

LEGISLATIVE INVESTIGATORS ISSUE ORDERS

McDONALD SAYS THEY CAN STAY UNTIL CHRISTMAS

AUSTIN, June 18 (AP)—Texas rangers, acting under orders of a legislative investigating committee today were in charge of records of the state department of agriculture.

J. E. McDonald, commissioner of agriculture, said Ranger Fred Holland came to his office last night, accompanied by Rep. E. E. Hunter of Cleburne and two representatives of the state auditor, and assumed charge of the records.

McDonald, whose official conduct is under investigation by a committee of the house of representatives, said he welcomed the action of the rangers, that he had nothing to conceal and that they might "stay until Christmas" if they wished.

The official order of the committee, signed by Hunter, directed the rangers to "seize, take charge and guard all the records of the department of agriculture located in the files and the lower floor of the building wherein they are situated and to take charge, guard and present to this committee when so commanded to do.

Adjutant General Carl Nesbitt declined to discuss the case other than to say rangers had been assigned to assist the investigating committee. He is commander of the rangers.

McDonald said he was at work in his office, preparatory to leaving for Fort Worth to attend the sessions of another legislative committee investigating charges of milk monopoly, when Hunter and a ranger walked in.

"I have ever been honest, upright and diligent and stand ready to give an account of my stewardship," McDonald said.

"The rangers are welcome, as are members of the legislature as a

Texas Banks Are In Best Condition In History, Claim

AMARILLO, June 18 (AP)—"The banks of Texas are in the best condition in history," Fred F. Florence, president of the Texas Bankers association, told members of the Panhandle Bankers association in 31st annual convention here today.

Florence, who is head of the Republic National bank in Dallas, and R. L. Thornton, president of the Mercantile National bank in Dallas, were the principal speakers.

Thornton voiced opposition to government intervention in the banking industry and urged banks to work out their problems locally.

The Panhandle group went on record as favoring cooperative investment and insurance with some one company after Charles Maedgen of the Lubbock National bank had read a paper urging such a plan.

H. H. Fennell of Dalhart, regional director of soil erosion control, and Frank A. Sewell of Texoma, Okla., also spoke. F. A. Paul of Panhandle, president of the association, presided.

Business sessions will end after election of officers and disposition of resolutions.

A golf tournament and dance were arranged for the visitors.

Levees Crumble Before Floods

AUSTIN, June 18 (AP)—Hastily constructed levees crumbled before incessant pounding tumbled and the Colorado river, flooding Southwest Texas, poured into Columbus in a wild, downstream surge.

The river, already responsible for damage approaching $4,000,000, beat over levees near Columbus and rushed into the town at a stage of 38 1/2 feet. Ten square blocks were inundated quickly and observers feared the stream would reach 40 feet before the crest had passed.

Residents sought safety as Texas dented 17 dunes from storms and the flood. The latest victim was Jimmie Scotty Brent, 20, killed by lightning during a storm near Mineral Wells.

He left a storm cellar after the rain and was picking plums in an orchard when the bolt struck his shoulder.

All highways into Columbus were under from three to seven feet of water, but train service over the main line of the Southern Pacific still was maintained.

At Wharton the Colorado was 32.2 feet. A further rise of five feet was expected within the next 12 hours. The crest was not due before tomorrow.

Senators Charge Ship Subsidy Has 'Robbed Public'

EXAMPLES OF GRAFT CITED IN STATEMENT

WOULD EXACT DRASTIC TERMS FOR FUTURE SUPPORT

WASHINGTON, June 18 (AP)—Charging that ship subsidy policies led to a "saturnalia" by men bent on "robbing the taxpayer," the senate ocean mail committee today denounced past operation of merchant marine subsidies and demanded drastic terms for any future government aid.

It also charged that some public officials "flagrantly betrayed their trust" and said "government officials made a farce" of the competitive bidding provision of the Jones-White merchant marine act of 1928. It said "the standards for computing compensation" under the act are "unworkable and pre-dictive of fraud."

Frankly advocating government ownership and operation of merchant marine the committee nevertheless conceded that bitter opposition would prevent this and so it recommended an alternative plan of "government ownership and private operation the operation to be subsidized where this is proved necessary."

The committee consists of five members of whom only two signed the report without reservation. They were Senators Black (D., Ala.), chairman, and McCarran (D., Nev.), Senator King (D., Utah) signed it with the reservation that he disagreed with any form of subsidy. He proposed tariff adjustments and other legislation to build up a merchant marine.

Refuses To Sign Senator White (R., Me.), whose ship subsidy measure was attacked in the report, and Senator Austin (R., Va.) not only declined to sign it, but indicated they would submit a minority statement.

After declaring subsidy had been "piled on subsidy" in grants of "mail pay" and construction work in the past ten years, the committee, which also investigated air mail contracts, said: "Private ownership and operation of merchant and aerial transportation with government subsidy has resulted in a saturnalia of waste, inefficiency, unearned exorbitant salaries and bonuses and other forms of 'compensation,' corrupting expense accounts, exploitation of the public by the sale and manipulation of stock, the values of which are largely based on the hope

Texas Is Asking Only Just Share, Declares Hines

WASHINGTON, June 18 (AP)—Chairman Harry Hines of the Texas Highway commission and D. K. Martin, a member, told Senators Sheppard and Connally today they believed that highway improvement would be the best way to relieve unemployment in Texas.

Hines said he wanted it understood that a delegation of road development enthusiasts here for conferences this week did not want, by asking $100,000,000 for this work, to create the impression that Texas was seeking "more than its proportionate share of highway funds set apart in the work-relief administration."

"We simply are bringing to our senators and representatives the impression we believe whatever Texas' share of the work-relief fund could be used best on highways," Hines said. "We have an open air type of people in Texas and that is the kind of work they could do well."

Hines said the visitors were spending the first few days of their visit here canvassing the possibilities of obtaining a huge sum for road work and tomorrow would report back to Hines at a closed meeting.

"Then," Hines said, "we will be able to better proceed. We will find out at this meeting if there's anything up here we can do but didn't know about and if so take advantage of it."

FDR DIRECTS NRA HEAD TO SEEK CHANGES

Cautions Him To Examine Changes Which Occur In Labor Standards.

WASHINGTON, June 18 (AP)—The new NRA was directed today by President Roosevelt to examine closely any changes which occur in labor standards or fair trade practices following abolition of codes.

In a letter to James L. O'Neill, acting administrator, the president stated: "It is of primary importance that this work should be done very carefully and under the supervision of an impartial committee."

He proposed a committee including an impartial chairman, a representative of management and a representative of labor and members designated by the departments of commerce and labor.

The president's letter follows: "In line with our recent discussion, I am requesting you to set up in the division of business cooperation a section devoted to accumulating, checking, and reporting accurate information concerning the extent to which changes occur in the maintenance of labor standards or fair trade provisions of codes of fair competition, following the abolition of such codes."

"It is of primary importance that this work should be done very carefully and under the supervision of an impartial committee, which might be constituted as follows: An impartial chairman, a representative of management and a representative of labor and a member designated by the department of commerce and another by the department of labor."

"Through such a committee this work may be coordinated with the informational services of the departments of commerce and labor and with similar services maintained by organizations of employers or employees.

Information should be collected through field offices and other available sources under such supervision that reports sent to Washington can be checked, compiled and put in form for appropriate publication with assurance that they are accurate and as comprehensive as possible.

Inspection of motor vehicles driven on Pampa's streets will begin tomorrow morning and last through Saturday noon. R. H. Routh, state highway traffic officer stationed here, five other state highway officers, and City Officers A. B. Johnson and J. R. McKinley will conduct the tests.

Pampa merchants and business men are urged to cooperate with the Junior chamber of commerce, sponsors of the inspection, in having their cars inspected and also seeing that their employees have their cars tested for defects.

The program is state wide and has already proved a great help in safety work in the state.

Several major oil companies, including the Humble, have written to their employers urging them to have their cars checked immediately. The officers plan to inspect 5,000 cars here in four days. A sticker with an "OK" printed on it will be placed on each car.

Governor Says Owners Of Street Cars In Omaha Are 'Unreasonable.'

OMAHA, June 18 (AP)—Omaha's military dictator, Governor R. L. Cochran, today blasted as "unreasonable" a counter arbitration plan of the Omaha and Council Bluffs Street Railway company and threw his 1,800 national guardsmen into a seige against the company's plans. Today was the third full day under martial law.

Cochran demanded full arbitration. Labor accepted early yesterday. After an ignored deadline brought Cochran's order to run the streets of Omaha by a substitute substantially the same as it presented when the strike began last April 20.

"This is no answer to my request," the governor bluntly told the five company directors who bore the message. "For the present the street cars stay in the barn."

The governor, however, avoided defining the proposal as "defiance" to his peace program.

He declined to comment on the next step if the company refuses to modify its program. Sunday night, however, he said if either party declined his terms it would be "responsible to the military authorities."

The company balked at even discussing a closed shop, re-employment of 68 of its 268 striking employees, or rescinding of new seniority rules. It charged the 68 men with complicity in the violence, and claimed it owed a duty to protect loyal employees in seniority privileges.

Arbitration of wage scales, the company said, would be accepted, but only as to income above operating expenses and taxes. It has claimed a deficit for several years.

Sam W. Reynolds of Omaha, a candidate for national commander of the American Legion last year, was nominated by the company as its arbiter, but Cochran did not accept the appointment in view of the conditions.

Ivy E. Duncan To Preside At Centennial Meet

Ivy E. Duncan will preside at the Centennial meeting Thursday night in the city commission room in the city hall, it was announced today.

The meeting, to which every interested person in the community is cordially invited, will be held for the purpose of discussing plans for next year's Centennial celebration and the Panhandle Oil show. It is planned to place the responsibility of staging the celebration in the future upon the shoulders of Pampa, Amarillo and other cities of any club or organized group.

The pre-Centennial committees at a recent meeting unanimously decided that the celebration belongs to Pampa, and that citizens of Pampa should sponsor and produce it. They are hoping that a representative group of men and women will attend the meeting Thursday night, thereby indicating that they are interested in the civic project.

