ALLRED ACCUSES LAND COMMISSIONER

WPA Urges Pampa Tear Down, Build New Grandstand

CITY STARTS NEGOTIATIONS IN NEW PLANS

Hopes that Pampa may yet have a completed grandstand at the fairgrounds were revived here last night when George A. Linder, supervisor of the division of operations of WPA district 16, with headquarters in Amarillo, outlined a proposal from the state office that the present structure be torn down and replaced with a new one, of new material.

Under the proposal, as given at the regular meeting of the city commission, the city would make a new project providing for the dismantling of the present structure and the construction of a new grandstand.

New plans are to be made by a competent structural engineer, furnished by the city. The plans would then be reviewed by the state WPA office.

Services of the engineer in providing plans would be considered as a part of the sponsor's contribution on the new project, as would all material that might be salvaged from the old grandstand to be used in the new.

Any material from the old structure that could not be used in the new would become the property of the Works Progress administration.

Revised plans would be prepared by the city and sent to Washington for approval.

With the exception of the engineer's services, as explained in a preceding paragraph, and the WPA acquisition of all material from the old structure that was unsuitable for the new, all cost of labor and material would be borne by the Works Progress administration.

This proposal was in accordance with a letter from the state WPA office at San Antonio to the district WPA at Amarillo, dated Dec. 23.

A memorandum of the conditions for the new project was prepared by Mr. Linder and left with the city.

OLLIE PEARCE RITES WILL BE HELD HERE

J. Ollie Pearce, 51, well known stockman and former manager of the Combs-Worley ranch, died of a heart attack in the home of a friend in Big Spring yesterday afternoon.

Mother, 12, And 10-Pound Baby

Unworried by the furor she has caused, 12-year-old Betty June Lacer is pictured above at her Linton, Ind., home smiling happily as she fondles her 10 1/2-pound son. She and Thomas H. Chapman, 13-year-old schoolboy and admitted father of her child, were determined to marry, despite the Indiana law forbidding marriage under 16.

Medical records showed that the youngest American mother was 11 years old, and that 12-year-old mothers are rare. Physicians said also that the child should be normal.

Reno Stinson Named President Of B. C. D.

Directors of the Pampa Board of City Development last night elected Reno Stinson president for 1938. Other officers named were Farris Oden, first vice president; H. P. Lusby, second vice president; Fred Thompson, finance director.

The new president is one of Pampa's leading citizens. He was a member of the BCD highway committee last year and was one of the leaders in the fight to secure completion of the Pampa-Borger road.

Mr. Stinson is assistant production manager for the Cabot Co. in West Texas. He has been a resident of Pampa for nearly 10 years and probably knows more oil field workers in the Panhandle than any other man.

James Collins is the retiring president. It was during his term in office that the Pampa-Borger highway project was carried to what is believed to be completion.

Mr. Collins and other retiring directors, Charlie Burton, vice president, E. J. Dunigan Jr., Fred Cullum and Jake Garman, were given a vote of thanks for their excellent service to Pampa and the resolution placed on the minutes.

Holdover directors are Reno Stinson, Tom Aldridge, Guy McTaggart, M. W. Jones, Dan Gribbon, H. P. Lusby, James E. Lyons, L. L. McCole, T. P. Smalling.

DRIVE TO WIPE OUT SCOUT DEBTS BEGINS

Workers this morning began a final drive to raise $800 to wipe out Pampa's deficit in its pledge to the Adobe Walls Boy Scout council for 1937.

JAYGEES NAME DR. SCHULKEY '38 PRESIDENT

Dr. C. H. Schulkey, dentist, was elected president of the Pampa Junior chamber of commerce for 1938, and June 16 and 17 was named as dates for the Top O' Texas Fiesta when directors met last night in the city hall.

Other officers elected were W. B. Weathered, first vice-president; D. L. Parker, second vice-president; Alton Hall, treasurer. A plan to combine the offices of secretary and treasurer will be placed before the membership at its next regular meeting.

The Buetler brothers of Elk City, Okla., will direct the Top O' Texas rodeo, directors decided last night after Buetler representatives presented their plan.

Jaycees directors last night voted to assist in raising funds for the Boy Scout movement in Pampa. They, with several old timers, will sponsor a square dance Saturday night in the Red school building on Central campus with proceeds going to the fund deficit.

The new Jaycee director is a charter member of the organization and one of its most faithful workers. He is a believer in action as was shown last night when he called for setting of the Fiesta dates.

Dr. Schulkey has served on many important committees and has attended nearly every state and regional convention. He is a firm believer in Pampa and the Panhandle. He came here seven years ago from Childress.

NORTON URGES WAGES BILL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4 (AP)—Chairman Norton (D., N. J.) of the House labor committee, encouraged by President Roosevelt's renewed demand for legislation to end "starvation wages and intolerable hours," said today she was ready to go to work all over again on a labor standards bill.

Her committee will meet next week to decide on a course of action.

Mrs. Norton said she personally favored re-opening public hearings and drafting a new wage-hour bill, rather than trying to patch up the tattered measure which a rebellious House rejected at the special session. She expressed belief, nevertheless, the administrative features of the latter bill—on which much of the controversy centered—were "repelling" and should be retained.

Rep. Dies (D., Tex.) one of the leading opponents, interpreted this as meaning the President was opposed to the old bill because, Dies said, it contained "only a stairway" on which a federal board could fix minimum wages all the way from one cent to 40 cents an hour.

LONGER DUCK SEASON IN TEXAS ADVOCATED

AUSTIN, Jan. 4 (AP)—Texas duck hunters may look for a longer season and larger legal bag limits in 1938, if recommendations of the game department have effect upon the federal regulations on water fowls, Will J. Tucker, secretary of the department, said today.

In view of the best supply in five years as reflected during the season just closed, Tucker said the department would recommend lifting of some restrictions.

These will include, he said, lengthening the open season somewhat, legal use of live decoys, lifting the prohibition against some species including redheads and canvas backs and increasing the daily bag and possession limits.

Students Must Pay to 'Flunk' At Oklahoma U.

NORMAN, Okla., Jan. 4 (AP)—That old "flunking fee" scare turned up at the University of Oklahoma again today—three weeks before semester exams—and this time it's about to become a reality.

The "flunking fee," designed by the board of regents two years ago, required students to pay $3 per semester hour failed.

Student leaders branded it unfair; carried their fight to the state legislature. Nothing was done about it, and everyone forgot about the fee—except the regents.

Unsuspecting students were jolted awake this morning when they learned the regents voted yesterday to put the fee into effect.

Said Co-ed Erlene Lasley: "We have to pay to pass courses. Why should we pay to flunk them?" University officials estimate flunking would cost students $12,000 a semester.

233 NUPTIAL UNIONS OKAYED

July, the month in which Americans celebrate their independence, was also the month in which the most men surrendered bachelor freedom here for wedding bonds, according to a recent checkup of marriage licenses issued in Gray county during 1937. The total for the year was 233.

July led in marriage licenses issued with 30, exceeding June, the proverbial marriage month, by seven. In May, 24 licenses were granted, and an equal number in September.

March saw 22 licenses issued, and next in order were December, 21; November, 18; February, 16; August, 25; October, 14; January, 13; April, 13.

ACTRESS SUES FIDLER FOR LIBEL ON RADIO

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 4 (AP)—A $250,000 damage suit in which Constance Bennett, blond film actress, accuses James Fidler Hollywood radio commentator, of libeling her in a broadcast, was on file today.

Miss Bennett charged that Fidler, in a broadcast Dec. 28, made false, defamatory and libelous remarks about her, saying she had snubbed Patsy Kelly, screen comedienne who was working with her in a picture.

"Never had I had the courtesy of a retraction, an explanation or an apology," Miss Bennett said in a statement. "After each outburst I have kept silent, taking no cognizance of the remarks as I did not want to dignify them."

