TRACES OF FOUR MISSING TOURISTS ESTABLISHED AS CAR IS RECOGNIZED

MURDER TRAIL IS PICKED UP BY SEARCHERS

FILLING STATION OPERATOR IDENTIFIES QUARTET'S CAR

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., June 29. (AP)—Governor Clyde Tingley announced tonight personal effects—keys, cards, remnants of clothing—belonging to George Lorus, his wife, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Heberer missing Illinois tourists were found tonight four miles west of Albuquerque on the Vaughn highway.

Definite trace of where a man believed to have slain them drove the tourists' car, unloaded their belongings and attempted to burn them was found, Governor Tingley said.

The discovery was made by a cowboy, whose name was not immediately available. He led the governor and state policeman Kal Kerr to the charred and scorched clues.

Declaring the discovery tonight was almost certain proof the couples were slain between here and Vaughn, the governor said he had called all state policemen and National Guardsmen to Albuquerque, and would start out at daybreak on a massed hunt for the bodies of the tourists.

QUEMADO, N. M., June 29. (AP)—Definite trace of the four missing Illinois tourists was believed established today by officers who found a filling station proprietor who

New Deal Has Big Day—Poll Totals Growing

Out of 24 ballots received in the mails yesterday in the Pampa Daily News new deal poll, 23 voters approved the "deal" with one opposed. Ballots came from a number of nearby towns as well as from Gray county.

Only three voters thought Mr. Roosevelt should not be re-elected. Only three opposed a constitutional amendment to validate NRA. Four voters opposed an amendment to take away from the Supreme Court its power to nullify the acts of congress. On the question of whether the constitution is flexible enough to meet emergencies of the next decade, 13 voters said it was and 12 said it was not.

The poll standing, according to propositions numbered on the ballots, was as follows: 1—Yes 97, No 28; 2—Yes 112, No 20; 3—Yes 63, No 70; 4—Yes 56, No 73; 5—Yes 66, No 69.

Readers are invited to send in ballots and to comment on the issues.

Strayed Windmill Is Hunted by Ranchman

Cattlemen commonly are troubled by straying stock. But W. R. (Bob) Campbell yesterday was looking for a missing windmill.

Friday afternoon he inspected the 8-foot Sampson mill and found it in excellent condition at his Mendota ranch about 10 miles east of Miami. Saturday morning the tower remained but the wheel, fan, and mechanism had been stolen—taken down piece by piece and carried to a vehicle on the highway.

Only a few nuts and fewer tracks remained to show the presence extraordinarily skillful intruders.

Park Site Will Be Sought For S. Pampa Folk

Donation of a tract of land, large or small, in South Pampa would make possible the realization of one of the city's chief needs, the development of a park as a beauty spot for the Pampa south side. An attempt to secure such a gift is being made by the Pampa Garden club, and any person desiring to donate property or to secure further information may do so by getting in touch with Mrs. P. E. Leech or Mrs. Gibb Pool, the committee in charge. It was pointed out that such a park would enhance the value of surrounding property and would be a suitable memorial to the donor. It would be developed by the city of Pampa and would be located somewhere north of Alcock avenue, south of the railroad tracks, and east of Cuyler.

FDR PREPARES TO WIELD BIG STICK IN UTILITIES BATTLE

House in Uproar; Test Vote To Be Monday; Bitter Session Ends Saturday

WASHINGTON, June 29. (AP)—Ripped wide open by internal insurgency over President Roosevelt's demanded "death sentence" for utility holding companies, the democratic house adjourned a bitter session today on the verge of a vote that will test administration strength Monday. The big test will come on a teller vote on an amendment to substitute the senate approval provision to outlaw utility holding companies in seven years for the house interstate commerce provision, leaving their fate to the securities exchange commission.

It will be offered by Representative Eicher (D-Iowa) of the Interstate Commerce. A record vote on the amendment will be impossible at this stage but administration men are preparing to check the democrats as they file through the counters. White House pressure may be used on the dissenters.

To bring the issue to an early showdown, the house agreed to sidetrack all other business Monday and meet at 10 a. m. with a view to finally disposing of the bill by Tuesday. Then it would take a three day recess over the Fourth of July.

Throwing their influence back of President Roosevelt's demand yesterday that the house accept the "death sentence" provision, senate administration leaders informally notified house democrats they would move to kill the legislation unless it was adopted.

This caused some consternation in the divided democratic forces. During the day's heated debate the president's name often was brought up. Republican independents and progressives announced their support of his "death sentence."

WASHINGTON, June 29. (AP)—The 74th congress ended its first six months today with many members politically at sea and the bulk of the new deal program still awaiting final action. To what extent President Roosevelt remains master of the situation, as he has been in general since winning the opening two-month dispute over the $4,880,000,000 work relief appropriation, will be evidenced by house action next week on the utility bill.

Summer Band to Play Concert in City Park Today

Its first open air concert of the summer will be played today by the municipal or summer band directed by Winston Savage.

The concert will start at 8:45 p. m. in the city park, and will last about 45 minutes. Mr. Savage said the program would consist of serenades, marches, and two overtures. The municipal band is the older group. Citizens are urged to drive by the park and, if they like, to rest in the park during the concert.

FERRIS WON'T DISCUSS DEATH OF DICKINSON

HUNTED MAN ARRESTED AT FORT WAYNE, INDIANA

JONESVILLE, Mich., June 29. (AP)—William Lee Ferris and three women arrested with him at Fort Wayne, Ind., were brought here tonight under state police escort for questioning in connection with the slaying of Howard Dickinson, New York attorney in Detroit Wednesday night.

Ferris, accompanied by Lieut. Andrew Doyle of Detroit and Trooper George Milligan of White Pigeon, arrived here from Fort Wayne by automobile at 8:10 p. m. He was taken immediately into a private room for finger-printing, but Doyle said that he had refused to discuss the slaying of Dickinson and confined his conversation on the trip to remarks about the weather. A second car brought Bobbie Jackson, described as an intimate friend of Ferris, her sister, Florence and a third "party girl" who said she was Lillian Minkes of Detroit, also under police escort.

Sergt. C. B. Miller said Miss Minkes had told them she did not know Ferris, knew nothing of how Dickinson met his death and merely went with the Jackson sisters "for the ride."

JAPANESE DRIVE SEEN AS PLOT TO FIGHT REDS

Believe Japan Would Use China as a War Base. TIENTSIN, China, June 29. (AP)—Foreign military observers here, watching the Japanese army clutch north China even tighter in its mailed fist, said today they believed Japan's leading motive was preparation for possible war with Soviet Russia.

They credited the army's insistence on the demilitarization of Hopei province to its desire for absolute control of lines of communication in north China, as well as the desire to avoid trouble with Chinese troops.

With the army's protectorate over north China virtually established, the military sources pointed out, Japan can count on non-interference on her left if she has to push troops out into Mongolia to fight the Russian bear.

MEAT PACKERS JOIN UPRISING AGAINST AAA PROCESSING TAX

CHICAGO, June 29. (AP)—The "Big Four" held to the sidelines tonight as nearly two score smaller packing concerns joined an uprising of textile manufacturers and millers against AAA processing taxes.

With the next installment of the collections, from which farmers are paid corn-hog and cotton benefits, due July 1, several of the injunction proceedings seeking to bar further tax payments were scheduled for hearing in federal courts over the country Monday. Some of the concerns ask a refund of taxes already paid. Government officials have estimated that nearly $900,000,000 in processing taxes have been collected. At Washington farm administration authorities scoffed at the triple headed attack on the taxes and charged rumors of widespread strikes contemplated against their payment were spread by opponents seeking defeat of AAA amendments.

TO CONTINUE PRESENT PAY FOR A MONTH

PERKINS HAS A LONG CONFERENCE WITH LEWIS, KENNEDY

By JOSEPH L. MILLER WASHINGTON, June 29. (AP)—John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, tonight called off the soft coal strike set for tomorrow night at the request of President Roosevelt.

Lewis agreed with Duncan Kennedy of Charleston, W. Va., spokesman for Appalachian producers, to continue the mines in operation at present wages and hours through July 31 if the operators accepted. Kennedy had no power to bind the operators to any agreement, but he predicted they would accept it.

