Sooner Co-Ed Freed Under Bond In Shooting Of Chinese Student

HAMILTON SUBDUES POSSE OF 15

Twinkles

Maybe if Europe had more Huey Longs to fight they wouldn't worry so much about armies and navies.

Ordinarily at this time of the year, we worry about Old Man River in behalf of the folks down in the deep south. But now we worry over how to coax the Old Man over this way by air route.

Old Maids have organized in Shamrock. Let's see isn't a leap year coming up soon?

Strange doings, but Mr. Allred seems to be demonstrating that our prison is a good place to avoid these days.

The West Foster grouch says spending is all right and even desirable, but that money in the bank makes one of the best shelters he knows about when that inevitable emergency arrives.

Musing of the moment: Governor Allred is getting a surprising—to some folks—response to his clean-up campaign. Fans of his bands of persons who believe in clean towns and observance of law are writing and telegraphing their support. The governor may be losing some friends—of a sort—through the Ranger raids, but therein is the support which made him governor, that of the plain folks who make up the bulk of the citizenship of Texas. Astute, he is called rightly.

VICTIM WOULD 'FORGIVE AND FORGET' DEED

ASSAULT WITH INTENT TO KILL CHARGE IS FILED

TAHEQUAH, Okla., March 29 (AP)—Lois Thompson, 19-year-old Northern State Teachers college co-ed, was freed under $2,500 bond today after she pleaded not guilty when arraigned on a charge of assault with intent to kill Daniel Shaw, Chinese student at the college.

The girl was arraigned shortly after the charges were filed by county Attorney Sanford Martin.

She betrayed no emotion as she answered "not guilty" to the charge, filed before Peace Justice J. M. Boling.

The bond was skinned by four prominent Tahlequah citizens.

Eshaw, who gave up the name of "George Hing Siew" when he left his missionary work in the "old country" to come to America and study the ways of the American Indian, said he was willing to forgive 19-year-old Lois Thompson and "forget all about it."

He made the forgiveness statement in a hospital here to a fellow countryman, Albert Eng of Muskogee, who sought to have Chinese consular officials take a hand in the affair.

Physician said Shaw would recover unless complications result from the wounds.

Federal, state and county officials, joined in an inquiry to find the authors of notes to the girl demanding $100 to $3,000.

Eng said Shaw spoke "favorably" of the girl, whom he hardly knew. He said he believed she connected.

SHERIFF SURE HE WAS SHOT BY HAMILTON

Bandit Had 7 Pistols Stuck In Belt, and Wise-cracked Officers For Bad Luck.

By ENNIS, CRAWFORD (Covington County Sheriff, as told to the Hattiesburg American).

HATTIESBURG, Miss., March 29 (AP)—Raymond Hamilton, the Texas bandit, shot me in the back of the head yesterday when two deputies and I surprised him at a negro cabin about ten miles north of Prentiss.

I am positive the man was Hamilton and the reason that I did not attempt to shoot him is because at that time it would have been suicide for me to have raised my hand toward an automatic shotgun lying in the back of my car.

Joe Duckworth and Marshall Magee, two Covington county deputies and I drove into Jeff Davis county to help hunt for the bandits.

We reached a short cut-off road nine or ten miles from Prentiss and found that both ends of the road were blocked by possemen.

I agreed to drive down into the "interior" and see if the robbers were hidden there.

Outlaws Appear

After going about half a mile we arrived at the negro cabin. We drove into the yard and an old negro woman appeared. I asked her if she had seen anything of two men in a car and as she opened her mouth to answer, an automobile drove from behind the house.

Two negro men were in the front seat.

When this car came into sight the negro driving it saw us and stopped. At that instant Hamilton and his comrade, whom I did not recognize, rose up from behind the front seat and opened fire on us.

A bullet from Hamilton's automatic rifle ripped my hat and creased the scalp in the back of my head just as I turned to grab my shotgun.

Just then another car arrived. It contained county agent M. E. Smith of Jeff Davis county and Corley, a federal farm representative.

These men were disarmed by the Sheriff.

When Freight Hit CCC Train

Before a special passenger train bearing CCC workers from Oregon to Fort Sheridan, Ill., could clear a siding Tuesday morning at Shields, Kans., a fast Missouri Pacific freight, westbound, ploughed into the two rear tourist Pullmans of the special. Thirty CCC workers were injured. The above photograph shows the two wrecked Pullmans and, at the right, the freight train. (NEA Photo.)

EAR-MARKING OF BIRTHDAY FUNDS VOTED

'Substantial Celebration' in Each Senatorial District Provided in Amendment.

AUSTIN, March 29 (AP)—A bloc of the senate favoring ear-marking appropriations for a Texas Centennial to specific projects today placed in the bill a requirement for a "substantial celebration" in each senatorial district.

The amendment was adopted, 12 to 9, with two present not voting. It would not allocate specific amounts to each district, leaving that to discretion of the Centennial commission. Allotments would come from $1,000,000 set aside for historical commemorations outside of Dallas, the central exposition city. The $3,500,000 total of the bill was unchanged.

Previously the ear-marking bloc won a test fight on allocating $50,000 to Brazoria county and then quickly specified $75,000 to be spent in Galveston county, both rich in historical significance. A third allocation approved would provide $300,000 for a commemoration at San Jacinto battlefield near Houston.

Another thrust at attempts to distribute the $1,000,000 historical fund was contained in an amendment by Senator Tom Deberry of Bogota to require a celebration in each of the 15 representative districts. It was pending at recess.

The ear-marking bloc obtained adoption 14 to 9 with two present not voting, of an amendment by Senator Gordon Burns of Huntsville to allocate $50,500 for Huntsville and preservation of General Sam Houston's home there. Allocation of $50,000 proposed for the same purpose previously was defeated.

Other amendments adopted designate as members of a historical advisory board Drs. Eugene C. Barker and C. W. Hackett of the University of Texas, and L. W. Kemp of Houston, and require their recommendations to be made public; and provide for appointment of a comptroller of the Centennial commission, to be paid $5,000 annually.

GREAT HORDE OF OFFICERS TRAIL BANDIT

DESPERADO ROBS BANK THEN CAPTURES PURSUERS

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 29 (AP)—Peace officers, supported by the militia, followed a desperado, believed to have been one of two robbers who spread terror through south Mississippi yesterday, shortly to Memphis today when two of their kidnap victims were abandoned in an automobile several miles from here.

The victims, M. E. Smith, Jefferson Davis county farm agent, and Ralph Ballis, Prentiss, Miss., merchant, had been locked in the rumble seat of an automobile. They managed to affect their release and walk to Hernando, Miss., where they talked with Sheriff Sid Campbell. Sheriff Campbell said he was coming to Memphis with them to confer with officers here.

HERNANDO, Miss., March 29 (AP)—Sheriff Sid Campbell said today he was questioning two victims in connection with yesterday's South Mississippi depredations credited to Raymond Hamilton. The victims, M. E. Smith and Ralph Ballis, kidnaped yesterday, were found locked in the rumble seat of an automobile.

JACKSON, Miss., March 29 (AP)—Peace officers, supported by citizens posses, national guardsmen and federal department of justice agents, today were concentrating their forces in a 25-mile stretch south of here.

Other amendments adopted designate as members of a historical advisory board Drs. Eugene C. Barker and C. W. Hackett of the University of Texas, and L. W. Kemp of Houston, and require their recommendations to be made public; and provide for appointment of a comptroller of the Centennial commission, to be paid $5,000 annually.

'DISLOYALTY' IS CHARGED BY HIS ATTORNEY

CERTAIN CAR PARKED AT RESIDENCE FREQUENTLY

AMARILLO, March 29 (AP)—Defense testimony opened today in the murder trial of George S. Hamlin for the hammer killing of his 33-year-old bride here last January 4.

In an outline of the defense case, E. T. Miller, Hamlin's attorney, announced that testimony would be offered to show that the defendant could not "distinguish between right and wrong in view of the disloyalty, the unfaithfulness of his wife."

Miller said depositions from 12 California doctors and acquaintances of the defendant would be introduced in support of the defense plea of insanity. He said the depositions would show that "the defendant, in an already insane condition, had a reason to believe that his wife was not loyal."

Testimony about fingerprints and footprints at the Hamlin home will be introduced, Miller announced.

Mrs. R. A. Haley, a neighbor of the Hamlins, testified that a certain car was parked at the Hamlin home frequently. Under cross-examination, she said she didn't know whether a man or woman drove the car.

WOMAN FILES BILL TO BAR HEART BALM

'Legalized Blackmail' in Texas Would Be Banned In Helen Moore's Plan.

AUSTIN, March 29 (AP)—Referring to heart balm as "legalized blackmail," Representative Helen Moore of Texas City introduced a bill in the house today to bar suits for breach of promise and alienation of affections.

The bill was identical with legislation passed recently by legislatures of Indiana and New York. Mrs. Moore, a housewife of 52, is the only woman member of the legislature.

"It is not my idea and I'm taking no credit for originality," Mrs. Moore said. "I'm glad to follow the lead of the ladies of the Indiana Legislature and believe a quick curb should be placed on suits of this kind."

The bill would bar civil suits for criminal conversation and for seduction of females over 21 years old. It would be unlawful for any person or attorney to file or threaten to file any pleading seeking to recover on a cause of action abolished by the bill. The designation of a co-respondent by name in a divorce petition also would be prohibited.

All contracts entered into after passage of the bill in payment of any claim growing out of the cause of action so barred would be declared void and causes of action to enforce such contracts would be made unlawful.

Violations of principal provisions of the law would be punishable by a fine of from $100 to $1,000 and imprisonment from one to five years.

Attorneys in divorce suits would be prohibited from asking questions calculated to disclose the identity of a third person charged as co-respondent although the court would be given discretion to hear the testimony in chambers.

Sixty days would be allowed to commence action on grounds accruing under existing laws and if not filed within that time would be forever barred.

Woman Beheaded In Montreal By Hangman's Noose

MONTREAL, March 29 (AP)—The hangman's noose decapitated Mrs. Thomasina Theolis Sarao, 46, today as she was executed for murdering her husband according to a witness who attended.

Newspapermen were barred from the execution by the Quebec attorney-general's department.

A few minutes before Mrs. Sarao dropped through the trap, Legola (Gagliardi), 39, an Angelo Donofrio, 19, were hanged on another scaffold for the same crime.

B. C. D. FUND GROWING

Three more contributions to the B. C. D. highways-industries fund have been received. They are: Le Nora, $25; Dave Finkelstein, $10; Richards Drug, $5.

