Roosevelt Names Stanley Reed Supreme Court Judge

SENATORS DUE TO VOTE QUICK CONFIRMATION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15. (AP)—A clear majority of administration supporters of the Supreme Court appeared assured today when President Roosevelt nominated Solicitor General Stanley Reed, veteran defender of new deal enactments, to succeed retiring Justice George Sutherland.

Senators, who must pass upon the nomination, generally applauded the selection of the Kentucky lawyer and dairyman, even some bitter foes of the President's defeated bill to reorganize the high tribunal joined in expressing approval.

But there were numerous demands that public hearings be conducted before the Senate votes on the appointment, in view of the public furor caused by belated revelations that Justice Hugo L. Black, President Roosevelt's only other nominee to the court, once was a member of the Ku Klux Klan.

It was apparent the nomination had a better chance of being confirmed quickly than it had involved the name of someone whose known views were more radical than Reed's. Commending the chief executive's choice, Senator Burke, (D, Neb.), a leader of the fight against the court bill, told reporters:

"I would place Mr. Reed in the same class in which I place myself—a Progressive-Conservative. He has all the qualifications to make an outstanding judge."

The 53-year-old nominee has defended administration measures forcefully before the Supreme Court.

To Support FDR He has contended in public addresses that the flexibility of the constitution makes it "as adequate for the problems of today as time has shown it has been adequate to meet the difficulties of the past."

Administration men count on the nomination to assure Roosevelt measures generally the support of at least five of the court's nine

U. S. Chamber Slashes Out At President For Assailing Business

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15. (AP)—The Chamber of Commerce of the United States reprimanded the administration today for "the recent tendency to assail business and blame it for the recession."

This tendency "has not proved conducive to the cooperative spirit so essential to confidence and recovery," the chamber said.

DEAN THINKS HE SHOULD BE LEFT ALONE

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Jan. 15. (AP)—Dean Israel Harding Noe reiterated today his belief he should be left alone to continue his search for a "new way of life."

The dean of St. Mary's Episcopal cathedral made these points clear: 1. He has made no public claims concerning his fasting and prayer in search of immortality. He is not thinking in terms of fasting but in terms of working out a philosophy of life.

2. He does not feel concerned about the opinions of others, either in the medical profession or the clergy, respecting his attempts to work out a program to which he has given many years of study, especially since he feels others have no real idea of what he is doing.

3. He does not intend to tell his story until he has worked it out and tested it.

4. He is working out his program from a purely personal standpoint. He is not asking anyone to agree that he is right. He science, the human body, physics and bio-chemistry, together with his close communion with God and his knowledge of God's work en-

GIRL SCOUTS TO GET AWARDS FRIDAY NIGHT

Thirty-seven girl scouts will receive 15 various types of badges at the Court of Badges and Awards which will be held Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium.

After a short introduction on the purpose of scouting, a pantomime will be presented to show the ways in which the girls earn the badges. This pantomime will be in two scenes: one showing the art of homemaking and the other will feature out-door activities.

Approximately 125 girls are members of the five local scout troops which meet at the scout house once each week. Captains of these groups are: Mmes. Ralph R. Thomas, troop one; L. J. McGarty, troop four; J. M. Turner, troop six; W. A. Breining, troop two, and George Quinn, Holy Souls Catholic church troop.

Maybe He Had a Cook Stove in The Other Leg

Police yesterday turned over to county officers a negro arrested Friday evening at the Davis Electric company in connection with the theft of an electric iron. Charges had not been filed last night.

Frank Hunt thought he saw the negro take something from a shelf and hide it in a huge pair of overalls. Frank shook the negro, but nothing happened. He was about to let the negro go when the iron fell from his pant leg. Chief Art Hurst was then summoned.

The negro told Chief Hurst that he had been in the penitentiary twice. When asked on what charge, the negro replied, "possessin' and concealin' stolen goods."

"What did you have?" queried the chief. "Well, de fust time I had rugs," was the reply. "What about the second time?" asked chief. "Well, ah had more rugs," solemnly replied the negro.

CHICAGOAN TO ADDRESS TWO LOCAL CLUBS

Pampa Kiwanis club members at their regular noonday meeting Friday in Schneider Hotel discussed plans for a joint meeting with the Rotary club on Friday, Feb. 4 to hear an address by Clarence Henry, educational director of the Chicago Board of Trade.

Members of the Kiwanis program committee, composed of Joe Gordon, Emory Crockett, Garnet Reeves, and Tex DeWeese, announced that they had obtained Mr. Henry as a speaker for that date, and also stated that the meeting place would be changed to the basement of the Methodist church to accommodate the combined membership of the club and guests.

The day will be designated as "Farmers Day" and agriculture committees of both clubs will arrange to invite farmers and ranchers as their guests. Mr. Henry will be on a speaking tour of the country at that time, and his itinerary brings him to Lubbock on Feb. 2 and 3. He will drive to Pampa the following day for the noonday luncheon program which will be broadcast by KPND.

The Rev. W. M. Pearce, pastor of the Methodist church in Pampa, was principal speaker at yesterday's Kiwanis meeting. He spoke on the

Man Jailed, 2 Women Injured In Car Crash

County officers arrested and placed in jail last night a Pampa man, following an automobile collision at 7:30 p. m. Saturday on the Pampa-LeFors road near the driveway of the Y tavern. Officers said there would be a hearing on the case today.

Mrs. B. F. Cook and Mrs. Ray Hines, both of Pampa, were in Worley hospital last night, as a result of injuries received in the crash. Mrs. Cook suffered the loss of one tooth, and had another tooth knocked loose. Mrs. Hines suffered a back injury.

The accident occurred when the automobile, in which was riding Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Cook and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hines, was in collision with the automobile in which was riding the man arrested and another man, whose identity officers did not learn.

The Cook automobile was headed north toward Pampa, while the other machine was preparing to turn into the driveway of the Y tavern, officers said.

Following the crash, a front tire of the Cook automobile blew out, and the car swerved across the road, over a bar ditch and into a field, to be stopped 50 yards from the place of the collision. The front of both cars was smashed. Total damage was estimated at $600. Neither car overturned.

Named To Succeed Sutherland

Stanley Reed, above, quiet, dignified, who defended the AAA, the gold clause case, the Wagner act, and many other cases with conspicuous success before the U. S. Supreme Court, yesterday was appointed to that august body, succeeding Justice Sutherland who resigned recently.

Home Ownership Drive To Be Launched Here

A campaign to stimulate home building and home ownership in Pampa will be launched shortly by the Pampa Board of City Development, it was announced last night by Reno Stinson, newly elected president of the civic group.

Mr. Stinson has named a committee, of which Tom Smaling has been named chairman, to conduct the educational campaign to make a city of new homes.

Also on this committee Mr. Stinson has named Mrs. H. H. Hicks and Ray Hagen.

"The best sign of permanency for Pampa," Mr. Stinson said, "is found in the fact that so many officials and employees of the gas, oil and carbon black companies own their own homes."

Housing conditions, according to Board of City Development officials, are inadequate in Pampa, and it will be one of the principal objectives of the board this year to encourage and promote the building

Definite Plans Call For 800-Acre Lake To Be Built by Summer

Definite plans for the building of a $300,000 dam at Beaver Dam on McClellan creek near Alanreed and McLean in Gray county were worked out at a conference in Washington, D. C. Friday, according to a statement from C. H. Walker, chairman of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce lake committee and County Judge Sherman White, who returned from Washington last night.

At a conference Jan. 8 in Washington Dr. L. C. Gray, assistant chief of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics under the Department of Agriculture agreed to purchase the site with funds from the Bankhead-Jones farm tenant act, provided property owners will sell at submarginal land prices. If the site can not be purchased at a reasonable figure, or if soundings at the dam site are not satisfactory another location will be sought on McClellan creek or elsewhere in Gray county.

After conferences with officials of the Department of Agriculture and the Works Progress administration throughout last week, the final definite plans were worked out Friday. Present at this conference were: Aubrey Williams, deputy administrator; J. C. Mehaffey, executive assistant to the chief engineer; and Fred R. Rauch, director, highway and conservation division of the Works Progress administration; Congressman Marvin Jones; Walter M. Russell, land development, bureau of agricultural economics, Department of Agriculture; Carl Hinton, manager Amarillo chamber of commerce and secretary of the Panhandle Water authority; Walker, Judge Sherman White, and Garnet Reeves.

Cecil Hunter Goes to Town In Hollywood

This story comes under the heading of "Home Town Boy Makes Good." Cecil Hunter, Pampa, who is known to thousands of listeners of Radio Station KPND as "Uncle Bud" and "Stuttering Sam," has clicked in Hollywood.

Hunter formerly was a regular entertainer on KPND, went from Pampa to Amarillo where he was heard by a radio scout from Hollywood, and was called there six weeks ago for an audition.

Word was received in Pampa Saturday that Hunter has signed a contract with the Music Corporation of America and has made his radio debut in Hollywood over the Warner Brothers' station, KPWB.

It was Hunter's "Stuttering Sam" characterization that caught the ear of the talent scout who heard him over KGNC, Amarillo. And it is this characterization, according to reports, that is carrying him to fame in the movie capital.

First 1938 meeting of Panhandle chapter of the American Petroleum Institute will be Tuesday night, Jan. 25, Chairman Art Holland announced yesterday.

At a meeting of officers and members of the advisory board Friday noon in the Schneider hotel, plans were outlined for an intensive membership drive. The Panhandle chapter will be host to the Mid-Continent chapter spring convention Feb. 17 and 18 and it is the desire of Chairman Holland and his board to have every oil worker and persons associated either directly or indirectly with the oil industry as members. The membership is only $1 a year.

DISCIPLINE ON VESSELS GONE, SAYS MASTER

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15 (AP)—An American shipmaster, who said he was "liable to have a bullet in my back" if his name got out, told senate committees in testimony made public today discipline had broken down completely in the American Merchant Marine.

His charges were made before the senate commerce and labor committees, which are considering amendments to the Merchant Marine act.

The shipmaster, whose name was kept secret, said "our ships are infested with thugs, thieves, gamblers, dope runners, drunks, and racketeers of all descriptions."

He said these constituted one of three types of seamen.

"The second type is the man whose only aim is to cheat the ship out of an honest day's work, whether it be for his safety or not—constantly complaining and demanding overtime pay for almost anything he does," the witness continued.

"The third type is the old type of seaman, be he a sailor, steward, or fireman. It is this pitifully small group which keeps our ships running in any semblance of order at all."

The shipmaster attributed conditions to the increase of "rank and file unions," which include both officers and men, and termed union delegate systems "the same as the Soviet."

He suggested putting "the entire Merchant Marine under a division of the Coast Guard, with enlistment, retirement and other benefits," would "insure discipline necessary to the safety of passengers at sea."

The captain offered to supply "names, times and places" concerning the following instances:

Lookouts aloft so drunk that we were afraid to remove them from the crow's nest for fear of falling down, or lookouts reading magazines on duty; men at the wheel so drunk they have turned the wheel the wrong way in their stupor, thereby endangering other ships as well as their own;

"Elevator boys that trap young girls in the elevators between decks to make advances to them; waiters in the dining room accosting young girls while eating, the presence of their fathers aboard not deterring them in the slightest way;

"Waiters that preach unionism and communism to their passengers at mealtime; Sailors that smoke cigarettes, pipes, and even cigars whenever they work; sailors that smoke aloft, throwing their cigarettes into the wind with our hatches full of cotton;

The witness charged that stewards interpret "any innocent pleasantry on the part of a passenger as an invitation to undue familiarity and a license for discourtesy."

Pie meringues become flat when too-much sugar is used in them; they are baked in too hot an oven or they are not baked enough; a fourth of a teaspoon of cream of tartar mixed with each two egg whites helps to keep the meringue firm.

for the lake project by the government.

Duncan Fathered Idea
Gray county citizens have advocated the lake for many months. Widespread comments were around during the summer and fall of 1936 for a lake to be constructed through a county bond issue of $100,000. Irvy E. Duncan, a former county judge and a present member of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce lake committee urged this action. Later officials of Gray county joined with other officials in the formation of the Panhandle Water Conservation association in Amarillo during October of 1936.

Many meetings were attended at Amarillo and Canyon of the association by Gray county officials.

A Gray County Conservation association was formed here and C. H. Walker, county director of the Panhandle association was named chairman. Representatives from all parts of Gray county were affiliated with the county association and the Beaver Dam site was agreed upon as the number one project of the county.

