HITLER LEAVES BERLIN

U. S. GOVERNMENT IS AMONG OLDEST

By NEA Service
WASHINGTON, July 3.—Tomorrow the United States of America will celebrate its 158th birthday.

And in the 158 years that have passed since that hot July of 1776 when Americans took their lives and fortunes in their hands and told the world they were cutting loose on their own, governments all over the world have come and gone.

Today, America, accustomed to think of itself as a young nation, finds its government one of the oldest in the world.

England, whose parliament was first summoned in 1265, has continued down the years depending increasingly on that ruling body—nearly 670 years. And for nearly 500 years before that she was groping toward representative government.

So Britain gets the palm for age. Little Liechtenstein, which assumed its present form in 1719, is one of the few other governments that are older than our republic.

OLD FORMS FALL

Old countries, yes, far older than the United States. But time has rung changes in them all. China, often considered the cradle of the race and the oldest civilization, became a republic only in 1912, and the present Nanking government was established only in 1928.

Japan, ancient though her dynasty is (founded in 660 B. C., legend says), saw this power restored to the throne only in 1868, when the Shogun power was overthrown. So the present empire is really only a youngster.

Time-tempered Greece herself adopted a new constitution in 1927, giving one of the oldest peoples one of the youngest of governments.

WAR BRINGS CHANGES

Spain and Portugal were ancient even when their explorers came to help open the new continent of America, but Spain only three years ago came around to the republican form of government, overthrowing one of the most ancient monarchies. And Portugal's present constitution was adopted only last year, the youngest governmental baby of all.

With the world war's end, a whole crop of new governments appeared on the scene. Russia, Germany, Turkey, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Denmark, Austria, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Finland. All these today have governments less than 20 years old.

We think of France as a sister republic dating from our own time, but it is not strictly so. The present French republic is the third, with revolutionary breaks between them, and was established only after the overthrow of Napoleon III in 1870, making her only 64 years old governmentally.

NEW RULE IN ITALY

Italy still operates nominally under the constitution she won in 1848, but received what amounts to a new government when Mussolini's Blackshirts marched on Rome in 1923.

Our nearest neighbors are both younger than we. Canada received her present form of government by royal proclamation in 1867. And Mexico, though she started off on her own in 1857, has had innumerable revolutions, and got her present constitution in 1917.

Practically all our neighbors of South America won their independence in the middle of the last century, 50 years and more after the formation of the United States of America, and most of them have changed governments many times since.

SWISS DATE ONLY TO 1874

Switzerland immediately comes to mind as an old and tried democracy, and it is true that the sturdy mountain men have been in a continuous state of developing their democracy since 1291, a matter of 643 years. Yet their present constitution was adopted only in 1874.

Denmark is an example of a very old monarchy, but the present succession to the throne was established only in 1853.

Today, looking back on 158 years of "government of the people, by the people, and for the people," America may reflect that her system has stood so well the tests of time that it is today one of the oldest continuous governmental systems in the whole world.

Cafe Operator Slain, Deputy Shot In Raid

Denton Officer Will Probably Die; Charges Of Assault With Intent to Murder Filled Against Cafe Partner

DENTON, July 3. (AP)—A cafe operator was shot to death and a deputy sheriff was wounded probably fatally last night when a pair of Denton county officers raided a cafe at Justin in search of beer.

Jimmie Glasscock, who, with Boyd Wilkerson, operated the cafe, was killed by Deputy Sheriff Hugh Elliott. Elliott said he fired at Glasscock after the cafe operator had wounded Deputy Sheriff Carl Garrett and had leveled his gun at him (Elliott).

Charges of assault with intent to murder were filed here against Wilkerson who, Elliott claimed, menaced him with a meat cleaver. Wilkerson denied having threatened the officer.

Deputy Sheriff Garrett was in a hospital here with a bullet wound in the neck which physicians said probably would cause death.

Officers said a raid on the same cafe a week ago resulted in confiscation of some beer. Denton county is dry under a local option law and beer sale and possession is prohibited. Charges of possessing beer were filed against Glasscock and Wilkerson after the raid a week ago and they were at liberty awaiting grand jury action on the charges.

Elliott said the trouble last night started when the cafe operators started to smash beer in their place. Elliott said Glasscock, formerly of Fort Worth, had a pistol strapped around his waist and, when he wounded Garrett with it, was shot down. Elliott said he and Garrett had a search warrant.

Wilkerson made a statement to the county attorney giving his version of the affair and denying he had made any move against the officers with the cleaver. Wilkerson is a Justin man.

Glasscock's body was in an undecked establishment here pending instructions from his mother and brothers at Randolph as to his disposition.

CITY POSTAL RECEIPTS IN BIG INCREASE

GAIN $5,442.82 OVER SIX MONTHS OF 1933

Pampa's postal receipts for the first six months of 1934 show an increase of $5,442.82 over the same period of 1933. Assistant Postmaster O. K. Gaylor's report revealed this morning. Business every month this year exceeded that of the same time last year the report shows.

The office did $4,409.68 of business last month compared with $3,087.00 during the same month last year. Receipts in June were only $2.38 more than during May. Postal receipts for the first half year of 1933 and 1934 were:

Month	1933	1934
Jan.	$4,472.50	$6,712.58
Feb.	3,483.26	4,133.15
Mar.	3,260.80	3,288.96
Apr.	4,223.54	4,828.88
May	3,538.92	4,497.30
June	3,087.00	4,409.68
Totals	$22,214.93	$27,657.76

'Your Heads May Be Next' Priests Told In Germany

RATIBOR, Germany, July 3. (AP)—A blunt warning that firing squads might be the fate of Catholic priests who "plot" against the Nazi regime was made here by Helmut Brueckner, governor of Silesia.

Addressing a meeting of Nazi party sub-leaders of Upper Silesia, Brueckner held up Chancellor Hitler's swift action against conspirators as a serious last warning.

Referring to priests as "sensitive old men," he threatened to catch "misleaders" and expressed the hope his warning would be sufficient for the whole of Upper Silesia.

"What good does it do me when I look up a few Catholic traitors?" asked Brueckner. "I had rather have them enjoy their liberty so I can catch the whole bunch."

"They talk and discuss things in such a lively fashion already. It is best that we do not answer them but write it in our hearts. The priest belongs in the church, not on the street."

"I shall see to it that this camouflaged mischief is stopped in Upper Silesia in which with slogans attempts are being made to lead the flock back into ages long gone."

VON PAPAN IS NOT REPLACED BY NAZI AIDE

HITLER WILL CONFER WITH HINDENBURG ON QUESTION

By LOUIS F. LOCHNER
(Copyright, 1934, by The Associated Press)

BERLIN, July 3.—Chancellor Hitler boarded an airplane for Neudeck, home of President Paul von Hindenburg tonight at the conclusion of an important cabinet session, leaving the disposition of the vice chancellory unsettled.

By LOUIS F. LOCHNER
(Copyright, 1934, by The Associated Press)

Hitherto the resignation or dismissal of Vice Chancellor Franz von Papen had been regarded as an assured fact. Hermann Wilhelm Goering, Prussian premier, was slated to succeed him.

A spokesman for the propaganda ministry, asked about the expected von Papen resignation, said: "It may, in fact, never become a fact. One of our leaders has gone outside of Berlin by airplane and that may change things. That is all I can say now."

The reference proved to be to the departure of Chancellor Hitler.

Almost all day the cabinet had been in session, presumably considering, among other pressing problems, the matter of the vice chancellory.

WIND SHIFTS AND REPORTERS CANNOT HEAR COURT MARTIAL

SAN ANTONIO, July 3. (AP)—A shift in the wind today made the court martial of Captain H. K. (Duke) Coulter, star army polo player, for alleged misconduct with Mrs. Alice Traylor Morgan, difficult. A secret trial as requested by the captain's defense counsel.

Where fragments of the testimony floated from the screened porch of the dental clinic of the staff post on the first day of the trial, only a buzz came today. The buzz was unintelligible to newspapermen who idled about 100 yards away.

The prosecution rested at noon.

First to appear at the screen door was Col. J. A. Higgins, commanding officer of the 23rd Infantry. Captain Coulter is an officer of the same regiment.

Captain T. D. Joyner, commander of the headquarters company of military police, was the second witness. He was followed by Lieutenant L. V. Hightower, assistant provost marshal.

V. L. Nichols re-entered Worley hospital yesterday for treatment.

TEXAS COMPANY IS COMPLETING FIVE NEW OIL WELLS IN COUNTY

BY GEORGE L. GUTHRIE
Consulting Geologist, Combs-Worley Bldg.

The Texas company is in the pay with five of its wells, two of which have completed railroad commission tests.

The No. 2 Barrett in section 130, block 3, I&GN, Gray county, hit the pay at 3120 and had 600 feet of oil in the hole. It completed its five-day test for an average of 40 barrels daily.

The No. 6 Harrah in section 150, block 3, I&GN, is drilling at 3250. It has an oil show at 3195 to 3201, and from 3180-60 the oil rose 700 feet in the hole.