Secretary Perkins announced the new truce shortly after nine o'clock. She had been in a long conference with Lewis and Kennedy.

Less than nine hours before, Lewis announced that he was sending out strike orders to 6,000 locals embracing, he said, about 430,000 miners. The strike order followed collapse of wage and hour negotiations. The operators offered a 35-hour week and present wages until April 1, next year. The miners demanded a 30-hour week and a ten per cent pay increase.

Miss Perkins told reporters: "Mr. Lewis and Mr. Kennedy who represent the operators in the conference have been talking things over with me this afternoon and again this evening."

standing that I thought ought to be made clear. I have consulted the president and we believe it is appropriate and wise for the United Mine Workers to postpone a strike call for at least 30 days with efforts in the meantime to reach a reasonable agreement in the public interest.

"We believe this can be done." At this point, the labor department chief turned to Lewis and asked him if he accepted. The burly Lewis said:

"The mine workers will acquiesce in the wish of the president as expressed by the Secretary of Labor and notify our membership to remain at work for 30 days under wages and conditions heretofore existing, providing of course, that the operators will acquiesce."

CHICAGO GRAIN. CHICAGO, June 29 (AP)—Stimulated by a temporary dollar-a-bushel Minneapolis quotations, the Chicago wheat market today overtook yesterday's black-rust-race prices, but failed to hold the gains.

Something of a tumble in wheat values here took place at the outset, owing more or less to cables saying Liverpool quotations had made but a poor response to returns this side of the Atlantic.

Trade Hit Hard By Weather in Second Quarter

NEW YORK, June 29 (AP)—Dun & Bradstreet in its weekly trade review declared today there would be little regret at the passing of the second quarter and that evidence indicated the year's lows had been reached in many divisions of trade and industry.

With less hesitancy now encountered in the placing of future commitments, however, there are indications that the year's lows may have been touched by many divisions. The feeling of greater security which the general public has in the future is evidenced by the steady increase in charge accounts opened and the extension of deferred-payment buying.

Retail Trade Surges Forward

Commerce throughout the country assumed a definite summer pattern last week with industrial operations slackening slightly and retail trade in seasonal merchandise surging forward when permitted by weather conditions.

ITALY PUT IN A MOOD FOR WAR BY PROPAGANDA

Newspaper Campaign Places Stress on Many Factors

ROME, June 29 (AP)—Public opinion in Italy, swerving sharply during the last five months, appeared today to be strongly in favor of a war with Ethiopia.

Overwhelming public support of Italy's African adventure had been considered lacking when the first communique for East African mobilization was published.

Another is widespread belief about great wealth in Ethiopia. Rumors are rife of the finding of gold along Ethiopian streams. Colonial papers speak of gold, platinum, cotton, and coffee.

But consider the contribution of Congressman Maury Maverick of Texas. A citizen had written him a 2,000 word complaint concerning his actions and the activities of the new deal. His dear sirred reply was: "Ph-t-t-t!"

Building Reports DALLAS, June 29 (AP)—Houston again led Texas cities in volume of building last week. Its permits last week amounted to $148,765, which brought the total for year up to $2,936,176.

ROGERS' NEW COMEDY ABOUT STAGE FEVER

COMEDIAN'S WEIGHT IS SURPRISE TO SCALE MAN IN CHINA

Will Rogers, who is soon to be seen in his latest comedy, "Doubting Thomas," at the La Nora theater, admits he had a lot of fun and a few difficulties on his recent trip to the Orient. As a combination of both, he encountered one of those tricked-up weighing machines on a carnival street in Shanghai.

The native attending the scale wanted to guess Rogers' weight and the comedian assented.

"175 pounds," decided the scale man.

"Bet you ten dollars American money you're wrong," Rogers snapped.

"175 pounds," corrected the native.

"Bet you $20 you're not within 20 pounds of my correct weight," offered Will, as he jumped on the scales and registered 198 pounds.

"You know," Rogers relates, "that little fellow couldn't believe his eyes. He pounded and hammered those scales, but they stuck at 198 all right, because that's my real weight. He followed me for five blocks, first to one side and then the other, still trying to convince himself it wasn't one of those American tricks."

E. G. Desjardis produced "Doubting Thomas" for Fox Film and David Butler, directed. Billie Burke plays the part of Will Rogers' stage-struck wife in the production and Alison Skipworth has the role of an amateur impresario.

Sterling Holloway, the popular comedian, enacts the role of a bungling sound-effects man in the film, while Gail Patrick, Frances Grant and Frank Albertson, among others, are in the supporting cast.

U. S. Lads Think Scientifically, Woman Declares

MINNEAPOLIS, June 29 (AP)—Children of the United States, Miss Jean L. Marquis told the American Association for the Advancement of Science today, are superior to children of other countries when it comes to scientific thinking.

And boys have it all over the girls in explaining causes of such things as natural phenomena, Miss Marquis disclosed.

In her work at the University of Minnesota Institute of Child Welfare, Miss Marquis also found that most of the results of casual reasoning in children are more dependent upon experience and training than they are upon development factors.

She ascribed the reason for this better scientific thinking among American children to the "scientific tradition of this country having permeated through society."

Some 700 children ranging in age from eight to 16 years old were questioned on the causes of natural phenomena to gauge their development of reasoning.

They were asked such questions as "what makes the wind blow," "what causes thunder," "why does the candle go out when a jar is placed over the flame?" Most American children, she reported, gave material or naturalistic causes as to the answers.

Conversely, investigators found children of other countries have many "pre-logical" replies, or explanations in which some spirit or force was created in the child's mind to explain what happened.

Only 13 per cent of the American children tested, Miss Marquis reported, even at eight years old, gave that type of answer.

Centennial Body To Meet July 8

AUSTIN, June 29 (AP)—Lieutenant Governor Walter Woodul today called a meeting of the Centennial commission of control for July 8, here, at which time he said an advisory committee on publicity and advertising would be announced.

A fund of $500,000 was provided in a $3,000,000 Centennial appropriation for advertising the central exposition at Dallas and subsidiary historical celebrations elsewhere.

Woodul, chairman of the commission, said he was hopeful Harris and Bexar counties would apply for approval of plans for expenditures of $250,000 allocated each for commemorations at the San Jacinto battlefield and the Alamo, respectively.

The applications first would be considered by the advisory board of historians, which has scheduled a meeting here for Monday and Tuesday. Prompt action by the board, he said, would enable the commission to pass upon recommendations at its meeting the succeeding week.

Woodul warned Harris and Bexar counties "that it would take some time after the allocation is made for the board of control to let the contract and it would take some time to build a $250,000 building or monument."

With a complete "right of way," won in a recent election, oil wells are invading the downtown section of Oklahoma City, creating a new type of civic skyline. In this unusual picture, several of the city's finest buildings, endangered by the feverish hunt for "liquid gold," overlook the encroaching web-like structures which menace their existence.

Taking everything into consideration, Borger's Fourth of July celebration, under the auspices of the Junior chamber of commerce is one of the best in the southwest this year.

Featured on the program will be the joint luncheon of all civic clubs in the Panhandle, at 11 o'clock.

Many Pampans will go to Borger for the celebration to be staged in that city. Invitations have been extended and accepted by Pampa Oil & Gas Co., N E 1/4 of N E 1/4 and S W 1/4 of S E 1/4 section 31, block 17.

In extending an invitation to Panhandle people, Mayor John R. Miller of Borger offered the services of the city in entertaining and assured the local chamber that he would do all in his power to make the celebration a success.

Many contestants for the rodeo have entered at this early date. The $750 purse holds a charm to bronc busters and bulldozers. Many special prizes add to the attraction.

When the couples entered in the many-seat milking contest perform, crowds will go wild. Milt Good, arena master, originated this contest in the Panhandle. To win the girl entrant will be required to get a sample of milk from the wild goat, her partner holds and race to the judges.

JAPANESE FLOODS Leave 71 Dead

TOKYO, June 29 (AP)—Floods that devastated rich western Japan were subsiding tonight, leaving 71 known dead and damage estimated at 40,000,000 yen (about $1,500,000) in their wake, but heavy rainfall resumed tonight.

The storms and floods, the worst in the last half century, struck at the industrial heart of the empire, ravaging such thriving and populous regions as those about Osaka, Kyoto and Kobe.

