Officials of Two Nations, 4 States Invited to Texas

AUSTIN, Sept. 20 (AP)—Presidents and officials of two nations and governors of four states would be invited to the Texas Centennial in 1936 by the terms of a resolution approved by the senate state affairs committee.

Only the Staunch Ferguson Supporters Want Second Special Legislature.

AUSTIN, Sept. 20 (AP)—The Ferguson administration today was told by the Texas senate that no need existed for the convening of another special session of the Texas legislature and further that a bill to create a new oil and gas division likely would be defeated.

Only two members, Senators Roy Sanderford of Beltou and Will M. Martin of Hillsboro, staunch Ferguson supporters, opposed adoption of a resolution reciting "that it is the sense of the senate that no added special session of the 42d legislature seems to be reasonably necessary at this time."

The issue of creating a new oil and gas commission was not mentioned in the resolution, but it was injected in debate by Senator Martin.

House For Session. Talk of another special session to consider that question has been current in legislative halls for the past several days and gained momentum when more than a two-thirds majority of the house of representatives pledged support to the proposition.

At the last regular session of the legislature, the house passed a bill to create a new agency to replace the Texas Railroad commission as administrator of state oil conservation statutes. The senate, however, killed it.

Blister condemnation of the Railroad commission was voted by Senator Martin as he called on the senate to "come out and give the real reason" for opposing another session, "that we are against creation of a new oil and gas commission."

Hour's Proposal Pending. Resumption of debate on problems of the oil industry was scheduled in the house. A resolution proposing a legislative investigation of oil production enforcement in East Texas fields was pending.

While talk continued of the likelihood of another special session to consider transfer of administration of conservation statutes from the Texas Railroad commission to a new agency, many believed authorization of the investigation would effect a delay.

The administration was reported "well pleased" with the committee of 104 house members to the policy of creating a new commission, Rep. Jesse James of Cameron, who conducted the house poll, indicated desire for another session likely would hinge upon the attitude of the senate, which killed a similar bill last year.

COURTS WOULD BACK CONTROL SAYS LAWYER

OIL CONSERVATION IS LEGAL, COMMITTEE IS TOLD

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20 (AP)—The oil administration's ranking legal authority told a house committee today that federal control of petroleum production as sought by Secretary Ickes would be upheld in the courts.

The committee, headed by Rep. Cole (D., Mo.), is investigating to determine whether control legislation is necessary and whether it would be valid.

Nathan R. Margold, chief of the petroleum administration board and solicitor for the interior department, contended there was no doubt the government had the power, both under the commerce and national defense constitutional clauses, to restrict production within the states.

Margold said a finding by congress that control of production in the interest of conservation, was necessary in the national defense would hold "great weight" with the supreme court.

To a remark by one member of the committee that war was neither at hand nor imminent, Margold replied congress was not limited in providing for defense to actual war-time and cited that the country maintains a fleet and an army whether or not there is any apparent danger of conflict.

He added he believed as an academic could go further than merely controlling production and could if it saw fit control the use of production as well "if in the interest of conservation."

To the argument that restricting a man's oil production would run counter to the law of capture—which roughly is that an operator is entitled to the oil his wells bring up—and thus violate constitutional due process, Margold replied the right of a state to take such a course already had been established.

In the famous Champlin case, he said, the supreme court had held in effect that the state had a right to restrict production "for the greater good" even though it infringed upon individual property rights.

"The power of congress," he added, "is not limited to any greater extent than is the state's and in fact congress can go further to the exclusion of the acts of state legislatures."

NO POISON REVEALED IN BODY OF MORRO CASTLE MASTER WHO DIED BEFORE FIRE OUTBREAK

DECATUR, Sept. 20 (AP)—Three men were held in the county jail at noon today for questioning concerning the slaying of Joe Pickens, 75-year-old wealthy farmer. Officers declined to say where they captured the suspects. No charges were filed against them immediately.

LONDON, Sept. 20 (AP)—The Duke of St. Albans, Charles Victor Albert Aubrey de Vere Beauclerk, 64, died today.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20 (AP)—Chairman Jones (D., Tex.) of the house agriculture committee today said he would resist any effort of Senator Bankhead (D., Ala.) to influence the agriculture department to recommend suspension of the Bankhead compulsory cotton control act to President Roosevelt.

Radio Man Tells of Begging Captain To Send SOS

NEW YORK, Sept. 20 (AP)—Alexander O. Gettleer, Bellevue hospital toxicologist, announced today that the charred remains of Captain Robert Willmot, master of the burned Morro Castle, who died several hours before his ship was destroyed, contained no trace of poison.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20 (AP)—The federal board investigating the Morro Castle disaster today heard first assistant radio operator George I. Alagna charge that acting Captain W. F. Warms ordered an SOS sent from the burning ship only after "strong pleading" on Alagna's fifth trip to the ship's bridge for instructions.

Alagna described conditions on the bridge as "unintelligible and confused." He said Capt. Warms "just kept pacing" and he had to follow him about and then doubted if the captain recognized him.

The man at the wheel, Alagna testified, just turned the wheel around and around as though it was out of order and that by the time he had made his fourth trip to the bridge, the wheel had been abandoned.

Finally, he said, he saw Capt. Warms leaping over the bridge rail to the foredeck and he exclaimed to George Rogers, chief operator who had joined him after sending the SOS: "Look at the yellow rat leaving us here—deserting us."

TAX BILLS IN HOUSE WAIT ON RELIEF ISSUES

Race Repeal Bill Is Placed for Quick House Action

AUSTIN, Sept. 20 (AP)—Legislation to provide relief for delinquent property tax payers was a parliamentary notch farther removed from floor consideration in the Texas senate today while conferees from houses of the Texas legislature labored over a mass of minor variances in bills to issue additional relief bonds.

