Note to Amarillo fans: Have all you like. We won't give you a show-up until after the Lubbock game.

Note to Jerry Malin: Make one more crack about Missouri U. and we'll start telling some of the things we remember about you from college days.

Note to Pampa housewives: The NEWS' cooking school will give you a chance to tell friend hubby that you can cook better than the experts. But to be certain of it, attend the school; it's free.

Note to tired business men: The Business Institute opening Monday night at the city hall will give you an alibi for another "night out." But attend at least the first session of the Institute; you might like it.

Not to Harvesters: Mr. Morris White may be pigeon-toed and knock-kneed since the Amarillo game, but it will be safest not to let him have the ball.

Musing of the moment: What's a pauper? Direct aid from the county will be restricted to the statistics and paupers are among the few classes of persons which can, strictly interpreted, be helped. Ordinarily we consider a pauper someone who is destitute and without any immediate possibility of making his own way, even with what would be an ordinary person, be an opportunity to do so. Interpreted in the strictest legal sense, a pauper is one who is virtually aid to the unemployed who may need an operation, for example. Uncle Sam expects local units of government to share the unemployment burden. Shall we revive the Community Chest, revise the state laws relating to and limiting counties, or shall we shrug away the responsibility?

Brevitiorials
IT IS NOT unusual for a young man to be elected to the legislature or more specifically, the house. It is somewhat extraordinary for a prepandance of young men to be elected. Down at Austin, we are told, the barbers are wearing long faces. The reason is that they say the next legislature will include many youngsters who have not yet grown a beard.

WE CAN'T VOUCH for the authenticity of the figures, but it is told down at Austin that 80 of the 150 members of the house will be 23 years of age. That is, that 35 will be under 25 years of age. These reports may be exaggerated but it is an undisputed fact that the people have shown a decided trend toward youth. You can analyze it as well as we can, but there is surely some reason for being in the public mind which makes it possible.

IN THE TREND toward the new deal, the oldsters have the disadvantage of being of the old order in years if not in policy. Youngsters have had no time to make mistakes. Many of them are alert and smart, but inexperienced and of judgment yet to be illustrated by their acts. Many of the young lawmakers are law students or recent graduates of universities. May be the people, noting that it is inevitable that we shall have too many lawyers in the House, have decided to elect the young and unspoiled ones!

WITH ALL their youthful visions, the young lawmakers have never known what it is to pay taxes on a home, what it is to try to make ends meet in a business venture, what the pressure of unfair competition can do, how the laws can make things worse instead of better.

On the other hand, many of them have not fallen into the fatal habits of thought which make their elders think "it can't be done" about many current problems. We have no "youth movement" in this country worthy of the name. We have a trend toward serious economic and political thinking among the young college men, but only a trend. The youth movement in Texas electorate is yet to be proved.

I Heard...

C. M. Ca-lock and B. D. Robinson laughing long and loud after C. H. Walker had told the old Scotch story. It seems that an Irishman, a Jew, and a Scotchman went into a beer parlor and when they were served, there was a fly in the foam of each glass. The Jew flicked his off, the Irishman blew his off, but the Scotchman squeezed his fly.

BRITISH THINK JAPS AND U.S. ARE BLUFFING

COMPROMISE PLAN IS STRONGLY OPPOSED BY BOTH

LONDON, Nov. 16 (AP)—Great Britain, apparently convinced that the United States and Japan are bluffing, went ahead today with her own program to reach an agreement in the deadlocked naval negotiations.

She did so in the face of Japanese and American opposition, both countries having coldly received England's compromise plan.

The British believe both Washington and Tokyo will eventually accept the plan, in their firm stand for what both insist should be the basis of a new naval treaty. The British think neither of the other two powers should take an extreme stand but should be willing to make mutual concessions for a compromise which would prevent a break-up of the negotiations and save the principle of naval limitation from being scrapped in favor of a ship building race.

The American delegation has kept Washington fully informed since the negotiations began and each time a report has been sent home the delegation's action has been fully approved. Spokesmen indicated they would be surprised if any new instructions were sent reversing the American policy. This, as outlined to the British and Japanese, is for continuation of the Washington naval treaty with the existing 5-5-3 ratio and with but minor technical revisions.

How Child Met Death Is Told

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 16 (AP)—How Dorothy Ann Distelhurst met her death was disclosed today, the day of her burial.

Dr. Herman Spitz, acting coroner's physician in a partial report of his examination of the 6-year-old victim of kidnaping and murder, said part of her body was destroyed by acid.

The physician's examination showed that the child's skull was fractured twice by blows, and that before she was killed, she was gagged. The flesh of the face was destroyed by acid. Dr. Spitz found acid marks in the bones of the upper chest and neck.

The body probably was "crammed into a cardboard box and kept there for several weeks before burial in a shallow grave on the outskirts of Nashville," he said.

Funeral services for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Distelhurst were arranged for this afternoon at Belmont Methodist church where she attended Sunday school. Officers said they are without a clue to the identity of her kidnaper and part of their opinion that the acid was used to prevent identification. This might have been successful, but for a tooth filling by which she was identified.

Taxpayers Are Reminded Of Law

Gray county taxpayers are reminded by Jack Beck, tax collector, that unless the first half of 1934 state and county taxes are paid by Nov. 30, the entire amounts will become delinquent January 30.

But, if the first half is paid by November 30, the second half need not be paid before June 30, 1935.

The new discount payment bill does not apply to 1934 taxes because the measure does not take effect in time.

That was back in 1921 to 1926. Tomorrow night she makes her opera debut as Santuzza in "Cavalleria Rusticana" with the Chicago Grand Opera company.

FAMOUS 'ALICE' OF WONDERLAND TALE SUCCUMBS

She Inspired Lewis Carroll To Pen Fantasy

WESTERHAM, ENG., Nov. 16 (AP)—Mrs. Alice Hargreaves, the original of "Alice in Wonderland," who Lewis Carroll's imagination sent adventuring after the White Rabbit into a fantastic world of nonsense, died today at the age of 82 years.

Because of Mrs. Hargreaves, all wise children are familiar with the Mad Hatter, the March Hare, the Mock Turtle, and the Cheshire Cat whose big grin lingered after he was gone. They know all that whimsical pageant, for the little lady who died today not only inspired the tale, but through her insistence, caused it to be written down.

Alice Pleasance Liddell was born May 4, 1852, in Westminster. She was ten years old when her father, having become the dean of Christ College of Oxford university, she and her two sisters came to know the lean pedantic dean, the Rev. Charles Dodgson.

His scholars knew him as a dry-as-dust mathematician, but the world of make-believe, where "The Cruel Three" made him their play-fellow.

It was July 4, 1862 that he took the trio on an expedition up the Thames and told the fairy tale which Alice made him write down.

He published it under the pseudonym "Lewis Carroll" and sent countless children—and adults too—down the rabbit hole into a classic world of make-believe, where the Mad Hatter and the March Hare are still trying to put the Dormouse into a teapot.

And there are those who see more than nonsense in the works of Lewis Carroll, for chess scholars have made a key to his "Alice Through the Looking-Glass" and moved chessmen across a board, accompanying Alice on her adventures with the Red Duchess and Tweedledum and Tweedledee.

FORMER CANDY GIRL TO SING VERDI ROLE IN GRAND OPERA

CHICAGO, Nov. 16 (AP)—A candy girl's dream is coming true! For five years Anna Turkel, daughter of immigrant parents, sold chocolates matinee and night at the Metropolitan opera house in New York.

That is she sold sweets when she hadn't ducked away from her counter, A. W. O. L. to slip into the darkened auditorium to hear the dark stars of song.

She was back in 1921 to 1926. Tomorrow night she makes her opera debut as Santuzza in "Cavalleria Rusticana" with the Chicago Grand Opera company.

