy's gallant warriors boomed a sensational challenge to Army's football supremacy today, but it wasn't quite enough to break down the vaunted power of the Cadets, who rallied to win an unexpectedly close game, 12 to 7, before a capacity crowd of 79,000 spectators at Franklin field.

Favored for the second straight year by Indian summer weather, the biggest and most colorful crowd of the eastern gridiron season saw the service rivalry put on a spectacular scoring battle in the first half, then stand off all opposing threats in the last two periods.

Navy's sturdy, aggressive line fought Army's hard-charging forwards to a standstill, while the strong right foot of Fullback Bill Clark gave the midshipmen repeated advantages in the kicking exchanges. Navy's fleetest pair of backs were unequal to the job of offsetting the dazzling run of Paul Johnson of Ashland, Ohio, the soldier quarterback, and his Texas running mate, speedy Jack Buckler.

PAMPA TEAM WORKING HARD ON ITS PLAYS

Borger Contest May Be Changed To Thursday

Should the Pampa Harvesters be declared district champions as the outcome of a protest against the eligibility of an Amarillo football player, the game with the Borger Bulldogs may be changed back to Thanksgiving Day, school officials said yesterday. The game was advanced to Wednesday so that it would not interfere with the Amarillo-Lubbock game Thursday, but if both teams are out of the race, the game may be set back to the original date.

Unmindful of the furor caused by the contest of Captain J. R. Corbitt of Amarillo, Coaches Odus Mitchell and Argus Fox and the Harvesters went about the business of preparing for the invasion of the Bulldogs last week. The boys rested two days but went through their regular routine on the other days. New plays were worked and old ones polished.

Borger, although not in the win column in conference play, has beaten some of the best teams in this section and should prove troublesome for the Harvesters. Coach Alter introduced a new system of play and the team is really just hitting its stride this season. A midjet by the game of Dunaway, no relation to the Dunaway who totes the mail for the Harvesters, is one of the ball carrying threats for the Bulldogs. White and Stratton also are dangerous when in the open.

The Borger line is light but fast and will be the first line that has not outweighed the Harvester forward wall this season. There will be little difference in the weights of the two teams when they take the field.

GREAT OUTFIT COMES TO LIFE AFTER THREAT

NORTHWESTERN CATS IN FIERCE CHALLENGE BUT LOSE, 13-0

EVANSTON, Ill., Nov. 25. (AP)—Michigan again is gridiron champion of the Western conference.

In wind-swept Dyche stadium, with darkness falling rapidly, the fagged-out Wolverines, undefeated but tied once this season, conquered Northwestern today in the final game of the year, 13 to 0, to win their fourth consecutive football championship of the Big Ten.

The achievement of the Wolverines equalled the record of the famous "point-a-minute" eleven coached by Fielding H. Yost, with his machines of 1901 to 1904, which set a record of winning four straight championships. The present day Wolverines, in winning the 1933 title, conquered five Western conference foes, and were held to a scoreless tie by Minnesota.

After being outplayed today by an infuriated squad of Wildcats in the first period, the Michigan eleven began clicking in the second with Herman Everhardus, the flying Dutchman from Kalamazoo, Mich., putting his mates in the lead. With less than 30 seconds to go before the finish of the first half, Everhardus, dashing right halfback, booted a field goal from the 25-yard line to chalk up a three point advantage. Then Michigan, working smoothly and with championship precision, scored a touchdown and another field goal to wind up the season.

Stanford to Be West's Outfit In Rose Bowl Game

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Calif., Nov. 25. (AP)—Stanford university's football team has accepted an invitation to represent the West in the Rose Bowl game at Pasadena New Year's day. Al Masters, general manager of the board of athletic control, announced here late today.

The invitation came from the selection committee of the Tournament of Roses just after Stanford's Indians defeated their traditional rivals, the California Bears, 7 to 3, in the Stanford stadium.

Masters said the invitation was immediately accepted and that he was informed Stanford will be given the privilege of selecting its Eastern opponent for the contest. The privilege offer, when confirmed, will be considered later, he said.

Sam Houston In Tie With Austin

NACOGDOCHES, Nov. 25. (AP)—The Sam Houston Teachers from Huntsville and the Stephen F. Austin Lumberjacks battled to a 6 to 6 tie here today.

The first period ended scoreless, but in the second Sam Houston ran the ball down to the goal line, where McAdams plunged over for a touchdown. The try for extra point failed. The half ended with Sam Houston leading 6 to 0.

In the last period a long pass, Bengt to O'Banion, was good for 30 yards and a touchdown for the Lumberjacks. They lost their chance to win the game by failing to make the extra point.

Buffaloes Lose 7-6 To Sooners

CANYON, Nov. 25.—The West Texas Teachers' college Buffaloes closed their 1933 gridiron season here this afternoon by dropping a 7 to 6 decision to the Northwestern Oklahoma Teachers of Alva.

