This is a true fish story. We didn't catch any worthy of the name in either Colorado or New Mexico.

Maybe the fish didn't like the way we held our new rod and reel. But we did appreciate their visit, even if they perhaps did swarm up close and even jump out of the water to hear us tell that fellow from Wichita, Kansas, why Texas ought to elect Clint C. Small for governor. But they spurned every kind of bait, hook, and fly that even the natives had ever conceived.

Of course, we didn't cast the bait very far out into Eagle Nest lake. We were afraid to threaten about very much with our amateurish casting for fear we'd hook a Texas. They were all over the place—C. H. Walkers, the Mayor Brattons, and the Duncans, the Bonnie Roses, and infinitum.

This is a pretty small world, after all. Ordinarily, when one drives a considerable distance he expects to see only strangers and perhaps a casual acquaintance. But on investigating the Clint Small banner on a Texas car at Raton, N. M., who should be the occupants but our next door neighbors, John and Ewing Williams, en route with their families to Creed, Colo.

We officially report that the Brattons are in good health and spirits (not of our knowledge, the New Mexico "hard" kind) with the exception that the boys discovered that green apples still are... well, green apples. Mayor Bill's fishing luck, in keeping with veterans and amateurs alike during the week we were there, was very poor. But he promised to send us a picture of some previous fishing that was fishing.

One is not to assume, however, that fish for eating were not obtainable. It was possible to go fishing and to return with fish. The system is to use what is commonly called "Mexican bait." There are certain swarthy bipeds who, for a proper monetary consideration, will supply large fresh specimens of trout at any time or place, subject to the understanding that they will not be interviewed as to their client's names. For further information about this interesting folk lore of the mountains, consult Mr. Walker.

It is easy for Pampans to feel "at home" in New Mexico this month. After hunting in vain over an area roughly as big as Rhode Island for a cabin or room, one is inclined to look for oil derricks and the flashing sign of the Schneider hotel. Advance reservations are advisable—at least a week in advance.

It's strange, but we've never seen more fish and mosquitoes and less biting by each than at Therna and environs.

We should hasten to report that we found a nice rain in the foothills and carried it over to Clayton and Dalhart this week, giving those communities the first moisture they had had in the memory of the younger children. We chased that rain all the way from Eagle Nest lake by way of Capulin, N. M., and we'd like credit for the feat.

Really, one is in need of spiritual balm such as the tall cool pines afford after he passes through the wind-blown, sun-baked waste lands in the Dalhart-Clayton country. But it is unfortunate that, as one leaves the lofty country and marvels at the Palisades, he must cast his last glances at scrub cedars and come out upon flat lands that would hardly support a jack rabbit. Even the mountains are dry this year, and Eagle Nest lake is many feet below normal.

Considerable hard-surfacing is being done on the Texas portion of the route. Within a few years, or, indeed, within one year, the Raton route to the mountains will be almost entirely an all-weather route. No longer will it be said that "all's well if you can reach the New Mexico line." Some of the New Mexico traveled road is extremely rough, particularly the 10 miles this side of Clayton.

Overlooked by thousands but really worth taking half an hour or more to visit is the volcano at Capulin, N. M., some 30 miles this side of Raton. One of more than a dozen extinct volcanoes in that area, that one adjacent to Capulin is the youngest of them all. It probably quit erupting about the time of Christ, but its lava, hurled for miles, is very apparent. The volcano is easily climbed in second gear over a road encircling its sides. The road was recently improved as a CWA project. The volcano was made a National Monument by presidential proclamation on August 9, 1916. It covers 680.37 acres and reaches a height of more than 8,000 feet. Its crater is huge and sunken, with the depths reached by foot path. Frank Pinkley is superintendent and Homer J. Farr is custodian (imagine being custodian of a mountain). Go up and see the old lady some time!

OFFICIALS AND HANDLERS SIGN AN AGREEMENT

COMMERCIAL STOCK TO BE CLEANED UP TODAY

CHICAGO, July 25. (AP)—The Chicago union stock yards reopened today under an agreement between officials of the yard and striking handlers to permit the disposal of stock on hand.

It was a "cleanup" market, designed to permit the merciful slaughtering of stock shipped in on ordinary commercial accounts. Yards officials were confident that all of the commercial stock could be cleaned up before 3 p. m.

A revised estimate placed the number of privately-owned cattle at a little more than 5,000. The remaining 65,000 to 70,000 cattle belong to the federal government and were purchased for relief purposes. In addition, there were 5,000 head of hogs and a few of sheep.

Striking handlers asserted they would not interfere with the market so long as the handling was not done by strike breakers.

Meanwhile, the feeding of the cattle, most of which had received nothing but water, was begun by nonunion feeding crews.

Reports persisted that handlers for commission men, who have their own union, would join the strike at the close of the day, but union officials refused to comment.

Selling proceeded at a rapid clip throughout the morning and, due to the light offering of commercial stock, much progress was made in the slaughtering of government cattle.

The ordinary government daily kill, it was pointed out, was around 5,000 head. Indications were that the slaughter would far exceed that number.

Wilcox Locates Its No. 32 Combs-Worley

BY GEORGE L. GUTHRIE, Consulting Geologist, Combs-Worley Bldg.

Much interest is being shown in the Cole well west and south of town in section 104, block 3, I&GN. It has hit good oil shows but as yet has not struck a pay that will give up freely. The operators have confidence in the well and ran the 6-inch yesterday afternoon. They are

VETERAN CONGRESSMEN DEFEATED BUT WILL ROGERS IS REELECTED

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 25. (AP)—Oklahoma democratic voters "x-ed" out the names of two veteran congressmen in yesterday's runoff primary, unofficial returns today showed.

Tom McKeown, who first won his fourth district seat in 1916 by defeating "Alfalfa Bill" Murray, now governor, and Jim W. McClintic, member of the powerful house ways and means committee who has represented the seventh district for 20 years, were beaten.

Wood And Shields Play Excellent Tennis to Defeat Crawford and McGrath.

WIMBLEDON, Eng., July 25. (AP)—Sidney B. Wood Jr. and Frank X. Shields playing magnificent tennis, today won the final two singles matches from Australia in the interzone final of Davis cup play to advance to the challenge round against England.

Wood first defeated Jack Crawford, ace of the Aussies, 6-3, 9-7, 4-6, 4-6, 6-2, in a match postponed from yesterday by rain and Shields then put over the clincher against young Vivian McGrath, 6-4, 6-2, 6-4.

They meet England for the historic cup in a 5-match series starting Saturday and continuing next Monday and Tuesday.

It was the fifth time the United States had won the challenge round since losing the cup to France in 1927. Only in 1931 and last year, when England defeated them in the interzone, had they failed to gain the final round of the international tennis competition.

The slender, blonde New Yorker (Wood) made a magnificent rally after dropping the third and fourth sets to blast the big Aussie off the court and leave the decision to the encounter between Frank X. Shields and Vivian McGrath.

Leading two-nothing in sets when rain interrupted the play yesterday, Sidney started out unsteadily to drop the first two sets today, losing four straight games in each before rallying, but he attacked with a ferocity in the final set that Crawford could not match.

Wood played the greatest tennis of his life in defeating Crawford, the world's ranking player a year ago.

Shields never gave McGrath a chance from the opening game, which he won at Love, keeping the ball away from the Australian youngster's devastating two-fisted back-hand, which had brought Wood's downfall Saturday, and playing with a fiery speed that Vivian could not match.

BAROMETER IS LOWEST SINCE 1919 STORMS

NUMEROUS TOWNS ARE ISOLATED; WATER IS HIGH

HOUSTON, July 25. (AP)—A strong gale, with winds estimated at between 70 and 80 miles an hour in some areas, lashed a long stretch of Texas coast between Houston and Corpus Christi today.

Telephone and telegraph lines were blown down, cutting off many towns. Fears arose that there might have been considerable property damage and possibly loss of life.

Towns which could not be reached from Houston by telephone included Port Lavaca, Matagorda, Port O'Connor, Palacios, and Freeport. Of these, it was believed that Port O'Connor and Freeport were the hardest hit.

With a 125-mile stretch of coast line already feeling strong enough winds to level trees and small houses, the weather bureau in Washington said the most severe gales of the disturbance had not yet passed inland.

The bureau predicted that the storm likely would move inland at full force between Port O'Connor and Rockport between noon and 2 p. m.

