AMENDMENTS TO AAA JIBED IN ARGUMENTS

DEADLINE FOR UTILITY FIRMS TO REGISTER IS TOMORROW
WASHINGTON, Nov. 30. (AP)—With the zero registration hour near, the nation's holding companies today maintained their virtually unbroken front against the new deal's utility act. The New England Power association and the New England Public Service company, two major units, registered today with the securities commission to become the only big systems, agreeing to obey the act. Utility spokesmen here contended, however, that this indicated no real break in the line. The New England Power association stated it was filing "under duress," claiming the act to be unconstitutional and reserving full rights to attack its constitutionality at any time in the future. This accords with the commission's frequently reiterated suggestion. Most companies, however, have refused to accept it. The registration deadline is midnight tomorrow after which the commission contends many of the activities of the non-registering companies may have the shadow of illegality cast upon them.

Ten Systems Unite
Ten of the major systems are meeting this threat with injunction suits. Many more are seeking exemption on the ground they are not holding companies and still others apparently have decided to take no action whatsoever for the time being. Three new suits were filed today against the commission, by Central West Public Service company, North American Edison company, an American Utilities Service corporation, bringing to 41 the total of injunction actions. These suits involve hundreds of different companies.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30. (AP)—Receivers for the Housack Mills corporation of Massachusetts hurried the charge of "fraud" against the AAA amendments with which congress attempted to strengthen the constitutionality of processing taxes. Their written arguments in the test case, which will be debated orally December 9 in the supreme court, were followed quickly, however, by a "friend of the court" brief in which the American farm bureau federation defended the taxes and held them comparable to "taxation without representation." Invidious effort, "congress has abdicated," and "bureaucrats" were among the phrases denouncing the AAA in the 116-page document filed with the nine justices by the milling company.

Expressing a willingness to have the court consider both the original AAA act and the later amendments in deciding the case, based on taxes imposed prior to amendment, the company argued that congress conceded the original act was invalid by amending it. The brief asserted the amendments were "a fraud, in essence, upon the power delegated to congress by the people," and constituted a "rubber stamp of acts" by the secretary of agriculture. It charged the amended law was a "bare-faced attempt to collect and keep proceeds of these taxes whether they are legal or not." The farm bureau's brief insisted the AAA developed from a congressional study which began in 1924, and argued that the protective tariff, upheld by the court, obtains for industry a higher price for products in domestic consumption, while processing taxes have the same objective with respect to surplus agricultural commodities "regarding which the protective tariff system is wholly ineffective."

Noose Sought For Ex-Wife's Slayer

TWIN FALLS, Idaho, Nov. 30. (AP)—Two trails will be pressed if necessary, authorities announced tonight, in an effort to hang Douglas Van Vlack, confessed slayer of his pretty ex-wife and accused killer of highway patrolman. "If I fail to obtain a verdict for hanging at the first trial," said Prosecutor Edward E. Babcock, "I shall proceed with the second." The statement came as Van Vlack repeated to Sheriff E. P. Prater the story of the brutal killing of his divorced wife, 22-year-old Mildred Hook of Tacoma, Wash. Her body was found yesterday pinned in a culvert near here. The head was battered in. She had been shot thru the left eye. Van Vlack, at the time his former wife's body was found, was awaiting trial for shooting to death Highway Patrolman Fontaine Cooper.

Rain Gives Hope Wheat Crop Will Be Good In 1936

That favorite Pampa slogan, "Where the Wheat Grows and the Oil Flows," gives signs of being 100 per cent right next year. Even the usually skeptical wheat growers are admitting that not since 1930 has there been as favorable a fall-well-spaced rains with a minimum of cold weather. The rain of the last week, ranging from 1.1 to 1.6 inches in this wheat area, left a surprisingly large amount of moisture. Most of the wheat is on the ground as of old. MRS. LIVERMORE CANNOT RECALL SHOOTING SON

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., Nov. 30. (AP)—Jail doors closed today on Mrs. Dorothea Wendt Livermore after she told officers she couldn't remember anything about shooting her son, Jesse Livermore, Jr., in an alleged drunken argument. The 16-year-old victim still hovered between life and death but was cheered by a visit from his father, Jesse Livermore, noted Wall Street figure of the pre-depression era.

Mrs. Livermore, divorced second wife of the market operator, verged on hysteria when she asked to be taken home from the Cottage hospital and was told she was going to jail instead. She was held on suspicion of assault to commit murder. Sheriff James Ross said that booking would stand pending outcome of the boy's wound. Mrs. Livermore's appearance had changed considerably after more than 24 hours in the hospital. Both mother and son were intoxicated, officers said, when taken there early yesterday, and opiates were administered to each. Her going-to-jail costume was a tailored suit with silk waist. Her bobbed hair was neatly done and she wore rouge and powder. She did not see her son after their ride to the hospital.

DIES IN FALL
NEW YORK, Nov. 30. (AP)—A fall from a third story window caused fatal injuries to the socially prominent Mrs. Helen Moran Fahnestock. It was disclosed today as police investigated the tragic climax to her domestic troubles. Mrs. Fahnestock, divorced seven weeks ago from Col. Snowden Fahnestock, banker and one of the heroes of the "Lost Battalion," was injured Thanksgiving night. Members of the family did not report the accident to police.

I believe in bigger and better Christmas every year, and this is going to be the happiest one of all for the children in Pampa. HANDWRITING ON CHECKS IS LIKE SOONER'S

FIRST PICTURE THAT RESEMBLES 'JAMES SULLIVAN'
EL PASO, Nov. 30. (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Williamson, hotel operators, today returned pictures of Chester Comer, fatally wounded at Blanchard, Okla., resemble the man who stopped at their hotel May 23 and has been sought for months in connection with the disappearance of four East St. Louis tourists. The man registered at the hotel as "James Sullivan, East St. Louis." His handwriting, the Williamson said, resembled that on travelers checks of the George Lorus party cashed here. Outside the hotel, the man had parked an automobile that answered the description of the Lorus car, found later at Dallas, Texas. "We have looked at lots of pictures," Mr. and Mrs. Williamson said, "but this the first one that looks like the man who stopped here. If we could see a better picture, perhaps our identification could be more positive." Lorus, his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Heberer of Duquoin, Ill., were last heard from on May 22 when a postal card was mailed at Albuquerque, N. M. An intensive search for them, led in New Mexico by Governor Clyde Tingley, disclosed their automobile in Dallas and a trail of travelers' checks leading across New Mexico and Texas, but no trace of the missing quartet. Comer, fatally wounded by an officer seeking him in connection with the disappearance of an Oklahoma attorney, muttered in his dying delirium that he killed the Lorus group, as well as the attorney, farmer and his son and his two wives. REEMPLOYMENT OFFICE OPENED AGAIN IN CITY
Bridge at Draw Here Not To Be Begun On Monday
A National Re-Employment Service office will be re-opened in the city hall tomorrow to certify men for WPA projects and serve employers generally, it was learned yesterday. However, it became apparent that the WPA bridge project, spanning the "draw" east of the Sam Houston school, would not be started Monday. Some of the district WPA office at Amarillo was misinformed about the project having been finally approved. Work on the tennis courts, the Alnreed-McLean road, and the McLean-Hedley road—the latter just a few miles—will continue. Eleven women were registered yesterday at the sewing room in the courthouse, where Mrs. Buena Burchfield is director. Others will likely be certified this week. Although the Pampa fairground-park project has been approved in Washington, funds for it have not yet been received in the state office at San Antonio. The Gray county tax survey, sponsored by the State Tax board, will be delayed for lack of qualified "white collar" workers. Men will be certified only as they are found to be competent for this technical employment.

Arkansas Student Commits Suicide
FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Nov. 30. (AP)—Dean Holmes Corlette, Jr., of Chicago, 21-year-old junior in the University of Arkansas business college, was found shot to death in his fraternity house room today. Coroner Glenn Riggs of Springdale, Ark., returned a verdict of suicide. Riggs said he believed the youth's action resulted from despondency over a love affair. G. E. Ripley, dean of men at the university, said Corlette left a note to his brother, Stephen Corlette.

Haile Selassie Goes to Dessye
LWITHE EMPEROR HAILE SELASSIE, DESSYE, Ethiopia, Nov. 30. (AP)—Emperor Haile Selassie established Ethiopia's military headquarters at Dessye today, after telling his subjects that, if necessary, he would "join the warriors in the trenches." The populace of this city, 175 miles northeast of Addis Ababa, received the king of kings with enthusiasm as he completed his long journey by motor caravan. All along the route, the Ethiopians cheered as the emperor, accompanied by many chieftains and aides, sped toward his new headquarters, riding some of the time through rugged mountain country. Immediately after his arrival, Haile Selassie began conferences with his military leaders, including Gen. Teclé Hawariaté, who will command the Ethiopian troops. Recently returned to Ethiopia and pledged much of this fortune to his country's cause.

CHILDREN TO GET BREAK IN SANTA PARADE

SANTA CLAUS COMING TO TOWN AGAIN NEXT FRIDAY
Human interest will be the single, but mighty characteristic of the Santa Day parade next Friday afternoon. And in possessing that fascinating attribute, it will be different from any parade ever seen in the Panhandle. By now, the whole northeastern Panhandle knows—or at least the children in that great area that surrounds Pampa—that the first doll, pet and hobby parade ever held in this section will be the feature of Santa Day. Scores of letters have been sent by the Junior Chamber of Commerce to children and their teachers, inviting them to enter their pets and hobbies. Yesterday—just to give one an idea of what the parade will be like—one teacher announced that her room would tell a famous children's story in costume and pantomime as the parade moves gaily and colorfully along Cuyler. There will be literally hundreds of dogs, cats, ponies, rabbits. It was learned recently that one child will walk beside a small wagon drawn by a pet goat. Hundreds of children will be in the parade. Teachers will enter their rooms as a body in the contest. Prizes, and cash prizes too, will be given winners. These money awards will be given first, second and third place winners in the city, county and out-of-county classes. Also in the parade will ride Santa Claus, but Santa will be high above the children. This year, his gnomes and fairies at his express command will throw favors to children. It has also been learned from an unnamed reliable source that the kind of candy Santa will give to his young friends here this year, will be much better and more expensive than the

Italy Will Seek Oil in Albania
ROME, Nov. 30. (AP)—Italy's cabinet ruled through measures to strengthen the nation's war machine today. It took but two and one half hours for the cabinet, dominated by Premier Mussolini, to approve defense, economic and financial decrees. Membership in the supreme council of defense was enlarged to include many new officials. An appropriation of 70,000,000 lire (about $5,000,000) was made to set up a refinery for crude oil. It will be turned over to a company which has been developing oil production in Albania, the Asinda Italiani Petrol. A measure was approved requiring all men under 32 to enroll in the national shooting society after they have been released from compulsory military training. The cabinet adopted 22 decrees smoothing off spots in existing financial regulations, including one to save paper by halving the supplies of taxed sheets for legal use.

Keyser Wins Grid Guess But Fails On Cowtown Game

Mage Keyser, 1301 Rham street, is the winner of the last Grid Guess contest. Keyser had a big day with his guesses but, like most guessers, he was wrong about S. M. U. T. C. U. The Baylor-Rice, Army-Navy, L. S. U.-Tulane, and Columbia-Dartmouth results were tough ones for most of the entrants. With today's award, the Grid Guess contest ends, but interest has been so keen that it probably will be revived next year.

MUSSOLINI HAS 'CHANGED TUNE', BRITISH CLAIM

183 Italians Slain, Says Government Of Ethiopia
LONDON, Nov. 30. (AP)—Informed sources said today that a French warning to Italy against any unprovoked aggression upon Great Britain's Mediterranean fleet, has definitely lessened international tension. It showed Mr. Duce, these sources asserted, exactly where the nations of Europe stand—and France at the side of Britain. As a result, they continued, Mussolini has "changed his tune." British cabinet ministers, anxiously watching every move in that international crisis, were represented as feeling strongly that support should be given to further collective action by the League of Nations to end the Italo-Ethiopian war. At the same time, they want the door kept open for peace negotiations with Italy. Italian radio stations are broadcasting denunciations of England almost every night, declaring that the League has "become a tool of British imperialism." But the British public, although eagerly following reports of Italian troops movements, apparently does not take them seriously. This general attitude was expressed by the Daily Herald.