The Roberts county commissioners court endorsed the Beaver Dam location as the most logical location for a major dam in the eastern part of the Panhandle and officials of other counties likewise expressed a desire to see the dam built.

Barbecue Planned
Plans for a mammoth barbecue celebrating the completion of the dam this spring or summer at which time Congressman Marvin Jones and high ranking officials of the Department of Agriculture and the Works Progress administration will be invited to visit the dam and celebrate the completion of the project, are already being made by local officials.

Walker, White and Reeves were highly pleased with results of the trip to Washington. They were high in their praise of the cooperation extended by Congressman Jones and Carl Hinton in Washington as well as government officials who were contacted. They reported definite progress was made practically each day while in Washington but no word was relayed to Pampa pending definite agreement on the project which was secured Friday.

members in the future. Four present members of the court—Justices Brandeis, Cardozo, Stone and Black—have favored most administration enactments in the past. Chief Justice Hughes and Justice Roberts also have upheld Roosevelt measures in a number of instances.

Justice Sutherland, a member of the court group which had voted most often against the New Deal, has announced his retirement, effective Tuesday. If confirmed, Reed therefore could take his place on the court immediately after that date.

Cardozo May Retire
Since Justice Cardozo is gravely ill of a heart ailment, some persons in the capital believe he also will retire shortly and that the President thus will have an opportunity to make a third appointment. This would go a long way toward giving him the number of appointments he sought by his court reorganization bill. At that time that measure was proposed, it would have permitted the President to name six additional justices in event that incumbents past 70 years of age refused to retire.

Reed, a Democrat, never has held a judicial position. He has practiced law for many years, however, first privately in Kentucky and in the federal service since 1929, when Herbert Hoover appointed him counsel for the farm board.

Marice C. Latta, executive clerk of the White House, arrived at the Senate with the nomination shortly before noon.

Chairman Ashurst (D., Ariz.), of the Senate judiciary committee, referred the nomination immediately to the following sub-committee for study: Senators Logan, D. Ky., chairman; King (D., Utah), Dietrich (D., Ill.), McGill (D., Kas.), Van Nuys (D., Ind.), Borah (R., Idaho), and Norris (Ind., Neb.).

Senator Minton (D., Ind.), told reporters he understood the judiciary committee had intended to conduct public hearing on the nomination, regardless of the nominee's identity.

A demand that public hearings be conducted on all judicial nominations had been made recently by Senator Bridges (R., N. H.), as a result of the Black Incident.

Portly, pince-nez-wearing Reed was runner-up on the President's appointee list when Justice Willis Van Devanter resigned, and Reed's prestige since has increased commensurately.

A Staggering Job
The crisis of the banking emergency in 1933 first thrust Reed into the front in the Roosevelt councils. For several years Reed was attorney for the old Hoover farm board and in 1932 he became general counsel for the RFC under Hoover. Few men were so intimately acquainted with the legal intricacies of federal banking and finance as was Reed. Mr. Roosevelt turned to him and Reed served the President ably as a legal expert during and after that historic bank holiday.

He was slated for a federal judgeship in Kentucky when the President decided he should be solicitor general. Reed accepted and thereby plunged himself into a staggering job—the defense of New Deal laws before the U. S. Supreme Court.

No Gestures, No Show
His arguments have indicated definite liberalism along with a desire to fit New Deal laws into reasonable constitutional limitations. He has argued the gold clause case, the AAA, the Wagner Act and many other cases, recently with conspicuous success.

No man except the President, perhaps, has borne a greater strain in the last two years. On the day, for instance, that he appeared before the U. S. Supreme Court to defend the AAA, Reed also argued for the Bankhead cotton law.

At 2:30 p. m. Chief Justice Hughes called for the case of "U. S. vs. Hoosac Mills." Up rose Reed, colorless, competent, beginning in monotone a defense of the Agricultural Adjustment Act. No flowers. No showy stuff. No gestures.

Next day, handsome, tremulous-voiced George Wharton Pepper answered, attacking the power of Congress to pass such an act. Vibrant, gesturing, he closed: "I am pleading the cause for the America I love, and I pray Almighty God that not in my time will the land of the regulated be substituted for the land of the free!"

But Not Emotionless
Reed rose again, pompous in aspect but not in manner. He said he was just as emotional as Pepper. He told about unfair disadvantage to "30,000,000 farm men, women and children."

Then his arms waved. He showed that emotion.
"General welfare. . . This is no regimentation!" he shouted, holding the Court's attention closely to the close of his argument.

Government lawyers, previously critical of Reed for his lack of force, were delighted.

Later that day, arguing for the Bankhead Cotton act, Reed collapsed. McReynolds and others had pressed him on a technical issue. The strain of it all especially the AAA, burst suddenly on the solicitor general and he fainted.

Stanley Reed, the poorest politician and the best lawyer ever to come out of Mason county, his Kentucky neighbors agree. They remember him when he first hung out his shingle in Maysville in 1910.

Reed was the only son of a country doctor and was born on December 31, 1884, in Maysville. He graduated with A. B. degrees both from Kentucky Wesleyan, 1902 and Yale, 1906, winning there the coveted Bennett prize. He studied law at the University of Virginia, at Columbia and spent a year at the Sorbonne, University of Paris.

Doesn't Teet Own Horn
Reed, a Democrat, served in the Kentucky legislature from 1912-16, was first lieutenant in the army in 1918, and in 1922 became counsel for the new Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Marketing Association. For five years under Reed's leadership the association sold five record crops at record prices.

In this work he had become associated with the Federal Farm

HEMPHILL ROAD BIDS DUE ON JANUARY 25

Bids are to be submitted to the State Highway Department in Austin on January 25 for work on Highway 4 in Hemphill county.

The work will be grading changes base course and asphalt surfacing from 8.4 miles south of the junction with highways 4 and 33, south 5.3 miles to the Wheeler county line. Estimated cost is $45,000.

Work on this project will be handled through the Pampa office of the State Highway department. Listed on the 1938 program are two other projects, the paving of six miles of U. S. 83 from Canadian northwest toward Perryton, at an estimated cost of $160,000, which includes two large bridges, and the paving of 27 miles on the same highway from Perryton southeast to the Lipscomb county line at an estimated cost of $225,000.

Mason county boasts of Reed as its best lawyer, but old friends there are doubtful whether he has tooted his own horn enough to reach the Supreme Court. He is a quiet public servant and not an agitating one, says J. N. Kehoe, president of the Bank of Maysville.

CHINESE CLAIM VICTORIES IN 'SACRED' AREA

SHANGHAI, Jan. 16.—(Sunday)—Chinese reports today insisted the tide of battle in Shantung province had swung in favor of Chinese defending the fertile region and China's "last line of defense."

Spurred to new activity by the presence of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek, they declared the Chinese not only had stopped the Japanese advance but had recovered 10 miles.

The former Chinese commander of the "Sacred Province," General Han Fu-Chu, was reported to have been court-martialed and executed, on Chiang's orders, for "dereliction of duty," charged with having retired with his army of 150,000 men virtually intact before the Japanese advance.

The Kuomintang (semi-official news agency) said the reinvigorated Chinese forces again had taken strategic Tsinling in southern Shantung, which has changed hands several times within the past week, and had advanced 10 miles toward Yenchow.

It said another Chinese column was moving northward along the Tientsin-Pukow railroad and that Japanese were pouring in troops to bolster their lines against an overbearing Chinese counter-offensive.

These advances were directly contrary to Japanese announcements and Chinese newspaper reports which indicated the Japanese slowly but steadily were advancing.

The important junction city of Suchow, in Kiangsu province about 150 miles south of Tsinling where the Tientsin-Pukow line crosses the great east-west Lunghai trunk line, was the main objective of a Japanese army striking southward.

Besides Suchow, in the center of China's bread basket, the Japanese aimed their attack at Chengchow, where the Lunghai crosses the Peiping-Hankow railroad, another vital line. Japanese control of the city would isolate Chiang's 400,000 troops from their supply bases in China's interior.

At Tsingtao, Shantung's seaport, Japan meanwhile was said to be planning to establish a "puppet" government tomorrow headed by Chinese who are opposed to China's central government.

In Tokyo, high military and naval authorities reached complete accord Saturday to carry out Japan's proclaimed objective—pacification of eastern Asia—to its "ultimate" end.

(The Japanese decision, it was reported, was that the "punitive campaign" must continue because "the anti-Japanese government of China... shows no signs of reconsideration.")

Other Chinese reports declared Japanese had been driven from Kweichow, on the Anhwei-Chekkiang border by a Chinese counter-attack.

Following previous reports of heavy recruiting to replenish the Chinese army's manpower, Chiang today was said to have established "army control headquarters" in every province not under Japanese control. Bureaus, primarily to speed conscription of new troops, were to be set up in Honan, Anhwei, Kiangsi, Fukien, Kwang-Tung, Hunan, Hupeh, Szechwan, Shensi, Chekiang, Ksangu and Kweichow where, the Chinese declared, virtually limitless reserves existed.

BYRD DEMANDS REDUCTION IN ALL EXPENSES

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15. (AP)—Senator Byrd (D-Va.), proposed to congress today that it compel the executive branch of the government to make a 10 per cent reduction in all regular expenditures.

Byrd made the proposal in a minority report on the administration's government reorganization bill, approved last year by a majority of a special senate committee. He said he would introduce an amendment requiring that the economies be made when the proposed reorganization is carried out.

Byrd declared there is "urgent need for reorganization of the federal government for both economy and efficiency." He criticized the administration bill as not promising substantial economies and as giving too much power to the president.

"It should not be difficult to reduce ordinary expenses of the government at least 10 per cent under the powers granted in this bill," he said.

"It would appear that a reorganization bill such as this, which creates new departments, bureaus and officials, gives little promise of economy and simplification possible by the abolition of agencies and elimination of personnel and appalling waste and duplication."

The Virginian said the investigation of his own special committee had "disclosed waste, overlapping activities and excessive overhead cost, making immediate reform imperative if the course of continuous deficits and rising taxes is to be altered."

President Roosevelt has said several times that efficiency, rather than economies, was the primary goal of the reorganization bill.

"A mere regrouping and shuffling of bureaus does not mean necessarily an increase in efficiency," Byrd's report to the senate said,

"and certainly will not operate for economy."

Byrd said one section of the bill would "provide governmental machinery to entrench relief as a permanent federal function."

SUNDAY MORNING, JANUARY 16, 1938

Boxers Have 2 Weeks To Prepare For Meet

Plainview has twice toppled the ambitious Borger Bulldogs and Pampa has whipped the high-flying Plainview Bulldogs, but that won't mean a thing Monday night at 7:30 o'clock when the Hutchinson and Gray county rivals clash at the local gym.

Pampa has been pointing for Borger all season. They'd rather beat Borger in basketball than anybody, including Amarillo. One of the reasons for their belligerent attitude toward Borger this year is that Catfish Smith is the Bulldog coach, and Pampans still squirm when they remember how Smith's Carey Cardinals nosed out the Harvesters in the regional tournament at Canyon two years ago. Then, the Catfish and his self-confident Bulldogs have been bragging all season how they were going to clean Pampa's plow. For instance the other night the Catfish said, "My boys shoot 100 free baskets each and every day, and a record is kept of their shots—I remember once when Pampa lost the regional because they couldn't hit the basket from the free-throw line."

Andis Suffers
Well, the Bulldogs may do it. The Harvesters will go into the game without Bobby Andis who went to the hospital from the game Friday night with blood poison in his thigh. A carbuncle developed, and the game boy played despite intense pain.

After the game a huge hard, red knot just above his thigh had developed. Dr. M. C. Overton announced yesterday afternoon that although the blood-poisoning had been checked and that Bobby would be able to leave the hospital this week-end, he would not be able to play for a week.

Andis' absence follows that of Norman Cox who was absent for a week in Oklahoma where his grandmother was seriously ill. It was not expected that Cox would play top basketball Friday night and he didn't. The week's absence from practice was obvious.

Andis and Heiskell have looped most of the baskets made by the Harvesters in recent games and he will be keenly missed.

Borger has lost only a few games this season. With Andis out of the game, they may be able to take the Harvesters. However, Cox was not too sorely missed, and some of the reserves now that they know that the whole responsibility is on them may fill Andis' place sufficiently to assure a victory as Jack Cunningham did in Cox's absence.

Intense pain cramped Andis' style to some extent Friday night, but the wonder was that he was able to play at all. Heiskell was in fine fettle, and Dunaway turned in his best game of the season. He draped the basket four times, and played well defensively. Tippy Reynolds turned in his usual fine performance.

