FDR DECLARES 'NO COMPROMISE' WAR

Nature Lovers; Not 'Cave Men'

Mark Silverman (right), 38, accused of making other members of his family live like animals in a cave near Los Angeles, is shown with his brother, Joseph, and the latter's wife, when they were found in the canyon by officers. Mark Silverman, facing an insanity charge brought by a relative by marriage, denied he believed in nudism or "wrongdoing" that he was a "nature lover."

12 Locations During Week Set New Record

GM PRESIDENT HIGHEST PAID MAN IN NATION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8 (AP)—A Congressional committee, giving the public a peek into the 1936 envelopes of the nation's highest paid industrialists, movie stars and financiers, disclosed today that Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., of General Motors, topped the list with $561,311.

Twelve locations, a new record in recent years for the opening week in January, were filed at the local office of the Texas Railroad Commission last week.

Hutchinson county again opened the year as the hotspot with six of the new locations, followed by Gray, Carson and Wheeler with two each. All were in proven or semi-proven territory.

New locations were staked by 11 companies to show a wide range of activities for 1938. Intentions to drill: Magnolia Petroleum Company Fee 244 No. 33, 990 feet from the north and 2,970 feet from the west of S 1/2 of section 109, block 4, I&GN survey, Carson county.

AGAIN HURLS DEFIANCE AT RICH MINORITY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8 (AP)—President Roosevelt gave notice tonight he would wage a no-compromise fight against a minority of "business men, bankers and industrialists."

That minority intends to make a struggle "to the last ditch" to retain autocratic control over the country's economy, the President charged in a Jackson Day address to the nation.

At the same time, the chief executive pledged cooperation with all who were willing to "help eradicate the evils that flow from undue concentration of economic power or unfair business practices."

The president spoke at the annual dinner here of Democrats celebrating Andrew Jackson's victory in the battle of New Orleans. His words went by radio to similar Democratic dinners throughout the land.

"The White House door is always open to all our citizens who come offering to help eradicate the evils that flow from undue concentration of economic power or unfair business practices—who offer to do all that is possible by cooperative endeavor and to aid in corrective and helpful legislation where necessary," he said.

"We know that there will be a few—a mere handful of the total of business men and bankers and industrialists—who will fight to the last ditch to retain such autocratic control over the industry and the finances of the country as they now possess.

Reviews Struggle "With this handful, it is going to be a fight—a cheerful fight on my part, but a fight in which there will be no compromise with evil—no let-up until the inevitable day of victory."

Mr. Roosevelt reviewed the struggles of Jefferson, Jackson, Theodore Roosevelt and Woodrow Wilson for what he called the "basic morals of Democracy."

"In our nation today," he continued, "we still have the continuing menace of a comparatively small number of people who honestly believe in their superior right to influence and direct government, and who are unable to see or unwilling to admit that the practices by which they maintain their privileges are harmful to the body politics. x x

"In my message to the congress on Monday, I made it abundantly clear that this administration seeks to serve the needs, and to make effective the will, of the overwhelming majority of our citizens and seeks to curb only abuses of power and privilege by small minorities."

Hits Utilities "The president mentioned the administration's differences with utilities interested. Asserting he was convinced that the "great majority of local or regional operating utility companies can come to an understanding" with the government, he declared:

SECURITY MAN COMING HERE

Dewey Reed, manager of the Amarillo office of the Social Security Board, will be here Wednesday, Jan. 12, to interview employers, public officials, civic leaders and employees on phases of the Social Security Act, it was announced yesterday by Garnett Reeves, secretary of the chamber of commerce.

In a letter to the chamber of commerce, where Mr. Reed will have headquarters, the Social Security Board official said one of the purposes of his visit here would be to explain to interested employers the purposes and functions of the Amarillo office, which has been established to assign account numbers and service claims in this district.

He will discuss in particular the manner in which employees may be assisted in filing claims for lump-sum payments, and the procedure with reference to applications for account numbers by employees.

Employers, employees and others having questions with reference to the old-age insurance title of the Social Security Act are requested to contact Mr. Reed at the chamber of commerce during the day. It was pointed out, however, that the visit has no connection with old-age assistance, which is administered by the state.

The old-age insurance program, on the other hand, is administered entirely by the Federal government.

The following counties are served out of the Amarillo office: Cottle, Motley, Floyd, Hale, Lamb, Bailey, Cochran, Hockley, Lubbock, Crosby, Dickens, King, Stonewall, Fisher, Scurry, Kent, Garza, Lynn, Terry, Yoakum, Dallam, Sherman, Hansford, Lipscomb, Hemphill, Roberts, Hutchinson, Moore, Hartley, Oldham, Potter, Carson, Gray, Wheeler, Collingsworth, Donley, Armstrong, Randall, Deaf Smith, Farmer, Castro, Swisher, Briscoe, Hall, Childress, and Ochiltree.

Nation Talked Itself Into Fear, Jones Says

DALLAS, Jan. 8 (AP)—The nation has talked itself into unwarranted fear that is retarding business in some sections out of all proportion to the true state of affairs nationally, RFC Chairman Jesse Jones warned here tonight.

The Texas addressing a crowd of 1,300 Democrats who paid $30.00 for a $25-a-plate Jackson day banquet, vigorously reassured he could see no reason for a serious or prolonged setback in business.

"Sometimes we talk ourselves into believing that conditions are worse than they really are," said Jones. "And if I may venture the assertion, that is the situation with us today."

It seems assured that tax laws about which there has been much complaint will soon be modified by congress, and I am convinced that the modifications will be satisfactory to business."

The head of the nation's "emergency hospital" said there were no financial institutions in difficulty and told his applauding audience it "seems reasonable to expect improvement in conditions generally."

Jones, identifying himself as one who had been in business for more than 40 years, carefully stressed he was "not against business — just against exploitation by business."

Public utilities are not the only offenders that abuse their monopoly, Jones said but added that they are probably the worst.

"Some of those operating under a franchise are more powerful than the government authority which grants the franchise. If your telephone bill, electric light bill or gas bill is not paid promptly, your service is cut off. If you do not pay your taxes promptly, the taxing authority can only charge you interest and harass you."

"Most American business in Andrew Jackson's day was honest, as most business is honest today," Jones said, "but undue concentration of power in business inevitably leads to exploitation. That we must watch. Restraint in this regard is necessary, self-restraint and government restraint. Power seldom knows self-restraint. We should remember that so-called big business has never given ground to government regulation without first giving battle."

Jones warned "little brother is in."

COUNCIL WILL MEET TUESDAY

Scout officials last night urged every Panaman interested in the Boy Scout movement to attend the annual meeting and banquet of the Adobe Walls council in Borger Tuesday. The business session will be at 3 o'clock with the banquet at 7 p. m.

Letters of invitation have been mailed known Pampa scouts by the Borger chamber of commerce, Borger Lions club and Borger Rotary club. The Rotary club will welcome Panamans at their noon luncheon Monday.

The future of scouting in this section of the Panhandle will be discussed at the business session at which Minor Huffman of Dallas, deputy regional executive, will be the principal speaker. New officers will also be elected. Reports of activities in 1937 will be presented.

The Rev. Robert Boshen of Pampa will be principal speaker at the banquet.

A drive to raise the deficit in Pampa's 1937 quota was still about $400 short Saturday night. Several committees had not reported. They will be given until noon Monday to complete their work.

Two Panamans are in Worley hospital for treatment of injuries received in two automobile accidents Friday afternoon. Mrs. Raymond Bennett was most seriously injured, suffering a compound fracture of the pelvis and several broken ribs. Clyde Hamm received several fractured ribs.

Mrs. Bennett was injured when her car was in collision with one driven by Dick Sullins at an intersection five miles northwest of Pampa about 4 o'clock Sullins was unconscious for several hours but was not injured otherwise. Both cars were badly damaged.

Hamm was injured when his car returned on the old Miami road two miles north of Pampa, about 6 p. m.

Floyd Hoffman's car was badly damaged but no one was injured in a car accident on South Cuyler street Friday night. City Police officers arrested a man in connection with the accident and turned him over to the county. He was picked up by the officers some time after the accident.

FOUR DIE IN HIGHWAY WRECK AT CORSICANA

CORSICANA, Jan. 8 (AP)—Four persons were killed tonight when an automobile and a truck collided on a creek bridge 10 miles south of here.

The dead: Mary Easterling, 29-year-old teacher in the Mexia schools; Helen Ward, Mexia; Hazel Ward, Mexia; John Honeycutt, 45, oil truck driver of Big Sandy, Tex.

The Ward girls were sisters. The cause of the accident was undetermined by sheriff's investigators.

Traffic on the highway was tangled for about two hours after the crash while wreckage was being cleared away.

The Ward girls' bodies were taken to Mexia and the other to Wortham. Officers said the three women, according to papers found in their possession, apparently had been in Dallas for the day and were en route home.

Honeycutt also apparently was on his way home, he said after delivering a load of oil to Waco.

U. S. TO PAY HEMPHILL COUNTY FOR DAM SITE

CANADIAN, Jan. 8—County officers believe that work will be started soon on the dam proposed on a location along Boggy creek.

6,000 Starved Rebels At Teruel Surrender

MADRID, Jan. 9.—(Sunday)—Final and complete subjugation of Teruel was announced by the government today following the surrender of 6,000 insurgent soldiers and civilians who had held out against government attacks within the city for 18 days.

In an extraordinary war communique, which conveyed the gratitude of the government to the army for its achievement, Minister of National Defense Indalecio Prieto announced the surrender of more than 2,000 soldiers and 2,000 civilians who had barricaded themselves in the shellshattered buildings of the Santa Clara convent.

Exhausted and disheartened by the surrender of 2,000 of their comrades in the Asuncion hospital Friday, the last remaining defenders left the convent last night after small groups had taken the buildings at intervals throughout the day.

In a recapitulation of the prisoners taken, the government listed 400 army officers, 450 soldiers, 700 wounded and 1,000 civilians taken from the hospital and approximately 4,000 persons taken from the ruins of the convent.

Officers Captured Among the military prisoners were Lieut.-Col. Rey D. Harcourt, colonels Barba and Gasca, and 8 other high insurgent chiefs. One of the officers taken was the son of Admiral Magaz, a minister of the old Rivera government.

Dozens of ambulances and trucks rolled down the snow-packed highway from Teruel to Valencia, carrying 2,000 gaunt, insurgent soldiers and civilians who were driven by cold, hunger, thirst and siege from refuge in the government-held city.

With the main body of Generalissimo Francisco Franco's lower Aragon army blocked from recapture of Teruel, the beleaguered insurgent garrison and their weak-Pampa's first 1938 building permit was issued to Sam Irwin for construction of a $4,000 brick and tile store building in the 500 block West Foster avenue. The building will be 40 by 60 feet. L. K. Stout will be the contractor.

When completed, the building will be occupied by Mr. Irwin's furniture store now located on South Cuyler street, which will be a branch store.