PROTESTS OF CHINESE ARE IGNORED BY JAPAN
SHANGHAI, Nov. 30. (AP)—A Japanese dispatch from Tientsin said tonight that the Chinese military leader there announced an independent state would be proclaimed shortly in Hopeh and Chahar provinces. Gen. Sung Chen-yun, commander of the Peiping-Tientsin military garrison, said the Rengo (Japanese) news agency, informed Chinese national leaders in Nanking by telegraph that the autonomy program would be carried thru as "soon as possible." The cities of Peiping and Tientsin would be included in such a state. "The time is very near for new northern developments," said a spokesman for the Japanese embassy here. There were rumors autonomy might be proclaimed Monday. The Nanking government, in its third note to Japan within two days, protested vigorously today against what it said was Japan's seizure of the Chinese postoffice in the northern demilitarized zone. At the same time the foreign office sent identical notes to all embassies and legations in China denouncing the autonomous state set up in eastern Hopeh by Yin Yu-kang, Chinese administrator of the demilitarized zone. ### PRINCETON MAY BE INVITED TO ROSEBOWL TILT

Tiger Officials Hint Offer Might Be Accepted

PASADENA, Calif., Nov. 30. (AP)—An undefeated team will be invited by Stanford for the Rose Bowl game here next year's day.

This was the promise of Alfred Masters, Stanford graduate manager, before he left for Palo Alto tonight.

"All I can say now is that an undefeated team will be invited to play in the Rose Bowl," said Masters. "I will announce the team when I return Tuesday."

While western fans were clamoring for Southern Methodist as a result of its victory over Texas Christian at Fort Worth today, a letter from Princeton indicated that the beaten Tigers might listen to an invitation. The only other major defeated team is Minnesota, for which a post season game by Big Ten rules.

The Princeton letter was from Truman N. Dell, chairman of the incl on athletics, to H. C. Willis, chairman of the Pacific coast conference.

Princeton alumni and undergraduates have been greatly displeased, it said, by the manner in which a recent editorial of the Princetonian, the undergraduate paper, has misrepresented the attitude of the University and the annual Rose Bowl football game.

The viewpoint of the editorial at that of the athletic authority of Princeton, and I am writing you this clear to you."

It added that Princeton authorities would consider it an honor listed as a team worthy of being in the Rose Bowl but declined to add that the school was governed by policy that is tied to post-season games.

Princeton authorities have questioned the character of the event of the Rose Bowl, he concluded. "And I hope all disassociate these authorities in such charges."

Jimmy Lawrence Is TCU's Star

FORT WORTH, Nov. 30. (AP)—Galloping Jimmy Lawrence added new achievements to an already brilliant career as a Texas Christian university football player today by his leadership of the attack that threatened at any moment to defeat Southern Methodist Mustangs.

The halfback from Harlingen, Texas, playing his last game at home, was in the middle of so many plays that news photographers comparing notes after the game was over, found him an identifiable and active figure in more than three-fourths of their action pictures.

It was a fitting climax to a career that already had won Lawrence recognition as one of the greatest running backs in the Southwest conference in years.

Barring post-season games, Lawrence, a senior, has only one more game to play for T. C. U. That will be against Santa Clara on the Pacific coast.

In today's contest he gained 60 yards in 15 running plays to gain unquestioned rank as the Horned Frogs' foremost ball carrier.

He caught four passes, and scored both of the T. C. U. touchdowns. It was only after a leg injury forced him out of the game that the deciding score was made on a pass over the position he had vacated.

The News' Want-Ads bring results.

SMU LOOKING LIKE CERTAIN BOWL NOMINEES

LOUISIANA STATE WINS SOUTHWESTERN TITLE

BY HERBERT W. BARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Southern Methodist's football Mustangs all but qualified for Pasadena's Rose bowl game yesterday as Princeton wound up its second undefeated and untied season in three years; Army captured the annual service duel with Navy, and Louisiana state won the Southeastern conference championship.

The galloping Mustangs, though badly crippled, toppled Texas Christian, 20 to 14, in a sensational battle between the Southwest's two undefeated and untied arrays at Fort Worth.

Already mentioned prominently as a possible opponent for Stanford in the Rose Bowl game New Year's day, Southern Methodist looks now like an almost certain nominee for that post-season classic.

Princeton's powerful Tigers scored 28 points in the last quarter to climax a brilliant campaign with a crushing 38-7 defeat of Yale. Nearly 80,000 saw Yale hold Princeton for a 10-0 advantage for three periods but once the Tigers got under way it was strictly a rout.

Army's fine first team picked up 21 points in a terrific first period drive and then stalled off Navy's furious counter-charge in the second half to win the service duel, 28-0, before 81,000 fans in Philadelphia.

Louisiana state's Tigers gained clear title to the southeastern crown by brushing Tulane aside, 41-0. Tulane made a fight of it in the first half but the Tigers rushed over 27 points in the third quarter to clinch the verdict beyond all doubt.

Holy Cross, unbeaten but tied by Manhattan, wound up its season by thumping its main rival, Boston college, 20-6, as had been expected but Columbia's Lions sprang a sensational upset by tossing Dartmouth for a 13-7 as A. Barabas closed his illegitimate career in a blaze of glory, Western Maryland upset Georgetown, 14-0, in the other eastern fixture of the day.

Auburn whipped Florida, 27-6, in a Southeastern conference engagement but Georgia fell before Georgia Tech, 19-7, and Mississippi outpointed Mississippi state, 14-6. Baylor's fighting team handed Rice an unexpected jolt, 8-0, in the southwest.

Slash Colorado Freight Rates

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30. (AP)—The interstate commerce commission rejected today a plea of Colorado Petroleum companies that freight rates on refined petroleum products in car loads, from points in Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas be reduced.

The commission held that existing rates were not unreasonable, and dismissed the complaint filed by the Ace Petroleum company and several others against the railroads.

Reductions were sought in rates from Augusta, Kan., to Denver, Pueblo and Trinidad, Colo., from 46 cents to 39 cents per 100 pounds. Complainants asked that the rate from Tulsa to the same points be reduced from 48.5 cents to 41.5 and from South Texas points, from 53.5 cents to 46.5 cents.

The suggested reduction from Amarillo was from 46.5 cents to 39 cents.

The complaints compared rates with from Wyoming points to justify their contention for reduced shipping costs. The commission held, however, that existing rates conformed with custom on petroleum shipments throughout the area, and that the evidence did not warrant the proposed cut.

Fat Wife Slays Broker Husband Over Red-Head

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 30. (AP)—Plump Mrs. Dumbrell, crying "I don't believe in divorce," was arraigned today on a charge of murdering her husband in a quarrel over an "other woman."

"You see what I am—short and fat," she wept. "That's why I lost my husband."

The broker, 59-year-old John H. Dumbrell, was shot as he and his wife argued over Dumbrell's asserted attention to a red-haired telephone operator, officers were told. Mrs. Dumbrell identified the woman only as "Mrs. Gladys Jones."

"I went to the woman's apartment and had a showdown with her," Inspector William Stanton said the 50-year-old matron told him.

"She refused to give up my husband. I suffered in silence for 20 years but I should never have gone to that woman's house. I knew she was living in a luxurious apartment that she certainly was not able to provide for herself."

The Dumbrells were married 27 years ago and have a 19-year-old son, John, Jr.

"I shot my boy's own father with my own gun," the inspector quoted her. "I did it for the boy's sake, just as I have spent 20 years in torment."

FORT WORTH, Nov. 30 (AP)—In a sensational Southwest conference battle, the Southern Methodist Mustangs slashed and passed their way to the gate of California's Rose Bowl today with a 20 to 14 victory over a powerful Texas Christian aggregation.

It made the Mustangs' eleventh consecutive victory this season and left them undefeated and needing only one more game to clinch the conference championship. They play Texas A. & M. Saturday at College Station.

It was a bitter defeat for the Christians who went into the game with an undefeated record that boasted ten victories over some of the country's best teams.

Mississippi Wins From State 14-6

UNIVERSITY, Miss., Nov. 30 (AP)—Fleet footed backs of the University of Mississippi today broke thru the powerful Mississippi State line that had lowered the colors of the Army and Alabama, and Mississippi won 14 to 6.

After State had narrowly missed tying the score in the final period when Bob Finley passed to Maco Stewart for first down on the Christians' nine yard line, and on the next play, a lateral from Finley to Wilson, the speedy Wilson circled left end for a touchdown. Orr again kicked goal.

After going through the first half with a 14 to 0 lead the Mustang attack was completely stopped in the third period, but not that of the Christians. They started a drive from the Mustang 27-yard line that netted a touchdown when Jimmy Lawrence plowed center for one yard and a mauler, Roach kicked goal from placement. This touchdown started in Mustang territory after Finley had punted poorly out of bounds on the Mustang 27-yard line.

Texas Christian deadlocked the score early in the fourth period on a march that really started when Baugh passed to Lawrence for a first down on the Mustang 25-yard line. Baugh then passed to Walls for first down on the Mustang 27-yard line, then Baugh passed seven yard line to Jimmy Lawrence for a touchdown and Roach kicked goal from placement.

Then came the thunder and lightning of the game. On the fourth down on his 37 yard line, Bob Finley passed thirty yards to Robert Wilson who reached up and caught the ball while going from it. He tore through tacklers for the remaining seven yards and a touchdown. Orr missed goal but it did not matter, for that great catch by Wilson had clinched the game.

Free-For-All Tussle Marks LSU's Victory

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 30 (AP)—A free for all fight between several thousand students on the playing field climaxed the 41 to 0 victory of the Louisiana State Tigers over the Tulane Green Wave in their annual clash here today before 34,000 spectators, the largest crowd that ever witnessed a football game in Louisiana.

The fight started over possession of the goal posts, which had been electrically wired by Tulane students and being to thwart seizure by their enemies, but the Tigers tore away the wires, taking the shocks and carried away the posts. The battle ended with black eyes and bruised jaws while the police stood by good naturedly and let the boys have their fun.

The Tigers had a celebration coming to them as they had not won an unmarred victory over Tulane since 1926. The Tigers won in 1932, but that was the year influenza hit the Green Wave.

Today's victory made them the undisputed champions of the Southeastern conference and placed them on the eligible list for either California's Rose bowl or Louisiana's Sugar bowl. It was the first time since 1908 that LSU has dominated southern football but today they could not have swept anything in the South into the cash can.

The Tigers were the complete masters of the Greens after the first five minutes of the game. In the third quarter the score standing 27 to 0, the Greens visibly wilted, losing all hope of victory and being content to direct their efforts at holding down the score.

At the opening of the fourth quarter, Bernie Moore, Tiger coach, started sending in substitutes and before the game ended he had used every man on the bench. The beat-up and groggy Wave could not muster enough spirit and spunk to score against the second and third string Tigers.

The game ended with Tulane making desperate passing efforts but the Tigers kept pounding until the entire game with Germand frequently stopping the Owl ball carriers.

Wallace, all-American halfback last year, was given an ovation when he left the game just before it ended. Wallace made numerous beautiful runs, recovered, but was unable to score.

The crowd was estimated at approximately 34,000.

BAYLOR BEATS FAVORED RICE OWLS 8 TO 0

BEARS FINISH IN TIE FOR THIRD PLACE WITH OWLS

HOUSTON, Nov. 30 (AP)—A Baylor line which leaked badly in midfield here today would not give in the shadow of its goal posts and the Bears blanketed the favored Rice Owls 8 to 0.

By staking the upset the Bears finished in a tie with the Rice men for third place in the Southwest conference race.

It was a sad final appearance for 13 Owl seniors who have done most to lift Rice from comparative gridiron obscurity to a prominent place in the national football picture. John McCauley, whose bull-headed rushes have accounted for hundreds of yards, was unable to play, but the Bears rose to such heights when their goal was in danger that it is doubtful if he would have been able to turn the tide.

Score in Second
A lightning-like thrust in the second quarter gave the invaders the only score they needed. The Bears took a Rice punt on the Owl 43. A pass from Russell to Mansker put the ball on the 20, a fumble lost seven yards but Germand flipped a short pass to Lloyd Russell and the carrying quarterback sprinted and squirmed to the six yard line. The Rice forwards, who often have accomplished great goal line stands, were not equal to the occasion. Germand smashed right guard for 3 yards and Bob Masters drove the remaining three through the opposite guard.

The Owls made 17 first downs to 7 for the Bears and rolled up the huge total of 291 yards by rushing to 88 for the Bears. Whenever the Kitsmen got past midfield, however, they found it exceedingly difficult to pack up even two or three yards.