The Pope house bill to remit penalties and interest on taxes delinquent August 1 last was assigned to a sub-committee of the senate state affairs committee after city and county officials strongly protested mandatory provisions featured in it. The sub-committee was instructed to make haste in considering numerous amendments proposing modification of several provisions of the bill which passed the house after a bitter struggle.

Five working days remained in the current session, convened primarily to authorize sale of state relief securities to feed and clothe Texas' destitute through winter months.

Conferees representing the house and senate agreed on issuance of $5,000,000 of bonds, proceeds to be budgeted to last through next February, but faced many tedious hours more of discussion in adjusting numerous minor differences. Senator J. W. E. H. Beck of DeKalb, chairman of the conference, hoped to complete a bill by Saturday.

Conferees planned to hear tomorrow night recommendations of a prominent bond attorney on provisions affecting the saleability of the securities. Other matters yet to be decided, which provoked debate in preliminary discussions included the interest rate, wage scale for work projects, and in what amounts securities should be offered for sale by the bond commission.

An expression of the senate likely will be sought on the interest rate provision. Both houses agreed on four per cent, but a rate of four and one-half per cent was urged in the committee.

AUSTIN, Sept. 20 (AP)—A bill to repeal the pari-mutuel race track wagering law was placed in a position in the Texas house today to obtain speedy action, the house voting to mimeograph the bill instead of delaying to have it printed. The vote was 63 to 47 and was taken without debate.

Representative Henry C. Kyle of San Marcos, sponsor of the proposal indicated he would seek to bring the bill before the house as quickly as possible.

A point of order will be raised against its consideration on the ground it has not been submitted by Governor Miriam A. Ferguson.

The governor has pointedly refused to submit the proposal.

Kyle said he would press for immediate action on the measure and contend it could be considered under the general subject of taxation, submitted several days ago by the governor. The wagering law levies a tax on bets placed at Texas tracks.

Conley Promoted To District Post For Ward Stores

Pampa will lose one of its young civic leaders next week with the promotion of Elmer Conley, for the last five years manager of the Montgomery Ward store here, to the post of district superintendent of Montgomery Ward stores in the Oklahoma area, including the entire state of Oklahoma and part of Texas and Arkansas. His headquarters will be in Muskogee, Okla.

ARREST MADE OF MAN WHO GOT RANSOM

FOLLOWS LONG AND WIDESPREAD HUNT FOR SNATCHERS

NEW YORK, Sept. 20 (AP)—Police announced today they have in custody the man who received the $50,000 ransom money paid by Col. Charles A. Lindbergh in an ineffectual effort to recover his kidnaped son two years ago.

The man is Bernard Richard Hauptmann, of 1279 East 222nd street, the Bronx.

The announcement said the man is an alien and came to this country as a stowaway eleven years ago.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20 (AP)—Arrest of Richard Hauptmann in New York City in connection with the Lindbergh kidnaping was announced today by Attorney General Cummings.

Cummings said "Hauptmann is known to have passed some of the Lindbergh ransom money and to have had a substantial amount of it in his home at the time of his arrest."

The Lindbergh baby was stolen on the night of March 1, 1932, from the home of Colonel and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh near Hopewell, N. J. It was later found dead.

Edgar Hoover, investigative chief of the department of justice, was in New York today, presumably directing efforts to bring the case to a successful conclusion.

Since the enactment of the so-called Lindbergh kidnaping law, the department of justice has had a special squad of men assigned to the case. This squad reports only to Hoover.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20 (AP)—A reported impending "break" in the two-and-one-half year old mystery of the Lindbergh kidnaping case caused Dr. John F. Condon, the "Jafski" emissary of the Lindberghs, to be taken to police headquarters this afternoon.

The search for the Lindbergh kidnapers has been carried on unre-

Mexican Quake Destroys Towns

MEXICO, D. F., Sept. 20 (AP)—Belated dispatches to the newspaper La Prensa said today that at least nine persons were killed, 200 injured, and thousands made homeless by an earthquake last Saturday night in the state of Jalisco.

Several small and isolated villages were reported destroyed.

The reports said that practically every building was razed in Talpa, Cuale, Concepcion del Bramador, and Zapotes.

RAINBOW WINS!

ABOARD U. S. C. G. CUTTER ARGO OFF NEWPORT, Sept. 20 (AP)—Aby handled by Harold S. Vanderbilt the American defender Rainbow came charging through the windward leg of the 30-mile leeward-windward course today to overcome a 6-minute 40-second advantage Endeavour held at the halfway mark and score her first victory in three races over the British challenger.

NEWPORT, Sept. 20 (AP)—Sliding along under light airs supposed to have been made to order for the defender, the challenging British sloop Endeavour today led Rainbow by 1,100 yards at the halfway mark of the 30-mile leeward-windward third race for the America's cup.

Turning the mark at 1:00:23 Endeavour had a lead of six minutes 40 seconds on the defender and appeared headed for her third straight victory with only one more needed to win back the cup lost to the schooner America in 1851 and successfully defended since against 15 British challenges.

Rainbow's time at the turning buoy was 1:07:03.

ALLRED HEARING OPEN

IF NAME IS BANNED, CITIZENS LOSE SAYS DEFENSE

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 20 (AP)—If James V. Allred's name is kept off the official ballot in the November general election, as is provided in a temporary restraining order granted in district court here, 1,000,000 citizens will be disfranchised, Charles L. Black of Austin, Allred attorney, said today in arguing the appeal of the order before the fourth court of civil appeals.

Black, who opened arguments, spoke for an hour and a half. He also said the effort to keep Allred's name off the general election ballot because of alleged excess campaign expenditures is a political suit.

FARM STRIKE CALLED OFF AS FARMERS HAVE NOTHING TO SELL

DES MOINES, Sept. 20 (AP)—The board of directors of the national Farmers Holiday association today unanimously decided that a farmers' strike would not be called at this time. Milo Reno, president of the association, announced.

Reno said that a discussion on the subject brought out that the farmers had nothing to sell and that they had nothing to gain at this time.

