Ray Hamilton Takes Automatic Rifles From Beaumont Armory

COMPROMISE OIL PACT IS APPROVED

FAMOUS THUG NOW SUPPLIED FOR HIS RAIDS

FINGERPRINTS PROVE IDENTITY AFTER THEFT

BEAUMONT, Feb. 16 (AP)—Raymond Hamilton, broke into a national guard armory within a few blocks of the police station here today, carrying away eight deadly automatic rifles and thousands of rounds of ammunition.

An elderly caretaker, G. T. Owens, was threatened with death when he encountered the condemned killer and a companion raiding the armory supply room. Hamilton and the other man loaded the munitions in a truck and left the frightened caretaker blindfolded in a chair.

Fingerprints on a supply room door and the caretaker's recognizing Hamilton police picture resulted in positive identification of the badly-wanted fugitive. Hamilton is wanted by the federal government for burglary of an armory at Ranger about a year ago, in which machine guns and ammunition were stolen. He also was suspected of a similar burglary at a Dallas National Guard armory.

Police feared Hamilton, who probably has taken part in more bank robberies than any other outlaw at large in the southwest, needed the quick-firing guns to arm himself for more forays against defenseless small town banks—his favorite prey.

Escaped Trap
Last week Hamilton barely escaped death in a police trap at Dallas, his brother Floyd and himself fleeing when officers opened fire on them from an apartment. Floyd later was caught at Shreveport and now in the Dallas county jail. It was believed Raymond was wounded at Dallas, but apparently his injuries, if any, were minor.

In a truck with paneled sides, Hamilton and his accomplice in the armory robbers, then roared out of Beaumont, abandoned the truck a few miles from Silsbee and, officers believed, continued in a car stolen at Silsbee from F. C. Weatherly.

A check showed 3,600 rounds of ammunition were taken, along with Tillie wishing she were sick so that some one could send her roses—she just loves roses.

Saw "Joe Brown" Deck, outfielder for the Phillips "66" baseball team last season, place two golf balls, a spool of thread, a thimble, and a baseball in his mouth at one time the other night. Of course the baseball didn't disappear in the cavity but "Lefty" was able to get a good grip on it with his teeth. (Lefty used to be with Ripley's Believe It or Not, and also on the stage).

LEFORS TO BE HOST TO MANY FOLKS MONDAY

Beautification Committee Is In Charge—Braswell to Be Main Speaker.

One of the largest banquets ever held at LeFors will occur Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock, in the high school gymnasium, with several neighboring towns well represented.

Intercommunity relations committees of the Pampa chambers of commerce are selling tickets here at 50 cents each.

The LeFors beautification committee is sponsoring the banquet. Sam Braswell of Clarendon will speak. Doc Bromert, Amarillo magician, will entertain, and the LeFors orchestra directed by M'ss Carpenter will play. Mrs. John T. Whart will have charge of the menu.

Tickets also are on sale here for the quarterly banquet of the Pampa Board of City Development Tuesday evening at the Schneider hotel. Jim Collins is in charge of ticket sales. Tickets are 75 cents each. Many topics concerning the welfare of Pampa will be discussed at the banquet.

On next Friday evening, men of the LeFors community will meet to determine what kind of civic club will be formed there. Nearly 80 men met last Friday to start plans for the club. A commercial club was first considered, but it was concluded that a civic club could do all that a commercial club could and at the same time be broader in scope and of wider appeal throughout the town and oil field.

Dr. Townsend Is Grim as Pension Plan Is Argued

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16 (AP)—Grim and unsmiling, the author of the Townsend $200 a month pension plan sought for two hours today to convince the senate finance committee that his idea was the cure for the economic ills of the country.

The gray-haired physician, Dr. F. E. Townsend, found it a little harder to convince the senators than it had been the thousands of men and women over 60 who want the $200 a month.

Townsend faced a semi-circle of hostile senators and tried to answer their questions some serious and other obviously designed to ridicule his plan. Senators and spectators showed by frequent laughter they enjoyed the proceedings, but Townsend never once smiled.

At the conclusion, Chairman Harrison announced the committee would conclude its hearings on the administration's social security program Wednesday and would try to frame a bill fair to all, but he warned the California it would not include old age pensions of $200 a month.

CITIZENS GIVEN POLICE 'TICKETS' MUST REPORT
A number of Pampa motorists who were given tickets for driving with defective lights on Thursday night were not reported to Judge W. M. Craven. It will be to their advantage to do so without delay.

HIGHWAY PLAN AGREEABLE TO STATE GROUP

Van London Is Ready to Appoint Engineer to Survey Route North.

The state highway department will be ready within a few days to appoint an engineer to survey the route of a road north across the Canadian river, it was stated here yesterday by W. J. Van London of Amarillo, district engineer.

Under the plan now being urged, the state would be asked to furnish an engineer to survey the route, so that those persons who are working for the road may secure the permanent right-of-way. The route and the location of the bridge site would be left up to the state highway department.

The control points are Spearman and Perryton north of the river and Miami and Pampa south of the river. It is not now known where the road would be located.

George Briggs and Gilmore N. Nunn of the B. C. D. made trips a few days ago to the other towns interested and were pledged full cooperation. There will be some necessary expense for the engineering.

The outlook for state designation of the new road as an extension of highway 88 is the best in several years. It is hoped that the right-of-way may be secured promptly and that federal designation may be obtained for a transcontinental highway from Del Rio to Canada.

Mr. Van London said the highway department was willing to cooperate in the plan outlined, as it did in locating a similar gap between Clarendon and Turkey recently, where state designation was granted.

ANSWER WILL BE DELAYED IN MURDER TRIAL

KENNAMER'S MENTALITY MAY BE ESTIMATED BY EXPERT

PAWNEE, Okla., Feb. 16 (AP)—State's attorney succeeded today in blocking expert testimony that Phil Kennamer was insane when he killed John F. Gorrell Jr. at Tulsa on the stormy night of last Thanksgiving.

Dr. Karl A. Menninger, famous psychiatrist of Topeka, Kas., the day's first witness, qualified as an expert in mental ills, and then listened for 40 minutes to a summary of the strange life, words and deeds, of the federal judge's son, ending with the question:

"Now Doctor, taking these facts into consideration in addition to your own information, would you say the defendant was rational or irrational?"

Before the alienist could say "yes" or "no," J. Berry King, former state's attorney general, objected there was much in the involved hypothetical question, propounded by Defense Attorney A. Flint Moss, which should be stricken, and other matters, such as

Hauptmann Is Boomed in Prison—Requests Bible

TRENTON, N. J., Feb. 16 (AP)—Bruno Richard Hauptmann was boomed by inmates of the New Jersey state prison today as he entered the death house to await the outcome of efforts by his attorneys to save him from the electric chair.

The Ge nan carpenter, who entered the prison still protesting he was innocent of any part in the kidnaping and murder of Charles A. Lindbergh Jr. and who heard many one in the crowd answer, "We know you're innocent, Bruno," found the prison atmosphere tense.

Three prisoners saw him as he was being examined in a small room off the center corridor and started to boo. Immediately 600 in the mess hall joined in. It was several minutes before guards restored order. The three were taken to their cells and will be disciplined, Colonel George L. Selby, acting principal keeper, said.

After being led to the death house, Hauptmann, who has said he would go to the chair "like a man," made three requests. He asked for a Bible, and a new one was given him. He asked for a picture of his wife and baby, and was informed he could have it. He asked for a box of cigars given him by Sheriff John H. Curtiss, of Hunterdon county, but was promised another instead.

For the role of "Mrs. Brown," Mary Adams and Virginia Roberts. For the role of "Mrs. Howard," Elizabeth Graham and Pearl Bivens. For the part of "Francisca," Harriett Ann Robb and Burton Tolbert. These winners will work with Director Guller for about a month.