The Owls who have probably the poorest pass offense in the conference would have been in better shape today if they had not tried a single toss. They completed two for short gains but three were intercepted. Rust's heaves were not as successful as usual but he completed eight of 23 for 65 yards.

The safety against Rice came on the last play of the game.

Russell Kicks Well
Russell, one of the best kickers of the Southwest, kicked the Owl ball almost to their goal with a long, high one. With the ball on the six yard line, the Owls called for a play from spread formation and Ray Smith dropped back behind the goal. He fumbled the pass from center, recovered, but was unable to run it out.

It would be hard to pick the defensive standouts for Baylor, Kimbriel, substitute end, halted the Owl's strongest scoring bid by tossing Bill Wallace for a seven yard loss. The Football Tribune was only four yards from a touchdown. Earl Wray played an excellent game at end while Williams, end, and Parry, tackle contributed some nice defensive work. Three of the Baylor backs, Germand, Russell, and Brance, were in the game with Germand frequently stopping the Owl ball carriers.

Wallace, all-American halfback last year, was given an ovation when he left the game just before it ended. Wallace made numerous beautiful runs, recovered, but was unable to score.

The crowd was estimated at approximately 9,000.

SISLER EXPECTS TO RETURN TO ST. LOUIS AS PART OWNER

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 29 (AP)—George Sisler, who experienced the glory and misfortunes of baseball in a decade with the St. Louis Browns, expects to return to the team as part owner.

Sisler, once considered the best first baseman in baseball and one time Browns' manager, confirmed reports last night that he and a group of St. Louis sportsmen and business men plan to buy the American league club.

"We know just about how much it will take to buy the club," he said, "and it looks like we'll have little trouble raising the necessary amount."

He said the St. Louis group had been in touch with Louis B. Von Weise of New York, president of the Browns and trustee of the estate of Phil Ball, owner of the Browns.

"Sisler, who managed the team after suffering eye trouble at the height of his playing career, said his projected return to the diamond would not be in an active role.

"Horriaby will do the managing," he asserted.

Among those to be associated in the project to purchase the Browns are Frank Ruppenthal, owner of the Flyers in the American Hockey association; Ed. Steffen, fur dealer; Edward Matigus, brewery vice president; Eugene Fustian, business man; Walter M. Smith, department store manager; and Edward Marsh, partner of Sisler in promoting softball league contests.

Only one student from Gray county is registered this year at John Threlton Agricultural college, Stephenville; Johnny Gatlin, the college has a total enrollment of 1,000, with students from 138 Texas counties and two other states.

GAELS WHIPPED
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 30 (AP)—Washington State's Cougars came from behind to tie the favored St. Mary's Gaels, 7 to 7, in their football game here today before 16,000 fans. The Gaels passed to a touchdown in the second period, but the Cougars, led by their brilliant quarterback, Ed Goddard, knotted the score in the final quarter.

ARMY SHELL-SHOCKS NAVY IN FIRST QUARTER FOR VICTORY

MIDSHIPMEN DEFEATED 28-6, DOMINATE LAST HALF

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 30 (AP)—Army fired all his long range scoring ammunition today in the first 30 minutes, but the results were sufficiently devastating to give the Cadets an unexpectedly overwhelming lead and offset a spectacular comeback by the Midshipmen.

West Point's warriors emerged badly battered but triumphant, 28 to 6, in an extraordinary struggle for service football supremacy, before a crowd of 81,000 that filled Franklin field.

Army's margin was the biggest in 32 years, exceeded only by the 40 to 5 rout of the Navy away back in 1903, but it exaggerated the difference between two teams that alternated in turning loose attacks of terrific intensity.

Bewildered and shell shocked by an army barrage that produced better than a point-a-minute at the outset of the game, the Midshipmen came back to dominate the play completely in the last half. The trouble with the Navy's counter-thrust was that it didn't have the scoring punch to capitalize repeated opportunities and the Sailors consequently yielded the honors gained so brilliantly on the same gridiron a year ago.

Score in 3 Minutes
Led by the speedy Ed (Whitey) Grove and the versatile Charles (Monk) Meyer, Army's regulars struck with such fire and accuracy that they settled the game in the first period. Less than three minutes after the kickoff and on their second play after getting possession of the ball, the Cadets shook Grove loose down the sidelines for 80 yards and a touchdown.

The same Grove took a 23-yard pass from Meyer and ran ten yards unimpeded for another tally. Shortly, Clint (Tarzan) True was on the receiving end of a 12-yard pass from Meyer and raced 30 yards for the third Army touchdown.

All this was accomplished in less than the full 15 minutes of the opening period while the Navy's followers sat stunned by the proceedings.

But they were no more bewildered than the blue-shirted players from Annapolis who were obviously demoralized for the time being, unable to pull themselves together with the aid of the repeated replacements and easily beaten back by a 43-yard drive that produced Army's final touchdown early in the second quarter. Bill Crook, Cadet field general, bucked over to the fourth tally from the two-yard line after Meyer rolled off several brilliant runs. Grove booted his fourth successive placement for the extra point and ran his total contribution up to 16 points for the day.

Iron Men Crack
The picture changed with equally startling swiftness in the second half. Launching a savage counter attack, the Midshipmen ran wild with Jack Schmidt, substitute Cadet of a succession of thrilling drives, but penalties, intercepted passes and fumbles kept the navy team from taking full advantage of gains by land and air that they were calculated to wipe out most of Army's tremendous lead.

Under terrific pressure and being rapidly Army's "iron men" cracked, and, one by one, limped off the field during the final half but their gallant defense was sufficient to stop all but one of Navy's smashing rushes. Schmidt, shedding tacklers like a duck sheds water throughout the last two periods, slid off tackle from the one yard line for Navy's only score on the first play of the final quarter, the climax of a 60-yard advance, but the Sailors missed four other opportunities to score because of over-anxiety or poor ball-handling at critical stages.

Hot Temper Flares
So fiercely was Navy's second half offensive matched by Army's defensive tactics in the danger zones there were fistfights in the period, but nothing serious happened. On a play that resulted in the injury and removal of Jack Erikson, big Army tackle, there was a sudden display of hot temper. Gordon Kimbrell, substitute Cadet and guard, swung a left hook in the direction of a Navy chin, apparently on the theory there had been some unnecessary rough handling of Erikson. The punch didn't land, however, and cooler heads prevailed before there was any further outbreak.

Thereafter, however, the tackling was of the most savage variety on both sides and none of the Army's erstwhile "60 minute men" was rugged enough to go the entire distance.

DALLAS CONFIDENT SMU WILL GET BID TO ROSE BOWL TILT

FORT WORTH, Nov. 30 (AP)—Husky friends of close to 20,000 Southern Methodist fans who came to see their Mustangs knock over a great Texas Christian team, 20-14, gave one last demonstration after the game here today.

Around the bus that housed the gallant, undefeated Methodist Christians clustered the Mustang fans—and those who wore Texas Christian colors.

Perhaps a little off tune, but wildly enthusiastic the mob shrieked tunes of:

"California, Here We Come"

Music by the famed Southern Methodist Mustang band was drowned out. The "Rose Bowlers" shrieked; threw hats and refused to leave the stadium until they had acclaimed the greatest of all Southern Methodist teams; the "Wearly a great Mustang team grinned and waved at supporters.

Not a person in the stadium had any doubts that the Mustangs would be invited to oppose Stanford in the Tournament of Roses classic at Pasadena on New Year's day.

The crowd of nearly 37,000 had a field day for thrills and after the last gun, all joined in a spectacular demonstration for the Southwest's winner team—the Methodists of Dallas.

Until the final facing seconds of play, Texas Christian shot at a winning touchdown and shot effectively.

Southern Methodist's noted "Aerial circus," arrived in all its splendor on two breath-taking plays, had all 37,000—not just Mustang supporters—gasping at a pair of the most dazzling aerials seen in years on a southwest gridiron.

When Bob Finley, Southern Methodist halfback, rocketed a 37-yard pass in the second period that Maco Stewart, end, caught while falling to his churning knees, delectable broke loose on a 30-yard Methodist touchdown came.

The winning touchdown found a hoarse mob tossing fedoras like confetti. Again this pass having Finley youth threw long and true and little Bobby Wilson, 147-pound half-back scrapping for all-American honors, leaped high in the corner of the end zone to catch the flying leather with sticky hands and slipped across with the back-breaking maker.

It was a throw that traveled 40 yards and was brilliantly caught. And the mob sang "California, Here We Come," until the stands were left to cushion boys.

Rambling Wreck Trounces Georgia

ATLANTA, Nov. 30 (AP)—After six lean seasons the Golden Tornado of Georgia Tech thundered to a 19 to 7 victory over its neighboring enemy, the Georgia Bulldogs.

It was the 30th clash between the schools since 1893. Tech's triumph gave the engineers a record of 3 wins and four losses in the Southeastern conference race. Georgia finished with two triumphs and four defeats.

Georgia drove 80 yards for a touchdown in the first period and the Tornado roared by traveling 79 yards for a touchdown in the second period. Tech made a further drive of 54 yards to Georgia's goal the third and scored in the closing quarter from the 20-yard stripe after recovering a Bulldog fumble.

Georgia, after their lone touchdown, advanced to within scoring territory four other times, but was checked.

Stratton Gets Away For 47-Yard Jaunt

The McLean Tigers are champions of District 3B in Class B by virtue of a third quarter 47-yard jaunt by Co-Capt. Stratton, full-back, who shook his injured knee and outdistanced his pursuers in the play-off game on Harvesters field Friday afternoon with the Shamrock Irishmen. Their first meeting was a 7-7 tie.

McLean won, 6 to 0, Stratton's kick for point being low. Although the Irish penetrated the Tiger 20-yd. zone three times, they were unable to connect with passes and their line play bogged down. The first quarter leaned heavily toward Shamrock, but McLean fought back with three first downs in the second period to one for Shamrock.

The fateful third quarter was fought on nearly even terms until Stratton broke through the left side and was away from near mid-field. In the final stanza, Shamrock hurled back a little luck, and the period ended with McLean rushing the ball to Shamrock's 6-yard line after intercepting a pass. Fine Exhibition

It was a battle of eager teams, comparing very favorably with the Harvesters-Sandis battle of the previous day. About 3,500 fans cheered the eleven. For Coaches Bill Allen and Henry Loter, and McLean folk generally, it was an especially welcome victory, inasmuch as Stratton's injury had been expected to weaken the Tigers materially.

Both outfits fought valiantly. McIntyre and Wells in the Irish backfield and Trostle and Mills in the line were particularly effective, while for McLean there was none greater than Stratton and Cunningham in the backfield and McCarty in the line. The McLean ends were effective, and the secondary knocked down many passes.

Colorful Display Specially uniformed high school bands paraded during the intermission. Shamrock's green-and-gold band marched in solid formation with the pep squad, led by a young lady as drum major, Miss Dessie Catherine Lewis. McLean's black-and-gold band followed, led by Miss Modell Beasley as drum major. The pep squad girls, wearing coats with Tigers on the backs, did formations. All the visitors were warmly applauded. McLean adherents were on the west side and those of Shamrock on the east side.

McLean will face Matador in the bi-district clash. The time and place of the contest will likely be decided this evening. The winner will meet the winner of the Panhandle-Herford game.

Pampa Is Thanked The visitors expressed their thanks to the Pampa school board and school officials for use of the Harvesters stadium and for courtesies extended. Supt. C. A. Cryer of McLean asked THE NEWS to express his appreciation and to "make it strong."

Motion Picture Strike Called, Report Claims

CHICAGO, Nov. 30. (AP)—A nation wide strike of motion picture operators employed in Paramount theaters was reported to have been called tonight, allegedly because of disagreement between Hollywood studios and major theatrical circuits. The strike was said to have forced several theaters in Illinois to close. Balaban and Katz reported its 40 theaters in Chicago were closed for a short time, but had reopened. Members of the Motion Picture Operators Union refused to say why the strike had been called or that one had been ordered. They referred all queries to George E. Brown, president of the union, now in Washington.

Invitations will be extended to Dr. J. H. Hill, president of West Texas State Teachers college, Canyon. Representative Eugene Worley, and others.

New NRA Bill Is Ready for Solons

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30. (AP)—A new NRA bill was reported authoritatively today to be ready for swift submission to congress, should business show signs of wanting it. In the same informed quarter it was stated that President Roosevelt had been advised of the basic provisions of the measure and had expressed no objections.

