

TWO GANGSTERS, SENTENCED TO DIE, SHOOT 3 OFFICERS AND ESCAPE JAIL

DRAW PISTOLS EN ROUTE TO SEE ATTORNEY

ONE OFFICER PERHAPS FATALLY WOUNDED IN RAMPAGE

RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 29 (AP)—Shooting their way to freedom in a sensational escape from jail, two notorious gangsters, under sentence of death for murder, today wounded three officers and tonight were being sought over a widespread area.

Walter Legenza and Robert Mais, the criminals, drew pistols as they were being led from their cells in the Richmond city jail to confer with an attorney.

They shot Warden W. A. Moore and Deputy Sergeant John A. Delph and then ran through the front reception room, firing wildly.

Police Officer W. A. Toots, rushing to the jail entrance from the outside, received a bullet through his chest, perhaps fatal, as the gangsters forced their way through the jail door.

Racing through an alley next to the jail, Legenza and Mais held up a mail truck at Fourteenth street and forced Joe Richardson and H. D. Moon, negro drivers cut at the point of a pistol. They drove the truck several blocks to where E. T. Carpenter was parking a sedan, took it after dragging him from the seat, and drove away at a rapid pace. They were last seen speeding north on Twentieth street.

Every available city and state policeman was summoned to join in the hunt for the two men, who were awaiting transfer to the death cell in the state penitentiary for their part in the holdup and slaying of E. M. Huband, federal reserve bank mail driver here last March. The warning went last night in fifteen minutes to cities on every main highway.

Legenza, who boasted at his trial that he had cracked safes from New York to New Orleans, and Mais, now suffering from six bullet wounds fired into his back by Baltimore police, had been guarded with the greatest care, both "inside" and "outside" aid. The manner in which they obtained guns was a mystery as no one had been allowed to see them except Mais' mother.

During the afternoon police concentrated their search in the fashionable Center park area. They attempted to squad cars to keep a close watch for a DeSoto roadster with red wheels and a trunk in the rear.

Panic reigned among the other prisoners as the two gangsters began firing, but officers who were attempting to enter the jail through the rear door and ran while Charles W. Moss, attorney for the two men and a member of the Virginia legislature, ducked behind furniture in the room at the other side of the hall.

Moss said he had come to the jail to confer with the two gangsters about an appeal to the Virginia supreme court of appeals. The wounds of Warden Moore and Deputy Sergeant Helph were not serious.

Legenza was to die in the electric chair Oct. 22 and was to follow early in November. The bombing of the club Forest gangster rendezvous near the city, just before the trials, and reported threats to a member of the Mais jury, caused police to fear "outside aid."

Police hurriedly threw a guard around the Henrico county jail where they were holding Arthur Misunas, confessed participant in the holdup who turned state's witness to name Legenza as the killer and Mais as a member of the gang. Misunas, who is awaiting sentence, said he thought they would come there to "get me" for revealing at the trials.

Police recalled also an attempt at Upper Darby, Pa. to kidnap Mrs. Leonora Gosselin Fontaine, gang girl friend of the slain gang leader "Big George" Phillips. She appeared as a witness in the trial and accused Mais of shooting her after Phillips' death because she "knew too much."

To Discharge CCC Boys in Wyoming

Fifty enrollees of company 844, Civilian Conservation corps, will be discharged from the camp at Guernsey, Wyo., Sept. 30, according to Leo C. Houghton, educational adviser.

Most of these men are seeking employment. Mr. Houghton asked that they be given sympathetic consideration. Two Gray county men in the list are Lloyd Houston and Orville Dickerson.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Coffin returned Friday night from Chicago and points in Missouri.

WILL PASS ON 3 TEXAS OIL FIELD CASES

HIGHEST TRIBUNAL IN LAND MEETS ON MONDAY

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29. (AP)—Justices of the supreme court gathered in the capital today for the opening on Monday of what appears likely to be the tribunal's most historic term.

In the hands of the nine justices will be cases holding possibility of sustaining or upsetting major parts of the new deal. Already before the court are five cases arising out of Roosevelt recovery laws.

Simultaneously with the court's gathering a compilation cases involving the NRA and AAA in the lower courts showed today that the new deal has a battling average of 768 in these legal jousts.

The United States Law Week in its next issue will publish the following case sheet for actions in lower federal courts.

Cases instituted under the NRA and AAA—232.
Cases in which trial courts have acted—99.

Won by government (favorable court action)—76.
Lost by government (unfavorable court action)—78.

Percentage—768.
The relative success scored by government counsel should be discounted somewhat, the Law Week will say, "since in 12 of the cases counted as resulting in court action favorable to the government the decrees were entered by consent; in some of the criminal cases the defendant pleaded guilty; and the favorable action taken in a few other cases was the entry of a temporary injunction pending final hearing."

PIONEER PAMPA BANKER DIES AT FOOTBALL GAME

Funeral Services To Be Held Monday Morning

Tragedy saddened the large crowd at Harvesters field Friday night despite the victory for death visited the crowded stands and took B. E. Finley, pioneer Panhandle banker and for 15 years president of the First National bank. He was 65 years old.

Mr. Finley, who was watching the game from the west grandstand, suffered a fatal heart attack at the end of Red Fanning's 36-yard weaving, slashing rampage through Quash's Redskins in the first quarter. He was sitting between George Adame, owner of a store at Phillips amp and Adame's brother Mr. Adame said he noticed Mr. Finley shudder. The banker then collapsed and fell over in Adame's lap. Death was instantaneous, doctors said.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at the First Baptist church with Dr.

Expected to Reply to His Critics and Name New Future Recovery Plans.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29. (AP)—President Roosevelt drafted today a new accounting of his administration, designed among other things to stop business and political critics of the NRA and send that reshaped agency off to a flying start.

In what is intended as a man to man chat with the people by radio tomorrow night he will speak in this fashion for the first time since last June when he left for a Hawaiian vacation. It will be delivered in radically altered circumstances, both for the president and many of his hearers.

The three-month interval has brought new and outspoken demands from business leaders for at least a new definition if not a shift in the present trend of administrative policies—especially those vital ones dealing with government spending, budget balancing, currency stabilization and NRA control of business.

The same period has allowed President Roosevelt personally to tour the country and in the seclusion of his Hyde Park home to gather advice from leaders in all walks of life—industry, labor, agriculture and finance.

If organized business, through such outlets as the United States chamber of commerce, has become more determined in opposition to some phases of the new deal, it was

"They" were Gray county peace officers and the dog belonged to a moonshiner who had an expensive stake on McLean and somewhat west of McLean. The raid was made early Friday night, but the operator or operators of the plant fled, evidently warned by the little dog's bark as the officers approached.

FDR'S SUGGESTED RELIEF POLICY WOULD BE GREAT HARDSHIP HERE

Although President Roosevelt has said recently that communities should share equally with the government the cost of feeding and clothing the unemployed, this policy would be a great hardship in Pampa, it was stated to Pampa Kiwanians Friday by Mrs. W. H. Davis, county relief administrator.

Mrs. Davis reviewed the history of local relief from the Community Chest days, when a few thousands were considered liberal support of the needy. Now the cost of relief is $10,000 a month in Gray county and this will increase during winter months. Last winter, about $106,000 was spent in Cwa work.

In answer to questions by Olin E. Hinkle, Mrs. Davis brought out that present unemployment relief through FEERA is hardly adequate at best. State funds are received only infrequently. Four hundred clients, well investigated and cataloged as to needs, are on the rolls.

As to source of possible local funds, it was pointed out that the Gray county general fund is limited by law and that most of this is budgeted for necessary expenses. The city levies no tax for general purposes and supports its departments partly through profits from the water department.

Mrs. Davis, relying to a question, said she was not permitted to pay for hospitalization. Yet an intolerable burden is being placed on local hospitals for emergency operations on those unable to pay.

C. H. Walker, member of the relief board, explained how that citizens can help by referring complainants and relief requests to Mrs. Davis. He showed that there is a way to care for transients and all other applicants in every particular except hospitalization. This statement may not be true later if the president's policy is continued, unless the community establishes its Community Chest.

Alex Schneider, chairman of the county board, directed the program. President Fred Thompson of the club announced that penny jars would be placed about the city for one month to raise funds for the organization's work for underprivileged children.

WILL PROTEST MOVE TO STOP CATTLE BUYING

WILL ASK 3 MILLION MORE HEAD BE PURCHASED

AMARILLO, Sept. 29 (AP)—Cattlemen from the nation's principal ranching region are due in Washington Monday to tell federal authorities that 2,000,000 head of cattle may starve this winter if government buying is not continued.

Jay Taylor of Amarillo, president of the Panhandle Livestock association, said the delegation of representatives of livestock groups in Texas, New Mexico and Colorado will enter a vigorous protest against the government's plan to cease buying cattle in the drought area.

The delegation is due to reach the national capital Monday morning and will make a direct appeal to the government to continue the buying program until 3,000,000 more head are taken from the ranges, Taylor said.