With communications shattered, it was believed the toll of death and damage would be increased with fuller reports. Fears of new floods were voiced, and officials in Osaka warned residents to be prepared for further rises of flood waters.

Thousands throughout the stricken area were left homeless, with preliminary surveys of the affected area indicating at least 150,000 houses and buildings were inundated.

REGISTRATION OF AUTOMOBILES DECLINES, BUT FEES SHOW GAIN

AUSTIN, June 29 (AP)—Registration of automobiles declined but highway department income from the fees increased during the first five months of 1935.

Concentration of registrations in larger counties, from which the state receives a greater proportionate share, was credited by auditors with the peculiar situation.

On May 31 the state had received $3,982,834 from motor vehicle licensing and the counties, $8,330,027. Last year on the same date the state had collected $3,907,014, while the counties' share was $8,332,748.

Passenger car registrations decreased slightly this year, fees being paid on 910,735 compared to 909,270 in the corresponding period last year.

Commercial trucks registered dropped from 119,997 to 113,197 this year, but farm vehicles gained from 42,945 to 58,509.

Totals on other classes, 1935 and 1934 numbers, respectively: Motor buses, 497 and 529; motorcycles, 1-983 and 2,241; side cars, 167 and 240; tractors, 77 and 86, and trailers, 19-463 and 21,046.

Highway department auditors calculated that 1,070,000 passenger cars would be registered this year compared to 1,074,545 last year. Counties are permitted to retain all motor vehicle registration fees.

HOSPITAL LIFE IS DEPICTED IN GABLE PICTURE

"SOCIETY DOCTOR" COVERS 8 HOURS OF TIME

Following the success of "Men in White," the medical drama in which Clark Gable and Myrna Loy scored one of their greatest hits, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer brings to the Rex theater screen, starting today, its new story of hospital life, "Society Doctor." In the new feature the romance within hospital walls is played by Chester Morris and Virginia Bruce.

"Society Doctor," in which a lifetime of love, drama and pathos is crowded into the brief span of eight hours, tells the story of Dr. Morgan, chief interne in an emergency hospital, and of his friendly enemy, Dr. Ellis, and their competition for the love of Madge Wilson, a pretty nurse.

Morris plays the role of Dr. Morgan who feels that there is no place in his life for love or marriage. Virginia Bruce, who recently scored an outstanding hit as Jenny Lind in "The Mighty Barnum," is seen as the nurse, Dr. Ellis, the third member of the triangle, is portrayed by Robert Taylor, a comparatively newcomer to the screen who holds promise of progressing far in pictures.

The new drama is said to be replete with thrilling action from its opening sequence to its final fade-out, occurring when Dr. Morgan is shot by a gunman in the hospital. When all the surgeons of the old school refuse to operate in order to save his life, Dr. Morgan directs his own operation on himself, with his rival, Dr. Ellis, wielding the knife.

McCraw Ready to Meet Oil Attack
AUSTIN, June 29 (AP)—Attorney General William McCraw announced today for a hearing before a three-judge federal court at Houston Monday in a sweeping attack on Texas oil conservation efforts.

Four suits filed here but transferred to Houston for hearing attacked validity of the "hot" oil conservation law, the enforcers' latest weapon against illegal trafficking in crude, and of certain railroad commission proration orders.

Federal District Judge R. J. McMillan called in Federal Circuit Judge Rufus E. Foster of New Orleans and Federal District Judge T. M. Kennerly of Houston to hear the application for interlocutory injunction.

Cases were instituted early this month by the Kilgore topping plant, W. E. Templeman, Gus Pierce and others, and W. D. Lacy, all East Texas operators.

McCraw said assistants Archie D. Gray, W. J. (Dick) Holt and William C. Davis, assigned to oil conservation enforcement, would accompany him to Houston tomorrow for the test case.

"We are ready to meet the issues raised by the complainants and this occasion is as good as any to set at rest the vital question regarding legality of oil conservation measures," McCraw said.

TEXAN FORMS GROUP TO BAN ALIEN HORDE

WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP)—A Texas beginning for a nationwide campaign to arouse sentiment against the "evils of immigration" was envisioned today by Rep. Dies (D. Tex.), sponsor of a new organization to be called "The Americans."

Dies said plans were being laid to inaugurate a radio campaign from Dallas, his speakers to include "such prominent men as Dr. George W. Truett, high official of the International Baptist church."

A drive for 400,000 members of "The Americans" in Texas would be made, he said.

He praised the labor department's proposal that President Roosevelt use more than $4,000,000 of the work relief fund to take a census of the foreign-born persons in the United States.

Dies hopes to obtain action at the next session of congress on his bill to bar all immigration of foreigners who have no relatives in the United States, to make mandatory deportation of 3,500,000 aliens of illegal entry, given aliens already here 12 months to become citizens or "go home and to force all aliens to obtain labor department permits to work."

"The relief administration admits from a million to 1,500,000 aliens are on the relief rolls," Dies said. "The state department informs me that nearly a million aliens want to emigrate to this country. Every immigrant means a job taken from a citizen or more on the relief rolls."

"In the last 13 years, 500,000 alien seamen have deserted ships. The smuggling of aliens into this country is a prosperous racket to the racketeers and there are untold aliens of illegal entrance, although legal entrants have fallen off since 1930. By stricter enforcement of the public charge clause by consuls granting visas, 92,000 would-be emigrants have been prevented from entering in the last four years."

SELECTS COFFIN, DIES

HOUSTON, June 29 (AP)—Eugene Holt, 70, walked into a funeral home here this afternoon, selected a coffin, then went home and shot himself fatally. He died shortly after arrival at a hospital. A verdict of suicide was returned by Justice of the Peace Tom Masses. His widow said he had been in ill health for several months. He was survived by a sister, Mrs. Nora Raney, and a brother, George Holt, both of Nashville, Tenn.

Mrs. Oil Crossman was able to leave Pampa-Jarratt hospital yesterday afternoon.

RETURN FROM TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hulse returned Friday night from Dallas, where they went on business. They left here Sunday morning, one week ago, and returned by way of eastern Oklahoma, where they visited relatives. Mr. Hulse is a local barber.

NOT 'CURLY' LEWIS

The J. C. Lewis mentioned in a 34st district court story as a defendant in a theft case was not the "Curley" Lewis, Pampa wrestler. Due to the sameness of names, the Pampa said some people might think he had been the man to whom the story referred.

TO SCHOOL MEETING

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lester and daughter, Miss Hester, will go to Denver, leaving today, to attend the five-day convention of the North American Education association. Mr. Lester is teacher of vocational agriculture here. Miss Josephine Thomas, principal of Horace Mann school, will attend the same meeting.

AGENT IS NAMED

At a meeting of the local union, 888, of the Brotherhood of Painters, Decorators and Paperhangers of America last night, M. W. Andrews was elected business agent. Business of the union will be handled by Mr. Andrews who is located at the Pampa Athletic Club.

RAINFALL DEFICIENT

Rainfall for the last week was .33 of an inch, raising the total for June to 1.90 and that of the year to 9.06 inches. The year's total is slightly under that of this time last year and 25 per cent under the 10-year average. However it is above the 5-year average slightly.

OFF TO CONVENTION

Judge E. J. Pickens of Canadian, presiding judge of the 84th district court, will join Judge W. R. Ewing, District Attorney Lewis Goodrich, and County Attorney Sherman White today in a trip to the Texas Bar association convention in Houston.

GOOD AND BUDGE REACH QUARTER-FINALS IN WIMBLEDON TENNIS TOURNEY

HELEN JACOBS AND MOODY VAN RYN REACH TOP FORM FIRST TIME

LONDON, June 29. (AP)—Four Americans remained in the chase for Wimbledon's major tennis titles today as singles fields in the all-England championships were cut to eight in the men's division and six in the women's. In a day of routine play that produced no particular thrills, Sidney Wood, New York's clever shot-maker, joined Donald Budge, the California redhead, in the men's quarter-finals with a comparatively easy conquest of Harry Hopman of Australia. The two California feminine aces, Helen Jacobs and Helen Wills Moody, moved uneventfully into the fourth round of women's competition. Making it unanimous from an American standpoint, John Van Ryn and Wilmer Allison, top-seeded combinations in doubles, reached the top form for the first time since they arrived in England and mowed down the crack Japanese pair, Hideo Nishimura and Jiro Yamagishi, in straight sets. Budge and Gene Mako of Los Angeles advanced in the same division.

