

MOFFETT SAYS HOUSING AGENCY WILL SPEND 500 MILLIONS BY NEXT FALL

REPAIR PHASE DUE TO START IMMEDIATELY

CLAIMS FIVE MILLION MEN WILL GET JOBS

WASHINGTON, July 7. (AP)—James A. Moffett took over the post of housing administrator today with the frank and smiling assertion: "I don't know much about this job but I think I'll learn."

A week's intensive study of the housing act convinced him the home modernization and repair phase of the program can be put into operation without delay.

"And as far as I am concerned," he said, "a minor job like painting a fence comes under the head of repair and renovation."

Moffett, youthful in appearance and ruddy of face, said he had no idea he would be offered any government post until last Saturday.

"I was getting ready for a game of golf when the call came," he said. "And to my way of thinking, such an offer is a command. I'm willing to do anything I can to help out."

Moffett, vice president of the Standard Oil company of California, said he had spent the week since his appointment in studying the law.

"We hope," he said, "to see about $500,000,000 put into home renovation and repair by next fall and that ultimately the housing legislation will result in the employment of 5,000,000 men. I intend to stay here continuously until the modernization feature of the plan is in operation."

This part of the program authorizes government backing up to 20 per cent of private loans for home modernization and repair. If a bank, for example, lends $50,000 for modernization, the government will guarantee there will be no loss on $10,000.

Moffett said there was no complicated mechanism and that a home-owner who needed money for repairs or additions would ask a building and loan association, a bank or another financial agency for a loan.

Motorists Who Change Numbers To Get 'Limit'

Changing of numbers on tickets given for over-parking and going them on other cars is being to draw a much heavier fine than the penalty of just over-parking. Chief of Police Art Hurst announced yesterday. Several innocent motorists have called at the police station and shown where the numbers on the summons had been tampered with.

Persons making a practice of changing the slips may just as well learn now that the police have a duplicate slip and they compare the numbers daily. The names of the car owners who have already changed numbers are known to the police.

Parking in the main business section was much easier yesterday because of the two-hour limit. Many persons have yet to learn to obey the parking ordinance. The police have given out more than 50 tickets during the two hours the ordinance has been in effect.

Building Is Slow Despite Demands For Houses Here

Building in Pampa continues at a low ebb, although a number of houses are being moved in and others enlarged or repaired.

Building permits amounted to $6,900 last month, according to the report of the city building inspector. Undoubtedly not all builders obtained permits as the law requires, especially in instances involving no inspection.

Meanwhile, the demand for houses continues urgent. Several persons today are advertising in THE NEWS for houses. Many others called to ask if any houses for rent would be advertised Sunday. Often those who make inquiries would pay handsomely for information leading them to a desirable house for rent.

With the postoffice completed and the new home of the Cullum Motor company nearing completion, a building program will be much needed to provide employment for craftsmen. Lack of capital continues to explain the house shortage. Federal home loan plans are being closely followed in the hope that credit may be eased in the building industry.

'Back To Constitution,' Is War Cry Of G.O.P. On Party Birthday

DOCUMENT IS EMASCULATED OVER CRITICS

DEMOCRATIC POLICIES ROUNDLY SCORED BY REPUBLICANS

JACKSON, Mich., July 7. (AP)—Sounding the drums of the coming election wars, two leaders of the republican party—Henry P. Fletcher, chairman of the national committee, and Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg, today charged the democratic administration with taking steps toward "emasculatation of the constitution."

Similarly, Hanford MacNider, former United States minister to Canada, in an address yesterday, charged the constitution was "being undermined." Other republicans attending a celebration here of the 80th anniversary of the birth of their party, in remarks today left no doubt one of the war cries of the coming campaign will be "back to the constitution."

Chairman Fletcher and Senator Vandenberg assailed the democratic administration for the establishment of what they termed a "bureaucracy" and for a fiscal policy which they said was setting up a huge debt that ultimately must be paid "by taxation or repudiation."

Budget Hearing To Be Held by Court in August

Gray county commissioners will study county construction projects and handle routine business when they meet in regular session tomorrow.

Next month they will consider the budget for next year. A public hearing on the tentative budget must be held between August 13 and the time of the levying of taxes.

Machinery for placing caliche on the Pampa-McLean road is being moved to a new location about eight miles north of McLean and several miles west. Preparations are nearing completion for beginning of work on this end of the road project.

Stallion May Be Asked for Pampa Area's Stockmen

If there is enough interest in the Pampa territory, efforts will be made to obtain a stallion jack here for service to stockmen of the area.

Proceeds of pari mutuel betting at the Texas race tracks are being used to place these animals in various parts of the state for the purpose of improving the breeding stock. Some stockmen believe that there is enough interest in breeding of saddle horses to justify an application for a registered stallion.

Others believe that there is more interest in raising mules. Service would be on the basis of a small fee to pay the animal's board bills.

The state agriculture commissioner has charge of assigning the animals. According to the last federal census, Gray county had 2,215 horses and 1,142 mules.

"Unbecoming"

Charged with "conduct unbecoming an officer and gentleman" Capt. Harold K. Coulter, top photo, faced a court-martial at Fort Sam Houston, near San Antonio, the accusation growing out of parties held at the mansion of Mrs. Alice T. Morgan, below, wealthy divorcee. Coulter is a noted polo star. Conviction carried with it mandatory dismissal from the army service.

PAMPA SECTION SHIPS 450 CARS OF 1934 WHEAT

Harvest Nearing End And Plowing Begins

Only a rough estimate of the wheat yield in the Pampa area can be given this year because of the uncertain amount being held in farm granaries. Farmers believe the price of wheat will advance later in the year and, as a result, sold only enough to cover their expenses.

Elevator men in this area do not believe the yield will reach 1,000,000 bushels. Between 600,000 and 700,000 bushels have been shipped in 450 cars from Pampa, Kingsmill, Heaton and Hoover. The rest of the estimated yield is in storage.

Elevators this year were not allowed to store wheat. Only bonded and insured concerns could store crops and that plan was not popular with grain growers in this area.

More cars of grain were shipped from Kingsmill than went from Pampa. The best yield was south and west of Kingsmill, although fields north of Pampa, and a few fields east of the city, had good yields. The county average has been estimated at between 8 and 9 bushels to the acre.

Half southwest of Pampa in the Hopkins and Jericho communities damaged more than 20,000 acres of wheat a few weeks before cutting time. Total damage was reported north of Groom.

Most of the cutting in this area has been completed and plowing is in full swing. A few scattered farmers are still harvesting.

Row crops need rain badly, farmers report. Ground is also reported dry for plowing.

AMARILLO, July 7. (AP)—Approximately 13,600,000 bushels of the 1934 Panhandle-Plains wheat crop was moved to market and storage.

AMERICAN SAILORS BATTLE FRENCH

28 INJURED IN 'SHORE LEAVE' ALONG RIVERIA

NAVY DEPARTMENT IN DENIAL DAMAGE WAS GREAT

NICE, France, July 7. (AP)—United States sailors and marines stroled along the Riviera tonight under a pledge to "be good" and not repeat the outbreaks of last night in which 28 persons were injured.

To make certain the promise was not broken a double shore patrol was on duty from the two American battleships, the Arkansas and Wyoming, which lie in Ville Franche harbor.

The shore leave for small groups was a reversal of the first policy following the fight.

After the sailors injured and arrested in last night's fight had been turned over to naval authorities, all shore leave was cancelled.

This afternoon, however, naval and police authorities met with the American consul here and all decided that it would be unfair to punish the crews for the misdeeds of their comrades.

The fights broke out in several cafes at once, and were quelled only after naval patrols came to the assistance of the Nice police.

The damage was estimated at 25,000 francs ($1,625), and will now become the subject of a new international claims board.

WASHINGTON, July 7. (AP)—The navy department tonight received an official message from the battleship Wyoming asserting that reports of the improper involving American seamen and civilians at Nice, France, were "grossly exaggerated."

The dispatch stated that the fight in which sailors from the Wyoming and Arkansas had taken part centered in one cafe and that the bill submitted by the owner was for only $115.

The owner's estimate of how much it would take to repair the damage the dispatch added, was "considerably over-valued."

The report stated that only five seamen were hurt, four suffering minor lacerations and one a gunshot wound in the chin. The sailor was shot, it was stated, when he failed to recognize a plain-clothes policeman and resented what he took to be "interference."