The heads of coast residents, remembering the hurricanes of the last two years, had moved out of the danger zone. Many small fishing craft were reported blown ashore and wrecked.

A. B. Johnson of the coast guard station at Port Aransas, situated far down the coast at the tip of Mustang Island, said the wind there was blowing 50 miles an hour at 8 a. m. The barometer was down to 29.50 and falling steadily. Normal barometer there is 30.10. A four-foot tide surged over the beach.

There are about 500 persons on Mustang island and they have no way to leave. High water and wind stopped the ferry service to Harbor Island this morning.

Hurricane Rips Town To Pieces

VICTORIA, July 25. (AP)—Practically every frame building in Port Lavaca was damaged and windows and awnings were ripped from more substantial structures as the gulf hurricane vented its fury on that fishing and pleasure resort today.

J. M. Osborn managed to drive his automobile here from Port Lavaca and reported that all boats not anchored on the west side of the bay were blown ashore.

Another refugee from the stricken area was M. D. Scruggs of Seadrift, field manager of the Continental Oil company. He told of a $75,000 yacht belonging to A. C. Burton of Houston being battered to pieces against the Seadrift seawall.

Scruggs said the storm drained all the water out of the bay there and that it was just flowing back in as he left for Port Lavaca. The wind was blowing 60 miles an hour at Seadrift as the water flowed out, leaving boats high and dry in the mud.

Passing through Port Lavaca, Scruggs said he was informed that the causeway on the Hug-the-Coast highway between Port Lavaca and Palacios had washed out.

The wind was blowing 70 miles an hour at Port Lavaca and it was raining in torrents.

Wind reached a velocity of 50 miles an hour at Victoria, then after noon, lulled a bit. There was a feeling that the lull was such as often comes before full force of a hurricane manifests itself. Weather bureau information here indicated the storm would hit between Rockport and Palacios early this afternoon.

AUSTRIAN HELD IN CAPTIVITY BY NAZI FOES

HEIMWEHR ASSERTS IT WILL ATTACK

LONDON, July 25. (AP)—An exchange telegraph agency dispatch today said it was officially announced at 7:45 p. m. that the Austrian legion that Chancellor Dollfuss of Austria was dead, quoting as its authority the Austrian minister to Czechoslovakia.

BEELIN, July 25. (AP)—The Austro-German frontier was reported closed tonight.

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, July 25. (AP)—The official Czech (news) agency announced tonight that Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss of Austria was dead, quoting as its authority the Austrian minister to Czechoslovakia.

BY WADE WERNER, Associated Press Foreign Staff.

VIENNA, July 25. (AP)—Austrian nazis captured Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss today at his office in their long-expected "putsch" and, at the end of four hours of mad excitement, civilians at the chancellery cried: "Dollfuss is dead!"

"They had just left the building into which a group of nazis had smashed and from which a police commissioner had emerged to announce that the chief of the government had been shot and seriously wounded in a struggle. There was no way of getting into the chancellery to confirm or disprove the report.

Other government officers, apparently headed by Prince Ernst von Starhemberg, vice chancellor, and with the apparent approval of President Wilhelm Miklas, issued an ultimatum to the putsch leaders warning them either to release Dollfuss and abandon the chancellery by 5:48 p. m. (10:48 a. m. CST) or the loyal heimwehr would attack.

Telephone communication between Vienna and the outside world was broken off shortly after the ultimatum deadline.

Rally Will Be Restricted To One Candidate

The Clint Small rally in Pampa tomorrow night will be for Clint Small and not for anyone to take the platform and, at the expense of Pampa supporters, laud the candidacy of his favorite, the committee in charge announced this morning.

The committee has gone to considerable expense advertising the giant rally to be staged on the vacant lot north of the Combs-Worley building at 8 o'clock tomorrow night. In many Texas cities, backers of other candidates have taken the platform after Small supporters have finished their talks and lauded other candidates. They spent no money and made no effort to get a crowd of supporters out to hear them.

The speakers at tomorrow night's rally will be John Sturgeon, local attorney, Judge H. E. Hoover of Canadian, and Mayor Ross Rogers and Gene Howe of Amarillo. They have been allotted one hour and 10 minutes to discuss Senator Small's platform in his race for governor of the largest state in the union. The men will be introduced by the Rev. C. E. Lancaster, pastor of the First Baptist church.

Senator Small needs the full support of the Panhandle. He is gaining strength daily in other parts of the state, and if the Panhandle and West Texas will stick behind their candidate, West Texas will have a governor in Austin who will see that West Texas gets its share of everything, the local committee declared.

The speakers will outline Senator Small's platform to voters of this section. Delegation will be here from all surrounding towns and cities.

"A vote for Clint Small will be a vote for sound progress and a safe, efficient administration that will merit the respect of all forward-looking Texans," say local Small supporters.

LITTLE AMERICA, Antarctica. July 25. (AP) (Via Mackay Radio)—The tractor party which attempted to force its way through antarctic storms to Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd's advance camp returned safely to Little America.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 25. (AP)—Gov. Floyd B. Olson smashed into the truck drivers' strike with a mailed fist today, decreeing military rule of Minneapolis effective tomorrow noon unless disputing factions settled their differences immediately. Some 4,000 national guardsmen, now in Minneapolis, and its environs, were prepared to carry out the governor's edict.

Viola Haggard Is Injured In Wreck; Goes To Hospital

Miss Viola Haggard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Haggard is in a Dallas hospital with severe cuts and bruises received when the car in which she was riding with an aunt, Mrs. John Haggard, and a cousin, Mrs. Orba Myatt, was struck by another car in Crowl, Sunday morning.

The car which struck the Haggard machine drove from a filling station and crashed into the rear of the Haggard car. Miss Haggard was riding in the back seat when the accident occurred. Flying glass cut her face badly.

Mrs. John Haggard and her mother are with her in Dallas.

Fire Department Puts Out Blaze

Fire in a cabin at the Day tourist park yesterday afternoon caused damage of about $5. Chief Clyde Gold estimated. A stove near the wall of the building set fire to the wall, which was burning briskly when the fire department arrived.

There was considerable delay in leaving the station because of lack of proper address of the fire. The telephone call said the fire was on South Cuyler street "at a tourist camp." The fireman who answered finally ascertained that the camp was located in the "600 or 700 block."

COUNTY CHAIRMEN REQUIRED TO SEND UNOFFICIAL COUNT WHEN AVAILABLE TO STATE OFFICIAL

By R. W. BARRY.
AUSTIN, July 25 (AP)—Henry Owsley, blue sky commissioner, has undertaken preparation of forms to be used by the secretary of state in tabulating returns from the democratic primary. He found it a big job since returns are to be sent this year to the secretary of state from all state and district races.

paper reporters and others. As the count progresses and until completed new totals are to be made available at intervals.
A penalty of a fine of from $500 to $1,000 and of confinement of one year in jail for non-compliance is provided in the law.
Owsley has obtained names of the candidates in each of the 127 representative districts, the 21 congressional districts, the 15 senatorial districts where senators are to be chosen this year and in all of the other district races, such as for places on the courts of civil appeals and district judges and district attorneys.

PUTTING AN ISSUE STRAIGHT

Vacating Texans who did not cast absentee ballots are hastening back to vote Saturday. We talked to a number of them in the mountains.

We were impressed by the fact that with only one exception every one was an enthusiastic supporter of Senator Clint C. Small for governor. They were from various parts of the state.

It was generally agreed that there are a number of good men in the race—well meaning men with various affiliations, experiences, and natural prejudices. But one thing stands out: Senator Small's legislative record is so squared with the needs of Texas that it is, in our opinion, an injustice to him to urge him mainly as a Panhandle candidate. This is a campaign in which some West Texan will be elected governor of this state. In the past, other sections have supported their candidates for sectional reasons, leaving West Texas almost without representation in the administrative branch of the government.

It will be different in the next two years. In giving Texas a governor, West Texas should provide one that not only is an able representative of this area, and familiar with its needs, but one who is familiar with the legislative branches with which he must cooperate.

Such a man is Senator Clint C. Small. He is intimately familiar with Pampa's problems, Gray county's oil problems, the cattlemen's problems, the land owner's troubles, yet at the same time he is of statewide caliber. Such a man ought to be the next governor.

Senator Small is big enough for the place.

