

NATION 'BACK TO HORSE AND BUGGY STAGE'

ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL CONDITIONS NOT IN U. S. PROVINCE

WASHINGTON, May 31. (AP)—President Roosevelt said today the supreme court NRA decision drew the flat issue of taking away from the federal government all control over national economic and social conditions.

NEW ORLEANS, May 31. (AP)—A selling wave forced cotton futures down more than 32 a bale today as a statement by President Roosevelt in Washington that "we are headed back for the horse and buggy days" was interpreted variously by traders.

WASHINGTON, May 31. (AP)—President Roosevelt today accepted the supreme court NRA decision as focusing the issue whether the federal government or the 48 states shall have control over national social and economic control.

It raised the question whether the agricultural adjustments administration and the securities commission were legal, he said, and meant the end of the federal alcohol control administration as now constituted.

He told his crowded press conference the court's interpretation of the interstate commerce clause of the constitution took the nation back to "the horse and buggy stage."

The issue drawn, he said, was that of taking away from the federal government control over national economic and social conditions. The president did not appear to deem it exactly necessary, however, to focus the issue through a constitutional amendment.

Evidently administration thought on the subject had not matured completely, as it considered what steps to take immediately to meet the problems raised by NRA's passing.

Surrounded by Mrs. Roosevelt and his secretaries, the president spoke calmly and deliberately as he outlined the situation in part to the note-taking audience.

He had a copy of the decision in his hand and referred to it occasionally.

Outlining the "issue," Mr. Roosevelt said—in using the word he wanted it emphasized that he did not consider it a "partisan issue."

He said it would have to be settled by a vote of the people—not necessarily this summer or fall or winter but probably in the next four or five years.

Describing the ruling as perhaps the most important in the history of the nation, he said it was up to the people to decide now whether there shall be 48 different state attempts to regulate the economic and social life of the nation or whether this shall be a function of the federal government.

Gravity was in his voice as he sat behind his desk for more than an hour and a half in conference with representatives of the press that crowded into the warm room.

The implication of Monday's epochal decision, he said, as he flicked a cigarette ash and scanned faces before him, removed any federal jurisdiction over such major human activities as farming, manufacturing, mining and construction.

That he had been in serious reflection over the historic significance of this week's developments was manifest.

Joe Burrow Will Have Charge Of Oil Show Exhibits

Headquarters for the Panhandle Oil show, to be across the street from the post office, will begin to take form today as the concrete is poured for a derrick to advertise the event as a part of the big celebration here June 6 and 7.

Joe Burrow has been given the responsibility of assigning ground space for the oil company exhibits at the site. Many firms have been asking about display space. They may learn the details by consulting Mr. Burrow at his service station on Ballard street at Kingsmill avenue.

Gov. Allred will likely make his speech next Friday morning from a platform on the well house, using a public address system to be provided. It is not yet known whether Elliott Roosevelt will arrive here before noon of that day, but the President's son will come from Amarillo with a Young Democratic club party to escort the governor to the state convention.

O. H. Stone of St. Louis is here for a visit with his brother, L. E. Stone, and family.

French Premier Is Forced To Resign As Gold Structure Totters

Twinkles Mrs. Gushaway says the kind of learning the idle graduates shed about the home place in summer doesn't do her any good.

They said Mr. Roosevelt was a politician who lacked courage. Now some of his party members fear that his courage is growing and his psychic powers waning.

Those Mexican ball players may not remember Goliath, but they seem to remember where home plate is and how to get there.

Skippy, the family pup, has agreed to eat one bite of spinach daily provided he gets 3 big strawberries, and only unless.

Girl caddies are the latest. But the ladies have long carried the big sticks, so what's new about it, after all?

Musing of the moment: Thousands of persons are reading about the Pre-Centennial program with eagerness. Any Pampa who doesn't familiarize himself with all details and stand ready to answer intelligent questions about it is a poor citizen. . . . But we'll wager that hundreds of Pampans could not give the correct dates. 'Twas ever thus.

Brevitorials

JOE HILL JR. will talk here tonight. His coming is an event of exceptional interest. We heartily recommend that Pampans and those who can come to Pampa tonight or Saturday night do so. The occasion is a "natural." The subject is Antarctica, that mysterious land of ice and blizzards.

IT IS OBVIOUS now that it will be necessary to provide an Oil Show pavilion or building before this time next year. While the show this year will have a minimum of exhibits, the demand for display space will be large next year and will grow year by year.

The implication of Monday's epochal decision, he said, as he flicked a cigarette ash and scanned faces before him, removed any federal jurisdiction over such major human activities as farming, manufacturing, mining and construction.

IT IS HIGH time that Americans gave serious thought to the type of federal government they desire. This is a union of states. Federal authority is limited by the constitution.

NOTES ON parliamentary law: Motions placed before an assembly ordinarily require only a majority vote, a quorum of members being present. Quorums usually are fixed by the constitution, which is superior to parliamentary custom.

Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Goldston have as a guest his brother, Clarence Goldston, law student at Oklahoma university. He will remain here until the middle of June, then leave for his home in North Carolina.

HERRIOT MAY BE CALLED TO FORM CABINET

BOUISSON APPARENTLY UNABLE TO HANDLE SITUATION

PARIS, May 31. (AP)—Former Premier Edouard Herriot's radical socialist today swung to the support of Fernand Bouisson, thereby virtually assuring Bouisson of success in his attempt to form a "save the franc" cabinet.

By JOHN EVANS Associated Press Foreign Staff (Copyright, 1935, by The Associated Press.)

PARIS, May 31.—With Premier Pierre-Etienne Flandin forced out by an overwhelming parliamentary vote of lack of confidence and with the premier-designate, Fernand Bouisson, apparently unable to form a cabinet, political quarters said today that Edouard Herriot probably would be called upon again to serve as premier.

Herriot, who already has held the premiership three times, would be called upon to face the financial emergency which resulted in the Chamber of Deputies voting against Flandin 363 to 292 early this morning.

While the government crisis raged, gold flowed out from the bank of France in a ceaseless stream. Gold buyers lined up at the bank's counters by the score and carried away bars of the metal, sometimes wrapped in newspapers. A vast quantity of gold already has been withdrawn during the past week.

The premier-designate insisted he must have full powers and that former Premier Edouard Herriot enter the government.

The socialists, on which Bouisson depended for support, refused to participate in a coalition government and declared they would not.

Herman Wright, secretary of the Young Democratic club of the University of Texas, will be among the speakers at tonight's local rally in the Gray county courtroom at 8 o'clock.

John Ketter, president of the Pampa club, is urging all members to be present promptly to welcome the visiting delegations. The Pampans intend to bid for the district convention while attending the state and district conventions in Amarillo June 6, 7, 8.

TEN INCHES OF RAIN FALLS IN SABINAL AREA

Three Miles Of S. P. Railroad Track Washed Out

SABINAL, May 31. (AP)—Eight inches of rain fell here today in two hours, washing out three miles of Southern Pacific railroad track west of Sabinal and disrupting telephone and telegraph connections for more than four hours.

Ten inches of rain fell at D'Hanis, 11 miles east of here, and similarly heavy rains were reported at Uvalde and Cline, all in this vicinity.

A Southern Pacific freight train was marooned here, and it appeared it would have to remain here for many hours. Highways were washed out in every direction around Sabinal.