Union and recalled disorders a year ago when the National Farmers Union Holiday association attempted to reduce at the nation's food basket with a nation wide strike.

The proposal to strike was put before the convention yesterday by John Chalmers of Madrid, vice president of the union who charged that the farm administration is "putting the farmer in a straight jacket." The strike was to be called, the resolution says, unless the government gives the farmers immediate "consideration."

Chalmers declared he would be "the most disappointed man on earth" if the measure were not adopted. "Now," he said, "is the opportune time to strike."

Officials of the Republic of Mexico would be invited to attend and bring with them the New Orleans Grays' flag which Texas lost at the Alamo by the original resolution.

Champion Stock Will Parade at Tri-State Fair

AMARILLO, Sept. 20 (AP)—Prize livestock from half a dozen states will pass in review tonight at the Tri-State fair and exposition.

Grand champions, champions and blue ribbon winners in all livestock divisions at the fair will be formed into a parade to pass in review in front of the fair park grandstand.

Tom Mix, star of motion picture "westerns," will direct the "parade of champions."

ATTEMPT TO DESTROY HOUSTON DOCKS WITH DYNAMITE FAILS

THEORY LINKS ATTEMPT WITH FIRE ON SHIPS

OFFICER DISCOVERS 319 POUNDS OF EXPLOSIVE

HOUSTON, Sept. 20. (AP)—An apparent attempt to destroy the Morgan Line docks on the Houston ship channel was foiled late yesterday when special officers for the steamship line found a tremendous store of dynamite placed beneath the docks, and connected to a hot shot battery and an alarm clock.

A special officer for the Morgan Line found the cache of dynamite. He and other investigators broke the connections with the battery and the timing mechanism and removed the dynamite, totaling 319 pounds.

One theory advanced by authorities was that the attempt to wreck the steamship terminal was connected with the various reported attempts to destroy vessels at sea by fire.

Guards were placed about the explosive during the night, and steps to destroy it were made today.

Meanwhile, the entire Morgan Line terminal was being searched in an effort to learn if any other caches of explosives had been placed there.

Four vessels in the gulf and Caribbean trade, including the ill-fated Morro Castle, have caught fire while at sea during the past two weeks.

The dynamite was of sixty per cent nitro glycerine grade, and sufficiently powerful to cause widespread destruction if it had been set off.

Angry Posses on Trail of Wealthy Farmer's Slayer

POOLVILLE, Sept. 20. (AP)—Angry posses pressed through this section today in a hunt for a man who early today shot and killed Joe Pickens, 75-year-old wealthy farmer and landowner as he lay asleep in a room with his wife and two daughters.

The man, masked, entered the home shortly after midnight, waved a pistol at Pickens and said: "I want your money."

The aged man was shot to death as he lay in bed. The man fled without his loot. The two daughters ran from the house to a filling station a mile and a half away on highway 34 and notified Sheriff Dodgett of the slaying.

Officers from nearby counties rushed to the farm and organized posses that searched throughout the night for the killer.

Using flashlights, posses of officers from Parker, Wise, and Jack counties early today trailed the slayer to the vicinity of Booneville where the trail was lost.

The officers were conducting a thorough search of the area. They were certain the man was traveling by foot and that he had not yet ventured on the open highways.

MAN HAS BEEN ABLE TO ATTAIN A TEMPERATURE OF 7200 DEGREES FAHRENHEIT!

NEW YORK, Sept. 20. (AP)—Some 2,500 inquisitive proletarians had a much better time at a society wedding yesterday than did John Jacob Astor 3d.

It needed 20 policemen to keep them in their place, which was the sidewalk in front of the Church of Heavenly Rest, because their manners were not always according to the book.

Mr. Astor, who has been perturbed of late by published accounts to the effect that he and his bride quarreled publicly at Providence, R. I. ("ridiculous," Mrs. Astor called the report) was the object of the proletarian eyes.

He arrived alone, his wife (the former Ellen Tuck French) being a bridesmaid, and he frowned at the assembled people. There were some cheers, which he elected to ignore.

He sat alone in a rear pew while Miss Joan Blake was being united in matrimony to Mr. Henry Herman Harjes.

As the bridal party passed from the church the sidewalk crowd gave the law officers a shoving around, and vice versa.

As Mrs. Astor was proceeding down the lane which had been cleared for the wedding party, the proletarians got out of hand. Her dress was slightly torn, and some people kept getting in her path. She said: "Oh, mercy. Oh, mercy," and finally got away.

Astoria who has never been one to curry public notice, sought to depart from a side door at which no commoners had thought to assemble. Some journalists, however, were there, they inquired if Mr. Astor cared to make any statement to the public. Mr. Astor indicated he desired to make no statement.

A taxicab came along and Mr. Astor departed in it. The crowd out in front was much disappointed.

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. 20. (AP)—Approximately 3,000 students, the largest group in the history of the 59 years of existence for Texas A. & M. college, started class work today.

Formal opening exercises were planned for this afternoon. A first year group of 1,187 was the largest ever received into the school, officials said. It broke a record set in 1928 when 1,078 freshmen registered.

DENTON, Sept. 20. (AP)—Officials of the Texas State College for Women predicted today that the largest attendance in the school's history would be attained before start of class work after noting a registration of 1,607 students during the first two days. The figure showed an increase of 62 per cent over the 1933 registration.

AUSTIN, Sept. 20. (AP)—A record enrollment at the University of Texas was forecast today after 1,670 students paid entrance fees to smash the previous all-time record for opening day registration. University officials estimated an enrollment in excess of 7,000 by expiration of the registration period October 15.

2 FRENCHMEN WILL GRAPPLE HERE MONDAY

CYCLONE MACKAY AND CHARLIE CARR TO BE OPPONENTS

An all-star wrestling card will be presented at the Pla-Mor auditorium Monday night to bring interest in wrestling back to its old position in Pampa. Crowds at the last few matches have been disappointing.