RELIEF CAN'T LAST FOREVER

"Think of Ickes shrieking in despair, Caught in the tangles of Nira's hair."

So wrote a versifier in the current issue of the Atlantic Monthly. . . . Yes, and picture an America permanently caught in the coils of the various alphabet relief organizations. We have been inclined to believe that all were and will be temporary expedients. NRA might become permanent but we hate to believe that the government-dispensing relief organizations are permanent, or will become so. The subject is discussed fully in the current issue of THE TEXAS WEEKLY under the title, "Relief and Human Nature."

It follows: "In one Texas county an official notice has been posted at the entrance of the relief headquarters announcing that persons receiving relief who find fault or criticize the managing force will be cut off. It has been noticed, it was stated by both the relief station and the Red Cross headquarters, says a newspaper dispatch, that at first an applicant is rather timid when receiving gifts, but after several visits there is a complete change."

"We do not doubt that relief workers in other counties have noticed the same thing. Human nature is pretty much the same everywhere. And that applies both to the human nature of relief workers and of those receiving relief. It is a rare individual who can occupy a position of authority in the dispensing of relief to large numbers of destitute people without becoming a little arrogant. And it takes a strong characterized person to accept regular relief from a government agency without coming to regard it as his right and assuming a critical attitude toward those who have the authority to deny or grant it."

"And both attitudes are decidedly human. We fancy that relief workers have exasperating experiences in their dealings with some of the destitute ones to whom they administer. On the other hand, when a man finds it impossible to obtain employment, due to conditions over which he has no control, and sees his family in want, through no direct fault of his own, he can hardly be blamed for regarding it as his right to obtain a share of the relief which the federal and state governments have provided for those who need it. His need and his family's need are the basis of his right. And frequently there is a psychological necessity, involving the preservation of his self-respect, for such a person to regard such relief as a right."

"The maintenance of self-respect by heads of families, and of the respect of their children, while receiving public relief, is quite as important in many cases as the preservation of life and health. And the greatest havoc being wrought by the widespread destitution due to unemployment is not that caused by hunger. It is psychological and moral."

"And that is the chief reason why the continuance of conditions which require such widespread public relief can not be viewed complacently. The biggest job ahead of the American people is that of restoring employment to the millions who are now without the means of providing themselves and their families with the bare necessities of life."

SAN ANTONIO, July 25 (AP)—A storm with a high wind struck San Antonio today. A wind out of the northeast struck shortly after 8 o'clock. In a few minutes it was blowing 35 miles an hour. J. H. Jarboe, meteorologist in charge of the weather bureau, said the storm would probably bring heavy rains.

Year Resident of Texas Can Vote July 28

Residents who have moved to Texas from another state since January 1, 1933, and who have lived in this state a year, in the county six months, can vote in Gray county without payment of a poll tax, it was pointed out today. However, in cities of more than 10,000 (Pampa, for instance), it is necessary for them to go to the county tax collector and obtain a certificate of exemption.

These persons and others having the following qualifications may vote in Saturday's primary:
1. Persons who paid their poll tax before January 31, 1934, and who present their poll tax receipt at the polls, or make affidavit that they have paid the tax.
2. Persons who have become 21 years of age since January 1, 1933, and who claim their exemption at the polls or, in Pampa, secure exemption receipts at the tax collector's office at any time prior to the day of the election.
3. Those persons who have become 60 years of age or before January 1, 1933, and who claim their exemption at the polls or, in Pampa, at the tax collector's office.
4. Persons who have moved to Gray county since January 1, 1933, but who have lived in the county at least six months and who have had their poll taxes transferred from the county of their former residence.

HEAT RECORD IS BROKEN IN CHICAGO AREA

DEATHS DUE TO HEAT ARE FAR ABOVE 700 MARK

By The Associated Press.
The sun siege attained its most severe proportions of the summer today, driving the number of deaths far above the 700 mark and the drought damage toward the billions of dollars.

For the first time since the scourge started, however, early relief was predicted for the midwest, the furnace of the nation, while the east and Pacific coast enjoyed comparative cool.

The government's efforts to bring relief to the drought sections by buying stricken herds and shipping them to slaughter or southern pastures struck a snag.

The farm administration announced that the Chicago stock yards strike and congestion at other livestock centers has forced temporary suspension of purchases.

Heat deaths, piling up at times at the rate of 10 an hour, stood at 719 last night, and mounted today to 783. In Missouri alone 205 persons perished, Illinois 150, Ohio 81, Nebraska 55, Iowa 50, and Indiana with 13 new deaths reported, 38.

The highest official temperature recorded yesterday was 117 at Vinita, Okla. Noblesville, Ind., sweltered at 112, and Quincy, Ill., at 111—its seventh successive day above 108.

Chicago suffered under the most oppressive heat ever recorded there as the mercury soared to 105 yesterday—two degrees higher than the previous all-time record, set in 1903.

In New York City showers fell before dawn and the weather bureau said the Atlantic seaboard would be favored with cooler temperatures.

The far west continued to enjoy freedom from the blasts, and nature drew a joker from her weather pack 50 miles from Denver, where tourists engaged in a snowball fight as an inch of snow fell on Mount Evans.

More than an inch of rain fell in some sections of Minnesota, Oklahoma was told of a possibility of light showers, and cooler temperatures were predicted for Nebraska, Ohio, Wisconsin, Iowa, Illinois, South Dakota, Missouri, and Wyoming—all stricken by the blight.

About 50 religious conferences and conventions are held in the vicinity of Asheville every summer by various churches in the United States.

Small Relates Story Of Life At Huntsville

GREENVILLE, July 25.—Emphasizing that his law practice never had included any representation of oil companies or power companies, Sen. Clint Small Tuesday afternoon related to Hunt county citizens the agricultural life devoted to stock raising and farming.

"My law practice," he said, "has been confined to little business, little ranchmen and little farmers. I have never at any time represented an oil company or power company."

Sen. Small said that in his legislative work he had been concerned about validating titles to land; about protecting interests of farmers, stockmen and dairymen.

The discovery of oil in his district necessitated the devotion of more of his time to oil legislation, but that work always was done with efforts toward conserving oil resources of the state, bringing about fair play and honesty in production methods, and to insure a just revenue quota to the state, the national candidate said.

He insisted that all Texas counties had benefited from the law which diverted one cent of the gasoline tax to retire county bonds created for road building purposes. This law is saving the state eight million dollars annually, he asserted.

"I believe that my legislative record is one that indicates I have always had in mind the man of small means, the little business man, the rancher and the small farmer. As an attorney, I have not done any corporation practice," Small declared.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Huddleston of Dallas are visiting this week at the home of her mother, Mrs. L. G. Rittenhouse. Mrs. Huddleston is remembered here as Miss Ruth Rittenhouse.

Hugh L. Johnson of LeFors transacted business here yesterday afternoon.

SPITE MARRIAGE

SYNOPSIS: Marsha Moore tells her vector about her problem, which is that, although she is widely in love with Bob Powers, she married him in the first place because she believed Geoffrey Tarleton had married another girl—just Marsha had thought Geoff the ideal mate for herself. The vector tells her to go on in silence, and Marsha does, but she feels a right constraint in Bob's attitude toward her.

Chapter 19
UNWELCOME CALLER
WELL, she had turned over several new pages, Marsha thought. She rose; he too rose, but unwillingly.

"Ella summons us; she's wagging from a window. Dinner, I suppose."

They were both very happy that night at dinner, they each remembered later, and bitterly. The vague storm-clouds which had muted other hours did not appear. They were as close as they had ever been, with a realization now of what closeness meant.

"Great dinner, you dear thing!" he said; and with absurd intensity; then, "Good heavens, I'm happy!"

Ah, she realized, she loved him, loved him! And he loved her best when he did not know quite how much she loved him. Why did she, well inured to the world and its wounding ways, expect perfection? But she did; she cried for it, inside.

His eyes, quick to note change in her made him say, "Headache?"

"No," she assured him.

"You looked a little done-in just then. You're certain?"

He was almost too gentle with her when he felt she suffered in any way. It thawed her.

"I'll tell you about it some day," she promised, "some day when you are bored. I believe confessions fill gaps admirably. Betty Forsythe concocts the most amazing tales. She says her husband sleeps, otherwise, and that she would rather listen to his shocked remonstrances than to his snore. Perhaps I'll come to that!"