The decision to carry the plea to Washington in behalf of large ranchers was made at a meeting here of cattlemen representing a vast area. The delegation consists of Taylor, Grover Hill, director of the buying program in Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico; Charlie Collins, president of the American National Livestock association; Kit Karson, Colo. Berkeley Soiler, president of the Texas and Southwest cattle raisers' association; and Julian Bivins, Amarillo rancher.

Representatives of the New Mexico Livestock association and the Northeast Panhandle Herford Feeders association also plan to go to Washington.

"Ranchers in the principal cattle raising belt of the nation will be ruined unless the buying program is continued until a total of 10,000,000 head of cattle have been bought," Taylor said.

"Between 2,000,000 and 3,000,000 head of cattle will die on the ranges of Texas, New Mexico, Colorado, Wyoming and North and South Dakota before winter is very old unless the buying program is continued," Taylor said.

Announcement from Washington Friday that the buying program had been extended in Texas for two weeks, during which time 75,000 head of cattle were to be purchased, was seen as insufficient by Taylor and other stockmen.

A. T. Parton and Rhodes Injured In Car Accident

Extent of injuries sustained by A. T. Parton and Charles Rhodes in a car accident Friday afternoon have not been definitely determined. It is believed the men escaped without bone fractures but they were cut and bruised so badly that internal injuries might follow.

The two men were en route to LeFors and were making the turn to the LeFors road a mile south of Pampa when their car left the pavement between the Oilfield highway and the LeFors road. The car jumped off the shoulder and then overturned several times. It was badly damaged.

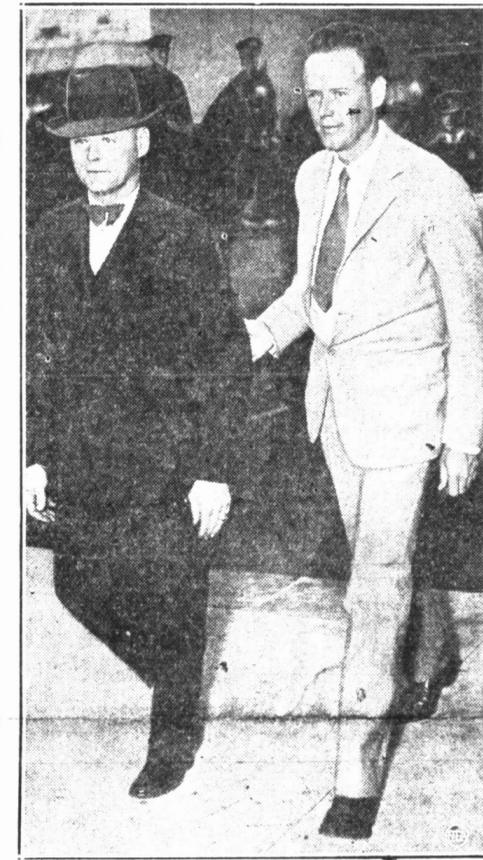

Mr. Parton was believed to have suffered a fractured skull, besides cuts and bruises about the head and shoulders, but after he had a restful night physicians were optimistic. Mr. Rhodes received severe jaw injuries as well as cuts and bruises.

McCLESKEY WITHDRAWS FROM CONTEST, AGREEING THAT HIS OPPONENT BE GIVEN OFFICE

Commissioner Abides By Will of His Neighbors

Thos. O. Kirby, former commissioner, will be the democratic nominee for commissioner of precinct 3, Gray County. Judgment of this effect was entered in district court yesterday, ending the election contest filed by Mr. Kirby against Commissioner H. G. McCleskey, incumbent and nominee certified following the first democratic primary of July 28.

The conclusion of the contest came Saturday morning when Mr. McCleskey took the stand at the opening of court and expressed his desire to withdraw. He stated that, while in court he had heard a number of his neighbors testify during trial of the case and tell how they had voted for Mr. Kirby. They were sufficient in number to change the majority of the votes for Mr. Kirby, and he said that he had no reason to believe that they had not in truth intended to vote for the contestant. In answer to questions of his attorneys, Mr. McCleskey said that he had absolutely no knowledge of any changes.

Jimmie Allred Wins Foot Race At County Fair

TEMPLE, Sept. 29 (AP)—James V. Allred, democratic nominee for Governor of Texas, proved today that he was a good runner in a foot race as well as in a political race.

At the East Bell county fair at Seaton, where he spoke in the afternoon, Attorney General Allred was challenged to a race by J. M. Bartek and Will Marek. He doffed his coat and took the mark with his two opponents.

Although he got off to a bad start, he came in with a burst of speed to win.

He turned to Bartek and said: "You can't run as fast as Tom Hunter." (Hunter was Allred's opponent for the governorship in the democratic run-off primary.)

TURKISH DICTATOR MAY WED ONE OF FOUR ALBANIAN PRINCESSES

VIENNA, Sept. 29. (AP)—The possibility that Turkey's 67-year-old dictator, Mustapha Kemal Pasha, may choose a bride from among the four marriageable sisters of King Zog of Albania was under discussion here today.

Belgrade dispatches to Austrian newspapers said announcement of an engagement might be made during the expected visit of King Zog to Ankara shortly.

The militant, 38-year-old king of Albania once declared publicly that Balkan tradition would not allow him to marry until he, as the eldest son of the ruling house, had successfully married off all his sisters. Two of six are now married.

Kemal Pasha, the man who emancipated Turkish women, is said to have expressed a desire to re-marry. He was divorced in 1925 by his own decree from the young and beautiful Latife Hanoum, daughter of a wealthy merchant of Smyrna.

MYSTERY WILL NOT BE TOLD LAWYER AVERS

'VERY IMPORTANT INFORMATION' GIVEN BY FEMALE

NEW YORK, Sept. 29. (AP)—A mystery woman witness entered the Lindbergh kidnaping investigation tonight with the disclosure by District Attorney Samuel J. Foley that she had given him "very important" information in the case of Bruno Richard Hauptmann, accused of extorting the $50,000 ransom.

Foley said he had questioned the woman privately and she had not appeared before the grand jury.

"She came and went as quickly as Lindbergh and nobody knew anything about her," he said at a press conference.

The prosecutor declined to reveal the woman's name, where she came from, or when he had conducted the examination.

To a suggestion that he might be withholding this information to make her testimony at Hauptmann's trial a surprise, Foley replied: "That is true, but it is not the principal reason. This is one thing that will not leak out."

Foley's announcement started conjecture as to whether the woman might be the "Mysterious Mary" whose picture the Daily News said was in Hauptmann's album of snapshots. The department of justice was said by the paper to be seeking the girl for questioning.

"Discussing the case in general, Foley said: "At present the only man against whom we have sufficient evidence to act in indictments is Hauptmann. We have no new leads. We have no information that might lead to identify anyone as an accomplice."

To Examine Hauptmann

He had no idea, he said, as to where the unrecovered portion of the ransom money might be. Some of the bills were found in Hauptmann's garage.

Announcing that he was permitting two physicians to visit Hauptmann in his cell in the Bronx county jail, Foley said three alienists would give the prisoner a mental examination next week.

"I cannot report on that," he said in reply to a question as to whether doctors had discovered any physical disability in Hauptmann.

Dr. Thurston H. Dexter, family physician to Hauptmann's attorney, examined the prisoner late in the day.

James M. Fawcett, Hauptmann's counsel, declared the physician made only a physical examination and that no mental test was involved. He disclosed also that Dr. Dexter previously had examined Hauptmann last Tuesday.

"Our investigators have located a number of material witnesses in New York state," Fawcett said in discussing the case, "and they have made affidavits extremely helpful to the defendant."

Handwriting Studied

Fawcett added he was studying the qualifications of well-known pathologists, hand-writing and fingerprint experts and some of these would be called to testify at the trial.

He declined to answer questions regarding the proposed defense for Hauptmann although he had indicated previously that he would

Quannah Rout Shows Harvesters Improved Since Sooner Fiasco

LISTLESS LINE IS POUNDED BY VISITING TRIBE

VETS AND 2 LINESMEN SHOW UP WELL IN GAME

Much improved over their unimpressive start against the Capitol Hill Red Skins of Oklahoma City, Pampa's Harvesters Friday night inaugurated night football here with a 22 to 7 victory over the class A Indians of Quannah high school.

Scoring by periods:
Pampa ..... 6 13 7 6—32
Quannah ..... 0 0 0 7—7

Offensively, the locals presented some fast heels to the scrapping Indians. Defensively, the line in particular again showed a listlessness which enabled the hard-charging visitors to rock the Harvester forwards on their heels. Blocking on offense was noticeably better than at Oklahoma City, when the big Red Skins met local backs often behind the line of scrimmage.

Green Developing
Captain Monroe Owens rampaged as of old and two linesmen shared fans' attention. They were Green, right tackle, who is looming up for all-district and possibly all-state honors, and Smith, left guard, whose aggressive alertness was valuable.