Miss Bennett added that after the broadcast "I made up my mind to fight."

"Miss Kelly was involved as well as I," she continued. "She telegraphed Fidler, asking for a retraction. He refused point blank. So you see that silence is no longer the policy to pursue and I am not pursuing it."

"The public should have the other side of the picture. I hope my action will prove a boon to others."

GURLEY LEWIS CASE SET FOR FEBRUARY 2

Due to the absence of Judge W. R. Ewing from the city tomorrow afternoon, there will be no session of the 31st district court, except in the morning.

Judge Ewing is leaving for Higgins, where he will attend the funeral of J. E. Bull, Lipscomb county rancher and former sheriff of Day, county, Okla., who died Wednesday afternoon at his ranch home near Lipscomb. Burial will occur at Higgins.

Judge Ewing will be back in court Thursday. This week, being non-jury, no business has been transacted other than the calling of the docket for settings. This morning the appearance docket was called and tomorrow, the non-jury docket is scheduled.

The case of the State of Texas vs. J. C. (Curly) Lewis, indicted on a charge of murder in connection with the death of Willie (Lightnin') Allen, negro porter, on Sept. 16, has been set for February 2. A special venire of 125 men will be called.

Among appearance cases set are the following: C. W. Talle et ux vs. Panhandle Lumber Co., Friday; Edgar D. McCracken et al vs. Texas Employers Insurance Association, Jan. 17; T. P. McGrammer vs. Phillips Petroleum Co. et al, Jan. 22; W. H. Ivey vs. the Southern Underwriters, Jan. 17; Mrs. C. S. Dykes vs. Southern Underwriters, Jan. 17; O. D. (Jack) Hailey vs. Pinkney Packing Co., Feb. 9.

In the case of Edgar L. Eldridge vs. Consolidated Underwriters, defendant has presented a petition for removal of the case to the U. S. district court at Amarillo.

The 31st district court grand jury returned to its meeting this morning, and though several persons have been called to the jury room, no indictments had been made up to noon today.

Attorneys present in court this morning included L. M. Fisher and Henry S. Bishop of Amarillo, and S. D. Stennis, Art Teed, Newton P. Willis, Walter Rogers, Clifford Braly, Bob Gordon, C. E. Cary, and John F. Sturgeon.

TEXAS CONGRESSMAN UPHOLDS PROFITS TAX

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4 (AP)—Rep. McFarlane (D., Tex.) said today the "capital gains tax repeal squawk" was largely from the group of Wall Street gamblers who bought their stocks on the depression low of 1932 and now want to sell and pay as little tax as possible.

He said in a statement the undistributed profits tax law required "big business to distribute their enormous surpluses and profits to their stockholders rather than retain them. The latter procedure, he said, 'permits their officers and directors to pay themselves large salaries and bonuses.'"

"Outside of giving the smaller corporations a little more liberal exemption," he added, "the undistributed profits tax is fair and sound and should be continued. This law is of much more benefit to stockholders of the corporation than it is in raising additional revenue for the government."

NEIL'S BODY TAKEN FROM SPAIN TO FRANCE

HENDAYE, Franco - Spanish Frontier, Jan. 4 (AP)—Bodies of three war correspondents killed while covering the Spanish insurgent advance on Teruel were brought across the border into France today.

Those of two Americans, Edward J. Neil of the Associated Press and Francis Johnson of the magazines "Spur" and "Newsweek," were on their way to the United States, and that of E. R. S. Sheepshanks of Reuters (British news agency), was being taken to England.

The bodies were brought here from San Sebastian, where they remained overnight after a trip from Zaragoza.

Jew-Baiter

Launching a vigorous anti-Semitic program, Octavian Goga, above, new premier of Rumania, issued orders for drastic restriction of Jewish activities and business and confiscation of their lands. Magda Lupescu, friend of King Carol, will leave the country, at least temporarily, it was said.

SYPHILIS DRIVE TO BE MAPPED

The American Legion campaign to put syphilis "on the spot" in Pampa will get under way at the regular meeting of Kerley-Crossman post tomorrow night at 8 o'clock at the Legion hut.

The syphilis drive was named at the last state convention as the major project for 1938 by the Legion. The Pampa post will cooperate with the rest of the state.

The nature of the local campaign will be discussed at the meeting. It has been suggested that the Legion sponsor syphilis tests for every citizen of Pampa. Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer, estimates there are 420,000 cases of syphilis in Texas and 48,000 new ones may be expected annually.

Of persons admitted to state hospitals for the insane, the mental illness of 12 per cent is definitely traceable to syphilis. Nine out of 10 cases of blindness, Dr. Cox said, are due to gonorrhea.

The post will also discuss a proposed change in meeting night. Date of the spring convention will be set by Lou Roberts, 18th district commander who will be present and outline the activities of the district for the coming year.

A chili supper will be served to those present.

ONLY 23 OUT OF 554 CONVICTS UNREPORTED

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Jan. 4 (AP)—Twenty-three of 554 prisoners granted Christmas paroles on man-to-man agreements they would return were listed today at three Alabama prisons as "unreported."

Several of the missing have telephoned or telegraphed that they were delayed but on their way and wardens were hopeful others would be heard from.

Governor Bibb Graves started the practice of releasing "most worthy" prisoners at Christmas ten years ago, with the understanding they return after the New Year.

Convict department attaches estimated "not more than 20" had broken their word to return over the ten year period.

FAMOUS PROSECUTOR TO 'CLEAN OUT' TOMBS

NEW YORK, Jan. 4 (AP)—Thomas E. Dewey, who made a national name for himself cleaning up metropolitan rackets, began today his first task as Manhattan district attorney—to "clean out" the Tombs, historical city prison.

DECLINES TO APPROVE SALE FOR $1 ACRE

AUSTIN, Jan. 4 (AP)—Governor James W. Allred today criticized "conditions" in the General Land Office, at the same time refusing to approve sale of a tract of land in Rusk county on grounds the state had not received full value and records had been altered.

Land Commissioner W. H. McDonald retorted that his records were open to inspection "by any one at any time," that his official acts had been "strictly in accord with the law" and that he would "put my administration of the land office this year against that of any other land commissioner."

The Governor's criticism of "conditions" was at a press conference. From the "stand point of the people," he said he was "alarmed." His refusal to approve a patent selling 42.27 acres to Arlin Anderson for $1 an acre was in a letter to the land commissioner.

Simultaneously the Governor intimated there might be important developments soon in connection with efforts of himself and C. V. Terrell, Chairman of the Railroad Commission, who constitute a majority of the State Mineral Board, to cancel a lease in the Wichita River bed, approved by McDonald, the third member of the board.

Governor Allred disclosed further he had hired a private attorney, J. W. Hawkins, former Chief Clerk in the Land Office, to represent his office in checking land patents requiring his signature. Hawkins, whom McDonald defeated for the position of Land Commissioner in the last elections, is an authority on land matters, Allred said.

The Governor's letter to McDonald follows: "You have executed and placed before me for approval a patent, S. P. 13811, Volume 66, No. 483, to Arlin Anderson for 42.27 acres of land in Rusk county. For this land the state receives $42,270.00. The state auditor, after checking your files, tells me that corrected field notes showing this alleged vacancy have been filed in your office three times. The first is dated June 19, 1937; the second July 13, 1937; and the third September 7, 1937. On each one of them appears an affidavit by the county surveyor, in which this land is valued, under oath; at $5 an acre. On the last two the $5 written in ink has been scratched out with a pencil and $1 placed in its stead.

"The state auditor has secured a written statement from the two surveyors who swore this land was worth $5 an acre, certifying this was the value placed by them on this acreage.

"The auditor has likewise secured a statement from the county tax assessor and collector of Rusk county to the effect the reasonable value of this 48 acres is $300.

MISS MARTHA ELBERT BECOMES BRIDE OF J. B. BROWN JR.