"YOU'D better not!" he answered. "I suppose I'm a fog, but I hate that sort of thing. Bad enough for a man to beat out a lot of repentant guff."

"But if a woman has it to beat? And some secret that keeps bothering her by bobbing up from, well—say a tall past like mine?"

He smiled.

"I wonder how many men did care for you?" he questioned idly. "Ever count 'em? Heavens, when I think! Lucky for me you didn't care enough for any one of them." He reached for a mint, and after a nibble, complained, "Stale," he said, "where did you get them? Don't you think they're stale?"

Marsha sampled the condemned, considered carefully, and then said she thought the mints were stale. And she looked all the evening as if she had a headache.

Walking in the pale thin sunlight the next morning, Marsha looked up and over the low, stone wall. A motor, which had been purring up the lane, had come to a standstill. Quiet has its own arresting quality; often it is more ominous than the loudest din. It was the quiet that made Marsha turn in the path; and it was Geoffrey Tarleton's quiet that led her to say, "Why, Geoff? What are you doing here?"

He answered with "Happened along."

"Wonderful!" she said in the way she felt to be school-girlishly enthusiastic. "Won't you come in? Bob is in the village, I believe."

"Well, in such case I might," Geoffrey responded, as he raised his brows and smiled.

"I meant he'll be sorry to miss you."

"Oh, I see. How do I reach your delectable retreat? Ladder or airplane? Oh, gates; I see. A bit along, isn't it?"

"Better park in front," she called, "the tradesmen come rushing around the corner and never seem to think." The rest of her warning was absorbed in the sound of changing gears.

She frowned as she turned to pace toward the lower end of the garden. She wished Geoff had not come. . . . Geoff who smiled at her and with his smile made her feel an idiot; Geoff, who awoke questions in her. Among them a wonder about whether she wasn't drugged.

SHE walked the length of the path three times, and smiled tolerantly over Geoff's method, which was to heighten interest with suspense. How they understood each other!

'TEX' DECLARES ENGLISH PRESS BOYCOTTED HIS AMERICAN RODEO

NEW YORK, July 25 (AP)—A much-embittered man, "Tex" Austin, the rodeo empresario, returned to America today deploring the manner in which England received a noble sport.

He lost about $200,000 putting on his rough-riding, steer-throwing exhibitions in England, Austin declared—all because of a boycott against him and his act by the British press.

"The entire purpose of this animosity toward us," he said, "was part of the British program of shutting out all form of foreign entertainment."

During a previous tour of the island, in 1924, Austin said, only three animals were killed.

"Yet in the same year, when the grand national was run, there were four horses killed and there were no charges against the riders or their owners of cruelty to animals," he continued.

Austin charged that the British press carried on a campaign against him, based on the claim that the rodeo meant injuring animals.

"Parliament passed a law aimed at the rodeo exhibitions, he said, and that proved ineffective, revived a 1911 law.

"This law makes it an offense if you frighten an animal," he explained, admitting that rodeo animals sometimes do get frightened.

Austin and his entertainers will leave shortly for various rodeos in the south and west. Austin concluded unloading his peeve with a dire threat.

"If England ever wants any more cowboys, she'll have to raise them," he said. "We're not going back."

Billinger's Funeral To Be Held In Private

MAYWOOD, Ind., July 25. (AP)—"Wooden Gun" John Dillinger lay in death today in the home of the sister who reared him as an obscure country boy before he "made bad" as the nation's most-hunted criminal.

A steady stream of the curious passed last night by the casket in which the outlaw's body, its bullet marks obliterated by plastic surgery, awaited burial.

After a family conference last night, John Dillinger, Sr., the father, sent to newspapers an announcement the funeral would be at 10 a. m. tomorrow at the home here of Mrs. Audrey Hancock, John's sister who cared for him after his mother, Mrs. Mollie Dillinger, died.

Awaiting the body is a grave in Crown Hill cemetery at Indianapolis, next to that of Dillinger's mother, and not far from where many of Indiana's notables in letters and politics have found a last resting place.

To insure privacy, officials of the cemetery announced only members of the Dillinger family and those having a part in the burial ceremony would be permitted inside the gates.

Mary Kinder, sweetheart of Harry Pierpont, Dillinger's gangster now awaiting execution in Ohio state prison, was one of the first visitors at the Hancock home.

Mrs. Jack Cunningham underwent an operation for appendicitis at 8 o'clock this morning at Pampa hospital. Her condition at noon was reported favorable.

Mr. and Mrs. Lisle Owens returned yesterday from a vacation trip to Wichita and other points in Kansas.

"To think that I should live to see this day!"

laughed, and this time a sneer was caught and held in the sound.

"Have luncheon with us?" she asked.

He bowed with an ironical courtliness. His drawled "Charmed," carried on the effect he wished to produce.

Marsha, pretending she did not notice Geoffrey's threatening upset, spread out her pretty hand, palm upward, and turned her face to the sky. "You'd better," she said carelessly. "I think it's going to snow."

Without speaking he followed her to the house.

After he had gone up the absurd little stairs to brush from himself the traces of motoring, and had, in a tiny chintz-decorated bedroom, used a military brush that elbowed Marsha's rose-enamel and silver bureau things, he made his way down again and turned to the living room, where a driftwood fire burned brightly.

Marsha was off somewhere. Probably changing her frock, he decided, to something a bit more daring than the one she laid away; to something that would "knock an eye out."

He sat planning.

Tomorrow, Marsha's sides tell.

The board said it found no evidence of negligence on the part of the management or of collusion between guard or prison officials and the convicts, although it criticized mildly the laxity of guards in permitting the smuggling of guns to the prisoners.

Meanwhile, search continued throughout the southwest for the three desperate criminals who escaped—Raymond, Hamilton, erstwhile pal of the late Clyde Barrow; Joe Palmer, and Blackie Thompson.

'LADY IN RED' GIVES DETAILS ABOUT KILLING

POLICE CLAIM WOMAN DID NOT GIVE TIP

CHICAGO, July 25 (AP)—From the "girl in red" police learned today more about how John Dillinger walked into the trap that ended with death his career of crime.

The "girl in red," one of the two women who were with the Indiana outlaw just before he was killed by federal bullets, was Mrs. Anna Sage, 42, brown-haired and brown-eyed. Police arrested her last night at her home just around the corner from the Biograph theater, out of which Dillinger walked unsuspectingly Sunday night to his death.

Mrs. Sage told police she knew John Dillinger as "Jim Lawrence," and that he posed as an employe of the Chicago board of trade.

From the "girl in red" after long questioning by the police came the story of the last woman Dillinger associated with, named by Mrs. Sage as Mrs. Roy Keele, 26-year-old divorced wife of a Gary, Ind., policeman—of how Dillinger spent his time just prior to the fatal shooting, and of how he said he went to New York recently "on a business trip."

But it was not learned whether Mrs. Sage or Mrs. Keele furnished the information with which Dillinger was trapped. Both fled from the scene of the shooting, but Mrs. Sage returned, after changing her red dress for another. Mrs. Keele declined to go back to the scene and later went to her mother's home in Fargo, N. D., Mrs. Sage said.

Secrecy the government agents threw around the affair still persisted and it could not be learned whether either woman would make any claim to the $15,000 rewards that hung over the public enemy's head.

Captain Timothy O'Neil of the East Chicago police, who with Sergeant Martin Zarkovich was among the Indiana officers at the death scene, denied emphatically that Mrs. Sage had anything to do with the Dillinger trap, adding that an underworld character had seen Dillinger and had given the information to Zarkovich.

"All this talk about a woman in a red dress tipping us off to Dillinger's whereabouts is untrue," he said. Captain Thomas Duffy of the Sheffield avenue police, who with Captain John Stege questioned Mrs. Sage at length before she was turned over to the custody of federal agents last night, said he believed that she had sheltered Dillinger knowingly or unknowingly for several weeks. It was in her apartment, the police said they learned, that Dillinger and Mrs. Keele first met.

The "girl in red" told Captain Stege that Dillinger came to her house last Sunday evening, when he played cards with Mrs. Keele, whose picture, the police said they learned, was in Dillinger's watch.

Capt. Stege asked her, "After you had your dinner Sunday night, who suggested that you go to the theater?"

"Dillinger did."

