74 DEAD, 31 MISSING IN STORM

TWENTY-ONE RUSSIANS VIE TO 'TELL ALL'

MOSCOW, March 4 (AP)—A plot to seize the Kremlin and kill Joseph Stalin and other Soviet leaders in May, 1937, with Marshal Mikhail N. Tukhachevsky as leader, was described today by one of the 21 defendants in Moscow's great blood purge trial.

Marshal Tukhachevsky was one of eight leaders of the red army court-martialed and executed as traitors on June 13, shortly after the alleged plot was to have been carried out.

O. P. Rosenboltz, former Commissioner of foreign trade and one of 21 fallen Russians on trial accused of treason and murder, told of the intrigue during the trial's third day.

Unsuccessful attempts to invoke British aid to separate middle Asia from the Soviet union through armed revolt were described by Pysulula Khodjajeff, one of 21 defendants.

Khodjajeff, confessed leader of a separatist movement, once was President of the Uzbek Soviet Republic in central Asia and is a nephew of the late Emir of Bokhara.

He testified that Uzbek nationalists trained leaders for insurrection by sending young boys to Germany and Turkey to be educated.

His testimony followed confessions of intrigue with the Polish central staff and a plot to assassinate the Soviet union's War Commissar, all broadening the pattern of the admitted conspiracies of the 21 accused as traitors, murderers and spies against the U. S. S. R.

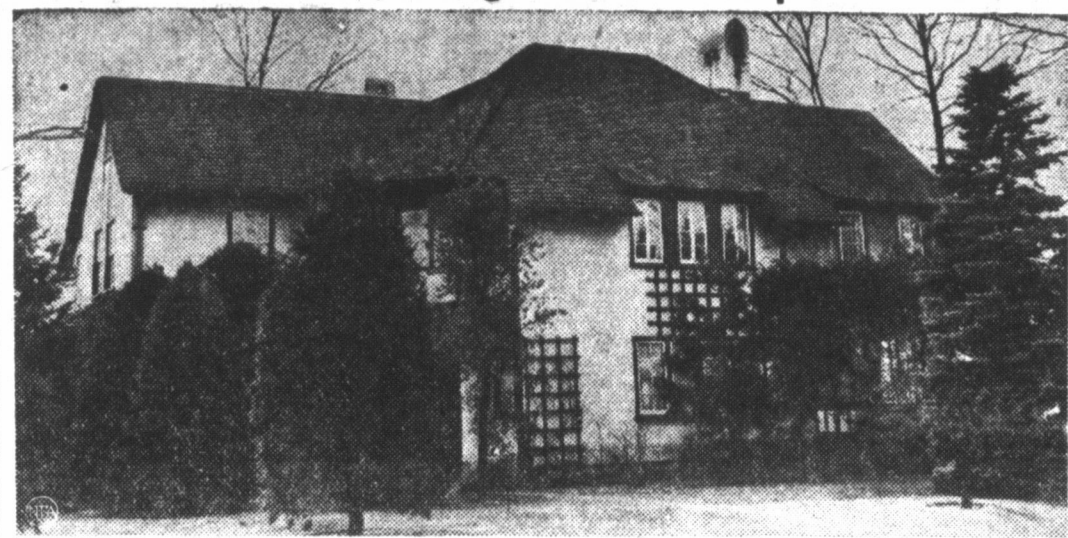

Khodjajeff said the middle Asian nationalists resented Joseph Stalin's stand against self-sufficiency for Uzbekistan. He said he and Akmal Ikramoff, former political boss of the Uzbek republic and also a defendant, wanted to reduce the growing cotton its chief product, and to emphasize industry and grain production in the first five year plan.

Today's first witness, V. P. Sharaf, said he and Akmal Ikramoff, former political boss of the Uzbek republic and also a defendant, wanted to reduce the growing cotton its chief product, and to emphasize industry and grain production in the first five year plan.

Father Seeks Meeting With Kidnapers

Pleading for a chance to negotiate with kidnapers of his son, Murray Levine, left, prosperous lawyer, asked federal and local authorities not to interfere, and requested newspaper men and friends to remain away from his New Rochelle, N. Y., home, pictured above. The kidnaped lad, blue-eyed, 12-year-old Peter Levine, right, reportedly held for $60,000 ransom, was last seen as he left school to return to his home.

TWO TRUSTEES TO BE NAMED

Two trustees, to serve three years each, will be elected by qualified voters of the Pampa Independent school district on Saturday, April 2, according to a notice posted today by C. P. Buckler, secretary of the board.

Retiring trustees are Roger McConnell and L. L. McCole, named three weeks ago to fill out the unexpired term of Tom Rose, resigned because of ill health.

The election will be held in the school building with Lee Ledrick, judge, and J. S. Wynne and B. W. Rose, clerks. Polls will be open from 8 a. m. to 7 p. m.

Candidates have until 10 days before election date to file and have names printed on the ballots.

Zog Sisters And Sultan See Sights

WASHINGTON, March 4 (AP)—His Highness the Sultan of Muscat and Oman—that visiting sovereign from the land of the burning sands—encountered the year's coldest weather today, plus royal competition from the touring Albanian princesses.

Undaunted by the unfamiliar frigid blasts, the 27-year-old monarch his raiment about him and kept smilingly to his sight-seeing program.

Government anxiety lest a protocol problem arise—should the Sultan's party and the princesses run into one another unexpectedly—was early dispelled.

The three sisters of King Zog of Albania intended to spend only a few hours in the capital, coming from New York to call on Mrs. Roosevelt at the White House.

The Sultan's schedule took him across the Potomac to inspect Port Myer and be saluted by the impressive booming of 21 guns.

Goodness knows what would have happened had the princesses, Myrtle, Ruthie, and Maxhilde, decided to look over the Fort Myer cavalry at the same hour!

WARD BANDS PLAY TUESDAY

Each of the ward school bands is making elaborate preparation for the intra-city band contest to be held in the high school auditorium Tuesday evening, March 8 at 7:30 o'clock. The program is as follows:

Baker school band under direction of Wilmer Postma will play overture, "Bright Star," Bennett; march, "Phil and Dot," Fillmore; overture, "Ambition," Bennett; march, "Activity," Bennett.

Woodrow Wilson band, under direction of Herman Trig, will play overture, "Bright Star," Bennett; march, "Zenith," Bennett; overture, "Yore," Bennett; march, "Headway," Bennett.

Sam Houston band, under direction of Kenneth F. Bennett, will play overture, "Bright Star," Bennett; march, "Normal," Bennett; waltz, "Chalma," Bennett; overture, "Saskatchewan," G. E. Holmes.

The winning band will be awarded a large banner of green and gold to adorn the band room's wall, Monday night the high school and junior high school bands will play a concert. The tickets are now on sale. The season tickets are 25 cents for adults and are good for both nights while the students' tickets are good for only one night and sell for 15 cents.

OSBORNE SHIPS 55 CATTLE TO STOCK SHOWS

Fifty-five head of Prince Domino Herefords, owned and bred by J. P. Osborne at his farm in Roberts county northeast of Pampa, were en route today to two Texas livestock shows where they will be exhibited.

The first stop-over will be in Amarillo next week for the livestock show there. Then the blue-blooded aristocrats will be billed to Fort Worth for the livestock exposition and fat stock show.

None of the top herd of white-faces owned by the Combs-Werley interests will be exhibited at the Tri-State Fair stock show in Amarillo, Albert Combs announced today.

"We plan to send several head of stock to the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show," Mr. Combs said. "The loading and unloading of the stock affects the stock and we have therefore decided to send our entries to Fort Worth."

Most of the 55 animals will be for sale. Five of the top animals will be reserved for fall showing. All of the bulls and heifers were sired by Junior Prince Domino 4th and Prince Domino 10th whose bull calves averaged over $600 each the past two seasons.

Among the 55 animals in the shipment are Beau Prince Domino 6th, eight months old, and Donna Anna 72nd, nine-month old heifer, which will be exhibited as a pair of calves at Fort Worth.

None of the 55 Herefords were on display or were up for sale when Mr. Osborne held his annual sale last fall. That sale has gone down into Hereford history as the second most successful sale in the nation. The average for the sale was the second highest in the United States for an individual breeder. The average was the highest in Texas and the southwest in its class.

ANN COOPER HEWITT GAY SEEKS DIVORCE

SAN FRANCISCO, March 4 (AP)—Blaming "differences in rearing" for their inability to get along together, heiress Ann Cooper Hewitt Gay today sought a divorce from her husband of four months, Ronald M. Gay, a garage man.

Her complaint, filed yesterday, charged that Gay had caused her "grievous mental suffering." They were married October 8, 1937, at Grants Pass, Ore., and separated in February of this year.

Famous Expert Will Teach Bridge School; Scouts Will Benefit

Pampa bridge players and would-be players will welcome this news—and, so will the Adobe Walls Area Boy Scouts.

Beginning Monday, March 14, the Pampa Boy Scout finance committee and The Pampa Daily NEWS jointly will sponsor Pampa's first school for contract bridge in the City Club rooms of City Hall.

W. F. Rufus Steele, author of several books on bridge and a representative of the National Bridge congress, which makes the laws of the game, will teach the game here.

Mr. Steele has just closed a highly successful school in Amarillo. The idea to bring Mr. Steele to Pampa originated with Ben Guill, member of the Cabot company personnel department. Mr. Guill is one of more than 100 men selected to conduct the Boy Scout Fund drive for $4,000 in Pampa next Monday.

He decided upon the bridge school as his means of raising money for the fund. The Boy Scout fund will receive 40 per cent of the first $100 taken in at the school, and 50 per cent of all profits over that amount. Mr. Guill figures the Scouts share of the fund should amount to between $200 and $300.

The bridge school will run from Monday thru Friday with sessions both afternoon and evening. The cost of the entire course will be only $2.

Classes will be held at 2 p. m. and 8 p. m. daily. The afternoon lessons will be repeated in the evening, and there will be new lessons each day.

Persons attending the afternoon sessions may return in the evenings at no extra cost but they are asked to relinquish their regular posts at the tables and to bring an extra chair where they may become a "fifth" at any one table merely as an observer.

Mr. Steele, who was in Pampa yesterday, said advanced players and beginners could profit alike by attending the school.

"It is the hope of the National Bridge conference," he said, "to make it possible for all the clubs of

PLAY WILL BE GIVEN TONIGHT

The high school auditorium was packed almost to capacity last night for the initial presentation of "Her Step Husband," high school play. The audience laughed almost constantly at the amusing situations and lines in the farce.

The comedy will be presented again tonight at the same time, 8 o'clock. Proceeds of the play will be used to help defray expenses of the Seniors to Carlsbad cavern this spring.

Members of the cast are as follows: The step-husband, Junior Williams; the real husband, Howard Jensen; the wife, Katherine Barrett; the rich aunt, Mattie Brown; the step-husband's fiancée, Donn Gay Watson; the maid, Jennette Cole; the neighbor, Leona Hurst; the crook, John Henry Nelson; the policeman, Jack Hassey; stage manager, Jack Cunningham; property committee, Hazel Bath and Elizabeth Mullinax; Lois Foster, Elizabeth.

The play, directed by Kenneth Carman, was hailed as one of the most enjoyable ever presented by the school. "Every one did good," was the usual comment.