Noted Frenchmen Flying Over Atlantic

ISTRES, France, Feb. 16.—Paul Codos, navigator, left, and Maurice Rossi, whose aerial exploits have often made headlines, today roared out over the south Atlantic in quest of another non-stop record to better the one they already hold. Taking off at 6:36 a. m. (12:36 a. m. C. S. T.) today in their famed plane, the

"Joseph Lebriz" in which they flew from New York to Syria in 1933. Codos and Rossi, on the left of their hourly radio bulletin, appeared to be averaging about 105 miles an hour. Their goal was Buenos Aires, 6,875 miles away, and officials at Le Bourget field believed they might well complete the crossing in 65 hours.

Moving through the procedure which was culminated last year in the winning of the state one-act play championship, the entrants in this year's Pampa high school contest completed the semi-final eliminations yesterday.

Two students for each of the characters in the selected play, "The Visitor," were chosen. These had worked along with others in play casts trained by student directors and by Ben Gull, play coach, in group work. The selections of the judges were:

For the role of "Anthony," Paul Schneider and three others who tied. Those tied are Roy Webb, Laverne Courson, and Maurice Saunders. The tie will be broken and one boy chosen.

For the role of "Mrs. Brown," Mary Adams and Virginia Roberts. For the role of "Mrs. Howard," Elizabeth Graham and Pearl Bivens. For the part of "Francisca," Harriett Ann Robb and Burton Tolbert. These winners will work with Director Guller for about a month.

EACH STATE'S TOTAL CAN BE FIXED BY IT

TEXAS HOLDS KEY TO SUCCESS OF NEW PLAN

BY W. H. MOBLEY
Associated Press Staff Writer
DALLAS, Feb. 16 (AP)—Oil state governor and his representatives approved a production compact here today, averting a limited prevention of physical waste but by implication permitting individual states to go further and limit production on a market demand basis.

The agreement was a compromise between the stands of James V. Allred, governor of Texas, the biggest oil producing state, and Governor E. W. Marland of Oklahoma.

The Texas executive had sought a mandatory limitation to prevention of physical waste, Marland had fought through sessions that extended until nearly midnight last night and until a late hour this afternoon for inclusion of definite provisions for production allowances to be determined under the compact and assigned to the states.

The Oklahoman abandoned his ground with the comment that he would sign the pact in the form agreed to by Allred, "reposing confidence in the intent of our sister states to deal fairly and equitably." Later he said success of the agreement "depends on the good faith of Texas."

Cites Big Waste
He insisted the pact should have included the production allotment feature for protection of oil reserves which he asserted low prices for crude would cause to be abandoned under "stripper" wells where the cost of pumping, or otherwise artificially raising the oil to the surface, must be paid. He called abandonment of those reserves, which he estimated at 9,000,000,000 barrels, or three-fourths of the national reserve, the greatest physical waste possible in the oil business.

Governor Allred called the compact "a real achievement, from which great good can come." He insisted that provision for production limitation as such would have been price-fixing against the interest.

IL DUCE HAS NO STATEMENT ON TROUBLES

ETHIOPIAN EMPEROR IS ADAMANT IN HIS DENIALS

ROME, Feb. 16 (AP)—Premier Mussolini broke into his usual silence tonight by urging all mobilized Italians to "be ready for any eventuality."

ROME, Feb. 16 (AP)—The first detachment of Italian troops sent for Italy's African colonies today as Benito Mussolini continued silent as to the stand he means to take in the Italo-Ethiopian controversy.

A battalion of blackshirts embarked at Naples this afternoon. It was officially revealed after being reviewed by Crown Prince Umberto, and Il Duce reviewed two other battalions preparatory to their departure for Eritrea and Italian Somaliland.

In the face of the embarkation, Nevradas Yesus, Ethiopian charge d'affaires through whom Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia has stoutly disclaimed responsibility for Italo-Ethiopian hostilities along the border, declared:

"We will defend our homes with our lives. It Italy comes against us, her blood will be on her own head."

While hundreds of troops moved into Rome from northern points, wearing new uniforms and ordinary trench caps but dangling with helmets through whom Emperor Haile Selassie, in company with Fascist and army officials, inspected his several thousand militiamen before their departure.

Newspapermen and photographers were barred from the review, which took place in the grandstand barracks here, but the official statement said Il Duce addressed the troops briefly. He was cheered as he departed, it said.

The militiamen, who volunteered for service in Eritrea and Somaliland, leave this evening for Sicily whence they will sail for Africa. Hundreds of reservists, meanwhile, received mobilization cards instructing them to hold themselves in readiness, but an official explained that this is an automatic procedure following the first mobilization.

Reports said Emperor Haile Selassie had sent Mussolini still another memorandum denying Italy's charges that Ethiopians were the aggressors along the African border, but this was not confirmed.

Scenes reminiscent of world war days took place at the Rome railway terminal as the militiamen boarded waiting trains for the trip south. Some had sprays of Italian wild flowers stuck in their helmets. One commander boarded the train

AAA Is Watching Prices of Food

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16 (AP)—Despite increasing prices of food, the agricultural adjustment administration said today in a formal statement that it was "not considering abandonment of any program now in effect."

At the same time the AAA said that statements that the farm prices of 14 basic commodities were 24 points above pre-war parity "is incorrect."

The administration, however, recently said the price level of the 14 basic commodities, on which processing taxes may be levied or benefit payments, were virtually at parity.

Parity is described in the adjustment act as the price for which from commodities must sell to have the purchasing power they had in the 1909-1914 period.

AAA officials pointed out today that reduction programs already were in effect for several major food crops for this year and the statement said that "all of the major programs for 1935 call for increases over 1934 farm production."

HIGH SCHOOL BAND TO GIVE FREE PUBLIC CONCERT TODAY

Pampa's neatly uniformed and versatile high school band will open its winter public concert season today in the city auditorium at 3 p. m. The public is urged to hear this free concert.

Roy Wallrabenstein, director, said that several solos also would be given. Miss Ann Swestman will be accompanist. The full program follows:

1. El Manlio Real (S. J. Mustoil). The title of this number means, "The Royal Highway." It is a musical interpretation of events and happenings to the travelers on the road.
2. National High School Band march (Carl Mader). This number is generally conceded as an unofficial march for all high school bands. It honors high school spirit.
3. The Little Chief (Arthur Fryer). Trombone solo by Charles Frazer. This is a polka caprice written by the greatest American trombonist, Arthur Fryer.
4. One Beautiful Day (R. E. Hildreth). The sun shines bright in a cloudless sky. A band fantasy which has become possibly the most popular of all.
5. The Trumpeter (H. Englemann). Trumpet solo by Roger Townsend. This is a polka brilliant featuring the flexibility of the trumpet in all ranges.
6. Aida Overture (W. McCaughy).

Body of Missing Child Is Found

JEFFERSON, O., Feb. 16 (AP)—A widespread search for three-year-old Rita Margaret Lent ended today with the finding of her body in a muddy country lane a mile and a half from her home.

The cause of her death was not immediately ascertained. A boy, Everett Gosness, 16, came upon the body as he was making his way to a wood-cutting camp.

The mystery created last November when Rita wandered away from the farm home of her mother, Mrs. Olive Lent, 34, accompanied by her police dog, was heightened with the finding of the body.

Deputy Sheriff Roy Ritter, said the child appeared to have been dead about six weeks.

"BIG STICK" IN EUROPE WILL BE ATTEMPTED

BRITAIN, FRANCE AND ITALY TO WIELD INFLUENCE

LONDON, Feb. 16. (AP)—Britain, France, and Italy have joined forces to keep Europe's peace until the return of confidence makes their policing unnecessary, authoritative circles disclosed today.

That, it was revealed, was the sole purpose in the Anglo-French accords drafted at London two weeks ago, to which Adolf Hitler was invited to adhere.

