WASHINGTON'S FARM CAREER CITED BY FOR

MOUNT VERNON, Va., Nov. 17 (AP)—President Roosevelt said today that George Washington's career made it "almost certain" the first president would have favored present-day "government action to aid farmers."

Washington, Mr. Roosevelt said, showed by his own words "that he considered agricultural production even in his time to be much more than a local matter."

President Roosevelt's remarks were delivered to presidents of land grant colleges and universities gathered at Washington's home in connection with the 75th anniversary of the establishment of the agriculture department. Because the chief executive was confined to the White House with a tooth ailment, his remarks were read by Secretary Wallace.

The president, calling Washington the first "master farmer," said:

"Knowing what we do of George Washington's belief in a national government strong enough to cope with the problems of his time, and his perception of the importance of agriculture as the foundation of our national life, we can be sure that if he had lived today he would have acted boldly to keep agriculture from going down to ruin."

G. W. Lovell said: "We can be sure that he would not tions indicate that he would have

RESPONSE TO CENSUS OKAY

Widespread response was being received today, according to Postmaster C. H. Walker, to the unemployment census which is under way in the Pampa area and over the nation this week.

First questionnaires were distributed by mailmen yesterday, and the postmaster said today several hundred cards had been returned at noon today.

All persons, unemployed or partially employed, are requested to fill out the cards and return them, postage free, to the post office not later than Saturday.

The census is a fact-finding survey, designed solely to determine the number of unemployed in the nation and to learn for what jobs these unemployed are best fitted.

Mr. Walker repeated an appeal today to all unemployed or partially employed to fill out the cards, hand them to a mailman or drop them in a mailbox before Saturday, when the nationwide survey ends.

NATION UNABLE TO STOP LAND SEIZURE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 (AP)—Senator Key Pittman of Nevada, chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, said today American farmers whose lands in Mexico have been taken over by the state under that country's agrarian policy were in an "unfortunate position."

He explained "there apparently is nothing this country can do from them."

"They have received the same treatment of large native land owners and thus seemingly cannot raise the plea of discrimination."

I HEARD - - -

That Sam Scaling, last year an outfielder with the Pampa Oiler baseball club, has accepted a position with the Kansas City police force and next summer will play baseball with the K. C. Police team. Sam will report on Dec. 1 and will become a desk sergeant.

Four high officials of the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce will be guests of honor at a combined Pampa-Borger-Amarillo Jaycee banquet in Pampa next Tuesday night. It was announced today by R. G. Hughes, president of the Pampa organization.

The dignitaries will include D. G. Liggett, of Fort Worth, state president; Charles W. Hilburn, business manager of the Junior Chamber of Commerce magazine; Fred McGowan, and Oral Jones, executive secretary of the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Lewis Goodrich, secretary of the Pampa Jaycees, also announced that he had received a letter from Liggett's office notifying the local group of the planned visit.

Due to the fact it will be the state president's only trip into the Panhandle in some time, he asked that the Pampa meeting be made a tri-city affair with delegates from Borger and Amarillo attending.

A program committee headed by Mr. Curry has been named to make arrangements for the meeting next Tuesday night.

The regular noonday luncheon of the local organization next Tuesday will be abandoned because of the night meeting, President Hughes announced.

Members of the King softball team, winners of the Pampa district tournament this fall, will be guests at the meeting at which time the Junior Chamber of Commerce trophy, emblematic of their championship win, will be presented.

CLOTHING DRIVE WILL CLOSE ON SATURDAY

The Veterans of Foreign Wars drive for clothing for the needy of Pampa will close Saturday night and a final appeal is being made to Pampans to gather articles of clothes or shoes that Boy Scouts of the VFW troop can collect during the week.

Veterans in session last night decided to use money formerly set aside for the purchase of Shriners of the Constitution for shoes needed for children unable to go to school.

LeFors residents will be given an opportunity to give to the needy of their community by calling J. H. Duncan, Boy Scouts of his troop will collect the bundles. The LeFors drive will be under direction of Paul Blankenburg of the post.

Pampans desiring to help the worthy cause are urged to call 1466 or 872 at once so that Boy Scouts can make collections. If clothing or shoes need repairing or cleaning, local firms have agreed to make the repairs free of charge.

Distribution of the articles will be under direction of Mrs. Willie Baines, relief director.

FAMED ACTRESS' NOTED RED HAIR WAS FALSE

NEW YORK, Nov. 17 (AP)—Now it can be told.

That six-foot torrent of carrot-red hair worn by the late Mrs. Leslie Carter, famous actress—it was the envy of women of two continents—was false, and it cost her $50,000.

Hair merchant Albert Simonson disclosed today that the actress, during her 16 years on Broadway, bought ten new sets of hair, paying $3,000 each time. She also paid $20,000 for repairs.

Simonson, who obtained Mrs. Carter's locks from peasant girls in Austria-Hungary, said false hair also had helped make public idols of Lillian Russell, Richard Mansfield and Jeanne Eagels.

CHARGES FILED IN JAIL CASE

Bonds of Stella Barion and I. P. Gill, charged with conspiring a jail break, were set at $1,000 each in a hearing this morning before Justice of the Peace E. F. Young.

The woman was arrested by county officers yesterday afternoon. Gill was arrested by county officers on Monday night, when officers apprehended a man who was preparing to attach a sack containing a bottle of whisky and a note to a blanket-strip rope lowered from a window of the county jail.

Gill had been released from jail last week. He was visited by the woman arrested yesterday several times while he was in jail, and gave her money to purchase stamps, Sheriff Earl Talley said.

MURDER CHARGE FILED AGAINST HEAD OF C-C

BRADY, Nov. 17 (AP)—Mike Miller, about 40, stock farmer of the Preadonia community 20 miles from here, was near death today from a gunshot wound and Jamie Brook, president of the Brady chamber of commerce was charged with assault to murder.

Miller was shot late yesterday. W. A. Parker, foreman of the McKnight-Lathan ranch which Brook had under lease, was a witness. He said a shot was fired when Miller advanced toward a hunting party carrying a rifle. Miller was taken to a hospital by Brook.

FARMER'S DOLLAR SHRINKS 13 CENTS IN BUYING POWER

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 (AP)—Agriculture department economists said today the farmer's dollar has shrunk 13 cents in buying power since the first of the year.

In January the agricultural dollar was worth $1.01—that is, in terms of non-farm goods and services which it would have bought in 1910-14. Now that dollar is worth only 88 cents, the economists said, adding this was the lowest since 1935.

Hicks, Told He Will Not Have To Pay For Meal, Takes Toastmaster Job

An interesting program is being arranged for tonight when the Harvester football squad and coaches will be honored with fans at a banquet in the Schneider hotel dining room at 8 o'clock. Nature of the program is being kept secret.

It was revealed this morning, however, that Dr. H. H. Hicks will act as toastmaster. At first request the genial doctor refused, but sponsors assured him he wouldn't have to pay for his meal. Then his Scotch training got the better of him and he agreed to be master of ceremonies. He told a reporter this morning.

The Harvesters of 1937 have played great football and they are not through yet. They have to face Plainview, Friday in Plainview, and Eorger here on Thanksgiving day.

Tickets On Plainview Special Go On Sale

Stand by the team and go to Plainview, was the slogan this morning at the office of Business Manager Roy McMillen of the Pampa Independent school in the city hall. The place had been turned into a ticket office for a few days as tickets for the special train to Plainview Friday, game tickets, and pastboards to the Pampa-Borger game here Thanksgiving Day afternoon go on sale.

Train and Plainview tickets were made available this morning. Reserve seat duets to the Thanksgiving Day game will go on sale tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock for 1. Seats are in the west stand north and south of the season reserve section.

Round trip fare to Plainview will be $1.95 with the train leaving from the Santa Fe station at 9 o'clock, arriving in Plainview at 11:30 a. m. The return will be at 5:15 p. m. with arrival in Pampa at 7:45 o'clock. Fans were urged to secure their tickets early so that plenty of coaches can be ordered.

The train will be operated under school supervision with the same rules in effect as on the Port Arthur and Lubbock trips. There will be no drinking or gambling aboard.

A block of 400 reserve and 100 student general admission tickets to the Plainview game were received this morning. The adult reserve tickets will be 75 cents with student admission 25 cents. The high school will be dismissed for the day.

WHEAT RISES CHICAGO, Nov. 17 (AP)—Wheat prices in North American markets soared five cents a bushel today as a result of fresh frosts in Argentina where the new crop was approaching harvest. This was the maximum price advance permitted in one session. December wheat at Chicago jumped to 95 cents a bushel. At Kansas City it reached 92 1/2.

Temperatures In Pampa

With only three teams reporting, 300 members have been added to the Red Cross by the annual roll call up to noon today. General Chairman B. M. Behram reported.

Ten teams are at work on the call, and in addition, representatives of oil companies near Pampa are expected to canvass their plants for memberships. However, no reports have yet been received from these workers.

School Children Will Be Fairies In Parade

Detailed plans of Pampa's annual Santa Day observance on Saturday, Dec. 4—when the city will play host to thousands of children and their parents from surrounding towns and communities—are now forming to make this year's celebration the greatest in the city's history.

This was the report last night as members of the Santa Day steering committee met in City Hall and yesterday noon as plans were outlined at the noonday luncheon of the Junior Chamber of Commerce which is sponsoring the observance.

Home Decorations Featured Outstanding features of the day, of the day, of course, will be the arrival of Santa Claus and the huge "Parade of Fairyland" street pageant to be participated in by school children from Pampa, McLean, LeFors, Panhandle, Skellytown, Miami, Canadian, White Deer and other Panhandle towns and communities.

Because of the valiant stand made in its confines, the warehouse above came to be known as Shanghai's "Alamo." A girl patriot ran the gauntlet of Japanese forces to carry a flag to its 450 defenders, so they could keep Chinese colors flying on the roof.

Drive For New Scouts, Boy Leaders Opens Here

Pampa needs more Boy Scouts, and a campaign to increase their number is now under way in the city. Assistance of ward and junior high principals to help enroll more boys in local Scout troops has been asked. A survey of boys of Scout age has been made.

Attendance of Scouts at troop meetings is unusually low at the present time. There are seven active troops in town with an average weekly attendance of around 125 boys. Two local churches that formerly sponsored large and active troops now have no troops at all.