GRANDFATHER SAVES 3 GRANDCHILDREN, DIES

ELIZABETHTOWN, N. Y., March 4 (AP)—A grandfather who tossed his three small grandchildren to safety from a second story window perished today when fire destroyed his home here.

The charred body of the victim, Gusman Parker, 60, later was recovered from the ruins.

DAMAGES WILL TOTAL ABOUT TEN MILLIONS

LOS ANGELES, March 4 (AP)—Seventy-four bodies were recovered from Southern California's flood disaster up to 9:30 a. m. today, and 53 had been identified.

Some estimates indicated the death toll might reach 200. The most severely stricken areas still were isolated. There were definite reports of 31 missing in addition to the 74 bodies found. These figures did not include estimates from Orange county, where the mad Santa Ana river caused the greatest floods in the area.

Findley Laverty, chief hydraulic engineer of Los Angeles county, warned that flood conditions in all canyon areas would remain near a peak for several days.

Some estimates of damage were as high as $25,000,000, but engineers agreed it would be weeks before a figure could be determined. In Los Angeles city the damage was estimated at $3,000,000.

Swirling yellow flood waters receded as rapidly as they came, leaving a rising fear of disease. The main outfall sewer of Orange county, serving a dozen populous towns, gave way and threatened widespread pollution.

A panorama of mud-covered and wrecked houses, debris-laden highways, washed out bridges, damaged farmlands and torn railway tracks confronted reconstruction crews.

Many movie nobles were caught in the worst storm Southern California has suffered in years.

SCOUT DRIVE TO GO ON AIR

Boy Scouts and Boy Scout leaders will tell Pampans "over the air" Sunday afternoon about the drive to raise $4,000 to continue Boy Scout work in Pampa. The programs will be presented through courtesy of station KPDN between 12:45 and 1 p. m., and between 2:45 and 3 p. m. Sunday afternoon, according to Sid Patterson, manager.

The first program will be presented by radio leaders with Jim Collins as master of ceremonies. Speakers will include Mayor W. A. Bratton, Judge Ivy E. Duncan, Supt. L. L. Stone of Pampa schools, and Odus Mitchell, director of athletics at Pampa high school. If time permits, Boy Scouts will be introduced.

STRIKE DELEGATION CONFERS WITH ALLRED

SAN ANTONIO, March 4 (AP)—Mayor C. K. Quinn conferred in secret session with Governor James V. Allred today about San Antonio's peacemaking strike while strike leaders said they had filed "sensational" charges against operators with the national labor relations board.

J. Austin Beasley, CIO strike leader, announced the charges had been filed.

Included in a delegation that conferred with Gov. Allred on the strike situation were Fire and Police Commissioner Phil Wright, Police Chief Owen Kilday and Julius Seligmann, one of the South's biggest peacemaking operators.

The CIO organizer also said he would submit a proposition for settlement of the strike to the workers tonight or Saturday.

LEVINE SEEKS CONTACT WITH SONS' KIDNAPERS

NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y., March 4 (AP)—A theory came from police today that, unless the kidnapers of young Peter Levine take advantage of assurance that "the way is open" within a day or two, the father, Murray Levine, would urge officers, now on the sidelines, to pursue the abductors.

Levine, a New York attorney, went on the air three times yesterday and made a fourth appeal through the press to the kidnapers to "make contact with me."

BANDS TO MAKE TRIPS TO BORGER, AMARILLO

Pampa high school bands and delegations of Pampa citizens will make goodwill trips to Borger and Amarillo next week. The Junior high school band, under direction of A. C. Cox, will accompany Pampans to Borger Tuesday when that city will observe its 12th birthday.

The High school band, directed by Winston Savage, will be with Pampans in Amarillo, occasion of Mother-in-Law day when Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt will be a guest.

No Pampa floats will be entered in the parades, it was decided yesterday after a delegation of Pampans had inspected the floats in Amarillo. Instead the band and large delegations will make the trips.

The bands will leave from the high school at 8:30 o'clock each morning, by bus. Pampans planning to attend the celebrations are urged to report at the school at the same time.

Trips will be sponsored by the goodwill committees of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and Board of City Development.

GOVERNMENT WILL PAY NEW GRANDSTAND COST

City officials today pointed to a statement in T. R.'s letter published in the Roving Reporter's column yesterday.

City Manager C. L. Stine said some persons had taken in inference from the letter to mean that the city is spending $8,400 for the steel for the grandstand.

The grandstand will cost the city nothing but approximately $300 for drawing new plans. The government is paying the $8,400, Mr. Stine stated.

In fairness to T. R., it is possible, although it was not clear, that he meant the government could appropriate the $8,400 for civic center purposes.

Man Bites Stone, Sues for $1,000 And Gets a Dime

NEW YORK, March 4 (AP)—The crown of the lower right first bicuspid and fracture of the lower left third molar—those were the ills Jake Krivitzin, a tailor, alleged he suffered in encountering a bit of stone in his restaurant soup, and he sued for $1,000.

A municipal court jury awarded him a judgment for 10 cents—price of the soup.

Youth Admits Slaying McKinney Patrolman

GREENVILLE, March 4 (AP)—J. W. Rickman 20-year-old confessed slayer, was taken from the Hunt county jail here today to lead officers to the gravel pit between McElles Collin county, and Hibernia into which he told officers he tossed the gun with which he shot down McKinney's Motorcycle Patrolman Marion Taylor.

Assistant County Attorney Eugene Brady prepared to file five felony charges against Rickman in Hunt county, two alleging hi-jacking and three charging automobile theft. Brady said Rickman probably would be tried during the March term of district court opening Monday.

Sheriff Wolfe of Hunt county said Rickman had been living for two months in southern Hunt county and had confessed hijacking a service station here several weeks ago and the theft of two trucks which he drove to a point near where he lived and abandoned them under a bridge.

Wolfe said Rickman admitted theft of an automobile at Wolfe City Tuesday night and that he slugged Hubert Dodd with a black-jack when Dodd recognized him during robbery of Dodd's filling station a few hours later.

Taylor was shot to death Wednesday night when he sought to question the occupant of a commandeered taxicab.

ONLY TWINS INVITED TO BIRTHDAY PARTY

Everything will be double at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Schlemeyer, 64 North Starweather, Sunday afternoon, when sets of twins alone will be the guests at a birthday party for Veima and Selma Schlemeyer, who will be two years old Saturday.

Already nine sets of twins have accepted invitations to the party, and it is expected that many more will attend.

Invitations will include twins ranging in ages up to 12.

Used Car Exposition to Open Tomorrow

National Used Car Exchange Week will get under way here tomorrow morning as the local phase of a national campaign, sponsored by the automobile industry, to help business.

Opening of the exposition was preceded this afternoon by a parade in which local organizations participated. The parade included a fleet of representative used cars to be offered for sale by local automobile dealers during the period of the campaign, and was headed by the high school band and a police motor escort.

Arrangements have been made so that everything will be in readiness for the opening at the various used car lots and salesrooms at 10 a. m. tomorrow.

Promptly at 10 a. m., simultaneously with the opening of the exposition, automobile dealer used car displays throughout the city will be formally thrown open.

Dealers were preparing to accommodate the largest crowds which have ever turned out for such an event. Frank Culbertson, chairman of the general committee, said that before morning every used car display in the city would be ready for the opening of the campaign.

"Every display has been put in top-notch condition," he said. "Each is identified by a huge 'National Used Car Exchange Week' banner, and each car bears its price label. Dealers will have on hand an adequate staff of salesmen to handle the crowds."

The following Pampa automobile dealers are cooperating in "National Used Car Exchange Week": Tom Rose (Ford), Gullum & Son, Tex Evans Buick Co. Inc., Lewis Pontiac Co., Culbertson-Smalling Chevrolet Co., Hampton & Allen Motor Co. Inc., and the C. B. Gloor Motor Co.

16,482,000 GALLONS OF WATER CONSUMED

Citizens of Pampa last month used 16,482 gallons of water or an average of about 588.51 gallons daily, according to the report of Supt. Andy Crocker filed this morning with City Manager C. L. Stine.

Amount of water pumped last month was slightly less than the production during February 1937. The heavy rain and snow late in the month was responsible for the slight decrease.

CZECH SOUNDS DEFIANT NOTE TO FASCISTS

(By The Associated Press)
Czechoslovakia sounded a defiant note in discordant Europe today while British armament makers clanged a grim accompaniment to Prime Minister Chamberlain's hopeful song of "realistic appeasement."

Chamberlain moved steadily forward in his dicker with Reichsfuehrer Hitler and Premier Mussolini as Alfred Duff Cooper, first lord of the admiralty, disclosed Britain would spend more than $600,000,000 on her navy this year.

With Britain arming at top speed for any eventuality in the accident or orient and with friendship negotiations well under way between London and Rome and London and Berlin, Czechoslovakia's Premier Milan Hodza told a cheering parliament the nation was determined to defend to the utmost its sovereignty.

Before the German reichstag on Feb. 20, Hitler not only asked Britain to return former German colonies but threatened armed "protection" of German minorities in the borders of the reich. Czechoslovakia had considered herself next in line after Austria as an object of attempted Nazification, with all our strength," Hodza declared.

British-German friendship negotiations, started yesterday in Berlin by London's ambassador, Sir Neville Henderson, will be carried a step further next Tuesday when Hitler's new foreign minister, Joachim von Ribbentrop, goes to London to take formal leave from his position there as ambassador.

Moscow's trial of 21 confessed traitors unfolded further with sensational testimony by Fayzulla Khrapaleff, one of the 21, of unsuccessful attempts to invoke British aid to separate Middle Asia from the Soviet union by armed revolt.

Intrigue confessed by the defendants already included plots with Poland, Germany and Japan to wreck and dismember the Soviet union.

Meanwhile, a man accused of acting for the Moscow comintern in attempts to establish a Communist organization in southern Germany died under the guillotine in Berlin.

French Premier Camille Chauvins obtained final passage of his labor code bill today in the senate, ending a six-day parliamentary deadlock which had threatened his government.

Insurgent warplanes scouted eastern Spain today to map a spring offensive while Generalissimo Francisco Franco massed troops to break the lull in the civil war.

Japanese military authorities reported 8,000 Chinese Communists had been crushed in a night attack at Paotch, northwestern Shansi province. Japanese at the same time were driving south through lower Shansi in a vast flanking maneuver against the western end of the Ughai front.

But by the time this picture was taken, Yvonne and Marie, left, were leaning on their shovels, and Cecile, Annette and Emilie were sitting down on a bench, their scoops dropped in the snow, apparently on the theory that any good workman needs plenty of rest.

FDR PRAYS AS HIS 6TH YEAR BEGINS TODAY

WASHINGTON, Mar. 4 (AP)—President Roosevelt's administration began its sixth year today in an atmosphere of unhurried calm—vastly different from the tense, hectic days which followed the 1933 inauguration.

In contrast to the bulging portfolios of emergency legislation rushed through congress during the banking-crisis, the senate and house now are working leisurely on only four major items.

1. Tax revision, including modification of business levies.
2. A billion-dollar naval expansion program.
3. Creation of wage-hour standards.
4. Reorganization of the 135 government agencies.

Furthermore, leaders said they did not expect additional proposals at this session. A forthcoming presidential message probably will recommend a study of monopolies with a view to 1939 revision of the anti-trust laws.
Mr. Roosevelt took note of the anniversary by arranging a special service at historic St. Johns Episcopal church. He invited cabinet members to join him, just as they did on that bleak morning five years ago to "humbly ask the blessing of God in the arduous days ahead."
This time, there was no fanfare.