Goodman Beats Leland Hamman In Semi-Finals

WAKONDA CLUB, Des Moines, Ia., June 29 (AP)—Johnny Goodman and Johnny Dawson, two of America's youngest amateurs, today smashed their way into the finals of the trans-Mississippi golf meet. The stocky Goodman, who graduated from Omaha's caddy ranks to win the national open in 1933, waved a magic putter to eliminate Leland Hamman of Paris, Tex., the courageous little defending champion, 5 to 4, in the feature match of the semi-finals. Dawson, smooth-swinging Chicago ace, crushed the hopes of freckled-faced Sid Richardson of Creston, Ia., 7 and 6 as the 17-year-old youngster faded badly under the pressure on the second round. Constantly bothered with his tee shots, Hamman always was behind the cool, ruthless Goodman who several times fired in birdies or pars where it appeared the five-foot-three champion was on the verge of a serious rally. The blond Omaha shooter was shot to the lip of the cup for a pinch birdie three. Goodman was two under par for the 32 holes he played. His card included eight birdies, chiefly the result of long, accurate putts. The most heart-breaking Goodman had sent a marvelous iron shot to the lip of the cup for a pinch birdie three. Goodman was two under par for the 32 holes he played. His card included eight birdies, chiefly the result of long, accurate putts.

Goodman played the first 18 holes in 71, taking a four up lead which Hamman never overcame. Only once did the stout-hearted southerner come within striking distance of the Nebraska. At the start of the afternoon round Hamman won the first two holes, but Johnny again applied the pressure to soon regain his previous advantage. By HARRY GRAYSON

Clark Griffith calls the deal that Walter Johnson is getting in Cleveland the dirtiest any man ever got in baseball. By this time you undoubtedly have heard that what perhaps is the most sustained attack in the history of the dodger reached the edition stage in Cuyahoga County recently when Johnson released Glenn Myatt and sent Willie Kamm home from Philadelphia "for the good of the club." The easy-going Big Train's hand was forced by a group of the younger Indians who, with Hal Trosky as spokesman, demanded to know who was managing the Cleveland club, Johnson or Kamm. It seems that the peacemakers grew tired of being second guessed. For Johnson was dragged before Judge Landis for the first time. "It makes me feel sort of ashamed of being connected with the game," says Griffith. "Walter doesn't deserve what they're doing to him. He's a grand fellow and don't let anyone tell you he isn't a good manager." Griffith explains his release of Johnson as pilot of the Washington club at the conclusion of the 1932 season. Barney reported to the Old Fox as a gangling 19-year-old kid who spent 25 years with the Senators. "Johnson was doing the best anybody could do with what he had in Washington," asserts Griffith. "I let him go because we needed a new deal. Baseball is funny. It's like the shoe business. You need new faces, new players, a new manager now and then." "If Cleveland doesn't win the pennant it will not be Johnson's fault. I think he's doing all right

WILBUR HESS IN FINALS OF TENNIS MEET

PLAYS CALIFORNIAN IN INTERCOLLEGIATE TOURNEY TODAY

EVANSTON, Ill., June 29 (AP)—Wilbur Hess of Rice Institute, the boy from Houston whom they called "Champ" even before the big fight began, and Leonard Patterson, a comparative newcomer to important competition from California Tech, came back with spectacular rallies today to join each other in the finals of the national intercollegiate tennis single championship. Since the big argument started last Monday among the campus stars over the title vacated by Gene Mako of Southern California there have been plenty of spirited matches, but Hess and Patterson fought some of the greatest ones today. Hess, four games behind in the first set and trailing again in the second, rallied to defeat Ernest Suter of Tulane, 7-5, 7-5, 6-1; Patterson lost his first two sets to Russell Hill, Northwestern sophomore, but he came to win the next three and the match, 4-6, 4-6, 6-3, 6-4, 6-2. Tomorrow, they meet for the championship. One of two leaps from the abyss of defeat to the high road of victory, that of Patterson's was the greater. Ball, who scored a startling upset yesterday from Georgia Tech, started in on Patterson where he finished off on Reese. In the first set, he won by breaking Patterson's service once and winning all of his own, out-scoring his opponents, 37 to 30 in game points. In the second, he did the same thing, out-steadying Patterson, whose baseline drives repeatedly stumped out his opponent. Patterson signaled his comeback in the first game of the third set, winning at love on his own service. He lost the second after it had run to deuce and then won three in succession. That streak staidied him and he passed Ball at the net repeatedly with a steady backhand. The fourth set was a repetition of the third, and in the fifth, Patterson, hitting every shot beautifully, lost only the fifth and seventh games.

PAMPA ROUTS LEFORS 15-2

Daney Allows 7 Scattered Hits as Road Runners Revenge Four Defeats. Base hits rang loud and long at Road Runner park Friday night when the Pampa Road Runners defeated Coltexo of LeFors 15 to 2. The Pampa aggregation had won last four consecutive games to Coltexo, hence Friday night's defeat was sweet revenge. Lee Daney pitched airtight ball, allowing the visitors only seven hits, gathered in seven innings. The Road Runners hopped on Pete Stegman, former teamate for four consecutive hits in the opening inning and chased him to the showers. Braley also was batted hard and had to relinquish the mound to Hutton to get the last man out in the final inning. Several of the Road Runners fattened their batting averages at the expense of the Coltexo pitchers. Summers hit three singles and a double in five trips to the plate. Brickell and Nell hit three for five. Nell got a single, double and home run, with two on base, and Brickell got two singles and a double. Seitz got two for four, both singles. Shinski and Bennett, with two hits each, led the Coltexo attack. One of Bennett's bingles went for a triple when Patton made a sensational attempt to get his fly back route and walked only two men. Shinski made four pretty putouts in centerfield for Coltexo. Several of the Road Runners fattened their batting averages at the expense of the Coltexo pitchers. Ed White Of University Of Texas Wins U.S. Golf Title

WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP) Climaxing a week of great golf, young Ed White of Texas captured level with par over a long route today to whip gangling Fred Haas of Louisiana State, 5 and 4, and win the National Intercollegiate champion. The 21-year-old, black-haired boy from Bonham, Texas, ended his three year quest for the highest college laurels with one of the finest stretches of consistently good golf in the long history of the tournament. Through the five rounds of match play—a total of 129 holes for him—he was three under par. As a sophomore two seasons ago, he lost to Rodney Bliss in the second round. Last year he bowed to Charles Yates for the championship. He arrived here, however, asserting his determination to win this tournament in his last day. And his route wasn't easy, for he was forced to bowl over Charles Kocsis of Michigan, the co-medalist, as well as Yates, before he ran into the tough 19-year-old 'boy' from the cotton country. A senior at the University of Texas, where he is taking a course in petroleum engineering, White has another year of school. But his three seasons of varsity intercollegiate competition are ended, along with his opportunity to again win the southwestern conference crown, which he has captured for three successive years. Although his margin was decisive today, White had no easy rival in the tall former southern amateur champion. Through the first twenty seven holes neither ever held more than a two-hole advantage. In fact, White was one down after the first round, but he lost little time going ahead after the second round began and once on the home stretch he unloosed a brand of sub-par golf that was too much for Haas.