As the government studied Hitler's noncommittal reply to the proposals for an inclusive security pact to solve all Europe's trouble-fraught questions simultaneously, these sources pointed to Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald as the man who conceived the scheme, and to Sir John Simon, foreign secretary, as the man who executed it.

The two, they said, sought restoration of confidence on the continent by peaceful or forceful methods to restore trade, and thus economic prosperity, hoping to make Britain's traditional leadership in world affairs once more secure.

If Germany ultimately decides to enter the accords, it was said, this restoration of confidence will be achieved by peaceful means and international cooperation.

Should Hitler reject the essentials of the plan, Britain, France, and Italy will join their armed forces to assure peace until normal conditions make the "big stick" no longer necessary.

Meanwhile, Britain and France were attempting to come to an early agreement as to their response to Germany's guarded reply to the London proposals.

Both governments were described here as anxious that every effort be made to get negotiations with Germany under way. It was reported France already has assured Britain she will not stand in the way of the separate Anglo-German talks requested in Hitler's reply.

Auto Board in Answer to AFL

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16. (AP)—The administration continued its running skirmish with the American Federation of Labor today through publication of a report by the automobile labor board that labor relations were improving steadily in the huge motor car industry.

There could be no question, the board said, that relationships between employers and employees "have been materially raised" since the board started work last March.

Complaints of discrimination against union members have diminished materially, the board, headed by Leo Wolman, added, and "collective bargaining between the management and representatives of many groups of workers is being extensively carried on through the industry."

President Roosevelt's tacit approval of the board's work two weeks ago in continuing it at the time the auto code was renewed brought into the open a row between the federation and the administration that had been simmering a long time. Nor did it show any signs of abating today.

Wire weeds, which normally bloom in August, were found in full flower at Nashville, Tenn., in December.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, Feb. 16. (AP)—Securities markets failed to follow through the forward movement in evidence Friday and ended the week by churning around without getting anywhere today.

Market factors were absent and Wall Street decided to sit back and wait for more definite hints of trend. As in recent sessions the gold questions before the supreme court made for restraint.

On balance the share market was a trifle lower for the day, closing at 33 1/2 in terms of the Associated Press average of 60 selected stocks, stocks off 0.1 from the previous final. Sales for the two-hour session were 353,410 shares.

The bond market, after its climb earlier in the week to record high peaks in some categories, showed signs of weariness. Prices drifted somewhat lower under selling which was most notable in the utility section.

LIVESTOCK SURVEY

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 16. (AP)—(U. S. D. A.)—Total receipts of cattle at 11 midwestern markets approximated 139,400 compared with 152,788 last week and 145,956 the corresponding week a year ago. Better grades slaughter steers and yearlings ruled strong to around 25 above last week's closing levels. The effort to obtain numbers resulted in a further upturn on the lower grades, as the offerings of better classes of butchered stock was limited. Inbetween and lower grades steers and yearlings generally advanced 25-40. She stock was reported 25-50 up with beef cows and heavy butcher heifers at Chicago showing gains upward to 1.00. At principal stocker and feeder markets prices for the week are strong to 25 higher. Chicago choice medium weight steers reached 13.95 with best 1080-lb averages up to 13.90 and choice yearling heifers 11.25.

At Kansas City choice quality light weight fee 9.15 while choice 8.10-lb yearling stockers went at 5.00. Most stockers and feeders cashed in a range of 5.25-7.50 at the same market.

Trade in fat lambs and yearlings was mostly on a strong to 25 higher basis with instances 50-75 up. Sheep moved at strong to 25 higher rates. At Chicago feeding lambs in increased supply were dull to weak and 25 off while other points reported this class unchanged. A top of 9.20 was registered Tuesday for choice fed lambs at Chicago. Good and choice feeders at Omaha ranged from 6.25-7.50.

The hog run was again comparatively light and an advance of around 50 was made except at Chicago and St. Louis. Under weights at Chicago went unchanged with most points around 25-35 up on weights above 200 lbs. A top of 8.60 was made at Chicago.

Allowable for Texas Crude Oil Is Cut by Ickes

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16. (AP)—Allowable crude oil production for March was set today by Secretary Ickes, the oil administrator, under the oil code at 2,520,300 barrels, a decrease of 5,800 barrels from that authorized for February.

The decrease was recommended by the Bureau of Mines and the petroleum administrative board which said it "was occasioned by the comparable decrease in gasoline production necessary to meet current demand as to provide adequate inventory conditions for the opening of the spring trade season."

The largest decrease was for Texas a cut of 1,450 barrels to 1,020,100. Other allowables including some increases as well as decreases, follow:

Arkansas, off 100 to 31,900; California up 4,000 to 492,600; Colorado, unchanged at 5,900; Illinois, off 800 to 11,200; Indiana, unchanged at 2,300; Kansas, up 1,100 to 139,700; Kentucky, down 100 to 14,700; Louisiana, up 1,000 to 110,500; Michigan, up 1,800 to 31,600; Montana, unchanged at 9,500; New Mexico, down 100 to 40,900; New York, up 1,000 to 11,300; Ohio, down 200 to 11,500; Oklahoma, down 6-100 to 401,000; Pennsylvania, up 4,300 to 43,300; West Virginia, up 300 to 11,300 and Wyoming, down 400 to 35,100.

The new allowables become effective at 7 a. m. standard time at place of production) March 1.

Square Dealers Are Very Active In Anti-Long Work

BATON ROUGE, La., Feb. 16. (AP)—Activities of the Square Deal association "companies" in Louisiana were spreading today while spokesmen for the organization denounced Senator Huey P. Long and Governor O. E. Allen for the accidental killing of a trooper in the capital martial law zone.

The Plaquemine company of the Square Deal association met tonight to further the cause of the anti-Long group. This is one of the climbed to the topmost point reached since Jan. 21.

Uncertainties, however, about supreme court action relative to gold had a restraining influence, and caused prices of all cereals to ease at the last. Selling for holders who could realize a profit was an outstanding late feature.

Corn closed steady at the same as yesterday's finish to 1/2 higher, May 86 1/2, wheat 1/2 off, May 97 1/2, oats at 1/2 decline to 1/2 advance, and provisions 2 cents to 7 cents down.

LONG AWAITED GOLD DECISION EXPECTED MONDAY--CAPITOL IS TENSE AS SUSPENSE CONTINUES

STOCK EXCHANGE MAY BE CLOSED FOR FEW DAYS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16 (AP)—The national capitol tonight keyed itself up to a suspense-filled week-end, firmly convinced that the long-awaited supreme court gold decision will be handed down Monday. The last two Saturdays had brought announcement that the verdict would not come on the following Monday opinion days. Today, the court departed from that newly established precedent, it met, consulted, and left the capitol without authorizing statement of any kind.

The absence of what had thus become a customary announcement was quickly interpreted as meaning the decision would surely come Monday.

This belief had root in official quarters also. Attorney General Cummings canceled railroad reservations for Florida late today. He had planned to leave tomorrow for Palm Beach for a brief vacation but upon learning that no announcement on the case had been made he quickly changed his plans.

In the business world, too, preparations were based upon the expectation of a Monday opinion. The governors of the New York stock exchange were advised to hold themselves in readiness for a hurry call meeting before the market opens.

There has been much talk of closing the exchange when the verdict is announced so that traders may analyze the opinion and avoid hysterical dealings. In the event the decision goes against the government.

However, among the governors, sentiment is understood to be that the market should remain open but with all dealings subjected to the strictest regulation.

If the decision is not announced Monday, it probably would be withheld until at least March 4, since the court's schedule calls for a fortnight's recess beginning after the announcement of opinions day after tomorrow.

WOMAN SPIES CAUSE FURORE IN NEW PLOT

HITLER MAY DECIDE ON FATE AFTER TRIAL

BERLIN, Feb. 16 (AP)—A sensational spy plot involving two women and a Polish social prominence—and a Polish baron burst upon Berlin today, reverberating in the very headquarters of the German army.

