TWO ARRESTED WHEN ROCKS ARE THROWN AT WORKERS

SAN ANTONIO, July 16 (AP)—Eight thousand pecan shellers, most of them women, struck for higher wages today, paralyzing San Antonio's pecan shelling industry.

The strike was called as a surprise by the pecan shellers union and was carried out with precision and without major disorders. Police arrested two leaders at the Coronado pecan shelling plant early this morning but released them without filing charges. The arrests were made when it was reported that rocks were thrown at some workers attempting to enter the plant.

The strikers are demanding:
1. That shellers now being paid 2 and 3 cents for shelling a pound of pecans be raised to 5 and 6 cents.
2. That machine operators, those who crack pecans, be raised from 25 and 30 cents to 50 cents or more for cracking 100 pounds of pecans.
3. That these prices be generally accepted by all small contractors.
4. That these prices be effective through the month of September.

M. Rodriguez, general representative of the pecan shellers union, who is directing the strike, explained that the strike was called when employers called the workers back to work a week ago at 2 and 3 cents a pound for shellers and 25 to 30 a 100 pounds for crackers. He said the workers agreed to return to work at those wages, work for one week, and then strike.

He said the object in striking now, the dull season in the shelling industry, was to prevent shelling plants from piling up a big surplus and thus be able to effectively combat a strike during the busy season of September and October.

Rodriguez charged that workers had been working from 14 to 18 hours a day and earning an average of 20 cents a day. He said some could earn a living this way in cases where whole families were employed. He said wages had been as high as 15 cents a pound for shellers.

22,000 Textile Workers Plan To Strike Tuesday

The news also said "an undetermined number of locals of the international organization have turned thumbs down on the strike proposal and have served emphatic notice they will not join the general walkout."

DILLINGER IS HUNTED; TWO 'COPS' SHOT

Chicago Policemen Are Cut Down Without Warning By Four Men and Woman

CHICAGO, July 16 (AP)—John Dillinger and his henchmen were hunted again today in the Chicago area.

The ruthlessness of an attack on two policemen, shot on sight, gave rise to reports that it was the work of the Indiana desperado or his cohorts.

Sergeant Harry Bingham, head of the Dillinger detail, disclosed that for three days his men had been at work on reports that the mobsters were in hiding here.

The shooting victims were two state highway policemen, cut down without warning last night, one perhaps fatally. When they offered their assistance innocently to four men and a woman they believed to be in trouble.

Making a routine check of their territory in a squad car, they came upon three cars (Ford V-8s) parked in line northwest of Chicago. Beside the cars stood four men and a woman.

SAN FRANCISCO WALKS TO WORK AS STREET CARS AND TAXIS REMAIN MOTIONLESS

SAN FRANCISCO, July 16 (AP)—A great city walked to work today.

As zero hour of the general strike struck, with all forms of transportation except private automobiles abandoned, a pall of fog hung low, moistening the brows of the tens of thousands who hooped it to office or shop.

What a leg-stretching it was for those who didn't have a motor car or had no neighbor owning one to pick them up!

A new experience it was for the multitude of commuters jamming into the ferry building and the single railroad station at third and Townsend, adjacent to the waterfront district, where the commuting trains disgorged their thousands.

Not a taxicab in sight. No street car. Clattering along. No jitney at the curb. Just two pair of feet for everyone without an automobile or a lift.

Streets leading into the business district were carrying a heavy automobile traffic far ahead of the usual rush hours. Many a car starting out with only a driver arrived downtown with full capacity.

A driverless car dodging trees and shrubs in a dash through Central park Saturday night. The machine stopped at the bank of Red Deer creek. The car had been left by the owner, L. M. McWright in front of the Parkway apartments on Ballard street. The car shot between two trees that an experienced driver would have had difficulty in missing, dodged several bushes, jumped two paths and stopped without serious damage either to park or car. The owner forgot to apply the brakes when he parked it. It is believed that some motorist gave the machine a boost that started it on its sprint.

DSKINS WELLS in Wellington Leader—Modern brides, even though they have the promise to "obey" omitted from the marriage ritual, nevertheless submit to ceremonial customs which originally signified the woman's complete subjugation to her husband. Also we do not think anything of walking one to three blocks to attend to our business. But in Panhandle we feel that our legs just can't stand to walk more than 25 to 50 feet to get to a store. It is a surprise that we haven't had a lot more accidents due to the danger of center parking.

J. C. PHILLIPS in Bossier Herald—As congress is out of session, the nation is temporarily calm. It is, of course, a calm that will not last, but it helps. ## FEUD OF BRITISH PHOTOGRAPHERS IS ENTERTAINMENT EVENT OFTEN

By GAYLE TALBOT (Associated Press Sports Writer)
LONDON (AP)—The fine old British practice of selling exclusive picture rights to big sports events often affords the paying customers more entertainment than the main spectacle itself.
There's a never-ending war between the big motion picture company which has a virtual monopoly on the principal events and the "small" organizations intent upon "snatch" action photographs.
Everything from smoke flares to captive balloons are used by the boys of the monopoly to preserve their rights, and even then they have a raw, rough fight on their hands. For, in addition to ferreting out and ejecting the dozens of cameramen who slip through the turnstiles with powerful little picture boxes hidden under their coats, they must battle the long-range machines trained from surrounding high buildings and towers.
Four-Day Battle
The latest and one of the most spectacular battles of wits took place during the opening test cricket match between England and Australia at Nottingham. It lasted four days and was a dabo.
The outsiders, or anti-monopolists, repaid themselves the front yard of a home across from the hallowed cricket grounds the day before the match started and put up a 30-foot tower. But when they got all ready to start shooting the next morning the insiders calmly strung a 20-foot high netting that effectively blocked the view from the tower.
So, during the night, up went the tower to 60 feet. Thrown up by local carpenters in a hurry, it was pretty flimsy looking, especially when a dozen or so husky cameramen got crowded together up on the top platform. But it held, and the crowd cheered the lads roundly for their daring. What the monopolists said about it was a different matter. They got busy. When the third day dawned a captive balloon, 20 feet across and festooned with flags and banners, floated majestically up from inside the fence. It stymied the "pirates" completely, and furthermore was guarded by three tough-looking customers employed by the trust.
Enter The Black Sedan!
It looked like the end. The frustrated outsiders tried air rifles on the balloon's tough hide. They tried rocks and darts. The crowd turned its attention to the cricket game and the plotters retired to plot.