Much livestock was believed drowned. Otherwise, little damage was reported immediately. The streets here were flooded during the cloudburst.

WORKERS GIVE MUCH TIME TO CELEBRATION

2 FLOATS ARE BEING BUILT DAILY BY BENEFIELD

Preparations for the second annual Pre-Centennial, Pioneers Roundup and Panhandle Oil Show had reached a feverish pitch today. Literally scores of people, abandoning in a large measure their private and business interests, were devoting themselves to making inevitable last-minute arrangements to entertain thousands of visitors from all over the Panhandle next Thursday and Friday.

The Pre-Centennial float committee is turning out two floats per day at a local garage. As soon as the floats are finished they are stored at various places in the city. The historical floats, each of which has a huge mural painting on it as the center of interest, have been drawing superlative adjectives from persons who have seen them.

Oil companies of this territory are building floats for the parade which will be held both days. The pioneers of the oil industry will be depicted with miniature refineries, carbon black plants, oil field camps.

Lieut. Col. Otto Studer of Gov. James V. Allred's personal staff, announced this morning that the state's Centennial governor would arrive Friday morning. He will address celebration visitors in front of the post office at 11 o'clock. He will be welcomed by seven or eight bands, including the official Allred band from Panhandle.

Pageant directors rushed to have the historical drama ready for presentation Friday night. A rehearsal will be held tonight, and a full cast is expected to be present. The stage setting and background in Harvester park has been completed, and consists of hills, mountain peaks, rocks, trees, grass. The landscape was painted on board. The lighting effects would present a realistic picture.

All committee exhibits—publicity, barbecue, Pioneer Roundup, rodeo, oil contests, wrestling, baseball, were busy. John V. Andrews and J. S. Wynne are assembling horses and wagons for use in the pageant and parade.

News of the celebration has spread over the entire Panhandle, eastern Oklahoma, and other sections and is intriguing the interest of people. A record crowd for Pampa is in prospect.

Trippers Requested For Skelly Event

Volunteers to attend the community gathering at Skellytown tonight were earnestly requested by the good will committees of the chamber of commerce today, headed by Fred Cullum and Chas. Maisel.

Because of there being many meetings here tonight, together with practices for the Pre-Centennial, many of those persons who usually attend will be unable to do so. The trippers will leave at 7:15 p. m. from city hall.

In Hospital Here. Mrs. Bally Kirby of Skellytown was admitted to Pampa-Jarratt hospital this morning.

Antarctic Talks Start Tonight

Despite the long curly locks of hair, the youth above is not a poet—nor an artist. He is "Joe" Hill, explorer, who has just returned from a 20-month trip to the South Pole with Admiral Richard E. Byrd. Inset is Miss Wilma Joe Jones, daughter of Mrs. A. M. Jones of Hereford, who accompanied young Hill's parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Hill, and sister, Marion, of Canyon, to Washington and Boston, where he was greeted on his return from Little America. Hill will talk about his experiences tonight and Saturday night in the Pampa city auditorium.

Antarctic Explorer Arrives for 2 Speeches

Joe Hill Jr. arrived this morning. A year ago he was struggling with an untidy tractor in the icy wastes of Antarctica. Those who have tried to start their cars in weather 10 or 15 degrees below zero will be interested in hearing, tonight, how tractors were started in weather as rough as 50 degrees below zero.

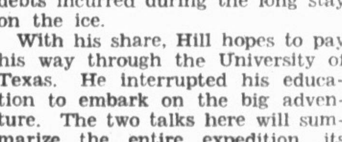

The 21-year-old explorer, who as a youth joined Byrd and as a seasoned man returned to Canyon, his home town, last week, will speak at the city auditorium at 8:15 p. m. tonight and Saturday night.

With him will be Nika, his malamute sled dog, and costume and paraphernalia used in the South Polar regions. Questions will be answered at the close of each program. Boy Scouts, who will sit in a body tomorrow night, will have a short gathering and will hear Hill, an Eagle Scout and former youth Scout of that rank in the county, immediately following the lecture Saturday.

Arrangements for Hill's appearance here under the sponsorship of the Boy Scouts was made by cable weeks ago by Ernest Cabel, local teacher and scoutmaster, before the Byrd party touched home shores. It will be the explorer's first appearance outside of his home town, although he has contracts now for speeches at nearly all the colleges of Texas and many towns. Local Scouts will get 50 per cent of the proceeds and the Byrd expedition 20 per cent to help liquidate the debts incurred during the long stay on the ice.

With his share, Hill hopes to pay his way through the University of Texas. He interrupted his education to embark on the big adventure. The two talks here will summarize the entire expedition, its achievements, its hardships, its thrills, its dangers, and the mode of living on the ice.

Admission will be 25 and 40 cents.

WEST TEXAS: Partly cloudy tonight and Saturday, somewhat unsettled in north and east portions; cooler in extreme west portion tonight and in north portion Saturday.

KIDNAPING CASE WILL BE TAKEN OVER BY U. S.

$25,000 Reward May Be Offered In Few Days

TACOMA, Wash., May 31. (AP)—A $25,000 reward may be offered within a few days if kidnappers fail to exchange 9-year-old George Weyerhaeuser for a $200,000 ransom, a trustworthy source reported here today.

This angle was injected into the case as the federal agents prepared to take over under the Lindbergh law which provides that after seven days a kidnap victim is presumed to have been slain or taken across a state line. The curly-haired son of the wealthy timber and lumber family was abducted last Friday noon.

Although prepared and ready for the child stealers, the demanded ransom has not been claimed. The offer of a reward, it was believed, might hasten George's delivery thru the old adage of "money talks." In buying information, it was indicated the purpose of such a reward would be first to gain release of the boy.

The child's young parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Weyerhaeuser Jr., still were in seclusion.

It was not known whether a reward, if one is posted, will be announced until after the federal agents have been able to effect recovery of the lad through their own technique.

Another development was the revelation that Ed Bentz, 40, former Tacoma boy and onetime associate of George (Machine Gun) Kelly and of Albert Bates, was the No. 1 suspect in the case. This was disclosed when a government agent remarked that "we would like to talk to Bentz."

CITY IN INDIA IS WIPED OUT THIS MORNING

THOUSANDS OF OTHERS KILLED IN OTHER CITIES

KARACHI, India, May 31. (AP)—An estimate that 20,000 persons were killed early today in Quetta alone by the earthquake which jarred northeast India was contained tonight in a wireless message from the Quetta wireless station.

LONDON, May 31. (AP)—The Karachi, Indian, correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph agency said today that "unconfirmed reports now coming through estimate earthquake deaths at 30,000 in Quetta alone—two-thirds of the population having been wiped out." On the other hand, the Simla correspondent of Reuters estimated that there were 1,000 deaths at Quetta where most of the police force was said to have been killed.

QUETTA, India, May 31. (AP)—Forty-four attaches of the military airdrome here, including one pilot, were killed in an earthquake which shook the Quetta district early this morning.

The native city, railway station and civil government offices were destroyed in a series of three violent shocks. The first was felt at 2:44 a. m. (4:44 p. m. yesterday, EST).

Four out of five of the population between Quetta and Kalat, 100 miles to the south, were reported to have been killed. Every building in the area was either destroyed or seriously damaged.