FIRST SERVICE OF YEAR UNITES POPULAR PAIR

NEWS OF SOCIETY

Announcement has been made of the first marriage of the new year which took place Saturday evening when Miss Martha Elbert became the bride of J. B. Brown Jr. in a simple ceremony at the home of the officiating minister, the Rev. W. M. Pearce, pastor of the First Methodist church.

The bride wore a black alpaca dress trimmed with gold sequins. Her accessories were also black.

Following the ceremony the couple left on a short trip to Seminole and Ada, Okla. They will make their home at 314 West Browning avenue.

Mrs. Brown, who is the daughter of Judge and Mrs. George P. Elbert of Denton, attended high school and Texas State College for Women at Denton. She received her B. S. degree from TSCW in 1934 and is now employed in the payroll department of the Cabot Company. Mrs. Brown was a popular soloist in the recent presentation of the Messiah.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Brown, long-time residents of Channing, was graduated from Channing high school and Baylor School of Pharmacy in 1930. Mr. Brown is a member of the Beta Phi Sigma fraternity and is pharmacy clerk at the Harvester Drug Company.

Woman's Missionary society of the First Baptist church met Monday afternoon at the church for a covered dish luncheon and an all day meeting.

Before lunch the executive board met and transacted business. In the afternoon a business meeting was called to order with the new president, Mrs. C. Gordon Bayless, presiding.

Members of the Faithful Workers circle presented a program on "The Golden Jubilee of Missionary Work" which was opened with a song by the entire group and a prayer. Those taking part were Mmes. Wilson Hatcher, K. T. May, D. H. Coffey, and Ernest Fletcher. Mrs. C. L. Conrad sang a solo, "The Kingdom is Coming."

Those who attended the meeting were Mmes. Bayless, May, Hatcher, P. G. Anderson, Howard Jiles, Des Campbell, Haskell Dill, Ella Brake, H. W. Miner, E. L. Tarrant, R. W. Tucker, J. A. Arwood, P. O. Gout, Will Bell, E. L. Anderson, J. C. Vail-

First '38 Wedding Occurs at Groom

GROOM, Jan. 4.—Creta Harred, daughter of H. H. Harred, Claude, and J. N. Burgh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ollin Burgh of Groom, were married New Year's day at the Methodist church here. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Ray Lee, pastor of the Groom church, and was the first wedding of 1938 here, occurring at midnight, New Year's eve. The couple will make their home on a farm three miles northeast of Groom.

"WE KNOW TOBACCO BECAUSE WE GROW IT"

What quality of tobacco goes into Camel cigarettes?

This question, of interest to every smoker, is answered by the men who know tobacco from the ground up

IF YOU want to know the quality of the tobaccos that go into various cigarettes, here is one certain source of information—the men who grow tobacco.

They sell leaf to the buyer who bids most for it. They have seen Camel bid and pay higher prices necessary to get choice piles of leaf. And they report other planters who grow fine tobacco have had the same experience. That's why, as one grower puts it: "Most planters prefer Camels."

Smoke Camels steadily, and you'll realize what finer, more expensive tobaccos mean in smoking.

"I'VE BEEN in this county for 30 years," says tobacco planter Ollie Hazelwood. "I'll tell you where the best tobacco goes. The choice lots of my crop are almost always bought by the Camel people. Every one on our place smokes Camels too—just like me."

MEET ALEY SKIDMORE, of Winchester, Kentucky. "I'm a tobacco planter," he says as he displays some of his choice leaf. "Those Camel buyers pay for the best—and get it. The choice lots of my last crop brought me a top price, and Camel took all of the fine leaf that I had. I'm a steady Camel smoker myself. Camels are the favorite with men who grow tobacco." Mr. Skidmore and the other planters shown here bring direct evidence that Camels are indeed made from costlier tobaccos. Turn to Camels and see for yourself that those costlier tobaccos do make a real difference.

"CAMELS ARE MADE FROM more expensive tobaccos," says planter Beckham Wright. "I know the kind of leaf used for making various cigarettes. Only my best lots are bought for Camel."

"THE CAMEL PEOPLE bought the best of my last crop," says T. N. Williams, tobacco planter. "They paid the highest price. More expensive tobacco goes into Camel cigarettes all right."

PEOPLE DO APPRECIATE THE COSTLIER TOBACCOS IN CAMELS

THEY ARE THE LARGEST-SELLING CIGARETTE IN AMERICA

Camel spends millions more for COSTLIER TOBACCOS. They are a matchless blend of finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic.

"WE SMOKE CAMELS BECAUSE WE KNOW TOBACCO" TOBACCO PLANTERS SAY

GOP DESCRIBES FOR TALK AS 'CONCILIATORY'

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4 (AP)—Several Republican leaders joined the majority of Democratic Congressmen today in terming "conciliatory" President Roosevelt's pledge of cooperation with business if the latter abandons "harmful" practices.

Some of the President's foes, however, criticized his economic views and said they would await his special message on business legislation before determining their course.

Administration Lieutenants described Mr. Roosevelt's speech at the opening of Congress yesterday as constructive and reassuring. Senator McNary of Oregon and Representative Snell of New York, the Republican floor leaders, were among those who called it "conciliatory."

Several members of both parties contrasted its tone with recent addresses by Secretary Ickes and Assistant Attorney General Robert H. Jackson.

The latter officials had accused sections of big business of going "on strike" against Government regulations. Mr. Roosevelt said yesterday:

"Only a small minority of business men and bankers have displayed poor citizenship by engaging in practices which are dishonest or definitely harmful to society. This statement is straightforward and true. No person in any responsible place in the Government of the United States today has ever taken any position contrary to it."

Senator Davis (R-Pa.) commented that the President's speech must have been written "after he got the universally unfavorable reaction" to the declarations of Ickes and Jackson. Representative Woodruff (R-Mich.) on the other hand, called the Roosevelt message "more suave and polished, but just as unbending and vicious" as the speeches by the other two men.

Wallace Gentle, too. Observers were quick to note that a Pittsburg address last night by Secretary Wallace was along the same theme as the President's.

"Workers and Government are often critical of a few capitalists for very good reasons," Wallace said, adding, "It is important to remember that capital itself is different from a few short-sighted capitalists."

"It doesn't do either labor or agriculture any good to scare capital; instead they must all find ways to work together."

Colby M. Chester, chairman of the National Association of Manufacturers and head of the General Foods Corporation, was among the few industrialists who had immediate comment on the Roosevelt address.

He said he was favorably impressed by the President's statements on improved business-government relations, and expressed hope a "real basis for understanding has been created."

On the other hand, Senator Copeland (D-NY) expressed disappointment in the message, asserting that "to restore business prosperity there must be the assurance—real assurance—that in government is the intention to cooperate and assist the efforts of business."

Before getting down to work on the entire administration program, legislators awaited the annual budget message tomorrow. Mr. Roosevelt disclosed he had abandoned hope for balancing income and outgo in 1938-39.

As soon as the message is received, the House will begin debating appropriations. Meanwhile it had no special business. The Senate was in recess today, but Thursday it will take up the controversial anti-lynching bill.

WHAT CONGRESS IS DOING

Japs Move To Crush Reorganized Airforce In Interior Of China

SHANGHAI, Jan. 4 (AP)—Japan's warplanes struck far into China's interior today in a raid which the Japanese navy spokesman declared was intended to "crush China's reorganized airforce" consisting of "large numbers of Soviet planes."

Forty Japanese bombers flew 400 miles west of their bases near Shanghai, delivered a crushing attack on the Chinese airbase at Hankow, and returned without the loss of a single plane, the spokesman reported. Hankow is one of China's temporary capitals.

The new air offensive came as Japanese and Chinese forces in Shantung province battled hand-to-hand for control of main railway lines through the province. Chinese asserted their casualties had been 5,000 in eight engagements along Tientsin-Pukow and Shantung lines, and added that Japanese losses likewise were heavy.