All are on trial for their lives. One source hinted that Reichsfuehrer Hitler himself will decide whether the trio must face a firing squad.

The man is Baron George Spensky. He is accused of gathering secrets in high Berlin society in which he moved freely before his arrest about a year ago.

Reports, unconfirmed, were that Germany had offered to return the baron to Poland in exchange for some German spy there but that the accused man had declined. He was reported to be accused of furnishing military secrets to Poland. One of the women who appeared before the high people's court in Berlin was said to be a Berlin baroness of great social prominence and personal beauty.

A RAPID-FIRE ROMANCE BY EVAN EVANS

SYNOPSIS: The Montana Kid lyses come into Mexico, disguised as a Mexican, to help Mateo Rubric and Brother Pascual fight the emerald crown of Our Lady from the Governor of Duraya, who stole it from the church. Rubric is at a friend's house in Duraya, and Montana is at an inn, trying to bribe Rosita to help him. Rosita runs away after he shows her much money, but Montana tells Miguel Santos, her father, that she will return.

Chapter 14 THE STRING

Santos got up and stumped from the room.

"Shall I sleep here?" asked Montana.

"If you dare," answered Miguel Santos. "And I'll send out a man to take care of your horse."

When he got to the door he paused and said: "Jose, I believe that you are coming here to deal the emeralds. I believe you want them for the bishop and not for your own pocket. I believe that you took that gold all away from a gringo gambler. I believe that you are a very brave and clever man. And yet still you are a great liar!"

After that, he went out, followed by the bow which Montana had risen to give to his host.

Now that he was perfectly alone, the Kid drew out of his pocket a small ball of very thin, hard twine. From the lower hinge of the open door he tied it across to the bottom of a chair. After that, he sat down at the table, with his back turned squarely to the door, and took up a scrap of paper on which he wrote:

"Rosita, why are you angry? Your good wishes I could never buy; but time and trouble and a little danger should be paid for. I suppose that you will send some one now, big and proved and strong, to see whether he or I ought to be wearing this suit of yellow leather with all the silver spangles scattered over it.

"Besides, if he wants an extra reward after drawing the blood or the brains out of me, he can pick up the five hundred dollars from the table and the floor. By his size and his strength, I shall know how much you value me. I sit here, therefore, and pray that he may be very big. No matter how much he may frighten me, therefore—he will also make me smile."

Something fainter than the sound of a heartbeat stirred on the stairs outside the house.

The pencil of the Kid ran on swiftly: "But if he changes his mind about taking me away, how long will it be before you come yourself through the open door, Rosita?"

He had written to that point when he heard the noise of a caught breath, like a grunt of effort, and he whirled from the table with a gun in his hand in time to see a huge fellow with a convulsed face springing forward in midair, a knife shining in his outstretched hand.

The chair was groning forward along the floor. He must have leaped from the doorway to get at the stranger and drive the knife home between the shoulder blades.

As he struck, face down, flatings on the floor, the barrel of Montana's gun rang loudly on his skull. The big man pulled up his legs and straightened them again slowly, with a shudder. Then he lay still.

Montana turned him on his back. He was no common man. Murder must have paid him very well in times past, and he had put on a superior smile in the twist of his long mustaches, in the close fit and the brilliant braid of his jacket, and the crimson silk of the sash which he wore around his waist.

There was only a dash too much of the brute in his face. Otherwise he was a good-looking fellow. And he was big enough to have stepped on a horse as another man might step on a pony.

He had a good, new revolver as well as the knife. Montana took the weapons. Also he took a pin used at the throat of the man's shirt, because it was garnished with two big rubies. By this time the Mexican had begun to stir. In half a second he aroused from complete oblivion to eat-quick life, and leaped to his feet.

"Sit down, friend," said the Kid. "Rosita will want to see what you've done."

"Witchcraft!" said the stranger with one hand on his bumped head and the other at his throat.

"Not witchcraft. Only a piece of not exist in her eyes.

"Now that she's here again," said Montana, "you can take your knife and gun from the table, Garza, and leave us. Good fortune on the road and with the senoritas."

Garza picked up his weapons, swayed for an instant in hesitant indecision. All his nature must have been urging him to renew the fight which had been ended almost as it began.

Perhaps it was the shock to his head and the more fatal blow to his vanity that made him turn with lowered head and leave the room, and pass, stumbling, down the stairs, outside.

And still the girl was staring.

"Come a little closer," said Montana. "Benito Garza is a gallant sort of a fellow, after all. He would not leave without making some little offering to you, Rosita. And here is a pin with two good rubies on it. It will hold that rose in your hair. You see? Like this. Now look at yourself in the mirror!"

As he stepped back from her, smiling, she exclaimed in a whisper, "El Keed!"

The name hit him hard. It had been hinted too many hundreds, too many thousands, of miles thru Old Mexico. Perhaps there was a bit of cold fear in his eyes as comprehension came slowly into those of the girl.

"Now I remember it!" she said. "It was a hot afternoon. There were twenty men drinking in the garden. You sat in the corner, alone. Now I remember everything. You were all Mexican except the blue of your eyes and something about your smiling."

"I've learned more about that, now, and so have you, Rosita. You used to show more of your teeth when you smiled."

She took a breath. "El Keed!" she whispered again, and cast a sudden glance over her shoulder at the open door, as though the name must have issued on wings from the room to fly through the town and make men reach for hats and weapons. "Mother of heaven, why have you come here again?"

"For the good bishop and for you, Rosita."

Monday, Montana and Rosita come to agreement.

Mel B. Davis and Ed Dunigan were to leave today for Austin, where they will attend a meeting of the Texas Railroad commission Monday.

HARVESTERS DOMINATE GAME TO DEFEAT CANYON EAGLES, 41 TO 17

CAPTAIN AGAIN LEADS SCORING PARADE HERE

ELLISON FROM CANYON IS MAIN POWER OF VISITORS

After a sluggish start, the Harvesters gathered speed as the game progressed to swamp the Canyon Eagles 41 to 17 here last night. Canyon failed to get a single crisp shot until one minute had passed in the second half, when Taylor banked one through the hoop.

Captain J. R. Green played another great game, although he missed an even dozen dead shots in the first half. The husky captain made 20 of the Harvester points. Included in the total score were six free throws out of nine attempted. Ellison scored six points and did a great job of guarding and handling the ball. Taylor, forward, also flashed at times to get two nice field goals, his first try being a long one from near center.

The Harvesters controlled the tip during the entire game, although Coach Jones sent Fulton, 6 feet 5 inches tall, into the second half. The Harvesters exhibited several new plays which worked nicely. Scott showed much improvement not once throwing the ball away.

Herring went to forward late in the game and got a pretty good goal on his first attempt. Usually a guard, he showed up well at the forward position. Hassell also showed flashes of his old speed while on the floor.

J. H. Duncan of LeFors called one of the best games on the local floor this season.

Proceeding to the game, the Harvesters were coached by Harry Kelley, nose of the Harvesters-ettes of Coach Kathleen Milam by a score of 19 to 18. The midsets overcame a five-point lead in the last two minutes of play to win the game.

Morrow led the Pee-Wee attack with eight points, Heiskell followed with six points, all made in the first half, and Hamilton looped the other five counters. The guarding of Buckingham and Foster stood out.

Feltner, tall Harvesters center, led the girls' attack with nine points. Shields followed with eight points. Williams added the other tally.

Harvesters playing were Williams, Feltner, Shields, Hunkapillar, Grey, Heiskell, Jeffries, and Somerville.

Pee-Wees in action were Hamilton, Morrow, Heiskell, Foster, Buckingham, Kilgore, and Johnson.

L'Fors Faculty Is To Play White Deer Basketeers

The LeFors faculty will again appear in basketball togs before the basketball and football minded fans of LeFors on Tuesday night. Their opponents will be the well known faculty team from White Deer. The LeFors faculty has played five games to date, losing only one of them, and that one was to a mixed faculty and independent team. Practically everyone on the LeFors team has had experience in college basketball and in coaching.

