

HARVESTERS AWAIT GOLDEN SANDIES

Armistice Parade To Start At 10:45 O'Clock Today

REUNION AND DANCES TO BE HELD TONIGHT

With only a slight change in the order of the parade, Pampa's Armistice day celebration, sponsored by the local posts of the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars will be held today.

The LeFors high school drum and bugle corps, led by William Finley, will take the place of the high school band in the parade, and the Pampa junior high school pep squad will have the place originally assigned to the high school pep squad.

Participation of the Pampa high school band and pep squad in the joint meeting of Amarillo and Pampa high school bands and pep squads at Harvester park, following the arrival of the first Amarillo special train at 10 a. m., make this alteration in the plans necessary.

Line of March. The parade will form on the east side of South Cuyler, at the south side of Merrick and Boyd Lumber company, facing north.

The line of march will be north on Cuyler to Kingsmill; thence east on Kingsmill to Ballard; thence north on Ballard to Francis; thence west on Francis to Somerville; thence south to Somerville to West Foster; thence west on West Foster to the Legion hut and disband.

Promptly at 11 o'clock the siren on the fire station will blow for one minute. The parade will halt on the left face.

At 11:01 a. m. taps will be blown and at the conclusion of taps the parade will right face and proceed. Following will be the positions in the parade.

National colors, post standards, junior high school band, marshal, aide and staff, Spanish American war veterans, World war veterans, Sons of Veterans, Gold Star Mothers, Auxiliaries, Red Cross, Salvation Army, Boy Scouts, LeFors high school drum and bugle corps junior

That E. F. Young who said he had not made a wager in 60 years when he "lost four bits," was aroused to the point yesterday afternoon by court house hecklers that he made a gentleman's wager on the Pampa-Amarillo football game, taking Pampa to win.

Studer Here

Chairman H. Otto Studer of the State Industrial Accident board, Austin, and two other members of the board, are here to hold hearings in district courtroom Friday morning at 9 o'clock.

JURY ACQUITS PETE TRAXLER

HUNTSVILLE Nov. 10 (AP) Pete Traxler, Oklahoma and Texas bad man, was acquitted of robbery with firearms in the seizure of a pistol from the Eastham prison farm near Weldon, Tex., last July 9.

Traxler was indicted as an habitual criminal, which meant punishment of death or life imprisonment would have been mandatory had he been convicted. He already is serving a life sentence on a Lipscomb county robbery conviction.

The jury deliberated only three hours before deciding the desperado did not commit robbery with firearms when a pistol was taken from J. C. Dunlap, Kittrell's cutoff constable and rancher. Dunlap lost his weapon after a fight with Traxler and two other escaped convicts, Fred Tindol and Charlie Chapman.

Mack Gates, special prosecutor named by Gov. James V. Allred, had made a stirring appeal for the extreme penalty in his closing argument. He referred to Traxler as "a man who had his chance to be reformed by the penitentiary and who wouldn't take it."

Morgenthau Promises To Balance Budget By Cutting Expenditures

STATE BOARD HEARINGS TO BE HELD HERE

Otto Studer of Austin, chairman of the Texas Industrial Accident board and the two other members, A. M. Graves and Fred Martin, arrived in Pampa yesterday to hold a hearing in the district court room Friday.

Judge Studer incidentally will see the Amarillo-Pampa football game tomorrow if he can get tickets, he said last night at the Schneider where the board is staying.

Hearings will also be held at Amarillo Friday afternoon. Studer said that a number of cases have been scheduled for hearing here for some time, and that the board picked Friday for the date.

MORGENTHAU DEMAND MENACES FARM PLANS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10 (AP)—An economy demand from Secretary Morgenthau cast doubt tonight upon the extent of new farm legislation at the coming special session of Congress.

In a New York address, the treasury chief declared agricultural appropriations were one of the governmental costs which must be reduced to balance the budget.

Associates of Wallace estimated recently that the granary, providing for storage of crop surpluses under government loans, could be financed with $700,000,000 in its first year. The government now is paying farmers $500,000,000 annually under the soil conservation act and lending additional millions to corn and cotton growers. New taxes on the processing or manufacture of wheat and cotton have been proposed to raise additional funds for the proposed new program.

NEWS Will Not Publish Extra This Afternoon

The Pampa Daily News appears as a morning edition today to permit employees to enjoy the Armistice Day holiday and to attend the Pampa-Amarillo football game this afternoon.

There will be no editions of the paper this afternoon. Because KPND, the Daily News radio station, is broadcasting a play-by-play account of the big game this afternoon, the Daily News will not publish a football extra.

Although the game does not begin until 2:30 p. m., KPND will take the air with its football broadcast at 2 o'clock in order to give a half-hour of highlights and preliminary activities at Harvester stadium.

KPND also will carry a description of the Armistice Day parade through downtown Pampa. The broadcast is scheduled for in front of the La Nora theater at 11 a. m. today.

FOR SUGGESTS GIGANTIC BOOM IN BUILDING

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11 (AP)—An effort to stimulate a gigantic boom in privately-financed home construction stood high upon the administration's program for improving business conditions.

President Roosevelt devoted more than two hours to a discussion of such a plan this afternoon, consulting Governor Marriner Eccles of the federal reserve board and a committee drawn from industry and banking.

After the conference Eccles made it plain that, although the proposal is still in the discussion stage, and may require legislation at the coming session of congress, Mr. Roosevelt gave at least tentative approval and asked the group to go ahead and work out the details.

It became apparent that by this method, together perhaps with adjustments of the tax on undistributed corporation surpluses, modification of the capital gains and losses tax, and other steps, Mr. Roosevelt hopes to reverse the recent downward trend of business indices.

HIGHWAY OFFICIALS TO ATTEND MEETING HERE

Highway commission chairmen of Texas and Oklahoma will be in Pampa on Nov. 23 when the annual meeting of Oilfield Highway 41 association will be held.

W. E. Grisso, chairman of the Oklahoma Highway commission, accepted an invitation yesterday. Chairman R. L. Bobbitt of the Texas commission was invited last Friday when County Judge Sherman Whit and Garnet Reeves visited in Austin.

Judge Noel McDade of Dumas, president of the association, has called a meeting of members of the executive committee for this afternoon following the Pampa-Amarillo football game when final program plans will be made.

Other members of the two commissions have also been invited to attend the meeting.

Never Again

By GRACE NOLL CROWELL Poet-Laureate of Texas

With the old wounds still unhealed, and the old scars An angry red across the minds of men, What is this ominous sound—these "rumors of wars"? Oh, merciful God, surely never again; Surely never as long as the old earth stands, Through any imagining, could there be need Of that stark horror! Dear God stay the hands; Blot out men's avarice, their jealousy and greed, And wipe one word forever from our tongue; "War" the fiend, the waster, wipe it out; "War" the hideous slayer of the young, God, help us rise above it, help us shout Our freedom from it to the farthest star: "Never, never again shall there be war!"

KPDN Joins World Broadcasting System

Affiliation of radio station KPND, of Pampa, with the World Broadcasting System under which arrangements the famous World Program Service will be heard regularly in Pampa, is announced today by Sid Patterson manager of the station.

These electrically transcribed programs will afford listeners of the Pampa area the very highest type of musical entertainment.

Electrical transcriptions are the result of years of experimentation, and today they are used by every radio station in the country. World programs embody the highest type of sound reproduction. They are recorded by the Wide Range vertical cut process, rights to which are controlled by the Western Electric Company.

World's New York studios are at "Transcription Headquarters," the most modern and complete recording plant in the world. Other recording studios of the company are located in Chicago and Los Angeles. The studios are all specially designed and built in accordance with the most modern acoustic principles. The programs to be heard from are made in New York.

More than 100 individual artists and musicians are employed in the production of World programs. These musicians render every style of music from the newest dance hits to symphonic and military band selections. Singers include men and women soloists, duets, quartets, double quartets, quintets, and

BUILDING OF ROAD TO BORGER TO START SOON

Work of constructing the 11.7-mile Pampa-Borger road is expected to start about Dec. 1. The project will require six months to complete, allowing for bad weather.

Allhands and Davls and the Austin Bridge Company are contractors. Bonds of these firms must be submitted to the Highway Commission before the letting of the contracts, which was on Nov. 5.

Amount of the bonds will be the same as the amount of the contracts, which will be inspected by the legal department of the Texas Highway Commission, before the project can be started.

HOLIDAY FINDS PAMPA PRIMED FOR AMARILLO

The Day! It is here! Once every year the Panhandle goes into a stark-raving frenzy over a football game, and that day is here.

Since last Thanksgiving day when a band of outwitted, outclassed heroic Harvesters held the three-times state champions, the mighty czars of Texas football to a 1 to 6 score, 200,000 football-loving denizens of the pampas, of the Staked Plains have been looking forward to this day.

Nothing Like It There is nothing like it in the world. It is to the panhandle what the world's fair was to Chicago, what the Centennial was to Texas. Washington has an inauguration every four years and even that cannot be compared to the color, to the excitement, the jittery, the frenzy that puts the Amarillo-Pampa football battle into a class of its own.

It is more than a football battle. It is 50,000 Amarilloans against 12,000 Pampans. It is the scores of thousands of Harvester rooters against the Sandie rooters. And in Tulsa, Texline, Lipscomb, Higgins, Wellington, Shamrock, Wheeler, Hereford, Vega and all the other towns in the plains area, the parti-

Sandie Numbers Changed at Last Minute Wednesday

High school officials were informed last night at 10:30 o'clock that the sweater numbers of the entire Sandie lineup had been changed.

Instead of wearing their black jerseys with gold letters the Sandies will be clad in white sweaters with black numbers. Whether the change was due to the fact that the Harvesters are familiar with the black sweater numbers, or due to the fact that the Sandies have had greater success this year while playing in their white sweaters, or for some other reason was not known.

The change was received after 3,400 programs had been printed at the NEWS. However, a separate sheet was hurriedly printed, giving the new numbers, and glued to the page containing the lineups.

Armistice Day 1937 1918

Nineteen years have passed since Armistice ended the World War on Nov. 11, 1918. But throngs still gather to honor the Unknown Dead. Above, a great concourse of people gathers about London's Cenotaph, standing in silence before the memorial in the center of the busy Strand. Below, King Leopold places a wreath on the tomb memorializing Belgium's dead at Brussels.

Slowly and with measured tread, a sentry paces before the marble tomb on the heights of Arlington in honor of an American Soldier known to God. Peaceful and secluded, the tomb of great gatherings of people, but instead a continuous stream of individuals and delegates of organizations on the marble flagstones almost unnoticed by the Capital city which bustles and seethes which the soldier died. But on the heights of Arlington, at least, there is peace, and the soldier, though unknown, is not forgotten.

Black-shirted militia and steel-clad cuirassiers stand stiffly about the tomb of Italy's Unknown Soldier below the statue at right of the top picture. Below, an impressive phalanx of flags moves solemnly up Paris' Champs Elysee to the plain tomb beneath the Arc de Triomphe, where France's Unknown Soldier lies beneath an eternal flame.

Here ended the long struggle. Dazzling white, against the massive green of the Forest Compeigne, stands this new monument to Marshal Ferdinand Foch, on the spot near Rethondes where German emissaries came to him 19 years ago to ask for the end of fighting. The monument marks the exact spot where stood the railway carriage of the allied commander-in-chief when the guns along the western front stopped speaking and Unknown Soldiers ceased for a time to die.

DINNER IN CLUB EX PRECEDES DANCE IN GYM

Night Club Ex gave greetings to approximately 118 ex-students, teachers and their escorts at the annual homecoming dinner-dance last evening in the high school cafeteria and gymnasium.

A Thanksgiving dinner was served at individual tables laid with holiday covers, napkins, and centered by tall green tapers in crystal holders. Individual corsages of pom pom chrysanthemums were given as plate favors to each member and guest of the association.

Ben Gull, master of ceremonies, presented an interesting program of wide variety. A miniature Russian ballet was presented by Francine Hoover, Eleanor June Adams, Cieta Grace Holland, Sally Harrington, and Ava Lee Sullivan.

Following these numbers, Miss Collette McMahon, accompanied by Gene Finkbeiner, went from table to table in the night club singing "That Old Feeling," "You Can't Keep Me from Dreaming," and "The Man I Love."

Dancing to the music of Johnny Eckers' orchestra began in the gymnasium at 9 o'clock. Officers of the association who made the reunion a big success are Miss Clara Brown, president; Alfred Gilliland, vice-president; Mrs. Roy Tinsley, secretary; De Lee Vicars, treasurer; and Bert Stevens, Charles Madiera, Edwin Vicars, LePors Doucette, and Miss Mary Wilson, directors.

Committees which worked to make the event the biggest entertainment ever sponsored by the Ex-Student association were: Program, Mel Davis, Clinton Henry, Alex Schneider; publicity, Miss Lillian Mullinax and Mrs. R. G. Peeler; invitations, Misses Yvonne Thomas and Miss Cleora Stanard; mailing, Mmes. H. H. Heskell, Mack Graham; invitation, Mrs. Mude Hathrop; dance, Mrs. Donnie Lee Stroupe; menu, Mmes. Weldon Wilson, Ewing Williams, Clyde Oswald; tickets, Messrs. Gene Fatheree, De Lea Vicars, Charlie Duenkel; decorations, Miss Maxine McKinney, Mmes. Bert Stevens, E. L. Coshov, and Mrs. Mel Davis, Ivy Duncan, Clinton Henry; and nominating, Mrs. Ewing Williams, Miss Maxine McKinney, Miss Avis Heskell, and Bert Stevens.

Harvester Mothers Entertained

Pep songs entertained a group of Harvester mothers who were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Tuesday afternoon.

After a guessing game in which pictures of the Harvesters, taken when they were youngsters, were used, a business session was conducted by Mrs. E. E. Reynolds, president of the organization, in which the mothers voted to give a banquet for the boys on Tuesday evening after the Pampa-Borger game.

Refreshments were served to Mmes. C. N. Strickland, W. L. Cunningham, H. H. Nichols, Carda Fox, Blasingame, Roy Williams, L. L. Sone, Dull, Guy Andis, J. C. Prejean, H. H. Heskell, S. A. Hurst, Roy E. Showers, H. S. Dunaway, Reynolds, J. L. Coshov, W. V. Watkins, A. B. Turner, J. W. Graham, T. J. V. Kidwell, Laura Brown, Mary Price, Miss Avis Heskell, the host and hostess.

The next meeting of the club will be held in the home of Mrs. Reynolds on November 18 at 2:30 o'clock.

The world's production of cotton amounted to 23,900,000 bales in 1935.

Program Tuesday Ends Prayer Week

Women of all circles of the First Methodist church met yesterday afternoon at the church for a social service which closed the week of prayer, started Monday with all-day meetings by the circles.

Mrs. Walter Purviance was chairman of the program which opened with worship and meditation. A special number, "Open Mine Eyes," was given by Mrs. Lloyd Roberts who was accompanied by Mrs. W. R. Ewing at the piano.

The scripture lesson, "Advocate or Witness," was presented by Mrs. Purviance. Group singing, a missionary consecration prayer by Mrs. McEwing, a duet, "In Christ There Is No East or West," by Mmes. Herman Jones and Lloyd Roberts, and a paper on "Deified or Denied," by Mrs. Art Hurst closed the program.

Funds received from offerings taken during the week of prayer will be put into a fund for retired missionaries and deaconesses. These offerings included $5.40 from circle one; $8.60 from circle two; $12 from circle three; and $18 from circle four.

Mrs. R. K. Elkins was program chairman of circle one at the opening session held at the church Monday morning. Mmes. R. B. Fisher, C. C. Cookrell, Lee Harrah, and Sam Cook presented the program on "Comrades" at this initial meeting.

A vocal duet by Mmes. B. N. Adams and Sam Cook opened the afternoon program which was under the direction of Mrs. Frank Showers. After the presentation of a playlet by Mmes. C. H. Andrews, B. N. Adams, and Frank Burris, the roll call was answered by the 14 members.