Poles Break Out Against Germans

KATOWICE, Poland, March 29 (AP)—Anti-German demonstrations which broke out spasmodically all along Germany's eastern border from Lithuania to Czechoslovakia burst out violently at the Polish-German frontier today involving thousands of Poles.

The mob, singing the "Rota Song," which is a Polish anti-German hymn of hate, marched to the German newspaper to smash the windows.

"Poles spit on Germans," was an improvised insert in the text of the song.

The police dispersed the demonstration shortly before it arrived at the German consulate.

The Poles along the frontier apparently forgot all about "Polish-German friendship." They smashed the windows of the German newspaper Kattowitzzeitung Zeitsung and formed protest demonstrations against Germany.

REYNOLDSTOWN, 25-1 SHOT, WINS GRAND NATIONAL RACE; WHITNEY HORSE IS THIRD

Favorite Falls First Time Around Course; Blue Prince Is Second.

AIRSTREE, Eng., March 29 (AP)—Once again the favorites fell before the challenge of the outsiders in the 25th National Steeplechase today as Reynoldstown, a 22-to-1 shot owned by Major Noel Furlong and ridden by his son, Freddie, drove home the winner of the world's greatest equine jumping test, before a crowd of 250,000.

Dorothy Page's Golden Miller, the heavily favored favorite and winner last year, failed to complete the trying four and one-half mile test at Bostick, made the best showing. The three lengths in front of Lady Lindsay's Blue Prince, another outsider, John Hay Whitney's American-owned Thomson 2nd, the second choice, was eight lengths back in third place, the same position in which he finished last year.

Only six of the 27 starters finished. Sir Geoffrey Congreve's lightly weighted Lazy Boots, held at 66 to 1, was fourth followed by H. B. Brandt's Uncle Bert, and Miss M. Lark's Bachelor Prince, also long shots.

Of the remaining four American-owned entries, Castle Irwell, owned and ridden by George H. (Pie) Bostick, made the best showing. The American sportsman kept his Irish-bred jumper up with the leaders for the first two miles and was running a strong second when Uncle Bert reached the judges' stand the first time around the course. He fell soon after, however. M. D. Blair's Fouquet, Whitney's Royal Ransom and Jesse Metcalfe's Theresa never got as far as the grandstand.

Golden Miller, carrying the top weight of 175 pounds and which won the race, finished in a commendable manner.

I Saw...

Art Hurd following his nose in trailing a suspicious odor—might be a still—on the south side. He found workmen applying a pungent application to wings of an airplane.

This note that Sam Fenberg found between his license plates; "These license plates were made by Jack Shields, Pampa, Tex., Doing 20 years." If this keeps up a pair of license plates without any note in them will be a curio.

Brevitorials

LONG AGO it was said that none is so blind as he who will not see. It follows that a runner-up for this distinction is one who hears one side of a subject and makes no effort to see the other side of it.

Owen F. White, contributing editor of Collier's, is probably probably imagines that he is rendering his native state a service through his article, published this week on the Panhandle gas situation. Actually, while admittedly doing some good in a general way, he is doing the Panhandle a vast injustice and reflecting on the reputation of his magazine.

MR. WHITE's article will sound very forceful in uninformed circles. But in the language of his craft, and in the circles of those who know the subject, it is "lousy." Admittedly, it is telling and effective as to the amount of gas being blown into the air in the Panhandle. But in addition it is filled with mis-statements, misinterpretations, half-truths, and deductions commonly expected of the demagog. Mr. White did not, of our knowledge, visit the Panhandle gas owners. He did not consult anyone of our acquaintances who could give a well-rounded discourse on the gas problem. In short, the article which purports to be a first-hand piece of impartial research is in reality the first cousin of paid propaganda, if it is not, indeed, just that thing.

MR. WHITE leads the readers to believe that the pipeline companies were not draining the land of any property owner. He knows nothing of the long fight for a fair market price for reliable saking, and for a market for Panhandle gas. His informants failed to mention why they rushed into federal court to invalidate the reasonable legislation intended to correct some of the abuses of land, lease, and royalty owners without, at the same time, permitting waste. He failed to see in the sour gas bill, which was sweetened, any attempt to do unto the gas companies what they had been doing to unconnected gas land owners and even some which had connections but which sold little gas. He failed to see any decent motive in Texas legislation and in Texas citizens. He calls us the people who can "get along" with none of the other 47 states. His article is of course in support of federal control of the oil and gas industry, in which Texas as the leading producer of oil and gas would have little to gain but much to lose if an administration chose a harmful policy.

NOT CONTENT with being inaccurate, Mr. White continued to make himself ridiculous by leaving the impression that airplanes cannot fly over the Panhandle gas field. "I see an explosion blow the Panhandle off the State of Texas." He could have added that aviation is doing quite well on the plains, that scheduled air travel is seldom interrupted, and that Pampa for instance, has twelve airplanes and an interest in aviation seldom equaled anywhere in the nation. He could have, but that would have inserted fairness into an article which is stronger, for his purpose.

ALBANY, N. Y., March 29 (AP)—

A bill wiping heart balm laws off the statute books in New York was signed today by Governor Lehman. The bill's sponsor reported that similar bills were being prepared for introduction in at least eight other states.

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—Representative Johnson (D., Okla.) said today the transfer of "Biff" Jones, head football coach at Louisiana State University, to Oklahoma University at Norman had been "virtually assured."

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—The house today adopted the conference report on the $401,998,170 war department appropriation bill and sent the measure back to the senate for concurrence in two amendments.

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—Vigorous objections from administration officials to the final form of the $4,890,000,000 work-relief bill today were reported to have delayed further congressional action on the measure until next week in the hope that it can be modified.

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—A secretly drafted administration bill to extend NRA with some modifications was hastily introduced today by Chairman Harrison of the senate finance committee, after a warning in executive session from Donald Richberg, NRA head, that strikes were impending in four big industries.

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—Representative Gifford (R., Mass.) said today he had been assured by Secretary Wallace there was no immediate likelihood of an increase in the cotton processing tax.

Musical Show To Be Presented By Lions Club Again

Pampa Lions last evening went into rehearsal for the 1935 musical show which will be presented within a month for the benefit of the club's fund for crippled children.

John Sturgeon will again direct the show, assisted by a large number of committees. Miss Jackie Jones, club pianist, is assisting with the music. The performance has been outlined, the stage settings arranged for, and the cast largely selected. As usual, a number of talented local girls will assist with the production.

Another practice will be held Saturday evening at 7 o'clock at the city auditorium.

Bugs, Harmless And Otherwise, Clog Up Ether

The air, it seems, is full of a number of things.

Bacteria, for instance.

Dr. T. J. Worrell, assistant city health officer, exposed a number of small laboratory plates to the outdoor air for 5 minutes during the recent dust-storms. The plates developed an average of 200 colonies each of bacteria.

Most of the cultures were of the harmless variety commonly found in soils. However, they are capable of causing some discomfort to hay fever sufferers. No contagious disease germs were found, although the experiment was not carried far in this direction.

There is bacteria in the air at all times, but not to the extent found during dust-storms. Airplane tests have shown the presence of bacteria as high as man has been able to fly.

Dust is irritating to the nose, sinuses, throat, and lungs; it is pointed out by physicians. A form of pneumonia is sometimes developed.

WIND EROSION ONLY NORMAL HERE; COUNTY GETS NEW DIRT

Dust chokes wheat, barley; terracing, planting of bushes considered.

Wind erosion of the soil is no more a problem this spring than in previous springs, according to farmers who frequent the county agent's office.

In fact, some farmers say there was less blowing of the farms than usual until the "worst" dust storm a few days ago. Some farmers, however, pointed out that the wind in some of the storms actually added soil in this area, especially where the wheat was high enough to hold the dirt.

The dust storms tend to choke the wheat however, though to an extent that is at least debatable. Young barley seemed to be more affected. A good rain, followed by a cessation of the dust, would right much of the damage.

Terracing is about the only soil conservation step being considered in this county. Some farmers, however, are seriously considering quartering of their level fields with wide terraces on which plants—such as plum bushes—would be set permanently. Such a plan, it is pointed out, would break the wind to an appreciable extent without interfering greatly with use of farm machinery. While some land would be required, the farmers are reducing productive acreage anyway under the AAA plans, and the government would count the terraces as idle land in its calculations.

Yesterday the cotton control committee, headed by J. S. Howard of McLean, met here and assigned allotments to about 60 new signers of cotton contracts.

Mrs. Sam George of Miami shopped here yesterday afternoon.

Cash Prizes to Be Awarded for Marble Tourney

Eliminations in five grade schools of the Pampa district are going on in the marble tournament sponsored by The NEWS.

Each school is to choose a champion by April 9 in two age groups—boys of under 10 and boys of over 10. The champions will meet in a later district-wide tournament for the all-district title.

In addition to certificates in the first three places, The NEWS will give cash prizes of $1.25, .75, and 50 in each class. Six cash prizes will therefore be awarded. The four contestants who do not win a cash prize will be given a genuine, selected agate law marble by Olin E. Hinkle, managing editor of The NEWS. Genuine agates are seldom seen any more, necessitating a special order by a local hardware firm.

In the lower age group, the familiar game of Cat's Eye is adopted for the eliminations. Tournament directors in each school are allowed to choose any marble game they and the older boys decide. After the school champions are selected, the winners will be chosen so that the youngsters may practice for the finals, date of which will be set later.

HEART ATTACK FATAL

MARIEITA, Okla., March 29 (AP)—Joe C. Hartmann, about 60, a Santa Fe engineer, died here early today from a heart attack while his train was parked on a siding. His home is in Gainesville, Texas.

Mrs. W. B. Murphy entered Pampa hospital this morning for medical attention.

Gas Land Owners Lose In Decision

NEW ORLEANS, March 29 (AP)—Denial by the federal court of the northern district of Texas of an application of owners of three oil and gas land properties in the Panhandle oil fields for an injunction to restrain other oil and gas operators from taking gas from the Panhandle gas reservoir for the purpose of stripping it for gasoline, was reversed and remanded by the United States court of appeals for the fifth circuit here yesterday.

The plaintiffs seeking injunctive relief, J. T. Sneed, Jr., E. C. Brittain and Henry Schafer, Inc., charged that the defendants, the Phillips Petroleum company, Shamrock Oil and Gas company and Lawrence R. Hays, et al, were draining a common pool of gas for "wasteful purposes."