The personnel of the team is as follows: Bill Bronson, present coach at LeFors, who was star at Nebraska in 1924-27, and who had had eight years of coaching experience, one year at Ironton, Ohio, three at Monrovia, Calif., one year at Cotner college, Neb., a year at Neligh, Neb., and now at Coleman, present coach at LeFors; Frank Smith, all T. I. A. forward from McMurry, is coaching his first year at LeFors; A. J. Hill, former Sul Ross star, coached at McCauley and LeFors; Cecil Brown, also a McMurry man, coached two years at Eastland, two at Coleman, and one at Eldorado before entering the LeFors school system; J. H. Duncan, of Trinity university, has coached at Miami and at LeFors; Mr. Forburg, present science instructor, coached three years at Perry, Okla.; R. E. Panhandle Class A Champs

The first team went back into the game at the second period and slowly began to show some semblance of form. At the half the scoring riot began in earnest. J. R. Green was high-point man with 27 tallies, and his brother Stokes was next with 11. The Harvesters took no chances on long shots—they didn't need to for it was easy to work the ball into scoring position right under the basket. The trouble was that they couldn't make their set-ups.

The surprising feature of the game was that Mayne Nash who starred in the scoring on the road trip did not make a single point for the old home town. He was given a crisp immediate set-up after the game opened and missed it and he continued to miss them. "Boogee" had a hard night of it. He has been in a definite slump the last two or three games, and he is expected to come out of it before next week-end when the district tournament will be held. At any rate, Coach Mitchell thinks he will.

Bill Dunaway who never lets up played an amazing game at one of the guard positions. In hustling for and in handling the ball, he stood out. Scott also played a good game at guard. After a slump last week, he made five starting errors Friday night and handled the ball nicely. He led Dunaway and the other in feeding the ball to J. R. Stokes. Green turned in the best piece of work of the evening in certain phases of the game, notably in defensive facts during the basket.

The substitutes, who play well if the first stringers do, went into the game again late in the last quarter and scored 8 points. Junior Strickland, center, used his height to sink two field goals, and Irving and Hassell got the pieces. The second string did not really swamp the Owls last night. The subs played a good game after they went in the second time.

The game was not rough, and Referee Monroe made it a fast affair.

Whitney Horse Wins at Derby

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 16. (AP)—Out of dust in a wild stretch dash came Gille today to win the first running of the Santa Anita derby and $19,650 first place money for Mrs. Payne Whitney's Greenree stable.

The time was 1 minute 44.3-5 seconds for the mile and a sixteenth. Whiskolee of the Milky Way farm was second, a length and a half behind, and demonstration was third, another length and a half in the ruck.

Cunningham Wins Easily in Mile Against Rivals

NEW YORK, Feb. 16. (AP)—Glenn Cunningham, the "iron horse" again demonstrated his mastery of American milers tonight with a smashing victory over Gene Venezke and Bill Bonthron, his two eastern rivals, in the Baxter mile, feature race of the New York Athletic club meet in Madison Square Garden.

Cunningham, pulling away from his pursuers with a spectacular closing spurt, broke the tape 25 yards in front of Venezke in the brilliant time of 4 minutes, 9.8 seconds, a new record for the event but short of the former University of Kansas star's own indoor record of 4:08.4. Bonthron, third of the second time in two weeks, trailed Venezke by five yards.

Pampans Crush Hedley's Owls In 50-11 Rout

J. R. Green Scores 27 Points And Stokes Is Next With 11; Harvesters Miss Many

The Pampans would have given them a tougher battle, the Owls could have beaten them, the second string did beat them badly, and naturally the Harvesters smothered the Hedley Owls 50-11 here Friday night.

Coach Odus Mitchell was under the impression that Hedley had a good team in view of the fact that the Owls played a darned close game, scoring 40 points to 41 for Clarendon.

The Owls were young and inexperienced compared with the Harvesters. Despite the decisive score, the Pampans were unimpressive in winning. Coach Mitchell was so disappointed in the work of his charges in the first quarter that he jerked the entire first string after five minutes and sent in the second string.

The Harvesters shot at the basket about a dozen times in the first five minutes, but the old hoop seemed to be dodging the ball. Most of those fruitless first attempts were sure-fire set-ups. The second string's attempts to score were as futile as the first string's had been. The quarter ended five to one for Pampa.

The first team went back into the game at the second period and slowly began to show some semblance of form. At the half the scoring riot began in earnest. J. R. Green was high-point man with 27 tallies, and his brother Stokes was next with 11. SEMI-PRO LEAGUE IS BEING FORMED IN PANHANDLE

Assurance that the Panhandle will have a fast semi-pro baseball league in 1935 was given Friday night when representatives and backers of four teams met in Amarillo to discuss the project.

A committee composed of the business manager and playing manager of each team and the sports writers of papers in Pampa, Amarillo, and Borger, will meet at 8 o'clock tomorrow night in the Schneider hotel here to complete league arrangements.

Teams comprising the league will be the Pampa Road Runners, Colfax of LeFors, Huber of Borger, and Shamrock of Amarillo. It was hoped that a six team league could be arranged, but the other two teams were not forthcoming.

At the Amarillo meeting, the committee was empowered to take the following action:

Elect officers, the president to be a disinterested party not connected with any team in the league.

Give the league a name.

Draw up by-laws and constitution for the league.

Set prices to be charged for league games.

Approve umpires.

Draw up a schedule, deciding whether the season shall be split or played straight through.

Officers will be installed and final approval given the league at a meeting to be held in Borger, the date to be set at the session here tomorrow night.

Harry E. Hoare, sports editor of the Pampa Daily News, presided at the Amarillo meeting Friday night. Representatives of the four teams discussed the advantage of having a league to play regular games each week. It was suggested that each team play a game at home and a game away from home each week.

Vernon "Lery" Deck gave a surprise when he announced that Phillips '66' of Borger would not be able to place a team in the league. He said that shortly before time for the meeting, word was received in Borger that Phillips would not be allowed to have a representative team this year. It may be that Phillips will have teams within the company but not for fast company.

The Shamrock Oil and Gas company and Amarillo business men have leased Metro park and will immediately start remodeling and

'HOT SPOT' SPREADS WITH 18 NEW LOCATIONS DURING WEEK

10 WELLS ARE COMPLETED IN PLAINS FIELD

STEADY DEVELOPMENT IN GRAY COUNTY CONTINUES

BY GEORGE L. GUTHRIE, Consulting Geologist, Combs-Worley Bldg.

Eighteen new locations were made in the Plains district this week with 11 of them in Wheeler county. The "hot spot" which caused the late summer pick-up in the Panhandle last year is spreading out with new vigor. Wells brought in south of last summer's play and then in what was thought to be poor territory are proving to be as good or better than the original pool.

Gray county is continuing with a steady development. Drilling along the edge of the proven limits has picked up with some nice wells being brought in.

Ten wells were completed last week, nine of which were oil wells which added 7,679 barrels of oil to the daily potential of the field. The other well was completed for a gasser with an open flow of 15,500,000 cubic feet daily.

Interest is still keen in the area around the Texas company's development south of the Bowers pool. There will probably be several more wells drilled in that neighborhood shortly.

KENNAMER

Kenamer's drinking, which should be included.

Court was recessed and for three hours opposing counsel dissected and revised the question. Judge Thurman Hurst reserved decision over the week-end.

Upon reopening of court, Charles W. Mason, was chief justice of the Oklahoma supreme court when Federal Judge Franklin E. Kennamer was a member. Testified briefly he believed Phil was irrational and embarrassedly admitted on cross-examination that "probably" he wouldn't have appeared to testify if young Kennamer "hadn't killed this boy."

