

GRAY COUNTY OFFERS TO SELL ROAD BONDS TO LOCAL PURCHASERS

LOW RATE AND SURE PAY MAY DRAW BUYERS

TRAVEL ON OLD ROAD DISCOURAGED BY WILSON

Gray county is taking the final steps in the financing of the Pampa-McLean all-weather highway.

Uncle Sam will furnish $84,000 of the amount needed and will make Gray county the gift of $36,000.

It is estimated that about $100,000 more will be required. The county is in the market with bonds in this sum for sale at par or above. The bonds will draw 4 per cent interest and will be retired in 1935-36-37-38-39. The integrity and good prospects of the county stand behind the bonds. Nearly 90 per cent of the 1933 county and state taxes have been collected to date—a fact which places Gray county near the head of the procession in the southwest.

May Sell Locally

The county court yesterday stated informally that it would welcome bids on county bonds from local investors. Persons with large cash surpluses—or small ones either—who would like to invest in Gray county bonds may leave their propositions with R. C. Wilson, county auditor. There are two good reasons for welcoming local purchasers. One is that local buying would keep the interest money at home; another is that the county could more easily find the bonds for re-purchasing later should it desire to buy back some of its bonds to stop interest. Ordinarily, Gray county bonds are sold by investment firms to scores or hundreds of persons, making it difficult to locate them.

Uncle Sam Pays Par

Uncle Sam will pay par for the $84,000 issue and will be repaid in 1936-37-38.

The court order setting up the two issues, totaling $184,000, was made by W. W. Wilson, McLean commissioner, and was seconded by John Haggard of this precinct. Orders setting up funds for the road were rescinded. The new bonds, long authorized, will be printed as soon as the issues are approved at Austin.

Commissioner John White, recent accident victim, attended yesterday's session in a wheel chair. He is recovering satisfactorily.

As a result of the federal 70-30 PWA loan and the improvement of the general bond market, the Pampa-McLean road will be largely completed by next winter. The bonds just ordered to be issued are for topping the catclaw and finishing the highway in every respect.

Finish 6 Miles

For several days, the contractor has been moving his equipment to a new catclaw site on the Parker ranch leased by Mel B. Davis. Both courses of catclaw have been laid from McLean about 6 miles north.

Commissioner Wilson said yesterday that Pampa-McLean travel should be by way of Jelicho or Alamed to prevent congestion on the detour to the more direct route. "And if they do that and wear out my roads, you can transfer some of your funds to my precinct," said Commissioner H. G. McCleskey, smiling.

Heavy travel over the new catclaw is not desired before dry weather. Topping at an early date would prevent damage to the roadbed. Delay in finishing the work done by CWA workers is being shown as an example of the traffic damage. Work on the Pampa end of the road has been under way several days.

Germany Indicates U. S. Will Be Paid

BERLIN, July 14. (AP)—Germany opened the way to the United States today to effect a settlement under which interest may be paid on the Dawes and Young loans despite the Reich moratorium.

Replying officially to Ambassador William E. Dodd in response to the American note of June 27, the government stated it has not the slightest intention of discriminating against the United States in the matter of debt transfers.

It was "ready to negotiate with the American government as with the governments of other countries relative to ways and means of making possible the servicing of the Dawes and Young loans."

RAIN PRAYERS ANSWERED

FORT SMITH, Ark., July 14. (AP)—Rain of near cloudburst proportions tonight was the answer to prayer of thousands of Crawford county farmers who yesterday knelt to ask for a drenching downpour to revive a sector hard hit by drought.

I HEARD—

That a bride of a few weeks went into a local grocery store to purchase some soap. The price quoted was eight cents a bar. She asked to see the manager. "Why do you want to see the manager?" queried Hubby. "I want to see if I can't get this soap three for a quarter," replied the bride. ("This is true if I ever told one.")

Harriman, former president of the Harriman National Bank & Trust company, is shown in his car as he smilingly left New York for the federal penitentiary at Lewisburg, Pa., to begin a four and a half year sentence. The 65-year-old banker was convicted of missing depositors' funds and falsifying bank records.

LUPE VELEZ IS BACK WITH HER 'TARZAN' AGAIN

Pair Leaves Boxing Match Apparently Good Friends

HOLLYWOOD, July 14. (AP)—Betting was about 50-50 around here today as to whether Lupe Velez will "make up" again with her husband Johnny Weissmuller, the movie "Tarzan."

They were together last night at their old nocturnal haunt—the boxing ringside less than three days after the had sued him for divorce. Leaving together, apparently the best of friends, they were reported to have made the rounds of "night spot" until the early morning hours and it was not known whether or not their characteristic reconciliations was in sight.

Weissmuller did say today he had signed an agreement that he would not contest Miss Velez' action for divorce. He added, however, "I hope we will be reconciled, but that is entirely up to her."

The latest state of mind of the temperamental little Mexican actress herself could not be learned.

At the fights last night, Joe E. Brown, acting as master of ceremonies, espied the Weissmuller reunion and apparently decided to find out what it was all about. He bounded through the ropes and landed practically in Lupe's lap. He gave her a kiss and then observed "No wonder he took her back."

Johnny just grinned.

Brown essayed osculation again, but this time Weissmuller shoved him away.

Two other members of the vacation party which arrived here yesterday for a week's stay, were not on the wading expedition.

Mrs. Roy Huff of Miami was a shopper in the city yesterday.

GAS SUIT INTRODUCES NEW ISSUE

MARKET VALUE OF GAS ASKED BY PLAINTIFFS

DEFENDANTS INCLUDE OIL COMPANY OF PAMPA

AMARILLO, July 14. (AP)—A new issue has been introduced into the Panhandle gas conservation fight by the filing of a suit in Potter county district court to recover the "reasonable and market value" of a large quantity of natural gas processed by a stripping plant.

W. E. Cobb and others, plaintiffs in the suit, claim that their one-eighth royalty in 1,003,440 cubic feet of gas withdrawn from a well on 80 acres of Carson county land, which they own was worth $4,390.05, at a reasonable market value of three and one-half cents per thousand cubic feet, whereas they received $238.47.

The three and one-half cents which the plaintiffs claim is a "reasonable" price is the amount paid at the wells by most of the pipeline companies which buy gas for fuel purposes.

Defendants to the suit are the Panhandle Northern Oil Co., of Amarillo, the Paul-Tex Co. of Pampa, and the Cargray corporation, of Amarillo, operators of the gasoline plant to whom the oil companies sold the gas.

The petition sets out that the plaintiffs "contemplated" that natural gas from the lease "would be utilized for lawful and beneficial uses that would yield to the lessors, for their interest in such gas, the reasonable and market value of the gas," but that the gas "was stripped of an infinitesimal quantity of natural gasoline, less than 31 of a gallon per thousand cubic feet, which is less than three per cent of its heat value and economic value," and the balance wasted into the air.

NEGRO CONFESSES KILLING

Theft Ring Is Broken Up

Aged Country Storekeeper Slain With Axe At Bryan In Resisting Robbery.

BRYAN, July 14. (AP)—Sheriff Harrington of Grimes county said today he had obtained a statement from Ira Rector, 28, negro, admitting that he killed H. R. Jones, aged country storekeeper, with an axe last night when the storekeeper resisted robbery.

Immediately after obtaining the statement officers rushed the negro to Huntsville penitentiary for safekeeping.

Sheriff Harrington of Grimes county and a posse of deputies caught the negro in a round-up of suspects at Iola early today.

Jones, a white man, was aroused last night by someone calling over the telephone and asking that he open his store, located in the farming country about three miles from Bedias, to accommodate the caller, who pretended he wanted to make some purchases.

According to the negro's statement he slew Jones for money he had in the store. The negro said he first purchased razor blades, tomatos, and crackers, then hit the aged merchant on the head with an axe repeatedly, crushing his skull.

GRAND JURY IS TOLD TO INDICT GIRL'S SLAYER

Penitentiary Heads Are Removed In Shakeup

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., July 14. (AP)—A grand jury called into special session today for next Wednesday will be asked to indict Frank Martin, trusty convict guard, for first degree murder for killing Helen Spence Eaton, escaped girl convict.

The guard, held in jail on a charge of murder, shot the 21-year-old brunette slayer of two men when he overtook her on a highway near Jacksonville women's prison farm Wednesday afternoon 24 hours after she had escaped, leaving behind a note boasting she would never be taken alive. It was her fifth break from the prison in a year and she was armed with a pistol she had stolen in her getaway.

F. D. R. CATCHES 50-POUND FISH AT PIRATE ISLE

ABOARD THE USS NEW ORLEANS, accompanying President Roosevelt, July 14. (AP)—President Roosevelt tonight set out on his 4,000 mile cruise to the Hawaiian islands after a field day of sport on and about the Cocos island, a green dot in the Pacific ocean west of Panama, once the rendezvous of pirates.

Burned by the sun and wind of a day of varied rain storms and sailing skies, the president retired early.