It has been a long and rigorous road from a Metropolitan candy counter to a Metropolitan operatic stage, but it has not been without

ADDRESS MADE AT DEDICATION OF MONUMENT

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT PRAISES PIONEERS OF 1934

HARRODSBURG, Ky., Nov. 16 (AP)—President Roosevelt, standing beside a monument to old-time frontiersmen, uttered a pledge today that "we shall carry on" in a spirit of pioneering for "the fulfillment of security, of freedom of opportunity and of happiness which America asks and is entitled to receive."

Swinging into this colonial outpost to dedicate a $100,000 monument to the folk who conquered a wilderness and made it possible for George Rogers Clark to open the northwest, the president drew an analogy between those people and the "pioneers of 1934."

"Through these later years," he said, "through the length and breadth of our land have come to a realization of the program fact that the accustomed order of our formerly established lives does not suffice to meet the perils and problems which we are compelled to face. Again, mere survival calls for new pioneering on our part."

He stopped here early today on his inspection trip through the Tennessee valley where he has inaugurated a pioneering experiment in gigantic dams, power lines, reforestation, and soil improvement aimed at a "more abundant life" for America.

A bright early morning sun flooded the crowd which enthusiastically greeted the smiling president on his brief stop here en route to the Tennessee valley experiment.

Gov. Laffoon met the president at the station and presided over the exercises. Senator Barkley introduced Mr. Roosevelt as a "pioneer" himself.

Mrs. Roosevelt after a night ride by plane from New York joined the president at Danville early this morning.

Secretaries Hull and Ickes stood beside Mr. Roosevelt on the platform. Gov. McNeill of Indiana joined in the celebration.

The president spoke of the many "first things" established in this early western outpost and the crowd laughed as he remarked his first corn was raised in Kentucky.

"Dressed in a blue suit, Mr. Roosevelt spoke bareheaded. "We, too, are newing out a commonwealth," he concluded, "a commonwealth of the states which we hope will give to its people more truly than any that has gone before, the fulfillment of security, of freedom, of opportunity and of happiness which America asks and is entitled to receive."

The crowd applauded vigorously. The wave of a flag by President

NURSE WHO TESTIFIED AGAINST MRS. VANDERBILT TO LOSE JOB

NEW YORK, Nov. 16 (AP)—The unexplained decision of Supreme Court Justice John F. Carew in the Vanderbilt-Whitney legal tilt for the custody of Gloria Vanderbilt, 10-year-old heiress, will be appealed immediately, a spokesman for Mrs. Gloria Morgan Vanderbilt, the child's mother, said today.

Following termination of the habeas corpus hearing in which Mrs. Vanderbilt sought to regain custody of little Gloria from the child's paternal aunt, Justice Carew announced he had decided the young heiress would not have for the future the kind of life she led from the death of her father until June, 1932.

Counsel for Mrs. Vanderbilt and for her late husband's sister, Mrs. Whitney, conferred yesterday with Justice Carew on details of the Henry W. Stanley of Dallas, above, noted economist and lecturer, will open a free Business Institute for the B. C. D. and the Dallas chamber of commerce here Monday evening at the city hall. Merchants, salespeople, and citizens generally are invited to take the course, which will open on the three nights at 7:30 o'clock.

FATS, LEANS TO PLAY FOR AAUW RAIN OR SHINE

Game Starts Tonight At 8 O'clock At Grid Park

Only a torrential rain, snow, or an old style norther, will keep the Fat and Lean football teams off the turf at Harvester field tonight, sponsors of the big contest, announced Mr. Roosevelt at this morning, when there was a cool wind and low-flying clouds.

The kick-off will be at 8 o'clock with Bill Anderson (Kanyon University) at the whistle in place of Jim Groom, who has joined the army. Other officials will remain the same as appointed.

Admission to the game will be 15 cents for students and 25 cents for adults. Proceeds will go to the A. A. U. W. scholarship fund. Hundreds of tickets to the game have been sold by the band and pep squad, which is divided in its support of the two teams. The divided band and pep squad will be on hand tonight to support their favorites.

Probable starting lineups were released this morning and immediately a howl was raised by both teams, since several "injury" were listed. The Fats named Crawford Atkinson, Old Tire college star, to an end position, and the Leans

Cabbages Will Admit Children To Cagney Show

A "Cabbage Patch" matinee at La Nora theater Saturday afternoon will be open free to each girl and boy under 12 years who presents a head of cabbage at the box office. The film shown will be St. Louis Kid, with James Cagney.

Heads of cabbage must weigh at least two pounds to be accepted, and they must be presented by 2 p. m. The cabbage collected in this way by the theater will be given to needy families here.

This matinee is being arranged by Tom Blair and David Dallas, managers of Pampa theaters, to herald the showing of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," beginning Sunday.

special session recommendations, including his two-year personal debt moratorium.

The debt moratorium bill was offered by Long as the forerunner of the "cancellation of all debts" under the Old Testament rule of distribution of the wealth every seven years.

It provides for suspension of debts by the state bank commissioner, J. S. Brock, for a period of two years from passage of the act the bank commissioner will become the "debt moratorium commissioner" in addition to his other duties and no state court may suspension are exempt from provisions

AUTO TRACKS FOUND NEARBY THIS MORNING

SMALL DAMAGE DONE AND IS REPAIRED BY NOON

A break in the oil pipeline of the Dancier Oil & Refining company last night, said by investigators to have been caused by a dynamite blast, was being investigated by the sheriff's department and officials of that firm today. The damage was not great and was repaired this morning.

About midnight the pumper at the Dancier station east of LeFors detected the break on a pressure gauge and stopped the pumps. Investigation showed that the line had been blown apart about half way to the Pampa refinery of the company. Oil had run down a ravine by gravity, but because of the rolling country the loss was not large, officials said.

Officers found a dynamite sack which supposedly had contained several sticks of the explosive. Car tracks were the only other obvious clues. No one heard the blast before.

WORK IS RESUMED
Texas company employes who declined to strike were ordered to resume producing activities at 2 p. m. today. Officials of the company said about one hundred men, who have been inactive but paid for their time, were affected by the order. Leases were being produced at 3 p. m. in every county in the Panhandle in which the company operates, but not all leases were mended. Operations will gradually be brought back to normal, it was said.

cause it was in an isolated portion of the Combs-Worley ranchlands.

As a result of the blast, the pipeline will be repaired by guards armed with long-range guns.

The company recently resumed operations after being shut down for several days when a minority of its employes walked out, charging violation of article 7-A of the NRA code. The company regards the strikers as "resigned."

M. B. King, secretary of the local O. I. Workers union, said he had heard of the blast near noon and was trying to learn more about it. "I do not approve of that sort of tactics for any standpoint and I cannot believe that any striker had anything to do with it," he said.

Rumors that Communists, attracted by the labor trouble, might have been responsible for the dynamiting were discussed without any tangible evidence that might be true. It was reported at Borger several weeks ago that Communist agitators had been in that community at intervals over a period of several months.

Meanwhile, Texas company field operators were active. It was understood that men were being employed to guard company properties and protect employes after operations are resumed.

Possibility of a vote among Texas company employes on collective bargaining representation was heard today, but it was known that the company considered its striking employes, whom it terms "a small minority," to be "resigned" and no longer eligible to vote on such a question. It did not oppose an election, officials said.

The union has maintained that the employes would favor it as their agency if they felt free to decide as they chose.

Orchestra and Floor Show to Open "School"

Freddy Bergin's famous orchestra and floor show will open the Pampa Daily NEWS cooking school at the city auditorium at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon.

In making this announcement today, Gilmore B. Nunn, general manager of The NEWS, said that he was very fortunate in being able to offer the orchestra—one of the best ever brought here—for the entertainment of the cooking school "students." There will be 30 minutes of music and specialty entertainment.