PEWEES PLAY SENSATIONALLY TO TROUNCE HOOVER 12 TO

Pampa's Pewee baseball team kept its string of wins intact Friday afternoon by defeating the Hoover team, composed of boys much larger and much older than the youngsters, 12 to 5 at Magnolia diamond. Playing a brand of baseball unusual for junior or intermediate teams, the Pewees of Howard Buckingham, W. B. Weathered and Harry Kelley, hit the ball hard and fielded sensationally. Amos Reed was on the mound for the Pewees with Doyle Aulds catching. E. W. Hogan hurried for Hoover with Guthrie behind the bat. Both pitchers presented nice breaking curves and a change of pace. Reed, however, had better control and kept the ball away from dead center. The two firstbasemen, Claude Heskell for the Pewees and Palmer for Hoover, stole the show with their effective work. Palmer is one of the most promising first-sackers of the year. He is loose jointed, wears his glove "way out on his hand", and is spectacular. Heskell showed a distinct advantage in the hitting department, getting a home run. The Pewee lineup was: Glen Heskell, rf.; Howard Buckingham, Jr., 2b.; Billy Morrow, ss.; Claude Heskell, lb.; Glen Dull, cf.; Grover Foster, if.; Richard Kilgore, 3b.; Doyle Aulds, c.; Amos Reed, p.; Hoover used: H. One-Time Foe of Allred Appointed To Court Bench

AUSTIN, Tex., June 29 (AP)—Robert Lee Bobbitt of Laredo, who five years ago opposed Governor Allred for the Attorney Generalship of Texas, today was the Governor's choice for an appointment to the San Antonio Court of Civil Appeals bench. Governor Allred defeated Bobbitt, who was appointed a year earlier to fill the unexpired term of former Attorney General Claude Pollard. Four years later Bobbitt became a warm advocate of Allred for governor. Bobbitt was appointed to succeed Edward W. Smith, senior associate justice, whom he insisted should be promoted to chief justice. John H. Bickett, Jr., telegraphed his resignation to the governor from that position. Governor Allred tendered appointment as chief justice to Bobbitt, but he declined it.

Thrill Slaying Is Described in Boy's Confession

GREENVILLE, N. Y., June 29 (AP)—An adolescent butcher boy who confessed to New York State's scot and yard tonight that he mistreated and killed the 9-year-old daughter of his pastor last Wednesday.

The 19-year-old lad broke tonight after 12 hours questioning, the lieutenant said, admitting he lured Helen Glenn into his butcher shop and took her into living quarters above the store.

There he covered her face with the dress she had donned to receive a prize at school commencement exercises for perfect attendance.

As word spread that the yard had "got its man," and knots of townspeople gathered along the main street, the detectives disclosed the ad's father had turned over his son to them with the statement he was apprehensive of "lynching rumors."

ateral road, the state designation would have to be removed. The county will doubtless seek assurance that designation would be removed after the improvement is completed.

Meanwhile, highway 88 will continue to be improved under the JERICO program. The Jericho gap in South Gray county will be closed within a short time.

Plans for the Panhandle include a two-million dollar program for completion of highway 66 across the Panhandle, involving 52 miles west of Potter county, and some work on highway 90.

Work on lateral roads will be done by men designated by the relief offices. Counties must furnish machinery and materials.

In asking the state to take over the Pampa-McLean road, Judge Cary recently pointed out that motor vehicles in the number of 150 cars and 31 trucks pass over the road every hour in the day.

State designated projects listed or approval in the Panhandle—not including lateral roads—are as follows:

1—The Jericho gap on U. S. highway 66, 50 miles east of Amarillo, 8 miles, estimated cost, $190,000.

2—Highway No. 5, Claude south to the Donley county line, 16 1/2 miles, estimated cost, $200,000.

4—Highway No. 178, Dumas west to Hartley county line, 10.6 miles, estimated cost, $120,000.

5—Highway No. 5, Harley north, 17 miles, estimated cost, $30,000.

The proprietor described the missing persons and told of a defect in their automobile.

Officers gained the information when they drove the car into the station on U. S. Highway 60. E. J. House, Jr., chief of the state police, said the operator gave an almost perfect description of Mr. and Mrs. George Lorius and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Heberer, the tourists thought to have been robbed and slain more than a month ago.

House said the proprietor, in response to a question as to whether he remembered the car, told him: "Sure I filled the gasoline tank and told the people there was a bolt missing which they had best have fixed."

He then pointed out the place where the bolt is missing. He said the couples stopped at his station about 5 p. m. on May 22.

House left Springerville, Ariz., tonight for Quemado. He and Adit, Gen. R. C. Charlton will direct National Guardsmen in a search of this section tomorrow.

SOCORRO, N. M., June 29 (AP)—Backtracking through the fastnesses of Cibola National forest toward Arizona, Gov. Clyde Tingley and his weary investigators tried today to reconstruct the flight of a slim young man, perhaps crazed by narcotics, suspected of slaying four missing Illinois tourists.

Bit by bit the searchers have picked up what they have accepted as a murder trail—stretching in its latest phase over country in which telephone and telegraph are absent for 100 miles.

Threshing through the brush of timbered defiles and the sand of scorched desert wastes the investigators, federal, state and military, have filled in at least two important points in the bizarre mystery which first came to light May 28 when their abandoned car was found in Dallas, Tex.

Forged checks appeared bearing the names of the missing party, Mr. and Mrs. George Lorius and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Heberer. They were cashed by a youth with an arm distinctively tattooed.

The youth was believed by detectives to have registered at an El Paso, Tex. hotel the night of May 23. The middle-aged Illinois visitors last were heard from when they mailed postcards at Vaughn, N. M., the night of May 21 or early May 22.

South of Socorro, seven and 44 miles respectively, the searchers have traced down two automobile wrecks they believe the slim suspected slayer had while fleeing in the tourists' motor car. He was alone, unfamiliar with the machine, and apparently crazed by drink or narcotics.

A blood spattered bedspread found at one of the wreck scenes strengthened the murder theory.

Today, using the tourists' own car, the relentless searchers stretched out toward Springerville, Ariz., due west of here—hoping they would pick up the vital link—some trace of the tourists' bodies. If not, the bodies, then the detectives looked for the starting point of the slim suspect's flight.

Meantime an airplane from El Paso piloted by Arthur Johnson was searching the rambling and, in places, shallow bed of the Rio Grande and the valley for the bodies.

Humble Cuts Price Of Oil Five Cents

HOUSTON, June 29 (AP)—The Humble company today made a five-cent per barrel reduction in its posted price for oil from three southwest Texas areas. This was the first change in Texas crude prices since September, 1933.

The prices for Mirando crude was cut to 75 cents a barrel and that for Saret and Refugio heavy to 80 cents. The Humble company was the only purchaser to announce such a reduction during the day.

Humble officials attributed the cut to the general weakness of the crude market in southwest Texas.

CATHOLIC CHILDREN TO RECEIVE THEIR FIRST COMMUNION TODAY

The closing of the religious vacation school at Holy Souls Catholic church will be observed at 8 o'clock this morning with a high mass in charge of the Rev. Father Wonderly, pastor.

A dozen children will receive their first communion but about 70 children who have been attending the school will participate in the exercises. Two sisters of the Incarnate Word, Mother M. Pierre and Sister M. Eugene, stationed near San Antonio, have been conducting the school which has been in progress throughout June. The sisters will go from here to conduct a two-week school at Canadian.

The first communion will mark the beginning of active church life for the children, and will be the climax of their religious life up to today. Parents and friends of the children will attend. The traditional and impressive services will be among the most important and colorful on the year's church calendar. The first communion class is one of the largest assembled here.

TEXAS IN WASHINGTON

BY DONALD YOUNG. WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP)—A powerful and hard-working Texas delegation, studded with six committee chairmanships, slowly but surely guided the $3,000,000 Texas Centennial bill through the unchanged opposition of the so-called watchdogs of the treasury.

They were forced to start debate on the proposition at what they admitted was "an unfavorable psychological time" but deployed themselves through the chamber and, with their democratic colleagues, defeated the objectors at every turn.

When the first voice vote was called, Rep. Dies scooted from the front row to the republican side to straighten out a potential tangle to raise their hands in support of the Centennial. On the first roll call, Dies, Reps. West and Kleberg manned the doors and instructed these representatives who hurried from their offices how to vote.

During the addresses the Texans slipped over to the republican side to straighten out a potential tangle and pleaded with the minority party quietly to keep their sincere opposition to a minimum.

The debate was serious but not without its humor. A republican pleading for reduction of government expenditures recalled that Rep. Thomas Blanton once had said $100,000 was enough for any celebration.

The Texans contended all the time that the resolution they were debating was merely an "authorization" for the Centennial fund and the actual "appropriation" would have to be ordered and the appropriations committee, headed by Chairman Buchanan of Brehman, could be trusted to protect the congress and the government.

"Yes, but why pass the buck to 'Buck'?" someone asked.

required careful and painstaking study because of the complications involved.