PECORA BURIES HATCHET, GIVES PROXY TO FOE

Chairman Kennedy Is Cited In Condemning Pools

WASHINGTON, July 16 (AP)—A proxy served as a symbol of peace today within the securities and exchange commission, which rules the stock markets.
Commissioner Ferdinand Pecora, it became known, has given his proxy to Chairman Joseph F. Kennedy, permitting Kennedy to vote for him in several commission meetings.
Thus, renewed reports of a feud between the two men were buried. The disclosure followed another attack on a stock market pool in which Kennedy, former financier, profited about a year ago.
The senate banking committee, for which Pecora acted as counsel in a sensational inquiry into Wall Street, published the first chapter of its report last night. Condemning pools, it cited as an example the one in which Kennedy figured.
Pecora brought out evidence about this pool several months ago. It was reported to be the basis of his objections to Kennedy's selection to head the regulatory commission. The pool was in the shares of the Liberty-Crown-Ford Glass company, then known as the "Liberty" stock, and Pecora found that its member made $395,000. Such pools are now prohibited.

HOUSTON DOCK BATTLE FATAL TO 3 NEGROES

LONGSHOREMEN UNION MEMBERS FIRE INTO TRUCK

HOUSTON, July 16 (AP)—A troubled day settled over the Houston docks today after three longshoremen were killed and another wounded in a waterfront gunfight with marked renewal of longshore hostilities.

Police continued a close watch over the docks while hearings for two men charged in three cases with murder and assault to murder were arranged.

Yesterday's outbreak occurred as 20 negro independent longshoremen were riding to work at the docks. A couple, which police believed contained International Longshoremen association members and sympathizers, drew alongside.

Pistols and shotguns were shoved from the couple and a stream of lead poured into the negroes' truck and automobile. Three independents were shot down with fatal wounds. Three others were struck.

One negro independent jerked out a pistol and returned the fire, wounding C. O. Reeves, a white man and union longshoreman. The negro's pistol fire was cut short when a bullet felled him.

Those killed were Frank Rowland and Jim Barnes, riding in a sedan which followed the truck, and Geo. Hary, riding in the truck. Geo. Henry, another occupant of the truck, received injuries which physicians said would prove fatal.

Reeves, taken to a hospital, was charged in three murder and assault to murder cases. S. P. Brown, a negro said to have been riding in the rattle seat of the coupe, and H. J. Freeman, white union dock worker, surrendered to authorities and were placed under similar charges.

The killings marked the most serious of a series of outbreaks since trouble started weeks ago between ship operators and dock hands at all Texas gulf ports and Lake Charles, La. All but three ship operators came to terms with union men after a prolonged strike. The continued use of independents by three coastwise operators have been the cause of sporadic disturbances.

Many Cafes In San Francisco Forced To Close

By The Associated Press.

The food situation in the San Francisco metropolitan area was estimated today to be about as follows:

There is little fresh meat, and the supply is rapidly becoming exhausted. Smoked meats, hams and bacon—which housewives have been buying heavily because such meats keep well—are about gone.

The larger hotels, which have facilities for food storage, insist that they will be able to feed "regular" guests. Patrons of smaller hostilities in some instances have filled closets in their rooms with canned foods.

Fresh meats and other necessary foodstuffs will be supplied hospitals by special dispensation of the general strike committee.

Hundreds of restaurants already have closed. Others say they will have to.

Beans, spaghetti and tinned meats were in biggest demand on the eve of the strike. Food stocks of most grocery stores were near depletion.

No interruption, at least immediately, is anticipated in the supply of milk and bread, although a stoppage of bakery deliveries was a possibility.

Supplies of butter, eggs, and sugar are so low that many grocers have limited the quantity each customer may buy. Fresh vegetables and fruits, excepting oranges, already are regarded as luxuries.

Nineteen restaurants were designated by strike leaders to remain open so downtown dwellers would not starve. All others either closed their doors or announced plans to close at 8 a. m.

SPITE MARRIAGE

By Katherine Howard Taylor

SYNOPSIS: The night before Marsha Moore has heard Geoffrey Torsion, the man she thinks she loves, introduce her to "his new Mrs. Torsion." Her life in the evening she had refused Bob Powers; after the blow she has suddenly accepted him. Her life just has coincided on her wedding day, more than a little frightened.

MARRIAGE

MISS GERTRUDE, over poached eggs, was "amazed." She opened her lips, started to speak, closed them. Marsha regarded her with her chilly, regal eyes.

"Married at noon, you say?" asked Aunt Gertrude, after a gasp. "Yes."

"I wish I could be more certain, Marsha, that it is wise and kind for you to marry a good man—"

"Perhaps he isn't as good as he seems," Marsha answered. "We can always share that hope. No thank you, Alice, I'll take nothing, I think."

"Are you leaving town? Where are you going for your—ah—"

"Honey-moon, Aunt," put in Marsha; she added, "frightful word, isn't it, for a maiden lady who indulges in a certain sort of imagination?"

"Miss Gertrude bridled; grew rigid. "I'll rather miss heckling you, dear," Marsha admitted. She rose then, with a murmured plea to be excused. She had her backing to do and she was quite through with her breakfast, which had consisted of two cups of black coffee. She was not nervous, nor excited, she assured herself, but the thought of food and trying to eat it had made her feel "odd."

"Jean will help you," said Miss Gertrude.

"Why, thank you," said Marsha. She looked her surprise. Alone, Miss Gertrude, who usually ate methodically and steadily of her substantial first meal, sat motionless for some long minutes.

She wished, for the first time, that her relation with her niece had differed. "I am not to blame! I was never to blame!" she said aloud, to the amusement of Alice who entered the room at that moment. She had had Miss Gertrude's momentary snarl and as her friends agreed, a momentary task in the rearing of her niece. "No one could have done more!" she thought. "No one!"

YET the strange feeling of hollowness that filled her prevailed, and despite her strong certainty that she had never for one second been at fault in any difference that had been between her and her niece.

She dawdled over her eating. Alice watched her covertly and anxiously; she knew her mistress' obedience to hour and to the conduct it required.

Marsha, in her room decided to wear the Polret gray; Jean was packing her trunks and over-night bag. She had always hated her sleeping room, which had been inflexibly and awkwardly arranged by Miss Gertrude, who had said, "No arrangement that I make in my house, of my furniture, shall ever, while I live, be varied!"