GRID TEACHERS NAMED GREENVILLE, July 7. (AP)—Dr. C. W. Spears, coach at the University of Wisconsin and Jack Meagher, coach at Alabama Poly, will have charge of instructions August 13-18, inclusive, when members of the Texas high school coaches association hold their annual meeting at San Antonio.

Coach Henry Fruka, coach of the Greenville Lions, 1934 Texas Interscholastic league football champions, announced today the signing of Spears and Meagher. Fruka is president of the association.

UNIONS BACK RIOTERS Heat Enfeebles Rockefeller

John D. Sr., Is Celebrating His 95th Birthday Today And Health Is Fair.

LAKEWOOD, N. J., July 7. (AP)—John D. Rockefeller comes to his 95th birthday anniversary tomorrow in health as good as anyone may reasonably expect, although the heat has enfeebled him to such an extent that even those close to him have marked its effects.

For that reason it is expected the celebration of his birthday will be even more quiet than usual this year.

Tomorrow will be the first time in 15 years that the aged capitalist has been absent from his estate near Tarrytown, N. Y., on his birthday.

CONNALLY WILL SPEAK IN CITY NEXT THURSDAY

U. S. Senator Helped County Obtain Relief

Senator Tom Connally will speak in Pampa Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, friends here were notified last night. The place where Mr. Connally will address the voters of this section will be announced later.

The senator has been friendly and helpful to Pampa and Gray county in the past and his friends urge every voter to hear him talk.

Senator Connally took a great interest in Gray county's plea to be given drought relief.

JUDGE FRANK ELSTON DIES IN PANHANDLE

Pioneer Teacher, Surveyor And Editor Succumbs of Illness of Three Weeks.

PANHANDLE, July 7. (Special)—Frank ("Fes") Elston, 68, county judge of Carson county for the last four years, died of an intestinal disorder at his home here at 11 o'clock Friday night after an illness of three weeks.

Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in Panhandle. Burial will follow in Panhandle cemetery.

Judge Elston, since he came to Panhandle from Indiana in 1898, had been one of the first teachers of the Panhandle school editor of the Panhandle Herald, county surveyor, and county judge. He was known and loved by many residents over the Panhandle.

He was president of the first school board after the independent school district was organized. He taught scores of citizens now living in the Panhandle, many of whom have grand-children.

Judge Elston was imported to teach the little one-teacher school at Panhandle, then known as the "Academy" in 1898, because his reputation was such that exasperated parents of school "toughs," who had "run out" all previous teachers before the terms closed, had reason to believe Mr. Elston would maintain order. He taught the school six years, and has since

School Buses to Be Driven From Indiana Plant

Pampa will be advertised when two big GMC school buses are driven through from Richmond, Ind., this week.

Large placards telling about Pampa were provided by the Board of City Development to be placed in the windows of the buses. J. M. Daugherty and Roy McMillen, members of the school board, and Joe Shelton, superintendent of buses, left yesterday by train to go to the factory.

The buses will carry passengers and will likely be the largest in the Panhandle. They will replace the obsolete Model T. Bus and the athletic association bus which was lent to the board last year when there was a shortage of buses.

Will Rogers and Family Going to Japan on July 21

LOS ANGELES, July 7. (AP)—Wise cracking and smiling, Will Rogers, film actor and writer, obtained today a renewal of the passport for himself, Mrs. Rogers and their two sons, James and Will, Jr. He said they would leave July 21 on an extended trip to Japan, Russia, Scandinavian countries and Germany.

After the passport renewal blanks were filled out, Rogers was asked to raise his hand and swear to uphold the constitution of the United States.

Winking, as he held his right hand, Rogers told the clerk, "well all I know is what I read, but I sure thought they had done away with the constitution by this time."

F. D. R. Promises Islands New Deal

ST. THOMAS, Virgin Islands, July 7. (AP)—President Roosevelt's 10,000-mile vacation cruise late today brought him to this gaily decorated and excited city.

After stepping off the Cruiser Houston, which brought him from Puerto Rico, the president watched a parade of Virgin Islanders. His "reviewing stand" was a hillside dominated by an ancient fortification.

President Roosevelt told Puerto Rico today it will get its "new deal" by the same methods used in the United States, but warned that rehabilitation takes a long time.

The president broadcast his message from the governor's palace after conferences in which he agreed to a program of rehabilitation.

VON PAPAN IS STILL HOLDING ON TO OFFICE

HITLER LEAVES BERLIN FOR RETREAT IN BAVARIA

By LOUIS P. LOCHNER
(Copyright, 1934, by The Associated Press)

BERLIN, July 7.—Adolf Hitler called for peace and quiet and offered a political truce today after the most turbulent week of the Nazi regime.

The chancellor set an example of outward calmness for the German people by leaving Berlin and going to his retreat in the Bavarian Alps, at least for the week-end.

Sub leaders, who helped Hitler break up revolt with firing squads a week ago today, also were reported resting.

Vice Chancellor Franz Von Papen, whose position has not yet been clarified, was smiling when he visited in his home today.

"My plans are not yet complete," said the aristocratic friend of President Paul von Hindenburg. "Everything is still unsettled."

The political truce leaves him Vice Chancellor, free to come and go as he wishes, although his house still is guarded presumably to protect him from hot-blooded Nazis.

The government still is on the alert, the propaganda ministry indicated, for any sign of renewed efforts of dissident elements to overthrow the Hitler regime.

Activities of secret police will continue through the "truce," which if carried out as planned means that no major change can be made during July.

The cabinet, which rules Germany by legislation as well as executive body, will have no meetings during the month, it was stated at the chancellor's office.

To the storm troopers, among whose leaders the revolt developed, Nazi party leaders issued a carefully worded statement assuring them the troops and the party belong to each other and cannot be separated.

Many of the 2,000,000 men in the organization, vacationing under orders not to wear uniforms, face the prospect of being shoved aside in the reorganization underway as a result of the executions among their former leaders.

The belief persists that not more than 20 per cent of the full number will go back to duty, despite the numerous official efforts to reassure the men.

New accounts continued to be received of the stirring incidents of last week and when Hitler and his aides swept Nazis from high places to "traitors' graves."

Residents of Bad Wiessee, near Munich, told of Hitler shouting loudly and angrily as he moved against Ernst Rohm, supreme commander of the storm troopers.

Outwardly everything in Germany was calm, but there was still a heavy undercurrent of speculation about the future.

Among the men shot down mercilessly under Hitler's orders were those of whom he said in this correspondent March 29, "the world has never seen a more beautiful example of blind devotion than that given by my associates. It would be an insult to question their loyalty."

ULYSSES S. GRANT (18th president): "Hold fast to the Bible as the sheet anchor of your liberties; write its precepts in your hearts, and practice them in your lives. To the influence of this Book, we are indebted for all of the progress made in true civilization, and to this we must look as our guide in the future."

HE LEADETH ME: I will bring the blind by a way that they know not; I will lead them in paths they have not known; I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight. These things will I do unto them, and not forsake them. Isaiah 42:16.

REORGANIZATION of the methods and effectiveness of the police department will be very welcome to citizens as a group if it is consistent and sustained. It does not reflect credit on officers, prosecutors, and the citizenship generally that the so-called "joints" have been allowed to multiply, to sell hard liquor openly, and to become assembling places for the roughest elements of the oil fields.

Basically, we, the people, have deserved much of the blame for being indifferent. But this fact has been used as an excuse for official laxity in high places and among peace officers who, respecting their oaths, ought to be leaders for civic morality. Yet we concede that public cooperation is necessary to make any officer's work effective. A conscientious officer could get that kind of support now.

The situation requires no gaudy muck-raking, but it does require the kind of pressure which turns the tide toward law enforcement. It is more than a question of the present. If the community's young folk associate with the toughs who assemble in all "easy" towns, if liquor flows freely and vice follows as an inevitable consequence, there will come a time when the community will rise and take drastic action. By that time, many a mother's son will be in jail and many a daughter will have a "past." The time to be firm is now.

There are those who say "it can't be done." The same thing was said of the carnival evil, yet we submit that only a bit of backbone stiffening and courage was necessary to convince the carnival manager that his "no chance" games were not desired.

