

FIFTY PERSONS HAVING MOST EFFECT ON NATION SELECTED

UNKNOWN AND WOMAN NAMED
BY GENE HOWE

BARBARA HUTTON IS ON LIST OF AMARILLO
EDITOR

(Editor's Note: In 1930, James W. Gerard, former ambassador to Germany, listed fifty-three persons as the leading influences in the United States. Last year, Gene Howe, Amarillo editor and son of Ed Howe, famous Kansas journalist, declared one man—President Franklin D. Roosevelt—controlled the political destinies of the United States. Today he says that Mr. Roosevelt "has lost much of his power, but not his popularity." In listing the influential persons he says there has been an "astounding change" in the president's advisers. The views expressed in the following article by Mr. Howe are, of course, his own and are presented for the news interest they contain.)

By GENE HOWE
Editor, The Amarillo Globe-News
AMARILLO, June 14. (P)—In selecting 50 persons who are having the most effect on the immediate future of the nation, as was done last year, it cannot be said they are in control.

There has been an astonishing change in the president's advisers. The country is bewildered, but the 49 men and one woman having the greatest influence upon it are easily discerned.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt, who, a year ago, had complete mastery of the nation, now is beset and assailed by excited minorities which have thrown the country in confusion. Roosevelt has lost much of his power but not his popularity.

J. Edgar Hoover, director of the federal bureau of investigation, is close to Roosevelt in popularity and is his greatest aide from a political standpoint.

Lost No Popularity
President Roosevelt is followed by the nine "horse and buggy" members of the supreme court.

Roosevelt has the greatest microphone presence and the most amazing news reel allure of all time. There is a quiet, dignified but emotional appeal or pull in his voice that penetrates to the very depths of the hearts of the American people, particularly the women.

The women folks love him and they constitute his strongest bloc. We have the unknown's, the candid and other unknowns, and also the unknown advisor.

He is the man who advised Roosevelt to plant a shelter belt from the Panhandle of Texas to Montana.

Close after the members of the supreme court come Huey Long and ex-President Herbert Hoover. Long's power is diminishing and he is being largely offset by Hoover in his interviews and public addresses.

Father Coughlin is a modern witch burner, but he is making the great mistake of talking too often and too much and of taking sides in too many issues.

Postmaster General Farley has the quickest access to the president and Henry A. Wallace, secretary of agriculture, has the president's ear as well as his confidence. Harold L. Ickes, secretary of the interior, is a constant annoyance to Farley because of the enmities he stirs up among democratic leaders and party friends.

Harry Hopkins is closer to Roosevelt than he has ever been. Both are spenders and both speak the same language.

Woman On List
The one woman on the list is Countess Haugwitz-Reventow, the former Barbara Hutton Mdivani, the American 10-cent store heiress, whose distribution of wealth in Europe has stimulated public sentiment in favor of greatly increased inheritance taxes.

Mrs. Roosevelt now is not consulted. She is not only the life of the party the democratic party, but the whole nation. She has the vitality of a tarzan and continues to enjoy herself hugely.

Roosevelt more and more is calling in such men as John Garner, who has surrendered the vice-presidency, and will be renominated; Jesse Jones, chairman of the RFC, the hardest working and most capable executive in Washington; Joe Kennedy, chairman of the SEC; Frank Walker, chairman of the national emergency council; Senator Joe Robinson; Senator Pat Harrison; Dr. William I. Myers, of the farm credit administration, a brain trust; who has not been shelved; Marriner S. Eccles, governor Federal Reserve board; Francis Biddle, chairman national labor relations board, and others of their type.

The widespread, pitiless publicity Countess Haugwitz-Reventow had had in the news columns of wealthy publishers has had more effect on the American voters than can be offset by editorials in the same newspapers against higher income and higher death taxes. Roosevelt senses this and it will be a campaign issue.

One of the largest minorities in the United States is represented by those who favor the Townsend plan or some compromise offering more than $15 a month. There are millions who will vote for the party that promises them the most.

The complete list of 50 persons does not include bankers or industrialists or big business men. The line-up is almost wholly political with an array of publishers who are making the fight of their lives to maintain the power of the press.