It provisions were guarded but more than one in a position to know said it would: 1. Re-state the power of congress to regulate interstate commerce and add activities which "substantially affect" interstate commerce; 2. Permit application of voluntary codes to businesses engaged in such commerce;

3. Forbid price-fixing in codes except for natural resources and in restraint of monopolies. (Natural resources might be eliminated in view of the expectation of some new dealers that the Guffey coal bill will weather the supreme court).

PRINCETON MAY BE INVITED TO ROSEBOWL TILT

Tiger Officials Hint Offer Might Be Accepted

PASADENA, Calif., Nov. 30. (AP)—An undefeated team will be invited by Stanford for the Rose Bowl game here new year's day. This was the promise of Alfred Masters, Stanford graduate manager, before he left for Palo Alto tonight.

"All I can say now is that an undefeated team will be invited to play in the Rose Bowl," said Masters. "I will announce the team when I return Tuesday."

While western fans were clamoring for Southern Methodist as a result of its victory over Texas Christian at Fort Worth today, a letter from Princeton indicated that the university might listen to an invitation. The only other major undefeated team is Minnesota, forbidden a post season game by Big Ten rules.

The Princeton letter was from Burrham N. Dezell, chairman of the council on athletics, to H. C. Willett, chairman of the Pacific coast conference.

"Princeton alumni and undergraduates have been greatly disturbed," it said, "by the manner in which a recent editorial of the Daily Princetonian, the undergraduate paper, has misrepresented the attitude of the University toward the annual Rose Bowl football game."

"The viewpoint of the editorial is not that of the athletic authorities of Princeton, and I am writing to make this clear to you."

Well added that Princeton authorities would consider it an honor to be listed as a team worthy of competing in the Rose Bowl but hastened to add that the school has been governed by policy that is opposed to post-season games.

"Princeton authorities have never questioned the character of the management of the Rose Bowl game," he concluded. "And I hope you will dissociate these authorities from any such charges."

LUCKY NIMROD CORPUS CHRISTI, Nov. 30. (AP)—T. E. Braniff of Oklahoma City, president of the Braniff Airways, set a record for local hunters to shoot at when he obtained his limits in ducks and geese and killed a 12-point buck during a three-day visit in Corpus Christi.

JURY CALLED MATADOR, Nov. 30. (AP)—A special jury called to investigate the slaying of J. E. Speegle here on Nov. 22 returned three felony and sixteen misdemeanor indictments late yesterday. It was revealed today. The indictments, including mainly charges of gaming, resulted from circumstances connected with the slaying, officials said.

FAT WIFE SLAYS BROKER HUSBAND OVER RED-HEAD SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 30. (AP)—Plump Mrs. Dumbrell, crying, "I don't believe in divorce," was arraigned today on a charge of murdering her husband in a quarrel over an "other woman."

"You see what I am—short and fat," she wept. "That's why I lost my husband."

The broker, 59-year-old John H. Dumbrell, was shot as he and his wife argued over Dumbrell's asserted attention to a red-haired telephone operator, officers were told. Mrs. Dumbrell identified the woman only as "Mrs. Gladys Jones."

"I went to the woman's apartment and had a showdown with her," Inspector William Stanton said the 50-year-old matron told him.

"She refused to give up my husband. I suffered in silence for 20 years but I should never have gone to that woman's house. I knew she was living in a luxurious apartment that she certainly was not able to provide for herself."

The Dumbrells were married 27 years ago and have a 19-year-old son, John, Jr.

"I shot my boy's own father with my boy's own gun," the inspector quoted her. "I did it for the boy's sake, just as I have spent 20 years in torment."

LUBBOCK WOMAN NAMED CORSICANA, Nov. 30. (AP)—Miss Dunn of Lubbock was elected president as Texas music teachers concluded their twenty-second annual convention here today. Dallas was selected as the 1936 meeting place.

PRINCETON PILES UP 28-7 VICTORY AT NEW HAVEN

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Nov. 30.—(AP)—Yale's football team fell a victim of Princeton's hit-and-run gridiron machine today as the Tigers wound up their second unbeaten and untied season in three years. The score was 28 to 7.

Virtually stalled in the opening period, the big Tiger machine started picking up momentum in the second, and operated with crushing force in the final chapter. In that period it ground out four touchdowns to register the biggest score Princeton has ever plastered on Yale in the 62 years of the series. The crowd was estimated at close to 60,000.

Larry Kelley, the elusive and loquacious Yale end, who caught the touchdown pass last year that resulted in Princeton's only defeat of the 1934 season, spared the ill a whitewashing.

Early in the fourth period, Kelley took a position in the corner of the end zone and caught a long, looping 30 yard pass thrown by Jerry Roscoe.

Midway through the second period Ken Sandback kicked a 15 yard field goal from placement and then several minutes later Skittery Jack White, a reserve Tiger back, scored the first touchdown in the fourth period. White tallied again; Captain Pepper Constable scored twice and Sandback contributed a touchdown. Sandback kicked all five points after touchdown.

Except for the touchdown in the second period, which resulted from a 40 yard drive, the honors were almost even in the first half. Each team scored four first downs and Princeton gained 78 yards rushing to 52 for Yale.

In the second half Princeton completely dominated the play, rolling up nine first downs to Yale's four and outgaining the Blues 154 yards to 54.

Scenes reminiscent of the closing minutes of the Yale-Dartmouth game here a few weeks ago were re-enacted when the goalposts were uprooted. The contest was over. With about two minutes to play today a mob of spectators pulled down the Princeton uprights and then another crowd at the opposite end of the field threatened to level the goalposts.

Sandback had a chance to try for the point after touchdown. Officials used force in fighting the mob back, but after Sandback made the kick the posts were leveled and the game was finished without posts.

ICC Refuses to Slash Colorado Freight Rates

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30. (AP)—The interstate commerce commission rejected today a plea of Colorado Petroleum companies that freight rates on refined petroleum products in car loads, from points in Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas be reduced.

The commission held that existing rates were not unreasonable, and dismissed the complaint filed by the Ace Petroleum company and several others against the railroads.

Reductions were sought in rates from Augusta, Kan., to Denver, Pueblo and Trinidad, Colo., from 46 cents to 39 cents per 100 pounds. Complainants asked that the rate from Tulsa to the same points be reduced from 48.5 cents to 41.5 and from South Texas points, from 53.5 cents to 46.5 cents.

The suggested reduction from Amarillo was from 48.5 cents to 39 cents.

The complaints compared rates with Wyoming points to justify their contention for reduced shipping costs. The commission held, however, that existing rates conformed with custom on petroleum shipments throughout the area, and that the evidence did not warrant the proposed cut.

NEW POWER DISCUSSED VIENNA, Nov. 30. (AP)—Diplomats speculated today upon the possible formation of a "new central European power" after discussions this week between Austrian and Hungarian statesmen here. In official quarters it was said a unity of objectives has been established between the members of the pre-world-war empire.

Mrs. A. E. Cowan and infant son left Pampa-Jarrett hospital for their home in Miami Saturday.

JIMMY LAWRENCE IS TCU'S STAR

FORT WORTH, Nov. 30. (AP)—Galloping Jimmy Lawrence added new achievements to an already brilliant career as a Texas Christian university football player today by his leadership of the attack that threatened at any moment to defeat Southern Methodist's Mustangs.

The halfback from Harlingen, Texas, playing his last game at home, was in the middle of so many plays that news photographers comparing notes after the game was over, found him an identifiable and active figure in more than three-fourths of their action pictures.

It was a fitting climax to a career that already had won Lawrence recognition as one of the greatest running backs in the Southwest conference in years.

Barring post-season games, Lawrence, a senior, has only one more game to play for T. C. U. That will be against Santa Clara on the Pacific coast.

In today's contest he gained 60 yards in 15 running plays to gain unquestioned rank as the Horned Frogs' foremost ball carrier.

He caught four passes, and scored both of the T. C. U. touchdowns. It was only after a leg injury forced him out of the game that the deciding score was made on a pass over the position he had vacated.

SMU LOOKING LIKE CERTAIN BOWL NOMINEES

LOUISIANA STATE WINS SOUTHWESTERN TITLE

BY HERBERT W. BARKER Associated Press Sports Writer Southern Methodist's football Mustangs all but qualified for Pasadena's Rose bowl game yesterday as Princeton wound up its second undefeated and untied season in three years; Army captured the annual service duel with Navy, and Louisiana state won the Southeastern conference championship.

The galloping Mustangs, though badly crippled, toppled Texas Christian, 20 to 14, in a sensational battle between the Southwest's two undefeated and untied arrays at Fort Worth.

Already mentioned prominently as a possible opponent for Stanford in the Rose Bowl game New Year's day, Southern Methodist looks now like an almost certain nominee for that post-season classic.

Princeton's powerful Tigers scored 28 points in the last quarter to climax a brilliant campaign with a crushing 38-7 defeat of Yale. Nearly 60,000 saw Yale hold Princeton to a 10-0 advantage for three periods but, once the Tigers got under way it was strictly a tiger game. Army's fine first team picked up 21 points in a terrific first period drive and then stalled off Navy's furious counter-charge in the second half to win the service duel, 28-6, before 81,000 fans in Philadelphia.

Louisiana state's Tigers gained clear title to the southeastern crown by brushing Tulane aside, 41-0. Tulane made a fight of it in the first half but the Tigers rushed over 27 points in the third quarter to clinch the verdict beyond all doubt.

Holy Cross, unbeaten but tied by Manhattan, wound up its season by thumping its main rival, Boston college, 20-6, as had been expected but Columbia's Lions sprang a sensational upset by tossing Dartmouth for a loss, 13-7, as Al Barabas closed his collegiate career in a blaze of glory. Western Maryland upset Georgetown, 14-0, in the other eastern fixture of the day.

Auburn whipped Florida, 27-6, in a Southeastern conference engagement but Georgia fell before Georgia Tech, 19-7, and Mississippi outpointed Mississippi state, 14-6. Baylor's fighting team handed Rice an unexpected jolt, 8-0, in the southwest.

KILL 12 REBELS MEXICO CITY, Nov. 30. (AP)—Federal troops, continuing their drive on rebel forces in the mountains of Jalisco, killed twelve insurgents in a battle today. The leader of another rebel group, Simon Uru-turia, was reported to have surrendered with several of his men.

SANTA CLAUS

And then he gave me his answer. More Than Expected.

"You may tell the boys and girls of Pampa and territory that I will go back with you and Mrs. K." he said.

Pampa's Junior chamber of commerce has announced the following full program for the annual Santa day of December 6:

10 a. m.—Free showing for children of Captain Kleinschmidt's movies of expedition to Santa Clausland.

2:30 p. m.—Doll and buggy, pet and hobby parade of children.

6 p. m. First showing of special street and show window decorations.

7:30 p. m.—All-Panhandle premiere at La Nora theater, with a radio broadcast over KGNC.

10 p. m.—Santa day dance at Flor-Mor auditorium.

And his eyes twinkled as he said it. For no one knows any better than Santa just how much pleasure he can give by such a visit.

I was so delighted that I jumped into the air and clicked my heels together three times before I came down. It was almost more than I had expected when I came up here.

I thought that the most I could get would be some moving pictures and that I might possibly arrange to have Santa talk on the radio some evening. But now he actually has promised to go back to Pampa with us.

When will you be ready to start? Santa asked. This question brought me back to sane thinking again for you can imagine how thrilled I was at his promise.

Our baggage, including our precious motion picture camera, were all packed, and we only had to transfer them to the airplanes. These were standing ready in their snow hangars and the motors only needed warming up. Still I had to take a look at and settle many things that had to be done.

We settled with Patnuk and Kit-seena, our faithful Eskimos, and everything we could spare and which we actually did not have to use on our flight home we left with them and it proves to be quite a heap of goods, making them virtually millionaires in Eskimoland.

Our rifles and ammunition, of course, topped the list in value, because this meat food in the shape of seal, walrus and polar bear. A pair of binoculars were priceless to them because they made your eyes ache and they were not used to them. The whole village wanted to club together and buy one of the airplanes if a white man would stay.

Gave Eskimo Flashlight

We did not wish to offend these kind and childlike people, so we had to invent excuses, but sometimes we were hard pressed for it. For instance, I gave Kitseema my flashlight which had been of great help to us in the dark looking for things around camp. Even Layluk could not blow out its light. I gave him extra batteries and showed him the simple use of it.

Now another Eskima came up with some beautiful white fox skins and offered them for an electric light bulb. He had seen the fine light it gave, and would not that have solved so many problems for them in their house where they had to use seal oil and render moss for light? It was as simple as the flashlight, for all you had to do was hang the bulb on a string and turn a little knob.