Although the troops need to be replenished with new Scouts of 12 and 13 years old, there is an even greater need for scoutmasters and assistants. Most of the active troops need assistant scoutmasters, and the only reason there is no more active troops in town is because Pampans have not volunteered to become scoutmasters or assistants.

Boys interested in camping and other Scouting activities are asked to study the coupon on the "funnies" page of this issue of The NEWS.

"Boys join Scouting for camping and we hope to give it to them the whole year round," Scout Executive Fred Roberts said.

Ten teams are at work on the call, and in addition, representatives of oil companies near Pampa are expected to canvass their plants for memberships. However, no reports have yet been received from these workers.

Mr. Behram asked that teams report each day to headquarters, located in the Pampa chamber of commerce office in the city hall. He further asked that they turn in any surplus Red Cross buttons or material they may have.

JUDGE REBUKES AIMEE FOR AIRING TROUBLES

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 17 (AP)—Aimee Semple McPherson has lost another lawsuit and received a judicial rebuke for airing family troubles in court.

Judge Joseph Vickers, upholding Jacob Moldel in his suit to have his contract as Angelus Temple attorney declared valid, made this barbed comment:

"It is a sad state of affairs when a family brings its disagreements into court with the mother arrayed against the daughter and a brother arrayed against his sister, especially when that family is connected with religious organizations. It seems to me that no amount of money could be involved to justify this action."

Cotton Ginnings in County Show Drop Cotton ginned in Gray county 1 showed a decrease of 162 bales from the 1936 crop, according to a census report issued by Royal H. Wilson, special agent, McLean.

SOUTHERNERS FLAY BILL TO BAN LYNCHING

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 (AP)—A southern filibuster against anti-lynching legislation completed its Senate program today, shattering Democratic lines almost at the start of the special session.

The apparently unorganized attempt to block the measure, passed by the House last summer, gained momentum after Senator Wagner (D., N.Y.) sought yesterday to call the bill up for debate.

Senator Connally (D., Texas) led. He talked at length and then spurred for time by having a clerk read a 1935 address by Justice Hugo L. Black (then an Alabama Senator) opposing a federal anti-lynching law.

A half dozen other southern Democrats were ready to follow Connally. They indicated they would carry on the debate for a few days, perhaps until the Senate agriculture committee completes its farm bill.

Democratic Leader Barkley had tried unsuccessfully to persuade anti-lynching sponsors to let the government reorganization bill have precedence. The latter is the only measure on the President's four-point program which is in shape for debate.

Once the filibuster was begun, however, Barkley and some proponents of the anti-lynching bill appeared disposed to let its focus talk themselves out. Senator Van Nuys (D., Ind.), a co-author of the measure, said at least 70 Senators would vote for it.

Vote Predicted. Barkley predicted a vote would be late in the week, thereby removing a major obstacle from the path of the administration program.

Chairman Smith (D., S.C.) said the agriculture committee would meet every day until it gets "some bill ready for the Senate." Secretary Wallace was asked to present his views to the committee today.

In the House, agriculture committee members still appeared quite a way from agreement on a farm proposal. They split into subcommittees to write programs for five basic commodities.

In an effort to bring action on wage-hour standards—another part of the administration program—Chairman Norton (D., N.J.) of the House labor committee was circulating a petition to disclose the measure from the rules committee, where it was buried last session.

If the 218 signatures are placed on the petition, the bill would be brought to the House floor automatically on Dec. 13. The labor committee, meanwhile, was considered.

Discovered Her Heart in Love

The Pampa public library is observing National Book week with appropriate exhibits in the library. The theme of Book week all over the nation is "The Magic Highway to Adventure."

Two exhibits, one for adults and one for children, have been arranged on tables in the library by Mrs. James Todd, Jr., librarian, and assistant librarians. Small houses have been made and covered with covers of latest books received in the library. Small figurines portray characters from the books. Numerous new books are arranged on the table around the exhibit.

The children's table is similar to the exhibit for the adults, except that characters in young people's books are portrayed. A fence built of matches surrounds the book-cover house.

The local library has received approximately 100 new books; novels, travelogues, biographies, studies and others of a great variety in the past two months.

2-WAY RELIEF FOR THE MISERY OF COLDS

The spend with which Bayer tablets act in relieving the distressing symptoms of colds and accompanying sore throat is utterly amazing... and the treatment is simple and pleasant. This is all you do. Crush and dissolve three genuine Bayer Aspirin tablets in one-third glass of water. Then gargle with this mixture twice, holding your head well back.

This medicinal gargle will act almost like a local anesthetic on the sore, irritated membrane of your throat. Pain eases promptly; rawness is relieved.

You will say it is remarkable. And the few cents it costs effects a big saving over expensive "throat gargles" and strong medicines. And when you buy, see that you get genuine BAYER ASPIRIN.

Watch To Clip On
If you are all in a dither about finding that very special gift for a very special girl, there is an amusing new idea in watches just arrived from an important Paris jeweler. It's called a clip-watch and consists of a watch in a tiny case hinged to one end of a wide ribbon of gleaming metal, the other end of which curves under and fastens securely to the lapel or, if you like, to the cuff of your tailored suit.

Glorifying Yourself

By ALICIA HART.

Before you adopt a new fashion, in beauty or in clothes, make sure that it truly suits your own personality as well as your figure and your mode of life.

For instance, one whose social life is made up mainly of home dinners, informal bridge parties and such won't have much use for an elaborate, veiled headpiece, no matter how flattering it happens to be. And the woman who attends dozens of brilliant dinners and huge balls makes a mistake when she chooses more dinner suits than evening gowns.

If you have a rather short, fairly plump neck, steer clear of the new heavy gold necklaces, regardless of how much you like them. If your legs are very short, don't be tempted by stockings with clocks or those with heel reinforcements which end in high points. Either makes the legs seem shorter.

It's a good idea to remember that clothes with slightly exaggerated shoulders make hips seem narrower; that skirts which fit smoothly over the hips, flaring below, make you seem thinner than those which flare from the band.

Also that form-fitting sweaters accentuate flat-chestedness; very décolleté evening gowns emphasize every shoulder, neck and upper arm defect; that gowns with sleeves, even tiny cap-like ones, are more flattering to a woman with plump upper arms than mere shoulder strap necklines.

Furthermore, every fashion and beauty conscious woman regardless of her shape or size, will do well to remember that a girle or some kind of foundation garment makes for smoother, trimmer lines, causes clothes to fit nicely. You can't look your best if your stomach protrudes even a little or if your hips sway and bounce when you walk. If you never have worn a foundation garment, put yourself in the hands of an expert fitter and follow her advice. It's next to impossible to analyze your own figure and decide what kind of girle will be most satisfactory.

Many Attend Big Four Council Here

Members of Christian Endeavors from Canadian, Berger, Amarillo, and Pampa attended the Big Four council meeting which was concluded last evening at the local First Christian church.

Charles Maderia presided over the devotional period which opened the meeting. Numbers included in this period were the scripture reading by Ronald Twentier, a candle lighting ceremony in which Dorothy Jackson and Margaret Hope lit the candle, and a large cross over the baptism, a solo "Lead Kindly Light" by Mr. Maderia, and a musical reading by Dale See, who was accompanied at the organ by Howard House.

Following an inspection of the church, the members and visitors were entertained with a musical program presented in the basement of the church. A string orchestra played at the old fashioned barn party where pep songs were sung and a violin selection was played by Miss Julia Giddens.

Those taking part in the play given by the local organization were Dorothy Southard, Clifton Simmons, Helen Maderia, Charles Maderia, and Wayne Hutchinson. Another feature on the program was a pantomime by Dorothea Thomas, Clarice Gillis, Betty Jean Tieman, Bill Scott, T. S. Bunting, and Arvo Goddard.

The next meeting of the union will be held on January 11 at the Presbyterian church in Berger, it was decided in the business session which was conducted by Norma Kidd, president of the Big Four.

Visitors last evening included 31 from Canadian, 35 from Berger, 5 from Amarillo, and 65 members of Pampa.

Who Said Pills? It's Fun to Keep "Regular"!

Is keeping "regular" a chore in your family? Does it mean over-stimulating your intestines with cathartics? Then here's good news! You can AVOID common constipation and cathartics, and have a grand time doing it!

Instead of abusing your intestines, eat a NATURAL laxative food. Instead of bad-tasting pills and liquids—ENJOY crunchy, toasted Kellogg's All-Bran with milk or cream and fruits. Or in All-Bran muffins, or All-Bran cookies.

All-Bran will KEEP you "regular" as the time-table—but it works so differently from harsh purgatives. It doesn't over-stimulate your intestines; it gives them TWO things they crave and need. First, All-Bran provides "bulk"—it absorbs water and softens like a sponge. This water-softened mass aids elimination. And next, the intestinal-ionic vitamin "B." All-Bran is a good source of this vitamin that tones up your intestinal tract.

Use All-Bran regularly: eat two tablespoons every day and drink plenty of water. The results will delight you! Every grocer sells All-Bran. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

MacDONALD'S MONUMENT

Probably the brightest mark on the honored record of the late Ramsay MacDonald was the one which got him the most execration from his fellow-citizens—his record in the World War.

MacDonald was a long way from the premiership when Britain entered the war. He was just another member of Parliament. But he hated war with all his soul, and—unlike some of his fellow-pacifists—he did not change his coat to conform with the war fever that was sweeping Britain.

Instead he spoke out boldly, at a time when to do so was dangerous. He was denounced across the British Isles as little better than a traitor. His constituents, who had kept him in Parliament for 14 years, rejected him. It looked as if his career were finished.

But it was only starting. He went on to become prime minister; and now, after his death, one of his chief claims to remembrance is his record as heroic and uncompromising opposition to war.

NOT WANTED HERE

On one or two occasions in the past our immigration authorities have made asses of themselves by barring from our shores certain foreign women who seemed to come under the "moral turpitude" clause. But it is rather hard to quarrel with them for their decision to exclude Magda de Fontanges, the self-styled ex-mistress of Benito Mussolini.

Not that there has been anything frightfully turpitudinous about this French lady's past. To be sure, she seems to be a somewhat indiscreet young woman of the kiss-and-tell variety, and she did shoot the former French ambassador to Italy; but the first is a venial fault, and the second seems to be a more or less accepted custom in France.