It has been very apparent that the city was not properly officered at night. Prompt answers to calls for deputies or policemen were impossible. If a Pampa woman, for instance, saw a prowler and called an officer, she could not expect the instant action needed and expected. Part of the explanation lay in the fact that there were too few officers on duty. Moreover, officers out on "tours" had no way of knowing they were wanted. Pampa may be too small for a police radio system, but there are other ways of summoning officers.

Fundamentally, the responsibility for policing the city rests with the police department. Although the county officers spend much of their time here, they are supposed to serve the entire county. It has long been our opinion that there are too many sets of peace officers. In Pampa today are deputies, constables, deputy constables, policemen, night-watchmen, a special ranger, and special officers for the railroad. Yet there have been instances at night when no officer was available on short notice.

Furthermore, while many officers have said that men with criminal records were regularly "making" the oil fields of the county—some of them "wanted"—and that some of them have remained here a week or more, there has been no well-organized system of spotting suspected men, fingerprinting them, and giving officers elsewhere the cooperation needed to make vital arrests. A fingerprinting policy does as much as any other activity to discourage toughs from congregating in a city. Let the word get out that a city the size of Pampa is "fingerprinting" to visiting offenders and you have extended an invitation which ultimately will cause trouble. Fingerprinting is far more than hunting for prints after a crime. As a policy, it enables the federal bureau of identification to keep on the trail of suspicious characters.

As a matter of routine, men fingerprinted here are reported to Washington, D. C., where the bureau headed by Edgar Hoover rushes back within 24 hours a full report on the man suspected. This report may prove a perfect alibi, in which case city or county expense is saved. It may break down a fake alibi and secure a confession. It may show that the man is wanted somewhere for murder, robbery, or other crime. Recently a man arrested locally in the theater robbery claimed to have never before committed a crime. His fingerprint code, wired to Washington, brought the information that he was a man with a long criminal record, including murder. Fingerprinting is an exact science. An expert can send code data in a short telegram with which Washington experts can identify the man held—if he has previously been fingerprinted.

In identification, fingerprinting is the answer to the complexities of law enforcement imposed by our vast population, fast transportation, and other scientific advances. Cooperation with Edgar Hoover is one of the least expensive services which Pampa could give the cause of law enforcement.

Pampa needs a new deal in law enforcement methods. The cost will not be prohibitive. If it is necessary to change the personnel a bit to get the skill needed, that change will be justified. It is to be expected that the city will continue in the direction it has started.

OUT OUR WAY By WILLIAMS

Loadings announced by the three railroads serving the territory totaled 8,267 cars, averaging 1,500 bushels each. All grain dealers reported that much of the crop is being held on the farms, some estimating that from 40 to 50 per cent of the wheat is still in storage. The harvest will be practically over by July 10, at a date when in former years the peak was just being reached. Because of dry, hot weather the harvest is being completed at least three weeks earlier than normal.
The bulk of the crop has been shipped from points served by the Santa Fe. That line reported 5,691 cars loaded from Texas points as follows: 2,598 from Canyon south and east of Farwell; 1,802 from Higgins to Farwell, and 1,291 from the Spearman district. At the same date last year, the Santa Fe had loaded 2,292 cars.
Most of the Fort Worth and Denver loadings, totaling 1,715 cars, were on the South Plains line east of Childress to Silverton, Dimmitt, Plainview and Lubbock. Not a single car was shipped from the territory between Amarillo and Dalhart, an area which in normal years loads from 800 to 1,000 cars.
The Rock Island reported 1,450 cars loaded on its lines between the Oklahoma-Texas boundary and Tucumcari, N. M., between Tucumcari and Liberal, Kas., and between Amarillo and Liberal. Of the total it was estimated that at least 1,200 cars were of Texas wheat.

WHEELER COUNTY'S BIG WELLS ARE SETTING PRODUCTION PACE

TEXAS COMPANY'S KELLER IS INCREASING FLOW—DERRICK PRODUCER NEARBY IS LARGE

Field Extension Is Another Feature Of Last Week

By GEORGE L. GUTHRIE, Consulting Geologist, Combs-Worley Bldg.

Gray county led Wheeler in the number of completions and new locations for the last week, although Wheeler led in the number of barrels for its new wells. Christie and Hickman's number 2 D'Spain in section 52 block 24 Wheeler county has completed its test but the actual figures are not available due to the lack of tank strappings. It is estimated to make close to 2,000 barrels. The 1 1/2" gas from the granite was at 236-311.

The Bell Oil and Gas No. 3 D'Spain in section 52, block 24, completed its test for an average of 880.8 barrels daily. The total depth was 2362, with pay from 2320 to 2345. It was shot with 80 quarts from 2330-60.

The Texas company's No. 1 Carville completed its test in section 51, block 24, for an average of 142 barrels per day. The total depth was 2510. It showed an increase in oil from 2475-85.

There were four completions in Gray county for the week. The Dixon Creek and Hopkins No. 1 Barrett in section 127, block 3, I&GN, averaged 390 barrels on its five-day test.

The pay was from 3245-70. It was shot with 230 quarts and was the best well for Gray county this week. The Skelly Oil company's No. 5 Heaston in section 164, block 3, I&GN, averaged 90 barrels in testing five days. The total depth is 3308.

The Texas company's No. 3 Barrett in section 130 block 3, I&GN, averaged 40 barrels daily on its five-day test. The top of the pay was 3120.

Tharp and Dawson No. 1 Hood in section 33, block 3, I&GN, was completed for an average of 108 barrels on its railroad commission test. In Moore county, the Phillips Petroleum company completed its

No. 1 Flynn in section 179, block 3-T, for 100 million cubic feet of gas. The total depth is 3118.

New Locations
Gray county scored three new locations in Wheeler county's one. The Texas company located its No. 2-E Key 400 feet from the west line and 124.65 from the north line of the northwest quarter of section 1, block B&B, Gray county.

The Dixon Creek Oil and Refining company located its No. 10 Archer 330 feet from the south line and 660 feet from the east line of the northwest quarter of section 139, block 3, I&GN, Gray county.

In Wheeler county, Christie and Hickman located its No. 3, D'Spain 230 feet from the south line and 630 feet from the east line of the southwest quarter of section 52, block 24.

BRINGING THEM IN
Wheeler County
About the biggest news in the hot spot of Wheeler county was the extension proven to the field when the Burch well in section 45, block 24, was drilled in. The top of the pay was hit at 2443 and the well was shut down until last Friday. Whether it will drill to the deeper pay confirmed by the Fain McGahee well in section 37 which was a rotary hole drilled a few years ago is still a question. Last reports made before the well had reached the bottom of the pay indicated about a 250 barrel well when completed. This well not only confirms an extension of about 2 miles to the hot spot area but also shows from a much needed log in that area that the producing area will be over six locations wide at the least.

The Texas company's No. 1 Keller in the township of Keller, Gray county, came in making 48 barrels an hour and was drilled deeper. It is making 75 barrels an hour.

The Oil Fuel company's No. 1 Derrick came in yesterday making 35 barrels an hour. It was reported making 425 barrels an hour yesterday and 25 million cubic feet of gas.

The Alma Oil company is still drilling after a good show of oil found the other day.

GRAY COUNTY
Pete Hoffman's No. 4 Finley in section 17, B. E. Chaney survey near LeFors is testing and made 560 barrels the first day of its test. The Wilcox Oil and Gas company's No. 28 Combs-Worley in section 35, block 3, I&GN, is cleaning out with a temporary potential of 1450 barrels.

The Stanolind Oil and Gas company's No. 3 Cobb 'C' in section 365, block 3, I&GN, is cleaning out with a temporary potential of 250 barrels. The total depth is 3315.

The Sun Oil company's No. 5 Purviance is going on the pump in section 61, block B-2. The total depth is 2941.

The Empire Oil and Gas company's No. 2 Culler in section 194, block 3, I&GN, was shot with 380 quarts from 3150-3300. It is cleaning out and swabs 273 barrels.

The Cambrian Oil company's No. 2 Webb in section 62, block 25, is bottomed at 2618. It was shot from 2585-2600 with 140 quarts and is cleaning out.

The Danciger Oil and Refining company's No. 1 Combs-Worley in section 39, block 3, I&GN, is going on the pump. The total depth is 3030.

The I. T. I. O. has received a temporary potential of 500 barrels while cleaning out its No. 4 Smith in section 139, block 3 I&GN.

The Magnolia Petroleum company's No. 1-E, Haggard in section 113, block 3, I&GN, swabbed an estimated 180 barrels in 13 hours.