Just at sunset the president's cruiser, the Houston, struck out for the west. The New Orleans followed in her wake and soon the verdant Cocos island dropped below the horizon.

The president caught a 50-pound ono, a fish resembling the barracuda, and he brought it out of the water without misadventure Roosevelt's strapping son, Franklin, also caught an ono, but a shark snapped off its tail before he could get it into the boat. A marine got even with the shark by shooting it, but his hands held the honors of the day belonged to the president because of the clean landing of his catch.

Despite a downpour of rain the president, wearing an old blue jersey and fishing boots, kept an engagement at noon for a picnic in Walfish cove, on shore. The cove, a dent in the precipitous rocky front of the shore, provided the only place on the island where a landing could be made. The president walked over an expanse of sandy beach and inspected an abandoned shack.

City police officers investigated several petty thefts and an automobile accident yesterday, but made no arrests.

Roy Hatfield reported the loss of a hand bag. He had just arrived from Tecumseh, Okla., and was in a local pool hall when the bag was stolen.

Carl Brashears, 112 Houston street, lost two Indian blankets and a fancy pillow from his car which was parked at his home.

A tire and wheel was stolen from B. R. Harris' Buick sedan while he was attending the Harley Sadler show Friday night. The tire was a Firestone six ply. Mr. Harris is here visiting friends. He now resides in Lyubcock but is a former Pampa.

Police received word to be on the lookout for two young men in a model A Ford. They hijacked a tank supply house in Shamrock early Friday night and were reported heading toward Pampa. No trace of the men had been found up to last night.

FRISCO UNION WORKERS VOTE TO WALK OUT

PARALYZING STRIKE TO BEGIN TOMORROW

SAN FRANCISCO, July 14. (AP)—A general strike of gradually increasing intensity in San Francisco and Oakland beginning Monday was declared by union labor today in a desperate maneuver to help Pacific coast longshoremen and marine workers who are locked deeply in battle with employers.

Howling down "conservative" elements in a zero hour meeting of a huge general strike committee representing the 65,000 union men of San Francisco, the rank and file voted overwhelmingly for the walk-out.

Unions which already had voted to strike were instructed to walk out Monday. Those not having balloted on the matter were ordered to take strike votes immediately.

Like a flash the vote fired Transbay union elements into action. The Alameda county (Oakland) building trades council voted a simultaneous strike of all its unions. Labor leaders there announced the central labor council would meet Monday night and declare a general walk-out—another 40,000 men.

Forbodings of chaos, bloodshed and hunger settled like dark clouds in the background of this feverish activity.

There was a rising tide of warlike preparations in the already paralyzed Golden Gate city.

National Guardsmen holding control of the state-owned waterfront here since the bloody rioting of July 5 began armed movements into the industrial district. Officers said they were gathering food for an emergency.

Mayor Angelo J. Rossi ordered 500 special patrolmen added to the regular police force of 1,300. County Sheriff William Fitzgerald announced his 2,200 special deputies were subject to call. He has only 22 regular deputies.

Terminating the general strike "the worst calamity since the disaster of 1906" when San Francisco was leveled by earthquake and fire, the mayor announced he would make full use of all the power at his command. He made plans for a nationwide radio appeal tonight for industrial peace.

Acting Gov. Frank F. Merriam proclaimed the intention of the state to keep highways to San Francisco open to trucks. Raymond Cato, chief of the state highway patrol, immediately ordered the police.

Lake Brownwood Slowly Draining

BROWNWOOD, July 14. (AP)—The surface of Lake Brownwood was slowly lowered tonight as efforts to shut down the flood gate, opened several days ago to allow relief water to flow to drought-stricken rice fields 500 miles away, failed.

A plan to force the gate shut with jacks, tried late today, failed. The lake now contains 13,000 acre feet of water, 52,000 acre feet having flowed out.

The gate was opened to allow relief water to rush down the Colorado river to Wharton and Matagorda counties, where famished rice fields needed immediate attention.

Man Critically Injured In Jump From Truck Here

John Leverett, employee of the Magnolia Petroleum company, carbon black division, is in a critical condition in Worley hospital where he was taken in a G. C. Malone ambulance Friday afternoon after a trailer on which he was riding overturned on South Barnes street.

The injured man attempted to jump from the trailer but his foot caught and he was pinned beneath the large vehicle. Mr. Leverett received a badly crushed chest, crushed shoulder, fractured hand and a broken leg. Internal injuries are feared by attending physicians.

The driver of the truck pulling the trailer said that he pulled near the shoulder to miss a car driving near the middle of the street. The trailer slipped on the soft shoulder and overturned in the ditch.

Other men riding on the trailer jumped clear and were uninjured.

E. H. Scrimshire of Miami was a visitor here last night.

WOODROW WILSON (28th president): "By the blessing of God I ascribe to Bible study the help and strength which I have had from God to pass in peace through deeper trials, in various ways, than I have ever had before; and, after having now above fourteen years tried this way, I can most fully, in the fear of God, commend it."

FINDING THE RIGHT WAY: Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near: let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.—Isaiah 55:6, 7.

ONE REASON for the inconsistency—often fatal—in law enforcement and in public administration is that we Americans try to "fix" everything. Few of us, at some time or another, have not been guilty. Sometimes we call it "helping a friend"; sometimes it is called lobbying.

From the lowest office to that of President of the United States, the influence of the "fixers" is felt. Contracts are "fixed" so that certain persons can be favored when, ostensibly, the bidding is open and competitive. Nepotism is a form of fixing, especially when it is a case of "you hire my cousin Henry and I'll hire your Uncle Bill."

Bribery is one of the lowest forms of fixing, although some of the subtler forms ought to be labeled under the same name. Many a father "fixes" the law so that his son can escape punishment. Sometimes the impression is given the boy that he can do anything; that Dad can fix it with "the law." A pampered child goes through life with his circumstances fixed, but if anything upsets his props, he is left to make his own awkward way.

Fixing involves appeals to one's friends—often appeals that are unjustified and embarrassing. The first thing that a drunk man thinks on sobering is for a friend to "fix" it so that he won't have to appear in police court. That is, if he has that peculiar state of mind which permits him to think it all right to get drunk but terrible to be fined for so doing.

The self-styled "big shot" likes to fix things with public officials and boast about it. And there is no word too harsh for him to apply to a firm public official. Sometimes the same thing applies to newspapers which refuse to suppress every item about a man or woman who breaks a law. Similarly, there are persons who think their friends in other towns should protect them from every interference of the law, regardless of the offenses committed.

Fixing involves bribery, misplaced influence, annoyance, threats, flattery, and all the other arts of tricksters. Of course, there is legitimate fixing—the kind we call lobbying when we go to Austin to work for or against a measure. But even there some of the horse-trading amounts to the same thing as illegal "fixing."

Fixing destroys consistency, which is the backbone of the law. It makes for inefficiency in public administration. A bulletin of the Supreme Council of the Masonic lodge recently had this to say of "fixing":

"America is seemingly becoming 'fixer' conscious. Let us qualify this statement. A man or woman is arrested for some traffic violation, which may be of a trivial or serious nature. Such rules governing overtime parking, parking in a restricted zone, 'going through' a red light, failing to make identity known after a collision, etc., may be involved. What is the first thing that occurs to the mind of that man or woman? Why, to phone immediately, or otherwise get in touch with some influential friend and importune him to 'fix' the ticket. In other words, the friend is supposed to approach the arresting officer and either cajole or intimidate him into 'going light' on the case, as the guilty party is really a 'good fellow' and it would be to everybody's advantage to let him off easy. Or the powers that be may be appealed to in advance of the court appearance and, if the importuning one be a man of influence and political prestige, the authorities may permit 'justice to be tempered with mercy,' and the defendant is dismissed with a word of admonition.

"Nor are 'fixers' active only in traffic cases. These ingenious men of power are called upon to use their good offices of influence in almost every type of case known to the court calendar.

"Some people do not seem to realize that when they (willfully or otherwise) violate a law, they are thereby exposing themselves to arrest, with possible conviction, fine, and perhaps imprisonment. They feel that ordinances, edicts and regulations are made especially for the benefit of 'the other fellow,' and should not directly apply to them. Many of these people will not hesitate to break the law at a time and place when and where no bluecoat is visible to the naked eye. They have even been known to laugh and brag about their prowess in thus outwitting the forces of the law.

"The alarming annual toll of human life taken on the highways and city streets clearly indicates that not a few motorists openly and without compunction violate traffic laws and defy the authorities to apprehend and punish them. According to a survey recently made, the great majority of motor fatalities are caused by excessive speed—a practice equally dangerous to motorist and pedestrian. Motor laws are not enacted to harass the automobilist, to deprive him of his pleasure, to levy upon him certain assessments in the form of court fines; these laws are for the preservation of human life, for the safety of motorist and pedestrian alike, for the general welfare of the community, state and nation.