In reversing lower tribunal the circuit court of appeals held that the questions at issue in the case "are of such difficulty, intricacy and some of them of such doubtfulness that they should be decided only after hearing every party interested," and directed that all parties interested should be made parties to the suit.

Mrs. W. B. Murphy entered Pampa hospital this morning for medical attention.

NEW ORLEANS, March 29 (AP)—Denial by the federal court of the northern district of Texas of an application of owners of three oil and gas land properties in the Panhandle oil fields for an injunction to restrain other oil and gas operators from taking gas from the Panhandle gas reservoir for the purpose of stripping it for gasoline, was reversed and remanded by the United States court of appeals for the fifth circuit here yesterday.

The plaintiffs seeking injunctive relief, J. T. Sneed, Jr., E. C. Brittain and Henry Schafer, Inc., charged that the defendants, the Phillips Petroleum company, Shamrock Oil and Gas company and Lawrence R. Hays, et al, were draining a common pool of gas for "wasteful purposes."

In reversing lower tribunal the circuit court of appeals held that the questions at issue in the case "are of such difficulty, intricacy and some of them of such doubtfulness that they should be decided only after hearing every party interested," and directed that all parties interested should be made parties to the suit.

Mrs. W. B. Murphy entered Pampa hospital this morning for medical attention.

Tack And Mayor Rogers To Lead Golfers Here Sunday

Sikes Goes Back For 25 Shot-Makers For Match

When Walter Sikes, Amarillo professional, arrived in Pampa yesterday with the names and scores of Amarillo golfers who will make the good will trip to Pampa Sunday to play over the Country club course, he was 25 players short of the number of Pampa contestants.

The veteran Amarillo didn't think Pampa could produce 150 golfers, and he received a surprise when Del Love, Pampa Country club pro, brought out 152 Pampa prospects. Sikes went back to Amarillo to issue a call for more golfers. He didn't have any doubt that he could get the required number, and they will be matched with the remaining Pampans.

The Amarillo good will delegation of golfers, their families and friends, will start arriving in Pampa by 9 o'clock when the first foursome will tee off. Six foursomes will leave the No. 1 tee box each 30 minutes until the last of the contests are playing.

Mayor Ross Rogers of Amarillo will lead the parade of visitors to Pampa. He will play Mayor W. A. Ebration of Pampa in the afternoon. Gene Howe, known widely as Col. Erasmus Tack, will also come to Pampa and will tangle with Gilmore N. Nunn during the afternoon.

No golfers, other than the contestants, will be allowed on the course after 9 a. m. Players are urged to be on hand at the time designated below in the pairings. Col. H. Otto Studer will act as master of ceremonies.

Pampa players are being sponsored by the following local firms: Giles Service, Booster station, School faculty, Pampa Drug, Texas company, Bert Curry (Frigidaire), Pampa Daily News, Farnes Drug, Carter's Mens Wear, Bates & Hastings, Brown & Wise, Voss Cleaners, E. & B. Oil company, Magnolia Petroleum company, Court House, City Drug, Merrick & Boyd, Phillips Petroleum company, Diamond Shop, Piggy Wigly, J. C. Penney company, Harvester Drug, Murfee's, Inc., P. K. The Stop, Pampa Hardware, Cabot Co., Farnes Oil and Refineries, Inc., Tom Rose (Ford).

Sandwiches and pie and cold drinks will be sold at the clubhouse during the day.

Caddies are urged to be present early. Boy Scouts have been invited to swell the number of caddies and also to direct traffic and parking. Boys over 12 years of age can be used for caddies providing they are big enough.

THREE STROKES BEHIND IS BYRON NELSON OF TEXARKANA

PINEHURST N. C., March 29 (AP)—Across drying fairways, Paul Runyan set out today down the 36-hole stretch drive toward the pot of golfers' gold at the end of the north and south open tournament.

Behind the White Plains, N. Y., P. G. A. champion was a select field of 60 who got under the wire when the list was trimmed after the first 36 holes.

By firing a 71 for the second round, Runyan remained three strokes ahead of the field with a 136.

In second place was Byron Nelson of Texarkana, Texas, who took a 69 yesterday for a total of 139.

TIGERS SHOW STUFF TO WIN CROWN AGAIN

DETROIT IS ONLY CLUB PRESENTING GRADE 'AAA' FRONT

(Note: This is the seventeenth of a series of stories analyzing major league prospects. It summarizes American league prospects, Tomorrow: The National League.)

BY ALAN GOULD,
Associated Press Sports Editor.
NEW ORLEANS, March 29 (AP)—Peel off the outer surface of the spring training season's "grapefruit" and you will find it looks like the wide-open race in the American league this year—for second place—unless some effective method is found to disrupt the ironbound confidence of the Detroit Tigers.

Mickey Cochrane's "battering Benjamins" dominated the circuit from the midway mark of the 1934 race and went on to win. Untamed by their world series beating, the Tigers have the stuff to repeat. They are the only club in the league now presenting a solid, grade "AAA" front in the three payoff departments—pitching, power, and defense.

Naturally other American league camps do not concede the Tigers are so outstanding. In them this observer has found two distinct schools of thought. One holds that the Tigers landed on top last season, not because they had so much class themselves but because their foremost challengers blew up at critical stages. The second and louder school is based on the belief that Detroit's "luck" in 1934 was entirely too good to last.

Cochrane's crew was phenomenally fortunate in escaping injuries to any regulars in their leap from fifth place to the top within one year. It is equally true the team lacks reserve strength again this year, especially in the infield and outfield. It may also be conceded that a number of the Tiger penant stars, including Schoolboy Rowe, Marvin Owen, Billy Rogell, Goose Goslin, and Hank Greenberg, had exceptional years. Some may not repeat.

There are far bigger "ifs" connected with the change of all the other contenders. Walker Johnson's Cleveland Indians shaped up as the strongest challenger until Billy Knickerbocker, star shortstop and key man of a youthful infield, was floored by Old Man Appendix. Cleveland and the New York Yankees, both substantially rebuilt within the past year or two, are up for the finish this year. The Yankees have more speed than power now but their pitching staff, with the veteran Pat Malone just added to coming clubs, is the Miami players.

Winnings will be decided on low medal scores for the 36 holes. First and second prizes will be awarded a large entry. Schools in 11 Panhandle counties are eligible to send teams. Each school will be allowed to enter four or five players. Winners will be decided on low medal scores for the 36 holes. First and second prizes will be awarded.

Girls' Net Team Defeats Miamians

Harvestette tennis players won two out of three matches in Miami yesterday afternoon, when Miss Kathleen Milam took her singles player and two doubles teams on a practice trip. The Miami players will play in Pampa Monday afternoon. Miami's volley ball team will also make the trip.

"Dado" Shields defeated Ivy 6-1 in a fast game.
Harriet Hunkapillar and Flora Deardruff won from Walker and Weekason, 6-3, in another hard fought game.
Mary Price and Mildred Tolbert lost to Ramsey and Krowson, 6-1.

BRIEFS FROM TRAINING CAMPS

MOBILE, Ala.—The New York Giants' pitching "big four" seems as effective as ever this year. In 68 innings hurled by Carl Hubbell, Hal Schumacher, Freddy Fitzsimmons and Roy Parmelee, the opposition has been held to less than 1½ earned runs for each nine stanzas.

CLEARWATER, Fla.—Cutting of the New York Yankees' squad has begun with the release of Pitchers Howard (Red) LaPlante and Mike Salinasen to the Newark Bears. Jesse Hull appears to have won a major league berth, and the signing of Dixie Walker to a regular contract indicated outfielder Myril Heag may be the next to go.

$5,000 Handicap At Fort Worth To Be Run Tomorrow

ARLINGTON, March 29 (AP)—Dr. C. N. Mooney's Ted Clark, off the track since he set the pace for the first mile of the $100,000 Santa Anita handicap, will run again tomorrow.

This time it will be in the $5,000 added Fort Worth handicap for 3-year-olds and upward over the one and one-sixteenth mile route for which 18 horses are eligible.

The race is the first of three $5,000 handicaps to be run during the race meeting. The others are the Dallas handicap and the Three D's handicap.

Ted Clark, winner of the $10,000 Waggoner handicap at Arlington Downs last fall, was assigned top weight of 120 pounds in the race.

Sweeping Light, which took the count of Equipise in a trial race for the Santa Anita handicap, has been assigned second highest weight of 118 pounds, with Quatre Bras 2d, Three D's stable pride, burdened with 116.

District Meet To Have Golf Tourney

Although golf is not an official part of the Texas interscholastic league program, several districts have introduced golf as part of their meet, although it does not count on the total points to decide the winning schools.

District 2, of which Pampa is the center of competition, has several strong golf teams within its borders. The teams will meet tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock to play 36 holes over the Country club course, 18 holes in the morning and 18 holes in the afternoon.

Winston Walker will have charge of the tournament. He has not been notified of the number of teams that will compete but is expecting

TEXAS RELAYS WILL BE HELD ON SATURDAY

GLENN CUNNINGHAM TO RACE AGAINST ABBEY

AUSTIN, March 29 (AP)—Track and field stars of the nation turned to Texas' capital for the eighth renewal tomorrow of the Texas relays, the first major outdoor meet of the season. An estimated 1,100 athletes, drawn principally from Texas, the southwest and midwest, were expected to participate.

A feature will be an exhibition between Glenn Cunningham, the world's premier miler, and Duane Abbey, brilliant miler for the North Texas State Teachers college. Abbey is national intercollegiate champion. Another attraction will be Jack Tressance, Louisiana State's shot put specialist.

Several relay records will be in danger. Great interest is attached to Louisiana State's entry of Glenn Hardin, record holder in the 400-meter high hurdles, in several events.

Among early arrivals were Coach Clarence Munn of Minnesota with his two stars, William Freimuth, 200-pound shot put, and Wayne Slocum, 3,000-meter runner. Glenn Gardner of Michigan State has been working out here daily while the rest of the Michigan State squad was to arrive today.

Other nationally known stars entered include Chambers of Nebraska, Trotter of Kansas, Allen of Oklahoma Baptist college, Petty and Brothers of Rice Institute, Zori of Alabama, Simmons of Tulane, Gallagher of Oklahoma A. and M. and Evans of Minnesota.

Thirty-five teams were entered in the university and college division and 65 in the high school section. University entries included Alabama, Pittsburgh, Missouri, Oklahoma, Texas, Kansas, Nebraska, Michigan State, Drake, Louisiana State, Oklahoma A. and M., Texas A. and M., Rice Institute, Texas Christian, Tulsa, Southern Methodist, Kansas State, Baylor and Tulane.