For Quannah, Whited and Slaton in the backfield gave the Harvesters trouble and the fiery line, though not the physical equal of the locals, put on several impressive exhibitions. Pampa kicked off with Mackie booting. He kicked to Whited who took the ball on his 15-yard line and returned it to the 31-yard line. Quannah then started what appeared to be a march goal-ward with Whited and Slaton making a first down. Whited continued to step back for a short pass but had no open man. He decided to carry the ball and raced around left end for a touchdown, standing up. Whited added the extra point.

Hamilton took the kick-off, and returned to his 20-yard line. Dunaway made a first down on two plays and then Hamilton ran 15 yards. Quannah held and Dunaway had to kick. The Harvesters also held and Green broke through to block Whited's punt for a two-yard loss, placing the ball on Quannah's 18-yard line. Hamilton failed to gain on a bad pass from center but on the next play, Mackie outdistanced the entire Quannah backfield to race 18 yards around his own left end for a touchdown. The try for extra point failed because of a bad pass from center.

Harvester substitutes were rushed into the game. Whited returned the kick-off to his 33-yard line. Whited made 8 yards but on the next play lost six when Smith broke through for a nice tackle. Whited's punt went off the side of his toe and rolled two yards back to the line of scrimmage where Pampa recovered. Pampa was penalized 15 yards for a substitute talking and the game ended with passes filling the air.

MAD DODGERS WHIP GIANTS 5 TO 1 ROUT

INSULTED DODGERS GET REVENGE ON BILL TERRY

By EDWARD J. NEIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Sept. 29. (AP)—The 1933 pennant hopes of the New York Giants came crashing down around their ears today as the irate Brooklyn Dodgers, behind the magnificent pitching of veteran Van Lingle Munsie, beat them 5 to 1, knocked them out of the lead they've held since June and just about boosted the St. Louis Cardinals right into the world series with the Detroit Tigers.

There is no more game to go before rigor mortis sets in officially, but as far as the world champion Giants are concerned, the situation is as desperate as it can be without real hope having departed. The Cardinals' 6 to 1 victory over Cincinnati gave the Red Birds a full game lead with but one to go. The Giants must whip the Dodgers in the final game tomorrow while St. Louis is losing to restore the lead and force the first play-off series in major league history. Under no possible circumstance can the Giants now get better than a tie for the regular season, or the Cards worse than that.

It was a day as drab and cheerless as the Giants' prospects. Thirsting for revenge ever since Bill Terry cyclicly questioned for publication last winter whether Brooklyn was still in the league, the Dodgers came roaring over the bridge that separates the boroughs to play like world champions while the Giants frittered nervously all over the main-sacker and in the half drizzle that shrouded the play.

And the swarm of rabid rooters that came with the invaders, numbering most of the 13,744 who paid in, didn't help the Giants any with their whole-hearted booing and mad array of noise-making machinery.

No team in baseball history ever has blown in so short a time the lead the Giants had piled up, seven full games at the high water mark, Sept. 6, after leading the league from June on. The world champions have lost twelve out of their last twenty games, while the Cards have won 17 out of 22. The closest approach to this colossal debacle was the loss of a seven-game lead by the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1921, but five of that evaporated in an August series with the ultimate winner, John McGraw's Giants.

After today's game was over, Casey Stengel, manager of the Dodgers, headed proudly back to his own locker. "Well, we're still in the league. But we're by no means still."

BENGALS HELD TO 9 TO 9 TIE BY RICE OWLS

HOUSTON, Sept. 29. (AP)—An ambitious, scrapping Rice eleven outplayed a powerful Louisiana State aggregation during much of the second half today and gained a 9 to 9 tie with the highly-touted invaders from the Southeastern conference.

The Tigers had to come from behind to escape their first defeat since 1932. The Owls held a 9 to 0 lead early in the fourth period and it took some excellent kicking by Abe Mickal and hard running by Mickal and the fleet "Rock" Beid to enable the Bengals to pull up even on a touchdown and a safety.

All the scoring was crammed in the final minutes of the third period and the first half of the fourth. McCauley's pass to Witt paved the way for the first Rice score. Mickal tipped the pass but Witt grabbed it and raced to the 15-yard line for 33 yards gain. The Owls could make only seven yards in three tries so the heavy McCauley called for a try for field goal. Leche Sylvester of Baytown stood on the 15-yard line and sent the pigskin over the uprights.

Owl rosters hardly had had time to steep cheering that kick when a Louisiana fumble gave Rice the ball in Tiger territory early in the fourth period. Smith cut off left tackle and as he was about to be stopped, tossed a short lateral to Friedman who continued 23 yards across the goal line. Sylvester failed on the try for extra point.

Javelinas Tie Aggies
COLLEGE STATION, Sept. 29. (AP)—The Texas Aggies desperately took to the air in the last four minutes of play to score a touchdown and escape with a 14-14 tie in a thriller with the scrappy Texas A. and I. Javelinas here today.

The Javelinas who carried the fight most of the way, snatching every break to stage one of the greatest battles by an underrated foe seen here in many years. "Stumpo" Massey, a little end who was injured late in the final period, was the outstanding star for the Javelinas, and the game.

Porkers Unimpressive
FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Sept. 29. (AP)—Slowed down by a rain-soaked gridiron, the University of Arkansas football team was unimpressive today as the Porkers opened their football season with a 13 to 0 victory over the College of Ozarks Mountaineers.

Rucker, junior half-back, accounted for both touchdowns, the first score coming in the second period after Oliver Criswell, line backer, fullback, and Elvin Geiser, bantam half-back, had carried the ball on a 35-yard drive. Geiser added the extra point from placement.

S. M. U. Wins Easily
DALLAS, Sept. 29. (AP)—Furnishing scoring steam by Robert Wilson's flying feet, the Southern Methodist Mustangs galloped to a 33 to 0 victory today over the Austin college Kangaroos in a non-conference game.

CANNOT LOSE FLAG WITHOUT NEW PLAYOFF

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 29.—The National League's latest "wonder team," the St. Louis Cardinals, rose to the leadership of the circuit today, just one day before the end of the season, by slamming out a 6 to 1 victory over the lowly Cincinnati Reds to break their first-place deadlock with the New York Giants.

The triumph was coincident with New York's 5-1 defeat at the hands of the Brooklyn Dodgers and put the Cards a full game ahead, in a spot where they can't lose the flag without going through the first playoff series in major league history.

Buried in third place less than a month ago, the Cards gained their third straight triumph over Cincinnati and their twenty-first in 28 games since they deserted that position. Young Paul Dean did the trick today, pitching expertly in the "glitches" to subdue the Cincinnati batsmen, although he gave them eleven hits.

McCauley's pass to Witt paved the way for the first Rice score. Mickal tipped the pass but Witt grabbed it and raced to the 15-yard line for 33 yards gain. ### Grid Captain Is Killed in Game

WACO, Sept. 29. (AP)—The nation's first football fatality of the young season was recorded here today when Edward Thiele, 18-year-old captain of the Valley Mills team, died from a brain injury received in a game with Lorena high school yesterday.

As the game ended young Thiele collapsed. "I think I'm going to faint," he told team members and then lapsed into unconsciousness. He did not regain consciousness before his death tonight. Physicians said his brain had been injured.

He is survived by his parents and five sisters and seven brothers.

SCORELESS TIE
LAWRENCE, Kas., Sept. 29. (AP)—Colorado and Kansas opened their football season here today in a scoreless tie, hardly getting within hailing distance of the goals, as they played through a ragged defensive battle over an inaugural day crowd of 7,664.

Orville Heiskell Promises To Be Freshman Star
Orville Heiskell, star fullback and center on the Harvester football squad last year, is one of the most promising prospects on the Baylor Freshman football squad, according to stories in a Waco newspaper. The Waco paper of Monday stated that Heiskell was one of the most promising half backs on the freshman team. Orville Heiskell, backfield ace of the Pampa Harvesters last season, is another star listed among those who should become a regular in the Cub backfield—and may prove one of the best on the team before the season has gone far," the paper stated.

From other cities where Pampa athletes are attending come papers and clippings of the prowess of Harvester material. Down at Texas Christian university in Ft. Worth, Paul Hill and Clovis Green are two outstanding tackles, while on the Freshman team, Miles Marbaugh is showing up well.

From Roswell, N. M., comes word that Buck Nungy is scheduled to be an ace in the New Mexico Military Institute backfield.

"Troy Stalls and Joe Kahl were in Tulsa university's game last week and Jim Pool was also a good performer.

PRESIDENT

believed the president too has returned to the white house with new ideas and firmer convictions for charting his recovery program.

That he should not hesitate to voice them tomorrow, bluntly replying to critics and to what he calls the grist of the "rumor mill," was the call of many of his followers.

Also it was a generally expressed desire that the chief executive elaborate on the future of government code partnership with business.

The president himself gave no hint of the subject of his address.

By October 15 the board headed by Clay Williams must advise Mr. Roosevelt on his temporarily stayed order cutting the cotton garment work week from 40 to 36 hours without a wage slash. Before that report goes in the American Federation of Labor will renew its demand on record for a 30-hour week.

The chamber of commerce and the National Association of Manufacturers undoubtedly continue in active opposition to such a step.