Tom Sherrin was issued a permit for $1,000 for construction of a residence in the Priest addition.

Permits for the week totaled $5,500, according to Sam Thomas, city building inspector.

'CAL' ROSE ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY FOR SHERIFF

The Daily News was authorized last night by J. C. "Cal" Rose, 915 W. Rham street to announce his candidacy for sheriff of Gray county, subject to the first Democratic primary election to be held July 23.

Mr. Rose's statement said: "I was born at Ennisboro, Okla., on Oct. 1, 1897, and moved to Texas when I was 16 years of age and have spent most of my life in this state."

"I believe in thorough law enforcement and will carry out the requirements of the office of sheriff of Gray county to the best of my ability if elected."

Mr. Rose is employed in the Panhandle oilfield as a rig-builder and is known to many in the oil fraternity.

Plans are being completed for the 1938 annual stockholders' meeting of the Pampa National Farm Loan association next Tuesday, according to I. B. Hughey, secretary-treasurer of the association, who said the meeting will be one of the most important in the history of the association.

Members of the association will review the progress of their own cooperative credit institution and hear the reports of its officers. According to Mr. Hughey, the Pampa National Farm Loan association has made federal land bank and land bank commissioner loans amounting to $1,442,529 since its organization in 1917.

Directors of the association will be elected at the meeting. Mr. Hughey said, two directors will be elected for terms of three years each, two for two-year terms, and one for a one-year term.

The Pampa National Farm Loan association makes available farm mortgage loans for a variety of purposes including refinancing of existing indebtedness, repairs and improvements to farm buildings, and the purchase of farm or ranch land. Loans may be made to enable worthy, experienced tenant farmers who can qualify, to acquire farms

MANY TOWNS IN THIS TERRITORY WILL SEND BOYS TO BOXING TOURNEY

WORKOUTS AT ARENA REALLY INTENSE NOW

There should be no lack of fast action, slam-bang slugging and colorful boxing at the Golden Gloves tournament to be staged Feb. 3 and 4 at the Pampa Athletic arena under direction of the Pampa Daily News A. A. U. and backed by the Pampa A. A. U.

The boys are really going after each other hammer and tongs in workouts under direction of Cliff B. Chambers, tournament director, and his assistants. Workouts take place each week-day evening between 5 and 7 o'clock at the Pampa Athletic arena.

Tough competition is assured in every weight division, especially in the featherweight, lightweight, welterweight and middleweight divisions.

Big Fellows Needed
Entries have been slow in the flyweight, light heavyweight and heavyweight divisions and some big fellows are going to win an easy decision and a free trip to Fort Worth if some more huskies don't show up soon. The eight class winners will be eligible for trips to the state tournament in Fort Worth with all expenses paid.

On Friday Director Chambers and Harry E. Hoare made a trip to Wheeler where a basketball tournament was in progress and signed up 15 or 20 boys for the big event. Al Duncan, down at Turkey said he would send four boys to the tournament. Coach Garrison Ruck of Shamrock and Coach Stine Cain of Wheeler announced that they would have several boys ready. Coach Claude Daniel of Miami and Coach Toby Waggoner of Canadian also reported boys in training.

Largest teams are expected to come from McLean where Coach Bill Allen has a large squad in training. Coach Coy Palmer of Alameda wrote the Golden Gloves editor to be ready for boys from his school. Other high schools in this area are preparing to enter boxers.

Pampa Boys Ready
Pampa's Coach Ochs Mitchell hopes to have 35 Pampa high school boys ready for the big tournament. Coach Mitchell believes the workouts and matches will be of benefit to his athletes and he is ready to sign all prospects.

The tournament is not open to high school boys only. Any boy or man 16 years or over who has never been paid money for athletic activities is eligible to enter, providing he can pass a physical examination. So anyone desiring to enter the tournament should fill out an entry blank immediately and start training.

No charge is made for entering, only expense being 25 cents for a membership card in the Southwestern A. A. U. of which the Pampa Daily News is a member. All training equipment and instructions are free.

A Golden Gloves winner in Amarillo last year, Buster Hays, has signed up for the tournament. Ray Norman, a real contender, is also working out.

GIRLS BASKETBALL TEAM HAS NOT BEEN BEATEN IN 5 YEARS

KILDARE, Jan. 8 (AP)—Out of pine-shackled East Texas comes one of the sports world's really amazing stories—the five-year reign of a girls basketball team that has won 114 consecutive games at 1932.

Five years ago, in the fall of 1932 a group of 11-year-old girls started tossing a basket at an improvised court. To this day they haven't been defeated.

Coach C. C. Alexander, who banded together that group of girls at Oak Grove, a small oil community, still has the same bunch. He moved over, at the start of this season, to Kildare school. The girls just picked up and moved with him.

Winners of 103 straight games at Oak Grove, the girls have racked up 31 more since donning Kildare spangles. Several times they have surged over the 100 point mark in top sided victories.

"Long And Short" Boys Wrestle Monday Night

The long and the short of the middleweight grapplers will meet in a finish bout Monday night at the Pampa Athletic arena when lowering Jack Mandell meets half-pint Professor Tsutao Higami in the main event. Wrestling operations will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

Opening the evening of top matches will be Otto von Ludwig and Cyclone Mackie. The two are warring no time hurling verbal fists at each other and the match is scheduled to be one of the toughest of the season.

A semi-final that would grace the headlines of a New York card will send Sailor Jack Moran against Bill Venable, a newcomer to Pampa. Venable is a woodchopper from Tuscaloosa, Ala., and he is making no bones about what he intends to do to the rough gob from Bald Knob, Ark.

The Mandell-Higami bout should be on the must see list. Mandell is the gent who used his feet to better advantage than his hands. Higami uses buttons when in a tight spot. Now, can Mandell keep Higami out with his feet or will his gap slip under Mandell's height?

Higgins Teams Wallop Booker

HIGGINS, Jan. 8.—Two conference games were taken by the Higgins boys and girls when they met the Booker basketball team at Booker recently. The girls' game ended 33 to 3 with Joy Wassell as high-point girl with 12 points. Gertrude Carter stood out on the defense. Jacquita Turner displayed some good passing work while Sally Houser and Agnes Belew each made six points. Everyone of the 12 girls making the trip played.

Higgins boys took their game, 15 to 12. Dale Pace and Clifford Brown were high point men with 10 and 9 points each. Paul Kutchnicki turned in his usual fine defensive game. Shining lights on rebound work were Ned Patton and Leo Swab. C. B. Weis fouled out the first four minutes of the game.

PAMPA SOPHS WIN INITIAL LEAGUE GAME

The tendency of the Buchanan sophomores of Amarillo to commit fouls and the ability of the Pampa sophomores to make free shots gave the local lads a 16 to 13 victory over the Amarillo boys Friday afternoon at Amarillo.

The score at the half was Pampa 13, Amarillo 9, and at the third period the game was tied up 13 to 13.

The game was the first in the recently-organized sophomore league composed of four Amarillo junior high schools, the Berger Junior high and the Pampa sophs. It was reported at Amarillo Friday that Berger had withdrawn from the loop.

Feltner led the scoring attack with 5 points, followed by Terrell with 4. Nice defensive work was turned in by Stennis, guard. The next game will be next Wednesday at Central in Amarillo. On the same day the Reapers of Junior high will play the Sam Houston Junior high.

Next Friday the Sam Houston sophs of Amarillo will come to Pampa and the Berger Junior high team is also scheduled to play the Reapers here.

Other soph squad members who made the trip to Amarillo Friday with Coach Bob Curry were Green, Isbell, Brown, Calhoun, Enloe, Sacks, Wray, Dickerson.

Harvesters Dispose Of Perryton; Await Borger

For the time being, the Harvesters have established themselves as favorites to fight it out with Borger for the district basketball title at the tournament here in February.

They practically eliminated Perryton from the running in two decisive victories Thursday and Friday nights. Friday night the Harvesters turned back the invaders even more conclusively than they did the previous night. The score in the first game was 36 to 26 and in the second 27 to 10.

Of course, it is possible for the Harvesters to improve sufficiently to take the district title at the district meet but it is not probable.

Borger looms as the team to beat out for the championship. Friday night at Amarillo Coach Catfish Smith's Bulldogs beat the Sandies 42 to 18. Incidentally the Bulldogs scored the same number of points against the Sandies that the Harvesters did. The Pampa sophs walloped the Sandies 42 to 4 the last time the two teams met.

Borger Another Foul.
Observers will be able to get more dope on the three teams when Pampa and Amarillo play here again Tuesday night. The Sandies undoubtedly have improved considerably since the Harvesters routed them twice in a row before Christmas. In the game at Amarillo, Borger was the key man for the Harvesters, and it is said that the wily Catfish is trying to make another Foust out of him.

Foust, fans will remember, is the lad who practically won the state championship for Smith's Carey Cardinals last year. Fans say that Borger already has mastered Foust's masterful style of playing.

However, Borger was not the leading scorer in the game. He hit the hoop for 9 points while his team-mate Kendrick was piling up a total of 19 points.

Showdown Near.
The showdown between Pampa and Borger will come to a head before the district meet. The two teams will meet twice in Pampa and twice in Borger before the district tournament. These games will be part of the schedule between the so-called "Big Five" league.

Next Friday and Saturday nights, Plainview will play two games on the Harvesters court.

Plainview's Bulldog cagers are usually stronger than the rank and file of teams in this district, and the Harvesters will undoubtedly be pressed to beat the Hale county boys. Plainview is always one of the strongest contenders for basketball supremacy in the Lubbock

Heiskell Opens Scoring.
The Harvesters led Perryton 17 to 8 at the half and 22 to 10 at the third quarter. Cunningham left the game when it was about half over on personal fouls and was replaced by Miller. The already demoralized Rangers failed to stage an expected rally in the third and fourth periods.

Heiskell opened the scoring by looping two baskets in the first minute of the game. He and Andis were tied in scoring honors. Andis did not play as brilliantly as he did the previous night, and had had luck in sinking his shots, missing numerous setups. Heiskell's floor-work was outstanding, and Andis passed accurately and swiftly as usual.

The guards, Reynolds, Dunaway, and Foster were particularly effective. They held the Rangers to one field goal until the third quarter when McWilliams finally swished the net for the second one of the game.

In the famous minutes, Coach Mitchell sent in all the second string, and Coach Burke of Perryton followed suit.

RIZZO BOUGHT BY PITTSBURGH

By JUDSON BAILEY. PITTSBURGH, Jan. 8 (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates, seeking "new faces," announced today they had expended $75,000 in cash and $25,000 in player values during the off-season to acquire the year's highest priced rookies and five other prize prospects.

This was a greater outlay for new players than was made by any other major league club said president Elin Benswanger, whose star outfielder, Paul Waner, accused him of wanting "cheaper faces" instead of new ones.