The Harvesters may win the game without Andis, but they will not hold the favorite's role. Andis' sudden illness has upset the dope bucket. Rapid followers of the team feel that the game will be close, and that Pampa has a good chance to win.

Another large crowd is expected. The gym was packed Friday night with the biggest crowd of the season. Friday night game:

Only two weeks and two days remain for boys to enter and get in shape for the first Golden Gloves boxing tournament ever staged in Pampa. The event will be under direction of the Pampa Daily News A. A. U. and the Pampa Amateur Athletic association.

Dates are February 2, 3 and 4 at the Pampa Athletic arena. Every evening between 5 and 7 o'clock, and during the day, local boys are training for the big event. Other Panhandle towns and cities are going to send entries to vie with the Pampa boys for the right to a trip to the state Golden Gloves tournament in Fort Worth, all expenses paid.

There is still time for boys to enter the tournament. The boxing matches last only three rounds of two minutes each, or less in case of knockouts or technical knockouts. Just fill out an entry blank and take or mail it to the Golden Gloves editor at the Pampa Daily News.

To date the lightweight division is proving the most popular with 10 boys entered. The featherweight, welterweight and middleweight divisions are close second with eight entries each. The flyweight, bantamweight and heavyweight divisions are in need of more entries.

New Boys Enter
Yesterday Andrew "Chubby" Stewart signed for the heavyweight division. Another flyweight came in from Borger, Arnold McGuyer. Jake Bibble, Alarreed, also reported for the lightweight division. Patron's tickets are going fast. They include general admission and front or second row reserve seats for the duration of the tournament, all for $5. Full proceeds from the tournament will be used for the advancement of amateur athletics here. Call the NEWS for a patron's ticket.

Amateur boxers who intend to fight here in the district Golden Gloves tournament must make application for AAU membership cards.

Application blanks are available at the Pampa News sports desk. All participants in a Golden Gloves tournament must be members of the amateur organization. The membership fee is 25 cents.

HARVESTERS NOT ENTERED IN SHAMROCK CAGE TOURNAMENT

Twenty-three of the Panhandle's strongest basketball teams, both boys and girls, have filed entries in the Shamrock tournament to be played on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, according to word from Coaches Garrison Rush and John Walker.

It was reported that the Pampa Harvesters had entered the tournament but Coach Odus Mitchell announced yesterday that his team had games with Lubbock here Friday and Saturday nights and that he had not entered the Shamrock tournament because of the previous dates.

With the Harvesters missing, the tournament strong teams appear to be Hollis, Okla., Carey, Childress, Quail, in the boys division and Kelton, Mobeetie and Canadian in the girls section.

Play will begin at 7 o'clock Thursday night and end Saturday night. Trophies and awards valued at $200 will be presented.

First round pairings follow:

JAP AND OTTO WILL GRAPPLE WITH KIMONAS

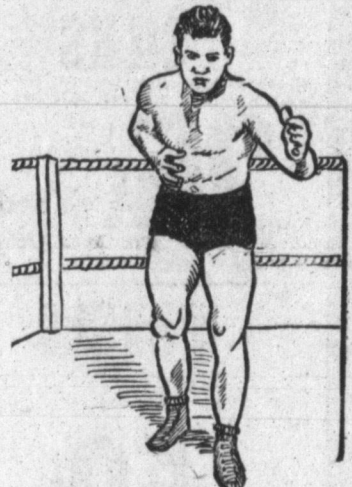

An old favorite will return to the wars and Japanese style grappling will be presented Monday night at the Pampa Athletic arena when Promoter Cliff B. Chambers will present Otis Clingman, former Pampian, in the semi-final and Professor Tsutao Higami and Otto Von Ludwig in a "kimona" match.

Wrestling will begin at 8 o'clock sharp with Bill Venable meeting Cyclone Mackie. Sailor Clingman will tackle Jack Mandell in the semi-final. Admission will be the same as usual, 65 cents ringside reserve seats, tax paid, and 40 cents general admission.

It has been several years since Pampa wrestling fans saw a jacket match. Many present time fans are unfamiliar with the procedure which is to place knee-length heavy jackets made of ducking on the wrestlers and let them "go to bat" with little or nothing barred. The jackets can be used to choke, for leverage in slams, or if the belts can be taken off they can be used as ropes or chokes.

Higami is a master at the art. Von Ludwig has had considerable experience with the jackets and he is boasting that he can whip the Jap at his own game. The two will meet in a finish match, two best falls out of three with a two-hour time limit.

The return of Clingman is being hailed over this section. He is probably the most popular grappler ever to be seen in a Pampa ring. He is a likeable character and a great wrestler.

Above is a cartoonists drawing of Clingman in a characteristic pose. He is the type of grappler who never lets up for a minute. He continually bores in and is exceptionally fast for a middleweight. In Mandell, Clingman will meet one of the fastest and classiest grapplers of the day. Mandell has proven himself a real favorite. He is also a clean, scientific grappler and fans who like to see wrestling will get their wish.

The preliminary is a regular main event. Bill Venable is a mighty mauler and Jackie is no slouch. Standing room is expected to be at a premium. Reserve seat tickets can be secured by calling 905M.

BULLDOGS OVERCOME 14-POINT LEAD TO WIN SECOND BATTLE

With Bob Andis who usually shares scoring honors with Claude Heiskell, in the hospital, the Harvesters dropped a 14-point lead, and the Plainview Bulldogs won a hard-fought basketball game 32 to 30 in the fading minutes of the foul-strung struggle.

It looked like a walkaway for the Pampans in the first quarter and part of the second, Pampa was leading 9 to 2 at the end of the first stanza. They ran up a 16 to 2 score and then Coach Pool of Plainview, plainly disgusted with his starters, jerked them and inserted his reserves.

He allowed the seconds to stay in a few minutes and then sent back his regulars, all except Cook who proved that he was the class of the whole team last night by scoring 11 points, including five free shots. The good-talking-to evidently had its effect because the boys especially Lovvorn began canning the ball immediately. At the half they had cut the Pampa lead down to four points.

The Harvesters held their own in the third period, and held a lead of 27 to 21 at the expiration of that quarter. Meanwhile, Referee J. W. Ley who sees all and does something about it was assessing penalties right and left. Four Plainview players went to the showers with too many personal fouls. Cox and Dunaway also fouled out in the fourth period.

Free Shots Fail
It could be said with good arguments to back the statement, that the Harvesters lost the game because they couldn't hit free shots as well as the foes. The Pampans missed a total of 16 free shots and swished the net 6 times which means that the boys made 6 out of 22 free tries.

The Plainview boys chalked up 11 points by the free throw route and missed only 10 shots. They made more than half of their free shots. Harvesters were about half that good. Jack Cunningham led the pack for missing free baskets. He failed in 7 attempts to hit the jackpot a single time. So one can see what he needs to do.

Plainview used 10 men during the game and Pampa used the same number. Cunningham left the game three times and reentered. Plainview took the lead with four minutes to go and with the score 28 to 27. Cox then made a free shot, and Plainview did a bad job of trying to hold the ball. Then Coach Mitchell rushed little Grover Lee Heiskell into the fray. That youngster then put on a one-man show of intercepting the ball and out-running his guard to score.

Lovvorn, Cook Star
Lovvorn whose jersey number was 15, and Cook were the hot shots for Plainview. If Lovvorn had not fouled out and had kept on scoring as he started out in the third quarter, he would have won the game quickly. Cook was the dark horse. While the Pampa defense was concentrating on Signon and Wylie who did no scoring to speak of, Cook piled up a total of 11 points.

It was the second defeat for the Harvesters this season and it was their 17th game. The Harvesters won the game Friday night 26 to 22.

Dunaway again played an outstanding game until he fouled out. Heiskell and Reynolds were more than outstanding.

Dizzy Dean Opens Hold-Out Season

BRADENTON, Fla., Jan. 15 (AP)—Dizzy Dean's 1938 St. Louis Cardinal contract was delivered to him today. He sealed it in another envelope and said he would return it because it called for only $10,000, "which is $15,000 less than I received last year."

He said he did not have to pitch this season for $10,000 and wouldn't. Dean won 13 and lost 10 last season, a poor record in comparison to his better years.

"I expected a cut," Dizzy said, "but not such a big one."

HUBBELL SIGNS HIS CONTRACT IN OKLAHOMA

By BILL BONI
NEW YORK, Jan. 15 (AP)—The signed contract of Carl Owen Hubbell arrived in the New York Giants' offices today from Oklahoma.

Even the fact that this year, with a salary estimated at $24,000, he will be the highest-paid pitcher in baseball made no difference to the mild man from Meeker. He just looked at the contract, which gives him an increase of about $1,500, nodded his head and scrawled his name wherever an "X" indicated "sign here."

This is the third time in a row that King Carl has been the first of Bill Terry's hirelings to accept terms.

On his record he deserves to be the big leagues' top-salaried pitcher. His 22 victories and eight defeats for .733 led the National League last season.

In addition, at the start of the year he won eight straight to run his consecutive-victory streak, begun with his last sixteen games in 1936, to 24. That topped by four Kube Marquard's performance in 1911-1912. Marquard's string of nineteen straight triumphs in 1912 still is the record for one season.

Hubb's showing—he pitched a beautiful six-hitter to give the Giants their one world series victory over the Yankees—combined with the activities of two of baseball's stormier petrels to make him top man among the pitchers this season.

Dizzy Dean, after an indifferent year, already has gone on record as refusing to be cut from $25,000, highest 1937 pitching pay, to $10,000 by the St. Louis Cardinals. The Yank's Lefty Gomez, his wages sliced after a poor year in 1936, probably will return to the $20,000 class after a fine comeback that helped the American Leaguers to the world championship. But his salary figure isn't expected to match Hubbell's.

Hubbell signs contracts with the same free-and-easy motion which which he baffles opposing hitters—and at least once his signing was equally baffling.

Stoneham was shocked—but only by Hub's modesty. He tore up the contract and made out another for himself for $1,500 more than King Carlos had deemed sufficient.

15 Oil Wells Gauged For Flow Of 5,686 Barrels

9 PRODUCERS COMPLETED IN GRAY COUNTY

New oil added to the already huge Panhandle potential last week amounted to 5,686 barrels as Texas Railroad commission employees gauged 15 wells. Three gas wells were given an open flow of 86,566,000 cubic feet.

Only six new locations were staked during the week, the smallest number in more than a year. The decline was expected after prolific drilling through the early winter months. Three of the new locations were in Hutchinson county two in Gray and one in Moore.

Gray county led in activity with Hutchinson county's five wells. The new wells good for 2,888 barrels, gauged 2,324 barrels. The other well was in Moore county in big gas area. It was the Magnolia Petroleum company's No. 5 Jones, section 170, block 3-T, T&NO survey, which tested 656 barrels.

Best well of the week was the Kewanee Oil company's No. 14 Morgan, section 149, block 4, I&GN survey, in the center of the large West Pampa pool, Gray county, which gauged 724 barrels.

Completions by counties follow:

IN GRAY COUNTY
Kewanee Oil & Gas Co., No. 14 Morgan, section 149, block 4, I&GN survey, gauged 724 barrels with the lime pay between 3,180 and 3,283 feet.

RECIPROCAL TREATY DEFENDED BY MAHONEY

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Jan. 15 (AP)—United States Senator Joseph C. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.) defended the administration's reciprocal trade treaty policy today before the American National Livestock Association, one of the most militant opponents of the policy.

Addressing the association's forty-first annual convention, at which its leaders have demanded that the administration protect domestic markets from foreign products, O'Mahoney declared:

"Under no reciprocal trade agreement is it possible to lift the barriers and permit a flood of livestock from other nations into this country."

O'Mahoney declared the stockmen must take a national viewpoint toward the greatest problem now confronting the nation—providing security to the country's industrial millions.

"You must put to work in industry three millions to whom you hope to sell your meat," he said. "But you can't do that, unless you open the doors to export trade so that industry can be revived."

In earlier addresses, Albert K. Mitchell of Albee, N. M., and P. E. Mottly, Denver, secretary-treasurer, had reiterated the association's traditional "protectionist" trade policy.

Residence of New Court Justice

Lincoln's cabin in Kentucky was an expedient of nature, but the home of Stanley Reed, yesterday appointed supreme court justice, is a case of taste for simplicity and early American surroundings. It is a sturdy weatherbeaten old log and stone structure erected before the Civil War. It is reached by a corkscrew road up a mountain overlooking the town of Maysville and the Ohio river.