The Sooners scored late in the second period, after a Buffalo drive had been halted by a fumble on the Oklahoma 9-yard line.

Gibson, Alva back, cut off tackle, crossed up the Buffs and sped 34 yards to score. The try for point was good.

In the middle of the fourth period, Captain "Cow" Williams led the Buffaloes on a touchdown march, starting when Kendrick recovered a fumbled punt on Northwestern's 40-yard line. Williams plunged over from the one-yard line. Teague's try for the tying point was wide.

The Buffs again drove to Northwestern's 13-yard line, losing the ball on another fumble just before the game ended.

Simmons Loses 6-0 As Howard Payne Takes Air

BROWNWOOD, Nov. 25. (AP)—Underwood snuffed a 20-yard pass over the goal line today to give Howard Payne's grida team a 6 to 0 victory over the Simmons university eleven.

Bob Sikes, fullback, who also plays defensive tackle, paved the way for the score by blocking a Simmons punt on the 20-yard line. From that point Taylor hurled the ball to Underwood.

Simmons gained more yardage from scrimmage than Howard Payne, making eight first downs to the Yellow Jackets' four.

The most serious threat by Simmons came late in the second period after Creighton recovered a fumble.

A Hereford calf entered by Billy Wilson of McLean won fifth place in the Kansas City Royal Livestock show, according to information received by County Agent Ralph R. Thomas yesterday from P. B. Farley.

The calf was entered in the senior division. The award was considered meritorious since the calf competed against entries from middle-western states where feeding for stock shows has been a major concern for years.

Transactions in the dollar found American currency a bit off, though extreme variations were of minor extent.

CLUBS TO AID CHARITY WITH HUMOR IN "CABBAGE THEATER" New H. D. Council Will Be Introduced To Duties In An All-Day Session

OFFICERS FOR COUNCIL WILL BE SELECTED

ABOUT 50 WOMEN TO ATTEND MEETING MONDAY

OFFICERS for next year will be elected; the yearbook will be planned and work for starting a new council year will be outlined when retiring and incoming members of the County Council of Home Demonstration clubs hold an all-day meeting tomorrow.

It will be at the home of Mrs. E. A. Shackleton, and about 50 women are expected to be present. Miss Ruby Adams, county home demonstration agent, said.

All representatives from clubs to the council will discuss new phases of club work. Each club has recently elected officers for next year, and the new council representatives will be introduced to their duties in this session.

A covered dish lunch will be served at noon. Business sessions, committee conferences, and round table discussions will fill the remainder of the day.

This meeting will feature home demonstration club activity next week. A group of girls' club meetings are scheduled. Members will have the assistance of Miss Adams in working on their wardrobe record books and club histories.

Webb, Back, Alanreed, and Eldridge girls will meet on Tuesday; Bell, Hopkins, and Schaffer clubs on Wednesday. Miss Adams will make home visits late Wednesday and all day Friday.

Holiday Charity Revue of Dec. 20 Is In Rehearsal

Rehearsals are under way for the annual mid-season dance revue in which Mickey and Minnie entertain their friends with a Christmas party.

A small admission charge will be made to defray costs of the professional numbers, and each child will be admitted for a toy. These gifts will be distributed on Christmas to the less fortunate children of the city.

Miss Vincent presented an informal program last Wednesday to more than 100 persons present at the city hall club rooms. In this program glimpses of the revue numbers were given.

Firms In Style Show Announced

Merchants who will cooperate in the Business and Professional Women's club style shows of Dec. 7, when models will be shown at a luncheon and a dinner, have been announced by the club.

Dresses, coats, lingerie, footwear, and hats will be modeled from Murfee's, Mitchell's, the Violet Shoppe, Surratt Bootery, and Brownbill Store. Costume jewelry from Moley's Gift shop will be shown.

A group of young women has been chosen to model the garments. Gift suggestions from the cooperating stores will also be displayed.

Reservations are being made with Mrs. Alex Schneider. All places must be reserved in advance.

Birthday Party Is Given Betty Horner

Betty Horner was honored on her fourteenth birthday Wednesday with a party. Rose and green were the colors used in room decorations and gift wrapping.

Initials and birth date of the honoree were written on the cake, which was lighted with green candles. It was served with chocolate and fruit gelatine after a number of games.

An impromptu musical program was also given. Olive and Jo Fanning, who have broadcast over KGRS, sang with Rosell Bond. Misses Bond and Jo Fanning gave a tap dance with guitar accompaniment by Olive Fanning. Betty Lee and Rogina Lockard and Joe Isbell also tap danced.

Others present were the honoree and Arthur Walsh, Mazie Perkins, Edna Mills, Joyce Mills, Marjorie Sams, Donald Taylor.