The list follows:
President Franklin D. Roosevelt.
Charles Evans Hughes, chief justice of the Supreme Court.
Willis Van Devanter, associate justice.
James Clark McReynolds, associate justice.
Louis D. Brandeis, associate justice.

BRADDOCK TAKES BATTLE FROM MAX BAER IN GREATEST UPSET IN HISTORY

BAER CLOWNED TOO MUCH AND STARTED LATE

MAN WHO COULD NOT WIN IS THE NEW CHAMPION

By ALAN GOULD Associated Press Sports Editor NEW YORK, June 14 (AP)—The man who couldn't win, the 10-to-1 shot who didn't have a chance—23-year-old James J. Braddock is the heavyweight champion of the world today in the most astounding upset since John L. Sullivan went down before the thrusts of Gentleman Jim Corbett back in the gay nineties.

HARRY GRAYSON

They're on Walter Johnson again in Cleveland. Eventually they may force the grand old pitching character out of Cleveland. Cleveland clubs have been hotbeds of insubordination for years, yet every move that Johnson has made to stamp it out has been severely criticized.

BRADDOCK TO DEFEND TITLE IN NEXT YEAR

SO SAYS HIS MANAGER; JAMES IS RATHER BRUISED

By EDDIE BRIETZ Associated Press Sports Editor NEW YORK, June 14 (AP)—A long, lean, dark-haired Irishman, tired as any man alive, lay stretched out on a bed today, trying hard to keep awake—the new heavyweight champion of the prize fight world, James J. Braddock.

TOMMY ALSO SMACKS DOUBLE AND A SINGLE

By HUGH S. FULLERTON JR. Associated Press Sports Writer PRINCETON, N. J. (AP)—The cinder track that, in less than two years, has felt the dig of spiked shoes pounding out the three fastest miles in foot-racing history is being manured to an almost gleaming perfection in honor of the 30 hand-picked athletes in Princeton's second annual "super-invitation" track and field fiesta, June 15.

4 GREAT MLERS TO RACE AT ONE TIME IN PRINCETON MEET

Myatt and Kamm Not Heavy Loss

Johnson brought the current blowoff to a head by releasing Catcher Glenn Myatt and suspending Willie Kamm.

Soft Ball Deflects

There is no question but that soft ball is deflecting much major league managerial aspirations.

Big League Talent

What, for instance, would a big league array pay for a baseball pitcher who could match the speedy southpaw slants of Wild Bill Pecknick, who propelled the Ke-Nash-A club team of Knoch into the 1934 national soft ball title in the tournament in Chicago?

TEXAS LEAGUE Results Yesterday.

Table with columns: Club, W., L., Pct. Oklahoma City 4, Tulsa 6. Houston 3, Dallas 1. Beaumont at San Antonio, rain. Galveston at Fort Worth, rain.

Jinx Holds

Baer was unable to dispel the jinx that has pursued every champion to stake his title in the sprawling Long Island city arena, including Max Schmeling, Jack Sharkey and Primo Carnera.

Old Pitcher Griffith Can't Overcome One

We repeat. What would a major league outfit pay for a baseball pitcher comparatively as effective as Pecknick has been in soft ball? Clark Griffith, bringing up $50,000 for a pitcher like Buck Newsom gives you some idea.

Ke-Nash-A Club team

The Ke-Nash-A Club team, which bagged 61 games and lost 9 last season, will defend the title this year and tour middle-western cities.

Schedule Today

Oklahoma City at Tulsa. Galveston at Fort Worth. Beaumont at San Antonio.

No Knockdowns

The gesture was a crowning touch to a fight that added a strange and surprising chapter to heavyweight annals. There were no knockdowns, nor did either fighter exhibit a punch calculated to bring about a sudden turn of events.

Houston Whips Dallas As Tulsa Defeats Indians

By The Associated Press Houston took a 3 to 1 decision from Dallas and Tulsa beat Oklahoma City, 6 to 4, in the only games played in the Texas League last night. Rain kept Galveston idle at Fort Worth and gave Beaumont a rest at San Antonio.

Another big wrestling match will be staged at Road Runner park on Tuesday night when Vic Webber of New York City meets Ernie Arthur, French-Canadian Panther. The first preliminary will begin at 8:30 o'clock. Admission will be ringside and boxes, 60 cents; general admission, 40 cents, and children, 20 cents.