"He suggested that theater?" asked Stege. "Yes. He never said anything until we got to the door. I wanted to go to the Uptown, another theater, to see 'Little Miss Marker' and he said he wanted to go around the corner. That is about a block from my house, the Biograph, and then we walked to the show."

"I guess Miss Hamilton was in the middle and Dillinger was on the outside. In the theater I found a seat in the middle. They got a seat down front, way in front. Before the show was over I saw them coming up the aisle and they called me and said 'come on' and I got up and walked out. We walked out of the theater and went southeast toward my house. When we reached the National tea store, a big man pushed me or pulled me and stepped on my foot and I looked around and said 'say' and he had a gun. I heard a shot in front of me and I looked and saw Dillinger on the ground and I stood there and looked. I did not know what had happened. Polly pulled me by the hand. She said 'Jimmy got shot' and she gave me one pull. There was a big man with a gun and he said 'just a minute' and he left us and we walked west."

SIBERIA FLIGHT PLANNED FAIRBANKS, Alaska, July 25. (AP)—A possible goodwill flight across the Bering sea to Siberia, provided approval of the war department is obtained, was in the offing today for the 10 U. S. army bombers. Basing here for the squadron's three weeks stay in Alaska, Lieut. Col. Henry Arnold, flight commander said extensive aerial photographic work and other military surveys will occupy the airmen. Flights will be extended to the lower Kuskokwim district, to Nome and over the Seward peninsula. Australia will spend $71,500,000 on unemployment relief during the financial year 1934-35.

NOW COMES SENATOR NYE SAYING NRA HAS MISSED ITS MARK

NEW PARTY IS PREDICTED BY DAKOTA SOLON

SENATOR HASTINGS OF DELAWARE FLAYS ROOSEVELT

WASHINGTON, July 25 (AP)—Two prominent Republicans looked at the new deal from different angles today and found it wanting.

Senator Nye, North Dakota independent, discerned a waxing sentiment in the northwest for a third party because, he said, the democrats had not proved progressive enough to satisfy people in that area and the republican high command was becoming more "reactionary."

Speaking from the regular republican lines, Senator Hastings of Delaware, said in a national radio address last night that "the objective of the Roosevelt revolutionists is to make their 'naphazard program permanent.'"

Both agreed that the NRA had missed its mark. Nye said he proposed to offer legislation at the next session of congress to relegate NRA virtually to a division of the federal trade commission, shorn of much of its powers. Hastings declared the recovery administration had "failed to accomplish what was intended" and that purchasing power had been sapped away at a period when it was most needed.

Hastings termed the Roosevelt recovery program "the great spender's hypochondria" of the nation. He warned of the "day of reckoning."

France 'Attacked' In Air Maneuvers

LYON, France, July 25 (AP)—South-eastern France was "attacked" by 300 heavy tri-motored airplanes this morning in one of the most ambitious and defense maneuvers since the world war.

Aerial forces from Metz to Istres participated in the mythical attack on the important Rhone valley while inhabitants of ten departments surrounding Lyon were mobilized into defense.

Regiments of artillery and scout planes fought the advancing squadrons.

The entire territory was watched to prevent sabotage as a result of the refusal of three communist mayors to participate in the maneuvers.

WATER LAW PASSED

CORPUS CHRISTI, July 25 (AP)—The use of city water for other than domestic purposes during the period of drought was prohibited by law today.

Mrs. W. L. Brummet has returned from a vacation in the Colorado mountains and will resume her piano classes here.

This Stops Laxative 'Dread'

Because of harsh action, fast food or interference with daily diet, people are often "dreaded" by the laxative. ## ALBANY WELL IS GOOD FOR 220 BARRELS

Producer is Only 895 Feet Deep; Other Producers in Shallow Belt Section.

ALBANY, July 25 (AP)—Interest in the shallow lime oil play in the Albany area three miles north-east of Albany was revived when the Lowe and Delaney No. 7, F. W. Alexander, near center of southeast 80 acres of T. E. & L. survey No. 530, drilled into the Hope lime at 895 feet July 15. After acid was applied the well made 220 barrels on 24-hour test. The best well previously drilled was Valley Osage Oil company's No. 1-B, F. W. Alexander, a 45-barrel pumper in lime on the north corner of southeast 80 acres of T. E. & L. survey No. 535.

Leases near the new Lowe & Delaney well are owned by Glenridge Oil company on the Z. W. Casey farm and by Valley Osage Oil company on the F. W. Alexander "Diamond ranch."

William A. McMurray No. 4, J. A. Matthews got an east extension well in their Fry sand pool near the center of east line of section No. 57, E. T. R. R. land, making 50 barrels daily from 820 foot sand. This brought the pool closer to Re-lance Oil & Royalty company's large block of leases formerly held by Cranfill-Reynolds company.

In western Shackelford T. K. Simmons & Norman M. Smith, No. 7, B. C. Harvey, made 240 barrels the first 24 hours from the Cook "and at 1715 to 1726 feet in the SW-4 corner of the SE-4 of SW-4 section No. 6, block No. 14, T. & P. R. R. company lands. It is the best well ever drilled in the Cook sand in extreme western Shackelford and the best producer drilled in the Harvey-King pool since the early years of development. The new wells open considerable acreage for the Cook sand.

Across the Shackelford-Callahan county line in Callahan county a new well was added by Ungren-Frazier-Lynn & Porter, No. 2-B, I. N. Jackson. It was drilled into the Hammill sand at 915 to 925 feet and completed for 60 barrels daily. The location is a 200 foot spacing cut of northeast corner of SE-4 of NW-4 section No. 21, E. T. R. R. lands, Callahan county, in the north end of the Jackson pool.

A large block of leases has been purchased from the land owner by the Sam R. Cox & Manley brothers ranch tracts across the Shackelford-Jones county line in Jones county by John P. Bury, Abilene geologist and operator in cooperation with W. W. Fendren of Houston on the large structure worked 8 years ago by Marland Oil company regional department. It is reputedly the largest structure in Jones county and is five miles east of the Condor pool.

Ward's to Put New Washer on Market at Once

Montgomery Ward & company today announced that large scale production will begin immediately on a new type electrical washing machine, designed to combine simplicity of line and mechanical utility.

The machine represents a radical change in washing machine design. Intended to match the most modern refrigerator and other household appliances in beauty, the new washer was designed by Lurelle Galt, noted industrial designer, and is the product of more than a year of testing and research in Ward laboratories.

A square, white lacquer cabinet encloses all mechanical parts except the wringer, thus serving the three-fold purpose of improving appearance, facilitating cleaning and providing a greater degree of safety. A simple, smoothness of line is achieved by rounded corners of chromium on the cabinet.

One push-button, located at the front of the cabinet, starts a trivane agitator which swirls soapy water through clothes 128 times a minute, washing a tubful in less than five minutes. Another controls the drain. A lever at the side of the wringer sends the balloon rolls in forward or backward motion, as desired.

Distribution of the machines to the 500 Ward retail stores located throughout the country will begin next month.

Middleton.

This is the first meeting of this kind to be held among the associations, having heretofore only met with their local officers.

Methods of dealing with various problems that arise in the field were entered into by all members present, and took up the better part of an hour and a half. The discussion then turned to the plan of setting up a major executive organization to include certain territories outside of the Panhandle of Texas, and after a thorough discussion of this movement by all members present, a motion was made by Ray E. Huling that Bond D. Jones be appointed temporary president of this organization until such a time as it will be possible to contact other chapters, receive their reactions to this plan, and move toward the election of general officers.

The presidents of each chapter reported the various work their chapters had been doing, and were at present carrying on, and it was unanimously agreed by all present that a great deal had been accomplished for the Phillips Employees through this method of dealing with the company, and in as much as the movement is becoming stronger day by day, hence the idea of setting up a major executive organization, so that there may be more unity among all chapters on questions concerning the general welfare of all employees.

The next meeting of all officers of the Panhandle will be at the call of B. D. Jones, president of the production chapter, and temporary president of the Panhandle division. This meeting will possibly be held at Pampa, sometime within the next month.

'LUST MURDER' DEFENDANT IS 'NOT GUILTY'

Who Strangled Girl In Golden Gate Park?

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25. (AP)—The question of "who killed Louise Jeppesen" remained unanswered today as Millard Hickman, 45-year-old marine engineer, was freed of the charge that it was he who strangled the Ogden, Utah, girl in Golden Gate park last May.

