NAZI PAGANS ENDOW HITLER WITH DIVINITY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE Associated Press Foreign Affairs Writer

NEW YORK, Feb. 9 (AP)—The trial of the Rev. Martin Niemöller, crusading Lutheran pastor, in Berlin—a dramatic phase of the struggle of Germany Christians against Nazification of their churches and the growth of Neo-Paganism—is causing foreign puzzlement as to what possibly could inspire a reversal to Paganism in a country like Germany.

This strange new faith, which is built about Adolf Hitler, is not so much a matter of spirituality as of expediency.

Christianity would serve quite as well were it amenable to discipline, and willing to abandon some cherished beliefs for the Nazi creed.

Neo-Paganism isn't a government institution. It is, however, sponsored by leading Nazis and encouraged by many others in high position. It is, so to speak, decidedly persona grata in worth-while places. Its purposes are in part these:

(1). The strengthening of Hitler's power by endowing him with divinity. Ambitious minds recognize that spiritual power may be lasting, while temporal power is subject to many forces, including the spiritual.

(2). Creation of an air-tight nationalism and self-sufficiency—Germany for the Germans.

(3). Glorification of the race, to make it supreme among peoples, and the elimination of non-Aryans (Jews) from the population.

(4). The cultivation of a militant spirit which will lead the fatherland to greater heights—Deutschland Über Alles.

So far as Hitler is concerned, that very astute leader hasn't told the public whether he wants to be regarded as a deity being. However, he hasn't discouraged the idea, so far as the outside world is aware, and there is no question about his spiritual leadership.

This Neo-Pagan effort to defy Hitler is one of the amazing chapters of history, and the end of the story cannot be foreseen yet.

WHEELER MAN CHARGED IN BURNING OF AUTO

Bond of $1,000 has been set for Harold Leon Hooker, 24, charged with burning an automobile in Wheeler county. Hooker was charged in connection with the burning of a machine purchased locally, on a road three miles west of Wheeler Monday night.

The man now being held in Wheeler county jail, made a statement Tuesday to Wheeler County attorney Homer L. Moss.

At the time the car was burned, the vehicle was insured.

The charge claims that the car was left in Mobeetie, Saturday night, with a flat tire, and that the battery and generator were removed from the car Monday morning, and sold.

It was charged that another car was used to tow the machine out of town. The car was pulled off to the side of the road, and five gallons of gasoline poured on it, a match lighted and pitched into the automobile.

Million Dollars Worth of Bonds Bought by State

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 9 (AP)—Purchase of more than $1,000,000 worth of school district bonds as an investment for state education funds was approved by the state board of education during the two-day session ending here last night. Interest on the bonds, which included issues from nearly 200 different school districts, goes into the available school fund.

JAPS REFUSE TO GIVE DATA

TOKYO, Feb. 9 (AP)—Authoritative sources said today Japan would refuse to give naval information asked by the United States, Great Britain and France in a reply to be handed to the ambassadors of those countries, probably Friday.

Along with the reply, which was being drafted by navy and foreign office authorities, the government was expected to make a "clarifying statement" on the naval problem.

Tatsuo Kawai, a foreign office spokesman, said today in a statement of personal opinion that Japan fails to see the need of American naval expansion if the United States "lacks the intention to quarantine or police foreign waters."

The United States, Britain and France had asked in formal notes that Japan inform them by Feb. 20 of any plans to build battleships exceeding the 35,000-ton limit set by the 1936 naval treaty among the three powers.

Kawai in his unofficial statement stressed the word "quarantine." "President Roosevelt, in an address at Chicago Oct. 5, suggested a 'quarantine' of aggressor nations," "lying between the two oceans."

Kawai said, "America occupies a highly favorable position strategically. No nation menaces her; moreover, vast industrial strength supports her naval strength."

"We do not see why America regards Japan as a threat."

CAPTAIN'S BODY FOUND IN PIECES IN RIVER

CHELTHENHAM, Eng., Feb. 9 (AP)—Police said today they were nearly convinced a dismembered body taken from the river Severn was that of Captain William B. Butt and that it had been cut up at the grim stone home of Captain Butt's dead friend, the Dancer Brian Sullivan.

A blood stained overcoat identified as having belonged to the retired army officer was found under the house, "Tower Lodge."

Legs and other parts of a body believed to be Captain Butt's have been recovered from the river in recent days.

Captain Butt disappeared Jan. 4, several days before Sullivan, 27, was found dead from gas in a sealed room at his home.

Sullivan's death was pronounced suicide.

Minstrel Due To Have Spectators Rolling In Aisles Tomorrow Night

With a dress rehearsal scheduled for 7:30 o'clock tonight in the high school auditorium, members of the Lions annual minstrel show cast were putting the final touches to their parts in the show which will open at 8:15 o'clock tomorrow night in the high school auditorium. The show will be repeated the following night.

Dr. H. L. Wilder is prepared today to "do his stuff" as the comedian of the cast. At rehearsals, Dr. Wilder has had almost as much fun going through his songs and acts as it is expected the audience will have seen him perform Thursday and Friday nights. There is a cast of 50 in the show. John P. Sturgeon is director, Gene Finkbeiner, accompanist. W. A. Bratton, middle man. End men are Roy Bourland, Joe Eurrow, Bert Curry, Harry Kelley, Clarence Kennedy, D. L. Parker, John Sturgeon, and H. L. Wilder. Soloists are Ken Bennett, K. I. Dunn, Chick Hickman; girls trio, Lillian Rice, Ruby Scafe, Betty Jo Townsend.

Balladists are Katherine Barrett, Helen Draper, Jo Flannagan, Jean Gillespie, Mary Helen Gilstrap, Dorothy Harris, Leona Hurst, Martha Jones, Jeanne Mann, Lorene Nicholson, Lillian Rice, Ruby Scafe, Albertine Schulke, Louise Smith, Betty Jo Townsend, Ethel Wilder, H. D. Balthrop, Ken Bennett, George Briggs, Murray Body, D. E. Cecil, Frank Cuberson, Ivy Duncan, K. I. Dunn, Chick Hickman, F. E. Leech, Charlie Maisel, L. L. McColm, R. S. McConnell, Roy McMillen, Howard Neath, John Osborne, J. M. Saunders, Arthur Teed, Bob Thompson, R. R. Watson, Sherman White, and R. C. Wilson. Tickets to the show are available at a desk in the Rose building lobby, and from members of the Lions club. General admission tickets sell at 50 cents for lower floor, 35 cents balcony. Reserved seat tickets sell at 75 cents. A block of 400 seats has been reserved. The show is the fifth annual minstrel presented by the Pampa Lions club for the benefit of their fund for crippled children.

PAMPA LEGION MEMBERS TO HEAR DOHERTY

Members of the Kerley-Crossman post of the American Legion will join other Panhandle posts in Amarillo tomorrow on the occasion of the visit of Daniel J. Doherty of Woburn, Mass., national commander of the American Legion.

Pampa Legionnaires plan to leave for Amarillo immediately following the presentation of a flag to the Holy Souls school, an award for attendance of parents at the school during American Education week, Nov. 7-13.

The program at the school is being given on the occasion of the visit in Pampa of Bishop Robert E. Lucey, and his sister, Miss Mary Lucey, and Countess Katherine E. Price, by designation of the pope.

Another flag, also an award for attendance of parents during American Education week, was presented by Commander Howard Buckingham and members of the American committee of the post to Woodrow Wilson school at 2:45 this afternoon.

National Commander Doherty will arrive in Amarillo at 5 o'clock tonight. At 6 o'clock he will be honored with a dinner in the Amarillo hotel. Part of the program will be broadcast by KGNC, beginning at 6:15 p. m. District Commander Lou Roberts of Borger will introduce Texas Commander Danforth, who will in turn introduce the national commander in a program at the Amarillo Municipal auditorium, beginning at 7:30 p. m.

Following the address of Commander Doherty, there will be a reception and dance in the Legion hall.

The national commander arrived in Texas Sunday and is coming to Amarillo from Mingoia. He will leave Amarillo by plane at 4 a. m. Friday for Chicago, where he is scheduled to speak that evening.

$1,500 BOND SET FOR MAN IN THEFT CASE

Bond of A. C. Osborne, who with T. K. Manley, is charged with concealing stolen property, was set at $1,500 this morning.

Osborne is in county jail. Manley has not yet been arrested and brought here.

The charge was in connection with the theft of 4,000 feet of 1 1/2-inch sand line and a drilling line, valued at $700, on October 8, taken from F. H. Yealy. The property was recovered in LeFors.

LATE NEWS

NEW YORK, Feb. 9 (AP)—The United States Steel corporation today granted the committee for Industrial Organization a new union contract replacing the current agreement expiring Feb. 28. Half a million workers are affected.

Pampa Highway Office Directing Four Major Road Making Projects

Work of supervising construction on four road jobs, among other duties, makes the word "recession" unknown to employees of the Pampa office of the Texas Highway department.

On highway 209 (Pampa-Borger road), employees of the Austin Bridge company have completed setting half of the piling on the Bear creek bridge. The piling is concrete and 30 pillars are to be set in all.

Nine Culverts Finished. At the Dixon creek bridge workers have driven 15 of the 20 timber piling; at White Deer creek, all of the 30 pillars have been cast, but none placed. All of the nine culverts in Hutchinson county have been completed.

Thus far this week, the bridge crews have been used on the Dixon and Bear creek bridges, while All-

Relief Applications In Pampa Increasing

While other counties may feel a lessening of relief load, conditions in Gray county do not warrant any assumption that relief projects here should be reduced, according to County Case Worker Mrs. Willie Baines.

Work cards have been issued to 196 persons, according to records of the case worker's office. There has been an increasing demand for relief ever since Christmas, Mrs. Baines says.

Yesterday, Mrs. Baines pointed to six new applications for relief lying on her desk, as a refutation of any claims that relief was being less of a problem here.

"Many of our former cases are applying again for relief," Mrs. Baines said, "in addition to those who are making their first application."

A ruling of the Texas Relief commission, issued the first of this month, may also add more to the relief rolls.

Under the ruling, all persons registered with the Works Progress administration, whether their projects are in operation or are suspended, will no longer be eligible to receive surplus commodities as they have in the past.

WOMAN SOLON OPPOSES NAVY APPROPRIATION

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9 (AP)—The first woman member of congress, opposing an $800,000,000 expansion of the navy, told congress today that "wholly abnormal" warship building by the United States would "intensify international tensions" and speed the world toward war.

Former Representative Jeanette Rankin of Montana, legislative secretary of the National Council for Prevention of War, led off the opposition to President Roosevelt's proposal to increase the fleet 20 per cent.

She called on the committee to withhold approval "until the demands can be judged on the basis of a declared policy of defense only and of a determination of our defense needs."

Man Condemned to Die for Slaying

NORRISTOWN, Pa., Feb. 9 (AP)—Wendell Forrest Bowers was condemned today to die in the electric chair for the murder of pretty Mrs. Wilma V. Carpenter, 38-year-old widow, last Dec. 13.

Shifting uneasily from one foot to another, he listened with bowed head as Judge Harold G. Knight read the verdict and sentence.

The judges reached their decision in a secret conference last night. The case automatically was put into their hands by Bowers' surprise plea of guilty to a charge of first degree murder as the trial opened Monday.

ADDITIONAL RELIEF FUND VERY LIKELY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9 (AP)—President Roosevelt, it was learned today, will ask congress within a day or two to appropriate between $200,000,000 and $300,000,000 for relief during the next five months.

Informed sources said the President would send a letter to Speaker Bankhead, probably tomorrow, asking additional funds primarily because of expected relief demands during February, March and April.

The Works Progress administration, these sources said, has told the President it needs a deficiency appropriation largely because of unemployment in certain automobile cities.

Senate Majority Leader Barkley said today that President Roosevelt would send a message today or tomorrow "a message on relief."

Barkley, who conferred with Mr. Roosevelt and other congressional leaders and administration officials, said the message might cover not only the question of a deficiency appropriation for the rest of this fiscal year, but also needs for the next fiscal year, beginning July 1.

Acting as spokesman for the President's relief conferees, Barkley said he did not know how much additional relief money would be required. He added, however, that a deficiency appropriation was "very likely."