The shocks were felt severely in the upper districts of Sind province. The populace of Larkana, Shikar- See EARTHQUAKE, Page 4

Allred Vetoes Bill Creating Firemen's Fund

AUSTIN, May 31. (AP)—Governor Allred today vetoed a bill creating firemen's relief and pension fund. It was the governor's last day to act on bills passed by the recent general session of the legislature.

The bill would have levied a tax of two per cent on gross premium receipts from all forms of insurance except life for the benefit of firemen in any incorporated town with an organized fire department and equipment valued at $1,000 or more.

"While I personally am in favor of firemen's pensions, I do not believe it is just or fair to effect, levy a tax upon a large class of people who will not receive any benefit therefrom and a larger class to whom the benefits will be, at most, indirect," Governor Allred said.

"The bill levied this tax on all gross premiums of every insurance company, including not only fire insurance, but also tornado, hail, cyclone, windstorm, inland marine and ocean marine insurance. It is difficult to see the relationship between, for instance hail or wind insurance, and the obligation of people who have taken out that character of insurance in many instances in the rural districts far removed from any incorporated city or town having such a fire department, to pay a part of their premiums for pensions for firemen."

International Sunday School Lesson By DR. J. E. NUNN

General Topic: Our Day of Worship. Scripture Lesson: Psalm 100: John 4:20-24; Colossians 3:15-17. Psalm 100. Make a joyful noise unto Jehovah, all ye lands.

16. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; in all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another with psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts unto God.

Introduction The question of the weekly day of worship is one that in our day needs serious consideration. The devout men who founded our nation placed great emphasis upon it, but in our later days, it is common to use it merely as a day of recreation, or a day for doing tasks for which he will not find time and opportunity during the previous week.

The Seventh Day of Creation "He rested on the seventh day." Gen. 2:2. Here we have the origin of the weekly day of rest. The creation being finished, God rested on the seventh day, and henceforth hallowed it, because he himself had rested. The Hebrew word means literally "caused it to be held." The weekly day of rest goes back therefore to the beginning of time. It is not a recent addition.

"Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy."—Exodus 20:8. When God gave to the Children of Israel, through Moses, the Ten Commandments, he included among them the command to observe the sabbath day, and again the reason is stated as being the act of God in setting it apart in commemoration of his own resting.

"The Lord's Day" The day we observe is not the Sabbath of the Old Testament, but a combination of that Sabbath and the Lord's Day of the first Christians. The beginning church, being made up mostly of Jews, naturally continued to observe the Sabbath, but rather loosely, because of their freedom from the law—in Christ. At the same time it became the custom for them to meet for devotions on the first day of the week (Acts 20:7), the day of the resurrection. Hence "the Lord's Day"; which name we find in Revelation 1:10. By the end of their third century the Sabbath of Jesus' ideal and the Lord's Day of his earliest church had become blended into one. The first day of the week prevailed over the seventh, but took up into itself the best that was in the seventh.

A Day of Rest The word Sabbath in Hebrew comes from a verb meaning "to desist," "to break off." It is, then, properly, a day of rest, a breaking-off of the daily labors and a breaking away from the week-day concerns of life, for the refreshment and recuperation of body and mind. In this sense it is pre-Mosaic and has its counterparts in all civilizations and religions. There is always the example of God himself, set before us in the creation narrative. If

STATE TO ASK DEATH PENALTY FOR MINISTER

By HARRELL E. LEE Associated Press Staff Writer. ORANGE, May 31. (AP)—District Attorney Hollis Kinard said he would demand the death penalty for his pastor, the Rev. Edgar Eskridge, charged with slaying Police Chief Ed J. O'Reilly, who recently was baptized by the minister.

Kinard said he would map plans today for an early trial. "I may be able to get it set for June 3 or 4," he said, "and I'll demand the death sentence on the contention that Mr. Eskridge was fully responsible." In De Ridder, La., where Eskridge was jailed a few hours after O'Reilly was shot to death on the street here Wednesday, the minister carried on his fight against extradition.

A former federal prohibition agent the militant minister said he would use every legal means possible to prevent Orange county officers from taking him into custody. ### Note to Farmers.

Cotton growers, who must have tax exemption receipts before they sell their cotton tax free, are urged to get their new certificates at once. June 10 is the deadline. The 1934 certificates are being taken up. Clyde Caruth, assistant county agent, will be at McLean Monday and Tuesday to issue certificates and take up old ones.

New civil suits: First National bank, Pampa, vs. Farmers National bank of Texas, DeWitt, Grobe, and W. A. Gray. First National bank of Pampa vs. W. A. Gray. Suit on note; three divorce petitions.

Plant Root Crops.

Gray county farmers are making use of the new moisture and good weather to push in cotton and row crops. Grains, sorghums, are being widely planted. Lakes in the south-west part of the county are the fullest in several years. For planting the county wheat lands, about 100,000 bushels of wheat is needed each year. Observers doubt that this year's crop will exceed that figure. Grass on the ranges is doing well following the rains. Winter wheat for the nation is 75 per cent of normal on the average except for parts of Colorado, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, Texas Panhandle, Western Kansas, and Eastern New Mexico, and the yield is expected to be much larger than generally believed here.

There were 10 clear days, 6 partly cloudy days, and 15 cloudy days during the month. Rainfall in May of a year ago was heavier, amounting to 5.06 inches. Rainfall in June a year ago was 2.27 inches, followed by only a light shower in July.

were reported swept away by a torrent that followed a cloudburst that deluged a wide area last night in the vicinity of Glendo. The father and several other children escaped.

The body of Donald Cimino, 38, was recovered near here, in Fountain creek, a mile downstream from the spot where he was swept yesterday from his home as he attempted to rescue a trucker caught in the swollen stream.

"Unprecedented" was the description of danger along the Platte given by County Commissioner T. J. Moore as he broadcast warnings to ranchers to remove their families and livestock from lowlands along the Platte from Fort Morgan eastward.

Hundreds of persons were homeless and the property damage in Colorado Springs, Pueblo, and two small villages north of here was estimated at hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Gerl, telegraph operator at Orin Junction, four miles from the point where the cars left the road, said the machines were enveloped in the flood but the occupants found refuge on an isolated hill.

Drive Out the Poisons

When regular bowel movements stop, soiling waste materials clogs the bowels and soon begins to poison the entire system. When you feel bad on this account take Tiedford's Black-Draught to get rid of constipation. Refreshing relief follows.

Take Tiedford's Black-Draught for dizziness, headaches, bad taste in the mouth, a dull, tired feeling and for any bad feeling that comes from a clogged system," writes Mr. D. M. Minton of Chickland, Pa. "Soon I am feeling good as new. I only take a dose once in a while." adv.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, May 31. (AP)—The general firmness of utilities brightened the stock market picture today. Extreme gains were not held, however, and some selling followed comments attributed to President Coolidge's NRA court ruling. The closing tone was rather irregular. Transfers approximated 1,000,000 shares.

support the new cabinet if former Premier Andre Tardieu were included.

The Flaudin cabinet was overthrown by a 353 to 207 vote of non-confidence early today after the former premier made a futile personal appeal for approval of his program to defend the franc through measures promulgated by decree.

The house opened as usual today, but trading was moderate. The high discount rate of the Bank of France and the uncertainty of the cabinet situation appeared to have inspired traders with caution.

Meanwhile, judicial police searched the records of several banks and brokers and conducted an inquiry into the affairs of Tumin and Co., a small private bank, which closed yesterday.