A superior court jury required only one hour and 49 minutes deliberation and but a single ballot last night to find Hickman innocent of the "lust murder."

The state had demanded the death penalty. Hickman's composure, which he had maintained throughout the long trial, was smashed by the suddenness of the verdict. Obviously dazed, he rose unsteadily to his feet, received the congratulations of his brother and then staggered from the court room to go to the city prison for his personal belongings.

Within a few minutes, he had regained his usual calm and, as he signed the register of outgoing prisoners, he remarked with a wide smile, "this is a pleasure, I assure you."

In its efforts to send Hickman to the gallows, the state had built up a circumstantial case, charging that after a gay party he attacked the Jeppesen girl in his apartment, drove her to Golden Gate park and killed her because of fear she might accuse him.

Hickman contended he was in his apartment with another woman, Miss Bianche McKay, at the probable time of the murder. Miss McKay took the stand in substantiation of this contention.

OFF TO THE FARM

By The Pampa Irish Farmer.

Get yourself out here, if you're going with me. This Flivver is rarin' to start. I want to get out there before sundown, so we can ramble around and see everything before dark.

I believe we will go by and get the Parson to go with us. A ride out there will make him feel like a different person, after being in his study all afternoon. I guess we can all three squeeze in this seat.

Well it's nice to drive along here and see what the other fellow is doing, and has done in his garden. Some of them are looking mighty good, considering all the hot winds we have had this month.

And weren't you surprised at the Flower Show last week? Those ladies sure were brave to undertake a show right at this time, and I thought they all deserved a gold medal. You know a lot of us start out early in the cool season to do Big things this year, but when the hot days come you see some begin to lag and then they decide they don't like flowers anyway. It takes those women with grit and determination, to show us lazy boys how to overcome the difficulties and get over the hot trying weeks, when we are needing rain.

Those who lives there must be gone fishing. Look at the weeds, right at the front doorstep. Over here is a picture hard to beat. Just a little white house, with smooth green grass and some nice big shade trees. Looks like you could just sleep all night on that grass, and keep cool under those trees all day. Yes there is a little garden at the back door too.

The fields are all brown now, the wheat all cut and in the bin. Guess the boys want to be so busy tonight, as when we went out during harvest, maybe they will have time to talk to us.

Well, here we are. Smells like we got here in time to get our names in the Pot. Did you ever smell anything half so good as ham frying in a farm kitchen.

Thanks Mrs. Farmer. We won't come to bother you. We will go out and find the boys. They are milking? Fine I will just see if I have forgotten how to milk BOSS. I bet I can hit the Parson right in the eye with a stream of milk, if the flies will let Boss stand still long enough. No thanks Son, I never could like the fresh warm milk, but I sure can drink my share when it gets cold.

Wait Sister, let me help you feed the chickens. Get the bucket full, out of this big sack? O. K. Now we pour it in this feeder box? Watch the little rascals walk over each other to get that mash. They sure do like it. Here this fellow is being crowded out, and he shows it too. He is not growing as fast as the others. This water bucket, Sister? Now they have their clean cool drink and are ready to go to roost.

Got to have a look at the little pigs now. What a pile of little soft, slick buggers, all getting supper, I believe. Listen to them grunt. What a nice fresh garden. No water except the overflow from the storage tank? Just a shallow trench to run it to the garden, but there have been so many windy days that the tank runs over nearly all the time, and supplies enough to keep the garden growing nicely. Flowers and vegetables both. Look at those bean vines. Just hanging full. And look at the grapes on the fence.

No, we must be going. We did not come for supper. Well it's just with the Parson, if he can stay, I am in no hurry, and I know the neighbor is just already tasting that ham.

Mrs. Farmer, you have started something, letting us in on this good supper. We will be coming out every week. My, if this buttermilk isn't the best drink any rich man could want on a summer day. Well if you are going to have Flap Jacks and honey for breakfast, I guess we will just hitch the flivver and spend the night.

Sister we forgot something, when we hurried off to look at the little pigs. We didn't bring in the eggs. Lets run before it gets dark, I can carry them in my old straw hat. Now old lady, you get right off that nest, we don't want you to set right here in the hottest weather. Quit your fussing and get right up on that roost with the other hens. Well we got enough for breakfast didn't we? Yes they don't lay much while it is so hot.

Well boys, we would like to sit here all night and smoke and "spin yarns with you, but guess we better be going and let you get some sleep. Goodnight.

Now Parson, are you sorry you went with us? Wasn't that worth driving ten times as far as we went. They just make you feel as if you were one of the family, and did you ever eat such a good supper?

I want us to go out to see the Fielders some day soon. I have been so busy that I have not been out there this summer. Let's go early some morning, while their lawns are all fresh.

Here we are home again, hope you boys had as good a time as I did. Goodnight.

The jury failed to arrive at a verdict in two hours of deliberation.

Both defendants denied they had participated in an immoral party with Miss June DeLong, film ex-

Young People in Skellytown Form Religious Group

SKELLYTOWN, July 24.—A great deal of interest is being shown in the new religious program recently inaugurated at Skellytown. A large crowd turned out Thursday night for the fellowship hour and enjoyed the group games and other features of the program. As a surprise feature the Women's Bible class brought in a very generous supply of groceries for the new pastor.

Morning and evening services were well attended and a new organization was formed by the young people of the community. The group plans to meet each Sunday evening before preaching services for devotional programs and dramatic work.

The following officers were elected: President, Orval Williams; vice-president, Richard Barnes; secretary, Wanda Black; chairman program committee, Claudette Black with Fred Tinsley and Agnes Jacobs helping with program. Miss Jacobs was also chosen as song leader and Mrs. Hutto pianist. A great deal of enthusiasm was manifested in beginning the new organization and its members are looking forward with a great deal of anticipation to some constructive work and some good times together.

COOKS EXEMPT LOS ANGELES (AP)—Because members of the city council were left to get their own meals last summer at the municipal mountain camp, the civil service commission has decided cooks are exempt from civil service. Last year a cowboy was called on to do some of the cooking after the regular chef, a civil service employe, walked off the job.

WOMEN IN BRITISH OFFICES LONDON (AP)—For the first time in the history of British government service, women have been appointed as executive officers in the customs. They will be engaged in work connected with import duties at salaries which may eventually rise to $3,000 or $4,000 yearly, with bonuses.

Allen and the star prosecution witness, as charged by the state, Allen contended the case was a "frame up" designed to cause him to lose his position.

In his instructions to the jury Superior Judge B. Rey Schauer said, "A crime of this nature is easy to charge but hard to prove." and told the jurors that a verdict of not guilty should be returned if the evidence gave indication of a conspiracy against the defendants.

TEXAS GAZETTE, PUBLISHED IN 1830, WAS SUCCESSFUL PAPER

BUCKHOLTS, July 23. (AP)—Texas newspapers of pioneer days are reminders of how far the state, which has acknowledged five flags, have advanced in the century it will commemorate two years hence.

Although the first Texas newspaper, edited by Horatio Bigelow, member of the supreme council of the republic of Texas, was published at Nacogdoches, August 14, 1819, the first successful Texas newspaper, the Texas Gazette, was published in 1830. A copy of this newspaper, now contained in the famous Garcia collection at the University of Texas, shows the progress in the transmission of news by comparing the date of a dispatch, Oct. 18, 1829, with its publication, March 20, 1830. Another odd feature of this newspaper is that it was called the "republican" notwithstanding Texas was yet under Spanish rule.

Early Texas editors appear to have experienced difficulty in collecting payments from their subscribers, but methods for keeping their lists from getting too far in arrears were applied. The Telegraph and Texas Register, published at San Felipe de Austin Oct. 10, 1835, by Baker and Borders, carried the following announcement: "$5.00 per annum if paid in advance; $6.00 at the expiration of six months and $7.00 if not paid until the end of the year."

A copy of the Northern Standard, issued at Clarksville, Aug. 27, 1842, indicates that early editors were annoyed by persons who wanted to air their personal grievances thru the paper. In connection with a schedule of advertising rates the Standard says:

"Personal alterations, when admissible, charged double usual rates."

Directly under the masthead of this paper, which carried a detailed account of the unfortunate Texan-Santa Fe expedition by George Kendall, is the slogan: "Long shall our banner brave the breeze, the Standard of the free."