"When an alcohol-soaked youth borrows his Dad's (or someone else's) car and proceeds to burn up the roads with no thought for the lives of others, but animated solely by a moronic desire to make 'whoopee,' he should be firmly dealt with by resolute officers who cannot be influenced by the inevitable "fixer."

"When the careless or criminally negligent motorist is forced to pay to 'the uttermost farthing' for his disregard for law, his defiance of the common rights of others, and his refusal to obey regulations and ordinances; when the 'fixer' is threatened with arrest for attempting to subvert law and order, and adulterate justice; when men and women generally are noble enough, and human enough, to respect any statute that looks to the welfare of their fellows; when callow youth is taught (either in the chemical laboratory or the family woodshed) that alcohol and gasoline are inharmonious elements and should never be fused; then that great army of motor fatalities reported annually in the United States may be sharply reduced to a few straggling ranks, and America will be a better and infinitely safer country in which to reside—and enjoy life.

The state highway department will soon undertake the spending of state and federal funds for roads that will furnish employment for thousands of now jobless men. Gray county has highway needs which fit admirably into the state program.

Knowing something of the highway commission's attitude toward roads in this area, we have no fear for the outcome. Highway 152 southeast of here is part of an important road and one which, by reason of the new oil development in Wheeler county, should be completed as soon as possible. On the west, the Pampa-Borger highway is a vital one as a continuance of the same general route and as a road serving the Panhandle oil field. It should be possible to drive the length of the oil field over 152 and the Pampa-Borger road in all kinds of weather. We believe the state will place its first mories on these roads.

The commission is well versed in the needs. It has a long-time program. It is a waste of time to try to change that program by arguing for some other road to be paved first. Most of the good roads associations served well enough when the people had to vote bonds, but now that the state and federal governments are paying the principal costs the roads groups are of relatively little influence.

Gray county is doing her part to feed the main highways. The Pampa-McLean road connecting U. S. 66 and U. S. 60 in a cross-county route will be completed promptly. A bridge will be built on McClellan creek to serve the oil industry. These are current projects. Highway 88 is vital but is not in the program of the moment.

Many persons are wondering why the new post-office is not formally opened. Many wish to see its interior behind the formidable partitions. The answer is that everyone is waiting on Congressman Marvin Jones. The presence of the congressman is desirable, but time is fleeting and, unless Mr. Jones can answer inquiries more promptly as to time of his probable arrival, those planning a celebration of the completion of the building will be justified in proceeding without reference to his presence.

Methodists Will Present 'Mansions'

A famous one-act play, "Mansions," that has won the inter-scholastic league championship of Texas twice, and has won consistently in other states, will be presented at the First Methodist church tonight. The three roles in the drama will be interpreted by Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Foote and Mrs. Lance Webb. Mrs. Webb received dramatic training at Northwestern University and appeared in numerous college productions. Mrs. Foote was graduated from a school of drama and later taught dramatics. Presentation of the play will follow the song service.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, July 14. (AP)—Cotton was quite active in today's short weekend session and prices fluctuated rather freely, making new highs for the season in the first hour of trading but reacting later. The close was steady with prices showing a net gain of 1 point on July and net losses of 3 points on later months.

The opening was steady as Liverpool cables were better than due. Futures showed gains of 1/2 points but most of this gain was soon lost on profit taking.

At the beginning of the second hour the census bureau reported domestic mill consumption during June to have been 363,414 bales as compared with 519,760 in May this year and 497,261 in June last year. Just prior to the reception of the consumption report the market had advanced owing to reported high temperature in the west and shorts covering for over the week end with the market touching new highs for the season, October at 13.14 and December at 13.29 or 11 to 12 points above the close of yesterday. However, the very poor consumption reported soon caused a reactionary feeling which was helped by reports of unsettled weather in the west.

October eased off 12.87 and December to 13.15 or 16 to 17 points below the early highs. There was a slight rally of 2 to 3 points at the end of covering. October closed at 12.29 or 3 points net lower for the day, and December closed at 13.15 also 3 points net lower.

Astors Return Suddenly From Honeymoon Trip

NEW YORK, July 14. (AP)—John Jacob Astor III and his bride returned to New York tonight two weeks after they set out from Newport, R. I., on what was reported to be a five week honeymoon.

At Harmon, N. Y., just outside of Manhattan the Astor scion was quoted as having said "Our vacation is over and we are anxious to get back to Newport. Frankly we could not afford to pay for the private car any longer."

The calm silence which has marked the eastward trip of the couple was maintained at Grand Central station. There they left their private railroad car and rode to a street level in a freight elevator.

Surrounding them was a group of men who apparently were private detectives and railroad employees. It was understood the Astors planned to go to the Savoy-Plaza hotel, remain there one week and continue to Newport.

—AND A CANARY

ST. JOHNS, N. B.—Pete, canary singer of neighborhood fame, lay silent because of a broken leg. Two specialists said the bird's delicate constitution made an operation impossible, so a plumber and first aid man fixed the injury. First mixing a thimbleful of plaster and providing a toothpick for a splint, the plumber held the bird while his friend applied the cast. Pete is singing again.

LA NORA TO PRESENT BIG STAGE SHOW FOR FIVE DAYS THIS WEEK

MARIE PURL'S UNIT TO OPEN HERE TUESDAY

CAST OF 25 ONE OF LARGEST TROUPES OF YEAR

La Nora theater is announcing the engagement of the Marie Purl unit stage show for five days starting Tuesday.

The Marie Purl unit is heralded as one of the best stage attractions that has played in Pampa this year. It comes highly recommended from many of the larger cities, having been on tour for the past four years and is the original group with which the show started. The show comes direct from Albuquerque, N. M., where it has been for the past four weeks.

The Marie Purl unit features such vaudeville headliners as Miss Marie Purl, with Bobby Dyer as master of ceremonies. Bobby can play a ukulele and sing comedy songs like like nobody else. Reggie Vestal is a comedian and is billed as "A Laugh a Second." Mickey McGlynn, the radio star, and "Eighty-Five Pounds of Dynamite," sings all the popular songs. Jimmy Harvey is dance aristocrat. The Haxton Sister, musical comedy stars, introduce the newest in costumes and dances. The eight James dancers, a chorus of lovely girls, includes Diana, the shadow dancer.

The show carries a cast of 25 people—the largest to visit Pampa this year. With Julian Stanley Collegians orchestra the cast is one of the fastest and most clever modern unit shows on the road.

The Marie Purl unit carries its own scenery, wardrobe, and specialties which will enable it to make complete changes in a program during the engagement here. There will be a complete change in screen program for Tuesday and Wednesday with Jack Holt in "Black Moon," for Thursday a one-day picture, "We're Rich Again," with a complete change in screen and stage program for Friday and Saturday, presenting the feature picture "Merry Wives of Reno," in addition to the stage show.

CLIENTS ARE SHOWN
JACKSONVILLE, July 14.—Senator Clint C. Small, candidate for governor, in a speech here Wednesday emphatically denied charges that he had represented a power utility. Replying to the charges that he had been retained as an attorney, Small said: "I have never represented one of them in my life, and got but $5.00 a month out of a little railroad and $25 a month out of a little gas firm. My clients are ranchers and farmers."

Mrs. J. E. Dwyer and daughters, Mary and Grace, left Friday for Excelsior Springs, Mo., to spend a six weeks vacation.

Friend Relates Billy the Kid's 'First Killing'

DEL RIO, July 14 (AP)—A friendly scuffle that terminated in death started "Billy the Kid" on his career of crime, declared A. M. Gildea, soldier of fortune and friend of Billy the Kid in 1877.

"Billy was a good boy and the reason he went so long without being caught was because he had more friends than enemies," said Gildea, who is visiting in Del Rio. "The first man Billy killed was a young blacksmith, named 'Windy.' Of course by first man I mean white man—not negroes or Indians," he explained.

"Billy and the blacksmith were scuffling one evening. Billy was a small fellow and the blacksmith a large man. In the scuffle 'Windy' pinned Billy on his back by placing a knee on each arm. He playfully slapped Billy's face several times and when Billy complained that 'Windy's' knees were hurting his arm 'Windy' just laughed and kept on slapping Billy. Billy's hand was near his gun. He pulled it out and shot 'Windy' through the side; got scared and left town on a fast horse owned by a gambler. Several days later the gambler was astonished when Billy sent his horse to him. That was in Fort Grant, Ariz.," Gildea concluded.

Gildea arrived at Del Rio several days ago from his home in Tombstone, Ariz. He lived here 50 years ago and has an interesting collection of photographs, souvenirs and miscellaneous articles he has gathered during the years of his wandering over the frontier settlements of the western United States. He served several years as cowboy guide for the Sixth United States cavalry in Arizona.

In 1910 Gildea went to Mexico and for five months served in the Mexican secret service under Madero.