Despite Mr. Roosevelt's earlier rebuff of its direct questionnaire on new deal policies—which the president said reminded him of the lawyer's question, "Have you stopped beating your wife?"—the chamber of commerce again today reiterated its demand for clarification of new deal policies to quiet "apprehension" which it believes is retarding recovery.

Tomorrow night's radio talk may, without direct reference, contain some of the answers.

The address may be heard in Pampa at 9 o'clock, local time.

GORILLAS ARE BEATEN 20-0 BY CANADIAN

PASSES DEFEAT LOCAL CLUB IN FRIDAY GAME

After outplaying the Canadian Wildcats in the first half, the Pampa high school Gorillas faded badly in the second half and fell before the Wildcats 20 to 0 Friday afternoon in Canadian.

The two teams played to a 6 to 6 tie last season. A pass, Lopez to Lopez, near the middle of the third quarter paved the way for the one-sided defeat.

Another pass, this time Lopez to Isaacs, accounted for the second touchdown. Ford crashed across for the last counter-charge—the final whistle. The first touchdown was the result of a 20 yard pass and a 30-yard run by the fleet little Mexican. The second pass was good for 29 yards.

The Gorillas presented four real fighters in Walstad, center, Eric Green, tackle, and Woodridge and Mumford, halfbacks. Oliver also showed up well while in the game.

Other members of the Pampa team faded badly in the second half. The boozing of Showers continued to be sensational but his last attempt was blocked when his line leaked and a touchdown resulted.

Next Friday the Gorillas will go to White Deer for a game.

Jeff Bearden to Meet Midkiff in Semi-Final Today

Jeff Bearden and A. C. Midkiff will meet in one of the semi-final rounds of the Country club hand golf tournament today. Four golfers still remain in the other bracket. They will cut the players down to two today.

Marvin Harris will tangle with Grover Austin, Jr., and R. C. Allen will meet Bob Mitchell in the quarter finals of the upper bracket. The two winners will play during the week and the finalists will clash next Sunday to see who will get the 21-inch cup to be given by the Country club.

When Bearden and Midkiff meet this afternoon, Bearden will have to give Midkiff one stroke on the No. 3 hole.

Grover Austin is minus 1 to par and will have to spot Harris five strokes. Mitchell will have to give all out strokes on the long No. 3 hole in their match.

L'Fors Dominates Scoreless Game

L'FORS, Sept. 29—Although the LeFors Pirates dominated play for most of four periods here tonight and halted the visitors' heralded air attack, the Dumas eleven battled the locals to a scoreless tie before 800 spectators.

LeFors made 11 first downs to 2 for Dumas and gained 133 to 33 yards rushing. Total yardage was 179 for the Pirates and 107 for Dumas. The visitors completed one pass out of seven for about 35 yards. Kirkland to Mills. The locals attempted three incomplete passes and intercepted two.

FEDERAL HOUSING ADMINISTRATION BEGINS NATIONAL DRIVE

IMPANS CAN REPAIR HOMES TO GIVE WORK

MILLIONS OF BUILDINGS KNOWN TO BE NEGLECTED

The public-home owners, financial executives and industrial men will determine the success of the Better Housing program. The federal housing administration provides the plan and works out the details; the remainder hinges upon the cooperation it receives from the rest of the nation.

Plans for effective and interesting community campaigns are being evolved at the headquarters of the federal housing administration, to be sponsored locally by trade organizations and civic groups.

Financial institutions will find the type of loan sponsored by the Federal Housing Administration to be one of the safest that can be made, since in very few cases, if any, will losses be greater than the amount insured by the administration. Industries more than a thousand strong are already showing an interest in the vast undertaking and asking how they can cooperate. They are urged to fit their plans as far as possible to those of the Federal Housing Administration, and above all, to maintain fair prices in the face of the great demand that is certain to come for building supplies and labor.

It is this sort of cooperation administration officials feel that will put the Better Housing program over, and start the country toward complete recovery.

Financing plans for Pampa are being considered, but meantime much work can be done without loans.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 29. (AP)—The cotton market was fairly active in today's short session. Prices developed a firmer tone and advanced under pressure of active short covering for over the week-end. The advance was also helped by the weather map showing too much rain in the eastern belt and anticipation of constructive utterances in the president's address due tomorrow also helped the advance. After reacting 1 to 3 points at the end, the market closed very steady at net advances for the day of 7 points on October and 11 to 14 points on the later months.

Port receipts 53,658, for season 1,800,25, last season 1,790,799; exports 25,352, for season 668,854, last season 1,290,293, port stock 2,819,801, last year 3,468,710, combined shipboard stock at New Orleans, Galveston and Houston 104,186, last year 136,030. Spot sales at southern markets 37,443, last year 50,126.

KANSAS CITY LIVESTOCK

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 29. (U. S. D. A.)—Cattle trade at midwestern markets this week was marked by material price declines on grain-fed steers, yearlings and heifers. Such offerings opened the week 25-50 or more lower, but after Tuesday there was an abatement in the supply with the market reacting to slight extent. There was a dependable outlet at all times for the lower grades of cows at firm to 25 higher prices while grass slaughter steers and gas fat steers closed the week at mostly steady values. The liberal movement of grain-fed steers and yearlings was due to the desire of corn belt feeders to unload and thus escape high feeding costs. Another depressing factor to the trade on grain-fed steers was the 1.00-2.00 decline on the better grades of steer beef at eastern dressed beef centers. Demand for stockers and feeders continued slow with the better grades holding about steady and off-quality offerings unevenly steady to 25 lower. Aggregate receipts of commercial cattle at elevator markets approximated 287,000 against 222,219 last week and 212,592 the corresponding period a year ago. Increased receipts of hogs this week resulted in an uneven decline of 45-85 with St. Louis reporting a closing top of $60. Total offerings were around 352,000, an increase of 88,000 over last week and 44,000 short of a year ago.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Sept. 29. (AP)—Flashing down like exhausted fireworks, prices for September delivery of wheat fell 4 1/2 cents a bushel in the last few minutes of today's dealings. Wheat closed nervous, with some thing of a rally, 1/2 cent to 3/4 cent under yesterday's, Dec. new 1.02-1.03, corn 1/2-1/4 down, Dec. new 77-78, oats unchanged to 2 cents off, and provisions unchanged to 12 cents decline.

A handicap to friends of higher prices for wheat was considerable selling of wheat here against purchases of corn.

Cline, chairman of the state executive committee of the Texas Centennial celebration, said he talked over long distance telephone with Administrator Moffett today in an effort to be relieved of his duties, but the federal executive refused to accept his resignation.

Mr. Strickland had been a resident of Pampa for the last two years. His early life was spent at Lone Oak, where he was a member of the Methodist church. ## BEARS WIN 33-0

WACO, Sept. 29. (AP)—The Baylor Bears were off to a flying start here tonight before the largest opening game throng in history, cracking down on the St. Edward's university team of Austin, 33-0, in an easy win.

Bill Bronson and Francis Smith of LeFors were Pampa visitors yesterday afternoon.

Wheat, pulled corn and oats down, despite predictions of possible frost tonight in Iowa and other corn territory. A transient flurry in the oats pit early was attributed to buying for traders short of oats needed to meet month-end deliveries. Provisions went lower with hog values.

LARGE STILL

hot when the officers arrived after a circuitous approach. A meal was ready for preparing. In the long hours during which most of the officers waited for two trucks from Pampa to haul the confiscated still and equipment, they fried bacon, peeled onions, opened cans, and ate a hearty meal. They arrived back in Pampa at 5:30 a. m. Saturday.

The copper still was not the largest ever found in the county, but the installation was the neatest. A brush arbor shed with a tarpaulin top had been constructed on the bank of the creek. There was a shallow well with a small gasoline engine for power and to operate an air compressor. The area there is heavily timbered.

Officers overturned the mash and burned the barrels. The still was brought here and stored in the basement of the courthouse, along with 35 gallons of raw power and several sacks of sugar, gasoline, engine, bedding and miscellaneous equipment. There was no whiskey on the premises, but the still would have been in operation within a few hours.

Officers on the raid were Chief Deputy H. G. Cottrell of the sheriff's department, Deputies O. T. Lindsey of McLean and Buck Koonce of LeFors, Constable Frank Jordan, and Deputy Constable H. L. Kenner.

They described the small, long-haired dog as the smartest they had ever seen. He was named in the search warrant and seized along with the still and equipment. But his master vanished into the woods, identity unknown.

MYSTERY

challenge federal hand-writing experts' identification of the ransom notes as having been written by Hauptmann.

Discussing the sanity tests proposed for Hauptmann, District Attorney Foley said one psychiatrist would be chosen by him, a second by New Jersey authorities, and the third by James M. Fawcett, Hauptmann's counsel.

The district attorney then disclosed that Dr. John F. Condon has not identified anyone as the mysterious "John" to whom he handed the $50,000 ransom in small bills in a Bronx cemetery.

"Are you looking for such a man?" Foley was asked.

"No," he replied.

Joseph Bowman, who some officials said bore a resemblance to "John," was questioned in Chicago by police and federal agents. Chief of Detectives John L. Sullivan announced that he could find nothing tangible to connect him with the case.