SECURITY ACT AGENT TO BE HERE THURSDAY

Dewey Reed, manager of the Amarillo office of the Social Security board, will be here tomorrow, to interview employees, public and civic leaders, and employees on phases of the Social Security act, it was announced today at the chamber of commerce office.

In a letter to the chamber of commerce, the social security board official said one of the purposes of his visit here would be to explain to interested employers the purposes and functions of the Amarillo office, which has been established to assign account numbers and service claims in this district. He will discuss in particular the manner in which employees may be assisted in filing claims for lump-sum payments, and the procedure with reference to applications for account numbers by employees.

Employers, employees, and others having questions with reference to the old-age insurance title of the Social Security act are requested to contact Mr. Reed at the Chamber of Commerce during the day. It was pointed out, however, that the visit has no connection with old-age assistance, which is administered by the state. The old-age insurance program, on the other hand, is administered entirely by the federal government.

HOUSE VOTES APPROVAL OF CROP CONTROL ACT

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9 (AP)—The house voted approval today of the revised crop control bill, speeding it along to final legislative action in the senate.

House action came at the end of four hours of debate under procedure which many Republicans described as a "gag rule." No member was permitted to change any section of the bill which a joint senate-house committee drafted from separate measures the senate and house passed at the end of the special session of congress last December.

The program would continue the soil conservation act and set up machinery by which Secretary Wallace, with the approval of farmers, could apply marketing regulations to wheat, corn, cotton, tobacco and rice.

NEGRO WANTS TO DIE TO THROB OF SWING

OSKINSING, N. Y., Feb. 9 (AP)—In the death-house at Sing Sing, Chas. J. Brown, 30, a negro of Ellenville, N. Y., wants to walk to the electric chair to the hot throb of swing music.

He may get his bizarre request, Warden Lewis E. Laves said today, although ordinarily the bleak corridors of "murderers' row" are silent on the day of an execution.

"A sort of electric tension you can feel right through your bones grips all the prisoners in the death house on the day of an execution, and everything is done to quiet their nerves," said a prison attache.

Brown's request for a jazz accompaniment to the final steps he will take on earth is without precedent at Sing Sing.

"If he wants some music, we can give him a portable phonograph in his pre-execution room," the warden said.

The condemned man was convicted of robbing and murdering Isador Handmann and his wife, in Ellenville, and then setting their home afire in the vain hope of concealing his crime.

ROTARY ANNS ENTERTAINED AT BANQUET LAST EVENING

ANNUAL LADIES' NIGHT OBSERVED BY CIVIC CLUB

An event of importance in the social activities was the annual Ladies' Night banquet which was given last evening at the First Methodist church by the local Rotary club.

Observing the seasonal theme, Valentine colors were stressed in decorating the entertainment room and attractive arrangements of red carnations were used on the tables which were centered with red streamers. Colorful candy cups marked the places for the guests and club members who were presented Valentine hats, caps, and whistles.

Dick Hughes presided as toastmaster of the program arranged by W. Garman and others. The Rev. C. Gordon Bayless was the principal speaker of the evening.

The group played games and Valentines were given as favors. Brick ice cream, cookies, and red hot were served to those attending.

Guests were Messrs. and Mrs. Fred Lamb, Vernon Van Bibber, John Miller, Elsie Neal, George Porter, Clark, Bertha Baggerman, Bluff McMillen, Ruby DeZern, Billie K. Wyatt, Valerie Austin, Sylvia Goodwin, Irene Veal, Beulah Southard, Helen Moorehead, Julia Giddens, Dorothy Southard, Donald Twen-

Methodist Societies Will Have All-Day Meeting on Friday

Methodist auxiliary societies of the Clarendon district will hold an all-day training school for officers and members Friday in the Shamrock Methodist church with the Shamrock society as hostess.

The following program will begin at 10:30 o'clock: Devotional, Mrs. H. A. Longino, director of spiritual life work; Mundy, sessions period, conducted by the respective conference officers; special lunch; special, Shamrock auxiliary; message, Mrs. C. M. Randall, conference president; Seymour, "Summing Up," conference officers; and consociation service, Mrs. C. A. Bickley, Abilene.

Mrs. C. A. Cryer, district secretary, will be in charge of the meeting and urges that all officers and members of the W. M. S. take advantage of this day of training.

Twentieth Century Forum Hears Talk On Famous Orchestra

Mrs. Arthur Teed was hostess to the members of the Twentieth Century Forum yesterday afternoon in her home.

Program leader, Mrs. Earl E. Nichols, was elected as a member of the forum. Mrs. Nichols' topic of discussion was "The N. C. Symphony Orchestra" in which she gave a sketch of the life of Toscanini and his connection with the orchestra. Mrs. E. H. Turner spoke on "The Toledo Art Program."

Those attending were Mrs. C. N. Barrett, Roy Bourland, W. T. Fraser, George Frauf, E. L. Green, J. C. Odus Mitchell, Karl E. Nichols, M. C. Overton Jr., Frank Perry, Arthur Swanson, Arthur Teed, E. H. Turner, W. C. Slack, Gene Fatheree, Miss Marjorie Buckler, and the hostess.

For stuffed celery, use small stalks or cut large stalks into two-inch lengths. Any of the following make good stuffing: chopped pimiento-stuffed olives and minced parsley; snappy cream cheese and mayonnaise; finely-minced tuna, celery, pickles and salad dressing; cream cheese mixed with dates and pecans; sardines, chopped and added to celery, pickles and mayonnaise; chopped shrimps, tuna, salmon or crab added to cream cheese and salad dressing; liver paste mixed with chopped olives and cream.

Nuptials Spoken By Miss Walker, Norman Harvey

Miss Katherine Walker became the bride of Norman Earvey in an impressive ceremony in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Walker, at high noon Sunday.

The ring service was read by the Rev. John O. Scott of the Central Baptist church.

The bride was attractively dressed in navy and white with navy accessories. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations, yellow roses, and white baby breath.

After the nuptials were spoken, the bride presented her bouquet to Miss Dixie Vandenberg, who attended her as maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Misses Sylvia Walker, Aeneas, and Ruth Tunnell. Each wore a corsage of gladiolas and sweet peas.

Ira Hicks, cousin of the groom, attended him as best man.

Mr. Harvey is employed by the Langer refinery. The couple will be at home at 712 West Foster street.

Guests who attended the reception were Messrs. and Mrs. H. W. Walker, W. R. Lowder, John O. Scott, H. F. Walker, Misses Dixie Vandenberg, Sylvia Walker, Aeneas, Ruth Tunnell, Messrs. Bill Anglin, J. D. Bishop, Jack Bryan, and Ira Hicks of East Texas.

Horace Mann P-TA To Observe Founders' Day on Thursday

"Thrift" is the subject to be discussed at the meeting of the Horace Mann Parent-Teacher association Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the school auditorium.

Club members attending were Mrs. John Andrews, George Eriggs, C. P. Buckler, W. M. Craven, W. R. Ewing, C. T. Hunkapillar, Claude Ledrick, J. M. McDonald, Dave Pope, W. Purviance, S. G. Surret, Charles Thut, L. C. Neely, Carl Jones, S. F. Lewis, and the hostess.

A Founders' Day candlelighting service will be a feature of the program with Mrs. H. E. Stevens as reader.

"It is fitting that a candlelighting service shall honor these two women, Alice Birney and Phoebe Hearst, in whose hearts the vision of parenthood-teachhood was first nurtured. Their love for children led them on. The hand of a little child shall light their memory candle."

Mrs. Stevens will be reading the program under the direction of Roy Tinsley. Mrs. F. M. Culbertson, guest speaker will address the group.

In deep admiration and appreciation the reader will ask the worthy associate to light the national candle, and Mrs. Emory Noblett will light a blue taper.

"The teachers are our educational force in the life of the state. I shall ask a teacher to light the state candle," Mrs. Stevens is to continue.

At this time Mrs. M. K. Griffith will light a red candle.

"One candle will be lighted which signifies our local association. The reader is asked to light this candle. The one best fitted to light this is our president, Mrs. George Alden. In her hands are the reins of leadership," she will conclude as Mrs. Allen lights a golden candle.

The program will be closed with the singing of America by the group.

Three H. D. Clubs Meet Together to Discuss Banquet

Merten, Wayside, and Wright Home Demonstration clubs met in the home of Mrs. John Kelley Friday afternoon to discuss the serving of a banquet to the Royal Neighbors in April.

Mrs. Phillips, president of the Merten club, presided over the meeting in which the menu was planned and committees were appointed.

Refreshments were served by the hostess to Mrs. A. R. Walberg, a visitor, and Mrs. M. Johnson, H. R. Ayers, E. B. Knapp, E. M. Hope, C. L. Hulsey, B. R. Nash, J. C. Ewing, C. O. Bridges, P. F. Blankenburg, Floyd Boyd, H. B. Taylor, C. S. West, Alva Phillips, Robert Vaught, and O. O. Williams.

Priscilla Club Has Program on Flowers At Recent Meeting

Members of the Priscilla Home Demonstration club answered roll call at a meeting in the home of Mrs. Guy Farrington last week by naming the flowers which they were planting in their gardens.

Miss Donnie Lee Stroop discussed the hardy varieties in flowers and Mrs. E. A. Shackleton gave the time of planting. These talks were followed with the plan for a finer flower garden by Mrs. C. A. Tignor.

A Valentine motif was observed in the appointments and in the refreshments of jello salad, spiced ice punch, and cookies which were served buffet style following several games of bridge.

Mrs. Albert Lockhart will be hostess to the club on March 4.

Valentine Party Entertains Girls of First Year Group

First year girls of the Junior department of the First Christian church enjoyed a Valentine party Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Emory Noblett.

Valentines were given to the 17 children who played games.

Cake, homemade cookies, and tea were served to Mary Lou Mazy, Louella Goodwin, Peggy Joyce Eckerd, Leroy Parker, Juanita Bell Kirbie, Dorothy Jean King, Betty Marie DeZern, Billie Jean Stevens, Ruby Lee Bragard, Phyllis Ann Barker, Dorothy May Taylor, Elizabeth Ann Sijgerson, Helen Mazy, Evelyn Bunting, Jane Dawson, Betty Jo, Noeland, and Elsie Ruth Graham.

Mrs. W. Dawson, T. T. Eckerd, and T. S. Bunting assisted the hostess.

Latin American Series Continued By El Progreso

Another in a series of programs on Latin America was presented at the meeting of El Progreso club in the home of Mrs. T. D. Hobart yesterday afternoon.

"Pan-American Congress was discussed by Doyle Osborne, principal of the high school, and a talk on "Fellowship Between the Two Americas" was presented by the program leader, Mrs. W. R. Ewing.

Parade Plans Made By Sunshine Club

SKELLYTOWN, Feb. 9.—Another call meeting of the Sunshine Home Demonstration club was held recently at the home of the president, Mrs. Pat Norris for the purpose of working on plans for the float which will appear in the "Mother's Day Parade" in Amarillo, March 9.

A covered dish luncheon was enjoyed at noon and at the close of the meeting about fifty flowers had been made.

It was decided to meet again Thursday for a covered dish luncheon at the home of Mrs. W. W. Hughes, to finish the remainder of the flowers to be made.

Members present at this meeting were: Mesdames M. L. Roberts, Ralph Stuart, L. B. Fulton, Joe Wedge, John Nichols, E. E. Crawford, Don Ayers, I. B. Bales and the hostess.

Mrs. Earl Moon Honored at Party

DENWORTH, Feb. 9.—A wedding shower was given Mrs. Earl Moon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vester Dowell Monday afternoon.

After several games, gifts were presented the bride, and refreshments served.

Those present: Mrs. A. G. Norton of McLean, Mrs. Bill Moon, White Deer; Mrs. Edna Gehring, Kenneth Meyers, Bob James, Forrest Hupp, G. Brown, E. Dowell, Howard Wildy, John Lowe, Cles Stoncipher, C. B. Copeland, C. M. Carpenter, E. E. Gehring, the bride, and the hostess, Misses Billie Moon and Patsy Funderburk, Waneta and Jack Hupp, and Martha Jo and Johnny Moon.

Remember, only crisp crackers or wafers should be served with soups, salads or cheese. Often crackers in a fresh box need reheating for five minutes in moderate oven.