The main event Monday night will bring Charlie Carr, rough man of the mat, and Cyclone Mackey of Amarillo, together. Rex Mobley of Borger and Gene La Belle, the French-Canadian sensation, will tangle in the semi-final. As an added attraction, Molly O'Shea of Fort Worth will meet Billie Morrison of Amarillo in a special event, one fall or 10 minutes time limit. Dan Carver, El Paso speedster, and Barber Kelly, local tonorial artist, will continue hostilities in the preliminary.

Carr, who calls Shreveport his home, is a rough and tough southerner who claims to be afraid of no grappler, little or big. To prove his contention, Carr is meeting Gus Kallio, world's champion, in Amarillo tonight. Carr was runner-up in a tournament held to see who would meet Kallio for a crack at the belt. Carr lost to Viv Webber, who later lost to Kallio.

Cyclone Mackey knows what kind of treatment a champion dishes out. He wrestled Kallio in Abilene last week but fell into a couple of self-strangles. The cyclone is little short of being a favorite in Pampa. Fans wouldn't mind seeing him give Carr a lesson in rough grappling.

Borger's Rex Mobley will be making his initial appearance on a local mat. He is said to be a menace in the ring. La Belle made a hit with fans here Monday when he downed Eddie O'Shea.

The two female grapplers are unknown in this section. Mollie O'Shea is the wife of the Irish roughster who was here Monday. She is said to be a rough grappler. The other member of the "weaker sex" is said to be a promising mat artist.

Barber Kelly won a victory over Dan Carver last week and the little fire-eater from El Paso has demanded a return bout to wipe out the defeat. He will get it in the preliminary.

Jap Planes Roar After Manchukuo And Soviet Row

TOKYO, Sept. 20. (AP)—Eighty Japanese naval planes roared today toward Hanking, capital of Manchukuo, shortly after that "Independent state" sent a protest to Soviet Russia.

An official denial was made here that the planes were sent as a result of difficulties with the Soviet. Instead, it was said, the action was a gesture of friendship and congratulation to Emperor Kang Teh of Manchukuo upon his enthronement—which took place March 1.

The planes have been stationed with the combined fleet, now engaged in annual maneuvers off Dairen, southern Manchukuo.

A Harbin dispatch to the newspaper Asahi today said Manchukuo protested to the Soviet consul-general at Harbin, alleging Russians had occupied an island at the confluence of the Amur and Ussuri rivers. Manchukuo claims this territory as her own.

The protest charged Manchukuoans had been expelled and that the Soviets immediately set to work digging trenches and bringing in munitions.

P-TA STARTS SHOE CAMPAIGN SUCCESSFULLY

WELFARE COMMITTEES WORK TO SUPPLY NEEDY PUPILS

Response to the campaign for Dollar-a-Year Shoe club members launched by the welfare committees of Parent-Teacher associations here yesterday was gratifying, and indicates that funds will be raised sufficient to supply footwear for needy students this winter, workers reported today.

The campaign is a new project this year, designed to supplement the thrift room where used clothing is collected, repaired, and distributed to children who could not otherwise attend school.

Calls are frequent at the thrift room already, as pupils need school clothing. Purchase of new shoes will enable the welfare committee to meet the most serious problem, as used shoes will not fill the demand.

Success of the opening campaign is attributed by Mrs. J. H. Hulme, welfare chairman, to the enthusiastic support and effort of the committees in each association.

Members are Mrs. Roy Kilgore, Mrs. Travis Lively, and Mrs. W. D. Price of High School P-T. A.; Mrs. Ivy Duncan, J. C. Richey, and Mel Davis of Junior High; Mrs. Carl Boston, W. C. de Cordova, and Hugh Ellis of Sam Hous-

Attorney Wants News 'Gag' on Criminal Hunts

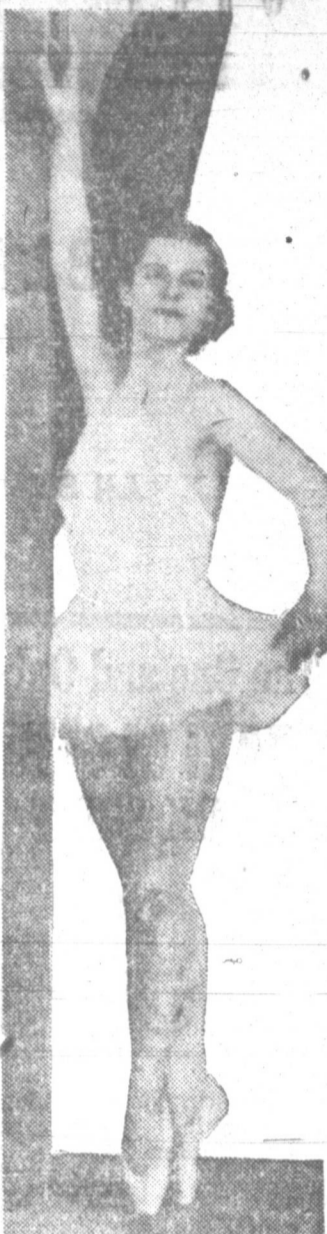

WICHITA FALLS, Sept. 20 (AP)—Jesse Martin, Fort Worth district attorney, proposed today that a law be passed forbidding newspapers and radio stations from revealing activities of officers in felony cases where the accused is still a fugitive.

Martin expressed friendship for the press in an address before the North Texas and Southern Oklahoma Peace Officers' association and asserted he had no criticism of publishing policies in the past but declared that publicity given activities of officers hunting criminals had been the greatest deterrent to prompt administration of punitive justice in such cases.

"Competition has demanded that each paper keep the public fully informed on your efforts to bring criminals to justice," he said, "but, if we can pass a law making it a criminal offense to publish any information about activities of peace officers while the accused is still a fugitive from justice, then we shall have removed the biggest single handicap with which you are now faced in outwitting the criminal."