Johnny Rizzo, hard-hitting Columbus, O., outfielder is the highest-priced recruit entering the majors in 1938, according to the tag placed on him by Benswanger.

In order to lift the slugger from the St. Louis Cardinals farm system, Pittsburgh paid $25,000 in cash and gave up catcher Tommy Paden from the Pirates' own staff and outfielder Bud Hafel and first baseman Bernard Cobb, who were wearing Pirate strings in the minors.

Benswanger also disclosed today the cost of some other Pirate newcomers.

He said it cost the Pittsburgh club $12,000 to get catcher Ray Berres from Louisville; $11,000 to obtain pitcher Truett Sewell from Buffalo; $11,000 for pitcher Marvin Duke from Montreal, and $7,500 for pitcher Bob Klinger from Sacramento. The Pirates have also invested Oadis Swigart of Davenport and others.

These deals had no effect on the Pirates' efforts to obtain Van Mungo, Frank Demaree, Bill Jurgens or other topflight performers in the National league, the Buccaneer boss asserted. But he said:

"If some of the rookies come through as we hope, we'll see those 'new faces' anyway."

Lee Handley, young second baseman acquired for $20,000 last winter, and pitcher Russ Bauers, earned regular jobs in 1937.

GIRLS BASKETBALL TEAM HAS NOT BEEN BEATEN IN 5 YEARS

KILDARE, Jan. 8 (AP)—Out of pine-shackled East Texas comes one of the sports world's really amazing stories—the five-year reign of a girls basketball team that has won 114 consecutive games at 1932.

Five years ago, in the fall of 1932 a group of 11-year-old girls started tossing a basket at an improvised court. To this day they haven't been defeated.

Coach C. C. Alexander, who banded together that group of girls at Oak Grove, a small oil community, still has the same bunch. He moved over, at the start of this season, to Kildare school. The girls just picked up and moved with him.

Winners of 103 straight games at Oak Grove, the girls have racked up 31 more since donning Kildare spangles. Several times they have surged over the 100 point mark in top sided victories.

WALKER TEAM NAMED; STYMIE RULE MODIFIED FOR A YEAR

NEW YORK, Jan. 8 (AP)—The United States Golf Association today named a 1938 Walker cup golf team of nine players and two alternates, to be captained by Francis Ouimet, and adopted a one-year modification of the stymie rule.

In addition to Ouimet, Boston veteran who has been a member of each squad since the matches were inaugurated in 1922, the men invited to be on the team which will meet the British at St. Andrews were:

POWDER KEG SPEWS AGAIN

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Jan. 8. (AP)—A struggle for the balance of power in southeast Europe—most intense in Europe's powder keg since 1914—took new shape today with Italy as a potent factor.

Semi-official sources outlined an important three-day conference starting here Monday of the foreign ministers of three nations—Count Galeazzo Ciano of Italy, Guido Schmidt of Austria and Koloman Van Kánya of Hungary.

Their talks, said the sources, demonstrate solidarity of these Rome pact nations and will help their mutual trade with a new commercial agreement.

But larger issues, hinging greatly on Rumania's possible disruption of her allies' foreign policy by close friendship with Germany and Italy, were expected to take the ministers' attention.

Rumania's rapprochement with Germany and Italy, a move initiated by the anti-semitic Rumanian premier Octavian Goga, upsets the unified pro-French policy of the little entente—Rumania, Czechoslovakia, and Yugoslavia.

This shift is of prime importance to the conferring foreign ministers. Perhaps it might drive Hungary, which surrendered much territory to Rumania in 1919, toward the ideal of Austria's chancellor Kurt Schuschnigg for an Austro-Hungarian alliance with Germany and Italy.

Two Ciano and the other ministers were expected to discuss recognition of German interests in the Danube basin, and now friendly relations of Italy with her one-time enemy, Yugoslavia.

U. S. FIGURES OLYMPICS IN 1940 WILL COST $400,000

NEW YORK, Jan. 8. (AP)—Proceeding on the theory that far eastern turmoil will subside in time to stage the 1940 Olympic games in Tokyo, the executive committee of the American Olympic Association today set in motion the machinery for U. S. participation, at an estimated aggregate cost of $400,000.

Actually it won't be necessary to raise any more than the $350,000 required to send our athletic expedition to Berlin in 1936. There's a current balance of $64,878.92 in American Olympic funds.

Besides laying the groundwork for the national fund-raising, under the combined leadership of the Amateur Athletic Union and National Collegiate A. A.—now on a party in all Olympic affairs—today's meeting ratified the membership of 25 out of 27 subcommittees in the various Olympic sports, and debated policies for the incoming American Olympic committee to pursue.

It was recommended unanimously to the A. O. C. that future management of all women's Olympic teams be put in feminine hands. This is aimed especially at the control of the women's track and field and swimming groups. It was prompted by difficulties experienced in 1932 and 1936 with men acting as managers of the women's teams.

Of the two sports committees held in abeyance for the time being, the hockey group's appointment awaits what officials described as a "cleanup" of existing amateur hockey problems, while selection of the baseball committee was left largely in the hands of Leslie Mann, representing the U. S. amateur baseball congress.

Discussion within the ranks of the metropolitan association of the A. A. U. brought about the only challenge to nominations for committee personnel. Pending a local settlement of differences, the A. O. A. declined to approve either Chas. L. Diehm, who was in the original A. K. U. slate, or a rival nominee, Paul J. C. Kelly, for membership on the Olympic boxing committee.

Omission of T. Nelson Metcalf, athletic director at the University of Chicago, from the track and field committee caused some eye-brow-raising. Metcalf was on the 1936 committee. No explanation was given. A. O. C. sources were forthcoming in connection with the selection of K. L. (Tug) Wilson of Northwestern as Metcalf's successor.

ened women and children surrendered yesterday. For 17 days they had withstood artillery, rifle fire and dynamite. They had hoped that the counter-attack by insurgent army would break through and rescue them. Meanwhile, food, water and ammunition ran low.

They negotiated the surrender through the Teruel Red Cross chairman. The offer was accepted and the exodus began in the afternoon with Lieut.-Col. Rey D'Harcourt leading 1,500 soldiers and 500 women and children into the government lines in groups of six.

Many were wounded and unable to walk. The first plea of all was for water. Physicians treated them while assault guards stood by to protect them from violence. Observers were convinced that the insurgent counter-offensive was slowing up markedly. The uncertainty in Madrid last week when Franco's troops were advancing behind a terrific pressure of planes, tanks and artillery had given place to full confidence in ultimate government success at Teruel. Many observers considered the battle might decide the outcome of the war.

The terms of the surrender by Lieut.-Col. D'Harcourt did not apply to a smaller band of insurgents barricaded in Santa Clara convent on the western edge of Teruel and children into the government lines in groups of six.

BRITAIN FEARS JAP AMBITIONS

LONDON, Jan. 8. (AP)—Japan's demands for increased power in Shanghai and attacks on British subjects today revived fears Japanese military leaders are determined to drive western powers from China.

Such apprehension was expressed by responsible quarters though, officially, the foreign office left to Shanghai British authorities the task of dealing with the Japanese manhandling of British policemen.

Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain was understood to plan a review of the entire troubled Chinese situation with individual cabinet members Monday and with Sir Hugh Knatchbull-Hugessen, former British ambassador to China.

Sir Hugh is recovering from wounds inflicted by a Japanese aerial attack on his automobile in China last summer.

These quarters held that Japan not only had failed to prove her promised "ability" to control Japanese militarists but had neglected three points:

1. What specific action is being taken against the officers responsible for the attack on the British gunboat Ladybird and other shelling.

2. What is being done about the British request for safety zones for neutral shipping.

3. What action is being taken by Japan to guard against further violation of territorial waters around Honkong, British Crown colony in South China.

not operating utility companies. Very few investors in the operating companies have lost money. But thousands of investors have lost money in buying holding company securities which had blue sky above them instead of tangible assets behind them.

"That evil of utility holding company control will not grow in the days to come because this government has now passed laws to prevent similar occurrences in the future."

Mr. Roosevelt said it had been estimated $13,000,000,000 of electric utility securities were outstanding and that the substantial control of this stock was vested in the hands of owners of less than $600,000,000.

"Tail" Too Long "That means that the ownership of about 4 per cent of the securities controls the other 96 per cent," the president declared.

"Here is a 96-inch dog being wagged by a four-inch tail." The chief executive said other activities which should not be tolerated in a Democracy included "price rigging, unfair competition directed against the little man, and monopolistic practices of many kinds."

"Give to me and give to your government," he asked, "the credit for a definite intention to eradicate them. Give to me and give to your government the credit for believing that in so doing we are helping and not hurting the overwhelming majority of business men and industrialists in the United States."

The president said Thomas Jefferson had fought for popular government against "almost all the newspapers and magazines of the day."

"To disseminate their policies in every hamlet and town, his associates resorted to printing simple leaflets and pamphlets," Mr. Roosevelt related.

"The handful of printers and editors who helped them were harried and arrested with the full approval of the great papers and magazines of the day. This was the first effort with the cooperation of the owners of the press, to curb the essential freedom of the press. It failed, just as any similar effort would fail today."

Democratic leaders paid $100 each to attend the dinner at which the president spoke. Party members in New York paid $50 each, and elsewhere $25, to attend similar dinners. Officials said all but the actual cost of the affairs—about $5 for each dinner—would be used to reduce the party's $211,295 deficit.

Spokesmen for the administration addressed the gatherings in most of the larger cities.

During division of the oil industry should toe fair with the producers at this time," he said. Thompson declined to discuss rumors that increases in motor fuel stocks might lead to a reduction in crude oil prices.

Insects devour one-tenth of the world's crops.

"It strikes me that the manufacturer demand. The commissions have practiced conservation to the limit of science. There is no excess production of crude oil today."

Thompson said he could not say as much for gasoline, but pointed out that was a problem "wholly in the hands of those who manufacture and merchandise the petroleum by-products."

OIL PRODUCTION OKAY DECLARES THOMPSON

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 8. (AP)—Col. E. O. Thompson, Austin, Texas, chairman of the interstate oil compact commission, declared today the crude oil industry had done more than any other in meeting President Roosevelt's request that industry balance supply with demand.

Thompson conferred here with Governor E. W. Marland, members of the state corporation commission and other officials.

"Last week President Roosevelt called on industry to balance supply with demand," he said. "I am happy to say that the compact commission and other regulatory commissions have done that in the oil industry."

"Production has been kept at market demand. The commissions have practiced conservation to the limit of science. There is no excess production of crude oil today."

Thompson said he could not say as much for gasoline, but pointed out that was a problem "wholly in the hands of those who manufacture and merchandise the petroleum by-products."

HOBERT WILL ATTEND CATTLE RAISERS MEET

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Jan. 8. (AP)—Twenty of the west's most representative cattle raisers will lead approximately 700 livestockmen when the forty-first annual convention of the American National Livestock Association convenes here Thursday, Jan. 13.