Nineteen members and one visitor, Mrs. L. C. Loefer, attended the meeting of circle two in the home of Mrs. George Walstad. Mrs. John Hodge, program chairman, was assisted by Mmes. Luther Pierson, Will C. House, A. L. Patrick, L. P. Yoder, C. W. Naylor, and two special numbers were given by Mrs. Clifford Jones on the piano before luncheon.

The afternoon session included a roll call by Mrs. H. F. Barnhart, a service program by Mrs. J. E. Kirchner, and a vocal solo by Mrs. Raymond Harrah.

Circle three met in the home of Mrs. John Hessey with Mmes. Sherman White and C. L. Lively as co-hostesses. Mmes. W. R. Ewing and John Hessey helped Mrs. Roy Tinsley in presenting the program in the morning meeting in which Mrs. E. G. Wilson sang "Living With Jesus."

After luncheon a violin solo was given by Roy Tinsley and a playlet was presented by Mmes. C. E. Davis, Lewis Robinson, and E. L. Emerson. Eighteen members and one visitor, Mrs. Robert J. Snell, attended this meeting.

"The Meaning of the Week of Prayer" was the program theme discussed by Mrs. Purviance at the meeting of circle three in her home. Mrs. Roger McConnell who gave "What Deaconesses and Missionaries Mean to Our Church," was assisted by Mmes. B. S. Via, D. Atkinson, Carlton, A. C. Green, and H. H. Boynton.

Sorority Honors Guests

Mothers of the members of the 3, G. K. sorority, and special guests were honored at a regular meeting held Tuesday evening in the city court rooms.

After the minutes at the meeting were read by Miss Betty Jo Townsend in the absence of Miss Helen Draper, Mrs. W. C. Mitchell spoke to the group on her trip to Old Mexico and New York City and Mmes. C. H. Schulkey and Lillian Blythe discussed various phases of their trips to California and Mexico.

Special guests were Mmes. Schulkey, Earl Dowell, A. H. Doucette, L. M. Wagon, Lillian Blythe, Powell, Otto Rice, Katie Engleman, and Miss Zenobia McFarlin.

Sorority members present were Albertene Schulkey, Freda Barrett, Vera Dowell, Pauline Gregory, Ruth Wagon, Ida Bell Wagon, Lillian Rice, and Betty Jo Townsend.

Glorifying Yourself By ALICIA HART.

Whether you are doing a bit of early Christmas shopping, planning to get something for your Thanksgiving week-end hostess or merely looking around for a birthday present or two, you can solve your problems simply and at whatever price you choose to pay right in the cosmetics department. There isn't a woman in the world who doesn't like beauty preparations—at least some beauty preparations. And beauty gifts are really fun to buy.

For one who is in a hospital or bed-ridden at home, toilet water and lightly scented cologne are ideal. You might consider a handsome modern package which contains three medium size bottles of cologne. Each is filled with a new odor, it's put out by one of the most famous perfume houses is less expensive than it sounds.

Any girl you know will appreciate a beautiful royal red lipstick in a gleaming white enamel case with gold bands and a gold crest. The lipstick itself is clear scarlet—a shade that is becoming to almost every complexion. Furthermore, it's pleasantly scented.

Among excellent beauty gifts which one woman can give another is a pore cleanser. This comes in a generous size jar, is pale gray with a feels like rich creamy lather to which a moderate amount of pumice has been added and will be appreciated by anyone who is anxious to keep elbows and knees soft and smooth or who has been bothered with clogged pores.

If you aren't satisfied with the appearance of your own skin, you might try the new pore cleanser. Simply clean thoroughly with the cleansing cream, put a bit of the pore cleanser in one palm, add enough water to make a thick paste. Smooth the paste on face and throat, massage lightly for a second or two, then rinse off. Repeat three times a week. You'll be surprised at how quickly blackheads and scalliness disappear.

MIND your MANNERS

Test your knowledge of correct social usage by answering the following questions, then checking against the authoritative answers below:

- 1. Should one stop eating until a waiter has finished refilling a cup or rearranging dishes on the table?
2. It is good manners to argue with a waiter over a bill in the presence of his guests?
3. Is it good taste to try to impress one's guests by lavish tipping?
4. For what is the larger of two knives found on the average restaurant table to be used?
5. What is the meaning of table d'hote as seen on a menu?
6. What would you do if—
(a) Ask waiter to interpret it and then do your choosing?
(b) Ask waiter to choose for you?
(c) Guess at it?
Answers
1. Yes, or there is likely to be an accident.
2. No.
3. No. Tipping should be done as inconspicuously as possible.
4. The slightly larger, and supposedly sharper, knife for cutting meat; the smaller for spreading butter on bread.
5. Literally "table of the host." Means a meal at a set price without regard to how much or how little one orders.
6. Best "What Would You Do" solution—(a) is safer and (b) is interesting if you limit him in price.

Shower Given for Mrs. W. S. Sullivan

Mrs. Jim King entertained with a party at her home, 537 North Davis Street, in honor of Mrs. W. S. Sullivan.

The small daughter of Mrs. Eddie Moore rolled in a carriage with pink and blue streamers filled with dainty gifts which were opened by the honoree.

Refreshments of pumpkin pie with whipped cream, coffee, and hot chocolate were served to Mmes. A. E. Silor, Clyde Ires, C. O. Smith, E. D. Williams, Eddie Moore, E. Savage, Connor, Bus Sanders, and W. S. Sullivan.

Gifts were sent by Mmes. Guy Dunwoody, A. T. Hufflines, and Christine.

T. C. U. "Band Sweetheart"

Miss Frances Buster is about the proudest girl at Texas Christian University, for she has just been elected "Sweetheart" of the Horned Frog Band, the most-coveted co-ed honor on the campus. Frances is a sophomore and plans to study medicine. Her hobby is collecting bugs and butterflies and she "just loves to visit the zoo." Her home is in Fort Worth, where her father is principal of one of the junior high schools.

Ten New Members Initiated At B-PW Business Meeting

Business and Professional Women met in the city club rooms Tuesday evening for a regular monthly business meeting which was opened with a song-lead by Georgie May Rogers with Lucille Douglass at the piano.

Roll call was answered by "what our town needs," which brought forth many suggestions, some of which were more apartments, more street lights, more traffic lights, and a recreational hall for entertaining the young people of our town.

The program was in charge of Pat Austin, who gave a very interesting talk on professions and employment in Pampa. Her investigation showed that there was no discrimination against married women in business in our town.

The national organization has been trying to combat discrimination against married women in business for several years. Johnie Griffin gave a talk on the employment of women in business, bringing out the fact that there is a distinction between women in business as to salaries compared to salaries paid men for the same type of work.

Then new members were initiated into the club by the president, Mildred Overall, who gave them the pledge, and Lillian Jordan branded them with the club brand. Those initiated were Lucille Douglass, Leah Behrman, Sophia Behrman, Audrey Fowler, Elizabeth Atchison, Betty Dunbar, Georgie May Rodgers, Miriam Wilson, Leora Kinard, and Nelma Edmondson.

The club will have its Thanksgiving festival at the Schneider hotel, Tuesday evening, Nov. 23, at 7:30 in the evening. The dinner will be followed by an old-time dance. Club members will have guests for the dinner and dance and out-of-town guests from Canadian and Panhandle are expected to attend.

Those present at the meeting were Clara Lee Sheemaker, Ore Brock, Leora Kinard, Lucille Douglass, Leah Behrman, Ruth Walstad, Johnie Griffin, Sophia Behrman, Audrey Fowler, Mary Lou Downs, Lillian Jordan, Gladys Robinson, Mabel Gee, Iva Ekern, Elizabeth Atkinson, Adalin Brazil, Lois McCutler, Vera Lord, Pat Austin, Mildred Overall, Lorene Pite, Christin Cecil, Betty Dunbar, Georgie May Rodgers, Evelyn Hamilton, Miriam Wilson, Nelma Edmondson, and Grace Pool.

Meetings Held By Three P-TA Units

The Rev. Robert Boshen gave the invocation and the main address at the meeting of the Horace Mann Parent-Teacher association Tuesday afternoon in the school auditorium.

Music on the program which was led by Mrs. R. W. Tucker was furnished by Miss Tabrika Adkisson, and several numbers by a sextette entertained the group.

"No one is more interested in world peace than the mothers of boys. We have no right to come any war; peace is something you and I must make. This can be done through our school and church. We must continue to teach the same love, kindness, and mercy that Jesus talked about 2000 years ago," the main speaker said in discussing "World Peace."

Following the address, Mrs. T. F. Morton read "Beautiful War," a poem composed by Kenneth Bennett. "The Dawn of a New Day," a pageant, was presented by pupils of Miss Frances McCue's room, before a large audience. The father's night program sponsored by the P-TA Tuesday evening.

Musical numbers on the program were played by the band and a vocal number by Kenneth Bennett was dramatized by Joy Stovall and Martin May. The May brothers played several violin numbers; Tracy Cary gave a reading; and a tap dance was given by Priscilla Bruce.

After the program the parents visited the class rooms where they inspected the children's work and registered.

Sam Houston Has Faculty Dinner Preceding Program

The largest group of fathers and mothers ever to attend a meeting of the Sam Houston Parent-Teacher association was present at the meeting of the organization held Tuesday evening in the school auditorium.

F. M. Culberson presided at the fathers night program which opened with the invocation by Dr. C. H. Schulkey. Musical numbers on the program were given by a choral society which sang "By The Mississippi" and "Glow Worm" and a group of seven who sang "Suzanna."

The main feature of the evening was a panel discussion on "Is the Parent-Teacher Association an Asset or a Nuisance?" which was led by Superintendent R. B. Fisher, who was assisted by W. B. Weathered, Gray county superintendent of schools; Superintendent George Heath of White Deer; Superintendent L. F. Mize of LeFors; and Superintendent C. A. Cryers of McLean.

Mr. Fisher stated that the Panhandle of Texas is noted for its Parent-Teacher associations and in the discussion it was brought out that the real and original purpose of Parent-Teacher organizations is to study the mutual problems of parents and teachers and to educate the parents in school work and in trends of education.

Proceeding the meeting the faculty members of the Sam Houston school gave a dinner in honor of the board of education and the superintendents of schools.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the entertainment included Misses Violet Durrett, Hazel Wilson, and Mildred Bishop.

Mr. Patrick and the teachers of the school wish to express their appreciation for the helpfulness exhibited by the parents during the week of education. The award for the largest number of parents attending the program Tuesday evening went to Miss Wilma Chapman's room for the lower grades and to Miss Florence Jones' room for the higher grades.

FAMILY SHARE DISCUSSED AT B. M. BAKER SESSION

"The Family's Share in the School Program," was the subject discussed by Mrs. J. M. Turner at the Baker Parent-Teacher association meeting Tuesday afternoon at the school.

A program including group singing and the invocation by the Rev. H. E. Comstock was presented and members of the first grade rooms showed what children do at school by reading and singing. Fourteen members reported that they would take the study course which is to be taught soon. Plans are being made by the organization for a father's night on December 14.

Dinner Celebrates First Birthday of Louise Gomillion

Little Mary Louise Gomillion, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Gomillion, was honored with a birthday dinner Tuesday evening at the home of her parents, 1108 East Francis avenue, celebrating her first birthday.

FOUR DECISIVE CLASS B GAMES TO BE PLAYED IN THIS WEEK END

THREE GAMES TO DETERMINE LOOP CHAMPS

Four of the season's outstanding Class B football games will be played today and tomorrow and many Pampa fans will see at least three of them. Three of the games will virtually decide conference championships.

Here is the lineup:

This afternoon at 2:30 p. m.—Spearman at Ferryton.

Tonight at 7:45 o'clock—Wellington at Shamrock.

Tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock—White Deer at Panhandle.

Tomorrow night at 8 o'clock—Wheeler at LeFors.

Officials of the Wellington and Shamrock schools postponed the game, scheduled for this afternoon, until tonight so that Panhandle fans could see the Pampa-Amarillo game and the Wellington-Shamrock tussle.

Shamrock vs. Wellington

Shamrock will take the field the underdogs. The brilliant play of Austin and Estes has led the Wellington Skyrockets through a season in which they have swamped all opposition. But they mean nothing when Wellington and Shamrock teams clash. Coaches Garrison Rush and John Walker have been working and willing charges at top speed while Coach Joe Coleman has been taking things easy with his boys who have been in peak form all season. He was afraid they would become stale with too much work.

Sensational Backs

Ancient gridiron rivals, the White Deer Bucks and the Panhandle Panthers are expected to stage one of the prize battles of the season. Panhandle will enter the game undefeated and as defending district champions. Although ten players were lost through graduation, the team has come along like champions under the guidance of Coach Lefty Fowler and his assistant Jack Adkins.

Crawford, Sparks and Smith

Panhandle has three great ball carriers. The line, headed by McCasky, center, Howe, guard, and Sterling, end, has played sensational ball in late games.

White Deer's Dacus and Rusty White, brother of the famous Morris White, are considered two of the fastest backs in the Panhandle. If they get away they are gone.

Panhandle's top performance was in downing Phillips of Wittsburg, 7 to 0. White Deer tied the Blackhaws but lost on penetrations. A win for White Deer would throw the district race into a three-way tie.

Shoot The Works

Although nothing will be at stake but a higher place in the conference standing, LeFors and Wheeler are on the dope sheet as ready to "shoot the works" Friday night. The two teams are out of the picture as far as the title is concerned.

Coaches Francis Smith and John Rankin have been putting the Pirates through a week of stiff practice featuring the passing of Ellington, new discovery, who flipped nine completed passes out of 16 heaves at McLean last week. Walsh, McNabb and Fite will be on the receiving end.

A triple threat back named Weeks will lead the Mustangs, now considered a top team in the conference. Coach Stina Cain has brought his team along slowly but surely until the Mustangs are in mid season form. He had a green crew to start the season and they were naturally slow developing.

BRAZIL BEGINS FIRST CORPORATIVE SYSTEM

BUENOS AIRES, Nov. 11 (AP)—The first new world attempt at a corporative system of government was put into effect in Brazil today with promulgation of a new constitution.

By this measure President Getulio Vargas assumed powers unequalled in Latin America at the present time.

Because of the Brazilian censorship, it was not possible immediately to learn details of the new constitution but they were expected to be revealed in a broadcast by President Vargas tonight.

FDR to Dedicate Georgia Squall

Gainesville, Ga., April 3, 1936—Battered by the full fury of a tornado that claimed 200 lives, the Public Square of Gainesville, above, was filled with debris after storm and fire had taken their toll. Within the city limits 922 structures were damaged; loss was estimated at more than $10,000,000. Only the statue of a Confederate veteran, standing in the middle of the square park, escaped unscathed. Ambulances, fire trucks and rescuers' automobiles crowded the chaotic scene as throngs of survivors picked their way through the wreckage.

Gainesville, Ga., today—Shining new stores, repaired pavements, and freshly laid lawns hide all traces of Gainesville's storm disaster. Here, on Nov. 24, President Roosevelt will dedicate this new "Roosevelt Square" in proof of victory over destruction, and the development of a newer and more prosperous city. Only the broken trees, in the park, above the statue of the Confederate veteran, remain as mute testimony of the tornado's destructive power.

PLAYER INELIGIBLE

HAKLINGEN, Nov. 11 (AP)—The Valley Morning Star said tonight that all victories of the Edinburg high school Bobcats, football leaders of district 16, had been thrown out due to a ruling that one of their players was ineligible.

Jimmy Steele, backfield performer, was the youth said to have been declared ineligible.

Four and Twenty Glasses Sitting on a Shelf

Each filled with a different brand of beer.

Could you name any one of them by looks or taste alone?

You could if COORS EXPORT LAGER was among the four and twenty — because Coors alone of all American brews has a definite, distinctive, deep amber color and flavor bloom all its own. You see, the Coors people have transplanted from the old country that fine technique which produces a true Viennese beer. Pure, crystal clear Rocky Mountain Spring water — premium barley malt — pedigreed yeast — Bohemian hops and a brewery which sparkles with cleanliness from top to bottom, distinguishes COORS EXPORT LAGER from any beer brewed on this continent. So splendid, so refined, so delightful that any lover of good beer can single out Coors at a glance or by its taste.