No crowds braved the raw weather to throng the park between the church and the White House.

The state department—scene of some of the administration's gravest recent problems—recognized the anniversary in a memorandum declaring that "Peace is the cornerstone of the foreign policy of the United States."

The occasion brought no break in the work of Congress, however. Members are plodding along in the hope of an early adjournment so that they can return home to campaign for reelection.

So far the session has produced two major bills, both recommended by the President. One set up a new crop control system to replace the old AAA, and the other relaxed restrictions on federal aid in home building.

In March, 1933, on the other hand, Congress was enacting monetary and banking measures almost at the rate of one a day.

Out of those bustling days, too, grew the first of the New Deal's social and industrial laws—national industrial recovery, agricultural adjustment, securities, bank deposit insurance, Tennessee Valley Authority and other acts. Funds eventually reaching into the billions were authorized.

Both NRA and AAA soon were hauled into court, however, and in the third year of the New Deal the Supreme Court killed them both.

BRITAIN WILL SPEND 600 MILLIONS ON NAVY

By D. W. HANCOCK

LONDON, March 4 (AP)—Mighty Britain, arming at top speed while she dickers for peace with Europe's dictators, will spend over $600,000,000 on her navy this year—not counting a vast construction program which likely will include battleships of more than 35,000 tons.

Details of the building program hinge upon current informal discussions with American and French naval experts on what to do about Japan's refusal to disclose her naval building.

Today's naval estimates were announced by Alfred Duff Cooper, first Lord of the Admiralty, even as Prime Minister Chamberlain laid the ground work for peace talks with Germany's Fuehrer Hitler to parallel those with Italy's Duce, Mussolini.

He set regular estimates at 127,707,000 pounds, or $618,535,000—13,642,000 pounds, or $63,210,000 more than the previous year.

Britain now has two battleships building, and plans were for three more to be begun this year. Britain's navy now has 119,000 men, an increase of 7,000. Today's report said there was planned a "considerable increase" of naval airplanes and fliers and that appropriations to carry on construction of vessels under 1937 or early programs had been increased by 7,895,375 pounds, or $39,476,875.

BRING IN YOUR OLD CAR DRIVE OUT A BETTER CAR EASY TERMS

This Saturday morning begins a nationwide event which this country has never seen before. Thousands of used cars—many of them modern cars with the advanced features the industry has developed in the last few years—go on sale at prices far below those of several months ago. Never has there been a national, co-operative movement like this to make better, more modern transportation available to so many people!
This National Used Car Exchange Week comes at just the right time for used car buyers. The season—the prices and the values are all in your favor. This is the week to bring in your old car and drive out a better car.

A great many 1937, '36 and '35 cars are included in this nation-wide sale. Cars have improved greatly in the last few years. If yours is older, you'll find it a real thrill to drive a car with modern style—bigger, roomier body—luggage space—safety brakes—bigger tires—smoother, more powerful engine—better gas mileage. Many of the dealers are offering their best cars with the finest kind of guarantees. If you are driving an old, unreliable car—one that nags you with repair bills and threatens your safety every time you take it out—this is your great chance to own a safer, more modern car.

Your present car may cover the down-payment, and you can pay the balance on easy terms. If you have no car to trade you can still take advantage of the low down-payments and easy terms during this sale. Go early!—before the best bargains are snapped up. Don't let National Used Car Exchange Week pass without seizing your great opportunity to DRIVE A BETTER CAR!

Tex's Topics

Says a contributor:

New York state has taken a happy step which other states will be following one of these days—the introduction of a bill to curb automobile horns. . . . Anti-noise campaigns are old stuff and they fit into a pattern for cities, but the automobile horn is an old raucous offender wherever the auto may be and as long as the motorist has strength to push the right button—long and hard.

You walk along a city street and are aware of a multitude of sounds, accustomed sounds that form a background for thought and conversation—the whir of tires, the rattle of a cart, the cry of the newsboy, the bustle of unloading vans, the scrape of feet on asphalt.

Stepping through the farmer's barn lot (because no one ever walks country lanes any more) are the rural noises that poets have made idyllic—the moo of bossy, the crackle of corn between the teeth of enthusiastic sheeps, the rustle of the tree by the fence, the murmur of the creek back of the barn. More self-effacing noises, these. They don't intrude, but fall forgetfully into the dim, unheeded corners of the brain where noises should retreat.

Enter the automobile horn. . . . It is two-toned, half-toned, vile-toned, and bad-mannered. It startles, it screams, it rides roughshod over meditation and conversation. It shatters nerves and moods, roughens tempers, starts fights and makes enemies. It breaks sleep, dreams and eardrums. . . . The horn is necessary, you say, a necessary evil. Perhaps, although that's a grudging admission.

But is it necessary for the manufacturers to build them so evilly ingenious? So that by pressing a button the driver loses a thousand green demons which stride your spine with stabbing steps, driving their trident-barbed spears into your brain with gleeful gusto and a twist that sends your brain fibers curling and writhing like a bucketful of black-snakes.

This is a pious plea for moderation in motor horns, uniformity and soothing tones. Let them fit into everyday life like the call of the traffic cop or the whippoorwill. Let them lull or soothe or caress, but don't let them quaver and bellow and screech. . . . Then, if you get run over, you at least haven't been petrified first.

TODAY'S SERMONETTE

God expects His children to use the talents with which He has endowed them and rewards the possessor according to their use. The Master teaching in the story of the talents, that he who fails to use abilities and opportunities given will lose even those he possesses.—Chivers.

THE NON-TAXPAYER IS NON-EXISTENT

Residents of Northern California have been given a 9 per cent reduction in natural gas rates, which will total a saving of $2,000,000 a year. Commenting on this, the San Francisco Chronicle makes a telling observation:

"If it were not for certain increased taxes on the gas companies. . . the saving could have been $1,000,000 more."

"This particular illustration is important merely because it happens to be publicly and officially certified. Practically, the consumers of gas are so numerous that this particular tax passed on to them will amount to very little on any individual bill. But the point is that it is passed on, and that in the case of a public utility the laws of the state require it to be passed on. In other cases the even more immutable laws of economics pass it on. So every consumer of gas or electricity is a taxpayer, even if he never sees a tax collector or personally signs a tax check. . . ."

"We are all taxpayers. What some of us lack is tax consciousness. We think the man who signs the checks pays the tax, and that it makes no difference to the 'non-taxpayer' how high the taxes are. If this 'non-taxpayer' realized that he paid those taxes himself, he might care."

Half the cost of cigarettes, more than half the cost of liquor, a large part of the cost of food, shelter, fuel, clothing and everything else—this is the tribute inexorably demanded by the tax collector. His unseen shadow falls over every commercial transaction, whether it involves a nickel or a million dollars. And you, the consumer, the eater of food, and the wearer of clothing, eventually pay the bill, and in full. No one, unless it be a hermit who never leaves his cave in a remote hill is a "non-taxpayer."

NO HOLIDAY FOR DEATH

Last year accidental deaths in the United States declined 4 per cent from 1936. But there's nothing in that to cause us to throw out our chests—Nature, not man, was the cause of the drop. The mild, cool summer, according to the National Safety Council, was responsible for almost all of the decline, inasmuch as heat deaths were 4,500 below normal.

In fields where man is the governing factor, the death and injury toll, with the exception of home accidents, continued to rise. The greatest killer of all time, the automobile, claimed 4 per cent more victims than it did in 1936, for a total of 39,700. Occupational deaths climbed 6 per cent, to 19,000. The grand total of deaths from all accidental causes was 106,000—with 375,000 persons permanently injured and 9,400,000, 8 per cent of the whole population, temporarily injured. The direct cost of these accidents is estimated to have reached the staggering total of $3,700,000,000.

There is 1937's accident record, expressed in cold figures. It is bad enough looked at that way. It is infinitely worse if you regard it in terms of human values—mutilated bodies, widowed mothers, orphaned children, blinded and crippled individuals, gore and damage. And perhaps the most sombre reflection of all is that 90 per cent of the accidents were in all probability easily preventable—somebody was careless, somebody was ignorant, somebody took a chance, and there was no holiday for death.

Will 1938 repeat this grisly toll of life, health and dollars? It's up to us, all of us, to answer that question through our actions.

TWO PRIMARY REASONS WHY DEMOCRACIES ALWAYS HAVE FAILED

As we see the democracies in Europe making concessions after concession and as we watch the difficulties confronting our own government, it is well to analyze why democracies always have failed. Then, when we really understand why they always have failed, possibly we can devise a method of making democracies practical.

It would seem from history that democracies always failed for two primary reasons.

The first reason is that in the past democracies have invariably attempted to make each individual contribute to the government in proportion to his ability rather than contribute to the needs of society as a whole in proportion to his ability. The people have failed to realize that the government performs only a small fraction of the needs of society, and by attempting to compel each individual to contribute to the government in proportion to his ability, we have diverted his natural

Yesteryear In Pampa

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY

In a meeting characterized by clearcut talks on the county seat election and the railroad project, a large number of Pampa citizens found themselves in entire accord.

More gloves were thrown at the Pampa Athletic club than had been in some time when Kid Granite met Lou Avery, the Russian Lion of Tulsa.

FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY

Scouting in Pampa and the Adobe Walls area was at the highest interest of its history, but at the end of its financial resources.

A saving to Gray county of about $18,000 in interest and 1-3 of principal on paving bonds was being made by the State of Texas thru diversion of the 1-cent gasoline levy.

talents which would enable him to have contributed to the general welfare of society to a much greater extent than by contributing only to the government in proportion to ability to pay.

The second reason is, they have attempted to have each individual contribute to the present general welfare of society at the sacrifice of posterity. This is brought about by an insistence, that those who are rapidly adding to the general wealth of the country, pay wages so that their particular employees might be temporarily benefited at the expense of furnishing better and more efficient tools for the workers of tomorrow.

Aspirations of Practical Democracy

The true aspiration of a practical democracy is an attempt to stimulate and encourage each individual to contribute to the general welfare and to posterity in proportion to his ability and to penalize those who do otherwise.

It is our failure to differentiate between attempting to have the individual contribute to the government, which only furnishes a small fraction of our needs, in proportion to ability rather than to contribute to our general welfare as a whole and to posterity in proportion to ability, that has caused every democracy in the past to fail.

Practical democracy is not a voting majority democracy because majorities never have had the foresight to carry out the fundamental aspirations and principles of democracy. And there is as yet little indication that the foresight of majorities has improved enough to now undertake the establishing of a practical democracy by the voting majority route.

FRANCE'S MINIMUM WAGE LAWS

Those people who strongly believe that wages can be established by law should explain the cause of France sinking lower and lower in her economic life.

They established the 40-hour week with minimum pay and the condition in France certainly is not improved since these laws have been enacted, further restricting free enterprise.

Yet we want to repeat what has been tried many times in the past and now even recently in France and never yet has worked successfully.

The Republican and Democratic parties advocating increasing purchasing power by arbitrary wages, should observe the consequence where it has been tried.

This Is No Time For a Calm Discussion of Taxes

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—I have long since forgotten the errand that took me down to that particular part of Fifth avenue, but I will always remember the ball of black fur that stopped me in front of the little pet shop.