The No. 3 Short in section 2, block 1, H&GN, Gray county, swabbed 226 barrels in 26 hours.

The No. 2 Webb in section 12, block A-9 Gray county is testing after a shot from 2568 to 2630 with 150 quarts.

Other wells in Gray county were Tharp and Dawson's No. 1 Hood in section 33, block 3, I&GN, which

Water Crisis Is Passed as Well Repaired

Thirsty Pampa lawns and gardens hiked the daily water consumption to a new high for the summer during June.

The city water department pumped 43,770,000 gallons for a daily consumption of 1,459,000 gallons.

Tonight, following the free swims for the kids today, the municipal swimming pool will be drained and refilled with 220,000 gallons of fresh, clean water for the Fourth.

One of the city's biggest water wells, which has been "juddered" several weeks because of pump trouble, has been repaired and is now ready to handle the peak summer load with ease.

There is plenty of water.

ORDINANCE ON TRAFFIC WILL GET ATTENTION

DOUBLE PARKING TO BE TABOO AND TIME LIMITED

There's a new ordinance enforcement deal coming in Pampa, with the police department as the dealers.

Ordinances long ignored were recalled last night during a discussion of the traffic problem which has developed since the spring drilling campaign started in the oil fields. These include the ordinances against double parking and overtime parking.

Citizens have not accepted the free parking lot idea, hence it will be necessary to enforce the 2-hour parking limits in the main business section. This will automatically remove from the congested area many of the store employees' cars which are parked from early morning to dusk in the spaces needed by shoppers.

May Replace Lights.

The effect is expected to make parking easier, hence double parking of every kind will be prohibited. Moreover, the city will attempt to buy at a bargain two more stop-and-go signals. It has one formerly used. These three lights, placed on North Cuyler, will untangle the nightly traffic jams. Movement between lights will be speeded up until double-parking such as has been common will be outlawed.

Not a single arrest for overtime parking was made in June, according to the monthly police report. Only five arrests were made for speeding. Yes, speeding is rampant and accidents have resulted. Thus, too, was ordered remedied by the city commission.

Police Chief Art Hurst asked and obtained another policeman. Jeff Guthrie will be added to the night force. The staff is being reorganized as to routine to provide frequent reports to the desk sergeant. The department will be able to give almost instant response to calls. When there is a special investigation to be made at night, some officers will be called in off their beats to answer telephone calls. Instances were shown by Chief Hurst in which the department was able to investigate men, hence several recent urgent calls went unanswered for from ten minutes to two hours.

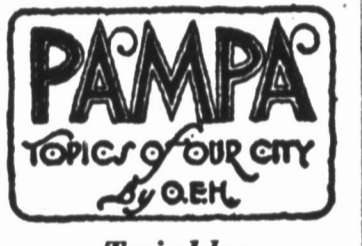

Asks Police Support.

City Attorney John Sturgeon made a statement urging close attention to and support of the police department. He made a number of suggestions concerning night work of the department.

Mayor W. A. Bratton expressed his desire for a firm police grip over the community.

"I think if a number of the wide-open joints we cleaned up it would remove a number of our problems," he added.

Most of the time of the commission was given to the police department last night. A bond salesman was heard concerning the bond market, which he said had set an all-time high but had receded somewhat.

Twinkles

Today's simile: As meaningless as a peace officer's oath to enforce all the laws.

Maybe the nudist wedding was not so bad—there isn't much sacredness left in modern marriages, Reno-bound by the sensational press and lurid movies.

A 4-year-old Californian child won an impersonation contest, posing as Mae West. That ought to prove something or other.

Birds have few trees in which to build their nests or to rest their wings in this country. But don't fly them too much—there are hundreds of humans who can find no houses to rent in Gray county.

Mr. Roosevelt says that the next congress will have to re-write many of the bills of the recent ones. By that time he will probably feel re-peal more than re-writing, if the cycles don't change.

Something may have to be done for the protection of men who wish to grow mustaches. John Mullen tells us he tried heretically to raise a crop last week, but the youngsters at the Ceta Canyon Young People's conference would have none of it.

Brevitorials

Musings of the moment: Many powerful fire crackers and rockets have been sold here. Fuses are rather short. If a cracker fails to go off it is hazardous to examine it to see why. Careless celebrating will turn the holiday into mourning. . . . When the skin is broken, danger of tetanus or lockjaw is always present. Swimming alone is dangerous if one tries to overdo his strength. Remember, it is hot. . . . Automobile accidents usually have one of three causes: Exceeding the speed limit, driving on the wrong side of the road, or failing to grant the right-of-way. You are a "machine" too—are you in trim mentally so that your machine will not ditch the one in which you are riding?

WE suppose this is cleanup day. At any rate, we're going to clean up an accumulation of mail.

Topping the heap is a pamphlet from the U. S. department of agriculture which discourses on the value of eggs, which it ranks next to milk as the best food. It says that "this country would be better off if everybody could be sure of at least three or four eggs a week, or more if possible." . . . The country did average such consumption several years ago, but not recently. With two important exceptions, eggs are rich in all the known food substances necessary for growth and development of the human body. The exceptions are calcium and vitamin C. The baby chicken can get his calcium by eating the shell. We can't. . . . Eat eggs, milk, and greens or tomatoes with your bread, and you're o. k. in your diet.

SPUR BOY KILLED

SPUR, July 3. (AP)—Accidental gunshot wounds received while rabbit hunting caused the death last night of James Lowell Smith, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Smith of Afton community. Arrangements were made for his burial in Ryan, Oklahoma, late today.

I HEARD—

The scream of a 4-year-old boy who learned by experience that one shouldn't hold even a small fire cracker when it explodes. Three fingers were scorched.

Assistant Postmaster O. K. Gaylor wondering how to make out a form asking for bids on a rake which the postoffice needs. He requisitioned Washington for the rake and a letter came back instructing him to ask for bids on the article.

BALDWIN SAYS NAVAL PLANS MUST SUCCEED

SAYS IT'S IMPERATIVE TO 'ACHIEVE SOME END' IN 1935

LONDON, July 3. (AP)—Stanley Baldwin, lord president of the council, told the house of commons today international political conditions are so serious it is imperative for the 1935 naval conference to "achieve some end."

Baldwin spoke as acting prime minister in the absence of Ramsay MacDonald and as acting head of the British naval delegation.

He evaded all questions from the opposition regarding Great Britain's maximum naval demands as presented recently to the American delegation.

"World conditions," he said, "in many ways are more difficult than at the time of the London conference, and therefore it is more than ever necessary to survey the entire ground before the conference."

"Deterioration of certain conditions in the world makes it all the more necessary in this government's view that the conference should meet and that the conference should achieve some end."

Meanwhile, the government announced its intention to assist British shipping with a $10,000,000 subsidy to be applied as a "defensive" measure.

Voters Swarming Oklahoma Polls

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 3. (AP)—A great rush of voters swamped precinct officials throughout Oklahoma today, clogging primary election machinery as they sweated over two-foot long democratic ballots.

So great was the rush and so long the lines of voters, jostling under a boiling sun, that no preliminary count of the vote in the scramble for the democratic gubernatorial nomination was possible at noon.

In Oklahoma City, where at one polling place ropes and a policeman were needed to handle the crowd, the Times said outside indications were that Gov. "Alfalfa Bill" Murray and his ticket, including Speaker Tom Anglin for governor, were having hard sledding and that Congressman E. W. Marland appeared a favorite, with Jack Walton, removed governor and Lieut. Gov. Robert Burns picking up many votes.

Eighty-Six Arrests Made By Policemen

Intoxication continues to account for more than half of the 86 arrests made in June, 48 were for drunkenness. Other arrests were: Vagrancy 4, affray 6, disturbing the peace 8, speeding 5, other traffic violations 5, investigation 6, gambling 3, theft 4. Seventeen cases were dismissed.

Fines assessed were $593.50, of which $333.50 was collected. Prisoners worked an aggregate of 40 days and served 21 days in jail. Six cases were advanced to higher courts. Males served prisoners totaled 195 for the month.

RODEOS WILL ATTRACT BIG CROWDS BUT FISHING IS STILL ACE APPEAL

Exodus of Pampans for the Fourth of July holiday was well under way today, with trips to the mountains and fishing holes carrying the greatest appeal for those going the greatest distances.

Rodeos in this territory, however, will attract by far the greatest crowds. Cowhands have come for many miles to participate in the Anvil Park rodeo at Canadian and the Oil Field union rodeo at LeFors, opening today, and the big Palo Duro park program of tomorrow. For others, resting quietly at home while other persons suffer in the heat and dust will suffice, with perhaps a movie in the afternoon and a drive or dancing in the evening.

The holiday offerings include, in brief:

PAMPA—Swimming and diving contests at Pampa swimming pool at 3:30 o'clock. Golfing at the two Pampa courses; dancing; theaters.