College division entries included Aillene Christian, North Texas Teachers, East Texas Teachers, Sam Houston Teachers, Southwest Texas Teachers, Hardin Simmons, Miami University, Oklahoma Baptist University, Howard Payne, Southwestern Louisiana Institute, Stephen F. Austin, Trinity Junior college, Schreiner Institute and John Tarleton.

Which third place at stake in the game between the defeated semi-finalists, Shreveport clashes in a preliminary game tonight with Edorado. The same two sextets engaged in the play-off last year when Edorado relegated Shreveport to second get into the semi-final game.

The Wichita Merchants and American Institute of Business, Des Moines, are paired in a game for fifth place to be played under proposed new rules that call for a 4-number offense, elimination of the center jump, and other innovations which, officials said, are likely to be written into the rule book.

With these regulations governing "clinical" games last night, Wichita defeated the Chicago Baby Ruffs, in overtime, 31-30, and Des Moines triumphed over Houston, Texas, 28-18.

Tulsa Stenos And Holdenville Girls To Meet In Finals

Louisiana, Arkansas Teams Lose In Semi-Finals

WICHITA, Kas., March 29 (AP)—The defending champion Stenos of Tulsa business college and a sextet were pitted to day in the finals of the women's national A. A. U. basket ball tournament.

The Stenos squeezed through the semi-finals last night with a 49-38 overtime contest of Meadows-Draughon college, Shreveport, La. The Holdenville Flyers made it an exclusively Oklahoma finale by beating the Edorado, Ark., Lions, 23 to 21.

An offense headed by "All America" Alberts Williams and Speedy "Sonny" Dunlap coupled with the defense the greatly outweighed Cotton Wilkie clamped upon Shreveport's 185-pound Josephine McGraw Adams enabled Tulsa to throw down the challenge of Shreveport and make it a rout in the 3-minute extra period.

Williams, Danisp, and Lillian Justice collaborated in the scoring. Williams made 10 goals wheeling from the post and 9 free throws and Dunlap 7 baskets on quick breaks.

Although Butler made 17 free throws in 21 attempts after winning the runner-up honor in the national free throw contest with 48 out of 50 to place second to her team mate, Opal Hill, Hill sank 46 yesterday to win the title for the second straight year but she did not get into the semi-final game.

ELEEMOSYNARY FUND LARGER BY 2 MILLION

CENTENNIAL AMENDMENTS PENDING IN SENATE

AUSTIN, March 29 (P)—Aid for the Texas Centennial and an appropriation for eleemosynary institutions $2,000,000 larger than that of the current biennium were subjects for more debate in the legislature today.

Pending in the senate was a proposal to require the Centennial commission to hold celebrations in each of the state's 31 senatorial districts.

It was offered as an amendment to the Centennial bill proper by Senator Frank Rawlings of Fort Worth. The senate measure would appropriate $3,500,000 for the month celebration in 1938. The house some time ago approved an appropriation of $3,000,000.

The eleemosynary bill as reported by the committee on appropriations called for $10,403,044, and in the early stages of consideration the house, to the surprise of many, showed little disposition to reduce the total appreciably.

Charges of some that condition of the state's revenue did not justify certain new buildings were promptly met with declarations that the state never was too poor to take care of its helpless wards.

Meanwhile, several bills of unusual interest were reported out of house committees favorably, others were sent to sub-committees to die slow deaths, and, in the house committee on constitutional amendments, several were summarily beheaded.

The house committee on oil, gas, and mining gave a favorable report to a bill by Rep. J. C. Duvall of Fort Worth authorizing confiscation of gasoline manufactured from illegally produced petroleum when seized in trucks. Rangers, highway patrolmen, and all peace officers could stop gasoline trucks and inspect their cargoes and papers.

The house committee on municipal and private corporations favorably reported a bill by Rep. Morris Roberts of Beville repealing a law permitting foreign corporations not chartered in Texas to manage a Texas corporation by acquiring majority stock in the latter.

The house jurisprudence committee recommended passage of a bill making forgery of railroad commission oil tenders a felony and providing penalties of two to five years imprisonment.

A resolution previously passed in the senate providing for submission of an amendment to authorize a teachers pension plan received a favorable report of the house committee on constitutional amendments with the understanding that a substitute would be offered from the floor.

The house state affairs committee sent to a sub-committee to establish a state board of accountancy and regulate the practice of public accountancy.

Sheriff's Stray Bullet Is Fatal To Cuero Girl

SAN ANTONIO, March 29 (P)—Mattie Mae Pierson, 16, was killed here early today by a stray bullet from the pistol of a special deputy sheriff as she watched an altercation which interrupted a dance.

The girl was struck in the left side by the bullet and died en route to a hospital.

The altercation was between H. C. Pfannkuche, special deputy on duty at the dance, and W. E. Isbell, former Harlandale constable. Mike Hale, investigator for the district attorney, said statements indicated that Isbell was struck by Pfannkuche's pistol, which was accidentally discharged.

The bullet first struck Simon Salas, another witness, inflicting a flesh wound on his right arm. At then struck the Pierson girl.

Miss Pierson had come to San Antonio only a few weeks ago. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Pierson of Cuero, were notified.

Townsend Plan Advocates May Introduce Bill

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—Three developments added today to the worries of house democratic leaders who already were having to exert unusual efforts to speed the Roosevelt administration's old age pension and job-insurance bill. They were:

1. Reports that a modified Townsend pension plan was being drafted and would be offered at the psychological time, probably just before the house takes up the administration bill.
2. An assertion by Rep. Martin of Massachusetts, a republican leader, that the G. O. P. house members "will have a conference" shortly on the administration's measure.
3. The fact that Rep. Isabella Greenway (D., Ariz.) has obtained more than 60 democratic signatures on a petition to force a party caucus on the question of lifting old-age pensions out of the administration bill and passing them in a hurry, letting the other things take a slower course.

The Townsend pension plan originally called for a 2 per cent tax on all business transactions to finance payments of $200 a month to all persons over 60. Reports were that this plan was being modified to require pensions of "not more than $200," with the added stipulation that any money not spent for pensions should be used to retire the public debt.

136 Cars Of Oil Products Given Back To Company

SHERMAN, March 29 (AP)—The Utah Refining company today had shipping permits for 136 cars of petroleum products which had been tied up in litigation with the federal tender board.

Norman L. Meyers, chairman of the East Texas tender board, signed the certificates of clearance after a conference yesterday between F. W. Fischer, attorney for the Southport Petroleum company, and S. D. Bennett, United States attorney.

The agreement was reached in the chambers of Federal Judge Randolph Bryan, who had postponed hearing of the case several weeks. It was agreed that during the pendency of the suit, the Southport company would withdraw fuel oil from its pits only in the amount which the tender board found to be the remnant of oil on hand last August, which is approximately 102,000 barrels, according to an estimate of M. M. Travis, Southport general manager.

The Utah Refining company is seeking an injunction against the tender board to prevent interference with shipment of petroleum product by denying clearing certificates. Federal attorneys contended the company has not proven the oil offered for shipment was not contra-banded.

The 136 cars involved in yesterday's proceedings had been loaded and the company sought immediate permission to move the oil to avoid mounting demurrage charges.

Pink Slip Tax Act Is Repealed In Senate Vote

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—Pink slip income tax publicity was considered as good as dead today after the senate, by an overwhelming 53 to 16 vote, had passed the repeal bill which previously had swept through the house.

There was little doubt on capitol hill that President Roosevelt would sign the bill. First, however, the measure was held by the house because the senate had tacked on an amendment permitting state and local tax officials to inspect the returns. No difficulty was anticipated in reaching a quick agreement about this change.

Therefore the little pink slip—on which tax payers wrote information about their 1934 incomes—were slated to go into the discard instead of being made available to public view.

Forty-three democrats and 10 republicans joined in reversing the stand for income tax publicity which the senate has maintained for years.

The drive for repeal of the pink slip provision started several weeks before March 15, the time for filing tax returns. It was the house of letters pouring in on congressmen. The writers asserted gangsters, kidnapers and other criminals could inspect them and thus line up new extortion victims.

RACE

went to the post the 3 to 1 favorite, found the weight and pace too exacting. He fell at the first fence after Valentine's Brook on the first turn around the course. With his elimination went up groans from the thousands of spectators and shouts of joy from the bookmakers, who stood to lose hundreds of thousands of dollars, as the favorite had been coupled with Flamingo, winner of the Lincolnshire Wednesday, in the famous "spring double."

Purging had Reynoldstown up with the leaders from the start, being in fifth place at the half-way mark. He quickly moved to the front and showed the way the second time over Becher's Brook to Thomson 2nd and Blue Prince.

At the canal turn the American-owned jumper took command of the situation. From there to the final stages, the race was a three-horse affair.

In the final 300-yard dash to the finish line, however, Thomson 2nd weakened badly while Purging drove Reynoldstown into the lead and Jockey Parvin, up on Blue Prince, moved up to make a futile challenge. When the three and finisher did not another horse was in sight. Reynoldstown was timed in 9:21, one second slower than the record set by Golden Miller last year.

The following five Americans won 15,000 pounds (about $71,250) each as holders of tickets on Blue Prince, second horse.

bandits. At that moment a second car drove up. This car contained Tarver McIntosh, E. L. Dent and Will Thomas.

Cornals Big Crew
Hamilton ordered these three men to get out, throw down their guns and hold up their hands.

Then, after collecting all of the weapons, Hamilton ordered all of his captives to get on the side of the Smith car and Smith was told to drive down the road.

When we reached the posse stationed there the officers could not find fear of shooting some of us. The possmen were disarmed by the bandits, who re-entered the automobile and ordered Smith to "keep going."

After proceeding for some distance all of the hostages except Smith were shoved off the automobile.

Both of the bandits looked like walking arsenals. Hamilton had seven pistols in his belt while his companion had five or six.

Once Hamilton made a wisecrack at the crowd, jibing them for letting two men handle such a big posse.

"I guess it's because none of you has a decent gun," remarked the outlaw, as he patted his own weapon.

Jimmie Allred Is Thirty-Six Today

AUSTIN, March 29 (AP)—James V. Allred, the second youngest governor in the history of Texas, was 36 years old today.

The day in the governor's office was much like any other. Allred said he had thought of making a resolution to quit smoking but found two boxes of birthday cigars on his desk and the temptation was too great.