It was a kitten barely 10 weeks old, with a tail like the plume on a cadet's shako, and he was making life miserable for his old mother by nipping at her tail and tramping in her face.

Occasionally when his exuberance got out of hand she would jump up and give him a whipping, but he would always come back, and finally she became resigned to these indignities and chose to disregard him altogether.

I liked his frishness and the way he would scare himself with a fly, and run and hide behind his mother until he got his courage back, and then come jauntily out again.

And so of course I bought him. Who can walk away from a fun-some kitten after watching it frolic for half an hour? As they put him in a box and cut some holes so he could have plenty of fresh air, the sales girl observed, "He's a cute one, but mister he's hell on silk stockings," which was okay with me, seeing as how I don't wear them anyway.

I named him Cajo after the old negro slave in Stephen Vincent Benet's poem about the Civil War, "John Brown's Body," and then began an association that confirmed my previous convictions that all kittens have definite personalities.

For Cajo became a tom cat of strong likes and dislikes. He was a glutton for red salmon but he wouldn't touch pink. He liked lamb and he liked beef, and he liked for his meals to be frequent and tasty. But, being a juvenile he got only two a day, abetted, of course, by many a lapping of warm milk.

How he could rip chair-covers and knock dishes off the table! Let me say here that if you place a value on material things you should avoid cats. They delight in breaking costly china and sharpening their claws on rare upholstery.

But they know how to play. They go till their tongues hang out, till they drop in exhaustion. Then, they sleep. When a kitten doesn't do this, look out. That's how I found out that this one was suddenly and unexplainably ill. A piece of paper on a string held no lure. He wouldn't jump up on the desk and knock over a vase. One moment he was dancing a feline jig and the next he was down in one of those strange and unbreakable seizures.

And so maybe owning kittens isn't such a good idea after all. Not that they aren't worth ten times the money and trouble they cost. They are. But when something happens, it wounds you too deeply. You get too tied-up in the little devils.

People You Know

By ARCHER FULLINGIM

Adults of certain ages are fond of recounting the hardships they had to undergo to get what education they have. Well, kids are just as resourceful nowadays as they ever were. Nothing is a hardship if you like to do it and want to do it. The boys who play football every afternoon for two hours expend more energy than their fathers did in walking five miles to school every day and then doing up the chores.

Only a few of the boys and girls in Pampa high school have an easy time of it. Most of them go to school on a shoe-string. The clothes a boy wears doesn't cut any ice with anybody, because there is, utterly no class distinction. You either can take it or else you are a sissy.

So here is a pat on the back for three boys who measure up to this one's idea of being able to take it as well as being able to dish it out. They are Welby Parish, Truman Rumpie and Arthur Harding. You might as well include Red Watkins in because he runs around with them. The three boys named first lived in the furnace room of the high school. They are all football players and they can take it. They work for their meals in the cafeteria, and they keep their furnace room spic and span. They've been on their own quite a while now, and it's likely they'll continue to be on their own the rest of their lives. Likely as not they'll be needing jobs when school is out so keep them in mind if you have any jobs for deserving boys.

Around Hollywood

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD — The Bartholomew's return to court—this time to ask that daddy's percentage of Freddie's salary be trimmed—doesn't interest Freddie, if you can believe his Aunt Mylicent.

Says she: "He hasn't been concerned about the court troubles since it was settled that he and I wouldn't be separated. . . . When I came in from court yesterday the only question he asked was, 'Was it a hard day, Girlie?'"

By this time, of course, you wouldn't expect a boy to get excited about routine. Freddie's new love is flying. He's done a bit at a dual-control plane, while Aunt Mylicent shuddered but went along. He's grounded now—by studio order, he thinks.

Incidentally, there's a nice story about Freddie and Miles Mander, the English author-actor-director playing his miserly uncle in "Kidnapped." Mander was the first movie director to encourage Aunt Mylicent in her effort to place Freddie in pictures. He played a bit in a Mander film in England when he was six. That encouragement lasted four years—until "Copperfield." And the Earholmeys kept the "Kidnapped" role open until Mander recovered from an illness and could play it.

Bob Bobbing Up

One of the best jobs of salvage in recent times is that done on the career of Robert Taylor. The young man seemed finished after a poor picture and that barrage of Great Lever stuff that marked his cross-country voyage to England. On his return trip there weren't any schoolgirls hiding under his state-room bed. The picture he brought back, "A Yank at Oxford," is clicking hugely—and the athletic, wiry role is helping. This, of course, is the planned objective, but Bob has had no little to do with it himself. His attitude in taking pretty merciless kidding has won friends among the kidders.

Another Survivor

Rudy Vallee is another idol of the femmes who's survived a lot of hecking and, apparently, won a scunder foundation of popularity.

Asked him the other day, on "The Cold Dancers of Paris" set, of his thought the judicious use of his good right arm on several he-hecked occasions was responsible.

He thought not.

"The only thing that's mattered," he said, "is what has gone into the microphone. I've been fortunate in being able to keep the music coming the way a number of people like it—and that's what really counts."

Pershing's Heart Causes Anxiety

TUCSON, Ariz., March 4 (AP)—The condition of Gen. John J. Pershing's heart remained today at the only grave factor in an illness from which he is making apparent steady recovery.

Dr. Roland Davison tempered his report of "satisfactory progress" with the statement that "the condition of his heart still gives us some concern, but at present it is apparently meeting the demands made upon it."

Blood examinations, Dr. Davison announced, showed that uremic poisoning was subsiding.

The 77-year-old world war commander, critically ill since February 15, felt so strong last night that he wanted his clothing and to read newspapers, but physicians paid little heed to his requests.

Cranium Crackers

(In this series of Cranium Crackers with a court room query, unusual local statutes may alter slightly the legal decisions given.)

Smith rented an office building to Jones for a year at $350 per month. The lease expressly provided that Jones should not assign his lease to anyone.

In spite of the clause, a month later Jones assigned the whole leasehold interest in the property to Brown. Before this assignment was made Smith was told about it, but he made no objection.

Thereafter no rent was paid to Smith and he sued both Jones and Brown and sought to recover the full amount of the balance due for rent from both of them.

Jones defended on the ground that he assigned his interest in the lease to Brown without any objection from Smith.

Brown defended on the ground that the assignment was improper and invalid because it was contrary to the terms of the lease, and that he had no contract with Smith; that if he owed anyone it was Jones, not Smith.

Behind the Scenes In Washington

By RODNEY DUTCHER, Pampa Daily News Washington Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—Despite professed assurance of the navy admirals and their dear friend, President Roosevelt, as to the superiority of battleships over airplanes as a defense weapon, naval officers know perfectly well that it will take a real war to decide the argument.

Both the navy and the army have secret reports and surveys from which anyone privy to them could prove practically anything. The army thinks the battleship is more vulnerable to aerial attack than the navy does, but even the navy men are loath to admit privately that no one can tell how successfully modern bombing planes can operate against modern battleships until they are set against each other in the "next war."

Anti-aircraft guns of ships can hit a plane now almost as easily as a gunner in a plane can hit a ship. Confidential reports in the Navy Department venture the guess that in any major aerial engagement in which both battleships and planes figured, about two-thirds of the flyers on both sides would be killed.

Battleships Tough

THE army thinks a battleship or other object should be bombed from a plane flying horizontally and has developed bombs which function that way. It's the safest method. But the navy sticks to the old theory that diving planes at a battleship. The increasing thunder of a diving plane loaded with bombs is unlike any other anti-aircraft gunners, even though a closer target is offered them.

Battleships make tough targets because their decks are so heavily armored, whereas cruisers are easy prey for aerial bombs. Concussion from bombs dropped alongside a battleship, it's agreed, is a much greater hazard than the likely effect of a direct hit.

No More Rabbits

THE running debate of intertwined issues of foreign policy, naval expansion, neutrality, war and peace is developing into the most honest non-partisan congressional argument of recent years.

Suddenly one finds some former staunch administration supporters as Senator Robert M. LaFollette, who now defies the White House by seeking an amendment requiring referendum of war; Congressman Maury Maverick, outstanding progressive leader in the House, and Dr. Charles A. Beard, dean of American historians, bitterly attacking the administration. These three, incidentally, all supported the President's Supreme Court plan.

"We are meddling in foreign affairs, or beginning to do it, because we are muddled here at home," says Maverick. "Now we Democrats have got to admit we are floundering. The reason for all this battleship and war frenzy is coming out: We have pulled all the rabbits out of the hat and there are no more rabbits. The Republicans need not rejoice, because they never even had any rabbits—or any ideas."

"The truth of the matter is that at the present time we are a confused, bewildered mass of people, and we are not delivering the goods. The Democratic administration is getting down into the condition in which Mr. Hoover found himself."

Problems of Our Own

THESE are strange words from a belligerent New Dealer. Dr. Beard speaks in the same vein when he says:

"All this war and big navy talk at Washington heavily blankets discussion on general American problems—unemployment, farm tenancy, wages and hours, taxation, housing, labor relations and other matters connected with a decent civilization in this country. How dare we chatter so much about the behavior of others when our own is so open to criticism?"

How's Your Health?

By IAGO GALDSTON, M.D.

Dr. Richard C. Cabot, professor emeritus of clinical medicine at Harvard, describes the wisdom of the human body under the headings of reserve, balance, compensation and defense.

The reserves of the human body are enormous. Sizeable portions of the functional tissues of the kidneys, liver of lungs may be lost or destroyed and yet the body can carry on effectively.

Dr. Cabot tells of a 65-year-old man who had "never been sick." He was killed by an automobile and an autopsy revealed that he had pulmonary tuberculosis, widespread arteriosclerosis (hardening of the arteries), cirrhosis of the liver and a considerable degree of chronic nephritis (kidney disease).

Balance, Dr. Cabot points out, is perhaps best seen in the body's capacity to keep very close to neutral in its acid-alkali reactions. The combination of the balances of temperatures, of various chemical elements entering and leaving the body, of water and of the total reaction of the body constitutes our health.

Dr. Cabot tells of "a little boy with infantile paralysis who could not use his legs at all, but had learned to walk on his hands in school. He was happy and proud about it and would show off, walking on his hands and with his legs folded up behind his head."

The arms of this little boy grew enormously. They were twice as big as an ordinary boy's arms and the lad later sat in the pitcher's box of the school's baseball field and pitched swift, curved balls.

The body's defense mechanisms are numerous. Dr. Cabot cites, in illustration of the body's wisdom, the stiffness, soreness and swelling which follow the spraining of a joint. These reactions produce an internal splint between the surgeon puts on an external one.

Appreciation of the wisdom of the human body, Dr. Cabot believes, adds to the patient's confidence, and such confidence "is one of the greatest things that our patients need in organic as well as functional diseases."

We should refrain from interfering with the body's operations by unskilled and unwise self-treatment. Where the wisdom of the human body fails, large knowledge is required to amend it.

So They Say

Hereford Will Be Hostess at Meeting Of Catholic Women

About 120 ladies attended the district meeting of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women held this week at St. Francis, which included representation from Amarillo, Borger, Canadian, Childress, Dalhart, Groom, Happy, Tula, Hereford, Pampa, Panhandle, St. Francis, Wellington, and White Deer.