But looking around the room, Marsha had from it a sense of safety, for, even though you started disillusioned, marriage was a voyage which took you—no one knew where!

She did not even know where she was going physically with Bob when he was her husband. He had said, the night before: "You want Doctor James to marry me?"

And she had said, "if you don't mind," at which he had laughed that full, short laugh which sets a heart over-brimming with happiness and to which he had said, "I don't think, my dear, I shall mind marrying you very much!"

Then, to his question of where she wanted to go she had answered shyly that she cared and he had offered to arrange the matter entirely, if she would like.

Dressed, she stood before a long mirror. She looked as well as she ever had in spite of the long, wakeful night; pallor and shadowed eyes heightened her beauty rather than diminished it.

Well, she was ready for it; the definite step she was taking. And again she stilled, untried wings of her new soul stretched. "I must keep it from hurting him!" she thought fervently. "It must not hurt him!"

Miss Gertrude appeared at the door. "It is time we leave," she said.

DOCTOR JAMES said, "But of course you want to be married in the church!" Marsha found it well," he said to Bob; "I have known her long and I know."

"That is nonsense and like you!" said Marsha.

"You must never imply that your 'dear man lies.'" Doctor James protested, "and I didn't happen to, this time!"

Then the sunlight and the open, and Bob's car—with her bags in the hold. And saying goodbye to his mother and to Miss Gertrude who seemed very angry because she wanted to cry without knowing why, or how. And then the start.

She hoped he wouldn't even try to touch her hand; thank heaven he was driving; she shrank in her corner of the car.

He said, after an understanding side glance at her, "Rather decent day—"

She nodded.

"I like you Doctor James."

"Isn't he—dear?" she answered; she was feeling a little better.

Tomorrow, Bob has a surprise for Marsha

More than that, he was a prophet deserving to be heard. Almost from the time he entered the senate back in 1907, Borah, the arch isolationist, has raised his voice to warn America to live her own life and not mix in with the affairs of other nations.

In Prophetic Strain

Many of the things he has prophesied had materialized when he made his address. America's public and private debts are being repudiated on a wholesale basis.

"During the last 20 years we have sent nearly $40,000,000,000 of American taxpayer's money to Europe," he declared.

He found himself, on the night of July 4 as a prophet, who had foretold successfully, preparing to prophesy what the future had in store.

The Borah Method

It is significant, perhaps, that Borah launched his one-man campaign after the issues for the com-

PORTLAND ALSO THREATENED BY GENERAL STRIKE

Johnson Unheeded As Unions Speed Walkout

PORTLAND, Ore., July 16 (AP)—The militant voice of General Hugh S. Johnson, NEA administrator, pleaded for peaceful arbitration of the Pacific coast waterfront controversy which today threatened to engulf Portland in a general strike as it has the San Francisco bay region.

While General Johnson prepared to fly to San Francisco today, the policy committee of Portland unions sped plans to call a general strike Wednesday.

It was reported 60 unions had voted to strike. Only agreement of employers to attribute differences with maritime unions, recently refused in San Francisco, union leaders said, would avert a strike.

Gasoline supplies were exhausted and food supplies dwindled as Portlanders prepared themselves for a mass walk-out even as Johnson spoke publicly yesterday.

He found it "beyond comprehension" that the coast strike could "last 24 hours longer" if workers and employers would join in sincere and unreserved arbitration.

He expressed the opinion that the difficulty centered in the circumstance that the shipping industry has no code and hence labor does not have the benefit of the "section-A" of the general NEA code.

American spokesman of the bureau smiled as he said "I have been especially requested to clarify section 7-T." "I always thought it was clear as words can make it."

He said the specific question put to him was whether section 7-A "requires or forbids a closed shop contract."

"It does neither," General Johnson explained, "and a closed shop contract under a code would not be illegal, but in the opinion of Donald Richberg, our general counsel, and in my opinion, when an employer attempts to enforce his closed shop agreement by requiring as a condition of employment that a man join a particular union not of that man's choosing, the employer would be that act violating section 7-A."

The general mentioned that "in saying this I am just interpreting the written words of that statute and I am not expressing any opinion on the merits of closed shop agreements."

Foreclosures On Farms Are Few

During the last year, the number of farms owners sought to have federal land banks and subject to redemption by the borrower increased less than 5 per cent, whereas during the calendar year of 1931 the number increased approximately 50 per cent and in 1932 another 60 per cent.

The policy of the Farm Credit administration," stated Governor Myers, "is not to foreclose upon any borrower except when his honest best to meet his obligations, who is making proper application of his income, if any, after meeting necessary living expenses, and who is adequately caring for his security."

"Many of the farms acquired are deeded voluntarily to the banks by their owners, or as a result of foreclosure upon farms which have been abandoned by their owners."

"The number of farms now owned by the land banks or held by them subject to redemption by the borrower totals 22,978. These farms are deeded to the banks by the borrower or as a result of foreclosure upon farms which have been abandoned by their owners."

HOLLYWOOD SIGHTS AND SOUNDS

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—Now that the air is filled with all this talk of movie reform, it's an ideal moment to gaze upon Grant Withers, screen idol of yesterday, who is waving a personal banner of self-elevation as he trudges hopefully up the comeback trail.

Withers, about five years ago a star, is telling the world that he's a changed man. He also is telling the world that he owes it all to his bride, the former Alice Walsh, Cleveland society girl.

Grant Withers in those old days, he will tell you, was no great shakes. He was a fellow. He was a police reporter on a downtown newspaper when he listened to the you-ought-to-try-pictures talk. He tried them and got $25 for one day of sitting on a set. That was his weekly salary on the paper. He thought acting would be right in his line.

A Quick Rise
 So he became an extra, and was slowly starving, when a scout called him into a studio. The upshot was a quick rise to stardom and parts in practically every picture Warner Bros. produced.

In three or four years he had made about $300,000, had eloped with Loretta Young, and had built up a considerable fan following. He emerged at the end without a contract, without wife—and without a dime, thanks to free spending and a couple of bank failures.

"I made money fast," he says "and I had no sense whatever. I got me a reputation."

"Now I never drank during a picture, I was never late on the set, I was Johnny-on-the-spot whenever I was working. But when pictures came—I had an unfortunate faculty for bumping into exactly the wrong people at exactly the wrong time. If I was drinking, I'd meet Jack Warner, Darryl Zanuck and Hal Wallis" (the Warner triumvirate of the time) "all together—not one of them but all three!"