The 3-day cooking school will present Mrs. Beulah Mackey Yates, who will be here for a second time. Since her last appearance here, Mrs. Yates has held great schools in some of the larger cities, including Antiantia, Dallas, Houston, and other metropolises.

Bergin and his entertainers will play a concert in the city hall at 8 p. m. Monday and then entertain at a dance and floor show at the Pla-Mor auditorium under the management of Alfred Gilliland.

Cutting Derides Chavez Protest

SANTA FE, N. M., Nov. 16 (AP)—Rep. Dennis Chavez, democrat, was asked today by Senator Bronson Cutting, his republican opponent, to disclose on what grounds he protested the result of the New Mexico senatorial election.

Rep. Chavez declared he had been elected to the six-year senate term and does not "intend to have that election taken away from me." Unofficial and complete returns from 27 counties and incomplete returns from the other four gave Senator Cutting a lead of more than 1,100 votes. Chavez refused to say if he intends to contest Cutting's claim to the seat.

Report Brickell To Join Albany

(The Sporting News.) ALBANY, N. Y.—The outfield prospects of the Albany Senators for 1935 were further enhanced by a "Franklin" announcement from Fred Brickell, for six years a member of the Pittsburgh Pirates and Phillies, that he will return to the game after a year's lay-off due to an injured leg.

The Harvester went through one of those rough and tough scrimmage sessions yesterday afternoon. They came out with a few bruises, but no serious injuries. Another long scrimmage was in store for this afternoon.

Next week will be spent in drilling on ways and means to stop Morris White's sprints and the Lubbock aerial attack which had functioned well in all games excepting against Amarillo last Monday and which is expected to be used again next week.

The big clash will be at Harvester park next Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Frank Kimbrough (Simmonds) new coach at Amarillo college, has been named referee. Other officials will be selected soon.

Poncan Is Named Big League Coach

Roy Johnson, the witty Irishman who led the Ponca City Angels into Pampa for a disastrous series with Arlington last season, has been named to a coaching job with the Chicago Cubs.

The long-established Wrigley policy of rewarding loyal and capable workers by moving them up the organization ladder was carried out when Roy Johnson, who managed the Ponca City team of the Western association this year, was elevated to coaching job with the Chicago Cubs.

Those Baers Are Buddies

When Max Baer was training for his championship fight with Primo Carnera, his brother, Buddy, was a big help in his training. Now that Buddy has started his fight career, Max is returning the favor. Here is Buddy getting a rubdown from his champion brother after one of the youth's recent knockout victories on the west coast. The younger Baer is 6 feet 6 1/2 inches tall, weighs 199, and has a reach two inches longer than Carnera's.

MANDERS GRIEVES; FLUBS HIS FIRST PLACEKICK IN 2 YEARS

BY RICHARD STROBEL. CHICAGO (AP)—A white-shirted youth walked dejectedly up the field, his football helmet swinging aimlessly from his hand, his face trying to mask a bitter disappointment.

Ten thousand fans sat in silence while he took his place in the line and prepared for another kickoff. They had just seen Jack Manders miss a point after touchdown from Placement! Manders' first in two years.

Manders, the greatest placement kicker professional football has developed, was simply a good fullback during his college years at Minnesota before he joined the Chicago Bears. Then his toe began to bring him fame.

Never particularly brilliant as a kicker while in college, Manders achieved his renown as a line smasher and a defensive fullback. When he was signed by the Bears, his predecessor on the Minnesota squad, Bronko Nagurski, held first claim to the job of doing the fullbacking for the National league champions.

THE SPORTS HORN

BY BILL PARKER. Associated Press Sports Writer. DALLAS, Nov. 13 (AP)—When Ted Clark goes to the post Sunday at Arlington, Texas, the $2,500 added Texas Centennial handicap it will be interesting to see what kind of play he gets at the part-timed windows.

In the Arlington Downs inaugural, Ted Clark was completely overlooked in that race was to establish a new one mile track record and pay off a straight $2 million ticket with $162. Saturday in the $10,000 Waggoner handicap, Ted Clark was again overlooked by thousands of persons seeking the winner. Again he galloped in with a new track record and a rich mutual of $21.80 to win.

Harry Sinclair, who once owned the famous million dollar Ranococas stable, is a daily visitor at Arlington Downs this week. The oil baron is spending his time at the Dallas A. P. I. convention during the a. m. hours but the p. m. hours sends him to Arlington. One of the feature attractions Thursday, which will be A. P. I. day at Arlington, will be the Sinclair handicap.

After several disappointing races, Clarify, owned by W. C. Stroube of Corsicana and trained by A. G. Tarn, broke down yesterday while striving to win the $2,500 added Fort Worth handicap. Clarify was carrying top weight of 117 pounds with H. Callahan up when the break down occurred. This fine 4-year-old broke down at the start of the race, was led from the track without returning to salute the judges' stand. Too much weight in recent races contributed to the break-down. Clarify had been nominated for Saturday's running of the Texas Centennial handicap, but naturally will not compete.

Another football team has appeared in Pampa, the Pewee Harvester of Pampa Junior Hi, coached by Frank Monroe. The team is composed of boys who failed to make the Junior Hi team coached by Tom Herrod.

The little fellows went to Groom last week and played a team of Groom Pewees who turned out to be "big fellows." Groom won the game 19 to 0 but it was a hard fought encounter from the opening whistle.

Heiskell, Owens, Miller, and Lewis looked strong for the Pampa midlets. Coach Monroe's starting lineup was Lybrand, Jarvis, Lewis, Isbell, M. Miller, Hickman, Owens, Heiskell, Pafford, Keyser and A. C. Miller. Substitutes were Horner, Cunningham, Plank, Aulds, Levitt, Hughes, Brown, Jensen, Oliver, King, and O'Keefe.

GAME PLANS ABANDONED
GREENVILLE, Nov. 16 (AP)—Tentative plans for an inter-sectional high school football game between the Greenville high school and Harrison Technical high school of Chicago have been abandoned, school officials here said today. The officials decided such a game might result in injuries which would impair Greenville's chances in the state championship race beginning the week after Thanksgiving. The Harrison high game had been considered for late this month in Greenville.

GORILLAS WIN 26-19 BATTLE IN BUCK FEUD

CHUBBY STEWART AIDS YOUNGSTERS IN VICTORY

The Gorilla's sensational 26 to 19 win over the White Deer Bucks on Harvester field yesterday afternoon was marred by the loss of Woody Woolridge, little quarterback, for the rest of the season. Woolridge's wrist was fractured in the fourth quarter when he tackled a pass receiver.

Coach Harry Kelley's boys kept the "never been defeated on the turf" tradition of Harvester field but it was a battle from the opening whistle. White Deer also had some luck to even matters when they lost "Frosky" Horner in the last quarter, with a badly sprained ankle. The midget had played some great football before leaving the game.

The Gorilla eleven was strengthened by Chubby Stewart, who showed up well on offense and great on defense. The work of Roy Lee Jones, Gorilla's substitute end, was one of the outstanding features of the game. The red-head played a whale of a defensive game, getting many tackles and intercepting a pass on the White Deer 40-yard line and carrying it to the 15-yard stripe before being brought down.

Kelly Kitchens came into his own in the Gorilla backfield after a bad slump. He did some good ball carrying and his defensive work was strong. Stevens was back in uniform yesterday after being out with a broken shoulder. Showers at fullback continued his line smashing and great punting. Strickland and Spurling were outstanding in the line, along with Elkins, other end.

Horner, Mauldin, and Nichols did most of the White Deer ball carrying in an effective manner. Their slashes through the line and interference were led by a wave of interference that was almost impossible to stop. Urbanczyk and Kotara, the two White Deer guards were as nice a pair of linemen as had been seen on Harvester field this year.