Also present were the following clergy: His Excellency, Most Rev. Robert E. Lucey, D. D., Bishop of Amarillo, Very Rev. Jos. F. Wonderly of Pampa, Rev. Fathers Charles A. Knapp of Pampa, Andrew Quante of Borger, James Daly of Childress and Wellington, U. J. Landoll of Dalhart, A. A. Boeding of Groom, R. M. Schindler of Happy and Tula, John Shadd and Nathaniel Madden of Hereford, John Sealinge of St. Francis, J. A. Zantz of White Deer, W. Washila and Thomas J. Drury of Sacred Heart cathedral, Amarillo.

Greetings were extended by Mrs. J. J. Lane, of Amarillo, president of the Diocesan council, who told briefly of the work and progress in the other three districts whose semi-annual meetings had taken place the previous week. At this meeting, as at other district meetings, a resolution was put through to sponsor a movement for clean literature and a committee was appointed for this purpose.

Following the business meeting a paper written by Mrs. Hugh Cypher of Borger and read by Mrs. Lynn Boyd of Pampa on the "Papal Peace Program" was presented. Bishop Lucey then addressed the meeting in a most inspiring and informative talk on the international situation.

After luncheon, which was served by the ladies of St. Francis to the 134 guests, an open forum was held covering legislation, the discussion of which was led by Mrs. Charles Jones of Wellington; then clean literature and radio were led respectively by Mrs. J. J. Lane and Mrs. Walker Barlow of Amarillo.

Father Drury of Amarillo, moderator of the Diocesan Council, also took part in the open forum. An invitation from the pastor and ladies of Hereford to hold the semi-annual fall meeting at that place was unanimously accepted.

Miss Sessions Directs Assembly Program At Sam Houston

Miss Tidie Sessions, third grade instructor at Sam Houston school, presented the assembly program at the school on Wednesday morning. Opening with a duet by two third grade pupils, Billie Cree, coronet, and Kenneth Hobbs, baritone, the program was continued with a reading, "Miss Patsey," by Mrs. L. D. Fagan, a patron of the school.

"The Trial of March" was presented by third grade pupils including Billie Speer as the judge; Dell Scott, the plaintiff; Charlie Duenkel, lawyer for the people; Lyman Osborne, lawyer for March; Leon Meason, boy with a torn kite; Paullette Traywick, child with a torn umbrella; Mary Lou Lane, a lady with an Easter hat; Norma Jean Stephens, sailor; Billie Cree, Dutchman; Norma Jean Ward, colored washwoman; Billie Searle, spring; Art J. Berry, David Levine, Dorothy Louise Riley, Dawn Stine, Floyd Brandt, Neal Webb, Jasper Rugg, and Billie Joe Johnson, jurors.

Bonnie Nell McBee, a pupil in Miss Hazel Wilson's fifth grade, played several parts in the play. Brief remarks by Miss Sessions on Sam Houston, Sam Houston's home at Huntsville, and the museum there preceded three patriotic talks by Billie Speer on "Independence Day" showing the six flags under which Texas has been; Kenneth Hobbs, "Washington on the Brazos," a state park; and L. E. Smith, "Pampa and the Panhandle." All three are third grade pupils.

These talks were followed immediately by a sing song of the school song, "Texas Our Texas," and "Beautiful Texas," by the audience under the direction of Miss Julia Giddens and members of her Elue and Gold girl chorus accompanied by Mrs. John Bradley at the piano.

Numbers by the school band in the blue and gold uniforms, under the direction of Oscar Croon, preceded a piano solo by Mary Lynn Schoolfield from the high school.

A rhythm number, "The Swing," by Miss Sessions's room followed. Three steps, walking, running, and sliding were used by the three groups of students. Group one included Joe Beth Henderson, Modine

Mrs. Alta Stanard was hostess to group three with Miss Dorothy Southard as co-hostess.

A song, "Bring Them In," and a prayer by Mrs. Charles Thomas opened the program. Mrs. Thomas also gave the devotional from Psalm 23 and Mrs. De Lea Vicars presented the lesson on "Winning Souls."

Thirteen members, one new member, and one visitor attended this meeting. Group four met in the home of Mrs. H. D. Siskal with Mrs. Bruce Cobb, Ed Johnson, and J. E. Seitz as co-hostesses.

The singing of "What a Friend We Have in Jesus" and a prayer and devotional by Mrs. D. C. Hank introduced this program.

"Why Study Other Religions," the lesson subject, was discussed by Mrs. C. Fahy. Other topics presented were "At Work Among Hindus," Mrs. Buri Graham; "Jainism and Sikhism," Mrs. G. H. Kuepker; and "Euddism," Mrs. John Beverly. An accordion solo was played by Tracy Cary to close the program.

Mrs. Ward Hostess To Members of Circle Six of WMS

Circle six of the Woman's Missionary society of the First Methodist church met in the home of Mrs. E. V. Ward Wednesday afternoon for a program which was opened with a song and the devotional by Mrs. Leo Smith.

Following a short business meeting, a program dealing with the beginning of missionary work by women in China was presented by Mrs. Carlotta Nance, Dale Followell, and Herman Van Sickle.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. W. G. Crawford, Bob Ewing, Dale Followell, Russell Kennedy, H. M. Martin, Carlotta Nance, Leo Smith, William Tinsley, Herman Van Sickle, Campbell White, and two new members, Mrs. Clyde Lively and Mrs. Boring.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. W. G. Crawford, 412 North Sloan street, on Wednesday, March 9. The social meeting of the month is to be given March 15 with Mrs. Campbell White, 457 Yeager street, as hostess.

Mrs. Weis Hostess To Magazine Club

HIGGINS, March 4—The Magazine club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. B. Weis when references to "Nature" were emphasized in answer to roll call.

Mrs. A. L. Winsett read "Laughter in Madrid" and Mrs. E. T. Ward, "Restoration of Mount Vernon." Mrs. A. Bissard discussed "Queer Cargo of the Air."

Mrs. J. R. Wassell was a special guest and the following members were present: Mesdames A. M. Winsett, Frank Ewing, L. D. Shaw, C. H. Hyde, Roy Landers, E. M. Congdon, E. B. Roberts, C. S. Newcomer, E. C. Gray, J. N. Millhollon, J. G. Richards, C. R. Patton and B. C. Hurn.

Mrs. A. M. Winsett will be hostess at the next meeting.

Popular Beauty

Mrs. L. W. Robert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Walker, is the wife of the Secretary-Treasurer of the Democratic National Committee. Her charm, beauty and wit make her one of the most popular women in Washington. She has lovely, long blonde hair, grey eyes, and a clear, healthy complexion. She keeps this look of health by riding on the bridge paths of Washington and on her farm in Maryland. Mrs. Robert is happiest of all in riding clothes and has been known to go through afternoons of teas and receptions in her well-tailored jophurs and plaid coat.

For Crisp Doughnuts

When making crullers or doughnuts or any batter which is to be fried in deep fat, be sure to measure the ingredients very accurately. A dough that contains a little too much shortening or sugar may absorb an excess of fat during the cooking process and make your finished product unappetizingly greasy and indigestible.

Auxiliary Women Select Committees For Church Year

Committees for the new year were appointed in the business session at the meeting of the Women's auxiliary of the First Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon in the church annex.

Those selected were Mrs. W. S. Dixon, Robert Boshen, and F. C. Wilson, program; Mrs. John Andrews, L. L. McColm, and A. D. Hills, finance; Mrs. E. O. Sneed, H. F. Dirksen, H. P. Larsh, and Harry Lyman membership; Mrs. J. C. Richey, R. F. Dirksen, flowers and gifts; Mrs. Jim White, E. M. Donnell, welfare; Mrs. Dick Walker and P. C. Ledrick, supper; and Mrs. J. M. McDonald and Jim White, house.

Mrs. W. S. Dixon was elected as a delegate to the Presbyterial at Canadian on March 22 and 23. A number of other members will attend also.

Several members are wanted to assist with the religious census to be conducted by all churches in town.

Plans were made to serve a supper on Monday, March 7, to the members of the A Cappella choir from Trinity university which will give a concert at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon at the high school.

During the program, Mrs. George Briggs conducted the Bible study hour on Saul, the first king of the Israelites.

Mrs. E. M. Donnell and J. T. Elliott, hostess for the afternoon, served refreshments to 29 members and two guests.

Two H. D. Clubs Plan Carnival To Be Given at LeFors

Plans were made at an all-day meeting in the home of Mrs. P. F. Blankenship, Kingsmill Home Demonstration club member this week by the Kingsmill and Wright Home Demonstration clubs for a carnival March 12 to be held in the LeFors gymnasium to raise funds for the joint clubs.

After the buffet luncheon was arranged and served in a St. Patrick motif, a short business meeting was held in which recipes of the days' menu were given by Mrs. J. R. Combs, O. G. Smith, S. E. Elkins, and Carl Moot. Table arrangements were discussed by Mrs. A. R. Walberg.

Games, cook food sales for the carnival, and entertainment for the evening of fun were planned.

A call meeting was announced for Monday, March 7, in the home of Mrs. E. R. Sunkel to make gifts to be used as Bingo and other prizes for the evening.

Refreshments were served to 10 members and five visiting members, Mrs. F. P. Boyd, Robert Vaughn, John Kelley, Marion Johnson, and Hubert Ayers, members of the Wright club.

Officers Installed In Candle Service

Mrs. C. Gordon Bayless presided at the candlelight installation of officers at the luncheon given by the Alathcan class of the First Baptist church yesterday afternoon at the church.

The business session, which preceded the installation service, was conducted by Mrs. C. W. Windom. Officers installed were Mrs. John Bailey, president; Mrs. P. O. Gault, first vice-president; Mrs. L. H. Simpson, class minister; Mrs. W. B. Pearce, social chairman; Mrs. C. W. Windom, stewardship; and Mrs. Easkell Dill, secretary.

A prayer by Mrs. R. L. Young closed the program.

Attending were Mrs. Haskell Dill, Raymond Shultz, T. J. Worrell, C. G. Eubank, Eddie Gray, A. C. Crawford, A. L. Carter, D. G. Eason, R. L. Young, Bob Sidwell, P. O. Gault, Alvin Bell, L. H. Simpson, L. L. Allen, A. H. McPeak, Charles Miller, C. W. Windom.

HIGGINS, March 4—A large crowd attended the P. T. A. meeting Tuesday night at the high school auditorium when the school band, directed by Duane Fuqua, and the grade school chorus, under the supervision of Miss Mildred Certain, afforded entertainment enthusiastically received.

Mrs. C. S. Carmichael, president, presided, and Mrs. Lillian Vial, acting as secretary, Supt. R. L. Snider gave the invocation.

Roy Landers, director for the evening, introduced Boone Tyson who spoke on "Why Boys Leave Home" and Rev. H. L. Barnett discussed "Education of Spiritual Value." Supt. Stephens of the Miami schools also talked briefly.

During the business session it was agreed to use $200, the amount on hand in the treasury, for the purchase of band uniforms. The nominating committee name includes Mesdames Gomer Lewis, LeRoy McAdoo and C. A. Slack.

Plans for Spring Activities Made by Council of Clubs

At the meeting of the Council of Clubs yesterday morning in the city club rooms, Dr. R. A. Webb spoke to the 24 members present on the ways in which the clubs may assist in stamping out syphilis.

The doctor pointed out that the clubs can help keep the subject before the public and urge all club members to take the tests.

A publicity committee, including Mrs. C. O. Wilson, N. F. Maddux, and R. S. Lawrence, was appointed at the meeting.

Each club told that it had voted to cooperate with the council in any steps that it takes.