But we won't miss anything by keeping her out. She was going to dance in a night club, and we have plenty of night club dancers already; we also have an ample sufficiency of women with a penchant for making themselves notorious. If the immigration inspectors choose to crack down in this case no one is apt to criticize them much.

WASHINGTON—Anyone who believes that the plan to shift the recovery job from government to private industry will be completed without much jarring and grating be advised to take a closer look at some of the means by which it is to be shifted.

Take the case of roads. Secretary Morgenthau, in outlining plans for budget balancing before the Academy of Political Sciences, suggested road building as one of the first outlays to be curtailed. And practically nobody doubted that Morgenthau was delivering a message straight from headquarters.

He explained that in pre-depression times the annual federal contribution to road building was under $100,000,000 a year. This year estimated expenditures are $253,000,000. This item has been even higher in recent years. Morgenthau says it should be cut to its old level, which means knocking off $150,000,000 or more.

Offhand it would seem that this involved only the comment: "Well, we have enough good roads for a while anyway." But it must be remembered that building roads requires contractors, and contractors build up large organizations and buy lots of machinery. They employ many men.

Now they are told that the administration may reduce perhaps by half, the federal spending on highways. That would mean fewer contract jobs.

Would these contractors be idle? Would their foremen, engineers, strawbosses, machinery, gravel-truckers, grader operators and unskilled shovel men be idle also?

If the transition from government recovery spending to private recovery spending should work out perfectly, these people would not be idle. But the period of transition may be weeks, months, a year.

Both President Roosevelt and Chairman Douglas of the securities and exchange commission have urged public utilities to cut loose their long-overdue expansion and improvement programs. Douglas estimated the utilities could spend a billion dollars a year for the next five years in modernization and expansion.

Even if the spending of that billion a year should begin at once—which is doubtful for many reasons—it would not at once give jobs to all the road men and machinery. Road-scrapers can not be converted suddenly into hole-diggers for telephone poles.

Moreover, men out in the field with an interest in federal spending already are beginning to put the heat on congressmen. The pinching out of PWA spending for dams,

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—This department is a wee bit chagrined today and the reason goes back to a new top coat. We bought it shortly after being paid the other day and suggested that the store deliver it to our apartment.

"We'll have it for you by tomorrow at the latest," the salesman promised, taking our name and address.

But it wasn't delivered next day. Nor the next. After a prolonged delay we were on the point of calling the store when the telephone rang and the salesman got on the wire.

"Are you," he began, "the one who bought a top coat from us the other day?"

"Yes," we said, "and why haven't you delivered it? I gave my old one to the Salvation Army and I'm liable to get pneumonia, running around these nippy nights."

"Well, the strangest thing has happened," he hastened to explain. "We delivered it to your building, but not the right apartment. It seems there is a Miss Georgia Tucker living there, too. She seems to think you have a lot of nerve sending her a gentleman's topcoat. She was quite put out."

"But didn't you explain that the mistake was yours—not mine?"
 "Oh, yes, sir, we did explain, after she called us and demanded to know the reason for the coat being delivered there. We explained that you had nothing to do with it and that we would call for the coat on our own. We're delivering it to you in half an hour."

Thus does adventure ambush you in New York—even in a men's furnishing store.

"There comes occasionally to this town a reporter from Richmond, Va. His name is Roy Flannagan and his latest book 'County Court,' just now is occupying the attention of the critics. Roy likes to write of small town life and all of his books have been on that subject. His annual visits to the metropolis serve only to accentuate his desire for the serenity of the smaller cities, the shady streets and drowsy court house squares.

Although he dislikes literary teas and the usual fanfare that accompanies the promotion of new books, he nevertheless is compelled to indulge a little of it, explaining philosophically that perhaps it is for the best—it certainly whets his appetite for a return to the uncrowded atmosphere of his home town.

Other novels bearing the Flannagan signature are 'The Whipping,' which you'll remember as a movie, and 'Amber Satyr.' Type-writers frequently are pounded in Paris in the Flannagan home. His wife, Victoria, is also a writer and is one of the South's leading advertising specialists.

People You Know

By ARCHER FULLINGIM

This conversation took place at a business place on one of the principal streets in the city. One was the proprietor and the other man was a solicitor for the American Red Cross. The latter introduced himself in a friendly manner and stated his mission. Then he asked the other to join the Red Cross. Quickly and with some heat the man replied, "No, I believe not. I do so much for the school children I don't think I'll join."

People ask me for money every day. You ought to see the people who come in here and ask for money! Then the solicitor began to talk gently and lovingly about the Great American Mother, who is the American Red Cross, telling what she has done in times of disaster, but the shop owner's mind was made up. He shook his head and said, "No! The solicitor next reminded the man that he too was beseeged daily for donations, "but," he said, "there is the one contribution I always want to make if it takes my last dime. I want to make it regardless of how many donations I have made that day—and that of course is to the Red Cross. . . It's only a dollar!"

The final answer came: "I don't want to give anything," and the solicitor's face was red with shame, but not for himself, as he walked out.

How's Your Health?

By IAGO GALDSTON, M.D.

Today arthritis is recognized as one of the most widespread disabilities. From every viewpoint, individual and communal, it reveals itself to be a major plague.

To the affected person it is likely to cause much pain, physical deformity and helplessness.

From the social viewpoint, arthritis is a heavy economic burden, representing millions of dollars in wages lost, and in the cost of medical care and hospitalization required by the arthritis sufferers.

Oddly enough, arthritis is a very ancient disease. The Egyptians were notoriously afflicted, and throughout history we find isolated references to this crippling malady.

Until recent times comparatively little was understood as to the differences in forms and origin of the various kinds of arthritis. All of them were lumped together under the heading of joint rheumatism.

How baffling this malady proved to the older generations of physicians may be noted in the pathetic medical history of Scarron, the great French wit, who was a victim of rheumatoid arthritis, and the self-appointed "Sick one to her Majesty the Queen, Marie Theresa."

Modern medicine, with the aid of the X-ray and by means of a variety of laboratory tests has been able to break down "joint rheumatism" into its component parts. Arthritis is now understood as a generic term, indicating disease of the joint structures. There are different types or forms of arthritis, distinguished according to cause, and certain features.

Around Hollywood

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—The movie stars who say they want to get away from it all—meaning pursuing fans—could take a lesson from Clark Gable, who really gets.

Gable left here on vacation in a station wagon and old clothes. He took rifles but no razor. Passing through Salt Lake City he got a shave and was recognized. After that he dropped out of sight.

Talbot Jennings, Metro writer, has a brother Charlie in Montana. Charlie used to be a peace officer but now operates a dude ranch. He knows hide-outs in the mountains. He tipped Gable to a few. The star returned seven weeks later, tanned, 12 pounds lighter, the Hollywood atmosphere out of his lungs. He had a seven-weeks beard. Charlie Jennings tried to get a picture, but Gable always did say beads—on movie heroes—were unromantic. There isn't any picture. Too bad.

Makes Good His Escape
 Gable has hide-outs in Southern California, too. He spent two weeks on a non-advertising ranch in the hills above Santa Barbara. Another week went by at a little duck club near there which has only five members—Gable, E. J. Mannix, Jack Conway, Sam Wood and Spencer Tracy.

He was gone for 12 weeks—and his own studio didn't know where he was any of the time!

Third Act Problem
 Several years ago one of those mystery comedies that had been a stage hit was acquired for the movies. It has just been filmed.

The other day the movie producer ran into the fellow who produced it originally on the stage.

"That's great stuff for the first two acts," said the movie man, "but the third act takes a terrible drop."

The stage producer got to thinking.

"Say," he said, "what script did you use? You know the third act was awful until we rewrote it—then it clicked."

The movie man groaned. But it was too late. The picture had been finished—from the original script. Proving that Hollywood is still Hollywood.

Book A Day

By BRUCE CATTON

Harry Harrison Kroll's "I Was a Share-Cropper," (Bobbs-Merrill; $2.75) does not pretend to offer any sort of solution to the problem of the share-cropper system. It is merely the intensely interesting story of how one man (Kroll himself) escaped its poverty and tyranny.

While it is Mr. Kroll's story, the dominating characters, perhaps, are those of his mother and father; Maw, who was always "meetin' a man" who would warn the family to move on to serve another land owner, and Darius, whose patient soul hated the constant moving about, but who assured his children each time that fried pigeons would fly in their mouths when they reached their destination.

Maw fought for her children against great odds. An unbelievably strong woman, she was willing to spend that strength for her family. Darius, to whom Kroll dedicated this book, did little else but work—yet his quiet influence is felt even more strongly than is Maw's.

Kroll tells how, finally outgrowing the handicaps of a childhood infantile paralysis attack, he set out to educate himself at an age when most sons of share-croppers are becoming share-croppers themselves. After a few years as a roaming photographer in the south, he laid out a plan of study and forced himself through a rigid self-education.

In time he passed all the grade courses of a teacher and got his life certificate. Then, though he had married and had children, he went to college, paying his way with his savings and what writing he could manage.

Then he wrote his first book and sold the movie rights for what seemed a fortune.

"I Was a Share-Cropper" is a book that should be read, if for no other reason than that it makes the reader feel good.—J. S.

MAIL CLERK FOR 28 YEARS PAID ALIMONY

CHICAGO, Nov. 17 (AP)—Friends of Tom Harmon were wont to liken his patience to that of Job, his regularity to that of a good timepiece.

For 48 years he worked as a mail clerk without a murmur of complaint. But 28 years of alimony payments have finally broken down the Harmon reserve.

He filed a petition yesterday to vacate the alimony order under which he has paid more than $8,000 in installments of $25 on the first of each month for nearly three decades.

PERSONS HERE NOW 65 MAY BE DUE PENSION

There are a number of individuals in Pampa and surrounding territory who are due cash benefits in the form of lump-sum payments under the Old-Age Insurance section of the Social Security Act, according to Dewey J. Reed, manager of the Amarillo office of the Social Security Board, in Pampa, today, for the purpose of advising employers and employees concerning procedure to be followed in the filing of claims for such payments.

Two types of claims are now being paid by the Social Security Board, Reed said. One is the claim filed by workers who have been in covered employment since Jan. 1 and have reached the age of 65. The other is the claim filed by the estates of workers who have died since January 1 after having been in commercial or industrial employment. In either case, Reed said, the claim amounts to 3 1-2 per cent of the total wages credited to the worker's Social Security account.