Japanese columns driving southward along the Tientsin-Pukow railway were described by a Japanese military spokesman as "making steady progress." He reported they had reached a point 23 miles south of Tsinan, provincial capital, and had broken through a pass at Taishan, China's sacred mountain.

In forays into northern provinces Japanese bombers attacked Hsuehchow, in Honan province, with considerable military damage. Raids on other important railways were reported by the Japanese.

Battle Results Disputed. Major fighting was under way at Hangchow, some 100 miles south-west of Shanghai, Chinese said they had driven Japanese from the city and Japanese disputed the claim.

In virtually deserted Tsingtao, Shantung province seaport 400 miles north of Shanghai, foreign vigilantes, attempting to maintain order, chased off a fleet of Chinese junks manned by petty pirates after a running battle.

The looters had attempted to steal coal from naval wharves. While they were loading, foreign policing boats approached from the sea, surrounded and boarded the craft. Many of the thieves escaped, but 22 were captured.

(At Hankow two Americans were killed in an airplane crash. They were A. F. Sangster, aviation instructor, and Harold Walsh, San Francisco, mechanic.)

Terrorism Protested. Japanese officials representing the foreign office, the army and the navy protested to the Shanghai municipal council against terrorist acts which recently have hampered Japanese efforts to consolidate control of Shanghai. In the last few days terrorists have shot two Chinese suspected of Japanese leanings and warned newspapers they would kill

HIGHER WAGES URGED IN ROOSEVELT SPEECH

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4 (AP)—President Roosevelt set up higher basic wages and steadier year-round income yesterday as guide-posts of his administration's labor policy "for the near future."

In his message to Congress Mr. Roosevelt classified labor, farming and service-and-transportation workers as comprising the three great population groups whose purchasing power must be raised if the nation's income is to be increased.

While he recommended enactment of the farm bill and the wage-hour bill as direct attacks on the problem of greater buying power, he added to the "immediate desirability of increasing the wages of the lowest paid groups in all industry," the new determination to think "in terms of regularizing the work of the individual worker more greatly through the year."

This meant, he said, to think "in terms of the worker's total pay for a period of a whole year rather than in terms of his remuneration by the hour or by the day."

DRY CLEANERS INSTALL BOILER AND SOFTENER

Installation of a Parker automatic boiler-and-water-softener at the plant of the Pampa Dry Cleaners was announced yesterday by J. V. New, proprietor.

The new machinery will increase plant efficiency and capacity. It was installed at a cost of $500.

The cultivated strawberry originated in Europe, but has since been improved in the United States by cross breeding.

Heretofore, almost daily Japanese bombardment of the Chinese section of the British built railroad to Canton has held up daytime rail traffic.

The extension of the line north from Hankow to Canton also has suffered heavily from bombardment. Yesterday's Japanese air raid destroyed a train in a tunnel 120 miles north of Canton. Chinese said 24 persons were killed. An international refugee express, returning to Hankow after carrying a number of foreigners to Hongkong, turned back to bring the injured to safety.

Treat Colds This PROVED Way

WHY experiment? Vicks VapoRub has been doubly proved for you . . . proved by everyday use in more homes than any other medication of its kind; further proved by the largest clinical tests ever made on colds. (See full details in each VapoRub package.) Only Vicks gives you such proof. VapoRub is the direct external treatment. No "dosing"—no risk of stomach upsets. Simply massage it on the throat, chest, and back (as illustrated). Relief starts almost at once. You begin to feel warm and comfortable as VapoRub starts working direct through the skin into a poultice. At the same time, its medicated vapors—released by the warmth of the body—are carried direct to the irritated air-passages with every breath. This double action loosens phlegm—relieves irritation and coughing—helps break local congestion. Repeat treatment at bedtime. After restful sleep comes, VapoRub keeps right on working, hour after hour. Often, by morning, the worst of the cold is over.

TODAY'S SERMONETTE

As John prepared for the coming of the Saviour, so it is possible for Christian people today to lead others to Christ, by the example of Godly life and by urging men to repent of their sins and follow Him of whom John said: "The latchet of whose shoes I am unworthy to stoop down and unloose."—Chivers.

POISONED PROPAGANDA IS THREATENING PEACE

Somehow, the behavior of great nations makes you think of two little boys. You have seen them in some little squabble, inching up toward each other, all bristling, and maybe one or both with a chip on their shoulders. "You did!" cries one. "I didn't!" shrieks the other. "You did so!" wails the first. And so on. Maybe the chips finally get knocked off. Perhaps there is even a bloody nose. But first there is the endless bickering, the torrents of hot words. Something like that is going on today among create atmosphere favorable to herself and a long name, propaganda, and it is all done very scientifically. But it amounts to about the same thing.

The British Broadcasting Co. has begun a series of programs in Arabic, Spanish, and Portuguese. Their purpose, while not admitted, is clearly to counteract the incessant anti-British propaganda with which Italy has been crowding the air-waves.

"Italy has now become the poison pen of Europe!" cried a member of the British House of Commons. "She poisons the whole field of international relations!"

So Britain sets out to circulate a counterpoison as an antidote. The Italian game is, of course, to alienate and inflame against the British all the peoples of the Near East and Mediterranean areas, in which Britain has vital interests and mandates.

The Germans are playing the same game, working continually on neighboring countries to foment Nazi movements within them and the nations of the world. It is dignified by her objectives. South America falls within this orbit, and even North America.

The Nazi broadcasts to North America are especially interesting. By personal responses and communications resulting from "fan mail," the Nazis could easily build up a "spy" machine which might be used in an attempt to create a spy machine against the United States in case of war.

Russia has used the same tactics, attempting to spread her doctrines into adjoining countries by air. Efforts have even been made to erect barriers by electrical waves which would prevent broadcasts from crossing national borders.

Thus the nations play the game, and conduct a verbal "war in the air," recklessly interfering in affairs not their own, sowing hatred and distrust on the wind. It is so like the two little boys and their squabble, except that these are grown men, and instead of producing a bloody nose, they are preparing a bloody world.

Washington Letter

By RODNEY DUTCHEK

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Behind Republican scenes the chief development of the last few weeks has been the progress of Alf M. Landon to a position where his influence in the party now equals and perhaps exceeds that of former President Herbert Hoover.

In this contest for power between the defeated presidential candidate of 1936 and the defeated presidential candidate of 1932, Landon started from behind and fell even further behind after one or two false starts. His handicap lay in the fact that Hoover's influence was more important in the G. O. P. national committee and among the political henchmen Hoover had attracted to himself in eight years as secretary of commerce and four as president. Although there never was any friendship between the two men, the first open breach came when Hoover campaigned industriously for a national party convention this year and Landon declared against it.

Landon undertook to assert his leadership of the party by addressing a "mass meeting" of all Republican voters by radio in an attack on the Roosevelt administration. The speech fell flat and Landon lost rather than gained ground. Hoover himself then made a speech which seemed to help him more than it hurt.

Combined influence of Landon, the bulk of the Republican congressional minorities, various would-be 1940 nominees and others who suspected that Hoover's convention proposal was designed to build up the ex-president for another nomination, proved enough to beat the convention proposal when the national committee met at Chicago.

Some carefully timed blots by important Republican figures, who are undeniably anti-Hoover, forced a compromise by which it was

Tex's Topics

Your county judge, Sherman White, found himself ailing the other day and couldn't figure out what was the matter. . . Then he discovered that he had gone two or three days without drinking any water. . . When he had concluded it wouldn't do for him to emulate the desert beast of burden, he snapped back to normal again, and now is feeling pretty pert, thank you. . . It is estimated that almost as many persons heard President Roosevelt from the Razz Bowl yesterday as listened to the game from the Rose Bowl Saturday.