The Skelly Oil company's No. 14 Vicars in section 127, block 3, I&GN, was bottomed at 3292 and it pumped 103 barrels the first 7 hours of its test when the rods parted.

The Skelly Oil company's No. 15 Vicars on the same lease swabbed 220 barrels in ten hours.

The Southern Petroleum Exploration company's No. 4 Baird in section 127, block 3, I&GN, is cleaning out at a total depth of 3332 feet.

The Texas company's No. 12 Faulkner in section 29 block B-2 is drilling at 2900 feet with 200 feet of oil in the hole.

The Texas company's No. 6 Harrah in section 150, block 3, I&GN, is drilling at 3230 with 700 feet of oil in the hole.

The Texas company's No. 3 Short in section 2, block 1, I&GN, swabbed 226 barrels in 26 hours.

CARSON COUNTY
The Herrogan Oil company's No. 2 McConnell in section 187, block 3, I&GN, is bottomed at 3300 and testing.

The Skelly Oil company has three wells in the pay in Carson county. Its No. 30 West Schaffer in section 87, block 4 is going on the pump at a total depth of 3120.

Skelly's No. 31 West Schaffer in the same section is cleaning out and swabbing 52 barrel a day.

Skelly's No. 32 West Schaffer in the same section is bottomed at 3119, with the pay from 3050-70 and has 200 feet of oil in the hole.

HUTCHINSON COUNTY
The Huber Petroleum company's No. 2 Weatherly in section 26, block Y is swabbing 75 barrels in 9 hours from pays at 2940-50 and 2960-80.

Reiger et al No. 1 Garner in section 20, block 21 has a temporary potential of 450 barrels.

Drillers Will Let Code Board Set Fair Price

Drilling contractors from this area met in all-day session in the Schneider hotel Friday to determine a fair price for drilling of wells in the LeFors, Finley-Brown, Faulkner, and Bowers pools of Gray county. W. C. Williams of Fort Worth presided.

The meeting continued until near midnight, when it was agreed to submit the evidence to the code board in Houston and let that body set a fair price per foot for drilling wells in the areas described.

Conditions in other sections of the Panhandle are expected to be discussed later. Every pool in the field has its own drilling conditions and prices considered fair in one section would not be suitable in another area.

Drilling conditions in the granite wash formation were thoroughly discussed at Friday's meeting. The cost of necessary equipment, depreciation of equipment, labor costs, hazards, etc., were taken into consideration in the drilling of wells with both rotary and cable tools.

Although the meeting did not make any recommendations, it was estimated that it cost $3.75 a foot to drill with a rotary and $4 a foot to drill with cable tools.

More than fifty drilling contractors with interests in that area attended the meeting.

Dr. and Mrs. T. J. Worrell left Saturday for Portales, N. M., on a fishing trip.

CLUB MEMBER TELLS HOW TO MAKE BEDROOM

UNUSUAL INITIATIVE IS DISPLAYED IN THIS PROJECT

(Editor's note: The following interesting paper was written by Beryl Tignor, 11-year-old 4-H club girl who took second place in the county bedroom contest.)

BY BERYL TIGNOR, Sunshine 4-H Club. When the question arose in our club as to how we would make bedrooms more attractive...

We had a furnace and junk room in the basement that had been separated in a rough way from the rest of the basement by sheetrock partitioning.

Removed All Dust

The first thing to do was to clean up the room, which was a very hard job to do as anyone who is familiar with Panhandle dust storms can realize.

The furnace pipes were covered with asbestos pipe covering but they were in bad condition.

The Women's Missionary society of the First Methodist church will meet in circles as follows...

BAND STUDENTS ARE URGED TO ENROL MONDAY

Any child who has belonged to the city ward or high school bands during the last year may enroll in the band courses Monday afternoon between 1:30 and 4 o'clock at the red school building on the high school campus, according to a statement made by Walter Foster, band superintendent.

"It has been learned that there is a mistaken idea current among parents of children in the city ward school bands that children who were not entered at the beginning of the summer cannot be entered during the summer."

"On the contrary, children may be entered at the beginning of either July or August by paying the nominal entrance fee of one dollar. Several children have been withheld from summer band work due to this impression. If any child who has belonged to the city ward or high school bands during the last year desire to enter they may do so by reporting to the red school building on the campus Monday afternoon between 1:30 and 4 o'clock."

"Parents having children who are just starting on some band instrument are advised that there is a beginners' section in the summer bands to take care of them. Those planning on buying instruments for their children during the coming school year are urged to do so at once if possible, and give their children the benefit of this concentrated summer work, thus preparing them to step directly into the ward school bands in September."

"Around 120 band students are meeting in practice sessions three times each week, on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday afternoons. In addition, an advanced section holds extra rehearsals every Friday night. This was instituted after it was found that interest was shown in a summer high school band section. A beginners' section, regardless of instrument, will be held Monday through Thursday, 1:30 and 4 o'clock."

BIBLE SCHOOL AT PAMPA IS BIG SUCCESS

PAMPA TEACHER DOES "CHALK TALKING" WORK

McLEAN, July 7.—With an enrollment of more than one hundred in the entire school during the two weeks, the Rev. Cecil G. Goff and his co-workers closed a successful daily vacation Bible school with an exhibition for the public Friday evening.

Much interesting work, study, and play have been put forth by both students and teachers, and much credit is due those who "carried on" despite the hot weather.

An added feature this year was "chalk talk" lessons, which were under the direction of Miss Mamie Abbott, teacher in the Pampa school system, who is spending her vacation here with her mother, Mrs. George Abbott.

Others who helped make the school a success were: Miss Agnes Abbott, primary teacher in Oklahoma City who is visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Abbott, supervisor of the primary section; Mrs. Bob Thomas, junior superintendent; Mrs. Geo. Colebank, who supervised the intermediates; Mrs. Cecil G. Goff; Mrs. T. H. Andrews; Mrs. Lee Newman; Mrs. Homer Abbott; Mrs. Bonnie Bell; Miss Ozella Hunt; Miss Lucille Scott; Miss Lillian Abbott.

Rev. Goff, with the assistance of Hobby Appling and Neil Jackson, supervised the work for boys. Willie Luella Cobb was pianist.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McLaughlin, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Poage, left for an extended vacation trip in the mountains and the Pacific states. They plan to return via Chicago and attend the Century of Progress Exposition.

Miss Frances Reynolds, who has been the house guest of the Posges returned to her home at Chillicothe, accompanied by little Barbara Ann Posge who will be her guest until Mr. and Mrs. Poage return from their vacation.

MARRIES PAMPA MAN Word has been received here of the marriage of Mrs. Martha Stokley-Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Stokley of McLean, to Mr. W. F. McDonald, who is employed by the Car-Gray Oil company.

Mrs. McDonald is a popular member of society and McLean is glad to know that the young couple plan to make their home here.

PATTERNS ARE TOPIC OF CLUB AT KINGSMILL

Sleeve Ironing Board Making Also Is Explained

The Kingsmill home demonstration club met for a called session and covered dish luncheon at the home of Mrs. O. C. Smith Thursday.

Mrs. Cude, assisted by Mrs. G. P. Bradberg gave instructions in making foundation patterns and how to use them. An interesting lesson showing the different styles of blouses and sleeves, pajamas, and slips from foundation patterns was enjoyed by all. Two patterns were completed. Eight patterns were out of the new style linen hat.

The club received directions for making sleeve ironing boards from Mrs. Doris R. Barnes, extension specialist of A. & M. college. Four members and four visitors were present.

A thick stiff coating on top which was slightly elastic. I removed this and shaved up the white pigment and dissolved it with turpentine after much stirring and used it to make ivory out of the cream paint. I thought at first I would get paint coloring and color the white enamel ivory and brown but my aunt said she needed some white enamel and she bought a quart of ivory and of brown and traded for my white. I gave the water pipes two coats of flat ivory paint, the woodwork a coat of flat paint and two coats of ivory enamel. There is an old iron bedstead, table, mirror, and two chairs were enameled brown.

The bed was without casters and the holes were too large for common casters, so Daddy helped me fit big spools in them and built up some casters that I found into the spool holes. The mattress on the bed was old but of good cotton and had been well covered to keep it clean and was in fair condition. The springs on it were fair. From the room I shared with my sister I got two blankets and two quilts. I made quilt protectors for these. I attended a demonstration that Miss Adams gave to the women's club for making candlestick bedspreads. I decided I wanted an heirloom bedspread, so I made it of gold with white and orange turfs with a scarf for my dressing table to match. The materials cost me $2.76.