Reed requested employers who now have or have had workers in their employ coming under the lump-sum provisions of the Social Security Act, to notify these employees to get in touch with his office.

If employers will review their pay rolls and notify workers who have reached age 65, and estates of deceased workers of their benefit rights, it will speed up payment of amounts due persons in this area, Reed said.

MOTHER-IN-LAW FOILED BY MAN'S OLD CAPTORS

CHICAGO, Nov. 17 (AP)—Conscience, observed Police Captain Patrick Collins, "is a big thing."

But it wasn't the force that impelled Harry Burns, 49, to surrender yesterday for an offense committed 33 years ago.

Burns told police he fled from the Northumberland county, Pa., prison in 1904 after serving six months of a three and one-half year sentence for theft of $30.

"Conscience had nothing to do with my giving myself up," Burns said, "it was my mother-in-law. She knew I had escaped from jail and the last couple of years she had constantly held that over my head."

SUNBURY, Pa., Nov. 17 (AP)—The home town where a 16-year-old boy escaped from jail in 1904 decided today he could keep the freedom he has had for 33 years.

District Attorney Robert Fortney said no action would be taken to bring back Harry Burns, 49, a respected citizen and father of eight children, who surrendered in Chicago yesterday.

FUNERAL HELD FOR BACK BOY

McLean, Nov. 17—Funeral services for Ernie Back, 14, who died in a Pampa hospital Monday after an illness of several weeks, were conducted at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the McLean Church of Christ of which he was a member, with the pastor being assisted by Rev. M. E. Cuthbertson of Pampa and Rev. S. A. Ribble of Shamrock. Burial was in McLean cemetery under direction of Duengel-Carmichael funeral home of Pampa.

The church was filled with classmates and friends of the popular youth and his family, and more friends than would have filled a building twice the size could not be accommodated. They filed past the coffin after the church had been emptied. Floral offerings banked the front of the church.

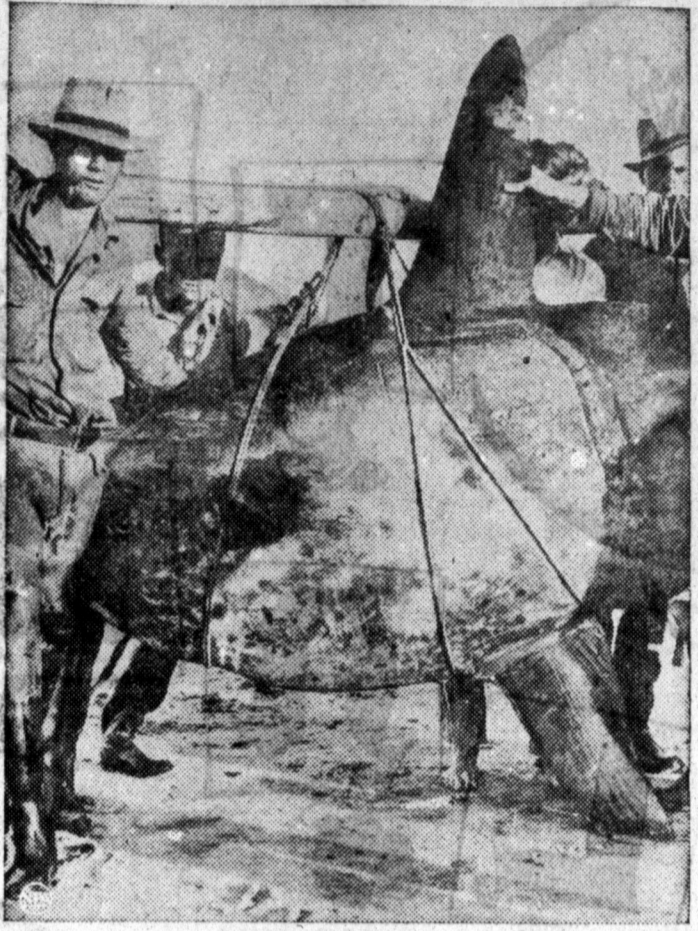

Classmates of the junior class of the McLean high school and Future Farmers of America members, attended in a body. Flower girls were members of the junior class. Many friends and relatives from over the Panhandle attended the services. The Gray county tax collector's office, sheriff's office and other county offices at Pampa were closed during the funeral.

The body lay at rest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Glass until time of services.

Survivors are the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie R. Back, long-time residents of McLean, two sisters, Dorothea and Mary Ann, two brothers, Oran and Wayne, grandparents, County Clerk, J. H. Bogan, and Mrs. M. M. Newman.

Funeral services were held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bogan, 4001 S. 1st St., Pampa, Texas, at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The Rev. M. E. Cuthbertson, pastor of the Pampa church, officiated. Burial was in the Pampa cemetery.

FISHBEIN GIVES TALK ON VENEREAL DISEASES

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 17 (AP)—Dr. Morris Fishbein said today he expected "potholing but favorable" reaction to his nationally broadcast address on social diseases—the same topic which Gen. Hugh S. Johnson was barred from discussing last week.

"We already had the press on our side. And now I know no reason why the medical profession can not count on continued cooperation from the radio in its fight on the venereal diseases," the editor of the American Medical Association's "Journal" said.

"The talk last night was suited to anybody's ears. It was carefully worded.

"If children heard it, they could take their questions to their parents, who are the proper persons to answer them."

National Broadcasting Co., in canceling General Johnson's talk, announced it had "not yet found a way for radio to contribute to this campaign without seriously embarrassing the family group."

ering whether to recall the bill for revision. Leaders declared such a decision would prevent House debate this session.

Government reorganization measures suggested by Mr. Roosevelt were ready in both chambers, but House leaders decided against immediate debate. The legislation was blocked in the Senate when the anti-lynching controversy broke out.

Adoption Predicted.

The anti-lynching measure, which has aroused controversies for years, would make states and municipalities liable if lynchings took place in their jurisdiction. They would have to pay up to $10,000 to a lynching victim (if he was not killed) or to his next of kin.

Connally opened his talk yesterday with a running fire of criticism against the bill, but freely predicted there were enough votes to pass it. "I know a lot of you will be ashamed when you do it, and more ashamed after you do it," he said. "But I don't blame you folks who need the votes and have to have them to be elected."

Southern opponents have contended the handling of the lynching problem successfully without federal intervention. Most Republicans have supported the bill.

MARVIN JONES ASKS PATIENCE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 (AP)—Secretary Wallace explained details of his "ever-normal granary" proposal today to members of the Senate agricultural committee.

Senator Gillette (D. Ia.) predicted a compromise on conflicting opinions in an effort to get a farm program before the Senate within "a few days."

Senator Bankhead (D. Ala.) said southern Senators would support his compulsory cotton control proposals as the cotton section of the Senate farm bill.

Senators on the committee said southerners probably would write cotton, tobacco and rice sections while the outline of the Pope-McGill bill would be followed for corn and wheat.

As Wallace led a squad of farm administration officials and farm organization leaders before the Senate committee, to explain provisions of the Pope-McGill bill, Chairman Jones (D. Texas) of the House committee called for "patience and tolerance" during the work of writing a farm bill.

He proposed that Congress enact a bill following "a middle course" between the extremes of "unreasonable reduction" and production "in unlimited quantities."

Chairman Pierce (D. Ore.) meanwhile called his wheat subcommittee into closed meeting early in the day to attempt to draft provisions for control of both wheat and rice production.

By dividing into subcommittees, after failing as a unit to draft a farm measure, the House agricultural committee resorted to the experiment of dealing separately with each of the five basic commodities—wheat, cotton, corn, rice and tobacco—in order to give Congress a start on the administration program.

2,800 DEER KILLED IN HILL COUNTRY TUESDAY

KERRVILLE, Nov. 17 (AP)—With opening day assaults on deer and turkey behind them, Texas hunters reloaded today for a crack at the remaining 97,000 bucks and 496,000 gobblers the state game department said were still available.

Weather conditions for the second day of hunting continued excellent—"crisp and clear" and thousands of nimrods trod the state's vast natural game areas.

Wardens reporting to temporary state game headquarters here figured yesterday's kill at 2,800 deer and 4,000 turkeys. They were victims of more than 100,000 hunters, many of whom came from other states. The hill country's game-rich 15 counties ranked highest in game taken with 1,700 bucks and more than 3,000 turkeys killed. Native hunters for meat, veteran sportsmen for antlered heads and tenderloin for that "first buck."

Chamber of commerce men, surveying upspring business brought by the hunters, looked ahead to the week-end invasions in the offing and continued directing nimrods to desirable hunting leases.

The seasons close Dec. 31.

Authorities said game would become increasingly wary now that the first gun blasts have frightened them.

The hill country reported no hunting fatalities.

HUNTERS KILL DEER, SAME TIME, WEIGHT

LUBBOCK, Nov. 17 (AP)—Dr. Sam G. Dunn and Harold Humphries, both of Lubbock, were home from the deer hunt today, each with his buck and with the prize story of the deer hunting season.

They left Lubbock Monday night and returned today. The opening of the hunting season near Fort Davis at dawn Tuesday. Within two hours their rifles cracked at the same instant. Each shot was good for a buck. The bucks weighed exactly the same and each had the same number of points. They reached home Tuesday night.

TEXAS GOAT, NAVY'S MASCOT, GETS CAKE

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 17 (AP)—Bill VIII, the Navy's goat mascot, received a cotton seed pea cake today for Thanksgiving dinner and instructions to "beat that Army mule in the football game so my grandpa can tell me about it."

Both came from 7-year-old Basil M. Halbert III of Sonora, Texas, whose grandfather, Basil M. Halbert Sr., raised Bill VIII for the Navy, and declared $4,000,000 Texas goats are pulling for the Navy to win.

CADILLAC CLOSES ITS PLANT AT DETROIT

DETROIT, Nov. 17 (AP)—The Cadillac Motor Car Co. closed its plant today because of a short-lived sit-down strike of 75 employees in the foundry core room. Over thousand workers were affected.

The strikers left the plant after a conference with the shop committee of the United Automobile Workers of America. The company announced production would be resumed with the night shift.

Company officials said demands of the men for a wage increase of 10 cents an hour and equalization of pay schedules would be negotiated. U. A. W. leaders said the strike was not authorized.