Spite Work
Bowman was seized last night with a woman who gave her name as Goldie Ferris, and who said she was his wife. Although no charges were placed against him, Bowman was held at the Chicago detective bureau after the questioning.

"We have nothing to link this man to the Lindbergh kidnaping except the anonymous tip received last night," Sullivan said, "and that might have been intended to embarrass him. It may have been pure spite work."

District Attorney Foley, working at full speed with his staff and New Jersey authorities as the week-end started, made preliminary arrangements for trying Hauptmann in the

He predicted the trial would start the second week of October.

PIONEER

R. Thomsen and the Rev. C. E. Lancaster, pastor, in charge, and under direction of Malone Funeral home.

Funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. V. Andrews, Mrs. C. P. Ledrick, Mrs. Phillip Wolfe, Mrs. Edwin and Mrs. DeLea Vicars, Mrs. W. Purviance, Mrs. T. E. Simmons, Mrs. C. P. Buckler and Dr. Thomsen is pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Amarillo and was a personal friend of Mr. Finley.

Although he had suffered a slight heart ailment, Mr. Finley had been in fair health. He was active in civic and business interests. He had been in the bank the entire day, leaving at 5:30 o'clock in the evening.

Died Instantly
Mr. Finley had arrived at the ball game after it had started and had been there only a few minutes when he collapsed.

Coming to the Panhandle in 1906, Mr. Finley was associated with Amarillo and Tucuman banks for several months before moving here to become cashier of the First State bank. After the First National bank took that institution over, he continued in the same position. In 1920, he was elected head of the bank.

Leader in Many Affairs
Since establishing his residence in Pampa, Mr. Finley had taken a leading place in the civic, business and community affairs. He played a large part in building the plains ranch town of 200 into the thriving city.

His interests were those for the advancement and betterment of the city. He believed in railroads and highways, the leading factors in building the city, and he helped bring two railways and several highways here.

He was a life-long member of the Presbyterian church, for many years being especially active in the church here. He was one time president of the Panhandle Bankers association.

Native of Ohio
Born in Seneca, Ohio, August 25, 1869, Mr. Finley received his education in local schools and later at the Ohio State Normal at Ada. It was soon after the death of his first wife that he came to this section. He had been

FIREPLACE CAN ADD CHARM TO WINTER HOMES

A NEW CHIMNEY CAN MAKE EXTERIOR ATTRACTIVE

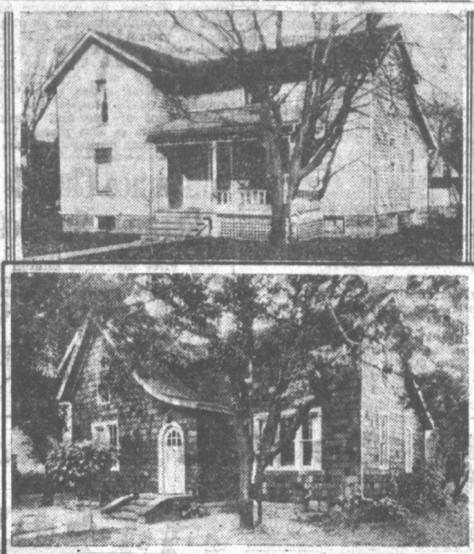

Builders of homes a decade or two ago had a tendency to omit fireplaces, partly because the development of central heating appeared to obviate their necessity. As a consequence, there are many homes today that lack the comfort and cheer of a blazing open fire.

There was a time when no home was built without an open fireplace, and there is no reason now why every home should not have one. The work of installing one or two should be started shortly, so that the fireplace may be ready for winter. If cash is not available, government-guaranteed modernizing loans may be had at once.

New Chimney Needed
A special chimney is necessary for a fireplace that shares a flue with any other heating unit. An outside chimney is the easiest type to install, and it puts the family to little inconvenience during the construction period. Carefully built, an outside chimney can add greatly to the exterior beauty of the house.

A new fireplace makes a radical change in the character of a room, and for this reason it should be handled with the utmost care. Corner fireplaces are unfortunately out of style. As the fireplace will be the central attraction of the room, drawing the family and guests to its vicinity, scrupulous attention must be given to its location and structural detail, and the furnishing possibilities of the room after its construction. Ordinarily, there should be no doors or windows on either side. Never should the fireplace extend far out into the room. Sur-

Before and After Remodeling

These illustrations show how a home, run-down in appearance, can be completely transformed into an attractive, livable dwelling with a little modernization operation.

"Putting Up With It" Days Gone With New Housing Act Advantages

The outworn habit of "putting up with what we have" should disappear under the housing plan. Women are ever so weary of looking at the old front porch, wishing for a new one, sighing and saying, "We'll just have to put up with it." Those dreary "putting up with it" days may be discarded to the everlasting joy of the whole family.

Such a variety of things can be done to the interior and exterior of the house under the flexible provisions of the repairing and reconditioning section of the national housing act which is now operating, that every home may add something new now.

Style Should Tone In
The style of the hearth depends on the period and interior decorating scheme of the room. An enamelled Colonial mantelpiece, for example, is correct for a room with paneled trim. A room with rough unglazed plaster walls and stained unvarnished trim is charming with a hooded fireplace in the Italian manner, or a mantel consisting of a single plank of stained wood with hearth and face of brilliant Spanish glazed tile. A mantel of face brick is in excellent taste for a great many rooms. It blends best with dark stained floors and furniture.

A gay, original touch for rooms with white woodwork and light walls is provided by the hearth of brilliant glazed tiles, which are becoming of increased popularity with the present-day demand for more color. From the practical standpoint, a fireplace should be provided with a good draft to prevent smoking even on wet days, and it should give a maximum amount of heat. It is a good plan to equip it with one of the patent fireplace linings and throats made with double walls that serve to make a hot-air chamber like that of a hot-air furnace.

Borrowing money for home repairs is a comparatively new idea to American home owners. Loans for all movable things are common, but not so for those things that become a permanent part of the home. Under the new government plan it is practical to do this and economical to borrow enough money to make all the needed repairs and improvements.

First things come first with the practical American housewife and those things which are absolutely essential will be given immediate attention—those leaky roofs, torn or dangerous stairways, fire hazards, etc. The same budget which provides for these essentials may be enlarged to include some other needed repairs that have been so long neglected—that floor for the attic or partition for the basement.

Making all these improvements, purchasing all the needed new equipment with one loan, effects an appreciable saving over the old method of doing each little job or making each little purchase separately. In some communities, the cooperative effort has become so popular that whole neighborhoods combine to improve all the backyards in the block, tearing down fences, leveling ground, building or purchasing stationary play equipment. By their united efforts they secure the advantage of the economies resulting from joint contracts for lumber, cement or brick. One contractor may be employed for the entire job thus effecting further saving. Spending money for home improvement works strange miracles. Something new in the home not only brightens the home but brightens the whole family. By the way, there are some 5,000,000 American homes which need bathtubs.

PLUMBING OF MANY TYPES

Colors and Designs Made to Fit into Every Kind of Decoration.

The marketing of modern plumbing fixtures in colors has made it possible for the bathroom to be relieved from a purpose of mere utility, and transformed into the most interesting room of the house. So varied are the shades obtainable that schemes which express one's individuality can be evolved with ease in the moderate priced residence as well as the more pretentious home.

Simplicity is the main requirement of an attractive bathroom. It can be achieved by starting with the fixtures, whose color will dominate the scheme and determine the tone of the room. Flooring, wall finish and drapes can then be chosen to harmonize; and a highly attractive bathroom will result with a little care and forethought.

A bath of dignity can be achieved with black fixtures, a black and green floor, light green and yellow walls, and a touch of brightness in the drapes. Ceilings, as in all cases, should be a light and subdued shade, such as buff, cream or gray.

Ideal for a sunny room is a bath with royal blue fixtures, a dark green floor, light green walls and salmon pink drapes.

Pale brown fixtures, a medium blue floor, pale orchid walls and drapes of light green will impart cheer to a dark room.

A dainty bath is achieved through the use of peach fixtures, a dark green floor, and walls with pale yellow and green predominating.

Both cool and dainty is the bath with pale blue fixtures, a medium blue floor, and walls of white plaster and gray marble paneling.

Luxurious bath worthy of the most magnificent domicile is attained by the use of cerise fixtures, a black floor, yellow walls with orange trim, and a gray ceiling.

The best time to give the old bathroom a new color treatment, or to add a new one of beauty and distinction, is right now, when the federal housing administration is enabling homeowners to borrow money for home improvement from local financial institutions at unusually attractive terms.

TIGER ISLAND

By GOUVERNEUR MORRIS

SYNOPSIS: Harvey Bowers and Ivy Green, cast ashore from the S. S. Boldero after that dingy tramp had been scuttled by its villainous Captain Wong Bo, are exploring Tiger Island for a place to live. So far they have nothing more than a tiger's roar to tell them what happened to the wild animal cargo they freed just before the Boldero sank. Bowers finds a cave, and Ivy and Helen, her pet monkey, explore it with him.