'Beginning Of End' To Be Played Here Today

By FELIX R. MCKNIGHT

DALLAS, Nov. 11 (AP)—Schoolboy gridders the state over engage in sniping from Armistice day through Saturday that should give a fair idea as to which team will step from each of the 16 districts with an eye on the Christmas Day coronation.

Often shot at but seldom hit, Amarillo's Golden Sandies, kings of Texas high school football since 1933 meet a bold Pampa team out on the West Texas plains in the stand-off of a weekend schedule that marks the "beginning of the end" of the race, because if Pampa can't take the Sandies, who can?

Deadlocked in a triple-tie with Borger for the district one lead, Pampa and Amarillo readied for a game before 12,000, Pampa's record-breaking throng, that will clarify the scramble.

Meanwhile, Fort Arthur's Yellow

Jackets, fighting in an appellate court to keep alive their claim to eligibility in the interscholastic league, bump into Galveston, tide with them for the district 14 lead, on the Buccaneer's field. The Jackets, touted by many as the strongest team in the state after walloping Amarillo 33-0, and Pampa 14-0, were favored to give Galveston similar treatment.

Tyler vs. Longview

In the district nine race, Longview's howlerhouse tangled with Tyler for the leadership in the top east Texas attraction. Longview, one of the state's eight unbeaten and untied teams, had a high-scoring Tyler Lion on its hands that has won six games and dropped one.

Not far removed, in district 10, was another good game, Palestine's challenge of the Athens Horrid nets while at Dallas the Highland Park Scotties, one of the league's smoothest offensive machines, put up its undefeated record against North Dallas in a non-conference attraction expected to lure 15,000 into the Cotton Bowl.

In McKinney, a district 6 center, the hometowners prepared to welcome Greenville, once state champion and still in the race with Highland Park for the district flag.

Santonio vs. Kerrville

Down south, Thomas Jefferson, San Antonio's potent district 12 leader, had a Friday date with the Kerrville Antlers which promised to indicate very thoroughly whether any team is going to stop Jefferson. Deeper in the south, in district 15, Robstown, tied with a Great Corpus Christi team for the leadership, had a Kingsville team billed for Thursday that appeared out of the running.

Temple, breezing through the tough Central Texas district 11, went into its Friday game at Corsicana doped to annihilate a team that formerly wore the crown, while Conroe, the surprise of the district 13 and one of the undefeated and untied glowers, played an "intersectional" game with Bryan on the latter's home field.

Vernon, pacing district 2, faced the possibility of giving up its lead in a game with Olney, a team that has been tied once but not trimmed. Far down in the Rio Grande valley, Edinburg, touted to make the district 16 flag, had to get by Brownsville, plodding along with a 550 percentage.

PROSPECTS FOR MEN STILL WITHOUT WORK

Before we can get finally straightened out on the problem of unemployment, we might as well face the fact that there is a lot of it which isn't really due to the depression.

There is a man of 45 or 50 in a large city in the middle west who lost his job a couple of years ago. It was neither a very good nor a very bad job—just an average white-collar position that kept the man in decent company.

It was partly the man's own fault that he lost the job. He made one of those blunders that average people make every so often, and the boss got sore and fired him.

Anyway, this man lost his job, and he set out to get another. He has been trying for two years, and he hasn't succeeded yet.

That sort of thing hasn't much to do with the depression. This man wasn't fired because of the depression; it isn't the depression that is keeping him from getting a new job—except, perhaps, indirectly, in that economic pressure forces employers to demand more from job-holders than they used to.

What's the answer, for men like him?

Washington Letter

WASHINGTON—One of the most solemn spots in America is the tomb of the Unknown Soldier. Behind the scenes not all is solemn.

Many a soldier marching patiently and down before that historic granite block has preserved his monastic calm while his feet tortured him unmercifully and flies and mosquitoes pestered him.

The job of keeping guard over that tomb is a sacred job in the army, but it is no Sunday school picnic.

Here is how it is done. Nine men and three non-commissioned officers, a sergeant and two corporals, take over the job for 15-day tricks. In a quiet, cathedral atmosphere they march hundreds of miles back and forth in those 15 days.

One man at a time marches over a 30-yard course. He marches two hours and is off two hours. That's parading goes on from sunrise until Arlington cemetery closes at night.

During his two hours on guard the soldier may speak to no one. He avoids meeting the eyes of anyone. He learns to look right thru people. He never smiles.

The annoying part of it is that spectators try to get the soldiers to smile.

"Girls are the worst," said one soldier who had finished one 15-day stint and was glad to be through with it.

"Girls," he said, "stand right beside the path and smile and try to catch your eye. The corporal is right over there watching you. Sometimes so is the officer, of the day. If they catch a guy smiling they burn him up."

The watch is maintained on a 24-hour basis, but after the crowds leave the soldiers don't march back and forth. They sit around near the tomb and smoke.

For the first few years the soldiers marched along the bare granite. Then a rubber carpet was laid for them to walk on so it wouldn't be so hard on the feet.

The rubber helps some, our soldiers said.

Tex's Topics

It won't be long now. . . And, we have the word of Coach Odus Mitchell that Pampa will win that game out at Harvester Stadium this afternoon. . . Of course, you have the word, too, of Coach Howard Lynch, of Amarillo, that the Sandies will win. . . All of which complicates things quite a bit. . . However, just to keep the records clear that crystal ball prediction of 13-6 in favor of Pampa still goes. . . Cliff Chamber, the rassing promoter, ran across one fellow willing to bet that Pampa will win by more than 12 points. . . That's a long shot at the shortest.

Any way you look at this Amarillo-Pampa football business, the one thing I don't like about it is the bull-dog attitude of many Pampans—and many Amarilloans, too—toward each other. . . We as neighboring citizens should not permit football rivalry to build inter-city hatred that extends into many other channels outside of football. . . It's fine for the football players to get in there and fight a clean campaign to determine which is the better team, but when a feeling of "dog-eat-dog" begins to foster itself on such a wide scale that it virtually aligns two cities against one-another, all because of a football game—that's plenty silly and wholly juvenile. . . Pampa and Amarillo have too much in common not to be the best of helpful neighbors. . . So, when this afternoon's football game is over, let's forget about anything except that the best team won.

A Des Moines woman, picking November strawberries, started the pre-winter rash of garden variety stories a little later than usual. . . Mothers aren't telling their youngsters a thing by explaining that alley fighting gives the whole neighborhood a black eye. . . Any household knew of Japan's warlike philosophy at least 20 years ago. Even the tea package was labeled, "Basket fired in Japan." . . The new success credo is exemplified in a familiar tone by the young fellow who became an airfield mechanic because he could make so many interesting contacts.

Dictatorship youngsters must have a dreary Christmas. Up at 4, playing an hour with tin soldiers and puppets, then off at 6 to the barracks for drill and Course II in trench tactics. . . Voters in Connecticut elected a dead man, the opposition courteously deleting all references to the campaign as a burning issue. . . San Francisco vetoed subway and an anti-picketing proposal. If westerners must be pushed around they prefer it in the wider-open spaces. . . Railroad porters are called one of our healthiest classes. Their only trouble is being taken down with an occasional attack of grip.

Arguing over who should put the car in the garage, a New York housewife shot her husband, another argument for speedy solution of the national parking problem. . . Fall food demonstrations call for renewed warning to the male kitchen putterer. A simple corkscrew may turn out to be a potato with a permanent wave. . . Contract fans analyzing Shanghai's foreign casualties say West should have known he was vulnerable when East led his big trumps on the squeeze play. . . Distillers of bourbon complain, movie bar scenes always show actors asking for Scotch—a new way to start a headache without drinking either one.

Critics of the Olean, N. Y., man who wants paper money made in different hues may have overlooked the boon of having some local color in the stock reports. . . A "friend of labor" candidate accused of never having punched a time clock tried it the other day just to say he had, and his hand was in a bandage for a week. . . Chinese haven't put their war umbrellas to practical use. They can't get close enough to the Japanese to jab them in the whites of their eyes. . . So much talk of Hollywood divorces seems strange when make-ups are a dime a dozen.

Yesteryear In Pampa

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY City workmen with teams, grader, and scrapers were leveling Albert square in preparation for the sowing of grass seed.

Armistice Day was observed by the dry goods and hardware stores by closing all day, and the grocery stores closed at 9 a. m.

FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY The Santa Fe thermometer showed a minimum temperature of 22 degrees at 5 a. m. The previous low was 29 degrees on November 9 at the same hour.

Lubbock's Westerners threw its full force against the crippled Pampa Harvesters before an Armistice crowd of nearly 5,500 fans and scored in the first three minutes of play. The final score was 6 to 0.

But two hours of pounding over the same short course, makes a soldier's foot bones creak. He has to carry a gun on his shoulder. He can change the gun from one shoulder to another, but he can't carry it along in his hand, even for a rest.

Sun on the granite tomb and the white marble amphitheatre creates a blinding glare and especially in summer, the heat is terrific.

The Unknown Soldier's tomb is not likely to be forgotten, however. The number of persons visiting it increases every year. It has been there since 1921.

Man About Manhattan

—BY GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Portrait of a guy interviewing Sheila Barrett. You just entered her apartment. Sheila's voice floats out of the boudoir:

"Throw your things on the floor, darling. . . No, give them to Ethel. . . Ethel, take his things and fix him a drink. . . And fix me a cup of soup. . . Maybe he'd rather have do love soup, don't you? . . . Ethel, do love soup, don't you? . . . Ethel, fix him a drink and a cup of soup, too, I'm exhausted. . . I've been rehearsing all afternoon. . . Some of those dopes slay me. . . Ethel, I'll have some coffee with the soup. . . Darling, you do love coffee with your soup, don't you? . . . Ethel, fix Mr. Tucker a cup of coffee with his soup and his drink. . . I declare I'm a wreck. . . I've been rushing like mad since 1:30. . . Those dopes. . . Those morons. . . Ethel, any calls this afternoon? . . . I'm hurrying, really. I'm just climbing into these pajamas and I'll be right out. . . How many calls, Ethel—17? . . . What do these dopes think I am, a telephone operator. . . If anybody calls I'm not in. . . No, not to anybody. . . (tinkle-tinkle-ingle) . . . Who is it, Ethel? . . . It is? . . . Oh, damnit, I guess I'd better talk. . . Hello, darling, sure I am, you dope. . . Why don't you send me some flowers and take me to dinner. . . I haven't had flowers in, well, let me see. . . I haven't had flowers in, well, day after tomorrow I'll make two days. . . No, darling, I'm positively exhausted. . . I have an interview tomorrow and then rehearsal, and two shows a night at the Rainbow Room. . . At the supper show last night I was on for an hour and 20 minutes. . . Positively exhausted, I was. . . Listen, darling, I can't really. . . That's a nice boy, call me again, won't you there, thank you, darling, good bye. . . You see. . . See. . . It's like that all the time. . . Those dopes calling. . . Well, maybe I'd be sorry if they didn't call. . . I wanta hear some records. . . Ethel, where's the phonograph. . . And the records, Cornell you said you liked. . . See, Ethel, do you know where the needles are. . . Pardon me, but I'm going to collapse on the floor. . . I always listen to records, better sprawled out on the floor. . . I'm going to play that take-off on Miss darling, what a nice floor this is (tinkle-tinkle) . . . Ethel, I won't talk, I'm not in. . . I won't talk, I won't. I. . . Who? Oh, that dope. . . I guess I'd better. . . Hello, darling, what-1-2? . . . No, I won't have dinner with you. . . Can't possibly. . . Well, I'm tired. . . I'm simply exhausted. . . Those dopes. . . What. . . Well, tomorrow then. . . Sure, darling. . . Good bye. . . Ethel, if that phone rings again (tinkle-tinkle-ingle) . . . Ethel, I'm positively am not at home. . . I'm exhausted. . . No, I can not talk. . . Who is it? . . . Who? . . . Oh, that dope? . . . No, I won't talk. . . I'm exhausa. . . Wait, Oh, fiddlesticks, I guess I'd better talk. . . Hello? . . . Oh, hello, darling. . ."

A MOTHER'S LAMENT.

By Elaine Evans. She gave my little son a toy machine gun. Last Christmas, God, and she would be amused to see. The way it tortures me: She thought her gift was cute (She hasn't seen him shoot. It lying on his back. Nor joyously attack his soldiers), and of course it cost a lot. But worse than anything is knowing His baby heart is growing To take a keen delight In a make-believe fight. Could you forgive me, God, For giving you might think it odd For throwing it away Well—to the junk man say? And would you help him play As happily instead With a wagon painted red?

A MOTHER SPEAKS.

By Grace Noll Crowell. All mothers have the certain right to say If there be war—we who have borne our sons In agony and rapture rise today In fierce defense of these our precious ones. As tiger mothers guard their helpless young So shall we stand when threats of war arise. No waving flag no oratory flung Shall dim the steadfast purpose in our eyes. All wars are useless let there be no more! We shall not have a part in this mad thing. You cannot take the fine sons that we bore And offer them for bloody slaughtering. Consult the mothers of the earth O men And there will never be another war again.

How's Your Health?

By IAGO GALDSTON, M.D.

Until the middle ages, syphilis was unknown in epidemic form. Some authorities even doubt whether it existed in Europe before Columbus discovered America. The first record of epidemic syphilis dates back to 1495 when the disease appeared during the siege of Naples. After its appearance there, syphilis spread very rapidly throughout Europe and became one of the great scourges. Original syphilis was known as the large pox to distinguish it from the other destructive epidemic disease, smallpox. The name syphilis, by which the disease is known today, was given to it by the Italian physician Girolamo Fracastoro (1484-1533), who summarized the contemporary knowledge of how the disease spread

AUTO WORKERS WOULD UNIONIZE FORD FIRM

DETROIT, Nov. 11 (AP)—Homer Martin, president of the United Automobile Workers of America, said today that a conference of "delegates from all Ford locals in the United States and Canada," would be held at UAW headquarters here November 13, to "officially inaugurate national campaigns for the unionization of Ford Motor Co. plants in both countries.

Around Hollywood

—BY ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—Fernand Gravel, of Belgium and France, really has something to worry about. He fears, for professional reasons, he will become "too American."

He is a borderline case now. As a foreign star, he is expected to look foreign and he doesn't. He is also expected to speak with an accent, but after a fellow's gone to school in England and traveled around as much as Gravel, his accent's on the thin side. Right now you can't peg him as American, British, Continental or anything in particular other than a bright young fellow who's been around and has a multitude of interests.

Changed Name Twice So Fernand Gravel, here for his second picture ("Food for Scandal" with Carole Lombard) won't stay. He'll skip just as he did after his first, "The King and the Chorus Girl."

"I could be wholly American in very short time if I stayed," he says, "and—there are many American actors here."

Other compelling reasons for quick departure are an aged mother in France and Gravel's desire to retain his position in French films. (France is less and less cordial to its actors who run off to Hollywood and stay.)

Gravel will be 29 his next birthday, which is Christmas Day. His real name is Mertens, changed later to Graevy, in Hollywood to Gravel. Mertens, a German name, was impractical in Belgium after the war. Graevy sounded too much like gray when rendered in English. Gravel isn't romantic—and Mervyn LeRoy, who signed him, has Gravel in his "romance and charm" department.

Lives Modestly He has been married for 10 years to Jane Kenourdt, for three years his co-star on the French stage. They have a 5-year-old adopted son in France who rides, his father declares proudly, like a veteran. One of Gravel's obsessions is horses. In Hollywood he has mounted no horses trained for "dressage" and the haute école. His other favorite sport is skiing. He goes to St. Moritz every winter.

He brought eight trunks of wardrobe to Hollywood, not knowing what his picture would require. He learned on arrival that his only costume would be a full-dress suit, except for one other—livery—which he proceeded to design himself. That's another hobby: designing miniatures of historical hats, uniforms, boots and tin soldiers. Of the latter he has about 32,000. He knows a man who has nearly 600,000.