LEFORS—Coltco Gasoliners at home to Pampa Roadrunners, 3:30 o'clock. Rodeo performances at 10 and 8:30 p. m. Swimming, golf, foot races and dancing at Oilfield union celebration.

BOGGER—Baseball tournament, two games in afternoon and one game at night. Burger Jaycees at home to Pampa Jaycees in Donkey ball game, 10 p. m. Formal opening of new swimming pool.

CANADIAN—Anvil Park rodeo.

PALO DURO CANYON—Rodeo program, etc., with new state park formally opened.

CALLS FOR JUNE 30 CONDITIONS OF BANKS MADE SIMULTANEOUSLY BY THREE GOVERNMENT AGENCIES

Such Action Is Taken First Time By FDIC

WASHINGTON, July 3. (AP)—Calls for June 30 bank condition statements were made simultaneously today by the comptroller of the currency, the federal reserve system and the federal deposit insurance corporation. It was the first time the FDIC had taken such action.

The comptroller's call went to national banks, the federal reserve to member banks, state and national, and the deposit insurance corporation to its membership, which includes institutions not subject to either of the other calls.

The information that must be supplied to the FDIC, however, is virtually the same as the required on the other two calls. Leo T. Crowley, chairman of the FDIC, said directors of the organization were impelled by a desire to obtain more accurate information regarding the condition of insured banks not subject to other federal examinations.

He made it clear the data was not being sought for the purpose of making additional assessments at this time, and said no further levies for insurance purposes were to be made prior to October 1.

The FDIC call will bring together information on the condition of 7,567 state banks not affiliated with the federal reserve, which has never been available before. Most of the licensed banks of the country are members of the insurance fund.

EDMONTON, Alta., July 3. (AP)—Premier J. E. Brown, of the province, who recently lost a civil suit in which he was charged with seduction, has informed Lieut. Gov. W. L. Walsh that he will resign, it was learned today. Miss Vivian MacMillan, who sued the premier, was awarded $10,000 damages and her father 5,000.

WIMBLEDON, Eng., July 3. (AP)—Helen Hull Jacobs, United States champion and top-seeded favorite, today won her way to the semifinals of the all-England tennis championships with a 6-0, 6-2 victory over Chli Aussem, former ranking player of Germany.

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 3. (AP)—Meager and incomplete returns from four scattered precincts in Oklahoma City today gave for the democratic nomination for governor: E. W. Marland 93; Jack Walton 36; Tom Anglin 26; J. Berry King 21; Robert Burns 5; Gomer Smith 4.

Wilhelmina's Husband Dies

Suffering from heart disease, he had been ill for several days since he was stricken at his headquarters in the Red Cross office.

It had been stated, however, that his condition was not considered serious. This morning his physician said he was quiet following a restless night, and the end came unexpectedly in the afternoon.

Princess Henry's daughter, Princess Juliana, now visiting London, was to leave tomorrow to see her father. Her departure, it was believed, may be hastened by his death.

The marriage of Prince Henry to Queen Wilhelmina of Holland in 1901 was one of the most brilliant royal alliances of a generation. She was 20 at the time, and her bridegroom, 24.

JULY FOURTH REALLY LIVES ON

Repeat any ceremony often enough, and eventually it will be almost meaningless—unless you take special trouble to stop and remember just what it's all about.

There have been a lot of Independence Days, since an old bell in a Philadelphia steeple rang out the announcement of the first one.

And yet, even if this Fourth of July symbol has been used over and over again, the reality which stands back of it is just as much alive now as it ever was.

Those men of 1776 didn't go to war just because they disliked the king of England, or because they were feeling their oats and needed a good, brisk fight.

They fought, in brief, because they had discovered what a precious thing freedom was; because they felt that the common man's right to live his own life and work out his own destiny was a right worth suffering and dying for.

Freedom and democracy weren't popular words in those days. They aren't popular today.

When the first Independence Day was celebrated, most of Europe looked on democracy as an impractical dream that could never conceivably work properly.

In the years following the American revolution, the people of the United States showed that democracy could be made to work and that freedom was something in which the humblest man might share.

In the years ahead just ahead of us, we have a chance to prove the same thing all over again.

The ideals for which men risked their necks on the first Independence Day are being imperiled anew. Their security is largely up to us.

That heritage is still great—and still in danger. It is still up to us to defend it.—Bruce Catton.

GRAPPLER OUT-RUNS HILL IN WRESTLING SHOW AND BRAWL

Fenton Wins Fall And Goes Out; Hill Throws Next 2 Before Foot-Race Finish.

Something new in wrestling was presented at the Pla-Mor auditorium last night when Don Hill, California speedster, met three grapplers in the main event.

Pat Garrison, Pampa Irishman, replaced Fenton but fell before the Californian in a few minutes. The crowd called to have Speedy Franks meet Hill for the last fall and "so it was."

Some wild-eyed fan hurled a couple of pop bottles at Fenton during a match so Fenton took one of the bottles and proceeded to "massage" his opponent's head.

The fall was wild and woolly. Fenton blinded Hill, choked him and slammed him until it looked like the finish in a few minutes.

Hill made short work of throwing Garrison and Franks, the two falls not lasting more than 10 minutes. Science predominated until the end of the second fall, when the Californian landed a couple of drop kicks and three Sonnenbergs to disperse Franks into submission.

Wildcat Willie took three minutes to down Kid Hill with a body smother in the opener.

The new cooling system worked well and the auditorium was comfortably cool for the match.

JAPANESE CABINET RESIGNS TO MAKE WAY FOR MILITARISTS

EMBOY FAILS TO INFLUENCE UNITED STATES

JAPS' ARMY AND NAVY DEMAND STRONG POLICIES

TOKYO, July 3 (AP)—The Japanese cabinet resigned today and high naval and army circles pressed their campaign for a more militaristic government.

Premier Makoto Saito presented the resignations to Emperor Hirohito, who asked Saito to continue as premier pending selection of a successor.

Prince Saionji, veteran statesman, was called into conference by Hirohito, who said his decision as to a premier would be announced tomorrow.

The cabinet resigned because it considered itself compromised by a financial scandal in which Hideo Kuroda, vice minister of finance, is involved. Individual resignations were given Saito, who transmitted them to the emperor.

The scandal grew out of the operation of the Bank of Formosa, a semi-official institution. Many quarters predicted that Saito would be directed to form another cabinet.

High officials of the army want a cabinet which favors expansion of the service, while the navy desires a government which is certain to take a firm stand at the 1935 naval conference.

Viscount Saito, a 76-year-old veteran of public life, was called to head the government after the assassination of Premier Suoyoshi Inukai.

He had gained a wide reputation as governor-general of Korea.

WASHINGTON, July 3 (AP)—Hirohito, Japanese ambassador to Washington, calls today from San Francisco to report to Tokyo that he has made little headway in "selling" several Japanese proposals to the Roosevelt administration.

State department officials have even admitted that Saito made even cautious overtures concerning Japan's desire to negotiate a conciliation or non-aggression pact with the United States. In answer to questions based on Tokyo's dispatches, however, Secretary Hull did announce that the United States had not considered entering into any bilateral non-aggression agreement with any nation.

The ambassador did discuss the question informally with Senator Key Pittman, chairman of the senate foreign relations committee. Pittman is understood to have informed Saito that the senate was not disposed to ratify a non-aggression pact with any other nation. American officials believe the Kellogg-Briand agreement fully covers the question.

Japan's claims of guardianship over Asian interests, which created a furore in world capitals some weeks ago, also failed to alter the American policy of maintaining the spirit and letters of treaties.

Starting Of Road Work Will Depend Upon New Budget

Starting of road work in Gray county under the drought relief plan will depend upon acceptance of a work program and approval of the new budget. The Gray county relief board is investigating every person registered and is making out a new schedule.

All relief cases will have to be certified to the works division of the social service department here. The cases have been on direct relief entirely. Those able to work will now be transferred to the works department.

An approved project has not been announced but it is understood that Highway 33 through the city will be finished under the new program. Curb and gutter will be extended and the rest of the road widened. Topping will also be in the program, it is believed.

Sport Slants by ALAN J. GOULD

In the classic art of mile-running, which is being kept pretty much alive and kicking despite the metric-minded gentlemen of the American A. U. and the I. C. A. A. A. Princeton's remarkable runner, Bill Bonhron, has one more rendezvous with Father Time and an outstanding rival.

Tiger Bill will match strides in London this July with Jack Lovelock, the slim New Zealander who showed his heels to Bonhron a year ago at Princeton and held the world record of 4:07.6 until Glenn Cunningham of Kansas shaved it to 4:06.7 on the same cinder oval recently.

On time, Cunningham has the more consistent record. He has turned in three races under 4:10, Bonhron two, and Lovelock one.

Bonhron and Lovelock, however, can furnish a rousing finish by combining to take a good, lusty crack at Cunningham's new record when they meet in White City stadium.

THAT THING CALLED PRESSURE

Bonhron's reversal of form at Los Angeles, only a week after his stunning defeat by Cunningham at Princeton and after being ailsrck most of the way across the country, was amazing but understandable.