Marriage License On Wall
 So our hero found himself eased out of Hollywood. He got a Hollywood concession at the Chicago Fair, made some money, and eloped again—this time with the wonder-working Alice.

It must be a success. The marriage certificate, framed, occupies a place in the apartment, and in all his experience with Hollywood decorative schemes, this reporter has never met a marriage certificate, framed or unframed!

You won't see Withers' name high in the screen credits nowadays. He's supporting Buck Jones in a couple of serials, trying for other roles, and—sitting high on the water wagon—carrying a banner and chanting of marital bliss.

HOLLYWOOD—A well-loved novel, a glamorous musical, and the United States navy join in the screen parade among the new firms.

The novel is W. Somerset Maugham's "Of Human Bondage," with Leslie Howard cast in the leading role and Bette Davis offering a character portrait of the cookney waitress that vies in interest.

The picture tells the story of a lame youth, extremely sensitive over his infirmity, and hopelessly infatuated with a disagreeable, cheaply pretty girl who rides roughshod over his affections. Phillip comes through experience to despise her, but consistently is drawn back to her rescue despite numerous affronts and outrages she offers him. Kay Johnson appears briefly as Nora, and Frances Dee more importantly as Sally.

Alan Hale is seen in a character role, while three Reginalds—Denny, Owen and Sheffield—complete the cast. John Cromwell directed.

'Painless' Opera
 The musical of the week is "One Night of Love," starring Grace Moore. She portrays a youthful aspirant to opera who goes to Italy to study, and is "discovered" by the handsome maestro (Tullio Carminali) who agrees to teach her provided she will not fall in love with him as previous pupils have done.

"One Night of Love" may be rated as an introduction of grand opera to the screen, administered in painless doses. Except for two operatic stage sequences, Miss Moore's voice is heard in scenes marked by purely screen technique. The operatic selections are from "La Traviata," "Lucia di Lammermoor," "Martha," "Carmen" and "Madame Butterfly"—and therefore are calculated to carry mass appeal. Also in the cast are Lydie Talbot, Mona Barrie, Jessie Ralph and Luis Albernaz who scores in comedy. Victor Schertzinger directed.

Naval Feudists
 James Cagney and Pat O'Brien are feudists in "Here Comes the Navy," filmed with the cooperation of the national fleet. The navy makes a man of Jimmy over his objections.

He twice proves himself a hero, the second time in a spectacular air rescue of his enemy, O'Brien, who has a sister (Gloria Stuart), Frank McHugh, with a "running gag" about his mother's bad teeth, and a comedy duo, "The Three Musketeers," who are a comedy duo.

Right now he is being sought for characterizations like those he gave in "It Happened One Night," "Little Man, What Now?" and "Of Human Bondage."

Not long ago he was scarcely sought at all. He was just an "old timer" who was around Hollywood. Occasionally he was seen in small parts, not at all reminiscent of the days of his real glory. Still, Alan Hale was never a "hanger-on" in the usual sense.

"If I had not been confident there was a place for me in pic-leave his salary check unopened, week after week, to help out. He never grew bitter about it later, for the reason he thought things would "work out" in the end. He also—once he had difficulty directing for a period. Once, for 13 months, he was kept unemployed after an altercation with a studio.

"Last Done, Best Done"
 He gave up directing and went back to acting exclusively.

Once he had difficulty convincing a director he could do a dramatic scene. This was after he had been seen in a series of comedy roles. After that, it was some time before they'd let him do comedy again.

"Whatever I've done last is what I do best," he sums it up, humorously. He likes his present niche. He's playing "heavies" of a sort, villains with character and a soft spot in their hearts.

He would really like to make acting an avocation, devoting more time to stage with directing interests which are mainly scientific.

Publicity Man For Pundt Dies After Accident

DALLAS, July 16 (AP)—While John Pundt of Dallas, candidate for state railroad commissioner, lay in a Victoria hospital seriously injured, funeral services for Preston Sneed, 39, his publicity director, were planned here today.

Sneed was injured fatally in an automobile accident in which Pundt and Eugene B. Smith of Austin, Pundt's publicity director, were injured. A tire blowout caused their automobile to overturn.

Smith was burned when he rescued Sneed from the burning wreckage of the car.

Pundt, hurled 60 feet through the air, suffered a punctured lung, several fractured ribs and cuts and bruises. He has announced his intention to conduct his campaign from his bedside.

LIGHTING EQUIPMENT WILL BE INSTALLED THIS WEEK FOR NIGHT GAMES

SHAWNEE WILL PLAY 3-GAME SERIES HERE

NIGHT BASEBALL WILL OPEN HERE DURING WEEK-END

Lighting equipment for Roadrunner park was to arrive in Pampa today and installation work was to start immediately. Welding of the poles, which will rise 70 feet above the playing field has been in progress for nearly a week and should be completed tomorrow.

Park officials hope to have the poles erected, light reflectors installed and connected, and everything in readiness to open night baseball in Pampa this coming week-end. Shawnee's fast ball club has been matched to play a three-game series here. It is hoped that the lights will be installed to present night baseball some time during the series.

Shawnee's team won second place in the Oklahoma sandlot tournament the last two years and this season's team is considered stronger than teams the last two years. A stellar hurling corps is backed by some great fielders and a bunch of heavy hitters.

The Roadrunners are resting after a hard grind in the Berger tournament the last two weeks. The team played 14 games in 13 days. A number of crimples are resting for a few days and should be in good shape for the arrival of Shawnee.

It may be that some new faces will be seen in the Roadrunner lineup. It is not secret that the team management plans some drastic changes to strengthen the club. What those changes will be, are not known at the present time.

ZELL EATON BEATS GOLDMAN FOR WESTERN AMATEUR TITLE

Oklahoma City Youth Wins Championship On His Twenty-First Birthday.

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 15. (AP)—Slender Zell Eaton of Oklahoma City, who only three years ago stepped out of the caddy ranks today wore the laurels of the Western Amateur golf champion.

Eaton, the medalist, won the championship on the wind-swept Twin Hills course here yesterday on his twenty-first birthday, defeating Dave (Spee) Goldman of Dallas, 4 and 3, in the 36-hole finals of the 36th annual tournament.

It was Eaton's first major title. He has been known as Oklahoma's champion medalist but he never was able to reach the championship before.

The Oklahoma youth went out in two over par in the afternoon round to Goldman's one over par, a 36, but Eaton held his two advantage through the afternoon turn.