He resembles at times Robert Montgomery and at times the Duke of Windsor. He has black hair and light brown eyes—but the eyes actually change color. He and Mrs. Gravel live modestly in Westwood. He has gone out into Hollywood "society" seldom.

The other day I had lunch with him—he ordered ham and eggs, a telling sign that Americanism is getting him—and he had a wire whose sender he could not identify off-hand. As the lady who thus tendered him an invitation is one of the town's "social leaders," I believe that Gravel really does stay home.

The Capitol Jigsaw

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL

AUSTIN, Nov. 10.—(AP)—In the opinion of one member of the house of representatives, nobody was more surprised at failure of the house to pass a tax bill the last night of the special session than the representatives themselves.

He explained the decisive vote which led to the death of the general tax bill was on a motion to remove certain instructions binding the house members of the conference committee which was attempting to iron out differences with the senate. The motion was defeated overwhelmingly. "It seemed to me nearly everyone was doing what I was, trying to make a record for the folks back home on that particular vote, but intending to vote for the conference report and get a tax bill a little later," said the member. "But there didn't come a later chance. The whole thing seemed to settle down and no one tried to bring it up again. At 11 o'clock I would have bet plenty that a tax bill would be passed."

At 12 midnight the bill was dead. One of the latest pronouncements of Gov. James V. Allred, on the possibility of another special session came incidentally as he was discussing the need for a special election to choose a successor in the house to Harry N. Graves of Georgetown, appointed as associate justice of the court of criminal appeals to succeed O. S. Lattimore, deceased.

The governor said it had been suggested he did not have to call the election and if he did the call could be made only by the county officials. In other words, it might be left to a time when a new representative in the legislature was needed, or until the regular election next year when the expense of a special election could be avoided.

Someone asked the governor whether, if there should be another session of the legislature before the regular one, say in January, the Georgetown district should be represented. The governor smiled. "There will have to be a prospect of achieving a lot more than was accomplished at the last session before I will call one."

Representative Ross Hardin of Prairie Hill said shortly before the session ended that Governor Allred had allowed the group talking loudly of economy to work him into a bad political mood. The governor had done, in Hardin's opinion, was to have "cracked the whip" over the heads of legislators in demands for some taxes along with a pledge of a second special session to "economize."

"He let the economy crowd force him into the position of standing against economy with both houses having urged its submission," he said. "It's all very well for him to talk of how submission of appropriations would close the calendars and make it impossible to get anything done at a short session. You just couldn't explain that to the people; they wouldn't understand."

"But if he said, 'Get some taxes this session and there will be another for economy,' that's something people can understand."

Book A Day

—BY BRUCE CATTON

If you're one of that group which feels that the Duke of Windsor passed up his one great opportunity for service and strayed instead into easy, aimless living, you'll do well to read Stanton B. Leeds' tiny little book, "Cards for the Windsors Hold" (Lippincott, $2.00).

The story of the Duke is not yet ended, by any means. Mr. Leeds contends. Now that the honey-mooning days are over and the British empire has settled down once more to enjoy and scrutinize a new king, he says Edward is going to take up the task where he left off.

The distinct implication is that Edward will turn once more to his old interest in housing and the problems of the poor.

How all this will affect Britain is still another matter. Mr. Leeds makes much of the statement Edward made after his wedding; that he was still at the service of the empire, when and if it needed him.

Moreover, says Mr. Leeds, one mustn't lose sight of the fact that the Duke retains a vast romantic and political appeal. The very nature of the abdication events has endeared the former prince to a great audience. The result may be that the British scion or later, are going to love to welcome him back.

Newspaperman, related by marriage to Mrs. Herman L. Rogers, close friend of the Duchess of Windsor, the author tells his story from the "inside." The case he makes is that a certain British clique was out to get Edward and did. But now Edward may have the last word.

An interesting book you should not miss.—P. G. F.

Guerillas Wallop Pups From Plainview 30 To 0

The Guerilla bench-warmers had their day yesterday afternoon when the green and gold raiders crushed the Plainview Bull Pups 30 to 0 at Harvester park.

The Guerillas scored on the first play of the game after the kickoff when Doyle Aulds passed 25 yards to A. C. Miller who ran beautifully, dodging and weaving in and out of about six would-be tacklers for 55 yards. Miller hid out near the sidelines and waited for the catch. Walter Word who replacer Grover Lee Heiskell in the backfield when the latter suffered a broken arm, ran over standing up from the 10 after the ball had been advanced from mid-field in a series of sweeping end runs by Word, and line smashes by Aulds and Saulsbury.

Crout Scores On Pass
The third touchdown came in the third quarter when Aulds passed to Jack Crout from the 40 to the 10. Crout leaped high and made a beautiful catch and ran over the goal line.

Lester Clemmons, cousin of Robert Clemmons who started the game but was replaced in the first few minutes of the game by Crout, intercepted a Plainview pass on his 9 and ran through the Bull Pup for the counter. He was given beautiful interference.

Sheerer made the last six points when he intercepted a pass on the 30-yard line and ran over the goal line for the counter. The Guerillas tried passing and kicking the extra point, but failed on each attempt. The last touchdown was made with the entire first string sitting on the bench. The subs played part of the third and all of the fourth quarter.

McVickers Stars
The Pups did not get within scoring distance. They failed to crack the Guerilla line and their numerous passes were intercepted or knocked down. Candena, left end was outstanding in the line. Hoefler, quarter, and McVickers starred for the backfield.

Crout was no disappointment at end. He blocked and tackled like a regular. Feltner showed up well at the fullback position, as did Fuzzy Green at the right guard slot. Moddrell replaced Aulds at quarterback. Others in the game included Johnston, Giddens, Sullivan, Edwards.

Wanna Play Yannigans
Aulds' passing arm was a dead-shot, and Word continued to rip off long gains as he has in the last three games. Saulsbury was in almost every play, blocking and running interference. Candler, L. C. Bailey, L. Clemmons, and Montgomery stood out in the line. Miller punted for long distances.

It was the fourth victory for the Guerillas who are now trying to match a game with the Amarillo Yannigans. The Yannigans beat the Bull Pups 24 to 0 recently. The raiders have suffered three defeats.

The Lineups:
Guerillas—Clemmons le, L. C. Eall y lt, Dunbar lg, Candler c, C Bailey rg, Montgomery rt, R. Clemmons re, Aulds qb, Miller lb, Saulsbury rh, Word fb.
Bull Pups—Candena le, Wishard lt, Taylor lg, Phillips c, Powell rg, Weiss rt, Nicholson re, Hoefler qb, Henry lb, McVickers rh, Covington fb.

Reapers to Meet Buchanan Friday

The leading team in the Junior high conference, Buchanan of Amarillo, will preview the opposition for Coach W. C. Huckeba's Reapers here Friday afternoon. Game time will be 3:30 o'clock at Harvester field with admission 10 and 15 cents.

Buchanan trampled the Reapers for their worst defeat of the season last month in Amarillo. Since that date, the future Harvester have been waiting for the return game on the home turf. All week Coach Huckeba has been working on offense, which has failed to click in recent games. If the Reapers follow assignments Friday they should give Buchanan a busy afternoon. It will be the second last game of the season, the last being against Sam Houston in Amarillo the following Friday.

MACHINE GUNS TO BE MADE IN TEXAS CITY

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 11 (AP)—Electrically operated machine gun capable of firing 1,200 rounds per minute will be manufactured in New Braunfels, it was revealed today by E. William Archer, manager of the San Antonio Chamber of Commerce upon his announcement that the plant, capitalized at $100,000, would be established in San Antonio's trade area.

The industry is bound by contract to employ fifty persons the first year, 200 the second year and 750 the third year, Archer said.

Expert tests of the machine gun, intended as the principal manufacture of the plant, have been in progress for more than eight months.

In England, labor permits issued to foreign girls entering the country are good for 12 months only and are extended only in exceptional cases.

BATTLE ROYAL ON PROGRAM MONDAY NIGHT

Dynamite would be a firecracker to what will be turned loose in the ring at the Pampa Athletic arena Monday night when Promoter Cliff Chambers stages a battle royal with his six grapplers providing the fireworks promptly at 8 o'clock. Two of the six will be left standing when the melee ends and they will be main eventers on the regular grapple card. The first two to succumb through having their shoulders pinned, giving up, or being thrown from the ring, will meet in preliminary. The next two to fall will be semi-finalists. Meeting in the ring at one time will be Abie Freeman, Frank Wolff, Cyclone Mackie, Bill Cassell, Otto Ludwig and Bob Cummings. At the gong the six will fly at each other or five will gang one, four will gang two or they will pair off until one gets tied up and then it will be a double up on someone. It would be good if Wolff and Ludwig got together or even if Mackie tied up with the German. Freeman and Cummings would also make a good match. But, the catch is that no one knows who will get who as the melee progresses.

Gents to Play Loyola Today

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 11 (AP)—The Centenary football team was due in here today for the Gentlemen's inter-sectional grid battle with Loyola University in Memorial coliseum. Local officials expect a large Armistice day turnout despite the recent record of the luckless Loyolans, who have been trimmed successively by Hardin-Simmons of Texas, St. Mary's, Santa Clara, San Francisco and Arizona. Centenary rules a heavy favorite to brush aside the Lions, coming here heralded as a big, clever team.

YALE'S 'GREASY' NEALE FOND OF RIBBING FAVORITE PLAYER

By PAUL MICKELSON.
NEW YORK, Nov. 11 (AP)—This department's nomination for the coach who gets most soul-satisfying enjoyment out of football's headaches and shenanigans goes to Earle "Greasy" Neale, chief of ducky pond's board of strategy at Yale.

"Greasy," a native of Parkersburg, W. Va., who's played major league baseball and pro football in addition to 22 years of football master minding, is enjoying one of his most hilarious autumns as the Yale, led by Clint Frank, march on undefeated.

He's no Yale grad, so he'll be head coach of the Elis. He's only in his fourth season with the big boys blue but already he's almost as much of an institution there as the Yale bowl. Newspapermen actually elected him as their institution the day he overruled a Yale request on his handle—"Greasy," a nickname given by a neighborhood kid down at Parkersburg. Neale called his chum "Dirty" and the kid retaliated with "Greasy" when he discovered Neale eating bread and butter with the butter spread thicker on his face than on the bread. "Yale or no Yale," Neale told reporters when he heard that Yale officials has asked them not to call him "Greasy" out of consideration for Elis dignity. "If you fellows want to call me "Greasy" go ahead."

Invented Dance Play
He's a great rival of Pap Warner and Bob Zuppke in football ingenuity, credited with the invention of the fake reverse, man to man defense, triple passes and the "dance play" which Yale is using so effectively today.

The "dance play" is the reverse play with 1937 trimmings. One halfback takes the ball from center, another halfback rushes over as though to take the ball but the first sides it, fades back a few steps, pauses and then dashes to the opposite side from where the play evidently was headed. When the back takes his backward steps he looks like he's dancing—hence the name.

Neale's favorite story concerns Charley Fenwick, Virginia's star kicker back in '22. Virginia was playing Georgia and Fenwick missed three chances to kick field goals. Each time he missed, the announcer would say the goal was "missed by the ruche, triple passes and the "dance play," not mentioning Fenwick's name.

Ribs His Star
"Take that guy inches out of here," yelled a fan, "and put Fenwick in!" Neale, a tock fellow with patches of gray hair, celebrated his 45th

FRESH WATER FISH DID NOT BITE THIS SUMMER

AUSTIN, Nov. 10 (AP)—If the bass and perch didn't bite for you this summer, don't feel badly—it was common experience among Texas Isaak Waltons.

Says Will J. Tucker, executive secretary of the game department "for some reason, frankly unknown to us, most fresh water fish stopped biting soon after the season opened and only recently has the situation improved.

However, Tucker, a rod and reel enthusiast himself, is, like other anglers, looking to next season, and while he makes no rash promises he can point to potentially greater numbers of fish available next season regardless of whether they ever hit the frying pan.

Game wardens are nearing completion of a restocking program which will add 5,000,000 fingerlings—fish ranging from three to 11 inches in length—to lakes and streams of the state.

All summer state hatcheries at Omito, Ingram, San Angelo, Cisco, Dundee, Lake Dallas, Tyler, Jasper and Huntsville, aided by the entire output of federal hatcheries at San Marcos and Fort Worth, have contributed to rebuilding the fish supply.

STOCK EXCHANGES TO BE CLOSED ALL DAY

NEW YORK, Nov. 11 (AP)—The New York stock exchange, curb exchange, Chicago board of trade, and all other leading security and commodity exchanges throughout the United States and Canada will be closed tomorrow, November 11, in observance of Armistice Day. Most livestock markets will remain open. Principal markets abroad, with the exception of London and Liverpool, also will be closed.

birthday by watching his protege, Frank, score three touchdowns against Brown. Frank's his greatest triumph—he thinks he's the best back he ever saw—but he delights in ribbing his star. In Mill one day, Frank carried five scrubs on his back for several yards and finally started to fall. "Greasy" yelled: "There goes that Frank—falling down again."

JILL

BY MARY RAYMOND
Copyright, 1937, NEA Service, Inc.

Yesterday Ardath sits for Alan as a model. Alan goes for a walk when the work is nearly finished, leaving her alone in his studio. Meantime, Jill arrives and is defiantly greeted by Ardath.

CHAPTER XIX

Jill stared at Ardath, bewildered in her eyes. Ardath! Fresh from sleep, her hair tumbled, only half-dressed. Afterwards Jill's eyes were going to be wells of miserable tears. But she was glad now—if you could call being hurt and proud and numb "glad"—that her face was not revealing her suffering. That she was able to look at Ardath boldly, proudly and with complete poise.

"Won't you come in?" Ardath asked, delighting in the situation. "No, thank you," Jill replied. "I'm sorry, I didn't know you lived here." "I don't live here. Exactly," Ardath answered. Her voice was amused.

Jill turned and walked steadily toward her car, hearing the slamming of the door behind her.

Before she reached her car, she stumbled against a small figure. Small, bird-like eyes in a wrinkled face gazed at her.

"You seem in a kinda hurry," a quavering voice said, with a chuckle sounding in it, "and early. I didn't think pretty girls get up at six o'clock."

Automatically, Jill pushed back the cuff or her coat. Her little jeweled watch was ticking on her arm merrily, as though nothing had happened to its owner. Both hands marked the hour. It was exactly six o'clock.

"I don't need these things," the old woman said. "I'm out every day these time. You can't fool old Rose."

Jill stood for a moment regarding the smiling old face. Rose! Once, maybe this ancient person had been young and beautiful and happy. Maybe, though, she had been as unhappy as she, Jill, was now. Perhaps she had found forgiveness with the years. A rose browned by many suns, beaten down by many adverse winds. What a thin coat she had about her shrunken form.

On an impulse, she reached into her purse and drew out a bill, which she pressed into one claw-like hand. Then, Jill pulled the cheery-red scarf from about her throat and wrapped it about the old woman's shoulders.

She heard a startled exclamation as she got into her car. "God bless us!"

Jill looked back as she started the motor. The old beggar—she must be a beggar, for who else would be out at this hour—was staring at her with a dazed expression on her face. Both hands clutched the bright red scarf.

It was after the car rounded the corner that tears came, rolling down Jill's cheeks unheeded. She was conscious of many curious eyes. But she was past caring. Her world, a beautiful dream world though it had been, had crashed. Her idol had not been found with feet of clay, but with feet of mud. Alan and Ardath. An ugly romance between them.

To think that her Alan—but she was wrong. He had never been hers. He did not even remotely resemble the Alan of her dreams. He was just an ordinary—oh more than ordinary man. Consoling himself with a cheap adventure.

She must stop thinking of him. She must go back home, and greet everybody at breakfast with a nice morning face. The face of a girl awfully happy over being engaged to Milo Montagne.

Jill shuddered. She couldn't go back now. She would go to Patty and stay until she could face the family with more composure. She wouldn't wake Patty for awhile. She would drive for awhile and then go home.