Rose Dawn, the Texas astrologer, predicts that the keyword for 1938 is "riptides." She looks at the stars and says there will be terrific, pounding, tearing surges of conflicting forces abroad during the entire year. . . And, says Miss Dawn:

"Capital will do a sit-down strike against governmental interference. The government will attempt to placate, then force, by new forms of taxation and a licensing system; when all it need do to win would be to convince Business that it is still worth while to save and sacrifice in order to be successful. . . Instead of more strikes in 1938, as most people expect, there will be fewer—but some of these will be marked by even more intense bitterness and violence. A renewal of drought conditions in the middle west during the latter part of the summer ahead."

"The year's birthday, midnight, December 31st, opened with peculiar planetary placements. There will be only three planets visible in the midnight sky this year, and they are all in retrograde motion. Furthermore these planets have much in common; Neptune, deception and trickery; Pluto—the planet of the masses and the New Deal; and Uranus—the planet of origination, invention, changefulness and new ideas. Uranus, incidentally, is our President's ruling planet, he being born under the sign of Oquirius.

"Mercury, another planet, is retrograde, too, but is situated nearly 90 degrees below the horizon. Comparing this to planetary placements on New Year's since 1930 and continuing our look to the New Year's Birthday of the years ahead, we may expect the depression or recession to wobble along for awhile. . . When I say 'wobble along' I mean periods of improvements followed by new recessions. Much like a man moving forward two steps and slipping back one—he gets ahead, but his progress is slow.

"The belligerent 'diplomacy' of Japan will try the souls of patriotic nationalists of many countries; still the insistent demand of groups of the 'common people' for 'peace at any price' will have its quieting effect. A secret understanding between American-speaking nations and Japan will be exposed and cause great tension in the United States. An illness in our President's family or possibly an injury of a serious nature is also indicated."

Miss Dawn, you may recall, is the woman credited with a prediction that Pampa was to be wiped off the map by a storm on certain day last summer. . . It never happened, though, and Miss Dawn vehemently denied that she ever made the prediction. . . Personally, it is my opinion that the country already has too many star-gazers.

agreed that the national committee's executive committee should choose a very large committee of representative Republicans to draft a party statement of policy.

Republicans in Congress are not impressed by the makeup of this new policy committee, to judge from their private comments. They feel that the executive committee is dominated by the Hoover influence and that the Hoover influence was quite strongly felt during the selection of the policy committee and its chairman, Dr. Glenn Frank.

Their pain over the belief that Dr. Frank is really a "Hoover man" if not actually a Hoover choice is assuaged somewhat by a sincere conviction that Dr. Frank is primarily Dr. Frank's man, and that among his plans is one which provides for Dr. Frank's becoming President of the United States.

But the really important inside news about the party is the fact that Landon, despite the St. Louis doings, is now to be regarded by informed politicians as at least as strong a Republican leader as Hoover, if not more so. Landon achieved this by two bold, spectacular strokes;

1. His flat assertion in Washington that he would not accept the G. O. P. nomination in 1940, even in the "remote contingency" that it was offered him.
2. His publicized assurance to President Roosevelt that he would stand by him in matters of international policy, when, according to Landon, partisan considerations should be forgotten.

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Today this corner man into William Scighly, the motion picture director, who has very definite ideas on the theater and who has kicked around in it long enough to know what he is talking about. At the moment his bags are packed and his hat is in his hand. He is winding up two weeks in New York, so let's let him do all the talking!

"I have seen most of the new plays, and it is my opinion that the New York theatrical season, as a whole, is lamentable. . . But there is one finely conceived, superbly acted drama which makes up for a lot of shortcomings. . . This is 'Of Mice and Men,' and it cannot fail to appeal to people who admire intelligent writing and magnificent performances."

"I thought young Broderick was simply amazing. . . Will it succeed as a picture? . . . Well, I don't know. . . It is blunt, harsh, brutal. . . Perhaps it would not make so good a picture as 'Susan and God,' which is lots of fun and has what people like to see—a man and his wife brought together again. . . 'I am still laughing at Ed Wynn's immense hokum in 'Hooray for What'. . . This is the outstanding musical show in New York. . . Perhaps I expected too much from 'Ed Rather Be Right'. . . Perhaps I had heard too much about it. . . Nevertheless, I did not enjoy it. . . Oh, George M. Cohan—yes, of course, he is my idol. . . He will go down in history as a really great man. . . Think of all the things he has done—his plays, his songs, his acting. . . Cohan is really a great man."

"Do you know, I can't get over the Savoy house, that place up town. . . I mean in Harlem where those young Negroes do those dances. . . They go through the most amazing gyrations—such superb, electrifying violence. . . It's voodooism. . . 'But now, I'm going back to Hollywood. . . There is no town like New York, but I am going back to Hollywood. . . We have no such cultural advantages as you find only in the huge industrial centers. . . But we have peace, quiet, we know how to relax. . . 'Here you can pick up a paper and say, 'Which one of 30 plays shall I see tonight? Which opera? . . . Perhaps the fight at the Garden. . . Here you have an endless night of famous clubs. . . Twenty-One, the Stork, El Morocco. . . They go on forever. . . In Hollywood, we have three or four. . . One comes here and is simply amazed, carried away. . . But after the sixth or seventh night, one feels like asking, 'So what?' . . . 'Well, I am glad that I came. Several weeks ago I think I lost my sense of humor and I came here somewhat depressed. . . But last night I got it back. . . I think it was an accumulation of what two weeks in New York has meant. . .'"

And now the readers in Panhandle, including the football fans and members of the regional championship Panthers, will be interested in a letter that comes from Mrs. Tom K. Simms, now living in New York. (And speaking of Panhandle if you went west on Highway 33 during Christmas and didn't get through Panhandle, you missed a pretty sight, a striking, unique sight; for Panhandle had the best Christmas decorations around here. The key scene was the courthouse dome which was aflame with vertical strings of colored lights. You could see it for many miles around.)

But here is Mrs. Simms' mention of the Panhandle football boys:

"Your paper had pictures of all of my children from Panhandle, and they are grown up—Nolan Sparks was one of my first ones—the first year I taught school—he was one of those 18 little boys and 2 girls that I had in my room. And you should have known him then, I shall never forget—he gave me dusting powder for Christmas in a green jar with an elephant on top, and how beautiful it was because he was so proud of it! Can you imagine him grown up and his calling him "Electric" Sparks. . . I knew that I did not know a one of them as they are known now, but I shall always retain them in my memory for the beauty they gave me. Jimmy McCray and Nolan Sparks and Lewis Lemons and Sam Whiteside and Dahl. . . How were they more too. . . How they could take hold of beauty and drink every drop from the deep cup! They had more pity for Van Gogh than I did because they knew what he had to say, and the time Christian Thau played the violin—how they liked the Gypsy air! Well, it was good to have had those children. . . one of the good things that has come to me, I've a picture that Nolan gave me way back there and I compared it with the one in the paper. What a child he was!"

Complete Turnover
None of the first ten of 1935 is anywhere near the charmed circle today. Colleen Moore has a doll house, Tom Mix a circus. Fred Thomson and Thomas Meighan are dead. Harold Lloyd (who's making a picture now) has appeared too infrequently to register heavily. Hoot Gibson ranks 16th among western stars. Norma Talmadge is Mrs. George Jessel, retired from the screen. Mary and Doug are inactive. Reginald Denny is a featured player, unmentioned in the poll results but very active in his model airplane business. . .

The turnover in the "15 honor stars" group has been almost as complete. Wallace Berry, 17th ranking draw in 1936, is 15th now—after a period among the first 10 Milton Sills, Lon Chaney and the dog star Rin-Tin-Tin of the 1929 group are dead. Richard Dix, still star-billed, is below the first 50 in 1937. Buck Jones is third among the cowboy stars. Norma Shearer—whose only release last year was "Romeo and Juliet"—dropped to the division below her 1936 rating, after several years among the first 10. Jackie Coogan "Grew Up."