JAPAN TAKES STEP TO SENTENCE FOR NEGROES

TOKYO, Nov. 17 (AP)—Emperor Hirohito approved today the creation of an "imperial headquarters" to consolidate the government in one highly centralized administrative body with sweeping powers.

(The order for its establishment places the chiefs of the army and navy general staffs and their aides under a unified command, presumably to coordinate war operations.)

Japan set up "imperial headquarters" during the Chinese-Japanese war of 1894-95 and during the war with Russia in 1904-05. Both times military and naval chiefs gathered under one roof and all government came from them.

INFECTED TOOTH GIVES PRESIDENT A FEVER

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 (AP)—President Roosevelt still had a slight temperature from an infected tooth today and doctors ordered him to stay in bed.

All engagements, including a press conference postponed from yesterday, were cancelled for the second successive day.

White House officials reported the President had a restful night after a sleepless Monday night.

SEARGEANT KILLED IN HUNT FOR FUGITIVES

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 17 (AP)—State police, local officers and federal agents today concentrated their grim manhunt for three prisoners convicted of the 1933 John J. O'Connell Jr. kidnaping in this city after a local detective reported a man claimed he was held up by the armed trio.

Detective Sergeant Arthur Holden of the Syracuse police declared that John King said he definitely identified three men who held him up last night as Percy Geary, 34; John Oley, 36, and Harold Crowley, 35, the convicts who staged a daring escape from the Onondaga county jail at nearby Jamesville, N. Y., early yesterday morning.

A state police sergeant was killed early today during the hunt for three escaped prisoners.

Sergeant Joseph L. Fitzpatrick was crushed when his patrol car overturned near Morrisville. Trooper Robert Wylie, driver of the car, escaped serious injury.

KIWANIS WILL GIVE PROGRAM AT PLAINVIEW

Many Pampa Kiwanians will go to Plainview Friday when the local club will present the program at the noon luncheon of the Plainview club. Safety will be the theme of the program being arranged by J. B. Massa, chairman of the safety committee, and Bill Jarratt, chairman of the inter-club relations committee.

Local Kiwanians planning to make the trip are urged to call Massa at 796 Jarratt at 164 or Fred Thompson at 43 so that reservations can be made. Most of the trippers will ride the special train leaving here at 9 a. m.

The program will be presented upon request of the Plainview club, made several weeks ago. Plainview Kiwanians are interested in sponsoring a safety program in their city and the Pampa club's program was recommended as an example.

pages which government has so freely granted to industry. All his actions indicate that he would develop supported farmers in programs of the type they have adopted.

"Just as he himself shifted from one-crop tobacco production to a balanced type of farming in order to save his soil, it seems almost certain that he would have favored government action to aid farmers as a group to bring their farming operations into balance."

"Let us resolve that we will be worthy of his great example. Let us resolve that as a nation we will not neglect the fertility of our soil or the integrity of our farm homes. Let us resolve that, now and always, the great art of husbandry shall have its rightful place in our American life."

Although Washington considered agricultural production to be more than a local matter, Mr. Roosevelt said the first president could not possibly have foreseen many changes that were destined to take place.

Couldn't Foresee Tariff

Washington could not foresee, the chief executive said, that a protective tariff policy would put agriculture "at a permanent disadvantage" or how farm mortgages would be linked with life insurance policies held by millions of people in cities and towns.

He could not foresee, Mr. Roosevelt continued, that taxes, interest and freight rates would push thousands of farmers into bankruptcy, or how abundant production would crush farmers under unmarketable surpluses.

Nor could Washington see ahead, the president added, the development of great corporations and labor unions causing farmers to unite, or the intricate ties between rural and urban prosperity.

Yet, the nation's first executive, Mr. Roosevelt asserted, showed that nearly a century and a half ago he realized the wide scope of the agricultural problem.

Quezon gave Encallado a conditional pardon, but other members of the gang remained in prison.

DOWNSVILLE, Md., Nov. 17 (AP)—Fourteen well-armed hunters aren't bragging about this story—but they admit it's true.

All converged simultaneously on a lone rabbit in a field near here and blazed away with both single and double barreled shotguns. They fired about 30 shots.

The rabbit was killed by a boy who bowled it over with a stone.

French Weman To Be Beheaded

The merciless tongue-lashing the French public prosecutor administers in presentation of the case to the jury brings tears of anguish to the face of Mme Rosalie-Josephine Mory, 50-year-old harber's wife, on trial for the murder of her daughter-in-law. The state charged Mme. Mory killed Captain Louis Mory's bride because she hoped he would make a marriage more advantageous to an army officer. The jury sentenced her to be guillotined.

COUNTY WILL BENEFIT FROM TAX DECISION

Decision of the United States Supreme court on two recent cases, in which the Texas intangible tax act was upheld is expected to greatly benefit the counties of the state, according to a letter from Attorney General William McCraw to county judges.

The attorney-general said he expected to see payments made of the intangible taxes assessed in 1934, 1935, 1936, and 1937.

Intangible taxes are defined as a tax on "some unknown value supposed to exist in excess of the true value."

In Gray county, the tax supplies to railroads and oil and gas pipelines F. E. Leech, county tax-assessor-collector, said this morning that some of the companies due to pay these taxes had refused to let the state tax board make certification of taxes to the county, having secured an injunction to prevent this.

Other companies have paid the tax promptly each year, he said. Figures on what the collection of these taxes in cases where taxes were delinquent for the past three years were not immediately available.

Intangible taxes of one oil pipe line company in Gray for 1937 was $1,387.66, for another $1,930.55, while a third had been assessed $1,586.32, none of which have been paid.

PORT WORTH, Nov. 17 (AP)—Pupils were removed safely today as fire destroyed the two-room natural rock building of the Harrison rural school about 15 miles east of here.

Classes were resumed, after a short delay, in the auditorium of the Harrison tabernacle church, county superintendent Roach announced.

The flames started in a defective flue. The school has an enrollment of 73 pupils.

OFFICER DEAD, WIFE INJURED IN WRECK

HOUSTON, Nov. 17 (AP)—E. Penn West, 27 federal probation officer, was dead today and his bride of a month lay near death in a hospital as a result of an auto accident late yesterday near Little York.

West's machine was in a head-on collision with another.

He died last night. His wife, hospital attendants said, was still unconscious today.

Three other persons were hurt in the crash.

CHINESE HIT BACK AT JAPS

SHANGHAI, Nov. 17 (AP)—Heavily reinforced Chinese armies struck back at Japanese invaders today in a counter-attack along the "Hindenburg" line defending Nanking, some 125 miles away.

Thousands of fresh troops from the interior marched eastward to bolster Chinese forces southeast of the capital. Civilians fled from Nanking to the west and the evacuation of government offices was under way.

Chinese commanders said the counter-attack had permitted them to form new lines and declared: "We will not capitulate or compromise with Japan. We will fight to the last ditch."

Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek had several hundred thousand trained troops at his disposal.

At North China the famous Communist eight army harassed communication lines and garrisons of the Japanese.

COURT UPHOLDS LAW ON FORGED TENDER

AUSTIN, Nov. 17 (AP)—The Court of Criminal Appeals today upheld validity of a statute making forgery of a railroad commission tender a criminal offense.

The defense had attacked validity of the law.

PAMPANS PERK UP AS LUBBOCK BECOMES FAVORITE TO BEAT SANDIES

SPECIAL TRAIN WILL BE RUN TO PLAINVIEW

Harvester coaches sent their charges through a tough scrimmage period yesterday afternoon that developed into a real battle when the squad learned that the Lubbock Westerners had downed the Clovis Wildcats, 20 to 7. Figuring things up for a minute, the boys doped it out that Lubbock would beat Amarillo on Thanksgiving day and that they would have to down Plainview and Berger decisively to be the team certified by the district committee as champions.

That was when the fun started. The boys crashed and slashed, tackled and blocked and only the coaches held J. P. Mathews and Junior Williams off of the scrimmage. Mathews, still hopping around because of a knee injury and Williams with a bruised hip, have been unable to practice since the Lubbock game. Mathews, however, played most of the Armistice day battle with Amarillo.

Special Train Running.
The Harvesters will have their usual strong backing in Plainview Friday afternoon when they take the field at 2:30 o'clock. A special train carrying several hundred fans will leave from the Santa Fe station at 9 o'clock, arriving in Plainview at 11:30 a. m. Many other fans will make the trip by car. Tickets on the special will be $1.95 round trip.

A block of tickets for Pampa fans arrived here this morning and were placed on sale at the office of Roy McMillen in the city hall. They will cost fans 75 cents.

Harvester coaches and players are not discounting the strength of the Bulldogs who are big and fast. On top of that, the Bulldogs have a dangerous passing machine with Crossland on the sending end and Schneider, tall end, and James, fleet, but big back on the receiving location.

Tricks have played an important part in the Bulldog offense. Coach Vernon Hilliard, the former Kerrville coach, being a master of trickery. His Kerrville team last year was an example of his cunning.

To Shoot Everything.
"We'll be expecting anything," Coaches Mitchell and Prejan remarked yesterday. "We will probably have a full team ready to take the field. Mathews' knee injury is now responding to treatment. The other boys are gradually getting over their soreness following the Thursday game."

On Saturday afternoon the Berger Bulldogs will attempt to beat the Sandies on Butler field and Bergans are optimistic. The return of Little Conner, halfback, bolstered the team morale considerably.

Armstrong And Beauhuld Will Box on Friday

NEW YORK, Nov. 17 (AP)—A couple of tough little guys from Mt. Airy, Henry Armstrong and Billy Beauhuld, fight at Madison Square Garden Friday night.

Armstrong, the negro who holds the world featherweight championship, won't be putting his title on the block, but as fights go it may mean quite a bit to both of them.

They will bring records hard to beat into the ten-round set. The result may show whether Armstrong will continue to fight as often and as hard as a champion as he did before or whether he'll cash in on the title at the first chance and then campaign as a lightweight.

Gaels to Play Rams Saturday

NEW YORK, Nov. 17 (AP)—Fordham's unbeaten, Pitt-tied Rams meet the hobbled, once-galloping Gaels of St. Mary's at the Polo Grounds Saturday in the seventh renewal of transcontinental gridiron rivalry.