Headed by Alekrt K. Mitchell, Jr., of Albert, N. M., president of the American National, the west's big ranchers will include a cowboy who once rode the famed Texas trail, and a former chief of the Arizona Rangers.

Mitchell is holding the office once held by his father, A. K. Mitchell, Sr., a pioneer New Mexico cattle grower.

Railroad rates, reciprocal trade treaties, the Argentine Sanitary Pact, taxation, and cattle rustling will be among the principal problems which will attract the attention of the cattlemen during the three-day convention.

Among the 20 top hands is John Leakey, president of the North Dakota stockmen's association who got his start in the industry by riding herd on vast numbers of cattle over the old Texas Trail to northern range lands. Another pioneer among the group is B. C. Mossman of Roswell, N. M., former chief of the Arizona Rangers.

Among leaders who have indicated they will attend is Fred A. Hobart, Canadian, Texas.

$2-A-Plate Demos Praise Roosevelt

DALLAS, Jan. 8. (AP)—More than seven hundred "rank and file" Democrats heard speakers reaffirm party principles and loyalty at a $2-a-plate Jackson day dinner here tonight.

There was no keynote speaker. There was some good natured banter about the $25-a-plate dinner across the street at another hotel. But the theme in the main was one of harmony, climaxed by an attentive audience to President Roosevelt's radio address.

Lieutenant Governor Walter Woodul, praised both Andrew Jackson and Franklin D. Roosevelt as Democrats and scored the "blight of Fascism and Communism," which he said existed in some other corners today.

"We want to keep this country democratic . . . the hope of the party is to always stand for the masses of the people. If not, there is not much hope for the future," Woodul said.

Representative Clarence E. Farmer, of Fort Worth, gubernatorial candidate, termed the President a "successor in spirit" to Jackson.

"While Jackson was the greatest Democrat of his age, I don't believe he was a greater Democrat than Roosevelt," former Governor James E. Ferguson, said.

SCOUT NEWS

A new year in Scouting was begun Thursday night by Troop 21. A total of 15 was present including the scoutmaster, J. G. Sturgeon.

To begin the new year the boys showed their respect to the flag by giving the pledge of allegiance. The boys then adjourned to patrol meetings to pass tests.

After the patrol meetings adjourned the boys were each given a chance to tell what they did during the holidays and to give at least one new year's resolution if they had made any. Two of the boys admitted that they had made resolutions and had already broken some of them.

Games were then played until time for dismissal. At this time the scoutmaster's benediction was given and "Old Glory" was retired.

West, Sea, Epic, Rural Life Themes Of Today's Pictures

ALL THEATERS BOOK OPENING FILMS 3 DAYS

A western, a sea story, a photoplay rating the classification of "epic" and a film of American rural life, open theater programs in Pampa this week. All theaters here have three day billings on their initial pictures.

Showing at the LaNora today, tomorrow, and Tuesday is M.G.-M.'s "The Bad Man of Brimstone," featuring Wallace Beery.

"The Bad Man of Brimstone" is the screen's answer to the demands of the world's audiences for more material depicting the colorful days of early American history.

In the role of "Trigger" Bill, head outlaw of the town of Brimstone, Wallace Beery enacts a gruff, tough, hard-shooting handle, ruling the town of Brimstone with an iron hand.

At the Rex, a navy picture, written by Commander Frank Wead, U. S. N., author of "Ceiling Zero," opens today for a three-day run.

"Submarine D-1," a melodrama dealing with the exploits of Uncle Sam's undersea boats and the gallant lads who man them.

The picture is authentic as well as stirring, for it was made with the complete co-operation of the navy, which turned over to the movie-makers all its facilities at Newport, R. I., Cocos Cocos in the Panama Canal Zone, and San Diego, Calif.

Pat O'Brien and George Brent are co-starred, and in a part that seems to be quite as important is young Wayne Morris, the lad who shot to top ranking recently on the strength of one picture, "Kid Galahad."

James Hilton's famous novel, "Lost Horizon," of which 150,000 copies have been sold, is brought to the screen at the State today, tomorrow, and Tuesday.

It's a Columbia picture, directed by Frank Capra.

Ronald Colman has the leading role, Edward Everett Horton, H. B. Warner, Jane Wyatt, Sam Jaffe, Margo, John Howard, Thomas Mitchell, and Isabel Jewell are in the cast.

The Crown picture for today, tomorrow, and Tuesday is "County Fair," featuring John Arledge, Mary Lou Lender and J. Farrell MacDonald.

"County Fair" is the story of a young jockey filled off the race courses in a framed-up deal, who makes his living riding horses at county fairs, where the Turf Association cannot prevent his working.

Find Romance in Paradise

In a setting of idyllic splendor, representing the Jannasery of Shangri-La in Columbia's "Lost Horizon," now at the State theater, Jane Wyatt and Ronald Colman find the perfect romance. Their story is part of the strange odyssey described by James Hilton in his prize-winning novel, which Robert Riskin adapted to the screen. Frank Capra brought the story to the screen as his mightiest effort. Showing today, Monday and Tuesday.

In the country, he meets a youngster who is training a winding horse, and falls in love with the boy's sister.

And though there are many complications in the path of true love, the game little jockey and his partner, who supplies the picture's comedy, meet them all. They defeat the crooked gamblers who first framed them, convert the girl's father to the idea of racing the horse, and win the big race and the heart of the girl for the jockey.

GANGSTER OF 1880.
Epic saga of the West and the story of how law and order supplanted the reign of the six-gun.

"The Bad Man of Brimstone," starring Wallace Beery, famous for his portrayals of bad man roles, Beery, as leader of a gang of outlaws who rule the town of Brimstone, is offered one of the finest opportunities of his long cinematic career.

Timed against scenes of rugged grandeur in the Zion National Forest of Utah, "The Bad Man of Brimstone" is the story of a gangster of the '80's whose reign is interrupted when he discovers that a stranger who is attempting to clean up Brimstone is his own son. The part of the son is taken by

FILMS DEPEND ON STAGE FOR BEST DRAMA

In a story concerning the ten best pictures of 1937, Chester B. Bahn, editor of the Film Daily, New York, says that perhaps the most significant sidelight of the ten best list is found in the fact that no less than seven of the productions represent adaptations of stage plays.

Editor Bahn believes, therefore, that in the opinion of at least the critics and reviewers, the screen is still largely dependent upon the legitimate for its more important vehicles.

As selected by the sixteenth annual Film Daily ten best pictures poll, 1937's best pictures were, in order named: "The Life of Emile Zola," "The Good Earth," "Captains Courageous," "Lost Horizon," "A Star is Born," "Romeo and Juliet," "Stage Door," "Dead End," "Winterset," and "The Awful Truth."

Analyzing the results of the poll, Mr. Bahn says that these findings appear warranted.

The costume story retains popularity; music and comedy were less effective critically than in 1936 although of admitted box office value; Shakespearean drama has a definite place in the cinema; the year's "best" selections, generally speaking, are keyed to "box-office."

A total of 130 pictures were nominated in 1937 poll as compared with 149 in 1936 and 166 in 1935. The first place picture received 433 votes, second, 424, third, 380.

life that has made America what it is today.

The story concerns a fine American boy—a jockey, played by John Arledge—and his side kick, played by Fuzzy Knight. They are framed by crooked mobsters and ruled off the track by the Turf Association, whereupon they travel from one county fair to another to race horses, as the association has no jurisdiction over these courses.

On their travels they meet a youngster, played by Jimmy Butler, who has a race horse that is a real winner. His father, J. Farrell MacDonald, wants to "put the horse" in ploughing, but Jimmy's sister, played by a charming screen newcomer, Mary Lou Lender, believes in him and in the horse.

It is inevitable that John Arledge and Mary Lou fall in love, and many troubles beset their path. How they can win the old man over, how they can break the crooked gamblers, and how they win the big race makes exciting movie-going.

The principals all deliver bang-up performances, and the picture, neatly directed by Howard Bretherton, was produced by E. B. Derr for Monogram.

TWO INJURED, BOMBER LOST

SAN PEDRO, Calif., Jan. 8 (AP)—Injury to two men and the loss of a bomber plane by fire added to the search toll today as the navy's great sea and air armada continued the quest for the twin-motored bomber that disappeared during maneuvers on the Pacific late Wednesday.

Hope for the safety of the giant seaplane and its complement of seven diminished by the hour but the thirty-five fighting ships and 283 planes continued unabated their activities over 60,000 square miles.

Admiral Arthur J. Heppburn, commander-in-chief of the fleet, sent a radio message to the Associated Press telling of a landing crash aboard the airplane carrier Saratoga yesterday in which pilot Leroy J. M. Elliott suffered second degree burns and M. A. Belgium, a seaman, was cut and bruised.

The bomber caught fire and sank after the accident, said the message.

Previously Cadet Scott P. Hawkins, of Jefferson City, Mo., fell from a searching plane and plunged into the sea. He was given up as dead.

The search included an area extending from San Luis Obispo, Calif., to lower California.

"Decision as to the discontinuation of the search," said the admiral's message, "cannot be made at present."

Two clues as to the fate of Lieut. Truman E. Carpenter, pilot, and his crew aboard the bomber bobbed up and then were dissipated during the day.

A coast guard cutter discovered a patch of oil on the surface of the calm Pacific near Santa Catalina Island, and a fragment of a life preserver carrying the letters "U. S. S." and either an "N" or an "M."

But an examination of a sample of the oily naval authorities and the scrap of life-ring resulted in the statement that neither could have come from the missing seaplane.

Graft and Vice Investigated in Southwest Cities

(By The Associated Press) Three of the principal cities of the Southwest—Albuquerque, N. M., Phoenix, Ariz., and El Paso, Texas—were the locales Saturday of investigations into alleged municipal graft and vice.

In Albuquerque, a grand jury indicted Mayor Charles H. Lembo on 14 counts of speculating in municipal indebtedness, and delved deeply into fiscal matters.

In El Paso, a municipal court of inquiry placed before a grand jury findings resulting from the death of a girl from El Paso's "restricted district" following her arrest by police.

Justice C. M. Wilchar, Jr., simultaneously announced he would conduct an inquiry into general vice and graft conditions in the Texas metropolis. Gambling, police brutality and bribery were said by Justice Wilchar to be subjects under study.

In Phoenix, a former Maricopa county sheriff and a New York salesman were held under bond to the Arizona Superior Court on charges of attempted bribery of county attorney John W. Corbin. Corbin testified at a preliminary hearing that bribes of $7,000 to $12,000 were offered to ignore gambling in the county.

Market Briefs

NEW YORK, Jan. 8 (AP)—The stock market chalked off the initial week of 1938 with the first general advance in more than a month. Industrial favorites pushed up 1 to 2 points.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was up 1 point at 46.5 in the two-hour proceedings. On the week this composite showed a net gain of 3.6 points. It was the largest upturn for any week since Oct. 30.