The new champion will attempt to qualify for the National Amateur in August.

Eaton had only one close call during the tournament. He was required to go an extra hole in the second round to defeat Leland Hamman of Waco, Tex., the Trans-Mississippi champion.

TIGERS TAKE FINAL BATTLE WITH YANKEES

GIANTS BOOST THEIR LEAD TO 2 FULL GAMES

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr., Associated Press Sports Writer.

The Detroit Tigers were resting today, it was not on top of the world at least on top of the American league, where they welcomed their first chance to draw a deep, quiet breath after battling their way up past New York.

The Tigers wound up their campaign against the Yankees with a smashing 8 to 3 triumph yesterday. Meanwhile, the New York Giants, engaged in a similar important series with the second-place Chicago Cubs, increased their lead to two full games with a 5 to 3 victory.

Schoolboy Rowe, who won the first game of the series for Detroit, again aided the Tiger cause. He worked six innings, gave eight hits, fanned six and kept all the Yankees but Lou Gehrig under control. Gehrig cracked out four straight hits.

The Giants had a somewhat tougher time and finally had to call in Carl Hubbell to replace Hal Schumacher and protect a slim lead. Mel Ott had given them when he smashed a double with two cobrins in the sixth.

Hitting hard behind Phil Collins for their fourth straight victory, the Phils downed Cincinnati 9 to 1 and moved for the first time this season up to sixth place. Their advance was aided by the Cardinals, who trimmed Brooklyn twice. The Cards won the opener 2 to 0 on Dizzy Dean's four-hit hurling, then followed up with a 6-3 triumph produced largely by Joe Medwick's two homers.

Cleveland also had a big day by walloping the senators 10 to 8 in each game of a doubleheader. Bob Johnson's 27th home run, which gave him the major league lead, and a triple scored by Johnson, Jimmie Fox and Bing Miller provided a pair of features as the Athletics walloped the cellar-dwelling White Sox 11 to 7 and 10 to 5.

Pittsburgh trounced the Boston Braves 5 to 0 when Waite Hoyt came through with a one-hit pitching performance, but ran into Ed Brandt's three-hit fling in the second and went down 4 to 0. The Boston Red Sox and St. Louis Browns slugged it out in two performances, the Sox winning the opener with a 17-hit attack, 12 to 8, an d the Browns taking the atep-rite 9 to 3.

Fenton and McShain are known as the roughest pair of middleweights in the ring game today. They have been throwing threats at each other for months but have been slow about getting in the ring together. They have finally decided that talk won't get them anywhere, and have selected Pampa as the battleground to settle their differences.

Fenton, master of the drop-kick, is expected to use that method in an attempt to subdue the wild Irishman, who is also good with his feet. Both maulers like to gouge eyes and choke. They think fists are part of the wrestling game and that ropes are made to crawl through. Fans, in their opinion, are a bunch of wyes howling for more blood.

The Irishman nearly met his match here last week. He had to resort to tricky and unorthodox grappling to defeat Speedy Brackman in a wild battle. McShain's group of admirers has not increased during the last few weeks. Fenton has about the same number.

More wild grappling is in store in the semi-final when Pat Garrison, local Irish oil man, meets the pride of Goodnight, Scotch Rob Roy. These two wild grapplers have also been hurling threats at each other, but have not met since Garrison was suspended for roughing the Scotchman about six months ago.

Roy has just returned from a trip to the west coast. He reports that he has learned a number of new tricks and that the Irishman is going to be sorry for many things tonight. Garrison is not taking the threats very seriously but he has been training hard in the last two weeks.

Big John Pafford, Pampa heavyweight, will tangle with "Big Boy" Watkins of Amarillo in the preliminary at 8:30 o'clock. Pafford has defeated all the local contending giants and is now reaching out to Amarillo for competition.

FENTON AND McSHAIN WILL MEET FIRST TIME TONIGHT

Roughest Grapplers Are On Main Event; Rob Roy and Garrison Also Matched

Wrestling fans with ringside seats have asked Pampa promoters to put barred wire around the ring for the big battle tonight at the Pla-Mor auditorium. With Danny McShain and Rod Fenton meeting, the war is likely to be all over the house.

Fenton and McShain are known as the roughest pair of middleweights in the ring game today. They have been throwing threats at each other for months but have been slow about getting in the ring together. They have finally decided that talk won't get them anywhere, and have selected Pampa as the battleground to settle their differences.

Fenton, master of the drop-kick, is expected to use that method in an attempt to subdue the wild Irishman, who is also good with his feet. Both maulers like to gouge eyes and choke. They think fists are part of the wrestling game and that ropes are made to crawl through. Fans, in their opinion, are a bunch of wyes howling for more blood.

The Irishman nearly met his match here last week. He had to resort to tricky and unorthodox grappling to defeat Speedy Brackman in a wild battle. McShain's group of admirers has not increased during the last few weeks. Fenton has about the same number.

More wild grappling is in store in the semi-final when Pat Garrison, local Irish oil man, meets the pride of Goodnight, Scotch Rob Roy. These two wild grapplers have also been hurling threats at each other, but have not met since Garrison was suspended for roughing the Scotchman about six months ago.

Roy has just returned from a trip to the west coast. He reports that he has learned a number of new tricks and that the Irishman is going to be sorry for many things tonight. Garrison is not taking the threats very seriously but he has been training hard in the last two weeks.

Big John Pafford, Pampa heavyweight, will tangle with "Big Boy" Watkins of Amarillo in the preliminary at 8:30 o'clock. Pafford has defeated all the local contending giants and is now reaching out to Amarillo for competition.

Youth Wins Public Links Championship

GALVESTON, July 16. (AP)—Halbert Grumbles, 18-year-old San Antonio sharpshooter, was en route home today with the Texas public links golf championship as the result of the 72-hole score of 302 he shot over the municipal layout here Saturday and yesterday.

Grumbles carded three 76 and a 74 to outdistance his closest rival, Lonnie Wendland, also of San Antonio and the defending champion, by nine strokes.

Lorraine Young, another San Antonian, grabbed their place from Tom Lawrence, a fellow townsman, in a playoff after they had tied with 318.

Grumbles will represent Texas in the National public links tournament at Pittsburgh, Pa., July 30 to Aug. 4.