The pressure was heavy on Bonhron at Tigertown. Not only was he under the guns of a terrific ballyhoo but thousands of his college followers were on hand expecting him to win and he was subjected to the strain of commencement days. Put all these things together, mixed with natural nervousness, and it is easy to realize that Bonhron was too tense to give his best.

With the pressure off him entirely, the Tiger star could toe the mark at Los Angeles without worrying about the outcome or any other factors. By contrast the load was shifted to Cunningham, who undoubtedly began to feel the burden of a hard campaign as well as some after-effects of his foot sprain.

TOPSY-TURVY THEORY

The theory of mile-running has been radically changed by our American aces this year and offers fresh possibilities of making further progress in the world record time. I do not think we will see a four-minute mile achieved by human legs but certainly 4:04 now appears altogether possible.

Even when Lovelock raced to his world record at Princeton he and the foreign relations committee, Pittman is understood to have informed Saito that the senate was not disposed to ratify a non-aggression pact with any other nation. American officials believe the Kellogg-Briand agreement fully covers the question.

Japan's claims of guardianship over Asian interests, which created a furore in world capitals some weeks ago, also failed to alter the American policy of maintaining the spirit and letters of treaties.

County Attorney Probes Status of School Properties

County Attorney Sherman White has returned from Gaines county, where he investigated the status of Gray county school lands for the commissioners court.

He was to report to the court this afternoon with his recommendations. In some instances, the lands will likely be leased for oil. The county sold the land, but interest has not been paid on some tracts for years.

Mrs. Jewell Wiegman will spend tomorrow with her parents in Claude.

CHICAGO CUBS DEFEAT CARDS IN 7-4 GAME

GONZALES, DEAN AND FRISCH EJECTED FROM TILT

BY HERBERT W. BARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer. The heat, the humidity, and two torrid, pennant races are shortening baseball tempers these days. Players, managers, and coaches, taking aspersions on the eyesight of harassed umpires, are taking early showers by emphatic request.

A half dozen argumentative principals have been summarily ejected from the ball parks in the last couple of weeks and yesterday Bill Klein calmly waved Manager Frank Frisch, coach Mike Gonzales and Dizzy Dean of the St. Louis Cardinals to the club house after they disputed his ruling on a play that paved the way for the Cardinals' 7-4 defeat of the Chicago Cubs. Lon Warneke went the route for the Cubs and allowed seven hits and no earned runs. Chicago's victory enabled the Cubs to remain within two games of the New York Giants, National League pace-setters, who walked the Boston Braves, 7-4, as Joe Bowman pitched game 6-5. Al The Braves' defeat dropped them into fifth place, a few percentage points behind the idle Pittsburgh Pirates. Len Koenecke's two home runs helped the Brooklyn Dodgers top the Phillies, 7-5.

Lefty Grove and tenth triumph of the year against only two defeats marked the New York Yankees' 5-0 shutout of the Boston Red Sox. The victory, the Yankees' eighth in succession, enabled them to increase their lead over the Detroit Tigers to two games. The Tigers' pinch-hit by nineteenth hit while Tommy Bridges was allowing only six, to beat the Cleveland Indians, 9-2, in the first game of a double header but Bob Welland's double in the ninth drove home Sammy Rice, who ran the run that gave the Indians the second game, 6-5. Alphonse Thomas gave up seven hits and Red Kress, substitute first baseman, clouted two home runs as Washington beat the Athletics, 7-3, and returned to third place, the Red Sox dropping to fifth again. St. Louis and Chicago were idle.

Jimmie Allred 'Warns' Voters

WAXAHACHIE, July 3 (AP)—At-torney General James V. Allred undertook to "warn" voters against glib promises of candidates for governor.

"Some of my opponents would have you believe they could carry out their high-sounding promises in 15 minutes after they were elected," the attorney general said. "It is with this sort of vote-catching approach they are coming to you."

"In the first place, many of their promises are impossible of fulfillment. On the other hand, they should know that the governor is just one of the cops in the machine of government, and he can't deliver on his promises without the cooperation of the legislature."

Allred said major proposals and planned reforms necessitate the passage of constitutional amendments which require time in performance and which no governor can do by himself.

DECATUR WILL PLAY PAMPANS THIS EVENING

Pampa's Roadrunners had to score four runs in the ninth inning to defeat the Coltexo nine in a Borger tournament fixture yesterday afternoon. When the barrage of base hits had subsided, the Roadrunners were in the lead 14 to 13. Three Pampa hurlers had been battered in the wild melee.

The Roadrunners are scheduled to meet Deatur at 8:30 o'clock tonight. Decatur has not played a game in the tournament yet is scheduled to meet a team that has played two games. Because only eight teams entered the tournament, it will be necessary for a team to lose four games before being eliminated.

The Roadrunners opened the game with a three-run spurge off veteran Dick Morgan. Coltexo came back in the same inning to nick Manager George Bulla for four runs. The Roadrunners countered two runs in the third, three in the fourth and two in the fifth to chase Morgan from the mound. Haley finished the game, holding the Roadrunners scoreless until the ninth inning.

Bulla tightened down after the first inning and coasted along until the seventh, when a barrage of hits drove him out. Bill Hardin went to the mound but was blasted out of the way and Pete Stegman had to be called to stem the flow. Hardin had been ill for more than a week and was not in shape to pitch. Coltexo gathered three runs in the eighth and came within one run of tying the score in the ninth.

Selz, Ater, Ward, and Vaughn hit home runs for the Roadrunners. Pointexter, LeFors catcher, hit two circuit bloopers.

The Roadrunners and Coltexo will meet at 3:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in a Fourth of July feature in LeFors. Either "Gomez" Marborough or "Lefty" Carroll, Skellytown ace recruited by the Roadrunners for the tournament will be on the mound.

Score by innings: Roadrunners 302 320 004—14 Coltexo 400 000 531—13 Batteries: Bulla, Hardin, Stegman and Vaughn; Morgan, Haley and Pointexter.

DALLAS LOSES 18TH GAME TO INDIAN TRIBE

Associated Press Sports Writer. Apparently some things can continue forever. Take the case of the Dallas Stars. Several weeks ago they started a losing streak that reached twelve consecutive defeats. They won a game and things were looking up for twenty-four hours, then they slumped into another losing streak. The Dallas Stars defeated 4 to 2 by the Oklahoma City Indians for their eighteenth defeat in their last nineteen games.

Charlie Barnabe, southpaw pitcher, managed the Stars last night but he could not rid the herd of the stars. St. Dreyfus and Ben Taylor are in the East seeking players. Manager Brainard was called home because of illness in his family.

The Tulsa Oilers hustled to come through with a 2-run rally in the ninth inning for a 4 to 3 decision over the Fort Worth Stars. They tied the score and then leaped from behind to win just when their cause seemed lost.

While the second place Tulsa Oilers were trimming the Cats, the first place San Antonio Missions lost a 4 to 2 game to Houston. The decisive left fielder in the game was in front of Tulsa. Houston hammered Miller and Goff for an assortment of 13 hits while Beckman limited the Missions to seven scattered hits. A three-run rally by Houston in the last of the sixth spelled doom for the Missions. Kalbitz led Houston's attack with three hits.

It was an old-fashioned game at Galveston where the Buccaneers beat Beaumont, 1 to 0. Galveston drove through the 0-0 deadlock with one hit in the ninth inning to break up the marvelous hurling duel between Sullivan for Beaumont and Bivin for Galveston. Sullivan allowed six hits and Bivin allowed four. Galveston made two errors against a flawless game for the Exporters.

TERRY AND CRONIN ANNOUNCE LINEUPS FOR ALL-STAR GAME

Selections Differ Sharply With Nominations of Gus H. Fan in Ballots

By ALAN GOULD Associated Press Sports Writer NEW YORK, July 3 (AP)—After blue-penciling the recommendations of Gus H. Fan on how the rival major league all-star teams should take the field for the battle of the Polo Grounds, one week from today, Managers Bill Terry of the National League and Joe Cronin of the American league made public today their selections for each 20-man squad.

The two young pilots, who take over the jobs handed last year by Connie Mack and John J. McGraw, were vested with final authority, in the effort to put the strongest possible teams together. The final results of the newspaper balloting were made public yesterday and Cronin and Terry had no time demonstrating where they differ sharply with the fans who had the final say-so a year ago.

Cronin, besides naming Frank (Pinkie) Higgins of the Athletics to play third base instead of the veteran Jimmy Dykes, White Sox manager, who had a 10-to-1 margin in the poll and selecting Al Simmons of the White Sox to start the game in the outfield in place of Earl Averill of the Indians, radically shifted the pitching list.

Cronin agrees with the fans that Vernon (Goody) Gomez of the Yankees is the No. 1 flinger in the league but instead of picking Earl Whitehill of the Senators, Lefty Grove of the Red Sox and Willis Hudlin of the Indians, the next three choices in order in the popular poll, he has selected Red Ruffing of the Yankees, Mel Harder of the Indians and Tommy Bridges of the Tigers, with Jack Russell of his own Senators for mopping up duty.