A Centennial celebration will be held next year, also the Pioneers Roundup and the second Panhandle Oil show, the fête to last not less than three days. Suggestions concerning incorporation of the celebration, buying of land for exposition grounds, have been made.

Bus Manser was introduced as a new member. Bill Black of Lubbock was a guest.

SUPT MURRAY NEGOTIATING WITH REBELS

TEAR GAS IS USED TO ROUT STRIKERS IN MINE

BY R. G. BROWN, Associated Press Staff Writer.

LANSING, Kan., June 18 (AP)—Violence broke out in the Lansing prison coal mine today when a group of miners attempted to capture the gun cage manned by five prison officials on the 720-foot level.

The convicts, part of a striking group of 280 men who have held the mine since early today, were repulsed by gas guns. The five men in the cage reported by telephone to the surface that they could hold their position indefinitely.

The gun cage was manned by Guard O. A. Johnson, John Christian, Fred Murray and Mine Superintendent Robert Murray, who had returned to the gun cage after a four-hour parley with the mutineers.

Murray had just reported that all was well when the miners dashed out of a tunnel and made for the cage. The gas-masked officers laid down a heavy gas barrage and the choking mutineers retreated.

The gun cage, guarding the air shaft and telephone, is the only communication between the mine and the surface. It was saved earlier today by Johnson who routed five convicts as they sought to jam the air shaft elevator cage with empty mine cars.

Murray went unarmed into the mine to meet with the mutineers at 7:30 a. m. today. He telephoned Graham from the 730-foot level gun cage at 11:30, the deputy warden said.

"No one has been hurt," Graham said Murray told him. "I'll have all their demands for you in a few minutes. Everything is O. K."

Graham said he expected to learn from Murray shortly what the men wanted.

Murray's telephone message was the first word from the sullen convicts since they went down into the coal mine shortly after 6:10 a. m. today and, figuratively, pulled it in after them.

Personally liked by the men, Murray volunteered to go down and talk to them after it became apparent that a mutiny was in progress.

AUTHORITIES TO UNITE IN CRIME CAMPAIGN

Society has had no greater encouragement for its security than that derived from the latest accomplishments of the government's G-men in solution of the Weyerhaeuser kidnaping case.

But that is only one phase of an extensive program of federal, state, and local co-operation against criminal activities that the government at Washington is soon to put into effect.

Attorney General Homer S. Cummings recently revealed the plans by which a scientific training school for state and local police officers will be opened, probably this summer. A similar training course will be made available to state prison officials; a federal bureau of crime prevention will be sought from Congress for co-ordination of federal, state, and local police efforts, and not only police officers, but federal attorneys, marshals, and commissioners will receive training that will help them in proper prosecution of criminals.

Never before in the history of the country has so complete a campaign on behalf of society been attempted, and for this Attorney General Cummings and his staff are to be commended.

"Plant, technical equipment, scientific facilities, lecturers, and instructors will be available," Cummings says, adding that the sole expenses for the "students" will be their transportation to and from Washington and their personal living costs during their stay there.

All that is needed now is co-operation of federal, state, and local authorities for this united battle against crime. Recent developments promise well for such joint effort.

One of the major factors in such recent success as has been achieved has been the increasing co-operation among federal, state, and local agencies," Cummings asserts in this connection. "The future requires even closer co-ordination, and even more complete give-and-take in all our activities."

To attain this sort of co-operation, however, petty local pride and jealousy must be waived for the higher purpose at hand. Politics must be set aside entirely.

And there must be a willingness of local officers, at times, to work under others in a centralized effort to achieve a common end.

Activities of Uncle Sam's operatives against kidnapers, and the commendable aid given them by state and local authorities, points to the effectiveness of such program.

CENTENNIAL NEWS ITEMS

Official Pledge Adopted by the Texas Centennial in 1935: "I will think—talk—write—do—my part in the Texas Centennial in 1935. This is to be my contribution. In its achievement I may give free play to my patriotic love for Texas' heroic past; my confidence in its glories that are to be."

DALLAS, June 15.—With plans completed and authorization by the State Control Commission to go ahead on plans and construction of the $1,000,000 Texas building which will be the center piece of $15,000,000 of buildings on the Texas Centennial central exposition grounds, efforts are being made to rush the construction work as much as possible, it has been announced here by Walter D. Cline, managing director of the central exposition.

The central commission has accepted the general plan for the Texas building.

The city of Dallas has authorized the issuance of $3,500,000 in bonds, which will be used for the acquiring of 26 acres of additional grounds, the installation of new sewerage lines, the building of a $500,000 art museum and other permanent improvements on the state fair grounds.

The central exposition is engaged now in disposing of the remaining $80,000 of the $2,000,000 bond issue. The wind-up campaign has progressed nicely since it was opened last week, workers disposing of $22,000 of the bonds during the first few days. The bonds are secured by one-third of the gate receipts to the exposition. With an attendance of 6,000,000 people to the exposition, a full return with a 4 per cent interest will be paid on the bonds sold.

The half-million dollar wind-up campaign is expected to be brought to a successful completion within a short time. Several large subscriptions are in the mail at the time and is expected to reach the bond headquarters before the week is over. The private corporation bond money will be used in remodeling present buildings on the state fair grounds and the erection of new ones.

OUT OUR WAY By WILLIAMS

THE NEW DEAL IN WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—Imagine your self in the intimate mental boudoir of a rabid New Dealer or a highly paid "power trust" lobbyist.

Either place, you hear the same song: The Senate vote on Dietrich amendment to the Wheeler - Rayburn - Roosevelt - Corcoran - Cohen-Frankfurter - Brandeis - Morris Llewellyn Cooke-Federal Trade Commission - Federal Power Commission holding company bill was the most significant vote in Congress since President Franklin Delano ("Smiles") Roosevelt first began to tell Congress what to do.

(Nobody ever called the bill that before, on account of a journalistic tendency to abbreviate.)

The vote was 45 to 44 against the amendment, which meant one of the best attendances of the season, a spotlight on each individual vote, and an accelerated pitapat in the hearts of all concerned.

The vote for the bill itself was 56 to 32, but the Dietrich amendment—which would have killed the section which breaks the huge holding companies into its-by-ones—was the crux.

Senator Dieterich of Illinois, who has been an attorney for power companies and is still politically associated with pals of the celebrated Sam Insull, was out to devitalize the bill.

The several senators who voted for his amendment and then for the unamended bill left themselves in a position to tell voters they had voted against the "power trust" and to tell "power trust" lobbyists that they had switched only after the game had become a hopeless one and their best bet was to square themselves with the administration.

The reason so many folks here regard the contest as having been fundamental was that the lines between Roosevelt and Big Business-Big Finance were clearly drawn. Executives of the huge holding companies, their enormous salaries imperiled, spent money recklessly in an effort to balk the New Deal's assault on concentrations of economic-financial power. Roosevelt lent himself to the fray and his White House liaison man with Congress, Charles West, was hopping all over the place with the message from on high.

The Dieterich fight demonstrated that, although Democrats vastly outnumber Republicans in both houses of Congress, there's no clear "New Deal" majority for Roosevelt's advanced program.

Among Democrats voting for the amendment were Byrd and Glass of Virginia, congenital anti-New Dealers; Chavez of New Mexico, who owes his job to administration support in his fight against Bronson Cutting; Jimmy Byrnes of South Carolina, always rated by liberals as a "power trust" friend, but a Roosevelt trusted leader; Radcliffe of Maryland, an old personal friend of the president; Neely of West Virginia, whom progressives for the first time no longer consider one of them; Bankhead, Ashurst, Burke, Coolidge, Duffy, George, Gerry, Hayden, Lonergan, Moore, Reynolds, and Walsh—all of whom support the administration on less important issues; and Thomas of Oklahoma, reputed to be a "left-winger" because of his persistent stand for inflation.

All these Democrats become more or less "doubtful" if there's to be a real showdown between Roosevelt and Big Business-Big Finance in 1936.

CHINESE MEET JAP DEMANDS FOR APOLOGY

CHAHAR GOVERNOR IS REMOVED; TROOPS DEPART

(Copyright, 1935, by The Associated Press.)
TIENTSIN, June 18.—The veteran Japanese troops of the Tientsin garrison departed for Tangku today, reducing the local forces to their normal strength of about 800.
Chinese troops also continued to withdraw in great numbers.
Tokyo's continental war officers asserted, however, that their forces are persisting in their heavy concentration along the great wall as a "precautionary measure."
Japanese sources, denying reports that they planned "drastic action," expressed belief that the Changpei incident—the arrest of three Japanese secret service men—would be settled peacefully.
"Sung Chieh-Yuan (removed today as governor of China's Chahar province) appears sincerely anxious to settle the incident through conciliation," said Lt. Col. Y. Ishii, chief of staff of Japan's Eleventh garrison.
(A dispatch from Changchun to Rengo, Japanese news agency, reported that Japan's Kwantung army had agreed to settlement of the incident, with Chinese acceptance of Japanese demands for an apology and punishment of responsible officials.)
The Japanese forces withdrew from Tientsin, having completed their one-year tour of duty in North China and been replaced by fresh men. They were cheered loudly by local Japanese as they marched away to entrain for Tangku.
Of the Chinese troops, the government division in Peiping started to move out of the province, although

Social Security Bill Nears Final Vote In Senate

WASHINGTON, June 18 (AP)—The Roosevelt social security program was approaching a final vote today in the senate, with its major provisions intact.
The taxes recommended by the administration to finance the old age pensions and unemployment insurance had been raised, rather than lowered, though even in the beginning they represented the largest levy ever recommended by a president.
Senate approval would assure enactment of the program virtually as it was put forward by the president, because the house already has passed it. Administration leaders were pressing for the vote today.
As it stood today, the bill would: Offer federal grants of $15 a month to be matched by the states, for each needy individual over 65 years of age or blind.
Tax employers three per cent on their payrolls, from 1938 on for unemployment insurance; from this tax they could deduct 90 per cent provided it was paid into a state unemployment reserve fund.
Tax employers and employees each three per cent from 1948 on, to build up reserves from which old age pensions of from $10 to $85 a month would be paid.

another division at Baotung had not yet been transferred to the south. The army of General Yu Hsueh-Chung is expected to be evacuated before June 25.
The Japanese military watched the Chinese troop operations closely. Three airplanes flying freely over the province from Tientsin.
A new step toward closer contact between North China and the Japanese sponsored empire of Manchoukuo was taken simultaneously with announcement that telephone service will be inaugurated July 1 between Tientsin, Peiping, Mukden, and Dairen.