The association applauded the statement but took no formal action.

BISHOP DEFILES NAZIS AND IS HELD IN HOME

PASTORS ORDERED TO BECOME NAZIS OR GET OUT

BERLIN, Sept. 20. (AP)—Theophil Wurm, whose defiance of Reichsbishop Ludwig Mueller cost him the Bishopric of Wuerttemberg, is a prisoner today in his own home.

By order of Dr. August Jaeger, powerful Nazi commissioner for Protestant churches in Prussia, police guarded the Stuttgart home of the churchman to prevent any attempt he might make to leave.

Dr. Jaeger in a foreign press conference on the Nazi state plan to oppose any attempt to create a church independent of the state said, "whatever opposition remains is the outgrowth of misunderstanding. Our duty is to go through national socialism's totality of ideals."

Church politics is not a matter for clergymen but for the highest church administration. This has nothing to do with the preaching of God's word.

On the Nazi theme of anti-semitism, Dr. Jaeger said, "the Jews kept the race pure by the methods now adopted in Germany. Germany will keep itself pure."

A further development in the Nazi fight against recalcitrant clergymen came with the announcement of Reichsbishop Mueller at Hanover that all opposition pastors become Nazis or get out.

Opposition held that the state intends to dominate all churches was strengthened by the Reichsbishop's statement urging state intervention to establish a united Reich church, presumably including Catholics and Protestants, independent of Rome.

From Wuerttemberg came the word that Dr. Jaeger's edict not to recognize Wurm as their bishop is being ignored by 90 per cent of the clergymen under Wurm's jurisdiction.

THEN . . . the raconteur

Not so long ago, people depended on tales of returned travelers for their information about distant lands—and such tales they were! Horses with wings . . . men with hoots . . . animals that grew on plants. No tale was too tall for those raconteurs in ancient public houses.

And their audiences could take it or leave it. . . There was no way to check up on these stories, no agency devoted to the accurate reporting of what really happened across the world.

NOW . . . the reporter

TODAY, we know as much about what is happening in distant lands as we know about our home city.

The high speed telegraph wires of The Associated Press bring an accurate, complete account of what happened a few minutes ago in Europe, Africa, Asia, the far corners of the world.

The modern newspaper reader, may laugh at the raconteur; he is served with accurate news by reporters.

Because of its membership in The Associated Press, the true story of world events is brought to your door step in

Merten Club Has Demonstration on Tomato Products

Fresh tomatoes from the garden should be used to make tomato juice, said Miss Ruby Adams, county home demonstration agent, to the Merten club at the home of Mrs. Fred C. Fischer yesterday.

In the demonstration Miss Adams used a seprex to separate the juice from the pulp and seeds. It was then heated in an open pan to barely 180 degrees, put in jars, and kept under boiling water five minutes.

Members present for the demonstration were Mmes. Pickering, Bailey, Taylor, Knapp, Haney, Ford, and Browning. Mrs. Heard was a visitor.

56 Prizes Won At Two Fairs by H. D. Club Woman

Mrs. F. C. Knight of the Bluebonnet Home Demonstration club won an unusual number of prizes on her products shown in the Gray county demonstration club fair and the Tri-State fair at Amarillo.

At the county achievement day fair she made 42 entries, tying with Mrs. C. T. O'Neal of McLean for first place as to quantity. She received 13 first places, 10 second, and 8 third.

In the home demonstration division at Amarillo she took two first, one second, and three third places. In the domestic science division she captured 11 first places and 7 seconds.

Mrs. Knight is farm and ranch food supply cooperator in her club.

Mrs. Robinson Is Hostess to Club

Acc-Hi bridge club was entertained yesterday at the home of Mrs. Tommie Robinson. Meetings have been changed to alternate Wednesdays instead of weekly.

Miss Ouida Brandon was a special guest, and members present were Mrs. K. C. Wyatt, Don Salsbury, G. F. Degees, Charles Ford, Ray Chastain, and Miss Mary Patton.

Mrs. Degees scored high. Mrs. Ford received the consolation award, and Mrs. Wyatt the traveling prize. Fruit salad, sandwiches, cookies, and punch were served.

BOMBS HURLED ON JAP FARMS AT SALT RIVER

PROTECTION ASKED IN FIGHT AGAINST ORIENTALS

PHOENIX, Ariz., Sept. 20. (AP)—Dynamite has shattered the quiet Salt river valley has enjoyed since white farmers recently withdrew their demand that Japanese and Hindus evacuate their lands.

Three bombs were hurled on Japanese farms yesterday. Twenty acres of farmland were inundated when one explosion tore out an irrigation dam. The home of R. Sugino was slightly damaged in another blast. In all three cases, dynamite was set off in irrigation ditches near the homes of Japanese farmers.

No one was injured but the Rev. Junro A. Kashtani, Japanese leader, demanded protection of "life and property of Japanese" in the valley. Anti-oriental agitation has "gone too far," he said in protesting to Consul General Tomokazu Hori in Los Angeles.

"I am relying entirely upon the good faith and justice of the American people and on Gov. Moer of Arizona to see that the Japanese in the Salt river valley are treated fairly," the consul general said in announcing he had made no protest to Washington or Tokyo.

Previously the Arizona governor had indicated he would act sternly if white agriculturists resorted to violence in their efforts to drive orientals from the rich valley.

Smith-Roosevelt Men Opposed For Governor's Race

BOSTON, Sept. 20. (AP)—Interest was at its highest pitch here today in the democratic primaries, with James M. Curley, the original "Roosevelt" for president" man of New England opposing Gen. Charles H. Cole, for the gubernatorial nomination.

Cole has the backing of Governor Joseph B. Ely, who at the Chicago national convention nominated Alfred E. Smith for the presidency. Curley was rejected by the primary convention that endorsed Cole.

David I. Walsh, incumbent, has two opponents for the senatorial nomination, former Lieut. Governor Edward P. Barry and William Donahue, both of Boston. Walsh is a resident of Clinton.