Eight Favorites Left At Lubbock

LUBBOCK, June 14. (AP)—The Women's West Texas golf association tournament was in the quarter-finals today with eight favorites still in the field.

Braddock Bleeds

The champion had taken the two previous rounds. He has bled from Braddock's nose, which had been cut in the sixth. Baer was on top of Braddock near the latter's corner when he let fly a low punch, just before the bell.

HELEN WILLS LOSES

LONDON, June 14. (AP)—Helen Wills Moody suffered the first defeat of her tennis comeback campaign today, bowing to Katherine Stammers, third-ranking British star, 6-0, 5-4, in the semi-final round of the Kent championships.

When the news came

"Braddock's nose is in rather bad shape now." But in round 13 she was thinking of the outcome, and asked, "what way is it?"

ROADS TO HANDLE CENTENNIAL TRAFFIC WILL BE COMPLETED

AUSTIN, June 14. (AP)—The Texas highway commission today indicated favor toward road construction projects which would complete routes to handle Texas Centennial traffic next year.

A Dallas county delegation was advised "something tangible" might be announced on the county's master plan after the commissioners' trip to Washington next week.

Commissioner D. K. Martin of San Antonio recommended immediate construction of a short gap to connect the Beckley avenue road in Dallas county with Ellis county, providing a dual route for traffic to Waco and south central Texas points.

Many counties joined in an application for completion of gaps in United States highway 67 from Texarkana to Presidio on the Mexican border.

The delegation also requested that highway 124 through High Island and highway 125 be shelled and topped to improve Galveston's outlet to Beaumont.

Requests of other delegations included: Limestone, Freestone and Leon counties, for continuation of highway 164 from Groesbeck to United States highways 75 and 79 at Buffalo; Jackson county designating from Edin to Yoakum; Duval county, re-survey of highway 55 through Freer; and Hopkins, topping on 18 miles of highway 154 and improvement on highway 11.

John L. McCarty Not To Resign

AMARILLO, June 14. (AP)—John L. McCarty of Dalhart today denied that he planned to resign as president of the Young Democratic club of Texas to permit consummation of a reported movement to place Elliott Roosevelt in the presidency.

Roosevelt, who lives at Fort Worth and who is a son of President Roosevelt, is vice-president of the organization.

McCarty said that he had planned to resign after last week's state convention here, but had reconsidered at the request of club leaders, including Elliott Roosevelt and his brother, James.

Phil Overton, Dallas member of the state committee, was quoted as saying that a movement was under way to elect Roosevelt at a meeting of the state executive committee at Fort Worth July 16.

TO WASHINGTON. WICHITA FALLS, June 14. (AP)—Chairman Hines of the Texas Highway commission said 26 prominent Texans would accompany the commission to Washington tomorrow to ask for federal road funds.

On Trip. Mrs. Mahala Pulling left today to visit her mother, Mrs. C. B. Ball, Sr., and brothers and sisters at Frederick, Okla. Later she will visit relatives at Decatur, Tex., a son at Beville, and a daughter at Fort Aransas.

Mexico offered in 1844 to recognize the independence of Texas provided it would not seek annexation to the United States of America. A few months following this offer of recognition, the Republic of Texas was admitted as a state into the United States.

The relations of God and man, divine

CAPITOL JIGSAW
By HOWARD C. MARSHALL

AUSTIN, June 13 (AP)—Secretary of State Gerald Mann and Mrs. Mann are receiving numerous congratulatory messages on an addition to their family.

"They're entirely unwarranted," said Mann. "We still have just two children."

The error was due to a notice in a Dallas newspaper recording the birth of a boy to "Mrs. Mrs. Jerry Mann." They're different Manns.

Five hundred pound concrete markers on the 15-foot walk skirting the base of the capitol have been replaced with iron posts.

The markers originally were erected to discourage college boys from staging automobile races on a roadway intended for pedestrians. Several of the latter, including a night watchman, had narrow escapes.

The iron posts are removable, although authorities hope the college thrill-seekers won't find it out. The idea is to permit city fire trucks to get right up against the capitol in case of fire. The concrete markers were stationary.