Constance Talmadge has retired. Jack Holt is below the first 50 in such good company as Greta Garbo, Eddie Cantor, Grace Moore—and Marlon Davies, rumored retired, is in the next division. Jackie Coogan—well, he's grown now. Of the 1928's 50 top players, only three are included in this year's top 50—Norma Shearer, Wallace Berry, Ronald Colman. Eleven others are dead, 11 more still starred or featured prominently—but nevertheless are fallen below their former ratings. And 11 years from now . . . ?

KMA FIELD EXTENDED ABOUT 4 MILES WEST

WICHITA FALLS, Jan. 4 (AP)—Extension of the K. M. A. oil field another four miles west of present production in south Wichita county was foreseen today in the report that 15 feet of oil sand had been picked beginning at 3,962 feet in the Geier-Jackson No. 1 C. F. Ance. The test, a tank without, found the lime formation at 3,837 feet. Casny will be set after 15 feet more of sand is drilled on the completion of a minor fishing job.

How's Your Health?

By IAGO GALDSTON, M.D.

The lives and adventures of many fictional doctors have been rolling from the book presses, and most of them have been tinged with melodrama. So it's refreshing to gain an insight into the life and experiences of a real doctor in the biographic study of the late Dr. Harlow Brooks, written by his life-long friend, Dr. John J. Moorhead.

"Harlow Brooks, Man and Doctor," is the story of the life of a modern doctor of the old school. It is sketched against the changing background of New York City, from the cab and cable-car days of the mid-nineties to the present. In the 40-year period between the time Brooks came to New York and his death in 1936, the science and practice of medicine underwent the most profound change. Also profoundly altered was the physician-patient relationship.

In this story of Dr. Brooks' life are many illuminating comments on the men who made medical history, the growth of hospitals and medical schools, the development of specialization in medicine, and the rise of certain evils which now beset the profession and public. The unusual merit of this biography is its exposition of the inner mind and spirit of Harlow Brooks, the man and medical practitioner. The story lacks the melodrama of the fictional doctor's life, but instead offers the solid, satisfying revelation of how one eminent doctor practiced medicine.

We are carried into his office and into his private examination rooms. We go with him on consultations. We see him dealing with a wide variety of patients, poor and rich, humble and haughty. We watch the workings of a superb skill and a sound philosophy. We learn what "a modern doctor of the old school" thought on fee splitting, abuse of free clinics, modern medical education, excessive specialization and the medicine of tomorrow. And the story is well salted with thumbnail sketches of such characters as Maggie-the-Pig-Thrower and Billy the Bum, and with several tales out of school.

Here then is the story of a real doctor, his life, experiences and philosophy, to balance the fictional tales.

SUPREME COURT WILL PASS ON UTILITY ACT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4 (AP)—The Supreme Court has consented to pass on legislation filed by the Electric Bond and Share Company and 26 subsidiaries challenging constitutionality of the 1935 act regulating public utility holding companies.

Both the government and the utility companies asked the high tribunal to review a decision by the Second Circuit of Appeals requiring them to register with the Securities Commission and submit reports of their financial condition and corporate structure.

The holding company act, passed by Congress after a bitter contest, would bring under government regulation companies that control billions of dollars of interstate gas and electric business. The legislation was aimed at what the administration called abuses, including pyramiding and issuance of securities with fictitious values.

This case was picked by the Department of Justice to test validity of the legislation. Last term the government and the utilities unsuccessfully sought a Supreme Court review without waiting for a decision by the Court of Appeals. The Federal District Court of New York City had upheld the registration requirement.

Several companies already have registered with the Securities Commission. The government, however, has not attempted to force compliance pending a final decision on the legislation.

TEXAS PRODUCTS TO BE AFFECTED BY TREATIES

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4 (AP)—The state department said today a number of Texas products probably would be affected by the proposed trade agreement with the United States Kingdom.

Among export commodities on which trade pacts will be discussed are cotton, wheat, leather, petroleum products, sulphur, and carbon black.

The department issued the following summary of the comparative quantities and values of national exports in 1929 and 1936 of the above named items:

- 1929—cotton (raw) 1,534,000 bales, $199,715,000; cotton pulp and mill waste, 21,463,000 pounds, $3,254,000; wheat, 21,772,000 bushels, $27,738,000; leather (goat and kid upper leather, except patent) 12,585,000 square feet, $3,566,000; leather (patent side upper) 6,366,000 square feet, 1,815,000; petroleum products (gasoline and other motor fuel), 17,518,000 barrels, $57,393,000; lubrication oil, 1,694,000 barrels, $14,957,000; sulphur 43,858 tons, $945,000; carbon black, 23,274,000 pounds, $2,069,000.
- 1936—cotton (raw), 1,231,000 bales, $78,663,000; cotton pulp and mill waste, 20,456,000 pounds, $1,544,000; wheat, 197,000 bushels, $195,000; leather (goat and kid upper leather, except patent) 7,310,000 square feet, $2,439,000; leather (patent side upper) 1,096,000 square feet, $194,000; petroleum products (gasoline and other motor fuels), $3,593,000 barrels, $11,932,000; sulphur, 89,004 tons, $1,379,000; carbon black, 46,957,000 pounds, $2,164,000.

REHEARING GRANTED IN FORD NLRB CHARGES

DETROIT, Jan. 4 (AP)—The Ford Motor company today asked the National Labor Relations board to set aside its finding that the company had violated the Wagner Labor Relations act.

In a petition filed with the board here and in Washington the company also asked a rehearing. "The petition contended the board 'exceeded its statutory authority' that its findings of fact were 'unsupported by substantial evidence,' are 'contrary to the weight of the evidence' and are 'insufficient to support the order made.'"

The board on December 23, gave the company 10 days in which to reinstate 29 men discharged allegedly for union activities and to post notices in its plants here that it was desisting from its opposition to organization of its employes by the United Automobile Workers of America.

The 10-day period expired today. The company has not posted the notices nor reinstated the 29 men. WASHINGTON, Jan. 3 (AP)—The Labor Relations Board said today it would delay court action in the Ford Motor company case to consider the company's petition for a new hearing. No indication was given as to when such action would be taken.

ARMY EXPECTED TO KEEP FULL STRENGTH

AMARILLO, Jan. 4.—In view of the general situation, the United States army is expected to be kept up to its full strength during 1938 and perhaps increased, according to Sergeant R. A. Jackson of the Amarillo recruiting station. Sergeant Jackson expects an even greater number of men to enlist in the army from the Top O' Texas during 1938 than enlisted in 1937.

Men accepted at the Amarillo station are assigned to Fort P. E. Warren, Wyo., for the infantry and field artillery corps, to Fort Logan, Colo., engineers, and to Fitzsimons General Hospital, Denver, medical department.

CAST OF CHARACTERS
LINDA BENTON—Heroine, daughter of a famous singer.
CAPT. BARRYMORE TRENT—Hero, flying "daredevil."
MIRANDA TRENT—Barrymore's grandmother, a "strong" woman.

Yesterday, Mrs. Trent and Linda are reconciled and Linda returns to Barry's home with the grand old lady.

CHAPTER XVII

"YOUR little friend Mr. Abruzzi," the Duchess observed when he had shut the car door upon them "is a rather discerning person; and I must say that in many respects he more closely approximates a gentleman than many who think they set the standards for the species. Although I can't understand," she went on frowning, "his opening your mail, he admitted to me without the faintest embarrassment that the letter I mailed you had never reached you before he tore it up and threw it into the wastebasket."

"But Tony always opened my mail. I didn't—you mean you wrote to me?"
 "Naturally I wrote to you after Rita Blanchard came home with her amazing story, and the whole town began buzzing about it. The place for my grandson's wife is in his home."

Then Linda remembered something that at the moment had failed to catch her entire attention.
 "But how did you know about Barry and me?" she stammered.
 "Tony couldn't have told you. He didn't guess, himself."