BORAH'S LONE CAMPAIGNING MAY AND MAY NOT REVIVE INFLATION

By KIRKE SIMPSON
WASHINGTON (AP)—To those who may have thought that President Roosevelt's adroit evasion of "mandatory" currency inflation during the seventy-third congress indefinitely deferred that issue, this phrase, from Senator Borah's Fourth of July night radio address might be illuminating:

"If permitted to act under general, just and equal laws, with an adequate monetary system and an adequate banking system, protected from monopoly, free also from the restraint and dictation of bureaucracy, the people will win their war against depression."

That, in his own words, is the platform on which the Idaho crusader proposes to campaign this year "as best I may," upon which he promises a further radio report in October "if I can get the radio." And in the face of that implied charge of round-about administration moves to keep him off the air, it is a safe prediction that the senator will make that accounting of progress in October.

In Answer Currency Reflation?
But what, in Borah's judgment, is "an adequate monetary system" which he places first among essential steps for recovery, even ahead of his lashing criticism of "new deal" bureaucracy and the monopoly fostering purposes he charges against "the so-called leaders" of both great parties? How does he expect his planned campaign, aloof from any party affiliation, to be effective in the congressional elections?

Looking back to Borah's attitude in the senate both on the original Thomas amendment on monetary policy in the special session of the silver remonetization drive in the regular session, currency reflation by one means or another appears to be his answer to ways and means of breaking up wealth concentration in few hands and members of the United States senate.

That a substantial majority in both house and senate and without respect to party lines agree with him was proved by events of the seventy-third congress. Only extreme administration efforts tempered the mandatory to the permissive form in both cases.

FIGHT MOVIES TO BE SHOWN AT LA NORA

JOE E. BROWN'S NEW COMEDY ALSO TO BE SEEN

Motion pictures of the recent Baer-Carnera battle will be shown on the La Nora theater screen for three days starting today. The pictures were photographed at the ringside of the Long Island bowl and is practically a feature length subject. The films show the entire 11 rounds blow by blow—3200 feet of film was required to photograph the battle.

The Baer-Carnera fight films are declared the best ever made of any boxing event with special lighting effects for clear photography being used during the entire 11 rounds. The outstanding scenes clearly show the Man Mountain Carnera falling before the blows of Max Baer. The knockout blows are repeated in slow motion to more clearly depict the method of fighting used by both fighters, with Carnera taking the most of the severe blows but always coming back for more.

The technical knockout in the eleventh round is also shown and the entire film makes every theater seat appear at the ringside. The Baer-Carnera fight films will run Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday and will be shown Sunday and Monday in connection with Joe E. Brown in his funniest of hits to date, "The Circus Clown," with all the color, action, blare, and heraldry of the circus.

One of the greatest comedians in the history of filmdom, who has actually lived the life he depicts, for Joe E. Brown was a circus acrobat as a boy. Brown has been given a vehicle that allows his marked talents full sway, and, supported by an exceptionally capable company, including the entire cast of the Al G. Barnes circus, he brings to his audience a screamingly funny comedy that is replete with love, interest, thrills and action, and which at times has touches of pathos that stop the laughter with a hint of tears.

Patricia Ellis plays the leading feminine role opposite Joe and is the aerialist who whom he finally falls in love, although when he first joins the circus he is madly infatuated with a bareback rider who is a female impersonator. This love affair makes him the butt of no end of jokes until he finally discovers that his manorita is a man.

The romances are badly tangled, for the bareback rider, a part played by Donald Dilloway, is in love with Dorothy Burgess, in the role of a lion tamer. To cover up his own treachery he leads the husband, Harry Woods, the knife thrower, to believe that Joe is his wife's lover, which makes it hot for the star. Joe's own misfortune make for the hilarity of the comedy.

Canadian to Have Two Small Rallies

MENTAL STATE IN CHILDREN IS BEING STUDIED

PARENT-TEACHER BODY STRESSES POWER OF EMOTIONS

By Mrs. John M. Fox, Wichita Falls, State Publicity Chairman.

In this day and age the mental attitude held by a child is of the utmost importance. Psychiatrists have discovered that it is not intellect which governs mental life and behavior in the human relationship contacts of modern individuals.

Also there enters into the personal functioning as an individual the physical body's system of digestion, assimilation and the strange actions of glands which medical science has revealed governs mental fixations to an astonishing degree.

Therefore what is termed health has come to have a much broader meaning in the light of recently acquired knowledge. It has come to mean whether or not an individual has a balanced adjustment toward life and toward his fellow human beings.

If a child is to be reasonably happy and satisfied with his life and surroundings, obviously it is at the beginning of that life that steps should be taken to show him how to live; how to give him the proper start on his journey and how to avoid the pitfalls that he will encounter.

The Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers, under its chairman of mental attitudes, Miss Sue Nickerson, state board of health, seeks to understand the child and to guide his emotional and intellectual development in contact with all home, school, and community influences which would deter his normal, wholesome mental growth, to correct such mental disorders as might be within their control, create a consciousness in community of its responsibility in educational work.

Information has been received by state officials that the national organization of the Congress of Parents and Teachers, formerly designated as The Child Welfare Magazine, will henceforth be known as The National Parent-Teacher. This magazine will carry added features and more pages which will be helpful along the lines of child welfare.

The National Parent-Teacher offers $50 to the state bulletin carrying the most effective child welfare slogan in each issue of the state bulletin in each issue of the state bulletin in each issue of the state bulletin.

State officials call attention to the fact that slogans must be in the office of the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers, Austin, before August 15 in order to be published in the Texas Parent-Teacher for the month of September. Workers are asked to send slogans immediately so that Texas may try for this national honor.

HAT A LA GOYA SEEN AT RACES

PARIS (AP)—Henriette Lady Davis attended the races one day here wearing a dark gray costume in the new pebbled material called "cobblestone." With the costume designed by Schiaparelli, she wore a black suede belt, gloves and bag and a broad-brimmed hat with a tapering crown modeled after the Spanish hats seen in Goya's paintings.

Hose Has Garters Attached

Sure to make a big hit with girls who dislike garters is the newest hosiery innovation, knee-high stockings with garter tops, worn by the two smartly dressed feminists above. The attached garters grip the legs firmly, preventing wrinkles and crooked seams, and no matter how often the stockings are washed, the garters won't stretch a bit.

FASHIONABLES USING SCENTS OF GAY '90S

FLOWER PERFUMES IN DEMAND—SUN TAN IS TABOO

By Adelaide Kerr.

PARIS, July 14 (AP)—Perfumes of the flowers which grew in grandmother's garden are "all the rage" this summer. Fashionables, who seem to be more perfume conscious than they have been in many years, float by on breezes of jasmine, lilac, carnation, lavender, verbena or heliotrope. So-called "sophisticated scents" have, for the moment at least, been left in the background.

Besides the perfumed touch behind the ear and the scent sprayed in the hair, fashionable women are using the flower odors in a dozen new and subtle ways.

Another chic Parisian has sent out the boutonniere she wears on day clothes and on the scarf, or into the hair, fashionable women are using the flower odors in a dozen new and subtle ways.

Along with the vogue for flower perfumes, face and hand make-up has taken on a more subtle tone. Real sun-tan in a deep sun-baked hue is "out." "Beige"—a soft cream-in-the-coffee hue—is the thing this year.

New Gold for Eyes. Lips are still brilliant, but the season's choice is a light bright color, shading a touch more to the orange than the bluish tint, and more youthful and becoming than the darker color.

Eye-shades are still much in vogue. There is a new gold which gives a glamorous touch to the eyes by night, while blues, silver greens, and browns are much used by day.

Brilliant red polish is less seen on fashionable nails these days. Sometimes replaced by coral or rose, sometimes by a varnish at all. Some women are "giving their nails a rest," have gotten out the buffers which lay long neglected in dressing table drawers and are putting a natural polish on their nails.

Le Bon Temps Club Meets at H. C. Berry Home. Mrs. H. C. Berry was hostess to Le Bon Temps Contract Bridge club Wednesday morning at her home.

LONG ELBOW GLOVES APPEAR IN PARIS PARIS (AP)—Long sleeves open at the elbow appeared here during the Grande Semaine as something new in a season of varied glove styles.

Woman's Right

A woman can change her mind at any time about anything— even in marriage. Such was the opinion filed by Judge Eugene O'Dunne in Baltimore declaring void the marriage of Miss Virginia Claxton Thompson, shown here, to John Braden Bronner, filling station employe, after a cocktail party last November. Miss O'Dunne last year was "color girl" at the U. S. naval academy.

Checker Expert Tries to Figure Out 'Next Move'

HOUSTON, July 14 (AP)—M. L. Holland, veteran checker expert, was "cornered" and having trouble figuring out his next move today.

Eye-witnesses reported that a former neighbor who promised to give him a truck for the explanation to one of Holland's pet checker tricks.

Holland explains it: "This neighbor of mine was laid up with a broken leg and I had to get to playing checkers. I told him I could give him two kings and myself one king and keep my one king on the board.