The recreation committee reported that it had corresponded with the National Recreation association which had promised to send a regional worker to Pampa in two or three weeks.

Mrs. J. B. Massa announced that the Beta Epsilon Psi sorority would sponsor a show, "William Powell in 'Barnes and the Butler,'" at the LaNora on March 18 and 19.

Mrs. C. S. Carmichael, president, presided, and Mrs. Lillian Vial, acting as secretary, Supt. R. L. Snider gave the invocation.

Roy Landers, director for the evening, introduced Boone Tyson who spoke on "Why Boys Leave Home" and Rev. H. L. Barnett discussed "Education of Spiritual Value." Supt. Stephens of the Miami schools also talked briefly.

DEPENDABILITY IN MEN . . . and Coffee

Loyalty, dependability and devotion to their duty are qualities inseparably associated with the cowboys of the Southwest. Dependability counts for a lot, too, where coffee is concerned—and that quality in Admiration Coffee has long been a matter of pride with its roasters. You know that every can or package of Admiration is just as good as the one before it—fresh, fragrant and delicious. There's a zip and a sparkle to Admiration Coffee that's hard to beat. Try a can today.

It's of those Texas cowboys, a story I'll tell, No name I mention though in Texas they do dwell. Go find them where you will, they are all so very brave, And when in good society they seldom misbehave. When the fall work is all over in the line-camp they'll be found, For they have to ride those lonesome miles the long winter round; They prove loyal to a comrade, no matter what's to do; And when in love with a fair one they seldom prove untrue. They will ride into the branding pen, a rope within their hands, They will catch them by each forefoot and bring them to the sands; It's altogether in practice with a little bit of sleight, A-rooping Texas cattle, it is their heart's delight. But now comes the rising generation to take the cowboy's place, Likewise the corn-fed granger, with his bold and cheeky face; It's on those plains of Texas a lone buffalo hunter does stand To tell the fate of the cowboy that rode at his right hand. —From THE LONE BUFFALO HUNTER.

Snow White and The Seven Dwarfs is one form of beautiful magic. Fresh figs in cream when there aren't any figs on the trees, golden bantam corn on the cob in March and fresh fish far, far from the briny deep are another, more practical magic. Quick freezing is the magician who produces these and such other miracles as spinach that's as fresh as a daisy, yet ready for instant cooking. It's not so glamorous but simply terrific to mothers of children.

How Fresh Is Fish? Unless you live right beside a garden, the term "fresh" used for vegetables and fruit doesn't mean what it says. How could it? City-bound garden truck must come from the country—by rail, by ship, by bus, and by airplane in some cases. But time elapses between the hour of their picking and their arrival in our city. Then they must be auctioned at the wholesale market. Next they go to a fruit and vegetable jobber who in turn sells them to your local vegetable man. He must display them and wait for you to buy them. So you can see that the word "fresh" has been stretched to cover a multitude of minutes.

Greatly improved methods of quick freezing catch the vegetables and fruits with the dew still on them, and freeze them in that state. From that moment on, no matter how far they travel or how long they wait for you to cook them, their freshness remains practically the same.

Until the moment you thaw them out in your kitchen skillet, they do not change. That is all one of those scientific marvels which limited space here prevents explaining. Cost Is Relative Are these labor-saving and flavor-saving foods expensive? When peas are growing in all the gardens nearby, you will find frosted peas expensive compared to the local peas. But when the winter snows are on the ground and peas must come from distant semi-tropical gardens, you will find the frosted peas cheaper.

In the low tube compartment of your automatic refrigerator, frozen foods keep for three weeks. In an ice refrigerator or in the food storing section of an automatic refrigerator, they will hold up perfectly for 48 hours. In a temperate room without any refrigeration, they will be good for 24 hours.

One look at new spring dance frocks and street dresses is enough to convince any girl that this is no season to be too fat or too flat. Curves are the thing—demure, softly rounded, feminine curves. The ideal figure—spring 1938 style—will be slender-waisted, flat across diaphragm and stomach, high-bosoned. If you have thickened through the middle during winter months, if your diaphragm protrudes or if your chest seems too flat under the intricately molded bodices of some of fashion's newest creations, get busy with exercises to correct the defects.

Bending and stretching routines and variations of the old riding-the-bicycle exercise (this grinds away excess flesh) are wonderful for the waistline. Rolling will slenderize the hips. And to make your bustline firmer, higher and lovelier, do these exercises, recommended by Eleanor Choate Hill, attractive young editor of the new magazine, "YOU." Stand erect with arms raised to shoulder level, elbows bent so that hands are about at chin level. Now press the fist of left hand as hard as possible into the palm of the right, meanwhile making the right put up as much resistance as you can. Reverse and repeat. This should be done at least ten times a day, and, if possible, at the same time every day. "Here is one of the best exercises we've ever heard of and worth the effort if you're serious about raising your breasts," says Mrs. Hill. "Lie flat on your back across the bed with the base of your head on the edge. Raise both arms above your head on a line with your body. Force one arm down toward the floor as far as possible; bring it back. Then force the other arm down. Repeat slowly, five times for each arm.

"In the same position, but with arms down at your sides, swing arms quickly, alternately, in an arc, up over your head, back down toward the floor as far as possible then back to sides. Five times for each arm—in double-quick time."

A touch of alcohol will remove the white spot that a too-hot dish left on your table top. Simply put a few drops of alcohol in the palm of your hand, then moisten fingertips of the other hand and lightly rub the white area. Remember, however, that alcohol itself is a paint remover, so don't apply more than a fraction of a drop at a time—then rub briskly before adding more.

"And They List Her: HOUSEWIFE"

On census report, or tax return, she may be listed only "housewife," while her husband bears the more definite title of "lawyer," or "doctor," or "storekeeper."

But housewife hardly does this wife and mother justice. She is the modern Jill-of-all-trades. Her job includes being dietician, interior decorator, costume designer, gardener, chauffeu—not to mention educator and health authority.

How does she get away with it? She is informed! Just as her husband depends upon business news in this paper, she finds in the advertising pages the latest facts and price quotations on all the materials needed for her various jobs.

Food for the family? Butcher and grocer answer on these pages. . . Curtains, spring dresses for mother and daughter, slip covers? Department store and specialty shop are ready. She has preferences about fuels and milk, dental creams and even motor oil—all determined by her persistent, intelligent reading of advertisements.

That's why, when she is termed officially "housewife," she can run six jobs instead of one, and have time left over for amusement and relaxation. (The advertisements help her here to.)

SCRIPPS DIES ABOARD YACHT AT AGE OF 42

SAN FRANCISCO, March 4 (AP)—Robert P. Scripps, 42, principal stockholder in the Scripps-Howard national newspaper chain, died aboard his yacht off lower California, it was learned here early today.

The publishing executive, who began his newspaper career at the age of 16, died while the yacht, the Novia Del Mar, was anchored off Santa Margarita Island, Lower California.

Coast guard headquarters here was informed that Scripps' body was transferred last Wednesday evening to the Panama Pacific liner Pennsylvania, due to Los Angeles Saturday. The time of his death was not contained in a message from the liner.

Scripps was stricken seriously ill while on a trip to Hawaii last summer, but the cause of his death was not known here.

Confirmation of the death was given in New York City by William W. Hawkins, chairman of the board of Scripps-Howard.

Scripps was the son of the late E. W. Scripps, founder of the newspaper chain which is represented by dailies in many large cities of the United States. He leaves his widow and six children.

Scripps was born in San Diego and at 16 began his career as a reporter and correspondent.

A graduate of Pomona college (Calif.), Scripps became editorial director of the Scripps-Howard and Scripps-McKee newspapers in 1917.

Also in 1917, Scripps married Margaret Lou Culbertson, who survives him together with their children, Robert Faine Jr., Charles Edward, Margaret Ellen, Mackey Elizabeth, Samuel Holsinger, and Edward Wyllis, III.

He was president and treasurer of the E. W. Scripps company; and a director of the Newspaper Enterprise Association Service, the Newspaper Information Service, and of the United Press Association. He also was a trustee of Miami university.

Scripps maintained homes in West Chester, Ohio, and Miramar, San Diego county, Calif.

Control of the Scripps-Howard newspapers is vested in a trust founded by Scripps' father, it was explained today at the general offices of the chain in New York.

During his lifetime, Robert P. Scripps was the sole trustee and as such the controlling stockholder. The trust provided that in the event of his death, the control shall be vested in three trustees.

They are: Roy W. Howard, chairman of the executive committee of all Scripps-Howard corporations; William W. Hawkins, chairman of the board, and George B. Parker, editor-in-chief of the newspaper chain. Howard is the senior trustee.

Twenty-four newspapers constitute the Scripps-Howard chain. They include:

New York World-Telegram, Washington News, Oklahoma City News, Houston Press, Fort Worth Press, El Paso Herald-Post, and Albuquerque State Tribune.

Figured to Win

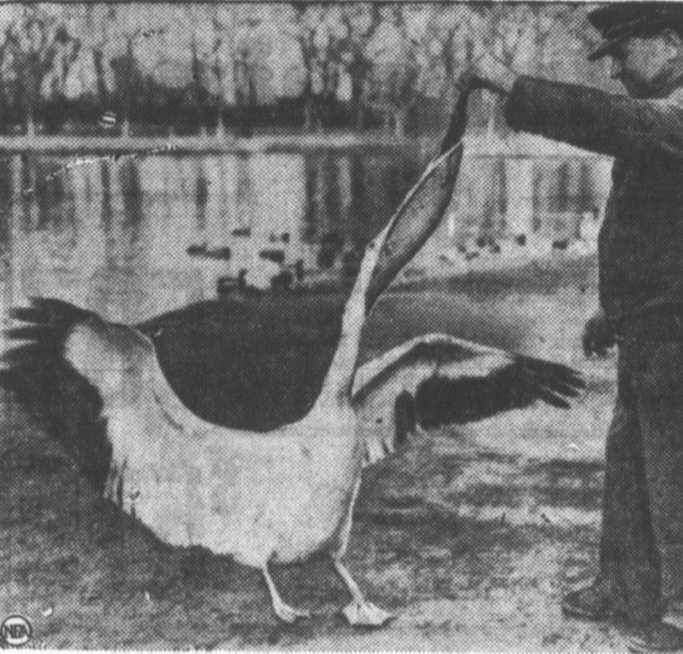

Poised as daintily as a toe-dancer is 13-year-old Gretchen Merrill, of the Boston Skating Club, new national service woman figure skating champion. She beat 19 rivals for the title at the national meet of the U. S. Figure Skating Association at Ardmore, Pa., her first major competition.

Lt. Col. Roosevelt Off for Cuba

Flashing a typical Roosevelt grin—and proving what a versatile fellow he is—James Roosevelt, eldest son and secretary of the President, leaves White House duties behind and boards a marine corps plane in Washington to take part in Army-Navy-Marine Corps maneuvers at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. Jimmy became a lieutenant-colonel in the Marine Corps Reserve in one jump a couple of years ago, and spends some time in training each year, taking time off from a job in which he now rates as a sort of "assistant president."

Pelican Pines, Pouts, Panhandles

Around the Denver Zoo they're whispering that it's all because Pete Pelican pines for a paramour. Whatever the reason, Pete recently put on a pout, ceased digging for food around the Zoo lake and started panhandling menfolk off his keepers, just as he's doing in the photo above. Somewhat piqued with Pete, the keepers are trying to buy him a mate, hoping that when he has a wife to support and no longer feels the pangs of loneliness he will go back to working for a living.