So you see we had to use infinite tact for an Eskimo, like most uneducated people will respect you and quickly judge you according to what you say and do.

The Eskimos are the most truthful people in the world and if one of them should ever tell a lie, he would be ostracized by the whole village.

Mrs. K. also divested herself of everything she could spare and robbed us in the bargain. If we should have an accident on the way home it will go hard with us, for we won't have a pot to cook in, a needle or thread nor a tent to pitch camp. The only thing I am sure she has left is her wedding ring.

The airplanes have been rolled out of the snow hangar and the motors are running, we have to dismantle the wireless set and I have to sign off. I wonder how Santa is going to get his trip up here.

He's laughing and joking with Mrs. K. He thinks the trip is going to be a very pleasant one, and I feel he will be of great help in bad weather and flying over the first thousand miles back to Hudson Bay.

He certainly knows the country and even knows where to land. It is so rare that one meets with an entirely disinterested enthusiastic care for the welfare of others who are connected with us with ties only of common brotherhood, nay, to whom the general good and national elevation lies nearest to heart.

I am more deeply sympathized with you in the indignation you felt at the low ground and stealthy way your antagonist had taken in this important matter. Alas! it can hardly be hoped, that it was only your illness which prevented him from consulting you. The facts as given in your open letter cannot fail to impress every unbiased mind with the unjust, untimely opposition you received and draw attention to the ready constitutional opportunities, for the thorough paralysis of the executive.

"I only hope that this new experience will not conduce to abate your patriotic fervor and that you will do your utmost not to deliver the country into the hands of the demagogues at the next election. But if we had not so admired in you the greatness strength which knows of no self pity, who could prevail on you to tread this road any farther?"

"Since I experienced how much business encroaches on my own time of recreation, and knowing your desire to take account of the farthest thoughts of our age, I often wished to send some highly interesting reading matter to you, which I met with in condensed shape. Perhaps you will give me permission to do so in future. I take the liberty to send you a 'Calender' of the University college, London, which is considered one of the best organized schools. I have to ask you to return the copy after you found leisure to look into it, but it is at your disposal for several months."

"I am afraid you sometimes thought I had deserted our plan for adorning the capitol. My order has not abated. I feel convinced since my last visit to you and since I made the acquaintance on the last business encroaches on my own time of recreation, and knowing your desire to take account of the farthest thoughts of our age, I often wished to send some highly interesting reading matter to you, which I met with in condensed shape. Perhaps you will give me permission to do so in future. I take the liberty to send you a 'Calender' of the University college, London, which is considered one of the best organized schools. I have to ask you to return the copy after you found leisure to look into it, but it is at your disposal for several months."

"I do not think a statue—some over life-size—could be done for less.

EX-CONVICT SLAIN After Robbery of Filling Station

MARSHALL, Nov. 30. (AP)—Bullets ended the criminal career of an ex-convict today after he was caught robbing a filling station at Woodlawn, eight miles north of Marshall.

Roy Perry, 40, released from the Texas penitentiary only a few months ago, was shot down by Estell C. Cummings, owner of the filling station, as he fled to an automobile he had parked near by.

Cummings said Perry slugged him with an iron pipe when he caught him attempting to rob the station. After a tussle, Perry broke away and ran for the car. Cummings shot him twice as he ran.

The ex-convict managed to reach the car and drive about 200 yards before dying behind the steering wheel.

The car, bearing Gregg county license plates, was believed to have been stolen at Longview.

Officers said Perry had been sent to prison from Fort Worth for burglary. He was given a six-year term and was released early this year.

Perry was suspected of robbing the filling station of L. D. McNeil at Woodlawn recently.

SEWING AND SOLDIER

HUNDREDS ARE AT CONVENTION OF DOUGHBOYS

14 SEWING PROJECTS ARE OPENED IN THIS AREA

Sewing and ex-soldiers were the talk of nearby towns in the last week as sewing rooms opened in all towns in this area, and as ex-soldiers prepared to attend the district convention of the Legion at Borger.

Fourteen sewing room projects were opened in district 16 of the Works Progress administration, on Wednesday, November 27, and recognition has been issued to the National Reemployment Service for 274 employable women to be taken from relief rolls.

Points at which sewing rooms were opened are as follows: Panhandle, Wellington, Dalhart, Hereford, Pampa, McLean, Spearman, Borger, Higgins, Perryton, Wheeler, Shamrock, Canyon and Canadian.

Hundreds of ex-service men from the 18th congressional district of 23 counties are expected to fill Borger Saturday and Sunday for the annual American Legion convention.

Kit Carson Post, Panhandle, will make an effort to enlist its membership 100 per cent for the convention, as Borger is offering $25 cash to the post having the largest percentage of its membership in attendance.

Hutchinson County Post No. 412, Borger, will be host to the Legionnaires. For weeks the Borger post and Auxiliary have been making plans for the convention.

The Panhandle post delegation will be headed by Mike Purvines, commander.

Commander O. B. Hunt of the Hutchinson county post, will sound the charge and a thousand Legionnaires will take the city of Borger by storm for the eighteenth district convention Saturday and Sunday.

The invading legions of Legionnaires will find no resistance on the march into the city as citizens have opened their portals to make the two-day encampment a memorable occasion for the visitors.

A big parade to include all visiting delegations, with the auxiliaries also represented, went through the business district Saturday afternoon starting at 4:30.

Billy Wilson, 14 year old Gray county 4-H Club boy of McLean through his feeding operations during the past four years has won a trip to the National Boys' 4-H Club Congress to be held at Chicago, Dec. 1 to 7, according to County Agent Ralph R. Thomas. This trip is offered by the Santa Fe railway to state winners who live in counties touched by their lines.

The Gray County Singing convention will meet at the First Baptist Church in McLean Sunday afternoon, beginning at 1:30 o'clock.

A number of singing teachers, quartets and special musical organizations are expected to be present, and everyone is invited to attend.

Canadian will be represented at the 18th district convention of the American Legion being held at Borger. Some of those who expect to be present from here include Mr. and Mrs. Bill Krehbiel and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Johnson.

Miss Ruth Snyder of Canadian, who is a senior at Texas University Medical college, is one of the class to be chosen a member of Alpha Omega Alpha honorary scholastic medical fraternity, according to a story carried November 16, in the Galveston News.

Mrs. John Forbes of Wellington threatened to throw a wild party when she learned the auxiliary of the Methodist preacher would not arrive until Saturday—I can't feature that.

The Townsend club at Spearman, which was organized some weeks ago is growing in a most substantial way. The club now has about 130 paid up members. Some of the town's best citizens of Spearman and of this county are members of this club.

Compton C. Bull, commander of the Pierce Johnson American Legion post, and Mrs. H. Shindler, formerly of the auxiliary, are the Perryton state that Perryton will be well represented at the annual fall convention held at Borger.

THE DANGEROUS AGE

A wonderful age—when life is an unending voyage of discovery. Yet many parents have never learned these simple facts about eyesight protection during the critical growing years. That over strained during this period of development may do damage. hand, he sat here," he said. "The lady here, and the guest opposite here."
"Come here, Tony," he said. "See if you can get any prints off the silver."
He looked up at the waiter speculatively.
"Do you remember," he asked, "when you laid the places, did you happen to wipe off the silver with a napkin?"
The waiter looked at him blankly.
"Then your prints would probably be on it?"
"Yes. And also, perhaps, the prints of the bus boy who carries the silver from the place where it is washed and dried to the rack from which we collect it."
Larry turned to the manager.
"Find that bus boy and get him up here," he said. "Meanwhile—turning back to the waiter as the manager left, "let us have your fingerprints, will you?"
Grinning broadly, the waiter complied. The bus boy, looking very scared, was brought up a moment later, and his prints likewise were recorded. Then, dismissing the servants and the manager, Larry turned to LaRocco.
"Finding anything?"
"Plenty," said LaRocco grimly. "One of the other agents was wrapping up the odds and ends of discarded belongings that had been found in the place. There were not many; a nearly-empty tube of shaving cream, a necktie, a torn slip of pink silk half a dozen detective-story magazines, and so on. The other two were going over furniture and walls like ferrets, looking for anything and everything and finding nothing."
An hour later Larry made a final survey of the place, and nodded to the others.
"We're through here," he said. "Let's go."
As they reached the lobby he sought out the doorman.
"Where do the guests here usually park their cars?" he asked. The doorman named a commercial garage a block away.
LaRocco and Tommy Waters called a cab and went downtown, while the other three hurried to the garage. There Larry sought out the manager and produced once more his rogues' gallery portrait of Winy Lewis.
The manager studied it thoughtfully, then nodded.
"Looks like him," he said. "Once more Larry asked the in-

Brabham, former president of Texas Wesleyan college, Fort Worth, was formally presented. More than 4,000 visitors attended during the day, which climaxed the annual football game between McMurry and Abilene Christian college. The Osborne heretofore sale held at Amarillo last Saturday, is said to have broken all American price marks for the year. When J. P. Osborne, Roberts county ranchman, sold some American outstanding Prince Dominos heretofore sold from eight states in the union. Officials and buyers stated the auction was unequalled anywhere in the United States during 1935. The fifteen bulls sold at auction, averaged $471, and the average price for females sold in the ring was $371. Dolly Domino 8th, a 5-year-old female took top honors. She sold to Mrs. Lillian Mull, of San Diego, Texas, at the handsome price of $1,000. With the sale went a baby calf, one hour old. Monday marked the opening day of the first week of criminal hearings in the current November term of district court at Wheeler. First to be tried was the case of the state against Rex Warren, Shamrock, and Frank Moore and Lee Thompson, Pampa, convicted on a charge of murder in perpetration of a felony, negligent homicide, when driving a car on the highway while intoxicated. A penalty of two years in the penitentiary was assessed against each member of the trio. The case grew out of an automobile crash on highway 66 a few miles west of Lela on Oct. 2, when Finis Bumpers, 21, of near Shamrock and Clara Watson of Pampa lost their lives. Opening of two sewing rooms in Wheeler county, as WPA projects to provide employment for needy women and to create wearing apparel for relief clients, was announced yesterday. Interscholastic League officials decided last week that Meredith Kendrick of Groom was eligible to play high school football. Kendrick who played fullback position on the Groom team was contested by White Deer and did not play in the White Deer-Groom game, the game with Claude, nor the game with Phillips, but played under protest in the Panhandle-Groom game. KELL FOR HOME Joe Hill Jr., who suffered a broken leg in an automobile accident near LeFors November 19, left Pampa-Jarratt hospital Saturday morning for his home in Wichita Falls via Amarillo. He was taken to the local Santa Fe station in a G. C. Malone Funeral home ambulance. ARBITRATION DEFEATED HOUSTON, Nov. 30. (AP)—Efforts of the federal government to arbitrate the Gulf coast longshoremen's strike were defeated, at least for the present, today by the refusal of representatives of Houston steamship operators to meet with the mediation committee and longshoremen leaders.

BOLENS AS OFFICIALS SAY GOAL IS NEAR

TEXAS RELIEF NEEDS WILL FAR EXCEED MONEY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30. (AP)—Claiming success at placing the 3,500,000 able bodied unemployed in jobs where they could earn their own way, the administration tonight stood upon the assertion that its "dole contributions to the United States were ended."

With the arrival of the Dec. 1 deadline for the end of direct relief also came the passing of the federal emergency relief administration. The last big slice of its funds was split up last night among 22 final supplemental allotments, intended to carry on direct relief where the employment quotas have not yet been filled.

Although Harry L. Hopkins, dual chief of the expiring FEERA and the works progress administration, did not disclose new figures as to the number now employed on works projects, new deal spokesmen asserted that the goal of 3,500,000 jobs that the goal of 3,500,000

AUSTIN, Nov. 30. (AP)—State relief officials estimated today that demands for emergency assistance during the approaching winter months would far exceed the money now in sight.

They voiced the opinion that despite the help of the works progress administration a minimum of approximately 225,000 cases, or 1,000,000 persons, would seek state relief.

To continue assistance on the past basis of from $15 to $20 a month per case, it was said $12,000,000 would be needed, whereas only $3,000,000 was available now.

The federal government informed state headquarters that final grants of $1,000,000 had been made for general relief, $200,000 for the emergency education program.

J. T. Duke, assistant state relief director, said approximately $1,500,000 in state funds was on hand and probably another $100,000 or so was available at county and district headquarters.