Here are six nice vegetable plate combinations: (1) Broccoli with Hollandaise sauce, beets, banana fritters, green beans; (2) creamed eggs on toast, cheese-stuffed celery, buttered spinach; (3) poached eggs in spinach nests, browned eggplant fingers, creamed onions; (4) corn soufflé with creamed mushrooms, spiced beets, asparagus pickles; (5) broiled tomatoes on cheese toast, creamed carrots and turnips, spiced pear; (6) creamed peas, mashed squash, French fried potatoes, buttered beets.

Bridge Club Meets At McDonald Home

SKELLYTOWN, Feb. 9.—Mr. and Mrs. McDonald were hosts to the Night Bridge club recently at their home.

High scores for ladies in the card games was won by Mrs. W. F. Harlem, who also held the floating prize, while Mr. Harlem won high in the games for men, and Bill Price held the men's floating prize.

A Valentine motif was used in table appointments, decorations and refreshments which were served to Messrs. and Mrs. Bill Price, W. F. Harlan, Fred Price, J. C. Jarvis, S. C. Dickey, and the host and hostess.

J. A. Roberts, of Skellytown, who attends school at White Deer won first place in "Sports" and also won second place in the same, and was presented a Silver Loving Cup and a ribbon at the Panhandle High School Press Association, which was held at Berger. Miss May Belle Tomlin, also of Skellytown, won second, on Columns.

Child Study Club Elects Officers

Miss Matthews And Arvol Hix Marry Recently

Miss Reta Mae Matthews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Matthews, and Arvol Hix, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Hix of Loco, Oklahoma, were married in a simple ceremony Saturday evening at the home of the officiating minister, the Rev. E. M. Dunsworth.

The bride was dressed in blue taffeta with black accessories. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ellington were the couple's only attendants.

Mrs. Hix, who was graduated from Pampa high school in 1936, is employed at the Wirsching studio.

Mr. Hix is now associated with the Comp Compton service station. They will be at home in Pampa.

Officers for the new year were elected at the meeting of the Child Study club yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Frank McAfee.

Mrs. Sherman White was elected as president to follow Mrs. W. C. Hutchinson. Other officers are Mrs. Luther Pierson, vice president; Mrs. T. B. Rogers, secretary; Mrs. Roy Tinsley, treasurer; Mrs. Lee Horace McBeck, reporter; Mrs. S. C. Evans, parliamentarian; and Mrs. Lee Harrah, library chairman.

Following the roll call which was answered with a health subject in which each was interested, Mrs. W. J. Foster, leader, opened the health program with a discussion of "The Conquest of Cancer." Mrs. Tom Darby spoke on "American Maternal Mortality."

MIND your MANNERS

Test your knowledge of correct social usage by answering the following questions, then checking against the authoritative answers below:

1. May a valentine be signed by the sender?
2. Is it a good idea for a husband to send his wife a valentine?
3. Is it good taste to use "violent" shades of ink for letter writing?
4. Should you apologize for writing a letter to a friend on a typewriter?
5. Should one write a letter in pencil?
6. What would you do if—
You are a young man who has met a young girl in another city, and you would like to further the acquaintance.
(a) Write her a letter?
(b) Wait to see if she decides to write to you?
(c) Tell her when you are writing that that you are going to write, and see if she seems pleased?

- Answers
1. Yes. Though some people like the romantic notion of leaving the identity of the sender to the imagination of the one who receives it.
 2. Yes! It may be an actual paper valentine, or some other remembrance, like candy or flowers.
 3. No.
 4. No. Many persons now write all but the most formal social notes on the typewriter. An open house meeting was announced for February 22.
 5. Only if he is ill and writing in bed. Then it is excusable.
- Best "What Would You Do?" solution—(c), if convenient. Otherwise (a).

Mrs. Lusby Leads Twentieth Century Culture Program

Twentieth Century Culture club members met in the home of Mrs. J. P. Wehrung yesterday afternoon for a program from the Readers Digest.

The hostess presided over the business session in which Mrs. L. L. McColl gave a report from the Council of Clubs. An open house meeting was announced for February 22.

Roll call was answered with current events preceding the program, which was led by Mrs. H. P. Lusby who talked on good news articles from the current magazine used in the course of study.

Flowers to be grown in each room were pointed out by Mrs. Joe Burrow in her discussion of "Window Gardens." After Mrs. Marvin Lewis presented "The Place of Women in Germany Today," she and Mrs. Burrow conducted a short debate on whether or not to boycott Japan.

Club members present were Mrs. C. S. Boston, C. W. Bruscoe Jr., Malcolm R. Brown, Joe Burrow, N. W. Gaut, F. A. Howard, R. M. Johnson, Ewing Leech, Marvin Lewis, H. P. Lusby, L. L. McColl, D. E. Robinson, C. W. Stowell, Lee Waggoner, and the hostess.

Nellie Kinzie was the first white child born in Chicago.

CAPONE BRAIN CRACKING UP, REPORTS SAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 9 (AP)—Reports were current today that Al Capone, under observation in the hospital ward at Alcatraz Island federal prison, might be transferred to the federal hospital at Springfield, Mo.

The rumor persisted that the Chicago gangster, serving time for income tax law violation, was suffering from Paresis, a condition which brings about destruction of the brain cells.

Dr. Edward Twitchell, consulting psychiatrist for Alcatraz, who admitted yesterday he had visited Capone on a special Sunday, observed:

"Whether Capone has Paresis or anybody else has it, it now is a curable condition. Malarial treatment in favorable cases results in pretty rapid response."

Reports that Capone would be removed to Springfield were based on lack of facilities for the malarial treatment to be given at Alcatraz.

Warden James A. Johnston refused to discuss the case other than to observe that no orders for a transfer to Springfield had been received.

Dr. Twitchell said the type of medical attention required "would depend on further treatment of the case, presuming Capone is suffering from Paresis."

"Paresis," he said, "causes destruction of the brain cells. It is entirely different from the condition known as 'stir crazy' which is a nervous condition."

"In the case of a man with Paresis, confinement might hasten its progress."

"If the disease is discovered quickly enough, the malarial treatment is effective. Treatment, of course, cannot restore brain cells which have already been destroyed, but it can arrest the course of the disease."

Texas had 4,019 stillbirths in 1936, the health department reports.

The state health department says syphilis is at least twice as prevalent as scarlet fever, three times as prevalent as tuberculosis and six times as common as diphtheria, typhoid fever, smallpox and infantile paralysis combined.

NORTH DAKOTA FARMERS NEED TWO MILLIONS

By PAUL D. SHOEMAKER, Associated Press Farm Editor, CROSBY, N. D., Feb. 9.—Partners of a drought-ridden five county area in northwestern North Dakota would gamble their labor against the elements again this year, if the government provided a seed of close to two million dollars for state and production loans.

C. H. Lockrem, district supervisor for the Farm Security administration in Divide, Williams, Burke, McKenzie, and Mountrail counties, estimated today at least four out of five farmers would need loans of $300 each to purchase seed, tractor fuel or feed for horses.

"They simply haven't got the money to purchase the necessities of life, not to speak of seeds, fuel or feed," Lockrem said. "More than 6,500 farm families of approximately 8,200 in the five counties, are receiving government relief grants totaling close to $185,000 monthly."

Many farmers still owe on loans obtained years back, but they have not produced a crop in the meantime.

The case of 57-year-old Paul Patterson, who came here from Montana 22 years ago with $4,000 capital, perhaps was typical.

Patterson said he bought 480 acres and did well. By 1929 he had all his debts paid, a cash reserve and four children through high school.

Now he figures he is $2,000 in debt, "but I managed to keep myself going until last fall and then I had to apply for a grant."

"I am going to apply for a seed loan and try it again," he said, "but me and the missus was talking about it the other day and we decided if someone would give us $1,000 for the layout we would get out of here."

These farmers, however, insist there is no reason why the area should be abandoned. Those who felt that way have gone. There is a divergence of opinion as to how many have departed, estimates ranging from 3 per cent to 25 per cent.

There were 88 junior high schools in Texas in 1937-38, an increase of six over the previous school year.

KING GEORGE PLANS FRANCE VISIT IN JUNE

LONDON, Feb. 9 (AP)—King George's state visit to France next June was considered here today to be a planned demonstration of the close political ties between Europe's leading democracies.

Political observers were quick to point out that the monarch's first journey outside the realm since his coronation last May would serve to balance the German Fuehrer Hitler's springtime visit to Fascist Rome.

The London press generally hailed as politically significant the announcement that King George and Queen Elizabeth would spend four days in France, visiting President Albert Lebrun in Paris from June 28 to July 1.

Commentators held the visit a logical step to symbolize the ties between Britain and France—Britain's bulwark against possible aggression from the continent.

One newspaper, the Daily Express, gave consideration to the possibility of a meeting between the king and his brother, the Duke of Windsor. The two have not met since Edward abdicated and went into voluntary exile and George succeeded to the throne.

The Express headed its editorial: "Will they (the king and queen) meet the Duke and Duchess of Windsor?"

"There can be no reason why they should not," the editorial said. "There are good reasons why they should meet. The king and his brother, who was king, have no

FIVE FUGITIVES FLEE FROM SULPHUR SPRINGS

DALLAS, Feb. 9 (AP)—Capt. Lee Miller of the State highway police here said today that the five fugitives from the Sulphur Springs jail break apparently had split their forces, two of them fleeing into East Texas.

Miller said two men who answered descriptions of Roy Johnson, 28, and Paul Sloan, 18, two of the jailbreakers, stole an automobile (Ford 1928 coupe) at Mineola early today, but that a thorough search of the area by state and local police failed to show a trace of the men or the automobile.

Earlier, the five had been reported traveling in an automobile stolen from a Sulphur Springs garage soon after they slugged Constable C. F. Withers with his own pistol and fled from the jail.

Twelve highway patrolmen who had been searching northeast Texas for the jailbreakers returned to Dallas early today and a new detail of eight men was sent out.

Officers believed three of the bandits were heading for Arkansas late last night. Police in northeast Texas, Oklahoma, and Arkansas joined forces in the hunt.

County Attorney William J. Fanning said the other men were W. E. (Rabbit) Burnett, Newell Baker and Harold Kerns.

quarrel. The episode of December, 1936, is closed forever.

"The Duke and Duchess have moved recently into a villa just outside Paris. Well informed quarters thought it likely, however, that arrangements had been made for them to be absent from France during King George's visit.

Louis XIV spent more than $400,000 on the royal gardens of Versailles.

TODAY'S SERMONETTE

God's promises to His people are all inclusive, cover every situation, are sufficient for every danger or onslaught of the wicked. "And I will deliver thee out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem thee out of the hand of the terrible." Then why should the Christian, who has placed himself in God's hands, submitted himself to God's direction, have any fear for the future, here or hereafter—Chivers.

ESSENTIALS OF U. S. DEMOCRACY

A short time ago, a number of U. S. senators, principally members of the majority party, conferred with a view to creating a definite program for promoting recovery. Their conclusions, embraced in 10 proposals, were presented to the senate by Joseph Bailey of North Carolina. A digest of these 10 vitally important points follows:

- 1. The capital gains tax and the undistributed profits tax should be thoroughly revised at once, so as to encourage the normal flow of savings into productive enterprise.
2. A start should be made toward balancing the federal budget, in order that public credit may be preserved and fears which deter investment, ended.
3. The constitutional guarantees of the right of the worker to work, and the owner of property to its possession, must be preserved and enforced.
4. Government should stay out of fields which belong to the realm of private industry, and if the government does propose to compete in any field, due notice should be given so that private investment may avoid it.
5. The competitive system must be maintained as against either private or government monopoly, and business right to a reasonable profit must be guaranteed.
6. Private credit must be preserved, and that means that the nation's collateral on which all credit depends, must be preserved.
7. There must be an assurance that taxes will not be further increased, and that they will be reduced at the earliest possible time.
8. States' rights, home rule and local self-government must be vigorously maintained, unless proved definitely inadequate.
9. The needy must be aided under a system which is non-political and non-partisan.
10. Lastly, the nation should rely, in the future, as in the past, upon the American system of private initiative and enterprise.