There are no surprises, otherwise, in the American league lineup. Lou Gehrig, Charley Gehringer and Cronin himself will round out the infield with Higgins while Babe Ruth and Heinie Manush will share the outfield duty at the outset with Simmons. Cronin departed from the vote of the fans in selecting Sam Rice of the Browns for reserve outfield work, instead of Carl Reynolds of the Red Sox, besides selecting Rick Ferrell of the Red Sox in preference to Rollie Hemslay of the Browns for back-stopping aid to the pitcher.

Perrell caught the entire all-star game for the American league at Chicago last year. Bill Terry hasn't decided yet whether his team-mate, Travis Jackson, the popular choice, or Arky Wright, who started yesterday at shortstop but otherwise has a comparatively few differences with the verdict of fandom. The only noteworthy shift is that Mel Ott of the Giants will be a starting outfielder along with Joe Medwick of the Cardinals and Mickey Vernon of the Cubs, leaving Wally Berger of the Braves, third choice in the poll, for reserve duty. Pie Traynor, Frank Frisch and Terry complete the infield.

Terry named only two catchers, Al Lopez and Doc Edwards, and Hartnett of the Cubs, in order to have an extra infielder. He substituted his own Joe Moore in the list of outfield reserves for Kiki Cuyler of the Cubs, who outvoted Moore, and chose Fred Frankhouse of the Cardinals and Mickey Vernon of the Browns in preference to Paul Dean of the Cardinals or Guy Bush of the Cubs. Frankhouse fared poorly, for some unexplained reason, in the poll, but Terry agrees with the fans otherwise in naming Carl Hubbell, Dizzy Dean, Lon Warneke and Muny Mungo for pitching duty.

The National leaguers enjoy an edge on the basis of pitching performance, but the Americans present an array of sluggers who may offset that advantage. Outside of the best-hitting bats, the Americans average approximately .348 in hitting while the Nationals, with Vaughan at short, average .344. Jackson's presence in the starting lineup would lower the National league to .334 per man on paper but this would not worry Terry.

FROM the state department of health we learn that summer brings the three F's—flies, flies, and food, three common ways of transmitting intestinal diseases. Drinking water is a food. Impure water, milk, and contaminated foods cause diarrhea and dysentery. Flies are especially dangerous to babies, carrying microbes which find their easiest prey in the young.

FROM an industrial news bureau comes the interesting fact that all this talk of strikes is misleading. There have been no more strikes lately than the average for the last five or six years. The only difference is that many current strike threats grow out of the demands for closed shops, instead of the usual desire for shorter hours and more pay. The closed shop idea is chiefly confined to the bigger cities and larger industries.

MODERN Science Institute tells us that the Hawaiian Islands once were called Sandwich Islands. James Cook named the islands after John Montagu of England, 4th earl of Sandwich. The earl especially liked his sandwich, which he invented by having his attendant put his meat between two slices of bread so that he could eat without stopping his card game. He was a famous gambler of that day, which was during the reign of George III. Of course, the sandwich idea had been used earlier but had not been popularized.

NEXT we come to a map of business conditions released by the United States chamber of commerce. It shows the western tier of Panhandle counties in the white spot of good business. This should be news of Dalhart, which also is listed for emergency drought relief. Maybe the chamber's map makers had the oil fields in mind, but if so they misplaced the "spot."

DEPRESSION years were good health years. We are coming out of the depression. Disease and accidents are increasing their tolls. That's a crazy setup, but true. The Metropolitan Life Insurance company records show that the cumulative 1934 mortality rate was 4.4 per cent higher to the end of May than the corresponding months of 1933. Pneumonia, accidents, and auto mishaps have shown sharp increases. Every cause of death appears on the upgrade except diphtheria, tuberculosis, and maternity conditions, over which science is gaining more control every year.

ALONG the same line, Gubernatorialist Clint Small recently spoke as follows: "We should promote means of treatment and resources for study of the crippled children. The president of the United States is showing us the way. Texas can and ought, at the earliest possible moment, to do her part by creating such an institution. Every good citizen will subscribe to the doctrine that the state must do her full duty in caring for her destitute sick. No one wants the dole system. If I am governor, politics will be abandoned and in its stead human fellowship will be instituted."

A Washington Daybook

BY HERBERT PLUMMER

WASHINGTON—The administration No. 1 "brain trust"—Dr. Rexford Guy Tugwell—will revive a neglected hobby when he tours the agricultural west in his new capacity as under-secretary of agriculture.

It is inspecting agricultural experiment stations is considered to offer a splendid and dignified method for Tugwell to be seen by the American people. No one doubts that they wished to hit Tugwell by implication.

Mr. Roosevelt and his advisers apparently recognize the probability that republicans will attempt to make a campaign issue of Tugwell, and they hope to prevent this by sending him on a round of public appearances.

Star Performer

Observers in Washington are agreed, generally, that Dr. Tugwell will steal the show from all the other "new dealers" touring the country at the same time. Even the colorful General Johnson may find it difficult to match the handsome, smiling, poised professor.

Fresh from his encounter with the senate in what Senator Norris of Nebraska describes as "the most complete show I have ever witnessed—nothing lacking but the music"—and in which he was the principal actor, Tugwell should be a drawing card of the first rank.

Perhaps the administration calculates they'll come to see him out of curiosity, remain to be charmed by his personality, and go away with a different conception of "brain trusters."

Court Martial Trial Of Polo Player Starts

SAN ANTONIO, July 2 (AP)—The court martial of Captain Harold K. (Duke) Coulter, widely known polo player, opened at Fort Sam Houston today behind closed doors.

Testimony in the case will involve Mrs. Alice Traylor Morgan, divorcee of William F. Morgan, wealthy San Antonio oil man. Conviction under the charges would mean mandatory dishonorable discharge.

The request for a closed court was made by the defense. Captain J. F. R. Scott, trial judge advocate, read the request aloud as the court convened. He next read the written approval for a closed court signed by Major General Johnson Hagood, commanding general of the eighth corps area.

Captain Coulter is said to be charged under the 95th and 96th articles of war for conduct unbecoming an officer and gentleman. Both the officer and Mrs. Morgan deny they are guilty of any misconduct. The officer was given the option of taking a reprimand or standing trial and he chose the latter.

Since the outset of the investigation, the preliminary hearing of the case army officials have remained silent regarding details. The only two copies of the exact charges have never been quoted.

Small Advocates Dry Law Change

TERRELL, July 3 (AP)—Clint C. Small, campaigning for governor, today criticized Attorney General James V. Alfred, opposition candidate, for what Small termed Alfred's "failure to enforce the state's liquor and anti-gambling laws."

"I call your attention to the fact that liquor laws of this state and our anti-gambling laws are being flagrantly violated," Small said in a speech here. "Yet our attorney general says he is satisfied with the existing dry law. I say we ought to change the law, regulating the sale of liquor according to the section of our people and get some revenue out of it for our state government."

"During past administrations, our attorney generals would not permit gambling houses and saloons to operate in violation of the state law. But we don't see any action toward padlocking of these places."

Jimmie Wheeler will "work around home" tomorrow, he reports.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Thornton are liable to go on a flying expedition over the Fourth.

Dillinger 'Seen' In Massachusetts

BOSTON, July 3 (AP)—John Dillinger was hunted today along the country lanes and trunk highways of western Massachusetts.

State troopers roamed the roads and searched the backwoods farms. Cruising car squads and motorcycle officers watched the highways for a small sedan bearing Michigan registration plates. Troopers on horseback sought strange faces in the wooded areas, and searched abandoned farms.

The concentration of troopers was ordered two hours after a motorist who stopped for gasoline in the little village of Whitinsville had been positively identified as Dillinger.

The stranger, driving a light sedan with Michigan plates and accompanied by a woman, stopped for gas at a Whitinsville filling station about 11 o'clock last night.

An attendant named Allen was in charge—an alert youth described by Whitinsville folk as "a reliable man."

He thought the stranger at the wheel "looked like Dillinger" and after the machine had sped off on the Whitinsville-Worcester road, he told Chief of Police Cullen his suspicions.

Allen said the man kept his face "averted" and inquired the way to Worcester.

Troops Guard Nazi Dictator

BERLIN, July 3 (AP)—Adolf Hitler is probably the most carefully guarded man in the world today.

Since his return from his epochal trip to Munich he has left his chancellery, to public knowledge, only twice, and then with strong protection.

Late yesterday he visited the king and queen of Siam at the Adlon hotel. He walked through a lobby all hall lined with members of a special bodyguard.

His other visit was to fashionable suburban Dahlem to confer with Kurt Schmitt, minister of economics.

Before Hitler left, the adjacent street to the chancellery was cleared of all traffic. His huge car darted away like a flash.