Chapter 28
HAVEN

The floor of the cave was smooth, and slanted a little upward from the mouth. The mouth was no broader, though considerably lower than an average door.

Within, the cave expanded to a width of perhaps fifteen feet and to a height of eight or nine. These proportions obtaining for perhaps twenty feet, offered the house-hunters one large, airy, dry room.

At the farther end the sides and the roof of the cave were levelled into a dark and narrow opening which perhaps led to caves and passages beyond, or merely narrowed off to nothing. That would be for future exploration.

They could not have been more elated if they had been given the use of a modern house with running water, electric lights, ice-boxes and servants. The ledge outside with its one stately palm was the perfect veranda.

By felling a tree here and there as the time offered, there would be an unobstructed view of the lagoon, the surf on the barrier-reef, the ocean beyond and anything that might happen along in the shape of a passing ship.

Water they thought, would have to be fetched and carried all the way from the river, and that was a nuisance, but it couldn't be helped. In this matter, as events proved, they were mistaken. Their cave, upon more intimate examination by torches made of candle-nuts, after twisting and turning and appearing to lead to the bowels of the earth, led instead to a seepage of water (and if it seeped now, it would flow when the rains came) and beyond that to a practicable opening onto the other side of the valley shoulder.

This last opening, like the first, was inaccessible from the ground without the aid of a ladder. It was at the head of a narrow precipitous gully in which there was an incredible tangle of guavas and wild oranges. Their house had thus a front door and a back, one fine room. "Good enough for anybody," they said, and running water.

To remove their effects from the shore to the cave was a matter of many goings and comings and two days' time. Early on the morning of the second day and on their first trip to the cave, they flushed a pheasant. Ivy thought that it was one of those which had flown ashore from the Boldero, an extraordinary flight for a pheasant, but she could not be sure.

Of the other birds and beasts they neither saw nor heard any sign. It looked as if they were to have less company than Adam and Eve had had in Eden. Time of course meant nothing. They had odies of it. And they went about the improvement of their lot in life slowly and methodically. Two immediate improvements were a notched ladder for the back door, and the conversion of the tree on the terrace into a flagpole.

Bowers notched his way to the top and removed the whole of it, nut by nut and frond by frond. He improvised a block, and using strong fish-line for halyards so arranged matters that whenever the Stars came, he could raise the Stars.

in the ballots. He added that he had no desire to be the nominee for commissioner unless the majority of the voters really intended to vote for him, and that he was willing that judgment be rendered in accordance with the intention of the voters.

The agreed judgment stated that after a recount of the lawful ballots in the Grandview voting box, it was found that the contestant, Thos. O. Kirby, received a majority of the lawful votes cast in the general primary election of July 28, for commissioner.

Certification of the nomination of Mr. McCleskey was set aside and Mr. Kirby was declared to be the successful candidate.

Mr. Kirby's name will therefore appear on the ballot in the general election of November 6 as the democratic candidate for commissioner of precinct 3. Costs of the contest were adjudged against the contestant, Mr. McCleskey.

On order of the court, the attorneys opened the Grandview ballot box and tabulated the votes for the disputants. The result was exactly the same as certified by the judges of the election: McCleskey 130; Kirby 88. The absentee votes were segregated and eleven voters called to the stand to testify for Mr. Kirby that they voted for him, although the ballots showed that they voted for Mr. McCleskey. Several said the ballot markings were not their own. Judge Ewing ruled that while they could not impeach their ballots, they could identify markings on what purported to be their ballots.

In one instance, County Clerk Charlie Thut testified that he marked a ballot for a voter on request. He said that the ballot identified by number as the one in question was not the one he had marked.

Possibility that a duplication of ballot numbers in another instance might have juggled identification was to have been advanced by the contestant today, had not the judgment been decided upon. Election officials, though subpoenaed, were never used.

11 LOCATIONS AND 20 COMPLETIONS REPORTED DURING WEEK

7 WELLS ARE COMPLETED IN GRAY COUNTY

WHEELER COUNTY HAS EIGHT NEW WELLS IN WEEK

BY GEORGE L. GUTHRIE,
Consulting Geologist, Combs-Worley Bldg.

Eleven first announcements in the last week and 20 completions were recorded in the Panhandle field. Although most of the other fields in the state received a cut in the field allowable for the month of October, the plain district escaped the knife. However, there is a cut from 10.70 to 9.96 in the allowable factor for the field to take care of the new wells brought in during September.

COMPLETIONS.
Carson county: Empire Gas and Fuel company's No. E Seiber in section 10, block 7, H&GN survey, was completed for an average of 538 barrels daily on railroad commission test. It was bottomed at 3,250 with the pay in the lime from 3,220 to 3,232. This well is of considerable interest by reason of the fact that it is located south of the granite ridge.

GENTENNIAL NEWS ITEMS

Official Pledge Adopted by the Texas Centennial Commission: "I will think—talk—write—do my best for Texas in 1936! This is to be my celebration. In its achievement I may give free play to my patriotic love for Texas' heroic past; my confidence in its glories that are to be."

DALLAS, Sept. 29 (Special)—Many Texans today in San Antonio, Houston, Goliad, Brenham, Nacogdoches, Huntsville, Dallas and other cities of historic interest in the State, where celebrations of the Texas Centennial are being planned, possibly are recalling proudly the active participation of their forebears in the struggle for Texas independence. From the time Texans first fought to obtain their freedom from Mexico, the name of Slaughter is listed for remembrance among those in the vanguard of the procession of men and women, who marched bravely on against all odds.

In Dallas, the Slaughter Building in Main Street, with its seven stories, was a pioneer among the Centennial city's family of now famous skyscrapers. Built by Col. C. C. Slaughter, it stands today as a monument to one of the State's most successful cattle barons. His sons continue to carry on with the development of the former ranch in West Texas, now given to intensive cultivation.

Christopher Columbus Slaughter was born February 9, 1837—the first male child to be born of a marriage contracted under the Republic of Texas.

Colonel Slaughter's father, George Webb Slaughter, a native of Mississippi, was a courier under General Sam Houston in the Texan army of 1836. Following the battle of San Jacinto, he secured a furlough from the army in order that he might marry Miss Sara Mason. This marriage, which was performed May 10, 1836, is credited with being the first legal transaction of the kind under sanction of the Republic of Texas.

DALLAS, Sept. 29 (Special)—Proposed celebration of the Texas Centennial in 1936 by such Texas cities as San Antonio, Houston, Goliad, Brenham, Nacogdoches, Huntsville, and Dallas naturally entails consideration by Texans of today that the leadership of a people has a great deal to do with the success or failure of the nation concerned.

as is rather tellingly exemplified by the outcome of the conflict between Texas and Mexico when this state won its independence and set up a separate republic.

For the seven years ending with the battle of San Jacinto, April 21, 1836, there had been 11 changes in the head of the Mexican government, that is there were 11 changes of consequence and duration. Santa Anna, who at the time of the battle was both president of the republic and the commander of its army in the field, held the presidency for three of these 11 times of change.

These rapid changes in leadership reveal that the Texas colonists were far more fortunately endowed with leaders who desired a stable government designed to serve all of the people rather than to serve a favored few who were in positions of power.

DALLAS, Sept. 29 (Special)—Farsighted citizens of Texas who are ably supporting plans for the 1936 Texas Centennial celebrations in San Antonio, Houston, Goliad, Brenham, Nacogdoches, Huntsville, Dallas, and other cities associated with the early history of the state now are looking forward toward the cultivation of a long neglected crop in Texas—the tourist crop.

Dependable data compiled in such states as Colorado, Florida, California, and Wisconsin show that each of these states with no special event to attract transients and offering only diversity of scenery, climate and healthful recreation, attracts annually multiplied thousands of guests. Statistics compiled show that each guest or tourist remains an average of 15 days and spends approximately $5 daily.

Recalling that the Chicago Century of Progress, offering only the entertainment of unusually fine displays depicting the advance of modern scientific and inventive genius, attracted last year more than 20 million guests, it is held entirely within reason to expect that Texas with its diversity of climate and scenery of land and water, with its historic shrines, its romantic past, with the neighborliness of its people, should attract to its Centennial celebration a minimum of 20 million tourists. Granting them the same average stay and daily expense shown in other states, there would appear to be in prospect the staggering total of one and one-half billion dollars of new money to be spent in Texas during the year.

A GOOD FATHER: Matthew 7:7-12.

Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you: For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone? Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent? If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him? Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them; for all this is the law and the prophets.

TIME passes. Periods make their mark and give way to the new. Slowly the Pampa that was changed to the Pampa that is. Landmarks pass away. Milestones are set up. History is made. Lives are lived. Good deeds live on. Pioneers move on to the Great Frontier.

B. E. Finley died quietly, as he lived. He passed with enthusiasm for Pampa and Pampans on his mind. This enthusiasm, restrained but genuine, was a characteristic of his life. He did not live to see that first touchdown, but in his lifetime he saw and helped make possible much that was good for Pampa and Gray county.