"I should not be too sure about what Tony did or did not guess," countered the old lady. "But Tony did not tell me.... Do you happen to remember that a letter came for me—rather late the night Judge Baldwin died?.... Perhaps you would like to hear it?"

She took it from her purse and began to read aloud:
 "My dear old friend,

"I am violating a confidence in writing this note. I think I am justified by circumstances. Just before your grandson's departure, I performed a ceremony uniting him in marriage with Miss Linda Benton. Because of the strain you had been under for the past few days, the young people felt that it would be kinder to keep you in the dark about their step until Captain Trent's return."

"I did not agree with their reasoning, but I complied with their wishes in having their marriage record secretly filed. Now with only a few hours to live, I find misgiving heavy on me. I have a suspicion that if Captain Trent should not return, his wife will be very hesitant about claiming the relationship. You must admit—"

"Then you knew," Linda broke in. "You knew when—"

"When Rita Blanchard staged her little tragedy, you mean? I did. And prayed in my heart that you would rise and blast her with a few well-chosen words. But you did not.... And wondering why," said old Miranda irritably, "and why you chose to treat me like a child, cost me a perfectly good night's sleep. After that I—well, I preferred to have you tell me, yourself."

"But I hadn't any proof—nothing but my own word, I—"

"And I suppose it never occurred to you," snapped old Miranda, "that if I hadn't been willing to take your word against a stack of Bibles, you wouldn't have been in my house at all.... And you never did mean to come to me?"

"No," Linda said steadily. "Never. Especially after—Tony's I knew you thought—"

"And why," demanded Miranda Trent, "should you presume to know what I might or might not think? Did you imagine that I should hold it against you that, in spite of having been brought up like a China mantel-piece, you had backbone enough to go out and carve yourself a slice of the world?"

When Linda would have spoken, the old lady cut her off with an imperious gesture.

"For if," she pursued, "you had known anything about that, you would have understood that the one thing I cannot stomach is a helpless mammy-pammy.... And even if I hadn't had to take my hat off to you for the way you faced down that pack of curiosity seekers the other day, I should never thought of questioning my grandson's choice."

Linda smiled a little dubious smile.

But old Miranda had returned to Judge Baldwin's letter.
 "You must admit, Miranda," she read, "that you are sometimes a difficult, cantankerous over-possessive old woman, and that you—and no doubt, she broke off to blurt, "that's precisely what you think of me—that I am a cantankerous, unreasonable, jealous old woman?"

"Yes," said Linda softly, "but I'm beginning to like you that way," and knew she would never be afraid of Miranda Trent again.

ONCE back in the old house, it seemed to Linda as if she had never been away—except that that bare, dried-up Christmas tree no longer shed needles in the front parlor.

The days settled naturally into the old routine—only with a difference. Old Miranda began to consult Linda more and more about the details of their daily life.

"For after all, my dear Linda," the old lady said, "in due time this house will be yours. You must learn to administer it as a Trent should."

With the sturdy common sense that was so inescapably a part of her, Miranda Trent knew that come famine, flood or earthquake, life must go after a fashion. It was, perhaps the greatest kindness she could have done Linda to keep her busy.

Not that life with old Miranda was a bed of roses—or ever could be. But Linda was learning to be amused rather than hurt when the old lady's weakness for the telling phase got the better of her kindness, and her caustic tongue ran away with her.

One evening, almost a week after Linda's return, old Miranda looked up to say, "Why not tune into your friend Tony's program? Perhaps the elephants will sing.... Do you know, I'm not at all sure he hadn't already picked his elephants that last night."

So Linda did tune in to the Villa Abruzzi. The two women waited with curiosity for the moment when the house used to be darkened, and the strains of "Who is Silvia" to float across the room.... But Linda's successor was not a trained elephant; it was a troop of singing canaries.

LINDA was just about to snap the radio off again when an excited voice broke in, "Ladies and gentlemen, we interrupt our regular program to bring you a special broadcast from Panama. I am not sure, but I think there is news from the lost Aurelius expedition.... Just a moment, please."

It seemed an hour that Linda sat trembling, with her finger nails biting into her palms. Then another voice called:
 "Hello! Hello, the United States of America! This is station WJB with some news which we hope may mean the end of agonizing suspense to many there at home. The members of the lost Aurelius Scientific Expedition have been located in the Central American jungle where their plane was forced down almost two weeks ago.

"In spite of the hardships the party have endured, all are in excellent condition with the exception of the pilot, Lieutenant Rust, who was slightly injured in the landing, and who has been brought by plane into Bilbao. All other members remained in the temporary camp they established after their plane cracked. Supplies and equipment are being carried to them by boat and pack trains to supplement the emergency rations carried by the plane that made the rescue."

"And now, ladies and gentlemen, we want to introduce the daring young United States Navy pilot who made this spectacular rescue.... Captain Trent is naturally very tired, and not anxious to talk about this amazing feat; but I think he has a message he would like to send to those at home."

There was a delay during which Linda was sure she could hear old Miranda's heart beat.... Then Barry's voice:

"I only want to send New Year's greetings to—two who may be listening to us there—to my grandmother, Mrs. Miranda Trent, and to my—my wife, Linda Benton Trent." He hesitated, then added abruptly, "Well, that's all, I think."

"Oh, but, Captain Trent," the announcer put in, "there are still so many things we aren't up to date on, even down here. For instance, we know that your plane was completely demolished by that storm you ran into; yet you landed a plane in that jungle and flew Lieutenant Rust out in it. I hope you won't mind telling us at least where you come up with that second plane?"

HIGHER RATES ALONE NO ANSWER, ICC SAYS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4 (AP)—The Interstate Commerce Commission, discussing the general railroad situation, in a report to Congress today, said increased rates alone would not solve the carriers' financial problems.

"No competitive industry can work out its salvation through a price-increasing policy alone, and the railroad industry is now, to a very considerable extent, in that class," the report said.

The commissioners said their report was not to be taken as indicating their attitude toward the pending petition of the railroads for a 15 per cent rate increase, estimated to increase revenue by $500,000,000 a year.

The commissioners criticized what they said was the failure of the railroads to effect greater operating economies.

They expressed the belief the railroads, by cooperation with each other, and the coordination of many of their facilities and operation, could make "further material reductions in operating expenses."

In its legislation recommendations the commission would prestate air transportation under the commission's jurisdiction.

UNEMPLOYMENT CLAIMS EXPECTED OF 50,000

AUSTIN, Jan. 4 (AP)—Governor James V. Allred estimated today 50,000 claims would be filed this month in Texas for unemployment compensation but because many employed people were not covered under the law not more than one-fourth of the applicants would be eligible for benefits.

Allred announced that the federal social security board had approved details of their plan for receiving claims. Allred last week appeared in Washington with Creville S. Carpenter, director of the Texas unemployment compensation system.

"The law provides for a two-week waiting period before payment can be made for unemployment," the governor said. "This means the third week of January will be the first week in which any person can receive benefits. A few days will be required to approve the claims and prepare the checks so that the first payments will be made about the last week in January."

EAST TEXAS TO OBTAIN $174,000 REA PROJECT

ATLANTA, Jan. 4 (AP)—Superintendent William L. Hubbard of Dallas, attorney for the REA's 513-mile, $174,000 rural electrification project in East Texas, prepared this week to accept commercial bids for the work.

Indications were that 1,853 customers in Titus, Morris, Cass, and Bowie counties would be served. Of this amount, Washington's REA authorities have vouchered for 179 miles, serving 678 electric consumers.

Apparently the only delay at present other than that of actually securing bids on the remainder of the work not to be covered by REA appropriation, was the task of securing right-of-way contract for the lines.

“JOB OR JAIL” SAYS MAN AS BRICK HURLED

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 4 (AP)—Thomas L. Dollard, 54-year-old unemployed clerical worker, was being fed by the city today.

Dollard, who said he was rejected by 65 employers in one week on the ground he was too old to work, tossed a brick through the front window of WPA headquarters here to call attention to his plight.