Gordon Griffin, chief petroleum engineer for the railroad commission, has harvested one of the juiciest plums shaken down by the recent legislature, a job as director of oil production which pays $4,000.

Eighty-four new jobs were created in the oil and gas division under the act increasing the tax on gross production of oil to pay for better enforcement of conservation laws.

The same act gave Attorney General McCraw six additional assistants to help in enforcement. The assistants will receive $3,000 each.

Amid much hammering and sawing the secretary of state's quarters are being re-arranged to provide an ante-chamber for the convenience of visitors and offices for the new commissioner of securities, D. Leon Harp, and eight assistants. Under the law replaced by the securities act, the commissioner had one assistant.

The purpose of the new law, which was passed by the legislature by Secretary of State Mann with strong backing from Governor Allred, is to make the path rocky for any dealer in shady securities. Mann has said it would be enforced vigorously.

Approximately one-half of the 80,000 Centennial half-dollars sold have been purchased outside of Texas, says A. Garland Adair, chairman of the American Legion Centennial committee.

The coins were minted especially to finance construction of a memorial museum on the campus of the University of Texas. The legislature appropriated $225,000 for the furnishings.

Within Texas, Amarillo leads all other cities in sales. According to Adair, the Legion confidently expects sales of $1,500,000, of which $750,000 would go to the museum.

W. R. Ely of Abilene, former member of the highway commission, is enjoying private life, he said recently. In the supreme court chamber he watched his son, just graduated from the law school of the University of Texas, take the oath for admittance to the bar. Fifty-one graduates were administered the oath in the presence of the full court.

"TROUBLED WITH CONSTIPATION" FOR PAST 25 YEARS'

Then ALL-BRAN Brought Welcome Relief

Read this voluntary letter from Mr. Lecour: "I have been troubled with constipation" for the past 25 years. I tried practically every cathartic without results.

"Recently, I determined to give Kellogg's ALL-BRAN a fair trial. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN has not only helped me, but I believe it is an actual relief for chronic constipation."—Mr. Henry E. Lecour, 4 Vaughan Ave., Worcester, Mass.

*Due to insufficient "bulk" in meals.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to aid elimination. It also furnishes vitamin B and iron.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is gentle. Often more effective than "bulk" in fruits and vegetables, as it does not break down within the body.

Isn't this natural food pleasanter than patent medicines? Just eat two tablespoons daily. If not relieved, see your doctor.

Get the red-and-green packages at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Japanese Enter Western Open On South Bend Links

SOUTH BEND, Ind., June 14 (AP)—In this sporting locale, where dreams are usually dreamed of more than of reality, the Japanese have taken the field, some 150 golfers brought the crowds out to the fairways today to watch them open a 72-hole battle with par for the Western Open championship, one of the oldest prizes of the ancient game.

On the basis of reputations, the "four horsemen" of the tournament were "Light Horse" Harry Cooper of Chicago, the little man who won the title at Peoria last year by clipping 25 strokes from par; Walter Hagen of Detroit, the veteran maestro, who has won the Western crown no less than five times; Jimmy Thomson, the Long Beach, Calif., "siege gun," who lost the National Open title by two heart-breaking putts, and golf's "Silver Fox," Tommy Armour of Chicago, himself the tournament scoring record-holder with a total of 272 strokes.

To add a mild international threat for the title, which never has left America, came the entire Japanese touring professional team.

The championship layout was the Chain O'Lakes course of the South Bend Country club, a course skirting around willow woods and water for more than 6,000 yards with a par at 36-36-71.

Eighteen-hole rounds were programmed for today and tomorrow after which the low 80 and ties will fight it out for the 36-hole final stretch Sunday.

CCC To Swell Strength During Summer Months

SAN ANTONIO, June 14 (AP)—Existing CCC companies in the Eighth Corps area will be raised to a strength of 225 men each during the period June 15 to 30, and 11 new CCC companies will be recruited to a strength of 214 men each July 1 and August 31, under an enrollment plan made public at corps area headquarters here today.

The new units will include 20 companies each in the east and west Texas districts; 4 new companies, including three from Texas, in the Arizona-New Mexico district; 25 in the Oklahoma district and five in the Colorado district. Forty-three companies from the second corps area will be placed in Arizona, Colorado, New Mexico and Wyoming.