White Deer took the ball and started a goalward march which ended in a Howard slashing of tackle and racing 22 yards across pay. The try for extra point failed. The Bucks went into the lead late in the second quarter when Nichols intercepted a pass on the Pampa 40-yard line and raced unmolested over the goal line. He passed to Wait for the extra point.

The battling Gorillas came back to lead the score by one point at the half when Woolridge went across from the 1-yard line after Stewart and Kitchens had done some nifty ball carrying. Stewart kicked the extra point and Jones' interception of the White Deer pass and his run to the 15-yard line paved the way for another Gorilla touchdown soon after the half. With Stewart and Showers doing most of the line plugging, the Gorillas scored when Showers went across and Stewart added the extra point.

The Gorillas took a comfortable lead in the closing quarter when Stewart crashed his way through the White Deer line to score after a 60 yard drive, featured by runs by Woolridge, Kitchens and Showers. Stewart missed the try for extra point.

The Bucks scored their final touchdown on a pretty run near the final whistle. Mauldin went through his left tackle, cut back to the sidelines and outraced the entire backfield to score from the 35 yard line. He failed to add the extra point.

The starting lineups:
Pampa: Pos. White Deer
Elkins LE Watt
Green LT Carey
Gillis LG Urbanczyk
Strickland C Pipes
Hamlett RG Kotara

Fred Mumford was taken out of the backfield and put on end this year where he has been a stellar performer. He is a power defensively and a good pass receiver. He has scored two touchdowns this year, one on a pass and the other on a long run after recovering a blocked punt. Fred has another year with the Harvesters, which should be his best. He is fast and is putting on weight.

BARKER PICKS PITT TO BEAT NAVY ELEVEN

PREDICTS MUSTANGS WILL POUR IT ON ARKANSAS

By HERBERT W. BARKER. Associated Press Sports Writer. NEW YORK, Nov. 16 (AP)—For better or for worse, here's how prospects for tomorrow's leading football engagements look from this corner:

Pitt-Navy: Seven rivals have tried to sink the Sailors this season and all have failed. Navy is a fast, well-drilled outfit, quick to take advantage of every break, but nevertheless Pitt seems to have too much power to be stopped, even by so pugnacious a defense as Navy's. The choice is the Panther.

Syracuse-Colgate: Sheer power (Syracuse) vs. one of the trickiest attacks in football history (Colgate). A vote for Syracuse to gain more ground but for Colgate to win the ball game.

Princeton-Yale: The tradition backing this game may make it close but it would be a trifle inadvisable to bet against the undefeated Tiger.

Fordham-Purdue: The way to beat Purdue is to stop Purvis and Carter but those two lads usually decline to be halted. Purdue, after a tussle.

Minnesota-Chicago: Chicago's cripples will be available but it's not likely to make much difference. Minnesota, comfortable.

North Carolina-Duke: If 2 and 2 made 4 in football this would be a pipe. Tennessee beat North Carolina 19-7, and defeated Duke, 14-6. The answer should be Duke but it would be unwise to risk the family jewels.

Georgia Tech-Alabama: There's no such animal as a sure thing in football but Alabama comes close to it here.

Stanford-Olympic Club: Stanford, but not by much.

Southern California - Oregon: Purely a shot in the dark. Southern California to finally win a game.

HORNED FROGS TO ENTERTAIN TEXAS ELEVEN

RICE LIKELY TO HAVE EASY TIME WITH AGGIES

By BILL PARKER. Associated Press Sports Writer. After a week of improving their blocking, the Rice Institute Owls are ready to defend their South-west conference leadership tomorrow when they tie into the Texas A. and M. Aggies at College Station. The Owls will not leave for the battle scene until tomorrow.

Coach Klits sent the undefeated Houston aggregation through several strenuous practice sessions the first three days of this week because he was not satisfied with their blocking. He has his first string lineup ready for the Aggies.

Thirty-four University of Texas Longhorns, under the command of Coach Jack Chevinsky, arrived in Fort Worth today where tomorrow they will play the smashing Texas Christian Frogs, who hold second place in the conference race. Chevinsky planned a late afternoon workout on the Texas Christian field. The Texas mentor pronounced his squad in top condition.

Coach Dutch Meyer of the Frogs sent his cohorts through a light drill yesterday and smiled as he said they could not be in better spirit and condition for a tough game.

Ready to stage another aerial circus, Coach Jack Chevinsky, arrived in Fort Worth today where tomorrow they will play the University of Arkansas. The game will be played in Dallas. Coach Morrison devoted much time this week to a series of new pass plays for use against the Razorbacks.

Coach Morley Jennings and 33 Baylor Bears will leave tonight for Shreveport where tomorrow they play Centenary in a non-conference game. Lloyd Russell, star back who has been injured since an early season game against Arkansas, probably will start against Centenary.

Georgia. Cornell-Dartmouth: Despite its cripples, Dartmouth. Penn-Columbia: Penn improves weekly but scarcely enough to beat Columbia.

Iowa State-Drake: Likewise, toward Iowa State. Creighton-Marquette: Marquette to beat the heir-apparent to the Missouri valley title.

Tulsa-Oklahoma A. and M.: Utah Aggies-Colorado Mines: No worries for the Aggies here. Colorado U.-Colorado College: Nor for the University.

Colorado Aggies-Utah: Close but we'll take Utah. Denver-Birmingham Young: Denver. Wyoming-Colorado Teachers: Perhaps an edge for the Teachers.

Manhattan-Villanova: A ballot for Villanova. Auburn-Florida: The chips are down on Auburn.

Prince Renounces Rights To Throne
COPENHAGEN, Denmark, Nov. 16 (AP)—The romance of Prince Erik, who renounced his rights to the throne of Denmark to marry a Canadian heiress, is ended.

The couple have petitioned King Christian, Erik's cousin, for permission to seek a divorce. The princess is the former Lois Frances Booth of Ottawa, who inherited a lumber fortune.

After his marriage in Ottawa in 1927, Prince Erik sampled cowboy and farm life in Canada and the United States but gave it up. For the last few years they had been living quietly at the prince's country estate. They have two children.

Wentz Deal To Buy Cardinals Has Collapsed

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 16 (AP)—The glaring light of publicity apparently has withered a budding deal for a sale of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Low Wentz, Oklahoma oil millionaire who came here several days ago to open negotiations with Sam Breadon, principal owner of the world champions, remained in St. Louis today but to all outward appearance the deal was off. Business relations between the owner and prospective buyer ended suddenly yesterday.

Wentz indicated that the deluge of publicity that accompanied the negotiations had aroused fears of a "hurried sale" and thus resulted in a stalemate.

"We have a few things to iron out before the deal is brought up," Breadon said, the only expression that pointed to anything but utter collapse for the plan.

"Was the price too high?" he was asked. "No, it was not just that," the owner replied. "There are other things to be considered." The price had been reported at $1,250,000.

Questioned if he would resume his visits with Breadon before leaving St. Louis, Wentz said, "oh, I may, but it might not be about baseball. I've come to know Mr. Breadon through the last week and I may have a friendly chat or two with him."

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION ISSUED BY FDR

SAYS WE HAVE TURNED MINDS TO THINGS SPIRITUAL

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16 (AP)—In a Thanksgiving day proclamation, President Roosevelt today called upon the American people to "dedicate ourselves anew to work for the betterment of mankind."

"This should be done, he said, 'with gratitude in our hearts for what has already been achieved.'"

"I, Franklin D. Roosevelt, president of the United States of America, hereby designate Thursday, the 29th day of November, 1934, as a day of Thanksgiving for the people of the nation."