At the same time General Motors shipments for December disclosed an exceptionally sharp drop. But this was offset by the fact distribution for 1937 was 2.7 per cent ahead of the year before.

CHICAGO GRAIN
CHICAGO, Jan. 8 (AP)—The highest wheat prices since last October were chalked up here today in a final hour rally that wiped out earlier losses in the market.

Net gains of more than one cent a bushel extended the week's upturn in wheat to more than 7 cents.

An advance of 1/2 to 3/4 in Winnipeg wheat stimulated the buying here along with strength in securities at New York.

Most of the gain at Winnipeg was reversed by October wheat, reflecting continued export demand for Canadian grain for late shipment. It was estimated 1,000,000 bushels of No. 1 and No. 2 northern Canadian wheat was sold late yesterday as far ahead as December shipment and additional sales were reported today for October shipment.

Wheat closed 1 1/2-1 3/4 higher than yesterday's finish, May 97 1/2-1, July 91 1/2-3/4, September 90 1/2-3/4; corn was 1/4 off to 1/2, May and July 62 1/2-3/4, September 62 1/2-3/4; oats 1/2-3/4 higher, May 32 1/2, rye 1 1/4 up, May 77 1/2; lard 12-10 up.

Profit taking caused wheat to sink fractionally to early lows of 95 1/2 for May and 89 1/2 for July but around mid-session the market began to rally. In the final hour recovery prices rose more than 2 cents from the lows and finished at the highs.

2,240 PERSONS TO DIE ON HIGHWAYS IN 1938

AUSTIN, Jan. 8 (AP)—A total of 2,240 persons are sentenced to die violently on Texas highway in 1938. The estimate was made today by statisticians at state police headquarters, who applied the mathematical laws of averages and ratio of increase to last year's toll.

Incomplete figures on 1937 in the "black book," a record of fatal accidents, indicated a death count of 2,040, an increase of more than 150 over the preceding year.

Last year death toll outstripped the calculations of keepers of the "black book," reaping a harvest more than 100 higher than last originally forecast.

The mounting toll spurred the public safety commission yesterday to lay plans for increasing manpower of the highway patrol.

On March 2 another training school for about 75 applicants who pass strict entrance requirements will start. Last year nearly 150 were graduated.

PAMPA GROUP TO HEAR EVANGELIST TUESDAY

A change in the date of Pampa night at the Gypsy Smith meeting in Amarillo has been announced by the Ministerial Alliance members who made contact with the Rev. J. O. Haynes of Amarillo and arranged to have a section of seats set aside for the Pampa delegates.

The group will go to Amarillo Tuesday evening to hear the popular evangelist speak. This service will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

Those who desire to go are urged to get in touch with their ministers in order that Pampa may be adequately represented, and in order that each may be assured of having a seat. Opening meetings indicate that it will be impossible to obtain seats unless some special arrangement is made.

FDR COMPARED WITH JACKSON

BISMARCK, N. D., Jan. 8 (AP)—Governor James V. Alfred of Texas tonight termed President Roosevelt "a greater warrior than Andrew Jackson."

"The battles Mr. Roosevelt has fought for the people," he said in a Jackson Day address here "have been against odds far more tremendous than those faced by 'Old Hickory.'"

Alfred cited what he described as "a striking parallel between the tactics used by moneyed interests against Jackson and those they have employed in recent years and months against President Roosevelt."

"In these tempestuous days," he said, "when the President finds himself the victim of subtle propaganda and direct charges of aspirations to power, it might be consoling, even amusing, to him to find that Democratic Thomas Jefferson and plain 'Old Hickory' Jackson were subjected to the same charges and were the victims of cartoons and caricatures everywhere portraying them as would-be kings, x x x."

"By far the greatest victory won by the thing for which he is most remembered, was Andrew Jackson's fight against monopoly, x x x with the present great president, I am one of those who believes that the eternal principles of the Democratic party correctly applied and carried out today will redeem our people from the bondage of monopoly and restore freedom and opportunity to the individual."

PORT ARTHUR CHILD STAKES LIFE ON BRAIN OPERATION AND LOSES

GALVESTON, Jan. 8 (AP)—Eleven-year-old Dona Reinsner of Port Arthur, who staked her life against an opportunity to return to school, died today.

The death of the honor student followed a six-hour operation yesterday to remove a brain tumor and restore her sight.

Last week, the pretty girl agreed to take the chance on the operation. Two surgeons who preferred to remain unidentified, said they would undertake the delicate operation at the hospital (John Sealy) here.

Dona Reinsner died despite elaborate preparations for the operation. B. C. Proyor, oil company laboratory worker at Port Arthur, volunteered to submit to a blood transfusion. The girl was on the operating table yesterday from 11:45 a. m. until 6 p. m.

At the conclusion of the surgery, doctors said the operation was successful, but that the girl's condition would be critical for a week or more.

About two years ago her sight began to fail, and finally she was forced to leave school where she had the reputation of being an unusually bright and industrious pupil.

All the usual methods of aiding her sight failed and she was first sent to the hospital here by the Red Cross in Port Arthur in May, 1935.

She had been a patient here since then with the exception of short visits to her home. She was the daughter of Mrs. Seawillow Reinsner and had four sisters and a brother.

The body will be sent to Port Arthur tonight.

POLL RECEIPTS ON INCREASE

Payment of poll taxes showed a slight increase during the past three days at the office of County Tax Assessor-Collector F. E. Leach.

The total number issued to date could not be definitely determined, as Deputy Johnny Beck was issuing poll tax receipts in McLean Saturday, and the records were not available.

From records here, however, it was revealed that 325 poll taxes have been paid, an increase of 75 over the total reported Wednesday.

In the same period, exemptions granted have increased by 29. Exemptions of poll tax payment are granted in cases of deaf and dumb, the blind, those who have suffered the loss of a hand or foot, persons over 60 years old on the first day of January, 1938, and those voters coming of age before the primary election in July.

To provide for the service of tax payers during the rush period, two employees have been temporarily added to the tax-assessor-collector's office. They are Mrs. Douglas Wilson and Norma Kidd.

January 31 is the final day for paying poll taxes, and the final day also for 1937 tax payments, except in the case of split-payment plan, in which case the final date is June 30.

FIRE DESTROYS SCHOOL BUILDINGS AT BRADY

BRADY, Jan. 8 (AP)—Two school buildings in the Melvin community were destroyed by fire today at an estimated loss of $50,000.

Dr. D. W. Jordan, president of the Brady school board, immediately offered Melvin students and faculty an opportunity to conduct their future classes here. To this end Brady superintendent of schools W. F. Whitten and superintendent K. O. Ellington of Melvin were conferred.

The fire of unknown origin, swept the two brick structures, destroying all fixtures, furnishings and inflammable portions. The Brady volunteer fire department vainly fought the blaze. The high and grammar school buildings were involved while an adjacent Mexican school was not touched.

Successful Business Women Must Like And Respect Others

By RUTH MILLETT
There are women in business who look beyond this week's pay check. Women who are as anxious as most men to succeed. Women who are not working just as a fill-in between school and a hoped-for marriage, but who plan to build their lives around a career.

Countess Waldeck has made a study of business women, both in the United States and in European countries. All the successful business women that she has come to know have convinced her of this: The woman who becomes a successful executive must really like and respect people. She must not feign the kind of unthinking liking that most of us have when we are young, but the kind of liking that comes from real understanding and sincere sympathy for others' troubles and perplexities. The more important a woman's work becomes, says Countess Waldeck, the more she has to have this real consideration for people that comes from the heart.

What about the office "front" that we are always hearing about? Countess Waldeck thinks the woman who falls back on a superficial office manner to get her through her days; is limiting herself at the start. "I can't make up my mind about what is worse," she says. "Is it the bias salesgirl or executive who looks at the customer like a Hollywood duchess and who seems to say, 'I am much too good to be bothered with your troubles. Who do you think you are?'" Or is it the business woman with the office front, who wears that superficial varnish of sweetness and light in business hours, but whose innate hardness, lack of interest, and emptiness break through everywhere?"

Such advice as Countess Waldeck gives may sound a little old-fashioned to a girl determined to be a "modern young business woman," so to give it weight with even the most modern, let me add—the Countess isn't the dowager type, not in any sense of the word. In fact, she looks a great deal more like Claudette Colbert than an American's idea of a countess. Now, are you willing to think her message might be for you?

Bell Club Meets in Home of Member for New Year Plans

At the initial meeting of the Bell Home Demonstration club in the home of Mrs. T. S. Skibinski Wednesday afternoon, articles regarding venereal diseases were discussed by members of the club. Among these was "Survey Graphic" by Thomas Parran, M. D. Surgeon, General United States Public Health service in which it was pointed out that syphilis strikes one out of every ten adults.

"There is reason to believe that if all conditions due to syphilis were reported as such, it would be found the leading cause of death in the United States. Unless treated, it is permanently disabling and frequently fatal."

"There is more of it than measles, twice as much as tuberculosis, a hundred times as much as infantile paralysis. It is responsible for more than 10 per cent of all insanity, for 18 per cent of all diseases of the heart and blood vessels, and for many of the deaths of babies in the first weeks of life," the speaker reported.

"Unless we determine to stamp out syphilis and the rate of the disease continues as it is now in the United States, it may in time be known as the great American disease. Half of the cases are not recognized until more than a year after infection, and even when diagnosed, 84 per cent lapse before their course of treatment is completed. If adequate treatment is begun in the primary stage, the disease can be cured in 36 per cent of all cases. If treatment is delayed only a few days or weeks until the blood Wasserman test becomes positive, the cures drop from 86 to 64 per cent," she added.

During the business session committee plans for the new year were read and discussed with the exception of the finance and exhibit committees whose chairmen were absent. These plans will be adopted at the next club meeting. Mrs. Roland Daner was appointed parliamentary for the club this year and Mrs. C. McKnight resigned as a reporter.

Tex's Topics

The folk back home are doing a little off-side praying these days for Postmaster C. H. Walker, B. C. D. Manager Garnet Reeves, and County Judge Sherman White who have "gone to town" in behalf of Gray county's proposed dam and lake down on McClellan Creek.

The trio, as you know, is in Washington trying to get some action on the lake plans. Everybody hopes their mission will bear fruit. I hope, I hope, I hope.

Perhaps you have overlooked the fact that the Pampa High school basketball team has been going great guns this winter. The Harvesters have won 14 out of 15 games, dropping one to Perryton at the Perryton tournament. However, since that time the local cagers have defeated Perryton twice with little difficulty.

Fans who have been following the team now are looking forward to the series of games with Borger High which will feature the month-end basketball schedule. Things have reached the point where the Pampa-Borger contests are being ballyhooed as THE big games of the season. So, if you wish to see some snappy basketball, drop over to the High school gym one of these nights and enjoy a thrilling evening.