Quotas for the states within the corps area give Texas 24,784 juniors and 2,720 war veterans; Oklahoma, 12,310 juniors and 1,350 veterans; Colorado, 5,192 juniors and 660 veterans; Arizona and New Mexico, 2,268 juniors and 240 veterans, each; and Wyoming, 846 juniors and 90 veterans. In addition each state will enroll 16 local experienced men for each company located within its borders.

Cattle Ranges Improve In May

AUSTIN, June 14 (AP)—The United States department of agriculture today reported that Texas cattle ranges improved 13 points during May, being 79 per cent of normal on June 1 compared with 78 per cent a year ago.

For the major portion of the State, rainfall was abundant, but the Trans-Pecos region and the Western Panhandle still reported a deficiency of soil moisture.

"In general the major portion of Texas has been supplied with ample rainfall, the department reported. The prospects for summer ranges were better than fair June 1."

Cattle condition improved seven points during May, for the major portion of the state being rated fairly good. Condition of cattle in the northwestern and western portions was said to be less than fair. The condition of sheep improved nine points.

"Cattle losses have been relatively small from January 1 to date," the report said.

"Calf losses for the state as a whole were also light."

"The calf crop prospects for the state as a whole are rated below fair. A short calf crop is expected in the western and northwestern portions of the state, while in the remainder of the state the crop ranges from fair to good."

Choking Can Be Ended By Helium

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 14 (AP)—Choking of nearly every sort can be ended by helium.

This new use of the balloon gas to save lives, from babies who swallow lumps of food to men who choke with strangling obstructions in their breathing tubes, was shown today at the scientific exhibition of the American Medical Association.

The helium is mixed with oxygen to make an artificial air, 80 per cent helium and 20 per cent oxygen. The first medical use of this odd air, to relieve asthma, reported in Philadelphia two months ago, has been followed by rapid spread to other breathing troubles.

"The extremely light weight of the helium air—only third that of ordinary air—enables it to pass readily through the choked breathing passages with one third the muscular effort needed to draw real air thru the same space."

When Sam Houston first took charge of the Texas forces as their commander-in-chief he sent orders to Col. Wm. B. Travis to dynamite the Alamo, which he termed a "death-trap" and told Col. Travis to retreat. Both these orders were disobeyed.

Summer Sweethearts

By Mabel McElliott
© 1935, NEA Service, Inc.

"This will do the trick. Two of these now. You'll sleep like a log." "All right," Zoe said dolefully. "I want to bathe my face, I think. Back in a minute."

Katharine and Dr. Kaye waited as she disappeared into the glittering, tiled bathroom. They could hear the rushing of water. Then a thud.

John Kaye rushed for the door. It was locked.

"The balcony!" gasped Katharine. "You can get in through the bathroom window."

The doctor hooked his leg over the sill. He was out of sight. Katharine waited, her heart thudding painfully. Zoe—how awful! What would they find?

The key grated in the lock. Dr. Kaye stood in the doorway, Zoe's body in his arms. A strangely limp Zoe, her face stained by a brownish liquid.

"White of egg, quickly," grated the doctor. Katharine never knew how they got through the confusion that followed. Bells ringing—people hurrying to and fro through the corridors. Mrs. Parker was there, her face strained and white. And there was a nurse with dark hair under a flyaway cap.

"However did it happen?" wailed Zoe's mother. Katharine said something nervous and rather garbled about Zoe's desperate headache—John Kaye's prescription.

"She just got the wrong medicine, that's all," Katharine said, trying to make the lie sound reasonable.

"Oh, Katharine, do you think so?" Terror looked out of the older woman's eyes. "Katharine, it wasn't anything else? She was happy, lately, wasn't she? It wasn't—wasn't the other?"

"How could it be?" You had to lie to mothers, Katharine reflected. Zoe's mother couldn't have borne to know that her child had gone through that summer night. Life was sometimes too black and pitted with terror.

All through the night they fought for Zoe's life. Katharine went through the halls softly, once she met John in the doorway and she smiled at her wearily, gently.

"John, is she—are you going to be able to—?"

"Don't ask me now, I don't know." He looked desperately tired. "You lie down and get some rest yourself."