"Thus to set aside in the autumn of each year a day on which to give thanks to Almighty God for the blessings of life is a wise and revered custom, long cherished by our people. It is fitting that we should again observe this custom."

"During the past year we have been given courage and fortitude to meet the problems which have confronted us in our national life. Our sense of social justice has deepened. We have been given vision to make new provisions for human welfare and happiness, and in a spirit of mutual happiness we have cooperated to translate vision into reality."

"More greatly have we turned our hearts and minds to things spiritual. We can truly say, 'what profiteth it a nation if it gain the whole world and lose its own soul?'"

"With gratitude in our hearts for what has already been achieved, may we, with the help of God, dedicate ourselves anew to work for the betterment of mankind."

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed."

"Done in the City of Washington this fifteenth day of November in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and thirty-four and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and fifty-ninth."

Poderjaj May Be Released Dec. 1

VIENNA, Nov. 16. (AP)—The Austrian government announced today that unless a formal demand is made by American authorities for the extradition of Captain Ivan Poderjaj by December 1, it will be obliged to release him.

The American legation here is powerless to do anything in the case until a formal warrant for Poderjaj's arrest on the charge of bigamy in connection with the disappearance of his bride Agnes Tuferson, New York and Detroit lawyer, arrives from Washington.

The bigamy charge was filed by New York authorities who are anxious to question Poderjaj on the disappearance of his wife shortly after he married her there in December, 1933.

When Poderjaj was taken into custody here he admitted having already been married when he met Miss Tuferson. The Austrian government is anxious to dispose of the case because of the expense of keeping Poderjaj, who has been on their hands for several months.

International Sunday School Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

General Topic: The Christian Church Member. Scripture Lesson: Matt. 5:13-16; Acts 2:41-47.

Matt. 5:13. Ye are the salt of the earth; but if the salt have lost its savor, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out and trodden under foot of men.

14. Ye are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hid. 15. Neither do men light a lamp, and put it under the bushel, but on the stand; and it shineth unto all that are within.

16. Even so let your light shine before men; that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in heaven. Acts 2:41. They then that received his word were baptized; and there were added unto them in that day three thousand souls.

42. And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread and the prayers. 43. And fear came upon every soul; and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles.

44. And all that believed were together, and had all things common; 45. And they sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all, according as any man had need.

46. And day by day, continuing steadfastly with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread at home, they took their food with gladness and singleness of heart. 47. Praising God, and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to them day by day those that were saved.

Introduction. Last Sunday we had a lesson on the evils of war and the blessings of peace. This Sunday we are to study the church and its great work in the world.

The Church. The church is the body of Christ. It is the community of believers who are united together by the Holy Spirit.

The Church's Mission. The church's mission is to bring the message of the Gospel to all people, to teach them to obey the commandments of Christ, and to live in love and peace with one another.

The Church's Unity. The church is one, holy, catholic, and apostolic. It is united together by the Holy Spirit and the communion of saints.

The Church's Growth. The church has grown from a small group of disciples in Jerusalem to a worldwide community of believers.

The Church's Service. The church is called to serve the world, to bring healing and hope to all who are in need.

The Church's Witness. The church is called to be a witness to the world, to show the love and mercy of God to all people.

The Church's Hope. The church has hope in the future, in the promise of eternal life for all who believe in Christ.

The Church's Love. The church is called to love one another, to be united in love and peace.

The Church's Faith. The church has faith in the power of God, in the promise of eternal life, and in the love of Christ.

The Church's Joy. The church has joy in the presence of God, in the fellowship of one another, and in the promise of eternal life.

The Church's Peace. The church is called to be a peacemaker, to bring reconciliation to all who are in conflict.

The Church's Unity. The church is one, holy, catholic, and apostolic. It is united together by the Holy Spirit and the communion of saints.

The Church's Growth. The church has grown from a small group of disciples in Jerusalem to a worldwide community of believers.

The Church's Service. The church is called to serve the world, to bring healing and hope to all who are in need.

The Church's Witness. The church is called to be a witness to the world, to show the love and mercy of God to all people.

HOUSE FAVORS CASH PAYMENT FOR VETERANS

FATE OF LEGISLATION RESTS ENTIRELY IN SENATE

By NATHAN ROBERTSON (Copyright, 1934, by The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—A survey of congressional sentiment shows the house overwhelmingly favors cash payment of the soldiers' bonus and that the fate of the legislation rests almost entirely in the senate.

The survey, conducted by the Associated Press, shows 159 representatives in favor of the bonus and 47 against. Of the remaining members, all non-committal or unavailable, 98 voted for the bonus last session, 60 opposed it and 48 did not vote.

The senate lineup divides evenly, with 24 for the bonus and 24 against. The balance of power rests with the remainder, all either non-committal or unreachable. There was no clear cut vote in the senate last session on which to base a further tally.

Speculation on how the doubtful senators will vote is inconclusive. Many of them are pledged to support the administration and might be expected to follow President Roosevelt. Some have voted for cash payment in the past.

While the check in the house indicates a division similar to the overwhelming vote of 295 to 125 for the bonus in the last session, two conflicting factors may cause changes. Since then President Roosevelt's administration has gathered new strength at the polls, despite his strong hit of a bonus vote. Countering this, the American Legion has come out for cash payment for the first time.

Some observers believe that factors which may settle the issue in congress are: Whether the president sets his face against all bonus proposals or offers to compromise; and the force of the drive conducted by the Legion and other service organizations.

Several suggestions along the compromise line were made by members of congress in the survey. The most frequently proposed was cancellation of interest on the adjusted service certificates, with many who oppose cash payment of the full face value offering to support such a move.

While the national convention recommended cash payment, it also urged 75 other legislative moves, and it will be up to the executive committee to decide which to push hardest.

In replying to the Associated Press, several members of congress indicated the government's heavy expenditures influence them to vote for the bonus, even though some have opposed it in the past.

Senator Sheppard (R., Texas) voiced the attitude of many in replying that "I shall await his (President Roosevelt's) statement as to the effect such payment would have on the condition of the treasury and economic recovery of the country before arriving at a decision in this matter."

Spectre Of New Drought Appears In Middle West

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16 (AP)—The spectre of another drought has some department of agriculture officials fearful for the future of the nation's agricultural "bread basket."

No official prediction has been made, but men concerned with AAA plans for 1935 acknowledge they are worried. Daily reports showing abnormal temperatures and light rainfall over parts of the midwest and west are being scrutinized as never before.

This fall, since the nation's worst drought was partly broken in September, weather conditions over most of the United States from the Ohio valley westward have been partially similar to a year ago. The temperature has been considerably above normal, following a cycle which began 25 years ago. Rain and snowfall is considerably below normal.

Subsist moisture was reported to be scanty over most of the drought area because of lack of long rains. A setback for winter wheat and crops planted next spring is predicted unless heavy snowfall this winter replaces the moisture. One economist admitted he was "praying that the midwest and west get a lot of snow and that the country freezes tight for the winter."

NEW FRONTIERS IS SUBJECT OF MRS. DINGUS FOR P-TA TALK

HUNDREDS HEAR VISITOR FROM LUBBOCK TALK

LIBRARIAN STRESSES MEANING OF BOOK WEEK

Education of present-day youth for a new world of the future was discussed by Mrs. William Dingus of Lubbock, guest speaker at Junior High Parent-Teacher association yesterday afternoon, in an outstanding program of this year.

Mrs. Dingus, a professor of foreign languages at Texas Tech and a student of world relations, had as her subject, New Frontiers for Youth. Students in the public schools today are being trained for conditions that will differ widely from the present, Mrs. Dingus said, and must be taught to adjust themselves to the new world.