The bank of France tightened its credit, calling many loans on gold bars and credits which it believed aided speculators.

burst, which lasted from 5 to 7 a. m., but the water ran off rapidly although rain continued to fall until around noon.

Four inches or more fell in the hill country north of here, and within a few minutes solid balls of water crashed along the precipitously banked creeks.

BUTCHER AND BUGS LOSE TO SHIPPERS 4-3

PITCHER TASTES FIRST DEFEAT AFTER 9 VICTORIES

By The Associated Press
Max Butcher, star hurler for the Texas league-leading Galveston Bucs, tasted his first defeat this season yesterday when the Beaumont Exporters nosed him out, 4 to 3. Butcher had won nine straight games.

Three bases on balls, two in the fourth and another in the fifth, set the stage for the Beaumont runs. Red Phillips was the winning twirler, although he was relieved by Cook in the eighth when the Bucs filled the bases.

Fort Worth and Oklahoma City divided a double-header, the Cats winning the opener, a 10-inning contest, 4 to 3, and the Indians grabbing the second game, 2 to 1. Both games were pitchers' battles through.

Dallas and Tulsa likewise shared honors in a twin bill. The Steers went on a stampee in the first game to win with an 11 to 8 count, but the Indians came back fighting to eke out a 2 to 1 victory in the second.

San Antonio defeated Houston, 7 to 3, to make it two straight in the series. Earl Caldwell, who came within a pair of put-outs of a no-hit game the last time he opposed Houston, was on the hill for the Missions and, although he allowed 10 hits and passed five men, he checked the Buffs in the pinches. Vernon Taylor and Mike Cvergros tried to lead the Missions.

SMITH VS. WATTS
DALLAS, May 31. (AP)—Reynolds Smith and O'Hara Watts faced each other today in a 36-hole match for the Dallas Country club invitation golf championship. Watts went in to the finals by defeating Harry Todd of Dallas, 3 and 2, and Smith shot five under par to beat David Goldman, also of Dallas, 2 and 1.

Pre-Centennial Wrestling Card Will Feature Masked Marvel And Sailor Watkins

Good Preliminaries Will Precede Main Event

A pair of snappy preliminaries will precede the two main event matches at the Pre-Centennial and Pioneer Roundup wrestling show to be staged Thursday night at Road Runner park. The first preliminary, a 20-minute time limit affair, will bring Harry Dowler (Andy Gump) and Kid Thomas of Borger together at 8:30 o'clock sharp.

The second battle of the evening will be between Art Belcher of Amarillo and Rex Sullivan of Abilene. It is scheduled for one fall or 30-minute time limit.

The first big main event will give Red Michael, Pampa's up and coming middleweight, a chance to show his stuff against Gene La Belle, French-Canadian lumberjack from Montreal. The match will be best two falls out of three, or a one-hour time limit.

Then will come the battle of the century with the Masked Marvel, the unknown man of wrestling, meeting Sailor Tex Watkins, now of Post but former champion of the United States navy. It will be a finish match, best two falls out of three.

No increase in admission has been made for the monster match. The exhibition has been arranged as part of the celebration program and all thought of making money at the expense of the visitors has been forgotten.

The range of prices will be within the reach of all. Ringside reserve seats will sell for the low price of 60 cents, tax included. Box seats will be 50 cents, tax included. General admission for men will be 25 cents, with women and children being admitted for 20 cents. Ringside and box seat tickets are now on sale at Pampa Drug store, and they are going fast.

Wrestling fans from the entire Panhandle will be in Pampa to see the Masked Marvel meet Tex Watkins. Watkins is well known in these parts and when the masked marvel defeated him two weeks ago, gasps of dismay were in the air. The battling sailor begged for a return match. Now his wish has been granted.

Any trapper that can pin Watkins be good, but he has no denying. The Masked Marvel is good.

After his defeat, the wild sailor could be heard muttering, "I can't believe it, no one but Sailor Tex Watkins has ever done me that way and I got back him. I bet that mask if it is the last thing I ever do."

TWO BASEBALL LEAGUES MAY BE ORGANIZED

CLUP MANAGERS WILL MEET TUESDAY EVENING

Proposal to organize two baseball leagues, composed of teams in this section, will be discussed at a meeting of team managers in the chamber of commerce rooms in the city hall at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday night.

There are 17 known clubs already organized and others that may be started. Team managers are urged to be present and able to state definitely whether they desire such a league, and whether they will be able to enter a team.

The plan, is to have one league, composed of oil company and car-bon company teams, and another league composed of independent teams. There are 10 company teams in the field and seven independent ones.

Each team would be required to furnish the league president with a roster of their players so that there would be no swapping or importing of players. Other accepted rules will be made.

Company teams already in the field include Stanolind Oil & Gas company, Shell Petroleum company, Sinclair-Prairie Oil & Gas company, Sun Oil company, Phillips Petroleum company, Gulf Production company, Western Carbon company, Texas Elf Carbon company, Coltex Carbon company, and Cargray company.

Independent teams already organized include Pampa-Busy Indians, Hooper Hopkins, Kingsmill, Skellytown, Odd Fellows, and Independent.

PETILLO RISKED LAST CENT TO GET ON MOTOR SPEEDWAY

BY CHARLEY DUNKLEY Associated Press Staff Writer

DIANAPOLIS, May 29.—Daring 30-year-old Kelly Pettillo, who risked his last penny to get in the race, claimed the victor's spoils today for the fastest 500 miles ever turned on the death-ridden bricks of the Indianapolis motor speedway.

The Los Angeles Italian-American, celebrating "the first time a car ever stayed together" for him, whipped his powerful little cream-colored speedster across the finish line before a record crowd of 155,000 race fans yesterday for a 500-mile average of 106.246 miles an hour. He will collect $20,000 cash first prize, $2,500 in lap prizes and thousands more for accessories.

The Nation's greatest speed spectacle was marred by another fatality, the fourth for the 1935 classic and the 31st since the 2 1/2 mile track was opened to the racing daredevils in 1909.

Clay Weatherly, 25, Cincinnati driver at the wheel of the doomed racer that killed Johnny Hannon of Norcross, Ga., in a trial run May 21, rode it over the wall of the northwest turn at 110 miles an hour on his eighth lap. A "slow" signal from his pit crew had gone unheeded. He was dead when picked up. His mechanic, Francis Bradburn, 22, of Indianapolis, remains in critical condition in a hospital today, his back broken.

The winner, once in front, had an easy time of it, finishing two miles ahead of Wilbur Shaw of Indianapolis, and five miles in front of Wild Bill Cummings, the 1934 victor who saw his record average of 104.863 miles an hour go into the discard.

For the first time in the history of the race, the first ten drivers all averaged more than 100 miles an hour.

The other prize winners and their averages: Shaw, 105.990; Cummings, 104.758; Floyd Roberts, Los Angeles, 103.228; Ralph Hepburn, Los Angeles, 103.177; William Carlton, Detroit, 101.400; Chet Gardner, Los Angeles, 101.129; Deacon Litz, Dubois, Pa., 100.907; George Mackenzie, Eddington, Pa., 100.598; Chet Miller, Detroit, 100.474.

Prizes and trophies will be distributed at the annual race drivers' dinner tonight.

BORGER NINE TO PLAY HERE THIS EVENING

66 HAS SAME LINEUP; HARDIN, HADDOCK WILL HURL

Pampa baseball fans who think the Road Runners of 1935 are not as powerful an aggregation as last season's championship team will have an opportunity to find out tonight at 8:30 o'clock when the Phillips "66" Oilers of Borger arrive in town for the first time this season.