After his talk with Mr. Roosevelt, Harrison said the tax schedules announced earlier this week on inheritances, high personal incomes and corporations, were only tentative and probably would be revised downward. Emphasizing that the taxes were designed for a social purpose as much as for revenue, Harrison said the $340,000,000 estimate of return probably was high.

Barn Collapses, 400 Picnickers Fall into Creek

NANTICOKE, Pa., June 29 (AP)—Almost 400 picnickers, many of them mothers with their babies, were hurled about 30 feet into the shallow, rocky Hunlock creek today when an old barn dance pavilion straddling the stream collapsed at the height of a sudden thunderstorm.

More than 100 were injured, at least four of them seriously, in the collapse, which occurred during a baby pageant, a feature of the picnic at Croop's Glen, a few miles from here.

Immediate alarms brought doctors, nurses and ambulances from surrounding communities, and more than 50 state troopers, were hurried from their barracks to the scene.

The accident precipitated a panic among most of the crowd of about 3,000 attending the picnic. Mothers and fathers screamed as their children were hurled to the shallow creek, or to the rocks bordering it.

Power Company Forces Removal Of Ex-Employees

EASTLAND, June 29 (AP)—Two injunctions were granted the Texas Electric Service today ordering removal of two former employees from residences belonging to the company and enjoining them from interfering with the firm's service.

Named in separate cases were J. C. Shupe and W. T. Morgan who the company alleged refused to move from residences belonging to the firm after they had been discharged. The men contended they still were employees but were "on strike."

The company charged in its petition that about the time of the cessation of services of the two men and nine union employees an unsuccessful attempt was made to

OIL MESSAGE EXPECTED WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP)—A presidential message asking congress to approve new oil legislation before this session ends was predicted today by Russell B. Brown, general counsel of the independent petroleum association.

"I have no doubt President Roosevelt will send down a message of some kind of oil law," Brown said, "I think he doesn't believe that interstate compacts are sufficient."

Problem of Mixing Soda Scientific cooks insist that soda should be used dry because there is loss of leavening gas when soda is mixed with a liquid. If you mix and sift the dry ingredients thoroughly, repeating the process many times until you are sure the soda is evenly distributed through the flour, you will find the result satisfactory. If it isn't thoroughly mixed and sifted, you will find tiny brown spots through your baked-stuff. The product will not be light and the brown spots will have a bitter, unpleasant taste.

ALPFULNESS WITHOUT DISPLAY: Matthew 6:1-4

Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: Otherwise ye have no reward of your Father, which is in heaven. Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward. But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth: That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly.

Prevalence of Social Diseases

Those in a position to know the extent of venereal diseases in this and other communities can give opinions on facts which are startling in the extreme. Physicians have told the writer in recent weeks that the situation in Pampa and this area is serious. Society takes costly steps to prevent the spread of such epidemics as smallpox, diphtheria, and typhoid. It hospitals for treatment of tuberculosis. It does much for the crippled and the blind. It purports to "control" disease menaces.

Yet syphilis abounds, making mental and moral cripples and increasing almost unchecked. Certainly no method of control worthy of commendation is in effect. The seriousness of the disease, its devastating effect if not checked, its spread by various means of contact, not necessarily connected with a sexual act, and the difficulty of its eradication are too little understood. When a case of typhoid is discovered, immediate steps are taken. When a person is found to have smallpox, he is quarantined. Yet there are persons with syphilis, engaged in the ancient occupation, who are either isolated or forced to stop their malicious leading of the disease. In this enlightened age, this situation should be unthinkable.

How many syphilitics are there in the immediate Pampa area, or persons with "cured" cases? Is it shocking to estimate run as high as one thousand? Is it shocking that many young persons are being treated, some without the knowledge of their parents? And that there are young girls?

It is commonly said that social diseases and oil seem inseparable. This is true in a boom period, when a rapid turnover of population is in progress. But Pampa is a settled community. Our population, for an oil center, is surprisingly stable. Our health record is good in other respects.

It is not hard to verify the statement that the situation is serious. The doctors realize it and many are alarmed. The drug store men know it. The wholesale drug salesmen judge a town by its demand for chemicals with which syphilis is treated. There are differences in towns; the drug orders are not to be disputed. In all the chemicals are sold in oil towns; in fact the disease breaks out astonishingly in some small communities.

THE NEW DEAL IN WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON — President Roosevelt has been contented to the school of thought which says "bigness" is a virtue. In effect, he has publicly announced his conversion. Don't mind if I harp on the significance of this development. It means as much or more than any other high spot in the president's course in this pre-election year.

"Size begets monopoly," said Roosevelt. "Ultimately, should seek, through taxation, the simplification of corporate structures through the elimination of unnecessary holding companies in all lines of business. . . . This, plus the proposal to tax corporations in accordance with the size of their incomes and to tax intercorporate dividends, demonstrates the extent to which Roosevelt has been won over to the doctrines of Dr. Felix Frankfurter and Justice Brandeis and the group of followers who now hold many key New Deal posts.

That group is the most active and influential in the New Deal. Outside of Washington, you don't hear much about it. Its members have avoided the limelight because they realize that the publicity-seeking prima donna of this administration have been killed off one by one.

The Frankfurter-Brandeis boys are far from the most ideal of the New Dealers. Their theory is that reform of the capitalist system with a break-up of concentrations of wealth and economic power—which inevitably become citadels of political power and exploitation—is essential to save the nation from fascism or socialism. Desperately, they fight the theory that such concentrations are inevitable and that they inevitably must be taken over by the state.

One of the best expositions of the Frankfurter-Brandeis philosophy is in the speech of Senator Burton K. Wheeler (you'll find it in the Congressional Record of June 19, 1935) on his proposal to do exactly what Roosevelt now urges—tax corporations in accordance with size, to "tax the bigness of things," as Wheeler expressed it.

It's important for you to have this summary: Of 300,000 non-financial corporations in the United States (the great ones are those of New Dealers A. A. Berle and Gardiner Means) the 200 largest, including 42 railroads, 52 public utilities and 106 industrials controlled practically all of the country's total corporate wealth of $165,000,000,000.

A few hundred men exert ultimate control. Certain social and economic evils are inherent in size itself. Concentration of economic power involves private decisions as to the economic welfare which must be left to a bureaucracy, nepotism and inefficiency characterize super-industry. Such corporations must be broken up into smaller units. The small business man may then establish himself in an era of real competition and real industrial democracy.

CAPITOL JIGSAW

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL

AUSTIN, June 28 (P)—The endeavor to obtain federal funds to finance a state courts building will be resumed soon by a committee representing the Texas Bar association and the state.

Several months ago the committee, including Frank Andrews of Houston, chairman, and W. A. Keeling of Austin, a former attorney general, took up the matter with Washington authorities but decided to wait until disposition of the $48,000,000 public work appropriation.

The plans call for a structure four stories high and costing $600,000, which would match the beautiful new highway building. It would be on a lot opposite the main entrance to the capitol grounds and the old Travis county court house, which now houses the banking and other departments.

Sponsors hope to obtain a federal grant of $400,000 and to persuade the next legislature to appropriate $200,000. The state also would throw in the value of the lot, estimated at $200,000, to equal the money from federal sources.

The argument for the building is that it would relieve the congestion in existing state buildings. The state is paying thousands of dollars annually in rent for office space because departments were crowded out of the capitol.

These include the Texas Relief commission with its many branches, the tax commissioner, the gas utilities department of the railroad commission, the oil staff of the attorney general, the racing commission and the barber and cosmetology boards.

The attorney general's oil assistants were the latest to move out of the capitol, taking over the first floor of the Austin labor temple. The remainder of his staff, however, occupies a huge section of the capitol's main floor.

The new building would house the supreme court, the court of criminal appeals, the Austin court of civil appeals and the attorney general's department. The courts, with libraries, court rooms and offices for the judges, now utilize most of the third and a sizeable portion of the fourth floors of the capitol.

Many believe the proposed building, which would be a masterpiece of the supreme court, would relieve the needs of state departments for many years.

TO RETURN DOUPE
AUSTIN, June 29 (P)—Governor James V. Allred today issued a requisition to the governor of Oregon for the return of W. E. (Bill) Doupe, 36, alias William Wilson, a Texas fugitive. Doupe, recaptured in Salem, Ore., a year and a day after a sensational escape from the Lubbock county jail, was sentenced in June, 1934, to 10 years for robbery by assault in connection with the holdup and slaying of Robert Sharp, former football star at McMurry college of Abilene.