Once again an underdog Gael eleven is in a position to throw a mean body block into Fordham's Pasadena-inclined aspirations.

The game will bring together able representatives of the football sections which are leading the nation in inter-sectional competition. Major far western teams have come unbeaten through five games with representatives of other sections. The east's record shows 35 victories in 68 starts.

This Saturday traditional neighborhood and conference struggles dominate the program, yet there will, incidentally, be the first time this season that the east will not be represented in over half of these games.

Due to Fordham's national ranking and possible consideration for the Rose Bowl, the Rams' clash with St. Mary's will be the outstanding inter-sectional clash nationally. The others will send Arkansas against George Washington, Centenary against Texas Tech, Marquette against Duquesne, Arizona against Kansas, Baylor against Loyola (Los Angeles), and U. C. L. A. against Southern Methodist. The first-named is the home team in each case.

Baylor Loses to SMU in Upset

Lubbock Shows Power In Whipping Clovis 20 to 7

LUBBOCK, Nov. 17.—Displaying new life and new power, the Lubbock Westerners yesterday afternoon pulled the football surprise of the season out of the bag in downing the mighty Clovis Wildcats, 20 to 7, on Tech field.

The victory boosted the Lubbock stock considerably and gave them a chance against the Amarillo Sandies on November 25 in Amarillo. Although outweighted and with experience against them, the Westerners came back strong after a sluggish first period to take Leland McIntyre and crew into camp.

Lubbock will rest until their battle with Amarillo while the Sandies will have to battle the Berger Bulldogs Saturday afternoon at Butler field. If the Westerners could cook up a pass offense to go with their powerful running attack, the dope would favor Lubbock on Thanksgiving day, the experts believe.

Webster is Star.
Working in the Lubbock line was Jack Ware, 215-pound player who just this week became eligible. Ware played a whale of a defensive game, blocked on the offense, and sometimes carried the ball for nice gains. Ware's presence in the lineup gave the Westerners confidence they have needed all season, and in turning back the Wildcats they looked vastly improved over the team which had been whipped by Berger and Pampa in district one play.

Webster was the big shot all the way, but Clovis' McIntyre ran him a close race. Hart gave McIntyre some valuable assistance. In the main it was the Lubbock team's superior physical condition which won the ball game.

McIntyre Scores.
The flying Webster couldn't be stopped. This boy, who is a track man in the spring, sprinted for 20 yards near the end of the first period, after Lubbock had halted a Clovis drive on the Westerner three. He picked up 22 yards as the second period opened and finally carried over from the two for the game's initial touchdown. Foster added the extra point from placement.

The Wildcats counted early in the fourth period when McIntyre carried and Hart passed on a series of plays which put the ball on the Westerners' one-yard line. McIntyre lunged over for the score. Hazlewood place-kicked extra point.

Lubbock was in possession of Clovis' 20-yard line when the game ended.

In the matter of statistics, Lubbock made 13 first downs to Clovis' 19, gained 220 yards from scrimmage as compared to the Wildcats' 180, and completed one pass to Clovis' four.

Sports Roundup

By EDDIE BREITZ

NEW YORK, Nov. 17 (AP)—Max Schmeling, who probably never saw a football game in his life, is picking the grid winners in a New York newspaper's guessing contest. . . . Nebraska writers say Sam Francis' kid brother, Viscount, now a frosh back for the Cornhuskers, is going to be better than old Sam, which is some order in any football league.

If you are looking for long shots Saturday, put a bet on Columbia over Dartmouth, Princeton over Navy, Colgate over Syracuse, Purdue over Indiana and Stanford over California. . . . (There'll be a four star "sleeper" coming along later in the week. . . . Right now it looks like Texas Christian over Rice, but this isn't the last word.)

One guy getting a lot of mail these days is Dukes Dufford, former Marquette fullback and now coach of St. Ambrose college at Davenport, Ia. . . . Since he took charge in 1931, Dukes' teams have won 45 games, lost only nine and brought in three titles. . . . He is undefeated in the Iowa conference since 1933.

If he's in a new and bigger post next year, don't be surprised. . . . Some of the New York experts are blasting Army's "outmoded attack". . . . We still say they'll sink the navy.

Higgins to Play Oklahoma Team
HIGGINS, Nov. 17.—(Special)—The Higgins Coyotes will defend a record of no defeats on the home field on Friday when they meet the Seiling, Okla., Tigers. The Coyotes came out of last week's game with no injuries but Mauldin, center, is out with appendicitis and will probably be missing from the line-up this Friday.

Coach Teters plans to give his substitutes a lot of time in this game since the scores of the last two games have been so top-heavy.

Miss Naomi Deering, junior, will be crowned football queen at the half by J. K. Mugg, captain. Each member of the team will choose as his partner some member of the pep squad for the ceremony. Miss Zora Gray, pep squad sponsor, will be in charge.

Squad Cut to 17 By Injuries
BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Nov. 17 (AP)—The cheer-leader at James Millikin University had better watch out, or he will find himself stuffed into a football uniform. The lack of manpower has become so serious that Coach Harold Johnson drafted student manager Roy Dunning yesterday.

Injuries have reduced the squad to 17 players.

McLEAN WILL BATTLE IRISH FRIDAY NIGHT

McLEAN, Nov. 17.—The McLean Tigers, who have lost one game this year, will play the powerful Shamrock Irishmen at Tiger field at 7:30 Friday night. The Tigers, who have not scored many points this year in any one game and who have been scored on in every game but one, will meet one of the smartest defensive clubs in the district when they meet the Irishmen.

The Tigers allowed Clarendon 6 points, Mobeetie 6 points, Lakeview 6 points, Memphis 6, LeFors 6, Wellington 18. The Tigers beat Mobeetie 33 to 6 and Shamrock beat them 50 to 0. Mobeetie beat Clarendon 52-0 and both teams scored on the Tigers.

There are still plenty of reserve seats but they are going fast and they will probably all be gone by Friday at noon. The season is nearly over and football fans are eager to get a last glimpse of the top teams and sprouts, so he has the bag and the "ice man" on call duty.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—Harvard coaches evidently have figured out their squad is going to face a real tough player in Yale's Clint Frank Saturday. Instead of using one of the subs to represent Frank in scrimmage, the usual custom, they called upon End Coach Wesley Pesier, who was an all-America choice two years at Ohio State, to demonstrate the Blue star's passing.

The Tigers have a chance at district honors but have dropped one game to the Wellington Skyrockets after outplaying them in every department.

The Tigers will spring a new attack at the Irishmen in hopes of finding the clue that would make their club a more versatile one. With one or two changes in the lineup, Coach Allen hopes to have a more powerful running and passing attack.

Greenleaf Wins Billiards Title

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 17 (AP)—Ralph Greenleaf, hardy perennial of pocket billiards, had $1,500 prize money and his sixteenth world championship to show today for his playoff victory last night over Irving Crane, 23, of Livonia, N. Y.

The New York City veteran, defending champion, marching roughshod over Crane, ended with his best run of 76. His winning margin was 125 to minus 11 in 11 innings. The runner-up prize netted Crane $1,100.

PUNTS AND PASSES

COLLEGE STATION—If you wonder why Henry (Bear Tracks) Hauser, Texas Aggie's freshman center, wears No. 60 on his football jersey, it's a bit of psychology worked up by Charlie DeWare, assistant freshman coach. DeWare wore that number when he was an Aggie star. When he found Hauser wasn't learning the tricks of the trade as quickly as he thought, the coach handed him that number then hinted he shouldn't let down. Hauser didn't, at least when he wore it against the Rice yearlings Armistice day.

EAST LANSING, Mich.—That bag of chopped ice that is carried on the Michigan State practice field every day isn't used to calm Coach Charlie Bachman's headaches. Bachman has found that prompt chilling tends to minimize after effects of bruises and sprains, so he has the bag and the "ice man" on call duty.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—Harvard coaches evidently have figured out their squad is going to face a real tough player in Yale's Clint Frank Saturday. Instead of using one of the subs to represent Frank in scrimmage, the usual custom, they called upon End Coach Wesley Pesier, who was an all-America choice two years at Ohio State, to demonstrate the Blue star's passing.

Colleges Demand Control of Four Olympic Squads

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 (AP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Association carried to the meeting of the American Olympic association today a demand it be given control of track, swimming, crew and wrestling squads the United States sends to Olympic games.

The college group seeks to wrest control of these squads from the Amateur Athletic Union, arguing that, since colleges have come to furnish most of the point-winning athletes in the four sports, a change in control was indicated.

A compromise was expected.

Sport Sparks

By FELIX R. McKNIGHT
DALLAS, Nov. 17 (AP)—Schoolboy Lendon Davis, who does his ball teting for Mount Vernon, has pounded his way to 172 points so far. His average per try is 7.2 yards and at that he has had to do considerable scoring to keep ahead of one Bill Campbell, a teammate who has run up 138 points. Mount Vernon, itself, is credited with 404 points to the enemy's 31 in nine straight triumphs.

Until last Saturday, Ernie Lain, the Rice Bomber, hadn't had the sensation of seeing one of his numerous passes intercepted. . . . The Texas Aggie not only intercepted three of them but made more yards on Rise passes than the Owls did themselves. . . . The Owl leaders, Lain and Sullivan, tried 23 passes, completed eight for 80 yards. . . . The Aggie intercepted five of them for total runbacks of 96 yards. . . . 16 more than the Owls got themselves!

Rice fans, realizing what a box office draw they have in Lain and Ollie Cordill for the next two seasons, plus a rosy outlook from now on, are starting a campaign to enlarge the stadium to 35,000 capacity. . . . Ticket manager E. W.

Hooker of Texas A. and M. wants it noised around that there are still about 10,000 seats left for the Thanksgiving Day classic at College Station and that rumors of a "sellout" are unfortunately untrue.

Self-appointed line coach of the Rice frosh team is Clarence (Fats) Rheinlander of San Antonio, once tagged as the greatest center prospect ever to enroll. . . . a leg injury halted his career before he had a chance to play varsity ball, but he can't stay away from the practice field. . . . High schoolers of Marlin and Mount Cain are claiming a schoolboy forward passing mark of some kind. . . . In a recent game Marlin completed seven of 17 passes while Mount Cain completed 13 of 38. . . . The total was 55 passes.