Borger will field practically the same lineup that represented the team last season. The Road Runners will have five new players in the starting lineup. The Pampa nine defeated Phillips in Borger Monday night with Carl Stewart doing mound duty.

Bill Hardin will probably get the call to start for the Road Runners tonight, with Haddock, ace of the Borger team, scheduled for hurling duty. Haddock had fair success against the Pampa team last season, winning an aggregation of 17 games, the Road Runners winning nine and losing eight.

The playing field is in excellent condition following the recent rains. The lightning last in both infield and outfield.

Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, Shaw Park, LeFors, will be the scene of the third meeting between the Road Runners and LeFors Coltexos. Each team has won a game, Pampa winning in LeFors and LeFors winning in Pampa.

Early in the LeFors pitching staff will be on the mound against the Road Runners. Either Dancy or Bulla will get the call to start for the Road Runners, it is believed, although Manager Freddy Erickell has not announced his choice.

GIANTS SHOW DODGERS DOWN TO 5TH PLACE

YANKEES SNATCH LEAD FROM CHICAGO PALE HOSE

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON JR., Associated Press Sports Writer.

The first holiday program of the baseball season, bringing doubler-hitters all around and an outpouring of fans that shattered all of this year's attendance records and a good many of those set in previous seasons, has gone a long way toward backing up Mickey Cochrane's recent statement that the best doubleheader clubs will find success in the 1935 campaign.

Four clubs in the two major leagues won both games of yesterday's bargain program and this is how they fared:

The New York Giants, trimming Brooklyn 8 to 3 and 6 to 0, increased their National league lead to 4 1/2 games and incidentally shoved the Dodgers down to fifth place. The St. Louis Cardinals, who bowled over Cincinnati 12 to 5 and 4 to 2, hopped from a third-place tie with Brooklyn to second in the series. Their starting pitcher, New York Yankee, trouncing Washington 4 to 0 and 9 to 3, captured the American league lead from Chicago, which split with Cleveland. The Phillies, slamming out 11 to 6 and 9 to 3 triumphs over the Braves, pulled 2 1/2 games ahead on the cellar struggle with Boston.

The Giants had an exceptionally profitable day. In addition to the two triumphs they reaped the benefit of the largest crowd in National league history, 63,943 paid admissions. Their starting pitcher, Van Mungo for six runs in the first inning of the opener and finished with a two-hit hurling feat by Fred Fitzsimmons.

The Cardinals were less spectacular, hitting steadily to collect 16 blows in the rally, including a grand slam in the eighth inning of the second game to win for Dizzy Dean, who contributed nine strikeouts. The Phillies scored seven times in the eighth for their first victory and kept on slugging to pile up an overwhelming lead in the second game. Vito Tamulis, young Yankee south-paw, rang up his second straight shutout, holding the Senators to six hits in their first clash. The Yankees produced 18 blows to back up Johnny Broaca in the afterpiece. Chicago's White Sox, with 42,000 fans looking on, slammed out enough home runs to beat Cleveland 8 to 4 for "Silent" John Whitehead and give the rookie his eighth consecutive mound victory. Jimmy Dykes, Zeke Bonura, and Rip Radcliffe all hit for the circuit in the opener but they couldn't touch Willis Hudlin's two-hit hurling as the Indians took the second game, 4 to 0.

Two more attendance marks went tumbling as 40,430 fans turned out at Pittsburgh to see the Pirates move into fourth place by getting an even break with Chicago and 38,000 overflowed the Detroit park when the Tigers and St. Louis Browns split. Detroit never had a bigger crowd and Pittsburgh all at world series games.

Pittsburgh's rookie mound ace, Cy Blanton, knocked from the hill for the first time as the Cubs smashed out a 6 to 4 victory but Red Lucas evened it by pitching six-hit ball to win 4 to 1.

The Browns belted out 16 hits and took one game from Detroit, 10 to 7. The game was limited to three blows by Tommy Bridges as the Tigers won 2 to 0.

Wes Ferrell was both winner and loser on the mound in the even break between the Red Sox and Athletics. He pitched the full first game, winning 7 to 4, then came in as a relief hurler to run into the A's five-run burst in the eleventh and went down, 13 to 8.

COLTEXO WHIPS PHILLIPS 66 OF BORGER 6 TO 5

A ninth inning jinx that has been dogging the Coltexo baseball team the last few games, nearly proved disastrous again yesterday when the LeFors nine took a 6 to 5 game from the Phillips "66" Oilers during Borger's Memorial day celebration.

Coltexo went into the last half of the ninth inning with a three-run lead and Hutton still pitching good ball. With two out and one man on base, Shinski let a ball get thru him and it went for a home run. The next man went out, however, and the rally fell one short.

Borger batters got to Hutton for 11 hits, but he kept them fairly well scattered. Mulrooney allowed Coltexo 10 hits, some of them bunched for runs. Errors assisted

CARGRAY DEFEATS WHITE DEER 11-7

Cargray's newly organized baseball team took a 11 to 7 decision from White Deer yesterday afternoon in a 7-inning affair. Cargray came from behind with a 6-inning rally in the seventh inning to win the game.

Dillman, on the mound for White Deer, pitched great ball until the last inning, when he weakened. It

GROVER AUSTIN IN AMARILLO TOURNAY

Two golfers, playing from the Pampa Country club, were to tee off this morning in the first round of play in the Amarillo Country club's first annual golf tournament.

Grover Austin, youthful ace was to meet Dick Coon of Dalhart in the championship flight. Coon qualified yesterday with a 73, second lowest score in the qualifying round. Austin had difficulty on the grass greens and carded an 81.

J. R. Farmer will be the other Pampa representative. He will be playing in the first flight, drawing E. R. Pryor of Amarillo. Farmer qualified with an 85 with Pryor shooting 86.

The Cardinals were less spectacular, hitting steadily to collect 16 blows in the rally, including a grand slam in the eighth inning of the second game to win for Dizzy Dean, who contributed nine strikeouts. The Phillies scored seven times in the eighth for their first victory and kept on slugging to pile up an overwhelming lead in the second game. Vito Tamulis, young Yankee south-paw, rang up his second straight shutout, holding the Senators to six hits in their first clash. The Yankees produced 18 blows to back up Johnny Broaca in the afterpiece. Chicago's White Sox, with 42,000 fans looking on, slammed out enough home runs to beat Cleveland 8 to 4 for "Silent" John Whitehead and give the rookie his eighth consecutive mound victory. Jimmy Dykes, Zeke Bonura, and Rip Radcliffe all hit for the circuit in the opener but they couldn't touch Willis Hudlin's two-hit hurling as the Indians took the second game, 4 to 0.

Two more attendance marks went tumbling as 40,430 fans turned out at Pittsburgh to see the Pirates move into fourth place by getting an even break with Chicago and 38,000 overflowed the Detroit park when the Tigers and St. Louis Browns split. Detroit never had a bigger crowd and Pittsburgh all at world series games.

Pittsburgh's rookie mound ace, Cy Blanton, knocked from the hill for the first time as the Cubs smashed out a 6 to 4 victory but Red Lucas evened it by pitching six-hit ball to win 4 to 1.