"Anyway, I'll be able to quit smoking cheap cigars for a little while," he remarked.

without it. Such irresponsible and prejudiced reporting is unworthy of that craft to which Mr. White belongs. Of what value is national circulation, except for mischief, if the stories are to be distorted by mis-statement, inaccuracy, and avoiding of one side of every question? Unfortunately, Collier's is unlikely to make any effort toward correcting the article, or even supplementing it with facts equally significant.

THE NEWS as an institution suffers with the Panhandle generally by reason of publicity given gas waste. The waste should be stopped, of course. Similarly, steps should be taken to stop wind erosion of the soil. But in the meantime, adverse publicity is making these tasks difficult. The Pampa chambers of commerce seek industries to use our cheap natural gas. But who wishes to establish a factory where the gas will soon—they fear—be gone? Who would wish to live in a town where there is light a cigarette might cause an explosion which would wipe out a whole section?

The NEWS spends thousands of dollars every year in an effort to obtain advertising of nationally marketed products. To secure this business, it must "sell" the manufacturers on Pampa and the Panhandle as a market. Publicity given drought and gas waste almost nullifies the most careful efforts to make Pampa well known and favorably known in the metropolitan centers which advertising allocations are made.

Time is the best healer of wounds inflicted by adverse publicity, providing such publicity ceases. It is better to be unknown than unfavorably known. The Panhandle would like to be known, but not notorious. Mr. White's articles tend to make the Panhandle a section of unsavory reputation. Likewise are the dust-storm yarns harmful.

DANGER OF WAR IS OVER EUROPE SAYS LITVINOFF

Anglo-Russian Relations Greatly Improved

BY JOHN LLOYD. Associated Press Foreign Staff (Copyright, 1935, by The Associated Press)

MOSCOW, March 29.—Soviet circles said today after an hour and a half conference between Maxim Litvinoff, soviet commissar for foreign affairs, and Capt. Anthony Eden, British lord privy seal, that there was a "noted improvement in both the political and economic relations between Soviet Russia and Great Britain."

The soviet sources did not indicate on what grounds the further improvement of the Anglo-Russian relations was based during the discussion as Eden probed into the possibilities of peace for Europe.

The two talked over "most of the outstanding problems in political relations," they stated. The discussion was conducted with "the same spirit of frankness and sincerity" as yesterday's.

It was pointed out that after yesterday's talk it was said that the statements found no points of disagreement although it was likewise understood no definite proposals were then presented by either party.

Whether proposals bearing plans for joint action for the guarantee of European peace were placed on the table today was not mentioned. Eden will be received in audience this afternoon by Joseph Stalin, secretary general of the political bureau, probably accompanied by Litvinoff.

In the conversation with Litvinoff tomorrow, Eden will discuss the development of British Soviet trade relations.

Both British and Russian says conferences are being conducted in the light of "clarifications" obtained by Sir John Simon, British secretary of state for foreign affairs, and Eden in their recent Berlin talks with Hitler.

British spokesmen say further that the London peace plan is still the basis of discussions and the Russians mention "conclusions" to which the Berlin clarifications are leading.

These clarifications, observers point out, must be interpreted as meaning either there is still believed

Hoover Strictly In Earnest When He Caught Huge Sail Fish Off Florida.

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Mar. 29. (AP)—Three presidents—Warren Harding, Herbert Hoover, Franklin D. Roosevelt—have sat in the big swivel chairs on the back deck of the fisherman's dream boat, the 50-foot "Orca," Captain Herman P. Gray, out of Palm Beach.

But only one of them, Hoover, managed to catch the prize warrior of the sea, the lithe, handsome sailfish that rule these waters.

"Fish don't know whose bait they're biting," says Capt. Gray. "So I guess Hoover was the best fisherman of the three. He seemed to know more about fishing, to care more about details. When he went fishing, he was strictly in earnest."

Hoover's sailfish was a fish they still talk about. It measured just a fraction of an inch under the 8 feet that qualifies you for the gold button of the Sail Fish club. It weighed over 70 pounds, took close to an hour to land.

"If I'd ever known he was that close," says Capt. Gray. "I'd have given his tail a little tweak on the way in. He'd have been 8 feet all right."

Now President Roosevelt, who is off the Bahamas right now on another expedition, isn't a serious fisherman at all. In fact in two trips with Captain Gray, the first in 1933, the second a year later, he not only didn't get a sailfish but he didn't even fish for them most of the time. He was content with amberjack, kingfish, barracuda and the like, not to be mentioned in the same class with the leaping, dashing, regal "sail."

"He was a lot more fun to fish with, though," says the cap'n. "He's about the best natured fisherman I ever sailed. He was laughing and joking all the time. I guess he enjoyed himself so much he didn't care whether he got fish or not. Early on the last trip he strained the muscles in his left arm 'horsing in' kingfish, so he never did get a sail bait over."

Harding, who fished regularly with the cap'n, "didn't give a hoot" about it.

T. S. Skibinski of White Deer was a skivviser in Pampa this morning.

to be a chance of bringing the German viewpoint into harmony with the others, or it has been definitely decided that it is impossible to reconcile the divergent positions.

The warning of Litvinoff that "the danger of war is hanging over Europe" echoed in the ears of Eden, Litvinoff, speaking at a lavish banquet last night in honor of the British diplomat, repeatedly stressed the gravity of the situation with which Europe is now confronted.

"The overwhelming majority of states is at the present moment profoundly anxious for the preservation of peace," he said, then added significantly:

"There may be a few exceptions, but the danger spots are at least located."

His observation was interpreted as a reference to Germany, whom the soviet official press has repeatedly accused of menacing the stability of Europe's peace by her rearmament activities.

L. P. Ward of LeFors was a Pampa visitor yesterday.

TREBLE CLEF CLUB PREPARES FOR STATE MUSIC CONVENTION

WILL PRESENT PROGRAM SKIT TO FEDERATION

AMERICAN OPERA IS RECENT PROGRAM SUBJECT

Mrs. A. N. Dilley Jr. was elected delegate from Treble Clef club to the state convention of federated music clubs at San Angelo the first week in April, when the club met Wednesday afternoon.

A program number will be presented by Treble Clef members at the convention, by request of the state president, Mrs. I. D. Cole of Amarillo. It is a "Gay Nineties" skit that received a blue ribbon on the district federation program at Plainview last year.

Mrs. Dilley is chairman. Mmes. Alex Schneider, L. N. McCullough, Frances Sturgeon, Philip Wolfe, J. W. Garman, Harry Nelson, and Walter Stein are the participants. Other members of the club may go to San Angelo also. Mrs. Dilley, in addition to being a delegate, holds a federation committee chairmanship.

Preceding the business meeting Wednesday, the Treble Clef club had its monthly study program. Development of Grand Opera in America, was the topic. Mrs. Walter Wanner, program director, was presented by the president, Mrs. Sturgeon, who also introduced club guests.

Mrs. Wanner read a paper on American Grand Opera. Mrs. Dilley gave a sketch of Cadman's opera. Shianev, and sang as a solo a selection from that opera. Spring Song of the Robin Wagon, accompanied by Mrs. Stein.

Opera Stories Told
Mrs. Nelson discussed famous American opera singers. Mrs. Earl Thomason sang the solo, O Promise Me, from De Koven's opera, Robin Hood. Mrs. Sturgeon told the story of Cadman's Witch of Salem.

Victor Herbert's opera, Natoma, was sketched by Mrs. H. O. Roberts, and Mrs. Stein played as a piano solo the Dagher Dance. Mrs. McCullough sang another Herbert composition, Kiss Me Again, accompanied by Mrs. W. L. Brummett.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mmes. Ray Huling, Wolfe, H. C. Price, Sam Irwin, and Nelson. Miss Anna Mae Jamison and Mrs. Roundtree were club guests.

Members present, in addition to those on program, were Mmes. Bob McCoy, Jimmy Engle, Bridget, C. C. Dodd, J. O. Roberts, Hodges, Harry Lyman, and Miss Jimma Searcy.

Community Party Is Announced by Hopkins Women

"A well arranged clothes closet saves time," said Miss Ruby M. Adams, county home demonstration agent, Hopkins Home Demonstration club Wednesday at Mrs. L. M. Thompson's home.

It also helps to save labor, helps to keep the house in order and adds to the comfort and efficiency of the family, continued Miss Adams.

Miss Fae Davis, recreation chairman, announced by letter the community recreational party for Friday night at the Hopkins school house. All are invited.

Hopkins members were 100 per cent in giving to the state scholarship fund. Each year through the nickel donations of Texas home demonstration club women a fund of $300 is realized to loan to some outstanding 4-H club girl of Texas to use in going to college.

Those present were Mrs. J. T. Wylie, Mrs. C. P. Coats, Mrs. G. Pinnell, Mrs. John Thompson, Mrs. Robert Brown, Mrs. Mary Mackey, Sarah Fleming, Mrs. J. O. Campbell, Mrs. E. E. Vanderburg, and Miss Adams.

CANADIAN NEWS

CANADIAN, March 29.—Harry Rathjen and Carl Zybach visited near Wheeler Wednesday with Fred Rathjen, who is improving after a serious illness.

Elvis Killbrow has purchased the Dick Hutton home. Mr. Hutton has bought the C. D. Knight place, and Mr. Knight has bought the Liles property and is wrecking the house.

Mrs. and Mrs. Bob Matthews visited in Woodward yesterday.

Judge E. J. Plickens is still confined to his home because of illness.

Norman Magill's mother of Plainview has been visiting him here.

Mrs. Clark Enoch is reported ill this week.

Contestants from Horace Mann in League Are Named

Chosen to represent Horace Mann school in the city interscholastic league eliminations today, Aubrey Green and Geraldine Smith are the junior declaimers. Martha McDonald, Billy Dixon, and Betty Sue Johnson the story tellers.

They were selected in contests at the school this week, and will compete with pupils from other ward schools here.

Back After Forty Years

Styles don't change much after all, as this reflection of the past proves. The 1935 poke bonnet left, has a brim on it but still sits on the back of the head like grandma's, right, did back in 1895.

MRS. SIMS' PSYCHIC BID MAKES SLAM TO CUT CULBERTSON LEAD

By MAX HILL
Associated Press Staff Writer
NEW YORK, March 29.—(AP)—One freak hand and the simple but astounding way P. Hal and Dorothy Sims bid it was the subject of much controversy today as the Culbertson-Sims bridge marathon of 150 rubbers swung into its eighth session and 20th rubber with Ely and Josephine Culbertson, 2,530 points ahead.

"One club," said Dorothy Sims, with the jack the only club in her hand. (Mrs. Sims is noted for her psychics.)

"Pass," was all Culbertson had to say.