Kenamer, admitting the slaying, claims he shot Gorrell in self-defense after frustrating an extortion plot he claims Gorrell had aimed at 19-year-old Virginia Wilcox, heiress to an Oklahoma oil fortune. His attorneys, however, contend he was temporarily insane.

Judge Mason testified to three years of Kenamer on the part of young Kennamer.

That he once remarked, while pacing Judge Mason's 16th floor office that "it would be a swell place to commit suicide. Just jump out head first."

That he wanted a job on an Oklahoma City newspaper, but wanted to start as editor.

That he told Judge Mason he wanted to be a flier in a Central American revolution and thought he could rule the country as its dictator.

E BEN G. FINE

Students in Pampa school "Rambled Through the Rockies" with Eben G. Fine of Boulder, Colo., Friday afternoon when the well known nature lover, traveler, photographer, and lecturer spoke in the city auditorium and showed pictures he had taken in the Rocky mountains.

Mr. Fine, a druggist, took up photography as a hobby. His work attracted much attention and he soon was in demand to speak and to show pictures at some of the large colleges and gatherings in the county.

The Colorado man is now making his tenth tour of the country. He has appeared in most of the larger cities and towns from coast to coast and from Mexico to Canada. Before returning to his home he will visit in Chicago, Detroit, Cincinnati, and other large cities.

Pampa students saw pictures and heard vivid stories of the Mesa Verde National park with its cliff dwelling ruins; San Juan mountains; Lindbergh peak; Roosevelt National forest; and other points of interest. Mr. Fine gave one lecture at 2 o'clock and another lecture at 3 o'clock.

25 loaded clips, each containing 20 rounds.

The rifles taken are capable of firing 20 shots in a fraction of a minute. They are particularly suitable for leveling from an automobile seat or a closer range blast in a bank.

Truck Is Found

The abandoned truck was identified by Deputy Sheriff U. C. McDaniel of Hardin county as one stolen from a floral company in Bryan earlier in the week. Hamilton and his companion stripped it of its wheels when they left it.

Later, police found the conspicuous chromium wheels of the Weatherby car on a log road near Silabee.

McDaniel learned that a filling station attendant in Fletcher had seen a car late last night for Hamilton, the other man, and a woman. The station was about a mile from where the truck was abandoned.

From Owens' description, police decided Hamilton had dyed his hair black and darkened his face. Owens said Hamilton and his companion were "swarthy and foreign looking."

DANGER IN EAST

PARIS, Feb. 16 (AP)—Gaston Doumergue, former premier and president of France, broke a long silence in his garden retreat today to warn that European civilization is in danger from the east. Doumergue, who returned to his books and flowers at Tournesville after his cabinet was overthrown last November, cited the danger "of a billion men in Asia who are restless for expansion."

Frank Snodhalter is transacting business in Kansas City for a few days.

Green Flies to Hearing on Gas

Gene Green, of the local office of the Texas Railroad commission, flew to Austin yesterday to attend a meeting of the commission with regard to the oil and gas situation in the state. Mr. Green made the trip with Dee Graham in the latter's large cabin monoplane.

R. G. Allen, of the Cabot Co., who has been transacting business in Austin, will fly back to Pampa with Mr. Graham. The trip to Austin was made in less than four hours, there being a stiff tail wind most of the trip.

JURORS AND STATE OFFICIALS SENT DEATH WARNING AS PRISON OPENS TO HAUPTMANN SATURDAY

"FRAMEUP" IS CHARGED IN SENSATIONAL LETTER

TRENTON, N. J., Feb. 16. (AP)—A letter threatening death to Governor Harold G. Hoffman, Justice Thomas W. Trenchard and life jurors who condemned Bruno Richard Hauptmann to die in the electric chair was received at the executive offices today as prison doors closed on the man convicted of killing the Lindbergh baby.

Hauptmann, the silent German carpenter who said he would go to the chair "like a man," entered the death house at New Jersey state prison still pleading he was innocent of any part in the kidnaping and killing of Charles A. Lindbergh, Jr.

He threw back his head as two guards to whom he was manacled led him up the prison steps, and his last words as the big steel door closed behind him at 10:33 a. m. were "I am innocent."

Shortly after Hauptmann donned the drab prison uniform and began the routine and restricted life of a condemned man, Governor Hoffman made public the letter, dated Washington, D. C., and mailed at 8 p. m. last night. Written in a long scrawl, and bearing a crude skull and crossbones, the letter, sent to Hoffman, and addressed to the state's chief executive, Justice Trenchard, who presided at the Hauptmann trial, and the jury, warned "you may all meet the death of revenge" if Hauptmann's sentence to death is not commuted to "life sentence" by Feb. 27.

The governor said he would turn the letter over the department of justice.

"I want to have this mark (the skull and cross bones) removed from Hauptmann," the writer of the letter said, "and at least give him life sentence till the kidnaper is found. If not so may you all meet the death of revenge, not even all the army or the state militia can protect you. If you do not make the man mentioned by Feb. 27, it will be to bad."

The letter was signed "8-26 and 15,000 people of the U. S. A." In a paragraph beneath the signature, the writer charged the case against Hauptmann was a "frame-up," spoke disparagingly of Attorney General David T. Wilentz, chief prosecutor of the one-time German machine gunner, and said New Jersey was

"guilty of breaking the federal law." It was generally believed the letter was the work of a crank but Governor Hoffman's action in referring it to federal authorities added a serious note to its receipt.

THIS WAS The Study Lamp of the Age of Whiskers...

I. E. S. BETTER SIGHT LAMPS

The Study lamp of the gay Nineties, like its bewhiskered men, was as much the result of necessity as of fashion.

Today science has developed a radically new lamp for study and reading. America's foremost eyesight specialists and lighting engineers wrote the specifications. It provides the wealth of glareless light that eyes need when studying or doing other visual tasks for prolonged periods.

It gives several times as much light as ordinary lamps—80 eye-straining glare. Uses 100-watt Mazda lamp.

Every study table should have one of these new lamps. No other lamp can give you all of its benefits.

Specifications by: The Illuminating Engineering Society—country-wide organization of lighting experts.

Certified by: The Electrical Testing Laboratories—keep impartial engineering organization of New York City.

Endorsed by: The Lighting Committee of the Edison Electric Institute; also by the National Better Light-Better Sight Bureau.

This Tag Identifies It

Because some models of this new lamp look little different from ordinary lamps, the tag shown at the right was developed. It certifies that the Electrical Testing Laboratories, a national engineering organization in New York, has made exacting tests and found that the lamp bearing it conforms to the new light-saving specifications. Let this tag guide you to the new lamp developed to save eyes.

FEAR NOT: Thus saith the Lord that created thee, O Jacob, and he that formed thee, O Israel, Fear not: for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine.—Isaiah 43:1.

Federal Plans Move Slowly

If there is one thing that is more to be remembered than anything else about federal business, it is that haste is next to impossible. Even if the new public works appropriation is made in some form, the money will not likely be available before July 1. We have this date from Congressman Marvin Jones, who ought to know. Relief funds will, therefore, be continued at least in part until July 1. There is ample reason for doubt that relief can be stopped on that summer date, for the reason that there are many men now jobless but not on relief who will demand a chance to work.

Mr. Jones rightly is urging that the rural districts be allowed a share in the huge appropriation. Rural unemployment is troublesome. The money could be used for building roads, grade crossings, rural parks, soil erosion work with ponds, and in similar projects. We have more than a million miles of unimproved farm-to-market roads in this country, in addition to the 70,000 miles of unpaved state and federal highways. It now seems likely that a Texas state board will have to pass on all loans and grants made in this state. That, too, will mean consumption of more time.

The federal home loan act has definitely failed in many of its phases, while succeeding in others. New construction has not been spurred as hoped. The promise of money for new work came too close to the repair loan section. However, the government is said to be determined to make the act work. Within 3 months, it is believed, many lending agencies will have qualified to handle the new, cheaper home loans. When this circumstance takes place, Pampa should go forward with construction of much needed dwellings. Meanwhile, other phases of the home loan act are being carried forward gradually.