There are many arguments pro and con on Pampa's Fairground Park situation. While many persons still cannot understand what good a repaired grandstand will do the city and favor taking the labor and material and putting it into some kind of a recreational building, there are others who think that the fairground grandstand should absolutely be put back in condition for public use.

These latter proponents deny the allegation that the grandstand would be used only two or three days out of the year. They point to the fact that the grandstand would be used for the summer softball games and thereby be of service to a great number of people. Their arguments include the statement that the grandstand would be used probably by a greater number of people than uses Harvester Park stadium during football season. So, take your pick.

TODAY'S SERMONETTE

Faith is the keynote of the Gospel of Christ, but faith must have with it repentance, a turning from evil ways to ways of righteousness. "Submit yourselves therefore to God. PAY YOUR POLL TAX!

There is food for thought in the news story that so far only 450 persons in Gray county have paid poll taxes making them eligible to vote in the 1938 elections. Only three weeks remain in which to pay the tax. The deadline is Jan. 31.

So, it is not amiss at this time to stress the importance of qualifying to vote through payment of the poll tax. It may be stereotyped reminder, but every American citizen of voting age owes it to himself and to his community, state and nation to vote and to vote intelligently. What a voter does when he casts a voting place is his own business. How he votes is his own secret.

But, we should all be bound by the same dutiful rule to vote for men we believe will serve us most intelligently. Voters should not go into the polls blindly. They should first make a study of all candidates for all offices and then go to the voting places and vote for the man who is best qualified to hold the particular office he seeks.

Through the oilfields of the Panhandle for many years there has been stressed the importance of oilfield workers taking part in the elections, and of paying poll taxes to become qualified voters.

As one man puts it, the important thing is to get everybody to vote. An unusual interest in elections and a large turnout of voters is good for any section. It centers attention of office-holders on that particular section whether they know it has voted against them or not. An intelligent turnout of voters lends any section of any state a certain amount of prestige in the halls of government.

Two years ago when interest in the state elections were at fever pitch, employees of the King Oil Company reported that they led all oil field concerns in having the greatest number of men listed as qualified voters through the payment of poll taxes. Eighty-five per cent of the King Oil Company men were qualified voters in 1936. They are out to beat that figure this year, it is reported. In the Cabot shops the men have started a "poll tax contest", with a goal of having the greatest percentage of eligible voters of any oilfield concern.

And, other oilfield workers are striving to equal or surpass the record of the King company employees.

It is a splendid idea—and one that should not be confined just to oilfield workers by any means. Every last one of us should see to it that when election days roll around, we are qualified to step into the polls and take a part in the very serious business of the conduct of government.

And, unless we pay our poll taxes we are nothing more or less than wallflowers and peepers in the American scheme of things.

If we do not qualify to vote, none of us has any right to complain about the way things are "being run" at the city hall, the courthouse, or down at Austin, or in the national capital at Washington.

Pay your poll tax now!

35,000—COUNT EM

Lots of people deplore the fact that this is an age of specialization. They regret that we have doctors who won't operate except on the left ear, teachers who spend a lifetime on the ablativ case.

Where are the old-time Jeffersons and Franklins, they ask, who could do everything and do it pretty well?

Generally speaking, they are gone lost in the mist of complexity that surrounds modern life. Just as an illustration: In the early days of motoring, every man was his own mechanic. He had to be, because there weren't any mechanics who knew cars.

But he could be, too. For the early cars were pretty crude and simple. Today's car, it is estimated by manufacturers, has perhaps 35,000 individual parts in the standard four-door sedan.

All the rest of life is like that today. Boy, page us an expert!

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY

The Bowers pool in the South Pampa field furnished another oil surprise and added another large well to the Gray county production.

Inmistakable evidence of the prosperity of the Pampa community in the face of the oil market slump was shown in the statements of conditions of the local banks.

FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY

Two telegrams concerning the federal relief

Washington Letter

WASHINGTON—One of the things interfering with the housing program is the age-old tradition that a man and his family should not be hastily expelled from his home for debt.

One of the means by which federal housing authorities hope to keep down the costs of financing private home building is keeping foreclosure costs low. Many states have put up high barriers against hasty foreclosure with the result that when a home building contract goes "sour" it sometimes takes many months of litigation to get the purchaser out so that a new buyer may take possession. The result is to increase the cost of financing the job and thus to make the financing less inviting as an investment.

Here is the picture as some housing officials see it:

A man comes to his bank asking a contract to build a house costing $5,000. Under the new housing act he will have to pay down ten per cent, $500. The bank will lend him the rest and the Federal Housing Authority will insure the whole $4,500 loan, which thus equals 90 per cent of the value of the house to be built.

When the house is built the buyer takes it over and begins paying off the loan in monthly installments. Except for the original $500 down payment, it is just like renting a house. Of course if all goes well, the buyer owns the house at the end of 17 to 20 years.

But suppose at the end of six months, or a year, the buyer loses his job, or perhaps just becomes ornery and decides not to make any more monthly payments. What then? Under laws in some states the buyer can be expelled from the house in three weeks to a month under foreclosure proceedings. In the District of Columbia it can be done in three weeks.

But in many other states, New York, and Illinois are examples, the buyer can escape eviction for a year or more, meantime making no payments and ignoring other terms of the sales contract. The Home Owners Loan Corporation, also in the mortgage field, has occasionally spent two years evicting an owner who refused to make payments.

When that happens, the loss on the deal is greater than any possible profit to the bank making the loan at 5 to 5 1/2 per cent interest. The result has been, federal housing authorities comment, that there has been a "tendency" on the part of some banks in these long delay foreclosure states to look two times before showing interest in these new 90 per cent loan insurance deals. The reason is that under the old 80 per cent loan operation the FHA stood the cost of the foreclosure. Under the new 90 per cent loan program the bank has to make the foreclosure and turn the house over to the FHA with the defaulting buyer already ousted.

State legislatures are being advised to change their foreclosure laws as a means of encouraging housing, but the going is slow. The old-line foreclosure laws were designed primarily to protect honest farmers and home owners from being roughly thrown into the street by a grasping mortgage holder eager to get possession of the property. The idea of making it possible for a mortgage holder to evict a man and his family from the old homestead on three or four weeks notice has not quite jelled in some spots.

situation in Gray county brought encouragement although the details were not available until the return of C. H. Walker and George Briggs from Stamford.

Boy Scout adult leaders from all parts of the huge Adobe Walls council were planning to attend the annual business session banquet and election of officers in Pampa.

Man About Manhattan

—By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—That blinding glare down on Grove street merely reflects the decision of Ben Collada to put the quietus on noisy guests whose conduct at the club El Chier makes it difficult for the actors to do their stuff. Before getting out my smoked glasses I got a glimpse of Ben reaching for the switchboard and he explained the whole story.

"Sometimes when six or eight guests sit at one table they get pretty noisy. Often they resent it if a waiter requests them not to make so much noise. On such occasions they sometimes want to take a poke at the waiter, and that is not good, because one cannot run a night club properly if one's waiters are to be used as punching bags. No? So I sit down in a corner and think about it for a long time, and finally I get the inspiration.

"I get the idea suddenly one night while I am sipping my third cup of coffee, and the next morning, when everything is quiet, I call in the electricians and we install powerful spotlights above every table in the house. Now, when a party becomes too loud we simply halt the show, darken the house, and turn a powerful floodlight on them. I can tell you they stop talking in a hurry. And everything is fine, because there is no waiter for anyone to punch in the nose, and they are too embarrassed to do anything but sit still and hope that the lights will go out very soon."

You may as well abandon your hopes of ever catching him at a loss for something to say, but you may be perfectly sure that when he is bawling you out it will be done so adroitly that you will be under the impression that he is really agreeing with you and that you are right in everything you think or do.

One night some guests ordered a large dinner with wine, and after the bill was tabulated there was a howl of protest at the part set aside as the government tax.

"This is outrageous," exclaimed the angry diner, and I resent it. It is unfair and un-American.

"Sir, I agree with you," purred Senor Collada. "You have every right to become angry whenever you wish and if you do not wish to pay it, why, that is all right with me too. All I asked is that you sign this little paper saying that you refused to pay the tax, and I will turn it over to the government and let them worry about collecting it. You see, it is nothing to me, except there is a law saying that a certain tax percentage must be paid, and this little paper with your signature will relieve me of all responsibility."

So far, there hasn't been a single signature turned in.

Vincent Lopez, who ought to be known as the Einstein of music, because he is always tinkering with rhythms and making scientific studies of tonal contours, is conducting experiments now on the emotional effect of music. Lopez recently lectured on music before a class at New York University. He believes he can prove that the vibrations of modern American music, when interpreted properly, can be of great benefit to health.

People You Know Around Hollywood

—By ARCHER FULLINGHAM

The Zimmermans of boarding house fame are feeling sort of lost since Bob and Fred Thompson got married. They'd been staying at the Zimmermans ever since most anybody can remember, around 10 years. Then they upped and got married. Well, Mrs. Zimmerman got all set to board that confirmed old bachelor, Olin Hinkle, who hadn't had a date in six years until Hellen Sellers came along, and then they also upped and married? Before that Harry Heare, who was Hinkle's roommate at the Zimmermans, and Wilma Behrens got married, and went to Canada on a honeymoon. Before that Roy Fisher, who was quite slim in those days, quit showing his feet under the Zimmerman table three times a day to get married to a bookkeeper. Other lads who jumped from beds in the North Frost street boarding house into a state of matrimony are Murray Body, Paul Danner, John Gantz, Hal McCall, Ray Williams, Paul Hughes, Les Hunsbarger, Walter Powers, Harold Worley, Bill Karn, Sam Salt and others too numerous to mention.

(This one stayed there a couple of years, but there was not a chance that he would get married because various little kids were taking up all his time anyway.) The place is not so fatal for women, and Neva Burgess, Mamie Counselor, and Eva Blackmore are still holding out.

Mrs. Zimmerman, put through the third degree by this one, finally admitted that Ansel Thomas and J. B. Woodington are staying in the room occupied by Bob and Fred, so girls, there's your chance.

Swing in Elaborate Setting
This conventional yarn is decorated with a lively cast, singable tunes, enough comics that you're sure to like one or two no matter what your tastes, and the entire radio show east which works under the "Hollywood Hotel" label—Lucella Parsons, Frances Langford, Raymond Paige and orchestra, and the rest.

There are also Hugh Herbert, Glenda Farrell, Johnnie Davis, Mabel Todd, Allyn Joslyn, and Edger Kennedy—plus the swing man, Benny Goodman. Both Goodman and Paige are presented nearly as elaborately as was Stokowski in "100 Men and a Girl." Ted Healy's comedy, mostly very funny, is not his swan song. He had completed another picture before his death. Busby Berkeley directed, holding the varied elements together rather neatly.

Greenwich Village Caricature
"Wise Girl" is a pleasant, unpretentious comedy, set mostly in Greenwich Village and caricaturing—for the funniest sequences—various Village types. The story has Miriam Hopkins, an heiress incognito, invading the Village to retrieve her two nieces from the custody of an artist, Ray Milland.