Gaspar G. Bacon, republican lieutenant governor is opposed for his party's gubernatorial nomination by Frank A. Goodwin, former register of motor vehicles. The republican candidate for U. S. senator, Robert M. Washburn, is unopposed.

Counter-Protest May Answer Italy

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, Sept. 20. (AP)—Yugoslav newspapers indicated today a counter-protest against "Italian provocation" may be the government's answer to the Italian foreign minister's protest against "trulent" anti-Italian expressions in this nation's press.

The Italian minister here lodged the protest after constant friction between the two nations since the July assassination of Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss of Austria, an incident which caused both nations to rush troops to the Austrian frontier.

There was no official comment here on Rome's action but a Yugoslav official told the Associated Press a recent visit of General Italo Balbo to Dalmatia, a territory causing contention between the two countries, could be considered only a provocation.

Farley Foresees Demo Landslide In Primary Vote

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 20. (AP)—Postmaster General James A. Farley in an interview said the result of the Wisconsin primary is further evidence that "there is going to be just as great a democratic landslide in November 1932" as there was in November, 1932.

"That vote is indicative of the growth of the democratic party as an effective organization, fighting for the liberal policies of government in this country," he said.

PROTESTS ROLL IN ON LOTTERY AS RELIEF AID

Mayor Admits Slim Chance if Plan Goes to Court

NEW YORK, Sept. 20. (AP)—An avalanche of affliction—protests, prospects of court tests, and criticism on the part of Mayor La Guardia—descended today on the plan for a municipal lottery.

A separate hearing for the scheme, part of a three-point program to raise relief funds, was set tentatively for next Thursday, and Mayor La Guardia said:

"They may convince me that we shouldn't undertake it."

The mayor conceded that in the event of a court test, there was but a slim chance that the legislation would be upheld.

Religious and civic organizations, pouring in their protests, laid plans for a mass demonstration Thursday at city hall.

The Brooklyn church and Mission federation, denouncing the lotteries as "unethical and unchristian," announced that 44 Protestant pastors have been asked to circulate round-robins in their congregations.

The lottery resolution, adopted Tuesday by the board of aldermen, realizes the "municipal supplement relief association" as an agency to conduct a disguised lottery, to raise funds for unemployment relief.

Public hearings will be held next Tuesday on the other two measures in the three-point plan—a city income tax and a business tax.

Canada Declines League Proposal

GENEVA, Sept. 20. (AP)—Canada today followed Poland in declining to accept external control of her minority groups. The statement of her position was made in the political committee of the assembly of the League of Nations.

Prof. O. D. Skelton, submitting Canada's position as the committee debated a Polish resolution pressing for the generalization of the protection of minorities, said it was difficult to see the consistency of those who argued that international supervision worked badly in their own countries but wished other countries to adopt it.

Canada could not agree, said Skelton, that it would be equitable

Texan on Board Of Prison Body

HOUSTON, Sept. 20. (AP)—At the helm of the American Prison association today was Stephen P. Ashe, warden of the Western State penitentiary at Pittsburgh, Pa.

And for its next convention site the 500 delegates to the association's annual meeting here selected Atlanta, Ga., by a bare vote over Chicago. Ashe was unopposed for the presidency.

Vice presidents named included Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Harold E. Donnell, Maryland superintendent of prisons; Austin H. McCormick, commissioner of the department of correction of New York; G. A. Padlock of Houston, chairman of the Texas prison board; E. R. Gass of New York was re-elected secretary.

The Warden's association elected S. L. Todhunter president. The warden of the Arkansas penitentiary will serve during the ensuing year.

Mule Still Belongs To Matchmaker Even If Match Is Unhappy

DECATUR, Sept. 20. (AP)—A matchmaker can start a couple to the altar but he can't guarantee marital bliss.

So a Farner county farmer gets to keep the mule he received from a Wise county man for services rendered as a matrimonial agent.

In a suit tried at Boyd, the husband demanded the return of the mule he had given the farmer in return for an introduction to the lady.

He alleged that the union had not been satisfactory and thought he ought to have his mule back.

The jury, however, decided the matchmaker had done all that could be expected of him and therefore was entitled to keep the mule.

Attorneys for the matchmaker pointed out, just by way of showing their client had not been overpaid, that said mule was "an ornery cantankerous" beast.

MORATORIUM ON MORTGAGES FACING COURT

U. S. DISTRICT JUDGE HOLDS ACT IS NOT CONSTITUTIONAL

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20. (AP)—The farm mortgage moratorium amendment—passed by congress and approved by the president amid argument over constitutionality—today apparently was headed for a supreme court test.

The amendment to the national bankruptcy act was held unconstitutional yesterday in a finding by a United States district judge, W. Calvin Chesnut, at Baltimore.

One of the co-authors of the amendment, Senator Frazier (R., N. D.) was on record, even before the Chesnut ruling, as believing an early decision would be requested of the supreme court. The district court decision, based upon dismissal of petitions filed by two Maryland farmers, was looked upon as starting the case along the route to the high court.

President Roosevelt, when he signed the Frazier-Lemke bill, agreed it was loosely worded in some respects and would have to be strengthened by subsequent amendments.

Representative Lemke, the other author of the measure, said in discussing the decision, that "apparently this particular court is very corporation-minded."

When Mr. Roosevelt enacted the measure, he took cognizance of one argument against it with the comment that:

"It has been alleged that insurance companies and other mortgagees will suffer severely through the use of this law by farmers to evade payment of debts within their capacity to meet. I do not subscribe to these fears."

Whether the corporations proposed to take a direct hand in the court test of the amendment was not made known immediately.

To make the existing system of international guarantees of minorities universal.

The committee debated the resolution three hours without coming to a decision and postponed further discussions until tomorrow.