BPW CLUB TO ENTERTAIN AT GUEST DINNER

Husbands Will Be Speakers For Program

Husbands of two members will discuss the advantages and disadvantages of club women as wives at the annual Business and Professional Women's club dinner for husbands and escorts Tuesday evening.

The dinner will be given at the Schneider hotel at 8 p. m. Miss Clara Lee Shewmaker, former president, will be toastmistress. The talks will be given by M. P. Downs, whose subject is "Advantages of Being a Club Woman's Husband," and Glen Pool, who will discuss "Disadvantages of Being a Club Woman's Husband."

Mrs. Downs, president of the club, will speak briefly, as will Miss Fannie May. Vocal duets by Emmitt Smith and Robert Smellage will furnish musical entertainment.

To noon Saturday, 35 members had made reservations for the dinner.

Program Planned For Thanksgiving Church Services

Union Thanksgiving services will be conducted at First Baptist church Wednesday at 7:30, with the sermon by John S. Mullen, First Christian minister.

Members of all churches in the city will be invited to participate in the service. Several ministers will have parts on the program. The Rev. Gaston Foote, of First Methodist church, will give the invocation; the Rev. A. A. Hyde of the Presbyterian church will read the Bible lesson, and the Rev. W. O. Cooley, Central Baptist pastor, will pronounce the benediction.

Dance To Be An Event of Holiday

Invitations were mailed last week to Pampans and friends in nearby towns. Chaperones for the dance are Messrs. and Misses C. P. Buckler, M. K. Brown, John Cunningham, Bob Mitchell, F. C. Perry, and Julian Barrett.

Decorations carrying out the holiday theme are being planned by club members for the ballroom.

SCHOOLS ANNOUNCE PROGRAMS IN HONOR OF THANKSGIVING TO PRECEDE HOLIDAYS NEXT WEEK

MODERN DEFENSE ASKED

Modernization of the entire military establishment of the United States will be urged by the American Legion Auxiliary in its national defense program during the coming year, according to Mrs. Roy Webb, national defense chairman of the Pampa unit of the auxiliary.

The work will be advocated both as a national defense measure and as a means of increasing employment. The Auxiliary will ask that from funds already authorized for use on public works sufficient amounts be allotted to motorize the regular army and national guard. Much obsolete horse-drawn equipment is still in use which would have to be replaced in event of war, Mrs. Webb said.

Replacing this equipment now would effect economy and would mean employment for thousands of men in the motor and other industries, she pointed out.

CHOIR TO GIVE FAMED SACRED ORATORIO HERE

WELL-KNOWN SINGERS ARE CHOSEN FOR PARTS

FIRST opportunity of Pampans to hear Gaud's sacred oratorio, The Holy City, in its entirety will come Sunday afternoon, December 17, when the Philharmonic choir presents it at First Methodist church under direction of Mrs. May F. Carr, organist, pianist, and teacher.

Many of Pampa's best voices, as well as several from Laketon, Canadian, Panhandle, and other surrounding towns will be heard in this, the most pretentious musical undertaking of this season.

Robert Smellage, who will sing the difficult bass aria, has become well known as a vocalist in his short residence here. He was one of a quartet from Oklahoma university that last year won a nation-wide quartet contest in Washington.

Mrs. Lynn Boyd, who will sing the contralto aria, "Eye Hath Not Seen," has long been a favorite soloist here and will be heard to advantage in this number.

Accompaniment will be by Mrs. Irving Cole at the three-manual organ; Misses Helen Marie Jones and Josephine Lane, pianists; and Miss Hermine Stover and Roy Wallrabenstein, violinists. This will furnish an unusually large accompaniment.

The oratorio itself is known as one of the most beautiful pieces of sacred music. From the opening chorus, "No Shadows Yonder," to the climax in the final chorus, "Great and Marvelous Are Thy Works," the listener hears many beautiful passages.

The oratorio is regarded as the test of singer and pianist, as the most exacting skill is demanded of both. Pampa musicians are expected to appear to advantage and add to their reputation as artists.

The orchestra has played in leading hotels and ballrooms of the nation, including Roseland Gardens of New York, the Dells club, and the Adolphus hotel where it had a year's engagement.

It features novelty acts, and a woman blues singer is included in its membership. The band holds a world's championship blue ribbon for its rendition of "Diger Rag." It has broadcast over both major national hook-ups.

Methodist Church Music Announced

Musical numbers for the First Methodist church services tomorrow have been announced as follows by R. B. Fisher, director, and Mrs. May Foreman Carr, accompanist:

Morning service: Prelude, Largo, Dvorak; anthem, My Soul Shall Magnify the Lord, Howard Zimmerman and choir; Offertory, Berceuse, Chopin; Postlude, Duke Street, Whiting.

Evening service: Organ recital starting at 7:15 and including Kammer Ostraw, Rubenstein; unfinished Symphony, Schubert; melody of hymns arranged by Mrs. Carr. Offertory, Cradle Song, Spinnig; postlude, Hosannah, Wales.