Honeymoon Boat Saved to Ply at Niagara Again

The Honeymoon Special, the famed Maid of the Mist, again will ply the waters at the base of Niagara Falls this summer, victor over the fire that badly damaged the craft in drydock last February. Repair work is being rushed, as shown in this picture, new boilers and engines being installed, new planking laid, and a larger and more modern cabin being built while Niagara roars an accompaniment to the hammers.

Summer Sweethearts

CHAPTER XXI
"You're so stuffy," Sally pouted. "Other men I know would jump at the chance. Why, if you took this job from Father we could be married right away."
"I know," Michael said. "But you see I'm an outdoor man. Always have been."
"Here's what I think, Michael," Sally put her head on one side, looking like a plump, bright-eyed, extremely knowing bird. "You are a simpleton. That's what you are, really, not to grab the chance. First thing you know, people would forget about the riding business. . . they'd be accepting you . . ."

with a cool bow she had passed on . . . you're not even listening," Sally pouted.
"Yes, I am. I heard every single word."
"Father's really pleased about our engagement," Sally went on. "He pretended at first he wasn't—do you remember? Then he decided he was glad I was settling down. I've always had so much attention—he was afraid I might run off and do something really crazy. You remember that orchestra leader I told you about down at Miami last year—?"
Michael remembered.
"Well, and he thinks you are perfectly fine, Michael, honestly. Kiss me," she demanded suddenly, greedily, ending the discussion as she always ended it.
But he would not go into the bank, her father's bank, to please her. He would not go with her to the country club or the yacht club or the swimming pool until he had proved himself. She could coax and pout as she would. Michael knew this much. A man had to be the master. He had to have the last word.
Dimly Sally recognized this strength, respected it, even while she attempted to tear it down.
"He's a match for you," fat Joseph Moon said, with his wide smile. "I don't care what the town people say, whether the old tabbies say you're getting a roughneck or what, he's a man."
Sally tossed her head. "They're all jealous, that's what they are."
She was jealous of every move Michael made. She had formed a habit of loitering around the riding academy even after her hours of exercise were ended. Michael, helpless in this particular matter, had to listen to a good deal of comment—criticism.
She wanted to make him over. She wanted to make the place over. When they were married, she would say, luxuriating in the thought, they would rebuild the house. They would put a glassed-in porch over there; they would add a big, white-tiled kitchen.
"But you won't run the school any more, Michael?"
He set his jaw stubbornly. "Why not? It's the work I know best."
She set herself the task of winning him over. "Ah, but that won't do, Michael. You can raise horses for racing—for the track, whatever you call it. We'll travel. Wouldn't you like that?"
"We're going to live on my income."
"I'd simply adore it, if it could be done," said Sally, with the greatest possible air of reasonableness. "But darling, it cannot be done." She punctuated the last three words with little butterfly kisses. "Is my great big man cross at his poor little girlie?" she demanded brightly.
Michael surveyed her with a quizzical air. "Sally, do you real-

CLIPPER TO RETURN FRIDAY TO ALAMEDA FROM HONOLULU

HONOLULU, June 18 (AP)—Another pioneering feat—the first flight of a commercial plane to and from Midway Island—went into the log book of the Pan American's clipper today as mechanics groomed the huge flying boat for the return hop to Alameda, Calif., next Friday.
Created more like a slightly overdone ferryboat than a sky trail blazer, the clipped swooped down out of the afternoon sun at 4:28 p. m. (9:58 p. m. Eastern Standard Time) yesterday and came to rest on the waters of Pearl Harbor just 10 hours and five minutes after leaving lonely Midway Island, 1,323 miles to the northwest.
As residents of Hawaii have come to expect, Capt. F. C. Musick announced tests "very successful" and reported no unusual incidents despite the fact 500 miles of the trip were made "flying blind." All details of the ship's cabin were drawn and one man was on watch "just in case there should be any other planes." With the exception of the navy squadron several weeks ago, no other planes have ever made the trip between Midway and Honolulu.
"We will take off for Alameda Friday, weather permitting," said Captain Musick as his crew of aerial commuters prepared for another 2,410 mile jaunt to California.

Vote Planned On AAA Amendments This Afternoon

WASHINGTON, June 18 (AP)—Urged on by his leaders, the house headed today toward a vote on the disputed AAA amendments possibly this afternoon.
The amendments—which are designed to strengthen Secretary Wallace's farm policies and to prepare for coming supreme court battles—were one of four pieces of legislation the democratic pilots want passed this week.
Speaker Byrns set the pace yesterday. After a $501,000,000 "nuisance" tax bill had been approved in 40 minutes, he asked the representatives to meet earlier and stay later so that the session could be ended by July 15.
Six hours of debate on the farm amendments have been allotted. After the vote the leaders will try to jam through the Wagner labor disputes bill and a deficiency appropriation measure this week.
Many republicans and some democrats have been fighting the AAA amendments, asserting they give the secretary of agriculture too great powers over producers and handlers of crops.
Carefully revised after the supreme court's ruling invalidating NIRA, the legislation now would permit the secretary to "order" marketing agreements on six commodities if 50 per cent of the handlers of a particular crop request one or if two thirds of the producers ask for an agreement.
Mrs. F. D. R. Backs Canadians
QUEBEC CITY, Que. (P)—Humble French-Canadian "habitants," making homespun, scarves and wovens under their own peaked roofs, have been cheered by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt's support. She is backing a move to protect the province's handicraft workers from importation of bogus articles.
Workmen who built the Normandie received a total compensation of $40,000,000.

women they married. He had been told this; he had read it in books. Often fine marriages were built on just such foundations. Sally was pretty, strong, healthy, generous. What more did he want? In his wildest dreams he could not expect anything more of a wife.
Or could he? Wasn't there, somewhere, a spark waiting to be kindled? Hadn't dark blue eyes flashed a message to him more than once during this drowsy summer? Had he ever felt, for a single instant with Sally, one-tenth of the pure emotion he had known those few instants he had held Katharine's slender body in his arms?
Well, that had been a sort of madness. It was over now. The best way—the clearest way—was to take the path Sally had pointed out to him. She would be a true and faithful wife; they would, some day, have strong children. Sturdy little boys with Sally's opaque, dark eyes and her flashing smile. Why did he wince, inwardly, at the thought?
One day in early September he was returning from a solitary ride on the new dapple gray. The late evening was full of a soft and mellow light. The first star appeared, lamp-like in skies the tender color of opals.
Michael rode into his own doorway. Sally's car was parked there. She was slumped over the wheel, with an azure circular spread out before her. She looked up and waved as he came past.
"Look, Marvellous, what I've got!"
Michael alighted and came over to stand by her. She was rosy and seductively dressed, fragrant and bright-eyed. Yet his heart was like a lump of lead; he saw the picture, paid tribute — yet there was no real response in him.
"Look what I've brought," cried the girl, flourishing the travel circular. "Daddy has a job for you—South American trip—it's to do with horses, so you can't possibly object. I've been looking up sailings. We can be married right away."

Young Democrat Is Appointed To National Office
AMARILLO, June 18 (AP)—O. C. (Red) Christie of Quanah, secretary of the Young Democratic clubs of Texas, has been appointed a member of the national organization committee of the Young Democratic Clubs of America.
The appointment was made by Cliff Woodward, national president, after a recent state convention of the Texas group at Amarillo. Two sons of the president, James and Elliott Roosevelt, who attended the meeting, recommended Christie for the place.
The Texas secretaryship, which Christie resigned after his appointment, will be filled at a meeting of the state executive committee at Fort Worth soon. John L. McCarty of Dalhart, state president, said Christie said he would go to Washington soon to assume his duties. The committee supervises organization in each state and plans to arrange programs on which speakers of national prominence will appear.

House Decides Not To Impose Gag Rule Again

WASHINGTON, June 18 (AP)—House leaders today have decided tentatively not to try to impose another "gag rule" this session to push through contested legislation.
The procedure yesterday through which the $501,991,000 "nuisance" tax measure was passed came within five votes of being defeated.
It was a drastic rule forbidding amendments and limiting debate to 40 minutes on a side. The vote for the rule was 247 to 117, a two-thirds majority being required.
The leaders noted with some concern that a change of five "yes" to "no"s would have left them one vote short of the 243 necessary for the bill's passage under the rule.
The nuisance tax bill, which now must run the senate gauntlet would extend for two years present levies on gasoline, automobiles, furs, and other articles estimated to raise $501,991,000 annually.

WINNERS IN 4-H CLUB BEDROOM CONTEST ARE ANNOUNCED

FIRST PLACE WON BY GIRL AT ALAN REED

LULA MAE DUENKEL'S STORY TELLS HOW SHE WON

First place in the annual 4-H club girls' bedroom improvement contest has been awarded in this county to Lula Mae Duenkel of Alanreed, and second place to Joyce Dowell of Back Club, 4 is insuenced by a letter from Adams, demonstration agent.

The winning bedroom will be opened Friday by Miss Bennie Campbell, home demonstration agent of the Rio Grande valley district, who is judge in the district contest.

Bedroom improvement is one of the major projects of girls' club work, and the contest is conducted each year. The winner is a 14-year-old club worker, and Joyce Dowell is 13 years old.

Winner's Story

In her report of the year's work, Lula Mae tells the following story of her changed bedroom:

"I share my room with my cousin and we thought our room needed a little 'freshening up.' I decided to have a bedroom demonstrator for our 4-H club and fix up our room. As made plans with our agent, I found that a few pieces of furniture had some extra storage space were needed to make our bedroom more attractive and comfortable.

"Our bedroom is located in between the bathroom and another bedroom. The room is very small, 11'1" with only one window and the door besides the closet door. The room is very small, 11'1" with only one window and the door besides the closet door. The room is very small, 11'1" with only one window and the door besides the closet door.