"He wanted to bet me I couldn't. I'm no betting man but I finally accepted a bet on his terms—worth about $40—to reveal my system.

"I showed him the system all right, but he has moved away from the neighborhood—with the truck."

Assistant District Attorneys told him his next "move" was in the direction of the civil courts building.

State Library Is Endangered By Bug Hordes

AUSTIN, July 12 (AP)—The battle of the state library and agricultural department against the dermestid family of beetles, undesirable denizens in the statehouse basement, has been checked by lack of war funds.

G. J. Scholl, entomologist, admitted the beetle family would continue to gnaw their livelihood from valuable books stored in the capitol basement until the legislature granted a sizeable appropriation to defray expenses of exterminating the clan.

Presence of the beetles was discovered last month. Scholl failed to eradicate the damaging insects by application of inexpensive remedies.

The beetles have a strong appetite for books. They have spread throughout a major portion of the large capitol basement. Records of several departments as well as books of the library are endangered.

Use of either dry heat, entailing the installation of expensive equipment, or costly gases, involving much labor, likely must be resorted to, Scholl has decided.

SMALL TAKES OFFENSIVE IN CAMPAIGN, ALLRED ON DEFENSE

SENATOR SAYS HE'LL BE IN 2ND PRIMARY

ALLRED CLAIMS FOES HAVE PRODUCED NO PROOF

Small Claims Gains
BRECKENRIDGE, July 14. (AP)—State Senator Clint Small would up a week's speaking tour with an address here tonight in his campaign for governor. En route to Breckenridge from East Texas, he spoke at Decatur and Weatherford. Small claimed sentiment in support of his candidacy is sweeping East Texas and that it had been predicted he would be in the runoff.

He recounted his work in the legislature during the last six years and called attention to bills he said he had written and sponsored in behalf of West Texas. He urged Stephens county citizens to again support him "as they did four years ago."

'Big Money' Says Hunter
GALVESTON, July 14. (AP)—Tom F. Hunter tonight claimed that "big money" has come into the gubernatorial campaign "again, big interest" seeking to retain their special privileges and hoping to continue to avoid their just share of the tax burden, again financing candidates of their school of thought to get them in the run-off.

The Wichita Falls candidate declared that "our tax system has broken down—the value of our basic wealth, real estate, has been destroyed.

"Real estate producing 15 per cent of our income pays 77 per cent of our ad valorem taxes. To remedy this unfair situation, the state ad valorem tax should be abolished and a blended tax system designed to reach all in proportion to their ability to pay must be adopted."

Alfred Strikes Back
SHERMAN, July 14. (AP)—Attorney General James V. Alfred said here tonight that opponents who are charging him with "everything under high heaven" haven't produced a "shred of proof" to back up their claims.

"Two years ago when I was campaigning for reelection as attorney general," Alfred said, "you didn't hear anything 'bad' about me until a month before election. Then the whole state was suddenly flooded with every kind of political yarn imaginable.

"These tactics are being repeated this year. My opponents and the interests which would like to see me defeated are trying to make you believe everything under high heaven. They are making wild statements and distorting the facts wherever they get a chance. And not one of them has produced a shred of proof."

Alfred then held up a sheaf of documents which he said was "evidence which nails every one of these charges brought against me."

He asked the gubernatorial nomination on the strength of his record as attorney general and on the reforms in his platform. He again slashed vigorously at what he termed the lobbying evidence in the state legislature and said he would demand enactment of a lobby law by the next legislature that would have teeth in it and which could be enforced.

"The present lobby law," he said, "isn't worth the paper it is written on."

SPITE MARRIAGE

by Katherine Rowland Taylor

SYNOPSIS: Since her parents died, Marsha Moore has lived with her Aunt Gertrude. Aunt Gertrude's harsh manner of life has turned Marsha into a hard-hearted and suspicious girl. She has hated her innumerable suitors; now she is "dropping" Bob Powers, and finding it more painful than usual. But she has seen Geoffrey Tarleton enter the night club where she has taken Bob. And she believes the dissolute Tarleton to be the man best suited to her.

Chapter 12
THE BLOW

BUT Bob looked down and the wistful appeal in Marsha's face made a sudden spasmodic tightening of his arm and it brought out his hard flush. Geoffrey had seen "the little exhibition." Marsha realized with tremulous satisfaction. Nothing mattered now, but Geoffrey and his reactions.

It had always been Geoffrey, she thought; always!

"The music ceased; she heard, 'Marsha,' and turned to see Geoffrey and 'the silly flapper.' And then, her hand was in Geoffrey's and Geoffrey was trying to speak easily and trying to show that he did not care. But his eyes blazed on her.

"Not back too long," he murmured, "and I'm keen to see you. We must have a long session. I have news. And by the way, Marsha, I want you and the new Mrs. Tarleton to meet and be friends—"

She had said something in response. It evidently "passed"; so one looked surprised. She heard herself introducing the suddenly stiffened Bob. The rose-silver walls of the place swam; once more the music started and she moved, rather uncertainly, toward the table where her glass had been refilled by a waiter who had served her before and who knew her needs.

Bob, Geoffrey, "the new Mrs. Tarleton" followed Geoffrey, no one must ever know how it had hit her. She settled, to know that Geoffrey's probing eyes were on her. Did he understand? Was he pitying her?

She would not have his anyone's pity! No one dared pity her—who had had more homage than had any other woman in all New York. She looked at her glass. She knew she dared not raise it; that the trembling which filled her, would tell her tale for her.

Geoffrey was speaking. "See and I," he said, with a glance toward the girl who sat by Marsha. "Are great friends in spite of circumstances and I've told her all about us. Marsha. She'd been longing to meet you; I thought perhaps you'd trouble—for old time's sake—to show her around a bit.

It was incredible!

The plan crystallized that had suggested itself through the pulsing haze a moment before as she glanced at Bob.

"I would adore it," she said; she heard herself speaking and as if from afar and to her amazement her voice sounded natural, easy and un-caring. "But," she went on, "I shan't be here much longer. I am going to Mexico with Bob Powers. Marriage seems to be in the air."

Now she saw that Geoffrey had felt a blow and a hard one. Had he thought she would sting single to mourn his memory?

"You—are going to marry," Geoffrey paused; turned stunned eyes toward Bob—"Mr. Powers?"

"Exactly! And no end clever of you, Geoff, to catch the great idea."

THE little girl was saying something Marsha heard as stilly; something about hoping Marsha would be as happy as she was. Bob, turned lemon-white by the pallor that was beneath his tan, was staring fixedly at her. Marsha heard a confused jumble of voices; she saw Bob rise and in a voice that was uncertain and low, but commanding, he said he was sorry, but that he and Marsha must be on.

One did, natural things in a natural way, while drugged, she realized. She had said her goodnights, to Geoffrey and "the new Mrs. Tarleton." She had acknowledged the head-waiter's deep bow with a nod; she had tripped light as ever, down the steps with Bob to wait with him under the canopy while the scarlet-clad, braid-trimmed starter whistled for a taxicab.

Bob spoke, as they waited; "Is this play?" he asked.

"No. Not if you want it to be serious, Bob."

"Marsha!"

"If you think I'd make you happy—" She could do that for a little while, perhaps, she reasoned. And it would probably be better for him

GOLDMAN OF DALLAS AND ZELL EATON OF OKLAHOMA CITY IN GOLF FINALS

Cavalcade Wins Arlington Classic To Clinch 3-Year Old Title For 1934

NEW MEXICAN IS BEATEN IN SEMI-FINALS

WESTERN CROWN WILL BE WON BY TEXAN OR OKLAHOMAN

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 14. (AP)—Zell Eaton of Oklahoma City will celebrate his twenty-first birthday tomorrow trying to win the western amateur golf championship and Dave Goldman of Dallas will try to spoil it by beating the slim tournament medalist out of the first major title within his grasp.

Goldman, 25-year-old "old man" of the semi-finals, reached the finals of the 36th annual tournament over Charley Yates of Atlanta, the national collegiate champion, while Eaton easily defeated Verne Stewart of Albuquerque, N. M., and Stanford University, 6 and 4.

To oust Stewart, Eaton needed only to hold as much as he could of the 7-up advantage with which he finished the morning 18 holes, but for Goldman it was a tight battle all the way after he went to lunch thinking about a 1-up lead the 20-year-old Georgian held over him.

Goldman steadied to a 71 this afternoon and was one up on Yates going to the eighteenth, where both pushed their second shots to the right of the green, but were not stymied by the scrub oaks fringing the green.

Goldman was away and he used a putter from 13 feet off the green. He was approximately 12 feet short, Yates, also using a putter after deliberate study of the shot, took a cut from the Texan's short shot and was seven feet past the pin.

Needling a hole to win the match, Goldman knocked his curving putt squarely into the can and the match was over.

Goldman's one-over-par 71 in the afternoon was the best complete score of the tournament. It was one under the score of 72 which Eaton has shot five times.