A feature of the evening service will be a pantomime illustrating the sermon topic, "The Lost Sheep." It will be presented before a huge fac-simile of a Bible just before the sermon is given.

PERIOD STYLE SHOW PROGRAM ARRANGED; REHEARSALS START

Music, Dances And Gowns of Past Featured

FIRST rehearsals for the period style show which the High School Parent-Teacher association will present December 5 are to be held at the gymnasium this afternoon at 3 o'clock, Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar, program chairman, has announced.

A program outline was completed in a committee meeting Friday evening. It shows three main program divisions, with specialties in each, and a showing of old and new wedding gowns as the climax.

The high school orchestra will play a half hour concert preceding the program. The opening number will be an old fashioned singing bee with Mrs. Mel Davis at the organ. A family group picture will be posed, and a musical specialty will be given by John Sturgeon.

Old time dances will feature the second division. Square dances and waltzes of bygone days will be danced by old timers of the city. A specialty number will be presented by Roy Wallrabenstein and Harry Kelly with the orchestra, and a black-face skit by E. G. Harris.

The wedding scenes will complete the program. Music in charge of Mrs. Phillip Wolfe will be heard as wedding gowns of traditional interest, and those of the modern bride are shown.

Washington's social lights will shine on Miss Betsy Dern this year. For she, daughter of Secretary of War and Mrs. George Dern, is the only "cabinet debutante" of the season. She'll be presented to capital society on New Year's Day.

Two Club Dances Will Have Noted Negro Orchestra

One of America's outstanding colored orchestras will make its first appearance in Pampa for club dances Dec. 11 and 18. Alphonso Trent and his orchestra will play on those dates, at dances sponsored by the American Association of University Women and the Business and Professional Women's club, respectively.

Both dances will be in the ballroom of the Schneider hotel, as important social events of the holiday season.

The orchestra has played in leading hotels and ballrooms of the nation, including Roseland Gardens of New York, the Dells club, and the Adolphus hotel where it had a year's engagement.

It features novelty acts, and a woman blues singer is included in its membership. The band holds a world's championship blue ribbon for its rendition of "Diger Rag." It has broadcast over both major national hook-ups.

Plans for carrying a Thanksgiving basket to an unfortunate family, and for participating in the Santa Day parade December 6 were made by Camp Fire Girls in their meeting Thursday afternoon.

The float will symbolize the three ranks of Camp Firewood gatherers, fire makers, and torch bearers. A hike, for which members will meet Friday at 10 a. m. at the high school building, was also planned, as well as a party for Edith Beckman, a charter member, who is leaving the city.

The party was given Friday night at the home of Mrs. Bo Barrett, sponsor. After a period of amusing games, a large paper rose was presented to the honoree. It proved to be a bed lamp, with handkerchiefs concealed in the leaves.

Sandwiches and ocos were served to Edith Beckman, Katherine Ward, Jessie Marie Gilbert Peggy Brown, Wanda Aucutt, Katherine and Roberta Ohara, Shirley Johnson, Hermie Beckman, Jessie Marie Farmer, Betty Jo Anderson, Mildred Pierce, Mary Elizabeth Seeds, Mrs. Nolan Harris and Mrs. Barrett.

Mrs. C. M. Gage is a patient at Wesley hospital after a major operation Friday.

FOOD WILL BE THE PRICE OF SEEING SKITS

LITTLE THEATER WILL SPONSOR PROGRAM TOMORROW

HUMOR as interpreted by Pampa clubs will pervade the "cabbage theater" program tomorrow evening, when Thanksgiving dinners for the city's destitute will be collected in admission fees of staple food.

The Little Theater is sponsoring the program at the city hall auditorium. The public is invited, and a contribution of food will admit a spectator.

Each club in the city was asked to present a stunt on the program. Arrangements were completed at a committee meeting Friday evening.

Clubs Announce Stunts. Trouble the club members announced a treat for music lovers for their contribution. They plan to present a very light opera adapted from the Shakespearean tragedy, "Hamlet and Eggs," their representative said.

Kiwanians have promised to bring a supper from New York to discuss "Physical Culture and Its Benefits." Judge Newton P. Willis will represent Kiwanis club in a skit while the Rotary club will demonstrate a scientific operation.

The Efficient Business Woman a burlesque, will be presented by the Business and Professional Women's club. Skits by the Twentieth Century clubs and the American Association of University Women will complete the program.

Food collected in admission fee will be turned over to Mrs. W. J. Davis to be distributed to needy families. For Thanksgiving, staple groceries will be accepted at the door.

Forum Ends PTA Program at High School Thursday

Discussions ending in a forum with four speakers featured a program of High School Parent-Teacher association Thursday afternoon. Activities of high school students was the general theme.

The Rev. C. E. Lancaster discussed "Activities That Tear Down" emphasizing the wrong use of leisure. He spoke of the viewpoint of those who sanction activities which are injurious physically, mentally and morally to adults as well as youths.