NATION'S NEWSPAPERS RAISE SUBSCRIPTIONS

NEW YORK, Jan. 15 (AP)—In every section of the country advancing production costs have pushed up the prices which millions of readers pay for their daily newspapers.

This was disclosed today in a national survey which showed that while the upward movement was in no sense universal it had been manifested in every area—southwest, midwest, east, south and far west.

In some cases, price increases were announced toward the close of 1937, while in others they were not put into effect until well after the beginning of the new year.

More than 180 newspapers—from California to Rhode Island, from Maine to Florida—were shown to have put up their prices, some in all categories such as home delivery, mail delivery and street sales.

The far West led all regions in the total number of newspapers advancing their prices—60. The Midwest reported 43; the East 42; the South 28 and the Southwest 14.

As to states, California with 31 reported and Pennsylvania with 25—and others in prospect—were at the top of the list.

Nowhere was the increase sharp—one or two cents a day, with monthly rates being advanced less than proportionately, being widely reported.

An expression fairly typical came from the Washington Star, which raised its price from 2 cents to 3 cents per copy.

It was necessary, said the Star, "in order to cover in part the further heavy increase in the price of print paper."

The Hannibal (Missouri) Courier-Post said it was a case of "increasing costs of everything" that goes into the publication of a paper.

The costs of materials, said the Boston American, "have soared."

In some instances, new features were inaugurated along with price advances.

MEXICO PRESERVING ITS HISTORIC HOUSES

MONTERREY, Mexico, Jan. 16 (AP)—The house where Benito Juarez lived here was torn down because of its historical importance and interest to 20th century tourists were realized. But the home of other patriots and patriarchal families are being preserved.

The Juarez house harbored the patriot who led the resistance to the usurper, Maximilian, and brought about his downfall.

Among the old homes that attract visitors is that of Don Isaac Garza, which dominates one square of the city. When troops were taking the city, when Garza was retreating in the last revolution, the Garza family could not leave the country as many others did, because Don Isaac felt he could not abandon the two great businesses he had helped found.

The Garza house has a secret room large enough to store necessities for a good sized family for several days. Whenever hungry armies surged into the city the Garzas fled to the secret cellar room, once remaining there desperately uncomfortable but safe, while the carranzistas who took over the house for headquarters.

The ancestral home of the great Madero family, prominent in northern Mexico for generations, still stands. This family, primarily vintners, was so distinguished, a clan in its heyday, people read more than a joke into the remark attributed to one member when he heard Francisco Madero was to be President of Mexico:

"Why must they choose the least handsome and least intelligent of us all?"

The home of Gen. Geronimo Treviño is well preserved, and a branch of the historical commission is discovering other buildings and places of special interest to be marked and preserved.

THANKS FOR THE VOTE ANYWAY

WENATCHEE, Wash.—Albert Johnson, a former Republican Congressman, received this letter from a voter who apparently didn't know he was defeated in the 1932 Democratic landslide:

"I have . . . voted for you, but the way Congress has acted in the last year is disgusting, to say the least. The special session, I would say, is a disgrace to the country when you only passed one bill, and that for your salary."

"Can't you fellows put out some worthwhile legislation? If you can't you had better stay home."

"Sometimes it's great to be out," said Johnson.

6 LOCATIONS FILED IN AREA

SOVIET DECIDES TO BUILD BIGGER FLEET

MOSCOW, Jan. 15 (AP)—The Supreme Soviet Russia's new parliament, today cheered announcement of a broadened naval program and empowered its presidium, permanent presiding committee, to proclaim martial law or a state of war in national emergencies.

The war emergency measure and four other amendments to the Soviet union's new constitution were adopted by a unanimous show of hands after Stanislav Kossior, a member of the political bureau of the communist party, warned:

"War is being prepared against us in the west and east."

Viascheslav M. Molotoff, Soviet Premier, announced Russia planned to build bigger warships in a hastened naval program.

Molotoff made the disclosure in explanation of the recent establishment of a commissariat of naval affairs separate from the defense commissariat.

"The tremendous naval construction" of capitalist countries, he declared was a reminder that "our country is large, its shores are washed by many seas and we must have a strong, powerful fleet."

The premier explained Japan's refusal to sign any agreement on naval arms limitation had been taken into consideration along with what he termed Italy's "claims to mastery of the Mediterranean" after a similar refusal to agree on limitations.

"They say Germany has signed an agreement," Molotoff went on, "but we must see what this signature is worth." A strong Soviet power must have a navy on the seas and oceans corresponding to her might and interests.

SAMMY BAUGH TO PLAY AGAIN TODAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 15 (AP)—Professional football invades this stronghold of collegiate pigskin rivalry tomorrow in a game bringing together the championship Washington Redskins and a picked team known as the Pacific Coast All-Stars.

Sammy Baugh, one of the greatest passers the game has known, will spark the Redskins attack. His rifling shots helped his team win the national professional title and it will be an overwhelming favorite to take the measure of the all-star eleven.

Johnnie Blood, playing coach of the Pittsburgh Pirates, will lead the all-star squad which includes such players as John Drake, all-pro fullback and several members of the powerful Los Angeles Bulldogs.

MENTION OF SYPHILIS USED TO BE TABOO IN POLITE SOCIETY

"Prior to the war the so-called social diseases, medically known as the venereal diseases, were taboo so far as polite society was concerned. Physicians freely discussed them, hospitals were always in contact with them and their results, homes suffered because of them, and institutions for the insane had their fair share of patients whose pitiable condition was directly due to them. However, these maladies were not considered before or by the lady. Thanks to present-day enlightenment, syphilis and gonorrhea are now in the open, and are being fought with a measure of intelligent public cooperation," states Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer.

"The state department of health estimates that syphilis alone runs into tens of thousands of cases annually in Texas. All of them need treatment. Figuring conservatively at $200 per patient, it is easy to appreciate the staggering money outlay involved. And if to that sum is added the costs of state hospitalization of the general paralysis patients, for which syphilis is directly responsible, the outlay becomes huge indeed. It is calculated that gonorrhea in and results is unbelievably costly as well.

"However, dollars are the least of it. The physical suffering in both syphilis and gonorrhea of the patient, frequently an innocent woman or child, is beyond measure. And the sad part of it all lies in the fact that all such cases are entirely preventable.

"Unlike many maladies that overcome humanity in spite of every effort to prevent them, the social diseases are controllable. Their spread is directly due to moral lapses and carelessness. Consequently, it is doubly important that the public, and particularly the young people, be adequately informed on all the phases of this difficult problem.

"Information on this subject is readily obtainable from family physicians. No parents who have the future welfare of his children sincerely at heart can afford to permit them to remain in ignorance regarding the characteristics of these conditions and the methods by which they are spread not only to culpables but to innocents as well.

"Physicians realize that clinics and public control measures while of some avail cannot definitely deter the ravages of these diseases. Therefore, a thorough though tactful orientation of youth on this very serious medical, social and economic problem is an obligation which cannot be passed over lightly by society. And in this connection the medical profession is anxious to do its duty. But parents must make it possible for physicians to cooperate with them.

EXPENSE RISE TO BE CURBED BY U.S.L.T.A.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Jan. 15. (AP)—The United States Lawn Tennis Association moved today to curb excessive payments to amateurs under the heading of traveling expenses, a practice Chairman Louis J. Carruthers of the Amateur Club Committee said had led to numerous abuses.

The association re-elected President Holcombe Ward of New York and other officers. It approved a committee report awarding the 1938 Davis cup challenge round to the Germantown Cricket Club of Philadelphia and appropriated $1,641 for Junior Davis cup teams and other junior development.

The new rule of traveling expenses prohibits lump sum or round figure payments to amateurs and provides that "such payments shall cover only expenses actually incurred."

Clubs or sub-associations are required to submit detailed reports of payments and traveling and living expenses of players within 10 days after tournaments or exhibitions.

Carruthers said in an interview that in numerous instances lump sum payments to amateurs for traveling expenses to and from tournaments were considerably in excess of actual transportation cost and left players tidy profits.

The curb on traveling expenses, he declared, eliminates one of the chief sources by which an amateur may receive payment for participation in a tournament.

Recommendations of the National Ranking Committee again giving J. Donald Budge of Oakland, Calif., No. 1 position was approved.

PIONEER COWBOY DIES, FUNERAL TO BE MONDAY

William Jefferson Green, 76, who came to the Panhandle 51 years ago to punch cattle for the late Charles Goodnight, died at the home of John Poe, 507 South Ballard street, early yesterday morning. He had been in failing health for several years and had been bedfast for nearly a year.

Mr. Green came to Pampa 24 years ago and worked on ranches in this section. He was active about six years when his health failed him. He was born in Georgia but moved to East Texas early in life.

Survivors are five sisters. Funeral services will be conducted at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning in First Baptist church by the Rev. C. Gordon Bayless, pastor. Burial will be in Fairview cemetery under direction of Duengel-Carmichael Funeral home.

U. S., BRITAIN MAY IGNORE NAVAL TREATY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15. (AP)—High authorities said tonight the United States and Great Britain were preparing to disregard London naval treaty limitations on the size of battleships if reports were confirmed that Japan was building larger dreadnaughts.

This disclosure came while President Roosevelt was drafting a special message to congress recommending expanded naval construction.

One of the principal considerations receiving his attention it was reported authoritatively, was the possibility that the United States might be forced to build bigger—as well as more—battleships if it is to retain naval superiority over Japan.

France also was reported to be considering the construction of capital ships in excess of treaty limits as a result of Italy's battleship building activities.

Willkie Would Sell Utility Companies

NEW YORK, Jan. 15. (AP)—Wendell L. Willkie, president of Commonwealth & Southern Corp., proposed today the federal government purchase the corporation's utility operating companies in the Tennessee valley.

"The power executive, in a prepared statement, said his suggestion was made "as a last resort in a desperate situation."

He recommended the government acquire the properties at a price to be fixed by negotiation or to be determined by three arbitrators—one to be named by the President, one by the supreme court and one by the utilities.

Willkie's proposal was in response to President Roosevelt's declaration of policy on utilities in his Friday press conference, in which the President said he would move for the elimination of holding companies from the nation's economic structure.

"If the municipalities should by the distributing systems of operating utilities, as the president proposes, but not the generation and transmission facilities," said Willkie, "the major portion of the American people's investment in these operating utilities will be destroyed."

MOB WRECKS CHURCH

VERACRUZ, Mexico, Jan. 15. (AP)—A mob of 50 persons today wrecked and set fire to the Church of Christ, one of the oldest religious structures in North America, destroying the interior with its priceless paintings, relics and carvings. Two worshippers were wounded in the attack and one of the marauders was stabbed.

This Picture For Any Japanese Airman's Album

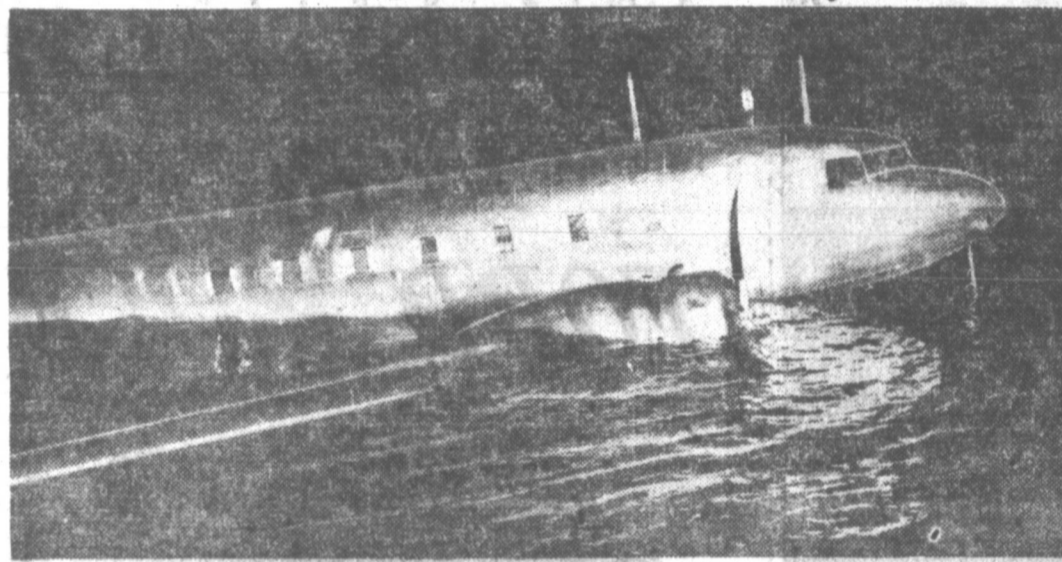

They were just a humble family of Nanchang. Around them roared the battling armies of China and Japan. Food was hard to get. Luxuries were a myth. But, didn't they have each other in whom to find comfort? Then over the horizon dashed Japanese bombers. Across Nanchang the planes roared. Plume after plume of dust and smoke marked the trail of their screeching bombs.