TROTZKY'S NAME MENTIONED IN ABORTIVE SPANISH REVOLT

PLOT REVEALED AS UNIVERSITY COACH SEIZED

CALLED MIXTURE OF "TROTZKY AND GANGSTERISM"

MADRID, Sept. 20 (AP)—The name of Leon Trozky, exiled leader of Soviet Russia, flashed into the picture today as a revolutionary uprising scheduled for daybreak proved abortive.

Rafael Salazar Alonso, minister of the interior, described plans for the rebellion as "Trotsky's strategy, mixed with American gangsterism."

There have been persistent reports that Trozky, ordered from France last April for revolutionary activities, had been seen in Catalonia recently. Attempts to learn his whereabouts through French officials proved unfruitful.

The "zero hour" for the outbreak passed under the vigilance of government guns and there were few signs of the threatened communist and socialist revolt.

Machine guns covered Madrid and squads of picked riflemen patrolled the streets and guarded government buildings. Many suspects, including socialist labor leaders, were under arrest and quantities of arms have been confiscated.

Troops were vigilant in the provinces also but quiet was reported. Authorities said the plot was revealed yesterday by the arrest of Francisco Ordonez, athletic coach at the University of Madrid, and the seizure of documents he carried.

Workmen were called by the government to burrow beneath the socialist central headquarters, where there were reported to be subterranean cells containing arms.

Cabinet members and high officials had been marked for death police said. Plans had been laid, they added, for the capture of munitions plants and to take over the air force and army. A revolutionary general strike was to aid the revolution, who wished to establish a "proletarian state."

Worth Hotel Is Re-Decorated for Fall Business

FORT WORTH, Sept. 20 (Special)—In anticipation of the early fall business revival which includes the resumption of horse racing at Arlington Downs, Dallas State fair track, and the State fair itself, and all of which undoubtedly will attract thousands of West Texans to the twin cities in October and November, the management of the Worth hotel here has completed a program of enlargement and re-decoration, which more than definitely puts this hostelry in a class by itself among the better class hotels in North Texas.

Spacious new dining rooms and banquet halls have been added, and a costly system of ventilation installed in the lower floors, centering about the Worth hotel coffee shop and mezzanine dining room, which enjoys leed air during the hot months from the same plant. New lobby furniture and upholstery, together with new draperies add much beauty to the ground floors, and each of the 300 outside rooms and baths, included in the hotel proper, have been newly decorated and all have new drapes. In the majority of instances, showers have been added to each room's appointments, which include restful furniture, roomy comfortable beds, tiled wall bath, and ample locker space. West Texans for many years have made the Worth hotel headquarters and it is the keen desire of Jack Farrell, manager, to concentrate his efforts toward gaining additional patrons from the large group of visitors from West Texas during the fall months.

SENTENCE TO DIE
DALLAS, Sept. 20 (AP)—Cecil Short, 23, farm youth, faced a death penalty today, assessed him by a jury which convicted him last night of murder for the killing of Aaron Jones, 76, negro, after a robbery which allegedly netted short and William Stone, a companion, only $11. The verdict was the second in the history of Dallas county in which a white man was given the death penalty for the killing of a negro.

FOUR BULLETS KILL GAMBLER AS HE KNEELS

Another Small-Time Gambler Shot By Rivals

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Sept. 20 (AP)—This is how Fred Bocci died today—at half past midnight—in the Cristofolo club at 533 Metropolitan avenue—with four bullets in his body.

He died praying, this 27-year-old gambler and former felon who once did time in the New Jersey state prison at Trenton on a shooting charge.

Two dozen men were in the room. Bocci sat with three others at a table, playing pinchle.

Two fellows entered. Each carried a pistol. "This is not a holdup, gentlemen," said one. "If you remain quiet and do not attempt to leave the room, no one will get hurt—except that rat."

Venom dripped from the last word, directed at Bocci. Bocci tried to speak. "I'm a good fellow," he stammered. "I'm everybody's pal."

"Shut up," snapped the gunman. "If you want to pray, make it snappy. You're no good in Jersey. You're no good in Brooklyn. Pray. You need to."

Bocci sent a frantic glance around the room. It was quite still. Most of the men had their hands above their heads. Others gaped, fear-stricken. Murder was in the air.

Near where he knelt, mumbled Bocci saw a phone booth. Refuge!

Bocci taking his only chance, leaped for the booth. Two bullets in the back, the third through the breast, and a fourth through his right hand.

The killers walked out to a waiting car, and drove away. "About four hours later, in front of 6605 13th Avenue another car drove up. The door was opened and William Gallo, 26, was pushed from the tonneau.

As he fell to the sidewalk shots rang out. The car sped away. Police found the badly wounded Gallo suffering gunshot wounds in the head, back, abdomen and legs. He was taken to Kings county hospital where his condition was said to be critical.

Gallo, married but separated from his wife, was said by police to have been a small time gambler with a police record. They ascribed the shooting to rival gamblers.

Vitamin D Bread Is Put on Sale By Dilley Bakery

Dilley's Pan Dandy bread with Vitamin D content was placed on sale here this week. It is something new.

Vitamin D is introduced by means of a vitamin extract perfected by Prof. Zucker of Columbia university. It can be used in both white and whole wheat bread without changing the color or flavor.

Dilley Bakeries have obtained the exclusive use of the extract in this area. The bread is distinguished by the orange wrapper.

Vitamin D is essential for preservation of the teeth, growth of bones in children, and general health. A deficiency of it leads to susceptibility to colds.

TIGER ISLAND

By GOUVERNEUR MORRIS

serious and pompous the young can be. Averaged over the experience of many years, the rains proper were not due for several weeks, but the experience of any given year is often filled with exceptions and the weather is not controlled by the memories and statistics of scientific men.

Chapter 20. GATHERING CLOUDS
"Will you tell me one thing," asked Flint.

"Perhaps."
"Are you in love with him?"
"I can't help it if I am, can I?" she said.