Contrasting Views. T. H. McDonald presented a contrast, "Activities That Build Up." He stressed school and club activities, explaining the group plan as used in work and play. Club may supply an outlet for interest and stimulation for the interested students, he said, and many are doing a constructive work.

Mr. McDonald conducted forum discussions, in which Mrs. M. Dodson, R. W. Castleberry, Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar, and the Rev. Lancaster participated.

Musical numbers included a violin solo by Miss Dorothy Meers, accompanied by Miss Josephine Lang and a group of lullabies sung to Howard Zimmerman with accompaniment by Roy Wallrabenstein.

In the short business session, Mrs. Dodson, association president, announced that 73 paid members have been enrolled for the year.

She named a committee including Mrs. Harry Marbaugh, Miss Josephine Carrier, Miss Flo Perry, and Harry Kelly to investigate the advisability of recognition for the school band orchestra. Harold Cuming teams by the state inter-school athletic league.

HAD INVITATION TO EXPLAIN ROUSTING OF REBELS

WACO, Nov. 25. (AP)—President M. Neff of Baylor university sounded in an open letter today that there would be no conference with him and students on how to administer the rules of the institution against hazing or any other disorders.

Replying to a message from representatives of the Brooks Hall club, who had invited him to join with them in the manner in which eight students were suspended last week for hazing and "other actions of the rules," the president said:

"My suggestion is that you, as students, remain in your proper places as students, availing yourselves of every opportunity offered of culture and refinement. . . . I said his letter was intended that group of students who 'rebel' at one o'clock night in an assembly prepared and sent me a message asking that the institution give an accounting as to administrative acts to end lawlessness and general misbehavior which culminated in the suspension of eight Baylor students."

Chapter 13 THE THREAT A little after dark, when Curt and Paul were sitting on a chopping block talking over their plans for that night, old John Paxton came walking into the glow of their campfire.

"Have a seat, John," Curt invited, standing up and offering his own place on the block. He wanted a talk with Paxton, for the guileless old fellow was a mine of information. He was familiar with everybody at Russian Lake, knew every river and range between there and the Yukon. The Klondikes kept all other whites out of the Lilluars, but kindly old John ran his fur path unmolested.

His tent was pitched close to the canoe pier, and his eight sleek huskies were chained along the landwash there, each staked separately, each with its cool burrow dug into the turf. Instead of letting his dogs starve through the summer as others did, he kept a gill net anchored near the islets and caught fish for his team every day.

"Don't git up for me," he bade Curt. "I jist stepped over to say they's goin to be a little poltatch at my camp in about twenty minits. Ralph an' Sonya an' Father Lesperance an' others'll be there, and I figgered you b'ys might like to jin us, bein' sorta strangers here."

Curt accepted eagerly. That campfire, where he would meet people and learn things, was an opportunity made to order. And he would get to see Sonya Nichols again, a last time probably, since she was leaving the next day. Old John went back to his camp. While Paul busied himself making a spruce-tip mattress for their sleeping pokes, Curt leaned against the cache sapling and looked out upon the dark lake, not thinking about his hunt for Igor Karakhan but about Sonya Nichols' flashing eyes and the imperious toss of her head as she read him the riot act.

"Our marooned friend over on the island stands to get a soaking tonight," Paul broke into his thoughts, as a distant rumble of thunder rolled out of the western mountains. "He deserves worse, that ape. You should have let me shoot him." Curt straightened up. He had forgotten all about the man. "I suppose you're right, Paul. But still, he was so drunk he wasn't altogether responsible. I didn't think about this storm coming on. I ought to go and bring him back."

Slipping his flash and automatic into his pocket, he stepped down to the landwash, launched the canoe and headed across for the island. He found the right channel without difficulty and nosed down through it to the island of dead pines. At his hail the 'breed came out to the beach. Curt explained, told him to get in, and shoved off. On the way back he suggested, "What d'you say, friend?—lets busy what happened this evening?" The 'breed seemed to have been waiting for him to say something, for he blazed out: "W'at, beezness did you got come butt in? Dat not your woomans?"

"Well no, but she wasn't yours either, friend," Curt pointed out. He added patiently: "Now let me show you something. Suppose my partner and I hadn't come over there. The girl would have reported you to the Yellowstripes. Soon or late they'd have got you. This country isn't big enough to hold you or anybody else that they really go after. If you look at this right, we saved you from—well, the penalty for what you tried is—hanging." The ugly word made the man jerk. In the dark Curt could feel the man glaring at him with an animalish hatred. He kept an eye on the fellow and loosened the automatic in his pocket. From experience with that sort, he knew he had made a vicious enemy.