Coal oil lamps still are widely used in Georgia, surveys show.

OPENING DATE OF PAMPA BASEBALL TOURNAMENT IS CHANGED TO AUG. 9

SOONER CLUBS GIVE PROMISE TO TAKE PART

AMARILLO TOURNEY IS NOT LIKELY TO BE HELD

Dates of the Pampa Invitation baseball tournament have been changed so that several strong Oklahoma clubs can participate. The former dates, August 23 to September 3, conflicted with the Oklahoma Sandlot tournament, where the champions of Oklahoma are decided.

Directors of the Junior chamber of commerce, sponsors of the big event, and the tournament committee met yesterday afternoon and set the new dates. The tournament will open August 9, if as many as 16 teams enter. If 12 teams decide to come to Pampa, opening date will be August 11.

With the Amarillo News-Globe tournament tettering on the verge of collapse, and the Berger tournament anything but a success from a baseball standpoint, a few Pampa fans are looking on the gloomy side of the situation here.

They need not worry about the success of the Pampa event. Roy Eubank, stated Monday before leaving for a few days in the mountains. He has been assured by many club owners and managers that the $1,000 guaranteed for first place will bring a flock of good baseball teams to Pampa.

The rules committee met in a three-hour session last night in the chamber of commerce rooms. A set of Pampa baseball tournament rules will be ready soon and will be mailed to a large list of teams. The system to be used in matching teams through the tournament will also be enclosed with rules and application blanks.

Managers of teams at Shawnee, Okla., Enid, Okla., Okmulgee, Okla., and the Wilcox Oilers of Oklahoma City, informed the tournament committee over the week-end that they would come to Pampa if the tournament dates did not conflict with the Oklahoma tournament. Desiring to have the strongest teams in the country here, the Pampa body decided to make the change in dates. Berger, Amarillo, and Glens, N. M., are almost sure entries in the Pampa affair and the Claude Padre Hounds are said to be organizing to take a chance on winning the $1,000.

Grapevine reports also bring word that Memphis, Childress, Heavener, Okla., and one or more good Oklahoma clubs are looking longingly at the big purse.

Light's installed last week at Road Runner park are popular with Pampa baseball fans. Two large crowds witnessed games last week-end. Coltexo's rejuvenated club will come to Pampa tonight for a game with the Pampa Road Runners.

ROAD RUNNERS AND COLTEXO PLAY TONIGHT

NEW PLAYER IS LIKELY TO APPEAR IN SUIT THIS EVENING

The third baseball game to be played under artificial lights in Pampa will be tonight at 8:45 o'clock, when the new Coltexo Gasoliners meet the Pampa Road Runners. Admission will be 25 cents for women and 40 cents for men.

A changed Road Runner lineup will be presented. A new face might also appear in a Roadrunner uniform, although the management would not confirm the rumor. Manager George Eulla was not decided on his starting hurler this morning, saying he would probably select from Stewart, Tate, and himself.

The Coltexo team has been strengthened for the Berger tournament and also for the Pampa tournament. Two new infielders, an outfielder, and a pitcher have been added. Red Gaitner, former Pampa star, will be on the Coltexo team tonight. He is a favorite with Pampa fans.

The Road Runners worked out yesterday afternoon with the veteran Aaron Ward on shortstop and Whitey Bacuss, S. M. U. star, at second base. The combination looked good and with more practice should develop into a strong defensive aggregation.

Eddie Sain's receiving showed marked improvement after a long rest. His bugging hand has been on the injury list the last few weeks. Brickell's ankle is nearly well and Seitz's knee is fast losing its swelling. Bacuss' split finger is well again, and he looked faster than ever in practice.

The grandstand and bleachers were filled Friday night and nearly as many saw Saturday night's game under the lights. L.F. Fox plans to "move to Pampa" tonight to see their new team and also to see baseball under artificial lights.

WAR NEAR END

LA PAZ, Bolivia, July 25 (AP)—The Associated Press learned today that Juan Valenzuela, Argentine minister, has brought from Buenos Aires a concrete proposal for a settlement of the war in the Chaco against Paraguay. The ministry officials declined to comment on the subject but a high official of the ministry said the Bolivian point of view involved a simultaneous suspension of hostilities with the immediate undertaking of a study of the fundamentals of the controversy between the two nations.

TIGERS LEAD NEW YORK BY THREE GAMES

SENATORS AND PIRATES STRIKE NEW LOW IN LOSSES

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON JR., Associated Press Sports Writer.

From pennant winner and leading contender to just a couple of second division clubs—that summarizes the slumps of the Washington Senators and Pittsburgh Pirates.

Pittsburgh, expected to be in the midst of the current National league race with the Giants, Cubs, and Cardinals, found itself near the bottom of the season's worst slump today after nine straight defeats. The Bucs struck a new low yesterday when they took a 9 to 0 beating from the Phillies.

The Senators were in even worse condition as they skidded off into the sixth notch in the American league for the second time in a week after a 4-1 defeat at the hands of the last-place White Sox.

The Giants snubbed the Cardinal race toward the top of the National league on Roy Parmelee's 4-hit pitching, winning 5 to 0, and the Tigers, in the American league, came through to a 6 to 3 triumph over Boston's Red Sox with the aid of some flashy relief hurling by Clarence Phillips.

The decision increased Detroit's lead to three games over the Yankees as the Browns handed New York at 4 to 2 setback to go into fifth place. The second-place Cubs held their spot two games behind the Giants by making good use of 6 hits and 7 walks off Van Mungo to beat the Dodgers 6 to 3 behind Ed Lee's steady hurling.

Old Flint Rhem provided the fourth of the National league's good mound performances by holding the Reds to 7 hits while the Braves broke a 6-game losing streak with a 4-3 victory that lifted them barely into the first division.

American League pitcher recorded his twelfth victory as the third place Indians defeated Philadelphia 10 to 6.

Sarazen To Play In First Match Of P. G. A. Meet

EUFALIO, July 25 (AP)—They teased Gene Sarazen right into the first match of the day in defense of his Professional Golfers' association championship today as the stocky Italian from New York led a survivor of golf's old guard against an upstart of ambitious youngsters in the opening round of match play.

He drew Herman Barron, of Portchester, N. Y., as his opponent while Bob Crowley, 25-year-old sensation from Dedham, Mass., who won the 36-hole qualifying medal with a record equalling 67-71-138, five strokes under par, yesterday, led the youngsters in action from behind in the last match. He was paired with Eddie Loos, of Chicago.

With 146 as the qualifying limit, only two strokes over par, Walter Hagen, who used to have this tournament at his mercy, Denny Shute, last year's British open champion, had a quality action with Johnny Revolta, of Milwaukee, Barron, Leo Diegel, of Philadelphia, Frank Ball, from Haines Fall, N. Y., Orville White, of Overland, Mo., and Fay Coleman, of Culver City, Calif., in a ten-man play off that saw Willie MacFarlane, the Tuckahoe veteran, and Frank Walsh, of Chicago, beaten.

Modern Enoch Arden Returns From War Hell

BERLIN, July 25 (AP)—Twenty years ago a German soldier marched away to war. He returned last week-end, broken in mind through years of forced labor in Siberian mines, to find himself a modern Enoch Arden.

For Ernst Erich, long officially dead, leaped his wife had remarried and gone away. He has been reunited with his aged mother and a 19-year-old daughter whom he had never seen.

Details of the story were recounted by the Deutsches Zeitung. Erich W. 25 at the outbreak of the world war, was drafted to the colors and fought under Marshal von Hindenburg at the battle of Tannenberg in East Prussia.

Then all trace of him was lost. He was listed as missing and later was officially declared dead.

Two years ago a visiting Red Cross committee in a remote Siberian village took pity on a walking skeleton who said he was a German prisoner of war.

After long negotiations he was granted freedom and taken to Davos, Switzerland, where he recovered slowly. Then he was sent to Naukelin, a suburb of Berlin, his home, and left years ago.

Erich W. could only explain that he shot a Russian sentry in an attempt to escape and that he had seen pen and paper to write of his years of captivity.

Lighting Situation Of City Inspected

City commissioners Monday night after approving 2 bills, made a trip over the city inspecting the lighting situation. The regular meeting was short because of the absence of Mayor W. A. Bratton who is on his vacation.