"The peak in the past has been reached in January," Duke said, "and probably will this year. Then temporary jobs are at a minimum. We already are feeling additional pressure."

The works progress administration plans to absorb 120,300 cases now on, or expected to be on, state relief rolls. A total of 65,000 cases has been placed on WPA rolls to date, but remain on state rolls until the first WPA check in excess of $10 is received.

Tom Hickman To Be First Witness In Safety Probe

DALLAS, Nov. 30. (AP)—Chairman Sam Hanna said today the legislative committee named to investigate the Texas public safety commission would hold its first meeting at the Texas hotel in Fort Worth Tuesday, with the former Ranger Tom Hickman as its first witness.

Hanna said that Ranger Sid Kelso and several other witnesses had been summoned for the hearing. L. G. Phares, director of public safety, and members of the safety commission will be heard later at a hearing in Austin, Hanna added.

A Ranger raid on Top O' Hill Terrace, a resort between Dallas and Fort Worth, is expected to figure in the testimony. Hickman raised the resort unsuccessfully a short time before he was dismissed. A day or two after he raided it, two other Rangers surprised the resort guards, confiscated gambling equipment and made several arrests. The men arrested were notified by the Tarrant county grand jury.

Shorthorn Wins Feeding Contest

CHICAGO, Nov. 30. (AP)—Young Vincent Baker's thousand pound shorthorn steer, ten times heavier than his 14 year old master, was adjudged grand champion today of the 36th international live stock exposition's junior feeding contest.

Vincent is a freshman in Dodgeville, Wis. high school. His father, Gilvert, farms 200 acres near Edmond, Wis.

An Illinois youth, Lawrence Margan of Aledo, also 14 years old, fed and raised the glossy Aberdeen Angus calf which won the reserve grand champion's title.

Judge Walter Bigger, of Dalbert, famous Scotch authority on cattle, looked long and hard at Lawrence's steer "Barnum" before he suddenly jerked his thumb at the curly haired short horn shown by the Wisconsin youth.

The new grand champion which Vincent led from the exposition arena rejoiced in the name of "Hercules Marshall."

He won the purple ribbon, and a chance to compete against all the prize steers raised by older stock experts, over 245 other blue blooded steers entered by 291 farm boys and farm girls.

The ribbon was a death sentence for "Hercules Marshall," who will be sold in the exposition auctions.

ODDITIES IN THE NEWS

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 30. (AP)—Dr. Roderick MacDonald, director of the Philadelphia zoo, said today a lioness gave birth to triplets there. Dr. MacDonald said he hadn't seen the cubs, but detected three different "voices" as he listened outside a canvas covered cage.

The cage was covered to give the mother a sense of security and prevent any possibility of the cubs being destroyed, he said.

POMEROY, O., Nov. 30. (AP)—Guy Carson never knew how sympathetic the world can be until he bet his false teeth on a football game and lost.

The undefeated Middleport high school team was leading Pomeroxy 7 to 0, at the half. "I'll bet Middleport wins by four touchdowns," remarked Carson, an ardent roofer, to no one in particular. And just then his teeth fell out.

"Well, I'll just bet five dollars against those false teeth of yours," a stranger offered. They put the teeth and the money in a sack, and had another person hold the sack.

Middleport won, 19 to 0, the unidentified stranger collected the bet and disappeared, before Carson could find him.

Carson ran an ad: "I have a huge toothsome turkey which I will gladly give to the fellow who has my teeth and I'll eat hot dogs if he'll only return them."

Several hours after the ad was published, Carson called the newspaper and declared, "Gosh, that ad I've received is 107 sets of false teeth and none of them fits. False teeth owners are worrying me to death."

MOUNT CARMEL, Ill., Nov. 30. (AP)—Residents of the Wabash river bottoms and Johnson, Ind., across the river from here, are seeing and hearing things.

And they believe it is a wild animal. They have asked Sheriff Brazelton at Princeton, Ind., for aid.

The "terror" was described by one person as "big as a lion." Another said its tracks indicated it was a large cat. In the dead of night, so frightened citizens report, it stalks up to back doors and howls.

But no one has yet been attacked.

POPLAR BLUFF, Mo., Nov. 30. (AP)—"Uncle Joe" Cameron, 71, and a newlywed, was in jail tonight, accused of making "relief whiskey."

"I was on relief," United States Commissioner Arno Ponder quoted him, "but I heard I could get more if I was married—so I hunted me up a wife."

Ponder said "Uncle Joe" explained how he converted his increased relief allotment—"a batch of sugar and corn"—into homemade whiskey.

Grand Champion Born in Texas

MARFA, Tex., Nov. 30. (AP)—The grand champion of the international livestock show in Chicago, generally considered equivalent to a world's championship, were won today by Highland Herefords bred in the Highland area of West Texas by W. T. Jones.

The animals were sold by W. T. Mitchell and sons to Henry Harmon of Iowa who fed and exhibited them.

This was the third time in the 30-year history of the international show that herefords also took third, fifth and sixth places, as well as sixth place in the heavy cattle class.

The third prize cattle were bred by Smith brothers, and sold by W. B. Mitchell to Dave Webel of Illinois.

Pantless Youth Sent to Prison

FURGON, Okla., Nov. 30. (AP)—For going in public without customary trousers, Clifford Walthal, 22, lost his parole today.

When Deputy Sheriff Ed Rowland saw him on Texhoma's main street wearing only shoes and shorts, he decided the peace was being disturbed and brought him to jail without pausing for pants.

Wearing a borrowed pair in district court, Walthal heard the judge revoke his parole from a two-year term in the Granite reformatory.

GOP Fuss Causes Demos to Gloat

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30. (AP)—Stirrings of republican dissension over the presidential nomination rivaled differences over new deal spending in political significance tonight.

Capping a week which showed divisions forming more openly in the G. O. P., the party organization evidenced determination to press its "extravagance" issue despite President Roosevelt's ready acceptance of it at Atlanta.

The democratic national committee, through Charles Michelson, portrayed former President Hoover as "directly after the nomination, without ands, ifs or buts."

Increased comings and goings between potential nominees and republican leaders of late added to the great guessing game about the line-ups in the June convention.

Politicians wondered especially what maneuvers, if any, would follow from the meeting at Topeka between Governor Alf Landon and Mr. Hoover's friend, Mark L. Egan, national committeeman for California, and the one here between Senator Borah of Idaho and Representative Fish of New York, both intent against the old guard.

Police Puzzled Over Slaying of Two at Colorado

COLORADO, Nov. 30. (AP)—Although convinced that E. W. Toothman, 60, and Wilson Hamel, 22, were killed by a person who was supposed to be spending the night with them, officers tonight were still as mystified as to the identity and motive of the slayer as they were when the bullet-ridden bodies were found Thursday morning in Toothman's grocery-filling station.

Toothman was known to have had a business disagreement several weeks ago but there was little evidence, officers said, to support either a grudge or a robbery theory.

Hamel, of Corsicana, came here two weeks ago with a carnival troupe. He became ill and Toothman took him in. When he recovered he stayed to help the older man around the store.

Mrs. Bertha Toothman of Fredonia, Kas., divorced wife of Toothman arrived here today with two daughters, T. E. Hayward, who resides near Ruby, Texas, learned of the slayings today and came here to aid in search for renew's father, C. H. Hamel, who is believed to be working near Burnfield.

No definite funeral arrangements had been made for either victim.

Shipping Lines To Be Boycotted If Parley Fails

NEW YORK, Nov. 30. (AP)—Joseph P. Ryan, president of the international longshoremen's association said tonight that members will boycott cargoes of 22 shipping lines beginning at midnight December 2 unless the firms renew the expired Gulf ports working agreement.

Ryan said the boycott would affect even coastwise shipments on the Atlantic and Pacific seaboard, instances where affected firms are involved.

"The boycott will be effective beginning at midnight December 2 if the companies fail to meet with the mediation board, and renew agreements in the ports where they had them, and agree to mediate in other ports," Ryan said.

Recognition of the longshoremen's association is the nub of the strike, Ryan said, which ensued in Gulf ports when agreements expired October 11. Wage rates are not involved, he said.

Set for last Monday, the boycott was "only called off when the president through secretary Perkins set up mediation," Ryan asserted. "We have been fooling around with this thing long enough, and are getting nowhere."

Surplus removal activities included purchases for relief distribution of hogs and pork products, dairy products and sugar. Under the drought relief activities carried on during the severe drought of 1934, surplus cattle, sheep and goats were bought and salvaged for relief use. In addition, feed, forage and improved varieties of adapted seed were conserved for sale and distribution to farmers in drought-stricken areas.

Purchases of surplus dairy products for relief use began in 1933 and have been continued since. These purchases included 67,973,254 pounds of butter at a cost of $16,146,855; cheese, 17,970,285 pounds, costing $3,041,839; evaporated milk, 37,595,985 pounds, costing $1,974,675; dry skim milk, 13,482,263 pounds, costing $819,621. A total of 9,000,000 pounds of plus best sugar was purchased during 1934 at a cost of $365,536. This sugar was turned over for relief use at market value.

Purchase of surplus hogs and pork were made during the latter half of 1933 and the first half of 1934. A total of 7,643,265 surplus hogs, including little pigs and sows, were bought at a cost of $42,828,811. Pork products recovered from the slaughtered hogs and distributed for relief use, included 97,213,440 pounds of dry salt pork having an estimated value of $9,721,344. In addition, $45,550 was recovered from the sale of inedible grease and $59,000 was recovered from the sale of lard.

During the first half of 1934, a total of 33,367,773 pounds of surplus pork products was bought for relief distribution at a cost of $2,793,967. The total expenditure for surplus hogs and pork is placed at $45,622,778.

During this program a total of 8,280,096 head of drought-stricken animals were bought at a cost of $11,544,913. Of the number bought, nearly 1,486,000 were unfit for food because of starvation and thirst. As soon as purchased, animals fit for food were turned over to the Federal Surplus Relief Corporation for slaughter, processing and relief distribution.

As a result of this program, a total of 766,591,060 pounds of meat having an estimate market value of $126,500,223 was distributed for relief use throughout the country. In addition to the meat products, there remain on hand for disposal 1,004,068 hides and skins, having an estimated market value of approximately $7,000,000.

SUN KILLS FATHER

GEORGETOWN, Ky., Nov. 30. SCOUT NEWS

Boy Scout Troop 80 held its regular meeting on Friday evening instead of Thursday. Games were played the first part of the evening, and then it was announced that at least two patrols would build ping pong tables and install them in the basement of the First Methodist church. Members of the troop who are absent will lose privileges after being absent once without obtaining a written excuse. Norvell Hughes was appointed leader of the Wolf patrol. It was decided that no more transfers would be accepted, except in unusual cases.

Present were Charles Shelton, leader of the Flaming Arrow patrol; Edward Wilkins, John Schwind, Francis Schwind, Ed Terrell, Poopy Green, Pat Patterson, Jack Croul, George Girther, Hughes, Aulds, J. Detroit Party Entertained by BCD at Luncheon

The University of Detroit football team which on Thanksgiving defeated Texas Tech at Lubbock saw the oil fields Friday and the boys were guests of the Pampa B. C. D. at luncheon at the Schneider hotel.

Two dozen of the Titans were present, as well as a number of Pampans. Mack Graham, president of the B. C. D., presided.

The visitors showed a keen interest in the plains country and the oil fields, and asked many questions. Many of them were of foreign descent, with such names as Krokoska, Duker, Andrusking, Schroeter, Boglarsky, Farkas, and Wiczorek. They, they added, much impressed by the hard brand of football played in Texas. They were astonished to learn that high school football is "taken seriously" here.

Twelfth Man in Princeton Game Feted by Yale

NEW YORK, Nov. 30. (AP)—Princeton's most assiduous hater was able to glover at his enemy from an honor seat in the Yale bowl today despite his admission that it may have been a "couple of other guys" that tried to help Dartmouth turn back the Tiger last week.

Mike Mesco, the publicity-conscious hash slinger of Rahway, N. J., who earlier had "admitted" being the heroic spectator who jumped into the Dartmouth line when it seemed likely to crack under a Princeton charge, went to New Haven as a guest of the Yale club.

Revelations that there were two other contenders for the "honor" failed to dampen the enthusiasm of the Yale men who felt that Mike's terrible nature to Princeton was a thing to be nurtured and encouraged.

Mike was willing enough to concede that he might be a clayfooted idol, and that the man who really bucked that line against Princeton last week was someone else.