"Damn fools w'at come nosse into nof—delt—beezness," the Indian growled. "dey sometam mebbe git catched onder a pile of rocks back in de woods somewere." Curt's patience snapped. He stopped paddling, tapped on the gunwale. "See here, you, if you try any rifle talk with my partner or me, you'd better make your first shot good! Hug your grudge if you want to, but if I catch you as much as looking crossed-eyed at that girl again, you'll be the one to get caught under a pile of rocks, and I don't mean maybe." They skinned on ashore. With a low sinister oath by way of good-bye the 'breed stalked off into the dark.

Curt went up to the tent, where Paul was tuning his guitar. Taking a can of cigarettes and a box of chocolate squares as their contribution, they stepped out the path to old John's "git-together." The company had already gathered. Curt pulled a log close to the packing box for himself and Paul, and sat down, trying to be inconspicuous as possible so that he could watch and listen. Somebody in that company might be Igor Karakhan's contact man. A word, a glance, a stray little slip might give him a clue. He glanced now and then at Sonya, who sat near him, with the firelight shining in her clear eyes and the glow of it tangled in her hair. She had looked up and nodded when he and Paul came, but she did not speak, and he believed that she had cast him into the outer darkness because of his good word for the Leninists.

With no factual reason for thinking so, Curt told himself that Sonya Nichols had known stormy experiences in her life, experiences which had left their mark on her. They had given her maturity and strength of character, but they had robbed her of any lightness of heart. The question of her nationality still troubled him, and he determined to settle it once and for all. Reaching for Paul's guitar, he plucked a chord or two, and then started a volga folksong, the only Russian piece he knew. Heads began swaying, moccasins tapping. Watching Sonya, Curt saw that the old melody had caught her too. He met her eye, smiled at her, nodded; and she began singing softly. As he listened to the strange words which came so naturally from her lips, Curt's last doubts went glimmering. Russian, she was!

Who's afraid of the big bad wolf?"

Silly Symphonies are not confined to Walt Disney. For some time, we Americans were actors in a very silly one. Business, big and little, thought it knew the way to keep the wolf from the door. Make things cheaper . . . get the price down . . . buy for less . . . sell for less . . . these were the straws for which we grasped to build our house. Unfair competition and low wages resulted . . . competition so vicious and wages so low that both the boss and the worker found the wolf just a step from the door. Silly . . . wasn't it?

And like No. 2 in the song, we all built a house of twigs. We bought only bargains . . . reduced expenses . . . got along without this and without that . . . cut salaries . . . skimmed on advertising . . . laid off help . . . We were so expense-conscious that business fell unconscious.

We discovered something. Folks out of work couldn't buy things . . . things unbought did not have to be replaced . . . no need for replacement, no need for manufacturing more. Now the worker and the boss found that the wolf was actually at the door.

This part of our symphony differs from Mr. Disney's. A Blue Eagle came along . . . the NRA Eagle . . . blue in color, but not in spirit. It told all of us . . . consumers, workers, and employers to get together. It showed us that if we would stop acting like little pigs there would be no wolf prowling around. It convinced employers to agree —to stop over-production—to stop unfair competition—to shorten hours—to hire more people. It is convincing consumers that the only way to keep the wheels turning is to buy.

Who's afraid of the big bad wolf? The man in the White House isn't. From a few minutes after noon on March 4, until this very minute, he has set an example of fearlessness and faith. On that day, he dug the foundation. Brick by brick he is building a permanent structure built on common sense, courage and co-operation. No wonder the whole country is singing, "Who's afraid of the big bad wolf?"

COMPANION OF CLYDE BARROW CLEARS UP MANY CRIMES

JONES TELLS OFFICERS HE WAS PRISONER

HIS STORY TENDS TO CLEAR MAN IN JAIL NOW

DALLAS, Nov. 25 (AP)—W. D. Jones, 37, so frightened he could not make a statement to newsmen late today a trash of crime during 1933 in which he blamed Clyde Barrow, West Dallas desperado, for the killing of Doyle Johnson in Temple last Christmas day and the fatal shooting of Deputy Sheriff M. M. Davis of Fort Worth in West Dallas last January 7.

Jones, who said he joined Barrow by accident and was virtually the desperado's prisoner for many months, admitted he was an eyewitness of both the Johnson and Davis killings. He made a detailed statement to Sheriff R. A. Schmid of Dallas last Saturday, which Jones told newsmen today was true and he signed it voluntarily.

He has been held incommunicado in the Dallas jail for more than a week and jail attendants, deputies and the sheriff himself all had refused to reveal his name until today.

Sheriff Schmid, accompanied by two deputies and Winter King, assistant district attorney, went to Temple Thursday to verify facts in Jones' statement and returned last night. No charges had been filed against Jones, but officers regarded his statement as absolving Frank Hardy, who still is held in jail in Temple on a murder charge in connection with the Johnson killing. A jury in his first trial disagreed a week ago and was dismissed.