I made a braided rug to go on my bed. I bought a super-service linoleum in a light hooked rug pattern at a bargain for $6.95. The cement floor that this didn't cover, I covered with some old linoleum rug border that I found in the garage.

I don't think I could have done nearly so well without the advice of Miss Adams, county home demonstration agent in Gray county. I want to thank Helen and Mildred Morehead, Sara Lee Flemming, and Viola Marie Murphy, members of Sunshine 4-H club, who helped me canvas the cement walls and paper the hall.

I had marquisette and cretonne on hand for dressing table, curtains, and draperies. I have made four sheets and four pillow cases.

My total expenses were:

- L. Rug $6.95
- Blanket $6.95
- Quilt $6.95
- Wallboard 3.60

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, July 7 (AP)—Cotton was moderately active in today's short week end session. A sharp drop in Liverpool cables and private reports of showers in the western drought section was responsible for an early decline of 7 to 12 points. The weather map, however, failed to show any rains of consequence, and prices recovered 5 to 6 points but lost some of this rally in the final trading. The close was steady at net declines of 1 to 8 points.

The opening was easier owing to the lower Liverpool cables and reports of Texas rains. First trades showed declines of 12 points on July due to liquidation in that option and net declines of 5 points on later positions.

Failure of the weather map to substantiate the rain reports caused October to trade up to 12.06 and December to 12.20, or 5 to 6 points up from the lows. Some of this recovery was lost near the end of the week end liquidation. October closed at 11.94, down 3 points net for the day, and December closed at 12.10, also 3 points net down. July closed at 11.82, down 8 points net. Receipts 5,231; for season 7,566,000, last season 8,832,057. Exports 3,666 for season 7,229,602, last season 7,876,276, port stock 2,534,588, last year 3,323,699. Combined shipboard stock at New Orleans, Galveston and Houston, 66,937, last year 150,985. Spot sales at Southern markets 2,221, last year 10,604.

JOE BAILEY CONTINUES TO HURL CHALLENGE FOR ABATE

Witt on Oil
MINEOLA, July 7 (AP)—Lieut. Governor Edgar Witt asserted here today that there is power of executive in the governor's office to put a stop to the running of illicit oil.

"Give me the office and I'll stop it or give the office back to you," he said. "So much time is being devoted to politics that there has been a deplorable lot of winking at the law. As governor I can and will stop the bootlegging. Yes, and a lot of other bootlegging."

"Orderly produced, the oil from underneath the fields of East Texas will go far toward re-establishing Texas as a prosperous state, not one carrying a million people on its relief rolls."

Alfred on Convicts

MINERAL WELLS, July 7 (AP)—Rehabilitation of Texas convicts was urged by Attorney General James V. Alfred tonight in a campaign address here tonight for the governorship.

"Our responsibility does not end when we send a man to the penitentiary," he said. "Today the governments, both state and national, are trying to find jobs for people on the outside through the relief program, but when a man is released from the penitentiary in Texas, no effort is made to give him employment. The state evinces not the slightest interest in his welfare."

"As a civilized people we have a heavy responsibility to see that he is properly treated and trained to become a better citizen when he is released. It is imperative that we take such a step as this, and it will be possible only after we have made a change in the present pardon system."

Bailey Hurls Challenge

GALVESTON, July 7 (AP)—Congressman Joseph W. Bailey, campaigning for the United States senate, tonight repeated his challenge to Senator Tom Connally, his opponent, to meet him in a joint debate on laws of the campaign.

Bailey outlined again his plans for the reemployment of millions of persons who are now enforcedly idle, saying that this unemployment situation was the most vital problem confronting America today.

He said the depression still confronts us and that the coming congress will have to take steps to permanently remedy the economic condition of the country.

Russell on Liquor

GREENVILLE, July 7 (AP)—Edward K. Russell, declared here tonight that the liquor interests and political leaders "had failed to keep their promises that there would be no return of the open saloon."

"The liquor crowd cannot be depended upon to keep their promises," the candidate for governor charged. "The liquor interests are the foe of decency, truth and veracity. It is not the name of the liquor crowd that we want to keep."

Russell, in discussing issues of the campaign, said the biggest job for the next governor of Texas would be to fight against the depression.

Connally Record Detailed

SAN ANTONIO, July 7 (AP)—Ending his week's tour of south and southwest Texas, United States Senator Tom Connally tonight summed up his accomplishments in behalf of this section of the state during his first term in the senate.

Connally, a candidate for renomination for a second term in the senate, will campaign in West Texas next week, with two addresses Monday. The first at Eastland at 3 p. m. and the second in Brownwood at 8 p. m. Tuesday he will speak in Plainview at 2 p. m. and Amarillo at 8 p. m.

Connally detailed the things he said he had helped accomplish for this section of the state, including the development of the army base and military aviation facilities in San Antonio; port developments and improvements at Port Arthur, Beaumont, Corpus Christi and other gulf ports; drought relief for the stricken areas in south and southwest Texas under the terms of the Jones-Connally cattle relief act; and higher prices for agricultural commodities under the agricultural adjustment administration legislation which he said he supported; and the gold dollar devaluation, which he said he first advocated and which was passed by congress at the behest of President Roosevelt.

Hughes on Finances

GREENVILLE, July 7 (AP)—Insisting that "this state must be put on a pay-as-you-go basis if its credit is to be strengthened and preserved," Maury Hughes, of Dallas, candidate for governor, in a campaign address here tonight advocated a thorough overhauling of our system of taxation, to prevent any trickery that would further increase the burden on those least able to pay.

Present automobile license taxes, added to the levies on gasoline and ad valorem taxes, are practically confiscatory, he said, and should be reduced immediately.

DEPENDENT BOY IS TAKEN TO WACO HOME

Constable Frank Jordan left yesterday with a 14-year-old boy who will be placed in the home for dependent children.

The PEOPLES COLUMN

(Editor's note: It is the policy of this paper not to print unsigned letters. The letter printed below is unsigned. Since The NEWS is supporting Senator Tom Connally for reelection, yet wishes to be wholly fair, it is printing this letter with the statement that all future letters received on any subject must bear the names of the authors.)

Editor, The NEWS:

A very interesting letter appeared in the Sunday issue of The NEWS from a gentleman in Washington, advising the people of Texas to elect Senator Tom Connally. He fears that the people of Texas might send up a man unable to protect himself.

Is there anything about Joe Bailey that would lead one to believe that he couldn't protect Texas and himself? What has Connally got that Bailey hasn't? The gentleman from Washington seems to be very interested in Texas. However, we didn't hear anything about him while we were having the drought or the floods and storms in the Rio Grande and Gulf Coast regions. Why did he show such sudden interest in Texas? What will happen to his interest after the election is over?

He picked a fine time to try to dictate to the voters of Texas. Texas has been independent for almost 100 years and a member of the U. S. almost as long and up to this time we have gotten along o. k. without the advice from citizens of Washington. Is there any reason for a change?

Don't take his letter seriously because it is no more than a political sting and has appeared, at different times, in newspapers all over Texas. Again, I ask where was that gentleman's interests before the election and what has Connally got that Bailey hasn't?

Very truly,
AN INDEPENDENT TEXAN.

DONALD BUDGE BEATS PARKER IN NET DUEL

NATIONAL CLAY COURT TENNIS CHAMPION IS TOPPLED

CHICAGO, July 7 (AP)—Donald Budge a flaming red head just out of high school at Oakland, Cal., toppled Frankie Parker of Milwaukee from his national clay courts tennis throne today after a dramatic five-set duel of stamina and gameness that lasted almost three hours.

The victory, gained by scores of 2-6, 3-6, 6-3, 6-0, 9-7, was Budge's greatest triumph in tennis by a heart breaker for the plucky champion from Milwaukee who suffered a severe nose bleed and stomach disorders, just as he was on the road to a finalist berth tomorrow with Bryan Grant, Atlanta's "mighty atom" of the net world. Grant survived with shots to spare, routing Gene Mako, Los Angeles blonde, in straight sets, all at 6-3.

Budge and Grant meet for the title dropped by Parker tomorrow. In one of the semi-final doubles matches Mako and Budge defeated Grant and Karl Kamrath, Austin, Tex., 6-2, 6-3, 3-6, 6-1.