Publicist Tony Slaughter of St. Mary's of San Antonio gives interesting data on Doug Locke, the little all-America ball carrier of last year. . . . To date, Locke has completed 29 of 47 forward passes, five of them for scores to H. L. Wendorf, six foot, five inch end. . . . Locke also has averaged 8.5 yards per carry on his running efforts. . . . and Wendorf, sensation of the team, has a kicking average of 53 yards in nine games. . . . He has scored seven T. D.'s and didn't even play high school football at Corsicana before enrolling at St. Mary's. . . . The big 210-pounder, admitted, however, he did a little sandlotting with Bobby Wilson, Bob Finley and other Corsicana products.

JILL

BY MARY RAYMOND
Copyright, 1937, NEA Service, Inc.

Yesterday, Jill is picked up by police as she drove aimlessly about the city. The net is fast closing in about her. But what about Barry, Jill recalls. No it couldn't have been him, she reasons. What must she do?

CHAPTER XXIV

Alan's apartment was locked. Shades were drawn. A prolonged pounding by Patty after continuous ringing of the bell, brought no response. She went to the apartment next door and pressed the bell. An elderly man answered the door. No, he didn't know the occupant on the other side. He had often planned to call on a fellow artist. And now the young man was gone. He had seen him leaving this afternoon in a cab. He had carried several large suitcases with him.

Patty turned away in panic. Alan had gone away from his place. It would be like looking for a needle in a haystack, sure enough, trying to find an unknown young man in a large city. "Thank heaven for Ardash!" Patty thought, wildly. Adding mentally "And don't you dare to give me any trouble, Ardash, or I'll tear you apart with my hands. You've already caused too much trouble. It's you who should be investigated. But women like you get by with anything."

Having indulged herself by this mental berating of the despised Ardash, Patty swung into Madison avenue and headed for the exclusive shop where Ardash modeled. "What do you want?" Ardash began belligerently. "I'm pretty busy if you don't mind—"

"I do mind," Patty answered. "Take me to the private place where we can talk."

"What if I can't care to talk with you?"

"Maybe you'd rather talk with the police."

Ardath shrugged. But she led the way to a small fitting room and closed the door.

Patty went directly to the point. "Ardath, Jill is in trouble. The police think she had something to do with the death of her father, who died, they say, at six o'clock. Jill wasn't at home then. She had just left you at the door of Alan's apartment."

"So, she told you that?" Ardash was smiling queerly. "I guess she's pretty scared. Women who are scared will say most anything."

"Tell the truth," Patty spoke, shortly. "Why didn't you go to Alan Jeffrey?" Ardash asked.

"I did. He wasn't at home. The people next door saw him leave this afternoon with his suitcases."

Patty immediately regretted the words. She had seen a look in Ardash's eyes that she recognized. The look of the rat slipping between the cat's paws and into its own dark hole.

"Pretty dumb of me," Patty groaned to herself. "Gone away, has he?" Ardash mused. "Well, even if he were here, and even if I were at his place—it wouldn't help you any. Jill's worth is not telling the truth. I didn't see her that morning around 6 o'clock. You can tell her for me that she'll have to think up another alibi."

"Why you—you terrible, unconscious liar—"

"Haul out all the compliments you happen to have with you," Ardash replied calmly. "I always knew you didn't like me, Patty."

"I don't like you," Patty spoke bluntly. "But my feelings toward you haven't anything to do with this. You were at Alan's because Jill said you were. And I'll find Alan, and he'll say so. If you think you'd shield you when Jill's in danger, you are not as smart as I think you are. You should know better than anyone that he loves Jill."

was at Alan's just to clear Jill. But somehow she must convince him she was not.

"Someone—a girl friend of mine is in great trouble," Patty said. "This young man and an old woman who was begging in front the day flash it came to her. There was an old woman with the red scarf Jill had given her."

"We have no beggars," the man began stiffly. "I've heard that before," Patty answered. "Just the same there was an old woman in front of this building and my friend gave her some money and a red woolen scarf—"

"A red scarf!" the man exclaimed. "Oh, of course. Will you come with me?"

Patty walked in. She had a nervous feeling that maybe she should not be following him. His eyes had gleamed so queerly at the mention of the red scarf.

They were walking down a hall. And now the man was throwing a door wide.

Seated near a glowing fire, knitting briskly, was an ancient-looking old woman. About her shoulders was a cheery red scarf.

"Nanna," began the man sternly, did you take some money from a young woman when you went out for a breath of air early yesterday morning. And where did you get that scarf?"

The old woman's bright eyes twinkled. "Did she repent her bargain and want the pretty scarf back? Or maybe she didn't know it was a beeg bill she was giving me?"

The man shook his head in mock disapproval. "You'd never know that you were the mother of a respectable painter. Shameless. No wonder this young lady was out searching for a beggar."

He turned to Patty: "She gets up every morning at 6 and goes out for a brief while. She had the habit back in France, and I have not been able to break her of it, Patty smiled wanly back at him.

Of course, she did sound crazy. But somehow she must convince him she was not.

though the winter mornings here and in the south of France are very different. "She looked at her watch and said, 'It's six o'clock' the old woman broke in merrily. 'And I said, 'You don't have to tell me the time. I know by the sun.' So pretty she was. So ashamed she would have been, if I gave her the money back." Patty sat down weakly. "Please excuse me. But I feel a little faint. After I recover a bit, I want you and your son to go with me to the police. The girl who gave you the red scarf is in trouble. The police claim she was somewhere else at 6 yesterday morning." "They do, do they?" began the old woman. "Those police! Well, I guess this will prove something. Are those the girls--what do you say in your English--in-cel-est? Sit down the rest of them from her shoulders and handed it to Patty. Inside were the letters, embroidered on a silk marking band, "J. W."

CERTAIN FOOD ITEMS LOWER

CHICAGO, Nov. 17 (AP)—Housewives' Thanksgiving can start at the grocery store this year. Wholesale food prices today indicated a number of items for the Thanksgiving Day feast will be priced lower than a year ago. If the relationship of current wholesale food prices with those of mid-November, 1936, is maintained next week, many items will sell lower despite the fact the level of food costs recently was the highest in six years. However, several important Thanksgiving Day specialties, such as the roasted bird may cost a little more. Turkeys, ducks, geese and other poultry are quoted higher than a year ago in the Chicago wholesale market but are lower than two years ago. Choice turkeys are up 17 per cent compared with last year. Best dressed turkeys have risen 1 1/2 cents per pound in the past week and now are quoted at 26 1/2 to 27 1/2 wholesale compared with 21 to 23 a year ago and 23 to 28 two years ago. Cuts ranging up to 50 per cent are evident in such Thanksgiving Day staples as eggs, potatoes, apples, oranges, onions, tomatoes, lard, flour and some shell nuts. Items which are up to 15 per cent higher include butter, beans, cheese and a few other trimmings. Retail food prices have declined slightly the past month, with meats, fruits and vegetables in the lead. However, the latest government index of retail food costs was 2.5 per cent higher than a year ago.

Hughes, at the regular meeting of the Jaycees here yesterday, named Jack Foster to head the judges' delegation. Members of the club also heard reports yesterday from James Collins, of the highway committee, discussed plans for a meeting next Tuesday night with state officers of the organization, and received reports on the progress of plans for Santa Day.

LUNAR ECLIPSE WILL BE VISIBLE TOMORROW

DELAWARE, O., Nov. 17 (AP)—A lunar eclipse, the only one that can be seen during 1937, will be visible throughout the United States early tomorrow, according to Dr. Ernest Cherrington, Jr., astronomer at Perkins Observatory of Ohio Wesleyan and Ohio State Universities here. The moon will begin to move into the earth's shadow at 1:37 a. m., (Central standard time).

Skelly to Have Benefit Supper

SKELLYTOWN, Nov. 17.—For the benefit of the Skellytown Athletic Association, a pie supper will be given at the Skelly Schafer boarding house at 8 o'clock tomorrow night. The affair will be open to everyone, and will be an evening of entertainment as well as a community get-together.

13th Kidnaper

Of the 13 men involved in the 1933 kidnaping of John J. O'Connell, of Albany, N. Y., two have committed suicide and 10 others of from three to 77 years in federal penitentiaries and here, police say, is James Sweeney, last member of the gang, shown above after his capture in Los Angeles. The prisoner denied his guilt, gave the name of James Sanders. A $45,000 ransom was paid for O'Connell's release.

NOTHING MUCH 'WRONG' WITH OIL INDUSTRY

By ALFRED WALL.
TULSA, Okla., Nov. 17 (AP)—Stagnation of business in the petroleum industry is provoking much head-scratching and a variety of privately expressed opinion as to just how bad—or how good—conditions are, and why.

So we sought out an old timer in his retreat littered with lease maps and promised to preserve anonymity and he said, "Shucks, ain't anything wrong—much."

A person must look at it very broadly, he opined, and in the end it will be apparent petroleum's perturbation "which may seem a natural reaction to a general business recession, is not justified. There's nothing basically wrong except the old, old trouble of production exceeding slightly the reduced seasonal demand."

He noted many economic factors pointed up but if you listen to the most pessimistic oil executives you'd feel the whole shebang was going down.

"The public is consuming 10 per cent more petroleum products this year than last and 1936 was the best in history as regards consumption," said he.

"The business is just coasting along at this point. Look up until two months ago things were all to the good. Then a slight relapse comes along. It looks bad when the stock market hits a snag, a new congress is in session, the Madison all trials worry the leaders. First thing you know a seasonal decline looks like a serious slump. Oilmen get the jitters.

"This business is dormant now. Big drilling campaigns, pyramided since 1935 to protect leases and prove new reserves, have used up budgets. Companies just cut down.

"Wait until the first of the year when the companies find they have made money, new budgets are made out for improvements and expansion, bonuses and dividends are paid and congress lifts the tax burden a little—if it does. Then you'll see we didn't have such a sorry ending to a promising year after all."

In the marketing end of the industry weakness of gasoline continued, spreading to fractional reductions in tank car and tank wagon gasoline prices. The market for fuel oils continued to boom.

Crude oil men rejoiced over Texas' 68,886-barrel daily reduction in allowable and the prospect of a further reduction of about 65,000 barrels daily through the shut-down of the East Texas field to test pressures. The crude price was unchanged and no change was anticipated.

Field work slowed down slightly, the Oil and Gas Journal's compilation showing 630 completions, 69 less than the previous week.