Started With Closet

"The storage space seemed to be good place to start. During the previous summer and school year, things had been thrown back with a thought of system and neatness. When the first thing to be done was empty the closet and get it well organized and increase the storage space as much as possible, for the closet was a small one for two girls.

Made New Articles

"I made a veneer bookcase and waste basket in one of my courses in school. They were varnished light oak. Together they cost me fifty cents.

"Between times while I was fixing the furniture, I put two coats of off-white paint on the woodwork. I preferred off-white because it is being used extensively in homes today. I had it already, and it is easy to keep clean.

Furniture Repaired

"In my bedroom was a chest with broken bottom, a large dresser, a round reading table, a cane seat chair, and an iron bed. I took the bottom out of the chest and put in another one and placed some flat boards on the bottom to raise it up high enough to use for a seat. Then covered it over with lavender and yellow flowered cretonne to match the paper on the walls and padded the lid to make a comfortable seat. I took out the old clothing that was in the chest and placed the bedroom linen and a few of my clothes in it.

M.E. Circles Welcome Guests

Noted Women Studied By All Groups in Their Meetings Yesterday.

All studying the same lesson, Witness of Women in Methodism, from the World Outlook magazine, circles of First Methodist Missionary society met yesterday afternoon and welcomed new members and visitors.

Mrs. Caryle was the new member and Mrs. E. Perkins and Shepherd were guests of circles one, which studied at the church. Twelve members attended. Mrs. Shelton conducted the devotional from Acts, 10th and 26th chapters, after a prayer by Mrs. M. E. DeTar.

Topics were presented as follows: Methodist Women Today, Mrs. Frank Showell; Elizabeth Babay Adams, Mrs. J. V. Kidwell; Forgotten Women, Mrs. Baker; Susanna Wesley, Mrs. DeTar. The benediction was by Mrs. W. Purviance.

Mrs. Hessey Hostess
Mrs. John Hessey was hostess to circle two at her home. The meeting opened with a song, Tell Me the story, and a prayer in unison. Mrs. T. E. Johnson was study leader.

Mrs. A. W. Babione told of the life of Susanna Wesley; Mrs. C. R. Price discussed the Witness of Methodist Women; Mrs. Johnson, Methodist Women of Today. Questions were answered by other members.

Ice cream, cake, and iced tea were served to 10 members and a visitor.

Circle Three Meets

Thirteen members of circle three met with Mrs. F. L. Stallings. The opening prayer was by Mrs. Hodge. Mrs. A. B. Whitten, program leader for the afternoon, presented the devotional.

Assisting with program discussions were Mrs. Lee Harrah, Husband, Paul Jensen, Hodge, Stallings, Kiser, N. P. Maddux, and Sherman White.

At the closing prayer by Mrs. Maddux, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Hodge, served ice cream and cookies.

Guest On Program

Mrs. H. D. Tucker was a new member of circle four, which met with Mrs. G. L. Ott. Mrs. Louis Schlameyer and H. L. Wilder, guests, were present with 15 members.

Mrs. Wilder and Mrs. S. A. Hurst, of the Christian social relations committee, gave preliminary discussions. They spoke of colored residents of this community, and gave suggestions for improving conditions among them.

Mrs. J. M. Turner was program leader. Mrs. C. W. Fobte, L. C. Lockhart, and Carlton Nance reviewed the lives of noted Methodist women of the past and present.

left from other painting jobs on the house.

"The clothes rod was a small half-inch rod which sagged in the middle and made our pressed and ironed clothes look very untidy. To remedy that I bought a stick and made a new rod making 3, 8" space to hang our clothes. I had some lumber to build a shelf over the clothes rod. It gave me 3, 8" more storage space. I procured a lid box and covered it with an old lid plaid dress, using that color in order to make it harmonize with the little paper in the closet. I wanted something to put on the shelf that would be easy to clean and would catch the hat box. I found that old and white checked off cloth would serve that purpose. I needed belt rack; so with a few pieces of wood I made one and placed it at the top of the closet door because underneath it were some hooks, a laundry bag, and a wooden shoe rack. Then I added four skirt hangers and six satin covered dress hangers that I covered myself.

Sunday Menu

BREAKFAST: Sugared cherries, cereal, cream, waffles with honey, milk, coffee.

SUNDAY DINNER: Unhulled strawberries, roast chicken with stuffing and gravy, mashed potatoes, buttered asparagus, or creamed new onions, salad of tomatoes stuffed with shredded new cabbage and pineapple, peppermint stick ice cream with chocolate sauce, iced tea or coffee, milk.

SUNDAY NIGHT LUNCH:

Cold sliced veal loaf (left from Saturday dinner), cucumber sandwiches, open tomato and cream cheese sandwiches, red raspberry shortcake, milk, tea.

Half Pound to Quart

One-half pound of candy is enough to sweeten and flavor one quart of custard or other foundation mixture. There is a wide variety from which to choose. The stick candies, fruit lozenges, the hard stuffed candies, the chocolate coated and plain marshmallows, the nut brittles and so on through the list.

Peppermint Stick Ice Cream

One pound stick and white peppermint stick candy, 3 cups scalded milk, 1 tablespoon granulated gelatin, 2 cups whipping cream, few grains salt.

Scald milk in double boiler. Add crushed candy and stir until dissolved. Soften gelatin in 5 tablespoons cold water for five minutes and stir into hot milk mixture. Stir until dissolved. Cool for an hour. Beat until foamy and fold in cream whipped until firm. Add salt and turn into freezing tray. Freeze to a mush and scrape from sides and bottom with a spatula and stir well. Continue freezing until ready to serve.

Chocolate Sauce

One and one-half cups milk, 3-4 cup granulated sugar, 3 squares bitter chocolate, 1 tablespoon cornstarch or arrowroot, 1-8 teaspoon salt, 1-2 teaspoon vanilla.

If you are making this sauce for children particularly, use arrowroot rather than cornstarch.

Mix sugar, salt and cornstarch or arrowroot. Add milk with chocolate broken in small pieces and cook over hot water for twenty to thirty minutes. Cover while cooking and stir occasionally. When ready to serve beat well with a Dover beater and add vanilla. Serve hot in a sauce-boat or pitcher.

Germany Rejoices Over Naval Pact

BERLIN, June 18 (AP)—German official circles rejoiced today over their naval understanding with Great Britain, asserting the reich will build up its navy as fast as possible to 35 per cent of Great Britain's sea power.

Nazi authorities said they considered the naval accord capable of lifting Germany from the isolation into which they believed she had been plunged by the Russo-French mutual assistance pact.

Although the agreement was not to be submitted to other powers for approval, official circles expressed hope France and Italy would join the United States and Japan in foregoing objections.

DAIRY PROFITS COMPARED

LUBBOCK (AP)—A good dairy cow is more profitable than 21 acres of cotton or 11 acres of wheat, according to a survey of high school "ag" students' work in the Texas Panhandle by C. Luker, vocational agriculture supervisor.

Farmers In Hale Plant At Night

PLAINVIEW, June 18 (AP)—Hale county farmers have been "burning the midnight oil" in an effort to complete their planting.

Far into the night could be heard the roar of tractor motors as farmers sought to get seed into the ground in time to make row crops. Plainview grain men said the planting activity was greater than for any similar period in the last five or six years.

Recent hard rains made it necessary to replant much cotton and feed crops. Some farmers had to plant a third time.

Lovely Wedding Joins Couple Who Will Live Here

The gleam of white cathedral tapers on an improvised altar of palms and fern formed the background of a beautifully simple wedding at Roswell, N. M., Saturday evening, when Miss Edith Powell of Los Angeles, formerly of Amarillo, and George D. Riggs of Pampa were married.

The wedding was at the home of Mrs. Mary Hill, the Rev. C. C. Hill officiating. The couple was attended by Mrs. Hill and Nell Willis.

Attired in a gown of dusky pink illusion lace of medieval design adapted to modern silhouette, with high fan shaped collar and short train, the bride wore a corsage of sweetheart roses and lacy fern with tulle.

Following the ceremony, a buffet supper was served. The bride out of the cake, which rested on a bed of sweet peas and fern.

Miss Powell was honored with several lovely parties before leaving Los Angeles, where she was recently graduated from the Lipson school of costume design and fashion art.

Mr. Riggs is geologist for an oil company with headquarters here, and the couple will make their home in Pampa.

Auxiliary Plays After Business

Business was disposed of early at a meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary last evening, and members spent a pleasant hour at games of bridge and forty-two.

They decided to sponsor a sale of Kellogg products in grocery stores here Saturday, and made plans for this work. In the games, Mrs. W. M. Voyles made high score at bridge and Mrs. Katie Vincent at forty-two.

Ice cream and wafers were served to Mrs. Hoyt Allen, Clark Johnson, G. L. Ott, Kiser, Al Lawson, Vincent, Voyles, L. D. Blasingame, Ida Burns, P. E. Wallace, and Mrs. Bunting, a guest.

Farmers In Hale Plant At Night

PLAINVIEW, June 18 (AP)—Hale county farmers have been "burning the midnight oil" in an effort to complete their planting.

Far into the night could be heard the roar of tractor motors as farmers sought to get seed into the ground in time to make row crops. Plainview grain men said the planting activity was greater than for any similar period in the last five or six years.

Recent hard rains made it necessary to replant much cotton and feed crops. Some farmers had to plant a third time.

CURRENT MISSIONARY WORK STUDIED BY FIRST BAPTIST WOMEN IN CIRCLE PROGRAMS

Breaks Film Ice

Luck at last has smiled on Lorraine Bridges, above, sparkling-eyed Oklahoma City brunt. Trying for two years to crash the films, she won the eye of a noted producer at a party for visiting mayors. So a Hollywood contract has come to the girl who once had to SOS her mother to rescue her clothes from a landlady who had seized them for room rent.

WILD HORSE RACE TO BE A NEW FEATURE OF STAMFORD REUNION

STAMFORD, June 17.—Horses known for their aerial gymnastics rather than fleetness will be selected for the wild-horse race, which will be a new feature of the rodeo at the Sixth Annual Texas Cowboy Reunion to be held July 2, 3 and 4.