He didn't remember exactly what did happen, he said. All he knew was that his clothing looked as if it had been in a few scrimmages when he got home that night and on reading about the horatian figure that had leaped from the stands he concluded that it must have been he.

The two new contenders for the glory that was Mesco's were George Newcomer Larsen, Cranford, N. J., architect, and an unidentified student.

(Continued From Page 1) Rome has said such a sanction would lead to a European war. Fighting went on in Africa. The Ethiopian government said tribesmen east of Mount Mussa All surprised an Italian column, killing 183 of them, with 20 Ethiopians slain.

Fascist officers in northern Ethiopia said the tribesmen have made numerous rear guard attacks, only to be repulsed. Strong Ethiopian forces were said to be approaching the Italian lines.

Emperor Haile Selassie arrived at Dessye to establish a general military headquarters. To his cheering subjects, he said:

There will be free shows at local theaters, candy, favors, and a thrilling opportunity to march in the parade with doll, pet or hobby. That last word has worried the children somewhat. How can they parade with their hobby in the parade. All right, here's how: if their hobby is building miniature airplanes, cabinets, taxidermy, fishing, hunting, then all they have to do is put the fruits of their labors on exhibition in the parade.

CROMER

Discrepancies in weight, built and body markings tend to prove the theory that the alleged Oklahoma slayer, also believed to be involved in the disappearance of five other persons, including two women whom he married, may be the man sought in connection with the missing New Mexico tourists, said R. H. Colven, department of justice agent.

Pictures and the description that we have of Cromer in no way correspond with the composite picture that we have gathered of the Lorus-Heberer slayer," said Colven. "Cromer was described as about five feet four inches tall, while we are looking for a man between five feet eight inches and six feet. Cromer was stocky, while the Lorus-Heberer case suspect has been described as tall and slender. In addition, all persons who described the man sought in connection with the New Mexico case, have mentioned tattoo marks. Cromer's body bore no tattoo marks."

WOMAN BEATEN FOR OFFICE BY ONLY 3 VOTES

McAllen Man Elected Head of State Teachers

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 30. (AP)—By a margin of three votes, John H. Gregory of McAllen was elected president of the Texas State Teachers association over Miss Quata Woods of Dallas, it was announced as the convention came to an end today.

Gregory, superintendent of the McAllen schools, received 1,206 votes to the 1,203 cast for Miss Woods, a classroom teacher. The teachers balloted all day yesterday, but the tabulation was not completed until today.

A contest was expected, but Miss Woods ended such speculation and moved that Gregory's election be made unanimous. "No, I don't intend to contest the election," she declared. "However, in view of the fact there were but three votes difference, I do not consider the outcome a defeat."

She invited the convention to meet next year in Dallas. The Texas Centennial year meeting place will be chosen later by the executive committee.

R. C. Patterson of Denton was elected first vice president over A. W. Adams of Childers and Murray of Odessa. T. H. Shelby of Austin was elected executive committeeman for the tenth district. The only one in which there was an election.

Two constitutional amendments were adopted and two defeated. Adopted was one providing that no agent, salesman, officer or representative of any company selling school supplies or bonds could be elected to office in the association. The other adopted, provided that amendments could be written on the election ballot if brought up on the floor by twenty-five members.

A proposed Texas constitutional amendment which would permit the legislature to provide "adequate" salaries for the governor and other constitutional state officers was endorsed, as was one to permit the establishment of a teachers' retirement system.

Other resolutions passed opposed high school fraternities and sororities and favored passage of a law to give "local authorities support in coping with this problem," and recommending that a school of fine arts be established at the University of Texas.

Room Reflects Owner's Tastes

"Remembering a statement of Miss Ruby Adams during a bedroom demonstration, 'the home expresses the personalities of its occupants.' I have tried hard to select my bedroom linens with that as a guide," said Miss Fae Davis, of the Hopkins Home Demonstration club.

"I have selected my materials with the idea that one may develop her taste through the making of choices with reference to some ideal," continued Miss Davis.

She exhibited at the club achievement event—four pair of pillowcases of excellent quality, with simple yet beautiful geometrical designs in white, four guest towels of all linen, decorated very simply as the quality of material made them articles of beauty and over-decoration would have marred the use of the towel; 2 completed quilts, 4 uncompleted ones, one crocheted bedspread.

The pillow cases and towels cost $3.30 and are valued at $7.00 and Fae added she would not take that for them.

Mrs. Edgar T. Neal, Chairman Press and Publicity, Seventh District Twenty five delegates and many visitors from seventh district attended the 38th annual state convention Texas Federation of Women's clubs at Austin, November 11th to 16th.

Mrs. W. P. Avriett, Lamesa, president seventh district, gave a report before the state convention that reflected great credit upon her district, her personal service and the cooperative spirit of the club women of this district. She includes a large number of 48 counties in west Texas. An objective announced for the past two years was growth and Mrs. Avriett's report verified the literal realization of the slogan.

She said in part, "Last year we had the largest district meeting that could ever be put over, but this year we forgot we were a district, and grew into the size of a state meeting, with 662 delegates and visitors registering. One hundred and thirty-two clubs and fifty district chairmen gave reports. Thirty six new clubs have been added to our roster since last state meeting. Many new subscriptions have gone in for Federation News; 34 clubs and seven individuals have pledged to permanent headquarters, and in the last few weeks we have raised over $200 to place our beloved Ebenezer K. Warner's name on the "Missionary" roll at permanent headquarters, and sent 850000 chairs to go in the auditorium.

"On Woman's day we again carried off all honors. We had more clubs participating (128 clubs) raised more money, ($86070) and made more pledges than all other districts put together (34 pledges). We have returned to her home here. She was accompanied by her little daughter, Jane.

"It seems that my improvement is coming slowly but I have completed three bedspreads—one candlewick bedspread in orchid sheeting with white and orchid tuftings—cost $3.05 but is worth much more—a spread made of silk scraps braided together another made of small tobacco sacks braided together. There was not any expense to the last two spreads," continued Mrs. Pinnell.

Two pair pillow cases were made with hand knitted lace for decoration, the lace having been by Mrs. Pinnell's mother many years ago. One pair of pillow cases with a neat finish of a double row of hemstitching was another addition. From a scrap of linen on hand a dresser scarf was made and finished with Italian hemstitching.

ETERNAL LIFE: Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself. This do, and thou shalt live.—Luke 10:27, 28.

The Christmas Seal Sale

The Christmas seal sale will start in the county this week under the auspices of the Gray County Tuberculosis association. More than half the funds received will remain in the county, for the first time, for preventive work among school children and adults.

Tuberculosis is being cured every day, but it is still one of the greatest menaces to life. Because of its slow movement, tuberculosis has a tremendous economic effect. All types of persons contract the disease—rich and poor, fat and lean, famous and obscure.

Whenever tuberculosis is mentioned certain names spring immediately to mind—names of famous persons whose gifts to the world were cut short when they became victims of the "Captain of the Men of Death." The best known is probably Robert Louis Stevenson. Another is Elizabeth Barrett Browning, whose marriage to Robert Browning is one of the great love stories of modern times, rivaling that of Abelard and Heloise. But how many others can you name?

Readers who are interested in sports probably will say immediately Christy Mathewson, whose name will live forever in the annals of baseball and of course Hughie Jennings. Movie fans will think of Mabel Normand and Renee Adoree. Followers of the "cauliflower" industry will offer Peter Jackson, Joe Gans, George Dixon and "Spider" Kelly.

The list of those who suffer from tuberculosis or dies of it is startling. Thirteen American poets alone suffered from, or died of tuberculosis, between 1765 and 1841, at the average age of 25! Among them were William Cullen Bryant, Washington Irving, John Greenleaf Whittier, and Thoreau. When we broaden our horizon to include Europe we find such striking names as that of Moliere, the great French playwright who died of a hemorrhage while playing a part in one of his own dramas.

The great English poet Keats died of tuberculosis when only 25. Two other "Lake" poets—Shelley and Byron as well as Leigh Hunt—suffered from it. Among artists, the famous—some insist "notorious"—Aubrey Beardsley was probably the most noted Englishman.

Other countries also mourn geniuses stricken down long before they were able to set on paper gems of thought which the world can never know. In France, Blazac and Voltaire head the literary roster. In passing, it is fitting to recall the name of Rene Theophile Hyacinthe Laennec, inventor of the stethoscope. Laennec died of the disease he did so much to help conquer with his invention. In Germany, Chopin died of it. Kant, Schiller and Goethe all had it.

In Russia, Maxim Gorki and Dostoevski felt its touch. The famous Spanish philosopher Spinoza died from tuberculosis. Italy mourns Nicolo Paganini, the composer.

The man who created a new field of endeavor for women—and unconsciously supplied cartoonists and writers with a wealth of material thereby—also was a victim. He was an American, Christian Luther Sholes, inventor of the typewriter.

Many literary critics have declared "Haircut" the greatest American short story ever written. Its author was a modest, unassuming man whose career is one of the success stories that inspire American youth. He fought his way to the peak of literary success from behind a soda fountain. He was Ring Lardner, who died of tuberculosis only a few years ago.

The names mentioned are but a handful of names from the list of the great compiled by the three Fates in the course of centuries. The names of countless millions of unknowns also are listed. But there is no need to use a headstone as the period to end this discussion. Most of the persons named died in days when tuberculosis was considered incurable—when people literally died like flies—when the situation was so bad that Bunyan, in 1680, bestowed upon it the title "Captain of the Men of Death."

The great ray of hope came in 1882 when Robert Koch proved that tuberculosis was caused by a single microscopic organism, which he named the tubercle bacillus. Koch proved also that the disease could be spread only by the transmission of this germ from person to person. With the enemy at last in the open so that science knew what it was fighting there remained only the discovery of a medicine or serum to cure it. Some of the greatest minds in the world have applied themselves to this problem in the laboratory. So far, unfortunately, their efforts have not been successful. Meanwhile other methods of curing the disease have been sought and in this search the name of Dr. Edwards Livingston Trudeau stands at the top. His method of treating tuberculosis with a regimen of rest in bed, good food, fresh air, and the supervision of an experienced physician has proved the only successful method of cure. It is the method used today, and many lives have been saved by it.

In our own country we list among the celebrities who have conquered the disease: Vice President John Garner, Roger W. Babson and Professor Irving Fisher, noted economists and business advisers; Eugene O'Neill, America's foremost playwright; Will Irwin, famous reporter and author; and Charles Wakefield Cadman, composer. Mr. Cadman's beautiful compositions, "Indian Love Call" and "Land of the Sky Blue Water" are known to everyone.

The best protection against it is to avoid getting it, for "every case comes from another" and "no home will be safe from it until all homes are safe."

Christmas seal campaign funds will be used to prevent further spread of the disease in our community by informing the public of the facts about it and by discovering active cases while they are still in the early and curable stages so that effective treatment may begin promptly. Christmas Seals cost only one penny each but the power of the pennies accumulated between Thanksgiving and Christmas permits the association to carry on its work for an entire year.

New Equipment Is Bought With First Cake Sale Proceeds

"I am going to buy additional equipment for making butter cakes with this money I have received from the sale of my first cake," said Mrs. R. A. Kennedy of the Priscilla Home Demonstration club. Just after the scoring had been done and the cake declared to have reached above the required 90 points the cake was sold to Mrs. V. E. Fathree for "it looks just like the kind of cake that my husband likes."

Betting Ardor In Texas Cools

AUSTIN, Nov. 30. (P)—Cold figures today revealed the ardor of Texas horse race fans for pari-mutuel betting has cooled sharply. Horse race betting became legal in 1933. There followed a "boom" period for the tracks and the state. But charts of recent fall meets at Fair park in Dallas and Arlington Downs show a definite trend toward stable levels in wagering. For the first time, pari-mutuel wagering at the Arlington Downs fall meet dropped below $3,000,000. The total was $2,889,861, compared with the $3,320,553 in the 1935 spring meet and the $3,868,070 in the 1934 fall meet.

A part of the 1935 slump was attributed to inclement weather. All meets were for 21 days. At Fair park, a 25-day meet netted $2,129,990 in wagers, compared with $2,239,140 in a 21-day stretch in the spring and $3,097,749 in the 1934 fall meet of similar duration.

Panhandle Has Most Of Black

Industry Among Biggest in Borger District—Huge Payroll on Plains.

BORGER, Nov. 30.—When the new United Carbon company plant at Sanford is in full operation, the Borger district will be producing about 60 per cent of the carbon black produced in the entire world...