"Seven clubs," said Sims, slowly but without hesitation.

Culbertson, started, glanced at his bulky opponent.

Mrs. Culbertson, smiling slightly, passed.

Mrs. Sims did, too. She was tense and apparently dismayed.

Culbertson Has Doubts
"By the way, Hal," queried Culbertson, arching his eyebrows, "is this contract bridge we are playing?"

Sims thought a moment and chuckled. He shifted heavily in his chair.

"I was under the impression it might be pinocchio," he answered.

Mrs. Sims moved nervously, as Culbertson opened with the club deuce.

Mims flipped eight clubs onto the table, including the ace, king and queen.

Sims captured the trick with her lone jack.

She went ahead to play the hand neatly, avoiding a heart finesse which she could not afford to take, although it would have succeeded. She returned a small diamond, trumped in dummy, which was blank in diamonds and then dropped the remaining trump, discarding a spade herself on the second trump lead.

"No Such Bid"
Two more rounds of diamonds picked up Culbertson's queen, making her jack good.

Culbertson was incensed.
"I still don't believe there is such a bid in any system," he said "Even the Sims system. One club—seven clubs. Bah!"

Sims nodded agreement.
"I agree heartily with you, Ely," he said.

The Culbertsons have won 15 of the 28 rubbers played. The count of aces and kings has been 18-15 for Sims, 373 aces and 399 kings.

Until the 28th rubber, in which they made the grand slam, Sims and his wife trailed by 5,500 points. They picked up 2,970 points on the rubber to cut the Culbertson advantage to 2,530. There was only an afternoon session yesterday.

Guest Instructs Merten H. D. Club After Luncheon

Lessons by a visitor, Mrs. A. R. Walberg of Kingsmill club were given women of Merten Home Demonstration club Wednesday in Italian hemstitching and mitering hems.

Mrs. J. O. Browning was hostess at an all-day meeting.

A covered dish lunch was served at noon. In the business meeting plans were continued for the cook book which home demonstration clubs of this county are compiling.

A called meeting was announced for next Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. W. Taylor.

Miss Ruby Adams, county agent, was a guest late in the afternoon. Members present were Mmes. Taylor, F. Meers, Alva Phillips, Fred C. Fischer, C. B. Hanes, Kelly, Tiffany, H. K. Knapp, and Brownling.

MRS BARRETT IS HONOREE AT BRIDGE-LUNCH

MAYFAIR CLUB GIVEN A PRETTY PARTY YESTERDAY

As a parting courtesy to Mrs. Julian Barrett, a member who expects to leave Pampa about April 1 to make her home in Atlanta, Ga., Mayfair club members were entertained at the home of Miss Margaret Buckler yesterday.

Luncheon was served at a table centered with yellow roses and lighted with yellow candles. Varying shades of yellow appeared in the favors, menu, and bridge appointments, carrying out an Easter theme.

Four tables of club members and guests took part in the games. Mrs. Arthur Holland made high score, and Mrs. P. O. Sanders second high.

Mrs. Barrett has been a member of this and other social clubs of the city, as well as an active worker in junior federated club circles and with women of the Episcopal church during her residence here.

Wheeler Teams Are Winners in Tennis Tryouts

WHEELER, March 29.—Tennis finals for the county in interscholastic league meet were held in Wheeler Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday after school. The Wheeler girls singles and doubles won first and the Wheeler boys won second in this Class A try-out. The Class B try-outs will be held Saturday at Shamrock.

The Business and Professional Women's club was entertained at the home of Miss Doris Hooker Monday night. After the business meeting was conducted, bridge was played with Miss Gladys Gunter winning high score. Refreshments were served to Mrs. Thelma Jackson, Audrey Buchanan, and Wanda Taylor, guests, and Misses Blanche Adams, Vinita Myers, Blanche Grainger, Lettie Womach, Clara Finslerwald, Hattie Womach, Gladys Gunter, Viola Jones, and the hostesses, Doris Hooker and Mary Lee Wicker.

Personals
Floyd Adams of Mobette was a business caller in Wheeler Monday.

R. J. Puckett spent the week-end in Amarillo, visiting his parents, Mrs. and Mrs. Roy Puckett.

Lee McBee, county constable, is ill, at this writing.

O. B. Miller transacted business in Amarillo Monday.

Among those who were in Shamrock Thursday night were J. C. and A. B. Turner, Earl Farris, Lindsay McCasland, Alex Morgan, and John Picke.

Miss Bernie Addison was in Pampa Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rathjen of Kellam were in Wheeler on business Friday.

Herbert Sivage of Briscoe was in Wheeler Saturday.

Mrs. O. B. Miller was in Shamrock Monday afternoon.

V. E. St. Clair made a business trip to Pampa Monday.

Barbara Hutton In Seclusion In New York Home

NEW YORK, March 29.—(AP)—H. H. the Princess Alexis Medva—that's the way her baggage is inscribed—rested in seclusion today after hiding in the 11-d of a mighty steamship and coming ashore down the crew's gangplank.

From here the princess—formerly Barbara Hutton, heiress to the Woolworth 5-and-10-cent estate—plans to go to Reno to divorce her polo-playing prince.

She is staying at the fifth avenue home of her father, Franklin Hutton. In a Long Island railroad yard the Hutton private car is ready for her westward trip.

As far as could be learned, she did not plan to start today. Possibly tomorrow, possibly not.

Princess Medva did not wish to say anything about her divorce plans, and she successfully avoided saying it as she returned from Europe late yesterday.

Steamship officials, customs and immigration officers' ship's officers, forty pier police, servants and relatives cooperated to whisk her off the Bremen and into the waiting limousine which took her home.

CLASS REPORTS FEATURE PARTY FOR ALATHEANS

April Fool Social Is Enjoyed by Members

An April Fool party was combined with the monthly business session of Alathean class at First Baptist church Tuesday afternoon. An office vacancy was filled when Mrs. M. W. Boyd was elected fellowship vice-president, with Mrs. Louis Turley her assistant.

After the class song, Loyalty to Christ, Mrs. Keith Caldwell presented a devotional topic, Intercessory Prayer, and Mrs. R. W. Tucker led the opening prayer.

Mrs. J. W. Smith presided for the business hour, when class reports were heard. Only one point was heard, last month in attending a standard class, and each point in standardization is being brought up this month, the secretary reported.

Five new members brought enrollment up to 38. Mrs. C. P. Fisher, enlargement chairman, reported 192 visits, 16 telephone calls, and 22 cards sent during the month.

Mrs. Keith Caldwell, class ministries chairman, reported an increase of daily Bible readers, almost perfect record for bringing Bibles to class, a gift sent to a baby, several trays and bouquets sent.

A group of 40 women present on Sunday, April 6, was sent in talks by the teacher, Mrs. Tucker, and associate teacher, Mrs. R. E. Gatlin. Visitors introduced 14 new members. Mrs. J. A. Arwood, associate superintendent of the young people's department, and C. O. Huber, educational director of the church.

Mrs. Boyd was in charge of the April Fool games and stunts. Refreshments were served afterward.

Women registered as follows: Eleanor Boyd, Georgia Dunaway, Doris Crawford, Jimmy Simpson, Ruth Allen, Celia Faye Jordan, Evelyn McPeak, Norma Lockhart, Evelyn Taylor, Jimmie Jordan, Inez McCarley, Mildred Myatt, Grace Martin.

Frankie Lee Hughes, Lonas Hake, Lucile Salmon, Eunice Matthews.

Seeks Divorce

Wedding bells aren't on the program when Dorothy Gish obtains her proposed divorce from James Rennie, noted actor, her attorney announced in Bridgeport, Conn.

The famous stage and screen star was reported to be very ill and not contemplating marriage to Rennie, an actor. Rennie and Miss Gish were married in 1920.

PLAY POSTPONED
The play announced by the Senior B. Y. P. U. class of Central Baptist church for presentation at White Deer Sunday evening will not be given then, but plans are being discussed for giving it at some future date. The cast took the drama to LeFors Baptist church Wednesday evening, when a large crowd saw it. It was given here last Sunday.

YOUNG PEOPLE TO APPEAR ON C. E. PROGRAM

Leave Today For a District Meet Of Week-end

Young people of First Christian church here will be represented by a delegation at the district Christian Endeavor conference at Memphis this week-end. Several from Pampa will be on program.

Fred Lamb of Pampa is district president, and will make his address at 8 p. m. today to open the convention. Charles Madeira will have charge of a fellowship program this evening.

John Martin, district publicity director, will conduct a conference on publicity tomorrow. John S. Miller, minister here, will speak tomorrow morning on the topic, Youth Building a New World.

Others going from here are Madge Tiemann, Doris Hall, Alice Reedy, Ruth Ann Plunk, Morris Belew, Maurice Wooten, Wayne Hutchins, Turner Ferrell.

Featured speakers at the conference are Roy Snodgrass of Amarillo, whose subject tonight is Task

Rally Starts at Nazarene Church

A fifth-Sunday rally will open at the Church of the Nazarene this evening at 7:30. Mrs. Ola Boles of Whittenburg will deliver the sermon in this rally.

An invitation is extended by the Rev. Earl Bond, pastor, to all who will attend the meetings.

Postponed Outing Planned by Scouts

Bad weather prevented the outing planned by Girl Scouts of troop six last Saturday, so they will meet for a winter roast tomorrow afternoon if the weather is favorable. Each girl is to bring wieners and bread for her lunch.

Last Saturday their meeting was turned into an indoor picnic at the Methodist church.

Deputies when they were seen running across a field. Sheriff R. E. Hester said the women were known to be friends of Hamilton.

Smith and Ballis, members of a posse of 15—all of whom were overpowered by the pair—were taken as hostages. Smith's car was commandeered and Smith forced along as driver.

Gov. Sennett Conner ordered the national guard mobilized late yesterday after the bandits, using a sheriff and three other persons as shields, surprised the posse 12 miles north of Prentiss and disarmed them.

About 100 guardsmen were summoned at Jackson, but all except 10 of them were sent home at midnight. Adjutant-General Thomas L. Grayson said they could be recalled at an hour's notice.

The adjutant-general said he was informed the men were last seen at 5:30 p. m. yesterday turning off into a gravel road three miles west of Georgetown.

Deputy Sheriff Lee said Sheriff Ehnis Crawford of Covington county, who was kidnaped by the bandits, was slightly wounded in the head. The sheriff escaped during one of the gun battles.

Mrs. Rodney Polk of near Prentiss was shot through the left arm when her father-in-law, J. T. Polk, opened fire on the bandits as they attempted to commandeer his automobile.