The race will be included in the program of each afternoon and night rodeo performance but not at the morning matinees. Four wild horses will be placed in the bucking chutes barebacked, but with halter and rope. At the starting signal, the horses will be released from the chutes and each contestant and his helper must saddle his wild horse and ride the length of the arena and return. The one crossing the finishing line first wins the race. As the horses are calculated to do more bucking than running, the outcome of the race will be difficult to predict. Only four contestants will be allowed to enter at each performance.

At Ashbury Park, N. J., where Max Baer is conditioning himself for his 15-round bout with Jim Braddock, the world's heavyweight champion is putting on just the same sort of show that marked his training for his winning efforts against Schmeling and Carnera.

Apparently Baer cannot or will not take these training sessions seriously. He shows off while punching the bag and has a lot of fun going through the motions of training. This generally trying part of a ring athlete's life is no grind to Max—he won't have it so.

And yet for all the fooling he does, Baer looks in splendid physical condition. He looks ready to step into the ring and defend his heavyweight crown.

"Why criticize my training methods," he asked, "I got to the top of the pile with them, didn't I? Maybe they would be all wrong for someone else but they suit me perfectly. So why should I change at this stage of the game?"

Perhaps there is a lot in what the champion has to say. What more could the generally accepted routine give him than he already has?

His refusal to take the training work seriously is well in line with his light-hearted, carefree temperament. Nature has been most generous in equipping him for the prize ring and at the same time spared him the sort of disposition which makes one fret and worry.

He has supreme confidence in himself and in his ability to put any man in the world on the floor with his powerful right fist.

Max points to the 40 rounds of fighting he has done in exhibition bouts this past year. The best possible sort of preparation in the world for his coming bout with Braddock, he insists. With that work behind him, Baer believes that he needs only a bit of polishing and general conditioning to be ready to enter the ring.

Buddy Comes Along

Perhaps it is because he is the direct opposite of his flamboyant, spectacular brother, Max, that Buddy Baer so appeals to a visitor at camp.

The younger brother of the champion has demonstrated that he, too, is blessed with more than ordinary fistic talent since he took up boxing a year ago. He was then 18, bulked around 265, was 6 feet 6 inches tall and something of a fat boy. Today he is down to 240, he has learned rapidly and has scored 23 victories in 24 fights since last October.

When visitors come into camp Buddy has away to a secluded corner to entertain himself with a book or to do some sketching and yields all the clamor and glamor to his "big" brother.

Buddy is hesitant about showing his sketching efforts to anyone although they are well done considering the fact that the youngster has had no technical training.

In addition to his other talents the boy has a fine baritone voice which if he cared to have cultivated promises to carry him to even greater fame than his prowess with the padded gloves.

Another unique feature of the Reunion rodeo each year is the contest for the best cutting-horse. The contest is judged on the performance and ability of the horse as well as the skill of the rider. Eight horses judged best in an elimination contest to be held at the morning show July 3 will compete in the finals on the afternoon of July 4. First prize is a hand-made saddle. Claude Jeffers, wagon boss of the Matador ranch, Matador, and his cowpony, "Highpower," won the contest last year.

One of the favorite events of the rodeo is the special calf-roping contest for cowboys over 55 years of age. Ed Powers, 57, Breckenridge, won the coveted saddle in this contest last year.

The rodeo, which is the main attraction around which the Reunion program of entertainment is built, is not staged by professional performers, but is limited to cowboys actually employed on the ranches of Texas and adjoining states. In this sense it is an authentic survival of a typically western institution. Just as the cowboys a half a century ago gathered after the work was done for a frolic and such manly sports as steer-riding and bronc-busting, the cowhands now gather from hundreds of miles around, bringing their favorite cowponies for the Stamford Reunion.

Besides the special features, the rodeo includes the usual cowboy sports of calf-roping, wild-cow milking, steer-riding and bronc-busting. These events will be staged each day. Day money totalling $1,600 will be awarded in these events, besides the handsome hand-made saddles which go to the champions in each contest.

The rodeo arena, with improvements made this year, has a seating capacity of 10,000, which is expected to care for the crowds even at the peak shows. However, visitors will likely find the night performances more pleasant due to the cooler night air. Performances will begin each at 8:30 a. m., 2 p. m. and 8 p. m. The usual low admission prices will prevail, general admission to the afternoon and night shows being 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children and grandstand seat 25 cents additional. The charge for the morning matinee will be 25 cents for everyone. All tickets are tax-free due to the fact that the Reunion is a no-dividend organization.

76th Drilling Hits Oil

What Goes Up Must Come Down

Did you take the skyride at the Chicago world's fair? Then breathe a sigh of relief that you're not still on it, for here is the end of that spectacular creation of engineering genius. The west tower of the ride is shown falling after charges of dynamite wrecked the base. This was one of the most difficult feats connected with demolition of the fair buildings.

Dusting The Covers Of Texas History

For THE TEXAS CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION OF 1936

AUSTIN, June 18.—It must not be supposed that the Battle of San Jacinto, decisive though it was in determining the independence of the Republic of Texas, ended war between the Mexicans and Texans. Indeed, skirmishes occurred periodically for a number of years between various armed forces of the two former combatants. Attacks from Mexican armies were constantly a threat. The situation as it existed after the war graphically described by John Salmon Ford, journalist-soldier-historian, in his memoirs. The manuscript of these memoirs, which have never been published, is in the family archives collection of the University of Texas library. Ford possessed a flair for delineating personalities and for depicting atmosphere which renders his memoirs much more interesting, both from the point of view of the casual reader and from that of the student of social movements, than the usual catalogue of events.

"A goodly number of Mexicans remained in the town and country of Nacogdoches after the battle of San Jacinto," Ford wrote. "It would be difficult to assume that these people always received fair and honorable treatment at the hands of Texans, without an infraction of truth. On the other hand it would be hard to prove these citizens of Mexican origin demeaned themselves blamelessly.

"In process of time a pronouncement was published. The leader in this movement was Vincente Cordova—a man of some means, and considerable influence among his countrymen.

"The news spread fast. In a few days companies were marching from many counties of eastern Texas. It was the custom in those days for men, able to do military duty, to outfit themselves with arms ammunition, and provision. It was usual to meet at the county-seat, and organize. Elections were primitive affairs. For instance when two candidates were in the field for captain, they were placed some distance apart. At the word 'march' the friends of the respective candidates fell into line by the side of his favorite. A count was made, and the result declared. The captain of the San Augustine company was H. W. Augustine.

"The different companies were concentrated between Nacogdoches and the Angeline river. We remained in camp about two days. More good feeling and hilarity never prevailed among the citizen-soldiers of any country. Every thing was given and taken in good humor. The 'greenies' suffered as usual. A sentinel one night mistook the noise made by a rat, in packing sticks to complete a nest, for the furtive tramp of a savage; and fired. The line of battle was speedily formed—an investigation set on foot, and the truth ascertained. Every once in a while some one would bawl out—'Who shot the rat?' A multitude of voices would respond—'Purse.' He grew tired of the fun, and swore a goodly lot of extra cash, but the cry ceased not.

"Capt. Augustine's company was ordered to make a reconnaissance between the Angeline and the Neches rivers. The duty was performed without any incident occurring of moment. A night alarm caused the command to be placed in line. Lieut. N. K. K. was in charge of the guard. He sported a brigadier general's uniform. He reported—'Something approached a sentinel—he yelled—receiving no answer—he fired. He is sure it was not a woman.' The latter assertion set every one to laughing; and thus the affair ended.

"It should have been stated previously that Gen. Thomas J. Rusk commanded the whole force. Some field officers were on duty by virtue of their commissions in the militia. Our major was Alexander G. Hale.

"The line of march was up river to form a junction with the main body. We halted at Lacy's ranch. If memory serves, a large farm on the road from Nacogdoches to Washington on the Brazos. The house was on an elevated spot—overlooking a considerable extent of territory. It is on or near the town of Alto, as the writer has been informed. We remained here about two days. In the evening of the second day news was received that a body of four hundred Mexicans and Indians were not far off. That night we moved back on the Nacogdoches road, and encamped in a mot of timber surrounded by prairie on every side. The position was good for defense, but lacked water. Regularity, order, and silence was observed as we marched along by fours. Not many hours before, the road was not sufficiently large to prevent men from falling out of a column of twos. All was quiet during the night.

"The next morning we resumed our march by twos. Very soon a large body of men was seen coming across the prairie in our direction. They were supposed to be enemies. The order was given 'Front into line.' We moved at a gallop. An elderly gentleman, Mr. Shofner, seemed to feel the necessity of going into battle with a full stomach. He detached a piece of dried beef from the cantil of his saddle and made a vigorous effort to fill his mouth. The ground was 'sliding,' his horse began stumbling, was unable to recover, and fell a long distance—leaving the rider on the ground behind him. The prostrate man made a desperate effort to finish his meal. It did not take long to learn the force in sight was Gen. Rusk's main command.

"That day or the next the trail of the enemy was followed. The command passed by the house of Bowles, the celebrated Cherokee chief. He was standing at a short distance from his house, a comfortable appearing log cabin, conversing with some of our officers, perhaps Gen. Rusk. An interpreter was present. His face had somewhat the contour of a Caucasian. The nose was rather on the aquiline order. He impressed one with the idea that he possessed force of character, and great firmness. He denied all con-

18 SUBSISTENCE HOMESTEADS OF GOVERNMENT MAY BE ABANDONED

WASHINGTON, June 18 (P)—The government is thinking of abandoning 18 subsistence homestead projects inherited by the resettlement administration at the death of the homestead corporation June 16.

C. B. Baldwin, chief assistant to Rexford G. Tugwell, head of the resettlement unit, in an interview today said:

"We are checking and rechecking all the subsistence homestead projects. Some that are going concerns we will probably continue; others not yet fully under way may be dropped."

There are 64 such projects, 18 of which are not yet functioning. This development occurred as Tugwell, back from New Mexico, where he delivered a graduation address at the state university, issued orders that work establishing the resettlement administration hit a faster pace.

"We hope to be all set by July 15," Baldwin said.