In the other semi-final doubles match Robert Bryan, Chattanooga, and John McDiarmid, Fort Worth, defeated Jack Tidball and Leonard Patterson, Los Angeles, 10-8, 8-10, 6-3, 6-4.

Budge and Grant meet for the title dropped by Parker tomorrow. In one of the semi-final doubles matches Mako and Budge defeated Grant and Karl Kamrath, Austin, Tex., 6-2, 6-3, 3-6, 6-1.

Governor-Elect Of Oklahoma Is Still Rich Man

KEEPING TRACK OF THINGS STORED DURING SUMMER

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 7 (AP)—E. W. Marland, Oklahoma's new democratic nominee for governor, today answered the question that has been in the air since he lost control of his great oil company several years ago and with it most of his estimated $30,000,000 fortune.

"Are you a poor man?" he was asked, the morning after Tom Anglin's withdrawal from the run-off primary automatically made the "new deal" congressman the nominee.

"It depends upon what you call a poor man," replied Marland with a slow grin. "It depends upon real estate values. I've got holdings that cost me $2,700,000. Before real estate went down they were worth between $5,000,000 and $8,000,000, and they will be again. And there's $800,000 against them."

"My Fords Have All Been Honest Cars"

Figures from Ford V-8 owners show 272,815,970 miles of steady running, without a penny for repairs

The true story of motor-car value is written on the road. There a car reveals its character. There it shows what it can do.

Figures from 34,954 Ford V-8 owners show a total of 272,815,970 miles without a penny for repairs. Their letters are further proof of Ford V-8 economy and dependability.

"I transport school children," writes a Ford owner in Minnesota, "and see plenty of tough going. In three years and eight months I have never missed a trip nor have I been late."

"Never Been Late in the Ford V-8"

Another Ford V-8 owner writes: "A friend of mine was planning on buying a new car but was considering another make. To prove to him the economy of the Ford V-8 we made a 59-mile run. The gas used was exactly three gallons, measured for the run. It is needless to tell you that my friend now owns a V-8."

THREE STARS OF NOTE SEEN IN FILM HERE

LA NORA "MELODRAMA" MAKES STAR OF MISS LOY

Moving with dramatic power through a series of unusual situations, "Manhattan Melodrama" opens today at the La Nora theater to take its place among the hit pictures of the year.

Clark Gable, William Powell and Myrna Loy are the stars. From the opening scene, the picture is absorbing entertainment. One of the most thrilling scenes ever filmed is the prologue which re-enacts the fire and panic aboard the excursion steamer General Slocum in New York harbor in 1904—a tragedy in which more than 1,000 were killed.

Two inseparable friends emerge Blackie Gallagher, played by Clark Gable, and Jim Made, played by Powell. They are reared together by a kindly old man whose son perished in the Slocum disaster. They are fast friends, inseparable. Their friendship endures through the intervening years, and in early middle age Gable is a big-shot gambler, a powerful and dramatic figure of the city's night life. Powell, still his friend, is the district attorney.

Between them, a New York playgirl who loves them both, is Myrna Loy. Out of this strange set of circumstances comes the body of the story—a plot which never lacks for dramatic moments and suspense. Powell is called upon to sacrifice his career, be false to his oath of office, or to demand the legal execution of his friend. And Gable's final scenes will not soon be forgotten.

It is probably Gable's finest performance since "A Free Soul," and is somewhat reminiscent of those characterizations in which he made his first great success. Powell was never more convincing than as the district attorney, ambitious for further political honors, yet torn between love and duty. The picture marks his first appearance for the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer company, which produced the picture.

Noteworthy, also, is Miss Loy's performance as Eleanor, who loves both men but marries Powell. The picture marks her elevation to stardom, and it is well deserved; she plays the role with feeling and believable naturalness.

J. W. Shelton, Roy McMillen, and Marvin Daugherty left Saturday noon for Richmond, Ind., to drive back two school buses purchased by the school board. Before returning they will visit the Century of Progress in Chicago.

Three Stars in a Drama of New York Night Life

Clark Gable, Myrna Loy and William Powell are shown as they appear in "Manhattan Melodrama" at La Nora theater today.

CHARACTERS IN 'LAUGHING BOY' CALLED REAL

NAVARRO AND VELEZ IN VERY CONVINCING ROLES

To transfer characters from a book to the screen with the fidelity of real life so they can be recognized and loved by millions who know their story is the stirring production accomplishment in "Laughing Boy." Indian drama based on the famous Pulitzer Prize story by Oliver La Farge. The new film drama, starring Ramon Novarro with Lupe Velez as leading lady, is currently showing at the Rex theater.

Men of Strong Feeling The picture, filmed by the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios, presents one of the most powerful dramas of Indian life and love ever filmed. It deals in a startling manner with the Navajo Indians as a personality capable of strong feeling and great emotional climaxes. As the young Indian, untamed and unused to love known by white men in civilized towns on reservation, Ramon Novarro reaches new heights of penetrating appeal and restraint of deep feeling. His naive handling of early sequences provides a basis for one of the strongest dramatic climaxes ever filmed of a native people.

Lupe Velez sweeps through the most powerful role of her entire screen career as a young Indian woman who has tasted civilization and still wants the wild, primitive love of her own people. She is vivacious, sparkling, and cuts into the climax after another with breathless strength of feeling. One of the largest native casts ever assembled is seen in the picture with many scenes filmed on the actual reservation locale near Cameron, Arizona. Panoramas of vast buttes and desert canyons lend an authenticity to the story for startling realism on the screen.

Minor roles in the production are played by Ruth Channing as a young tourist, Ferdinand Munjir providing comedy touches as a "tenderfoot," and William Davidson as the "heavy."

Film Expertly Directed Col. W. S. Van Dyke, who has traveled to more remote corners of the earth than any other director, again scores with his powerful handling of a native story to add his laurels won with "Trader Horn" and recently the smashing fight story, "Prizefighter and the Lady."

"Laughing Boy"

Ramon Novarro and Lupe Velez are in "Laughing Boy" at the Rex theater today.

Will Rogers in Return to State in "David Harum"

Will Rogers has brought to life one of the most beloved characters of American fiction, with his role in the Fox Film release, "David Harum," which returns to the State theater today for a 3 day engagement. The novel by Edward Noyes Westcott makes a delightful and thoroughly enjoyable film that shows Rogers at his very best. It was because of the numerous requests of theater-goers that the Fox officials produced the picture, and let it be stated here that it was indeed a wise move on the part of those officials to answer the public's demand.

Rogers gives all he has to his role and turns in a truly remarkable performance. The romance of Evelyn Venable and Kent Taylor is delightfully sincere. The other members of the cast, Louise Dresser, Stepin Fetchit, Noah Berry, Roger Imhof, Frank Melton, Charles Middleton, Sarah Padden and Lillian Stuart do splendidly with their allotted roles.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Young and small daughter left Friday to visit relatives in Hugo, Okla.

SADLER TO BRING OLD MENTOR ROY E. FOX AS ATTRACTION IN OPENING WEEK'S STAY HERE

Harley Sadler and his company, appearing in a new tent theater, will be in Pampa for a week's engagement starting tomorrow night, July 9. The Sadler show is practically all new this year, with mostly new faces, new music and new vaudeville.

As a special added attraction, Harley Sadler presents this season Roy E. Fox and his Popular Players. The program will be changed Wednesday and Friday. The opening play for Monday night and Tuesday night is "Business Before Pleasure," a society comedy in three acts with eight big time acts of vaudeville between the acts of the play.

Popular prices will prevail but for the convenience of those who cannot come until late or who do not wish to wait their turn at the tent box office, special numbered reserved seats will go on sale Monday noon at Pampa Drug No. 1. The show comes here under the auspices of the American Legion. On Monday or Tuesday night in Pampa, one lady will be admitted free when accompanied by one paid adult ticket and the ladies free ticket contained in the show advertisement in this issue.

Years ago, a show traveled the state of Texas known as Roy E. Fox and his Popular Players. The comedian on that show was a young man just "breaking" into the show business, Harley Sadler. Fox left Texas to go east playing big time vaudeville with his family, and Harley Sadler took out his own show, which in later years was to become famous as the most successful tent show in America. Fox and Sadler became re-united this year when Roy E. Fox and his Popular Players came to Harley Sadler's tent theater.