She believes that specialized training will be profitable, but not to the extent that the individual is narrowed and confined to only one earning channel. Employment con-

SCOUTS START WORK ON TOYS FOR CHILDREN

One Troop of Girls Has Hike and Supper

Furniture was made for doll houses to be distributed to underprivileged children at Christmas, when Girl Scouts of troop five met at the home of Byron Dedson Wednesday.

They selected the play, "Mr. Everyman Finds a Wife," for presentation by the troop soon. Next Wednesday the meeting will be at high school cafeteria, and members will learn to darn.

Refreshments were served to Jackie Hurst, Marjorie McCole, Velma Pae and Thelma Mae Osborne, Hazel Bath, Marcene McClements, Martha Price, Maggie Coffey, Mary Lynn Schofield, Alice Marie McConnell, Wilma Willis, Virginia Curtis, Carolyn Surratt, Mary Kate Bourland, Peggy Stephens, Frances Thompson, Mattie Brown, Elizabeth Mullinax, Byron Dedson, Mrs. R. A. Selby, Mrs. J. M. Dodson.

TRI-CITY C.E. ORGANIZED BY YOUNG PEOPLE

CHURCH HERE SENDS DELEGATION TO PANHANDLE

Organization of a Tri-City Christian Endeavor union was perfected last evening when young people of Pampa, Borger, and Panhandle met at Panhandle. Miss Mary McNeill of Borger was elected president; a vice president will be named from Pampa, and a secretary from Panhandle.

Plans were made for meetings on the third Tuesday of every third month. The next session will be in Borger in February.

Those attending from Pampa were John S. Mullen, John Martin, Jimmie Beard, Alice Reedy, Fred Johnson, Doris Hall, Lorene Keith, Rosa Bell Reed, Morris Belew, Howard Gray, Phillip Belew, Madge Tieman, Walter Clay, Wayne Hutchens, Alice Butts, and Mrs. Mel Davis.

Refreshments of sandwiches and hot chocolate were served to the visitors.

Only One Left

Think Sophie Tucker could slip home unnoticed? No, SIR! A delegation of actors, carrying placards acclaiming her as "The Last of the Red-Hat Mamas," met her at the pier when she returned to New York after a successful European season. Here she smiles as she tells reporters of an autograph-hunter and how she discouraged the attentions of a love-sick youth.

ACTUAL COURSE IN COOKERY IS FREE FOR ALL

Homemakers Invited To All School Sessions

For three days starting Monday, housewives of this city will be privileged to hear the nationally known expert of foods and home economics, Beulah Mackey Yates, who is being brought to this city by this newspaper to supervise its Happy Kitchen cooking school, to be held at city hall auditorium.

In addition to valuable demonstrations on cookery, Mrs. Yates will offer pertinent suggestions, interesting hints and valuable pointers on how to manage the household to best advantage. Every minute of each daily session will be a busy one filled with informative advice on the hundred and one problems that come from years of study and practical experience in solving the many perplexing difficulties of thousands of women in all parts of the country who are yours without a cent of cost.

Mrs. Yates brings a precious fund of reminiscences from her cookery school training and practice, as well as from her work in home economics and parent-teacher organizations. Those recollections will be of the greatest interest to her audiences.

You will hear and learn about menus, marketing, budgeting, step-savers, recipes, baking, calories, left-overs, time-savers, broiling, poaching, salading, frying, labor-savers, vitamins, and scores of other interesting things. Indeed at the Happy Kitchen cooking school you will receive free an actual course in cookery and home economics that will save you money and time and make life more enjoyable.

One of the features of the school will be "The Question Box," in which you may drop questions, without even signing them if you desire. They will receive Mrs. Yates' expert attention.

HAPPY KITCHEN CHATS BY Beulah Mackey Yates

The Electrified Kitchen

Electrified kitchens form a very valuable adjunct to many modern homes, and from a matter of convenience and economy, and general results obtained electrical engineers tell us they cannot be excelled; because they say that out of the illimitable future an electrical America draws nearer with each succeeding year.

Steinmetz predicted this when he talked of the electrical age and foresaw homes without chimneys and cities without fires. Franklin would appreciate this, for he was an electrical American, although America will not be fully electrified until all things are done by electricity.

But even now we have every facility for an all-electrical kitchen; where a meal can be cooked on an electric range, using food preserved in an electrical refrigerator, and eaten in the comfortable atmosphere of electrical heat, if it happens to be the winter season; for the heating of the kitchen—indeed the whole home—electrically is the newest contribution to the all-electric home idea.

With electric heat there is no more daily running up and down cellar nor watching the fluctuating of fuel prices. There is no money tied up in fuel at all; for the electric heat is not paid for until after it is used. Finally there is no waste of heat distribution. The electric system does not supply more heat on a mild day than is required.

This system, too, utilizes a by-product of the electrical company—idle-hour electricity—and uses it only when needed without waste of the heat-yielding elements, hence without waste of the consumer's dollars.

For cooking you now find electrical ranges which are both practical and economical, and these can hardly be any doubt but that they are cleaner and more sanitary than other forms of heat for cooking.

The next unit of importance is of course your electrical refrigerator, in which ice cubes are made by

BRIDGE CLUB'S OFFICERS FOR YEAR ELECTED

QUEEN OF CLUBS HAS PARTY AT HARRAH HOME

Mrs. Raymond Harrah was hostess to the Queen of Clubs at her home yesterday afternoon, entertaining a table of players with bridge.

Mrs. R. S. Lawrence was elected president of the club for the coming year, and Mrs. H. D. Keys reported, in a brief business meeting following the games.

Mrs. Keys scored high, and cut prizes at each table went to Mmes. Dave Finkelstein, Charles Cook, A. M. Martini, and H. E. Schwartz. A salad course was served as the games ended.

Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar and Mrs. Finkelstein were club guests. Members present were Mmes. Carl Boston, E. C. Wilson, Cook, Howard Buckingham, Neil McCullough, B. O. Lilly, I. B. Hughey, Carl Smith, Schwartz, Mack Graham, Martini, Keys, Lawrence.

ENDS BODY ODOR

Leaves No After-Smell! It isn't the smell of a soap that gets you clean—it's the lather. Ordinary toilet soaps don't lather freely enough in this hard water. Often they yield only a sticky soap curd that does up a stable perspiration instead of removing it. Kirk's Castile, a 100% pure vegetable oil soap, gives oceans of lather even in hard, cold water—picks deep into pores and gets from the state perspiration curd. Instantly your body is fresh and odorless! Try Kirk's today. A 50% larger cake at a record low price!

A surprise birthday party was given for Jack Stone, who is visiting his mother, Mrs. Maude Stone, Mrs. T. L. White and Mrs. A. D. Rockwell were hostesses at a dinner at 306 1/2 E. Foster.

After dinner the party motored to the Tokyo ballroom for dancing. Guests were Messrs. and Mmes. Lee White, Wade Thompson, Lee Randolph, Sid Stone, Cecil White, A. D. Rockwell, Mmes. Maude Stone and Bud Sautsbury; Misses Edna Merle Tackitt, Pearl Criswell, Lavada Francis, Eva Mae Rockwell Bonita and Juanita Rockwell, Messrs. Joe Vernon, Edgar Rockwell, N. W. Finch, and M. Miller of Amarillo.

The program, a chill supper was planned as an association benefit in December, but no definite date was set.

The guest speaker appeared on this program during her visit here with the A. U. W. chapter, to which she spoke last evening. She is state chairman of international relations for that organization.

Surprise Birthday Party Given Guest

A farewell and welcome reception was given last night at Holy Souls rectory by Father Wondler for the Rev. Edward Clinton of White Deer and the Rev. C. Dvorak of Littlefield who have permanently exchanged pulpits. Clinton will leave soon for Littlefield and Rev. Dvorak will move to White Deer.