It's too bad the bombers didn't have time to stop and view their handiwork at first hand... the little scene of domestic tragedy enacted by the humble family of Nanchang, for instance. They would have seen the group crouching among the ruins of their bomb-demolished home, mourning the aged grandmother whose body has been extricated from the debris.

Army Transport Forced Down in Bay

Floating in San Francisco Bay under the glare of searchlights like some strange marine craft, the $70,000 army transport pictured above was only slightly damaged when ice forming on the motors forced the ship down. Col. Davenport Johnson, at the controls, skillfully "pancaked" the transport into the water, saving the lives of the five men aboard, and averting a serious crack-up.

JAP CONQUEST OF CHINA WILL BE CONTINUED

TOKYO, Jan. 15. (AP)—Complete accord between the Japanese cabinet and high military and naval authorities to pursue the Chinese conflict to Japan's proclaimed objective—pacification of eastern Asia—was announced tonight.

The announcement was issued by the chief secretary of the cabinet following a day of conferences and an extraordinary cabinet session on the policy of a statement outlining the government's China policy.

Domestic Japanese news agency said the statement would be issued at noon Sunday (9 p. m. CST Saturday).

Activity within the cabinet and the imperial military headquarters was marked by appearance of 24 retired warriors who came to the war office and endorsed the decision, which developed from an imperial conference with the emperor.

Elders On Hand. Among the elderly former leaders were ex-Premier Senjuro Hayashi; Governor General Jiro Inami of Korea, one-time commander of the Japanese forces in China; former Privy Counsellor Misao Kawaji; former War Ministers Kazumari Ugaki and Sadao Araki, and Shigeru Honjo, decorated for brilliant services in the 1933-35 Manchuria campaign.

The Japanese decision, explained to the one-time leaders by Ideul Gen. Yoshitaro Kayamoto of the military affairs bureau, was reported by Domei to be in effect:

"The Japanese government, for the permanent peace of East Asia, has hitherto been conducting punitive operations against the anti-Japanese government of China on the one hand and endeavoring, on the other hand, to give that government a chance for self-reflection at awakening from its general point of view.

"From general circumstances, however, the Japanese government is compelled to conclude that China shows no signs of reconsideration and the Japanese government therefore must proceed with resolute enforcement of its established policy for attainment of its ultimate goal." Koreans Eligible. Adding to important developments of the day was an army announcement that Koreans, heretofore barred from the Japanese army and navy, could now volunteer for service. The war office and naval ministry studied a program to boost potential enlistment in Japan about 25 per cent.

The newspaper Asahi said emergency legislation was being drawn for presentation to the Diet. Another newspaper, Yomiuri, said the Chinese ambassador might be given his passport and asked to leave the country.

The Tokyo press expressed concern over Britain's Singapore naval maneuvers, particularly American participation in the naval base opening, which semi-official Japanese sources described as a "stiffening" of the United States attitude in the Far East.

Ward School Pupils Present Programs At Sam Houston

Students from the various ward schools have presented interesting programs at the recent assemblies held at the Sam Houston schools.

Numbers by a group from the B. M. Baker school under the direction of Mrs. Annie Daniels included a Chinese song by Wilma Jean Potts who was dressed in a Chinese costume; and a novelty number by Eloise Watts, Betty Anderson, and Dorothy Moon.

Evelyn Morton, a student at the Woodrow Wilson school, entertained with a reading at another chapel program.

An interesting program was also presented by the colored school.

The most highly concentrated form of protein known is cheese, which also has a high proportion of fat, iron, and phosphorus.

TAX PAYMENTS MADE SLOWLY

Payment of poll taxes by Gray county citizens continued to come in slowly. County Tax-Assessor-Collector F. E. Leech said Saturday. However, four receipt books are in use in recording poll tax payment. Because of the number of books, Mr. Leech said he could not give an immediate tally on the total number of poll tax receipts issued to date.

January 31 is the deadline for the payment of poll taxes, and also for the payment of 1937 taxes, except in cases of the split-payment plan, in which case the final date is June 30.

Sale of 1938 automobile license plates will begin February 1. Plates will be sold in the period between February 1 and April 1. The 1938 plates may be affixed to cars by March 1, and April 1 is the deadline for securing 1938 licenses. Black on white is the color design of the new plates.

Gray county still has a large supply of the K-45 series of 1937 plates, used to supplement the present 1937 series, before the new license plates go on sale February 1.

FLIGHT PRAISED. FAIRBANKS, Alaska, Jan. 15. T., in search of six long-lost Russian transpolar fliers. A bare announcement of Wilkins' safe return today to Aklavik with his pilot, Air Commodore Herbert Hollick-Kenyon, was received here.

ANN HEWITT AND HER HUSBAND SEPARATE

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 15. (AP)—Ann Cooper Hewitt, sterilized heiress, and her bridegroom of three months, Ronald Gay, $200-a-month garage foreman, were living on opposite sides of San Francisco bay today and friends said "too much interference" had disrupted their married life.

Intimates of the two disclosed Gay had left the fashionable Nob Hill apartment of his wealthy 23-year-old bride and returned to the home of his mother, Mrs. Josephine Gay, in Oakland.

Friends of Ann said she was "crushed and broken."

Gay, who is 30 years old, said "I hope and pray Ann will call me and tell me she cares."

The heiress was quoted as saying Gay's "attempted mixture of work and honeymooning" gave them "no real opportunity to fully understand each other."

Ann created a sensation in 1935 when she filed a $500,000 suit against her mother, Mrs. Maryon Cooper Hewitt; two San Francisco physicians and other charging she had been tricked into submitting to sterilization.

Ann alleged her mother had plotted the sterilization in an attempt to gain permanent control of the girl's inheritance exceeding $1,000,000.

C. A. Clark, chief executive of the Boy Scouts in the Amarillo area, will be the main speaker.

"The girls' sextette, the boys' trio and the high school chorus, under the direction of Glenn F. Davis, will appear on the program.

Lion Killers Organize. LAS CRUCES, N. M. Game wardens, with three packs of lion dogs, will spend the winter hunting the cut-pits.

FIREMEN EXTINGUISH WEST FOSTER BLAZE

Firemen were called to the Texas Cottage Tourist camp, 611 West Foster avenue, at noon Friday to extinguish a blaze in a cottage kitchen. The blaze, Fire Chief Ben White said, was caused when a rubber connection severed.

Residents of the camp had the blaze extinguished when the truck arrived. Little damage resulted.

Chief White later issued an appeal to Pampans to discontinue the use of rubber hose connections. He urged that pipe or copper tubing be used on all stoves, both cook stoves and heaters.

RUSSIA STOPS ALL PAYMENTS TO MUSSOLINI

MOSCOW, Jan. 15. (AP)—Russia today suspended all commercial payments to Italy in what diplomatic circles said was a disagreement over delivery of Soviet oil to the Italian navy.

The government charged that the Italian navy had failed to meet fuel bills owed the Soviet, that Russian ships were being detained in Italian ports and Italian firms had suspended payments to Russia.

Diplomatic circles said the Italian naval ministry had declined to pay for oil supplied by Russia on the ground deliveries had been less than promised under a contract between the two governments.

(Italy, allied with Germany and Japan in an anti-communist pact, officially denied defaulting "in any way" on payments due Russia and asserted news of Russia's action "came as a complete surprise.")

"Russian sources in Rome said a note had been handed to the Italian government some time ago by the Russian embassy protesting Italy's non-payments but no answer was received."

(These sources said Russian war vessels being built in Italy have been paid for and cancellation of the payments did not involve them.)

The Soviet Union also instructed its trade delegation to Italy and other trading organizations to hold up payments to Italian firms, including bills due third persons.

Pravda, official communist party newspaper, declared the Italian navy ministry refused to pay for fuel and oil delivered to it in September.

Italian quarters in Moscow said Russia had been supplying less oil than contracted for since last June.

When an Italian tanker which called at Bathum in October was forced to return empty to Italy, these quarters said, the ministry suspended payments.

The amount of money in dispute could not be learned. The sums will be deposited for the time being in a special account of the state bank of Russia.

Only one Soviet ship has been detained in an Italian port, Italian sources in Moscow reported. They said it was a freighter which had been seized at Naples by owners of an Italian ship damaged in a collision with it to satisfy their claims.

SOUTH TEXAS TO HAVE SANDLOT GRID LEAGUE

GALVESTON, Jan. 15. (AP)—Ten, possibly eleven, independent amateur football teams of South Texas will band together into a league for the 1938 season—the first circuit of its kind in Texas.

John Burgess, manager of the little hurricane football team of Galveston, said managers of teams at San Antonio, Beaumont, Houston, Palacios, Texas City and Alvin would meet here in March to formulate plans.

The teams would play a ten-game schedule, five at home and five abroad, with a three-weeks lay off to play mid-season games with junior college and college freshmen teams, Burgess said. Championship would be won after a Shaughnessy playoff.

No player, said Burgess, could receive money for his services.

FENCING POPULAR AT WEST TEXAS STATE

CANYON, Jan. 15.—Exhibition matches in fencing have enhanced the popularity of this new sport in West Texas State College.

With nearly fifty students enrolled in this ancient sport, the modern form of harmless duelling may be seen in progress almost any day on the campus, both in and outdoors. The sport was launched because of the interest of Prof. Leon Lessors, Prof. Anthony Dougal, and the availability of Howard Saunders, Amarillo attorney, as instructor.

In a round-robin tournament, Sam D. Burton took first place with three victories. Carolyn Greenway was first among the girls.

NAVY GOAT BACK TO TEXAS IF ARMY WINS

SAN ANGELO, Jan. 15. (AP)—Bill the Eighth, the Angora goat mascot of the Navy football team, will be brought back to West Texas pastures if the Midshipmen don't whip West Point, traditional rivals, in their 1938 grid classic.

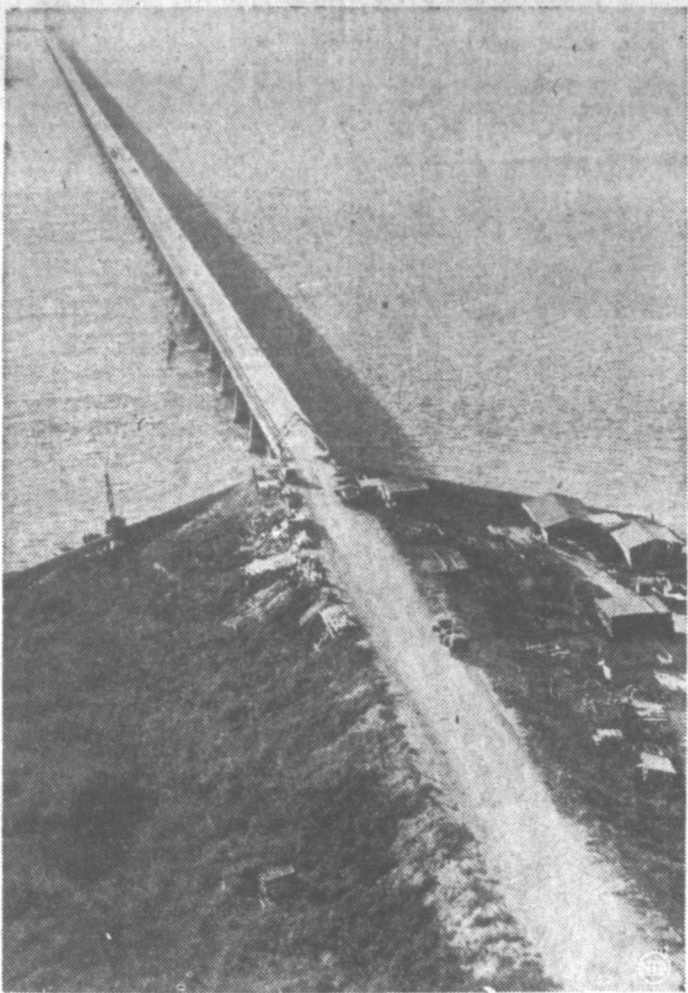

Such is the edict of B. M. Halbert Sr., donor of the famed mascot.