MISSIONS WIN DOUBLEHEADER FROM TULSANS

BELL AND BUCS SPLIT TWIN BILL WITH INDIANS

By The Associated Press

The San Antonio Missions held tighter to the Texas league pinnace today after romping on Tulsa's Oilers in a twin bill, 13-3 and 9-2.

The league's leading hitting club pounded out 27 hits in the two games. Morgan gathered five hits in nine trips to the plate, while Larry Bettencourt added another homer to his big collection. Ash Hillin hung up his sixteenth victory in the opener while Earl Caldwell tamed the Oilers in the second.

Besu Bell, the loop's sensational swat leader, appeared at the plate 10 times in the twin bill Galveston split with Oklahoma City and banged out six bingles, including another homer. Galveston took the opener, 10-7, while the Indians took the extra inning second game, 7-6.

Moses, hot on Bell's heels in the hit race, made five hits in nine trips.

Another of the league's top-notch ball busters, Rudy York of Fort Worth, poked four for eight as his club, Fort Worth, dumped Houston in a twin bill, 5-3 and 7-2.

Dallas pulled up to within a half game of the first division by taking the Beaumont Exporters, 3-2 and 4-1. Gilatto and Stely were credited with the two wins.

Japan's Highest Naval Officers Meeting Today

TOKYO, July 16. (AP)—Confronted by the government's admitted intention concerning Japan's program at the 1935 naval conference, 15 of the navy's highest officers held an official but secret conference here today.

The officers declined to disclose proceedings but vernacular newspapers with a unanimity indicating official indignation said the conference agreed on fundamental policies the navy will demand the government follow in naval negotiations with other countries.

MORALS VICTIM TO TAKE STAND IN CASE TODAY

Suicide Attempt Is Failure; Poison Is Lost

LOS ANGELES, July 16. (AP)—Rested after her dramatic attempt at suicide, June Delong, film extra, faced a cross examination in the Hollywood "morals" case today by defense attorneys who seek to prove that Dave Allen and Gloria Marsh were "framed."

"It just seemed as though I could not go back into that courtroom and face Gloria," Deputy District Attorney Arthur Velch quoted Miss Delong as saying. "I was putting her in a terrible position. I was hurting her and I still love her."

She had testified before court recessed over the week-end that Allen, former head of the Central Casting corporation which handles the 17,000 extra film players for the various studios, and Miss Marsh, film extra, had participated with her in an alleged "wild party" in her apartment last April 26.

Allen and Miss Marsh are charged with violating a statute pertaining to public morals.

Miss Delong, whose hands have "doubled" in motion pictures and have been described as "the most beautiful in Hollywood," slipped away Saturday from her policeman guard and left a note indicating she planned suicide. She was found in a twin bill, 5-3 and 7-2.

Dallas pulled up to within a half game of the first division by taking the Beaumont Exporters, 3-2 and 4-1. Gilatto and Stely were credited with the two wins.

U. S. And Great Britain Suspend Naval Discussion

LONDON, July 16 (AP)—Great Britain and the United States decided today to suspend Thursday bilateral negotiations preliminary to the 1935 naval conference for the remainder of the summer.

Woman H. Davis, ambassador-at-large and other American delegates will leave Thursday for Washington.

They will return to Geneva in September for a session of the steering committee of the world disarmament conference and will come here in October to resume general naval conversations.

The Japanese delegation is expected at that time to begin talks with the British.

Hugh S. Wilson, American minister to Switzerland, is arriving today to give Davis a resume of the situation.

The decision to postpone the Anglo-American talks followed a request by Japan to Great Britain to delay their conferences until this fall.

Dispatches from Tokyo said the government was unable to reach decisions on fundamental policies to be taken at next year's treaty.

A spokesman also was quoted as saying Japan believed "certain subjects besides those properly to come before the 1935 conference" had been introduced in the British-American discussions.

Tokyo hopes to be in a position to talk things over by October, it was said.

Another Truck Strike Looming In Minneapolis

MINNEAPOLIS, July 16 (AP)—Peasemakers sought to save Minneapolis from another truck drivers' strike today as the walkout hour—midnight—approached with scant signs of an agreement.

Gov. Floyd B. Olson and E. H. Duggan, federal conciliator, awaited action from both employers and drivers on a plan for either temporary or final settlement after conferences. Dunningman's first activity today was to contact employers.

The strike leaders, claiming a "victory" in apparently ousting a threat of revolt within the union ranks yesterday, made final plans for the walkout of 4,000 or more truck men, helpers, platform workers and "inside men."

Details of the settlement proposed by Gov. Olson and Dunningman are held in secret, but it was understood to involve city market firms particularly.

Transporters and merchants acted swiftly today to fill heavy orders and supply a surplus in event the strike is averted. Gov. Olson's latest word was that he expected an agreement soon "for better or for worse" regarding his and Dunningman's plan.

"The truck drivers union is seeking higher wages and the right to represent 'inside' workers involved in trucking operations."

Illian Officers Dan Shlay Silks, HOME (AP)—Silk gab for officers in Italy's armed forces to fascists' latest patriotic effort.

But the uniforms must not shimmer in the new decree adds.

"Under the terms all officers are told that it would be 'economically patriotic' to buy those new summer uniforms and shoes in silk, provided they are opaque."

"The Italian silk industry, which has been stagnating the last few years, told the government the goods could be produced if it would allow its military officers—of whom there are thousands—to set the new style for 'the men.'"

A BENE MECE

BUTLER, Mo. (AP)—Officials have discovered in looking back over a year's records that the city could reap a harvest in fines if it could only collect.

An old law, passed in 1906, makes it unlawful to operate a motor vehicle on the public square, where hundreds of motor cars now pass daily.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, July 16 (AP)—Almost 10,000,000 bushels of wheat of the United States when visible supply in the past week acted as a drag on wheat values late today.

The increase raised the total stock of wheat at domestic terminals to within 30,000,000 bushels of the supply on hand a year ago.

The fact, too, that there had been a five day consecutive advance of prices tended also more or less to intimidate buyers for at least the time being.

Wheat closed nervous at the same as Saturday's finish to the lower, September new 98 1/2, corn 1 1/2, cent advanced, oats 1/2 off to 1/2 up, and provisions unchanged to 5 cents decline.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, July 16 (AP)—The market became easier and quieter as the morning advanced, owing to liquidation and profit-taking. The strike situation was also a disturbing influence.

October reacted to 13 1/2 and December to 13 1/2, down 9 to 11 points from the earlier highs but still 10 to 12 points above Saturday's close.