Glenn Cunningham Leaves For Texas

KANSAS CITY, March 29 (AP)—Glenn Cunningham, the "Elkhart Express" of the indoor boards and the cinder paths, is tiring of tramping. He wants a rest.

Nursing a cold and an injured ankle, Cunningham left here today for Austin to compete in the Texas relays, his first outdoor meet of the season.

"I would like to have a few weekends in Iowa to do the things I want to," he said. "I'd like to relax a little and also get time to work on my thesis."

Cunningham, formerly of the University of Kansas, is taking a master's degree in physical education at the University of Iowa. He said he might carry a lighter schedule next summer.

Dwight Hurley left yesterday to visit relatives in Clovis, N. M., after spending two weeks with Harry Davis here. He is a resident of Fort Riley, Kan.

CLASSES IN GOLF OFFERED GIRL STUDENTS AT TEXAS UNIVERSITY

AUSTIN, March 29. (AP)—If a future girl graduate of the University of Texas doesn't know the difference between a niblick and a putter, it's her fault. The women's physical training department of the university offers classes in golf and gives credit for the work or play.

When the instruction was started this school year there was room for 200 girls and the classes filled quickly. In fact, the number of applicants exceeded 200 and some were forced to wait until another term.

A 6-hole course for the girls was laid out last summer back of the women's gymnasium. It is not very long, 785 yards in all, but difficult. The girls have to shoot across a creek on two holes. A tree is squarely in the way of a long drive on the No. 2 hole but university officials so far have refused to cut down the tree in keeping with their policy of preserving the natural beauty of the campus.

The first hole is the shortest but the trickiest. The girls have to drive across a wide ditch, the bank of which extends to within a few feet of the green. If they swing too hard the ball rolls to the bottom of a 25-foot embankment.

The course is rated a par 24 for women. The green are not in top condition and in some places it is difficult to distinguish the fairway from the rough. Those in charge of women's athletics hope, however, to have that situation remedied within a few years.

him with the threatening demands because he formerly roomed with a boy whom officials had questioned about the notes, but who had no connection with them.

W. W. Miller, attorney for the girl, said, "a hundred" more persons volunteered to affix their signatures to the document.

Justice Couch set April 19 as the date for a preliminary hearing for the co-ed.

After her release she walked calmly out of the courthouse, pausing for a moment to be photographed on the steps.

"I'm glad to be out. I am going right home and rest," she said.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Pope and Mrs. F. C. Ledrick left this morning for a month's stay in Mineral Wells.

C. C. Thomas of Oklahoma City was a visitor in Pampa yesterday and today.

THE PROBLEM OF SOIL EROSION

By Marvin Jones

The dust-laden haze which has traveled from the West and hung over many cities of the east this month, following a similar occurrence last May, has aroused people throughout the nation to the possible far-reaching effects of severe windstorms in the west. Greater interest is now being manifested in the problem of soil erosion than ever before, and the necessity of some kind of remedy for this extravagant loss of farming land is being more fully realized.

The Soil Erosion service in the Department of the Interior points out the fact that the direct cost of erosion is at least 400 million dollars each year, with losses during the next 50 years reaching a possible 20 or 30 billion dollars unless something is done. This service is to be transferred to the Department of Agriculture, where it belongs.

A nation-wide erosion survey has revealed that the area of formerly cultivated land which is largely ruined amounts to approximately 100 million acres—an area nearly equal to the combined size of Ohio, Illinois, Maryland, and North Carolina, and which could support 625,000 farms of 160 acres each!

In the Panhandle of Texas alone, eight million acres of land have been seriously injured and in some cases essentially ruined for cultivation as a result of wind erosion. Additional large areas are threatened.

The immediate problem is to determine what can be done to stop further ravages of our nation's most valuable resource, its productive soil, and also what can be done to save land already injured.

Wind erosion is of comparatively recent origin. Before the natural protective covering of plans land was removed for the growing of crops, no such problem arose. But the exposure of the land and the lack of knowledge as to how to protect such land, together with drought periods which have aggravated the situation, have in many cases resulted in the loss of soil which required thousands of years to develop naturally.

The Soil Erosion service has done some preliminary work of great value with the resources at hand. The experiment station at Dalhart has been making an important first-hand study of our own section. Such work, however, should be expanded and made broader in scope, and I have therefore been urging that a sufficient allocation of funds be made available through the administration's work relief measure to provide for a larger and more comprehensive program of soil erosion control.

H. H. Finnell, who is in charge of the soil erosion station at Dalhart, sums up the need for such a program. "The experiences of recent years," he says, "impress the fact that erosion by wind if prevention is neglected is capable of quick destruction of the usefulness of farm lands and must be resisted by every available control method. A prevention program with all phases practically coordinated to afford advance preparation against drought hazards is essential." In my judgment, the plan suggested by Mr. Finnell should be used.

I feel that provision should be made to assist the individual farmers in meeting this problem which is of such vast importance, and I intend to continue my efforts toward obtaining such aid.

THE NEW DEAL IN WASHINGTON

By Rodney Dutcher

NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—The stewing in Congress over NRA legislation isn't anywhere near as important as the attitude of the nine old men who occupy the ancient chamber of the U. S. Supreme Court, on the long corridor between Senate and House.

Nearly everyone in Congress agrees that the least that should be preserved of NRA is its provision for establishment—and enforcement—of maximum hours and minimum wages.

Without that, there just isn't any NRA and if the government lacks power to enforce it employers will slip back to the old days when wages of $5 and $6 a week and work-weeks of 60 or 70 hours were common in industry.

The supreme court must decide whether wage and hour regulation can be enforced. And it will so decide late in April or early in May, after it hears arguments on the Belcher lumber case.

Donald Richberg has proposed an NIRA which will meet the court's objections in the hot oil case by more clearly defining the intent of Congress and laying down more definite standards.

But the Belcher case decision probably will tell Congress whether it can have any NRA at all.

Federal judges have been kicking the issue around for months, deciding this way and that way. The issue is simply: Is the production of goods interstate commerce or intrastate commerce and, in either event, is Congress empowered to regulate conditions of production by virtue of the fact that such regulation is necessary if Congress is to exercise effectively its constitutional right to regulate interstate commerce?

The Senate Munitions Committee assigned a couple of its expert to draft a preliminary bill for control of the munitions industry and taking the profits out of war. According to latest grapevine reports, they had agreed on one line—which has to do with profit regulation in wartime:

"Trade shall run regularly to Leavenworth and Atlanta."

John T. Flynn, eminent economist and writer and a member of the committee's technical advisory board, will be called in to help write the measure. He will take the witness stand to present recommendations and to be followed by Bernard Mannes Baruch, who with General Johnson sired the McSwain "take-the-profits-out-of-war" bill in the House.

The Senate committee's bill will be much stronger than the Baruch bill, which would provide for price-freezing, but not for removal of war profits.

Baruch will be asked to reconcile it with his statement to the War Policies Commission in 1931 that production increase would result in "huge war profits even with a fixed price structure and a high excess-profits tax."

Iowa postmaster concedes that limburger may be sent by mail. Well, anyway, that will mean something to Uncle Sam—an extra scent on each package.

Dusting The Covers Of Texas History

For THE TEXAS CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION OF 1936

As a result of the Snively expedition, Captain Cooke was made the laughing stock of the United States, and the mistreated Jacob Snively was a hero for many days to come. The Texas Telegraph and Register kept up with his activities. While towns were springing up, colleges being founded, and statesmen were pondering over the annexation problem, Snively was mine-hunting near the Trinity river.

The Telegraph ventured an opinion: "We doubt, however, whether any mine can be found in that section, unless it be a lead mine. We have often wondered that the mine hunters of our frontier never attempted to search for the copper mine on the Brazos above the Bosque. That mine is laid down on all the old Spanish maps, and it is described by old hunters who have visited it as exceedingly valuable. We believe it is more valuable than any other mine in Texas. It is situated on the east bank of the Bosque, about 100 miles above the mouth of the Bosque river. An intelligent and respectable trader, who visited it about 20 years ago, stated that there are thousands of tons of ore at this mine, that can be removed with very little labor, and the ore is so rich that it will yield from 70 to 80 per cent of pure copper."

No account is given of the result of Snively's mine-hunting. If it suffered the fate of his commercial scheme, it was not so successful. Meanwhile, Texas was becoming a rather prosperous republic. Cotton and crops were doing well. The Telegraph lamented the fact that the old town of Guadalupe Victoria was in a bad condition. "A once thriving town, it is almost completely destroyed, and there is scarcely a store in the place." Victoria did not have a permanent death, for it is one of the most thriving towns in South Texas today. In East Texas a new town named Jefferson grew up from a settlement of farmers. "But," the Telegraph said, "we are sorry that its proprietors or occupants are so destitute of good taste or originality as to give it a name that is too common in the United States." Jefferson, Victoria, and every other town in Texas that has lived through the hundred years of Texas' independence and progress will join in the Centennial celebrations to be held all over the state in 1936.

ment of the law against liquor would hasten its repeal. They expressed the opinion that the best way to get rid of an unpopular law was to enforce it and that to cut off the supply would speed the day of repeal.

Others, however, believed the reaction would be different. They pointed out that many dries who would have voted for repeal might have a change of mind if the governor were successful in enforcing the law. One of their chief arguments for prohibition repeal is that it has been a colossal failure and impossible of enforcement.

The prediction that liquor would be driven under cover and cause a return of the bootlegging that existed prior to repeal of national prohibition was made by repealists. They argued the public desire for liquors would remain and that bootlegging would flourish anew.

CAPITOL CHATTER

By Charles E. Simons

AUSTIN, March 29 (AP)—Those who believe Governor James V. Allred's drive to stamp out gambling and illegal liquor selling is a sporadic movement may be let in for a surprise.

If the governor carries out his present intentions all gambling and liquor emporiums will be closed. The determined way in which he sponsored his drive has given rise to the prediction that it will become a continuous program unless, and until, legislation is enacted to legalize liquor and gambling.

The governor's hatchet swinging rangers went into action in a big way and reports reaching Austin suggest that operators of gambling houses and liquor establishments have accepted his advice and "folded up their tents." The rangers demonstrated that although they no longer ride the country enforcing the law with a six-gun they can do an effective job with a hatchet.

There was little noticeable reaction in the Texas legislature over the governor's campaign and most of the remarks about it were facetious. Some members appeared pleased that the governor had decided to take the initiative but for the most part legislators displayed only a passing interest, notwithstanding that the first raid was conducted in Austin on a night club at which several law makers were dancing.