The chancellery is an impressive 4-story structure of light colored stone, strongly built. Its comparatively small windows give it a fortress-like appearance.

Through its windows can be seen armed police and "SS" men (schutz staffel, picked guards) seemingly in every room. Motor cycles dash up to it and the nearby propaganda ministry at given signals and depart with a flurry.

SUCCESSOR TO MURRAY TO BE CHOSEN TODAY

TOM ANGLIN AND E. W. MARLAND DUE TO LEAD TICKET

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 3 (AP)—Oklahoma voters balled beneath two-foot long ballots today a record list of candidates for state office, and picked the two leaders in each race for a run-off July 24.

From the sidelines, Gov. William H. Murray, limited to the state constitution to one 4-year term, peered to see if he could will the office to Tom Anglin, state speaker, dubbed by oppositionists the "crown prince" candidate.

Shirt-sleeved "Alfalfa Bill" called a 4-day holiday in state capital offices to give employees time to go home, vote and work for his "state" chief issue in the torrid campaign. Anglin's foes told the voters his election would mean a continuation of Murray rule. Murray and Anglin asserted the present governor would make no attempt to control or influence his successor.

Of the fifteen men seeking the democratic gubernatorial nomination, those generally conceded to be the leaders are Anglin, Congressman E. W. Marland, who made and lost an oil fortune before turning to politics two years ago; the veteran Jack Walton, essaying a comeback to the office from which he was removed by impeachment 11 years ago; Attorney General J. Berry King, bitterest of the anti-Murray clan; Lieut. Gov. Robert Burns, another ardent foe of the governor's policies; and Gomer Smith, spectacular and successful Oklahoma City attorney.

All the candidates remained confident pending the actual counting of the ballots, Anglin predicting he will be "from 40,000 to 50,000 votes ahead of the second man, whether that's Walton or Marland." Others were perhaps less sanguine, but Marland said "I'm not even sure Anglin will be in the run-off."

Former Senator W. B. Pine virtually conceded the hitherto unfruitful republican gubernatorial nomination.

Personalities overshadowed issues in the campaign in which most candidates pledged economy, tax revision and reduction, and home-head tax exemption. The congressional races brought the greatest flux of "catch" names. Will Rogers, representative at large, rid himself of a "double" but still faced Robert E. Lee, Andrew Jackson Jordan, and others including former Governor Henry S. Johnston, who was removed and later elected to the state senate, and E. B. Howard, former congressman.

Six of the other eight congressional incumbents asked re-election, with prospects that they would continue into the run-off. In the eighth, Marland's district, and the second, where the veteran W. W. Hastings retired. The races were wide open affairs.

More than 400,000 voters were expected to ballot on more than 1,000 aspirants to office, from constable to governor.

Statewide Oil Hearing To Be Held July 23

AUSTIN, July 3. (AP)—The Texas railroad commission has called a statewide oil prorator hearing for July 23. Effects of ten per cent reduction in the allowable production of the state's four principal oil fields, effective yesterday, likely will be reviewed at the hearing. Commissioner E. O. Thompson said the commission would ask for nominations for the purchase of crude oil to ascertain the market demand during August. Texas oil production was cut to approximately 1,006,000 barrels daily by the commission after a statewide hearing June 26. Minor revisions were made in several small fields and the production quotas of four fields, East Texas, Yates, Van and Conroe, were reduced 10 per cent.

Cotton Farmer Compliance Will Be Known Soon

COLLEGE STATION, July 3. (AP)—The check on the compliance of Texas farmers in carrying out their domestic wheat allotment contracts with the agricultural adjustment administration is expected to be finished early in July. Nearly three-fourths of the allotment completed to June 16, according to reports received by the Texas A. & M. college extension service. These reports coming from sixty-nine counties, show that 9,515 out of 14,135 farms involved in contracts have been inspected. Only two of the eleven counties which have not reported are large wheat producers. The figures reveal that only six per cent of the inspection reports have been returned to supervisors because of errors. The inspection work which includes not only the measurement of wheat land and the contracted acreage but also the use to which the contracted acres are put, is in charge of John E. Edmonds, former extension district agent, with headquarters at Amarillo. More than 290 supervisors, most of them county agricultural committee men, are engaged in carrying out the task.

Extension officials have pointed out that the drought insurance feature of the AAA wheat plan marks the first time, probably, that American farmers have had any action against crop hazards and that the plan is helping northwest Texas farmers through a very difficult situation. Regardless of the size of this year's crop a contracting farmer is to be paid benefits of nearly thirty cents a bushel on fifty-four per cent of his average five-year production.

Extension officials have explained that agricultural adjustment does not always mean acreage reduction. They have pointed out in this connection the liberalization of restrictions on the use of contracted acres in the wheat and corn-hog programs. Contracting farmers in these programs have been permitted to plant food and feed crops for hay and forage without limit because of widespread drought conditions.

South, Southwest Business Shows Greatest Gains

NEW YORK, July 2. (AP)—The view held today that while the "trade tide undoubtedly is ebbing from the standpoint of sales and earnings," a gradual but irregular uptrend is noticeable in practically all major lines.

"It cannot be denied," asserted the review, "that crucial points lie in the path which will be followed during the next six months, but with the reassurance given by the president that nothing is to be allowed to interrupt the recovery movement, the overcoming of timidity and the jetting-on of the present excessive caution may result in a sudden forging ahead in the next few weeks."

"Much is expected to be gained by the elimination of any unworkable code provisions, which may carry prohibitions detrimental to industry or call for the conscription of unwilling units."

"Reports of the largest gains in distribution this week were received from the south and southwest, as demand has turned weaker in the middle west and northwest, except in those districts where aid has been given by the AAA for crop reduction and drought relief have been generous."

"The trend in industrial indices is becoming more mixed, with new peaks being set down for some divisions, while in others the recession is more accentuated than seasonal."

"On the whole June was a satisfactory month for retailers with moderate gains over May recorded, and the general showing far better than it was in June, 1933."

President Heads South To Haiti And Puerto Rico

BY FRANCIS M. STEPHENSON.
ABOARD U. S. S. GILMER ACCOMPANYING PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, July 3. (AP)—President Roosevelt and his shipmates were afforded a real test of their sea legs today as they headed due south toward Haiti and Puerto Rico.

The cruiser, Houston, bearing the presidential party, proceeded through rough seas at a fast clip of 18 to 20 knots. The Houston dipped and pitched, and the trail-destroyers bobbed about like corks.

Sea sickness casualties were high on board the destroyer Gilmer, carrying newspaper men, and the destroyer Williamson, carrying secret service men, but they hung on grimly, declining an offer by the president to slacken the pace.

Mr. Roosevelt enjoyed his second day on the Atlantic, relaxing and taking things easy with his sons, Franklin Jr. and John. But he remained in touch with the White House by wireless. He looked the inland newspaper men about some of the non-nautical terms in their stories.

The Houston was off the Florida coast and proceeding far out at sea. The schedule called for the first stop Thursday at Haiti and the first landing Friday at Puerto Rico.

His 13,000-mile voyage will take the president into the Pacific, to Hawaii and the American west coast.

Government Will Speed Buying Of Cattle And Sheep

WASHINGTON, July 3. (AP)—Faced with reports of continued dry weather with extreme heat over the drought area the farm administration was expected today to urge its purchasing agents to speed cattle buying and expand the program to include sheep.

Three factors govern relief purchases of livestock from now on, officials said—the ability of the federal relief administration to take cattle and sheep for processing into meat, when and where rainfall occurs, and the amount of rain which falls.

Buying of cattle has been hampered somewhat to date, it was learned, owing to inability of the relief organization to take the livestock on the farms or at concentration points awaiting disposal.

Efforts were made by relief officials to speed up the business of removing the cattle from farms to conserve available feed and water supplies.

Approximately 70,000 head of cattle have been moved to date from the drought area into Alabama, Texas, Oklahoma, and southwestern states to be fed on pasture for a time before being sent to packing plants.

Drought relief officials reported an increase in the number of cattle condemned on farms as unfit for human food. Until recently only about 6 per cent of the animals were so rejected but during the past week about 90 per cent of the cattle bought in New Mexico were condemned.

The average was further increased by rejection of about 35 per cent of the animals bought in Texas and 20 to 25 per cent of those in other states of the extreme drought area.

The drought relief program for the summer calls for, in addition to work relief and furnishing of feed, food, and seed, the purchase of about 5,000,000 cattle and 5,000,000 sheep.

Barbara Leaves Prince Playing Polo In London

PARIS, July 3. (AP)—Princess Barbara Hutton Mdivani came to Paris by air today to join her father, Franklin Hutton, for a trip to Czechoslovakia, leaving the prince in London playing polo.

The Woodworth business man calls for, in addition to work relief and furnishing of feed, food, and seed, the purchase of about 5,000,000 cattle and 5,000,000 sheep.

"There is no truth in divorce rumors about myself and the prince," she said. "The prince and I are quite happy."

"I am leaving tomorrow with father on a trip to Carlsbad. The prince will go there from London about July 15 when the polo season has ended."