Completion of the Sanford plant will give the Borger district—in which carbon black men include all of Hutchinson county—an output of 425,000 pounds daily, or around 10 carloads. Completion of a plant to be built in Moore county by the United company will further increase production of the Panhandle...

Seventy-five per cent of the output of these companies goes to tire manufacturers, and of the remaining 25 per cent 15 goes to ink manufacturers. Ten per cent goes for large variety of uses, such as the making of rubber heels and shoe soles...

In connection with large increase in actual and potential production of carbon black in the Panhandle, it must be borne in mind, however, that the increase does not mean a corresponding gain in production in the nation as a whole. The main reason the big United company plants are being built in the Panhandle is tax conditions in Louisiana not satisfactory to the United company...

The first carbon black plant was built in 1885 in Pennsylvania and from there began a migratory expedition that led through three other states to the Panhandle. The other states were West Virginia, Kentucky, and Louisiana. Prior to the World War the industry did not amount to much but the growth since that time has skyrocketed to unprecedented heights...

Considerable of the new "ball black" is being produced in the Borger district. This type of product has the advantage of being drier and is treated by the receivers of shipments just as is the old product. Some of the users of carbon black continue, of course, to use the old product, packed in bags in tank cars and some just as the old product is shipped in sacks.

The lightness of the black accounts for the constant haze of "smoke" that arises from the hot-beds wherein it is made. A grain of black is 32 times smaller than a grain of flour and as the pressure of the gas behind it comes out of the jets much of it "goes up as smoke." It is estimated that there are an average of 33 houses to every 100 in the Borger district. These units 82,400 gas jets send forth the sour gas flame that eventually winds up as part of a rubber tire or some other product or floats away as waste.

During the last four months, shipments of carbon black from the Borger district have shown a gain of 25 per cent over the average for all of last year. The increased rate of shipment is not indicative, however, of production at the time the shipments are made. It merely means stored black going to market. The rate for the last four months, eight to nine carloads of around 40,000 pounds each, does represented excellent seasonal demand.

The new plant at Sanford contains three units, each containing 64 hot houses. Each house is 144 feet long, 11 high, and 12 wide. The entire plant will consume 30,000,000 cubic feet of sour gas daily, and total production will be 40,000 pounds of carbon black daily.

It has been estimated that the addition of carbon black as an ingredient used in the manufacture of automobile casings has increased their durability approximately 10 times. A tire that formerly was worthless at the end of 3,500 miles will last 35,000 miles when the powdery pigment is mixed as a 40 per cent ingredient of the manufacture. The ordinary production of casings call for one pound of black to each pound of rubber, thus building the qualities of the finished product hitherto unheard of durability. The estimated saving as a result of the use of black is believed to be a billion dollars a year.

CHICAGO GRAIN CHICAGO, Nov. 30 (AP)—With European political developments less warlike and with end-of-the-month liquidation in progress, grain values today underwent an all around tumble. Chicago closing quotations on wheat were unaltered, 3-1/4 below yesterday's finish. Dec. 97 1/2, corn 1-1/4 down, Dec. 57 1/2-3/4, oats 1/2 to 1 cent off, and provisions showing 5 to 12 cents decline.

KANSAS CITY LIVESTOCK KANSAS CITY, Nov. 30 (AP)—(USDA)—Cattle trade at midwestern markets this week was featured by general price advance on most all classes. Chicago had a practical top of 14.00 on heavy steers. There was an improved demand for stocker and feeder classes at strong to 25 higher rate.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 30 (AP)—Pat lambs closed the week with a net advance of 15-80 while yearlings and sheep were firm to as much as 50 higher; top lambs in Chicago sold up to 11.65, the highest since June, 1930.

ONLY THREE TESTS SHOWN DURING WEEK

HOLIDAY PERIOD IS REFLECTED IN SLOW ACTIVITY

Because of the holiday slow-down and short week, only three official tests were made by the railroad commission during the period, adding 1,700 barrels to the daily potential production of the Panhandle field.

Largest well of the week was Empire Gas & Fuel company No. 8 Culler, section 164, block 3, I&G survey, Gray county, which tested 787 barrels after a shot of 500 quarts from 3,146-3,245 feet. Total depth was 3,250 feet. In the same county, King Royalty company No. 4 S. Vollmert, in section 140, block 3, I&G survey, tested 480 barrels after a 400-quart shot in the granite wash from 3,185-3,280 feet. Total depth was 3,285 feet.

Temporary potentials were assigned as follows: Stansylvania Oil & Gas company No. 2 Stanberry, Hutchinson county, 20 barrels. Niapa Oil corporation No. 2 Leopold, Gray county, 500 barrels. Skelly Oil company No. 32 E. Schaefer, Gray county, 750 barrels. Moore county—Petroleum company No. 2 Haggard, Gray county, 400 barrels.

Retail Trade off To a Flying Start

(By The Associated Press.) Retail trade broke away for a flying start on the first lap of holiday business last week, and industrial activity increased its speed to the highest notch since the peaks on July, 1933.

All reports on merchandise distribution were favorable for the week which included the Thanksgiving holiday, and merchants in many sections were still of the opinion that the total for this year-end will be the greatest in several years.

Industry in a similar vein responded to the recovery stimulus and industrial activity, as measured by the Associated Press seasonally adjusted index, stood at 84.2 percent of the 1929-30 average. On retail trade, the department of commerce in its weekly survey for 32 key cities for the week ended Wednesday, said: "Holiday buying was in full swing throughout the country during the week with retail sales at almost uniformly higher levels than last year."

Weather conditions were generally favorable, a factor that accelerated the sales alike of holiday wares and winter merchandise.

MEXICAN KILLED MEXICO CITY, Nov. 30 (AP)—The Mexican government's campaign against rebels in the state of Jalisco had resulted today in the deaths of 19 insurgents. Sixteen were killed by federal troops in a two-hour clash yesterday at Lomu Del Alba, and three more members of rebel groups died in two other encounters in the same state.

CURSE ON BREASTED? NEW YORK, Nov. 30 (AP)—Dr. James Breasted, elderly Egyptologist who was among those first to enter Tutankhamen's tomb and who has since scoffed at the supposed curse on its violators, was seriously ill today of an "undetermined" malady. At first diagnosed as tropical malaria, his illness today was said by hospital authorities to be "not satisfactorily diagnosed as yet."

Cattle lost from 25 to 50 cents a bale in a quiet week-end session on the market here today. While final prices showed net losses of 5 to 10 points the market was well supported on the scale down and buying by the trade absorbed most of the contracts. Lower cables and general uncertainty over both the European situation and the future cotton control program for this country discouraged important speculative activity.

January closed 25 cents a bale lower at 11.65, while final prices of 11.52 for March, 11.40 for May, and 11.04 for December, were slightly larger declines. In the spot markets the average price of middling dipped 6 points to 11.90, making the government subsidy for the day 0.10 cent a pound.

Marx Brothers Coming Today

NEW COMEDY TO BE SEEN AT LA NORA

SYLVIA SIDNEY TO BE IN STAR ROLE AT REX

If there is any truth to the saying that "a laugh a day keeps the doctor away," the doctors will be put out of business by the riotous Marx Brothers comedy, "A Night at the Opera," on the screen of the La Nora theater beginning today.

Laughs Are Timed. By actual stop watch timing there are seventy minutes of solid laughs in the latest hit of the Merry Madcaps, which was produced for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer by Irving G. Thalberg.

Fifty minutes of laughs were actually timed by Director Sam Wood when the Marx Brothers took their story written incidentally by Geo. S. Kaufman, who wrote "Cocanuts," in collaboration with Morrie Ryskind on a tour of Pacific coast cities before a single scene was filmed. The additional twenty minutes of chuckles were added in the studio.

Groucho, Chico, and Harpo decided that this picture should be a new departure in Marx Brothers' comedy—and it is! It is chuck full of romance, brilliant singing and original comedy.

There's Romance, Too. The story is woven around two young, unknown opera singers, Kitty Carlisle and Alan Jones, who are perfectly cast for their parts, and the antics of their Marxes in bringing them together.

From Italy, the action is transferred to an ocean liner and then to New York, where the Marx Brothers go into grand opera with a bang.

In the notable cast are Walter King, who also has a fine singing role; Siegfried Rumann; Mary Kay Dunott; Edward Keane; and Robert Emmett O'Connor.

"MARY BURNS, FUGITIVE" IS GRIPPING DRAMA TO OPEN TODAY.

Sylvia Sidney reaches the top of her career as a dramatic actress in her latest starring vehicle, "Mary Burns, Fugitive," a gripping, romantic drama of an innocent girl hunted by the law, which opens at the Rex theater today.

An emotional revelation of a girl's tragic experiences, Miss Sidney's histrionic talents are given full rein in a characterization that justifies her ability for full dramatic power. Caught in a web of circumstantial evidence, an innocent victim of circumstances her portrayals of "Mary Burns" is sympathetic, sincere and distinguished.

"Mary Burns, Fugitive" serves also to introduce Alan Baxter, new film find, who makes his debut in the drama. A recruit from the Broadway stage he is a refreshingly new personality, bringing an amusing understanding in an difficult role as a college-bred gangster, revealing much potentiality for future stardom. Young, engaging, with plenty of talent, Baxter bears close watching.

Carrying off his part with restraint and dignity, Melvyn Douglas, as the wealthy, brilliant scientist, delivers a finely poised, sincerely acted portrayal, in the leading role opposite Miss Sidney.

A Scene With a Big Punch in It

In "A Night at the Opera," coming to La Nora theater today, everybody punches everybody else sooner or later, which comes as no surprise considering that the stars of this side-splitting comedy are none other than Groucho, Chico, and Harpo Marx. You never can tell what this trio will do next. They can deliver a punch—and they can take it, too!

TRUTHS BEHIND WORLD WAR ARE RELENTLESSLY FILMED

Mankind's shame!

That is strikingly shown in the Fox film production, "The First World War," to be shown at La Nora theater Dec. 3 and 4 under auspices of Pampa Post 1657, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Out of the past, from the sealed and guarded archives of the great nations, the truth arrives at last, according to those who have witnessed previous showings of this amazing motion picture. Here, it is said, is the first authentic and uncensored screen record of the great conflict—and more than that. The very sources of the world war are said to be pictured in the film, for many motion picture records of events leading up to the conflict are here given to the public for the first time. Intimate glimpses of Europe's royalty in the years before the war, of their conferences, their alignments, their secret plans, have been entrusted to Fox film for use in this picture. Laurence Stallone, who conceived the best-selling volume, "The First World War," has acted in the capacity of editor for the film based on the book Simon and Schuster, publishers of the book, have served in an advisory capacity in the making of the film, and Truman Talley is the producer.

The grim evidence is at hand at last in "mankind's greatest confession."

DELEGATES RETURN

PARENTAL DUTY IS RESTORED IN U. S. S. R. BY NEW DECREE

By JOHN LLOYD

MOSCOW (AP)—

Early ideas of reconstructing society around the state at the expense of the family are being cast aside in the Soviet Union.

Under the old system parents, after bringing children into the world, were to be left free of the main responsibilities of their care so they could devote themselves to other duties.

Soviet authorities contend that an exaggerated idea of this experiment gained circulation abroad. They do not, however, deny that energetic measures have become necessary to make the family the institution they now want it to be. A whole series of regulations has been enacted recently with this purpose in mind.

Dad Pays For Stonethrowing

Parents have been given to understand that they must look to their children's education, must answer for their conduct, and cannot escape duties of maintenance.

If a child throws a stone through a neighbor's window his parents must pay for repairs and also may be subject to fine. Children who shirk school place their parents in a similarly embarrassing position.

One of the most revolutionary of soviet, revamped measures, placed in effect only a few weeks ago, changed the divorce system.

Divorce Notice Installed

In the past either party to a marriage could obtain a divorce by going to a registry office and making known his intentions. The divorce was registered, then the other party was notified that the bonds had been severed.

Divorce still can be obtained by either party regardless of the opinion of the other, but now the other party must first be notified.

If the two appear at the registry office together and say there is agreement on alimony and maintenance of children, the divorce is a matter of only a few minutes. But in the absence of an agreement, a court decision may be required.

Advice Against Spanking

Too often, the authorities say, parents managed to evade responsibilities by obtaining divorces before attending to their duties.

The newspapers have taken to printing educational articles on how to bring up children. One of them cautioned against spankings and advised that the youngsters be allowed to "develop their own will."

Robert Bisset, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bisset, underwent a major operation at Pampa-Jarrett hospital Saturday morning.