Having won the two girls, Miriam's next concern is to establish Ray as an artist. Since an artist has to paint something in order to win fame, Miriam forces this issue by having him jailed, with no food but with canvas, paints, and brushes.

Highlight: The prizefight sequence in which Guinn Williams, sculptor—pugilist; Milland, his manager; Miss Hopkins, the referee and Guinn's formal opponent all get into the ring swapping punches. Leigh Jason's direction keeps the picture moving at a good clip.

Tenor Richard Tauber sang "You Are Gone Now" on his recent local program—but the author of the lyrics wasn't there to hear it. She was working in a picture, hence didn't attend the concert of her own volition, and Tauber's invitation—including an autographed copy of her song—for some reason, was delayed in the mail. Gloria Stuart is still mourning.

There are an estimated 3000 homeless persons in London on any one night.

How's Your Health?

By IAGO GALDSTON, M.D.

Anthropologists agree that hunger is one of man's strongest urges. The satisfaction of his food wants in the normal individual, will take precedence over most others. So it is puzzling why so many children "just won't eat," as their parents complain.

Of course the complaint can't be taken literally. The child isn't on a hunger strike. When questioned, the parents will explain that the real difficulty is that the child won't eat at his meal time, refuses the foods served him, dawdles over his food, has tantrums or may vomit after eating.

No child has ever been known voluntarily to starve himself to death but this assurance affords the worried parents only meager comfort. There are still meal-time annoyances and the warranted worry that the child may not be taking the nutrition he needs.

A thorough medical examination will reveal whether the child is eating enough to grow well. The physician, by studying the child's posture, muscle tone, subcutaneous fat, hemoglobin, etc., can soon decide whether the child suffers from any degree of malnutrition.

But parents are more likely to judge Johnny's nutritional state by comparing his size with that of Tommy who is the same age, or by consulting some "standard" height-weight-age chart. Neither process offers any real evaluation of Johnny's nutritional state because children differ, and averages are crude criteria.

If the child is really undernourished, the examining physician can prescribe a suitable diet to bring him up to normal. The case, for a time at least, is essentially a medical problem and is so handled. Highly nutritious, concentrated foods, enforced rest in bed and restriction of activities when the child is ill, will soon correct the nutritional deficiencies. Then the approach may be changed from medical to re-educational.

Few cases require drastic handling. Usually, all that is necessary is to relieve the parents' concern and change their perspective on their "feeding problems."

Among other things, parents must learn that missing a meal now and then is little likely to harm the child. Also, that when Johnny says he doesn't want a hunch, it is wiser to reply that if he isn't hungry, it's quite all right, than to advance the typical arguments which he is inviting.

Benjamin Franklin's portrait in the White House originally was carried away from Franklin's home by Major Andre, who gave it to General Grey. Grey took it to England and Earl Grey, a descendant, presented it to President Theodore Roosevelt.

Ordinarily, one can see up to a dozen meteors on a clear night, but on the night of October 9, 1933, the earth passed through a swarm of these small particles, each of which became white hot due to friction caused by the earth's atmosphere.

SHEEP MEN AND CATTLE MEN BURY THE HATCHET

EL PASO, Jan. 8 (AP)—Interstate Commerce Commission representatives learned with some surprise today that cattle raisers and sheep men have buried the hatchet on the range these modern days and no longer shoot each other on sight.

They also discovered that "cowboy-struck" eastern debutantes usually abandon matrimonial intentions when they find out the average wage for a "puncher" is about $40 a month and board.

Former U. S. Senator H. O. Bursum of New Mexico explained that he raised both sheep and cattle on his Socorro, N. M., ranch.

"In old times," he said, "there was war when a cowboy met a sheep herder, but the days of range feuds are gone."

Oliver M. Lee, Alamogordo, N. M., rancher, was the authority on cowboy wages. As for the railroads, he observed, "they pay their labor too darn much."

DISTINGUISHED FLYING CROSS AWARDED TEXAN

FORT SAM HOUSTON, Jan. 8 (AP)—The War Department has awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross to Second Lieutenant D. Ross Ellis, Air Corps Reserve, now on active duty with the Air Corps at Randolph Field, Eighth Corps Area headquarters was informed from Washington, D. C.

The cross was awarded to Lieut. Ellis for heroism displayed on April 24, 1937, while on a training flight from Hensley field, Dallas, to Oklahoma City.

Lieut. Ellis was a passenger in a plane piloted by Second Lieut. Robert S. Fisher, air corps of the regular army, on duty at Randolph field. When about 40 miles north of Hensley field Lieut. Fisher's parachute was accidentally opened and he was pulled from the plane. His body struck the plane's left tail surfaces knocking them off and badly damaging the rudder. Lieut. Fisher was killed in the fall to the ground.

Lieut. Ellis piloted the badly damaged plane back to Hensley field and then returned as an observer in another plane to help in the search for Lieut. Fisher's body.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8 (AP)—President Roosevelt told reporters today they could expect no intimation from him regarding a successor to Associate Justice George Sutherland of the Supreme Court until the nomination goes to the Senate.

He told a press conference there had been no decision in the matter as yet.

Rumors as to who will succeed Justice Sutherland vie meanwhile with rumors that Justice James Clark McReynolds is seriously contemplating stepping off the bench this year.

ELIMINATION OF POLL TAX BEING URGED

Elimination of the poll tax is one of the five objectives of the campaign for modernization and uniform election and registration laws proposed by the National Get-Out-the-Vote club, of which Simon Michlet, Washington, D. C., is president.

In the presidential election of 1936, nine states had a poll tax: Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi, Florida, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia. Agitation against the poll tax is now developing in Alabama, Tennessee and Virginia.

With a combined electorate of 12,472,245 citizens these nine poll-taxed states in 1936 cast only 3,065,177 votes for all candidates for President and Vice-President.

Arkansas and Florida revised their laws in 1937, leaving only seven states at present in the poll tax group.

The "plight" of Texas is described by the club: Texas, in the last census had 2,335,555 native white and 94,876 foreign-born white citizens of voting age, or a total white electorate of 2,430,433, which by 1936 doubtless exceeded 2,500,000.

Total vote of Texas for all presidential candidates in 1936 was only 843,482, of which the President and Vice-President received 734,485. That is to say, 70 percent of the whites in poll-taxed Texas are non-voters.

Texas, in the last census, had a potential electorate of 3,220,880, greater than either Massachusetts, Missouri, Michigan or Indiana and not far short of California.

As a result of the poll tax, the registration of voters barely reaches one million, the club declares, and the result is Texas polls a vote only one-half of that of Massachusetts, Michigan, Missouri, Indiana, and even a Democratic vote one million, the club declares, and the result is Texas polls a vote less than half that of former Republican states of Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio, or California.

The combined vote of the present seven-poll states for President Roosevelt in 1936 was only 2,457,000 or less than 10 percent of the President's 27,751,000. On this basis of representation in future Democratic national conventions, President Michlet believes the so-called "Solid South" would quickly pass into partial eclipse as a power in the Democratic party.

School Pupils Will Be Dismissed For Mozart Concert

A new world of music is opened to youth by Esther Johnson in her Mozart concert, according to sponsors of the program in Oklahoma City and Tulsa.

Miss Johnson will present the concert which consists of colored movies of marionettes, music of Mozart, Haydn, Bach, played by her on the piano, and explanations of the music, at the high school auditorium, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. More than 1,000 school children and 200 adults are expected to attend.

Miss Johnson gave the concert Thursday night in Oklahoma City before the 5,900 young people of ward school, junior, high and high school age. Previously she played before a larger crowd in Tulsa.

The pianist is the only American woman ever to play at the quarter-century Mozart festival at Salzburg. In the concert to be given here she tells of the travels of the wonder child, Wolfgang Mozart, age six, in music and in colored movies. The movies are of the famous Salzburg marionettes and show Mozart at the court of Marie Theresa.

Miss Johnson, attired in a Mozartean costume, plays some of the early compositions of Mozart and composers he met in his travels. The local schools are cooperating with the American Legion, Sons of the Legion and individuals in sponsoring the concert. All students who wish to attend the concert will be dismissed at 2 o'clock. Buses will be dispatched to bring the pupils from ward schools if the weather is bad.

Ward school pupils will pay teachers who accompany them the admission fee of 10 cents per pupil. The music and life of Mozart are being studied this week in Pampa music classes under the direction of Helen Martin, music supervisor.

Editor Considers Theater An Instrument For Peace

By CHARLES NORMAN
AP Feature Service Writer

NEW YORK—The chief of women's publicity on Liberty Loans wound up the affairs of her office. The war was over.

Now she has time to think. The way to understanding between nations, she was convinced, lay through the arts. The art she was especially interested in was the theater.

"When you see a really vital play," she explains, 20 years later, "you see men as they live, and think, and feel. When you see them like that, you cannot misunderstand or hate."

You Want To Listen

This woman is Mrs. Edith Juliet Rich Isaacs, editor of "Theater Arts Monthly." The magazine has been her labor of love since the war. Her ambition, at the start, was to have a subscriber in every country in the world—even in Siam—and she says her goal was achieved. Her hair is white now. Her face has recorded, in subtle lines and shadowings, the full experiences of a woman sensitive to life. When you look at her you feel you are in the presence of a wise and tolerant human being. You want to listen.

Although she thinks Broadway productions too often have a gaudy, blaring angle, she calls the Big White Way "the liveliest, most vital producing sector."

Always A Finer Crowd

"Every year," she says, "Broadway has seen a finer crowd, more in-young producers, young designers and writers. I'm never afraid for the theater—there's really nothing to fear in a field that is so close to the hearts of people everywhere.

"Films can give us fugitive themes—but the theater gives us lasting angles. What Hollywood can do is to take away a lot of things which the theater has employed but which aren't essential—a great number of scenes, for example, without development of character."

She doesn't think the radio is suited to theatrical performances. "In the theater," she explains, "you have two poles—both sides of the footlights."

She thinks the end of vaudeville is a serious loss.

"Vaudeville," she says, "was a training ground for stage actors—and they were well trained. Vaudeville actors knew their audiences best. With the end of vaudeville, there are no comedians, and comedians are the heart of the theater."

Criticizes Labor Theater

"Tragedians play with other actors, but the comedian plays right to the audience. He makes his own response to their moods, which he is quick to get.

"The labor theater lacks this touch with the audience. People in the labor theater thought that when they had a noble idea and purpose, that that ought to do the work—but they failed. You can only get results in the theater, through the theater's way—through the actor's contact with his audience."

Mrs. Isaacs has never written a play herself, but has edited drama collections.

First National Bank In Pampa

Further Reports

—on banking show added indications of strength and stability.

OUR previous advertisement in this series described the fine progress in American Banking as reported by both state and national bank supervisory officials.