Near mid-session, the market recovered one to two points on short covering.

Indians Defeat White Deer 8-7 In 10 Innings

Miles Marbaugh pitched great ball yesterday afternoon to defeat the White Deer Bucs 8 to 7 in a 10 inning battle in White Deer. The Indians ace fanned 12 White Deer veterans and walked only four batters. He contributed two hits in five times at bat. Charlie Austin, veteran of many battles, pitched good ball for the Bucs but got away to a bad start and weakened in the final inning. He fanned four Indians and walked four. The Indians countered three times in the first inning. Ragsdale, first batter, walked and advanced on Heiskell's hit. White went out but advanced both runners who scored when Trenary connected for two bases. Kelley went out but Gregory hit safely to score Trenary. Maples scored in the second inning after walking. Two more Indians crossed the plate in the sixth when Rockwell singled, Maples walked, Marbaugh hit, and two outs. Trenary scored in the next inning after being safe on an error. The Indians won in the tenth when Maples was safe on an error and advanced when Marbaugh got his second hit. Ragsdale then clouted a single to score the winning run. White Deer scored in the first and second and went into the lead in the seventh with a four run rally. A walk, four hits and an error accounted for the runs. Marbaugh then tightened down and fanned six batters in the next three innings.

Man Dies Of Heat At Dallas Depot

DALLAS, July 16 (AP)—The second fatal heat prostration here this summer occurred today when William Nathaniel Lee, 69, veteran fireman for the Missouri-Kansas-Texas Railway company, dropped dead at Union Terminal station. Another elderly man succumbed to the heat a few days ago. Lee was just starting to climb aboard his locomotive to make his regular run to Wichita Falls when the heat affected him. He toppled over backward and was dead when workers reached him. He had been in the railway's employ for 38 years.

SECOND TRUNK VICTIM FOUND IN BRIGHTON

STUTTERING WAITER IS SOUGHT FOR BOTH SLAYINGS

BRIGHTON, Eng., July 16 (AP)—A stuttering waiter who mysteriously disappeared over the weekend was sought today for questioning in the bizarre trunk murders of two women. A woman's body, jammed double into a trunk, was found last night. In the trunk also were the head and arms of another woman, believed those from these torso found in a trunk checked at a railway station here June 15. A description of the waiter, known as "Tom Mancini", an Italian, was flashed by telegraph and telephone to police of the entire country and inquiries for him were made at French ports on the English coast. He was known to have spent a few hours late Saturday night at a Brighton dance hall after a lengthy grilling by police before the discovery of the latest body. At dawn Sunday he was seen walking toward London.

Authorities closely guarded details, but the newest body was said to be that of Violette Kaye, professional dancer who was supposed to have been filling an engagement in Paris. Although 42 Miss Kaye looked much younger, acquaintances said. She had a youthful figure. Her real name was Mrs. Violet Saunders. When the first body was discovered efforts collapsed to link it with the case of Agnes Tuferson, American lawyer missing following her marriage to Captain Ivan Porderjay in December in New York. An infant's body found in a suitcase in the same railway station a few days later also had no connection with the murder, authorities said. The body found last night was in a trunk removed from an inexpensive lodging house. A tray in it answered the exact description of one missing from the trunk in which the torso was found. Letters and blood-stained clothing in the second trunk were believed to be valuable clues.

Swanson Golf Team Captures Club Tourney

Heat meant nothing to Pampa golfers yesterday as two tournaments were played over the Country club course. A team tournament, with Art Swanson and Clarence Barrett as captains, went to the team captained by Swanson. An 18-hole medal handicap tournament was won by Bud Doucette. Local golfers were divided by two captains and following 18 holes of play, the Swanson team led 22 to 16 points. The losing team then treated the winners. Contests were close and it was not until the last few foursomes had reported that the outcome of the match would be determined. Bud Doucette shot a 78, which was a new low score, to win the handicap event. His net score was 62 strokes. Walter Warner and G. C. Austin, Sr., winner of last week's events, tied for second place with net scores of 66 strokes. Warner carded a 79 and Austin a 76. Grover Austin, Jr., gave old man par a trouncing when he turned in a score of 68 strokes for fourth place. He had to spot par to win. There were 27 players in the handicap event.

Stolen Car Is Recovered Here

City police officers recovered a stolen car four miles south of the Cleveland road yesterday morning. The car, owned by A. E. Hickman, was stolen late Saturday night from where it was parked in South Pampa. Although the keys were in the lock, the thieves were unable to start the car. It had apparently been towed the entire distance. Police investigated numerous reports of prowlers in the residential sections of the city Friday and Saturday nights. They made investigations but arrested no one.

U. S. Agent In St. Louis Kills Innocent Woman

ST. LOUIS, June 16 (AP)—A coroner's jury today found that Lear B. Reed, department of justice agent, was criminally careless in the killing of Mrs. Dese Masterson during a raid on her home and ordered that he be held for the grand jury. The verdict was returned after testimony of several witnesses that Reed, in charge of the St. Louis federal agents, led a raid on the Masterson home in belief he would find a machine gun used in the killing last May of John C. Johnson, negro state witness in a kidnaping case. Mrs. Masterson was shot fatally as she lay in bed with a nine-year-old daughter, one of her four children. Reed fired several shots through the closed door of the Masterson flat. Franklin F. Yeersley, another department of justice agent who participated in the raid, testified it was a failure after a tip from Arthur Anderson, prosecuting attorney of St. Louis county. Anderson had been told by an informer named "O'Connor", otherwise unidentified, that a man named "Jack" would be found at the Hogan street address, and that "Jack" had the machine gun, the witness related.

1,000 Strike At Kohler Factory

KOHLER, Wis., July 16. (AP)—Two men, a striker and a deputy, were injured today as some 1,000 pickets began the strike at the Kohler company factory by successfully preventing most of the employees scheduled to report for work from entering the four-block-long plant. August Miller of Kohler, a deputy sheriff, was pummeled by pickets after he used his club on Chris Lehning, 40, of Sheboygan. Brother officers rescued Miller, and Lehning was sent to a Sheboygan hospital for treatment of minor injuries to his head.