THE PEOPLES COLUMN

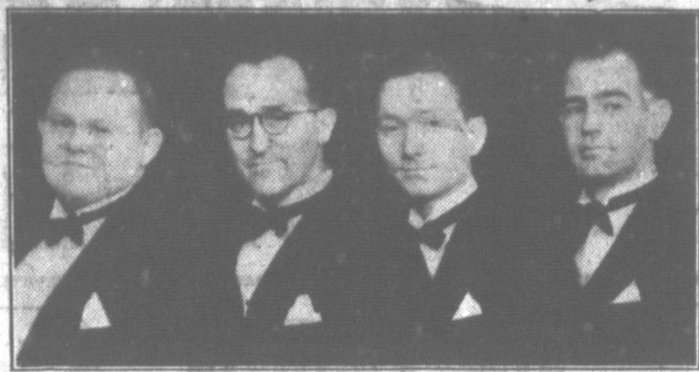

Editor, The NEWS: The U. S. constitution was originally written or established in order to promote general welfare in our country, it has been amended many times, yet we find that the constitution as written some century and a half ago is not ideal, and twelve changes were offered and ten passed in less than a year.

Editor, The NEWS: In regard to taking away the power of the supreme court to nullify acts of congress, I feel that the judges are men who are to be praised. Yet I feel that on their shoulders is too much power and that they are misled too easily.

Editor, The NEWS: The U. S. constitution is so written that it is capable of taking care of all our future needs.

Editor, The NEWS: I appreciate very much the opportunity afforded me to express my views as to our president and his administration and the new deal generally.

Chapter 31 No woman in all the world had ever been so grievously humiliated, Katharine Strickhurst was certain of that.

An older—indeed, a wiser and less sensitive woman—would have taken affairs into her own hands. This brooding girl knew nothing to do but wait. She had no weapons with which to battle the problem that faced her.

But there was only silence. Silence and the growing conviction of a fearful wrong done. She had confided in Violet Mercer in the first flush of her anger.

Her ring she had given to him. She had not a shadow of proof. Not, she reminded herself hotly and proudly, that she wanted any. Oh, but it had been a wanton joke to play on her!

There was such a thing as an amusement, Katharine mused dully one sunny afternoon. "Of course, I wondered when you'd think of that," said Violet, consolingly.

"But the publicity!" Katharine, groaning, buried her face in her hands. To think that her defeat, her folly should be dragged into the open for all the world to see!

The hours from dark to daylight were her particular scourge, so difficult to be got through.

"Well—well." He promised to think over. It was maddening, the girl decided, going out into the coolness of the garden, to be dependent on anyone.

Next spring! At the thought of the hours, days and nights to be lived through, her spirit faltered, and she groaned. A dark, slim, alert figure appeared in the darkness of the rosebed.

"Oh, Dr. John! Where did you come from?" He gave her a smile and a keen glance.

"I thought I'd run in. Had to see a patient up the Post Road a mile or two."

"She had not seen him in weeks. She roused herself, John was far too keen-eyed for her pleasure. The first thing she knew, she would be blurring out the whole wretched story to him."

"Oh, I'm fine, thanks." "You look it," he offered dryly. She leaned against the stone balustrade of the terrace, and he glanced at her with something like hunger in his eyes.

"What fools women are, thought Katharine dreadingly. Was it true that 'love is of man's life a thing apart; 'tis woman's whole existence?'"

So the moment passed and Katharine kept silent, and half a mile away in an ugly house with millioned windows a dark-haired girl in a white dress and a shabby, shingled house a young man wandered in the kitchen garden where chickens pecked at dry grass and horses thrust their noses inquiringly over a gate.

"That nice woman in whose house I stayed when I..." "Yes, yes, I remember." He said the words hastily.

Katharine's darkening eyes roved to the window. The interview was exhausting all her feeble strength. She so seldom slept these nights.

LARGE CROWD IS EXPECTED AT BORGER'S FOURTH CELEBRATION

With aggregations coming from all over the Panhandle, the Fourth of July rodeo and celebration, under the auspices of the Borger Junior chamber of commerce is expected to draw one of the largest crowds in the history of celebrations in the Panhandle.

The program for the celebration consists of 24 hours of entertainment featuring a ball game, a complete rodeo with contestants from all over the state, dances beginning at 4 o'clock the morning of the Fourth, a cowboy parade, a county fair, and fireworks after the night performance of the rodeo.

Good orchestras will play for dances. An arena master, Milt Good, will control the rodeo. The best stock in the southwest has been contracted for the rodeo. Ginger, a loose rope horse which has never been ridden, will be featured.

Mayor John R. Miller has signified his intentions of turning the city over to guests. There is plenty of room for all. Borger is ideal for a western celebration, as it is surrounded by such ranches as the 6666, the LK, the Wittenberg double M, the Double Circle and the famous Hat brand. Borger has many residents who have helped handle thousands of cattle at one time.

There will be cowgirls on the list. The girl with the crystal earrings was only a puppet, although she fancied herself a great actress in the drama. The physician who watched the fair-haired girl with troubled eyes was conscious of a shadow lying between them.

Up in the hills near a shabby, shingled house a young man wandered in the kitchen garden where chickens pecked at dry grass and horses thrust their noses inquiringly over a gate.

Fate was weaving a net intricately about all of them. The girl with the crystal earrings was only a puppet, although she fancied herself a great actress in the drama.

Pampa Food Safety

In various Bulletins, the United States Department of Agriculture recommends that meats, vegetables, milk, and other perishable foods be kept at temperatures below 50 degrees Fahrenheit.

Electric refrigerator manufacturers once had difficulty in producing this temperature along with other features demanded by the American housewife, especially in warmer parts of the country.

But better refrigerators were made each year. Now you may expect much of an Electric Refrigerator. Beauty, economy in operation, positive, below 50 degree temperature control, rapid freezing of ice cubes and desserts, and quietness, are general features found in all Electric Refrigerators. Each manufacturer has many worthwhile conveniences.

STATES RIGHTS ISSUE SEEN AS LEADING ONE IN PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN NOW TAKING SHAPE

COST OF SECURITY IS TO BE HIGHER, SAYS WRITER

BY DR. J. C. DOLLEY, Economist, Texas Business Review, University of Texas.

From the political front, the most sensational news of the past month was the invasion of the NRA by unanimous decision of the supreme court. Contrary to administration expectation, this momentous decision was not followed by industrial demoralization, either in the form of widespread price cutting or a wholesale breakdown of the established labor code provisions. Security markets were temporarily unsettled but, on the whole, the elimination of the blue eagle was generally regarded as a long-run bullish factor.

The president's original decision to carry the NRA issue to the people by advocating sweeping constitutional amendments greatly broadening the power of the federal government to regulate business, was quickly modified when it was realized that popular reaction to the court decision was either apathetic or overwhelmingly favorable. Nevertheless, it now seems certain that states rights versus federal control will be a major issue in the 1936 presidential campaign.

In mid-June, the senate passed the administration-sponsored social security bill, by an assured but already been approved by the house, it now goes to joint conference committee with the prospect that it will be finally enacted in the near future. It is doubtful whether industry yet realizes the terrific tax burden which will be imposed by this bill, variously estimated to reach a maximum of two to two and a half billions a year by 1941. It is very much to be hoped that the plan as finally drawn will prove to be practicable and that the resulting social gain will justify the cost.

The Wheeler-Rayburn utility bill was approved by the senate in approximately its original form, although the vote on the utility holding company death warrant section was exceedingly close. It is generally expected that the house will amend the bill, softening the holding company provisions to a considerable extent despite the president's insistence that he wants the measure enacted in its present drastic form.

The banking act of 1935 continues to be tied up in the senate. There is some prospect that the bill will be reported out of committee minus the controversial title II which greatly increases political control over the Federal Reserve system.

Franc Is Saved. The very critical position of the French franc has been temporarily relieved, and, for the time being at least, the franc appears to be secure. The severity of the crisis is indicated by the gold losses suffered by the Bank of France which, from March 30 to June 8, aggregated some $790,000,000. A large portion of this gold was exported to the United States, helping to swell our already excessive monetary gold stock to an all time record of $9,089,000,000 on June 19.