Reports that the couple was renting an apartment in Paris for a "second honeymoon" were denied.

Nude Newlyweds Taken To Court

CHICAGO, July 3. (AP)—A "high-minded" student of divinity fetched Chicago's naked newlyweds, the Samuel Wallace Jr., into court today, the charge being "participating in an indecent and obscene exhibition."

The couple were arrested yesterday on warrants obtained by Attorney Mary Belle Spencer who led protests last year against Sally Rand's "fan dance" at the Century of Progress exhibition.

The attorney said the warrants were obtained on behalf of a client of hers, John Patterson, whom she described as "high-minded." Patterson, she said, attended the nudist wedding ceremony of the Wallaces last week posing as a cameraman.

The wedding took place at the Century of Progress grounds and was attended only by a small wedding party and cameramen. All the principals were unclad except the officiating clergymen, who were draped in an animal's skin.

The newlyweds have asked a speedy trial that they may hasten to an Indiana nudist colony where they plan to spend their honeymoon.

'First Editions' Exposed By Two Young Scholars

LONDON, July 3. (AP)—The exposure by two young bibliographical scholars of what they claimed were spurious "first editions" of works of many famous mid-Victorian writers, reverberated through London's literary world today.

The News Chronicle under the caption "Bombshell in the Book World," described the volume "an enquiry into the nature of certain nineteenth century pamphlets," by John Carter and Graham Pollard, published today as "one of the most exciting detective and psychological studies in many years."

Carter and Pollard, through paper and type tests, and by painstaking detective work for two years, charged that the 1847 reading edition of Mrs. Browning's sonnets and some 50 other pamphlets, either were fakes, or highly suspicious.

Thomas J. Wise, owner of the great Ashley Library and England's leading bibliographical scholar, who was named in the book as having been the bibliographical sponsor of a number of the alleged spurious pamphlets, came to the defense of some of the publications.

"A large proportion of the condemned books are genuine," he said from Hastings, where he is recuperating from an illness.

"Those that are wrong apparently were printed in the middle and late eighties of the last century."

Tribune Editor Says Freedom of Press in Danger

TOPEKA, Kan., July 3. (AP)—Col. R. McCormick, president and editor of the Chicago Tribune, told two famous Kansas editorial critics and more than 300 banqueters here tonight that the exercise of free speech and a free press which brought them fame is threatened today by usurpations of the executive arms of the government.

He spoke to E. W. Howe of Atchison, Octogenarian, "Sage of Potato Hill," in whose honor the banquet was held, and William Allen White of Emporia, another noted author, editor and lecturer, who was toastmaster, and to an audience which included outstanding newspapermen and public officials of middle and southwest.

"Mrs. Powers came to me asking my help," Miss Moore began. "She is a gentlewoman of rare poise; a woman of years—"

"Oh, where is my handkerchief?" Marsha murmured. Miss Moore paid no heed to the interruption. "She told me much of her son—"

Miss Moore went on; "he has been an exemplary young man. Always so thoughtful, she says; sending her primroses—"

"To remind her of his path?" Marsha asked. Again Miss Moore ignored her niece's contribution to the conversation.

"It seems he loves you, Marsha," Miss Moore confided, "and he has never loved before."

"I knew that," Marsha replied; "his technique is frightful. It quite takes me back to the dancing school age. I think he's dreaming of kissing my hand—"

"When you are quite through, I shall continue, Marsha."

"I realize that, my dear aunt, and that was rude, and I know you want your little say; so take a deep breath and—shoot, darling!"

Miss Moore stiffened; gave a thought to asking Marsha to express herself in a manner less suited to a taxicab chauffeur and abandoned this with her decision to keep for the moment, to the main track.

"Mrs. Powers confided to me that her son has never dallied—"

Marsha sat back to laugh. "Dallied!" she echoed, "but that is charming, Aunt! Ah, here comes our waiter!"

Davies Painting Will Be Moved

LONDON, July 3. (AP)—Mrs. Juliana R. Force, director of the Whitney Museum of American Art, cabled today to a New York broker handling the shipping and packing of pictures for the museum, offering the removal of the entire exhibit of the American pavilion at Venice.

She issued the instructions because authorities at Venice have refused to remove the portrait of Marion Davies, American actress, from the pavilion where it was hung. Mrs. Force claims, without authorization from the museum.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. McDonald visited friends in Moose over the week-end.

a consideration of what might come through her, to another. She did not want to hurt Bob Powers. His trusting, level-looking light-blue eyes had had strange effect upon her. At times these honest eyes had made her want to laugh hysterically and cry a little and to say, "Don't! You're quite mistaken! I'm not like that. I'm shallow and I've rolled in a hundred gutters, and I believe in nothing and you're wasting your good time and yourself!" But somehow she had been able to tell him nothing of the truth.

SPITE MARRIAGE

by Katharine Haviland-Taylor

SYNOPSIS: Marsha Moore's parents have not given her a very substantial basis upon which to value life's offerings—and Aunt Gertrude Moore's spinster home has only antagonized and bored Marsha. While waiting for Aunt Gertrude in a hotel lobby Marsha has taunted Letitia Powers with the attention that her cousin, Bob Powers, has paid her. Then she leaves the little group.

Chapter Four
AUNT GERTRUDE

"Cat!" breathed a muddy-skinned girl, as Marsha moved toward her aunt, who had entered with a stride that told of her having marched in many parades—for this, against that; the sensitive missed the propaganda on the banner!

"He's really mad about her?" asked the girl who must live on synthetic emotion, who must warm her hands at other's fires."

"Absolutely—!" Letitia admitted hollowly.

"Some one else said, 'He's seen no one but a Chinese cook for ten months, you know—'"

"She is marvelously beautiful," said the girl who was honest.

"Yes; but I've known lovelier women who had nothing of her power!" said Letitia Powers and bitterly; "but you know what she does; what she can do; how she orders them around—"

"I was at school with her one year," said a blonde who sat slumped deep on a lounge. "She had left the Church School here for some reason. I think she'd been kicked out, but—it was snubbed up."

"And she went to Miss Vance's and each time we'd come back from school the rest of us—quite a group—would ask the red caps to carry our luggage; she never asked; she said, softly, indolently, 'My bag,' pointed to it and was snatched up—she would swing off, head high, while the rest of us waited to be served."

"How does she do it?"

"Well, you know what's said—"

The heads drew close and the voices lowered. And Marsha, passing with her aunt, saw this thing and its lower end.

Miss Gertrude settled at one of the window tables, without a smile. "What now?" thought Marsha. Something was obviously disturbing Miss Gertrude; and a something of considerable weight. Marsha studied the menu, wondering.

"I had not supposed you would be alone," Miss Gertrude began. "What have you done with Mr. Powers?"

"Don't know," Marsha answered; "you know how careless I am with my men. Perhaps I checked him, but—what matter? What are you going to eat, Aunt Gertrude?"

"It is useless to try to evade with me," boomed out Miss Moore. "True," Marsha agreed as she looked around the room to see whether anyone she knew was near. Stuyvesant Legitt was at a table near the orchestra; his eyes were upon Marsha and he flushed darkly as she nodded to him. He was among the legion who had "never got over it."

Oil Production Is Forced Down

TULSA, July 3. (AP)—Two major producing areas, Oklahoma and California, forced down the nation's crude oil output 14,020 barrels daily average last week, the Oil and Gas Journal says, bringing the total to 2,662,402 barrels a day. The previous week's average was 2,676,422 barrels.

There was a decrease from 530,410 to 515,090 barrels in Oklahoma, and from 535,750 to 515,500 in California. Texas showed an increase from 1,342,246 to 1,448,075, with East Texas production rising from 579,310 to 583,750 barrels.

In Kansas there was an increase from 127,355 to 131,330 barrels, and the Rocky mountains boosted production from 93,950 to 96,840 barrels.

Eastern fields, including Michigan, cut production from 132,170 barrels to 131,247 barrels a day.

Largest Plane Built In U. S. Now Completed

BRIDGEMONT, Conn., July 3 (AP)—The largest American built transport plane, constructed by Pan-American Airways primarily for trans-Atlantic service, was licensed for international service on the South American trade routes today by Eugene L. Vidal, director of the bureau of aeronautics of the department of commerce.

The huge 10-ton flying boat, to be christened "The Brazilian Clipper" at Rio de Janeiro by Senhora Getulio Vargas, wife of the president of Brazil, was taken up on its first licensed flight by Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, who gave technical assistance in the construction.

Fully loaded, the big flying boat weighs 38,000 pounds. During development of commerce tests it developed 192 miles an hour, with a cruising speed of 160 miles an hour.

As a long range passenger airliner it is designed to carry, in addition to more than a ton of mail and express, 32 passengers and a crew of six. Present fuel arrangements allow an operating range of 1,850 miles. There are eight passenger compartments.

It is powered with four 720-horsepower motors, streamlined into the leading edge of the wing. The hull is 68 feet long with a wing spread of 114 feet.