"Oh, I'm all right. I simply couldn't go home. I wouldn't be able to sleep anyhow."

She went down again to the library where Mrs. Parker, propped with pillows and sustained by her husband, was waiting.

The woman's haggard eyes sought her face. "Katharine, if Zoe dies, I'll—"

"Don't talk that way, Mama." Henry Parker patted his wife's hand. "She can't die. We won't let her." They were simple people again, this house and all the grandeur they had acquired meant nothing to them.

"Henry, do you remember when she cut her head so badly on that radiator? She was four... I'll never forget it..."

Mrs. Parker burst into wild weeping. Already they were talking as if Zoe were dead, thought Katharine, fear clutching at her heart.

The night wore through. There was a blaze of light over the water. Light poured into the sick-room, where a small figure lay stretched on a carved and gilded bed. The nurse extinguished the light that dangled, hospital-wise, in a twist of white paper. The room was very still.

Dr. Kaye went to the door. He still wore his black broadcloth but he had long since discarded the coat with the satin lapels. In his shirt-sleeves and braces he looked oddly grim.

Katharine was in the hall, curled up on a window seat. She brushed her hand across her eyes as the doctor appeared.

"Oh, John, I think I must have dozed off just for an instant. I had the most awful dream..."

His face startled her. It was so drawn. "Johnny, she isn't—she hasn't a mind of her own."

He could not speak. Katharine crouched low, as if to ward off a blow.

Gossipers Couldn't Fool Mrs. Pierce SHE LOST 50 POUNDS OF FAT

Feel full of pep and possess the slender form you crave for. You can't if you listen to gossipers who'd secretly hate to see you take off ugly fat but notice that Mrs. Pierce had a mind of her own.

Here's a treatment—tested and proved SAFE for years—not only to take off excess fat but also a health corrector: take a half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a cup of hot water every morning (tastes fine with juice of a half lemon added).

Mrs. L. W. Pierce of Tiffin, Ohio, writes: "I've taken off 50 lbs. with Kruschen in 6 months. I was 236 and intend to continue till I'm 154." If one jar (last 4 weeks and costs only but a trifle) doesn't take 12 lbs. off you—money back. For sale by Richards Drug Co., Inc. (Adv.)

Twilight Nights, 20-Hour Days to Greet New Alaska Pioneer Group

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—It's a hardy life they face up north, but they're a hardy bunch who face it—these modern argonauts who are sailing soon on the U. S. transport St. Mihiel into the sunlight of a new economic existence in the Matanuska valley of Alaska.

The army of workers chosen to accompany the handpicked contingent of agriculturalists have been recruited from able-bodied, experienced foresters, toughened to hard work by months spent in the transient forest camps, chiefly in California. The farmers, whom the work army will help to establish, were handpicked in Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin, from environments somewhat similar as to climate to that of the northern valley.

Rigors of weather, isolation and the prospect of greater deprivations than most have been accustomed to have been stressed by the federal emergency relief administration which is sponsoring this mass migration.

Days 20 Hours Long

But the enthusiasms of those chosen and of thousands who have found the battle against drought, depression or other adverse factors losing one, have not been chilled. Relief officials here have been literally swamped by applications of those who would join in the unique colonization movement. Many times the number which could be included have tried to get their names added to the list.

About the time the first contingent of homesteaders and their worker cohorts arrive, the days will be 20 hours long and the remaining the government for the proposed community center, at present consists of a postoffice, a railroad station and a house or two. Work shops, a creamery and a cannery are planned.

The winters are long, the summers short and there are heavy rains in July, August and September. Mosquitoes, in the spring months especially, are a pest to be reckoned with.

Tentative schedules provide for two or more cruises from San Francisco to Seward. The first trip is scheduled to start soon after May 1 calls for a passenger list of 690, of which 165 will be women and children. There will be doctors, dentists and nurses. On the second cruise the St. Mihiel will transport 670, of which the majority will be women and children.

USE IT, PLEASE!
WATERLOO, Iowa (AP)—Two men held up August Bradley early today. While one threatened him with a gun, the other went through his pockets. He only found a few cents.

"Here's said the robber, handing Bradley his small change, 'you can have it back. We've got more than that.'"