Officers still were searching unsuccessfully today for Barrow and Bonnie Parker, his woman traveling companion, after they were taken out of a trap laid for them by Sheriff Schmid near Grand Prairie last Thursday and escaped in an automobile commandeered from two Fort Worth attorneys, after abandoning the bullet-torn machine in which they were traveling during the exchange with officers.

Barrow, whose brother, Buck, was fatally injured in a gun fight several months ago with officers in Iowa, is wanted for various crimes throughout the middle west.

U. S. Webb, attorney general of California, has held his office for 30 years and will be a candidate, he announced, for reelection next year.

BOBBY MUSE'S ORCHESTRA TO BE HERE SOON

The real Thanksgiving activities in Pampa will be started Wednesday night when the popular Bobby Muse brings his orchestra to play for a dance at the Pla-mor auditorium. A gala occasion is promised and a large crowd is expected to take part in the festivities.

Muse is new to this territory and has many entertainment features which are new to dance and music lovers in the Panhandle. He comes direct from Blossom Heath, Oklahoma City. He has played recently in the Pennsylvania Hotel, New York, the Muebach Hotel, Kansas City, and the Adolphus Hotel in Dallas.

Bobby has an unusually good voice, said by many who have heard him, "the sweetest voice this side of heaven." Pampa dancers will have the opportunity to hear this voice Wednesday night.

The management of the Pla-mor has been making every effort to bring to Pampa some of the best dance orchestras in the United States. This orchestra is another of those to which thousands have danced and thrilled to the music and feature numbers presented by the artists.

Admission will be $1.10 for the evening's entertainment. Celebrate the beginning of Thanksgiving festivities at this dance Wednesday night at the Pla-mor. —Adv.

Garage Blaze Is Extinguished By Fire Department

Two fires were extinguished by the Pampa fire department Thursday afternoon. The first call, about 3 o'clock, was to 1112 E. Browning avenue, where grass was burning near a residence. With the use of water and wet sacks, the fire was soon extinguished. There was no loss.

Soon after the truck returned to the fire station, a call was made to 707 North West street, where a garage was on fire. Water from the booster pump was used and damage was only $10. The garage caught fire from burning trash in a barrel nearby.

The department made a run Tuesday and one Wednesday for the first calls in more than a month.

COLUMBIA IN VICTORY

NEW YORK, Nov. 25 (AP)—The 1933 Columbia football team today completed one of the most successful campaigns of Lion gridiron history as it rolled to a 16 to 0 victory over its ancient foe, Syracuse. Only one defeat, at the hands of undefeated Princeton early in the season, mars the Columbia record while victories were scored over Cornell, Navy, Virginia, La Fayette, Colleigh, and Penn State.

Total damage at the four calls this week was less than $15, Chief Clyde Gold estimates.

PREVUE HERE PROVES MERIT OF NEW FILM

"FOOTLIGHT PARADE" WILL BE AT LA NORA FOUR DAYS

It was an enthralled audience that time and again broke out into the most vociferous approval that ever rang through the theater, as they sat through the premiere last night of "Footlight Parade." Warner Bros. latest and all surpassing musical masterpiece.

Here is an entertainment that has never been equalled on either stage or screen. For sheer magnitude, stunning, sensational production, spectacular scenes, divine dance ensembles, peppy music, strong drama, tender romance and sparkling comedy, "Footlight Parade" stands in a class by itself. We thought that "42nd Street" and "Gold Diggers of 1933" were superb pictures. We didn't believe they would be topped in a long, long time. But the unbelievable has come true!

Here is a smash hit—the like of which will gladden your heart. It is amazing—the fact that one producer could turn out such a succession of great musical pictures. Yet their ability to do is easily understandable when we realize that Lloyd Bacon who directed "42nd Street" is responsible for "Footlight Parade." Then there is that master of creative dance numbers, Busby Berkeley who again directed the brilliant numbers in this picture.

Supper Is Given On Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Soodhaier were hosts at their home Thursday evening with a buffet supper, observing their sixth wedding anniversary.

The young minister speaks twice daily, and will continue the services through Tuesday. Congregational singing is in charge of H. W. Walters of White Deer.

E. C. McKenzie, local pastor, and members of the church invite the public to attend services today and for the remainder of the revival.

Officers Of Class Meet In Luncheon

Officers of the Bethany class, First Baptist church, enjoyed a luncheon at the home of Mrs. J. E. Carlson Wednesday. At that time a covered dish luncheon for the entire class was planned for next Friday.

Officers present were Mesdames Eva Rush, G. D. Stockton, O. C. Williams, A. A. Steel, J. P. Reynolds, T. W. Jamison, R. C. Wood, L. A. Baxter, W. E. Towe, G. C. Malone, and the hostess.