This program needs no comment. It is a real prosperity program. It is based upon the principles that have made America great. If congress will adopt it, it will make a magnificent contribution not only to recovery, but to the maintenance of U. S. democracy.

DRIVING OUT TUBERCULOSIS

Seventy thousand persons die in the United States each year from tuberculosis, although the number is decreasing largely through the efforts of the National Tuberculosis Association. The association's annual Early Diagnosis Campaign will be conducted this year in April, the 11th such campaign in the United States. The drives are started for the purpose of uncovering new and unrealized cases of tuberculosis, and to encourage treatment of cases already known.

By bringing the disease forcibly to the attention of the nation, the association has done much to prevent the infectious spread, to place sufferers where they may be cared for, and to uncover incipient cases before they are actually into the illness state. All the association asks is that if you have any of the tuberculosis symptoms—tiredness, loss of strength and weight, a pain in the chest, continual coughing—you be examined carefully. A simply request and a life saver.

Yesteryear In Pampa

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY Simultaneously with the beginning of its new home on the corner adjoining the Rex theater building, the Pampa Daily News headquarters of its owners, the Nunn-Warren Publishing company, were moved from Panhandle to this city.

The Danciger Oil and Refining company purchased the southeast quarter of section 2, block 26, H. & G. N. survey, in southeast Gray county, from the Amerada Petroleum company.

FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY The Fort Worth and Denver railway from Childress to Pampa, which was to give this city direct connection with Fort Worth and points south and east, was becoming more of a reality every day. "Better-looking yards for Gray county in 1932" was the slogan of the 4-H and home demonstration clubs for the year.

Tex's Topics

Hearing a KPDR radio singer crooning, "Never In A Million Years Will There Be Another You," reminds me that there is a verse in Omar Khayyam's "Rubaiyat" that expresses a directly opposite opinion. It goes like this:

And fear not lest Existence closing your Account, and mine, should know the like no more: The Eternal Saki from that bowl has pour'd Millions of bubbles like us, and will pour.

Well, who is right—the old tentmaker or Gordon & Revel? . . . I don't know, I'm just asking.

I am about to tear out my hair on account of that song, "Bei Mir Bist Du Schoen." . . . But, this is to remind you that before long you will hear another one of the same ilk, and it will get you down even lower. . . . This new one, coming up, is titled, "Bublitchski" (Pretzels) and it is from a musical comedy of the same name which just last month was revived in one of New York's Hebrew theaters. . . . I heard Gertrude Nielsen sing it once on the radio. . . . Just to give you a rough idea of what to expect when it becomes popular, the opening lines go like this:

I'm selling Bublitchski, They only cost two biskl.

You'd never believe it, but I came very close one time to taking up the stage as a means of livelihood. . . . I traveled, briefly, with a vaudeville troupe to see what I thought of the life, and at the end of the tour, vetoed the plan and went back into the newspaper business. . . . However, I had a lot of fun. . . . I was what you would call a stooge. . . . I was planted in the audience, usually in a box seat, and I was a heckler for a few minutes and then finally wound up the act by getting right onto the stage to prove my point. . . . And, of course, the groundwork was laid so that I always won. . . . And, if you can swallow this, too, I sang. . . . My highlight song in those days and the one that laid 'em in the aisles was, "Garden of My Dreams," which was the theme song for one of Flo Zeinfeld's Follies, starring Marilyn Miller, Leon Errol and Chic Sale.

Those were in the days, of course, before Warner Bros. introduced sound to the screen. In Al Johnson's "The Jazz Singer," Vaudeville was something and every town of any size had a vaudeville theater. . . . Among my vaudeville memories: The couple who wangled an extra round of applause by "bringing out the kid." . . . The comedy pianist who always got a laugh by pretending to lose his mane, although he was quite bald. . . . Joe Woods, my favorite tramp pantomime, who finished his act by riding a bicycle down a road pointed on the back drop. . . . The Smith Sisters, Bebie and Irene, on the bill directly ahead of us, whose mama ruled the stage with an iron-hand. . . . The trapeze performer who opened the show and "hooked it up" by appearing to be scared to death. . . . The Six Brown Brothers and their golden saxophones. . . . Frank Banta's sizzling piano-playing.

Washington Letter

By Rodney Dutcher WASHINGTON, Feb. 9—It is now clear enough that "little business men," although sorely confused, pattern after "big business men" in their economic thinking.

At the never-to-be-forgotten conference which nearly a thousand of the former group attended in Washington it became obvious that some of them arrive at similar conclusions independently and that others just parrot the headlines.

But the boys did deliver a terrific wallop to any idea Roosevelt had that he could get any strong support—or any new ideas—from small business.

Through all the cat-calls, conflict and turmoil nothing stood out more distinctly than the wishful yearning of small business for a return to the dear old days of Calvin Coolidge. Various delegates estimated that from 90 to 95 per cent of their group had voted for Rand in 1936.

It seems likely that the "little business men" and their recommendations, most of which implied criticism of New Deal aims and legislation, will have little if any effect.

The demonstrated solidarity of business is being used by the President's conservative advisers to influence him. But his liberal advisers are using the fiasco aspects of the show to convince him that the little fellows know even less than the big fellows about problems of economics and government in the large.

Government action to make loans available for industry was being planned before the guests arrived and this recommendation will be headed, urging the strengthening and enforcement of monopoly laws was right down the administration alley. Curiously enough it came from a gathering vociferously resentful against the Ickes and Jackson anti-monopoly speeches.

No End In Sight Yet

Around Hollywood

By ROBBIN COONS HOLLYWOOD—The movie history lesson of the week is "Gold I, Where You End It." Beautifully photographed in color, this outdoor melodrama covers the fight between hydraulic miners and wheat farmer in the California of 1877. It has vigor and abundant action, a hard-hitting hero of the old school in George Brent, a dyed-in-the-wool villain in Barton MacLane, a fine gentleman who loves it's land in Claude Rains, and the unscrupulous lords of the business against the simple, earthy-farmers of the valley.

Most of all it has Olivia de Havilland, whose fresh beauty in the color medium will startle you. It has, for a climax, a smashing flood-brought down by our hero for no apparent reason other than to provide a smashing climax. Michael Curtiz directed.

The week, however, was largely musical. "Everybody Sing" presents the goofy doings of a balmly theatrical family in which Daddy Reginald Owen is a playwright, Mama Billie Burke a star star, Allan Jones and Fanny Brice the servants, and Lynne Carver and Judy Garland the children. Reginald Gardner is the ham actor, Miss Burke's leading man.

Directed by Edwin L. Marin, the piece keeps pace with its possibilities for humor and song, projects 14-year-old Judy more prominently than before, and gives the Brice humor full opportunity. Less pretentious, less beautifully staged than "Rosalie," it's much better entertainment.

In "Happy Landings" Sonja Henie in her little Norwegian village falls in love with Cesar Romero, dance band Lothario, and doesn't realize the true worth of Romero's manager, Don Ameche, until she has followed them to America.

From this lean plot germ is grown a pleasant flowering of romantic and comic incident, exciting specialties, and beautiful skating ensembles enough to please the most exacting musical—or Henie—fan. The net result is, I think, the best of the three Sonja films to date, if you discount the novelty appeal of "One in a Million."

Cesar Romero caricatures a Great Lover amusingly, and Ethel Merman is the "hot and happy" gold-digger. Wally Vernon does, among other things, a "strip tease" to entertain impatient reporters about to walk out on his publicity-hungry boss. The Condos brothers, tappers extraordinary, do a "War Dance for Wooden Indians" to the sultry, scintillating music of Raymond Scott's Quintette. El Brendel is back, with a Swedish specialty, and Jean Harsholt. And Don Ameche, as the Real Thing, proves again that he is the screen's most natural romantic leading man. Roy del Ruth directed.

People You Know

By ARCHER FULLINGEM Today I write of several people whose reality is vital and who live without pretense. . . . Ever-welcome visitors in this office are Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Lockhart who live with their two fine children 12 miles east of town. . . . The nobility in Mrs. Lockhart's character is reflected in the calm beauty of her face. . . . Last night somebody said "Why, I have known Malcolm Brown all his life. He's a Dalhart boy" and speaking of costly blood, that young doctor has it. He sold many a pint of his rare blood for $50 a pint when he was going to college. His blood is No. 4 type. Cliff Chambers has a type of So once while he was in a hospital in California it took a week of radio advertising to find blood to match his. . . . Just because somebody has to have a blood transfusion that's no sign he's near death. Transfusions are common nowadays. . . . Today is the birthday of John Austin Paris who is 91 years old, and this one hopes that he finds joy in his daughter, Mrs. E. A. Shackleton, and his two young great-grandsons who will make him a cake today. . . . Its an achievement to be 91. One of the finest Boy Scout troops in town is Troop 4 whose Scoutmaster is Emmett Gee. The troop meets at the Christian church. This being Scout week members of the troop are dutifully wearing their Scout uniforms to school. You could go a long way before you could find three finer boys than Billy Gilchrist, Richard Dodson, Hugh Monroe, all members of that troop, and all the highest type of boys as well as good Scouts.

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER NEW YORK—The "he-men" of the coast have come to town and are wending their way through the town's night life. Big, ugly, good-humored Charles Bickford is one. Robinson is a smooth dresser but in no sense ostentatious. These coast boys, with a few exceptions, have the trick of shaking hands down pat. They exude good humor. Their laughter is contagious. Their remarks are personal and seem directed only to you. It's that stuff Dale Carnegie shrieks about and Robinson has plenty.

Mr. Deeds nee Gary Cooper also goes to town. Being tall, he wears double-breasted clothes well. Usually he is reticent, and his remarks are short and gruff. That's his way and you take him as he is, or leave him.

And Jim Tully, x-roustabout, ex-actor (he made a picture with John Gilbert, remember?) ex-road kid. . . . Jim has crossed oceans and interviewed George Bernard Shaw and H. G. Wells. . . . He paid a visit to Oscar Wilde's grave and sat in the shadow of Notre Dame. . . . On this trip he has been busy with the Fire and Ten club, and talking over old times with his pal, Jack Dempsey, and Ned Brown. . . . Brown is the fight game's encyclopedia. When the old World was hitting morning and afternoon editions he wrote a fascinating fight column. . . . It was known as "Fardion My Glove."

Bickford is also a great friend of Tully's although Bickford is no ex-road kid. . . . He never crossed continents on railroad cattle cars and got handouts from back doors. . . . Once he made a movie which Tully wrote. . . . He and James Cagney. . . . Cagney played the role that Tully played in real life. . . . Tully thinks a lot of Jimmy Cagney.

Wallace Ford fits into this category nicely. . . . He knows the song of the singing reeds. . . . A Broadway actor who went to Hollywood and came back to Broadway in "Of Mice and Men." . . . Ford and Pat O'Brien once toured the country in a play called "Broadway." . . . And Spencer Tracy. . . . Say, there's getting to be a mess of Irishmen around here.

Robinson likes to haul his son in the bathroom each morning so the kid can watch him shave. . . . Bickford owns an island in the Atlantic on which no money is used. . . . Just a few people live there, and they share their worldly goods.

WHAT CONGRESS IS DOING

(By The Associated Press) Today Farm—House votes on crop control bill. Anti-lynching—Senator Ellender (D-La.) continues filibuster. Naval—Peace organizations oppose expanded defense program before house naval committee. Merchant Marine—Senate committee hears testimony of maritime labor leaders. Yesterday House debated farm bill amid Republican cries of "Gag." Senate heard letter from Secretary Hull denying naval "understanding" with Great Britain.

How's Your Health?

By IAGO GALDSTON, M.D. When diagnosis is delayed, or the physician confesses that he is not quite certain yet as to what is wrong, the patient sometimes suggests that an X-ray be taken.

There is magic in the X-ray, but not enough to serve in the place of the diagnostic skill and knowledge of the physician. A broken bone is easy to diagnose by means of the X-ray, for the break usually stands out clearly in the plate.

But suppose the case is one of a suspected gastric ulcer. In the X-ray taken of the gastro-intestinal tract a band of contraction may be observed in the stomach. This contraction band suggests the presence of some local irritant. It may bear witness to a gastric ulcer. On the other hand it may mean no more than the patient has an over-active imagination.