TIGERS REGAIN LEAD

LETOIT, July 14. (AP)—Wobbling around on the verge of a knockout in the early innings today, the Tigers came back to administer the finishing blows themselves in the ninth and defeated the Yankees, 12 to 1, to regain the American league lead.

The triumph which thrilled a crowd of 23,000 as Mickey Cochran's club finished with a stirring four-run rally in the ninth after having trailed by a much as eight runs, gave Detroit first place by two percentage points, 625 to 623. One more game remains in the "crucial" series.

Playing sensationally behind Vernon (Goofy) Gomez, the Yanks built up a 9 to 1 margin in the first half of the fourth, reaching their climax when Babe Ruth belted his 15th home run with two men aboard. They drove Vic Sorrell out in the first and rapped Eldon Auker hard for a while, but after the fourth their only tallies came from Frank Crosetti's homer in the seventh.

Lou Gehrig managed to preserve his record string of 1,527 consecutive games by taking the first time at bat in the opening inning. He hit a single, then retired in favor of Red Rolfe. Gehrig, who is recovering from an attack of lumbago which forced him out of yesterday's game, was listed as short-stop and lead-off batter while Jack Salzwater played first.

WHITE SOX WIN

CHICAGO, July 14. (AP)—Taking better advantage of the 11 blows than the Athletics did of their ten, the White Sox defeated Philadelphia, 10 to 5, today in the second game of the series.

Home runs by Manager Jimmy Dykes and Zeke Bonura, the latter his season's 19th, each with one on, featured the attack against Bill Dietrich, Joe Casarella and Leroy Mahaffey.

PAMPANS JUST TOO GOOD FOR GIRL CHAMPS

HARVESTERS AND EXES PILE UP 25 TO 11 SCORE

Minus three regulars, the Oklahoma City Cardinals, girls' national championship basketball team, fell before a team of Harvesters, ex-harvesters and college stars 25 to 11 at the high school gymnasium Friday night.

The Oklahoma Lassies, however, gave a great exhibition of handling the ball but were unable to work the ball under the basket. La Homa Lassier, All American forward, made several nice attempts and gave a good account of herself. Captain Hazel Vickers, All American guard, was the outstanding player on the floor. Her guarding was brilliant and her passing and dribbling sensational.

Elmer Irving saved the Harvesters from being overhauled in the second quarter when he made three nice field goals. Coach Odus Mitchell started Green, Kelley, Marbaugh, Heiskell and Patton but sent six more players into the game before the final whistle.

Coach Sam F. Babb and one of the Cardinals had to be in Oklahoma City Friday night to clear up items on their passports. Another member of the team suffered a sprained ankle in a game Thursday night. The team will sail for Europe late this month and will represent this nation in the Women's Olympics.

The Cardinals drove to Pampa from Chickasha, Okla., Friday after defeating Roy La Crone and his Oklahoma All Stars 30 to 29 Thursday night. Although they were tired, they played snappy ball and used only one substitute and called only one time out.

La Homa Lassier scored nine points for the Cardinals. V. Dunford added the other two points when she slipped under the basket for a crisp shot. Other members of the team were V. Duke, L. Dunford, Vickers, and Cannon.

Whitey Bacuss, S. M. U. star, and Frank Monroe, former Canyon Buffalo forward, were used during the game. Each scored a field goal. Bacuss getting his two points on a junc dash down the floor. Other Pampa players were Hoot Fullingim, Bill Dunaway and Edward Scott.

The Harvesters points were divided with Green four, Marbaugh three, Heiskell one, Patton, one, Bacuss two, Irving 6, Monroe two, Scott one, Dunaway two, Fullingim two.

Bob Fuller called the game. French rules, which will be used in Olympic play, were used. They are very similar to boys' rules here.

Horse Show at Fair Grounds to Be Brilliant One

AMARILLO, July 14.—A colorful and brilliant horse show, which will be a social highlight in the southwest, will be sponsored by the Tri-State Fair association in Amarillo the nights of August 6 and 7.

Amarillo has had other horse shows, but none has been on the scale proposed for this year's Tri-State. Horses from half a dozen cities in three states already have been entered in the various classes, and within the next ten days scores of the finest thoroughbreds and the southwest affords are expected to have their names on the entry list.

Cash prizes will be given in every event, and in addition, handsome loving cups and ribbons will be presented. In the stake events, elaborate and costly trophies will be offered in addition to the cash awards. There will be 22 classes, covering all sorts of exhibition riding. All entries should be in the secretary's office by July 25. There will be no entry fee except in stake classes.

Maxon King, show manager, announces that box stalls will be available at nominal rental, and a training ring will be provided beginning July 27 for exhibitors.

The show will be held at the Tri-State Fair grounds just east of Amarillo, where a successful horse race meet recently was concluded. The plant is complete in every detail, with ample room for flood-lit show ring, and excellent standstill facilities. The show is open to the world and visitors from all over the southwest are expected to attend.

The Fair association has issued its prize list and its rules and regulations. Judges who have worked in the National and Royal shows will be in charge.

DALLAS BUYS FOUR PLAYERS

Rebuilding Of Steers Commenced; Beau Bell Slips Into Lead In Bating.

DALLAS, July 14. (AP)—The rebuilding of the wrecked playing roster of the Dallas Steers started today when Vice-President Bob Earleton announced the acquisition of four players.

John Pasek, former Beaumont catcher who has been doing mask duty for Oakland of the Pacific Coast league; John Chamberlain, utility infielder of the Chicago White Sox; Stanley Schino, outfielder with Chattanooga of the Southern association, and Murl (Dutch) Prather, first baseman, bought from Nashville, have been added to the local club.

Pasek will replace the departed Bubber Johnson. Chamberlain probably will replace Kot at second base. Schino will be assigned an outfield berth, probably replacing Fred Bennett in left field.

While the Dallas wrecking and building situation holds league interest, Beau Bell, Galveston outfielder and the youngster who hoops as the league's best major prospect, slipped into the batting leadership through Friday night games with a husky 369 average, six more points than Manager Red Harvel of the Oklahoma City Indians, who held the swat crown for several weeks. ### Coltorex Plays Amarillo Today

Coltorex's fast gasoline department ball team goes to Amarillo this afternoon to play the "ruiner game" of a five-game series. Each team has won two games, Coltorex defeating the Amarillo nine twice in the Berger tournament but losing two previous games.

Both nines will be strengthened for the crucial game which will be called at 6 o'clock. The game will be played at Metro park on East Tenth street.

Leon Hayes of Allison, last season a star basketball player on the Allison high school team, will probably get the nod to start for Amarillo. Hayes defeated the fast team, Worth All Stars in the Berger tournament.

Manager Cobb of Coltorex will have Halley, Croft, Warner, and Armstrong ready for the mound duty. Ike Lister, regular outfielder, proved that he can take a turn when he defeated Amarillo in the Berger tournament last week. Poin Dexter will be on the receiving end.

Busby's Indians Meet Old Rivals This Afternoon

C. O. Busby and his rampaging Indian will go to White Deer this afternoon for a game with the White Deer Bucks. It will be the first meeting of the season and will be a renewal of hostilities carried over from last year.

Miles "Gomez" Marbaugh and Chester Maples, who are available for mound duty, with Allie Barrett behind the bat. Manager Busby has not decided whether he will start the elongated lefthander or the veteran Maples.

Charlie Austin will hurl for the White Deer team with Stevieon catching. Both are veterans of many years' service with White Deer.

Oilers Will Play Hoover in Afternoon

The Consumers Oilers will go to Hoover this afternoon in an effort to break the one-run jinx Hoover has had over the Pampa aggregation. The local team has fallen twice before the Hoover nine in hard-fought battles.

The Oilers lost a 10 to 8 decision to White Deer last Sunday after having a commanding lead. The old fight usually shown was missing in the last few innings and the Bucks pulled ahead.

Game time this afternoon will be 3 o'clock. Both nines will be strengthened for the game. Another close battle is predicted.

Miss Eleanor Talley of Miami is doing nicely after a major operation Wednesday.

ONLY NEGROES WILL BOX ON CARD JULY 31

STATE'S LIGHT HEAVY CHAMP WILL HEAD PROGRAM

An All-Negro boxing card will be presented at the Pla-Mor auditorium on the night of July 31. Matchmaker B. W. Kelly announced yesterday. He has secured some of the best negro boxers in the southwest to provide 28 rounds of entertainment.

The card will be headed by a 10 round bout between K. O. Brown of Amarillo and Schoolboy of El Paso. The Amarillo will weigh 174 pounds which will give his opponent a weight advantage of four pounds. Schoolboy is recognized by promoters as light heavyweight champion for the state and Brown is the No. 1 contender for the crown in the negro division.

An eight round semi-final will bring together Kid Wallace of Tulsa, Okla., and Smiling Jack of Pampa, formerly of Wichita, Kan., where he was a sensation. They are welterweights and from all reports, sling leather from all angles.