Guests were Revs. P. Kaminsky, C. Gutierrez, B. O'Brien, J. Steinle, J. Zienta, all of Amarillo; Rev. Andrew Quante of Borger, and Rev. Clinton and Rev. Dvorak.

Sunday Will Be Father's Day in Christian Church

Fathers' day will be observed in First Christian church Sunday, with two special sermons and invitations to all fathers and sons in the church to be present together.

The morning sermon subject of John S. Mullen, minister, is "The Danger in Fathers Exalting Sour Grapes." The evening subject will be "The Fatherhood of God."

Recognition will be given the oldest and youngest fathers present, and the father with the most children present.

Following these special services, a father and son gathering will be held at the church Tuesday evening, with a check-wagon feed for all men and boys of the church.

Hi-Lo Club Has Party Wednesday

A Thanksgiving party entertained members of Hi-Lo bridge club Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Doug Wilson. Table appointments were decorated in the holiday symbols.

Mrs. Tom Morris scored high, Mrs. C. C. Cockerill low, and Mrs. J. C. Teeters received the traveling prize.

Mrs. J. O. Sehan Jr. was a special guest, and other members playing were Mmes. Roy Dyson, Bill Dull, E. P. Hollingshead, Homer Wallace, H. P. Beatty, R. A. Meyers, W. M. McWright.

Health Program And Slides Hold Interest of Club

Illustrated with slides, a health program at this week's meeting of Twentieth Century club proved unusually interesting. Mrs. Tom Rose was leader at the home of Mrs. W. R. Campbell.

Work of the state department of health was outlined by Mrs. Rose, than Mrs. I. B. Hughey discussed the control of communicable diseases, mentioning steps already taken and others possible.

Mrs. H. H. Hicks presented the slides, a series on care of the eyes and one on bone diseases. Her comments helped members interpret the pictures.

Roll call was answered with various topics assigned for the year, by Mmes. W. A. Bratton, Ivy Duncan, R. B. Fisher, J. M. Fitzgerald, W. T. Fraser, Ray J. Hagan, R. W. Harrah, Hicks, Hughey, Paul Kasishke, B. C. Low, Rose, John Sturgeon, Edwin Vicars, Roy Wallrabenstein, and Campbell.

Relieves Headache Due To Constipation

"Theford's Black-Draught has been used in my family for years," writes Mrs. J. A. Hightower, of Carthage, Texas. "I take it for sick headache that comes from constipation. When I feel a headache coming on, I take a dose of Black-Draught. It acts and my head gets easy. Before I knew of Black-Draught, I would suffer two or three days—but not any more since I have used Black-Draught."

2,000 CASES OF PELLEGRA ARE ON RELIEF ROLLS IN TEXAS NOW

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 16. (AP)—The three thousand delegates to the Southern Medical association meeting, told by one of its own members that the profession needed "broader vision," prepared to elect officers at a final session today and scatter to their homes.

Dr. W. W. Young of Atlanta, Ga., plainly told delegates last night in an address that "it is quite apparent the medical profession has not lived up to expectations. There is need to take on an even broader vision; a need to shift to a more sociological attitude is evident. It is to be feared that the lay public is often more alive to the issues than the medical profession."

The increase of suicides was cited by Dr. Oliver W. Hill of Knoxville, Tenn., who told a pediatric section that the age at which self destruction is accomplished is, on the average, "younger than at any other preceding period."

Cancer is now the second leading cause of death in the United States, Dr. Ernest H. Gaither of Baltimore, Md., told a section on gastroenterology. The approximate mortality is 125,000 annually he said, and added that "no worth-while progress as to early diagnosis has as yet been accomplished, and in the vast majority of cases therapy other than surgery has failed and surgery itself has usually been advised too late to save the patient."

Dr. Charles D. Reece of Austin, official of the state department of health, cited figures to show 615 deaths had resulted from 12,300 cases of pellagra in Texas in 1933. He added there were nearly 2,000 pellagra cases on the Texas relief rolls at the present time with diets being given them for treatment.

General Frederick F. Russell of New York, international health commissioner of the Rockefeller foundation, and president of the American Society of Tropical Medicine, gave his annual address before the Tropical Medicine Society.

Blue Eagle Is Winning Favor From Industry

NEW YORK, cv. 16 (AP)—The blue eagle, insofar as it makes for fair trade practices, still commands wide favor from American industry.

This was the consensus of 125 editors of business and trade publications, queried on the operation of the codes. Replies indicated that most industries had profited by the fair trade rules, where enforcement machinery was effective.

Price-fixing, however, won less favor. Business publication editors found only a few industries outspoken for continuation of price-fixing. Only rock products, coal, jewelry, and dry goods industries disclosed a hankering for set prices in the future, the summary indicated.

The poll of industrial opinion on new deal policies was taken through editors of the 125 member publications of Associated Business Papers, Inc. They were described as thoroughly familiar with the inside facts and opinions in the industries they follow. Nearly every field of business was covered.

Fair trade practices, they learned, had functioned well in the fields of cement, rock products, architecture, food packing, electrical contracting, copper, jewelry, coal, steel, and bus transportation.

WILL PRODUCE PLAY

ALANREED, Nov. 16.—Organization of a civic group to produce plays here will be under way soon, sponsors of the plan stated today. Plans are being made to present plays of several types in connection with holidays, celebrations and seasonal periods. Affiliation with other theater groups is planned, it was stated.

HEARING TO CONSIDER RULES FOR REFINED OIL PRODUCTS IS SET

AUSTIN, Nov. 16 (AP)—The railroad commission today gave notice of hearing in Austin November 26 to consider regulations for refined products of crude oil.

The notice was issued to conform to a decision of the third court of civil appeals that the commission has authority to require tenders, as well as certain data, from refiners in order to trace the course of the crude oil.

The commission also announced that a general promotion hearing covering all oil and gas fields in Texas had been postponed from November 23 to November 26.

The new notice of hearing was hurriedly prepared immediately after the court of civil appeals decision. An attache of the commission drove all night in order to get the necessary papers to Dallas for signature by members of the commission who are attending the convention of the American Petroleum Institute.

The notice specifies that evidence would be "heard and a decision made as to what rules, regulations and orders should be adopted concerning the transportation, sale, purchase, and handling of refined products of crude petroleum in order to prevent waste and conserve the oil and gas resources of the state."

The court of civil appeals decision was embodied in the case of the Blue Diamond Oil corporation which had been granted an injunction in Travis county district court restraining the commission from requiring tenders for transportation of refined oil products in the East Texas field.

The court affirmed the lower court's action in granting the injunction on grounds that proper notice and a hearing had not been had, but it held the commission had the power to require tenders by conforming to the law with reference to notice and hearing.

PRESIDENT WILL VISIT MANSION OF OLD HICKORY

Hermitage Preserved Much As Jackson Left It

BY O. K. BARNES.
NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Ochost walk at the Hermitage.

In the stillness of a late fall day there seems to linger some faint echo of the brilliance and gaiety of its past—the laughter of young southerners, the footsteps of great statesmen, the strident voice of their host, Andrew Jackson.

But that historical estate, where the bones of "Old Hickory" and the traditions of the Old South are enshrined is about to extend a lively welcome to Franklin D. Roosevelt—the same welcome it has given to seven other presidents of the United States in the past century.

Familiar With Era.

President Roosevelt plans to visit the Hermitage about November 15 en route from Washington to his vacation cottage at Warm Springs, Georgia.

Students of his speech-writing style long ago noted his familiarity with the events and issues of the administration of President Andrew Jackson. It is known Mr. Roosevelt planned to revive in the minds of democratic memories of the rugged Tennesseean.

His visit to the home of "Old Hickory" is seen as part fulfillment of his wishes in this connection.

Built in 1823.

First constructed in 1823, the mansion burned 11 years later but was rebuilt with all the elegance of the period while Jackson was president.