The X-ray supplies basic and valuable information which occasionally establishes diagnosis but in most instances merely serves, in combination with other findings and observations, to enable the doctor to arrive at a diagnosis.

The X-ray plate or film does not present a picture in the ordinary sense of the word, but only a series of density contrasts. No part of the body is equally dense through and through. The rays emanating from the X-ray tube pass through many superimposed layers of tissue before they reach and affect the sensitive film on the opposite side of the body part being X-rayed.

The resulting film or plate is really much more of a puzzle than a picture. An X-ray plate for that reason is read, not merely looked at. The physician must extract the meaning of the varying "densities" by his knowledge of anatomy, of the structure changes produced in certain disease processes, and also by an appreciation of the angle from which the X-ray was made.

That is why all X-rays should be taken "to order." An X-ray taken on the patient's initiative at some so-called X-ray laboratory and subsequently brought to the physician "for diagnosis" often proves utterly worthless.

Tremendous advances have been made in recent years in the utilization of the X-ray. It is now possible, with the aid of certain drugs, oils and other substances, to X-ray parts of the body which previously offered no shadow contrasts. But even with this far-reaching extension, the X-ray still remains a diagnostic aid to, and not a substitute for, the physician.

Cranium Crackers

Two men held up a filling station near a residential district one evening. Police arrested Wilbur Ayost as a suspect. His home was just seven blocks from the filling station. He admitted having been out of the house when the robbery took place, but denied having had a part in the robbery. He said:

"During the minutes the robbery was in progress, I was leaving my house for the corner delicatessen. My wife's sister was with me. As we left the house, my wife was sitting on the front porch smoking. We were out of cigarettes; hence my errand.

"My sister-in-law boarded a street car at the corner and I went into the store. As I came out I met a neighbor, Mrs. Gebhard, who accepted my invitation to come home for a chat."

Mrs. Gebhard testified: "Mrs. Trost greeted us as we came up on the porch, tossed away her smoldering cigaret and took us in the house, where she prepared a light lunch."

Police then announced that they were satisfied Trost was innocent, and released him.

WHAT CONVINCED THE POLICE THAT TROST HAD TOLD THE TRUTH? (Solution on classified page.)

8 KILLED, 6 INJURED IN AIR LINER WRECK

MARSEILLE, France, Feb. 9 (AP)—Eight persons were killed and six injured early this morning in the crash of an air France flying boat against the Marseille breakwater at the moment of the take-off.

The trans-mediterranean airliner was starting her scheduled flight to Ajaccio, Corsica, on the Marseille-Tunis run. She hurtled against the breakwater at 60-mile an hour speed, and burst into flames.

Air France announced the dead were four passengers and two of the crew. Two passengers and two of the crew were injured. All were French, including Chief Pilot Pierre Burello, veteran flier who was at the control.

Officials thought Burello probably failed to see the breakwater thru morning fog and mist. The six injured were taken from the water by rescue craft after the plane sank. Three of the bodies were recovered, and the others were being sought.

RUGGED INDIVIDUALISM OF PELICAN CRUMBLES

DENVER, Feb. 9 (AP)—City Zoo Superintendent Clyde Hill bustled around today trying to restore the self-respect of Pete the Pelican.

Pete's rugged individualism crumbled yesterday. Pete, who all winter had nagged enough fish to fill his bill—it holds as much as they say—didn't catch a single fish. The ice had been cleared from his fishing spot on City Park Lake, but Pete just ran around looking stupid. Then he showed up with the ducks and the swans for a luncheon, ending the example of self-reliance he long had set for the flock.

Hill and Keeper J. C. Mason speculated that the unreasonable spring-like weather had made Pete lonesome, and they resolved to obtain a mate for him, possibly from the St. Lake City zoo. Then, maybe, he will go back to fishing, they said.

PAMPANS PLUCK TURKS 36-21 AND LEAVE FOR PLAINVIEW, LUBBOCK

BOYS APPEAR TO BE BACK IN WINNING FORM

You could tell by the way the Harvesters came onto the court last night that they were going to mop up the floor with Coach Al Duncan's Turkey Turks, and they did—to the tune of 36 to 21.

The boys hadn't looked so good since they smashed Plainview here in the first game between the two teams weeks ago. They not only played with confidence and determination but they played, for the most part, utterly unselfishly.

Both Claude Heiskell and Bobby Andis hit the basket frequently and accurately, and thrilled the crowd with difficult shots. Norman Cox, regular center, had his one-handed push shot working. Reynolds and Dunaway starred in the defensive roles. Foster replaced Dunaway as guard a few minutes after the fourth quarter began. A couple of minutes later Mitchell sent in his second string, including Grover Lee Heiskell, Cunningham, Dull, Harrell and Brown.

Referee J. Y. Ledy called his usual good game. Pampans were assessed 13 personal fouls, and the Turks, 14. The Harvester technique of tossing charity goals had improved only slightly. They connected for 6 out of 17 chances. Turkey scored 8 out of 17. Cox missed 4, Claude Heiskell 1, Andis 1, Reynolds 2, Foster 2, Harrell 1.

The Pampa quintet led from the opening whistle. Scoring was fairly evenly divided among the players. Johnson, Turkey guard, led the Turk's offensive with 10 points.

It was rather difficult to determine whether Turkey had a good team or whether the Harvesters were playing in top form. The two clubs played at Turkey, Dec. 31 when the Harvesters won a game by two points.

The Harvesters left at noon today for Plainview where they will play tonight and tomorrow night. The next two nights they will tackle the Westerners at Lubbock. They have a chance to come out second in the Big Five league if they win three of their four games. Pampa is second in the rankings now.

Last night's game was the last the Harvesters will play in Pampa before the district tournament which begins next Thursday. Their second foe of the tournament will be Berger.

The Bulldogs of Coach Catfish Smith won the right to represent Hutchinson county in the district tournament last night by smashing Phillips 35 to 25 in the second game. The Phillips cagers lost to the Borgans last week in the first game.

Favorites to win the tournament are, in the order named: Berger, Pampa, LeFors, Panhandle, Perryton.

DIZZY ANXIOUS TO HAVE TALK WITH RICKEY

BRADENTON, Fla., Feb. 9 (AP)—Dizzy Dean broke his unaccustomed silence today to indicate that he was anxious to smoke the pipe of peace with officials of the St. Louis Cardinals—to the tune of a $20,000 contract.

That amount would represent a $5,500 reduction from the salary the hurler said he received in 1937, and is just $10,000 more than Cardinals are reported to have offered.

Dean said he had not heard from the Cards since Jan. 14, when he returned unsigned their first contract, but he expressed hope that terms could be reached without delay "because I'm anxious to go into training on the first day and get ready for a return to form."

"I'm not being stubborn about this thing," the pitcher added. "If Mr. Rickey (Branch Rickey, St. Louis vice president) invites me to meet him in St. Petersburg or anywhere else in Florida to discuss terms, I will accept."

"I don't believe my price is unfair," he continued. "When I signed last year for $25,500 it meant a raise of $3,000 for me. This year I am offering to take a cut of nearly twice that much."

The right-hander had his worst season last year, winning 11 and losing nine games. He was bothered with a sore toe, injured in the All-Star game in mid-summer.

Dizzy did not comment on the difficulties the New York Yankees are having with Joe DiMaggio and Lou Gehrig.

"That's not in my league," he said.

Armstrong Will Meet Al Citrino

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 9 (AP)—Featherweight Champion Henry Armstrong, hard-socking Los Angeles negro who has knocked out 30 of his last 31 opponents, will hook up for 10 rounds tonight with Al Citrino, sturdy San Francisco veteran.

Armstrong's title will not be at stake.

LeFors Defeats McLean In County Cage Battle

SAMPSON WILL BATTLE MORAN MONDAY NIGHT

It's coming. What's coming? Why, the wrestling match of the season. That is the meeting of Dick Sampson and Sailor Moran in a main event on Monday night at the Pampa Athletic arena.

Promoter Cliff Chambers had to talk loud and long and dangle a premium in front of the pair before he signed them on the dotted line in Amarillo. He even outbid Dutch Mantell and Sled Allen for the battle, so confident was he that the bout was what Pampa fans wanted.

Not satisfied with the main event, Chambers got the signatures of Will Bill Venable and Pasha Barium Bey on the semi-final and Art Blecher and Tex Hager on the preliminary.

Proceedings will begin as usual at 8 o'clock sharp with admission 65 cents ringside reserve, tax paid, and 40 cents general admission. Tickets will be placed on sale at Cretney Drug tomorrow.

Pampa fans will remember that the two met in a semi-final a few weeks ago and it ended in a draw. Moran had the better of the going for the first 15 minutes after which he made Sampson mad and then it was too bad for Moran the rest of the way.

Sampson showed his stuff against Bill Venable here last Monday night and earned himself the main event. Sampson will be the "white haired boy," that is if he had any hair, but he hasn't, if he can defeat "Heart Punch" Moran.

The Turk felt that he hasn't been getting tough enough opposition to strut his stuff so Chambers gave him Venable.

Hager will get a lad nearby his own weight in Art Blecher who took Bey to a draw last Monday.

Crisler May Be Man for Michigan

NEW YORK, Feb. 9 (AP)—Herbert Orrin (Fritz) Crisler, one of a half-dozen prominent football coaches who have been mentioned as successor to Harry Kipke at Michigan, may turn out to be the one man the Wolverines want.

The latest word, from authoritative sources, is that Michigan has offered new terms to the Tiger head coach and, if he has decided to accept, Crisler probably will inform the council today.

The Athletic Press learned yesterday that the status of Michigan's effort to get Crisler recently has undergone a sharp change, indicating he wanted something more than a coaching job at Michigan, where Athletic Director Fielding H. Yost will become eligible for retirement in three years.

Freddie Steele Kayoes Turner

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Feb. 9 (AP)—Brig Gen. John H. Phelan, chairman of the New York State Athletic commission, promised today an investigation of Middleweight Champion Freddie Steele's first-round knockout of Bob Turner last night.

Steele downed the Newport News, Va., fighter four times in winning the battle in two minutes and 17 seconds of the first round. It had been scheduled as a 10-round over-weight bout. Steele weighed 158 and Turner, 162, two pounds over the middleweight limit.

Phelan, who saw the bout, said he had ordered Turner's purse withheld and that the commission would start an immediate investigation.

GEHRIG VOWS HE WON'T SIGN FOR CENT LESS THAN $41,400

NEW YORK, Feb. 9 (AP)—Lou Gehrig is planted on his front porch at New Rochelle, swearing by all that's Hollywood that he won't sign with the Yankees for a cent less than $41,400—but you know that he will, eventually.

Unfortunately Lou's financial dream, even Colonel Jake Ruppert, his boss, knows you couldn't keep the "Iron Horse" off first base with a restraining order once the Yankees start their third straight world championship.

For Lou, who will be 35 next June, loves to play baseball, and he still can play it better than almost anybody, including his illustrious young teammate, Joe DiMaggio. Also he still has ahead a few of those $35,000 seasons like Colonel Ruppert offered him as a renewal of his 1937 contract, and that's good money when the average bank isn't advertising for a president.

He said, after butting heads with Ruppert yesterday, that he wouldn't even go to Florida next month unless the colonel came through, but nobody believed him.

Young Star

Starting young is Bobby Roseburg, shown practicing for the San Francisco match play championship, Feb. 9-13. Bobby, 11, picked up a golf club as soon as he could walk and now shoots in the low 80s. His father, Dr. A. H. Roseburg, also is entered in the tournament.

SHREVEPORT DECIDES TO BUY FRANCHISE

SHREVEPORT, La., Feb. 9 (AP)—Announcement was made today that Shreveport had exercised its option to purchase the Galveston baseball franchise of the Texas League.

Henry O'Neal, president of the Chamber of Commerce which sponsored the undertaking, said that J. Walter Morris, representing Shreveport interests, will leave here tonight for Galveston with a certified check for $23,000, the amount of the purchase price.

Galveston interests were advised this forenoon that Shreveport would take up the option.

"We're in," Mr. O'Neal said after a check-up this morning showed that the necessary finances had been subscribed or had been arranged for. The local interests raised $40,000 and the league will grant a loan of $20,000 to help finance the project. It has also agreed to sell to Shreveport for $16,000 the ball park site which the league owns.