Billy McDonald of Amarillo has been matched to meet Tiger Smith of Denver in a six round special event. Smith is one of the best negro fighters in the Rocky mountain area according to reports. McDonald is an up and coming welterweight.

Section of the Pla-Mor will be reserved for negro fight fans. The rest of the auditorium will be set aside for white fans. Plans are being made to handle a record crowd.

WIN DOUBLEHEADER PHILADELPHIA, July 14.

PHILADELPHIA, July 14. (AP)—The Phillies' latest drive from the lower regions of the National league pile received a sound boost today as Manager Jimmy Wilson's men crushed the Cincinnati Reds in both ends of a twin-bill, equalling a major league record in one of the games.

In the first encounter, Roy Hansen held the Reds to four hits while the Phils pounded out an 18 to 0 triumph. Euel Moore, Indian right-hander, outlasted Paul Derringer in the nightcap and the Phils pranced home with a 5 to 4 edge.

The record equaled that for second-inning scoring, the Phils piling up the huge total of 11 runs in the second frame of the opener. Sixteen Phils came to bat in the inning and nine hits were pounded out.

In the nightcap, Sunny Jim Bottomley was the only Red man to find Moore's slants to his liking, and hammered out a pair of homers. Bucky Walters hit for the circuit for the Phils.

COMES FROM BEHIND IN A STRETCH RUN

DISCOVERY SECOND IN DRAMATIC $35,000 TURF EVENT

CHICAGO, July 14. (AP)—Surging forward from last place, Mrs. Isabel Dodge Sloan's Cavalcade won the $35,000 added Arlington classic by four lengths today, capturing the three-year-old championship of the American turf in a dramatic finish which set a crowd of 30,000 into a delirium of cheers.

As the three year old son of Lanecays-Hastly swept past the judge's stand, the conqueror of Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt's Discovery for the sixth time, the crowd was on its feet cheering him on while "Uncle" Mack Garner, astride Cavalcade, took a quick look over his shoulder to make sure that he was safely in front.

Half a length back of Discovery was Hadgal, the entry of Warren Wright of Chicago, with Bakulou, the California challenger owned by Norman W. Church of Los Angeles, three lengths back.

Today's race at a mile and a quarter was the fastest Cavalcade has ever run. He covered the distance in 2:02 4-5, a full second off the track record set by Sun Beau in 1931.

Cavalcade, coupled with Good Goods as the Brookmeade entry, went to the post a prohibitive favorite at 1 to 3. He paid $2.74 to win $2.16 to place and $2.14 to show. The price on Discovery was $2.52 with $2.56 to show, while Hadgal paid $2.94 to show.

Previous to today's triumph, Cavalcade had won three debies, all within the space of three months, and also had captured the Chesapeake stakes and had finished second to another stablemate, High Quest, in the Preakness. He won the Kentucky derby, came on two weeks later to capture the American derby at Chicago, and then snared the Detroit derby.

Garner, who has won more rich stakes in America than any other jockey now active, was all smiles as he jumped off Cavalcade's back. "He is the greatest horse I have ever ridden," Garner exclaimed.

GLIDER SETS SOVIET RECORD
KOKOBYEV, Crimea, U. S. S. R. (AP)—M. Simonov, who commanded the aerial train of plane and gliders which recently flew from Moscow to this city, set a soviet gliding record by remaining in the air 35 hours and 11 minutes in a motorless plane.

High lights in Wheeler county for the week were the increased need for another oil outlet and R. R. Osborn's hearing granted for the 18th of this month at Austin in an attempt to get an outlet for the oil produced in the area east of Shamrock by having the potential temporarily raised to that of a new field so that either a pipe line or refinery can be located there.

The Phillips Petroleum company came in strongly and leased over 10,000 acres in a strip clear across the county.

MARKET BARRELS

NEW YORK, July 4. (AP)—Stocks went through routine motions in another exceedingly dull week-end session today.

While cotton and wheat set new high marks for the week's advance, the security markets continued stagnant.

A rally in German government bonds on reports the German government had given its assurance that it would not discriminate against the United States in the transfer of services on foreign loans added a touch of action to the sleepy atmosphere surrounding stocks and bonds.

Government To Spend Million On Rio Grande

WASHINGTON, July 14. (AP)—The public works administration today allotted $1,500,000 to continue improvement on the lower Rio Grande and for rectification of the river in the El Paso-Juarez area.

The United States and Mexico are attempting, by agreement, to control flood waters of the boundary river by construction of flood channels and by shortening the length of the river.

Half of the money will be spent on the lower river and the other half on rectification.

The rectification is designed to remove the flood menace and straighten the course of the wandering river near El Paso, by reducing its length from 155 to 86 miles in this vicinity.

PWA originally allotted $1,500,000 to the lower river work and $2,800,000 for the rectification.

More than 3,500 men are reported at work on the entire development under the original allocations.

John Osborne To Attend Michigan Lions Convention

John Osborne, newly elected secretary of the Pampa Lions club, will represent the organization at the Lions' national convention in Grand Rapids, Mich. this month.

He will take the place of President Ray Hagan, previously elected to make the trip, but who will not be able to leave. The convention will be July 17-20.

Charles Thut has been appointed to the board of directors to replace Mr. Osborne, who automatically became a director by reason of his office as secretary.

Thursday's program, arranged by R. B. Fisher, was presented by members of the Harley Sadler company with Bart Couch as master of ceremonies. Music, juggling, and readings were featured.

FIRES EXTINGUISHED

Two calls were answered by the fire department between 4 o'clock Friday afternoon and 7 o'clock yesterday morning. Damage was slight and no hose was strung. The call Friday afternoon was to 804 North West street, where burning grass got out of control. Yesterday morning's fire in a small outbuilding at the rear of 174 West Tenth street was extinguished with water from a booster tank.

COLLITON LOST MILLION TRYING TO LOCATE OIL

Now He Is Back To Regain Fortune At Rusk

RUSK, July 14. (AP)—Jack Colliton's back! Thus friends announce the return of the man who gallantly "took on the chin" the loss of a fortune in his pioneer effort to discover a Cherokee county oil field.

Hurrying overland from California in response to news of the Wood discovery well, J. A. Colliton, famed as "the father of East Texas oil," has arrived in his old haunts oil—"not so much money as I had before, but I'm back to get in the game."

In 1921, after resigning his position with the Montana Power company to enter the oil business, first in Wyoming and later in Wichita Falls, Colliton acquired a block of 28,584 acres in Cherokee county and located a well north of Gallatin.

Spudding-in was a gala event, Jacksonville's Rotary club sponsored the program—much oratory, music by the Rusk county band, and a picnic dinner to boot. Pictures of a quartet of Jacksonville's oldest citizens—A. N. Ragsdale, J. H. Belton, the late W. A. Brown and J. A. Templeton—photographed while participating in the colorful ceremony appeared in New York papers.

Despite the auspicious beginning the well was lost. Moving over some 200 feet, Colliton drilled again. Oil was found but after flowing the first day the casing collapsed at 2,500 feet. Every effort to save it proved futile. A third well was started. The drill stem twisted off and it was abandoned at about 3,300 feet.

By this time Colliton's resources were exhausted and Col. Humphreys of Mexda-Worsham fame was acquired. The next well cored saturated sand. Production seemed certain. Col. Humphreys must have some of the thrill and they went to Denver. At last the stage was set, but the chief actor failed to appear. Of flowing oil there was none. Again the Colliton-Humphreys company drilled. First and last the two men spent over a million dollars.

KANSAS CITY LIVESTOCK
KANSAS CITY, July 14. (U. S. D. A.)—Cattle trade at mid-western markets this week was slow with slow with most killing classes under pressure. Fed steers and long yearlings were steady to unevenly lower, several points reporting a general decline of 25 or more on the in-between grades. Grass steers at river markets were steady to unevenly lower, kinds with weight mostly 25 off. Chicago and a top of 10.35 on finished heavy steers and realized 9.00 on best long yearlings. Western grass steers on killing account ranged mostly from 3.00-5.00 with a few feeder buyers at 5.00-7.50. Aggregate receipts at eleven markets approximated 316,600, including 80,456 on government account as compared with 240,789 last week when 88,890 drought cattle were received on government account.

Fed lambs and yearlings worked lower throughout the week and closing quotations were 50-1.00 under last week's close. Aged sheep were in limited supply at steady to strong prices. The supply totaled around 240,000, an increase of 44,000 over last week and 14,000 less than a year ago.

An early decline in hog prices was more than recovered on closing sessions with most centers reporting levels steady to 15 higher than a week ago. Chicago had a late top of 5.05. Total offerings were around 394,000 against 316,900 last week and 491,907 a year ago.