Harley Sadler, above, popular showman who has been bringing his popular companies to Pampa for years, will arrive today for a week's stay. The first show will be given tomorrow evening in Sadler's tent theater.

New Retail Credit Manager Veteran Of Such Activities

Lindley S. Crowder was named general manager of the National Retail Credit association by the board of directors at their meeting immediately after the national convention at Memphis Tennessee, according to an announcement just received by Carson Loftis, secretary of the Pampa Business Men's association. The National Retail Credit association is a mutual organization of credit-granting retailers and professional men. Organized in Spokane, Wash., in 1912 by a small group of credit granters, it has now grown into a nation-wide organization for the protection of credit granters and the promotion of sound credit methods—with members in every part of the United States and Canada.

Guy H. Hulse, who for the past 7 years has been secretary and educational director of the National Retail Credit association, was, at the same convention, elected secretary and general manager of the National Consumer Credit Reporting corporation in charge of the operations of the 1930 retail credit reporting bureau and 700 retail collection organizations throughout the United States and Canada. Although operating as separate and distinct organizations, the National Retail Credit association and the National Consumer Credit Reporting corporation will cooperate closely on matters of credit policy, protection and promotion.

The National Consumer Credit Reporting corporation was formed not only to coordinate the efforts and activities of the individual credit bureaus throughout the country but also to enable national users of credit reports to obtain from one central source authoritative, exact and uniform credit reports on consumer-credit buyers in every part of the world.

A Washington Daybook

BY HERBERT PLUMMER.

WASHINGTON—President Roosevelt's significance of the Frazier-Lemke bill—granting a moratorium on farm mortgages—upset the calculations of almost everyone in Washington.

Few believed the White House would give its approval. Even those who worked hardest to obtain passage of the bill in the closing hours of the seventy-third congress were none too optimistic.

Three things must be taken into consideration in any effort to understand why congress passed the Frazier-Lemke bill. In the first place, the administration was anxious to have congress adjourn. Huey Long of Louisiana threatened to filibuster the senate indefinitely unless the bill was brought up for consideration.

Secondly, the administration knew the Louisiana "Kingfish" would do all in his power to make good his word, the way was paved for consideration of the bill.

Then, too, tremendous political pressure was brought to bear on members of congress. The argument was made that congress had come to the rescue of everyone but the farmer by similar legislation. Why should he be left out?

And third, there were serious doubts in the minds of many as to whether the bill was constitutional. Undoubtedly there were votes cast in favor of the bill with this in mind. Many thought the president would throw it out on these grounds and even if he didn't the supreme court would.

This last still remains an important factor. Sooner or later a test case will be brought before the supreme court and a decision made.

Approval Eliminated Issue. While the president made no reference to it in his message announcing he had signed the bill, the rumor was current in Washington that he had submitted the legislation to a department of justice for a study of its constitutionality. It also was rumored the department was doubtful whether the bill could weather the test of the courts. "Nevertheless," said the president, in announcing he had given his approval. "The reasons for signing it far outweigh the arguments on the other side." From a political standpoint, many believed the president couldn't have done anything but sign the bill. His disapproval would have immediately made it an issue in the west—the battleground of future election campaigns.

borne the name "Pess," derivation of "Professor."
In 1902, Mr. Elston purchased the Panhandle Herald and edited it until 1906. He then formed a partnership with V. C. Nelson and engaged in the real estate business for five years. He then was elected county surveyor of Carson county, holding the position eight years. He moved to Sapulpa, Okla., at the expiration of his term as surveyor, and lived there for 10 years as superintendent of a natural gas company. When he returned to Panhandle, he was elected county surveyor. He held that office until 1930, when he was elected county judge. He was just completing his fourth year, and was a candidate for re-election.
Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Bertha Tice Elston; two daughters, Mrs. Letha Cramer, Panhandle; Mrs. Louise Michaels, Rock Island, Ill.; two brothers, George of Toledo, Ohio; and Oath of Gas City, Ind.; one sister, Mrs. V. M. Grimes, Lafayette, Ind.
A son, Cecil Marion ("Bill") Elston, 24, was fatally shot by an Amarillo policeman in July, 1931, at Amarillo.
Mr. Elston was born March 8, 1866 in Gulfport, Ind. He was married to Miss Bertha Tice in Panhandle, April 30, 1902. He joined the German Lutheran church in Whites Town, Ind., at an early age. He attended the First Christian church while he lived in Panhandle.
Judge Elston attended the Pre-Centennial celebration and Pioneers Roundup in Pampa June 1, and said that he "never expected to have a better time." He became ill a week later.

ROCKEFELLER

His son, John D. Rockefeller Jr., left his adjoining Pocatoc hills estate today to come here for Sunday with his father.
On one point, however, those close to the venerable capitalist were agreed: That advanced age has wrought little, if any, change in the Rockefeller attitude towards life. His philosophic leanings have always been cheerful ones, and his methods of living routine—a carefully disciplined routine, which included simple dietary principles which the possession of wealth never tempted him to violate.
The Lakewood estate is a fitting place to mark his birthday anniversary. Here he has solitude and the quiet of trees and sunshine, and these things mean contentment to the man who has outlived all but a few of his generation.

SPITE MARRIAGE

by Katharine Haveland Taylor

SYNOPSIS: After the death of her only son, Marsha Moore has done to her with her Aunt Gertrude. Aunt Gertrude's spiteful distrust of life and Marsha has led the girl into a life of hard drudgery, broken only by the clatter of an admirer after another falls by the wayside. But Bob Powers, on vacation from his business job, is different. Suddenly, Marsha decides she does not want to hurt Bob.

Chapter Six
MAN FROM MEXICO

A hour later Marsha made Jean run her bath. Marsha said, "Thank you, Jean—" to receive no answer beyond a short sniff. Once again she had felt that life might be much more bearable if there were only a servant in Miss Gertrude's menage who would answer pleasantly.

She lay in the tub relaxing, and stepping from it, she saw herself in a long mirror. Lovely she was, she knew. But if she had been plain she might have been very good and "beautiful—in all the ways that count most." That had echoed!

She dressed slowly and carefully; Bob was coming after dinner, and they would doubtless go somewhere to dance. She chose a black dress that was not so black as her hair, coiled the hair low, snapped

She had been, considering her understanding of life, strangely innocent of the true form of the Church School affair with Mr. Craven. She had felt only her hunger for affection; the fact that she, who was starved for it, had found it, and she was at the point when she could not "stand it any more"—living with her aunt.

Alice, another maid who had been for years with Miss Moore, left the room stiffly with the salad plates; then Marsha, who had grown a protective shell since that day when she knew she would die unless "some one liked her a little," said crisply, "No sweet—"

She did not care for sweets of any sort now. She preferred the raw and biting; men who bursted out harsh truths, foods that made the eyes smart. How snug, the proud old silver on the Sheraton sideboard. It had never been anything but dull to eat at home. No, once it had been more than dull; it had been a rack. Well, that was over! She knew her way around and she was so hard that no one could hurt her.

"I AM going to a committee meeting," said Miss Gertrude; "we are to discuss plans for the Community House—"

"Can you see them as my ancestors?" asked Marsha.

It was amazing how arid and loveless those could be, who "served humanity," Marsha reflected. She wondered, drinking her coffee, how it would be to spend an evening at home with some man. She might try it with Bob. Doubtless Jean and Alice would keep watch, ears glued to key holes, and so be ready to report. But they wouldn't get much from Bob!

When he appeared at nine, Marsha, herself, opened the door to him.

For a moment he hesitated; then quickly he stepped within the hall. "This is about the pleasantest thing that ever happened to me," he said.

"Your flowers are lovely, Bob—" "Not lovely enough," he faltered in answer.

"I so appreciate your sending me the same sorts that you sent your mother." And she did; she felt her eyes smart to turn quickly from him. "I liked it Aunt's out. Do you think you could stand an evening of domestic turn?"

"Father!" he answered eagerly. He laid his hat and gloves on a table; slipped from his coat to follow her into the small, prim drawing room that was depressed by stern portraits of very God-fearing folk; genteel folk of repressed instincts and an unyielding sense of the proper.