The drive here has been under way for a month and options on the purchase were extended three times. It is planned to organize a corporation, build a concrete and steel grandstand seating 4,000 and install lights for night baseball.

Track Meet Draws 32 College Teams

NEW YORK, Feb. 9 (AP)—Columbia, led by Ben Johnson, top negro sprinter, will defend its I. C. 4-A indoor track and field championship against about 32 other college squads at Madison Square Garden, Mar. 5.

Notice of the close of entries on Feb. 18 has been sent to the 46 members of the Intercollegiate A. A. A. No entries from the Pacific coast members are expected, however, as they never have participated in the indoor meet.

Princeton, Manhattan, Dartmouth, Syracuse, Yale, Rhode Island, Harvard and New York U., who finished in that order after the light Blue last year will probably be on hand again plus a strong entry from Pittsburgh.

even so to Florida next month unless the colonel came through, but nobody believed him.

"This guy has played 1,965 straight games up to now," said some one aside, "and I'd like to see anybody keep him from making it 2,000, without using a gun."

Looking at Lou, it's difficult to realize he's been around the big time for 13 seasons and has seen nearly a whole generation of players come and go. Almost all those who were drawing their checks the day Gehrig took over from Wally Pipp in 1925 are gone, yet Lou has shown no sign of slowing up.

He never has been a wise guy, and admits it frankly. He told yesterday how they framed him in Hollywood, putting on a fake gun fight between a couple of extras for his benefit. Lou admitted he tried to separate them before the guns started roaring.

"My face was white as a sheet when that guy went down."

BORGER WINS COUNTY TITLE

Borger's Bulldogs will represent Hutchinson county in the district basketball tournament here on Feb. 17-19. Last night the boys of Catfish Smith defeated Phillips of Whittsburg 35 to 25 for the county championship.

The Bulldogs had to come from behind to win, Phillips having a 12 to 11 lead at the half. Borger took command, 27 to 16, at the three quarter mark and was never headed.

Kendrick paced the Bulldog scorers with 12 points, followed by Barron with none and Dye with eight. Huth was high scorer for Phillips with seven points.

Tonight Borger will face a strengthened Amarillo quintet.

Charlie Sprague To Captain SMU Football Team

DALLAS, Feb. 9 (AP)—Charlie Sprague, the last of a quartette of football playing Spragues, will captain Southern Methodist University through its ten-game grid schedule this year.

Teammates elected Charlie yesterday, at the same time naming Eilly Dewell, an end, and Johnny Stidger, a half back, as sub-captains. Sprague is a tackle. All three will be seniors.

Eward and Johnny Sprague, Charlie's brothers, led the Methodists in 1932 and 1936, respectively. Another brother, Mortimer, captained the U. S. Military Academy eleven in 1928.

TONY GALENTO WILL STICK TO HIS BAR ROOM

ORANGE, N. J., Feb. 9 (AP)—Two-Ton Tony Galento made a wry face today as he washed down a six-course breakfast with a quart of grade-A, and his mouthpiece vowed the Jersey water buffalo would never go to one of those dude training camps—not even if it meant calling off his fight with Harry Thomas at Madison Square Garden.

Tony tried to appease his New York Boxing commission critics by switching from beer to milk—he tonight posed for pictures linking heart-shaped raspberry lollypops and reading bed-time stories—but he has his own ideas of how to train and can't see the sense of changing.

So out went the pederous beer and spaghetti hall proprietor with Trainer Jimmy Frain for road work—and the folks in the lowlands thought they heard thunder as Tony lumbered through the Orange hills.

"Baloney," said Trainer Frain to Promoter Mike Jacobs' ukase that Tony start training—not later than today—at Madame Bey's camp at Summit or forfeit the chance to brawl with Thomas at the Garden come a week Friday.

Jacobs laid down the law when he heard the New York Boxing solons would withdraw their O.K. of the bout unless Galento, who likes to train in his barroom and a local gym, went into a daily camp routine.

"There's nothing wrong with this training—a 100-yard run, a little rest, and then a 100-yard walk," said Trainer Frain.

Eight Champion Boxers Crowned At Amarillo

By HARRY E. HOARE Pampa News Sports Editor

AMARILLO, Feb. 9—Champions can repeat it was shown here last night when two-headed Rex Daniels won the welterweight division and G. B. Mann took the featherweight division in the Amarillo Golden Gloves boxing tournament sponsored by the Amarillo News Globe.

Eight winners were crowned and will go to Fort Worth Feb. 17 where they will participate in a state tournament with eight champions from the Pampa tournament, and with winners from 12 other sections of the state.

Four losers in the Pampa tournament entered in Amarillo and went home without titles. Harry McMahon, Pampa, Mack Wingate, White Deer, and Bob Gaiser, Borger, went out the first night. Adrian White, Borger, lost the bantamweight title to Floyd Bright of Amarillo last night in an unpopular decision which was loudly booed by a packed arena.

The hit of the evening was made by Deahl Howe of Panhandle who captured the flyweight title by sending his 112 pounds of fighting heart after Willburn Johnson of Amarillo to win by a knockout. Howe attended the Pampa tournament twice, went home and trained for three days and entered the Amarillo tourney. He is a southpaw with a nice cross.

Daniels Comes Through Rex Daniels lost his head in the semi-final and nearly lost the bout when he tried for a knockout after piling up a nice lead. He didn't make the same mistake in the final to defeat Darrell White of Clovis in a close decision.

Earl Brown of Adrian staged a great comeback to defeat James Barron of Canyon for the middleweight title and Jim Foust of Canyon kayoed George Dodson of Sunray to become the light heavyweight champion.

Dodson went to the finals when it was learned that Chick Moore of Amarillo was really Deibert Kock of Dalhart which caused him to be ruled from the tournament. The A. A. U. rules declare that a boxer entering under an assumed name is ineligible to compete.

Bill Sanderson, crouching Amarillo heavyweight, slipped a right that traveled about nine inches against the unprotected chin of Calbert Barron of Canyon to take the heavyweight title.

Amarillo winners who will travel to Fort Worth are: Flyweight—Deahl Howe, Panhandle; Bantamweight—Floyd Bright, Amarillo; Featherweight—G. B. Mann, Amarillo, district champion here last year; Lightweight—Ray Cox, West Texas State, Canyon.

Welterweight—Rex Daniels, Amarillo, district champion here last year from Goodnight; Middleweight—Earl Brown, Adrian; Light heavyweight—Jim Foust, West Texas State; Heavyweight—Bill Sanderson, Amarillo.

The army is seeking more college men between 20 and 26 years old for service as flying cadets.

Calotabs Help Nature To Throw Off a Cold

Millions have found in Calotabs a most valuable aid in the treatment of colds. They take one or two tablets the first night and repeat the third or fourth night if needed.

How do Calotabs help nature throw off a cold? First, Calotabs are one of the most thorough and dependable of all intestinal eliminants, thus cleansing the intestinal tract of the virus-laden mucus and toxins. Second, Calotabs are diuretic to the kidneys, promoting the elimination of cold poisons from the blood. Thus Calotabs serve the double purpose of a purgative and diuretic, both of which are needed in the treatment of colds.

Calotabs are quite economical; only twenty-five cents for the family package, ten cents for the trial package.—(adv.)

200 Golfers Tee Off in Tourney

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 9 (AP)—Tackling one of the toughest courses on their winter tournament swing, nearly 200 of the country's leading professional golfers tee off today in the first 18 hole qualifying round of the eighth annual $5,000 San Francisco match play open.

The 6,781-yard San Francisco golf club layout, with 152 traps, was a stern challenge to the touring pros, even in perfect weather, and rain left the turf soggy.

Another 18-hole qualifying round will be played tomorrow and the 32 remaining in the field will go into the 18-hole match play rounds Friday. The winner will receive $1,000.

One of the hot pre-tournament favorites was Defending Champion Lawson Little of San Francisco. Sharpest contenders for Little's crown included Johnny Revolta of Evanston, Ill., Jimmy Thompson of Shawnee-on-the-Deleware, Pa., Henry Picard of Hershey, Pa., and Harry Cooper of Chicopee, Mass.

250 MILLIONS PROPOSED FOR RELIEF NEEDS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9 (AP)—Estimates of additional work relief funds which President Roosevelt soon may recommend ranged today from $250,000,000 to $500,000,000.

The money, if the President decides to ask Congress for it, will be used to supplement the $497,000,000 already available to the Works Progress Administration up to June 30.

Aubrey Williams, assistant WPA director, was understood to have proposed the $250,000,000 figure in discussions with congressional leaders. He conferred yesterday with Mr. Roosevelt, Secretary Morgenthau, and Acting Budget Director Bell.

Midwest mayors who visited the White House yesterday urged the President to request $400,000,000. They told him that about a million persons should be added to the nearly 2,000,000 now on WPA rolls.

A group of house liberals told Mr. Roosevelt Monday that the need for additional funds might run as high as $500,000,000.

The President told reporters he was studying the relief subject from the point of view of relieving human needs rather than one of business pump-priming. He indicated he expected to have something definite to say in the next few days.

WPA officials disclosed that present WPA plans, based on current funds, call for a peak load of just under 2,000,000 this month and then a gradual reduction to 1,500,000 by June 30. Last year on Feb. 27 there were 2,145,562 persons on the rolls.

FFA Chapter to Have Father-Son Banquet

McLEAN, Feb. 9.—Attendance at the Father-and-Son banquet of the McLean chapter of the Future Farmers of America, to be held February 17, is expected to be 125.

The program will give under the direction of Clyde Magee. Meat for the banquet will be donated by George W. Sitter, who will give the McLean chapter a calf.

McLean's Fat Calf and Colt show will be presented in McLean on February 19. The event is sponsored by the Future Farmers of America and the McLean Chamber of Commerce.

Four counties, Gray, Wheeler, Donley, and Collingsworth will vie for premiums in the 30 calves and 50 horse and mule colts that will be exhibited.

The president of the Pampa district of the Future Farmers of America, Kid McCoy Jr. of McLean, Saturday, presided at the district meeting held in Claude, when ten teams were entered in a livestock judging contest. First place went to Miami, Canadian was second, third place was won by McLean. Panhandle was fourth, and White Deer fifth.

A business meeting was held after a barbecue dinner. Topics discussed were: ways and means of F. F. A. members earning merit certificates. The need of more F. F. A. publicity. Sponsorship of F. F. A. day and parade at the Amarillo Fat Stock show.

Says Producer-Husband Was Cruel

The years have been kind to Justine Johnstone, pictured at left as she was in 1920—famous Ziegfeld beauty, idol of college boys and one of the most photographed show girls in the world—and shown above as she appears now, smart, well-dressed, still lovely. But if the years are kind, her husband, Walter Wanger, film producer with her in the upper photo, has not been, the former stage beauty charged in a divorce suit. After instituting the suit, based on cruelty allegations, Mrs. Wanger left for an extended tour of South America, leaving everything up to her attorneys. The Justine Johnstone of the Follies became equally famous as a play actress. She fought a court battle when she was ousted from the role of "Hush Money" in 1926 and in later years was hailed for her sponsorship of cancer research. Wanger, her husband for 18 years, is one of Hollywood's leading producers. Gossip has linked his name, lately, with that of blond Joan Bennett, recently divorced.

WHAT DALHART PEOPLE WROTE ABOUT SYPHILIS BLOOD TEST

(Joining a nation-wide campaign against social diseases, the Dalhart Texan offered a $5 prize to the best letter written by an adult on "Why Everyone Should be Compelled to Take the Wasserman Test." Published below are a few of the letters received to date. More opinions on this vital subject are urgently wanted for publication, the letters to be signed or unsigned as the writer wishes.)

Dear Editor:

In the February first issue of the Texan you stated you had received no answer to "Why People Should Receive Wasserman Test."

I believe that all persons should receive this test, for the safeguarding of their own and posterity's health. And that it should be given during childhood—even as the small pox (diphtheria and typhoid serums are given children in school.

It must of necessity become a national program, and be taken as seriously as the T. B. test among cattle. The funds to carry on this work in all probability will have to be assumed by the states and the nation.

It will be just as necessary, and more so, that the general public receive this test since the disease which is causing the need of this test, is so easily scattered.