MANUFACTURERS DATA BIASED, SOLON SAYS

WASHINGTON, March 4 (AP)—Chairman La Follette, Progressive, Wis., of the senate civil liberties committee contended yesterday that the National Association of Manufacturers distributed "one-sided information" about the Wagner labor act.

Walter B. Weisenburger, executive vice president of the association, disputed the contention, asserting that information sent out by the association was "not" unfair.

La Follette referred to bulletins distributed by the association to members and affiliates and to posters, which were distributed for factory bulletin boards.

The posters, which contained information designed to inform employees of their rights under the act, were sent out with a letter recommending them to employees as "an ounce of prevention."

"We wanted to give them our opinion on which they could predicate their own decisions," Weisenburger testified.

"The net effect of the poster," La Follette told him, "was to give the employees one-sided information because it failed to reveal that they had certain rights and immunities under the act."

After the supreme court decision upholding the Wagner act, La Follette said.

LIONS' LADIES WILL PRESENT PROGRAM HERE

An innovation in ladies night programs will be introduced in Pampa on St. Patrick's day when the Pampa Lions club has a ladies night banquet at 7:30 p. m. in the basement of the First Methodist church.

The program will be presented by the ladies, with a lady acting as toastmaster, and a lady will also fill the office of Lions tall twister. Mrs. Roy Bourland is chairman of the program committee. An Irish theme will be used.

L. L. McCalm was in charge of the club's program this week, held at noon Thursday in the basement of the First Methodist church. Rev. Robert Boshen, pastor of the Presbyterian church, told why business men should contribute to the Boy Scout movement, in connection with the current drive to raise $4,000 for Scouting here.

Ken Bennett sang two songs, on a burlesque on "The Old Apple Tree." Tom Eckerd, of the Pampa fire department, made a talk on safety.

Attendance at the meeting was 60, including six guests: Ralph Randal of Panhandle, and Sheriff Earl Talley, R. G. Hughes, Clifford Braly, Dan Williams, and W. Postma.

EDUCATOR SEES DANGER IN CHURCH SUBSIDIES

ATLANTIC CITY, March 4 (AP)—Dr. George D. Strayer, professor of education at Columbia university, asserted today use of public funds to help schools operate to churches and religious groups would lead to a breakdown of independent education.

Strayer made the statement in an address prepared for the delivery before the American association of school administrators.

He said he hoped to preclude discussion by the convention of the National Education association on the proposal by President Roosevelt's advisory committee on education that a portion of the Federal school aid be used to help non-public schools.

"If this movement develops sufficient strength," Dr. Strayer said, "we may find ourselves in the not distant future committed to a program which will deny to the people the control of their schools."

"Forty-three states now have constitutions prohibiting the use of public funds for private or sectarian schools. It is a reasonable expectation that attempts will be made to change the constitutions to permit public aid to private and sectarian schools.

"The members of our profession, whatever their religious affiliation, may well consider the danger of thus removing the schools from the control of the people. The failure to maintain the separation of church and state is fraught with grave consequences to all of us."

EXPERTS DISCUSS NEW 'POCKET BATTLESHIPS'

WASHINGTON, March 4 (AP)—Naval experts speculated today on the development of the new type of "Pocket Battleship" as a possible result of the London conversations among representatives of the United States, Great Britain and France.

Bulking somewhere between 10,000 and 17,000 tons, the new craft would be a reply to Japan's secret warship building, particularly as it relates to Britain's defense of her Oriental and South Pacific possessions.

Japan is believed by some authorities to be constructing or contemplating super-cruisers.

"Pocket battleships" were originated by Germany when it was bound by the Versailles treaty not to build warships bulkier than 10,000 tons. Such ships are considered likely to be 15,000-ton mounting ten or twelve-inch guns, designed to raid commerce in wartime, to overwhelm smaller cruisers and to keep out of range of the battleships.

JULIAN CHEATS OFFICERS
PITTSBURGH—Tennessee penitentiary records show that Sellers Julian escaped five times, but he hitch-hiked from Nashville just to go to a Pennsylvania jail.

He waited two hours here for the U. S. marshal's office to open, then pleaded guilty in federal court to operating a still in Pennsylvania and drew a six month's jail term.

He did it, he told officers, so no one could collect the $25 reward offered for his arrest in Tennessee.

PANHANDLE CATTLEMEN DEMAND LOWER RATES

AUSTIN, Tex., March 3 (AP)—Panhandle county representatives, seeking extension of reduced freight rates on feedstuffs, testified current range conditions were worse than ever at a railroad commission hearing here today.

The commission last fall had ordered a 25 per cent reduction on feedstuffs shipped into 39 counties, 15 of which are in the Panhandle and the rest in south Texas extended Jan. 1, the rates expired last Tuesday.

County Judge Noel McCade of Moore county, Frank J. Shaller, cattle-raiser, Canadian, and C. A. Gibner, Hansford county banker, among others, said grass was extremely poor and no relief could be expected until May 1, regardless of rainfall or snow.

Attorneys for railroads, fighting further rate reductions, sought to show some cattle raisers had informed Amarillo newspapers good range conditions obtained for cattle to be exhibited in a fat stock show here next week.

For that shelf on which the wise hostess serves dainties for extra special parties add a kit containing five articles of these each aged in its proper vintage of wine. The cheeses come in handy tubes for making appetizing canapes.

GLENN CUNNINGHAM RUNS FASTEST MILE IN 4:04.4 ON BOARD TRACK

BEATS INDOOR WORLD RECORD BY 4 SECONDS

HANOVER, N. H., March 4. (AP)—Glenn Cunningham's second world record breaking feat in less than a week, a 4:04.4 mile, the fastest ever run indoors or out, today stamped that 28-year-old Kansan as the greatest middle distance runner in board track history.

With the cheers that greeted his cruise of the 1500-meter indoor mark, a 3:48.4 performance, still ringing in his ears, Cunningham came to this little college town last night and found the pre-arranged conditions so ideal that he improved his own indoor world mark, which he made four years ago, by four full seconds.

He was also clocked two seconds under Syd Woodersen's recently approved outdoor record of 4:05.4 but that Britisher's mark will remain in the books until someone runs a faster mile on cinders.

Cunningham, after warming up for three-quarters of an hour on Dartmouth's springy board track, reputed to be about five seconds faster than any other in the world, spotted six of Coach Harry Hillman's green-shirted Indians from five to 600 yards handicaps.

He caught the 260-yarders after running 4 1/2 laps and another half-turn sent him roaring past Wonsen, who was 20 yards back when Glenn crossed the finish line and set off the wildest demonstration that could come from a crowd of less than 4,000 persons, including most of the Dartmouth student body. MacMannis was third, 30 yards behind Wonsen, and the other three Indians too far back to make fair estimates.

Clear Weather For Santa Anita Race Forecast

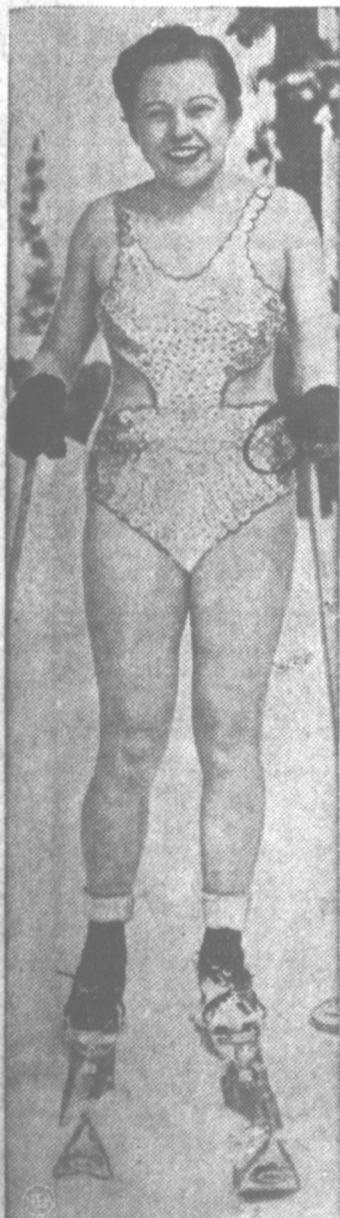

LOS ANGELES, March 4. (AP)—The weatherman gave the $100,000 Santa Anita handicap back to the favorites today as horsemen prepared to name the hopes they will send into the mile and one quarter classic tomorrow.

Entries for the big race were due to be announced today by racing secretary Web Everitt.

Clear weather and a fast track were predicted. The general consensus today, however, before the formal entry list was announced, placed the field at around 15. There seemed to be no two observers who agreed on the complete roster.

Included in the list of possible entries—some definite, others most probable—were: Seabiscuit, Pompoon, Aneroid, Staghound, Scheneshiffer, Indian Broom, Star Shadow, Top Row, Whickee, Time Supply, Amor Brujo, Ligardi, Over The Top, Primulus, Frexo, Gouem, Count Atlas, Sweepalot, Today and Woodberry.

Little Audra

Audra Twitchell's story is that the Colorado sales tax burned her up so much that she thought a skiing costume made of tax tokens would keep her warm, even out in the snow. Anyway, here's Little Audra, in her suit of 600 tokens, adding to the scenery on the slopes of Pike's Peak.

Baer and Barlund Will Box In Garden Tonight

WRESTLERS WITH COLORFUL BACKGROUNDS COMING HERE

One of the years most colorful wrestling cards will be presented here on Monday night when Promoter Cliff Chambers will show off Basanta Singh, India's contribution to wrestling, George Hartay, ace Hungarian mauler, Slim Hall, a rubber man from Hollywood, Gorilla Poggi, the colorful villain from the Argentine, and Dick Sampson and Bill Venable of the American team.

That is what fans should call a tasty morsel for one evening. And the strange part about the whole thing is that none of the performers are freaks. The rubber man can wrestle with the best of them. In fact, he holds a draw with Poggi since he arrived in the Panhandle last week. It will be his job to exchange holds, etc., with Basanta Singh in the opener of the card at 8 o'clock sharp.

Old time Pampa wrestling fans will remember Masanta Singh. He has just returned from India where he spent the last three years. He has learned many new tricks and is in great shape although he is no youngster. When here before, Singh met Clingman and all the top boys. George Hartay has been given a tough assignment when he tackles Dick Sampson in the semi-final but from all reports the Hungarian can take care of himself. He is reported to be a scientific wrestler with a wonderful knowledge of holds. With Sampson in the ring the battle should be one of get and break holds the clean way.

Anything can happen in the main event with Venable and Poggi in the ring at the same time. Poggi is a roughster and he admits it. Venable likes to think he is a nice boy who has to go wolf because of the opposition.

Sport Sparks

DALLAS, March 4. (AP)—Advance tip: Warmer and warmer are plans for a big open golf tournament in Dallas either in late September or early October. And members of San Antonio's newly founded golf association are stirring the ashes of the long-dead Texas open, hoping to revive it by next winter.

Only eighteen lettermen will return to Centenary's football squad next fall. Most pertinent of all questions asked by the national basketball committee in its questionnaire to representative basketball men is the query: "Is the game too fast for health of the players?"