During the time Jill was driving aimlessly about the streets with her white, strained face, Alan had reached his apartment and let himself in with his latch key.

The place was now quite empty, a fact which brought a feeling of intense relief. In the rear room, the stripped easel met his eyes, and then a bit of blackened canvas on the hearth.

He smiled grimly. It had been a good picture. But he would forget all about it. Its destruction meant that Ardath Holm was now definitely out of his life. Which was a good thing. If she had hung around, she might have done some real damage.

The telephone rang later in the morning and he answered it uneasily. He was almost certain he would hear Ardath's voice faking penitence.

"Hello there, old chap."

"The voice had a familiar ring. It was—of course it was—Vic Almsworth, whom he had last seen heading for the grind of an English bank."

"Vic! Where are you? I'll take a taxi."

"I'm sorry as the deuce, Alan. But I'm leaving for Louisville in a few minutes. Missed my train last night, all because of a beautiful girl wanting your life's history. But it's just as well I didn't get off."

There's something I think you should know—your father needs to—"Not bad news. Surely—" "I'm afraid so. Lord Jeffrey isn't well, Alan. Mother wrote he was in poor health. I haven't the right to say so, old man, but I think this isn't the time for pride and family quarrels. Mother shouldn't advise—but I'd like to."

"It isn't necessary." Alan's voice was husky with emotion. "I'm afraid I have been a selfish know-it-all."

He felt stunned. His father with his oak-like constitution! He could never remember the time he had ever been sick. He had an iron constitution that matched an iron will.

"I'll leave for home tomorrow," Alan said slowly.

"There's no great hurry, Alan. A good rest and seeing you again never slip it unless he could place it upon his son."

He thought wearily: If it will bring the old fellow any happiness and peace of mind, I'll give up painting. Surely, he had done nothing with it of which either he or his father could be proud. "Sun"

DRUNK DRIVERS TO BE NABBED

It will be more than a sign advising motorists not to drink while driving that will be seen by fans traveling by auto from Amarillo to Pampa on U. S. highway 90 to the Pampa-Amarillo game here today. Captain M. L. Berry of the Texas highway patrol, in Pampa Wednesday, said there would be a half-dozen officers of the patrol on duty on that highway to see that no drunken driving occurs. The enforcement is in accordance with the special aim of the Department of Public Safety, recently announced by Director H. H. Carmichael to end the hazards created by drunken fans driving to and from football games over the state. "Wild, reckless, drunken driving will not be allowed," Captain Berry stated. He indicated that the patrol would be vigilant to apprehend and to bar drunken drivers from the road. When told that the impression in Pampa had been that a dozen of his men would help control traffic in Pampa today, the captain said that the principal job of the patrol would be on the highway between Amarillo and Pampa. He said two men would be sent to Pampa to help the traffic situation along the highway east of Harvester park. Two patrolmen will be on duty on the road through McLean to Shamrock, the captain said. NO. 1-- Continued From Page One high pep squad county commissioners city commissioners fire department truck civic organizations. Usher at Game. Veterans will be on duty as ushers this afternoon at the Pampa-Amarillo football game.

At 7 o'clock tonight there will be a veterans' reunion at the American Legion, but directed by Paul Hill. The program will include a tall tales contest and a Dutch lunch. All veterans whether members of the American Legion or Veterans of Foreign Wars or not are invited to attend. Two dances will be given tonight. The first of these is an old-timers' dance at the red brick building on the high school campus. Jeff Guthrie's orchestra will play. Admission will be 40 cents a person. Mothers of members of the Pampa high school band will sell lemonade and doughnuts. At 9:30 o'clock tonight a dance will start at the Southern club. Admission will be $1 a couple. Bert Bertram's orchestra will play. Proceeds of the dances will be given to the schools of Pampa for the purchase of school supplies. NO. 2-- Continued From Page One administration's fiscal spokesman said. "We deliberately used an unbalanced federal budget during the past four years to meet a great emergency. That policy has succeeded. The emergency that we faced in 1933 no longer exists." He disputed the contentions of some persons "that another great spending program is desirable to ward off the risk of another business depression." "I claim," he went on, "no prophetic insight into the future. But I have reached the firm conviction that the domestic problems which face us today are essentially different from those which faced us four years ago. Many measures are required for their solution. One of these measures, but only one, in the present juncture, is a determined movement toward a balanced budget." Asserting that 1937's business activity has been of "a healthy character" and unmarred by the usual symptoms of "an unhealthy boom," he said "we have not reached the stage of full employment of our productive resources." "On the contrary," he said, "from all these standpoints, conditions are favorable for a continued increase in the level of business activity." At another point the cabinet officer declared that "the basic need today is to foster the full application of the driving force of private capital." To the farmers he extended the caution that "the agricultural program can long endure which makes excessive demands upon the federal treasury, or is unfair to consumers." NO. 3-- Continued From Page One be able to develop a program that will be national in scope." In response to questions he said the plan dealt with "houses for sale and houses for rent, large and small," that "naturally" the purpose was "to get a large volume of building next year." In other quarters it was learned that the group decided to strike at once at the two principal obstacles to home construction, the high cost of building materials and the high wages paid to workers in the building trades. Individual members of the conference were delegated to discuss the problem with organized labor and the construction materials industry.

Importance of looking into the future with a view to developing the nation's top-ranking raw material—the youth of the country, so that the boys of today who become the men of tomorrow may properly be fitted to cope with problems now you have gotten this far, will be today. You more than likely will be among the 12,000 who will thrill to the daring runs, the breath-taking passes, the bone-crushing tackles, the music of the bands, the yells of the two colorful pep squads, the crowd. Members of the club yesterday were given a special treat, an elk roast, prepared by women of the church with the piece de resistance supplied by Charlie Burton, Ecotarian, who recently returned with the Elk from a hunting trip in Montana. A number of special guests of the club and of Mr. Burton also attended yesterday's luncheon. B. M. Behrman, chairman of Pampa's 1937 Red Cross roll call drive, spoke briefly urging support of the civic club in the local campaign for Red Cross dollars which opens next Monday morning. R. G. Hughes, a member of the mayor's committee on the unemployment census which will be taken here beginning next Tuesday, outlined details of the program and urged cooperation of all citizens in making the census successful locally. Mr. De Weese's discussion related to the problems of youth training and was applied to the Pampa Rotary club's recent movement in organizing a Junior Rotary division in which the club each year accepts a certain number of Pampa youths who by past performances have indicated they are worthwhile material to take under the wing of Rotary development. In the discussion the speaker reviewed highlights of Frank H. Cheney's book, "The Job of Being a Dad." The day's program was in charge of Frank Allison.

they almost do it, and that Amarillo, the favorite, will fight back with a courage and ferocity that equals the Pampanians. Even the cotton pickers in Donley county, the roustabouts at Sunray, the stenos in Amarillo, the cowboys on the JA and the Four Sixes, know the names of every one of the 22 young men who will play their hearts out and fight until they drop for their schools, their towns, their fans.

They know that Pampa's candidate for all-state guard, J. P. Mathews, is heartbreakingly injured. They know that the Sandies will outweigh the Harvesters 10 pounds to the man. They know that Coach Mitchell with courageous abandon will hurl his equally courageous boys against Coach Howard Lynch's merciless and brave Golden Sandstorm.

And they know it will be a battle, and that once those two lines meet with terrific impact the issue will be in doubt.

They know that there will be only 11 men against 11 men.

THE PAMPA DAILY NEWS, THURSDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 11, 1937

SANDIES HEAVIER BY 10 POUNDS PER MAN

Record Crowd Expected To See Grid Classic

FIELD GATES WILL OPEN AT 12:30 O'CLOCK

An estimated 12,000 football fans, as thrill hungry as any in the nation will jam every available seat in the stands at Harvester stadium this afternoon when the kickoff at 2:30 o'clock opens the eighth conference meeting of the Pampa Harvesters and Amarillo Golden Sandies.

Football teams from the two cities met for several years previous to 1930 but it was not until that year that conference rivalry began. The count now stands at six victories to one in favor of the Sandies.

Nearly 11,000 seats will be available it was announced yesterday by Roy McMillen, business manager of the Pampa Independent school district, who spent several days searching over the Panhandle for bleacher seats. He finally located about 4,000 and they have been erected along with temporary bleachers which have been constructed. About 1000 fans will see the game "on their feet" it is estimated.

Gates to the field will open at 12:30 p. m. First to arrive will secure the best rush seats in the end zones or at the ends of the permanent stands where a few rows of seats have been erected. It was indicated that sale of general admission tickets would have to be limited because of lack of standing room.

Two Special Trains.

Where to place the Pampa and Amarillo bands has been a source of worry. More than 2000 reserve seats have been constructed inside the playing field, taking up the band location. Room will be made for the two organizations, however. The Pampa pep squad, 213 strong, will be in its accustomed place at the north end of the field. The Amarillo squad will be in the stands on the east side of the field.

Arrangements have been made to run two special trains to Pampa, the first arriving here at 10 o'clock carrying the high school band and pep squad and many students. The second train will reach Pampa at 1:45 p. m. Both trains will be met by bands, pep squads, and fans.

The visitors will be taken to and from Harvester field in buses and courtesy cars, leaving from the high school gymnasium over a closed route. All Amarillo fans will be taken to the east entrance to the field.

OFFICIALS FOR GAME CHOSEN

Four of the southwest's leading football officials will have charge of the Pampa-Amarillo football game here this afternoon. Their names were not revealed until last night.

Controlling play from the referee's position will be Ab Curtis (Texas), who officiated when the two teams met last year in Amarillo. Curtis has called games for every Southwest conference team. He was one of the officials selected to officiate at the 1935 Rose Bowl game.

The man who will call the off-sides will be Earl Davault (Texas), another leading official in the Southwest conference.

The veteran Harry Holton (Notre Dame) will act as umpire.

Fourth official on the field will be Mike Sweeney (Texas A. and M.) who will be field judge. He will be the only official who was not on the field last Thanksgiving day.

Generals in Grid Battle Today

ODUS MITCHELL

J. C. PREJEAN

HOWARD LYNCH

T. G. HULL

The board of strategy behind the two ace high school football teams which will battle on Harvester field this afternoon are pictured above. Odus Mitchell, head coach of the Pampa Harvesters, is in his ninth season as director of the team. J. C. Prejean, line coach, came to Pampa two years ago from Shamrock. Howard Lynch became head of the Amarillo Sandstorm this season, succeeding Blair Cherry. Lynch for many years acted as line coach of the Sandies. T. G. Hull, assistant coach, came up from the Yannigans this season.

TWO RADIO STATIONS WILL BROADCAST FOOTBALL GAME

Two radio stations, KPND of Pampa and KGNC of Amarillo, will carry the play by play account of the Pampa Harvester-Amarillo Sandie football game to thousands who cannot see the game this afternoon at Harvester stadium.

There will be at least 12,000 fans in the stands when the whistle blows at 2:30 o'clock but there will be probably ten times that number listening to the game via the ether waves.

At the KPND microphone will be Bill Karn, sports announcer, describing action on the field as it happens. Dave Chapman will be at the KGNC microphone.

Twice before this year two radio stations have broadcast games from Harvester stadium. Pampa and Capitol Hill of Oklahoma City were on the air at the same time when the Redskins took a drubbing from the Harvesters. Last Friday Pampa and Clovis, N. M., stations broadcast the Pampa-Clovis game.

Station KPND, Pampa Daily NEWS station, has brought fans every game played by the Harvesters this season and added for good measure the Amarillo-Port Arthur game.

Starting Lineups

Although neither coach has definitely named a starting lineup for today's big game, a close guess would be:

PAMPA	POS.	AMARILLO
Reynolds	LE	Moore
Coshow	LT	Hastons
Nelson	LG	Overholt
Harding	Center	Winfield
Parish	RT	Robertson
Brown	RE	Howell
McMahon	RS	Kelley
Graham	QB	Thompson
Heiskell	LI	Martin
Smith	RI	Townley
Karr	FS	Linn

MALIN PRAISES PAMPA-SANDIE PIGSKIN FEUD

By Jerry Malin.

One of the greatest things that ever happened to the Panhandle of Texas was when the Pampa Harvesters came up from the ranks of the Class B and cast their lot with the Class A high school football powers.

Depression, drouth, hard times, discouraging days and sleepless nights have pestered the people of the Plains since the turn of the decade.

From the very moment that the Harvesters squared off against the Golden Sandstorm on that bleak and sloppy afternoon of October 12, 1930, until the present moment, the Amarillo-Pampa football feud has provided an emotional outlet for all of the worldly, material troubles.

Some folks take the stand that the intense rivalry around football time is unhealthy for Amarillo and Pampa; that it makes people on both sides do things under a spell of emotional fury.

Well, what of it? Both sides always survive, don't they? And doesn't everything else under the sun pale into insignificance when we annually get worked up over the game?

War scares? Price of meat? Stock market breaks? Where's the next meal coming from? What, winter's here and no overcoat?

What difference does it make when the delirious diversion of the Amarillo-Pampa fuss warms us with its gloriously glowing fever heat?

All right, if you can think of a better way to relieve the monotony of ordinary things of life, go to it—T'll string along with the Pampa-Amarillo football feud, and wait with bated breath its coming each year!

May the best team win—always!

For every 100 sweatshops, 100 opticians, and 100 fried fish shops in England in 1901, there now were 170 of the first, 200 of the second, and 276 of the third.

TWO SPECIALS TO BRING FANS TO BIG GAME

Every fall there is a football classic in the Panhandle. This year it will be staged in Pampa between the Pampa Harvesters and the Amarillo Golden Sandies.

rivals of the gridiron for 15 years. The kickoff will be at 2:30 o'clock at Harvester field with an estimated 12,000 fans in the stands. Nearly 8,000 reserve seats were sold a week in advance of the game. About half that number of general admission tickets have been purchased by football hungry fans of the Panhandle. The SRO sign is expected to be hung out far in advance of the opening whistle.

Two special trains carrying Amarillo fans will steam into Pampa. Others will come by automobile and at least three passenger planes will bring fans to the classic. Other towns and cities will be represented. Shamrock postponed their game with Wellington until tonight at 7:45 o'clock so that fans could come to Pampa.

Majority of Pampa stores will close all day with others making noon the deadline.

Amarillo Favored

Amarillo, three times state champions, will be favored to defeat the Harvesters and start another march to a state title. Within the district to date, Amarillo defeated Plainview 39 to 0 while Pampa downed Lubbock 21 to 8. Borger also defeated Lubbock, 18 to 12 in an upset at Borger. Plainview will be in Borger this afternoon tangling with the Bulldogs.

On next Friday afternoon the Harvesters will go to Plainview while Borger will invade Amarillo on the Saturday. Borger will tangle with the Harvesters in Pampa and Lubbock will go to Amarillo Thanksgiving Day to wind up the conference season.

Only direct comparison of the two teams were games with Port Arthur, Pampa losing 14 to 0 and Amarillo dropping a 33 to 0 tilt. That should prove the Harvesters favorites in today's struggle but it doesn't because Pampa played a Port Arthur team not at full strength and at the time pointing to Amarillo.

Harvesters Outweighed

Pampa will enter the game with a big weight handicap, Amarillo fielding eleven men averaging 164 pounds to Pampa's average of 154 pounds. The Harvesters backfield

WILL ENFORCE SCHOOL RULES

There'll be no drunken rowdism at the Pampa-Amarillo football game.

Supt. R. B. Fisher has reiterated this admonition, given at other times during the season, and has also stated that fans must follow the instructions given them by officials as to parking driving.

He pointed out that the Pampa Independent School district has a legal right to appoint its own officials for the game, and the authority granted such officials is backed by the school district.

Pampa police and officers of the sheriff's department will be at the field to see that order is maintained and the rules are obeyed.

Other officials on duty will include a score of Pampa legionnaires, and a crew led by Gene Shackleton.

Sandies Have Scored 71 Points To 31 For Pampa

During the seven years Pampa and Amarillo football teams have met in Class A competition, the Sandies have scored 71 points to 31 for the Harvesters. The standing reveals the Golden Sandstorm with six victories, the Harvester win coming in 1931.