"Already we are buying some land with the $7,500,000 we received when we took over the subsistence homestead corporation. Within a couple of weeks we probably will be presenting projects to the works allotment board for approval. Funds earmarked for us amount to $100,000,000.

"Within a few days we expect to set up about a dozen regional offices."

throughout the country for decentralization of our activities.

He announced that a conference on housing management had been arranged by Tugwell. It will take place at Buck Hill Falls, Pa., the first week in July. All government agencies that touch housing will be invited.

The idea of the subsistence homesteads projects, some of which may be dropped, was to link the soil to industry. The plans called for communities populated by people who would be employed in industry but also would have plots of ground to till.

They have faced some criticism and difficulties, and it has been reported that officials were finding it difficult to induce industries to locate in the communities.

Gossipers Peeved When Woman Reduced 21 Lbs.

Never Felt So Good In 20 Years

Gossipers who tell you reducing is harmful or that you don't need to reduce (when your mirror tells you differently) probably wouldn't want to see you the slender woman you can be if you'll take a half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a cup of hot water every morning—lasts fine with juice or half lemon added.

Kruschen can't harm you—it's a health treatment—physicians prescribe it. If one jar (lasts 4 weeks and costs but a trifle) doesn't take 12 lbs. off you—money back.

Mrs. J. C. Bosham of Callaway, Va., writes: "I was too fat to have good health. I weighed 228 and after taking Kruschen for a month I lost 21 lbs. and feel better than I have for 20 years." For sale by Richards Drug Co., Inc., Fathere Drug Co., or any drug store. (adv-4)

New Livestock Law To Go Into Effect On August 10, 1935

MINERAL WELLS, June 18 (P)—Maj.-Gen. Jacob F. Wolters of Houston, speaking on "traffic security" at a dinner here recently, recalled that among the acts of the 44th Texas legislature was a law providing for the imposition of a fine on the owner of hogs, cattle, horses, and sheep running at large on any designated highway where both sides of the road is fenced.

He stated the act which would go into effect August 10, 1935, expressly provides that, in addition to all other law enforcement officers, "it is especially the duty of the state highway patrol to enforce same."

The bill was introduced in the senate by Senator Hopkins of Gonzales and in the house by Rep. Fuchs of Washington county. It had the endorsement of a number of chamber of commerce organizations and the Federated Clubs of Texas in state convention.

In November, 1933, while on highway 75, between Madisonville and Houston, the automobile in which Wolters was riding ran over a hog. The car went into the ditch and turned over, and Wolters suffered a fractured shoulder and other injuries.

Gov. Ruby Laffoon of Kentucky recently pardoned 278 state convicts in a body conditional upon their future good behavior.

Cars Turns Over

A man is in the county jail after miraculously escaping death when his car rolled over a 30-foot embankment east of LeFors last night. He received only a bruised neck. Driving his car toward the bridge over the Fort Worth and Denver railroad, he got off the road and started along the edge of the fill between the guard rail and "no where." He succeeded in holding his course until striking a dip when the car started its downward plunge. The car was almost demolished.

Flier Seriously Injured In Crash

SAN ANTONIO, June 18 (AP)—Major Porfirio E. Zablan, a member of the Philippine constabulary and a Kelly Field student flier, was reported seriously injured at a ranch house, three miles north of Kendall today following the crash of his plane on a night training flight last night.

A Kelly Field ambulance was en route to Kendall, 20 miles northeast of Boerne, for the flier.

According to reports received here from Boerne, John Knappner, a farmer, found Major Zablan in the wreckage of his ship early today.

Neither the details of the accident nor the extent of the major's injuries was available.

Major Zablan was one of the three officers who were scheduled to graduate with a class of 16 flying cadets at Kelly Field next Saturday.

The standard yard originally varied with the girl of succeeding chiefs. Later it was fixed as the distance from the post of Henry F. nose to the end of his thumb.

Manager Pays and Pays

Votes of confidence seldom mean much when the turnstiles fall to click, however, and the Bruins are the only outfit in the senior loop which hasn't shown a definite gain in attendance as compared with 1934.

The reason Chicago has not rallied to the Cubs is that it does not like their type of entertainment. The array lacks power and fighting spirit.

Grimm started with at least one strike on him this spring. The wolves were aboard the Missouriian even before the championship campaign was launched, voicing their disapproval of the management for no apparent reason in exhibition games. The failure of such erstwhile dependables as Chuck Klein, Kiki Cuyler, and Freddie Lindstrom to hit hasn't helped matters.

Grimm has revised his batting order and done everything possible, and can't be expected to get up there and hit for Klein, Cuyler, and Lindstrom. But it is the manager who pays and pays when things go wrong.

Sick Traynor Target

It is a good bet that Traynor already has reached that point where he is happy when the Pittsburgh club hits road.

By HARRY GRAYSON

Jimmy Braddock was a pretty husky baby, having weighed 17 pounds at birth. Here he is, decked out in all his infant finery.

At 12, Braddock was a messenger, as shown here. As such he read bulletins on the Dempsey-Willard fight, and decided to become a fighter.

By HARRY GRAYSON

Babe Ruth's retirement again gives the efficient Bill McKechnie a free hand with the Boston Braves, but the open season on baseball managers never ends.

Chley Grimm of the Cubs and Charley Traylor of the Pirates are the newest targets.

The Cleveland situation reached the petition stage recently when Walter Johnson released Glenn Myatt and shipped Willie Kamm home "for the good of the ball club." Kamm subsequently was released as an active ball player, and re-hired as a scout. In this capacity, Willie will have little contact with Johnson.

It would seem that a good share of the Cuyahoga County customers wouldn't like Johnson even though he were good. Even the fact that he has the young Indian club scrapping for the American League lead hasn't silenced the boo birds.

The case of Charley Grimm is the more acute because business in Chicago, long a National League stronghold, has fallen off to an alarming degree.

When Grimm's position appeared precarious at the end of last season, Philip K. Wrigley and his associates called in their manager and gave him a new contract and made him vice president, or something.

(This is the second of four stories of the up, down, and up again career of Jimmy Braddock, new heavyweight champion of the world.)

BY EDWARD J. NEILL

NEW YORK, June 18.—James J. Braddock was named to the prize ring from birth.

Early on the morning of June 7, 1906, in the heart of Hell's Kitchen on West 48th street, he was born to Mrs. Elizabeth O'Toole Braddock, and the proud father, Joe, now 70 and a workman on the Hoboken docks, promptly named the lusty infant James in honor of James J. Jeffries, then heavyweight champion of the world.

The parent Braddocks, both mother and father, came from County Galway, Ireland, 45 years ago. One of Jim's uncles was a famed rough and tumble fighter, another a prominent foot runner. Two of Jim's three older brothers, Ralph and Joe, were fighters for a time. He has four brothers, in all, and two sisters.

The family moved to New Jersey where father Joe set up in the brick business. Jimmy was nine months old. He went to school in West New York, N. J., and his fighting career started early. He was ten when he flattened his first schoolmate, Elmer Furlong, with a single right. He fought Johnny Morris, another pal 30 times for the fun of it, splitting the decisions about even.

The Pirates are far from being out of it, and have gotten superb baseball out of Arkie Vaughan, Cy Blanton, the Wancers, and some more, but this hasn't kept the grandstand managers, who a year ago practically booed George Gibson from Forbes Field, from panicking his successor when logical tactical moves went awry.

Traylor is a sick man, too. A nose infection that affected his sight and brought down his weight many pounds forced him to confine his activities to the catcher's box and pinch hitting.

Rogers Hornsby is the only major league manager who entirely escapes the wrath of the second guessers. No one—not even Hornsby—cares about the St. Louis Browns.

At 12 he was a messenger boy, and one job he liked was carrying the round-by-round description to a newspaper office of Jack Dempsey's conquest of Jess Willard at Toledo in 1918. At 14 he was an apprentice flier in a print shop, and after hours he'd sneak over the fences of Jersey ball parks to watch fights. At 15 he was in with the amateurs, weighing 158 pounds. He scored 49 knockouts, before he turned professional.

One day in 1925, in a Union City, N. J., gymnasium, a New York manager, Joe Gould, was supervising the training of a middleweight, Harry Galfund. Joe spotted a big, skinny kid standing by the ring posts, looking eagerly on. Joe needed a sparring partner.

"You a fighter?" he demanded.

"Yes, sir," said the youngster.

"What's your name? What do you weigh?"

"Braddock, 162."

"Wanna box with Galfund?"

"Sure."

Braddock almost knocked out Galfund, a seasons' fighter, whereupon Gould sent the old warrior home and look over the new. They never signed a contract. As the years rolled by, and they went up, slid back, climbed again to the heavyweight championship, they've earned nearly $100,000 together, and they spent, or lost it in bad investments, together. Gould never lost faith in the Irish kid he came on by accident.

In the extreme "low" of their experiences, when only a year ago Jimmy had to go to the relief rolls for aid, when Joe was selling automobile radios trying to get by, Jimmy needed $37 to pay the milk bill. A kind landlord had let him move his family from their apartment to the basement where Jim took care of the janitoring, rent free. Gould had a rough time borrowing $37, but the milk bill was paid.

Today Gould is considering $100,000 offers for fights, accepting and rejecting the hundreds of other chances to make money that come a champion's way. Braddock pays no attention to that part of it.

"I do the fighting, Joe does the managing."

Laketon Hurler Chalks Up No-Hit Game For 10-1 Win

Unearned Run Spoils Performance Of Alfred West

Alfred West, Laketon's silent hurler, made the rest of the team in the Two I league "sit up and take notice" Sunday afternoon when he pitched a no-hit game against the Kingsmill team. West's perfect performance was marred when Kingsmill scored an unearned run in the seventh inning.

Several close games were played. The Pampa Independents and Texas El had called their tilt at the end of the third inning when rain fell. Texas El was leading 3 to 2. The game will be played some afternoon this week.

Two Fast Games
Two fast games were played at Road Runner park when the Stanolind Oil company team defeated Hoover 11 to 4 in the opening encounter and Coltexo carbon of LeFors took the measure of Skellytown 7 to 3 in the nightcap. A large crowd witnessed the contests.