BAILEY ISSUES CHALLENGE TO TOM CONNALLY

SUGGESTS DISCUSSION BE IN HOUSTON ON FRIDAY NIGHT

AUSTIN, July 3 (AP)—As Texas' biennial political campaign entered the Fourth of July stage, the uppermost question in the minds of many voters was what United States Senator Tom Connally would say to a challenge issued by Congressman-at-Large Joseph Weldon Bailey for a joint debate.

Bailey is one of three candidates for the junior senatorship, and Connally is the incumbent, completing his first 6-year term. The challenger is a son of the former United States senator who bears his father's name.

Bailey proposed that the discussion be held in Houston Friday, Connally, who has been busy escorting Joseph Daniels, ambassador to Mexico, through Texas, as the diplomat made his way to the international boundary, had not given a reply to his opponent.

Meanwhile the seven candidates for governor, as well as aspirants to other state offices, were hoping that the Independence day political barrage would "set the electorate to thinking" about their prerogatives as citizens, and jar it loose from the lethargy that has obtained for many wearisome campaigning weeks.

All of the gubernatorial candidates had "hot" dates for Fourth of July parties. C. C. McDonald of Wichita Falls was scheduled for Brady, as was Maury Hughes of Dallas; McDonald's next best friend, former Governor James E. Ferguson, was booked for the first of 12 speeches in McDonald's interest, at Itasca. Clint C. Small of Amarillo planned to talk at Ranger in the morning and at Mineral Wells at noon. Tom McLaughlin of Wichita Falls picked Conroe for that day. Attorney General James V. Alfred selected West for an afternoon appearance and Mount Calm for a night speaking. Lieut. Governor Edgar E. Witt of Waco will make independent appearances in Fort Worth and Mineral Wells. Edward K. Russell of Annona planned to be at Caddo Lake.

Walter Woodward of Coleman, candidate for attorney general, arranged to spend the Fourth at Brady, and William McCraw of Dallas one of his opponents was scheduled to appear "fireworks day" at West and Youkum.

Earl Talley, Charlie Thut, John B. Hessey, and P. E. Leech were among the Pampans who went to the LeFors celebration this morning to meet the voters.

NEW YORK, July 3 (AP)—The stock market, while unable to shake off its deadly dullness today, managed to maintain a fair degree of stability. It was a typical pre-holiday session, however, and prices generally were quite narrow. The metals, led by U. S. smelting, displayed a firm tone. The close was steady. Transfers approximated 400,000 shares.

Although remaining in the background, the reichswehr was ready last Saturday and Sunday to take a hand if need be.

In Munich it actually surrounded the "brown house," storm troop headquarters, but in Berlin the whole division was camped quietly outside the city. Later it went into barracks in Berlin.

The army cooperated indirectly by letting the "SS" have its information concerning the route to be taken by storm troops in their alleged attempt to capture Berlin.

These plans also included storming of the military barracks at Doberitz, just outside Berlin, for the planned storm troop putch was quite as much directed against the army as against the existing regime.

SIGNATURES EXPECTED

GLADEWATER, July 3 (AP)—Signatures of 85 per cent of the east Texas refiners, the required amount, were expected on a marketing agreement today which would allow majors to purchase distress gasoline from the independent refiners. Jules Constantine, president of the East Texas Independent Refiners association, announced after a meeting yesterday that a majority of the independents had signed and that only a few more remained to be enrolled.

County Agent Ralph Thomas and family will spend the Fourth on some creek. "Any creek," Mr. Thomas said.

Jack Dunn was a business visitor in Borger today.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, July 3 (AP)—Influenced in at least some degree by expressions of bullish sentiment, associated with European political uncertainties, Chicago wheat prices showed an upward trend today.

Belief prevailed also that the peak of the domestic harvest movement of wheat in the southwest had been reached. It was deemed significant that Kansas City quotations on July delivery of wheat had narrowed to much less than the normal difference with Chicago today.

Wheat closed firm 1/4-3/4 above yesterday's finish. September new 88 1/2-3/4, corn 1/2-3/4 down, oats at 1 1/2 decline to an equal advance, and provisions showing 2 to 7 cents gain.

HITLER'S FATE DEPENDS UPON GERMAN ARMY

AND VON HINDENBURG IS IN CONTROL OF ARMY

BERLIN, July 3 (AP)—The reichswehr, or standing army, was the real heir to the situation which developed from Chancellor Hitler's coup against his former associates and "reactionaries."

It stands forth as the one instrument of force on whose support the Nazi regime must rest.

The storm troop organization, hated rival of the army, is smashed and virtually leaderless. The "SS," or picked guards, carry the odium of marching their former brown-shirted comrades off to death.

At least it is safe to say that little could be done by Hitler or his right hand man, Hermann Wilhelm Goering, against the will of the reichswehr.

Goering has control of the police, but undoubtedly remembers that when Franz von Papen, as chancellor, sent a few reichswehr officers and privates in June, 1932, to arrest Commander Helmannsberg, head of the Berlin police force, not a shot was fired.

Although remaining in the background, the reichswehr was ready last Saturday and Sunday to take a hand if need be.

In Munich it actually surrounded the "brown house," storm troop headquarters, but in Berlin the whole division was camped quietly outside the city. Later it went into barracks in Berlin.

The army cooperated indirectly by letting the "SS" have its information concerning the route to be taken by storm troops in their alleged attempt to capture Berlin.

Centennial Group To Finish Plans Within Two Weeks

AUSTIN, July 3 (AP)—The planning committee of the Texas Centennial commission announced today that plans for a main exposition in connection with a celebration in 1936 of Texas independence likely would be completed within two weeks.

John D. Middleton of Greenville, chairman, said the committee would hurry completion of plans so that cities intending to bid for the main celebration could prepare their offers. Bids will be received by the commission September 1. Award of the location to the city offering the largest financial inducement, was directed by statute.

HITLER

Catholic priest, Father Muhler, who was serving a short prison term for outspoken criticism of Chancellor Hitler. It was said he had been shot in his cell.

There was uncertainty as to whether these acts were committed as part of a general plot of action against ostensible revolutionaries or whether they were the acts of irresponsible elements.

At least two members of the storm troop press department were reportedly killed. The press department was back of a campaign against the "steel helmet reactionaries" last week in defiance of Chancellor Hitler's orders.

Further indications of the role of the reichswehr (regular army) in Saturday's bloodshed were given in a statement of gratitude to loyal supporters issued by the Nazi district leader, Adolf Wagner.

Wagner, it was believed, was the person who actually started events on Saturday on his own initiative.

There was no doubt remaining in minds of the observers that the Nazi party had received a severe shock. To learn overnight to heap anathema upon the heads of men who the day before had been praised as the acme of Nazi virtues apparently was proving no easy task for most people whose allegiance to nazism still is demanded.

As the smoke of the week-end firing cleared up, it became apparent that the "conspiracy" to overthrow the present Nazi regime was grouped in three major circles. These apparently did not act in concert, nor were their programs identical.

Each was a center of unrest and each was ready to profit by the spirit of rebellion fostered in the other two circles.

Broadly speaking, these centers were grouped around three names—Ernst Roehma, head of the storm troops; General Kurt von Schleicher and Herr Klausner, head of the Catholic action party.

Assistant City Health Officer T. J. Worell will spend much of July 4 working in his laboratory.

To some people, a holiday often can be spent no better than in sleeping. Two Pampans who said they planned to sleep much of the Fourth are Miss Mable Davis, city bookkeeper, and Mrs. Bob Mullen.

MRS. WELBURN NOT TO CHANGE NAME OF CHILD

But She Calls Baby Rodney And Not William

SAN ANTONIO, July 3 (AP)—"Paid in full."

That is the receipt which Wineta Long Welburn now asks at the bar of public opinion following her victory at the bar of justice when a week she was declared the wife of the Rev. William D. Welburn Jr. and the paternity of her 7-month-old son legally established.

"In my own heart I believe I have paid for my error," Mrs. Welburn declared at her home. "I held nothing back. I told the whole truth. All I ask now is an even break from the public that I may prove my right to find contentment and happiness after the ordeal thru which I have just passed."

Living in a modest apartment with her parents and a sister, Wineta, Mrs. Welburn appeared buoyant and thrilled over her victory in district court last Saturday.

Rev. Welburn declared he was never married Wineta Long and that a child born less than five months after the alleged wedding ceremony was not his.

The 7-month-old boy in the case, named William Drummond Welburn III, was brought into the room by its grandmother. A handsome, smiling youngster. The eyes of Mrs. Welburn lighted as she took the child in her arms.

"Are you going to change the name of the baby," she was asked.

"No," she said with emphasis. "He has won the right to that name. I am going to rear him to where he will give distinction and honor to the name of Welburn and to eliminate the stigma which his father attached to it," she said.

Mrs. Welburn admitted however that she has been calling the child "Rodney" instead of William or Drummond. "I just liked the name Rodney but when he starts to school we will call him Drummond."