Each year since 1933 the Sandstorm has been blowing stronger and stronger until the greatest difference in scores was recorded last year. It all started back in 1930 with Amarillo eking out a 2 to 0 victory in a sea of mud. The next year Pampa won, 13 to 6. A touchdown separated the teams in 1932 and the following year it dropped back to a safety. Then the Sandies started to climb with a 7-point margin 1934, a 13-point margin in 1935, and last year the difference was hiked to 15 points.

Here are the comparative scores since 1930:

	Pampa	Amarillo
1930	0	2
1931	13	6
1932	0	7
1933	6	9
1934	6	13
1936	6	21

EYES OF FAMOUS EXES ON HARVESTERS TODAY

GREAT TEAMS AND PLAYERS REMEMBERED

Harvesters from other teams will be in the grandstand watching their successors battle another and still favored Amarillo football team, who cannot be here may be listening to the game via radio. Still others will be in the stadium in spirit, too far away to be here.

Every game between Pampa and Amarillo teams since 1930 has been bitterly fought. Remember past games:

Pampa's Class A competition began in 1930, when a gallant Harvester eleven made one of the finest showings yet recorded. Pampans firmly believe that an a dry field the locals would have swamped the Sandies.

'Twas a wet day, indeed, when the Harvesters lost a 2-0 decision to the Amarillo Sandies back on October 12, 1930. The grounds were ankle-deep in mud, through which thousands of fans trudged, and the gridiron was scarcely less muddy, and heavy showers fell during the game at Amarillo.

Fowler and Bufkin, two famous backs for the Sandies, pushed the Harvesters back into their own territory in the first quarter. Fowler punted out of bounds on Pampa's 5-yard line. Both teams were off-side on the next play. Then big Don Saulsbury was tackled behind the goal line for a safety, the only points of the game. Later the Harvesters outplayed their opponents and once seemed due for a touchdown, but the slippery ball was fumbled on Amarillo's 5-yard line.

Pampa Won in 1931

Pampa was the happiest city in the nation Saturday afternoon, Oct. 17, 1931. The occasion was the 13 to 6 defeat of the Amarillo Sandies by the Pampa Harvesters. It was the first time in history that a Pampa team had won from Amarillo. Several tie games had been played, but no victories had come the "Pampa way."

The Harvesters took advantage of the breaks and scored early in the second quarter after recovering the ball in their own territory. After ground plays had failed, Ray Chastain stepped back and passed to "Pest" Martindale who took the ball on the dead run and went 40 yards for a touchdown. Chastain added the extra point.

Little Joe Kahl scored the second counter two minutes later when he broke through the line cut to the sidelines and outraced Sandie tacklers in a 43-yard jaunt. Chastain failed to add the extra point.

Bassett scored Amarillo's lone touchdown late in the game when he went 6 yards for the counter. Pampa had the ball on Amarillo's 2-yard line at the final gun. Amarillo made 15 first downs Pampa 12.

Score 7-0 in 1932

The Amarillo Sandies knew they had been through a terrific gridiron battle when they left the turf of Butler field with a 7 to 0 win from the Pampa Harvesters in 1932. The unerring aim of big Miles Marbaugh's passes almost upset the dope but the Harvesters couldn't click with a heave for a touchdown.

Amarillo scored half way through the last period when Dunaway passed 21 yards to Sanders for the count. Mann added the extra point from placement.

The Harvesters made only 4 yards less than the Sandies on ground plays and outplayed the Amarillo aerial circus by completing passes for 124 yards, while Amarillo was held to 49 yards through the air. Amarillo had the advantage of first downs, 12 to 8.

It was the scrappiest team ever fielded by the Pampa Harvesters. They battled the favored Sandies in every department and nearly won the game on several occasions.

It Was 9-6 in 1933

Lady Luck, the patron saint of Amarillo football teams, almost failed a badly bogged visiting eleven in 1933 when the Sandies won only 9-6 after being doped to overwhelm their lighter opponents.

Marbaugh's punt in the first quarter was blocked for an Amarillo safety. Early in the third quarter, Peterson grabbed a Pampa fumble in the air and raced down a clear field for a touchdown. RANGERed the locals crashed over a touchrow late in that same quarter. The last period was battled near midfield.

Lost 13-6 in 1934

A Harvester football team riddled by injuries and sickness gave the Amarillo Bualer field tradition of no losses on the home turf a bad 60 minutes in losing 13 to 6 in 1934.

With their best ball carrier just out of bed from an attack of influenza, a halfback and an end injured, the Harvesters were scheduled to be swamped under the great Sandie attack. But the team rose to new heights and was declared the second greatest high school team in the state after Amarillo had romped through to a state championship.

Amarillo scored in the first quarter when a couple of punts by Harvester substitutes had gone haywire. With the ball on the 15-yard line, Stidger faded back as though to pass and then skirted his own right end for a touchdown.

Pampa scored a few minutes later on the prettiest play of the game. Drake, back, started around the right end but faded back and passed 20 yards across the field to Owens, who took the ball away from two Sandie tacklers and side-stepped and stiff-armed his way 43 yards for a touchdown, knotting the score.

Amarillo won the game late in the last quarter after two Pampa regulars had been carried from the field. Stidger passed 15 yards to Peterson, who ran 20 steps for the touchdown. Stidger added the extra point.

The outstanding work of Carl Smith, Pampa guard, got him a place on the All-State list, and J. R. Green received honorable mention.

Score 12 to 0 in 1935

It was not until late in the third quarter that the Amarillo Sandies were able to slip across a touchdown against the big Harvesters, the last of the big teams of recent years. Up until that time giants had waged even warfare, both teams threatening. Amarillo had the better of the gains rumping up many first downs. Harvester goal line stands were many and sensational.

The Amarillo score came on a drive with little Denton making the final 6 yards around end after a hole in the line had been closed. The score was enough to win although the Harvesters, with Brown and Fanning majoring in ball-carrying, threatened.

Amarillo scored again in the closing minutes of play when Ricketts blocked a punt and Clesson scooped it up to race 14 yards for a touchdown that was not needed to win. Clesson added the extra point from placement.

Stokes Green, Noblitt, Sparkin, Hartman and J. R. Green played stellar games in the Harvester line.

Lost 20-6 Last Year

The lightest team in modern history represented the Pampa high school but it was one of the scrappiest teams ever fielded. It was a team in which eleven boys played together without a star. Although Amarillo rang up 22 first downs to 4 for the Harvesters and gained 323 yards to 140, the Sandies could score only three times touchdowns. Sensational teamwork and a spirit of never-say-die sent the little Harvester team to a new high in football history. The defensive work of Noblitt, Mathews and Showers led the Harvesters on and on.

Despite a break in the game, the Harvesters never quit. It all happened when they pulled a type of

Aggie Fish To Play Rice Boys

COLLEGE STATION, Nov 11 (AP)—Instead of ceasing hostilities on Armistice Day, Thursday, Nov. 11, the Texas Aggie Fish grid team will open fire on the Rice Institute Slimes on Rice field in Houston.

Head Freshman Coach H. R. (Hub) McQuillan has a squad of 54 players believed to be the best collection of freshman talent Texas Aggie land has seen in more than a score of years.

Outstanding among "all-state" high school performers are Marlon Pugh, Fort Worth, quarterback; Kyle Holloman, Kerrville, tackle; Henry Hauser, Kerrville, center; Chester Heinmann, Kerrville, end; Odell Herman, Abilene, back; and Marland Jeffery, Fort Arthur, back. Bob Hall, all junior college back of Fort Arthur, is one of the ac Fish ball toters this year.

Bill (Dog) Dawson, of Crockett, all-junior college end, and Aubrey (Junior) Darby, of Iola, all-district end, each stand six feet five inches and weigh 220 pounds. Both "little fellows have given the varsity plenty of trouble in scrimmages.

The Slime game will be the second of the season for the Fish. The downed the Allen Academy Ramblers at Bryan 20-6, using four complete teams, early in October.

Flea Flicker play for a gain of more than 50 yards and had it called back because officials were caught napping. Little Woody Woodridge took the ball from Noblitt, handed it to Enloe, who lateraled to Ayer. Ayer in turn threw a long lateral to Showers. While all the ball handling was in progress, Reynolds had slipped down the field, where he took Showers' long pass. He was tackled on the Amarillo 20. Officials called the play back, saying Showers was too close to the line of scrimmage.

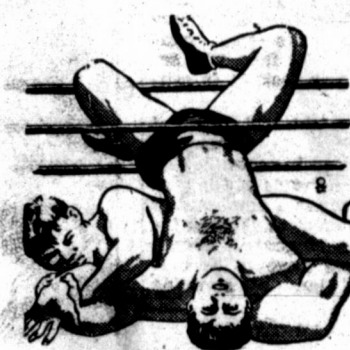

The Pampa touchdown came when Roy Lee Jones, tackle, recovered a fumble in mid-air and raced 45 yards up the sidelines for a touchdown.

Wildhorse Mayes scored Amarillo's three touchdowns—the first on a 25-yard run in the second quarter, the second on a 45-yard jaunt in the third stanza, and the last in the dying minutes in a 6-yard buck.

will average 142 pounds per man to the Sandie 158 pounds.

Coaches Odus Mitchell and J. C. Frejan will send a team on the field minus J. P. Mathews, sparking of the line. The little guard received a knee injury in the Lubbock game and has not worked out since. In his place will be either Welby Paris or Bill Stiles.

The Harvesters starting backfield will be Captain J. W. Graham at quarter, Smith and Heiskell at halves and Karr at full. That quartet will match plays with Amarillo's Thompson at quarterback, Townley and Martin at halves and Linn at full.

Little J. W. Graham, 130-pound quarterback, will captain the Harvesters. Harold King, Amarillo captain, is not listed as a starter because of a bad ankle.

Amarillo's Sandies feature a hard charging line and a backfield that packs power and speed. Thompson and Martin are the demon ball toters. Thompson does most of the passing and much of the kicking, assisted by Martin.

Pampa, because of its diminutive ball carriers, features close plays, sneaks and passes. Graham does the passing, assisted by Heiskell and Karr. Heiskell and Graham divide the punting assignment.

Pampa has been in Class A competition only seven years and has an excellent record. The Pampa school is the third largest in the district, trailing Amarillo and Lubbock.

Pre-Nuptial Party Honors Miss Tidwell

By EFFIEMARIE COFFMAN
GROOM, Nov. 11—Honoring Miss Fauline Tidwell of McLean, who is to marry Walter Woelke, also of McLean, on Thanksgiving day, Mesdames Bert Bural, Roe Davis, and J. S. Tidwell entertained with a pre-nuptial shower at Mrs. Bural's home Tuesday. Thirty-eight guests attended the party.

Miss Tidwell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Tidwell of Grandview.

Following the marriage Thanksgiving, the couple will make their home at Whittensburg, where Mr. Woelke is employed as a civil engineer.

Longfellow wrote "The Hanging of the Crane" in 1867, for his fellow poet, Thomas B. Aldrich.

Heineman Stars For Texas Mines

EL PASO, Nov. 11—Texas Mines' candidate for Little All-America honors, Ken Heineman, sophomore backfield star, did all right by himself in the Border Conference game with Northern Arizona State of Flagstaff here Saturday.

Here is Heineman's record for the day: Completed 12 passes in 21 attempts; completed three passes for touchdowns; returned a kickoff 96 yards for a touchdown; skipped around end for 46 yards and a touchdown; averaged 7 yards everytime he carried the ball; and in addition did most of his club's punting and kicked an extra point from placement. The Miners defeated the Arizona team, 53-13.

In spite of the fine showing of his team against the Lumberjacks, Head Coach Mack Saxon is fretting over the Armistice Day conference tilt with the Arizona Teachers of Tempe in Tempe. The Bulldogs handed the Muckers their only Border league licking last year after being doped to lose by two or three touchdowns.

LABORITE SUSPENDED

LONDON, Nov. 11 (AP)—David Kirkwood, laborite, was suspended yesterday from the House of Commons, by a vote of 178 to 104, after a stormy scene in which he shouted from the floor "I don't give a damn for the lot of you."

Kirkwood was asked to withdraw when he repeatedly interrupted other speakers to insist on an answer to his question about the effect of the cost of living on the unemployed.

DOMINICAN CITIZENS KILLED, SAYS ENVOY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11 (AP)—Haitian Foreign Minister Georges Leger today said slayings of Haitian citizens in Dominican territory "constituted wholesale massacre."

He said he had received reports, although not authenticated, that atrocities had been perpetrated in the Dominican Republic against Haitian citizens.

Such reports, he said, included allegations Haitians had been drowned in the Dominican Republic, and others burned alive after gasoline had been poured on them.

Leger said today that between 2,500 and 5,000 Haitians, including women and children, had been killed, or wounded, since October 5 in Dominican territory.

These casualties, Leger said, are the consequence of attacks of Haitians "well within the Dominican territory" by Dominican police and civilians.

This assertion contradicted one made last night by Dominican Minister Andres Pastoriza, who said stories of "collective slayings" in Dominican territory were "wholly absurd" and the border incident of last month had been exaggerated.

Two Blockers Assigned to Take Out Star Guard

water a consistent star at guard for the Texas Aggies, really came into his own but in a back-handed way, the past Saturday against the Southern Methodist Mustangs.

Offensive teams usually send only one man through to block out a defensive line backer. But Jones, who helps line back for the Aggies, found the Mustangs paying tribute to his prowess by sending two blockers against him.

75 MEN AND STUDENTS TO DIRECT FANS

A force of 75 men and students will be required to handle traffic, act as ushers and guards at the Pampa-Amarillo football game to be played Thursday afternoon at Harvester Park.

Personnel of the officials to perform these duties will be drawn from Pampa high school students, Pampa police, Gray county sheriff's departments, Texas highway patrol and the American Legion.

Gates Open Early
Gates at Harvester Park will open at 12:30 p. m. The game will start at 2:30 o'clock.

Two sets of parking guides will direct motorists how and where to park. One of these groups will be led by E. C. Pennington, high school teacher, and will consist of a score of Pampa high school students.

Spectators have been advised that they will save time by parking where the guide indicates. Respect for guides and all other officials by fans following the instructions given is admonished by school heads.

No Rail-Birds
Only players, coaches and officials directly connected with the game will be allowed on the grid-iron. No spectator will be allowed to stand against the fence separating the field from the stands, thereby shutting off a view of the game from other spectators.

Gene Shackleton will head a group of guards to see that no one "crashes" the game by crawling over a fence.

Twenty Pampa Legionnaires will act as ushers.

Held Own Ticket
Pampa police and four county peace officers will help maintain order and direct traffic. They will be assisted by 12 members of the Texas highway patrol who will be in Pampa Thursday Sheriff Earl Talley said.

The custom of one person tagging the end of a line of a half-dozen persons carrying tickets for the entire group will not be allowed. Each fan is to carry his own ticket, thereby ending the confusion for which the old practice was responsible.

Courtesy Cars
The Pampa chambers of commerce, through the good will committees of both the senior and the junior organizations, will secure courtesy cars for Pampa's visitors.

D. L. Parker is chairman of the Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce good will committee, while Frank Culbertson heads a similar committee of the senior group.

Those who volunteer their cars and their services should call at the Board of City Development office and obtain courtesy car stickers, Garnet Reeves, BCD manager said.

Some of the cars will be sent to the Schneider hotel, while others will take passengers on the 100 block on West Browning, behind the line of the 16 buses of the Pampa Independent school district which will be available for all who desire transportation to and from the game.

Courtesy cars will begin their

RANGE POLICY ANNOUNCED BY AAA FOR 1938

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11 (AP)—The Agricultural Adjustment Administration announced today a 1938 range conservation program with benefit payments to participating ranchers in 17 states for observing range improving or conserving practices.

The total amount of payments will depend on the amount of range building allowance for each ranch. State committees will determine practices applicable to each state.

Except for some changes which AAA officials said should result in a more equitable distribution of payment, the program follows generally the provisions in effect this year.