The Browns belted out 16 hits and took one game from Detroit, 10 to 7. The game was limited to three blows by Tommy Bridges as the Tigers won 2 to 0.

Wes Ferrell was both winner and loser on the mound in the even break between the Red Sox and Athletics. He pitched the full first game, winning 7 to 4, then came in as a relief hurler to run into the A's five-run burst in the eleventh and went down, 13 to 8.

GIANTS SHOW DODGERS DOWN TO 5TH PLACE

YANKEES SNATCH LEAD FROM CHICAGO PALE HOSE

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON JR., Associated Press Sports Writer.

The first holiday program of the baseball season, bringing doubler-hitters all around and an outpouring of fans that shattered all of this year's attendance records and a good many of those set in previous seasons, has gone a long way toward backing up Mickey Cochrane's recent statement that the best doubleheader clubs will find success in the 1935 campaign.

Four clubs in the two major leagues won both games of yesterday's bargain program and this is how they fared:

The New York Giants, trimming Brooklyn 8 to 3 and 6 to 0, increased their National league lead to 4 1/2 games and incidentally shoved the Dodgers down to fifth place. The St. Louis Cardinals, who bowled over Cincinnati 12 to 5 and 4 to 2, hopped from a third-place tie with Brooklyn to second in the series. Their starting pitcher, New York Yankee, trouncing Washington 4 to 0 and 9 to 3, captured the American league lead from Chicago, which split with Cleveland. The Phillies, slamming out 11 to 6 and 9 to 3 triumphs over the Braves, pulled 2 1/2 games ahead on the cellar struggle with Boston.

The Giants had an exceptionally profitable day. In addition to the two triumphs they reaped the benefit of the largest crowd in National league history, 63,943 paid admissions. Their starting pitcher, Van Mungo for six runs in the first inning of the opener and finished with a two-hit hurling feat by Fred Fitzsimmons.

The Cardinals were less spectacular, hitting steadily to collect 16 blows in the rally, including a grand slam in the eighth inning of the second game to win for Dizzy Dean, who contributed nine strikeouts. The Phillies scored seven times in the eighth for their first victory and kept on slugging to pile up an overwhelming lead in the second game. ## SELFISHNESS CAN BRING CHAOS

Never before in this century has genuine selfishness in industrial relations been as much needed as now. With NRA codes suspended, a wave of price and wage cutting, inspired by competitive business methods, can cause unprecedented strife.

The basis of industrial troubles is selfishness and ignorance. And, unfortunately, it is not within the power of any one employer to maintain justice and unselfish practices. What a competitor does is what will determine the trend. This means that one heartless firm, by cutting prices and wages, can undermine the price and wage structure in a community's business or within an industry.

And, equally unfortunate, is the fact that if general strikes are called, the just will suffer with the unjust. Radicals work under the claim that all employers are selfish and that all should be treated alike. Nothing is further from the truth. The goal of the selfish agitator is strife. When strife ends, his job ends.

It is significant and heartening that scores of industries are announcing their decision to maintain the codes voluntarily. As a matter of fact, hundreds of codes have meant little and whether prices and wages are cut will depend upon whether those involved wish to use as an excuse the end of something which never was a force anyway.

Chiselers may now have their inning, and there may be expected to be big chiselers, little chiselers, and middle sized chiselers. Selfishness is not limited to size. At the same time, there are chiselers who seek conditions which the times and conditions of some businesses will not permit at this time.

But tolerance and patience will make possible the reaching of industrial conditions more permanent than codes.

THE NEW DEAL IN WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—The transportation phase of the president's "must" program has lagged more than any other. It includes several bills. Some of them probably will be passed by Congress at this session and others will not.

The announced aim of the measures, most of them proposed by Co-ordinator Joseph B. Eastman, is a unified, efficient national transportation system which would use each method of transport to the best advantage, discourage uses in services where they are not best adapted, promote co-operation, and build up a financially and economically sound system furnishing the best possible service.

Especially desired by Roosevelt are the bills which would bring bus and truck and water traffic under regulation of the Interstate Commerce Commission, which now regulates the railroads.

Unregulated competition from trucks, buses, ships, and barges has been one of the chief troubles of the railroads, themselves subject to rigorous supervision. In the last 15 years nearly $20,000,000,000 has been invested in non-rail competition—including highways—as against only $6,000,000,000 in railroads.

The result is an oversupply of transportation facilities and cut-throat competition, which has led to demoralized conditions.

The administration idea is to put the competing agencies on even terms with the rail carriers.

The House interstate commerce committee, under Chairman Sam Raburn, has been holding hearings on a bill broadening federal court authority in determining fairness of reorganization plans, putting bondholders' "protective committees" under I. C. C. regulation, and providing careful scrutiny of reorganization trustees.

Air transportation and pipelines would eventually be regulated by I. C. C. under the administration plan. It is proposed to increase the I. C. C. from 11 to 15 members, create divisions for each new field of regulation, and appoint a permanent chairman—the chairmanship now rotates from year to year—who would promote speed and efficiency.

The motor carrier bill, backed by state regulating commissions and most bus operators, but few truckers, provides comprehensive interstate regulation of rates, fares, and practices—which must be just, reasonable, and not discriminatory.

Motorized common carriers would be licensed and a showing of public interest and financial responsibility required, with bonds to protect the traveling and shipping public. Prevention of excessive rates, control over mergers, and promotion of safety are provided.

The water carrier bill, covering ships in interstate and foreign commerce on oceans, lakes, and rivers, would remove regulating powers from the Department of Commerce's shipping board bureau and give the I. C. C. power to prescribe maximum rates when necessary to correct discrimination or remove prejudice against American exports, as well as minimum rates where necessary.

BARBS

Small fire causes $4000 damage to federal treasury. After lighting his cigar, some work-relief fund executive was probably careless where he threw the dollar bill.

It might be possible to collect our war debts via the chain letter method, except that no European nation has five friends.

When told he was the father of twins, a movie star said, "I'm just twice as happy as I thought I'd be." On that basis, Mr. Dionne's joy must have burst all bounds.

New system permits free communication between passengers and the captain of a ship. A break for ocean-going back seat drivers.

A new radio amplifier would enable a politician to throw his voice a mile. The only trouble is that he would still be able to find it.

It seems that 'radio ear' is a device which aids the deaf to hear, and not something caused by listening to crooners.

Trial of Post Men Nears End

LUBBOCK, May 31. (P)—The trial of Sheriff W. F. Cato and two other Garza county men, charged with slaying Narcotic Agent Spencer Stafford, neared the jury today.

The government's final argument by District Attorney Clyde O. Eastus was set to precede Judge James C. Wilson's charge.

Dr. L. W. Kitchen, in front of whose veterinary hospital Stafford

was felled with a blast of machine gun fire at Post last Feb. 7, and Tom Morgan, deputized farmer, are the other defendants. The court ruled that the jury would be instructed to acquit Dr. V. A. Hartman, the fourth man indicted.

Stafford and a fellow officer, V. C. McCullough, were at Post investigating narcotic records when the slaying occurred.

Whether Johnson would continue as manager of the Cleveland Indians depended on how Landis ruled on the claim of Willie Kamm, veteran Indian infielder, that the "big train" was not justified in sending him back to Cleveland while the club was in the east last week.

The hearing was scheduled in the hotel suite of Commissioner Landis, who has been kept away from his office by a severe cold.