FERGUSON

(Continued from Page 1) McDonald had been an anti-prohibitionist all his life. He has been riding the same horse, holding his flag aloft all the time. The others are astride white horses, trying a chill finish. They found out that the turn prohibition law was a failure so they decided to put in with the majority. Ferguson conceded that Allred would "be second, because he is riding a prohibition plank," inferring that his candidate, McDonald, would lead the ticket in the first primary. "If it were not for Allred's prohibition support, he would be fifth or sixth," Ferguson said. "Little Tom Hunter will be about third. "You are tired of having boys for governor anyway. You remember young Dan Moody. Well, with all his faults, Dan Moody is a giant in comparison with that little rascal, Jimmie Allred." He spent considerable time defending "Fergusonism" and detailing accomplishments of his administration and those of Governor Miriam A. Ferguson. The candidates were off to a new start concentrating on the next to last week of the first campaign. Allred was working down to Central Texas. He will speak at Waco to night and come to the capital tomorrow. Edgar E. Whit of Waco is in San Antonio and Tom F. Hunter was booked for Galveston. McDonald had an afternoon date in Shamrock and a night engagement in Amarillo. Clint Small had a busy day mapped, with appearances at New Boston, Texas, and Paris. Edward K. Russell planned to speak at Denton, McKinney, and Dallas. Maury Hughes had an itinerary that would take him to Liberty, Kountze, and Beaumont. Joseph Weldon Bailey, opposing Tom Coffey for the United States senate, was in El Paso, while Connelly was in East Texas, with dates at Longview and Marshall. Clyde E. Smith, for attorney gen-

"As per our agreement," the wire message read, "am notifying you today that I do not think there is a challenger of sufficient strength at the present time that the public would support in September as an opponent for Max Baer in a title match. "Now that you have plenty of time I hope you will build up a worthy opponent who will help bring the fight game back as Max Baer has done his part." Jimmy Johnston, the garden matchmaker, immediately got busy and devised a plan to invite Steve Hamas, Primo Carners, Art Lesky and the winner of the Walter Neusel-Max Schmeling fight in Germany to form a first division of heavyweight to meet in the first of a series of elimination rounds in September outdoors. ### 92-Year Old Man At Lufkin Weds

LUFKIN, July 16 (AP)—Snow-haired G. W. Fisher laughed at old age today as he ventured forth on his honeymoon at the age of 92. Fisher, one of Lufkin's oldest residents, was married to Mrs. Minnie Tonic yesterday, the Rev. Polly Durham of the Apostolic church here performing the ceremony. It was Fisher's second marriage, his first wife having died last year. If his first wife had lived another year, they would have celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. When Fisher went to County Clerk Jesse Rannels to obtain a marriage license, the clerk asked: "Is it for your boy?" "I'm the boy who wants it," Fisher told him with a smile. Despite his years, Fisher has the appearance of a man twenty years younger. His carriage is erect, and he is extraordinarily active. He has ten children by his first marriage. He also has 35 grand-children. Mrs. A. E. Kalka of White Deer was a Pampa shopper Saturday night.

New civil suits filed included: Audie Love vs. Sheb Love et al, divorce and injunction; Nevada Dwyer vs. Harry Dowler, divorce; Nelly Scott vs. Ira Scott, divorce. Little activity was evident in justice courts during the week-end. One man was arraigned for affray in Justice W. S. Baxter's court. Four persons were taken before Justice James Todd Jr. One man is in jail following a car in which his machine struck that driven by Bob Daugherty of Pampa. The accident was west of the city. No charges had been filed this morning.

RECORD CATTLE RUN KANSAS CITY, July 16. (AP)—The year's record run of cattle at the Kansas City stockyards was reported today, caused by short pastures and a lack of stock water. About 26,000 head were received, including 6,000 head of government-purchased drought cattle from the northern states. The 20,000 market cattle were largely short-fed and grass-fattened and were forced on the market because of the drought.

Dr. and Mrs. W. Purviance and daughter, Janice, and Mrs. Purviance's sister, Mrs. Maude Hall are vacationing in Colorado and Wyoming. They will be gone two weeks. J. M. Hathaway of Mobeetie spent yesterday visiting friends in Pampa. C. P. Buckler and Oscar Dial have returned from a successful fishing trip in Colorado.

The Skelly Oil company No. 14 Viscan in section 127, block 3, LeCain completed its test for an average of 207 barrels daily. It was shot with 280 gallons from 3198 to 3290. The Magnolia Petroleum company has given a raise in wages to its employees retroactive to July 1 of this year. The raise is said to bring the hourly wage up to the highest rate the company has ever paid. Pumps are getting over $6 a day. It is apparently the intention of the Western Carbon company to keep the Wheeler county gas from going to waste as much as possible. It has filed petition to have its permit for the burning of residue gas from casing head plants renewed. It is ordered by the Railroad commission of Texas that notice be and is hereby given that the application of Western Carbon company for general of permit to maintain and operate their plants for the burning of residue casinghead gas to obtain therefrom the carbon black content, said plant located in Wheeler county, Texas, will be heard in the commission's office at Austin, at 10 o'clock a. m., July 20, 1934.

AWNING FIRE PUT OUT Two calls were answered by the Pampa fire department yesterday. The first alarm was to the J. C. Fenney store where the awning was on fire. Firemen believed a cigarette had started the fire. A fire in a truck on East Frederic street was extinguished late yesterday afternoon. The bed of the truck was on fire when the firemen arrived. Water from the booster tank was used.

Brownwood Lake Gate Is Closing

BROWNWOOD, July 16. (AP)—Workmen predicted that the flood gate of Lake Brownwood would be closed after having remained open several days as precious water gushed out. A 60-foot iron pipe, slammed on top of the gate by an engine, was slowly closing the date. The gate was opened July 27 to permit the flow of water down the Colorado river to the famished rice fields of Wharton and Matagorda counties. One regiment of infantry, the 185th from southern California, and part of the 143rd field artillery from the bay district and Sacramento valley, with special divisional units, moved out, leaving the camp empty of soldiers. In addition, 500 field artillerymen were concentrated at San Luis Obispo ready to be sent where needed. The motorized artillerymen will act as truck escorts.

Tanks were loaded on railroad flat cars at Salinas and sped on their way to the "battlefronts." The state has 7,000 troops at its command and a regular army officer here said he believed the soldiers would be able to take care of the situation.

AUTRY FUNERAL HELD Funeral services for the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Autry were to be conducted this afternoon at the Stephenson Mortuary. Burial was to follow in Fairview cemetery. Surviving the child are the parents and two sisters, Janamo and Jarlene and one brother, Paul Eddie.