"If Bill the Eighth doesn't click next year and win for the Navy, I'm going to recall him and send 'em Bill the Ninth. Bill is a fine two-year-old and has some good blood, but if he doesn't bring the Navy some luck he'll be using that good blood to improve some West Texas goat flocks rather than decorating the landscape at Annapolis."

YARBOROUGH TO RUN HOUSTON, Jan. 15. (AP)—Judge Ralph Yarbrough of the Austin district announced today he would be a candidate for attorney general.

Yarbrough did not announce his platform but said "The best platform is performance rather than promise." He said he would issue later a statement "on every question of public interest."

Highway to Key West Across Sea

The end of Key West's semi-isolation is near, for the steel and concrete highway linking it to Miami, Fla., soon will be completed. Pictured above is the Knife's Key bridge, which extends over seven miles of water. The new highway follows the right of way of the railroad that joined the Florida keys until badly damaged by storms.

The Baltic sea is the sixth largest sea in the world, and has an average depth of 122 feet. Natives of the South Sea Islands use a contraption known as a soul trap to 'catch the souls of enemies.'

217 MILLIONS SPENT IN TEXAS BY ELEVEN FEDERAL AGENCIES

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15. (AP)—Eleven federal agencies reported expenditures totaling $217,396,849 in Texas during 1937.

Some reported their outlays for the calendar year and others on the 1937 fiscal year, but their reports indicated the actual allocations, including loans as well as grants, during the 12 months ending December 31 totaled well over the $200,000,000 mark.

Expenditures reported by the ten other agencies: Works Progress Administration, $30,553,156; Public Works Administration, $17,676,792; Civilian Conservation Corps, $13,710,000; Bureau of Public Roads, $12,373,937; Reclamation Bureau, $10,315,733; Farm Security Administration, $6,800,000; rural electrification administration, $2,291,000; Forest Service, $1,746,000; National Park Service, $707,938; and Agricultural Adjustment Administration Soil Conservation payments, $35,548,273.

Expenditures of the PWA, CCC, and roads bureau were figured for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1937; the others for the calendar year, except WPA, which covered eleven months ending December 1.

The Farm Credit Administration reported its loans made through the following units: Federal Land Bank, $5,280,000; Land Bank-commissioner loans, $3,529,000; Federal intermediate credit bank loans to privately capitalized financing institutions, $44,230,000; bank for cooperatives, $2,757,000; Production Credit associations, $24,864,000; emergency crop and feed loans, $4,066,000; regional agricultural credit corporation, $678,000; agricultural marketing act revolving fund, $980,000.

Estimates of some agencies were of necessity approximations because December expenditures will not be reported and accurately tabulated for several weeks yet.

Girl Does Man's Work as a Guide In Northern Wilds

ELY, Minn.—Marie Sarkipato can paddle her own canoe. She asks no concession from hunters and fishermen she guides in the northern Minnesota wilderness. The comely, 18-year-old blonde charges a full guide's rate of $8 a day and wants to earn it.

Marie spurs make-up; says outdoor exercise keeps her trim. Her patrons agree.

When she was 12 she swam two and three-quarters miles across Lake Shagawa, here, where her father runs a boathouse. She started guiding fishing parties at 13. Her savings are putting her through Ely Junior college, where she is a freshman.

Wood Carving Art Taught at Meeting Of Girl Scouts

Patrol three of troop four for girl scouts had charge of the meeting at the little house last week which was opened with the flag salute and singing the national anthem.

Plans were made for a baked food sale which was held yesterday at the Piggly Wiggly store.

Miss Peggy Johnston is teaching the girls in the art of wood carving. Mrs. S. C. McFarlane assisted at the meeting which was attended by Mobeta Kennedy of troop one.

Moral Drawn From Sinking of Panay

MAGIC CITY, Jan. 15.—A demonstration of the sinking of the Panay and the bombing of Shanghai, by means of models on a sand table, was the method used by Mrs. W. O. Coil to direct attention to moral precepts at a Royal Service day meeting of the Women's Missionary union here Wednesday.

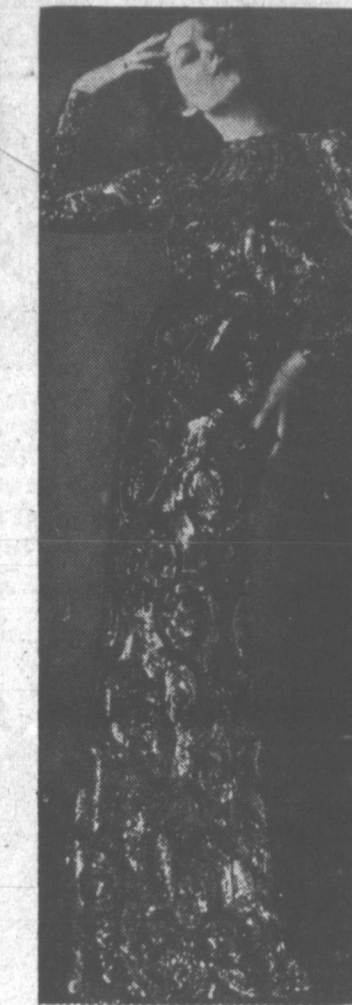

A bank was placed in the center of the table as an admonition to save the world from sin. Gold paper encircling a globe called for members to link their love around the world so there may be peace.

In addition to Mrs. Coil, others having parts on the program were Mesdames Ed Wiggins, Ray McDonald, John Compton, Joe Bruton, Leroy Williams,

Spring Styles Unveiled in Midseason Collections

Bright blue moire and matching tulle are combined in this romantic evening gown by Mainbocher. The full skirt is faintly reminiscent of Spanish modes, and a huge shaded poppy finishes the fitted, corselet bodice.

Stained glass paillette in an all-over design over black tulle distinguishes Mainbocher's effective evening gown, which several smart women have brought. A simple black satin ribbon marks the waistline.

Equally smart for town and country is this ocelot swagger, with interesting shoulders and cone-shaped pockets placed high at the waistline. The matching fur cap is a pertly modified version of the Scotch cap.

Two Out-of-Town Speakers Address Local P-TA Unit

"Your Child and His Vocation" was the program theme discussed at the meeting of the high school Parent-Teacher association Thursday evening when Frank R. Phillips, head of the agriculture department at West Texas State college of Canyon, and Dr. Bennett of Dallas were guest speakers.

Three numbers by the high school band under the direction of Winston Savage opened the program for the evening. Miss Helen Martin presented the A Cappella choir in three numbers.

Superintendent R. B. Fisher gave the invocation, and a talk on "Why Study Art" was given by Harry Kelley, instructor of commercial drawing in the high school. E. C. Pennington explained the course in diversified vocations.

Program chairman at the meeting was Mrs. L. L. McColm. Mrs. Earl Eaton, vice president of the high school P-T-A unit, presided in the absence of Mrs. C. H. Schulkey, president, and Mrs. Cyril Hamilton had charge of the business.

Showers Honor Two Members of Kewanee Kamp

Mrs. Vance Sharpe, hostess to the Kewanee Kamp Club at a recent meeting, was honored with a novelty shower. At the same time Mrs. L. F. McDaniel was complimented with a handkerchief shower for her birthday.

Plans were made for the next meeting which will be held in the home of Mrs. K. H. Brannon. At this time new officers will be elected and the year's work will be outlined.

Refreshments were served by the hostess to Mrs. K. H. Brannon, E. J. Robinson, W. E. Hinton, W. R. Cook, and L. F. McDaniel.

Refreshments of birthday cake and ice cream were served to Alda Lee Coleman, Doyle, Jean, and Joe Pate, Lavaughn Mullen, Patsy and Beryl Neal, J'Nell Courtney, J. B. and Jackie Cox, Barbara Powell, Harvey Hutton, Jimmie and Sonny Wilson, Calvin and Donald McCaughlin, and the hostess.

Miami Minister Speaks at Chapel

LAKEFON, Jan. 15.—Rev. Joe Strother, pastor of the Miami Methodist church, conducted chapel exercises at the Laketon school Thursday.

Reverend Strother's talk was on "Climbing Pike's Peak." The chapel program included the singing of "Battle Hymn of the Republic," prayer led by Reverend Strother, and several piano selections by the Miami minister.

Home Work Discussed By P-TA

Another school conducting a regular Parent-Teacher association meeting last week was the Sam Houston school which had three speakers for the afternoon.

The Blue and Gold band, directed by Oscar Croson, played two numbers after which Anna Lou McCoy and James Boston entertained with a clarinet duet.

During the business session the association voted to give $5 to the boy scout movement. Mrs. Carl Boston asked each member to read the president's message, "New Frontiers in Parent Education," in the Parent-Teacher magazine.

Mrs. C. Gordon Bayless led the devotional at the meeting, and Mrs. R. W. Lane, the first speaker of the program, discussed "A Parent Looks at Home Work."

"Through the efforts of the P-T-A and the study groups, parents now have an opportunity to go to school, thus coming in close contact with the ever changing methods in the schools. The best type of education results from cooperation between the home and the school," she pointed out.

"When parents misunderstood school programs and procedure, it interferes materially both with education and with the children's emotional attitudes. It is equally true that a school which interferes seriously with home routines may develop serious emotional difficulties in its pupils," Mrs. Lane said.

Miss Josephine Thomas, principal of the Horace Mann school, spoke to the group on "An Educator at Home Work."

"The results of a good many educational experiments tend to show old-fashioned home work never has been a very efficient contribution to the learning process. Supervised study in the classroom produces much more efficient results for the time invested. The future of society is in the hands of the parents and teachers of today," Miss Thomas stated.

Superintendent R. B. Fisher gave a brief talk preceding the awarding of the attendance prize to Mrs. L. K. Stout's room for the high grades to Mrs. Teresa Humphrey's room for the lower grades.

Surprise Birthday Dinner Given in Schulte Home

A surprise birthday party in the home of Mrs. L. H. Schulte honored Mrs. Roy Sullivan recently.

After a turkey dinner was served to the group, games were played and gifts were presented to the honoree by Dr. and Mrs. Webb and sons of LeFors; Messrs. and Mrs. Tom Roberts, John Killian, R. S. Walker, Canadian; Roy Sullivan and sons, Freeman and Bobby.

Vegetable Cookery

Vegetables should be soaked in a small amount of water to preserve vitamins and minerals. Do not add soda as soda destroys the valuable vitamin C. Cooking in an uncovered pan preserves the color.

Apple pie is the favorite of the American nation. Blueberry pie runs a close second.

Dinner and Bridge Given For Group

Miss Frances Burba Honored at Dinner Given for Co-Eds

WACO, Jan. 15.—Miss Ella Frances Burba, route 6, Pampa, a Baylor university coed, was honored with a dinner at Georgia Burleson dormitory for girls with birthdays in January Thursday evening.

A snow scene, consisting of a mirrored lake on which were figures with bright caps and scarfs, engaged in skating, centered the guest table. A bonfire scene nearby was shown and white candles burned in holders, representing snowballs.

Unique plate favors showed men made of marshmallows while place cards were calendars of the month of January with birthdate marked in red ink. A short biography was written on the calendar for each girl. Music was furnished by the dormitory orchestra.

Mrs. Lily M. Russell, dean of women, and Mrs. J. E. Watts, dormitory matron, were also honored.

TODAY'S SERMONETTE
 The greatest revival in the world's history was the day of Pentecost, when people were with one accord in the same place, and that accord to hear the gospel, the simple old story of the plan of salvation. And we are told that "they who gladly received the gospel were baptized, and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls."—Chivers.

SELECTING A SUPERINTENDENT

Members of the Pampa school board are faced with a gigantic task in the selection of a successor to replace R. B. Fisher who has resigned as superintendent of local schools to go to Corpus Christi.

It is a task as vital and as important as ever has faced the board before. Likewise, it is a task that is impossible to solve to the complete satisfaction of everybody. That the members of the school board realize this, goes without saying.

The caliber of men representing the school system in Pampa will give this all-important matter their most rigid consideration and study and we believe they are capable of solving the problem for the best interests of all.

The man who is selected for the job of heading the Pampa school system will be chosen with the thought in mind that he is to control the future, to a great extent, of the system and the preliminary education of our thousands of children. He must be a good man.

Pampa has a reputation of having one of the most outstanding school systems in the state. In fact, Pampa's school set-up is second to none in the country in cities of comparable size. Unquestionably a great deal of credit for this being true, naturally, falls to the school board members who guide school destinies in the final analysis. Realizing this, Pampa's school board will do nothing but to continue a good record.