He walked to the hall of justice, asked to be arrested, and was jailed for malicious mischief.

"It's job or jail," he said, explaining he was married and had a daughter in high school. "The principle involved is whether a man, especially with a wife and a child, has a right to a job."

GRAINS SHOW PRICE RAISE IN DECEMBER

Grains, a major group of farm commodities in Gray county, with dairy products were the only chief groups of farm commodities in the United States in which higher prices were recorded during the month ending December 15, according to a bulletin of the U. S. department of Agriculture, bureau of agricultural economics, dated December 30.

Compared with mid-November grain prices were up 1 point, dairy products were up 1 point. Meat animals continued down 9, chickens and eggs, down 8. Grains opened the year strong and prices continued upward until April. After that date, declines set in which continued to the end of the year. Meat animals continued strong until August.

An index of prices received by farmers during 1937, using the period August 1909-July 1914 as 100 percent, shows the average to be: grains, Jan. 15, 1937, 131; high, 131, in January; low, 104 in December.

Meat animals, Jan. 15, 1937, 123; 1937 high, 151 August; 1937 low, 111, December.

Prices paid by farmers for feed rose from 142 in January to 153 in April and May, following closely the index of prices received by farmers for grain. Both the general index and the feed price index began a decline in June which continued to the end of the year. In December the general index was 128, while the feed index had declined 55 points from the year's high to 98 percent of prewar.

McCRAW ANNOUNCEMENT TO BE MADE IN MARCH

AUSTIN, Jan. 4 (AP)—Attorney General William McCraw, who has been running for governor unofficially for many months, indicated today he would delay his formal announcement until February or perhaps March.

Ernest O. Thompson, railroad commissioner and chairman of the Interstate Compact Commission, heard McCraw to the draw by anouncing Saturday.

The attorney general said he personally had represented Texas in hearings so far on the E. H. R. Green estate inheritance tax controversy and would continue to do so. They will be resumed at New York one week from today and a conference may be held at Washington Saturday.

"With such an important case coming on, I won't be able to pay much attention to politics. Starting with the day of my announcement, I intend to devote considerable time to the campaign."

Governor James V. Allred, just back from a trip to Washington, declined comment on various rumors revolving about his future, including one that he may seek a third term.

THE BOSS

SENATE WILL BLAME NOBODY FOR RECESSION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4. (AP)—A special senate committee opening a study of unemployment assured that it planned no attempt to blame either for the recession. "It is our desire," said Chairman Byrnes (D., S. C.), to secure the cooperation of employers, employees and officials of government to determine what legislation, if any, can be enacted by congress to encourage individuals to provide more jobs.

JAPS CAPTURE 'HOLY LAND'

By The Associated Press Japan's armies driving southward through the "Holy Land of China"—central Shantung province—reported today they had captured Chufu, birthplace of Confucius, China's great sage. 70 miles south of Tsinan, the provincial capital. Other towns 50 or more miles below Asian were reported captured. Japan's air forces supported the infantry march by punishing junction points and cities on the railroads in the Chinese rear and carried the attack to far inland Hankow, nearly 600 miles up the Yangtze river.

ARMIES FIGHT HAND TO HAND

HENDAYE, Franco - Spanish Frontier, Jan. 4. (AP)—Belaguered insurgents and Spanish government troops fought today at rifle range through the ice-crusted streets of Teruel, guerrilla warfare by government forces to determine the tide of the civil conflict. Snow checked mass offensives by the 200,000 troops of the two armies on the front encircling Teruel, and sled grounded airplanes and bogged motorized units in the mountainous terrain. But within the city itself, 100 miles to the east of Madrid, there was the crackle of rifle fire and fighting at close range.

FARMERS TOLD FOOD IMPORTS NOT ALARMING

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Alarmist views roused by the fact that farm products imported into America in the year 1934-37 (June 30) amounted to over one and one-half billion dollars, an increase of $699,000,000 over the pre-trade, pre-trade agreement year of 1933-34, were analyzed and refuted in an address before the American Farm Economic association's annual meeting in Atlantic City, N. J., on December 29, by Lynn R. Edminster. A copy of the address has been released by the United States Department of State. A large part of the imports received consisted of wholly non-competitive products, Mr. Edminster reassured the association. Recovery Boosts Imports Our requirements for these imports increased rapidly with the progress of economic recovery, and the same cause together with shortages resulting from the drought explains most of the remaining increase, declared Mr. Edminster. The 21 countries with which trade agreements have either been concluded or are in process of negotiation account for 54.8 percent of our exports in 1929 and 47.8 percent of our imports. Trade Act Renewed The trades agreement act, enacted in June, 1934, for a three-year period was renewed at the last session of congress for another three years. Up to December 2, 1937, trade agreements had been concluded with Belgium, Brazil, Canada, Colombia, Costa Rica, Cuba, El Salvador, Finland, France, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras, Netherlands, Nicaragua, Sweden and Switzerland. Preliminary or formal announcement of negotiations had been made with Venezuela, Turkey, United Kingdom, Canada (new agreement), Czechoslovakia and Ecuador. Trade Facets Vital Agriculture cannot afford to abandon the trade-agreement policy, Mr. Edminster believes. He says that the $420,000,000 worth of farm products we sent in 1936 to the United Kingdom, Japan, France, Canada, and Belgium, to mention only five countries, suggests the possible magnitude of the sums at stake. Why anyone should consider it a friendly act to agriculture to jeopardize export outlets for these vast millions of dollars worth of farm products for the doubtful privilege of denying to a few countries the benefit of duty reductions on $10,000,000 worth of farm imports, requires explanation, Mr. Edminster declares. The amount of trade which we safeguard by following this policy is so enormous that abandonment of the policy would be the most woefully short-sighted action imaginable, according to Mr. Edminster.

DAUGHTER OF FORD'S POLICE CHIEF ELOPES

DETROIT, Jan. 4. (AP)—Capt. Donald S. Leonard of the state police announced this afternoon that Gertrude Bennett, missing 18-year-old daughter of Harry Bennett, Ford Motor Co. personnel director, and Russell Hughes were married at 6 p. m. yesterday in Auburn, Ind. Capt. Leonard said he learned of the marriage from County Clerk Carl Walters at Auburn. He said, however, the couple had not been found. The marriage, Capt. Leonard said, was performed by Justice of the Peace Miles Baxter at Auburn. Miss Bennett gave her birth date as May 12, 1918, which would make her 18 years old. She actually is 17. Justice Baxter at Auburn said he performed the ceremony at his office. The justice said he was called by the county clerk who merely told him a young couple wished to be married. Justice Baxter said he was unaware of the identity of the couple. They told him, he said, they were college students from Ypsilanti, Mich., and lived in Detroit. The justice said the couple gave no indication of their future plans.

SMITH, ENLOE TURNER LEAVE FOR OKLAHOMA

Three Harvester football stars, ineligible for further competition in Texas although they cannot graduate, left today for Lawton, Okla., where they will enroll at Lawton high school. They are Don Smith, little halfback of last year's team, Doyle Enloe, halfback of two years ago, and Melvin Turner, last season's center. The boys were taken to Lawton by R. A. Smith who will also visit another son, Carl Smith who is captain-elect of the Cannon Argies. He was named an all conference guard last season. One or two other Harvesters are considering moving to Oklahoma where they can play football until they can graduate. In Texas, most boys are hit by the 19-year-old age limit or the eight-semester rule, and have to stay in school a year without participating in athletics until they can graduate.

CHICAGO GRAIN CHICAGO, Jan. 4. (AP)—Grain values everywhere made electric response today to sensational Liverpool price jumps and to reports President Roosevelt's message marked more confidence to markets abroad. In some cases wheat prices this side of the Atlantic skyrocketed 5 cents a bushel. The maximum rise here was 3 cents. Highest prices of wheat today in Chicago were current in early dealings as on the day named an end.