Stanolind jumped into a lead in the early innings but Hoover tied

Schedule of games in the Two I league for Sunday afternoon follows:

- Mingo City vs. Phillips Petroleum company at Shaw park LeFors at 1:30 o'clock.
- Coltexo Carbon of LeFors vs. Shell Petroleum company at Shaw park, LeFors, at 2:30 o'clock.
- Pampa Indians vs. Sinclair Prairie at Sinclair-Prairie diamond about 2 o'clock.
- Pampa Rams vs. Texas El Carbon company at Rams' diamond west of Harvester field.
- Western Carbon company vs. Sunoco Sluggers at Sun diamond.
- Stanolind Oil company vs. Hopkins at Stanolind.
- Kingsmill vs. White Deer at White Deer.
- Pampa Advertisers vs. Pampa Independents at Wilcox diamond in the Wilcox addition.
- Skellytown vs. Laketon at Skellytown.
- Cargray vs. Hoover at Hoover.

All games excepting the double header to be played at Shaw park, LeFors, will begin at 2:30 o'clock.

The count. The oilmen collected runs in the sixth and seventh and coasted to victory.

Terry went the route for Stanolind. Hoover to seven hits and getting nine strikeouts. Cole and Barber, Hoover's versatile battery, worked the game. Cole was on the mound until the eighth when he changed places with Barber behind the bat. The two allowed 15 hits. Hoover was behind the bat for Stanolind.

Coltexo, with Ables on the mound and Leggett receiving, held Skellytown to five hits while collecting seven singles of Mail and Carroll, who went to the mound in the ninth. C. Williams caught the game. M. Sorenson, Skellytown leftfielder, hit a home run over the leftfield fence in the seventh inning, scoring a run ahead of him. It was the only four-py wallop of the game.

Score by inning of the first game: Stanolind 020 000 11 15 4 Hoover 011 000 200- 7 3 Batteries: Stanolind, Terry and Bryant; Hoover, Cole and Barber.

Score by inning of the second game: Skellytown 002 000 100- 3 5 4 Coltexo 100 130 428- 7 1 Batteries: Skellytown, Matt Carroll and Williams; Coltexo, Ables and Leggett.

Indians Win Again
The Pampa Indians won an 18 to 5 five-inning game from Cargray at Harvester diamond. The game was called half way through the sixth when a heavy shower fell. The Indians had increased their lead considerably in the sixth but the score reverted back to the fifth inning.

Nash of the Indians hit a home run, scored three times and made four nice assists. Gregory and Felton continued their hitting with three bingles each.

Cole and Austin each collected triples and single for Cargray. Martin also connected for three bases.

Score by innings: Indians 455 40- 18 12 Cargray 300 70- 10 10 Batteries—Indians, Barkham and Maples; Moore, Cargray, Oelman, Heater, Austin and Heater, Coleman.

Advertisers win
The Pampa Advertisers took a 14 to 9 game from the Sunoco Sluggers by coming from behind in the closing innings. Silvers went the distance for the Advertisers with James behind the bat. Webber was on the mound for the Sluggers with Vermillion catching.

The Advertisers collected nine safe bingles to eight for the oilmen. Errors because of a strong wind assisted the run column.

Western Carbon Wins
The Rams lost a 20 to 17 battle to Western carbon on a windswept diamond which saw sprinkles of rain at times. Carl Bar was on the mound for the Rams and although allowing 17 hits, made up in his hitting by slugging out two home runs. Stanley Kretzmeier and W. J. Brown, also of the Rams, connected for homers. Roy Kretzmeier was behind the bat.

Hall and Anderson divided pitching duties for the carbon team with James receiving. They allowed the Rams 11 hits.

Shell Downs Phillips
One of the best-played games of the day saw Shell down Phillips 9 to 5. Keeling, on the mound for Shell, limited the Phillips sluggers to seven scattered hits while his teammates were collecting 14 bingles off Armstrong and Gibson. Keeling fanned 12 of the opposing batsmen. Lary Trenary and Oller continued to hit the ball for Shell, each get-

Braddock's Wife Seems Impressed

"I was thinking of the wife and kids," said Jimmy Braddock, new heavyweight champion, after his stunning victory over Max Baer. While "the kids" slept, Mrs. Braddock rushed to join him in New York, to add her praises to peacocks sung by the admirers he won in his battle against long odds. Even for her, that powerful arms seem to have taken on marvelous new qualities.

Landis Permits Pitts To Play On Albany Nine

ALBANY, N. Y., June 18. (AP)—Edwin C. "Alabama" Pitts, one-time Sing Sing prison athlete, today faced the job of making good for the friends whose faith caused Kenesaw Mountain Landis to unbar the doors of professional baseball.

Landis, baseball's high commissioner, laid yesterday in Chicago over-ruled a decision banning Pitts from baseball but made it clear that his action resulted from the numerous appeals in behalf of the ex-convict.

He ruled the 24-year-old parolee might play with the Albany club of the International league but insisted his activities be limited to regular games of the schedule.

He explained he agreed with the stand taken by Judge W. G. Bramham, president of the National Association of Minor Professional Baseball Leagues, and the association's executive committee, in barring Pitts because he is an ex-convict but added:

"Since then (the executive committee decision), however, a new situation has arisen. Conditions have been created as the result of which there cannot be much doubt as to the destructive effect upon Pitts' effort toward rehabilitation, of not permitting him to enter baseball employment. This was not contemplated, nor is it due to the ruling of the president and the executive committee of the National association.

"And in this situation, reputable people have expressed to me their belief that there has been a complete reformation of Pitts' character.

"Solely for these reasons, Pitts will be allowed to play, on condition that a new contract be executed by the Albany club and Pitts containing a covenant, that during the year 1935 Pitts shall appear only in regular league games and shall not appear in or at exhibition games this condition being imposed because it is distinctly in Pitts' interest that mere notoriety be not exploited and capitalized.

"The young southerner who served five years of an eight-to-16 year term for an armed robbery in New York City was quick to express his appreciation.

"Judge Landis will never regret having made that decision," he said.

GARDEN SAYS BRADDOCK MAY FIGHT GERMAN IN SEPTEMBER

NEW YORK, June 18 (AP)—It looks like Braddock vs. Schmeling in September.

Jimmy Johnston, peppery little matchmaker for Madison Square Garden, said last night he had been informed Max Schmeling, former heavyweight champion, was ready to come to this country from Germany if assured a title go and that he, Johnston, had decided to stage the fight in the Long Island bowl in late September.

Although he has not received the final sanction of Jimmy Braddock and his manager, Joe Gould, Johnston said they had told him they would agree to a meeting with either Schmeling, Lasky or the dethroned Max Baer.

Pitches No Hit Game
One unearned run in the "lucky" seventh robbed Alfred West, Laketon's silent steady pitcher, name from the hall of fame as he hurled a no hit 10 to 1 victory over Kingsmill in the Two I league Sunday.

The Laketon club will meet another winning team next Sunday as they have two wins and no defeats.

Up until the seventh, West had allowed no hits and only two men had reached first base: One by a hit better and another on his error. Franks of Kingsmill became the first to knock a ball to the outfield. He went out. Then West issued his first bases on balls to Berkson, and Sherman Morgan was safe at first on Kenney's slow low throw to first. Berkson took third on the relay, and they raced home for the only score as Kemp struck out and Terry, Laketon catcher, allowed the third strike to roll back to the screen without recovering, for a passed ball.

McLaughlin of Laketon opened the seventh with a home run over third base as the side batted around, scoring six runs. Laketon counted their runs on three triples, three two base hits, and four singles. West whiffed 14 men to run his strike out record to 27 for the two games, and Elmo Bones of Kingsmill pushed the third ball by 12 opposing batters.

The Laketon Junior club made it two in a row over Kingsmill for the day with a 6 to 1 victory in six innings after the main show. Pitcher

AMARILLO IS LOSER OF TILT WITH COLTEXO

SHAMROCKS DEFEATED 10 TO 2 LAST EVENING

Trailing 2 to 0 going into the seventh inning, Coltexo of LeFors came to life and before the game had ended, sent 10 runs across the plate to defeat the Amarillo Shamrocks, 10 to 2, at Road Runner park last night.

Smith, former LeFors hurler, allowed his old teammates only four hits until the unlucky seventh when his own blunder lost him the ball game. With two out, Smith covered first badly to let Huffman get on base. Then the Coltexos went to work and scored six runs on four hits. The boys from LeFors continued their bombardment in the eighth inning by sending four runs across on three hits.

Amarillo's supposedly new players, Bailey from Pampa and Sawyer from LeFors, failed to break into the lineup as previously advertised by the Amarillians.

Hutton was on the mound for Coltexo. He allowed two runs in the first inning and then pitched nice ball until the seventh when Poindecker went in to hit for him. Brawley finished the game. He held the Chamberlain of Coltexo and Galtner of Amarillo, provided the fireworks at the plate, each gathering three singles: Evans of Amarillo and Spencer of Coltexo hit doubles.

Coltexo will again invade Road Runner park tomorrow night, the best of the evening. He held the visiting club meeting the Road Runners.

Score by innings: R H E AMARILLO 200 000 000- 2 8 4 COLTEXO 000 000 64x- 10 11 2 Batteries: Amarillo—Smith and Galtner; Coltexo—Hutton, Brawley and Polvogt.

Indians Trounce Galveston 3 to 1

By The Associated Press
The Oklahoma City Indians touched the Texas league leading Galveston Bucs for a 3 to 1 victory last night while the other six teams in the loop took another day off because of rain.

San Antonio was stranded at Dallas, Beaumont at Fort Worth and Houston at Tulsa.

With the Bucs on their home lot, pitcher Brillheart of the Indians kept the Galveston batters guessing most of the evening. He held the Bucs scoreless until the eighth inning while his teammates helped to hold a lead they had grabbed in the opening inning.

The Indians got their three counts in the first and the Bucs had to wait until the eighth to get their one run.