Sharing the Comforts of Life ...

EDITOR'S NOTE—Many of us think of economics as an abstract theory—something visionary and academic. But isn't it just a study of people trying to make a living? We seem to need a common ground, a common agreement about some very simple fundamentals of economics. There is no reason why a company president, a union labor leader, a youngster learning his first job and the congressman representing them all should not agree on these. Each has his living to make and each is dependent on the others in making it. This series of articles, beginning today, seeks to interpret private and state capitalism as they exist today. If we are to have our comforts, it is of the utmost importance that every man has a right to understand what capital means. Very few people do. This series, which will run consecutively, will undoubtedly give those who do not understand, a better understanding than they ever have had. The series is being reproduced through courtesy of the J. Walter Thompson company.

THE MEANING OF CAPITALISM

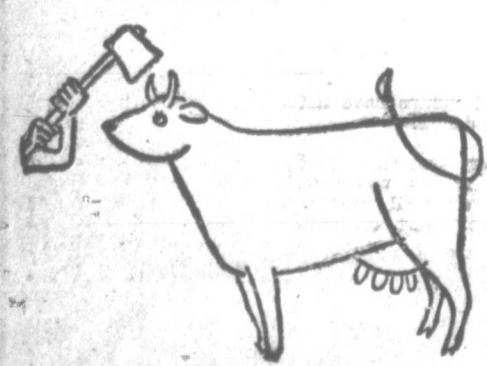

THIS IS A COW

The cow is the mother of capitalism. In fact, cattle and capitalism are the same word.

Capital means "head." Capitalism is a count of heads of cattle. Such it was at the dawn of history, and such it is, with modifications, today. Capitalism might almost be called cattism.

PRESERVING CAPITALISM

THIS IS THE SAME COW

Suppose we kill it. We get the meat and we get a hide. The meat is food. The hide can be used—was so used among the ancients—for clothing, as a covering for a boat, as roofing, material for dwellings.

Food, clothing, transportation, shelter, that's what we get by killing our cow. WHAT DO WE LOSE? (To Be Continued)

Washington Letter

WASHINGTON—Once upon a time President Wilson, in declaring war on Germany, told the German people he was not making war upon them but upon their misguided rulers.

It has gone down in the annals as one of the smartest pieces of propaganda of the World War, a value it could have without at all discounting its sincerity.

More than once President Roosevelt has gone back to Wilson for precedents and in his message to congress he appeared to go back there once again. In the first five minutes of his speech he suggested to subjects under dictatorship that perhaps their bosses were too warlike for the public good.

He said this: "Disregard for treaty obligations seems to have followed the surface trend away from the democratic representative form of government. It would seem, therefore, that world peace through international agreements is most safe in the hands of democratic representative governments—or, in other words, peace is most greatly jeopardized in and by those nations where democracy has been discarded or has never developed."

"I have used the words 'surface trend,' for I still believe that civilized man increasingly insists and in the long run will insist on genuine participation in his own government."

To be sure, it is a fairly indirect suggestion that people under dictatorship are in real danger of trouble within and without but it might be remembered that a more direct reminder could bring diplomatic repercussions.

In the days of Woodrow Wilson it was hard enough to deliver the President's idea to the German people but in these modern days of short wave radio it presents fewer problems. One broadcasting company announced publicly that it would broadcast the President's speech in several languages, and at such hours that all prospective listeners would be awake, even if not ready and willing listeners.

Italians, Germans, South Americans, including the Portuguese-speaking Brazilians, will get samples of it. A Russian translation was omitted, for no announced reason.

Russia is pledged, not to propagandize the United States with communism and perhaps the broadcasting company felt it would be only til-for-tat to avoid propagandizing Russia with democracy.

The idea of going straight to the people via radio has been used by Italy to stir the wild Arabs against England and recently England is reported ready to ship free radios to Palestine so she can say a word or two in self-defense.

There is no reason to doubt the statement of the broadcasting company and the state department that the government had nothing to do with this multi-language distribution of the President's speech. Nevertheless the effect will be to have its distributed right in the front room of the subjects of Hitler, Mussolini and Vargas, or at least to those subjects enjoying sufficient of the abundant life to have radios.

While The Traffic Toll Mounts

Man About Manhattan

—By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—There is an amazing act on Leon and Eddie's, a night-club in the Fifties. Two trained tom cats box. S'fact. They appear in a ring, receive instructions and begin faying each other. At the end of the round they return to their corners and looked bored. Finally, one falls on the canvas and is counted out. These cats must weigh 15 or 20 pounds each. In front of a full audience, with everybody screaming, a band blaring and a "referee" shouting instructions, they stare into space and yawn. It's far and away the best animal act in town.

Now that the days are growing longer one gets about more, and that is good. It is in the sunlight that one sees things—at night one only hears about them.

A hat-check lass in an uptown club tells us about a vile little brat who lives in her neighborhood. He has the brass of a cathedral bell and proved it recently when caught pilfering trinkets in a dime store. They hustled the kid into the basement and were on the point of spanking him when he indignantly disavowed the theft.

"But this was in your pocket," cried the manager, "and one of my sales girls saw you take it."

"There is some mistake here," retorted the lad. "I did not steal. This locket. It is a keepsake my little dead brother gave me before he died. I carry it in my pocket all day and sleep with it at night."

The manager shrugged and let him go, warning him never to enter the store again. The hat-check girl says he boasts of his ability to get into and out of trouble. But she isn't pleased. Frankly, she is grieved and troubled. He is her brother!

As refreshing sales chatter, I submit this spiel by a woman selling gardenias in front of the Music Hall the other night:

"I am not starving and I do not have 17 children to feed. I sell flowers because I love flowers and enjoy selling them. If you care to buy they are 25 cents each, and I will thank you. But if you are disinterested, that is your business, and God speed you on your way."

She emptied five baskets in 15 minutes.

For years there has been a campaign afoot, to interest women in smoking pipes and cigars, but it doesn't seem to catch one. Only twice have I seen women smoke cigars in public. The manufacturers would guarantee anybody a fortune who could propose a suggestion that would win the wide feminine trade to their side, but they admit that it isn't probable, not in their lifetime at least. However, the tobacco shops still have trays of dainty little pipes, designed for ladies, and they are still hoping. If you have never seen a lady select a good cigar, light it, puff languidly a series of smoke-rings toward the chandelier, you have missed something!

WRONG CHARGE

TOLEDO, O. (P)—Joel Rhinefort, assistant prosecutor, had to advise the disconsolate young man that he couldn't be of much help unless the D. Y. M. changed his mind about the charge to be filed.

The young lady, said the disconsolate young man, "stole my heart."

He wanted to prosecute her for larceny.

People You Know

By ARCHER FULLINGIM

When this century was young and when Pampa was even younger, people used to drive out of their way to see Mrs. Lena Schneider's proud flowers, at the old Schneider hotel. Nobody, it seemed, could grow such beautiful flowers, nor have they since. Last week after her funeral, friends of hers remembered that fact as they looked at a large picture of her taken on a climbing vine. It was typical, for so many people remember her that way—they have a picture of her working among her flowers. Her dear friends and loved ones calling her "Tanta" Lena, "Tanta" meaning "aunt" in Swiss, and "Tanta" Lena truly loved beauty in all its gracious forms, and like so many people whose life is ruled by beauty, she was kind. Who can remember when "Tanta" Lena ever spoke harshly of her neighbors? The personality of her beautiful flowers seemed to mould her own character. It was as if she said to her, "You like us, will be here only a little while, and while you are here you must make people happy, even as we make you happy." Again it was so fitting that they played the famous Brahms Lullaby at the funeral, for music was to her an impregnable fortress which could never be taken from her, and the memory of the beautiful music created by her husband was a deathless symphony to her throughout her life. . . and then in the days of the old Pampa tramps knew that Mrs. Schneider didn't have the heart to turn them down. She fed the hungry, and in the days of the New Pampa, many a dirty, unkempt child was taken to the bathtub in her nice apartment in the hotel and given a bath and clean clothing and then sent on his or her way. . . But the fine word of truth, the unique word of praise was said by Bishop Seaman at the funeral. "It seems that people who lived in Switzerland (where Mrs. Schneider was born) looked up and lived on a higher plane and 'Tanta' Lena brought that same high ideal of the beautiful to these plains, for she loved to make things beautiful wherever she lived. . . The flowers, the trees, the grass grew for her because of her love for them. . . And if she could speak to us she would say she was glad she had lived with us a little while—as one of her daughters said so beautifully."

Around Hollywood

—By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—The screen's new year comes in with a blaze of glory—and what a blaze is "In Old Chicago!"

Third in Hollywood's series of spectacles on the forces of nature and the elements, Darryl Zanuck's production starts us with fire where Metro's "San Francisco" shook us with an earthquake and Goldwyn's "The Hurricane" merely blew us out of our seats.

We'll have to skip the comparison business, taking our screen terror as it comes, and merely insisting that it come convincingly, spectacularly, and dramatically. The Zanuck conflagration—which cost half a million compared to the 200 million dollars old Chicago actually lost by its 1871 fire—more than meets this requirement.

If you're Nero-minded, bring your fiddle to the theater. But leave your marshmallows at home unless you like them toasted. Which is to say that if you want your fires realistic, this one is that.

Plenty of Action

The picture, straightforwardly directed by Henry King, approaches the Chicago of 1854 in its opening sequence with the family of Patrick O'Leary, covered wagon travelers.

Things begin to happen immediately. Patrick loses his life in a race with a train, leaving Molly (Alice Brady) a widow with three boys to go on to Chicago. And things keep on happening, for a paucity of action and plot is not one of the faults of "In Old Chicago."

Molly's boys—Dion (Tyronne Power), Jack (Don Ameche) and Bob (Tom Brown)—grow up with varying interests, as does the mud-puddle city they have found. Dion, the charming heel, is unscrupulously ambitious politically. Jack, the charming Galahad, is as determined to clean up Chicago as Dion is to keep it muddy. Bob, as charming a home boy as his footage will allow, is mainly concerned with his romance with Gretchen, mamma's best-lover in "Mrs. O'Leary's French Laundry."

A Triumph For Alice Brady

Belle Fawcett (Alice Faye) is the cafe entertainer and the heart and political soul—simultaneously—of rascally Dion. Gil Warren (Brian Donlevy) is a mustached heavy, Dion's political rival. Assemble these characters and many others—played effectively by Andy Devine, June Storey, Phyllis Brooks, etc.—against a lustily colorful middle American background, and there is plenty a-going up to the Mrs. O'Leary's cow. Daisy kicks the lantern. Even the catastrophic event does not entirely submerge the story, which weeps on through the flames with enough excitement to make you forget that everything isn't completely logical.

Alice Brady, in her serious brave role, is the top performer, but Power, Ameche, and—of all people—Alice Faye, handle their strenuous assignments well.

That German paper's condemnation of her must surely be among Marlene Dietrich's minor worries. . . If she lived up to what the sheet expects, Marlene would have to give up being directed by Lubitch—the man who's done her more good than any other in Hollywood pictures.

Remember when Dorothea Wieck's short-lived Hollywood career was made miserable by insistent German demands for nationalistic sides-taking in Hollywood of all places?

It's Now Bathub Swing For Mary Garden

CHICAGO (P)—Mary Garden, whose voice once thrilled opera audiences, says Hollywood will be putting out opera within three years.

Now 60, she had been on a seven-months search for talent in New York, Paris and Corsica. She reported finding "lots of splendid voices" but said the young singers knew nothing about opera.

"They need a new kind of training," she said, "for they are the singers who will bring opera to the screen. Not the same kind of opera I knew, but a glorious opera just the same."

Mary Garden still sings, too, but the bathtub is her stage.

"I haven't sung a note except in the bathtub since 1931 and don't intend to," she declared. "What is my bathtub music? Oh, such things as Cole Porter's 'I've Got You Under My Skin.'"

The specific cause of cancer of the stomach, or of any other organ, or tissue of the body is unknown. But studies reveal certain factors which we believe contribute to the development of malignant growths. It is generally believed that carcinoma never develops in a healthy stomach. A chronically inflamed or diseased stomach, however, is subject to cancer.

Chronic inflammation is the result of irritation. The irritants which give rise to gastritis (inflammation of the stomach) and gastric ulcer are mechanical, chemical and thermal (heat).