Rumors regarding the early stabilization of the dollar and the sterling persist, the latest story being to the effect that Ramsay MacDonald will shortly be dispatched to the United States to undertake stabilization negotiations. It is very much to be hoped that such conversations will be undertaken and will prove to be successful as the permanent stabilization of these two currencies would add materially to business confidence and would tend to stimulate foreign trade. It seems unlikely, however, that England will be willing to stabilize at anything like the present sterling exchange rate of $4.94.

Lending Is Slow. Commercial banking trends for the country as a whole have shown little change since the first of the year, aggregate deposits expanding steadily with very little increase in new bank lending. Net demand deposits of the reporting member banks increased from $1,351,000,000 on December 28 to $15,322,000,000 on June 12. This expansion of some $1,781,000,000 is largely the result of continued government borrowing. Excess reserve balances of the member banks have increased sharply in recent weeks, chiefly because of heavy gold imports, reaching a record high of $2,450,000,000 on June 10. These enormous excess reserves will shortly be increased by some $675,000,000 as the treasury redeems its consols and Panama canal bonds on July 1 and August 1.

SMITH INDICTED AGAIN. LONGVIEW, June 28. (AP)—A new indictment had been returned today by the Gregg county grand jury against Frank A. Smith, son of Commissioner Lon A. Smith of the Texas railroad commission, charging him with bribery and being an accessory to a bribe. Young Smith was acquitted last week of conspiracy to bribe.

Yvonne and Cecile Take First Steps. CALLANDER, Ont., June 29. (AP)—Two of the Dionne quintuplets Yvonne and Cecile, graduated from the creeping stage and stood up for the first time today, just 13 months after their birth. While Annette, Emilie and Marie nursed the sides of their play pen in vain attempts to imitate their sisters, nurses predicted it would not be long before they would be taking their first steps.

Whether it's gold that glitters or not doesn't seem to matter much in the new bead jobs that are being shown. The fact that it glitters is enough. Did you ever realize how handy it is to have a grocery right out in your own neighborhood? No matter how carefully you may think you shop, you're just bound to come up missing on something. Let Nance's Grocery Stores on E. Francis save you that worry. Get your things as you need them, and always have them fresh.

Rear your children in the way they should go, and when they're grown, away they'll go! On these hot summer days when you feel like something hot would bother to drag out of the ashecan, and meals just aren't worth the trouble, go to Pete's Coffee Shop, on W. Kingsmill. His serving-aid meals, most tempting to jaded appetites. With a tall frosty drink, such a meal will put you "right with the world."

Bach's counterpoint quite faultless is, His preudes praises win; But still, for all his fugues and such I much prefer Berlin. Just to look at the crystal etched glassware at the Pampa Hardware Co., 120 N. Cuyler, is a treat, not to mention the beverage sets with that "quality" look. And some squat little chromium plated tumblers that I heard even a 6-foot he-man describe as "ducky." Can't you just imagine their appeal?

Bronze shoulders aren't so fashionable any more, but bronze shoes are. At a recent art exhibition opening they were seen as accessories with a brown linen suit. Did you ever notice the appearance of famous people? They all have one thing in common—their clothing is impeccable. On even the most informal occasions every detail is at its best. You, too, can have this faultless attire, through the dry cleaning service of Your Laundry and Dry Cleaning Co., 301-309 E. Francis. There is not just "any cleaning," but a careful renewal of your garment.

DRIVERS REQUIRED TO PLACE FLARES NEAR STALLED TRUCKS

Follows a copy of house bill No. 796, passed by the regular session of the legislature, pertaining to the placing of flares near a truck which is stalled on the highway for repairs. R. H. Routh, state highway patrolman, submitted the copy of the bill for publication in The NEWS:

Section 1. That section 9, of chapter 42, general laws of the State of Texas, second called session of the forty-first legislature, as amended by section 10, of chapter 282, regular session of the forty-second legislature, general laws, be and the same is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to be known as section 9-a, said section to read as follows:

"Section 9-a. Flares. Whenever any commercial motor vehicle, truck, tractor, trailer or semi-trailer, or motor bus, or any vehicle equipped with a crane or lifting device ordinarily referred to as a "wrecker," shall, during the period from one-half hour after sunset to one-half hour before sunrise, and at any other time when there is not sufficient light to render clearly discernible any person on the highway at a distance of two hundred (200) feet, be stopped upon the main traveled portion of any highway in this state for as long as fifteen (15) minutes, the driver or operator thereof shall place a lighted flare upon the highway on the roadway side of such vehicle and one such flare shall be placed at a distance of not less than one hundred fifty (150) feet nor more than two hundred (200) feet from such parked vehicle, near the edge of the roadway in every direction from which a vehicle may approach, such lighted flare to admit light of sufficient intensity to be plainly observed as a signal by the driver of any approaching vehicle for a distance of five hundred (500) feet."

5 Carillon Bells To Be Placed in U. of Texas Tower

FORT WORTH, June 29. (AP)—Five carillon bells will be provided in the tower of the main building and library of the University of Texas. They will cost $19,000 and will be financed by a PWA allotment. The supporting structure is being made strong enough to support 36 bells, which it is planned eventually to have. One of the five bells will strike the hour and the others the famous Westminster peal. The largest bell will weigh 7,500 pounds and the others 5,600, 2,400, 1,600 and 1,200 pounds.

DENY INJUNCTION. DALLAS, June 29. (AP)—The application of R. M. Fuller and others for an injunction to stop the use of "bank night" in the theaters of the Robb & Rowley chain had been denied today by Federal Judge William H. Atwell. The denial was entered Monday.

SCRAMMEZ VOUS! This is a Woman's Column! Illustration of a woman in a dress.

If it's a house you're looking for, you just ought to see the one John Bradley has for sale out on North Frost. It has five rooms, and besides that, has a four-room modern basement apartment. Call Mr. Bradley, 672 or see him. His office is in the Combs-Worley building. (P. S. Did I mention he wants to sell it?)

The modern miss may be flip, but she's no flop. If you want plain facts on the best car in the low-price field, the smartest thing is to get Terraplane facts. This car, with America's only body all of steel, has rotary-equalized brakes that stop you in a short, straight line, and the electric hand, by which you shift gears with a control button on the steering wheel. For style, comfort, economy, and ruggedness, this car surpasses all others. See it at the Travis Motor Co., on W. Foster.

Smart continentals are wearing soft cream suede gloves. Now that you're getting ready to go on your vacation, you'll want a permanent that stays, and doesn't have to be babied. Go to Hodges Beauty Shoppe, on the balcony at the United Store. They'll give you a "push-up" wave you can set yourself. They are $3 and up. Phone 898.

Promises are like pie-crust, easily broken. But that was written before I started making pies. If you're looking for something that's really the hot stuff, why not try one of those Thor Ironers down at Bert Curry's, 111 W. Kingsmill? Yet despite their torrid temperature, it's surprising how cool they are to operate, and how easy, too. You can iron in about one-half the time, with one-third the effort.

The old time jubilee ball gown is returning. One much admired in a London showing was a Hartnell model in white duchess satin. Do people accept you at your face value? If they don't, your face isn't doing all it should to get you along in this world. Go to the Orchid Beauty Salon for a Facial and recommended aids for home treatment. Their manicures do wonders for sports roughened hands, too. They're in the Combs-Worley building, phone 664.

Glass is being used for more than buttons and costume jewelry. A glass belt on an evening frock was worn recently by Mile. Laval, daughter of the French premier. If you take it literally, cleaning up the city with a "tub of suds" is all right, and that's what the City Steam Laundry does. Why should you, housewives be the slaves of the weekly wash? The telephone is your gem—just phone 643. The City Steam Laundry will relieve you of all drudgery.

Happiness consists in taking things as they come, forgetting them as they are gone. "Swellelegant" is about the only word I can think of that adequately describes the new porch and lawn furniture at the Texas Furniture Co., 210 N. Cuyler. They have all kinds—easy swinging gliders and long lounge chairs that fairly scream comfort. And their deck chairs would steam anybody up—on sea or off.