Great as was the shock in his sudden death, it was recognized that his was not a bad way to die. Though he had been unwell for a fortnight, he felt much better Friday and decided to see the game. Death sent no messengers; the attack which stopped his heart was mercifully brief.

Mr. Finley was truly a Pampa pioneer; a builder in all the ways that a good banker could build. The bank was tremendously real to him. He knew every part of it. He had been with it almost from the start. He was conservative in the best sense of the old school. To him banking was a public trust, with the depositors to have first consideration.

The banking moratorium was a trying period for Mr. Finley. Knowing the strength of his institution, he felt that to close it was unnecessary. Yet, patriotic in the extreme, he obeyed the president's orders to the letter. During this period he called the writer into his office and with great patience and pride explained every working of the institution, and of how each department was under instant control.

On last Sunday he was in his habitual place at the Presbyterian church. His regularity of attendance was known to all. He seemed a bit pale as he talked of an ear ailment which temporarily had affected his hearing.

Mr. Finley took pride in saying that he was "one of the boys" of the original Pampa. He liked to talk of the old days when there was more leisure than business, but when wants were fewer. But as oil was discovered, railroads and highways were built, and new civic institutions were reared, he had an important part in it all. Never an obstructionist, his habit was to express his opinion and abide by the will of the people.

Members of The NEWS staff share the grief of the family in the passing of Mr. Finley, who was truly one of the pioneer builders of Pampa and the Panhandle.

ONE OF the bitterest political campaigns held in Texas, not, it is true, the one only recently concluded, but one that still is being recalled, was the first held after Texas had become a republic.

In that election, Sam Houston won the Presidency with 5,119 votes. Totals of votes cast for the other aspirants were: Stephen F. Austin, 587; Henry Smith (first provisional Governor in 1835), 743; scattering 191. Mirabeau B. Lamar was elected Vice President with a majority of 2,699 votes.

So bitter was the campaign that Austin, now long revered as the "Father of Texas," thought it necessary to reply to the absurd charges made against him, his reply being published in Texas Telegraph of which Gail Borden of condensed milk fame was the publisher.

In that election, there were no poll taxes or voting lists. No long term of residence was required. Anyone who wished to vote did so, regardless of where he happened to be at the time, this situation being due to so many persons being then in the service of the military and naval units of Texas and to the unsettled condition of the country. The total votes cast in that first election, compared to more than a million cast in Texas this year, indicate how the state has grown.

BENITO DRIVES AHEAD ROME, Sept. 28. (AP)—Benito Mussolini, who regards disarmament as "utopian," drove ahead with vigor today to make Italy a super-militaristic nation. Il Duce took personal charge of the program, which will put boys at the age of eight and upward in uniform. Miss Clotilde McCallister one of Mrs. Steele's pianists, and also an expression teacher will assist with the expression and dramatic work. Miss McCallister is a former student of Texas Woman's college and she was active in dramatic work and speech art and is also a graduate of the popular Westbrook school of expression formerly of Tyler.

Mrs. Steele has made studies in expression, dancing, social training and child psychology for the past five years. All of the work is purchased from New York and Chicago. Mrs. Frank Keehn, pianist of the school for the past five years and one time concert pianist of the Chicago conservatory, will assist Mrs. Steele in rhythm training and voice. In a talk to those attending Saturday, Mrs. Steele said, "There is not a time in one's life that he can't use expression; for the reason I am giving to my dancing pupils this free training so that they may express themselves better. I do not care whether one majors in expression or dancing, this training is included and emphasized. We shall not only learn plays that suit our fancy but also plays that specify a higher standard of dramatics such as religion and classic work."

Because of the fact that demands for the dramatics and dancing have become so great Mrs. Steele has dropped all of her out-of-town classes so that she may take care of more students in Pampa. Out of town members to the dramatic club are most welcome, however, and several out-of-town students have already joined the group.

Students of advanced work, who are now taking teachers courses at the studio are Miss Joyce Smith, who was a popular dancer in Dallas this summer; Miss Donna Jo Berry, talented tap dancer; Frankie Lou Keehn, majoring in all types of professional work; Dorothy Jo Moore, professional and children's work; Jeanette Price, ball-room. There will also be others in line for teacher's work after a certain amount of work in the advanced classes has been completed. These students will be presented in an individual recital of teacher's work some time in October.

New Dress Will Bring Fall Vim

BY A "YOUNG MODERN"

DENTON, Sept. 28.—Are you just a bit weary from the effects of your summer vacation. Aren't you in need of something to restore that old vim to your personality? With the opening of colleges and universities throughout the United States, fashion points to the college girl for the latest trends and "young moderns" at Texas State College for Women (CIA) prescribe deep-hued dresses to add luster to your charms and bring back some of your former spirit.

Greens, reds, blues and rust-colored frocks are most essential for fall in bringing certain magnetism to your individual personality. They conjure back the ravishing little tinges of beauty in your features. Then, too, reflecting in your face, the colors challenge to the surface of your skin all your latent loveliness.

The colors most popular this fall are more dynamic, more life-giving than shades have ever been before. There's an extra tinge to the browns, a golden glow to some for blondes, a deep red background exquisite for true brunettes, and a delicate mid-shade for the girl with deep brown eyes.

The crimson are a little gay and scornful, the duller reds, ravishing in their pretended quiet, with greens and rusts warm and eager for life. Then there is a dull blue for evening that combines the aloofness of black with the warm rich gleam of satin.

Select your colors to glorify a single feature. Let them denote the sweeping restlessness of fall as fashion swings from sober black to the colors that set off your sparkling youthfulness, attractiveness and gaiety.

Control of Power

Big league pitchers know that power is not enough. The important thing is to control that power—particularly in tight situations where you've got to bear down to win.

The Ford V-8 gives you all the power you need—and some to spare. But that's only half the story. It performs superbly because it gives you sure, effective control of that power.

Speed that takes you over the pathways of the world and brings you safely home, as fast as you want to go. Stability on curves and a feeling of confidence in every tight situation. A quick change of pace that saves you minutes in traffic.

The Ford V-8 shortens distance, not so much by its potential top speed, but by the swiftness with which it resumes running speed after the inevitable stops and pauses.

It's a seasoned campaigner—this Ford V-8—and it has proved it can take it in many severe tests. It has scored important victories in road races at Elgin, Jacksonville, Los Angeles and Targio Florio. On Labor Day three Ford V-8 cars broke all previous stock car records for climbing Pike's Peak. The Fords in this climb were equipped with high-compression cylinder heads, optional equipment for altitude driving. The V-type engine holds every major speed record on land, on water and in the air.

Every day—on every road—in the hands of hundreds of thousands of motorists—the Ford V-8 is proving its leadership both by outstanding performance—and by low cost of operation. Drive it yourself and see what a tremendous difference the V-8 engine makes.

WILL ROGERS AT L'NORA IN 'JUDGE PRIEST'

'BLIND DATE' STARTS TODAY AT REX THEATER

Will Rogers, whose soul is America, as someone has pointed out, "discovers" still another quarter of our land in the new Fox film, "Judge Priest," which opens at the LaNora theatre today, and in so doing gives to the screen one of his greatest performances.

A sleepy Kentucky town of the early nineties supplies the background for the newest Rogers vehicle, fashioned from the famous Irvin S. Cobb stories of the small-town judge and his Civil War cronies. The film gives Rogers probably the finest opportunity of his screen career.

Richer in flavor even than the shrewd Yankee horse trader of "David Harum," the Iowa farmer of "State Fair" or the wise and patient westerner of "They Had to See Paris," the drawing but quick-witted southern jurist is a memorable addition to the Rogers gallery of "Representative Americans."

A Splendid Role

The star's portrayal of Judge Priest has the mark of authenticity upon it. It is a notable folk portrait, just as his other characterizations have been: the unique blending of a splendid talent with a rich and splendid role. But more than that, it stands alone for its sheer dramatic power. Seldom has Rogers had such opportunities as his present role affords to call both tears and laughter from his audience.

Irvin Cobb's stories, as you will agree after seeing the film, seem to have been written for no one but Rogers. "Why didn't someone think of it before?" is the question that leaps to mind. The star has not been better fitted out with a role in the whole of his career.

Fine Cast

John Ford, who directed "Judge Priest," deserves his own private credit largely not only for the superb directorial job but for the care and wisdom displayed in the selection of a cast. Rogers is supported by one of the best all-around companies that has reached a local screen in many months.

That excellent actor, Henry B. Walthall, has an important role, Anita Louise, Tom Brown and Rochelle Hudson, form a romantic and youthful love triangle. David Landau, Stepin Fetchit, Charley Grapewin, Berton Churchill and Roger Imhof are other players assigned to leading roles.

Sol M. Wurtzel is listed as producer of "Judge Priest," which Dudley Nichols and Lamar Trotti adapted to the screen from the Irvin S. Cobb stories.

Don't fail to see this newest Rogers screen portrait. It is the finest thing he has done.