Johnson Hearing Scheduled Today

CHICAGO, May 31. (P)—Walter Johnson's immediate baseball future rested today in the hands of Commissioner Kenesaw M. Landis.

Whether Johnson would continue as manager of the Cleveland Indians depended on how Landis ruled on the claim of Willie Kamm, veteran Indian infielder, that the "big train" was not justified in sending him back to Cleveland while the club was in the east last week.

The hearing was scheduled in the hotel suite of Commissioner Landis, who has been kept away from his office by a severe cold.

LUBBOCK, May 31. (P)—The trial of Sheriff W. F. Cato and two other Garza county men, charged with slaying Narcotic Agent Spencer Stafford, neared the jury today.

The government's final argument by District Attorney Clyde O. Eastus was set to precede Judge James C. Wilson's charge.

Dr. L. W. Kitchen, in front of whose veterinary hospital Stafford

was felled with a blast of machine gun fire at Post last Feb. 7, and Tom Morgan, deputized farmer, are the other defendants. The court ruled that the jury would be instructed to acquit Dr. V. A. Hartman, the fourth man indicted.

Stafford and a fellow officer, V. C. McCullough, were at Post investigating narcotic records when the slaying occurred.

Tabuadge To Be Excluded From National Party

WASHINGTON, May 31. (AP)—Representative Cox (D-Ga.) said today Governor Talmadge said national committeeman from Georgia, will have no voice in national party affairs "until he has ceased his warfare on the party and its leader, the president."

Informing that Talmadge had been selected by the state democratic executive committee, to succeed the late Major John S. Cohen as national committeeman, Cox issued the following statement:

"From one who lives on vanity nothing should be surprising. However, when it comes to his being seated it should not be unreasonable to expect him to die of mortification."

"The National democratic committee is a committee of the democratic party against which the governor is waging a war of his own making."

"If the governor hopes to have any influence in Washington, he will be compelled to first recant and make proof of his loyalty to the party which has often honored him and which he has been endeavoring to undermine and destroy."

Valentino Figures In Weird Rites of Hollywood Actors

HOLLYWOOD, May 30. (AP)—Weird rites before a rose-banked picture of the late Rudolph Valentino, with an ordinary typewriter used in the manner of a Ouija board, today landed a blonde film player and two companions in jail.

While police, more befuddled than mystified, tried to figure the thing, the trio was booked on "suspicion of operating a business enterprise and the victim himself, John Wood, 40, was held on "suspicion of forgery."

Police quoted Wood as saying that Marchen Bach, 20-year-old Danish actress, was the leader of the group, and that solemn homage was paid each day before the Valentino shrine.

As part of the ritual, Wood said, Miss Bach sat down at a typewriter and "received" cryptic code messages addressed just for him.

Strangely enough, he said, each of these messages—there were 10 of them—had to do with money, and invariably directed him to cash a check. Once he said he was "guided" to cash a check and buy some groceries for the cult's apartment in Hollywood hills.

The trouble was, police said, Wood's checks were worthless. That accounted for the forgery suspicion against him.

Detectives Verne Miller and Harry Sheppard were trying to straighten the thing out, meanwhile holding Miss Bach, Rudolf Steinbock, 33, and Rudolf Schulz, 30.

Have you found the SUNNY PACKAGE on your grocer's shelf?

It's a delicious ready-to-eat cereal. Millions of Americans have found Kellogg's ALL-BRAN a safe, effective means of correcting constipation—the kind caused by lack of "bulk" in the menu.

Laboratory measurements show that ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to aid elimination. ALL-BRAN also supplies Vitamin B and iron.

The "bulk" in this tempting cereal is more effective than that found in fruits and vegetables—because it resists digestion better. Within the body, it absorbs moisture, and forms a soft mass. Gently, this cleans out the intestinal waste.

Isn't this natural food better than taking patent medicines? Two tablespoons of ALL-BRAN daily are usually sufficient. Chronic cases with each meal. If this fails to give relief, see your doctor.

Enjoy ALL-BRAN as a cereal, or cook into appetizing recipes. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN contains much more needed "bulk" than part-bran products. In the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Trojans Back To Win Track Meet Saturday.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., May 31. (P)—Back to the eastern track and field wars after an interval of two years, Southern California's versatile Trojans prepared to get on their high horse today, in the qualifying trials of the South Intercollegiate A. A. A. championships, and pave the way for their seventh team conquest in a span of ten years. Finals will be held tomorrow.

Accidents can happen to upset the most careful athletic calculations but it looked to be a "breeze" for the Pacific coast champions, coached by the veteran Dean Cromwell and featuring a set of performers as new to eastern track fans as they appear well qualified to go places and "heavy" things. The Trojans, capable of scoring in a dozen of the 15 events, are especially well fortified in the hurdles and jumps.

Stanford, which captured the I. C. A. A. A. trophy at Philadelphia last year with a seven-man team, relies on a quartet of stalwarts this time to make a respectable showing. At that, the four Indians from Palo Alto—Jim Reynolds, Phil Levy, Sam Klopstok and Johnny Mottram—may give the University of California's 13-man squad a fight for second place, with Cornell, Harvard and Columbia carrying the east's banner in the point-battle.

The old guard's hopes are pinned mainly on turning back the far western stars in a majority of the individual contests.

Brother Kicks Baby to Death

NEW YORK, May 31. (P)—Jealousy of an overgrown 19-year-old boy for his three-year-old brother was blamed by detectives today for the killing of Little John Tancaric.

"They said the 'big brother,' Sylvester, who had assumed control of a poverty-ridden family of widowed mother and seven children, confessed he had kicked the little boy to death.

Sylvester blurted out the confession—and details of other mistreatment—investigators found after a sister, Josephine, 12, broke down yesterday and disclosed it was his "punishment"—not an accident of play—that caused death.

The family, originally of New York City, was returned from Walnutport, Pa., by relief authorities after the father, Joseph, was found Dec. 26, 1931, beaten and hanged to a tree, apparently the victim of a mob.

Five Children Burn to Death

TORONTO, May 31. (P)—Five children ranging in age from three to 18 years were burned to death early today when flames destroyed their frame home at Alderwood, a little community of the western outskirts of the city.

All members of the family, named Scott, were asleep when the fire, from unknown origin, broke out in the wooden building.

The father leaped from the second-story window to the ground and the mother threw an infant to him. She herself then leaped into his arms through billows of smoke. It was impossible to reach other members of the family.

'DEAD' FRIEND OF PANCHO VILLA BELIEVED HELD IN NEW ORLEANS

NEW ORLEANS, May 31. (AP)—A man described by Chief of Detectives John J. Groch as partially fitting the description of Warren C. Spurgin, who disappeared from Chicago in 1921 after allegedly embezzling $1,000,000 from a trust company, was held in jail today.

SANTA FE, May 31. (AP)—The dashing days of Pancho Villa, the Mexican bandit and rebel leader—described as riding an American tractor and being lazy in late years—were part of the story of Warren C. Spurgin's death in Mexico in 1921, a death two juries in United States district court here have confirmed.