Schoolboy golfers of Texas will play their annual state tournament over the Cedar Crest course at Dallas, April 12-16. . . . Freckled Earl Stewart of Dallas will defend the Secretary Ralph Baldwin of the Texas Golf association wants it known that public links players are eligible for the state tourney at Colonial club, Fort Worth, May 4-7. . . . Any town can have two many representatives providing they hold a qualifying event to determine local winners and runners-up.

Nominations for the two hardest working college athletes—Bill Dewell of Southern Methodist and B. F. (Beefus) Brayn of Texas. . . . Dewell is the main cog in the Methodist basketball team; sits in on baseball talks and is trying to mince in spring grid training. . . . Brayn, great baseball player, also works on the pole vault daily with hopes of winning the event in the conference meet.

Coach Frank Kimbrough of Hardin-Simmons U. had his first spring grid workout yesterday. . . . Ten returning lettermen will make the Cowboys potent again. . . . The two senior tackles of last year's team, Odie Crowell and Mack Alexander, have signed contracts with the pro Chicago Cardinals. . . . Judges for the East Texas field trials over the club course near Tyler, March 12, will be W. T. Windsor, Akron, Ohio, secretary of the National Pheasant Futurity, and C. C. Stephenson of Holly Springs, Mass.

Note to Texas Aggie footballers: The Southern Methodists recently voted that you are the lads they are most anxious to play next fall. . . . Even Pitt, on the schedule this fall, ran a poor second. . . . Still football conscious, Lockhart's high schoolers will have D. X. Bible down for a talk over mashed potatoes on March 24. Little Mike Cwegro has been named manager of the Abbeville club of the class D Evangeline league.

Veteran Jackie Aiz, one of baseball's grandest warriors, will take over operation of Harlingen's franchise in the new Valley loop. . . . Players will be furnished by the Beaumont ball club. . . . Directors of the Texas-Oklahoma Wolf Hunters' association selected the Smith ranch north of Childress as the site for the fall hunt in October.

New Grappler

GEORGE HARTAY The barrel-chested gent above is Hungary's gift to the wrestling profession, George Hartay. He comes from Bucharest and is said to be one of the finds of the century. He is fast, cunning and strong. Hartay will meet tough opposition in Dick Sampson, a real grappler, in the semi-final. Gorilla Poggi and Bill Venable will be the main event attraction with Basanta Singh, Indian grappler, meeting Slim Hall, the Hollywood rubber man, in the preliminary at 8 o'clock sharp.

AGGIES DEFEAT TEXAS QUINTET

The Baylor Bears, playing second fiddle only to the champion Arkansas Razorbacks, clash with the S. M. U. Mustangs in Dallas tomorrow night in one of the two remaining games in the Southwest conference basketball schedule. Tuesday night the Texas A. & M. cagers play Rice Institute in Houston.

Baylor took their last game with S. M. U. 26-23. Southern Methodist university lost a two-game series to Arkansas 32-26 and 34-26 at Fayetteville, while the Bruins, playing at home, downed Arkansas 54-47. The Aggies clinched at least a tie for fourth place last night by defeating the University of Texas 31-26. If the Aggies can hold down Rice Tuesday night they will have an unclouded title to fourth place.

Last night's victory came in the last 10 minutes of play after the score stood 20-20. Jimmy Clark converted 11 to 14 free throws, six in the final 10 minutes. His points gave him scoring honors. Robert Moters and Willie Tate, Texas players, and Aggie Louis Freiberger made eight points each.

Sabin, McNeill Likely to Play In Title Round

NEW YORK, March 4. (AP)—Meeting in the order assigned them by the tournament committee, Wayne Sabin today plays Frank Bowden and Don McNeill faces Gregory Mangin in the semi-final round of the men's National Indoor Singles tennis championship.

On form, which has held up with admirable consistency in the men's division of the tournament, Sabin and McNeill, seeded No.1 and 2 respectively, should come through to the title round.

By GAYLE TALBOT.

NEW YORK, March 4. (AP)—This is the night when Buddy Baer, the laughing boy, grows up. He fights Gunnar Barlund at the Garden in a 10-round bout that should tell whether Buddy is destined to become a top-flight heavyweight in his own right or continue merely to be Max's favorite brother.

At 23, Buddy is believed to be ready for the big push. His manager, Ansel Hoffman, who piloted Maxie to a hilarious tenure of the heavyweight throne, thinks he has fallen heir to another champion and the consequent managerial cut of some very juicy purses. It's a captivating thought.

Buddy, who stands over six feet, six inches and is bigger in every way than his illustrious brother, practically forced himself on Hoffman. Back in 1935, when Max was training, more or less, for his championship fight with Jim Braddock, Buddy kept hanging around the camp and sparring with Max, whom he adores.

Those days are over now, though, and it's been noticeable over at Lakewood, N. J., where they've both been training, that Buddy and Max don't work out together any more. Intimates of the camp think Buddy, if he chose, could give the ex-champ a fine lathering. Max fights Tommy Farr a week from tonight in a comeback that figures to be one of the shortest on record.

Though Baer is a slight favorite in the betting, there also is plenty of opinion that Barlund will prove too experienced for him.

TRAINING CAMP BRIEFS

(By The Associated Press) ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—Here's a new reason for watching those Yankees. Manager Joe McCarthy was stopped on the street by a woman fan who flabbergasted him with, "I was down to see those Cardinals yesterday but I'll be back with your team today. Those St. Louis boys have such dirty uniforms."

BATON ROUGE, La.—Don Schroeder, an 18-year-old Brooklyn youth, is the first "find" of the Giant training season. He pitched for the triumphant "Manucses" in the first intrasquad game. Schroeder hails from Erasmus Hall, the school that sent the illustrious Waite Hoyt to the majors.

CLEARWATER, Fla.—Manager Bureleigh Grimes will shepherd the Brooklyn Dodgers into Clearwater today with Van Mungo, Luke Hamlin, Max Butcher, Fred Frankhouse, Waite Hoyt, George Jeffcoat, Babe Phelps and Woody English in the flock. Pitchers Alto Cohen, Jack Kimball, and Walter Signer and catcher Paul Cervinko are already on hand.

JOPLIN, Mo.—Gabby Street, manager of the St. Louis Browns, will leave tonight for San Antonio, Tex., to start his thirty-eighth in season in baseball and his nineteenth straight as a manager, with high hopes. Trades brought 10 players, nine of them from other major league clubs, to the 1937 last-place Browns.

Luisetti Certain To Smash Record

BERKELEY, Calif., March 4. (AP)—Angelo "Hank" Luisetti was considered certain to break the national four-year basketball high scoring record here tonight when the Stanford Indians and California Bears clash for the southern division championship of the Pacific Coast conference.

The lanky, sharp-eyed forward, one of the greatest players the game has ever produced, needs only four points to beat the 1,431 point record scored by Glenn Roberts of Emory-Henry college, Virginia, from 1932 through 1935.

ALLISON GIRLS DEFEATED IN WHEELER TILT

WHEELER, March 4.—Allison's string of more than 30 consecutive victories this year was broken last night when the Conlen-Mobeette All Stars dropped the Rambettes 30 to 27 after the champions had won easily the previous night. The two teams will get together for the third and final game tonight at 8 o'clock in the Wheeler gymnasium. Admission will be 15 and 35 cents.

Pouls, previously unknown to the Allison team, forced ace players from the game to give the All Stars a chance to reap a victory. Only one Allison girl had been fouled from the floor in 29 previous games. On Wednesday night one girl was lost with the big blow coming last night when Ruth Richardson and Virginia Dillon being sent from the game.

Hoster of Mobeette led the scoring parade with 15 points followed by Knight of Conley with eight. Oleta Jones, scoring ace of the Allison team, was guarded so closely that she managed to loop only seven points after breaking away for 35 points the previous night.

Mobeette-Conlen led all the way, although never more than four points separated the teams at any time.

The Allison team, coached by John Peoples, superintendent, will leave Monday for Greenville where they will participate in the state A. A. U. tournament. Panhandle Citizens desiring to help the team financially may send donations to Supt. Peoples at Allison high school.

War Admiral Favored to Win $50,000 Race

MIAMI, Fla., March 4. (AP)—More than a dozen horses will line up tomorrow for the $50,000 added Widener challenge cup but so far as the racing faithful are concerned, there is only one horse in the race and its name is War Admiral.

The odds board is backing the popular choice for the mile-and-a-quarter race, climax of the Miami Jockey club's 40-day meeting at Hialeah park. The outlook today was that the final quotation on Samuel D. Riddle entry, unbeaten in 1937 and in his recent winter debut, would be about 1 to 2, maybe 2 to 5. "The next contender won't figure better than 6 to 1."

Three Undefeated Teams Entered in Cage Meet

The First Size-Up by Grimm

Manager Charley Grimm squats down for a close-up view of Robert Logan's form, as the Chicago Cubs swing into spring training immediately after their arrival at Catalina Island. Logan, a southpaw, spent most of last year with Indianapolis of the American Association, before joining the Cubs at the tag end of the season.

'CONTACT' TO BE THEME OF GRID PRACTICE

The going for more than 75 aspirants for berths on the Harvester football team will become tougher next week, Coach Odus Mitchell and J. C. Frejan announced yesterday as they put their prospects through a long conditioning session at Harvester field. "Contact" will be the theme of workouts next week. When that stage of the practice is reached it is time for coaches to purchase throat soothers in the way of lozenges because the roar "contact" will be heard often.

The "contact" call is usually for blockers to contact their man and stick with him until the "cease fire" signal is given which in the case of Coach Mitchell is a shrill whistle, natural at that. That sticking with a player is one of the essentials of football and this year coaches plan to teach their boys to "get your man and stay with him" so that he can't get away and tackle the ball carrier.

Blocking, tackling, running with the ball and weeding out proceedings will be major activities next week. A few plays will be given so that boys will be able to show whether they are working out in the best position.

"We'll be able to get a line on the best boys next week when the going gets tough," Coach Mitchell remarked yesterday.

AUSTIN, March 4. (AP)—Eight crack basketball teams, survivors of a campaign which started two months ago with more than 1,500 entries, fought viciously here today for the 1938 high school championship of Texas.

Cast in the role of favorites for the interscholastic league finals, which end Saturday night, were three aggregations with spotless season records—in order, John Reagan's brilliant Bulldogs of Houston, Abilene's high-flying Eagles, and Woodrow Wilson's scrappy Wildcats of Dallas.

The Reagan quint fired the opening gun with an assault on the "dark horse" Bailey team, representing one of the state's fastest cage districts. The East Texas section has produced several champions in years past, including the Athens Hornets, titlists four times.

The second afternoon contest saw the Belton Tigers open wide their bag of tricks in an effort to upset the Woodrow Wilson five, expected to blast the mout of the tournament.

First round play was to resume tonight with a clash between Abilene and the Carey Cardinals, defending champions who came back strong in the regional matches after a poor start.

The final initial round contest will test Kingsville's clever Brahmas with Bowie of El Paso, admittedly an "unknown quantity" in the lineup.

Semi-final matches will be played at 10:15 and 11:30 a. m. Saturday. A third-place playoff will start at 7:15 and the championship final at 8:30.

SEASON TO CLOSE.

CHICAGO, March 4. (AP)—Illinois and Indiana will wind up their Big Ten basketball schedules at Champaign tonight, with Indiana after a victory which would give the Hoosiers a tie with Illinois for the season at four victories and eight defeats.