"Can you see them as my ancestors?" Marsha asked, after a short glance around the walls. She laughed; he smiled. "Your ancestors," he stated, "were gods and goddesses but unusually kind ones. I think you are descended from Norse who bragged that her children were the most beautiful in the world. One child must have escaped death. The others, you know were killed because they were so beautiful—"

"It works that way sometimes, but let's not brood on it—" she said. "Sit down, Bob—"

She had dropped to a small old sofa; he looked longingly at the space that was by her. Again she laughed. "You may," she said gently. (Copyright, 1934, by K. Haveland-Taylor) two years, was elected without opposition by acclamation. He succeeds John C. Townes of Houston.

At the final session, the president was authorized to appoint district committee-men, with power to appoint sub-committee men, to ferret out instances of illegal practice of law and to obtain prosecution of the offenders.
Recommendations for changes in criminal procedure followed a stirring talk by Fred L. Blundell of Lockhart, district attorney for the twenty-second district and president of the state association of district and county attorneys.
The report, read by K. C. Berkeley, district attorney at Houston, recommended: Stringent limitation of continuances; discretionary power for judges in the matter of severances; broadening of the admissibility of confessions; free use of husbands and wives of defendants as witnesses; definition of any unlawful acquisition of personal property as "theft"; permission to comment upon the failure of a defendant to testify; impounding of a thirteenth petit juror as a safeguard against sickness of any juror; abolition of the special venire statute so as to give judges more authority in the matter of selecting jurors; establishment of a state bar; permission for defendants in felony cases less than capital offense to waive a jury and be tried on a plea of not guilty; establishment of an adult probation system to aid in keeping first offenders from becoming habitual criminals.

ENGLAND'S DOROTHY ROUND BEATS HELEN JACOBS FOR WIMBLEDON TITLE

UNITED STATES DOUBLES TEAM TAKES CROWN

LESTER STOEFFEN AND GEORGE LOTT BEAT FRENCHMEN

Associated Press Sports Writer WIMBLEDON, Eng., July 7 (AP)—Helen Jacobs' long cherished ambition to win the Wimbledon tennis crown was blocked again today as the United States champion fell before the powerful cross court-driving game of Dorothy Round.

Run half to death and many times Run half to death on many times made to look completely bewildered by the sun-tanned minister's daughter, Helen only could say at the finish, "how are you going to beat Dorothy when she plays like that?"

Every the British spectators, who are almost fanatically fond of Dorothy, were astounded at the perfection of her game. They gave her an ovation after her victory and then did it all over again when the new champion, acting as though she were scared stiff, curtisied before the royal box.

King George and Queen Mary joined in the applause. The Americans drew some solace as their national champions, Lester Stoeffen and George M. Lott, Jr., crushed the veteran French pair of Jean Borotra and Jacques Brugnon, 6-2, 6-3, 6-4 for the men's double title.

The two weeks of play saw England win its way back to the heights as the leading power of world tennis. Already holders of the Davis cup, England also sent Fred Perry out into the men's title for the first time since 1909.

Miss Round also shared in the mixed doubles title, returning to the court two hours after her single victory to pair with R. Miki of Japan and defeat the all-English combination of H. W. (Bunny) Austin and Mrs. D. C. Shepherd-Barron, 3-6, 6-4, 6-0.

Mr. Joe Duby of LeFors spent yesterday afternoon shopping here. L. J. Seitz and Charlie Seitz of the Laketon community were visitors here yesterday.

CITY TOURNEY COMMITTEE TO MEET MONDAY

RULES TO BE DRAWN UP; INTEREST IS GROWING

Although Pampa will not officially become baseball minded until late in August, interest in the forthcoming local invitation baseball tournament is great.

The committee in charge will meet at 7 o'clock tomorrow night in the Board of City Development rooms in the city hall.

Roy Bourland, tournament manager, will preside at the meeting. The following Pampa men have been notified to be present: Mayor Bill Bratton, Ivy E. Duncan, Travis Lively, George Briggs, Clarence Kennedy, president of the Jaycees, Harry E. Hoare, Bob Knox, Aaron Meek, Harold Miller, and Bob Fuller.

Pampa has always been prominent in baseball circles although this year will be the first that a tournament has been sponsored in Pampa.

Several Pampa players have gone into professional baseball from Pampa teams. Included in the list are Tank Horton, with Oklahoma City, Ralph Windgarden, with Cleveland, Gus Eckhart, with Los Angeles, and many others.

The scheduled championship game between the Colteco Gasolners and the Colteco Black Cats this afternoon in LeFors has been cancelled.

Black Cats And Indians to Play This Afternoon

The scheduled championship game between the Colteco Gasolners and the Colteco Black Cats this afternoon in LeFors has been cancelled.

The black Cats yesterday scheduled a game for this afternoon to take the place of the championship contest. The game, however, will be played at Colteco City 5 miles east of LeFors instead of Shaw Stadium in LeFors.

Manager C. O. Busby of the Indians said he would start Larry Trenary on the mound, with Allie Barnett receiving. Trenary has been handicapped with a sore arm for two weeks but it has responded to treatment and he expects to be ready to go this afternoon.

PAT GARRISON WILL GRAPPLE TRAINED BEAR

When a wrestler comes to town there is little excitement, but when a wrestling bear comes to town, that is worth more than ordinary notice.

Brackman and Andy the bear are old friends. They met in Borger two years ago in one of the wildest melees of the century.

The Irishman couldn't do anything with the bear but last night he was the victor. Andy reared up, looked disgusted, and proceeded to clean the canvass with the remains of the Irishman.

GOWTOWN NINE DEFEATED BY ROADRUNNERS

LOCALS WIN ANOTHER GAME IN BORGER TOURNEY

A young collegian named Moody dealt the Roadrunners a lot of misery for six innings yesterday in the Borger tournament and for a while it looked like they were going to suffer their second defeat in the last three innings, coupled with some loose fielding by Moody's mates enabled the Roadrunners to emerge victors, 8 to 7.

The Fort Worth All-Stars scored four times in the second inning held the lead until the seventh when the Roadrunners tied it. The Roadrunners scored twice in the eighth and once in the ninth for a three run lead, but the youthful All-Stars didn't seem to know when they were beat and continued trying with the result they scored twice in the last half of the ninth and had the tying run on the third base when Lefty Cox made a sensational one-handed catch on pinch-hitter Willett's drive to end the game.

The All-Stars out-hit the Roadrunners, 13 to 12, but most of their hits were rather fluky, whereas the Roadrunners collected three doubles, two triples and two homers. Ward and Vaughn hit home runs, Cox and Baccus tripled and Baccus, Stewart and Sain hit doubles. Sain led the attack with three hits out of five trips to the plate.

The schedule for Sunday's game was not available until after the outcome of the Phillips 66 vs Colteco game, which was played last night.

OILERS BEAT ROADRUNNERS IN 12-5 TILT

STEGMAN ALLOWS ONE HIT UP TO FIFTH INNING

Phillips "66" Oilers of Borger Friday night defeated the Pampa Roadrunners 12 to 5 in a Borger tournament game. Pete Stegman had allowed one hit up to the fifth inning, when Phillips scored 6 runs.

Although Manager Bulla warmed up, he allowed Stegman to remain on the mound until 12 runs had crossed the plate. Hart, one of the weakest hitters on the Borger team, opened the fireworks in the fifth when he connected for a triple. Seitz misjudged a fly in the dark of center field to put Stegman in more trouble. A single, double, and another triple mixed in with an error and infield hit, gave Borger the lead.

Deck led the Borger attack with 3 hits in 5 trips to the plate. He connected for a triple, double, and two singles. Hart and Surface also hit triples and Parquhar, Surface, and Jackson connected for doubles.

Seitz and Ater hit two for four and Vaughn and Bulla connected for three bases for the Roadrunners. Twelve of the Pampa batters fanned as "Peevee" Bass had his curve ball working perfectly. He allowed four walks, however. Stegman fanned five and walked three. Catcher Eddie Sain was badly "off" in his pegging. The Borgerites stole six bases with Sain making only one attempt and it was high and wide. Little Bass pilfered two bases.

Score by inning: R H E Borger 12 12 1 Pampa 5 12 1 Batteries: Pampa, Stegman, Bulla, and Sain; Borger, Bass and Francis.

SEITZ FINDS RING L. J. Seitz, who gets his mail on Route 1 out of Mobeetie, recently found a woman's small gold ring near the First Baptist church here. Anyone having lost such a ring is invited to write to Mr. Seitz and to give the description of the ring lost.