Revision of American home mortgage practices, with the purpose of making loans safer for the lender and more economical for the borrower, is making steady progress under the four agencies administered by the Federal Home Loan Bank board; it was brought out in a statement issued by the Board.

This is being accomplished by rapid substitution of the long-term amortized loan, payable mostly in small amounts, to replace the short-term lump sum maturity loan, which has led to difficulty and widespread default during the last few years. The same amortization principle underlies the mortgage loans insured by the Federal Housing administration under Title II of the National Housing act.

The Federal Home Loan Bank system was established in 1932 to provide unlimited reserve credit for private thrift institutions which specialize in long-term financing. To date, it has advanced to members a total of $131,888,305.

When it was found necessary in 1933 for the government as a relief measure to lend directly to distressed individual mortgagors, the Home Owners' Loan corporation was authorized by congress to make amortized loans on a 15-year basis. The required monthly installment of $7.81 per $1000 of loan, covering both principal and interest, pays off the entire mortgage within that period.

In a large proportion of cases, borrowers from the Home Owners' Loan corporation faced foreclosure because their three or five-year mortgages came due at a time when they could not obtain refinancing anywhere. Up to January 31, 1935, the corporation had closed 731,231 loans, the great majority for 15 years. This figure represents more than one out of ten of all owner-occupied homes in the country.

Some 700 Federal Savings and Loan associations authorized by Congress in 1933 are now operating in 43 states, either as new thrift and home-financing institutions or converted building and loan associations formerly under state charter. Loans by Federal Savings and Loan associations are amortized over periods from 5 to 20 years.

An opportunity for building and loan associations to encourage new investment in their shares and thus expand their loaning facilities, is provided by means of insurance of share accounts available to qualified institutions through the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance corporation, established in June, 1934. As of February 1, 1935, 553 associations had been insured, representing total assets of approximately $176,000,000, held by some 130,000 people of small or moderate means whose savings are now protected up to $5,000 for each individual.

"The mainspring of the government's program is the conviction that the long-term amortized loan is essential to sound home financing," it was stated. "Home are intended to provide service for many years. They should be paid for gradually during their use. It is best for the home owner because every payment made increases his equity in his home. It eliminated the need and cost of renewing the mortgage periodically. It encourages thrift and builds up the most desirable kind of estate. The long-term amortized loan is best also for the lender, because every payment reduces the risk of loss through default. The home owner's growing equity is a guarantee of his intention to carry out his contract."

Cotton Crisis Is Serious

The American cotton crisis is deepening, according to Dr. A. B. Cox, director of the Bureau of Business Research of the University of Texas and internationally recognized cotton authority. He said that Secretary Wallace, in announcing the government restriction program, in reality has notified foreign competitors to proceed full steam ahead for at least one year with their increased cotton production program.

"Senator Bankhead says he is already preparing a bill to project restriction through 1936-37 or to cut carry-over of American cotton to 4,000,000 bales," Dr. Cox pointed out. "Is not this the equivalent of telling foreign producers our government proposes to tie the American cotton producers down by means of production restriction programs even to the extent of a licensing law, if necessary, to give them a free hand, an unmoored opportunity to take American cotton growers' foreign markets? High motives and objectives of our government and its officials are in no sense called in question. It is rather a question of the wisdom of the policy.

"Cotton growing is not an isolated enterprise in the south. It has been pointed out many times it is bound up in the South's whole economic life. Recent experiences have demonstrated most clearly that the cotton program affects profoundly our livestock enterprises. Drought years such as we have just experienced demonstrate that cotton seed and their products are the south's most dependable, as well as its best feed crop. Farmers, dairymen, and even ranchmen are having to sell their cattle and sheep to the government to be killed to prevent their starving to death because the government played up cotton in 1933 and kept land out of cotton in 1934. Ranchmen and dairymen thus find themselves victims of the government's cotton policy, another demonstration that the cotton problem concerns a wide circle of interests and not merely cotton growers."

Dusting The Covers Of Texas History For THE TEXAS CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION OF 1936

Fatigued men heaved with the weight of the two horse carcasses they were piling up as breastworks. The night was pitch dark. Their movements sounded uncannily loud, and their breathing was deep and pained. Rapid fingers were hastily digging entrenchments. The morning must not find them without sufficient preparations for defense. Not a star shone in the sky. The piercing wind increased their feelings of loneliness and depression. Escape would have been possible, though they were surrounded by the Mexican army, but no Texan was willing to leave his wounded companions to suffer at the hands of the enemy. There was not food to give them strength; not even water to cleanse wounds or ease thirst.

Adding to the discouragement of the Texan army was the fact that reinforcements had come that morning. With almost a thousand men he was attacking two hundred Americans. John Sowers Brooks, chief engineer, had been wounded, and it was doubtful that artillery could be used at all. The Mexican artillery was enough for complete annihilation with one firing.

"We must surrender," unanimously the officers urged Fannin. It would be war to the death of every man if they so foolishly tried to withstand the Mexicans. With a heavy heart and deep misgivings, Fannin raised the white flag.

Col. Fannin and Col. Urrea slowly walked across the land separating the Texans and Mexicans. They talked quietly. Yes, the Mexicans would agree to a surrender with terms in writing. But, the Americans must surrender at their own discretion. Writing in his Diary, Urrea said, "When the white flag was raised by the enemy, I ordered their leaders to be informed that I would have no other agreement than that they should surrender at discretion, without any other condition, and this was agreed to by the persons stated above." (The agreement was signed by Major B. C. Wallace, Adjutant J. M. Chadwick, and Commander J. W. Fannin.)

The terms of surrender were that they were to be treated according to the usage of civilized nations; their wounded were to be taken back to Goliad and be properly attended to; all private rights should be respected.

"Urrea declared that the Americans surrendered in full confidence that Mexican generosity would not make their sacrifice fruitless; otherwise, they would have resisted and sold their lives as dearly as possible.

They sold their lives dearly; there was no Mexican generosity. The tragedy at Goliad figures notably in annals of the conflict in which Texas achieved the independence, the Centennial of which is to be observed in 1936.

GUARDIAN BACK FROM MEETING OF CAMP FIRE

ONLY ONE MEMBER OF GROUP ABSENT AT PROGRAM

Reports from a Camp Fire Girls institute were made to members of the group here last week by Mrs. B. Barrett, guardian, who attended the regional meeting at Oklahoma City recently.

That institute was the second largest conducted in the nation last year. About 300 guardians were present from 30 cities of Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Arizona, and Colorado.

Talks were given on nature and Camp Fire work; exhibits were arranged in three rooms; instruction was given on all phases of the work; and guardians did work in various crafts under expert instructors.

At a grand council fire concluding the institute, honor beads and certificates were presented. Mrs. Lou Payne, executive of district four, and Edith M. Kempthorne, national field executive, were leaders of the institute.

Members of the Tatapochon group here attended a meeting Thursday afternoon and heard Mrs. Barrett's report. Only one girl, who was ill, was absent. Plans were made for a waffle supper at which Mary Seeds and Edna Mills will be hostesses Thursday evening in the home of Katherine Ward.

Pupil Writes of Lincoln's Life On His Birthday

As part of the school's observance of Lincoln's birthday many pupils at Woodrow Wilson wrote stories of Lincoln last week. The following, by Lois Benton of the fifth grade, was selected as one of the best.

Abraham Lincoln was born in the woods of Kentucky, Feb. 12, 1809. His parents were poor. While Abraham was still young his parents moved to Indiana. In building their home young Abe took no small part.

The cabin was only 14 feet square and entirely open on one side. The only furniture was a table on which they ate, stood and beds.