The new program headliner now at the Rex theatre is titled "Blind Date," a delightful human comedy romance featuring Ann Sothorn with Neil Hamilton and Paul Kelly impersonating her two amorous swains. Adapted to the screen by Ethel Hill and directed by Roy William Neill, "Blind Date" relates the sad, sad tale of a young automobile mechanic so engrossed in feathering the nest of his home-to-be that he allows the bird to fly.

The direction the little bird chooses for her migration leads to the arms of a wealthy playboy whom she meets on a "blind date." Complications of a serio-comic and romantic nature set in but are ultimately solved to the satisfaction of all concerned.

The beautiful Ann Sothorn, who scored in the leading role of "Let's Fall in Love" and has since become an overwhelmingly popular screen favorite, is seen as the romantically inclined "Kitty Taylor." Fans will remember Miss Sothorn in the recent "Melody in Spring," "The Hell Cat" and "The Party's Over."

Neil Hamilton enacts the "blind date" while Paul Kelly portrays the simple, hard-headed mechanic-boy friend. Hamilton has recently appeared in "Strangers May Kiss," "The Wet Parade" and "Animal Kingdom." Kelly's latest film ventures include "Broadway Through a Keyhole," "Side Streets" and "The Girl from Calgary."

Others in the cast are Mickey Rooney, Spencer Charters, Joan Gale, Jane Darwell, Geneva Mitchell, Theodore Newton, Billy Seward and Tyler Brooke.

Pampa Painters Asked to Depict Historic Texas

Local painters, of whom Pampa has many, are urged to paint subjects of an historical nature between now and next spring for the second Pre-Centennial celebration, by sponsors of the event.

"It would be a fine and patriotic contribution to the Centennial movement if Pampa artists, and as for that matter, Texas artists, would let historical subjects dominate their painting activities during the next two years," it was said.

There are several art clubs in Pampa, and members of those organizations could recreate history in oils, it was suggested. Scenes and personalities famous in Pampa and Texas history could be painted. Notable examples of historical paintings are the two murals, one depicting the entrance of Col. Charles Goodnight into the Palo Duro canyon, and the other the encampment of Coronado in the canyon, which are on the walls of the museum at Canyon.

The Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce would like to display all historical paintings obtainable next spring during the Pre-Centennial. Mrs. Clare Holt, whose paintings of scenes in the Taos, New Mexico, country have been praised by reputable critics, is now making a copy of a portrait of Stephen F. Austin for the Jaycees. The celebration next year will largely center around Austin.

Mexican Program Is Presented for Skellytown Club

SKELLYTOWN, Sept. 28.—Mrs. J. C. Sims was hostess to the Eleanor Roosevelt Study club Thursday afternoon.

Mexico was the subject for the afternoon. Miss Yarnell gave a very interesting discussion on The Conquest of Mexico. The vast Natural Resources of Mexico was the subject of a paper given by Mrs. Stevenson. Mrs. Canaday gave a descriptive journey through Mexico which was realistic and interesting. Chili con carne, crackers, and coffee were served to Meses. Stanley, Sorenson, Robinson, Lee, Stevenson, New, Canaday, Hutto, Campbell, Miss Yarnell, and a guest, Mrs. Davis.

A recreational center for men, one of the largest projects ever attempted at the school, is under construction at West Texas State Teachers college.

Tech Calendar For First Week Is Received Here

LUBBOCK, Sept. 29.—The tenth annual regular session of Texas Technological College begins with registration of freshmen for the fall semester on October 1, with classes starting at 8 o'clock on the morning of October 3; upper-classmen will register October 2. According to Dr. Bradford Knapp, president, the two new dormitories will be ready for occupancy and students who have made reservations will be allowed to move in Sunday afternoon at the earliest.

W. P. Clement, registrar, has completed registration plans which will follow the procedure of last year in being held in the gymnasium with the entire faculty and staff of the College on duty. Clement announced that, "Freshmen will be required to follow master schedules, given at registration time and in line with the departments in which they are majoring, which has not been the custom heretofore. These master schedules have the courses listed which a student should take his first year, and will prevent his missing a course or taking the wrong one to apply on his degree."

Each student must have his physical examination before registering. The Lubbock Sanitarium will have charge of these examinations, which will be given there, and the expense is included in the $4 medical fee.

All students are urged to register on time as those who defer enrolling until later will encounter conflicts due to closed sections and over-crowded classes. Late registration fee of $2 may be charged those who fail to register within three days of the regular registration period.

Former students will be required to have their grade books and all new students and transfers will be required to present entrance cards, which are issued from the registrar's office. Housing arrangements must be approved by Cecil Horne, for men, and Mary W. Doak, for women. Students who are working will be required to get permission from Cecil Horne, for men, and Dean Mary W. Doak, for women, before special schedules will be granted.

The College calendar for the first week of school is as follows: October 1-2, Monday-Tuesday, Entrance examinations and registration of all students. October 3, Wednesday, Full semester classes begin, 8:00 a. m. October 3-4, Wednesday-Thursday, Freshman orientation, which consists of one hour lecture each day at 11:00 a. m. October 5, Friday, Open-house for all students by the churches of Lubbock. October 7, Sunday, Annual opening sermon for the college, 11 a. m. Church of Lubbock.

Boy Honored on Fifth Birthday

Small white cakes were served with pink lemonade on arrival of the guests. Games were enjoyed under the direction of Ruth Marie Hill. Readings, "Blackberry Jam" and "Generous" were given by the honoree. Balloons were presented as favors.

Many lovely gifts were presented to the honoree around a table decorated with a large cake bearing the words, "Happy birthday," and five pink candles. The guests sang "Happy Birthday to You" as the honoree took his place at the table, after which he gave an appropriate toast and cut the cake. The cake was served with pink and white ice cream carrying out the color scheme.

Twaddell Joins Conservatory as Voice Instructor

The Pampa conservatory of music announces the addition to its faculty of Verian Twaddell, teacher of voice.

Mr. Twaddell first gained recognition as a singer under the instruction of Viola W. Wilson of Amarillo, an exponent of Proschowski, who had in New York intensive work in the field of light opera and in operatic work.

Mr. Twaddell continued his voice training under Proschowski in Chicago. This famous instructor praised highly both his voice development and his ability in analyzing and interpreting songs.

He has had varied experience in operatic and concert work and was well received by a large audience in his first local concert last month.

Although fully connected with the Pampa Conservatory, he will retain his present studio over the Culbertson-Smallling firm.

Mr. Twaddell plans not only to give thorough training in voice development, but also to give in stage presence. To this end he will present a play soon, as his pupils may gain experience in acting as well as singing.

Adult School at Hopkins Enrolls More New Pupils

Classes in adult education at Hopkins continue to grow in numbers and interest. Three new members enrolled in the business arithmetic class last evening, bringing the number up to 26. This class was conducted by W. A. Rankin. Seth Horn will contribute to instruction of the class at its next meeting. W. E. Reno taught the English class.

Shorthand and typing are to get under way Wednesday evening according to present plans. The problem of renting typewriters has not yet been entirely solved.

Joe L. Bevington and A. H. Middleton will conduct the experiments in chemistry at the next regular meeting of the class. Both men have had 13 semester hours of college chemistry. James M. Elbert of the Texas EIT company has enlisted in the class as a student and instructor. Mr. Elbert majored in chemistry at N. T. S. T. C. He has agreed to improvise an electrolysis apparatus and explain the principles of analysis and synthesis.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones, who have two children in the Hopkins schools, have enrolled in the English, civics, and arithmetic classes. English and civics are still leading in the number of people enrolled.

Miss Tavia Dunsword, one of the Hopkins teachers, has agreed to meet the class in primary work for the first week. This class will have its first meeting Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock. It will be conducted for those who want to learn to read, write, spell, etc., and for those who wish to improve themselves in the primary principles of education.

One cow-hand said "Give me a key to the front door... I'll be out late tonight."

Yes, this actually happened. One of the boys from a neighborhood ranch walked up to the desk at one of the West Texas Hiltons and said, "Give me the key to the front door, I'll be out late tonight." Of course we explained to him that the latch string hung on the outside. "Doors never locked, we render 'Minimas' service twenty-four hours a day, three hundred and sixty-five days a year."

Are You RIDING ON A CALF'S TAIL?

A LOT OF CAR OWNERS ARE

"How many legs has a calf?" Abraham Lincoln once asked a caller.
"Four," said the visitor.
"But suppose we call his tail a leg, how many legs will he have?" Lincoln persisted.
"Five," said the visitor.
"No, sir!" retorted Honest Abe. "He'd still have four. CALLING a tail a leg doesn't make it a leg."

... And CALLING a tire burst-proof doesn't make it proof against blow-outs. ... CALLING it a mileage marvel doesn't make it wear longer. CALLING it a masterpiece of tire building doesn't make it so.

Seiberling Tires are built and sold on the four legs of fact. F. A. Seiberling, builder of good tires since 1898 and responsible for more major tire inventions than any other man, believes that car owners want tires that WEAR well—not that just READ well.

Seiberling Tires are FACT tires. Let us show you the difference between a "leg" and a "tail" when it comes to tire mileage, safety, and economy. Drop in today.