Accompanying Commissioners Marvin Lewis and William T. Fraser, were City Manager C. L. Stine and City Secretary W. M. Craven. The "city dads" visited the free parking lots where they plan to install lights. They also drove west on Highway 33 through the city and selected tentative locations for lights.

All-Negro Card To Be Presented Tuesday Evening

NEWS TO SPONSOR ITS ANNUAL TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Negro boxers who sling leather for the sheer joy of hearing it thud on an opponent will be in Pampa Tuesday night when Promoter B. W. Kelly presents his all-negro boxing card. The preliminary will be at 8:30 o'clock and will see Charlie Jackson of Amarillo and One Round Jackson of Dallas mixing.

The main event will bring Schoolboy, state negro light heavyweight champion in the opinion of many promoters, here to meet the real contender for Schoolboy's mythical title, K. Q. Brown of Amarillo. Schoolboy will weigh 174 pounds and Brown 170 pounds.

Both fighters are known as hard hitters, with ability to absorb huge amounts of punishment. They are fast for big fellows and there is no love between them.

Kid Wallace, Tulsa champion, has been matched with Smiling Jack of Pampa, former Wichita champion, in the 8-round semi-final. These two welterweights are real boxers, good hitters and tough.

Billy McDonald, Amarillo sensation, will meet Tiger Smith of Denver in a 6-round special event.

Admission will be 40 cents for general admission and 60 cents for ringside seats. A special section will be reserved for negroes.

Electric Refrigeration Is Dependable

For years, day and night, summer and winter, thousands of users have found electric refrigerators equal to the various weather conditions found in the Texas Panhandle. Electric refrigerators also respond quickly to unusual demands of the family.

The large reserve temperature capacity of electric refrigerators makes it easy for you to serve quantities of ice cubes and frozen desserts in an unbelievably short time no matter what the outside temperature may be.

When you buy an electric refrigerator you buy refrigeration capacity; you buy dependability; you buy safety; you buy convenience; you buy freedom from uncertainty and annoyance. You buy satisfaction evidenced by the experience of thousands of your neighbors.

A good rule to follow in selecting an electric refrigerator is to provide 2 cubic feet of inside space for each member of the family, and to determine that the melting ice capacity of the unit is high enough to safeguard against unusually high temperature-times when you need refrigeration most.

12 301 WATCH DALLAS WHIP CATS 3 TO 1

BIGGEST CROWD SINCE OPENING DAY IN 1929

By BILL PARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer.

The record heat temperature had nothing on the feverish enthusiasm of 12,301 cash customers last night at Steer stadium who got a wallop out of the Steers hand-fought 3-to-1 decision over Fort Worth. It was the largest paid crowd at the Dallas park since opening day, 1929.

Joe Vance, versatile utility Dallas star, took a turn on the mound and held the Cats to six hits with a speedy cross-fire. Jonnard, tall Fort Worth right-hander, allowed six hits the seven innings he pitched but the intense heat weakened him to where he had very little on the ball. Dick Whitworth finished for the Cats.

Tulis stepped home with a 5 to 3 victory over Beaumont. After going runless for six straight innings the Oilers clicked with a pair of tallies in the seventh and three more in the eighth to overhaul Beaumont's 3 to 0 lead gained in the earlier innings.

The veteran Mike Cvensgro, southpaw, hurled Houston to a 4 to 3 victory over the last place Oklahoma City Indians. Things looked gloomy for Mike until the eighth inning when the Buffaloes broke loose and scored four runs to overtake Oklahoma City's lead. Galveston and San Antonio did not play.

Corporations' Bonded Debt

NEW YORK (AP)—The total bonded debt of 231 large industrial corporations reached a peak of $2,774,000,000 in 1928, it is reported by Moody's Investors Service. "From then it has declined consistently to $2,156,000,000 in 1933, drop of 22.3 per cent. The decline since 1929 has been 14.9 per cent."

Detroit Owner Is Experiencing 'Biggest Thrill'

NEWS TO SPONSOR ITS ANNUAL TENNIS TOURNAMENT

DETROIT, July 25 (AP)—Frank J. Navin said today his 1934 Detroit Tigers are "the biggest thrill and the greatest satisfaction I have had since I entered baseball in 1904."

The reason? The team has raised more American league pennant hopes than almost any other since the days of Hughie Jennings.

The owner of the Detroit club, who has sat through many lean years in his special box at Navin Field, admitted that the luck curves were breaking over the plate at last.

Navin said that he is getting an added thrill out of the spirited outfit because of 15 of the 22 players are Tiger-trained all the way from sandlots and college diamonds.

He called off their names: Hank Goldberg, Eiden Auker, Tommy Eridges, Flea Clifton, Frank Doljack, Pete Fox, Charley Gehring, Luke Hamlin, Ray Hayworth, Elton Hossett, Schoolboy Rowe, Vic Sorrell, Gerald Walker, Jo Jo White, and the newest recruit, Clarence "Red" Phillips, who won his first major league game Tuesday, over the Red Sox.

"No, I'm not forgetting Hughie Jennings and his team," said Navin. "But it was easier to get ball players in those days. There were 50 or 60 minor leagues then, and players developed easier."

Men's tennis will be divided in two divisions. The committee will meet later to set a dividing line. A women's division will also be held with prizes for winners.

Registration will be by clubs but play will be individual with maybe recognition for club champions. Division will include Pampa, Cities Service, Phillips, Coltexo, Texaco, Cabot and others yet to be reported.

Hope that cement courts can be built and an open tournament sponsored was expressed by committee members last night.

MARKET BRIEFS

Admiral Byrd's Fate In Doubt

LITTLE AMERICA, Antarctica, July 25. (AP)—Word was anxiously awaited today from a tractor party of five struggling back to the main base here and from Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd, commander of the antarctic expedition who is isolated in his advance base.

The tractor group, which abandoned an attempt to reach Admiral Byrd's observation post because of the extreme weather, presumably saw only a few miles from headquarters.

It was at a camp 28 miles from Little America when a halt was taken for rest Monday night.

Dangerous crevasses lie between the camp and the base here and the five were forced to take extreme caution. Nearly all signals marking trails have been obliterated by snow.

No word has been heard from Admiral Byrd since last Friday, when he was forced to use a hand-cranked radio set to communicate with headquarters. His main radio set was out of commission at the time.

The antarctic winter has about a month to run.

Soviet Envoy Is Sincere In Talk

WASHINGTON, July 25. (AP)—Secretary Hull announced today that "a sincere disposition to reach an agreement" had been exhibited at the first conference between Alexander Trojansky, the soviet ambassador, and state department officials over settlement of soviet-American debts and claims at approximately $900,000,000.

The negotiations, which were transferred to Washington from Moscow when discussions there for nearly seven months failed to materialize into an agreement, involve debts and claims by American citizens and the United States government for approximately $325,000,000, including interest, loaned to the defunct provisional Kerensky government; $86,000,000 in three issues of imperial Russian bonds, and private claims for property alleged to have been confiscated under the soviet's nationalization of property decree.

SCHOOL

Saturday, and Monday preceding September 4 will be used as enrollment days.

Students who will enter Pampa schools for the first time must take their report cards, book cards, and other credentials pertaining to enrollment. Out-of-state students will not be asked for book cards. High school students must have transcripts from the last schools they attended.

Any child born on or before the first day of September, 1928, will be permitted to enter Pampa schools. Any child born on the second, third, or following days in September of that year will not be permitted to enroll.

Children starting to school for the first time, who have not been enumerated or placed on the scholastic census rolls of the State of Texas will be required to furnish legal evidence of the date of their birth. Parents who make a false report of the birth date of any child make themselves liable to prosecution for perjury. Such a child, in the opinion of the board, entering while knowing it is not legally eligible is taught dishonesty.

The board also believes that most children begin school at too early an age. The scholastic year begins each September 1 in Texas. Miss Claudine Pope, graduate of Pampa high in 1929, has been made secretary to Supt. R. B. Fisher. Miss Pope has since been graduated by Stephens college of Columbia, Mo., and the University of Michigan.

Grades of Milk Sold in Pampa Shown by City

The grades of all milk and milk supplies distributed in the city of Pampa have been determined by the local health department in accordance with the standard grade specifications of the U. S. Public Health Service standard inspection code and ordinances of the city of Pampa.

Milk consumers in the city of Pampa are urged by the City Health department to purchase milk and milk supplies on the basis of grade.