Today the spirit of Tennessee's most famous son still lives in the characteristics of the house, for it is preserved as it was when the old warrior and his wife, Rachel, welcomed society in its stately halls.

Coming up the driveway, President Roosevelt will pass the same tall cedars that formed a guard of honor in Jackson's day. Within the cool, spacious depths of the colonial mansion he will find the same furniture arranged in the fashion that met the taste of Rachel Jackson.

In the garden are the graves of Andrew and Rachel.

Many Presidents Visitors.

Other chief executives have made the same pilgrimage—Monroe, Polk, Van Buren, Fillmore, Pierce, Buchanan, and Theodore Roosevelt.

Although not in the presidency at the time of their visits, there came at intervals down the years Andrew Johnson, Hayes, Cleveland, McKinley, Wilson, and Taft.

When President Theodore Roosevelt visited the Hermitage in 1907, he declared: "I cannot imagine any American president failing to visit the tomb of Andrew Jackson if the opportunity comes."

Jefferson Davis, president of the confederacy, spent many months at the Hermitage in his childhood. And Sam Houston, first and only president of the republic of Texas, was a frequent visitor, for he looked upon Jackson as his mentor.

State-Owned Now.

The Hermitage is state-owned now. Perpetuation of its traditions rests with the Ladies' Hermitage association whose members will cooperate with Rep. Joseph W. Byrns, official host for President Roosevelt's visit, in serving a luncheon in the famous Hermitage dining room.

Perhaps the guests will dine from the same heavy silver dishes Jackson obtained from the widow of the naval hero, Commodore Stephen Decatur.

Of excellent construction and spaciousness, the colonnaded mansion stands today as it did a hundred years ago—a monument to the splendor of the ante-bellum south and the warrior-statesman who called it home.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD
CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

They started out as ordinary snapshots but, artfully handled, turned out to be charming greeting cards. A simple, effective and individual solution of the greeting card problem.

Pampa sharpshooters have a great advantage over ordinary folks at Christmas time, for they can easily produce Christmas cards that are 100 per cent individual, unusual, and not at all expensive.

What's the purpose of a Christmas card, anyway? Simply to carry a message of cheer and good-will from one person to another. It is, at its best, a very personal affair.

Snapshots of yourself, your home, your family, your pets or anything else that's part of your life can be easily used in Christmas cards. The result is cards like no one else's.

There are many ways of using snapshots in greetings. The photo finishers in your town are equipped to make greetings for you, using one of your own snaps. They do some beautiful things; it will pay you, at least, to investigate them.

Or you may want to be even more individual. One of the simplest greetings consists of a card with a snapshot pasted on it and a handwritten message below. Nothing can be more personal than that!

The opportunities for unusual and beautiful cards are endless. It's a challenge to your ingenuity. But no matter how clever the scheme, the snapshot itself must be good—and appropriate.

You might use a snapshot of your family, stood up in a row, facing the camera. But is there anything

Marian Gordon
by JEANNE BOWMAN

SYNOPSIS: Lon Casad, Marian's husband, is working for McSwain, a man Marian knows to be a crook. Lon has been put in charge of a job McSwain plans to scam; worse, Lon is completely under McSwain's influence, and has ignored Marian for days because she has tried to break the spell. Silver Hondon, McSwain's sly daughter, also is in the tangle because she has made no secret of her desire to alienate Lon from Marian. Lon has gone to a "get-together" with "the boys."

Chapter 35 LON'S RETURN

Hero whined uneasily, sensing the storm. He chased a wisp of paper and rushed back to her with his trophy, then walked sedately as she returned to the house.

"The house was immaculately clean, but Marian went over it thoroughly. The storm broke as she worked and she paused to listen to the music of wind and rain. She had a sketchy lunch; Lon had said they would drive out for dinner on the morrow so there was no shopping. Then, with a book, she sought to pass the time.

Slowly the hours passed. When the tick-tock of the mantel clock became unbearable, she went into the bedroom and tried to sleep, dozed fitfully and awakened to find a scant hour had passed.

"I won't depend upon Lon for my happiness," she insisted as she arose. "It's foolish. I'll go into town, visit Anne, go to a theater, visit the office and gossip . . . anything but this . . . this terrible waiting for something to happen."

Hero listened, head to one side. He had understood the word go, now he went to the closet where his leaves were kept, and returned with it dangling from his mouth.

"I can't leave you alone, old fellow," she confessed, "and I dread leaving the house for fear Lon might need me. We'll compromise, we'll go for a walk."

They went into the storm, braced against the wind and the rain, ran downhill, parted uphill, returned at twilight breathless and hungry.

Marian built a fire on the hearth, made toast and tea and wheeled it in on the tea wagon. Then, Hero beside her drooping in the warmth, she nibbled and sipped and read, but really listened and waited for the sound of a motor.

Eight o'clock, nine o'clock, ten o'clock . . . what if Lon had cashed his check and someone, knowing he was to be paid, had jumped his car in the tunnel and . . . oh she was foolish, but supposing on these wet pavements the car had skidded. There were so many dark canyons and with little traffic on a stormy night she wouldn't know until next morning. Maybe at that very moment he was lying under his car . . . she arose, paced restlessly around the room.

"I have to do something," she said aloud. She'd telephone . . . telephone . . . whom could she telephone? Murphy at the gas station, maybe he had an extra car. She would drive into the city, and if she met Lon along the road she would pretend she hadn't seen him and let him wait for her as she had waited for him . . . and as she drove . . . slowly . . . she would look for skid marks on the pavement, and into the canyons.

She called the Walnut Creek exchange and asked for Murphy's Service Station.

... but he had refused to touch anything since. He'd said, "If I can't take it I won't touch it."

The telephone rang again. Marian hastened to answer. "Mrs. Casad," came Murphy's voice. "I've just been in to see your husband, he's in a pretty bad condition. I'd advise you to call a doctor."

Marian scarcely waited for Murphy to hang up before she was calling the Steeles. Thank goodness, she thought, this is Saturday night and Doctor and Anne will be in.

"Marian speaking," she said when the connection was made. "Doctor Steele, Lon has been drinking. The man at the gas station down the road from here just telephoned and said he would bring him home and I'd better have a doctor here. Will you come?"

"Of course, Ian. Anne and I'll both be there, but that isn't like Lon," he insisted.

"I know," she answered, "please hurry."

A lifetime seemed to pass as Marian stood at the gate waiting for headlights to turn off the highway into the drive. She felt herself turning from girl into woman; every maternal instinct of apprehension, protection, yearning to assume the other's suffering, was awakened.

She would watch the glimmer of light appear on the bushes which lined the highway, see two yellow-white eyes appear, then hear a far-away swish as they passed on towards the city. And then, when she was on the verge of going down the highway on foot, headlights turned left.

She waited for Murphy to stop, jumped on the running board and rode to the house. Lon was lying, an inert figure on the back seat of the sedan. Together they carried him in and laid him on the bed, and with Murphy's assistance she loosened his clothing, and covered him.

"So sick, honey," he murmured once as he opened glazed eyes, "so sick."

"Doc's on his way here," she assured him and lay a cool palm on his moist forehead.

"What happened, Mr. Murphy, do you know?" she asked him, as Lon seemed to lapse back into unconsciousness.

"No, I really don't," he said. "Mr. Casad drove in about eight o'clock with a couple of men. He cashed his pay check and they cashed theirs, all from the Madden Construction Company they were. Then they drove on."

"About an hour later they came back, and one of the men was driving the car. He asked me if I knew where Casad lived and I told him. He said well he wasn't going to take the 'fall' by taking him home to his wife in that condition and said he'd leave him there in the garage until he sobered up."

"I was busy, Saturday night, you know, and I didn't pay much atten-