Certain anti-prohibition leaders said they believed strict enforcement

WELL, IF I CAN GET WITHIN PITCHIN' DISTANCE OF HIM, I INTEND TO TOSS SOMETHING BESIDES BALONEY AT THAT TWO-TIMER! DRIVE ME TO THE JAIL!

WINDY-YER WIFE IS OUTSIDE AND WANTS TO SEE YOU - & GUESS THERE AINT NO DANGER OF HER SLIPPIN' YOU A GUN, ER A HACK SAW, SO I'LL SHOW HER IN HERE TO YER CELL!

NIX!! I'LL SEE HER IN THE VISITORS CAGE!!

BUT VISITORS AINT ALLOWED INSIDE - AND IT'S GOT A WIRE SCREEN ALL AROUND IT!

THAT'S WHY I WANTA MEET HER THERE!!

OUT OUR WAY

By WILLIAMS

AW, COME ON! JES SIT STILL A LITTLE WHILE LONGER AND LEMME DRAW YA. COURSE I AIN'T SO GOOD BUT - GEE WHIZ -

NOW, IS THIS BEING NICE? I THINK YOU MIGHT HELP YOUR BROTHER OUT. HOW DO WE KNOW BUT THAT SOMEDAY HE'LL BE A GREAT ARTIST? WE SHOULD ENCOURAGE HIM, ANYWAY. IT'S THE ONLY AMBITION HE'S EVER HAD

AMBITION, BLAH! HE'S JES HAVIN' FUN - AT MY EXPENSE. I SHOULD SIT THERE AN' LET HIM SKETCH FUNNY FACES! LOOK AT THE LAST ONE HE DREW OF ME - JUST LOOK AT IT!!

ARTISTIC TEMPER - AMENT.

ALLEY OOP

WE BETTER BE GIVIN' A THOUGHT TO WHAT WE'RE GONNA DO WHEN TH' LEMIAN ARMY GETS BACK HERE --

HAVE YOU ANY PLAN FOR DEFENSE?

I SUGGEST THAT YOU AN' I BUILD A BREASTWORK OF ROCKS IN FRONT OF TH' BIG ARCH, AN' MAKE OUR STAND THERE!

UH-HUH, BUT WHAT ABOUT DINNIE, UMPATEEDLE, AN' OOLA?

IS THE PRINCESS WOOTIETOOT ALL RIGHT?

OH, YES - SHE'S UP IN TH' CAVES, SOMEWHERE

Planning the Defense

TH' GIRLS ON DINNIE, CAN HIDE BEHIND TH' ARCH AN' THEN, WHEN TH' BATTLE GETS HOT, THEY CAN CHARGE DINNIE RIGHT INTO TH' MIDDLE OF TH' LEMIAN ARMY - AN' SLOOIE - IT'LL BE ALL OVER!

I THINK THAT IS A WONDERFUL PLAN!

SO DO I!

SAAY!

Oh, Diana!

WELL -- YA KNOW YOU'RE IN TH' DOG-HOUSE, BUDDY. I DUNNO IF DIANA'LL TALK TO YA.

NO -- TELL HIM I WON'T DAD.

BUD WANTS T' KNOW CAN HE COME OVER THEN?

TELL HIM, NOT FOR A WHOLE WEEK!

THAT'S RIGHT, BUD. SHE SAID A WEEK, HUH? -- WHAT? -- ER -- UH --

HE SAYS TO ASK YA IF IT'S OKAY FOR HIM TO DATE SOME OTHER GIRL DURIN' THAT TIME??

International Sunday School Lesson

By DR. J. E. NUNN

General Topic: Review: Lessons From the Life and Letters of Peter. Scripture Lesson: 1 Peter 5:6-11; 2 Peter 3:14, 17, 18.

1 Peter 5:6. Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time;

7. Casting all your care upon him, for he careth for you.

8. Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:

9. Whom resist steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.

10. But the God of all grace, who hath called us into his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you.

11. To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

2 Peter 3:14. Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.

17. Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness.

18. But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen.

The Lesson Topics and the Golden Texts for the quarter are as follows:

1. Jan. 6. Peter's Conversion and Call.—John 1:35-42; Mark 1:14-18. Golden Text: And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.—Mark 1:17.

2. Jan. 13. Peter's Great Confession.—Luke 9:18-26; 1 Peter 2:5, 6. Golden Text: And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.—Matt. 16:16.

3. Jan. 20. Peter's Lesson in Humble Service.—John 13:1-17; 1 Peter 5:5. Golden Text: All of you gird yourselves with humility, to serve one another.—1 Peter 5:5.

4. Jan. 27. Peter's Denial.—Mark 14:27-31, 64, 66-72. Golden Text: Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.—1 Cor. 10:12.

5. Feb. 3. Peter's Restoration.—John 21:11-19. Golden Text: Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee.—John 21:17.

6. Feb. 10. Peter Preaches at Pentecost.—Acts 2:22-28, 36-41. Golden Text: And Peter said unto them, Repent ye, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ unto the remission of your sins; and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.—Acts 2:38.

7. Feb. 17. Peter Teaches Good Citizenship (Temperance Lesson).—1 Peter 2:11-17; 4:1-5. Golden Text: Love worketh no ill to his neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.—Rom. 13:10.

8. Feb. 24. Peter Heals a Lame Man.—Acts 3:1-10; 4:9-12. Golden Text: Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee.—Acts 3:6.

9. Mar. 3. Peter Unmasks Falsehood and Hypocrisy.—Acts 5:1-6; 8:18-24. Golden Text: Wherefore, putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbor; for we are members one of another.—Eph. 4:25.

10. Mar. 10. Peter Preaches to Gentiles.—Acts 10:34-48. Golden Text: God is no respecter of persons; but in every nation he that feareth him and worketh righteousness, is acceptable to him.—Acts 10:34, 35.

11. Mar. 17. Peter Delivered from Prison.—Acts 12:5-17. Golden Text: Prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.—Acts 12:5.

12. Mar. 24. Peter Describes the Christian Life.—1 Peter 3:8-18. Golden Text: Sanctify the Lord God in your hearts.—1 Peter 3:15.

13. Mar. 31. Review: Lessons from the Life and Letters of Peter.—1 Peter 5:6-11; 2 Peter 3:14-18. Golden Text: Grow in grace and knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.—2 Peter 3:18.

Peter a Missionary and Martyr:
 We note five things about Peter: 1. Peter was a Christian. A Galilean fisherman, he became the disciple of John the Baptist and was won to Christ by his brother Andrew on the banks of the lower Jordan where John was baptizing and where Jesus had just returned from his temptation in the wilderness. 2. Peter was a preacher. By the lakeside in Capernaum he was called to permanent association with Jesus. His name appears first on all four recorded lists of the Twelve. He belonged to that inner trio that accompanied Jesus to the death-couch of the ruler's daughter and up the Mount of Transfiguration and into the Garden of Gethsemane. Probably the most fruitful sermon any man ever preached was that which he delivered on the day of Pentecost resulting in the conversion and accession to the church of three thousand souls. 3. Peter was a missionary. He

Johnson To Live In Oklahoma; To Run For Senate?

OKMULGEE, Okla., March 29 (AP)—Gen. Hugh Johnson's senatorial ambitions—if he has any—were laid aside temporarily today as he prepared a final blast at Father Coughlin to be given Saturday night over the radio.

"This is going to dispose of the controversy," Johnson said of his reply to the Detroit priest.

The former blue eagle chief didn't care to talk about what he was going to say. In fact he didn't care to talk about many things—particularly whether he is going to run for the senate against Senator T. P. Gore next fall.

Johnson's announcement today that he was coming back to Oklahoma to live gave credence to the report that he will seek the senatorship.

Johnson's answer was still "no," with the reservation that "I have the right to change my mind any time I please."

The sharp-tongued blind Senator Gore, from Washington sent a "welcome home" to Johnson.

Boy Weeps When Jury Gives Him To Rich Father

SAN ANTONIO, March 29 (AP)—William F. Morgan, wealthy oil operator had custody of his 11-year-old son, William F. Jr. today.

The child was transferred to his father from his mother, Mrs. Alice Traylor Morgan Coulier, yesterday a few moments after a district court jury had awarded his custody to the father.

Mrs. Coulier, Morgan's former wife, was awarded custody of the child in a divorce suit two years ago. Morgan charged that the mother was unfit to continue to have the child in her care. She was given the privilege of seeing the boy.

William F. Jr. cried when the transfer was made and Morgan tried to calm him. Mrs. Coulier, in an office across the corridor from the court room sobbed while Harold K.

(Duke) Coulier, former army officer and polo star, held her hand. Coulier and Mrs. Morgan were married last February 26.

Counsel for Mrs. Coulier filed a motion for a new trial.

A popular method of committing suicide in Japan is to leap into the smoking crater of Mount Mihara, a volcano on the island of Oshima in Tokyo bay.

A WORD TO THE WIVES IS SUFFICIENT

The meals you serve help keep the family fit. In many homes, common constipation develops as a result of insufficient "bulk" in the meals. This can be overcome by delicious cereal.

Research shows that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN furnishes "bulk" in convenient form. ALL-BRAN also provides vitamin B and iron.

How much better it is to eat this gentle natural food than to risk taking patent medicines. Continued use does not lower its effectiveness. Two tablespoons daily are usually sufficient. Chronic cases, with each meal. If not relieved, see your doctor.

Serve as a cereal with milk or cream, or use in cooking. Appetizing recipes on the red-and-green package. At all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

SMALL, FAST UNITS TO FIGHT IN OPEN IN NEXT U. S. WAR

WASHINGTON, March 29. (AP)—The "next war," if it comes, especially if fought on American soil, will be a war of comparatively small but highly-trained armies, traveling to the attack at high speed.

on the speed of its trucks and tanks instead of the speed at which men and horses can walk. Because of this greater speed, armies will operate and fight over much greater distances and areas. They will be kept relatively small for ease of maneuvering.

The opening of the new Pan-American highway early this summer and the fact that Mexico City has been chosen by Rotary and Linos as their convention city will increase tourist travel to Old Mexico this year.

They had been told that the temperature in the Customs House at Vera Cruz was never less than 125 degrees in the summer but found it only 80 the day they were there. The altitude varies from sea level to high mountain peaks with a wide range of temperature.

On their train ride to Mexico City (Mexico Federal District, we learn in this book), they view miles and miles of barren plateaus with an occasional brightly painted small dwelling with gaily colored flowers blooming nearby.