While living in this same cabin his mother took sick and died. For a long time Abe was broken hearted. When she died there was no preacher to preach her funeral. A year later a preacher came to her grave and said a few words. Many years later when Lincoln was a great man he said, "All I am or hope to be I owe to my angel mother."

About a year after his mother's death his father married again. His step-mother was very kind, wise, and industrious.

Lincoln never had more than a year's schooling in his life, although he had a great love of reading. His library was the Bible, Aesop's Fables, Robinson Crusoe, Pilgrim's Progress, a history of the United States, and the life of Washington. These books he read many times.

By the time Lincoln was 23 he had studied law. He was elected to the Illinois legislature. He was elected to the legislature four times. In 1860 he was elected to the United States senate from Illinois. Two years later he was chosen by the republican party as their candidate for president. He was elected. On May 4, 1861, Abraham Lincoln, the bare-footed boy of the Indiana log cabin, the plain man of the people, took the solemn oath of office which all presidents take, and took up his abode in the White House.

During the years of his service the terrible Civil war was fought. Lincoln always proved a friend to his people, whether northern or southern.

On April 15, 1865, Lincoln died. The entire nation grieved over the loss of "one of her greatest men." He was truly a man "with malice toward none, with charity for all."

BROTHER OF FAMOUS "BUSTER BROWN"—NAME IS FOX—ASKS NO FAME HIMSELF

A brother of the original Buster Brown was in town yesterday. He is Joe Fox and he lives south of Klipsmill. Thirty-one years ago, Feb. 4, Mr. Fox moved to Gray county and has lived here since.

Buster Brown's real name is Jack Fox, the name he now goes under. Buster, that diminutive idol of thousands of American children, and his lovable dog—Tige—are now living in retirement in Fort Worth.

In a cozy little brown stone cottage near Stop Haines, Buster Brown, at 51, is seeking to live down the trade name he made famous. "Nix on that Buster stuff," he will say. He wants to be just plain John A. Fox like he used to be when he and his brothers chased rabbits and squirrels in Parker county.

Buster, who visited Pampa several times when he was traveling for the Brown Shoe company, has put aside his little red suit with knee britches and Tige has shined his many straw hats and favorite pipes for the peaceful rest that comes after years on the road.

No more does Tige have to show Buster how the flappers walk or sneeze or twitch his stubby tail like the birds do. All Tige has to do now is to lie by the fire and take his life easy, says Buster's brother Joe.

Mr. Fox became Buster Brown 20 years ago when a shoe manufacturing company adopted R. F. Outcault's comic strip character for its children's shoe trademark. Before that, says his Gray county brother, Jack worked for the Santa Fe at Waynoka as timekeeper in 1904. He quit his job at Temple a material clerk for the Santa Fe to become Buster Brown. He was the latter for 22 years.

He is both a Mason and an Odd Fellow.

Tige's ten years of trouping have brought him near death many times, Mr. Fox recalled.

Once, Tige's travelling trunk blew off the top of a speeding bus in Northern Minnesota. It crashed to the pavement and went bounding down the highway embankment. Tige came out badly shaken, and somewhat bruised but still able and willing to shake his stubby tail.

Mr. Fox visited his brother, the former Buster, recently in his Fort Worth home.

HUGE GRIDDERS ARE OBTAINED FOR NEW FILM

GRUELLING SCENES OF FOOTBALL DEMANDED BY DIRECTOR

Hollywood was almost drained of its six-footers when casting was started for the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture, "The Band Plays On," now showing at the Rex theater.

Producer Ned Marin and Director Russell Mack were determined to have none but six-footers who had to be athletes as well as actors for the gruelling football scenes. At the end of an elimination contest six men remained for the leading roles—Robert Young, William Tannen, Stuart Erwin, Russell Hardie, Preston Foster and Robert Livingston.

Erwin Sole Exception
All but Erwin are six feet or over. Young is six feet tall and weighs 172 pounds. Born in Chicago, he was educated in Seattle, Washington, and Los Angeles. In athletics he excels in swimming and golf.

Hardie is six feet one inch tall and weighs 176 pounds. Born and educated in Buffalo, New York, his athletic achievements include swimming, canoeing and high diving. William Tannen, too, is six feet tall. Born in New York he was educated at the Howe Military Academy in Indiana, where he starred in football and tennis.

Robert Livingston, born in Quincy, Ill., a six-footer, weighs 180 pounds. He was educated in Southern California military school, where he was a star athlete in football, track and swimming.

A Novel Ambition
Preston Foster stands 6 feet and two inches in height and weighs 185 pounds. Born in Ocean City, New Jersey, he was educated in New Jersey and New York schools. His boyhood ambition was to be a six-foot bass singer.

Erwin, the "midger" of the cast, is five feet and nine inches tall and weighs 165 pounds. Born on a farm, he was educated at the University of California.

Others in the picture are Betty Furness, Leo Carrillo and Ted Healy.

CANYON, Feb. 16—Current projects at Palo Duro state park will reach advanced development by April 1, according to Major A. E. Kingsley, park superintendent.

Principal projects under way include three units of a lodge building, five cabins, 24 picnic units and a gravel topping for the canyon's scenic drive.

The dining room, kitchen, and powerhouse of the lodge building will be completed by April, Major Kingsley said. Other units will be built later.

The cabins are being constructed at Cow Camp, 8 miles from the park entrance, and will be available for use by park visitors for weekends or longer vacation periods. The cabins will be of native stone. A 10,000-gallon water tank is being built on the side of a nearby canyon.

BORAH POINTS TO MONOPOLY UNDER CODES

PRESIDENT WILL SEEK YEAR EXTENSION OF NRA

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16 (AP)—An assertion that "ample evidence" already is available that recovery administration codes have been "promoting monopoly" was thrust by Senator Borah (R., Ida.), today into the widening debate over NRA continuation.

Even as he spoke President Roosevelt worked on a special message to be transmitted Monday, recommending one-year extension of the recovery act with authority to extend it another year if necessary.

Borah, one of the original critics of NRA on the ground it tended to entrench monopoly through suspension of the anti-trust laws, made his statement in an interview after a senate judiciary subcommittee, of which he is a member, opened and quickly closed the doors of an unofficial inquiry into charges that codes have oppressed independent business.

"Of course I am glad the investigation is going forward," Borah said. "We cannot have too many facts, but there is already ample evidence at hand that monopoly under NRA is draining the pockets of the average man in the United States through price-fixing.

"If the farmer gets a raise, he also gets an increase in prices for the things he has to buy. If labor gets a raise, it more than pays it out on account of the increase in price for the things it has to buy.

"The anti-trust laws ought never to have been suspended and in the interest of humanity they ought to be restored and enforced."

President Roosevelt devoted most of the day to preparing his NRA message.

The executive, in addition to the extension, definitely has decided to seek permanency for some fundamental provisions of the act, including those abolishing child labor, fixing minimum wages and maximum hours, and guaranteeing the right of labor to bargain collectively.

It was thought by administration leaders the president would not propose changing the controversial section 7-a, the collective bargaining clause. However, some strong labor dements in the senate would like to see this provision clarified and strengthened.

REGIONAL LIBRARY FOR PLAINS SOUGHT BY TEACHERS COLLEGE

CANYON, Feb. 16—Randall county and the West Texas State Teachers college are seeking a great regional library which will serve all the Panhandle of Texas.

According to President J. A. Hill, a library project has been included in those submitted by the Randall county planning board and it is expected to enlist the aid of every county in northwest Texas in getting the library.

The American Library association and the Texas library planning board have both recommended that regional libraries be placed on the campuses of the state-supported colleges. Such libraries will be able to serve all the counties of a large territory with only a fraction of the expenses necessary for the individual county to maintain adequate book service. The regional library would send books at regular intervals to each county having its own library or cooperating with the regional one.

The library planned for Canyon will not only furnish a much needed book service, but will also provide an addition to the already overcrowded Panhandle Plains Historical Society Museum.