Food insufficiently broken up and softened (hence coarse), hurried meals, excesses in alcohol and tobacco, highly seasoned food, drugs, germs and chemical-irritant laden saliva swallowed by patients with diseased teeth and gums, and very hot and very cold foods and drinks are irritants which may adversely affect the stomach.

Cancer affects men and women equally, in all levels of society and in all nations, but the involvement of specific organs or systems differs radically. It is significant that the stomach is affected by cancer three times as often in the poor as in the well-to-do.

Of all cases of cancer in men in Great Britain, 22 per cent affected the stomach. In America the percentage of stomach cancers out of the total cancers of men is 42 per cent, in Holland 55, in Czechoslovakia 66.

A study was recently made in England in an effort to discover the reasons for the difference between the British and Dutch stomach cancer totals. Five hundred clinic patients of a London hospital were compared with 500 at an Amsterdam hospital. The following points were noted.

The faulty of eating too quickly and not chewing enough were found in 58 per cent of the Dutch, and 11 23 per cent of the English.

Disease of the mouth was present in 44 per cent of the Dutch and 28 per cent of the English.

More than twice as many Hollanders ate spiced foods in excess. Alcohol was consumed in much larger quantities in Holland.

Forty-three per cent of the Dutch swallowed their food and drink at a temperature above 60 degrees, compared with only 22 per cent of the English.

Many more among the Dutch than the English used tobacco in excess.

Richest Girl in the World

BY ADELAIDE HUMPHRIES Copyright, 1938, NEA Service, Inc.

Yesterday, driving south with Best Hardesty, Connie was experiencing a vast adventure. And then their car skidded, suddenly, sickeningly.

CHAPTER IX
THEY had skidded into a ditch, facing the bank, which was fortunate. At the other side of the road there was a sheer drop of a thousand feet or more.

"Even this is bad enough," Bret said. "If only you could drive."
"You can!" Apparently he had not counted on such good fortune. "Do you suppose you could back up on the road, if I stand outside and give directions?"

She said she could do her best. She felt she could do anything, with him to guide her. Without further delay, she slipped into the driver's seat as Bret got out.

"Don't slam on the brakes too quickly!" Bret warned. "Do exactly as I tell you. Remember that drop on the left—I don't know," he shook his head, "maybe I ought not to let you attempt it."
Her eyes met his. There was no hesitancy or fear in them. "Didn't I tell you I am not afraid, Bret Hardesty? You'd let me try it if I were a man, wouldn't you?"

"That's just it..."
"That is it exactly! We're not going to park here all night just because I happened to have been born a lady!" Her laugh was as gay as though she would not be taking her very life in her small hands in another moment.

"Okay," he agreed shortly; but she did not miss the flash of admiration in his dark eyes. "Throw her into reverse—easy, remember! Stop the second I shout out at you—and don't forget the emergency!"

THOSE next few moments were ones Connie was never to forget; moments during which, ears strained for Bret's directions, she shifted gears, twisted and turned with all her young strength, kept a steady nerve as well as her wits about her. Bret, who had managed to back on to the road at last, was climbing in beside her, Bret frankly mopped his forehead in relief. "I wouldn't want to live through that every day!" he told her. "But I do want to do something. Pay my respects to a very gallant lady, a game little sport."

Connie had received many compliments from many men, but none had ever pleased her quite so much.

"Maybe it would be best for us to go back to the McCally's," Bret suggested.

"Please don't! I'd much rather keep on. I were a man that's what you'd best do!"

"Perhaps, but..."
"Didn't you just say I'd proved as good as one?"

He laughed. "You win!" Once more they started in their way.

Now the snow had stopped falling; the hills rose like tall sheathed sentinels guarding the slumbering valleys. It was almost as light as day. This was indeed a new world, spotless in its gleaming purity, silent, breath-taking, magical.

"It's like a sanctuary," Connie murmured. "A place apart. I'll never forget this drive. I would not have missed it for anything!" His eyes smiled into hers, as though he understood what she meant. They did not talk, much sharing the silence of the night, as well as its strange, eerie beauty. They might have been the only living creatures—this man and this girl—so completely did this whole wild world belong to them alone.

When they reached their destination it was long past midnight. The village was asleep under its blanket of snow. Its little group of houses nestling close. High on a hill the tall steeple of its little white church rose against the mountains, keeping watch over all.

THIS was where Katie Blyn, who had been Constance Corby, was to live and work, dream and play; this was where she was to try her wings, find that freedom so long sought.

"Like it?" Bret asked, at her side. He seemed to sense her mood, also her thoughts. "It may not appear very grand—unless you have the seeing eye. But you'll find it friendly and kind and simple. I hope," he added with those same qualities, "you will find much more than that. Maybe your heart's desire!"

Then he laughed. "Mrs. Parson will think I'm bringing home a bride, arriving at such an hour!"

They had pulled up now in front of a square brick house that sat well back on the Main Street. Its walls were almost completely covered with ivy that still clung its green leaves; its wide porch was supported by tall colonial columns; over the door was an exquisite fanlight, delicately wrought. A row of stately elms flanked the crumbling walk.

"Why, this house must be over a hundred years old!" Connie exclaimed. "It must have been a perfectly lovely house in its day."
"Shh!" Bret put a finger to his lips. They had come through the gate; he placed her bag on the steps. "It still is, my dear young lady! Aunt Bertha—as I told you everyone calls her—she thinks it the finest mansion in the whole country-side. I'll have you understand."

"And, another thing," his eyes twinkled warningly, "you will be her guest. No West Virginian lady ever takes in boarders, or accept the smallest charity, you know."

"I'll not forget," Connie promised. They could hear movement inside the house now; a bolt shot back; the big door opened.

A woman peered out, holding high a candle; her head was wrapped in a lacy cap; her huge person enveloped in a faded old flannel robe.

"Well, well," her face fairly beamed, "if it isn't Bret. And someone else with you? That's nice. Come in, come in."

SHE might have been clothed in the finest raiment, receiving royally, her manner was so warm and hospitable, so dignified and sincere.

Bret performed the introductions; explained the delay that caused them to arrive so late, and that Miss Blyn was to help in the camp office. He said he hoped she would find that she could take Miss Blyn in, and make her feel at home.

"As if a friend of yours would not be heartily welcome!" There was reproach in the small, merry eyes; they rested on him with motherly affection. "That is more than enough for me. I'd be right happy to have you, as my guest, Miss Blyn. I'll have Eloise show you to the south room; you'll find it the most pleasant. And if you'd like to wash up, my boy, I'll see what I do, meantime, about a bit of something warm. You both must be famished!"

"No need to bother!" Bret protested. "I'll go on over to the hotel; see if you've still held my same room..."

"You'd do no such thing!" Mrs. Parson reproved him. She acted as though being disturbed at midnight, and preparing a bite to eat for her guests, was an ordinary occurrence.

A girl had come down the stairs as far as the landing. She, too wore a faded, plain wrapper; but she was a very pretty girl. Connie had never seen such hair. It hung, like a cloak of glory, nearly to her waist, it was the color of burnished copper.

"Come on down, Eloise," her mother called. "It's Bret, come home. I reckon you won't be sorry to hear that!" Her voice held a teasing note; her chin shook with suppressed laughter. "He's brought a friend—which should please you as well, since there are few girls your own age and kind to make friends with... Come on down. Bid them both welcome."

The girl came down, though somewhat reluctantly. She started to hold out a slim hand toward Bret, but he laughed, bent his head, gave her cheek a brief caress. "Why so formal!" he chided. "I don't believe you're one bit glad I'm back." Then to Connie: "Eloise and I grew up together; she's practically the same as my own sister. As Aunt Bertha said, I, too, hope you girls will become great friends."

Connie extended a hand; the girl accepted it, murmured a quiet greeting. But there was no welcome in her face, not much friendliness. Connie knew the reason. This was the girl whose heart would have been broken, as the old mountain woman had said, had Bret Hardesty brought home a bride.

OUIJA POPULAR.
CANYON, Jan. 15.—You thought the craze was dead—that of the sooth-saying ouija board. But two of the things which Santa Claus mischievously left at Cousins Hall, the largest dormitory for girls at West Texas State, have created no little excitement lately. All the girls are "crazy" about them.

SURVEY BEING MADE AT HEMPHILL COUNTY DAM

CANADIAN, Jan. 15.—Work on the Boggy creek dam being built under direction of the Farm Security administration and sponsored by the Panhandle Water Authority in Hemphill county, started here Tuesday, when three engineers from Amarillo started surveying on the land recently purchased by the U. S. government.

Engineers on the job are Joseph O'Hearn, Adair C. Barlow and J. E. Jones, all of Amarillo.

The local project calls for construction of the Boggy creek dam on the former Luther Harlan ranch, recently purchased by the county. A portion of the tract has been sold by the county to the government.

The lake, which will be approximately 12 miles from Canadian, is to cover an area estimated at from 70 to 100 acres. The county is to lease the lake from the government.

WHEELER SINGERS TO MEET IN CONVENTION

MOBETTIE, Jan. 15.—The Wheeler County Singing convention is scheduled to meet here tomorrow, according to an announcement made last week by E. J. Cooper of Davis, president of the convention.

The Stamps trio will be featured at the convention. The trio will also be presented in special concerts here tomorrow night, and at Twitty Tuesday night.

"Why, this house must be over a hundred years old!" Connie exclaimed. "It must have been a perfectly lovely house in its day."
"Shh!" Bret put a finger to his lips. They had come through the gate; he placed her bag on the steps. "It still is, my dear young lady! Aunt Bertha—as I told you everyone calls her—she thinks it the finest mansion in the whole country-side. I'll have you understand."

Few Condors Left, Surveys Show SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP) - The giant American condor which once ranged from the Columbia river to Mexico is reduced to a few small colonies in the California mountains, recent surveys have shown.

Edward Swanson of this city estimates that about 50 condors live in two colonies in the Santa Barbara national forest. Two small colonies are also reported in Kern county.

In the spring an expedition will try to photograph the big scavengers in their native habitat.

Modern Menus

By MRS. GAYNOR MADDOX

You don't need a college education to cook Harvard beets, nor must you speak with a southern accent to enjoy turnip greens. Carrots may or may not make your eyes bright, but they most certainly will keep down the winter vegetable bill and run up the family's health. Rutabagas, parsnips and salsify belong also in this estimable group of vegetables that grow under the ground and take pride in that obscure fact.

All of these low cost and high value vegetables should be considered as entrants for the best salad contest. As they contain starches and sugars and some important vitamins they add greatly to the salad bowl. Serve them raw, grated over the lettuce and other greens into the bowl, mix with French dressing and toss. Such a salad bowl with every dinner will supply your family with protective foods in the most pleasant manner ever thought of. Try it. Get yourself a set of these very inexpensive graters, and begin the habit of serving winter vegetables raw in your salad.

Cooking Parsnips
There are tricks to all trades, including the cooking of winter vegetables. Scrub parsnips, then cook in lightly salted boiling water until tender. Drain, scrape off the skins, slit lengthwise and remove stringy cores. Place halves in baking dish, cover with cheese sauce, dust with bread crumbs and bake until brown. To keep salsify from turning dark, cut into small pieces after washing and scraping and drop into cold water. Boil in uncovered pan in very little unsalted water. Beets are quite emotional; their hearts bleed easily over any careless treatment. Leave on the long tap root and at least two inches of the green tops. This pleases them and prevents them from "bleeding" as they boil. Carrots, God bless them for their color, their flavor and carotene which is changed into Vitamin A in the liver, really deserve to be eaten raw. Try giving children nicely cut strips of raw carrot to eat when they want to. The sweetness and flavor will soon

Paddock Hunts Racketeers

Charles Paddock, at left, known as the "fastest man on earth" when he was sprinting champion a decade ago, is pictured in New York City to confer with the staff of Prosecutor Thomas Dewey about the best way to run the racketeers out of Long Beach, Cal. The coast community fears it has become the mecca for criminals driven from New York by Dewey's prosecutions.

teach those growing youngsters the carrot habit.
Turnips greens call for hoeecake, one of the better old southern customs. You can make a meal of sausage, turnip greens and hoeecake. Hoeecake is nothing more complicated than salted cornmeal scalded with boiling water to make it moist, not wet. Stand this scalded meal for an hour. To make a hoeecake, put 3 teaspoons of this mixture on a hot greased griddle and smooth it out to make cakes about 1-2 inch thick. Let it cook until one side is brown and then turn over and repeat the browning business. And that's all there is to the much-discussed hoeecake. Incidentally, hoeecake is good with roast beef gravy.