Winter-Proofed Cars Save Much Time, Trouble

DALLAS, Nov. 25—While manufacturers of modern motor vehicles have made much progress in designing automatic adjustments to compensate for climatic changes, no method except a complete change of lubricants has been found to protect cars against the excessive wear that follows the use of summer grade lubricants in winter. J. M. Marnen, technical engineer for the Magnolia Petroleum company, warns automobile owners.

Hard steering on cold mornings, difficult steering and heavy gear shifting are only a few of the symptoms that indicate the need to prepare your car for cold weather driving by changing to the proper grade fuel and lubricants, Mr. Marnen said. These are the more apparent results of improper lubrication and do not reveal the excessive wear and damage to moving parts that goes on unknown to the car owner.

To safeguard motor vehicles against winter trouble and damage Magnolia provides a 7-point service which provides a complete check-up of those parts of the car most likely to give trouble in cold weather and a change to winter grade lubricants recommended by the car makers. It also includes thorough inspection of the radiator and battery, the addition of Socoxy antifreeze solution where necessary and a tank full of Mobilgas now adjusted for quick winter starting.

The value of "Climatic Control," that attribute of Mobilgas which adapts it to conditions of temperature and altitude, is again being proven by the "Under Three Flags" expedition of the Socoxy-Vacuum corporation which is now in Mexico following a gruelling trip from the northernmost highway point in Canada. The twelve stock cars of different makes comprising the "Three Flags" calvadade are being punished on every type of highway to test the qualities of Mobilgas and Mobilgrease. The makes of cars in the test tour represent ninety per cent of all automobiles in use in the United States and they are being piloted by only "average" drivers.

WANDERING OF YOUNGSTERS IS SEEN IN FILM

FRANKIE DARRO AGAIN HAS STRONG ROLE AS TOUGH

Mark it down on your calendars now . . . "Wild Boys of the Road," First National's swift, vital dramatization of the story of a half million wandering boys and girls, which opens today at the Rex theater, is another amazing piece of realistic motion picture entertainment for which Warner Bros. First National are noted.

Its power and intensity has scarcely been equalled on the talking screen. Here is a stirring story boldly told, filmed with understanding, featuring a vital drama based upon actual conditions which seem almost impossible in this day and age.

There seems to be no yardstick by which the power and drama of "Wild Boys of the Road" can be accurately measured. Perhaps it can be compared best with that other epochal film from the same producing company, "I Am a Fugitive From a Chain Gang." Even so "Wild Boys" seems to deal more effectively with a more vital subject than either of its predecessors.

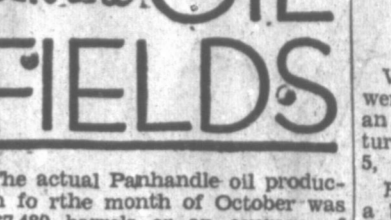

Together with the tremendous import of this picture, it achieves an equally high place as pure entertainment. A story of modern youth, even a worried, homeless, fugitive youth, it still has an irrefragable humor, a buoyancy of spirit and a vital spark of enthusiasm which add immeasurably to its general excellence.

Most of the players appearing in "Wild Boys of the Road" are under twenty. Frankie Darro, remembered for his sensational performance in James Cagney's "Mayor of Hell," plays a leading role. . . . Dorothy Costan, a newcomer, chosen from the chorus of "42nd Street" and "Gold Diggers of 1933" and other musicals, proves to be a happy choice for the principal feminine part. Edwin Phillips, Sterling Holloway and Ann Hovey are other youngsters whose work is outstanding in the picture.

The picture deals with the plight of the half million boys and girls in their teens who are actually living the life of tramps — roaming wild over the country, headed for a life of crime and privation.

Watch your step this city is full of Studebakers!

In the OIL FIELDS

The actual Panhandle oil production for the month of October was 1,367,480 barrels or an average of 44,112 barrels daily, according to figures released by J. M. McDonald, supervisor of the oil and gas division of the Texas Railroad commission in the Panhandle field, yesterday afternoon. The figures are subject to correction and will be rechecked before the report is mailed to Austin.

The allowable for that period was 1,361,359 barrels making the daily average 43,914 barrels. The overproduction for the month was 196 barrels daily but with the variation allowed, the average production was slightly under the actual allowable. The state allows a slight variation in production when scheduling a report.

Pipe line run figures for October were approximately the same as those of actual production. The local office will prepare an actual monthly production schedule.

Perryton Man Hurt in Wreck

VERNON, Nov. 25. (AP)—Four men were injured, one seriously, when an Amarillo-Wichita Falls bus overturned early Thursday on Highway 5, 11 miles northwest of Vernon.

Roy Beaver of Perryton suffered a broken back and James Fry of Shannon and Charles McKinney of Childress suffered slight cuts and bruises. W. D. Miller, driver of Wichita Falls, suffered a back sprain and minor bruises and cuts.

Beaver was confined to the hospital but the others were dismissed. The bus overturned as the driver swerved to avoid a calf and was practically demolished. Beaver was thrown clear of the machine.