Syphilis and its more terrible partner gonorrhea—the effects of which make people who know the results of such diseases shudder, must both come under the national fight for clearing our land of these terrible diseases.

Our schools will of necessity need to take up the teaching of social purity and educate our young from the home, in moral culture.

A co-worker in that which will make for the betterment of humanity and the eradication of social diseases.

MRS. A. E. ALKIRE.

Dear Editor:

You can do nothing to bring the dead to life, but you can do much to save the living from death.—Library of Health.

Not only has science proven to us the many ways in which the venereal diseases destroy our babies, causing blindness, deformities, insanity, and worse of all fatality.

But best of all, science has proven to us these diseases can be stamped out by cooperating with their discovery.

Not only may syphilis descend to offspring upon the fourth and fifth generation, but may be conveyed in so many ways that it is almost impossible to give them in detail.

Instead of realizing the true cause of their weakness, lay the blame onto some minor ailment, neglecting the right kind of treatment.

Especially those contracting the disease innocently would naturally neglect themselves in the treatment of the early stage.

Ignorance of the seriousness from the results of these diseases cause people to neglect the early treatment they should have. Therefore should be forced to submit to the Wasserman test.

Respectfully,
Mrs. Ethel Ford.

GAINESVILLE CIRCUS FOLK BEGIN STUNTS

GAINESVILLE, Feb. 9 (AP)—Mr. Groundhog may or may not have seen his shadow this year, but Gainesville citizens know spring is just around the corner.

On a backyard trapeze bars at the fair grounds and in a vacant building, two score Gainesville citizens, star performers of the Gainesville Community circus, are ironing out kinks in muscles and trying new "death-defying" stunts for the opening of the unique community show early in April.

Men and women, boys and girls, who joined the circus a few years ago because it was a novelty, confess they have the circus fever in their blood now, and try as they may they cannot resist the urge to try new tricks on the tight wire, the teeterboard or a galloping bareback horse.

The case of little Doris Marie Norman, seven-year-old aerialist, is an example. Doris Marie has performed her "high trapeze without a safety net" for two years. At the close of last season her father, Ted Norman, automobile salesman, decided Doris Marie's circus career was over.

"It unnerved me," Norman said, "every time she climbed up to her trapeze and started doing somersaults and hanging by her heels. So I told my wife we would try to interest her in tap dancing instead of the circus."

When circus rehearsals were called early in January the Norman family went into conference, and Doris Marie emerged the victor. Now she is learning to tap dance on a big rolling globe, in addition to her trapeze gyrations.

Learns to Balance.

Her case is typical of that of Geraldine Murrell, the department store saleswoman, who thinks she will quit at the end of each season, but the new year finds her trying something more difficult in circus tricks. Mrs. Murrell has been in the circus since it was started in 1930, as an extra activity of the Little Theater. This year, as a new turn, she is learning to balance on the top of a 25-foot perch pole, supported by Vern Brewer, truck line operator, who also trains animals for the circus.

Newcomers this year include the Kaps sisters, 15-year-old twin beauties, who are learning to hang by their teeth for the "slide of life." That offers a new problem for A. Morton Smith, founder of the circus, and big top announcer, for when he announces the slide for life, he won't know whether it is Imogene or Ernestine climbing the center pole to do her turn. Outside the ring, Smith is a newspaper editor.

The circus is going to be "bigger and better" than ever says Leon M. Gilmore, circus president and ringmaster, who has just acquired a 10-gallon hat and lion's tooth watch charm, that he may look the part.

"This year," he says, "instead of single and double trapeze acts we have a quintuple trapeze number. There are four rolling globe artists where there were two before. We have seven people in our teeterboard acrobatic act, against five last year. In fact, there will be 25 more performers than we have had before."

Circus Has Trainers.

To train the performers, the circus employed Mr. and Mrs. Albert Conner and son, Jimmy, veteran circus artists. Afternoon and evening they put housewives, business men, clerks, school teachers, railroad employes, telegraph messengers, telephone linemen, lawyers, doctors, and other Gainesville citizens through their acts.

At the fair grounds, Vern Brewer and Portis Sims are training ponies, horses, dogs, monkeys and mules, to do new acts. The star performer of the animal contingent is Dexter, two-year-old dog named for the late press agent of the circus world, Dexter Fellows.

Not only is Dexter acting a bareback riding act on a Shetland pony and diving from a high tower, but has learned to sing. The discovery was made when his owner, Alex Murrell, played a harmonica.

Now Dexter sings each time he hears "Turkey in the Straw."

PROMISING OIL COMPANY WOULD DRILL WELL ON PIKE'S PEAK WHEN IT IS MOVED TO TEXAS

COLORADO, Feb. 9 (AP)—An offer to lease Pike's Peak for oil and gas exploration, and "drill a well at least 50,000 feet deep," has been made Governor James V. Alford by the Promising Oil Company of Colorado, Texas.

The mountain recently was acquired by the governor of Texas by winning a football wager from the governor of Colorado, but so far only one piece of rock has been delivered to Alford.

Should the offer be accepted the "company" would agree "to pay the governor a 5/8th overriding royalty interest to be applied to the old age pension fund, thereby alleviating the state's major financial headache."

"We are going to spud in this test as soon as Governor Alford completes moving his Pike's Peak acreage into Texas," President R. T. Dockrey and General Counsel Harry Ratliff of the Promising Oil Company said. "Since we know this is going to be a tough job we have promised to pay a $1 per year delay rental until the post is transferred to its new location." Ratliff explained.

It was suggested the governor move Pike's Peak to Colorado, Texas, and place it on the eastern rim of the Permian Basin. "We need some oil on this side in order to balance the amount taken out on the west-side of the basin," a business leader said.

The Promising Oil Company, organized at a barbecue Aug. 1, 1936, is Colorado's newest industrial enterprise. Thirty-five business men, cattlemen, and oil men of Colorado, Big Spring, San Angelo and Midland are vaguely known as "stockholders" although "company" officials deny it has common or preferred stock. "They claim the Promising Oil Company is neither a corporation or a partnership; that it has no capital, no assets or off-sets, futures, especially in things of the distant future."

The company has headquarters in a room surrounded by office of professional men, oil officials and cattlemen. The equipment, all borrowed from members, consists of a domino table, a set of dominoes, several chairs, and a table bearing second hand copies of the "Oil Weekly" and the "Oil and Gas Journal." The official records, consisting of a ledger, an almanac and a fish calendar, are kept in the nearby office of the general counsel, who acts as the chief oracle of the organization, or whatever it is.

The Promising Oil Company started its career by promising to pay the janitor for cleaning its domino preserve and is still promising to do so. Then it bought an oil lease adjacent to a wildcat test and promised to pay for the lease but the hole came in dry before the promise could be fulfilled. Since then the "company" has made a lot of promises, which it promises to make good.

The funds of the company are raised by staging a barbecue and charging each member $5 a plate, which all promise to pay. The surplus—if any—is used to buy oil leases in unproved territory, because that is the only kind it can afford to buy. So far it has purchased two oil leases on which its

CROP CONTROL ASSAILED BY REPUBLICANS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9 (AP)—Amid confident predictions of Democratic leaders that the house would approve the crop control bill, Rep. Short (R., Mo.) declared today that proponents would be demanding its repeal in two years.

"This bill is going to do more to destroy the Democratic party and bring the Republicans back into power than anything else," said Short. "That's the only comforting thing in this whole sad mess."

Short was among a score of Republicans—and some Democrats—who criticized the complicated legislation before the final vote, expected this afternoon.

These opponents objected to specific sections of the measure as well as to the basic principle of an "ever-normal" granary through farmer-approved marketing controls.

Rep. Coffee (D. Neb.), speaking during yesterday's debate, called the bill "ill-advised, unsound and impractical" and worse than the original house version. Rep. Andresen (R., Minn.) said it would lead to regimentation and compulsory control by a "bureaucratic dictator."

Chairman Marvin Jones (D., Tex.) of the house agriculture committee and other leading proponents of the crop control program declined for the most part to be drawn into debate with the opposition. Jones described it as a "good measure" and a "great step forward."

While the farm bill held the attention of the house, Senator Ellender (D., La.) resumed the anti-lynching filibuster in the other chamber. The senate probably will take up the farm bill tomorrow.

Democratic Leader Barkley of Kentucky hinted that another attempt might be made to stop the anti-lynching filibuster by invoking the drastic cloture rule to limit debate. The senate voted down that proposal two weeks ago.

JUDGE EWING GRANTS FOUR DIVORCE DECREES

Divorces were granted by Judge W. R. Ewing in four of six judgments filed since Saturday in 31st district court.

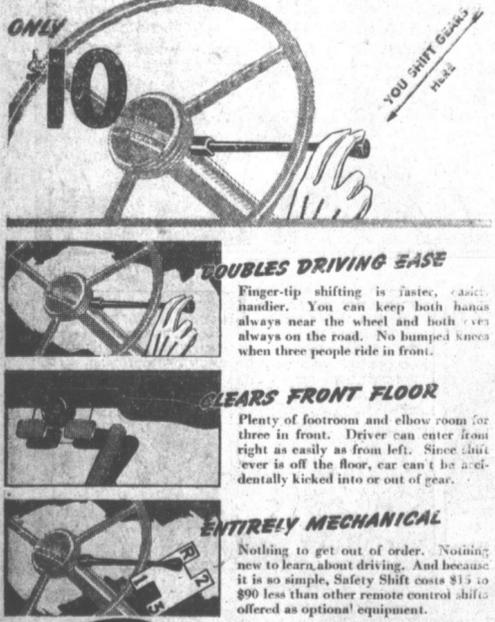

Divorces were granted in these cases: Elisha H. Jackson vs. Nora Jackson; Donald Leon Vandover vs. May Ruth Vandover; John Ladd vs. Fannie Ladd; and Laura Ballard vs. R. L. Ballard.

In another judgment, plaintiff recovered $500 in the suit styled J. Caddy Norris, receiver, National Indemnity Underwriters of America vs. Mrs. Mary Lorene Leith, widow, and Rita Marlene Leith, a minor.

A writ of garnishment filed against the Phillips Petroleum Co. was dismissed in the case of John Fehl et al. plaintiff, vs. J. M. McDonald et al. defendant, Phillips Petroleum Company, garnishee.

Bleaching Stubbren Stains
Chocolate or cocoa stains will disappear from washable materials with a little soap and hot water. If they become stubborn however, and there are still some traces of brown coloring, they can be bleached out with hydrogen peroxide. Non-washable materials should be sponged with clear water, and then the grease spot which is left can be removed with a grease solvent such as naphtha.

1,482 PAGES REQUIRED TO RECORD 1931 TRIAL

When lawyers have a case that requires 11 days to try, they can use a lot of words, as evidenced by a record of the testimony in a case heard in 31st district court here during the September term of 1931.

To record the case required the compilation of two volumes, one numbering 728 pages, the other 754 pages, a total of 1,482 pages.

The case was that of the Continental Supply company vs. Forrest E. Gilmore company et al, with liens as the issue. Among the lawyers participating were W. M. Leight, formerly of Pampa, now of Corpus Christi, B. L. Parker, Pampa, John A. Haver, Tulsa, Fischer and Fischer, Amarillo.

Exceeding even the document on the Agey-Barnard case, heard last term in district court here, the 1931 record is the largest that has ever been compiled from a case in district court here, according to district court officials.

For Love of Polly

Yesterday, Jerry plans to aid Polly's escape from England, for he is thoroughly in love with her. They are to flee across the English Channel in a smuggler's boat.

CHAPTER VI

OLD Oliver Dart did not always sit in his study. Often his withered legs took him through the streets on long walks—sometimes down to the waterfront where, looking at sailors and ships, he was pleasurably reminded of the time when his warehouse used to ship tea to the colonies.

It was not to remind himself of other days, however, that he went out for an errand regarding one Jerry Whitfield, American seaman, who had visited him in his study last night.

"A bully!" he muttered. "An upstart! An enemy to England! An hour later old Dart, who knew his river front, was seated in a mean tavern that smelled of the sea and bad rum. The clothes he wore (he had borrowed them from his porter) did not betray him as a man of property, and so he could sit unmolested in a corner, pretending to sip grog while studying his fellow men. When he finally spied a large man with a torn ear and a broken nose, carelessly mended, he beckoned to him.