'CY' BLANTON QUILTS PIRATES FOR OPERATION

PITCHER IS STRICKEN WITH ATTACK OF APPENDICITIS

By HUGH S. FULLEBTON, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
The season pennant contenders fear, and few managers want to avoid, seems to be coming on a major league baseball. That's the time when some important player gets sick or is hurt, and the managers' carefully laid plans have to be re-arranged.

The latest victims of the scourge are the Pittsburgh Pirates and Cleveland Indians.

Cleveland's first-string catcher, Frankie Pytlak, finally gave up his effort to recover from an illness while wandering around with the club and left for his home in Buffalo. The tribe didn't miss him much when Bill Brenzel substituted and made two hits in an 11 to 2 triumph over the Red Sox.

The Pirates got a scare a few days after they had slugged the Philadelphia Phillies into submission 12 to 5 without their leading clouter, Arky Vaughan, who is nursing a charley horse. Darrell (Cy) Blanton, brilliant rookie pitcher who has won nine games against five losses, was stricken with acute appendicitis and hurried to a hospital for an operation.

The Indians, after being delayed a half hour by the rain which wiped out three other American league games, piled up 17 blows, including home runs by Earl Averill and Bruce Campbell, to trounce Boston for the fourth straight time and move into a tie with Detroit for third place in the American league.

Pittsburgh entered in 22 blows by three Philly pitchers and inched its margin over the third-place St. Louis club to a game and one half as the Cardinals were buried under a 14 to 3 score by the league leading Giants. For the Phils Johnny Moore belted his 12th home run of the year to the Mel Ott of New York for the league lead.

The Giants got going against Paul Dean for three runs in the second inning, belted him to cover in the fourth when the Cards blew for three errors and four more runs counted and finished against Ray Harrell for a total of 19 hits.

The cellar-dwelling Braves met the Reds twice in the course of the Bunker Hill day doubleheader, 8 to 3 and 5 to 1, and left the losers only a few points ahead of Philadelphia. Two homers by Chuck Klein, each with a man aboard, gave the Cubs their winning margin in a 5 to 3 triumph over Brooklyn.

Tiger Woman's Husband Wanted For Grand Theft

SAN DIEGO, Cal., June 18 (AP)—Life began anew today for Clara Phillips, the "Tiger Woman."

Still somewhat bewildered by freedom after a dozen years in prison for the hammer-murder of Albert Meadows in 1922, the 35-year-old ex-chorus girl was clothed in the tiny cottage of her invalid mother, Mrs. A. H. Weaver, in La Mesa, near here.

A routine parole report to the sheriff's office here, her first contact with the law since her release from the women's state prison at Tehachapi yesterday, was Mrs. Phillips' only actual reminder of her lurid career as "The Tiger Woman," and the penalty she paid for the title.

The key-figure in the slaying of Albert Meadows—Clara's husband, Amos Phillips—still is missing, although he once swore he would be waiting when his wife was released. He is wanted in Orange county in connection with the alleged grand theft of $5,000 in bonds and $1,665 in cash.

The only information Mrs. Phillips would give concerning a possible reunion was that her mate was "standing by."

CALLEES

The present attacks against capital are continued, we will be forced to leave Mexico in six months, and without the restraining influence of Calles, we are afraid of the consequences."

Several girl employees of Calles burst into tears as the general said "adieu," but he told them not to worry. "I am so healthy," he said, "that not even a finger nail aches."

A new cabinet took office under President Cardenas today, more conservative than had been expected.

The incoming government, with the exception of Fernando Gonzalez Roa, former ambassador to Washington, and General Francisco J. Mulca, the only member, was composed of men who never have held important office.

The only man whose name had been mentioned in speculation before the announcement of the incoming secretaries was General Saturnino Cedillo, agrarian leader of San Luis Potosi, who in the post of secretary of agriculture, was expected to dominate the new government.

With the political crisis settled definitely, more than 5,000 delegates met for the second day's session of the twenty-third convention of Rotary International.

The Rotarians were given a first-hand explanation of conditions in Mexico by President Cardenas in an address yesterday. He stressed the constitutionality of his government.

Mexico is determined within its laws, he asserted, to remove economic inequalities and injustices, and to aid the vast masses of Indian and Mestizo population.

The delegates, assembled in the main auditorium of the palace of fine arts, applauded the president when he told them they were welcome "because Mexico has nothing to hide or be ashamed of."

Group meetings to discuss internal organization subjects were the principal feature of today's Rotary program.

ELECTED CAPTAIN

LUBBOCK, June 18 (AP)—Walker Nichols of San Angelo, who three years ago was told that he was too small to play football, has been named captain of the 1935 Matadors of Texas Technological college by Head Coach P. W. Caston. Nichols, a guard, was awarded a medal for outstanding play last year.

Mrs. H. A. Cassada underwent a minor operation at Pampa-Jarratt hospital yesterday.

Ned Bradley's Band Playing At Southern Club

Amusement seekers of Pampa are treated to the delightful music played by Ned Bradley's Band at the Southern Club. The twelve piece band Saturday and the ensemble will be extended through the night.

It is not unknown to local playgoers that Bradley's band has played here previously in 1934, and for the fall of 1934.

His ensemble to Lakeside Wichita Falls for a five day engagement. The boys feature vaudeville and promise a most enjoyable evening's entertainment.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, June 18. (AP)—The buying urge appeared in today's stock market although the session was no run-away affair and a high degree of selectivity continued to dominate dealings. A late upturn in the rails helped to lift other sections of the list. The close was fairly firm. Transfers approximated 800,000 shares.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, June 18. (AP)—Increasing fear of the possible detrimental effect of excessive rains in parts of the winter wheat and corn belts was reflected in sharply higher futures prices here today.

Prospects of damage to wheat, of a wet harvest in some southwestern sections and of serious corn crop delays in important nearby producing areas had a bullish influence on the market.

Wheat closed 1 1/4 to 1 1/2 cent higher compared with yesterday's finish, July 81 1/4, and corn was 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 up, July 87 1/2-82. Oats of profit from robbing the taxpayer."

Here they are at Paris on their honeymoon journey Denmark-ward, and the five and ten cent store here doesn't seem overly pleased with the city where she met and married her recently divorced Prince Midvanl.

The whole subsidy program of the past dozen years, the report explained, was based on an attempt to build up a merchant marine. But it stated that of the 43 "mail pay" contracts in effect under the 1928 Jones-White act, only 20 required building of new ships. Of the 51 ships called for in the contracts, only 28 have been built.

The report was packed with instances in which, it was alleged, companies violated the "spirit" of the contracts to "pipe" profits into their own tills instead of devoting the money to building up the merchant marine.

The report said J. P. Grace, president of the W. R. Grace and company, operator of several Grace lines, together with banking and other business interests, received in 1928 salary, commissions and dividends of $971,660.

As another instance the committee declared that "R. Stanley Dollar received from his Dollar Steamship Line and Admiral Oriental line $698,750 as commission incident to the purchase of ships from the United States government at low prices."

The report said the Admiral Oriental line, with a $500 capitalization, operated government-owned ships at a net profit of $4,640,204 in three years and five months.

As another item the report cited: "The Roosevelt Steamship com-

WASHINGTON, June 18 (AP)—Protests against limiting expenditures in the administration's work relief drive to $1,100 or $1,200 per worker were made today by contractors and road builders. One spokesman said "useful and permanent" projects would be outlawed by such a restriction.

CASE TO JURY

CHILDREN, June 18 (AP)—The case of W. E. Stroud, charged with slaying his estranged wife, went to a jury before noon today after state attorneys had demanded the death penalty for the 52-year-old defendant. Stroud's attorneys entered a plea of insanity for the defendant.

CONVICTS

ress. His long stay underground had given rise to fears for his safety.

LANSING, Kas., June 18 (AP)—Three hundred and eighty sullen convicts mutilated in the depths of the Kansas penitentiary coal mine here today, made hostages of 11 guards, and definitely held out against prison authorities who sought to end the strike.

The mutineers cut off virtually all communication with the surface. Warden Lacey Simpson said he doubted that the convicts had firearms or weapons other than clubs, rocks, and possibly a few knives.

The fate of the unarmed guards was unknown but prison officials expressed belief they would not be seriously harmed.

Apparently included among the hostages was a twelfth prison official—Mine Superintendent Robert Murray who went down after the mutiny became known and unarmed and alone, struck off into the 730-foot mine level in an effort to negotiate with the miners. Several hours later he still was missing.

Deputy Warden Albert J. Graham, veteran of several prison breaks here, said he was not sure what the men were striking for but declared the prison was in a better position than ever before to cope with the situation.

"Work as usual," was the order on the surface as Graham, aided only by his regular guard shift, hovered over the air shaft and sought to learn from Guard O. A. Johnson, on the 730-foot level, what the convicts were doing.

Johnson, armed guard who had preceded the day shift of miners into the shaft, sent first word of the trouble to the surface.

When the last two men came down on the shaft cage, he reported by telephone, they were met by three others who assisted them in piling empty mine cars on the cage to prevent its being returned to the surface.

Johnson fired his gas gun at them from his armored guard box and they fled back into the mine.

Johnson managed to free the air shaft cage and that was the only means of entrance into the mine, the main shaft cage having been blocked. Johnson's telephone also was the only one to escape damage, all others having been cut off.

Four men were sent to aid Johnson. They were Supt. Murray, John Christian, Council Grove; Fred Murray, Kansas City, Kas., and John Stewart, Lansing.

ATHLETES SAY:

"THEY DON'T GET YOUR WIND!"

Read below what these famous athletes say about their experiences in smoking Camels

● Follow the athletes in your search for cigarette mildness. Tommy Armour says: "Camels never bother my nerves or shorten my wind—convincing evidence that Camels are mild."

Mel Ott, heavy-hitting outfielder of the New York Giants, reports: "My experience is that Camels are so mild they never get my wind."

And Stubby Kruger, Amy Lou Oliver, and Lester Stoeffen agree with Pete Knight, who says: "Camels—there's a smoke so mild it never cuts down your wind, never gets you out of condition."

A mildness that will please you too! Camels are made from costlier tobaccos. They are mild, cool, gentle on the throat. Smoke them all you wish. Camels don't upset your nerves... or tire your taste. And athletes find that Camels do not get their wind.