Another particularly significant item, recently issued by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation at Washington, D. C., stated that the banks and trust companies which had borrowed money from it have repaid 89% of their loans. The R.F.C. was organized in 1932 to aid banks in meeting the abnormal demands of the times. Since that time about 7,500 banking institutions have received from it advances of $1,900,000,000 and have returned more than $1,600,000,000. This has been made possible through the strengthening of their own financial conditions and the return of public confidence and stability.

This bank is an integral part of the nation's sound and serviceable banking structure.

Richest Girl in the World

BY ADELAIDE HUMPHRIES

Copyright, 1938, NEA Service, Inc.

Yesterday, sick to the soul of rich, pampered living, Connie turns on Rodney at the last moment, threatens she will never see him again.

CHAPTER III

WHEN Gibbs brought Miss Connie's breakfast that next morning, there was no response. When she returned with it again an hour later, Gibbs' face took on its pinched expression. She knew that this signified a thunderstorm ahead. Whether to risk it now, or postpone it was the question. The day's schedule overlapped. The masseur would have to be fitted into the same half hour as the manicurist; then there was that girl coming from Louelle's with the new frocks to be tried and fitted. Gibbs set her thin lips; pushing it open at the same time with a decisive jut from her knee, crossed the room like a soldier about to face a firing squad.

"It's very late, Miss Connie," she said firmly. "It's a lovely breakfast I brought." She set the tray on the little table by the man's head. Its occupant was a tiny mound buried among the heaps of cushions and the silk and satin coverlet. A mound that did not stir.

Gibbs crossed the room once more with the same purposeful footsteps. She pulled the heavy gold brocade draperies, letting the warm bright sunlight stream in. "It's a lovely day," she stated, as though expecting an immediate denial of such an obvious fact. "A busy day; too, Miss Connie, if you'll please to remember."

Still the mound did not stir, though there was a faint quiver on the long curling dark lashes on the smooth fair cheeks.

"Mr. Brandon already has called three times," Gibbs ventured, and knew immediately that this was the wrong approach because the mound flopped over and buried itself even deeper. "There's a lovely account about your lovely party last night," Undaunted, Gibbs tried again, proving the old axiom that it pays.

Connie stirred, sat up, flung out a rounded white arm. "Let me see," she said. Sleep had vanished from the blue eyes; fire smoldered in their depths. Her hair hung in a loose whirl that just brushed the ribbon and lace on her shoulder of the chiffon gown that had come, with trimp, loads of lingerie, from the Rue de la Paix.

Connie glanced at the first one, flung it aside. "I knew it," she muttered.

"I only had been a man... Of had one with me." She gave the pillow next to her a vicious trimp. "I'll have to send for the guards if you don't go," she mimicked in what was a surprising imitation of Rodney's clean-clipped Harvard accent. Then she slumped down among the pillows again. "Take it away, please," she waved Gibbs and the papers, and the whole universe out of her sight. "Don't want any breakfast. Don't think I'll get up—ever. You can tell the newspapers that. Tell to come take a picture of me dying—dying of boredom and nausea. Tell them they can have one in my coffin, too, for good measure. Tell them..."

"Now, Miss Connie, you'll really be ill if you allow yourself to get all worked up," Gibbs bent to pick up the scattered papers, smoothing out a crumpled sheet that explained—too late—the bomb that had set off the explosion. A full length portrait of Miss Connie, clasped, somewhat gingerly, it is true, but clasped nevertheless, in Mr. Rodney's virile arms, his lips pressed—not quite so gingerly—against hers, and underneath the caption: "MILLION DOLLAR PRINCESS BESTOWS BETHROTHAL. KISS."

"I am surprised," Connie muttered from the pillows. "I'm sick. I'm sick of living. I'm sick of myself. Go way—please. Take the tray and those papers with you. I don't want to see anything or anyone ever. Understand. Gibby?"

"Now, Miss Connie, Gibby began severely, pursing his lips, but she saw that it was no use, so she did as she was bid, her lips set disapprovingly.

THE mound underneath the silk and satin coverlet lay quiet once more. It did not move an inch or utter a sound until what might have been hours, or days, or years later, when another knock came at the door.

The knock was repeated, louder, more urgently, the door was pushed open.

"Didn't I tell you to go 'way? A pillow, a smidgen of silk and lace, but solid and compact for all that, owing to the force of the velocity with which it was hurled, caught the young girl in the doorway squarely in the middle, sending the big box clasped tightly in her arms to the floor with a smack.

"Oh!" Connie sat up, rubbed the sleep and some of the fire, out of her eyes. She stared at the girl. "Who are you? How did you get in?" she asked. And then, as the girl, without answering, stooped and began to gather the scattered contents from the box together, "I'm sorry I hit you," Connie said.

The girl did not look up. She was intent upon her task.

"I said I'm sorry I hit you," Connie repeated.

The girl glanced at her over her shoulder, but she went on repacking the contents into the box.

"Can't you talk?" Connie asked. She sat up straight now, leaning forward to clasp her knees in her arms. There was a tiny candle of interest lighted in her blue eyes.

The girl nodded solemnly. Her eyes, blue like Connie's, were wide with wonder, as though they could not credit all they saw.

"Why don't you, then?" This time Connie's tone was touched with impatience. She reached for a

"Then how would you like to be married for a little while?" asked Connie.

"Anything!" the girl went on, speaking rapidly, heatedly, as though now that her reserve had been broken down she could not stop the flow of words. "To have all this, nothing but beauty around you—to sleep in a bed like that—to lie as long as you want... But I'm sorry," she stopped, her face coloring. "I didn't think what I was saying, I didn't mean to say it."

"I didn't mean to throw things," Connie said. There was a flame much deeper than any flickering candle, a flame that grew brighter, more intense. She beckoned the girl to her side, regarded her a long moment, the cheap little hat that yet had an air of chic, the neat plain suit, worn, but well-pressed, the freshly laundered blouse, the shiny hose, with a runner neatly darned, the brown brogues, scuffed a bit, but bravely shined. An air of pride and defiance about the whole ensemble, matching the lift of the trembling chin and pretty head, Connie nodded as though satisfied, as she said:

"Then how would you like to be married for a little while?"

negligee at the foot of the bed. She swung her feet to the floor, wiggled into blue silk mules, the heels of which were studded with rhinestones, walked over to her chaise longue and sat down.

"You took my breath," the girl said. "And I was told not to say anything. Just leave the box."

"I won't bite," Connie said. "I suppose you're the girl from Louelle's. Well, you can take those things back. I don't want any of them."

The girl just stared at her, not saving a word.

"Did you hear me?" Connie asked.

The girl nodded.

"I said I didn't want to see anyone or anything ever again," Connie said. "And I meant it."

"Why?"

Connie was so surprised that the girl could ask a question that she answered before she thought. "Because I'm sick of everyone and everything. I'm sick of living."

The incredulity on the girl's face deepened. "You!" she exploded. "When you have everything in the world you want."

It was Connie who nodded this time. "Exactly," she said. "That's what my grandfather told me years ago. That's why I haven't anything."

"But you're the richest girl in the world!" the girl said. And then, "Oh, I'd give anything to be you! Just for a little while."

Now Connie stared at her speechless.

17 Wells Tested In Plains Field For 8,670 Barrels

7 PRODUCERS COMPLETED IN GRAY COUNTY

Nineteen thirty-eight opened in the Panhandle field with almost unprecedented activity. Officials of the local office of the Texas Railroad commission tested 17 wells during the first week for an open flow potential of 8,670 barrels. One gas well was given a potential.

Twelve new locations, an unusual number for week in past winter months, were filed. Hutchinson county, the hotspot of the field during most of 1937, opened in the lead with six of the first intentions. Gray, Carson and Wheeler counties registered two each.

Seven Gray county wells were tested and given open flow potentials of 4,120 barrels. Hutchinson county's six wells were tested for 3,064 barrels, open flow. The four producers in Carson county had a total open flow of 1,486 barrels.

Best producer of the week was the Indian Territory Illuminating Oil company's No. 12 Smith in section 130, block 3, I&GN survey, three miles west of Pampa in Gray county which was good for 956 barrels. The new well is in the heart of the West Pampa pool and was an excellent producer considering the age of the pool and the large number of wells in the immediate area.

Another good well in an old pool was the J. E. Crosbie No. 21 Pitts, section 7, block M-21, TCRR survey, Hutchinson county, which gauged 819 barrels.

An interesting completion was the Cities Service Oil company's No. 2 Heitholt in section 153, block 3, I&GN survey, Gray county, which gauged 617 barrels. The new well is near the test drilled in this section of the Panhandle. The original Heitholt test, over the line in Carson county, was begun in 1922 but not completed until other sections of the Panhandle had proven production.

Completions, by counties, follow:
Gray County
Cities Service Oil Company No. 2 Heitholt, section 152, block 3, I&GN survey, tested 617 barrels with lime pay between 3,147 and 3,278 feet.

M'CRAW TO VOTE FOR M'CRAW FOR GOVERNOR

DALLAS, Jan. 8 (AP)—Attorney General William McCraw will vote for William McCraw of Dallas county for governor next summer.

He gave out this information today to a Tax Assessor and Collector Ed Cobb, as he obtained 1938 poll tax receipts for Mrs. McCraw and himself.

"I was never so surprised in my life to learn that Mr. McCraw may be a candidate for governor," said the smiling Mr. Cobb, with an air of a man who has his fingers crossed.

(McCraw has not officially announced his candidacy.)

McCraw paused in Dallas en route to Washington, where next week he will confer with Master in Chancery John S. Flanery regarding the hearings of the four-state contest as to the residence of the late E. H. R. Green.

OIL AND CARBON COMPANIES URGE PAYMENT OF POLL TAXES

With the deadline for poll tax payment only 22 days distant, employees of oil and carbon black companies within Gray county have manifested signs of interest in the approaching elections.

Employees of the Cabot companies have planned a contest designed to increase the percentage of qualified voters among the Cabot personnel, and have challenged all oil and allied companies in the field, to see which company can have the greatest number of qualified voters.

In 1936, employees of the King Oil Company claimed that 85 per cent of their personnel had paid poll taxes.

A survey of representative companies Friday revealed that three have the policy of urging their men to pay poll taxes as a gesture of good citizenship.

The superintendent of one plant said his company intended to stress poll tax payments at once to its employees, as the company had always urged its workers to pay poll taxes as a mark of active citizenship.

Another company reported that 50 per cent of its employees have already paid poll taxes, and that it was expected the percentage would be much higher before the end of the month.

None of the companies reported that their employees had participated in any contest in past years similar to the one being conducted by the Cabot companies.

session of the automobile driver's license of his son, Hubert, for 90 days today, for exceeding the speed limit in New Jersey and for which young Earle paid a fine.

The governor said he had just learned that Hubert, thinking the same as in Pennsylvania, was arrested for driving 50 miles an hour on January 3, adding:

"Ignorance of the law, however, is no justification for breaking it."