"When the man arrived he said to him, 'Sit with me, friend. I'll buy you grog' and he drew up a stool invitingly.

After the second glass of hot watered rum had been downed by his new acquaintance, Oliver Dart tested his strength. 'I'll wager you're the best man the press-gang's got! With your muscles, now, and your chest.'

The torn-eared one did not deny his calling. In fact, he clarified it. "Never a man I've been set on as ever got away from me," he stated with professional pride.

"We're like that!" Jerry answered, holding up two parallel fingers. "Tomorrow morning you and I leave for Dover by coach. We'll stay the night there. The following morning we start toward Deal... Somewhere short of Deal there's a wretched fishing village where this smuggler puts in before stopping at his cove. Further on... Well, I've got our instructions, and it's going to cost us five pounds each to be carried across the Channel."

"It seems dear," Polly said, calculating the equivalent in American money. "About twenty-five dollars, isn't it?" She had barely fifty dollars to her name and she knew Jerry had less. "He may even raise his price in mid-channel, Jerry," she speculated with concern.

"You can count on me keeping him to his bargain, Polly. Just rely on me and don't worry. The Channel's narrow. Once we reach France, we're safe. We'll be in time to catch Tim Chenev's ship at Cherbourg. Then, home, Polly! Home! Do you realize what that means?"

"It's going to mean more to me than it's ever meant before," Polly said. Then she confided, quite without self-consciousness, "I'm going to be proud, Jerry, showing you off in Lyme! There's a Mrs. Pell there with three handsome daughters, all well married, who can never remember to ask me to any parties except sewing circles. It used to anger me when I was young and foolish."

"What are you now?" Jerry asked tenderly. "Aren't you just 18?"

Polly laughed. "Yes, but I've learned wisdom and patience early. It used to hurt me, seeing the other Lyme girls' my age going to Seminary and embroidering samplers at the front window while I had to study at home with Dick and roughen my hands scrubbing floors and kettles.... Yes, and helping my father mend fish nets and sails."

"My poor Polly! And you with as good blood as the finest of them!"

"I'm not bitter about it!" declared Polly honestly. "Never a night's passed but I've thanked God I was able to take my mother's place. But Jerry, I WILL be proud to walk down the street of Lyme on your arm and introduce my husband to Mrs. Pell!"

Jerry felt that he loved Polly Chenev more deeply with each new revelation of herself. She was complex and full of infinite variety. Though mature in body and dignity, her shining youth darted out at times in ways as amusing as this childish feud with Mrs. Pell, the village snob who had hurt her.

"I must try to make it up to her," Jerry told himself.

Ambition stirred him. The thought, "A ship of my own!" rang through his mind like a clarion call. But first there was this war. One's country came first. One's flag before one's sweetheart....

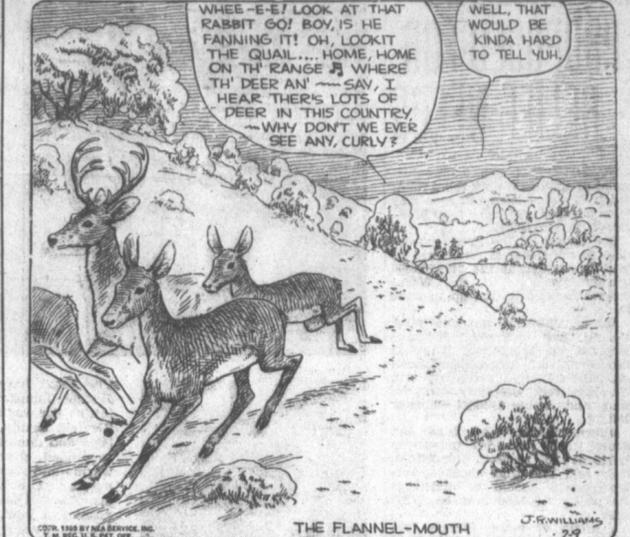

They went into the public room now and had braised beef for dinner, because it was cheaper than guinea fowl, and even Jerry, the munificer, had begun to count pennies.

GERMANY ASSURED OF AMPLE HELIUM SUPPLY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9 (AP)—Germany was assured today of an ample supply of helium for her new trans-Atlantic zeppelin, the state department having granted a license for the export of 2,600,000 cubic feet of gas.

The zeppelin, now known as the LZ-130, will make its first trip to the United States in June.

The state department also announced war materials purchases for January, showing that Argentina led the list by buying $2,462,003 worth, almost entirely in airplanes. She was followed in order by the Netherlands, Poland, Japan, Rumania, Soviet Russia and China.

GOV. TINGLEY TO RIDE HORSE 16 HANDS HIGH

SANTA FE, N. M., Feb. 9 (AP)—Note to Governor Alired of Texas: Gov. Clyde Tingley has a horse and he rides a step-ladder, not a surcingle.

The Governor, engaged in a long wordy tilt with the Texas Executive Council, announced he has a horse 16 hands high to ride in the Amarillo Mother-in-Law Day parade, and is taking no chances on "the kind of horse Texas might provide."

The horse was offered by C. T. Hittson of Tucumcari, who wrote: "The horse is over 16 hands high, so high in fact that anyone needs a ladder to get on him. We want to be sure that Governor Alired will have to look up to you in the parade. Those Texans might put you on a burro or a wild bronco if we left it to them."

Governor Alired, accepting Tingley's "invitation" to the ride in the Amarillo parade, offered to provide a surcingle for Tingley if the New Mexico Governor would ride.

Y. W. A. Studies Missionary Work

McLEAN, Feb. 9—Y. W. A. of McLean met Monday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Cobb under the sponsorship of Mrs. Haskell Lassiter.

Lectures of missionary work was the main topic of the evening, given by Ermadell Floyd, Marrietta Young, Julia McCarty, Willie Louise Cobb, Georgia Colebank, Leona Humphries, and Wanda Estes. Plans were also made for an entertainment on February 14. Songs were sung by the group with the hostess, Willie Louise Cobb at the piano and Julia McCarty, song leader. After the program the girls made candy and popped pop corn.

Present were Velma Mann, Opal Thacker, Mabel Back, Ruth Thacker, Irene Jordan, Margaret Kennedy, Naomi Gunn, Dorothy Sue Young, and those mentioned above.

At Stormy Session of Small Business Men's Conference

Prolonged and stormy was the session when 1000 small business men and women went to Washington to formulate an economic program to present to President Roosevelt. They all had their own ideas about the program—and they all wanted to talk about them. Biggest job of conference leaders was to maintain order. Prominent at the slip-slap opening session were, left to right above, Ernest G. Draper, assistant secretary of commerce, Fred Roth of Cleveland, chairman of the conference; Secretary of Commerce Daniel C. Roper; and A. S. Shafer, Philadelphia contractor. Draper is pictured as he called for the rising vote which elected Roth. Roper is shown attempting to restore order during the election of the chairman. The photo on the right shows a Department of Commerce guard leading Shafer away from the speakers' platform when Shafer insisted on talking more than the five minutes allotted him. He later returned and delivered his 20-minute address to an empty hall.

Five Dionnes Become Snow Sprites in Canada

(Copyright, 1938, NEA Service, Inc.)

Five laughing little snow-maidens these wintry days are the Dionne quintuplets. Fur collars turned up around their necks, woolen helmets tight on their heads, they are ready for frolic every time snow fills the air. That's Emilie, smiling at left, then grave Yvonne, and Marie grinning broadly in the center. Annette is the quizzical one who comes next, and that's Cecile who rolls such a roguish pair of eyes at right.

Christian Scientists Accused in Girl's Death

Charging that his diabetic 10-year-old daughter died because she failed to receive insulin treatments, Edward W. Whitney, former Detroit insurance adjuster, obtained manslaughter warrants in Chicago against the child's aunt and two Christian Science practitioners. The warrants named Mrs. Mary Lou Gien, the aunt, and William F. Rubert and a Mrs. Lonergan, practitioners. Whitney told Judge Oscar S. Caplan that his daughter, Audrey Kay Whitney, above at left, died Dec. 15 while in Chicago visiting Mrs. Gien. The picture on the right shows the stricken survivors, Whitney, his wife, Lois, and their 2-year-old son.

Gets Death

George Wells, 21, sits impassively—awaiting death by the electric chair—in Akron, O., after being found guilty of murdering a restaurant operator during a holdup last December. An 18-year-old friend, Roger Kegg, also was convicted but got a life prison sentence.

Ooops! Not So Easy, After All

(Copyright, 1938, NEA Service, Inc.)

But "pride goeth before a fall," and now something is all tangled up with those big flat snowshoes! Emilie stumbles, and is just in the midst of taking a header into a snowdrift as the camera clicks. And so winds up another winter adventure!

Just Waiting a Shove

(Copyright, 1938, NEA Service, Inc.)

Here we are, all ready to go! Just room for two on the toboggan, and Marie puts her arms around Annette so she won't fall off when they start whizzing downward. The little toboggans are light to pull or carry, and have brought thrills and joy to the winter sports season at Dionneville.

Society's 'Most-Sought Girl'

High social position and great wealth were linked in society columns upon the announcement of the engagement of Miss Marguerite (Peggy) Sykes, above, and Walter P. Chrysler, Jr., heir to the great automobile fortune. The bride-to-be was called the "prettiest debutante of her season" when she was introduced to New York society.

First to Buy Farm Thru Loan

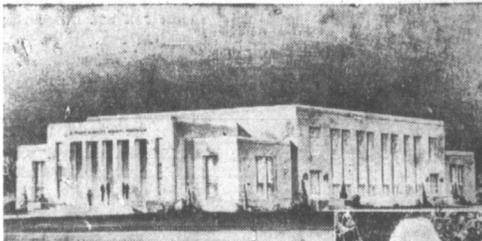

A neighbor of Senator John H. Bankhead, Wiley J. Langley, pictured here with an armful of kindling wood, has been selected as the first tenant to buy a farm with government money provided under the Bankhead-Jones farm tenant bill. The Farm Security Administration, which will administer the tenant act, announced that Senator Lester Hill of Alabama would present Langley, who has a family of nine, with a check for $3800 at a ceremony on the Bankhead farm Feb. 12. Under the act it is planned to aid 15,000 farmers annually in purchasing farms.

Kicking Against Silkless Society

Washington saw its biggest "leg show" of the year when 300 Philadelphia hosiery workers marched up Constitution avenue swinging silk-clad ankles, as shown here, to protest a Japanese silk boycott sponsored by the capital's society strata. While the debutantes held a "Life Without Silk" fashion show, the hosiery workers took their case to the White House. They pointed out that a boycott on Japan could close 130,000 jobs, since nearly all silk stockings are made in United States.

Memorial to Noted Detective

Above is an architect's drawing of the proposed $40,000 gymnasium, which Cotton Center, Texas, hopes to erect and dedicate as a memorial to J. Frank Norfleet, noted West Texas detective. Funds are being solicited now by a memorial association, chartered by the State of Texas, for the school annex. J. C. White, Cotton Center, is treasurer of the association. He reports numerous contributions have been received to date for the building. Many of them have been anonymous.

Inset picture is of Norfleet, who, in 1917, set out to round up a gang of swindlers who fleeced him of $45,000. He was successful in his chase, rounding up all seven men and placing them behind bars. Since then, he has been employed by numerous other victims of swindlers—and has been successful in bringing to justice more than 100 operators of son games, rackets and other swindle schemes. The memorial building will be erected on a site just a few yards from the original Norfleet ranch.

Hunting Boar, No Bore

Wild boar hunting in the rugged interior of Santa Catalina Island offers many a thrill for sportsmen. Note the bristly hair and long snout on this nice tusker and the proud smile on the face of the lucky nimrod, Dr. Robert Kennedy of Hollywood. The boar is a young one and will make a tasty roast.

As Navy Massed Dreadnaughts for Pacific Maneuvers

These warships riding at anchor inside the newly constructed 12,500-foot Los Angeles breakwater were among the 98 units of the U. S. battlefleet assembled for the first tactical maneuvers to be conducted under the direction of the new fleet commander, Admiral Claude C. Bloch. War games in the Alaska-Hawaii-California triangle in the Pacific are to be continued for six weeks by the navy.