Mrs. Vernon S. Tilton of El Paso and Chicago, daughter of Spurgin, one-time Chicago banker, sued the Penn Mutual Life Insurance company for the $25,000 policy her father carried in that firm. It first was made out to Mrs. Spurgin who transferred it to the daughter. It was contended Spurgin was the victim, not later than March, 1922, of Mexican bandits. He left Chicago in July, 1921, for Mexico and only one letter, testimony showed, was thereafter received from him and that was on his arrival.

trusted lieutenant of the late Pancho Villa, described how Villa sent guards with Spurgin to look over some mining property, that Spurgin disappeared and Villa started an inquiry for "the big American friend." His body was found, Delgado said—and the two guards had his money. The guards were found drunk, and placed against an adobe wall before a firing squad, Villa's favorite way of disposing of enemies.

The insurance company won a new trial, claiming new evidence, after Mrs. Tilton won the first suit in May, 1934. The new trial was held in April this year, resulting in another verdict for Mrs. Tilton. The court for days was packed with witnesses from Old Mexico, including one of Pancho Villa's widows.

CHAPTER VI Zoe, after all, was not angry. Katharine's heart softened when she saw her at the Country Club dance—small and round and with a smile in her floating printed silk, which was the prize of the frocks she had brought back from Paris.

It was a gala night at the club. Ribbons of colored paper flew back and forth, and balloons were set free, only to be punctured by the cigarette of some roisterer. Katharine danced with Dr. Kaye, to be cut in upon again and again. She looked lovely tonight in clear ivory silk, the gown molded to the lines of her exquisite young figure.

Frank Corlies, the typical sophisticate, in elegant English dinner clothes, with real pearls for studs, made a foil for Zoe Parker. Lisa Parker and Bertine both agreed that they were a charming pair.

"He seems quite mad about her," Lisa sighed. "I wouldn't mind seeing her settle down—after this last year."

"You've had a worrying time of it," agreed Bertine, who knew all about Gibbs and who, although not mother herself, would let her know one who cared to listen that the girl of today was certainly a problem.

"The only thing Katharine really seems to care about," Bertine said brightly, "is riding. Really, I wish sometimes that Victor would let her have a horse of her own. I am not quite sure I like the idea of exposing her to the charms of that young westerner over at Shady Ridge. Much too good-looking, in a certain crude way."

"Oh, Katharine's all right," Lisa Parker said comfortably, watching Zoe's brown curls bob against young Corlies' black-coated shoulder. "She is so serene. Nothing ever seems to trouble her."

Bertine started to reply, but thought better of it. People misunderstood so, if she said a single word about Katharine. That was what it was to be a stepmother. Nobody gave you the least bit of credit.

Katharine steered John out on the terrace. "Nasty," she observed, drooping against a pillar.

"And hot!" "John, you see what I mean about father and Bertine? I haven't had a chance to talk to you all day."

"No need. I see. They want to keep you wrapped in cotton wool. Your father doesn't know you've grown up."

Her eyes glittered feverishly in the half light. "How—how can I escape from it?"

He laughed, and something of the wholesome quality of his own good, gentle personality touched her with a sort of healing, releasing her from the maddening tensions which had soured her all day.

"Well, the Victorians used to marry to get out from under parental supervision. But that didn't work so well. Maybe it does nowadays. Women seem to rule the roost."

"Don't be vulgar." But she was laughing, too.

"However," she pursued, with relish. "You don't just marry—like that, I mean. You've got to be—well, at least, think you're in love."

"Plenty of boys have been lopping around after you tonight," said Dr. Kaye quietly. In the light from the flare of his match, she could see his lean, almost ascetic face.

Thirty, John was; he was already a fine doctor and a man everyone respected. The woman who married him would be a lucky person, Katharine thought, innocently.

"Oh, boys!" she rejoiced, on a note of contempt.

"Don't like 'em, eh?" confessed. "Not—much!" she confessed. There was a wicker couch here, with deep square cushions. She sank into it and John Kaye sat down beside her.

"There somebody else?" "Not—not really." She sighed. John would be a perfect person to confide in. She needed a confidante; it was hard, always keeping things to yourself. And there was no one she could talk to, really. Bertine didn't understand. . . oh, she meant to, but she never really heard what you said; or if she did you were certain she would use it as a lunch table topic the next day.

No, she wouldn't confide in Bertine.

Besides, there was really nothing to tell about Michael Heatheroe. Katharine had had, on arriving at the club tonight, the strangest feeling that she might see him among the guests. Obviously that was absurd.

"Nobody else," she said, quite firmly.

Zoe came out with her Princeton boy, and Captain Byrne and his handsome blond fiancée joined them for a cigarette. Captain Altheus Byrne was an army man, home from Fort Sill on vacation. He and the plump, graceful widow from Innisbrook Hills were to be married the following spring. Gracia McIlvaine was 35, just four years younger than the erect bronzed soldier who was to be her third husband. Gracia had been twice "lawfully widowed." Zoe said gleefully. She did not like Gracia, who insisted on being the center of every group she joined. Gracia had a penetrating voice; she told endless stories of dramatic incidents of which she was the center. There was always an amused male or two to listen. She held them by sheer force of personality.

Katharine said to herself that she did not mind Gracia, and yet tonight when the gushing Mrs. McIlvaine took possession of Dr. Kaye she was conscious of a distinct sense of annoyance. John seemed to like it. Of course he had met her half a dozen times before, but that was before he had gone abroad to study. His two years in the European capitals had robbed him of much of his former diffidence. He had an easy manner, an air of authority which Gracia was quick to recognize.

"... now tell me all about this marvelous facial surgery," Katharine heard her soo. John's gentle, deliberate voice answered.

"Dance?" Captain Byrne was at her elbow.

"Love to."

Well, if John Kaye "fell for" Gracia McIlvaine as easily as that, Katharine told herself later that night, she was afraid she wouldn't have much respect for him. Gracia had kept him at her side with quiet insistence all the remainder of the evening. It was Gracia's well-rounded but still charming figure, cased in ice-blue satin that you saw beside Dr. Kaye's when the orchestra played "The Continental."

It was Gracia's well-massaged face that smiled coquettishly up at him during supper.

"Men are all fools," said Katharine to herself, as she undressed. Even Johnny, whom she had thought above such things. She fell asleep congratulating herself that she had not confided any of her innermost feelings to him. Moonlight streamed over the floor and lay in barred squares on the broad mahogany four-poster where she slept, uneasily turning in her dreams. A red-haired rider, on a roan horse galloped through her dream; and there was a lean, ascetic-looking man in evening clothes somewhere in it, too. Kaye argued with him, she was angry, she wept. She woke to an uneasy feeling.

meet him at the Fitz at 1. Later they would go over to the building on the East River where Dr. Kaye was to live, in two rooms high above the turgid stream with its tugs and doughty steamers plying their way to New England. After John had left Katharine called the number of the riding club.

"That you, tips? It's Miss Strykhurst. Tell Michael I won't be riding today. I didn't want him to keep Fury for me. . . ."

Her heart pounded unaccountably as she waited. The colored boy's voice came to her faintly over the phone.

"That's all right, Miss Strykhurst. Miss Michael, he went off with Miss Moon on Fury 10-15 minutes ago."

Katharine put the telephone in its cradle with hands that shook a little. She scarcely recognized the white face that stared back at her from the mirror. Sally Moon—her own little horse. Sally there at her hour!

Ellen went by, with a drift of dresses over her arm. "I pressed your pink shantung, Miss Katharine."

"Thanks." But she didn't really hear it. She wasn't thinking of the frock she would wear to town to lunch with John Kaye. Her mind burned with the vision of two riders drifting along the green lanes together.

Was this jealousy? Was she really in love with Michael Heatheroe?