It will be effective in Arizona, California, Colorado, Idaho, Kansas, Montana, Nebraska, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Dakota, Texas, Utah, Washington and Wyoming.

The AAA said better distribution of payments will be effected through use of a combined allotment for acreage and carrying capacity of a ranch. Overgrazing restrictions, which formerly covered withholding land from grazing, were extended to cover the entire program.

Payments will be withheld whenever overgrazing is permitted. Payments for deferred grazing will be 60 per cent of the range building allowance, a substantial increase in most areas, but additional requirements will be specified.

The AAA said a change in the method of computing the range building allowance will be a "distinction improvement" over former programs.

This type of dressmaking is achieved through weeks of tedious work whereby golden citrus rinds are transformed into "brocades," white hearts of turnips are cut into intricate designs to form embroidered effects.

On Capital Hill

By HARRELL E. LEE

AUSTIN, Nov. 11—(AP)—Many persons believe the 45th legislature will have one more called session, mainly because of the need for more money for old age pensions. They say the lawmakers will be on the defensive in their renomination campaigns next summer unless additional pension money is provided. A few think the session, if one is called, will be between now and Christmas, but most are of the opinion it will come in January.

As the weeks pass, Governor Allred likely will be subjected to steady pressure for additional pension funds. Pension authorities say grants may have to be trimmed around 15 per cent to bring expenses within revenues. Last month they averaged only $13.72, whereas the constitution permits a maximum of $30, and numerous legislators think the average should be $16 to $18.

In addition to the cut necessary to make current accounts balance, the pension organization some day must repay to a Dallas bank a $1,628,000 loan plus interest at the rate of 1.8 per cent.

It was ironical that some representatives who favor liberalizing the pension law were at least partly to blame for the session ending without additional money for pensions.

Liberalizers didn't have a chance to get anything like the new revenues for which they sought but the compromise bill rejected the session's final night would have relieved the situation somewhat. It would have repaid the loan, given the pension fund $300,000 a year from the state's general fund and allotted it a higher levy on marble tables and coin-operated music machines.

The fact the bill gave the pension fund little money except the bigger tax on illegal marble machines was one of the points used against it by lawgivers favoring a liberal policy. They said it was time some "decent money" was used to pay the old folks. Nearly all of the fund's revenue comes from levies on whiskey and beer, cigarettes and marble machines.

Representatives of taxed businesses strongly oppose allotment to the pension fund of any part of the levies on them because they fear it would lead to continual pressure for increases.

The numerous football fans in the legislature usually try to go to the same game which gives promise of being the best.

When the University of Texas played Rice here the day Baylor tangled with the Texas Aggies, several legislators went to College Station because it was a meeting of two aggregations unbeaten to that time.

Many of the lawgivers are University of Texas graduates but few went to the Texas-S. M. U. game at Dallas. Instead they journeyed to Waco for the important clash between Baylor and T. C. U.

Representative "Red" Harris of Dallas, who used to be a stellar wingman at Baylor, was in his customary position at the Baylor end of the yardage measuring chain, and Representative Jack Langdon of Glen Rose, who guarded a flank for T. C. U. several years ago, was a member of a large legislative party in the stands.

BAPTISTS URGE OWN SCHOOLS FOR CHILDREN

EL PASO, Nov. 11 (AP)—Increased enrollments of debts and progress in all directions were reported to the Baptist general convention of Texas today by Texas Baptist schools.

President J. D. Sandefer of Hardin-Simmons university at Abilene told convention messengers they should take a renewed interest in the special inducement offered their children in church-controlled institutions. He reported a substantial increase in enrollment.

"More of our people should see their sons and daughters fighting life more easily through the benefits of training in Baptist schools where work offered is on the same scholastic level with other institutions, and where at the same time there is an enrichment of those Christian elements that must be a part of every life if it is to bear its highest fruition," he said.

Howard Payne college at Brownwood has increased salaries of its teachers by 25 per cent, President Thomas H. Taylor reported.

"Howard Payne has moved forward in the improvement of its physical plant," he said. "Additions have been made to the library, to the museum and to the main building. A home economics laboratory building and a demonstration cottage have been built."

Mary Hardin-Baylor college at Belton has inaugurated a vocational placement service to augment its teacher placement department, President Gordon Singleton told the messengers.

"For years Mary Hardin-Baylor college has maintained a teacher placement service in the department of education," he reported. "This service has been greatly extended to include placement of other students not only in teaching but in all types of positions occupied by women. Particularly is this service needed in the fields of secretarial science and journalism."

He listed greatest needs of the college as increased endowment, a library building and a physical education building. The board of trustees invited delegates to attend Dr. Singleton's formal inauguration November 24. He was named last year to succeed Dr. J. C. Hardy who retired to become president emeritus.

MEDWICK WINS PLAYER AWARD

By DREW MIDDLETON
NEW YORK, Nov. 11 (AP)—Joe Medwick, the payoff guy of the St. Louis Cardinals gashouse gang, has the National League's most valuable player award for 1937 to add to his record string of batting "firsts."

"Muscles" did all he could to earn the prize. He won the batting championship, led in hits, runs batted in and doubles and tied with the Gian's Mel Ott for the home run title. Even so he barely nosed out Gabby Hartnett, the spirited Chicago catcher, who drew 68 votes to Joe's 70.

Eight members of the Baseball Writers' association made the selection. They gave Gabby more first-place nominations than Medwick, but Muscles more than made up that deficit with votes for second and third place to grab the award and the sporting news trophy.

During the past season, Medwick compiled a batting average of .374; he hit safely 237 times, batted in 154 runs and hit 57 doubles and 31 home runs.

Carl Hubbell, the shrewd, smooth left-hander of the New York Giants, who won the award last year, was third choice with 52 points. Two newcomers to the headlines, the Boston Bee's venerable rookie pitchers, Jim Turner and Lou Fette, wound up third and fourth. They edged out such well known players as Dick Bartell and Mel Ott of the Giants and Paul Waner of Pittsburgh.

HERE'S HIGHEST-PAID PRIVATE IN ANY ARMY

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 11 (AP)—Yelde Couvillion, once a lieutenant, more recently a warrant officer, possibly was the highest paid buck private in any army for a while.

Fifteen days service in the lowest rank meant $221.13 a day for him prior to his retirement Oct. 30.

It's like this: Back in the "old Army" enlisted men serving on foreign soil got double credit for time abroad. In other words, a year in the Philippines meant two years on the service record.

Couvillion had two years of such duty to his credit Oct. 14, but because he was a warrant officer he could not be credited with them toward retirement.

To get around the technicality he resigned at Fort Sam Houston Oct. 14 and re-enlisted the next day as a private. Thus his double time became effective and gave him 30 years of service, effective Oct. 30. Serving 15 days as a private brought him $13 cash but it also meant two years of retirement pay as a warrant officer or some $3,330 for which he did not have to turn a hand. So the net profit on the 15 days was $3,317, or $221.13 a day.

ARMY AND NOTRE DAME WILL PLAY IN SATURDAY FEATURE

By BILL BONI

NEW YORK, Nov. 11 (AP)—Sectional and intersectional football battles that may have far-reaching effects on conference standings, Rose Bowl bids and hopes for unbeaten seasons dot the nation's gridiron menu Saturday.

The largest crowd of all, some 80,000, will stream into a neutral park to see a game between two teams that can have little to do with settling any sort of supremacy except each other's.

That game is the 1937 renewal of the Army-Notre Dame rivalry at Yankee stadium. Opened at West Point in 1913 when Gus Dorais and Knute Rockne gave the future generals a 35-13 forward passing lesson, the series has been a thriller ever since.

The Irish come up to the current episode badly bruised and beaten by Pittsburgh and Carnegie Tech. Army has lost to Yale and been unimpressive on other Saturdays. Yet scalpers are getting as much as $17.50 for $4.40 seats between the 40-yard lines, and 80,000 more customers probably would put cash on the line if there were any seats to be had.

That crowd, third successive capacity house for Notre Dame, will top any other collection of Saturday's frozen children by some 10,000. Next in line is the Pittsburgh-Nebraska engagement, for which 70,000 will be on hand to see the Panthers continue their "back to the Rose Bowl" campaign.

It will be near capacity—62,000—at Minneapolis, where Minnesota is preparing all sort of revenge on Northwestern, its lone 1936 conqueror.

S. R. O. At Houston

Duke authorities report a sure-fire full house of 35,000 for the Southern Conference duel between the Blue Devils and North Carolina. Georgia Tech's invasion of Birmingham to meet all-winning Alabama will be witnessed by 26,000 for the intrastate clash with Vanderbilt, and almost 40,000 are expected in Louisiana State's 42,000-capacity stands for the game with Auburn.

Rice, latest Southwest Conference title threat, and Texas A. and M. will play to "standing room only" and 20,000 fans at Houston. At Dallas and Austin there will be bumper if not capacity crops of 18,000 customers for the Southern Methodist-Baylor and Texas Christian-Texas conflicts.

Portland's largest crowd of the season, 25,000, is anticipated for the Oregon-California game, principal Pacific coast attraction.

OLDEST COAST GUARD CUTTER TO BE RETIRED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11 (AP)—The coast guard announced today it would retire on Monday its oldest cutter, the Apache—46-year-old veteran of two wars.

Originally named the Galveston and put in operation on the Gulf coast in 1892, it participated in the

TEXAN ONE OF 3 'PERFECT' POLO PLAYERS

NEW YORK, Nov. 11 (AP)—Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., Stewart Iglehart and Cecil Smith, the robust ex-cowboy from Llano, Texas, share the distinction of being the world's three "perfect" polo players, each handicapped at the ultimate 10 goals, in the new listings announced today by the United States Polo association.

For Hitchcock it means the retention of an honor the "old master" of Long Island's playing fields has held in 16 of 17 consecutive years. For Smith it is a return to glory, as he reached the pinnacle once before, in 1934. Iglehart, teammate of Smith on the all-conquering old Westbury team, retains the peak rating given him a year ago.

The revised list boosted the total handicap of Old Westbury to 34 and graphically explained that team's brilliant victories in the open championship and the Monty Waterbury cup tournament. Michael Phipps, who rode at No. 1 for the champions, has been hiked from 8 to 9 goals. C. V. (Sonny) Whitney, the team's back and captain, rose from 4 to 5 goals.

Greentree, which met Old Westbury in the final of both big events, dropped a goal from its aggregate handicap when J. H. (Jock) Whitney was reduced from 6 to 5. Hitchcock at 10, Gerald Balding at 8 and Pete Bostwick, 7, remained put.

In all, there were 152 handicap changes in the big shuffle, which goes into effect November 15. The boosting of Phipps from 8 to 9 and the reduction of Eric Pedley from 9 to 8, at the request of the California committee, left Phipps the only American one notch from the top, though Captain C. T. I. Roark of England also is listed at 9.

The four 8-goalers are Gerald Balding, Pedley, William Post, 2nd, and E. H. Tyrrell-Martin. At 7 are Ivor Balding, Elmer J. Boeseke Jr., Pete Bostwick, E. T. Gerry, Raymond Guest, Winston Guest, Cyril Harrison, E. A. S. Hopping, J. P. Mills and Aidan Roark. Ivor Balding and Harrison were raised from 6 to 7 and Winston Guest lowered from 8.

This was the first year the committee employed its new system of rating, in which each of the country's six circuits offers recommendations for its own players. The California section requested, and received, reductions for three of its stars, Pedley, Boeseke and Aidan Roark.

Sports Roundup

By EDDIE BREITZ

NEW YORK, Nov. 11 (AP)—The fine-looking youngster playing center for Dartmouth's undefeated Indians is the son of Billy Gibson, the old fight manager, who piloted both Benny Leonard and Gene Tunney to world championships.

Like Max Schmeling, Tunney was a good business man and often preferred to sign his own contracts. More than once he left a boiling Gibson sitting in the anteroom while Gene closed for important fights. But when he came into the big dough, Tunney didn't forget. If you believe the stories told in the Broadway spots, Gene did so well by Gibson that all Billy has to do these days is doze in the sun at the polo grounds in the summer and drop into Leonard's joint for a spot or two of ale in the winter.

A good yarn is going the rounds about the source of Minnesota's football players. Each spring, just about plowing time, Bernie Bierman hits the grit for the hinterland. Every field that has a young man working in it is a Bierman stop. He asks the youth the way to the next town. If the kid points a finger, Bierman drives on. But if the youngster just picks up his plow and points to the town, he shows up at Minneapolis the next fall.

Those wild and wooly Texas sports writers not only pick winners, but try to guess the scores as well. Col. Dick Freeman of the Houston Chronicle has missed three of Rice's major games by only five points. He guessed: L. S. U. 14, Rice 0; Rice 13, Texas 7; Rice 10, Auburn 7. Scores were: 13-0 for L. S. U.; 14-7 for Rice, and 13-7 for Rice. Move up to the head of the class Mister. This week's Rose Bowl guesses are Pitt and California (with Fordham in the eastern ante room). Up to now we've stuck to Alabama in the east, but it lost a lot of ground Saturday and hasn't played anything near the schedule of either Pitt or Fordham.

How Buddy Poppy Funds Are Spent

Pursuant to the rules and regulations governing the annual sale of Buddy Poppies as conducted by the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, the disbursement of all proceeds gained by individual local units, state departments and the national organization must be confined to the following channels:

For the aid, benefit and comfort of ex-service men and their dependents.

For maintenance and expansion of the V. F. W. national home for widows and orphans.

Hospital relief, individual relief for ex-service men their widows and orphans and hospital entertainment.

Special equipment for hospital patients, or for the use of hospitals.

Service bureau work, including Veteran's Bureau liaison.

Military funerals for deceased ex-service men.

Acquisition, improvement and maintenance of burial plots, and decoration of graves of ex-service men.

It would take 213 states the size of Rhode Island to make one state as large as Texas.

That Fellow Goldberg Loose Again

Marshall Goldberg, Pittsburgh's versatile young back, couldn't be stopped in the Panther's last quarter surge against Notre Dame's valiant defense in the stadium at South Bend, Ind., and accounted for 110 yards of his team's 235 yards gained by rushing. Above he's off on a long end run, with Patrick running interference and Brown's tackle missing fire. Pittsburgh won, 21-6.

PATROLMEN TO TEST DRIVERS HERE NOV. 18

To conduct tests for drivers applying for their first license, two examiners of the Department of Public Safety will be in Pampa on Thursday of next week.

Examinations will be given from 2:30 to 5:30 p. m. Nov. 18, and at the same hours on the following Thursdays of each week.

Test headquarters will be established at the office of F. E. Leech, Gray county tax assessor-collector, at the court house.

The two examiners will be J. L. Fingenot, Jr. and Norvell Redwine, Texas highway patrolmen, whose station is at Shamrock.

These officers were in Pampa Monday, making arrangements to establish test headquarters, and at that time the designated route over which applicants would drive cars had not been selected.

In applying for the driving tests the applicant must furnish his own vehicle or one he proposes to operate after he secures a license. Col. H. H. Carmichael, director of the public safety department, has pointed out:

After oral quizzes are completed each applicant will be required to drive his car or truck over a designated route under the supervision of one of the trained examiners. During the drive the operator must demonstrate the use of his foot and hand brakes, stop for signals and perform other acts necessitated in ordinary traffic situations. Before the actual driving test is made the examiners will quiz the license applicants on safety regulations and signals, highway laws and make tests of their eyesight and hearing. Any physical deformities will be recorded on a grade card.

Test of Vehicle.

Not only will drivers licenses applicants be examined as to their ability to handle a vehicle with safety, but the vehicle itself will be tested for defects in brakes, horn, lights, rear-view mirror, and windshield wiper.

If a driver proves his ability to operate his vehicle with care and safety he will immediately receive his license at the examination headquarters. If a passing grade is not made after the test is completed, an instruction permit card will be issued which requires the applicant to return at a later date for another examination. Examiners of the Safety Department estimate that a complete test can be given in 12 minutes.

Three Classes.

Truck, bus, and other commercial vehicle drivers will be issued licenses divided into three classes.