Fascists Honor Italians Killed in Spain

The Fascist legions drawn up in seemingly endless array on the Piazza Venezia, in Rome, provided the spectacular touch for impressive memorial services in honor of the Italian volunteers who fell in action in the Spanish conflict. The services were held as statesmen of Italy, France and Britain attempted to arrange for the withdrawal of all foreign troops from the contending armies in Spain.

Flashes of LIFE

(By The Associated Press)
GETTING WARMER
CAMDEN, N. J.—Firemen broke into a house in response to an alarm and were about to leave because they could find no flames. "Hey, boys," shouted a passing truck driver, "when you get through with that fire, there's another around the corner.

The firemen unwound their hose again and went to work.

SALT OF THE EARTH
OAKLAND, Calif.—Now all Kenneth Szelove needs is a pepper mine. He already had laid claim to "all the salt in the oceans"—and "all the unclaimed inhabitants of all the oceans," to boot.

He did not say what he was going to do with the salt when he paid a $1 county recording fee.

HE'S UP; HE'S DOWN
KANSAS CITY—Grocer H. T. Hedspath threw up his hands when a gunman pointed a revolver at him. "No you don't," said the robber. "Hands down."

Apparently fearing upraised hands would attract attention, he took $30 and fled.

FAST WORKER
CHICAGO—Being friendly, penitence, and a widower, Benjamin F. Hutchinson, 63, wanted to spend his last years in a clean, warm federal penitentiary.

That was the explanation he gave when he was seized by a watchman after smashing a window of the suburban Evanston Postoffice. Hutchinson was held to the grand jury on a charge of damaging government property.

Explorer Johnson Shoots Rabbits With Bow, Arrow

WARSAW, Ind., Nov. 17 (AP)—Martin Johnson's friends laughed when he left his shotgun behind and went into the woods armed only with his bow and arrow.

He came back with three rabbits.

Ninety-nine out of every 100 passengers on the Austrian railways in the last year traveled third class.

One School, One Teacher, One Pupil

Tow-headed Darrel Hadley, 6, has no trouble being "teacher's pet" for he is the only pupils at the Bolton rural school in Montgomery county, Kansas. At the start of the term, Teacher Roy Needels had no pupils, then Darrel transferred from another school and saved Needels from coming daily to a completely empty schoolroom. Photos show Darrel and his teacher both inside and out of the one-room schoolhouse. Note the rows of empty desks.

AWAIT MUSTANGS
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 17 (AP)—Preparations for the invasion by Southern Methodist's Mustangs, the Bruins of University of California at Los Angeles went behind closed gates again today to work out new grid plays.

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS API MEETING HERE

The year's best attended meeting of the Panhandle chapter of the American Petroleum Institute was held last night in city auditorium with pictures showing the manufacture of sucker rods and of rope and a discussion of pumping conditions in the Panhandle field by Bill Mitchell, equipment engineer for Oilwell Supply Company here.

The pictures were under direction of Bill Miskimin, district manager, of Pampa.

Preceding the showing of the pictures, Mike Shepic presented members of his Tarpley Store Accordion band who played several numbers. The participants included Betty Jayne Boyington, Veta Lee Alden, Arlene Saunders, and Mr. Shepic. Their numbers were loudly applauded by the more than 250 present.

Every step of the manufacture of Oilwell Company sucker rods from the mine to the well was shown in a talking picture. Of particular interest were "close up" shots on the handling of the rods, the treading of the joints and the coupling of the rods at the well.

A second picture on the manufacture of rope and its many uses was presented through courtesy of the Plymouth Cordage Company.

A visitor at the meeting was J. C. Johnson of Fort Worth, district superintendent of the Continental Oil Company and former chairman of the API chapter.

TWO DIVORCES
CAMDEN, N. J., Nov. 17 (AP)—Elmer Schroeder testified his wife, Emilie, left him because he couldn't find work. Reinhard H. Raymeyer said his wife, Muriel, left because he worked too hard. Advisory Master Linwood W. Erickson recommended two divorces.

THE BOSS IS COMING

SOCIAL SECURITY QUESTIONS

(Editor's Note: This is one of a series of questions and answers being published by this newspaper for the benefit of employers, workers and others affected by the Social Security Act.)

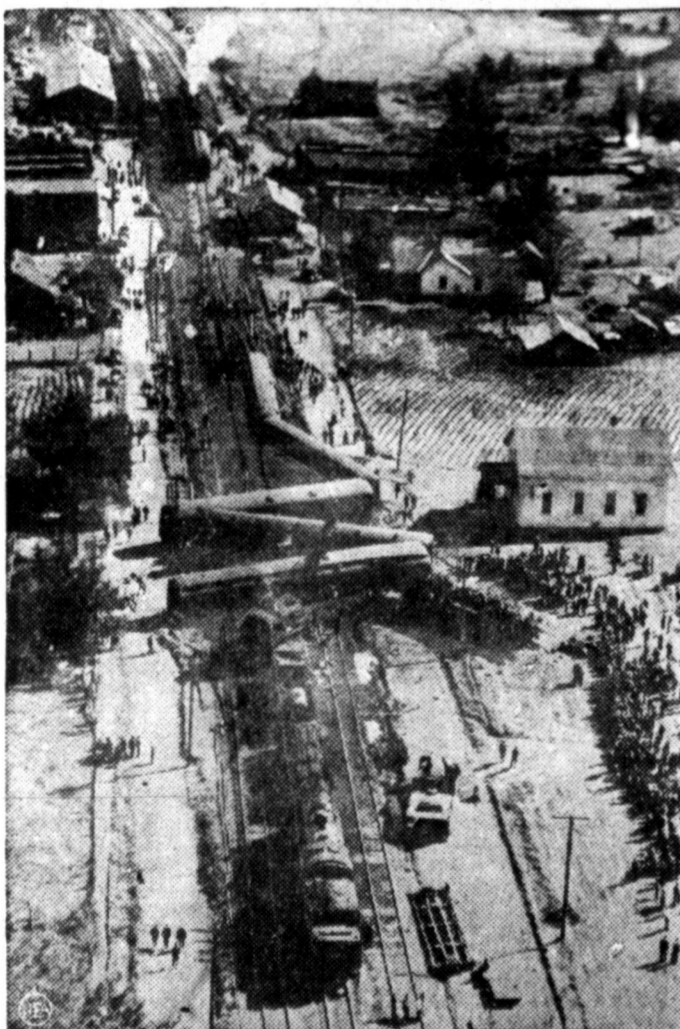

QUESTION: How soon are benefits payable under the old-age insurance provisions of the Social Security Act?

ANSWER: Lump-sum benefits are payable now to an employee if he has reached the age of 65 since December 31, 1936, and has worked in a covered occupation since that date. In case an employee has died since December 31, 1936, and has worked in a covered occupation after that date, the estate of such an individual is eligible to file claim for a lump-sum payment. In either case, the lump-sum will amount to 3 1/2 percent of wages paid to the worker in covered occupations since December 31, 1936.

Monthly benefits will be paid after January 1, 1942, to qualified individuals. Qualified individuals are those who have attained age 65 and who, since December 31, 1936, and before attaining age 65, have worked in covered occupations one day in each of five different calendar years, and have received during such period at least a total of $2,900. A person who reaches age 65 but does not become a "qualified" individual will receive a lump-sum payment equal to 3 1/2 percent of wages paid to him in covered occupations after December 31, 1936, and before he attains age 65.

(Further inquiries should be directed to the office of the Social Security Board, 1012 Oliver-Eakle Building, Amarillo, Texas.)

One Truck Did This to a Flyer

When a train meets a truck, it's not always the smaller vehicle that gets the worst of the deal, as is shown in this remarkable air-view. This crack Southland flyer hit a truck at a grade crossing in the village of Lovejoy, Gp. The engine ended upside-down in an adjoining field and the passenger cars folded together like an accordion. Four persons died in the wreckage.

War Admiral to Race in Santa Anita Handicap

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 17 (AP)—War Admiral was formally marked down today as a candidate for the $100,000 Santa Anita handicap.

Owner Samuel D. Riddle telephoned from New York to nominate the Admiral for the big race March 6.

Seabiscuit, owned by Charles S. Howard, is en route to Santa Anita and prospects for one of the greatest races in history loom ahead. The two horses never met during the eastern campaign.

BLAST PICTURES SHOWN AT P-TA CONVENTION

BEAUMONT, Nov. 17 (AP)—Nearly a thousand members of Parent-Teachers Associations, here for their state convention, receive an impressive school safety lesson today.

On the program was a showing of pictures of the New London schoolhouse explosion last March which killed several hundred children.

Miss Marian Telford, national P-T A. safety chairman, and Miss Olga Junger of the state fire insurance commission were here to conduct a safety conference.

22,000 SEEK PORTION OF SNUFF FORTUNE

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 17 (AP)—Pennsylvania closed the door today on further claimants to the $20,000,000 snuff fortune left by Mrs. Henrietta E. Garrett seven years ago.

Nearly 1,000 claimants joined the "gold rush" in the last week before the state's legal deadline of seven years for filing estate claims.

This brought to approximately 22,000 the number of persons claiming kinship to the reclusive widow, whose will in 1921 disposed of only $62,500 of the immense holdings passed on to her by her husband, Walter E. Garrett, who died in 1895.

Professed relatives of the widow from all parts of the world have advanced their claims almost since the day of her death, November 16, 1930.

DOG RESCUES MASTER
SOUTH HARWICH, Mass., Nov. 17 (AP)—Phillip Mitchell, 24, of South Harwich, owes his rescue from an earless, foundering skid to William Reade Hersey's airdale. The dog spotted Mitchell's flares a half-mile from shore last night and barked until Hersey called police.

FRANCO CONSTRUCTING AIRPORTS BEHIND LINES

HENDAYE, Franco-Spanish Frontier, Nov. 17 (AP)—Generalissimo Francisco Franco was reported today to be rushing construction of airports behind the Aragon, or northeastern, Spanish front to assist his prospective major offensive eastward.

Insurgent sources predicted Franco would combine his offensive on the Aragon front with a drive on Almeria, a Mediterranean port at the southern end of the territory held by the republican government.

Dispatches reported a local offensive south of Madrid where government troops defending the former capital forced insurgents to retire from a position near Carabanchel.