Booming Japanese Trade Invades American Ports On New Steamship Lines

By GLENN BABE

TOKYO (AP)—Japanese ships are to carry the rapidly increasing Japanese cargoes direct to Central America and the West Indies. Phenomenal Japanese trade gains have been recorded in the markets around the Caribbean Sea. In some of them the 1934 exports have been 400 per cent larger than those of a year ago, largely at the expense of American and European industries. Preparations to carry goods direct to those markets without transshipment at Panama or American ports, the Nippon Yusen Kaisha (Japan Mail Steamship Company), has announced a new freight service beginning this month. Six modern 7,000-ton freighters will be used. Touch American Ports

Cargoes will be picked up at Kobe, Nagoya, Shimizu and Yokohama. Regular calls will be made at Panama, La Guaira in Venezuela, Port au Prince, Kingston and Havana. Additional stops will be made at ports on either coast of Central America and other islands in the Caribbean whenever cargoes justify. These ships also will call at New York and New Orleans for Japan-bound cargoes, and some of them will attempt to cut in on the heavy shipments of goods coming from Houston and Galveston to Japan.

Fast Boats To New York
Japanese shipping facilities to the Americas will be augmented further by six new Diesel-engine freighters which the Nippon Yusen Kaisha is placing on its New York run beginning in September. These fast 9,000-ton freighters, capable of 18.5 knots, will call at Panama and probably Gulf ports, where cargoes for Central America can be transhipped to the company's other freighters. Only 27 days will be required for the voyage to New York, fast enough to justify carrying raw silk. Raw cotton may be loaded at Gulf ports for the homeward voyage.

Boom Promises Profits
The booming growth of Nippon's new markets in the Caribbean area and Central America is expected to make the new line to that section highly profitable. While Japan's total export trade for the first four months of 1934 gained 24.6 per cent, that with Central American markets—in which the Japanese include Panama, Mexico, Cuba, Haiti, Jamaica and other West Indian markets—gained 27.6 per cent. In money this totaled $3,031,500 for 1934 against $2,620,800 for the corresponding period of 1933. For the whole of Latin America the rate of gain was 112 per cent; for South America only, 55 per cent.

The most remarkable gains were made in El Salvador, 461 per cent; Uruguay, 444 per cent; Cuba, 414 per cent; Chile, 354 per cent; Peru, 255 per cent; Jamaica, Haiti and Central American republics, 244 per cent; Mexico, 171 per cent; Panama, 182 per cent.

Argentina Shows Decline
On the other hand exports to Argentina fell off 26 per cent owing to the government's stringent foreign exchange control there. This explains why the gain for South America as a whole was only 56 per cent.

STRIKE

licing of the roads to safeguard trucks through picket blockades. In Washington Secretary of Labor Perkins was reported keeping almost in constant touch with the situation by telephone. She in turn was said to be keeping President Roosevelt informed. The presence of Panamint on the cruiser Houston off Panama.

All peace officers in the strike were ordered by Clarence S. Morrill of the bureau of criminal identification to watch for alleged communists planning to throw so-called kerosene bombs at produce laden trucks. Food supplies, already tied up by the strike of marine workers and teamsters, ran dangerously low tonight. Surveys indicated the supplies of fresh meat and fruits barely could last the week-end unless there were extraordinary action to bring additional goods into the city. Some restaurants closed.

The general strike order is an outgrowth of the walkout May 9 of 12,000 Pacific coast longshoremen, seeking principally a change in the control of hiring agencies. Subsequently 15,000 other marine workers struck in sympathy. San Francisco teamsters joined the movement this week despite the efforts of President Roosevelt and his cabinet. Board, headed by Archbishop Hanna. Two thousand National Guardsmen were ordered to the waterfront here following the slaying of two of a group of pickets who fought police when the latter gave protection to an effort to unload cargo with non-union labor.

The following statement was issued by Edward D. Vandeleur, president of the San Francisco labor council and chairman of the general strike committee: "A resolution ordering all local labor unions that have already voted to strike to walk out Monday morning at 8 o'clock and instructing all unions that have not already taken action to do so immediately was passed today by the central strike committee of the San Francisco labor council by a vote of 315 to 15.

"The three unions rejecting the resolution were the general teamsters, local 85, the laundry drivers 258, and the book-binders and book-binders women No. 31 and 125. "One hundred and fifteen unions each sent five accredited delegates to the convention and all but 49 delegations were authorized to act on the resolution. This made the vote by delegations 63 for, 49 unauthorized to act and 3 against.

"Following the resolution a motion was passed for the appointment of a temporary executive committee of 25 to act as a central body for the carrying on of strike activities."

"The convention framed its action in these words: "This convention requests all unions which have voted in favor of a general strike to walk out Monday at 8 a. m. and also requests all those unions which have not voted to hold meetings immediately and to act on the resolution."

A union spokesman said conservatives in the meeting were greeted with outbreaks of bores. Cheers accompanied announcement of the vote.

President Roosevelt's labor disputes board which worked day and night in vain to forestall the crisis, announced in a statement that unless the dispute were brought to speedy termination it will become our duty to make an independent investigation and to make a formal report of the president in which "it will be our duty to place responsibility where we think it belongs."

Both waterfront employers and striking unions disclaimed responsibility for the situation.

It was the second time in American history that union labor had wielded its biggest stick, the general strike. The only other occasion was in Seattle in 1919. A general city-wide strike which paralyzed that community for one day broke down under its own weight.

San Francisco was declared a business leaders to be losing $1,000,000 a day because of the strike. State-owned piers were clogged with cargo and none could be moved. The San Francisco industrial association, a group of business men, finally demanded "opening of the piers."

So effective was the blockades set up by strikers that the vital flow of necessities into the city virtually stopped two days ago, trucks were overturned and non-union drivers beaten. The frightened citizenry went on a buying stampede and started hoarding goods.

San Francisco, surrounded on three sides by water and having as its only other outlet the four mile wide peninsula to the southward, became virtually isolated. Fifty thousand commuters depending upon ferries were left to worry about their future. The ferry boatmen had not called a strike referendum. Another 50,000 commuters living in Peninsula suburbs the time being at least as they are transported on interurban trains. Railroad workers were not involved.

Mrs. Hank Breining of LeFors shopped in the city yesterday afternoon.

WORK FOR ALL GERMANS SEEN BY NAZI OFFICIALS
BERLIN (AP)—Within two years at the most Germany will have solved the problem of unemployment, according to an analysis of the situation by Fritz Reinhardt, secretary of state.

Germany has 2,500,000 unemployed, but Reinhardt said that within six months this will be reduced by a million, although the coming winter probably will boost the total back to 2,000,000.

"Within two years at the most," he continued "the unemployment problem will be as good as solved, provided the people follow the government program."

Mountain Lion Kills Geologist

LAREDO, July 14. (AP)—A mountain lion was believed to have attacked Patrick Thomas Henderson near the Mexican village of Estacas and inflicted the wounds which caused his death at a ranch house near there last night.

Unconscious from loss of blood, the 45-year-old Waco geologist was found with his right arm horribly torn yesterday. Around the spot were tracks which appeared to have been made by a mountain lion.

Henderson, an employee of the Huasteca Oil company, was taken to the ranch house and a surgeon, summoned from Monterrey, amputated his mangled arm. He regained consciousness for a short time but was unable to tell what had happened. Then he lapsed into a coma.

Sheriff Bill Adams and Police Chief W. R. McDowell, cooperating in the probe launched after a series of house burglaries, said all seven had made statements, which revealed methods of securing and disposing of loot.

Officers said the investigation was extending as far east as Tennessee. One of the burglary suspects in a signed statement said he had received instructions that "silverware, golf clubs and ladies' wearing apparel were "undesirable."

Firearms, electrical appliances and men's clothing were the principal loot.

'Bone Digging' Professor At Canyon Named

CANYON, July 14.—C. S. Johnston of Oklahoma university, has been selected by Dr. J. A. Hill to take charge of the work of the recently created department of archaeology and paleontology at the West Texas State Teachers college.

Dr. Hill said yesterday, "I feel that I have secured a splendid man for this place. Mr. Johnston will soon have his Ph. D. degree, he has a reputation for working smoothly with people and his preparation and experience are such as to fit him admirably for this place."

He received both his A. B. and M. S. degrees at the University of North Carolina. For the last two years he has been doing graduate work at the University of Oklahoma and has served as research assistant and as graduate assistant there. Articles written by Mr. Johnston or by him and other scientists have appeared in the American Midland Naturalist and the Journal of Geology.

Before he was elected, Mr. Johnston came to Canyon for a conference with President Hill, Floyd Studer and Professor L. F. Sherry, and all of them felt that his coming would mark a distinct step forward in the development of the regional interest in his subject and in the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society museum, which is already becoming known far and wide for its contribution to these fields. Mr. Johnston has had exceptional opportunities for he was a member of an expedition which visited Honduras. He has also worked in New Mexico and Arizona and Oklahoma. At present he is doing field work near Optima, Oklahoma. Mrs. Johnston will be an addition to the musical circles of the city, as she is an accomplished singer.