Freshmen at Rice Institute

STOKES GREEN.

MOOSE HARTMAN.

First string linemen on the Rice Institute freshman football team are Stokes Green and Moose Hartman, Harvesters of 1934-35. They have been starting tackles in all games played by the Rice team this season and are being talked as mighty Owl prospects for next year. Last year they were all-conference linemen for Schreiner Institute at Kerrville.

A. B. and C. according to the type of vehicle to be operated. Passenger and school bus drivers are issued a permit bearing a special endorsement of the department.

Col. Carmichael urged that drivers seeking their licenses verse themselves in safety regulation, rules of the highway and the mechanical operations of their vehicles in preparations for the tests.

NO CHILD KILLED IN KANSAS CITY IN 1937

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 11 (AP)—Cities from coast to coast are showering Kansas City with inquiries as to how its more than 400,000 residents made such an amazing record—a year without one child being killed in a traffic accident.

Some questioners even refused to believe it.

The office of the public safety director in Philadelphia telegraphed: "Report circulated in Philadelphia stating Kansas City had no child fatalities in 1937. Please wire at once if correct and state methods used."

What's the answer? Permeation of safety methods and safety psychology into every nook and cranny of a child's life. The mail man brings him safety advice from the office of the Kansas City safety council. His school teacher gives him lessons in safety, the text matter provided by the safety council.

Twenty-nine years ago, the first Pampa football team played Miami on a field located where the Gray County court house now stands—and lost.

Pampa had only twelve boys in uniform. After a hard battle, the score was 20 to 13 for Miami.

Ivy Duncan, now a prominent ex-student, then was captain of the team. Ernest McCarty called signals for Pampa from an end position. Frank George was on the other end. Bob Elkins was the Miami captain.

The Pampa team was composed of Ivy Duncan, Ernest "Runt" Fletcher, Bunk Lard, Elbert Talbot, Joe Collins, DeLea Vicars, Lloyd Bennett, Ernest McCarty, Harlan Case, Howard Broadway, C. C. Sloan, and Ross Deydier.

CARBONS PROFITS REPORTED

NEW YORK, Nov. 10 (AP)—United Carbon Company and subsidiaries, with plants in Louisiana, Montana, Utah and Texas, for the September quarter reported net profit of $551,740 before the federal undistributed profits surtax, equal to $1.39 a common share, against $643,000 or $1.62 a share in the preceding quarter and $487,358 or $1.22 a share in the like 1936 quarter.

Rice Will Play Aggies Saturday

COLLEGE STATION, Nov. 11—Two-thirds through both their Southwest Conference and full-season schedules, Coach Homer Norton's Texas Aggies will essay the "giant killing" act against the conference-leading Rice Owls Saturday afternoon, Nov. 13, at Houston.

At full strength, with no casualties emerging from the past Saturday's 14-0 victory over Southern Methodist, the Cadets have turned to this week to revamp their attack along lines based on Freshman Coach Hub McQuillan's scout dope on the Owls.

The Aggies' Dick Todd, Owens

Rogers and Bill Audish, and the Owls' Ernie Lain, Olie Cordill and "Scat" Sullivan are expected to combine in what may be the greatest display of running power the conference has offered to date this year.

The Owls also offer an effective passing attack both at long and short ranges. The Aggies set something of a modern dry-field Southwest Conference record by tossing only seven passes against the Mustangs, but they pack passing ability in reserve and probably will bring their offensive play to a more even balance for the Owl game.

Near Vudon, France, is a sacred bit of ground protected by a monument. At this place a detachment of French soldiers was buried alive by a German shell and, to this day, their bayonets and rifle barrels may be seen protruding from the ground.

SANDIES TOP LEAGUE WITH SIX VICTORIES

The Amarillo Golden Sandstorm tops the ladder in District 1 with six victories and one loss. Perched in second place, the Pampa Harvesters can be seen with six wins against two losses. All that is in the season play to date.

The conference story shows Pampa, Amarillo and Borger and Borger, Amarillo and Borger all tied with one victory. That standing will be changed after Thursday when Amarillo invades Pampa and Plainview goes to Borger.

HOLLYWOOD ROMANCES—JEANETTE MACDONALD and GENE RAYMOND

5,000 HEAR MRS. FOR ANSWER MANY QUERIES

ROCKFORD, Nov. 11 (AP)—Rockford residents knew today how Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt fixes scrambled eggs, her opinion on the probability of a woman being elected President of the United States, and her views on many other unrelated subjects.

Such were the questions they asked her last night after she described "a typical day in the White House" in an address to a crowd that filled nearly all of the Army's 5,500 seats.

Here are some of the questions put to her and the answers:

- 1. What is your favorite recipe, and how do you fix it?
A. Scrambled eggs. Put a little butter into the skillet, break the eggs into it and add a little cream. Keep them stirred up until ready to serve.
- Q. What do you think about a woman for President?
A. I don't believe a woman could be President for some time to come as women have not yet had enough experience in public office to command the following and confidence of the country as a whole.
- Q. Do Democratic Presidents use the same dishes in the White House as Republican Presidents?

A. Yes, they use the same dishes as long as the dishes last.
Q. Do you and the President use an alarm clock?
A. The President doesn't, but I frequently do.
Q. How do you like George Cohar's new play (A Takeoff on the New Deal)?
A. I haven't seen it yet. I hope to, but I heard the opening night tickets were $100. I won't go until they come down to box office prices.
Q. Do you think the United States will go to war within two years?
A. How can I tell? I pray the United States never will go to war. But who can tell?

Dog Inflicts Gash Over Actress' Eye

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 11 (AP)—Ann Sheridan, film actress, visiting at the home of friends, stepped on a police dog's tail. The dog snapped at her, inflicting a deep gash over her eye. Despite five stitches, Dr. Charles M. Taylor, said today she will not be permanently disfigured.

POLICE SEIZE 3,000 MORE BRONX BALLOTS

NEW YORK, Nov. 11 (AP)—This city's first proportional representation election tally was fast developing into a major vote fraud scandal as police today impounded 3,000 more ballots in the Bronx.

The ballots seized brought the total of impounded ballots in the Bronx to 7,500, or approximately 50 per cent of the estimated vote cast there.

The seized ballots allegedly were impounded by the 100-day special canvassers, many of whom have been the target of general charges of dilatoriness and obstructionist tactics to give "P. R." a bad name.

Today's ballot seizure was ordered by special Assistant Attorney General Matthew M. Levy and Acting District Attorney Sylvester van of the Bronx. The ballots will be submitted to the Bronx grand jury.

COMING PIGEON STILL USED IN U. S. ARMY

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 11 (AP)—The Army, conducting experiments with "streamlined" infantry division units, found one piece of equipment that wouldn't yield to the new treatment—nature had beaten them at it.

The homing pigeon, participant in wars for thousands of years, was on the job and fleet enough to fit in with modernized combat methods.

Col. J. A. Atkins of Jefferson Barracks, Mo., commander of a provisional regiment of a test division is one of the Army's major boosters of pigeon communication and the birds did not let him down.

BRIGHT PROSPECTS FOR OIL INDUSTRY SEEN

CHICAGO, Nov. 11 (AP)—Delegates to the American Petroleum Institute's eighteenth annual meeting today filled hotel lobbies with a buzz of conversation about what they called bright prospects for the nation's oil industry in 1938.

Experts' announcements of an anticipated increase of 1,250,000 in automobile registrations in 1938 and the fact 30 per cent more petroleum was used in 1937 than in peak prosperity years appeared substantially responsible for a note of cheer.

The nearly 3,000 delegates today awaited the first general session at which President Astell J. Eyles of New York was to give his annual address on the state of the industry.

The Institute announced award of its all-department certificate for progress in accident prevention to the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) of Chicago, which had only 96 days lost per 1,000 hours worked.

Departmental accident prevention certificate awards included: Production—Panhandle Refining Co.; any, Wichita Falls, Texas.

SMALL HARVESTER SQUAD HAS 32 NAMES LISTED THIS YEAR

The 1937 Harvester roster has only 32 names listed, a comparatively small squad for a Class A school. Not a single member of the squad had two letters to his credit at the opening of the season and only eleven wore a single stripe. Of that number, only three could be classed as "starters" last season.

The roster follows:

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS MAKE CLEAR CLASSES OF MOTORISTS WHO NEED CHAUFFER'S LICENSES

In connection with the examinations to be conducted in Pampa in accordance with the amended Texas drivers license law, the Department of Public Safety has issued a question and answer list to make clearer the definition of the classes of persons required to possess chauffeur's licenses.

Chauffeur's licenses are required among other classes, from the following:

Ambulance drivers, drivers of hearses, and similar employes of funeral homes; employes of auto dealers who drive customers cars to and from the customers place of business, as a part of the courtesy service maintained by the dealers, even though this service requires but a part of the employe's time.

A mechanic or other employe who occasionally performs the service listed above; operators of dealer's pickups, wreckers, and service cars.

Oil Company Distributors

In the case of gasoline and oil company distributors, a man who drives his own car in the distribution of gas and oil products is required to have a chauffeur's license.

So, too, are boys who drive oil trucks for wholesale oil dealers.

Operators of trucks belonging to filling stations which are used to haul gasoline and oil from nearby oil fields are required to possess chauffeur's licenses.

Also required to possess these licenses are harvest hands, employes of owners of trucks engaged in driving grain trucks and pickups hauling wheat from the home of their employer to elevators in town.

Grocerymen who live in the country and come to the city to buy groceries from wholesalers for resale in their own stores, but do not deliver the groceries, driving cars which carry a commercial license, are required to pay chauffeur's licenses.

Oil Production

Other classes coming under the requirements for chauffeur's licenses are:

Employes of oil companies who drive cars equipped with tool racks or drivers of light delivery trucks.

Roustabout foremen or workers in gangs for oil companies who drive small trucks primarily to transport gangs and their tools.

School Buses

All drivers of school buses are required to possess chauffeur's licenses, irrespective of the ownership of the bus.

Private Owners

Owners of trucks should purchase chauffeur's licenses if they themselves drive the trucks in question.

A person who buys a trucks and buys produce out-right and re-sells from the truck is required to possess a chauffeur's license.

A person driving his own truck hauling milk or farm produce is not required to possess a chauffeur's license, provided he is a bona fide farmer and his vehicle carries a farm license. If such person drives a truck from which sale of milk and produce is made, or from which regular deliveries are made, he is required to possess a chauffeur's license.

The owner of a pickup used in connection with farm interests in hauling livestock, feed and building material to and from the owner's farms, and also used at different times in connection with his retail lumber business, would be required to possess a chauffeur's license, and his employe would also be required to possess a chauffeur's license.

Exempt Classes

Chauffeur's licenses are not required in these cases: city police, firemen, and members of a city motorcycle squad, "hop" boys who wait on trade as cars drive up to a cleaning and pressing establishment, but who make only occasional deliveries of garments.

Shop foremen of an electric company and other members of the office force who drive company trucks to their homes at night and back to the shop in the morning, no materials being carried in the trucks and not commercially used on these trips.

Operators of a truck used exclusively for the handling and delivery of U. S. mail, boys who use family cars to deliver newspapers.

Utility company employes who work ordinarily in the office but use passenger cars owned by the company.

Oklahoma Will Play Missouri

NORMAN, Nov. 11.—Still a second division club in the "Big Six" conference football race although they have played four conference games and been defeated by only one, the Oklahoma football team will move determinedly upon Missouri this week end for its final conference game of the 1937 season.

Fact the Sooners don't have much to show in conference standings for what has been a really fine season for a club that started out so green and inexperienced should whet the Oklahoma team's appetite for points against Don Faurot's Tigers although Missouri has been notoriously tough on the defense at Columbia and will be playing before its Homecoming Day crowd.

Coach Tom Stidham's Sooners have beaten two "Big Six" teams decisively, trimming Kansas State 19 to 0 at Manhattan before the Purple Homecoming crowd and smashing Iowa State 33 to 7 here Saturday. Oklahoma also tied Nebraska 0-0 in the mud although possessing the ball in Cornhusker territory 13 times while holding Nebraska outside the Oklahoma 40-yard line the entire game.

The lone loss has been to the Kansas Jayhawks, the prize opportunity of the "Big Six" this year. Although the Sooners caught the Jays the week after the Nebraska game and couldn't use backs Jack Baer and Woody Huddleston because of injuries, they still made more than twice as much yardage than Kansas and drove to the Kansas one and six-yard lines in possession of the ball, only to lose, 3 to 6, on a deflected forward pass in the last five seconds of the game.

MANY FANS TO ATTEND GAME AT SHAMROCK

SHAMROCK, Nov. 11.—By constructing temporary seats inside the fence at Denver Field the high school athletic council was able to place 200 more reserved seats on sale for the big Armistice Day classic between the Wellington Skyrockets and the Shamrock Irishmen at 7:45 o'clock tonight. The seats are located north and south of the stands on both sides of the field and are just inside the fence.

People who are unable to secure reserved seat tickets but intend to attend the contest are urged to buy general admission tickets, which sell for 25c and 50c, before game time to avoid a rush at the gate. These tickets are on sale at the Corner, Killarney and Tindall Drug stores.

Both teams are in excellent condition for the contest since they were both idle last week and if the weather stays fair fans in this section are promised one of the most exciting grid contests of the current season.

This grid classic will cap off two days of high class football for Shamrock fans, since a large number of Shamrock people will attend the Pampa-Amarillo game in Pampa Thursday afternoon and then the struggle between the Irish and the Skyrockets here at 7:45 p. m.

In addition to a really high class football game fans will be treated to all the color and extravaganza of big time pigskin contests with four bands and two cheering sections entering into the picture to give the fans every thrill possible.

51 Games Won, 25 Lost By Pampan In 7 Years

Pampa high school football teams since entering Class A competition in 1930, have played 77 games, including the game with Clovis last Friday. Wearers of the green and gold have won 51 of those games, lost 25 and tied one.

During the seven years of competition the Harvesters have registered 1,765 points to their opponents' 522.

In 1933 Pampa won the district and bi-district, but lost to San Angelo in the quarter-finals.

HARVESTERS GOT NAME BACK IN 1920 WHEN MIAMI EASILY BEAT LOCAL FOOTBALL TEAM

Choice of "Harvesters" as the name of Pampan high school's athletic representatives and of green and gold as the school's colors was made in 1920, when Pampa had its first football team.

Choice of the name was caused by the fact that with the exception of cattle raising the surrounding territory was devoted almost entirely to wheat raising.

To begin with, the Harvesters were handicapped by lack of proper equipment. As time passed, their records improved.

The first Harvesters, according to Ray Wilson, an ex-student, went to Miami and "stayed on the field while Miami played football, defeating the Harvesters about 100 to 0." In 1920 the team won two games out of the seven played. The following year five or six games were won out of the eight played. In 1922 the Harvesters won all except three games. It was in 1922 that the team tied twice with Amarillo. The score of the first game was 9 to 9. The second game ended with a 3 to 3 score. In a third game Amarillo defeated the Pampa team 20 to 6.

When Mr. Wilson entered high school here in 1919, the red building was the only school building and the faculty consisted of the superintendent, the principal, and two or three other teachers he said. The central building was built soon afterward, and the east and west wings have been added since 1926. The ward schools, of course, have also been added since that time.

Mr. Wilson recalled that students in his time had their moments in which they ranked with students anywhere in the matter of pranks.

While W. R. Silvey was head of the school in the red building days some boys in a second-floor class of which Mr. Wilson was a member decided to have some April Fool fun at the expense of a new teacher, Charles Dean, who had become a favorite with the boys.

They installed pulleys, a funnel, a bucket of water, and other equipment above the ceiling so that by jerking a concealed rope the bucket would be overturned so as to allow the water to run through some nail holes just above the teacher's desk.

The first trial of the contrivance failed because the student appointed to pull the rope jerked too hard and pulled the apparatus apart. After some furtive repairs, the arrangement was successful on the next trial and water rained down upon the astonished teacher during a class.

After getting his desk to safety, the teacher instituted an inquiry but, as sometimes is the case even yet, the culprits were not found out.