Flint shrugged his shoulders. "That's a tough break for me," he said. "If he hadn't been along everything might have been different."

The two chairs were close together. Flint's hands rested on the arms of his. Ivy patted the hand that was nearer to her.

"Poor boy," she said. "I am sorry. I don't want to hurt anyone, but you'll get over it. You're just a kid. I am too old for you, for one thing."

Bowers returned, still whistling cheerfully. He had a half-glass of water and five-grain Pyramidon tablet, and he stood over Flint until the disconsolate youth had swallowed the latter.

At their backs was all that remained of a fantastic sunset, and presently the first soft vibrations of the "Get Ready" song began to sound.

Sometimes when Ivy went below to shower Bowers had himself doused with sea-water and did his dressing on deck. But tonight the shower appealed to him and still more, the chance of a kiss or two before dinner.

"Give me ten minutes," Ivy said. "And the shower is yours."

And she went below with Helen holding her by the hand and prancing at her side. "She's a great girl," said Flint.

"That isn't the half of it," said Bowers, and he looked at his watch. "Circus life must be awful hard sledding in this part of the world," said Flint.

"She is going to get out of that," said Bowers.

"I'd hate for anybody to give her a raw deal when I was around," said Flint.

Bowers shot a sideways glance at the speaker and thought how very hand, and competent men to man them, and land of continental proportions perhaps distantly in sight, should have no real terrors for anyone.

It was not possible for either Bowers or Ivy to know that the ship had been wrecked on purpose. Two passengers occupied with the care of the menagerie and engrossed in each other would never notice that the course of the ship upon which they traveled had been altered a point or two.

Both, as a matter of fact, were extraordinarily ignorant of seacraft. They did not know that the weather was making up for premature rain.

They did not know that the shroud of blue smoke ahead and on the star-board-bows was the smoke of a little volcano that had once risen out of the sea with volcanic noises that were audible at the distance of a thousand miles and had subsided and through the ages with the help of erosion, climate and sea-born seeds, made a little island home for itself.

If they gave the smoke a thought, they thought that it was the smoke of a far-off steamer.

The reef which paralleled the course of the Boldero, not of course the superstructure of the coral-builders but the more solid volcanic substructure, had perhaps risen from the ocean bottom in company with the volcano. It was not, of course, continuous. There were many breaks, deep and wide passes through which several ships could have moved abreast, and a man who steered for it at a right angle might miss it altogether.

But approached by a long diagonal which made a narrow angle of the ship's course and the reef-structure itself you were bound to score a hit. The Boldero was old, she would crack like an egg, and in addition the sea-cocks would be opened.

Except for Wong Bo and Flint and the officers and the crew of the Boldero, who were doubly to be depended on, Wong Bo and Flint for reasons too obvious to mention and the officers and the crew first because they had not been told what was going to take place, and second because they were Chinese with a preternatural instinct for keeping their own counsel, the only witnesses to the impending and intended disaster would be Ivy and Bowers (who would perish) sea birds and the things that swim in the sea.

About 5 o'clock Ivy and Bowers could see for themselves that the smoke off the star-board-bow did not come from the funnel of a steamer, but from a deep purple cone shaped like a widely opened, inverted fan.

In this discovery the passengers took only a passing interest. If they had taken a little more interest and asked a few questions of Flint or Capt. Wong Bo, they would have discovered that the volcano was part of a small island which because of its shape (it seemed that it had a body and four legs and a head and even something like the stump of a tail) was called Tiger Island.

And if they had learned this, they would in the immediate future have been spared much ail and anxiety.

To a vast height the western horizon below which the high peaks of Borneo had sunk during the day was piled with huge fantastic formations of black clouds. When the sun had gone down behind these, they were not penetrated here and there as usual by shafts and splashes of color. Between the setting of the sun and night there was only a short twinkle of twilight.

After dinner the usual rubbers of bridge were not played. Capt. Wong Bo did not like the look of the weather. It looked like rain. The glass was low. If they cared to go on deck, they would see that the stars were being extinguished one by one and in clusters.

Navigation in these waters, Capt. Wong Bo explained, was not easy, and his place was on the bridge. That it would rain and heavily be-

Harbin Flood Shown in Film Of News Shots

Scenes of desolation as floodwaters sweep over a wide area around Harbin, Manchukuo, are seen in the current issue of the Pampa Daily NEWS-Universal Newsreel which has Graham McNamee, as its talking reporter, at LaNora theater.

Japanese troops stationed in the new Empire work feverishly to repair the dikes, the failure of which has resulted in the loss of many lives and thousands of homes.

Other important events seen in the reel are thrilling speed and stunt flights at the National Air Races in Cleveland, O.; the removal of $70,000,000 in gold bars to the U. S. Mint at Denver, Colo., from San Francisco; the flaming airplane that crashed after a successful rainmaking experiment in Waxahatchie, Tex., causing fatal injuries to the rain-maker; the perilous recovery from the gas-filled crater of Mt. Hood, Ore., of the body of a University of Washington student; the thrilling race for the International Lifeboat trophy among crews from transatlantic steamship lines which ends under George Washington Bridge in New York City; placing the world's biggest penstock at Boulder Dam; and the spirited competition in which Katherine Rawls breaks the world's record for the 50-metre swim during a four-rung water circus at Jones Beach, N. Y.

LOTTERY OPPOSED
NEW YORK, Sept. 19 (AP)—A broadside of criticism was directed today at the city's proposals to raise relief funds through new taxes and a municipal lottery. Threat of a legal fight against the lottery was voiced. No sooner had the board of estimate passed the hurriedly drawn-up measures than protests were raised in several quarters.

fore morning he was almost certain, and he advised the passengers for once to sleep below.

But they would not. On deck the heat was sufficiently oppressive. When the rain actually did come, they said, there would be plenty of time to go below, and, who could know, maybe it would be a cold rain.

Tomorrow, Wong Bo sends his first officer on a sinister errand.
